PREMIER PICKS

JIMONY PAGE & ROBERT PLANT WALKING INTO CLARKSDALE, ATLANTIC/AG

With Led Zeppelin one of the main reasons it exists, Rock radio's been waiting for Walking Into Clarksdale for years. When Jimmy Page and Robert Plant reunited for 1994's Unledded MTV special and 1995's No Quarter album and tour, Zeppelin fans were elated to hear the group acoustically reinterpret classic Led Zeppelin tunes, but longed for the duo to plug in and play some new music. Confident in their renewed relationship, the duo have obliged with Walking, and while the record ranks with Zeppelin's best work, it also stands on its own as vital music for the '90s. The first collection of all-new material from the two since 1979's In Through The Out Door, Page and Plant were joined by their touring rhythm section of Charlie Jones and Michael Lee and recorded the album in 35 days, with Steve Albini (Nirvana) recording. Robert Plant's majestic voice has stood the test of time, and along with the inimitable fretwork of Jimmy Page, the duo have created an album that neither could have made without the other. Try not to lose sight of "Most High," which is reacting everywhere it's being played. Other instant classics include "Shining In The Light" (this week's #4 Most Added song, with 22 signing up), "When The World Was Young," the title track and "Please Read The Letter."

RORSCHACH TEST "SEX," SLIPDISC/MERCURY

If you're looking for a reaction tune, look no farther than "Sex," the first single from Seattle band Rorschach Test. Vocalist James Baker was actually an ordained preacher (no, not that James Baker) until he was cast out of the church for heresy. After meeting guitarist Benjamin Anderson, who had a similar religious upbringing, Rorscach Test was born. Much of their debut album, Unclean, is concerned with elements of religious guilt and social issues. "Sex" is an industrialized remake of the Berlin song, but whereas the original was cheesy '80s pop, the remake is darker and heavier, just like sex in the '90s is. WRCX, WLZR, KAZR and KQWB have had "Sex" before its add date. Now it's your turn.

SPRUNG MONKEY "GET 'EM OUTTA HERE," SURFDOG/HOLLYWOOD

Hollywood is slowly building Rock cred (due in large part to Fastball's gi-normous smash "The Way") and this hip San Diego quintet should help the process. Sprung Monkey was voted Band of the Year three years in a row at the San Diego Music Awards and they have a strong Australian following, thanks to their musical contributions to Taylor Steel's surf films. You might recall the band from the Music For Our Mother Ocean compilations. Here they marry a slinky groove that 311 could get down with, to summer slacker lyrics about seeing "what trouble we could get into." Fuzz guitars pan right and left in the intro... and the fratrock chorus picks up where "Tubthumping" left off. "Get 'Em Outta Here" is catchy and summery and Modern-Active friendly.

THE CONNELLS "CROWN," TYT RECORDS

For over ten years now, North Carolina's The Connells have quietly been churning out infectious, guitar-based Pop/Rock tunes, picking up more fans with each new release and endless road journey. Following a period of R&R - rest and re-evaluation - the band are back with arguably their strongest full-length to date, Still Life, and their shimmering new single, "Crown." Cut from the same hook-filled cloth as their shoulda-been-huge 1993 single, "Slackjawed," "Crown" rolls along at a leisurely pace, showcasing the band's expert songwriting touch, and the delicately soulful voice of Doug MacMillan. Don't let the Modern guy down the street beat you to the punch on this one.

DEPTH TRAX

VAN HALEN "FIRE IN THE HOLE," WARNER BROS.

We don't need to do a hype job here. "Fire In The Hole" is already on 117 finqbers (KEGL, WRXL, WCMF, KSJO, WKLS, WFBQ, WYSP, WDVE) and can be found at 32* Hot Trax. It's been the depth track of choice since VH's 3 was released a few weeks back. Simply put, be there or be late.

OUR LADY PEACE "4 AM." COLUMBIA/CRG

Given the long haul, multi-format performance of "Superman's Dead" and "Clumsy," making room for the tense and emotionally-charged "4 AM" should be a snap. Our Lady Peace has an incredibly powerful motivation behind its music. And on this third volley from Clumsy, a paint peeler guitar solo seals the deal. As heard on DC101 and CFOX.

CAROLINE'S SPINE "WALLFLOWER," HOLLYWOOD

The residuals of the haunting "Sullivan" are just starting to fade away and now the time is right for the follow-up. "Wallflower" starts with an acoustic flavor and then rocks!! The circle is completed as the song winds down with the amps once again turned down. A solid track to pick up where "Sullivan" left off. Already on KFMW, WWBN and KEYJ.

"GO AWAY," A&M

They burst on the scene late last year with their debut single "Give." Now Cold offers "Go Away" as the second track from their self-titled debut. With a sound that can be described as Bush meets NIN, "Go Away" is a heavy, in-your-face rocker. This Jacksonville-based quartet is sure to find a spot on many Active Rock playlists with Modern joining the party as well.

The Tracking Report is weekly national call-out research of 45 Active, Alternative, and Mainstream Rock Radio currents. Titles tested are compiled from submitted client playlists. Results in The Tracking Report are based on interviews conducted with over 400 rock radio listeners across the United States in rated markets. The research is conducted using random digit dialing and music is tested via "song hook" methodology. Respondents must be Active, Alternative, or Mainstream Rock Radio listeners between the ages of 18 and 44. Cluster Groups are determined using music montages to isolate each listener's music preference type. Grade: An index based upon combined MRI, Burn and Unfamiliar Scores. Music Response Index (MRI): Appeal of each song within the indicated sample group on a 0 to 110 scale. Burn: Percent of the indicated sample that claims to be "tired of the song." Unfamiliarity: Percent of the indicated sample reporting "don't know it." Chancellor Signs de Castro & Devine To Five Year Deals Speculation that Jimmy de Castro and Matthew Devine would follow Scott Ginsburg out the door at Chancellor Media ended April 20 with the announcement that Chairman Tom Hicks has inked both execs to new five year employment contracts. de Castro, whose 11 year partnership with Ginsburg ended last week, will continue as Chancellor's COO with expanded responsibilities. Devine will remain as CFO.

Hicks moved quickly to lock up his two senior executives after Ginsburg's shocking exit (fmqb April 20) caused Chancellor's stock to lose approximately 15% of its value in three days. Wall Street responded positively to the news, with Chancellor stock rebounding 3-3/4 on April 20.

Chancellor also announced that it has reached a separation and consultancy agreement with Ginsburg, under which he will resign from the company's Board of Directors.

Ginsburg's departure stemmed from disagreements over his future role in Chancellor, which is expected to expand and diversify into an international media company over the next year. According to media analyst Bear Stearns, Chancellor is "considering substantial changes in its asset mix" that could include rollingin sister Hicks, Muse companies Capstar (small market radio), STC Corp (small market TV), and LIN Television (large market TV), as well as international broadcast investments. Bear Stearns also believes Chancellor is eyeing other radio assets (like Jacor), television companies (such as Pulitzer), and outdoor companies. Chancellor could even acquire or be folded into a major broadcast network. Adding these assets to Chancellor's large market radio holdings and its AMFM radio

Arbitron Discovers Missing Diaries In Winter Book

Arbitron has reprocessed and is reissuing Winter '98 market reports for New York, Los Angeles, Chicago and Nassau-Suffolk after a software error omitted a batch of Phase III diaries. Few stations' ratings were affected by the revised reports. In New York, for example, only three stations' 12+ shares were changed: Market leader WLTW's 6.7 was revised to 6.6, WKTU was dealt a 3.8 instead of a 3.9, and WADO-AM scored a 2.4 instead of the 2.3 figure previously released.

"There was a glitch in our diary scanning software that inadvertently dropped a few diaries in the third phase," Arbitron VP of Communications Thom Mocarsky told fmqb.

The reprocessing put 55 missing diaries back in the New York intab, which totalled 10,476 diaries

Geffen Realigns Modern Rock Promo Dept. Zapin To Lead The Troops; Skolnek, Grant & Burrs Promoted

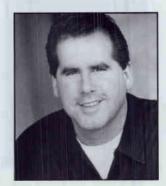

Ross Zapin

Gaby Skolnek

David Grant

Bill Burrs

Geffen Records has reorganized its Modern Rock Department by naming Ross Zapin Head of Modern Rock Promotion. Additionally, Gaby Skolnek becomes Modern Rock Director; David Grant expands his role as Modern Rock Manager; and Bill Burrs takes on the newly created position of Modern Rock/AOR Director-East Coast.

Commenting on Zapin's role as head of the department, Geffen Records Head of Promotion Bob Catania told fmqb, "When I first joined Geffen, I was met by one of the most dynamic promotion executives I had ever come across in Ross Zapin. His outgoing persona and command of the marketplace made him a natural. In his role as East Coast Director of Modern Rock, he quickly developed an amazing grasp of the national scene that set him up perfectly to make a seamless move to run the entire department. On a personal level, I am thrilled to see his hard work and dedication rewarded, and on a professional level, I get to share the L.A. experience with yet another diehard New Yorker."

Remarked Zapin, "I started out at Geffen working with Nirvana; more recently, we've succeeded with Beck and Days Of The New; and we're looking forward to working the new Girls Against Boys. The challenge of my new responsibilities is to make sure we're still headed in the right direction. Keeping in mind the growing power of Alternative radio, we will continue to arm ourselves with the most efficient tools available and fully utilize the exceptional abilities of our staff in order to reach our goals."

Zapin has already relocated from New York to the label's headquarters in L.A. Since 1995 he has been Modern Rock Promotion Director/ East Coast. From 1990 to 1995, he was Promotion Manager for the New York region. He previously worked in concert promotion for Ron Delsener Enterprises and, before that, as Promotion Director at New York AOR WAPP (now Hot 97).

Skolnek, who will remain based in L.A. and while broadening her scope to include radio stations nationwide, became Modern Rock Promotion Director/West Coast in early '97. She entered the music business in '91 as Promotion Coordinator at Morgan Creek Music Group. She joined Geffen two years later, initially serving as an assistant in the AOR department. In '94, Skolnek was named Promotion Manager of Adult Contemporary/NAC/Jazz. She relocated to Seattle to represent Geffen as that region's Promotion Manager in '95

Grant, Modern Rock Promotion Manager since early '97, sees his duties expanded to emphasize commercial Alternative radio; he previously concentrated on college radio. Also based in L.A., Grant was National College Promotion Director from 1995 to 1997. He began at Geffen in 1992 as an assistant in the Modern Rock Department.

Burrs, who will be based in New York, was most recently Geffen's Chicago Regional Promotion Manager, a post he's held since the beginning of '96. Prior to that, he was Midwest Promotion Manager for Zoo Entertainment. He began his promotion career in '93 with Midwest Music Alliance

In other Geffen news, Sharon LePere has been named Chicago Regional Promotion Manager. She previously did regional promotion for A&M Records in Chicago and Houston.

"WELL OFFICER, THE LAST THING I REMEMBER WAS CRANKING UP 98 ROCK...": If it's too loud, you're too old. On the other hand, if it's too loud, your van might burst into flames. That seems to be what happened to this van, which caught fire right below a KRXQ billboard trumpeting their frequency change. The above picture made it into the Sunday paper, giving the station maximum exposure on the last week the billboard was to run. We're guessing that Van Halen's "On Fire" was on 98 Rock at the point of ignition.

network "would create a very powerful, diversified and valuable 'whole' Chancellor which aims to penetrate each media and each market to its fullest extent," Bear Stearns said in a report.

Tom Hicks, who is also Chairman/CEO of Chancellor parent Hicks, Muse, is serving as Chancellor's Interim CEO until Ginsburg's successor is named. "The Chancellor Board has asked Jimmy to increase his oversight responsibilities," Hicks commented, "to include any and all radio stations Chancellor may acquire going forward, while continuing to do the great job he has been doing."

"I share the board's vision that Chancellor Media can be one of the leading media companies in the world as the consolidation of the media industries continues," de Castro said. "I look forward to working with Tom Hicks and with the new CEO that Chancellor is currently recruiting to help achieve the next phase of Chancellor's growth and to continue to build Chancellor's value for its listeners, employees, business partners, and most importantly, shareholders."

Ginsburg added, "As the largest shareholder of Chancellor Media, I feel the company's next phase of growth, which may include medium-sized radio markets, television, outdoor, and international media opportunities, supports the goal of enhancing Chancellor's value for stockholders."

Hubbert Sr. VP/Promotion At Hollywood

Dan Hubbert

Dan Hubbert has been named Sr. VP/Promotion for Hollywood Records. In his new position, Hubbert will be responsible for overseeing all aspects of radio promotion for the Disney-owned label. He will be based at the Disney's Burbank headquarters.

"I've had occasion to observe Dan during his career, and it's evident to me that he possess all the right qualities for this job," Buena Vista Music Group Chairman Bob Cavallo told fmqb. "Dan is smart and aggressive and he understands modern radio promotion. I'm glad to be bringing him on board."

"I've known Bob Cavallo since I started in this business, and I am thoroughly excited to have the opportunity to work with him in this capacity," Hubbert added. "I believe in this company and I'm really looking forward to being a part of a great team and developing some compelling new talent."

Hubbert comes to his new position after spending several years with the Columbia Records promotion department. He ran his own independent radio promotion company prior to joining Columbia.

Reader Reaction

Last week's cover story, Breaking The Glass Microphone: Women Taking The Lead In Morning Drive prompted this response from Rock 25-44 WRXL/Richmond personality Tara Hunter:

"... I had a baby girl in October and planned on going back to my midday shift after my leave was over and finding a daycare provider. When my leave was over I became convinced that the best thing that I could do for my child would be to stay home with her. After lengthy discussion with my PD Brian Illes and the GM Linda Forem, as well as my husband's employer, we decided that a change in schedule for both of us would enable us to care for our child without leaving her with strangers. APD/MD Rik Maybee switched shifts with me so that I could move from middays to afternoon drive, and my husband's employer made it possible for him to be at home in the afternoon. I believe that the decision made by my GM, PD and APD/MD showed confidence in my abilities and took courage. My story is another example of a company that values women and wants to help them stay a major force in this industry. I thank my lucky stars every day that I have this support from this staff and management. My little girl is developing beautifully and I feel like the luckiest mother on the planet."

Curtin began her career when, as part of a CBS high school internship program, she was recruited as an assistant to various executives at CBS Records. From there she was hired as a full-fledged Epic staffer. In 1984, she became an A&R administrator and relocated to Epic Records in Los Angeles, where she remained for two years. After leaving the industry to pursue other interests, she returned to Epic in 1989, this time entering the promotion arena. First named Manager/National Album Promotion, Curtin subsequently graduated to Associate Director, then Director, and finally to VP of Rock and AAA promotion in 1995.

Seagram Looking At EMI Group, Following Fifield's Exit

ose rumors about Canada's Seagram Co, buying British music

Those rumors about Canada's Seagram Co. buying British music giant EMI Group are back again. Quoting a source, Reuters reports talks between the two companies have been occurring "for weeks in and around London."

Provoking the renewed speculation is Jim Fifield's long expected departure as No. 2 executive at EMI Group, which came to pass April 17 after he logged ten years with the company. Fifield will not be replaced. Two executives who previously reported to Fifield — EMI Recorded Music CEO Ken Berry and EMI Music Publishing Chairman/CEO Martin Bandier — have been appointed to EMI's board of directors.

Why Seagram and why now? The EMI Group's significant European presence and relatively small North American market share would make a good fi with the U.S.-focused operations of Seagram's Universal Music Group, which includes the MCA, MCA Nashville/Decca, Geffen/DGC, Interscope, Universal/Uptown, Rising Tide, GRP, and Hip-O labels, along with distribution, publishing, international and concert divisions. EMI has 17% of the non-U.S. market, compared to Universal's 3%. Conversely, Universal ties up about 12% of the U.S. market.

EMI Group, which includes the Virgin and Capitol labels and an extremely profitable music publishing division, is currently valued somewhere between $6.6 and $8.0 billion according to analysts, a more attractive pricetage than the $9 billion figure tossed around when Seagram looked at the company two years ago. EMI's stock price has tumbled 33% over the past year.

"It makes sense for Seagram's if they can buy EMI at a logical price because Seagram's music operations are relatively weak in international markets compared to the other five major record company's distributors," said Cowen & Co. analyst Harold Vogel.

An EMI-Seagram deal could involve other partners like DreamWorks, experts say. News Corp, Disney, and several Wall Street buyout groups could also make a play for EMI.

EMI says it will pay Fifield around $21 million for early termination and pension contributions.

when the market's advance ratings were released April 21. 24 diaries were returned to the L.A. in-tab of 6,897; 23 to the 3,329 Nassau-Suffolk sample, and 17 more to the Chicago in-tab of 5920.

Arbitron caught the problem on April 22, before releasing scheduled market reports for Detroit, Philadelphia and San Diego. Those reprocessed reports were delayed until Friday (4/24). Reprocessing all 94 Winter market reports means every report's release date has been pushed back by two days.

HAS HICKS, MUSE CUT $25 MILLION IN PAY-FOR-PLAY DEALS? Analyst Bear Stearns says the media investment firm mentioned during an April 16th conference call that it's written $25 million in contracts for the concept already. "The company could use the strength of distribution of the 400+ radio stations owned by Chancellor and Capstar and combined cumulative 12+ reach of nearly 61 million listeners and take full advantage of the economics of these 'audio infomercials," Bear Stearns said in a report. Bear Stearns also says Hicks, Muse is developing cross-station promotions, like locking up exclusive screening and soundtrack airplay rights for the new Denzel Washington flick He's Got Game Chancellor VP of Marketing Beverly Tilden says the company is talking with record labels about joint marketing programs, not pay-forplay. She also denies that Chancellor has locked up exclusive rights to He's Got Game

ANYBODY SEEN OPIE & ANTHO-NY? Sources tell fmqb the ousted WAAF/Boston afternoon drive team has been spotted at both Jacor's WKLS/Atlanta and at CBS Radio in New York. 'KLS is apparently interested in the duo for its morning show opening: it's unclear where CBS would slot "the mayor killers." "We think they're very talented and we'd like to talk to them about any situation that might come up, including Atlanta," Jacor Director of Programming Gene Romano told fmqb. 'KLS PD Pat Irvin says 'KLS hasn't offered them a job yet.

PORTLAND RIVALS TEAM UP Modern Rock KNRK/Portland has added displaced morning man Bill Prescott from crosstown Active Rocker KUFO to their existing morning team of Mike Chase & Daria O'Neill. The new team debuted April 22. Prescott was jettisoned from KUFO when the station recently added Howard Stern as its morning show. Prescott has eight years of experience doing mornings in the Portland market.

TEAR TO WDRQ Modern AC WPLT/Detroit APD/MD Alex Tear has been named PD of crosstown ABC sister Rhythmic/Pop station WDRQ. "After speaking with a number of very qualified candidates, it became clear that Alex was head and shoulders above the rest," 'DRQ GM George Kenyon told fmqb. "I'm very pleased that he was already in the ABC family, and that we're able to promote him within the company. Alex brings all of the skills, format knowledge and strategic thinking to the radio station that we need at this time, and I'm thrilled to have him aboard." Tear, a native of the Detroit area and a Michigan radio veteran, initially joined WPLT (then WHYT) as Music Director from the PD post at WGRD/Grand Rapids. Previously, he programmed WKHQ/Charlevoix.

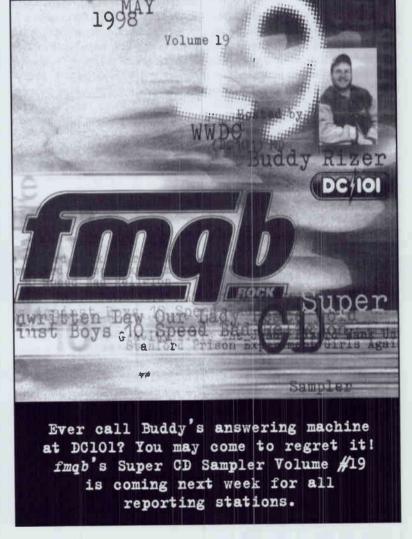

WMMS WELCOMES BACK JO-EY Active Rock WMMS/Cleveland welcomed back the former bad boy of the Indians when Albert Belle returned to Cleveland's Jacobs Field in a White Sox uniform. It seems the fans are still hurting from Belle abandoning the team for a big money deal in Chicago, Enter WMMS, who made up 50,000 10" x 13" signs emblazoned with the Buzzard logo and the name Jo-ey, which Belle used before completing alcohol rehabilitation in 1991. The signs were passed out to fans prior to the game. The signs also appeared under the hotel room doors of the visiting White Sox players. "If I find out they had access to the names and rooms, I'll be very upset," Sox GM Ron Shueler said of 'MMS in the Chicago Sun-Times. The stunt received local TV coverage as well as coverage in the Sun-Times and the Cleveland Plain Dealer. "It only cost about $5,000 to have the cards made up, which isn't much considering all the publicity we're getting," WMMS PD Bob Neumann told the Sun-Times. "We're already thinking of things to do when the Big Unit [Seattle's Randy Johnson] comes into Cleveland after throwing at [The Indians] Kenny Lofton last

BIG CITY IN THE WINDY CITY Last week, Big City Radio, Inc. owned two Chicago area radio stations. This week, the company expanded their Chicago stable to six, picking up WCBR-FM/Arlington Heights from Darrell Peters Production, Inc., WLRT-FM. Kankokee from STARadio, Inc. and WDEK-FM and WLBK-AM/DeKalb from De Kaub Radio Studios, Inc. The company is currently using their Synchronized Total Market Coverage technology to simulcast on its existing Chicago stations. WXXY and WYXX, and may implement STMC on their new acquisitions. "These acquisitions, in conjunction with our already established Chicago properties, will enable Big City Radio to leverage ratings and revenue in the third largest radio market in America," commented Big City Radio President/CEO Mike Kakoyiannis. "In keeping with Big City Radio's strategy, these new stations will enable us to fill underserved format niches in Chicago and broaden both our local and national revenue base."

WESTWOOD TRIED TO KEEP revealed during the $10 million breach of contract lawsuit Westwood

One has filed against Kasem. Kasem's contract with Westwood had a clause saying that he could leave if advertising revenue for his countdown show dropped below $6 million a year. That looked to be the case towards the end of 1997 until Westwood signed the deal with CBS, which owns 26% of Westwood One, on December 2. The one year contract was for commercials to be run over a one-year period starting December 8, 1997. Westwood included the $2.6 million in their 1997 revenue. Kasem's lawyers claim that 1997 revenue "has to be money for advertisements that aired in 1997." He says such a viewpoint is in line with generally accepted accounting principles on revenue recognition. Westwood maintains these rules do not apply to their contract with Kasem. Without the CBS deal, Kasem's show pulled in about $4 million in 1997, court filings show. Westwood was also using the low advertising volume as a way to try to reduce Kasem's compensation.

KASEM A story in the Wall Street Journal has Casev Kasem's lawyers saving that Westwood One signed an eleventh-hour $2.3 million advertising pact with CBS in order to keep the countdown king on their network. The documents were recently WALK FOR WENDY: Last Sunday (4/19) friends of Universal's Steve Leeds wife, Wendy, gathered to walk for M.S., which Wendy has been struggling with for some time. All money raised from the walk was donated to the National Multiple Sclerosis Society in Wendy Leeds' name. Setting the walking pace were (L-R): VP/Promotion GRP Suzanne Berg, VH1's Rob Barnett and daughter, Sr. VP/Promotion Universal Steve Leeds, WQCD/New York's Ray White, Wendy Leeds, Libby Herman, WNEW/New York's Dave Herman, and Coast To Coast Marketing's Susan Levin.

That all changed when they learned Kasem was looking to jump ship. "If someone else wanted Casey, then that makes Westwood want Casey (more)," a Westwood executive allegedly told Kasem's agent in November. The executive also hinted that the show's advertising would dramatically pick up saying, "watch us, it will be amazing. We might even do CBS-TV spots."

JACKSON PROTESTS EEO RUL-

ING Jesse Jackson has called on Attorney General Janet Reno and President Clinton to appeal the federal court's decision striking down the FCC's minority hiring rules. He was joined on the steps of the Justice Department by representatives of the NAACP and their Legal Defense Fund. On Tuesday, April 14, a threejudge panel ruled that the FCC's EEO rules are unconstitutional. The court found that the FCC had failed to justify its claim that hiring minorities and women leads to greater diversity in programming. Jackson met with the Justice Department's top civil rights attorney, Bill Lann Lee, who could not make a commitment to an appeal because that decision would have to come from the Attorney General. NAB President Eddie Fritts stated that NAB member stations would continue to recruit minorities despite the court's ruling, but Jackson indicated that he was not entirely confident that broadcasters would honor Fritts' commitment. Jackson commented that boycotts of broadcasters who do not support diversity would be the result.

DREAMWORKS LAWSUIT Back in 1995, the newly formed Dream-Works was sued by a company called Dreamwerks, which organizes conventions for fans of Star Trek and other shows. Dreamwerks argued that it's customers might be confused and think they were dealing with the studio/record company. A lower court judge threw the case out. But now, according to a report in the LA Times, a three-judge panel of the U.S. 9th Circuit Court of Appeals in Pasadena reversed that ruling. The case will now proceed to trial.

ARBITRON OFFERS NON-COM RATINGS Nearly 2,000 Public and Non-commercial radio stations in the country will now have fast access to Public radio listening estimates through Arbitron's Media Professional software. The data is collected during Arbitron's regular survey periods in conjunction with commercial station estimates. This will enable advertising agencies to make informed decisions about underwriting Public radio programming.

POLYGRAM 1ST QUARTER PROFITS DIP Dutch entertainment group PolyGram NV announced this past week that a decline in its music sales triggered an 88% drop in their first quarter net profits. Specifically, profits dropped to $7.5 million, while overall sales rose 4% to $1.4 billion. Contributing to that slight increase was a $24 million increase in PolyGram's film business. In a statement to shareholders, PolyGram President Alain Levy stated, "While we are disappointed with our music results in the first three months, we expect to see improved performance as the release schedule unfolds, particularly in the second half of the year. At the present time, we expect music performance in the second quarter of 1998 to be approximately in line with that of last year, while film will have a soft second quarter."

NOW WE KNOW WHAT STATION THAT DAMN BABY LISTENS TO:

That dancing baby is everywhere, from Ally McBeal to Blockbuster video commercials to a development deal for his own sitcom on the WB (alright, so we made the last one up). Now, the ubiquitous dancing baby pops up on WEBN/Cincinnati's latest TV spot. With "You Shook Me All Night Long" blasting in the background, the baby gets his groove on in front of a sonogram. As the camera pans back, we see a pair of perplexed doctors watching the goings-on from a monitor with an obviously pregnant woman's stomach in the foreground. The spot's been airing on three local cable systems during another cultural icon of the late '90s, South Park. The commercial can be seen on the station's web site, http://www.webn.com.

· Clear Channel Communications, Inc. has been wheeling and dealing this week. First, they entered into an agreement to buy KTSM-AM and FM/El Paso from ComCorp of El Paso, Inc. for $10.5 million in cash, pending FCC approval. Under the terms of another agreement, Clear Channel has begun operating the stations under an LMA. They also picked up six stations in the West Palm Beach area from Fairbanks for $85 million in cash: WRMF-FM, WRLX-FM, WCLB-FM, WJNO-AM and WJNA-AM as well as WJNX-AM/Ft. Pierce/Vero. Of those six stations, Clear Channel will be trading three (WRMF, WRLX and WJNA), plus WFTL/Ft. Lauderdale, which they already own, to James Crystal Broadcasting. In exchange, Clear Channel will pick up WTPX/Jupiter and $47 million in cash. After the trade goes through, Clear Channel's West Palm Beach cluster will consist of six stations: WKGR, WXFG, WTPX, WJNO/WJNX, WOLL, and WBZT.

• Cumulus Media has picked up five stations in South Carolina and Michigan under three separate deals. In Michigan, the radio group picked up three stations from Crystal Radio Group, WRKR-FM, and WKMI-AM/Kalamazoo and WKFR-FM, Battle Creek, for $14 million. In the Florence, SC area, Cumulus has filed to pick up WCMG/Latta from Seaside and WSEA/Atlantic Beach from WSEA, Inc.

THERE'S A 2-MILE BREAST DELAY ON RTE. 22...: Recently, WZZO/Allentown joined forces with females across the greater Allentown area and solicited their bras. For each bra the station got, they donated $5 to breast cancer research. After the station had an undergarment backlog and 1,220 area women were running around braless, the station decided to do something about it and put them to use. 'ZZO joined the bras together and, wearing shirts that spelled out W-Z-Z-O, sprung the brassieres on both sides of an overpass on highway Rte. 22, eventually causing a traffic jam. Eventually the police shut the event down, but not until morning commuters drove to work with C-cups on their mind. (L-R): WZZO's The Bearman (L) and Tori Thomas (R) make the breast of the situation.

If you could start a rumor about yourself, what would it be?

I'm the replacement for Scott Ginsburg... and I'll have even more stock!

STEVE RAYMOND, WZXL/ATLANTIC CITY:

That I once posed inside a sheep costume for a direct mail piece (see page 17 of last week's fmqb).

JASON PARKER, KMTT, SEATTLE

Instead of having the staff imagine that I'm having an affair with the promotions director, which I am not, I'd prefer that they think that Mitchell Froom was retiring and had picked me to be his successor and replacement as producer to Suzanne Vega, Los Lobos and Bonnie Raitt.

JOHN ROZZ, WBYR/FT. WAYNE:

There's lots of things I could say, but they hit too close to home.

BOB NEUMANN, WMMS/CLEVELAND:

I turned down the lead role in Boogie Nights.

ROCK

The Rock Report sadly notes the passing of Linda McCartney, Paul McCartney's wife, from complications of breast cancer. She was 56. Linda died with her family beside her at their home in Santa Barbara, California. She had been suffering with breast cancer since being diagnosed with the disease in 1995. An avid animal rights activist, proponent of vegetarianism and the creator of her own line of vegetarian foods, Linda first came into prominence as a brilliant Rock photographer, taking photos of such acts as The Rolling Stones, the Doors, Jimi Hendrix, Jackson Browne, among numerous others. After marrying Paul McCartney in 1969, Linda also ventured into music. As a member of Wings, Linda provided competent keyboard work and background vocals to many of Paul's albums. She also cowrote many songs with Paul, their best work is showcased on Ram. And on 1976's Wings At The Speed Of Sound. she sings lead vocals on "Cook Of The House." In 1979, Linda also issued a one-off single, "Seaside Woman," a selfpenned track released under the pseudonym of Suzy & The Red Stripes. Back in 1989, at the time celebrating their 20th anniversary as a couple, Rock Report correspondent Ken Sharp had the pleasure of interviewing Linda who shared her advice for other married partners. "Well, you never know what tomorrow might bring. So you know, life is hard and it's hard between people. And you just never know. I don't know what my future's going to be. But as far as it goes, make sure you... oh, I don't know, 'cause I'm so imperfect myself... just make sure when you do get married... 'cause it's easy to go into a store and buy a lot of things; it's hard to get out without paying... so make sure you really care a lot about the person you're with, and be tolerant. I think women have a rough deal. I'm not a feminist per se, but I think women, because they're physically weaker.

pleasure myself, so when the businessman comes home and he didn't have a good day at work, you know, and the women just sort of take it. I think there has to be some kind of rapport and understanding. And go vegetarian, I think, 'cause two vegetarians in the family is so kind, it's just a kinder life. And then your kids grow up in a more modern way."

With their U.S. tour slated to kick-off June 20 in Missoula, Montana, Pearl Jam drummer Jack Irons has been forced to back out, due to unspecified health reasons. Replacing Irons for the tour is former Soundgarden skinsman Matt Cameron, who played on some early Pearl Jam demos, and collaborated with Pearl Jammers Eddie Vedder, Mike McCready, Stone Gossard, and Jeff Ament on the Temple Of The Dog project. Pearl Jam issued a statement saying, "It's unfortunate that Jack is not able to perform with us this summer and we hope he gets well soon." Cameron's first shows subbing for Irons will be at the Tibetan Freedom Concert in Washington, D.C. on June 13 and 14.

There's all sorts of news revolving around Guns n' Roses members . past and present - this week. According to reports, Axl Rose has enlisted the services of Killing Joke bassist Youth as producer of the next Guns n' Roses album. No one is quite sure just who is in Guns these days besides Rose, but insiders say that drummer Josh Freese, guitarist Paul Huge and on-again/off-again keyboardist Dizzy Reed should be on board for the sessions, which are expected to begin this summer. While Rose is busy assembling a new Guns line-up, former Gunners Slash, Izzy Stradlin and Duff McKagen recently found themselves doing some informal recording at McKagen's home studio, with Stradlin's current drummer Taz Bentley laying down the backbeat. As for former G n' R drummer Steven Adler, ABC News reports that he was arrested recently at his California home after his probation officer alerted police officers that he had run up over $50,000 in fines for outstanding warrants from charges of domestic violence. Adler was released after posting a bond of $28,000.

Ending months of speculation, Faith No More have officially called it quits after 15 years. In a statement, bassist Billy Gould stated, "After 15 long and fruitful years, Faith No More have decided to put an end to speculation regarding their imminent break up... by breaking up." The band played their final shows in Spain and Portugal earlier this month. As for life after Faith No More, singer Mike Patton (who split time between FNM and Mr. Bungle). has put together a new side group dubbed Phantomas, which also features former Slayer drummer Dave Lombardo and Melvins guitarist Buzz Osbourne. Kevboardist Roddy Bottum's other band, Imperial Teen. will release their second album, entitled What Is Not To Love, in July. No word on whether drummer Mike "Puffy" Bordin will continue drumming for Ozzy Osbourne.

As Soul Asylum concentrate their energies on their forthcoming album, Candy From A Stranger, their 1995 single "Misery" is gaining new life thanks to its inclusion in the now infamous Tommy Lee/Pamela Anderson sex tapes, something the band aren't too thrilled about. "It makes it look like we were part of the thing, like we scored the scene," Soul Asylum guitarist Dan Murphy being sold and mass-marketed, the band is upset. Legal issues aside, what did Murphy think of the video? "I was distinctly unimpressed," Murphy told EW. "Tommy's packin, there's no doubt about it, but he doesn't seem like the brightest guy in the world. He says 'fkin rad' way too much. And I thought the camera work wasn't so hot during that scene. They should fire the director."

Bruce Springsteen has reportedly been searching through his unreleased recordings for selections for a proposed box-set to be released in the fall. It has also been rumored that The Boss has agreed to record an MTV Unplugged session early next month (thanks again, Jules Shear). You might remember that Springsteen's last idea of an MTV Unplugged performance included an electric, full-band performance (definitely "plugged") which was subsequently released on CD in Europe and the U.S. This may be the last season for the series and reports are hinting that Springsteen may well be the final guest. While Lollapalooza takes the summer off, the H.O.R.D.E. Festival hits the road for it's seventh

THE POLICE PULL THE PLUG ON GOD!: Well, God Lives Underwater to be exact. To celebrate the release of their first A&M release, Life In The So-Called Space Age, the quartet played to a packed parking lot at Tower Records' Sunset Strip location, only to be shut down by the LAPD after a couple of songs. The band headed inside Tower to safer confines, signing copies of the new album for fans. Pictured (L-R): GLU's Scott Garret and Jeff Turzo; KROQ/Los Angeles personality Tami Heide; GLU's David Reilly and Andrew McGee.

recently told Entertainment Weekly, who found out about his band's inadvertent soundtrack contribution through a roadie and is looking into their legal options. For those who haven't seen the video, "Misery" plays on the car radio while the couple are driving down the highway, groping each other ad nauseam. Murphy adds that it was one thing when the video was just being passed between friends at parties and such, but now that it's summer, kicking off July 9 in Somerset, Wisconsin. Tour founders Blues Traveler hold down the headlining slot, joined by Ben Harper and the Innocent Criminals, Barenaked Ladies, and Alana Davis on the main stage throughout. Also making main stage appearances are Smashing Pumpkins (July 9, 14-15, 21-22), Paula Cole (July 24-August 12), and Fastball (August 14-September 5). The H.O.R.D.E.'s Second Cherry Poppin' Daddies (August 20-23), along Gov't Mule and Robert Bradley's Blackwater Surprise on the first and second halves of the tour respectively. The H.O.R.D.E. Workshop Stage (third stage), will feature allstar jams, local artists and the odd celebrity jumping on stage and performing on a daily basis. Dates for H.O.R.D.E. Currently embroiled in a wrongful termination lawsuit with his former partner and bandmate, Marilyn Manson, guitarist Scott Mitchell Putesky (aka Daisy Berkowitz), has joined another Florida-based shock/goth Rock aggregate, Jack Off Jill. Having first come across JOJ while on the Florida club circuit with Marilyn Manson, Putesky is currently rehearsing with the band in preparation for a tour expected to begin in late May. The band plan to release a re-mix EP, featuring Putesky on guitar, sometime this summer.

Capricorn's Widespread Panic definitely celebrated the release of their new live album, Light Fuse Get Away, in style last Saturday (18), with a free, outdoor show, that drew 100,000 fans in their hometown of Athens, Georgia. The band had originally planned to block-off a three-block stretch of their hometown for Athens Music Day so they could perform at the end of the street. When the crowd grew to 100,000, the three-block area spread to thirteen. The historic performance landed the band on the front page of the Atlanta Journal Constitution Journal, and was covered by Atlanta's ABC and NBC affiliates. Spotted among the crowd of 100,000 were labelmates Gov't Mule and fellow hometowner Michael Stipe of R.E.M. The event was filmed for an upcoming documentary.

Modern Rock powerhouses and Capitol Records labelmates Everclear and Marcy Playground are teaming up for a summer tour, with Fastball opening. Catch the triple-bill in the following cities: 5/19, San Francisco; 5/20, Los Angeles; 5/22, Tempe; 5/23, Las Vegas; 5/24, Albuquerque; 5/25, Austin; 5/27, Atlanta; 5/29, Camden; 5/30, Washington, D.C.; 5/31, Sea Bright; 6/1, Burlington; 6/2, Worcester; 6/4, New York; 6/6, Pittsburgh; 6/9, Detroit; 6/10, Milwaukee; 6/11, Chicago.

After a last minute change of venue to New York's Roseland Ballroom, Cheap Trick celebrated the 20th anniversary of their seminal album, Live At Budokan (re-release Cheap Trick At Budokan: The Complete Concert is set for release later this month) with a marvelous performance of the entire opus and the Rock Report was there. Opening to the raw, metallic strains of "Hello There," the band were in top form. Robin Zander, the "man of a thousand voices" remains one of Rock's exceptional singers; Rick Nielsen, in between hurling a mass of guitar picks at the audience, continues to marvel on guitar while the band's rhythm section, featuring bassist Tom Petersson and Bun E. Carlos, kicked the proceedings into overdrive. Tracks performed included "Come On, Come On,"

"ELO Kiddies," a rendition of Terry Reid's "Speak Now Or Forever Hold Your Peace," "Big Eyes," "Lookout" (performed for the first time in 20 years), "Downed," "Can't Hold On," "Oh "Surrender," "Auf Caroline." Wiedersehen," "Need Your Love," "High Roller," "Southern Girls," "I Want You To Want Me," "California Man," and "Good Night." Todd Rundgren joined the band for the last two songs of the evening, "Ain't That A Shame" and "Clock Strikes Ten," trading licks with Nielsen with wide-eyed glee... In other news, the band will be revisiting their past with three special shows at New York's Irving Plaza in late October. October 29 features the band playing their entire first album plus more. The second night finds the group tackling their second record, In Color, and the final night sees the band performing the entire Heaven Tonight effort. A special package offer is being extended to fans which includes tickets to all three shows, a VIP pass for an opening night reception with the band, and an autographed limited edition poster.

Afghan Whigs have just signed a recording pact with Columbia Records. The band are currently readying their first effort for Columbia in New Orleans and Seattle, two cities where lead singer and songwriter Greg Dulli resides, for a fall release. The band will previewing new material at Tipitina's in New Orleans on May 2 as part of the Crescent City's JazzFest '98. Their last album was '96s underrated Black Love for Elektra.

After a brief respite, dada are back with a new record label (MCA), and a new album, set for release this summer. The L.A.-based trio tracked the album in Mamaroneck, N.Y. with producer Danny Kortchmar (Don Henley, Billy Joel, Freedy Johnston), and are currently mixing it in California with Bob Clearmountain.

Recent inductees into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, Sony/Legacy has just issued three of the band's essential recordings, Santana, Abraxas, and Santana III. Digitally remastered utilizing the latest 24-bit sound and sporting restored artwork, each CD features new liners of noted Rock scribe Ben-Fong Torres, new interviews with Carlos Santana and Gregg Rollie and rare, unpublished photos and memorabilia. Along with presenting sterling, pristine sound, each release also includes bonus tracks. Santana, the band's debut LP, includes three previously unissued live performances from Woodstock: "Savor," "Soul Sacrifice," "Fried Neckbone." Recorded at London's Royal Albert Hall circa April 1970, "Se A Cabo," "Toussaint L'Overture" and "Black Magic Woman / Gypsy Queen" are the bonus tracks contained on Abraxas. Finally, Santana III offers two live gems culled from the band's appearance at San Francisco's storied Fillmore West, "Jungle Strut" and "Gumbo."

MARCY PLAYGROUND:

BRUCE HORNSBY: Bruce Hornsby's next release will be the two-CD set, Spirit Trail. It will be out this summer while he is on the Furthur Festival tour.

Marcy

ELASTICA: Elastica expect to finally follow-up their 1995 debut with a new album this fall. Singer-guitarist Donna Matthews has a role in the new movie, Velvet Goldmine, set in the 1970s world of Glam Rock. Her role is loosely based on Suzi Quatro. Matthews has recorded the New York Dolls' "Personality Crisis" for the soundtrack.

COWBOY JUNKIES: Margo Timmins flew into Los Angeles from Toronto to participate in the press conference for the Lilith Fair recently since the Cowboy Junkies will be doing some of the shows. The Cowboy Junkies will release a new album, Miles From Our Home, in June. It was produced by John Leckie, who has worked with XTC and Stone Roses.

JEFFREY GAINES: Jeffrey Gaines will release his third album this summer. Gaines practically disappeared after recording two albums for Chrysalis Records even though "Hero In Me," "Headmasters Of Mine" and his remake of Peter Gabriel's "In Your Eyes" became radio favorites. Gaines is currently recording with Trina Shoemaker who has worked with Sheryl Crow. Rykodisc will release the album, which is as yet untitled.

JOHN TAYLOR ANNOUNCES FIRST U.S. TOUR IN TWO YEARS: Now that Duran Duran has reportedly been dropped by Capitol Records, John Taylor is probably glad he announced his departure from the band last year at a fan convention in Los Angeles. Taylor recently announced his first U.S. tour in two years. The month-long tour kicks off May 21 in San Diego. He'll front a quartet called

John Taylor / Terroristen. That means terrorists in German. They'll perform songs from the various projects Taylor has been involved with for the past 20 years — Duran Duran, Power Station and the Neurotic Outsiders — and presumably material from his solo album. So far, only dates around Southern California have been confirmed. They include clubs in San Juan Capistrano, Santa Barbara, Redondo Beach and Los Angeles at the Roxy on May 30.

GARY NUMAN KICKS OFF FIRST U.S. TOUR IN A DECADE: Now that Electronica is big again, Gary Numan launches his comeback bid next month with his first U.S. tour in more than a decade. Numan has a new album out, Exile. He is also featured on the Dark City soundtrack and an album of new remixes of his songs is due. The 13-city tour kicks off May 1 at the Theater of Living Arts in Philadelphia and concludes May 19 at The Palace in Hollywood. He'll be joined on the tour by special guests The Switchblade Symphony.

MY OWN PLATINUM: The members of Creed recently received platinum awards for their debut effort on Wind-up Records, My Own Prison at New York City's Windows On The World. The presentation also marked the one-year anniversary of Wind-up, and the fact that Creed was the first act signed to the label. Pictured at the party (L-R): Creed's Mark Tremonti, Scott Phillips and Brian Marshall; Wind-up Entertainment CEO, Alan Meltzer; Wind-up Executive VP, Diana Meltzer; Creed's Scott Stapp; Wind-up President, Steven Lerner; Creed managers, Jeff Hanson and Jeff Cameron.

Jacor has announced the debut of a new program called "Concert's For The Cure" whereby $.50 of each concert ticket sold will be donated to Breast Cancer Research. $.25 will go to The Susan G. Komen

Breast Cancer Foundation in Denver and $.25 will go to the Kathy Duffey Fogarty Fund in Milwaukee. "I know many people who have experienced the loss of a loved one from breast cancer," Jacor VP/GM Don Howe commented. "Therefore, I am happy to announce the debut of 'Concert's For The Cure' and I am especially pleased that the funds raised from the 1998 Jacor concert season will benefit breast cancer research." The first show to kick-off the "Concert's For The Cure" program is KBPI/Denver's "Birthday Bash" on May 9. This will be an ongoing program and each year a different organization will be selected as beneficiary... When Chris Farley died, WRCX/Chicago's Mancow Muller established the Chris Farley Scholarship Fund to raise scholarship money to support students interested in pursuing the arts. In just three months, Mancow's efforts have raised over $17,000 that have been donated to the John Belushi Scholarship Fund. Mancow raised the money through just two local events: A Chris Farley movie festival and a night of World Championship Wrestling. The funds will be designated "Chris Farley Scholarships" and will be disbursed through the John Belushi Scholarship Fund. Mancow is also donating some of the proceeds from his third CD, The One-Eyed Man Is King, to the Chris Farley fund. In other 'RCX news, the station played host to the first-ever Megadeth Unplugged appearance. The band performed live for 1000 lucky winners during a lunchtime pizza party hosted by Jo Robinson. The history-making moment was also cybercast live on the Internet and broadcast live on the air. "If we got any more intimate with Chicago, we'd have to sleep with y'all," commented Megadeth's Dave Mustaine. Thanks, but, no thanks Dave... Here's a good way to encourage at-work listening-Active Rock style-courtesy of WMMS/Cleveland. It's called Pay the

Boss. The morning show divulges the boss pass word of the day, affectionate phrases like "a-hole" and "dirt bag." Listeners call in later on, when the station airs a sounder of "the Buzzard kissing your boss' ass." The correct caller who knows the boss password gets $500 for him/herself, another $500 for the boss. "The premise is you've spent your life kissing the boss' ass, let us do it for you," says PD Bob Neumann, who attributes the promotion idea to consultant Tom Barnes. ing the second anniversary of Loud N' Local with a 12 band showcase at Philly's Trocadero. The concert will be held this weekend (4/25-4/26)... Looking for the definitive male rock station spring promotion? We've got two words for you: Ultimate Garage. WLZR/Milwaukee is having its second go 'round with the promotion. Mornings at 7:20, Bob & Brian announce which 103 Minute Pure Rock Block will include the sound of the garage door opening. Sometime during the rock block, the jock punches up the sounder and the phones melt. Caller 20 gets a personalized Ultimate Garage dark blue mechanics shirt (grease not included) and qualifies to win the Ultimate Garage prize booty: a '98 Dodge Ram pick-up, Buel motorcycle, Polaris personal watercraft, canoe, gas grill, power lawn mower, power tools, his and her stump jumper mountain bikes, and a wheelbarrel full of cash. The entire package is worth over $40,000. WTKX/Pensacola is doing a similar Ultimate Garage promotion, just in time for spring cleaning. Prizes range from skis, to a surfboard to a leaf blower to tools. Each day the station gives out clues as to what the garage item is. If the listener guesses what the item is, they win it and a garage door opener. At the conclusion of the contest, all the winners will convene at a garage. The person who's opener opens the garage wins the grand prize, a 1998 Isuzu Rodeo... WZBH/Ocean City is giving away a vehicle as well, but they're giving away one of the hip, new, highly coveted VW Beetles. Each weekday at 7:20, 'ZBH will play a "stupid sound of the day." The sounds range from tasteful to tasteless, with sounds like

"President Clinton's zipper" When the being heard. sound's played again, a lucky listener is qualified for the new bug... Here's how Boston's WAAF keeps visibility high at the Boston Marathon. Budweiser provides the station with thousands of tank-top running shirts, emblazoned with the 'AAF logo. The station hands them out to runners before the race. Then staffers randomly spot runners wearing the tank-tops as they come through the finish chute, handing them a $200 gift certificate to MVP Sports.

'AAF is where the action is throughout Marathon Day: The morning show and part of the midday show broadcast live from the starting line; afternoons include "hurl-by-hurl" coverage from the finish line and post-race action from Boylston watering hole Dad's Diner. And who's taking over for ousted bad boys Opie & Anthony? For now it's nightman Rocko, until a permanent replacement is found.

Is it just an anomaly in Chicago that he does so well? Top five phones, Top five tester. Do other parts of the country have this kind of success with him? JIMMY PAGE/ROBERT PLANT "Most High"

We're real big risk-takers putting this one in heavy right out of the box.

ADULT RADIO PICKS

ON THE RIGHT TRACK?

ERIC CLAPTON "SHE'S GONE." DUCK/REPRISE

Tah-Dah! No-brainer of the week award goes to the second track from Clapton's Pilgrim album. The scorching guitar opening of the song gets a layering of percussion and Clapton's distinctive vocals, with growls and female backing vocals thrown in for good measure. This track sounds instantly familiar and lands Clapton in the Most Added column this week.

ELVIS COSTELLO & BURT BACHARACH "GOD GIVE ME STRENGTH," REPRISE

From the compilation album Live On Letterman: Music From The Late Show, Elvis Costello & Burt Bacharach's musical collaboration, "God Give Me Strength," was recorded on February 25, 1997. As one of the more dynamic performances aired on the show, this musical union was unforgettable to any one who saw it, and is equally powerful on record.

ABRA MOORE "ALL I WANT," ARISTA AUSTIN

Grammy nominee Abra Moore returns with the latest single from her magnificent debut, Strangest Places. Titled "All I Want," the track follows in the melodic tradition of "Four Leaf Clover" and "Don't Feel Like Cryin" by containing unforgettable hooks and impressive vocals. It Rocks a little more than her previous outings, but it is definately one of the best cuts from the record.

NATALIE IMBRUGLIA "BIG MISTAKE." RCA

Natalie Imbruglia quickly dominated charts world-wide with her first single, "Torn." Briskly passing the platinum sales mark, her full-length album, Left Of The Middle, features a handful of hits-to-be, including the second single, "Big Mistake." Count on this track to effortlessly crossover Progressive, Modern and Top 40 boundaries.

The CD-Pro also features an acoustic version of "Torn."

SINGLES/EPS

STEVIE NICKS "RECONSIDER ME." MODERN/AG

From the anticipated Modern/Atlantic three-CD box set, entitled The Enchanted Works Of Stevie Nicks, "Reconsider Me" was written by Warren Zevon and features harmony vocals courtesy of Don Henley. There's tons of material included in this must-have anthology, and with interest in Fleetwood Mac soaring again, "Reconsider Me" is a perfect launching pad for Adult radio.

PATTY GRIFFIN "ONE BIG LOVE," A&M

Patty Griffin's strength lies in her ability to attain her listeners' full adoration through vocals alone. Her A&M debut, Living With Ghosts, accentuated magnificent vocal control over minimal instrumentation. "One Big Love," the premiere single from her sophomore album, Flaming Red, raises the musical stakes. There's more production, the musical voids are filled, and Griffin Rocks this time around, a la Sheryl Crow. The result is what should be her biggest single yet.

FROM GOOD HOMES "KICK IT ON," RCA

Set for release on June 16, From Good Homes' latest, self-titled release is their first full-length since 1995's Open Up The Sky. The New Jersey band has been performing together since high school and has amassed a huge following based on their spirited live performances and huge repertoire of songs. "Kick It On" is likely to surprise many F.G.H. fans while attracting several more in the process. For up-to-date info, check out the band's hotline number at (973) 442-4382.

THE CONNELLS, "CROWN," TVT

Going for adds on April 28, The Connells' "Crown," from their forthcoming album Still Life, is their most melodically ambitious effort yet. It won't take more than two listens before this tune becomes permanently imbedded into listeners' psyches, and we recommend giving "Crown" an enthusiastic listen in your station's next music meeting.

ALBUMS

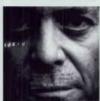

JIMMY PAGE/ROBERT PLANT Walking into Clarksdale, atlantic/ag

Jimmy Page's guitar-playing has never sounded better. This is also the first new and original material from Page/Plant in almost two decades. The tracks are swirling and melodic Rock tunes with nods to Eastern musical styles that Led Zeppelin utilized on past classics. Rock-based Progressive stations are already playing "Most High" and we're sure that you'll find lots more to spin from Walking Into Clarksdale. Check out: "Shining In The Light," "Blue Train," "Please Read The Letter," "Heart In Your Hand," "When I Was A Child," "House Of Love," and the title track, among others.

LOU REED Perfect Night Live in London, Reprise

Recorded live at the Meltdown Festival at London's Royal Festival Hall last July, Perfect Night Live In London features Lou Reed on acoustic guitar performing songs from throughout his career. The album, released as a companion piece to the PBS American Masters documentary on Reed, titled Rock & Roll Heart (airing April 29 at 10:00 PM, EST), highlights a seething, unplugged version of the classic "Vicious," as well as renditions of fourteen other classics and rarities, including "Perfect Day," "I'll be Your Mirror," "New Sensations," "Dirty Blvd.," and "Coney Island Baby." Look for a new studio album in 1999.

JOSH ROUSE Dressed up like Nebraska, Slow River/Rykodisc

Dressed Up Like Nebraska, the debut album from singer-songwriter Josh Rouse, is a rock-solid collection of ten songs that sound tailor-made for Progressive Radio. Hints of R.E.M. and Counting Crows emerge now and then, but for the most part, this album is strictly original. Lyrically intelligent and musically accomplished (Rouse also plays guitar), Dressed Up Like Nebraska is a moody effort that is both artistic and worthwhile of attention. Check out "Late Night Conversation," then dig into "Suburban Sweetheart," "Flair," the title track, and "A Simple Thing."

LIQUID SOUL MAKE SOME NOISE, ARK 21

There are few bands whose name describes the music so accurately. Depending on the listener's experience, comparisons to Acid Jazz, Funk, and Trip-Hop may come up, but Liquid Soul is the only way to describe the groups' blend of genres. The music on Make Some Noise is an artistically blended mosaic that is presented with a new edge that never gets boring. Liquid Soul's Funk grooves, Jazz technique and street sensibility will make your listeners want to dance. The best tracks to Funk up your playlist are: "Salt Peanuts/Chocolate Covered Nut," "Cabbage Roll," "Cookie's Puss," and "No Cents." For straight Jazz try: "Ramblin'," and "Rickey's Hat."

MIKHAL FULL FLOWER, MUSE-EEK

If you've seen the movie Midnight Cowboy you've heard Mikhal. She sang with Elephant's Memory on the soundtrack. Full Flower sees Mikhal drawing from a wide range of musical styles. This may be due to the exposure she's had to so many different genres while producing World music compilations for Ellipsis Arts. The warbling tone of her voice is complimented nicely by mandolin on the album. The tracks feature such diversity that nearly every station will find a track they'd like to spin. We dug the Creole-sounding songs like "Chere Colette" and "Loop Garou." For a more mainstream sound try "Bridges and Monoliths" and "You Got the Truth."

MATCHING NECKLACES

Oh, those are laminates. In San Diego, WFUV's Rita Houston (R) paused for this photographic moment with Janis Ian (L).

Flaming Ambition: Patty Griffin's Rock Album

As the youngest of seven children, Patty Griffin has had to struggle to be heard for all of her life. Her debut album, Living With Ghosts, was a delightful surprise for Griffin, Progressive programmers and listeners. "Let Him Fly," "Every Little Bit" (both of which were remixed and rereleased) and "Mad Mission" were just three of the tracks that got Progressive airplay and featured Griffin's lovely voice and personal and heartfelt lyrics. She was not only being heard, people were really listening. Before her debut was released, Griffin had gone into the studio to add more production to her stripped-down demos for A&M but she felt intimidated by the process and unhappy with the results. The label agreed with Griffin's concerns about the added production and the album was released in a form that was almost identical to her original demos: just voice and guitar. Two years of touring have helped Griffin get over stage fright that made her voice a "squeak" and find the confidence to embrace the eloquently expressive poet and artist that was alluded to on her debut. With her new release, Flaming Red, produced by Jay Joyce and Tom Lord-Alge, she's found her voice and her confidence and has put out the Rock record that she's always wanted. We talked with Patty in Austin on Friday, April 17, the day after the tornados in Nashville, where she lived while recording the new album.

I loved Living With Ghosts. I was surprised that your debut was so spare and not a big production.

I did try that at first. I picked out a producer and we made a whole record. But, the record company preferred the demos so much I said, "Well, do you want to put those out?" And they were cool with it. I hope you'll like the new album. It's a lot different.

Do you think that the touring and the performance helped you overcome some of your natural reticence about telling musicians what to do in the studio?

A lot of that has to do with working with Jay Joyce, who produced the record. I met him to do this song for a movie, Niagara, Niagara, which just came out.

"Regarding Mary?"

Right. We had a really great time in the studio, and he volunteered. He said, "Come on down to Nashville and we'll work out of my house. I just really had a great time working with you. If you want to hang out, work and see what happens, you can." We worked together for eight months. He gave me the opportunity to get relaxed. People would come in to work on demos for free, just friends of his hanging out. I really was able to ease into it. It's hard to be on the road and have to meet all these new people and keep up your shy habits.

by Sybil McGuire

As a shy person, how did you manage talk yourself into this career?

When you're shy you end up with a lot of things that go unexpressed, so there's like this overflow that you have to learn how to get out or you'll get an ulcer or worse. My shyness is part of the reason why my singing is so over-the-top. It's dramatic because I need it to be that way. I need to be able to lose myself in it.

Do you think learning to perform your personal thoughts and feelings have affected your personality?

I don't know. My personality is something that someone else perceives. I really like doing what I'm doing because it kicks my ass into growing. I have to grow all the time. Everything about my life's always moving at the speed of light. You feel like you're in constant chaos and confusion. I like the way things are turning out for me in the music biz

You're gearing up to tour and visit radio?

When I finally get a hold of my manager!
[Nashville-based Michael Baker was unreachable at the time of this interview due to tornados.]
These are great radio stations, like KGSR here in Austin, and the World Cafe in Philadelphia. I feel like I live at Ann Delisi's station |CIDR|. Just get me an office there. I've been there so many times. Every time I was in town they promoted my shows. They have a lot to do with why I sell-out shows there. They have everything to do with why I sell tickets and records in Detroit. I've been treated so well, considering the first record was just guitar and voice. I've been amazed at the airplay I've gotten. I have a lot of people to thank.

Do you write the words first and then frame the music around them?

It depends on the song. You can get a single line of poetry, write it down, and not use it until two years later. I heard Liz Phair say, that it's like the sculpture and the rock. It's just a process. I don't know how it works, but it's really nice to be able to do it. I can't put a finger on it how it all comes together, but it does.

Are you looking forward to getting back out on the road?

I was supposed to be heading to Nashville today to start rehearsing the band tomorrow. I don't know what's up with that now. The plan is to be on the road this summer. We're going out for a little quiet tour in May, and doing some industry things. Then we'll tour through the summer.

Kenny Aronoff is on the new album. Who else did you work with?

Emmylou Harris does some singing. She's been really supportive the last couple of years. I'll go to a town like Louisville, Kentucky, and someone will say to me, "Oh, I heard Emmylou Harris on an interview in town and she was talking you up, and I went out and got your record." She sang on a song called "Mary," which was magical. That was the thrill of my life. I said, "I'm sitting here watching Emmylou Harris singing my song." There's an amazing group of Nashville musicians that Jay Joyce brought in. He's pretty well known in guitar-playing circles. He has a band of his own called Iodine which just put a record out.

As the youngest of seven you had a need to be heard?

Yeah, definitely. It was pretty damn entertaining. My mom is really a great singer, and she did inspire me in that way; and her mother is also a great singer. My grandmother, Imelda, she's ninety-two.

Do you think that opening for other artists had anything to do with the way you attack your songs on-stage? Trying to get through to the audience?

I was exploring a lot of different ways of expressing myself. I've always had a Rock and Roll background. I always planned on making a Rock record. I was too shy through my twenties to get to know a group of musicians long enough to start a band. When I was in Boston I just did solo work. There was so much to work on that I stuck with it solo. It was a good way for me to write songs, and I really started to love writing, so that became my focal point. But this [the new album] is really the most natural thing for me to do. The way I perform my acoustic stuff is the way it feels best for me on any given night. Sometimes it just feels really crazy, so it comes out that way on-stage.

Do you have a temper, or is your songwriting the way deal with your rage and anger?

I've got a temper. The music's not the only place it comes out. There's been a few broken plates in my life.

While it might be cathartic and very healthy to get the anger out, does it ever scare you? "My goodness, I didn't realize I had this."

No, it's weird. It's a good thing to do. Rage is a teacher and it's a very informative emotional state. You really learn a lot when you let yourself go into it. Hopefully, you can do it in a way that's constructive. That's what's really cool about music. You really can share rage and anger and hope it doesn't bug the shit out of anybody. No one's ever asked me that one before.

Who really influences you?

It keeps on changing. I have the weirdest record collection. I missed out of a lot of good music in the eighties because of my life at the time, so I just discovered The Replacements. I got into The Smiths recently. When I was writing Living With Ghosts I was listening to The Smiths and The Cocteau Twins, and things from the '80s, because I spent all of the '80s listening to Aretha Franklin, and Etta James, and studying singers. There's so much interesting music out there. The new album goes over a lot of different hills. That's really how I am, musically. I don't want to just do one thing.

What's in the CD player?

It's either Tim, The Replacements, or Finley Quaye.

Is there anything that you wanted to express or get out about the album?

Living With Ghosts was me using my songwriting to express particular things about my life. This record probably has some of those elements, too, but also, I just really love to sing. This is what the new record's about. Me having a great time singing. Singing takes care of itself. You don't have to intend to do anything, you open your mouth and sing and amazing things happen. That's how I feel about this record. I'm really pleased with it. It came together really well. It's a record that I really wanted to make. I hope that will help get it across.

Nashville didn't escape the severe tornados that have been terrorizing the southeast region of the country the last couple of weeks. Friday, April 17, saw a severe tornado touch down in Music City, causing damage to many of the city's renowned music venues. Also hit were our

PROGRESSIONS

We were saddened by the death of Linda McCartney, last Friday (4/17) after a battle with breast cancer. McCartney was vacationing in Santa Barbara with her family. Paul McCartney, and the couple's three children were at her side at the time of her passing, according to a statement from McCartney's office. The McCartneys announced that Linda had breast cancer in December 1995. The treatment appeared to be working, but last month the cancer was found to have spread to her liver. An acclaimed Rock photographer, whose subjects included The Rolling Stones, The Beatles and Jimi Hendrix, Linda was also a longtime musical collaborator of Paul's, joining his band Wings in 1972. She played keyboards and sang backup on Paul's last two tours in 1990 and 1993. She was well known for her outspoken nature on animal rights, environmentalism and vegetarianism. The statement said that in lieu of flowers, people should give a donation to charities involved in cancer research or animal welfare, "or - best of all - the tribute that Linda herself would like best: Go veggie." The McCartneys had spent only one night apart in the history of their marriage, during Paul's arrest on marijuana possession charges in Tokyo. After her cremation in California last weekend, her family reportedly scattered her ashes on the family farm in Peasmarsh, 50 miles southeast of London. After less than one day, America Online's condolence bulletin board contained over 10,000 messages for her family.

Bruce Springsteen has reportedly been searching through his unreleased recordings for selections for a proposed box-set to be released in the fall. It has also been rumored that The Boss has agreed to record an MTV Unplugged session early next month (thanks again; Jules Shear). You might remember that Springsteen's last idea of an MTV Unplugged performance included an electric, full-band performance (definitely "plugged") which was subsequently released on CD in Europe and the U.S. This may be the last season for the series and reports are hinting that Springsteen may well be the final guest.

The debut CD from T-Bone

Wolk's (Hall & Oates, S N L Orches-tra), new label, Say See Bone Records, is

from singer/songwriter Frank Thomas, entitled Slip Away. Produced by and featuring musical assistance from Wolk, Slip Away showcases Morgan's sweet vocal stylings and passionate, Folk-tinged songs. Our faves include "Blues To The Moon," "To Love You" and "Unborn Song." As for T-Bone, he'll be back on the road this summer with Hall & Oates.

With a wealth of acting experience under her belt, and the sage advice of her friend Bruce Horns-by to give her insight, Katrina Landon displays a wealth of songwriting prowess on her new album, River Voice (Encrypted Records). With a voice that is equal parts cherubic and soulful, Landon's songs benefit greatly from her vocal versatility. Mostly acoustic-based in its scope, River Voice is packed with moving, dynamic songs that combine textural sophistication and sparseness in a way few other artists can. Tracks we recommend include "Beacon Of Light," "This Moment." "Interlude," and "River Voice."

The Ruminators encompass several elements of acoustic-based music on their album Wild West (Jackalope). The 16-track album ranges in styles from the Eastern-European flavored opening and closing instrumentals, to the Psychedelictinged vibe of the title track, to the more pastoral on "Start All Over Again" and "The Night." For more info, contact Doug Jayne at (707) 575-9364.

Things are going well for crooner Harry Connick, Jr. With a U.S. tour already underway in support of his collection of love ballads, To See You, Connick returns to the silver screen, co-starring with Sandra Bullock in the movie Hope Floats, opening in May. In an attempt to recognize the important musical contributions from both early and contemporary Native America, the first-ever Native American Music Awards will be held on May 24 at the Fox Theater on the Mashantucket reservation Mashantucket, Connecticut. Cohosted by Wayne Newton, presenters at the first annual NAMA include Bruce Cockburn, Richie Havens and Nile Rodgers. Special tributes will be held for NAMA Hall of Fame inductees Jimi Hendrix (Cherokee), and Buddy Red Bow (Sioux). Robbie Robertson and Frederick Whiteface receive the Lifetime Achievement Awards. New York City's WBAI hosted a live national radio broadwhich included KPFT/Houston and KNBA/Anchorage.

The musical legacy of Jeff Buckley is celebrated with the May 19 release of Sketches (for my sweetheart, the drunk), a two-CD collection of material from Buckley and his band's last studio sessions, along with four-track demos of songs Buckley was working on at the time of his death. Assembled with assistance from Buckley's mother, Mary Guibert, Sketches emphasizes how vital an artist Buckley was, and how sorely he will be missed. Buckley's friends Chris Cornell and Michael Clouse, along with his band members, also helped in assembling the album. At the time of Buckley's tragic drowning death last year, he was well into recording an album he wanted to call my sweetheart, the drunk, and was set to finish it in Memphis with his band and producer Andy Wallace. Disc one features ten tracks culled from the multi-track sessions, while disc 2 is comprised of Buckley's last compositions, fourtrack recordings of new songs, and re-workings of older songs intended for my sweetheart, the drunk. Titles include "The Sky Is A Landfill," "Everybody Here Wants You," "Witches' Rave," "Morning Theft."

Turner Entertainment Co. and Rhino Entertainment Inc., following sales of nearly one million Turner Classic Movies/Rhino Movie Music soundtrack albums, and the restoration/preservation of music elements from more than 250 classic films in the first three years of their partnership, have extended their pact for another five years. In addition to soundtracks from dozens of classic Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, RKO and Warner Bros. films in the Turner archives, the new deal includes soundtracks from Turner's master catalog of MGM TV shows, including The Man From U.N.C.L.E.

We already told you about the second annual Rhino Musical Aptitude Test, taking place at Tower locations across the country and over the Internet on May 17. Now comes the news that Saturday Night Live alum Rob Schneider will host this year's RMAT and serve as the emcee in Los Angeles.

VAST VISUAL AUDIO SENSORY THEATER, ELEKTRA/EEG

Much the way Trent Reznor had a brainchild eight years ago and wrote, played all the instruments on and produced the groundbreaking Pretty Hate Machine, comes VAST's debut record, Visual Audio Sensory Theater. 21-year-old prodigy John Crosby didn't produce the record, but he played almost all of the instruments and wrote all of the songs on the record. As for the sound of VAST, it's a mix of guitar crunch, haunting instrumentation and world music samples. Imagine, if you will, ENIGMA crossed with STABBING WEST-WARD. That's as close to a cross-reference as we can give you, but after a listen or two to the album, you'll agree that VAST has a unique sound of their own. Metal radio's reacted well to the 4-song EP. VAST Is, which moves to 29* this week with a healthy 19-spin increase from last week. This passionate and well-produced album will most likely cross over to the Alternative side of things, but there's some stuff that's crunchy enough for us. Keep on spinning the songs from the EP, but also give "Temptation" a shot.

KILGORE A SEARCH FOR REASON, REVOLUTION

KILGORE SMUDGE have re-emerged as simply KILGORE. They've grown a hell of a lot since they dropped the "Smudge" on their name between their first album, Blue Collar Solitude, and this one. First of all, their songwriting has improved phenomenally, and this is one of the catchiest discs we've heard this year. For Unclean, they've enlisted the talents of producer Ed Stasium (LIVE, LIVING COLOUR), and in addition to the improved songwriting, the album sounds fuckin' great. Some of the Providence band's rougher edges have been smoothed out (check out the acoustic ending of "Lullaby For Your Casket"), but the band's Hardcore by way of riffy-Metal attack is still present. It's been a challenge to keep this album off the air, with Music Choice, WKLL, WWSP, KRVM and KUPD giving it early spins. We have a really strong feeling that the firestorm is just going to intensify on Monday and Tuesday as everybody adds the record. With the album in stores a few weeks from now and a highly coveted Ozzfest slot in effect this summer, do you really need to search for a reason to start spinning the shit out of the new Kilgore? We didn't think so. Our picks include "Avowal," "Lullaby For Your Casket," "In Medias Res," "Never Again," and TK-421."

CUBANATE INTERFERENCE. TVT/WAX TRAX

First brought to Metal attention through "Oxyacetalyne" on the More Mortal Kombat sound-track, CUBANATE is back with their fourth disc, Interference. The British band rages with machines, not against them, to create a hybrid of Techno and Aggro that makes PRODIGY sound like ERASURE. Produced by Rhys Fulber (formerly of FRONT LINE ASSEMBLY), these sample terrorists have unleashed a sound that is equal parts drum'n'bass and crushingly heavy noise. While their harsh electronic sound may not be for everyone, if you've given RAMMSTEIN, PITCH SHIFTER and KMFDM airtime, you'll probably want to make an Interference call. Check out "Voids," "It" and "Hinterland."

COVENANT NEXUS POLARIS, NUCLEAR BLAST

Nothing less than a Death Metal supergroup, COVENANT consists of members of DIMMU BORGIR, CRADLE OF FILTH, MAYHEM and ARCTURUS. The group, who's based out of Norway, has all of the elements of modern day European Death: Gothic overtones, lush, orchestral keyboards and grinding vocals that sound vaguely like Prue did before he lost his voice. There's also a touch of the European old school Metal, with flourishes of double bass drums and guitar harmonies in the vein of JUDAS PRIEST and HELLOWEEN. The female vocals of Sarah are beautiful and atmospheric, contrasting harshly with those of lead vocalist/bassist Nagash. This is the band's second album following a demo and their debut record, In Times Before The Light. This well-produced record is chock-full of six-minute mini-epics that are at one minute melodic and classically inspired, and the next thrashing and pummeling, with the band's technical prowess shining through. Check out "Bizarre Cosmic Industries," "The Sulphur Feast" and "Dragonheart."

METHOD 51 METHOD 51. PC MUSIC

Ripping a page out of the book o' the KoRn, LIMP BIZK-IT, STUCK MOJO genre- you know, crunchy, grooveladen riffs with alternately screamed and rapped vocal stylings- the Charlotte, NC three piece better known as METHOD 51 deliver a snarling yet hooky full length. "Fire In The Hole" and "Why" are devastatingly in your face as is the Punk speed driven "Total Disregard For Authority." "Gov't Dope" has a sound in the same technical vein as SEVEN-DUST. So, if your station has been known to spin any of the aforementioned bands (like we know they have been!), then Method 51 will fit perfectly into your rotation like a piece in a jigsaw puzzle. Also, pay close attention for the Kurt

* FAITH NO MORE is no more. According to a statement released by bassist Billy Gould, "After 15 long and fruitful years, Faith No More have decided to put an end to speculation regarding their imminent breakup... by breaking up. The decision among the members is mutual, and there will be no pointing fingers, no naming of names, other than stating, for the record, that 'Puffy started it." There is light at the end of the band's career, though. Singer Mike Patton's new band will be called PHANTOMAS, and consists of GRIP INC./SLAYER's Dave Lombardo on drums, Buzz of Loder/MTV News sample Method 51 uses. Method 51 advertises "To be the man, you gotta beat tha man." Wheever the hell the man is we're not exactly sure, but Method 51 probably has his attention as much as he has purs.

BOILER THE NEW PROFESSIONALS, MAYHEM RECORDS

This album is sub-titled "Rules For Industrial Slammitude and Groovination" and features interesting artwork - blue collar workers in cartoon form- and off-beat songs titles and lyrics that seem like the stuff of inside jokes. As for the sound, the songs are chock-full of repeated chords, vocal effects, and plenty of pulsating dance parts. "Stegosaurus," "Lung Butter Rising" and "Superseed" all impact like a jackhammer. "Frontin" mixes itself up, originating with a mellow, laid back Hip Hop vibe, as the title suggests, only to storm forth with a Metal vengance. Boiler is never boring, because it changes its mood so much. A definite audience pleaser!

THOUGHT INDUSTRY RECRUITED TO DO GOOD DEEDS FOR THE DEVIL, METAL BLADE

When we last heard from THOUGHT INDUSTRY, it was with last year's Black Umbrella album. The intriguingly-titled Recruited To Do Good Deeds For The Devil is a collection of B-sides, live tracks and studio outtakes. While this band's a little - no, make it a lot - on the unconventional side, we have a feeling that this might be being worked at Metal for the album title alone. There's also a tune called "Metal," which is actually a cover of a Gary Numan song. So with Metal and Satan covered, among other topics, at least the subject matter fits into our format. As far as the Progressive-leaning and quirky music goes, it's not for all stations, but after a listen to the record, you'll know who you are. Start with the live version of "Love Is America Spelled Backwards."

THE MELVINS on guitar and MR. BUNGLE's Trevor Dunn on bass. Between Grip, his work on the new TESTAMENT record, and now this, Lombardo's the hardest working skinbasher in the business... The band's first show will take place on June 18 in San Francisco.

- * Ex-MARILYN MANSON axeman Scott Mitchell "Daisy Berkowitz" Putesky has joined JACK OFF JILL, replacing current guitarist Hoho Spade. Scott had last been in THREE TON GATE after his departure with Manson. Jack Off Jill should be on tour starting late next month.
- * SLAYER recently denied an Internet rumor that they shot a cameo for a porn movie, Back Stage Sluts. The alleged movie features the band as themselves, and along with other bands, has bands talking about their groupie experiences and porno stars acting them out. "It's news to me," Kerry King commented to the MTV Radio Network. Also, the band has reportedly been listening to PANTERA, nine inch nails and SUBLIME on the tour bus.

- * (HED) PE is coming out with a new EP, The Serpent Boy EP, which will be going for adds on 5/8.
- * Apparently, TWISTED SISTER have acquired the rights to re-release all of their albums and have unreleased and/or unfinished tracks from each album to add on. Reportedly, all five original members convened in a studio to finish work on two tracks from the Stay Hungry era with Mark Mendoza producing.
- * Speaking of producers, the latest rumored knob-twirler for the long delayed GUNS N' ROSES album is Youth, KILLING JOKE's bassist. From the way things have been going, you can expect another producer's name to be tacked on in a few weeks for the album, which from our calculations, is due out in 2008.
- * From our Rage Against The Guess Jeans dept.: Last year, RAGE AGAINST THE MACHINE axeman Tom Morello was arrested following a protest of unfair labor practices by Guess Jeans. Morello was one of 32 people arrested when they blocked the entrance to a California mall. It looks like Morello's protest helped, because the jeans company has agreed to rehire the 11 workers it allegedly fired for pro-union activities.
- * Last year, SOULFLY founder Max Cavalera's son, Igor, developed juvenile diabetes. Max did something about this by developing "Iggy Diabetes Fund," designed to help needy families with the costs of insulin and medical supplies. On Sunday, May 10, Soulfly, along with SNOT, HED (PE) and SPINESHANK will be joining forces at Phoenix nightspot Club Rio to play a benefit concert for the fund. If you're not gonna be in Phoenix then, you can still contribute to the fund. Before the concert, donations can be made to Oasis Management, 3010 East Bloomfield, Phoenix, AZ 85032. After the concert, donations can be sent to IGGY DIABETES FUND, c/o Phoenix Children's Hospital for Childhood Diabetes, 909 East Brill Street, Phoenix, AZ 85006.

- * DILLINGER ESCAPE PLAN have signed to Relapse Records.
- * Rob Gill is leaving Earache at the end of the month and heading over to Slipdisc. He'll be heading up the promotion department over there. He'll also be developing a street team for the label. Any station interested, get in touch with Gill by the end of the month.
- * SUICIDE MACHINES' Battle Hymns moves to #158 on the Billboard Top 200 chart, selling over 19,000 copies in its first two weeks!
- * Keep an ear out for a live version of LIMP BIZKIT's "Counterfeit" to show up on your desk before too long.
- * Chuck Mo has returned, this time at Active Rocker KZRQ/Springfield MO. Channel Z 104.1. His new Metal show is called Parental Advisory, and Chuck promises that it lives up to the name. Fridays from 10p-2a. His call times will be on Mondays from 1-3 (central) and you can reach him at (417) 873-2000. Co-hosted by Guy Matthews.
- * KTSC, WKPS and WRXL all have missed reporting two weeks in-a-row. One more week and they'll be unceremoniously dumped as fmqb reporters. Stations that were frozen this week include KCCX, KEYJ, WELH, WJXQ, WMMS, WQSU, and WTFX.

WLZR, MILWAUKEE MD-MARILYNN MEE:

Recovering today from last night's 1998 WAMI (Wisconsin Area Music Industry) Awards Show. Congrats to Keith Hastings and the rest of our staff. Lazer 103 was voted "Radio Station Of The Year!" Congratulations also go to The Gufs (Atlantic Records) who were voted "Artist Of The Year" (watch for their next album this summer), and to Milwaukee's PAR hero, Willy Porter (Don't Records), who was voted "Male Vocalist Of The Year" and "Songwriter Of The Year." Have a great week!

WAMX, HUNTINGTON, WV PD/MD-DEBBIE WYLDE:

HOWDY!!! The X1063 One Year Anniversary party KICKED ASS!!! On a chilly, rainy Saturday, close to 4,000 people showed up to see The Nixons, Mighty Joe Plum, Bugzy, and Luxx, with local bands The Wonderful Pills and Shindig! It was a huge success for WAMX. Shindig is a local band that won a local spring break contest to open the One Year Anniversary party. The Wonderful Pills are another local band that rocked.

Bugzy was excellent!!!

Thanks to Chris

Giannini for bringing the guys to town and for dinner the night before. Bugzy had us all cracking up with his impersonation of Keith

Richards! These guys will be HUGE! "Pizza" is a huge record here at WAMX. In fact, some girls in the crowd made a banner that read, "We'll have sex for 'Pizza'!" Please take notice of these guys! Luxx took the stage next and they rocked! Lead singer Katrina had the audience eating out of her hand. Luxx is so much more than "Soul Of Me." Check out the rest of the CD! Mighty Joe Plum were phenomenal! "Irish" was a 'Screamer' on WAMX for 3 weeks, and to hear it live was kick-ass. Thanks to Lou Rizzo. with Atlantic, for being Lou! The Nixons closed out the show...well. Through the rainy weather, the fans held out and rocked with the night's headliner. Thanks to Phin Daly for his most welcomed attendance. Coming up next, WAMX will be holding X-Fest on September 26. Last year, Jimmie's Chicken Shack, The Hazies, Days Of The New, Vibrolush, and more, rocked the tri-state. LET'S START PLANNING AHEAD!!! Kicking ass on the phones: Creed, Semisonic, Stabbing Westward, Dave Matthews Band, and Fuel. Please remember, music calls will ONLY be taken on Thursday after 2 P.M. Eastern. Thanks!

KRZZ, WICHITA PD-LESTER ST. JAMES:

What a great night for Kids & The Blues!! Last night was our spring Blues Crawl with the Wichita Blues Society, a benefit for the "Blues In The Schools" program!! Over 800 folks crawled around 10 bars to check out 10 bands and raise over $4,000 to continue our KRZZ/Wichita Blues Society program to bring Blues music programs to area kids!!...Other mindless Lester ramblings: What grave did Rod Stewart crawl out of?? Watch out for cigarettes and alcohol!! Our phones haven't stopped ringing since last Wednesday!! Many thanks Tom and Don for taking my money at the Wilds on Friday!! In the Twin Cities this past weekend for the final Conclave Board meeting for the GREAT July event. Don't forget CONCLAVE 23 is July 16-19 in downtown Minneapolis. The Marriott is soldout, the Radisson is nearly sold-out, and we anticipate one of the largest turn-outs in our attendance history. So, what are you and your label going to do to get noticed?? Need help? Call Conclave headquarters (612) 927-4487! This year's sessions will be HOT, as will the Conclave College on Thursday afternoon! If you know any PDs who need more info, have them get hold of me via the phone, fax or e-mail: lester@southwind.net...Speaking of the meeting, we learned first-hand that people across the street in the Radisson can be seen by people in the meeting rooms in the Marriott!! Let's just say a couple were preparing to get hot right before our eyes!! (Cheap thrill for those of us single guys!!) Peace, love &!!

KFMZ, COLUMBIA, MO PD-PAUL MALONEY:

Wanted to shoot a quick thanks to Columbia Records, Joe Schuld, and artists, The Getaway People and Flick, for playing a great "98 Cent Buzz Show" here in Columbia last week. You really don't know half the story on Getaway People until you see them live! Flick is also something big waiting to happen. Both bands were also very sincere and friendly. I also wanted to share a promotional idea. Taking a cue from focus group research and MTV's 12 Angry Viewers, we awarded three listeners the opportunity to pick our adds for the week. They came to the station last Monday evening, we listened to music for over an hour, and then narrowed down the song choices. We can all thank our enthusiastic "Music Directors" for adds on Ben Folds Five, Marcy Playground, and Reverend Horton Heat. Working small market, we don't have access to research of any kind. so it was quite interesting to see how listeners dealt with new music, as atypical as the situation was. Stanley Cup prediction: New Jersey over Dallas in 7; NBA championship: Chicago over Utah in 6. Laugh at me later.

Appearing On Modern Rock Live May 31 And Rockline June 1

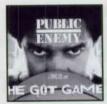

Massive Attack "Teardrop," (Virgin)

Grant Marshall (Daddy Gee), Robert Del Naja (3D) and Andrew Voyles (Mushroom) first met in 1983 as part of the Wild Bunch sound system. The trio defined the Trip-Hop genre, spawning what came to be known as the "Bristol sound" and helped set the stage for fellow Bristol musicians Tricky and Portishead. Their latest album, Mezzanine, shows an evolution of their sound. The Hip-Hop meets Reggae ambience of Trip-Hop is still prevalent in the mix, but the addition of guitar and the soulful vocals of former Cocteau Twins vocalist Elizabeth Fraser raises the bar on the genre. This first single is more than on its way to stirring up quite a fuss. Listen to the record and see what all the fuss is about. You won't be disappointed.

Public Enemy "He Got Game," (Def Jam/Mercury)

Come on, who doesn't totally dig PE? Their pioneering sounds have been with us for over a decade, appetizing music lovers from all walks of life. PE is one of the very few, if not only, Hip-Hop artists with as much street credibility with the Modern Rock crowd as they have with Rap fans. They're simply too good, too vital and too adventurous to ignore. This track, taken from the He Got Game soundtrack, features a sample from the Buffalo Springfield classic, "For What It's Worth" (with newly recorded vocals by Stephen Stills). Play this record, it will fit, it will sound great, and it will draw a great response. Aww yeah.

Angelique "Number," (Red Ant)

The buzz on Angelique has been brewing for awhile, with stations such as KXTE (four weeks early), XHRM, WHTG, WDST, WIXO, and WSFM all reporting early adds, and WXRK and KROQ giving it early spins. "Number" is an electrifying tune with the perfect mix of Rock and technology, and features former NIN and Pumpkins drummer Chris Vrenna on drums. "I want to take people to another place...like an acid trip without the drugs," says Angelique. Bottom line, she knows how to write a hit record. From her debut album, Present.

The Honeyrods "Float." (Capricorn/Mercury)

The anthemic rhythms that propel this track should go over with your audience very well. The Honeyrods deliver a blistering barrage of guitars and harmonies that rival any guitar-based act on your playlist. If you haven't dealt with this band in the past, we strongly recommend you do so now. "Float" is full of energy and should make a lasting impression. Taken from their acclaimed self-titled debut.

Sevendust "Too Close To Hate," (TVT)

It's time for everyone else to figure out what KXTE, KRZQ, KMYZ, and WXRK already know - Sevendust is a force to be reckoned with. Their thick, primal riffing and melodic delivery is a lethal combination very worthy of airplay. If you're wondering if this band can draw a crowd or garner a serious fanbase, those questions have already been answered with a resounding "yes." Give this record a serious look. Own this band, we guarantee your Modern AC competition won't go near it.

Sprung Monkey "Get 'Em Outta Here," (Hollywood)

The songs of Mr. Funny Face emerged from Sprung Monkey's real-life experiences. This infectious, upbeat track is "about life in San Diego," lead singer Steve Summers explains. "Going to the beach, the clubs. There's a great scene down here: Jazz, House, Punk, Ska, Reggae, Rock, everything. The chorus is all the things we don't like—tweakers, aggro cops, violent hate-crime type people, wannabe gangsters—get 'em outta here." Great fun and good music. On at 91X, KROQ, WXZZ, WARQ, KTEG, WHFS, and WKQX.

Feeder "High," (Echo/EEG)

Taken from Feeder's amazing debut, Polythene, "High" is a song that many observers feel will break the band. It's uplifting chorus and swirling and engrossing guitar work should electrify your airwaves. Don't expect this one to burn easily, it's a quality, guitar-driven hit that should find a nice home for itself on the Modern airwaves. KNDD, WXRK, and KCXX are all on board, "high" on it, if you will. Make it a point to spend some time with this track. It's a hit record from a very promising act.

Our Lady Peace "4am," (Columbia/CRG)

Well on their way to platinum in the States (finally!), Our Lady Peace's latest offering from Clumsy is a follow-up to the smash single of the same name, and seems destined for similar greatness. The gentle build of lead singer Raine Maida's heartfelt lyrics into the booming chorus and Mike Turner's thunderous guitar work will captivate you on the first listen. Our Lady Peace is a band with the prime directive of being around for quite awhile, as is evident in the diverse collection of songs on this, their sophomore release. In other words, they are not one-hit wonders, but core artists in-waiting. Treat them as such.

Big Wreck "That Song," (Atlantic/AG)

Those that have dove into their gloriously deep debut, In Loving Memory Of..., have been totally blown away by this (that) song. There is no excuse to not play or believe in this track or this band. We guarantee that when you play it, it'll be one of the best sounding songs on your station. Ian Thornley's rich, dynamic voice, and the band's muscular, melodic sound will entrance you. Period. If you lean Pop/Female, not to worry, we assure you there's more than enough melody and charisma to delight any female listener. Play this record now. If you're complaining about there not being enough potential core artists to play/develop, here's your chance to put your money where your mouth is.

Ridel High "Self Destructive," (A&M)

No, its not a collection of Grease covers, its actually a three-piece that cranks out some really high-adrenaline, extremely catchy Punk tunes, much in the same vain as Green Day, Bad Religion, the Descendents, All, etc. If these sounds work at your station, this record will definitely make sense. It's not too heavy and not to Poppy - perfect for any mainstream Modern Rock station. Taken from the forthcoming debut album, Emotional Rollercoaster.

Green Day had a frenzied performance during their taping of MTV's Live from the 10 Spot at the Bottom of the Hill in San Francisco. During the song "She," bassist Mike Dirnt hit his nose with his bass, giving himself a bloody nose and causing him to leave the stage. To compensate, singer/guitarist Billie Joe Armstrong pulled Gavin Freitas from the band Debris onstage to play guitar while he played bass on "Basket Case." Dirnt returned to the stage a short while later for two more songs with his nose still fully bleeding. After the taping, the band played for an hour and forty-five minutes for the two hundred or so MTV winners in attendance. The encore set included covers of Cheap Trick's "Surrender," Ramones' "Blitzkrieg Bop," Chuck Berry's "Johnny B. Goode," The Who's "My Generation" (with producer Rob Cavallo on guitar), and Pansy Division's "James Bondage" (with Pansy's bassist/singer Chris Freeman). Freeman also joined the band onstage for the Ramones and Berry covers. MTV VP Lewis Largent joined the band onstage for "My Generation."

Blink 182's latest video feature's Alyssa Milano as the object of bassist Mark Hoppus' affection. Milano, best known for her roles on Who's The Boss and Melrose Place, will appear as a high school cheerleader in the upcoming video for "Josie." The song is the next single off the band's Dude Ranch, with both the single and video due for release in mid-May. Directed by Darren Doane, the video takes place at a high school and chronicles Hoppus' efforts to win Milano's heart. The storyline goes like this: guitarist DeLonge and drummer Scott Raynor drive themselves to the campus on the first day of school while Hoppus is dropped off by his mother, who blows him a kiss as he walks away. Such nerdy treatment, of course, brings him school- wide scorn and teasing. After spotting Milano in the hallway, however, Hoppus' thoughts are elsewhere. In true teen-beat fashion, the smitten boy writes Milano a love note, which he tries to send to her as a paper airplane. The airplane hits the wrong target and is intercepted by a "psycho loner guy" who starts blowing his own kisses at Hoppus. The drama continues after Hoppus joins the track team and, in a Grease-styled segment, tries to impress Milano with his athleticism. Stumbling all over the place, however, Hoppus only succeeds in securing himself a ride to the hospital emergency room and more attention from his psycho loner "friend."

The Verve have announced their plans for a North American tour. Only twelve dates have been released and it is unclear if anymore will be added to the band's summer itinerary. Massive Attack are in the coveted spot of opening up for the band. Confirmeed dates are:

7/28 Chicago	8/7	Atlanta
7/29 Detroit	8/9	Houston
7/31 Hamilton, Ontar	rio 8/11	Morrison, Colorado, Red Rocks
8/1 Montreal	8/14	Anaheim, CA

Crystal Method will be remixing some of their own songs to be used in the Fox Interactive video game N2O: Nitrous Oxide, which is scheduled to be released in June for Sony PlayStation. The duo are also remixing Garbage's "I Am Paranoid" from Version 2.0, but it is undetermined what the remix will be for. Crystal Method will also open for Garbage in Europe from May 31 through June 10. Also, look for the group's "Busy Child," from their debut Outpost album, Vegas, to be used in a Gap commercial during NBC's ER. "Busy Child" is one of the songs included in the video game, along with "Keep Hope Alive," "Now Is the Time," "Trip Like I Do," "Vapor Trail," "She's My Pusher," "Cherry Twist," and "Comin' Back" in original and/or previously unreleased remixed versions. The premise of the 3-D game is that while evil forces are developing a bug-like race of Super Warriors by accelerating subatomic particles, Nitrous Oxide is used by the player as high-octane fuel for their spacecraft, which unfortunately also acts as a catalyst in the creation of the perfect breeding environment for the secretly-incubating species. As the player travels through tunnels into different dimensions filled with attacking insects, flashing lightwaves, and morphing landscapes, Crystal Method's music pulsates throughout the entire journey.

date for release of the band's first single from the forthcoming album, Life Won't Wait. "Bloodclot" is the track that will re-introduce your listeners to Rancid and will arrive at your station on May 29. Look for a package with a big Rancid logo on it... WEJE/Ft. Wayne is letting listeners decide what the new moniker of the station will be. WEJE recently dropped "The Edge" as its moniker. So far, two of the three names nominated are standard fare - "The Zone" and "The Extreme" - with the third finalist being a moniker that would be a first for the format as "The Bomb." Listeners are now casting their vote and the new name will be announced at the station's summer festival - Formerly Known As Edgefest - on May 22. The line-up for the WEJE event is Foo Fighters, Gravity Kills, Ben Folds Five, Crystal Method, and a local WEJE discovery, Skavossas. During the show, WEJE will select two winners from those who participated in the contest for a prize of $963 and a new Chevy truck... KEDJ/Phoenix will be holding That Damn Show III on September 12 at the Peoria Sports Complex. The show is two days after the MTV Music Video Awards in Los Angeles. Contact PD Shellie Hart regarding the show ... WEQX/Manchester has announced the line-up for Mother's Day festivities at Albany's Tulip Festival. Aaron Neville, The Bogmen, and Jeffrey Gaines will all grace the stage for 'EQX ... And the festival details keep rolling in as WBZU/Richmond has announced the line-up for Buzzfest '98. Included on this year's bill are: Foo Fighters, Bad Religion, The Fixx, Semisonic, Save Ferris, Agents Of Good Roots, and Rocket From The Crypt on the mainstage. The Waking Hours, Jazz Poets Society, Presh-Us, and The Cashmere Jungle Lords fill up the second stage at Buzzfest... KTOZ/Springfield's Edge Adventures continue with the latest winner packing for Oahu, Hawaii to see No Doubt, Cherry Poppin' Daddies and Madness. The winner's also set-up with free tanning supplies, swimwear, Do Ho tickets, (just kidding), etc. The next Edge Adventure will send someone south to the Atlanta Mid-Town Music Festival. In other Edge news, KTOZ, in the spirit of Earth Day, recently cleaned up a "truly" disgusting creek that runs through town. Programming Assistant Simon Nights got the best screamer award for his high-pitched routine when he saw a snake in the brush... WBTZ/Burlington, always one-step ahead, is co-sponsoring Burlingtonitus IV (4/24-26), an independent music festival featuring 14 national and local bands in three showcases at three different clubs. Kudos to the cred kids at the Buzz!... On 4/26, HBO2 will kick-off its second season of Reverb, a weekly series spotlighting some of the format's hottest and most vital artists captured in the most intimate of settings. The first installment of the second season will feature performances by The Mighty Bosstones, Smash Mouth and Save Ferris. Other episodes will include Bad Religion, Civ, Paula Cole, Kacy Crowley, Alana Davis, The Devlins, Pete Droge, Francis Dunnery, G. Love and Special Sauce, David Garza (whose debut album, This Euphoria, Goldfinger, Ben Harper, Mary Lou Lord, Steve Poltz, and Third Eye Blind, just to name a few. The show will also run on HBO on Friday late nights beginning May 15...

Bernard Butler, People Move On, (Creatlon/CRG)

We can't begin to tell you how jazzed we were when the new Bernard Butler album arrived in the mail last week. How this former London Suede member hasn't reaped the accolades some of his other Brit-Rock peers have is a mystery, but it certainly hasn't affected his ability to create great material. Rooted heavily in the Glammy theatrics of his former outfit, People Move On recalls an era in Rock when trousers were tight and the shag was the only haircut that mattered. Butler mixes more spacey fare like "Woman I Know," with more introspective pieces like the title track with great results. The trippy groove of the first single, "Stay," is a great starting point, but may we suggest the ultra-hooky "Not Alone" and the equally-infectious "Autograph" as follow-ups.

NOTE Play ets are printed in full on a rotating basis, as space prime. The Top 15 chart is derived from the combination of airpley from all shows. Any Kentucky and University of Louisville sports. Jacor owns Top 40 WDJX, AC WVEZ, Modern Rock WLRS, and Smooth Jazz WSJW. Cox Broadcasting owns Oldies WRKA, Classicbased WRVR, and Soul 94.7, an Oldies Urban. It's a very crowded Rock market that we've managed to lead.

In your role as OM for two competing Rock stations, how do you remain neutral and the #1 cheerleader? Well, really, they're not competing. When 'QMF was purchased by Clear Channel and I became Operations Manager over 'QMF and 'TFX, we did an extensive amount of perceptual research. When Clear Channel bought 'TFX in September of '96, they really delved into a lot of perceptual of the marketplace and, at the time, we didn't know if we were going to be buying 'QMF, or not. We were really doing a perceptual research on if we did own them, or if we didn't, what would we do. And, it was clear cut that if Clear Channel had the opportunity to purchase, 'QMF that the best move would be to make it more of a Classic-based station targeting more of a 35-to-49-year-old. With TFX, an 18-34 direction was pretty clear cut. That's what the audience expected from 'QMF. So, really, they were head-on-head. As competitors, they tried to out-Metallica and Pearl Jam each other, and now, there are some shared artists but it's very few: Zeppelin, Pink Floyd, The Doors, and Jimi Hendrix are probably the only shared artists. There's very little shared otherwise.

What's the management structure for the two stations, and how competitive do you like to see them get?

We have separate program directors and promotion directors, and we're even in separate buildings. I definitely want to keep the competitive spirit up because we have other stations in the marketplace that we also compete with for revenue and ratings, and each station wants to be #1 in their demographic, and #1 in the market as a Rock station. They take pride in that. Now, it's more friendly, where as before we'd actually be fighting in the streets when we were going head-to-head.

How much of a free hand do your two Program Directors, Future Bob at WTFX and Charlie Steele at 'QMF, have in running their radio stations?

On the day-to-day things, they have a very free hand. I've surrounded myself with great individuals that could take my job in a heartbeat if they want it, and that's the way I want it. The best thing to do is hire your own replacement. These people could definitely do the job, and do the job on a day-to-day at each of their individual stations. They're very intelligent, very radio-savvy even though both are first-time Program Directors. I trust them with the day-to-day decisions. And, with them being in different buildings, my week's split up. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday I'm at 'TFX; Tuesday, Thursday I'm at 'QMF, so that helps me also keep a separate identity to the stations.

And, you're still very involved with the music selection at both radio stations, correct?

Most definitely. In fact, I actually do the Selector on "TFX, and on 'QMF — we have a Music Director, Mel — who does a tremendous job with WQMF in the music selection. But, you know, what's added and what's taken off "TFX is heavily researched; 'QMF, we do a couple of auditorium tests a year. So, we feel like the music is very well tested and researched. Sonically, both stations sound excellent.

What's the market history of 'QMF's morning team, Rocky & Troy?

They've been together going on seven years as a morning show at 'QMF. Troy has been with the morning show at 'QMF for thirteen years. He's been there since almost the inception of the radio station. It started out with Uncle Ron's Asylum on 'QMF, and Troy was on there. Uncle Ron passed away, I believe in '91, and Rocky was at crosstown

"I've surrounded

WLRS at the time, and was doing mornings over there. We paired them together, and it's been a very good relationship since. So, there's a lot of heritage on the morning show. Rocky's been in the market fourteen years, so both guys have high name value in the marketplace, work very well together, and have really come together in the last year-and-a-half. In fact, 25-54 persons, within thirteen months, we've gone from thirteenth to third in the market.

Clear Channel recently brought Howard Stern to the market and you put him on 'TFX. Why was the decision made to put him on 'TFX as opposed to 'QMF? Was it because of Rocky & Troy's heritage on the station?

Yes, Rocky & Troy's heritage to the station, and also we felt that Stern fit the attitude of The Fox a bit better.

As a Stern affiliate, how does the show communicate with the radio station and do you ever have the occasion to contact Howard for anything? Is he accessible to you?

No, he's not. We went up to the birthday party and everybody was very nice and we've had no problems, but it's not like I went up there and airchecked with Howard, even though some times I'd like to. It's a quality product. I've dealt with syndicated morning shows before and I've dealt hands-on with local morning shows, and this is very unique. He's an entertainer. He's like a Leno, a Letterman. It's almost bigger than life. I do have contact with Gary Dell'Abate, Stern's producer. Anything we've needed they've been very kind in taking care of, but as far as day-to-day or weekly contact with Howard, no.

What do you do to promote your two high profile morning shows?

Under past ownership, there was really no marketing done on the Rocky & Troy show on 'QMF other than a couple of billboards over the years. Since Clear Channel has owned WQMF, we hit the TV hard, we do billboards, and really market them. The first thing we did in the spring was billboards and TV. We did television in the fall, and this spring we're doing billboards and TV again.

As you mentioned previously, when you became OM of both radio stations in January of last year, you flipped Heritage Rocker 'QMF Classic Rock. In recent months you've been adding some more currents to their mix.

Michael dressing in his alter-ego clothes.

100.5 THE FOX Rocks

What's led you to change the format stance there?

It's not so much a change. With the availability of the artists and music that's out there right now, we thought that it was a no-brainer to put in new Clapton, to put in new Stones. Fleetwood Mac live stuff, and to put in the heritage artists out right now like Page/Plant. There's a lot of heritage artists that are having new music come out. If this wouldn't have happened, we wouldn't have added currents, but we just felt like it was a perfect time. Also, it's the only place in the market that you're going to get the new Clapton, new Stones, or the new Fleetwood Macs of the world, and we felt like that we had a unique opportunity to set ourselves apart in the marketplace. And, once again, we've done research on it and listeners tell us that they like the newer music by the heritage artists. And, it fits well with what we're doing on 'QMF. But, once again, if the product hadn't been there we wouldn't have done it. It had to be the right currents. Right now, the heritage artists are releasing plenty of quality music.

"The research
we've done
points toward Howard being huge
in the market."

Ratingswise, 'QMF seems to be a very stable operation. For example, in the fall of '97, 12+ they went 4.1 to 4.8, and in their key demo, Men 25-54, they were ranked #2. On the other hand, 'TFX had a bit of a rocky fall, going 5.0-3.1 12+, but with a very respectable #4 ranking Men 18-34.

Right, and we have been #1, and our goal is to be #1 or #2 18-34 in the market, and really, we have to battle inside the Clear Channel family for that crown; 'AMZ, the Country station, is so strong. Usually,

WTFX is #1 or #2 18-34, and usually a somewhat respectable Top 6 ranking 25-54. What happened in the fall is we decided not to renew the Bob & Tom show, we went with The Howard Stern Show. There's those months you have there of movement of listeners, plus we also had a 3,000 watt Alternative come on in the marketplace, WLRS, that was playing 80% of our music with no commercials. So, you really had two things that hit The Fox in the fall that we're rebounding from.

What have you seen in the winter trends, so far?

The winter trends have been very strong. We moved up 3.1-3.4 to a 3.9 12+, and our 18-34's in the first month of the Winter book have bounced back. Howard went from 6th to 3rd to 1st 18-34 persons, so we expect bigger things out of Howard, but we realize he's only been in the market six or seven months. From what I've heard and talked to different PDs at Stern stations, it's usually about a year for Howard really to take hold in the marketplace. So, we're just waiting that out. I feel like the music at WTFX is on the right track. I feel like Howard is being very well accepted. He's the talk of the town with our demographic, and we're doing everything we can to promote him with billboards and bus shelters, and things like that. So, we're marketing it, and really, just waiting it out because there's always that clearing out of listeners both ways. We feel all the research we've done points toward Howard being huge in the market and that will help The Fox bounce back. On 'QMF, we went 4.8-4.8 to 4.5 12+, with 25-54 numbers staying stable in fourth.

What kind of an impact, if any, has WLRS had on both of your radio stations?

On 'QMF, it's been very little, if any; revenue and ratingswise. Ratingswise, in fact, we've even seen growth on 'QMF. 'LRS in the marketplace has really hurt Jacor's Top 40 station to some degree in the 18-34 numbers, and also the 12+ numbers. Once again, it's had an affect somewhat on TFX listenership because it decreases the time spent listening with our cume. It is something new in the market, and any time there's something new people are going to try it. We're finding them decreasing every month, and their biggest impact has already been felt. They'll be there and they are going to be a player in the market just because they are doing something a bit different, but they're still playing 70-80% of the music that we're playing. I feel like TFX has the heritage in the marketplace over them. We also have the marketing, the promotions, and more creativity. So, I feel like in the long run, we're in a good position.

How complicated does it get in Louisville with potentially three Rock stations fighting for the presents and promotions with labels and promoters? How are you all getting along?

Well, we don't always get along, but that's the fun part. 'QMF and TFX combined are #1 in every male demographic, and either #1 or #2 in persons. We have a lot of leverage on that. TFX is known in the marketplace, and known by the promoters, and known by most of the record companies that know this market. TFX really is the player in the market of selling tickets and moving product, whether it's a Helmet, or whether it's Aerosmith, or Days Of The New, or Limp Bizkit. These are all success stories that are directly tied to TFX as sales and also concert successes. So, there's always the show that maybe will have to be a generic show, but if we do have to have a generic show with a competitor we usually manage to get our banners up. We actually will do something to make the presence known, and at least perceptually, the listeners will think that we own the show. Whether it's a generic show or a presents, we always have the upper hand on it.

You recently mentioned to me how great you thought it was, when every once in a while you get to share some ideas, problems and strategies with other Clear Channel programmers. Is there any kind of a formal phone gathering that you have to exchange ideas?

We have a monthly conference call with all the Rock PDs, and it's very informative. When it comes to Rock properties, it's not really understood what powerhouse radio stations that Clear Channel owns in the country, and the brilliant minds that are in the Clear Channel PD stable. You have a lot of great Program Directors. And, it really is a great opportunity because you have every type of station from WNCX in Cleveland, to ZETA in Miami, to WRXL in Richmond, to the midwest, to the southwest, to the northeast. So, you have a lot of different input from all over the country which really helps you.

Being in Derby Town, and with the Kentucky Derby just around the corner, how involved do the radio stations get in all that hoopla every year?

Oh, it's incredible. We start planning for Derby in December, and the ball really starts rolling in February. Right now, we're in the middle of Derby fever. The Kentucky Wildcats just won the NCAA Basketball Championship, and we celebrated that, now it's all eyes toward Derby. Everything kicks off on April 18 with Thunder Over Louisville, which is the largest fireworks display in the country. We're expecting about 800,000 people on the banks of the Ohio River. It really kicks off there. Between both stations we're involved in about thirty-seven events, including the Derby. WIFX has a huge concert called The Festival In The Field. This year we have Creed, Mighty Joe Plum; Louisville acts, Eden Street, who just got signed to A&M, and Almost Noah who's looking like they're about ready to be signed. So, there's a lot of events going on.

What other kinds of events do the stations get involved with throughout the rest of the year? Do you sponsor any music festivals, or anything like that?

We have a Summer Birthday Party Concert that we always do in the first part of August. 'QMF basically has a free concert series that goes on during the fall and winter at a local establishment and we do free shows about once a month. Other things that we're involved in a lot of charitable things. The Rocky & Troy morning show puts out two CDs a year and also has a golf outing called The Hackers Open and all proceeds go to the Women And Children's Abuse Center. Last year Rock & Troy put an addition on their building from all the money that they raised. Really, 'QMF's focus is the Women And Children's Center. With 'TFX, we're involved in a lot of different charitable things such as the local blood center. Last year when the tornadoes came, we did a Tornado Relief with five bands for five bucks. On TFX it's what the needs are in the community. And with the flooding last spring, we also had a flood benefit for the victims. Other annual things that we might be involved in include softball games against other teams for charity. We do that every summer. There are so many different things we do.

Playboy magazine just named Louisville one of the Top 3 hot spots for new music in the world. What's your commitment to local music?

Since I arrived in Louisville a little over two years ago, that's been one of my goals, to increase awareness of the local music scene, not only in the clubs, but also on the air. WIFX has a local music show, Unsigned Primetime, where we play local and regional music, plus we work it into regular rotation on The Fox. We also sponsor several showcases throughout the year for local talent, including the Harvest Showcase from where Days Of The New got their start. Many other Louisville acts have been signed, or are about to be, including Eden Street, Supafuzz, Cornbread Mafia, Almost Noah, 100 Acre Wood, and Superface. The scene is very exciting. It's kind of like Seattle without the coffee and flannel. Louisville has whiskey and overalls.

You mentioned doing some billboards and some bus cards for the morning shows. Is there any other marketing that you do for the radio stations?

In the fall we used telemarketing on 'QMF, which was very effective. The main marketing that we really rely on is in the streets. Both stations have two vans. On TFX we use them for "drive-bys." We're always out in the streets. We target different areas of the town every week, get the vans out and seen at events. The biggest marketing tool that we have is our Promotion Departments. Our two Promotion Directors, Ron Fisher at 'QMF and Kelly Burton at WTFX, really have what it takes to win. I really look at it as we're politicians looking for the Arbitron vote. The best way to do it is to get out there and shake the hands, kiss the babies, give them free stuff. Everybody loves the free stuff.

Where do you personally stand on the pay-for-play issue, and has Clear Channel, as a company, discussed this with their programmers?

We had a programmers' meeting last September and it was never brought up. It's something we'll probably discuss, if not on a monthly call, definitely at the programmers' meeting when we have it this fall. But, as a group, Clear Channel really hasn't addressed it and it really hasn't been brought up.

"I really look at it as we're politicians looking for the Arbitron vote."

Do you have any personal feelings about it?

Personally, I feel like it's kind of two-fold. I've read different quotes of different programmers and I can see both sides. You don't want to put anything on that's going to adversely hurt your radio station, but then again, I look at it as my goal here is two things: ratings and revenue. That's what determines a winning station. Big ratings without any revenue really doesn't matter, so I have to make sure that ratings and revenue are there. If there's any way that I can achieve those goals, or any goal that I have, by dealing with a record company, and it's not adversely affecting my radio station in fact, helping my radio station and helping my revenue of the radio station — then I, on a case-by-case basis wouldn't have a problem with it.

Do you have any parting advice for the growing numbers of programmers out there who are now finding themselves thrust into multiple programming positions, especially those who program a couple of Rock stations in the same market, much like you do?

One thing that's helped me is being in two different buildings. Believe it or not, it's a pain in the ass but it's really helped me. When I get to one building I'm focused on that radio station. The main thing would be time management, and also the cheerleading because there are going to be times that things are going to overlap and one station's going to affect the other and you really have to make sure that everybody you're working with understands the common goal of each station, and the overall goal of both stations together. If you can really get that through to the people that you're working with, then a lot of times it's not as an adverse reaction, when one station steps on another one's toe. That's the main thing, communicating the goals to your employees and time management. It's always a challenge to be a better worker; not putting more hours in but the hours that you put in are more effective and you get more done. That's the biggest thing I've learned in the last fourteen or fifteen months; how to work more efficiently.

SLOGISTILLE

After logging time in the programming chair at KRZZ/Wichita and WXZL/Baltimore

(when it was Active Rock), Michael Lee returned to his hometown, Louisville, in December '95 as PD of WTFX. When consolidation spread in Derby Town, 'TFX owners Clear Channel snapped up Heritage Rocker WQMF in December '96 and Lee was tapped to oversee, as OM, both 'TFX and 'QMF. In the little over one year he's been steering both ships, from separate facilities, Lee has managed to mend the fences between old rivals 'TFX and 'QMF, oversee Howard Stern take over for Bob & Tom in mornings on 'TFX, and help 'QMF recapture its heritage luster by staying in step with current releases that make sense.

First, fill us in on the format history of both 'TFX and 'QMF?

'QMF just celebrated seventeen years of being a Rock station here in Louisville. Basically, it came on as a Classic-based station. It went through several different changes through its life span. After a few years it started playing currents, became more of a mainstream Rock station, then went back for about three years to just a Classic Rock only station, and then when The Fox [WTFX] came on four years ago, they went head-to-head with 'TFX. 'QMF added currents and became a very current-intensive 18-34 based station and were that way up until December of '96 when Clear Channel Radio bought WQMF. Then, on December 26 of '96, we flipped it to a Classic Rock station.

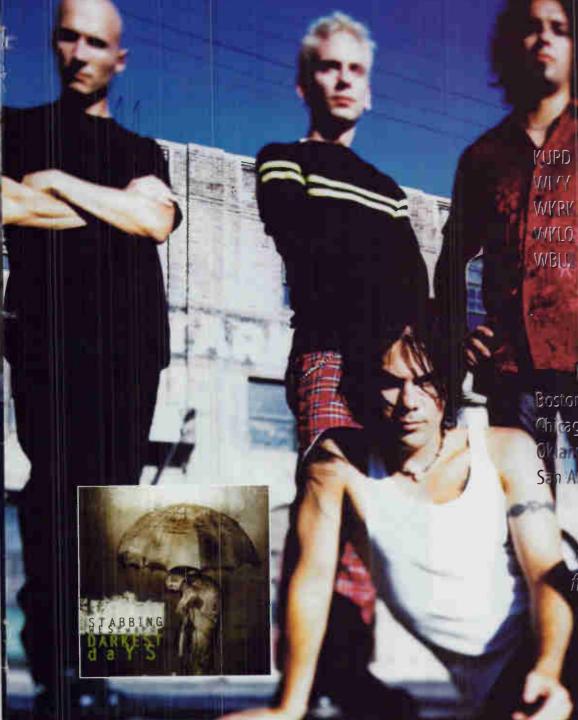

And, at the time, Clear Channel owned TFX?

Right. Clear Channel had bought "TFX in September of '96 and really didn't change "TFX at all. It's still an Active Rock 18-34 station. Its attitude has been harder and more of an in-your-face Rock station since birth.

What's the competitive make-up of the Louisville market?

Clear Channel really has the upper hand. Clear Channel has been in this market for years and really owns the cream of the crop of stations; the #1 and #2 stations, WAMZ, which is a Country station in the market, and then WHAS-AM, which is a full-service AM. They also own another Country station called The Hawk, and they own TFX and 'QMF. They also own WWKY, which is a local AM News/Sports station, plus they own the Kentucky Network which has the rights to University of continued on page 69
