ANALYSIS

MADONNA Madness continues to dominate radio, with programmers working hard to keep up with listeners' demands for her ever expanding repertoire of hits. Besides racking up yet another number one song this week, her "Angel" remains our "Most Added" song for a second straight week already charting Top 30 for 30 reporters. TEARS FOR FEARS is a giant, showing remarkable "Hit Factor" growth up 28% (42% to 70%) just about the same increase for BILLY OCEAN 33% to 60% with adds at WPLJ, WCRO, Z100, WEBE, WJLQ, B96, KIIS/FM etc. HOWARD JONES is converting a ton of airplay into big chart activity, doubling his "Hit Factor", now logging a healthy 25%. BRYAN ADAMS nearly triples his chart points besides picking up another 28 adds. JULIAN LENNON joins MADONNA (Angel) in topping the 200 mark in reports. All chartbound entries bound into the Top 40 in addition to BOY MEETS GIRL who come on at number 40 directly from Up & Coming with especially strong debuts in the Midwest at KRNA, KROC, KGGG, and adds at WZOK-Rockford, WIFC-Wausau, and KCLD-St. Cloud. Lots of belief from a cross section of PD's and MD's on EURYTHMICS, more than doubling in airplay from 55 stations last week, up to a 123 report total. Ditto for JAGGER's "Lucky In Love" - new at WZON, WSPK, Q105, WAGQ, WBBQ, G100, WKXX, WHHY, WSPT, KIIK, KHOP/FM, KSAQ, KMJK, etc. Most talked about record of the week is the new PRINCE LP with various cuts reported by 39 stations. Leading track by far is "Raspberry Beret". As we go to press, there are no indications that a single will be released soon. It really makes little difference at this point whether or not or when a single will be issued, as it would be a wise move to make sure PRINCE is on your air. "Record To Watch" a few weeks back, TIL TUESDAY, is nearing the top ten for Ron O'Brien at OK95-Tri-Cities, with a 18-12 jump. New at KIIS/FM-L.A., KZZK-Tri-Cities, KO93-Modesto, KIYS-Boise, KSAQ-San Antonio, KYVA-Gallup, KKYS-Bryan, KZZB-Beaumont, Q104-Gadsden, WKHI-Ocean City, etc. Album Radio explodes it top twenty. This week's "Record To Watch", "My Toot Toot" by JEAN KNIGHT is proving to be more than just a simple novelty. John Raymond at KIXY-San Angelo leads the way with a 29-15 move and John reports heavy requests from adults as well as teens. New believers include KIST, KINN, WKSP, WALG, WCGQ, WHKW, WHNY, WJMX, KRQK, etc.

PEOPLE I MISS

by Tony Richland

NEIL BOGART:

Are there any visionaries out there any more? ... or have the lawyers taken over? Has Barnum and Bailey been replaced by The Man in the Gray Flannel Jogging Suit?

When 'crazy' Neil flew to Mars, or someplace, to negotiate for '96 TEARS,' the world thought he was crazy. When Neil fought for The Edwin Hawkins Singers, the universe thought he was wacko. When Neil served up bubblegum music and Melanie and Kiss and Donna and The Village People, a lot of us figured he was pressed off center.

The thing is, Neil was almost always right and he sure is missed! One can't help wondering what outrageousness Neil would have conjured up in an era of ALL-MADONNA-ALL-THE-TIME.

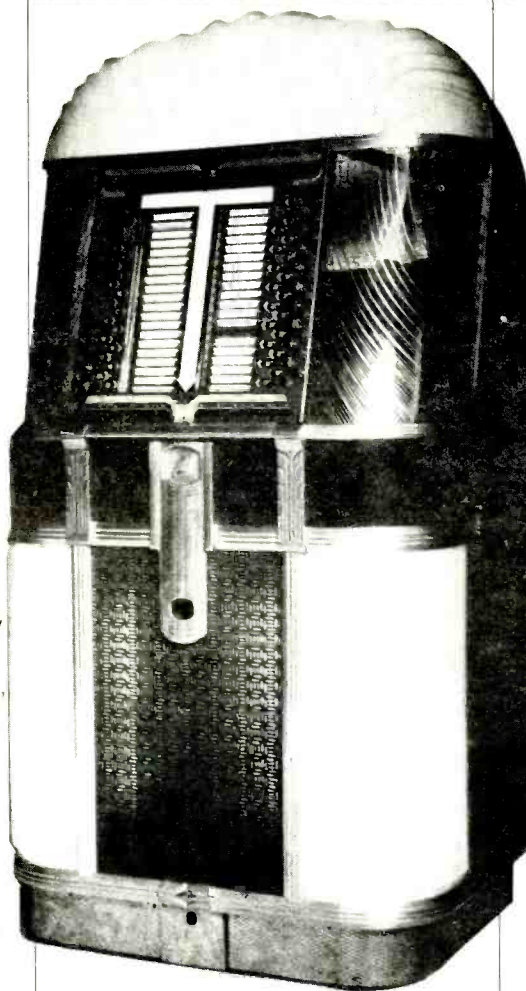

We don't hear Neil mentioned enough these days ... but we wonder about this: Are there any more Bogarts out there? If so, check in!

K.O. BAYLEY:

If anyone remembers THIS nut, contact this column and let's exchange anecdotes.

Long after the computerized call-out guys told us that personality radio was over and long before Rick Dees decided they were wrong, this guy was insulting listeners from New York to San Diego to Detroit and all points between and it was ... sorry about this ... FUNNY!

He ripped up memos from PD's in San Francisco and entertained audiences from Oceanside to Oakland, all the while being warned to skip the wit and play the hits. Finally discouraged from any creativity, he became a house painter and joined THE BIG GUY IN THE SKY when he racked up his car in Michigan somewhere a few years ago. His radio was probably on at the time and our theory is that he was distracted and disgusted and forgot to watch the road.

MITCHELL REED:

Many of you recall his days as 'progressive' or 'underground' jock at KMET and elsewhere, but WE remember him as The Man on The Couch playing jazz at WINS in Baltimore and WOR in NYC ... and as TOP 40 motormouth at KFWB in LA and WMCA in Gotham.

It didn't matter WHAT the format was ... Mitch was a communicator with an intimate relationship with his audience. He never heard of day-parts, he never SAW a computer and he flew in the face of the establishment for 30 years in radio. He, like Ted Turner, did it his way, and it worked! Any hint there?

ABE GLASER:

The crotchety iconoclast of record promotion has been gone for a few years now ... and WE don't see his replacement.

His heyday came between the 50's payola scandals and the resurfaced similarities of today. He never heard of a paper add and he bridged the gap between song-pluggers of the forties and promo-men of the seventies. He was both, and he did his number via a combination of knowledge of his product and formats and old-fashioned salesmanship and charm. When he visited secondaries around L.A., they knew he would not be arriving with printouts and figures. He showed up with a line of gab, a hell of an ear and his records. Never paid a station; Never had to.

BILL GAVIN:

Eric Norberg's comments about Bill a few weeks ago appeared some time after Bill's passing. We think it's because Eric needed some time to assemble his thoughts and ruminate on the loss so many of us suffered. Well said, Eric. Now it's my turn:

Although no-one pretends that pop-music radio is up there with cancer research, it WAS the field that Bill entered ... and fairly late in life. He decided that using all influence available to keep the field classy was a good idea. His every act, within the business, was designed to infuse our world with dignity and purge it of hypocrisy.

He told me over and over again that I could survive in this business while remaining true to myself, and the wisdom of his conversations and letters remains and will always remain.

His major inspiration was his proving that success CAN be had while ideals are adhered to. HE did it and he's one of the people I miss these days.

In fact, he's the one I miss the most.

THE GAVIN INTERVIEW: RICK SPRINGFIELD TALKS TO A STRANGER

by Kent/Keith Zimmerman

For someone who has successfully dabbled in so many forms of media (Radio, Television, Film, Video), Rick Springfield, a keen listener, isn't the interviewing type. Anyone who has closely examined and listened to his new LP, Tao, shouldn't be too surprised to find Springfield contemplative, modest, a little insecure and uncomfortable with fame. However, I was. His new album, assembled with co-producer Bill Drescher, synthesist Mitchell Froom, and sidekick/guitarist Tim Pierce, ranks as his finest, most thought out work. Springfield openly credits Eddie DeJoy for resurrecting his now booming career on RCA. Neither does he disavow his brief tenure in the medical/soap opera field on General Hospital. The fact that Springfield still drives his 1972 Ford Fiesta (unrecognized?) around town shows that he still remembers his roots, his salad days. That alone made him an interesting psychological study and an enjoyable, but challenging interview.

KZ: Do you do many interviews?

RS: No, this is the first interview I've done for the album.

KZ: I was listening to your new album. I was impressed. It was different than anything you've done.

RS: I had a long time to work on it, think about it and get the sounds right. I'm really happy with it.

KZ: It sounds like the kind of album that needs some explaining.

RS: I reel when people say, "It's a lot different for you," because it's a natural progression. It doesn't seem dramatically different to me. But I guess I understand. The other day on the radio (here in LA), they played a music set of four of my songs. It sounded like such old stuff . . . "Jessie's Girl," "I've Done Everything For You," "Don't Talk To Strangers." If you A and B the new album with the old stuff, I see what you mean. I've been living with them (the new songs) for so long. I wrote probably 60% of them before my tour last year and lived with them on the road, which I've never had the opportunity to do before. I've always had to grind (an album) out. That soundtrack album (Hard To Hold) gave me some extra time to live with the new songs for awhile. Then I came back and tweaked it to the way I wanted it. I'm real happy with the way it turned out sonically—the general sounds my co-producer Bill Drescher and I were able to get.

KZ: That's the exact word I was thinking, that word "sonic."

RS: It's the only way to explain it. I'm not a great technician when it comes to studios. But I know what I want in my head and I hear it. To be able to get it on tape is an entirely different thing. Drescher and I have worked together since the first album. The communication has gotten better and better.

KZ: This song, "State Of The Heart" is a great song.

RS: I don't take all the credit for it. A group called Mondo Rock from Australia with a guy called Eric McCusker, had one record out in America on Capitol and this song, "State Of The Heart" was on it. Except it was uptempo with a different meaning to it. The general thrust was there, but, lyrically, I changed it somewhat and slowed it down to make it into the groove that felt right. This is one of the all-time big songs in Australia—the way Eric originally did it.

KZ: What were you touching at with the opening track, "Dancing This World Away"?

RS: Both "Walking On The Edge" and "Dance This World Away" are both about, really, that we are all sitting here pissing our lives away when there's a real dark side that we all better focus on. You sit and you get wrapped up with this music, just having fun and carrying on. It's just trying to add a little bit of seriousness. Sometimes I think I'm one of the most unhappy people in the world just in looking at the world.

KZ: What happened?

RS: It's what I hope all of us are feeling. There had better be a hell of a lot of consciousness about what's going on. I don't want to make it a political statement. It's just a statement about life. I want my kids to be able to grow up and not worry about the threat of blowing people up. Love songs . . . boy meets girl and girl fucks with boy's head and then moves on. There's a place for that (in my albums) and it's alright, but it's not everything I want to say.

KZ: That's why I like this record so much though.

RS: It is different in that sense. I've gotten more courageous. I've sort of written myself out of relationships. In fact there was a Billy Idol interview (chuckle) that said "All Rick Springfield ever writes is love songs." I thought, "Well you know, he's actually right." (laughs) A lot of the stuff I wrote was about relationships I was in, or going through, or coming out of, or trying to get into. That's an international chord that rings with everybody. Last year, I got real panicked about a lot of stuff that people, who have a lot more control than you and I have, were doing. I just sat down and thought about it and put it down in words.

KZ: Have you been listening to any other kinds of music?

RS: There's a great new album by this band called Go West. Great album. The best album I've heard in six months is the new Graham Parker album. I spent some time with Graham Parker two years ago and he had just gotten a deal on Elektra. He's able to write songs in about twenty minutes, he said. He's a real quick writer.

KZ: Are you a quick writer?

RS: No. It's somewhat of an agonizing process for me. It is the most fun but I'm totally locked up away from everybody and there's no pressure. I have a great music room where I can hack this stuff out and go through it. It's not easy writing, for me anyway.

KZ: What's the significance of TAO?

RS: My theory behind it was that maybe somebody would pick up Webster's dictionary and read it. If I could get one person to do that then it was worth it. It was not to get too cerebral or pretentious. To me, it means simplicity and basics, teachings without words. My other title for the album, that RCA hated, was Why Am I Here And How Long Have I Got? (laughs) They hated it. Hence TAO came along.

KZ: In that song, "Walk Like A Man," there's so much frantic energy to it. Is that you, a hyper kind of person?

RS: That song epitomizes my life. I'm real frantic. I seem to always be disappointed. I set my goals so high. I'm never really able to achieve them—which I guess is good because then you try it again. I wonder if anybody ever does anything and says, "That's the best I'll ever do." (laughs) I really wanted to convey it in that song. It's about confusion, time ticking away.

People say you're supposed to be like a man, walk like a man. I'm still thinking, "Holy smokes, I'm a kid."

KZ: The album has meditative, transcendental thoughts. But musically, it wasn't cliched. You set a goal for yourself, instrumentally, and you reached it.

RS: I appreciate that. I know the songs and lyrics were up to what I wanted. But there's a far cry between doing what you can do at home and taking it in hand doing it on 48 tracks. We also had time to record this album. I never had time before. I've never been able to spend lots of time in a studio. Nobody pressured me and said, "You gotta hurry and get this thing done."

KZ: When did things get real hectic in your career?

"People like to label you. I think what surprises people about this album is that it hopefully takes them astray from the label they have for me."

RS: Oh, boy. Back when that General Hospital craziness was going on. There was a time during the second album that I was doing General Hospital Monday through Thursday. We'd take off and do shows Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. Then come back and during the day do General Hospital and at night record the second album, Success Hasn't Spoiled Me Yet. I came close to dying . . . it was close to a nervous breakdown. I could never do that again. I don't even know how I did it at the time. Except that you're hungry and you want it all to happen.

KZ: Is that why you said enough of this TV stuff?

RS: You gotta understand. I had had a number of less than successful albums. 1981 rolled around and RCA was willing to put out Working Class Dog. I fought with them not to put my picture on the cover. I thought a lot of the radio people would remember me from the teen idol days. I ended up taking the (General Hospital) job because it paid me $650 a day, three days a week. I thought, "I have a car payment and a house payment. This is the way to make both if the album doesn't happen." They (General Hospital) had me in a contract for two years and as soon as that contract was up, I was out of there. I think it was good for me. In retrospect, who can deny that it was not good for the album? I wouldn't have changed a thing.

People like to label you. Robert Hilburn of the LA Times, fairly regularly, when he can, takes a potshot. You don't hold it against him. He has a label for me. I don't think he's listened to my records. I'm sure he's never been to a concert. But he knows what he wants to think I am. We all do it. People like to label you. I think what surprises people about this album is that it hopefully takes them astray from the label they have for me.

KZ: I noticed some of the trades reviewed this album. We wrote something a little different. Some said, "If you want women listeners, play this." I don't think they listened to the record.

RS: They look at it as: Wham! and Rick Springfield deliver female listeners. Then it becomes marketing. We're not talking about the quality of the album. In Esquire, they ran this piece. Some guy wrote this piece, and his send-off was, "Well, what does Rick Springfield care about music anyway, because it's his face on the covers that sells the albums." Either he really hates my music or he hasn't listened to it.

RS: He's great. We flew him over from England. His stuff on Paul Young's album was exceptional.

KZ: Is "My Father's Chair" the most personal thing you have ever written?

RS: Absolutely. It's a song I did on tour last year. My dad died and I wrote a song called "April 24, 1981." It was just a short five line thought. I always wanted to write more . . . and couldn't. I couldn't deal with it. I was able to deal with it this time. I tried to keep it real simple. It was like a load off my shoulders. I just felt like I was carrying it around.

KZ: You felt better.

RS: Yes. I really did. "Walk Like A Man," "Walkin' On The Edge," "Dance This World Away," and "My Father's Chair" are really personal to me. We have to keep in mind here, it's not a cure for cancer, it's a piece of black vinyl with a hole in it. But for me personally, it was a chance to say, "Whew! Got that out of the way."

KZ: Is "Stranger In The House" based on a true story?

RS: It really happened. I write pretty much from my own experiences. "Stranger In The House," to me, is the closest thing to my old stuff.

KZ: What are your thoughts on the single "Celebrate Youth"?

RS: As I get older and my friends get older, we're all so clinging to youth. It's so important to us. It's amazing how all of us pretend that it doesn't matter. But it really does. I meant it as a tribute to youth. You can be 95 and still be youthful. My father was an incredibly youthful guy who

The top four are clearly the dominant group, though Fogelberg, Benson and Wham! have yet to have their day in court. This week's news includes the significant growth for Harold Faltermeyer, Julian Lennon and Alan Parsons. Last week's Record To Watch, The Tears For Fears, debuts at #29 with 17 new adds and a four week Hit Factor of 50%. If it's any help, every Record To Watch in 1985 has gone to at least #19. To qualify for my consideration the act must have either greater strength in another format or be a relatively unknown without "automatic" consideration status from A/C programmers. Madonna's ANGEL, next week's surest debut, picks up Most Added status this week with 53 adds. Looks like we did some housecleaning this week as seven records pop up in the NEW category and seven others are now history. In that NEW category the most added was the HIGHWAYMAN track by Waylon, Willie, Johnny & Kris.

BIO FEEDBACK

ROLLING STONES

Discussions are taking place for a possible tour of China. The Stones say they're interested in playing there.

SYLVIA

Her hit single, "Nobody", was the only gold single to come out of Nashville in all of 1982.

LEON EVERETTE

Leon is playing carpenter and building a house for his family in Ward, SC — a 7,500 square foot one!

DURAN DURAN

You probably know that Duran Duran takes their name from a character in the movie "Barbarella". But did you know that Milo O'Shea, who played Duran Duran in the movie, also appears in the upcoming Duran Duran movie?

CHINA CRISIS

Look for a new CC LP, produced by Steely Dan's Walter Becker.

GEORGE CLINTON

A new place to look for George Clinton is on the next Red Hot Chili Peppers LP. It will include Clinton's appearance on a cut and some production.

SIMPLE MINDS

Bass player Derek Forbes has left the band to pursue a solo career.

PHIL COLLINS

After the fifth night of sold-out gigs in London at the Royal Albert Hall, Phil was visited backstage by Robert Plant. Prince Charles and Lady Diana attended the closing night's show, Prince Charles being an avid fan.

HALL & OATES

Black charities will be the beneficiaries of a special Hall & Oates concert at the Apollo Theatre. The duo wants to show their appreciation for black community support over the past ten years.

BRYAN ADAMS

Bryan Adams was once bass player in a band called Sweeney Todd with Nick "HOT CHILD IN THE CITY" Gilder.

PRINCE/JAMIE STARR

Mark Sullivan of Musician Magazine says that the Library of Congress files confirm that ASCAP membership files list producer Jamie Starr (The Time etc.) as P.R. Nelson aka Prince Rogers Nelson aka Prince.

SPIELBERG SOUNDTRACK

New Stephen Spielberg movie titled "(Goonies R) Good Enough" will introduce some great new cuts produced by Arthur Baker. Artists included on the soundtrack are: Hall & Oates; REO Speedwagon; Luther Vandross; Philip Bailey and Cyndi Lauper.

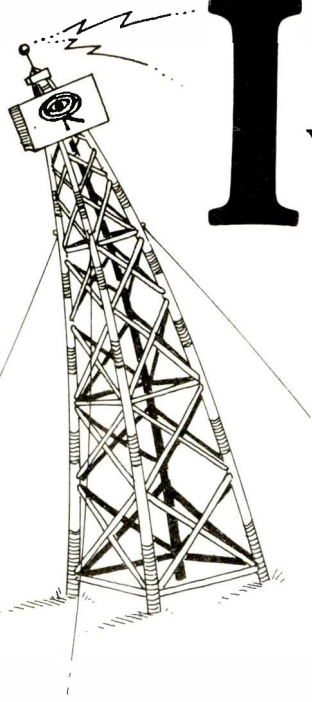

ELTON JOHN

Nik Kershaw and Roger Taylor, John Deacon, and Brian May of Queen will guest on the new Elton John LP produced by Gus Dudgeon.

THE POLICE

Drummer Stewart Copeland has recorded a new solo single called "Koteja". This is his third solo outing if you count the Rumble Fish soundtrack and his EP "Klark Kent".

bucks in front of me. The good news is Radio supported the album. I got more AOR airplay from "Love Somebody" than any other tunes I'd ever done.

KZ: How do you feel about the mood you ended the album on? Is there hope?

RS: There is hope. That's why I wrote this album. I hope the album will sell. (laughs)

KZ: I don't lie awake at night feeling sorry for you, Rick.

RS: There aren't a whole lot of people who do. (laughs) There was a time, I tell you, when I was sitting in The Starwood in 1973 and a guy came up to me and said, "Hey, you used to be Rick Springfield. What happened to you? You were okay." At the ripe old age of 21, I thought, "I'd better get something going here." So I went home to my cottage cheese ceiling apartment and felt sorry for myself for about eight years.

KZ: Did you really sell things at a flea market?

RS: Yeah. In Pasadena in the Rose Bowl. I made stained glass windows and lamps. Then I got a contract with Universal Studios TV and did all this hideous episodic stuff. Incredible Hulk, Rockford Files, Wonder Woman. Just when I thought they were gonna come and get my car—a 1972 Ford Fiesta and I just paid it off—or take my house away, one of those stupid residual checks for $560 would come in. Then I'd be sitting pretty for another two months. It was a weird time. I was in the first fifteen minutes of the Battlestar Galactica movie. Then they blew the hell out of me. I died. I was so jazzed to be able to be in this great thing. My agent called, I said, "Great!" I went down and had two days work out of it. I was in the first fifteen minutes and they killed me.

KZ: Who's that dog on your album covers?

RS: My dog. His name is Ron. He has a big ego and demanded that we put him somewhere on the album. We stuck him on the inner sleeve. He's getting a lot more hip. He's into leather jackets. I bought the amps when I was in Japan. They're three feet tall and they really work. The day I got my okay from RCA (for the first album) I found him. My girlfriend at the time had trapped this dog in the garage. He's been mine ever since. He's a mix between pit bull and bull terrier. I thought he was always a good luck charm. ■ always had that spark. Have you ever seen somebody who's 60, 50, 40, or 30, but they've got that kid in them?

KZ: Are you going to do any more movies?

RS: Yes. I don't want to leave the earth thinking that Hard To Hold was my only movie. We've got a deal with Universal Pictures and we're going to do another picture. I want it to be right. I did it (Hard To Hold) because they dangled a million

AROUND THE WORLD...-PRINCE (WARNER BROS.)

Prince combines a futuristic vision with a nod towards the psychedelized past. An exploration of the realms and limitations of a mass audience.

UP ON THE SUN-MEAT PUPPETS (SST)

The Kirkwood Brothers vocal harmonies are sweeping up college radio! Quite an evolution for a band that once sounded abrasive and furious.

NEW Releases

Pop Life/America/Raspberry Beret/Temptation/Paisley Park-PRINCE (Warner Bros.) Now that he's got 'em (the populi, that is), PRINCE is going to take 'em higher, like another supreme crossover we all remember. All the elements of the famed paradoxical persona are here: the confused mix of sexuality and theology, the insurmountable insecurity clashing with tremendous Sinatraesque ego, the true original talent that a million spinoff and imitation acts will never quite equal. He's the master of his own empire--inside and outside his own brain. String contributions are by NOVI NOVOG of CHUNKY, NOVI, and ERNIE. Remember them? By far, my favorite track is "Pop Life". It is the most level-headed, both instrumentally and lyrically. I have an odd suspicion it'll be a few years until the next LP. But then again, who knows?

Everytime You Go Away-PAUL YOUNG (Columbia-12") PAUL takes your average track off the HALL & OATES VOICES LP and transforms it into a showstopping, awe inspiring interpretive piece. The LP/single version far surpasses the extended 12" mix. PAUL YOUNG's craft as a stylist and vocalist is assured worldwide. The last LP sold four million units. The LP being played around here as an import is also deep and XLNT. More on that (plus an upcoming cover/interview) later...

Steady/Change/The Favor's On/Here S-He Comes/Memories Burn Hard/You're Not Around/If She Knew...-JULES SHEAR (EMI) An absolutely magnificent, potentially hit-filled record. The cast of musicians is impressive, as is the production of BILL DRESCHER (who produced RICK SPRINGFIELD's fine new LP). I dare you to find a melodically stronger record in your entire audition pile. The sound is big, certainly not wimp, but highly Emulized. The flow and consistency is superb. The emotion on tracks like "Steady" cascade so naturally, you can tell you're hearing the work of a pro. Check out "Change". It's a winner, like most all of this LP. Don't overlook THE ETERNAL RETURN a minute longer.

No Time To Cry/Marian/Black Planet-SISTERS OF MERCY (Elektra) Don't know about you, but these are the kind of LP's that get a lot of persistent play in THE BUNKER. This is dark music with a silver lining. The SISTERS are a hard band to hang a label on. Even though singer ANDREW ELDRITCH moans like BOWIE at 16 RPMs, the SISTERS convey an elegant dark groove that's soulfully hazey and demented. It's also the small subtleties (like that high/low chord change on the chorus of "Marian") that hook you with each listen. SISTERS OF MERCY look tough, but they're as afraid and vulnerable as the rest of us. Look for a huge Alternative following.

All You Zombies-HOOTERS (Columbia) A real smooth tune. Philly's HOOTERS have got themselves a hit record. Case dismissed.

Hard N Loud/Straight Forward/Needle In The Groove/Don't Tell Mama-MAMA'S BOYS (Jive /Arista) You don't read many reviews in GAVIN of hard rock LP's because, frankly, most of the current crop's a sorry lot. Here's a notable exception. Though you'd never know it from the song titles and even the endorsements (Paiste Is Rude), Ireland's MAMA'S BOYS have given way to a more bluesy groove driven style of hard rock. Like I said, all the trappings for an obnoxious metal barrage are on the cover, although what you eventually find inside the grooves is a lot hipper. Ya just gotta listen.

Once again, our station sample chooses TEARS FOR FEARS as this week's number one. Now let's move on to this week's top stories...TIL TUESDAY broke loose this week in a big big way. Sure, our progressive sample spots records like these quickly, but pay heed. This is a happening record with a respectable retail chain reaction...EURHYTHMICS new 12" is clearing a path for their excellent new LP. If you're anticipating sitting on the fence, don't. As a matter of fact, the single has far surpassed by even better trax on the LP. It is quite a spectacular release...PRINCE's new LP is a monster. Though his fears of over-exposure may be an issue plus, most of us are sick to the teeth of his offstage antics. The fact remains that the music on this LP is undisputable in terms of magnitude. The guy CAN'T be accused of complacency. He's challenging and communicating to his fans. The LP is four trax deep out of the box. Stations are testing more...BOOMTOWN RATS benefit from the buzz started at a few key stations...playing "Rain" as an import, back when it was "Dave". The track stands out on it's own merit as a HIT song, even though Bob Geldof has racked up some good karma with his work combating starvation...HOOTERS hoot up a storm their first week out of the box. After hearing their independent release (I wasn't too impressed), you'll have to admit "Zombies" is unique and polished. Watch this record take off the next two weeks...Other picks to click include the new GINO VANNELLI, JULES SHEAR, RICK SPRINGFIELD's "State Of The Heart", and a smoldering CHRIS ISAAK...JEFF GOLD at A&M sent me his compilation of CAT STEVEN'S best on a CD. After listening, it made me think how touched I was by the first three CAT STEVENS LP's a long time ago (CAT is now a Moslem). It sure helped during those formative years. Are we offering young listeners the same opportunity?...Over the weekend, I heard new TALKING HEADS material. For the record, they're doing it as a four piece...MADONNA's tour stormed through here this week, but we caught NIK KERSHAW instead. A small guy who played some good guitar...Coming in an upcoming GAVIN is an interview with JOHN SEBASTIAN and his EOR format. Interesting concepts...stay straight KZ.

The shake-up finally occurs after last week's freeze of the top four records. THE BLASTERS and GRAHAM PARKER are POWER TRIO newcomers, with the latter ready to make a run for the top. The rest of the Top Ten sees little action except for new entree ALISON MOYET who is simultaneously breaking on Top 40 (see the chart on page 2). For MOYET a long delayed but well deserved accomplishment.

Most of the significant movement on the chart rests on the middle and lower segments. Our CERTIFIED, THE MEAT PUPPETS, is following the footsteps of label-mate HUSKER DU. It's exploding out of non-commercial radio, but needs better response from commercial programmers.

Honorable mention goes to FISHBONE and GAME THEORY, who were CERTIFIED runners up. Both albums are drawing tremendous airplay from college stations but also could use higher commercial exposure.

After being edged out of debuting the past few weeks, the LIME SPIDERS and NOVEMBER GROUP make the chart. The EURHYTHMICS 12" also appears with almost all its airplay coming from commercial radio. It should kick in when the LP arrives.

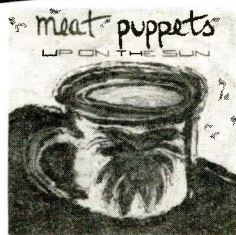

Our MOST ADDED, THE BOOMTOWN RATS, easily beat out runner-up PRINCE. THE RATS should debut comfortably on the chart once their adds are converted into rotations in the coming weeks.

P.D. NOTEBOOK by Eric Norberg

THE GREAT MYTH ABOUT SPORTS ON THE RADIO

...And that great myth is that carrying a popular sports franchise on your station will somehow attract new listeners to your station who will stay there. I spent several years working for a broadcast organization for whom that myth is clearer than reality itself and is not to be questioned seriously. Yet while working there, I had the opportunity to do much research on the matter and found the exact opposite. In fact, people listen to sports on the radio as they watch programs on TV; they go where the program is, and don't care at all where it is. Does liking the Bill Cosby Show on TV mean that you will choose NBC-TV's news over the CBS news you used to watch? The ratings still say no. There is no relationship between Cosby and NBC news. There is no loyalty to the TV station that carries one, that transfers to the other.

Ah, you may rejoin, but radio is different. People do feel loyal to their station! . . . And indeed, that is true. EXCEPT when sports is involved. People who like other stations will tune in to yours to get the sports event—and then will zoom back to where they came from without a second thought. (Your own listeners will gradually seep back when the event is over, because even though the sports event is not what they expected to hear when they tuned in, they are loyal, and they do come back. Some even loyally listen to the sports event because it's on their station—but this does not help your ratings; it just keeps from hurting them as much as it might.)

Despite all this (which is fairly obvious if you think about it and watch what people really do when they listen to sports play-by-play on the radio), I have seen once great stations make the remarkable mistake of positioning themselves as "the station with the (name franchise)." What they accomplish is simply identifying themselves in the listener's mind only as the station they should find that sports event on, while other stations are the ones for "the music," "the news," "the weather," "the traffic reports," etc. The listeners who wanted the sports broadcast would have found it anyway without any "positioning" at all! And then ratings are good for the game . . . and keep slipping in other time periods!

Then, when some station commits the same hara-kiri by bidding foolish sums to get it away from them, they fall to the ground—identified with "nothing" now, while the other station begins the fatal process of creating that same sort of close identification with the team.

So what should a station pick up a sports event for? To make money. Occasionally, it can be good PR in the community to do it, but that too will convert into new money. Some stations have bid so high to get a "big" sports event that they cannot possibly get the money back; that's dumb. In many cases the team itself packages and sells the games, leaving the key station with just a few spots to sell. That, too, is dumb. If a station cannot expect to make money carrying the play-by-play of a sports franchise, then it should not carry it. There: seven years of research, yours free in the Gavin Report! □

Eight point jumps for WILLIE NELSON (solo) and the STATLER BROTHERS confirm both singles being Certified by "out-of-the-box" believers. RICKY SKAGGS' "Country Boy" and the OAK RIDGE BOYS' "Little Things" join RONNIE McDOWELL in the Top Request box, with SAWYER BROWN and CONWAY TWITTY about to penetrate. BRIAN SHAMLEY at KJJR can't schedule "Drops Of Water" by THE JUDDS often enough for their fans in WHITEFISH, MT. DON RHEA tells us "I Hope You're Never Happy" in DOLLY's current album is the number one request at KQIL-GRAND JUNCTION, CO. Despite the fact that there are only three debuts in the Top 40, the chart appears more flexible. The first five singles in Action Sides are Chartbound. All three debuts in this category have "the sweet smell of success". GEORGE SEPULVIDA, KHUY-SACRAMENTO, introduced the "Highwayman" to his listeners this week, creating havoc for the phone system, especially by male callers. Up and Coming: THE BELLAMYS "Old Hippie" will put a smile on your face and the ladies will relate to JANIE FRICKE's "She's Single Again" tale.

ANALYSIS

Anyone who didn't think the MARY JANE GIRLS have what it takes to knock out and replace #1 was wrong. They did it with style, too - crossing over successfully as suggested here weeks ago. Many believed in this one after one play and gave it a great start, making the rest come around slowly - but they did come around. SADE will give it some competition soon, but right now it's way ahead in stats. Next threats will come from WHITNEY HOUSTON and KLYMAXX (see page 41 for Dave Sholin's Personal Crossover Picks), both already top 5 and look like they intend to stay there. Although ATLANTIC STARR and FREDDIE JACKSON are still making hefty gains, they'll need to keep up their momentum to say ahead of this week's "Certified" choices: MARVIN GAYE and READY FOR THE WORLD. Take another look at the two "Chartbusters" (one more reason why we don't call this page black or urban), both are very much in the air throughout the country in many formats. Everyone that wasn't on it last week jumped on THE DEELE's "Material Thangz" - making it our "Most Added", with threats for the position coming from four tunes that, interestingly enough, have very little in common: RENE & ANGELA's "In My Pants", PHIL COLLINS' "Sussudio", RUN DMC's "You Talk Too Much", and JOHNNY GILL's "Can't Wait 'Til Tomorrow". Each is so different in style they offer lots of variety for programmers and their audiences. Since some of you commented on last week's "below the cut" entries (two out of three made the page this week), we'll go into the listings again for the current week. Of course, the PRINCE LP has lots of adds, with the consensus cuts looking like this (in order of the number of reports): "Raspberry Beret", "Pop Life", "America", and "Temptation". Next in line would be JEAN KNIGHT and PENNYE FORD, followed not too far behind by MAZE and SKIPWORTH & TURNER. Looks like the next MAZE single will be "Too Many Games", which is the cut most reported, and now added, by our station reporters. PAUL HARD-CASTLE's new one, "King Tut", starting to get adds this week, too.

Other events include Alina The Belly Dancer, a magician, live music, refreshments, an antique car show, fire engine rides, and "Bust A Bag" waterbed jumping for the kids.

FLASHTYPE

In March, Z107 in LOWELL, IN co-sponsored a "Flash-type Contest" in cooperation with the Muscular Dystrophy Association. JIM HOLLY, Operations Manager, served as emcee for the event, in which contestants vied for prizes in the areas of accuracy and speed. Pledges were taken for words typed per minute. All pledges went to the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

GIANT CHILI DOG

The KNAC Big Dog Chili Team outshined its competitors at this year's Tecate Western Festival and Chili Cookoff on March 31st, winning awards in various categories at the fundraising event. Over 15,000 people enjoyed the festival, sponsored by the Long Beach Grand Prix Benevolent Association, with proceeds benefiting local charities. The station's participation was highlighted by dance hall girls, barking contests, prize giveaways, and team members clad in the official Big Dog Chili Team t-shirts. The festival and cookoff attracted twice as many people as last year's event and raised over $60,000 for local charities.

WHAT'S IN THE BOX?

Z103-Tallahassee, FL takes the wraps off prize number one in its "Black Box" Promotion. The prize was a 1985 Nissan 300ZX and 100,000 people were in attendance at the "Springtime Tallahassee Parade" to see it. The promotion was started by having the "Black Box" suspended high in the air by a crane during the morning rush hour and the box contained the keys to the car. The lucky listener who can identify the other two items in the box will win all three prizes!

DESKATHALON

April 24th is National Secretary's Day and it will be marked on the calendars of the staff at KMJI-DENVER. The Office Champion Deskathlon will be held from 6:00-8:00 PM at the Denver Denver Club and the proceeds will go to the March of Dimes. Teams will participate in events such as "Wastebasket Ball," "Push Pin Pull," "Paper Clip Shoot," and "Time Xeroxing," and prizes will be awarded to the winners.

Dave Sholin Personal Picks

HOOTERS - All You Zombies (Columbia)

Producer Rick Chertoff, the man responsible for the "unusual" Cyndi Lauper has another unusually hot band on his hands. In fact Hooter's Rob Hyman and Eric Bazilian were musicians, arrangers and co-writers on the Lauper LP with Hyman being a co-writer on "Time After Time". If these guys have more material like this, watch out! Put this on top of the stack of new records you're listening to this week.

KIM CARNES - Crazy In The Night (Barking at Airplanes) (EMI)

Kim has written and co-produced her best tune in quite sometime, which should have her barking up top 40 playlists quickly! She weaves her spell with a musical riddle so catchy it's virtually impossible not to join in and sing along.

LONE JUSTICE - Ways to be Wicked (Geffen)

Expect to hear a great deal about this group of newcomers in the months ahead. Put this on your turntable and watch as steam rises off the vinyl. Lead vocalist Maria McKee tears it up on this track written by Tom Petty and Mike Campbell. McKee is without a doubt one of the wickedest voices I've heard in years.

Personal Crossover Picks

This week marks the debut of a new category in the Personal Picks section. While I expect the majority of the records in this section to come from the R&B page, A/C, Album and Country crossovers may qualify from time to time. This section will only appear when records have reached crossover status, so don't expect it on a weekly basis.

WHITNEY HOUSTON - You Give Good Love (Arista)

Cissy Houston's daughter has wasted no time pulling off a top ten R&B hit from her debut LP. Beginning to build an impressive A/C base, this beautiful ballad has many of the same qualities of the Jones/Ingram hit "Just Once" and has the mass appeal to make it the song for summer lovers.

KLYMAXX - Meeting in the Ladies Room (Constellation/MCA)

Another top ten R&B entry loaded with great lines Jocks just love to play off of. Adds humor, and hipness in the context of a tight rhythm track to Top 40 playlists begging for balance.

Ron Fell Personal Picks

Prince & The Revolution "Around the World in A Day" (Warner Brothers)

Sgt. Pepper meets the Salt Peter Prince. The funky walrus, now on a spiritual retreat in search of the soul of Jimi Hendrix, climbs to a higher rung on the ladder. Like the Beatle epic alluded to in the first sentence, Prince's "Around the World in A Day", finds our hero out on different limbs. He cuts back drastically on the erotic inuendos, drops in a cello and a violin, while retaining some familiar melodic and rhythmic themes from the "Purple Rain" era. I don't think first impressions take into consideration the subtleties, the layers of complexity. Radio's pop music spectrum was quick to respond with airplay when this LP arrived unannounced at their door. Instant consensus trax include: RASPBERRY BERET and POP LIFE. But I think second listens will include AMERICA and THE LADDER. Call it brilliant, self-indulgent, experimental, extraordinary, odd, challenging... anything but boring.
