Music & Lyrics by STEVIE WONDER

My love is warmer than a smile
My love gives to every needing child

If anyone should ask you who's my true love

Tell them my love true is ever letting all their love come through

My love sees love with not a face
And lives to love through time and space

If all of everything about my love fits to the tune of you
Then you can say that you are my love too

(1st Chorus)

Let my love shine throughout the world

To every mountain top and steeple

Let it be felt by every soul

'Til love's all over

Let it reach out to every heart
To every disinfranchised people
'Til it is present and no more is pain all over

Our love sees love's the key to peace

We'll pray 'til all world wars have ceased

Should you or anyone you know enough to say they feel as we Then let our universal song be free

(2nd Chorus)

Let our love shine throughout the world

To every mountain top and
steeple

Let it be felt by every soul

'Til love's all over

Let it reach out to every heart
To every disinfranchised people
'Til it is present and no more is
pain all over

Say words of love to all we see
To rich or poor for love is equal

Let us lift up humanity

Spread love all over

Let all its forces join as one

So to rebuke all signs of evil

Through every valley, land and sea

Our love all people

INSIDE TOP 40

by Dave Sholin

Politicians and economists continually remind us of America's ever-increasing trade deficit. Most of us have some idea of the amount of goods imported into the U.S. Anybody care to guess the country's leading EXPORTS? A study by Forbes Magazine places the aircraft industry at number one, with a $10.8 billion trade surplus. At number two: the entertainment industry, with a healthy $5 billion surplus. Recordings (mostly pop music) were responsible for a whopping $1.4 billion, a figure which surpassed TV programming and movies, and fell just short of the $1.8 billion leader, videocassettes. Those amounts are staggering when you consider that a large portion of the world's population is not allowed to listen to that evil, mind-altering Western rock 'n' roll. Islamic fundamentalists and the iron-fisted leaders of eastern Europe are threatened by the popular music of the West. In the movie "Hail Hail Rock 'n' Roll," Chuck Berry probably gave the best explanation why when he said, "Rock 'n' roll is freedom." Millions of humans on this planet are hungry for the rhythms, the release and the communication that music provides and they're listening and purchasing more and more of it.

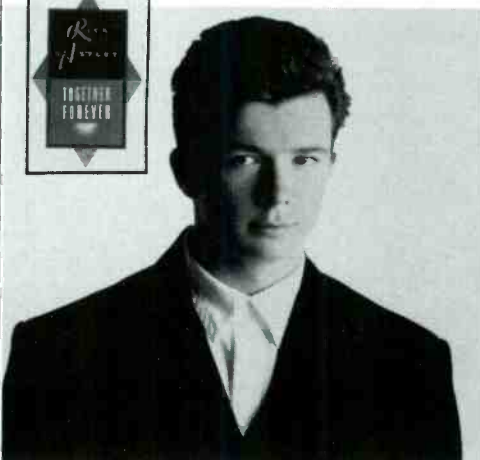

Bursting into the top twenty, OMD more than double their HIT FACTOR stats from 22% to 46%. Biggest moves came from KZHR Yakima 23-15, KQEN Roseburg 28-16, Z100 Portland 22-17, POWER 106 Los Angeles 27-22, KEWB Redding 23-16, Y108 Denver 27-22, KFTZ Idaho Falls 22-15, KWKR Garden City 27-18, KKYK Little Rock 25-18, WDBR Springfield 23-18, WZMM Wheeling 27-19, WHSB Alpena 27-17, Q101 Meridian 26-18, WWUF Waycross 28-19, 100KHI Ocean City 20-13, WKNE Keene 30-20, WWFX Bangor 25-19, etc.

Strong activity in the West and Midwest on TIMES TWO. KIIS Los Angeles takes it 26-22 while nearby KEZY Anaheim confirms the trend with a 22-18 gain. Also doing well for LIVE 105 19-15 and KMEL San Francisco 30-26, KCPX 15-12 and KISN Salt Lake City 31-25, K100 Chico 27-20, KWIN Stockton 27-22, KOZE 7-6 and KMOK Lewiston 30-24, K-STAR Grand Junction 21-12, KDWZ Des Moines 27-21, KLYV Dubuque 29-22, WXXQ Freeport 26-20, WZOK Rockford 30-25, KKRC Sioux Falls 16-13, etc.

This week's cover is adorned by a lady who wasted no time in getting her fourth single on the Top 40, slipping right by CHARTBOUND. Top thirty debuts on DEBBIE GIBSON are easy to find. B94 #26, KITY #19, KBQ #26, KZOU #23, KSND #27, Q106 #24, KMEL #27, KOY #29, KKYK #22, KIIK #29, WPXR #29, WKOR #24, B104 #28, 102QQ #20, Z100 #24, Z94 #26, WXKS #22, WTIC #28, WNYZ #28, etc.

Looks like RICK ASTLEY is about to make it two in a row. The big difference this time around is that it isn't taking him quite as long to garner that airplay. Already top ten in Boston at WXKS where it gets a 21-10 jump. Debuts in the top twenty at Z100 New York #20 and KQID Alexandria #18. New at WJET, 95XXX, WDEK, KFMW, WLKI, WCIL, Q104, Z103, etc.

Plenty of success stories on LITA FORD, who also flies by a CHARTBOUND stop with a HIT FACTOR of 18%. Top ten at WVKZ 4-3, KZFN 3-1, Y95 11-4, KFBD 9-7, WSPT 1-1, and 6-5 at KOZE where it became the best-testing record the station's ever had with a 98% positive showing—and 147 calls in 15 minutes! Adds include KWSS San Jose, WIBW Topeka, KATD Los Gatos/San Jose, WTBX Duluth, WROQ Charlotte, POWER99 Atlanta, KZZP Phoenix, KMGZ Lawton, etc.

Excellent adult reaction highlights the movement on THE CHURCH. Goes into the top thirty at KKRC Sioux Falls where Lester St. James says, "Sales have really taken off in the last week, calls are increasing, and we've upped the rotation." New on KEGL, Y108, 92X, KPLZ, WBXQ, WLRW, KIXS, Y94, KQIX, WIFC, KPHR, KHHT, WMMY, WWFX, etc.

POISON shows up in the MOST ADDED category for the second straight week. Randy Kabrich and Bobby Rich debut it #28 at Q105 Tampa. Sixty-two adds, including KCPX Salt Lake City, KEYP Tyler, CKXY and LG73 Vancouver, WSPT Stevens Point, WMMS Cleveland, Y104 Hattiesburg/Laurel, B94 Pittsburgh, WBBQ Augusta, WANS Greenville, KLBQ El Dorado, etc.

A tremendous week for MIDNIGHT OIL who put on the the best performance I've witnessed in years during a recent gig in San Francisco. That live excitement is translated on their single, which is number one again at LIVE 105 and moves into the top ten at KATD 12-7. Bob Weber takes it 19-12 at WLLI and says requests are top five. Other gains at KUUB 13-8, POWER 92 25-20, KZFN 29-20, Z104 34-24, KZEV 23-14, WMMS 28-21, WILI 28-23, etc. Added at WKLQ, WIQQ, KWSS, KSND, Z100 Portland, etc.

Over 100 reports for the first time on BRENDA K. STARR. HIT FACTOR is now 17%. John Austin, MD at WPXR Rock Island, IL, gives it a big 22-15 jump and reports excellent sales and research along with top ten requests. Other moves in the top twenty at WHYT 22-19, Z93 24-20, KHSS 21-15, WRGI 23-19, 100KHI 25-19, WYYS 23-16, etc.

Gary Waldron at KISN Salt Lake City is the first to take former RECORD TO WATCH BREATHE to number one. Crosstown KCPX isn't far behind with a 4-3 listing. Keith Naftaly at KMEL San Francisco says this is not a song typical for the station but it is performing in a big way. Keith reports "unbelievable female response from all ages...It just gets em." Climbs at KATD 7-5, KDON 14-7, KFIV 11-7, KMEL 20-17, FM102 3-27, WCIL 19-11, KUUB 7-2, K104 13-11, KNEN 26-23, etc. New on KWSS, KTMT, KKXL, Y95, Q96/76, etc.

Number-one requests for KOOL MOE DEE's "Wild Wild West" at B93/FM Austin, where Kevin Davenport logs top five sales on the 12" and top twenty sales on the single. He says it's getting twice as many calls as the number-two requested song. Rockets 15-1 at WHKW, 27-19 Z93, 20-14 B95, 22-16 KMGX, 22-16 KITY, and a debut at #29 at KS104.

DEPECHE MODE takes a big 26-14 move at KKQV Wichita Falls. LIVE 105 San Francisco lists it 14-12 and K106 Beaumont debuts it at #27. Added at CKOI, KCPX, POWER 104, FM102, Y95, KATD, KKTX, WAIL, KZZK, KTMT, and KPLZ.

For a teenager, few years are as action-packed and exciting as the senior year of high school. Final exams, getting ready for the prom, partying with friends and preparing for graduation day tend to make the days fly by. But for Merrick, Long Island's Debbie Gibson, this senior year is nothing short of incredible. Besides keeping up with her studies and socializing, she is finalizing plans for her first concert tour this summer, working feverishly on a new, as yet untitled album, and watching her fourth consecutive hit single race to the top of the chart.

If human energy could be converted to electricity, Debbie could easily light New York City. We spoke recently during a spring break afternoon. Debbie slept in late following a studio session that went 'til 6:30 in the morning. She's got brains, beauty and talent, but it is quickly evident that she hasn't let success go to her head. With help from a keen sense of humor, she is clearly focused on keeping her career and life on track.

Debbie Gibson

GAVIN: Do you usually come up with the titles of the songs before or after you write them?

DG: I usually have the title when I write the songs. When I tried to name the last album, I was running out the door, and my manager called up and said they needed a definite answer now. I figured "Out of the Blue" really summarized my style as straightforward pop. Sounds good for a debut album!

GAVIN: How did you feel when you finished the album?

DG: I felt really strongly about it. I have a lot of confidence in what I do. I don't attribute everything to luck. I'm involved in every aspect of my career. That's why I felt so strongly about it—because I knew it sounded exactly the way I wanted it to.

GAVIN: At seventeen, you've had three consecutive top five records, something most artists work for for many years. Are you surprised by what's happened?

DG: I have been in the business in one way or another since I was about five. The fact that I didn't have to struggle meant I never had to change my style to have a hit. I just did what I did. Not having to struggle allowed me to keep my sound honest. I never said, "Oh, I have to have a hit soon."

GAVIN: As I understand it, you met Doug Breitbart, your manager, when you were thirteen and you had a contract specifying that you couldn't release any material for three years. Is that true?

DG: No. I've read a lot of incorrect information—that he taught me to sing, act and dance. That's not true at all. We went to him with a bunch of songs when I was twelve going on thirteen. He hadn't managed anyone in the past, and I hadn't worked with anyone before. It took some convincing in the beginning. Now a lot of record companies are jumping on the bandwagon and signing young acts, but that hadn't been true since the seventies.

We had to do some convincing with him and with the record company. My mother would tell him, "You don't understand, I live with this kid. She has a lot of energy and nonstop dedication to what she does." He had to learn that over those three years.

GAVIN: Did your parents urge you on, or did they let you just do this all on your own and step back?

DG: My family and myself combined have been behind the success so far. I have three sisters and they never pushed us to do anything. When parents force their kids to take piano lessons or join the baseball team or whatever, the kids are going to resent it. My parents said, "You can try whatever you want. We'll support you." I wanted to take piano lessons when I was little, and they said, "Sure, try it." My sisters and I were probably the only kids in America who used to fight for piano time. My sisters are into music, but they're not into performing, and my parents feel that's fine. My older sister, Karen, who's 22, works for PolyGram Music Publishing, and my sister Michelle goes to Vassar College. She studies music and makes a lot of the clothes that I perform in. My younger sister Denise, who's thirteen, is basically into being a junior high school student and playing tennis. Piano is more of a hobby for her.

GAVIN: How about your folks? Are they musical?

DG: Well, actually, my mother always wanted to take piano lessons. She's got a good ear but she's not into music as far as playing or singing. My dad used to sing in a barbershop quartet when he was a kid. He was in a home for boys, and four of the boys got together and formed this group. But when they were eighteen, they split up and went their separate ways. They were never really into it on a professional level.

GAVIN: I was wondering how you became interested in music at such a young age.

DG: There was always a radio on in the house. That was my major influence in the beginning. When I was about four, I used to sit down and imitate what I heard on the radio. I remember playing and singing "Billy, Don't Be A Hero." I used to run down the hall to where the stereo was, listen and run back and play it on the piano. And every time it came on I made sure I got it right! (laughs)

GAVIN: You've said the teen idol of the fifties you and your mom remember most is Paul Anka.

DG: His career didn't just end when the teen idol phase was over. He continued writing for other people, and he had true talent. I compare it to today. I don't think that it's just a fad. A lot of the teen artists have talent. I think Tiffany's got a great voice—truthfully, she has a better voice than a lot of adults who are on the radio. Shanice Wilson—she's excellent also.

GAVIN: Do you think there's a reason for that gap in the seventies where you really didn't find many young people on the radio?

DG: I guess the people who were the youngest people in the business are now growing up. It's time for some new fresh music—not that Madonna's old or anything, but her image has totally changed from a young person to an adult. I don't think you found Madonna songs on the Adult Contemporary charts four years ago. Also, there have just been a lot of kids working at it. There really are a lot of talented kids out there—I know, from doing theater and stuff. I hope the fact that I came out with records and that Tiffany came out with records opens the door for other talented teenagers so people will give them a chance. I know Capitol just signed 12-year-old Tracie Spencer. So it's good!

GAVIN: I hope so. Do you see any down side?

DG: As long as the teenager can handle it and is prepared for the work, and not doing it for fun and games, I think it's fine.

GAVIN: Can you tell me how your home studio came about?

DG: When I started writing, I would take a few little tape recorders and a little Casio. I would play the drums separately, then play the bass line and keep bouncing down between tape recorders. Obviously, by the end you'd have more tape hiss than music. We were discussing with people who knew about setting up studios and got advice on what equipment to get. I set up a four-track, one synthesizer and a drum machine—you know, the basics. Now it's grown to twelve-track, and I've got four keyboards and lots of outboard gear. It's really good for me because my arrangements and productions have gotten much tighter from working at home. I'm producing more on my next album than on the last album.

GAVIN: Do you think modern recording technology—synthesizers and everything else that's available—has really made it easier for young people to start their careers in music?

DG: When I listen to a song, I can tell the difference if the person was a classically trained musician or if they're just playing with synthesizers. With a lot of the dance music, you can just tell the person has no knowledge of real music. So I think that, while it's made it easier, the people who will last are based in classical music. I would hope that would come through in my arrangements.

GAVIN: How long did you study classical music?

DG: Since the age of five. Classical piano.

GAVIN: Do you still play at all?

DG: Well, I haven't been back to piano in a year. I hope to get back to it. I mean, obviously, this has been a busy year. (laughs) I still do pick up my classical books because that's really important as far as technique goes. I'm not saying I'm staying away from synthesizers, because I love the sounds. But I'm going in next week to do live piano on two songs to add more of a human touch. To me, that's nice. We don't keep it to just drum machines and synthesizers. We've got live percussion, live bass, live guitar, drum overdubs, piano—the whole bit.

GAVIN: How would you explain the process of signing with Atlantic?

DG: Doug first introduced me to Atlantic when I was about fifteen. I would send them everything I did at home and keep them updated. I set a goal for myself: "I want to have a record contract by the time I'm sixteen." I figured I'd have a nice selection of songs, and it was a good age, school-wise to start a career. Larry Yasgar listened to about fifty songs, and from those fifty, we chose "Only In My Dreams." I was first only signed to a 12-inch deal. They eventually released a 7-inch, which actually did better. It went to number four on the pop charts and only 12 on club play, so it was really more of a pop record. Then they decided to do the album. "Only In My Dreams" was peaking while I was in the studio working on the album.

GAVIN: That record was already happening while you were still working on the LP?

DG: Yup. So we were on a tight deadline with the album. I had started getting fan mail from "Only In My Dreams" saying, "I'm looking for your album. Where is it?" I would respond, "I'm in the studio working on it!" (laughs)

GAVIN: Was your age a problem as far as playing in clubs and so on?

DG: Nope, as long as I didn't go into the main part of the club. But a performer wouldn't want to go into the club after they did a show or they'd be slightly mobbed. So I would go in the stage door. The club base was important because a teen artist is bound to have a teen audience anyway and it helped me pull in more adults.

GAVIN: Has school taken a back seat to your career?

DG: I still go to the same high school that I've gone to. Last year, if I missed a month or two I would just get a tutor. I managed to do well on my Regents (the New York State standardized tests). I have about a 91 average over all. I was always in advanced classes, so this year I don't have that many requirements to fulfill. English and gym are the main things.

GAVIN: Here you are in the top ten for the past year. It's got to be weird going to school. How have your friends adapted to your fame?

DG: I still have the same friends I've always had.

GAVIN: They don't treat you any differently?

DG: No. See, when I first started writing songs, they'd say, "These are good. Why don't you send them to the radio station?" I'd say, "You don't understand. There's more to it." They saw the work involved so they didn't resent it at all. They would say, "What do you mean, you can't go to this party?" I'd say, "No, no, no, I really want to work on this song." And I'd ask my friends' opinions on my songs. I mean, it's not the deciding factor, but it's good. I have my own research department. Because they may say, "I like that and I know you like that, but I don't know if anybody else will like that." But all my friends liked "Out Of The Blue" a lot, and they all liked "Foolish Beat" which is the next single. That's like all my friends' favorite...

GAVIN: What about at school?

DG: In school you get two other reactions: you have people who suddenly resent you, and you have people who suddenly want to be your friend. Everyone assumes that someone who has records on the charts is obnoxious, but I pretty much get along with everyone in school. I've been able to show people you can have the best of both worlds. You can maintain a normal life and a professional life. That's important to me because everyone should have to deal with everyday things.

GAVIN: I would think it would help in writing songs...

DG: It does. It's interesting. You're the second person who's said that to me this week. I'm looking into writing some music for Cher, and John Kalodner said, "It's important to keep up the normal life, or you won't be able to write songs." He said the same thing to (Jon) Bon Jovi when he was having lunch with him a few days before. He said, "There's an example. He's still the typical guy from New Jersey," which is important in songwriting because you have to be able to write songs about down-to-earth things, subjects everyone can relate to. If you put yourself in another world, people are going to say, "Whoa, where is she coming from?"

GAVIN: A few years down the road, when Debbie Gibson has had seven platinum albums, will she still keep that perspective?

DG: All I can say is I'll try. That's really my ultimate goal—to stay sane. My family would never let me get out of hand. We still are like, "You do the dishes." "No—you do the dishes." "No, I did them last night." Talking to you, I may sound more grown-up than I really am. I still hang out with my friends and gossip and get really silly and stuff.

GAVIN: Do you prefer performing to writing and producing?

DG: I like it all. Production is probably one of the most exciting things because the possibilities are endless. I don't think I'll ever learn enough about production. That's where you really get to put in a lot of creativity. I prefer singing to a live audience to singing on tape because I have perfect pitch and when I listen to some records on the radio, sometimes the pitch is all over the place, and it drives me up the wall. I get really really picky. I was doing vocals till five this morning! (laughs) I want to make sure everything is perfect. This one record I'm working on now is really different. It's kind of like a folk ballad, but not really... it's still funky sounding. (laughs) There are a lot of tight harmonies, and I'm doing them all myself, so I want to make sure they're really tight 'cause once it's on vinyl, hey, that's it! (laughs) But I think my voice sounds better live because I like to really belt things out. With tape, there's compression and the whole bit.

GAVIN: I'll never forget the first time I heard "Only In My Dreams" on the radio. It really blew me away. Do you remember when you first heard it on the radio?

DG: Well, HOT 103 played it first here (in New York). I was driving home from a voice lesson in the city with my sister and my parents. We had the radio on low and were discussing something. I don't remember what, and all of a sudden, (sings) "Doomp-da-doomp-doomp-shhh-doomp-da-doomp" came on. We all stopped dead in our tracks and the car gave a little jolt, you know? We said, "Is this it? Is this it?" I still get excited when I hear it on the radio. My dad started driving to the beat, and we almost drove right off the road. It seemed like what I had been working for for my whole life.

GAVIN: Do you write with radio in mind?

DG: No, I really write music just to write music. When I'm deciding what goes on the album, I want things suited for radio and things that are a little different, because that's what gives an album character. Actually, I like an album where every song sounds like a single. I don't really like there to be one song that's weaker than another, truthfully. But I like to get variety. I mean, this new album will even have more variety than the last. I know I keep talking about the new album, but I'm just really excited about it. (laughs) There's one thing that sounds like a hard dance song but with really positive lyrics, so it's not a real drastic change from what I do now. Then there's the ballad I was talking about, a really vocal ballad. This album is definitely going to be more vocal-oriented.

Adults do often underestimate what kids think and what kids feel. That's why teen artists are popular now, because they're in touch with what kids really want.

GAVIN: So people are going to be surprised?

DG: There is going to be a surprise, to be quite honest—I really don't like to say this to people, 'cause then they'll start listening for all the little flaws, but I had a really bad cold when I was doing the last album, and, like I said, we were working on such a tight deadline. I was doing five shows a weekend to promote "Only in My Dreams" and working on the album twenty hours a day. I could keep up, but my voice suffered. That's why I'm really excited about this album—I have a voice this time. People will hear me sing on this one for real. (laughs)

GAVIN: I don't think anyone reading this will think you had any problems at all recording the last one. Have you been influenced by other singers and writers over the years?

DG: I didn't think about it until I realized I had every old Elton John record. "Don't Go Breaking My Heart," "Crocodile Rock"...I mean I love those songs. I still have the old scratchy records that say "Deborah" on them in pencil from when I was really little. Billy Joel is my favorite artist, but I don't think my music is anything like his, so musically he hasn't influenced me—but he has inspired me. He was really my first introduction to pop music. I saw him live when I was nine. He really characterizes fun rock and roll music. Whitney Houston and George Michael have also influenced me. I think my career goes the same way George Michael's did. He made the fun pop records, and people really thought of him as a teen idol who wouldn't last—not that I'm going to write an "I Want Your Sex" song! Right now, he's more respected than he's ever been and I think that's what the next album will do for me. I love Wham! Make it Big. That's what pop music should be. It wasn't the most critically acclaimed record, but the people loved it and that's the most important thing.

GAVIN: Our musical taste is very similar.

DG: I love bubble gum pop music. I'm not embarrassed to say that. A lot of people are but...I don't knock artists who write about world issues and stuff like that, but I myself couldn't do that. We get enough of that on the news. I think the purpose of music is just to be fun and kind of an escape.

GAVIN: It's interesting you mentioned "I Want Your Sex," because it seems like more romantic themes are replacing references to sex. Is there any truth to that?

DG: Personally, I think there was too much controversy over "I Want Your Sex." As much as other people think, kids do not take lyrics of songs seriously. I don't think people find controversy in my music. At times they pull out lyrics and give them a different meaning. I hate when people get overly analytical about lyrics because, it's all in fun. Some people have taken my song "Play the Field" the wrong way. Basically, what that song is trying to say...I'll give you an example. My sister started going out with this guy in the tenth grade, and she went out with him all through high school. My mother would say jokingly, "Play the field—You'll regret it later on if you don't." When you're young, you should date different people. I don't like when people read into things, but I don't mind it if the critics do it because if the kids like it, that's what really matters.

GAVIN: You mentioned that sometimes adults think kids take things more seriously than they do.

DG: Half the kids don't even know the lyrics. They dance to them when they come on, and they sing the hook. When I listen to other people's music I don't always take it as a personal statement from the artist, because I know that when I write, it's like an actress becoming someone else—playing a role. On some songs on my album, I sound like this meek little person and sometimes, like on "Staying Together," I say, "We're staying together whether you like it or not." I have more of an attitude.

GAVIN: So adults sometimes underestimate what young people want to see or hear, not being in touch with what they really want?

DG: That's true. Kids like my song, "Foolish Beat," and adults say, "How can they like it? It's all about love." (sings) "I could never love again..." When a 14-year-old girl likes a 14-year-old boy, she thinks she's in love with him. It's like "Oh, if he doesn't like me, it's the end of the world." People can interpret it how they want. That song can go for a 14-year—or a 40-year-old who's been through a difficult marriage. Adults do often underestimate what kids think and what kids feel. That's another reason why teen artists are popular now, because they're in touch with what kids really want.

GAVIN: Which is pretty much the way things were in the golden age of rock 'n' roll—songs sung by teenagers, written by teenagers for teenagers...

DG: Right. I also think I'll grow and I hope to take the audience I have now with me and gain the next generation of teens, too.

GAVIN: You've had three huge hits that were all up-tempo. Now "Foolish Beat" is a ballad. Do you prefer doing ballads?

DG: Upbeat is more positive and fun, but ballads really establish careers. A ballad appeals to a broader range of people. I hope when the ballad starts to get airplay, it helps the album even more by bringing in a broader range of people. Practically every ballad goes number one Adult Contemporary (laughs). Not every ballad, but a lot of them do. I hope that after the ballad, "Staying Together" is probably going to come out as a single, which is uptempo. I want to re-cut the vocal because of my cold. But I hope the adults will listen to that, and not take it as a cute record. I hope I pull that audience in with it. I love doing ballads live because it's great to see people light their lighters. (laughs)

GAVIN: I can tell you're really excited about the next album.

DG: Well, I'm in the middle of it. I'm living at the studio now. I really am excited about it, though.

GAVIN: When is it going to come out?

DG: They're aiming for October/November, but I would like to see it come out December first.

GAVIN: Millions of young adults fantasize about becoming the star you are right now. Is it everything you thought it would be at this stage of the game?

DG: It is, because I didn't think of it in terms of stardom. I thought of it in terms of exposing my music to the public. I knew the meaning of work because I'd done a lot of theater. I know you rehearse day and night to get the show good. That was a big part of it. All the things I'd done beforehand—commercials and theater and stuff like that—prepared me for it a great deal. I don't think a kid can be taken off the street and be put into this environment, because they just wouldn't know the meaning of hard work. It would come as too much of a shock. But, you know, part of the fantasy of rock 'n' roll is that kids just go to the concert and they don't have to know what work was involved. I don't really care if they know or not. I just want them to enjoy the show. We've been doing warm-up dates for a tour I'll be doing this summer. My God, I had no idea there was so much involved. When I went to concerts, I didn't even know they had a soundcheck earlier in the day. You just don't think of those things. But I love it, actually. I love being busy.

GAVIN: The biggest part seems to be expressing yourself through your music and having people hear it.

DG: But it's also the personal satisfaction that you get when you finish a song, whether the people hear it or not. Obviously though, it's more exciting when you're performing it and 3,000 kids are singing along. That makes it worthwhile. ●

INSIDE A/C

With 57 new HEAVY rotation reports, Foreigner leaps from 5 to 2 on the chart, proving you can't keep a good song down. Their rep as rockers is always forgotten when they record great ballads such as this one.

The thirteen-week-old Brenda Russell single, "Piano In The Dark," is still making solid rotation increases. The HIT FACTOR is up to 94% with not the slightest sign of a burn-out.

Our RECORD TO WATCH on March 18th, "Shattered Dreams" by Johnny Hates Jazz, has moved 22 to 7 in the past two weeks and has become HIT FACTORED by 85% of its 203 players in just six weeks.

George Michael's "One More Try" has done the nearly impossible by going top twenty in only three weeks. And to be HIT FACTORED by 59% in that time is exceptional.

Sting debuts with his latest single, "Englishman In New York." Adds from KEFM, KMWX, WJON and 15 others. HEAVY rotation already from WSKY, KLZS and WAFL.

Daryl Hall & John Oates ain't exactly chopped liver either. Their three week HIT FACTOR is up to 64%, lagging George Michael only in total stations - 167 to 156. While we sometimes take total reports and adds too seriously (discounting the quality of airplay for the sake of quantity) there is still a lot to be learned from such instant success.

K.T. Oslin's HIT FACTOR leaps from 37% to 60% this week, thus a solid six-point chart jump. Heavy rotation already from KJTT and KCRE with another 43 mentions, including WHAI, KGY, KFJR, KGLO, KDZA, KBOL, WFMJ, KASY etc.

Billy Vera & The Beaters clear 100 stations in just two weeks with "Between Like And Love." Among the early ears are KYJC, KKHT, WSWG, B100, WTMJ, WQHQ/FM, WELI, KOST, KFMB and WRMF.

Air Supply sargent Russell Hitchcock debuts on the chart with a 55% HIT FACTOR. Quality rotations coming now from KWAV/FM, KVSF, WKCX, KLDI, WLIP, WEVA, KBMG, WJON etc.

Last week's RECORD TO WATCH, "Fast Car" by Tracy Chapman, adds 19 stations. Now in the driver's seat are WEBE/FM, KDLK, 3WM, WAHR, WTRX, WJZM, KBMG, KLZS, WKYE, KYJC, WQHQ/FM, WCVQ, KTID, WAFL, etc.

This week's RECORD TO WATCH, OMD's "Dreaming," has debuted in UP & COMING thanks to the likes of B100, WJXL, WRFC, KLSS, WKCX, KVIC, KYJC and 22 others.

BRUCE HORNSBY
& THE RANGE
the valley road

Bruce Hornsby & The Range got 87 adds in their first week with "The Valley Road." In the past six months only Michael Jackson's "I Can't Stop Lovin' You" has received more adds in its first week.

In any other week Boz Scaggs' "Heart Of Mine," with 73 adds, might have been our MOST ADDED. We'll predict a top five finish anyway.

REVIEWS

by Ron Fell & Diane Rufer

CLIMIE FISHER

Love Changes (Everything) (Capitol)

Listeners will think it's a mid-tempo Rod Stewart record, but noooo. Rob Fisher was in the band Naked Eyes and Simon Climie has written for Rod Stewart and the Aretha Franklin & George Michael hit, "I knew You Were Waiting For Me."

CHARLIE KARP & THE NAMEDROPPERS

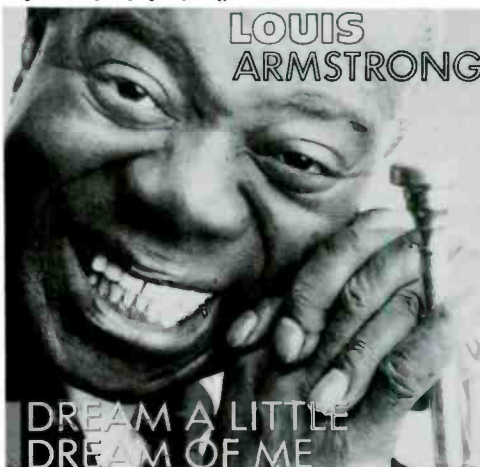

Givin' It All I Got (Grudge)

This one is just plain fun. The only karp we know which is comfortable around hooks. It's a quasi-autobiographical story of a struggling wanna-be who's willing to put it on the line again.

LOUIS ARMSTRONG

Dream A Little Dream Of Me (MCA)

From the same 20-year-old album as "What A Wonderful World," this standard has been digitally improved by MCA for your consideration. On its own, it might not be practical, but A/C has set it up nicely by playing "Wonderful World."

JENNIFER HALL

Ice Cream Days (Warner Bros.)

There's a very sophisticated European flavor to this song by Leslie Caron's daughter. The melody is all hook and the production by Alan Tarney, the guy who made the best Cliff Richard records, is rich in warm textures.

Love Changes Everything Is The New Single by Climie Fisher.

Who Is Climie Fisher?

This is Simon Climie.

He wrote "I Knew You Were Waiting," the vehicle that helped win George Michael and Aretha Franklin a Grammy for best R&B vocal performance.

And in case you don't remember, it was also a #1 single.

He also wrote the smash Pat Benatar tune, "Invincible."

Why Should You Play This Record?

1. It's already Top 5 in Japan
2. It's already Top 5 in Germany
3. It's rocketing up the charts in the U.K.
4. It's one of the most obvious CHR hits you may ever hear.
5. MTV Hip Clip Of The Week.

This is Rob Fisher.

He used to be the principal songwriter for Naked Eyes. That's when he wrote the 2 Top Ten U.S. hits; "Always Something There To Remind Me," and "Promises Promises."

Now they're together as Climie Fisher.

Why Shouldn't You Play This Record?

Unless you're ready to have the melody run around your head for weeks, don't play it.

We can't be responsible if it drives you crazy. We can only be responsible for making sure the music is heard. And making sure the radio community has all the information necessary to make an informed choice.

The rest is up to you.

AN ORIGINAL IDEA

This week, I have a letter from Ken Conlin, Music Director and programmer of KEKA-FM and KLFJ-AM in Eureka, California: "Attached, you'll find an idea of mine that was sent to the people I deal with when I do my weekly playlist and take music calls, etc. See what you think."

I have his permission to reprint his idea here, somewhat edited:

"I've been thinking about how small and medium-sized radio markets can work more closely with promotional people to maximize success of current Country product. The end result should be more retail buying by those who listen to the radio, read a local newspaper, or 'use' other media like television, outdoor media like billboards and bus cards. I know it will work in raising casual listeners' awareness of Country Music. It may even bring new listeners to Country.

"How it works:

(1) Advertise in a leading local newspaper, with the ad including either a quotation from a current song's lyrics or a photograph of the artist promoting the station and his/her/their latest album or single. The ad also includes the record label name and the radio station. (See Figure 1.)

"You don't love me, and I don't love you. The famous last words of a fool"
-- George Strait

Country Music. It gets to the heart of the matter.

XYZ Records / KXYX AM 1240

"(2) Advertise in a leading local newspaper, featuring a general quotation about discovering Country Music. The label and station call letters would be featured in the ad. The idea is easily adaptable to television and outdoor media. (See Figure 2.)

"The advertising would be paid for in a cooperative effort between the record label, the radio station and perhaps the local retail record outlets. The net effect would be a promotion for all concerned--and an awareness of Country Music in the market.

"Country Music is at an exciting point right now. Most of the adult audience must choose between Top 40, A/C and Country formats on the radio. Most of the Top 40 artists can also be found on the

A/C chart these days. Some radio programmers are even turning to contemporary Country acts to fill in their playlists. I believe this strategy for increasing the awareness of Country Music, cooperatively with the radio station and the record label, will increase retail sales of the Country product for an audience that is searching for an alternative type of music. By cross-promoting with newspaper and the other media, these changes in music preference are more likely to occur, (especially in) small and medium-sized markets."

"I never thought I would like Country Music...but I tried it and now I'm hooked!"

--Joe Smith, Anytown

Try the fresh new sound of today's Country Music--You'll like it, too!

XYZ Records / KXYX AM 1240

I thank Ken for sharing his idea, which certainly does offer an opportunity for a station or record label to work toward a common goal.

There are hazards associated with doing something like this, though, and the relationship between the cooperative parties would have to be defined very rigidly, or the radio stations might find themselves in a heap of trouble over a little problem called "payola."

The potential problems break down this way: (1) The record label may require airplay of a particular artist's new record to qualify for the co-op advertising. (2) The record label gives this inducement to the station in the market which has shown more willingness to be cooperative in the past in adding the label's product. (3) The radio station plays more music by the featured artist during the promotional period than it would otherwise.

Co-op advertising is legally offered to retailers by manufacturers throughout the world of business. The retailer buys a certain amount of the designated product, and then the manufacturer allows a certain amount of co-op advertising for the product, paying from 50 percent to over 100 percent of the advertising cost. But radio is subject to very special regulation, and it is illegal for a radio station to broadcast a record for which it has received "consideration," without revealing this on the air. (If the record is announced as being sponsored by a record company, the "pay for play" becomes legal.) Radio stations caught violating this rule can lose their licenses or receive substantial fines. Individuals at the station and the record company can be prosecuted, fined and jailed.

Ken's idea could be made to work, but perhaps on terms not satisfactory to the participating record company. To avoid the potential or even the appearance of influencing record play, the label would have to make the offer available to any qualified radio station.

Furthermore, the co-op would have to be a fixed percentage--most likely 50 percent, so the station would participate equally--and any limit on the amount of available co-op money would have to be defined by a specific criterion, such as market size or 12+ cume.

On the station's part, it would be wise to document in some manner that the artist or label involved did not receive any unusual airplay. The most definite way would be to set an arbitrary restriction during the co-op period--of course that would penalize the label for engaging in the promotion!

Although the potential problems may make Ken's proposal impossible from a practical standpoint, I thought it worth exposure, not only as an exercise in the difficulties posed by the payola rules, but as a legitimate idea for cooperation between two symbiotic industries. If any reader sees an easier way to make the concept work, I welcome the input. At the very least, perhaps Ken's suggestion will act as a thought-starter. I thank him for writing and sharing it.●

NEW WORLDS FOR PATTIZ W'WOOD ONE BUYS WYNY

Making its first foray into station ownership, LA-based Westwood One has bought New York Country outlet WYNY/FM. The station was part of a package sale of NBC O&Os to Emmis Broadcasting, which is keeping 'YNY's dial position for its other New York property, dance-oriented WQHT. This is Westwood's second acquisition from the NBC portfolio—the company already owns the NBC Radio Network, in addition to Mutual Broadcasting.

Sale price of the station was put at $39 million, plus "other considerations." Westwood One will keep the Country format and call letters, but switch dial positions to 103.5, leaving the 97.1 to what will presumably be known as "HOT97."

Said Westwood One Chairman Norm Pattiz: "This is the ground floor of a major opportunity. It's clear that there is a major place for Country Radio in the nation's number-one market."

Added Emmis President Jeff Smulyan: "We are very excited about the opportunity this affords

BOBB, NASH ARE VEEPED SCHULMAN VP/GM AT ATLANTIC

A week after the departure of David Glew, Atlantic Records has appointed Mark Schulman as Senior VP/ General Manager, based in the company's New York office. Schulman has been with the company since 1968, and was most recently VP/Creative Services. The announcement was made by Atlantic Chairman Ahmet Ertegun, who commented, "He has been a key player in the label's tremendous growth since the late '60s. I can think of no one more qualified for this critical post."

Atlantic has also awarded VP stripes to two members of its Black Music Division. Merlin Bobb is now Vice President of A&R, while Richard Nash is Vice President of National Promotion. Said label Senior VP Sylvia Rhone: "Merlin and Richard have played an essential part in the ongoing revitalization of Atlantic's Black Music Operations. I am proud to acknowledge their hard work with these much-deserved promotions."

GREENBERG EXITS ATCO TELLER TO CBS: 'SAYONARA'

Capping months of speculation, Al Teller has resigned as President of CBS Records. He had been with the label seven and a half years. Teller had been rumored ready to leave since the company was sold to Sony Corp. His future plans were not announced, but possible destinations include MCA Records or a new label being formed by Disney.

Tommy Mottola, manager of Hall & Oates and John Cougar Mellencamp, has been mentioned as a likely successor. Other contenders are former Atlantic Records VP/GM David Glew or Les Garland of Quantum Records. One other heavy hitter now in play is Jerry Greenberg, who resigned his position as head of Atco Records after just a few weeks on the job. His future plans were unannounced at press time.

FIRST WINTER BOOK RESULTS

POWER, KIIS, 'GCI TOP ARBS

The Winter '88 Arbitron advances are out, and according to the initial 12+ numbers, POWER 106 and KIIS kept the race hot in Los Angeles, Z100 widened its lead over POWER 95 in New York and Chicago's WGCI/FM pulled far ahead of competitor WBMX.

In L.A., just about every station showed some decline, but KPWR (7.1 from a 7.5) continued to show its teen appeal, while KIIS (6.9 to a 6.6) remained #1 among 25-54s and overall cume.

The tale of the tape in Gotham showed WHTZ moving 6.0-6.2, while WPWR dropped 4.7-4.1, behind dance-oriented WQHT/HOT103, which had its best book ever with a 4.6. Country WYNY cracked a three-share for the first time. (See separate story of 'YNY's sale to Westwood One.)

At WGCI, PD Sonny Taylor basked in a 8.0-9.2 rise, while 'BMX sagged 4.5-4.3, its lowest share in half a decade. "I don't like to gloat, but now's the time to do it," said Taylor, who credits his success to "hard work by a great staff."

Back on the Coast, KOST jumped 4.5-5.8 while all its A/C rivals declined. New Age Radio proved that reports of its early demise exaggerated. KTWV's 2.3-2.4 rise, while not as spectacular, proved The Wave could weather its first year. In the Windy City, WNUA dipped to a 1.5 from a 1.8, but still outperformed its Golden WRXR days.

FOR DORTON, AN ARDMAN IS GOOD TO FIND MEGA-MERGERS SHOW RADIO'S STRENGTH

Once again, the bottom line is the week's top radio story, as two young, cash-hungry broadcast groups have been forced to turn to white-knight financing.

Metropolitan Broadcasting, founded in 1986 by Carl Brazell and other former Metromedia executives, has been sold to Francis Sillerman in a record $300 million deal. In a second deal, controlling interest in Dorton Broadcasting, an even younger group headed by former Gannett Radio chief Joe Dorton, passed to Ardman Broadcasting for an undisclosed sum. Both Brazell and Dorton will remain in their operational posts.

Metropolitan had been widely reported to be in trouble meeting the debt service on its highly leveraged buyout, and Dorton was said to be hard pressed to come up with financing for his $27 million acquisition of WBMX-Chicago from Egmont Sonderling. But, while the bailouts may look like bad news for go-it-alone entrepreneurs, the real news is that radio station values are booming.

"Everyone is reacting like Rome is burning," says Bishop Cheen, radio analyst for Paul Kagan Associates. "Sure, there are folks out there in trouble. But look at the heavy hitters stepping up to the plate to help them out."

"It's a good deal for us, for Sillerman and everybody in broadcasting," affirms Brazell. "We paid $285 million to buy the Metropolitan group. We sold off WASH in Washington, DC, for $29 million, WIP in Philadelphia for six million, and we're selling WOMC in Detroit (to Infinity Broadcasting) for $23 million. Add another $10-15 million in working capital, and you're looking at $375 million. That's a hell of an increase in just 18 months."

Good news for broadcasters, and good news for Brazell and his partners, who put in just $20 million in equity and are getting $40 million back. "Not bad for a two-year ride," muses Cheen.

Brazell concedes the ride had its rocky moments. "We were extremely tightly leveraged. The demands on the cash flow were quite strenuous, and there was no breathing room. And then we had a couple of things happen. We had a format switch in L.A. from AOR to The Wave. While both the short-term and long-term effect was positive, in the very short term, it impacted our cash flow. That, combined with a down market in Texas and Florida, where we had very important properties, created some serious pressures. If I were doing that deal again, I would not structure it so tightly."

"Metropolitan and Dorton have had to do some retrenching, regrouping and rethinking about how to grow," acknowledges Dorton, adding that the sale "simply means I have a new equity partner. Part of the scenario is completing the takeover of WBMX in Chicago, but it also puts us in a new situation in terms of future expansion."

Dorton expressed admiration for Ardman President Myer Feldman. "He's a longtime broadcaster with 30 years experience. He started with KOMA in Oklahoma City back when AMs meant something."

Feldman will be Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, headquartered in Washington, DC, while Dorton will be President and Chief Operating Officer, based in Detroit. "He'll be responsible for the legal and financial end, and I'll be responsible for operations," Dorton explains.

Feldman's company owns WZOU-Boston, WPHR-Cleveland, WEZI AM/FM-Memphis, WTIP/WVSR-Charleston WV, and KBCQ/KKCN-Roswell, NM. "His intention is to spin off most of the smaller properties and at some time fold in the others," says Dorton.

Besides BMX, Dorton properties include WCZY/FM-Detroit, WGIV/WPEG-Charlotte and a Christian-format AM, KSKY-Dallas. The company has agreed to sell WNYR/WEZO-Rochester, NY, to Atlantic Ventures Corp. for $7.3 million.

Sillerman has a big piece of Legacy Broadcasting, owner of KDWB AM/FM-Minneapolis, KILT AM/FM-Houston, WCXR/WCPT-Washington, DC, WLLZ-Detroit, KHOW/KSYY-Denver and L.A.'s KJOI. The Metropolitan sale involves KTWW-Los Angeles, WWBA-

Don Jenner

ARISTA UPS IENNER

Don Jenner has been promoted to the position of Executive Vice President and General Manager for Arista Records. He has been with the label since 1983, most recently as Senior VP/Marketing and Promotion. In announcing Jenner's new job, Arista President Clive Davis said, Donny has consistently proven himself to be that rare breed of leader who, by example and direction, inspires excellence and settles for nothing less from himself and those he supervises."

Tampa, WOMC-Detroit, WNEW AM/FM-New York, WMMR-Philadelphia, KRLD-Dallas and the Texas State Radio Network. Sillerman said the WOMC sale would proceed, but took New York's WNEW-AM off the market and is reviewing plans to sell WWBA. One remaining question mark that remains is Los Angeles, where FCC regulations would seem to require that Sillerman divest himself of either KJOI or KTWW.

"Lots of people are selling newspapers by saying, 'Oh, what a terrible business radio is,'" says Cheen. "I say, 'Oh, what a wonderful business!'"

Brazell's reaction is somewhat different: "My advice to would-be station owners is to do it with enthusiasm, be prepared for a helluva lot of hard work—and don't lose your sense of humor."

Sometimes, you can laugh yourself all the way to the bank.

GARY BURNS, MATT FARBER JOIN CONSULTANCY BURKHART, DOUGLAS GO ON WITHOUT ABRAMS, ELLIOT

"Information/technology" is the buzzword for the '90s at Burkhardt/Douglas & Associates, the pared-down radio consulting firm that is losing partners Lee Abrams in August and Bob Elliot as of May 1st.

"My 17 years with Kent Burkhardt and Dwight Douglas have been tremendous, and our relationship is strong," said Abrams, "but there comes a time to chase other dreams." As for specifics, he would only say, "I have some pretty amazing things being solidified that I can't get into until the timing is correct."

Said Burkhardt: "I have met with Lee and we both agree that everyone should do what they want in this short life, thus I've encouraged him to move forward with his projects and his company. We will still keep a very close business relationship regarding certain new but unnamed planned projects."

Joining B/D & A as associates are Gary Burns, who had headed his own consultancy in San Antonio, and Matt Farber, Operations Director at POWER99-Atlanta.

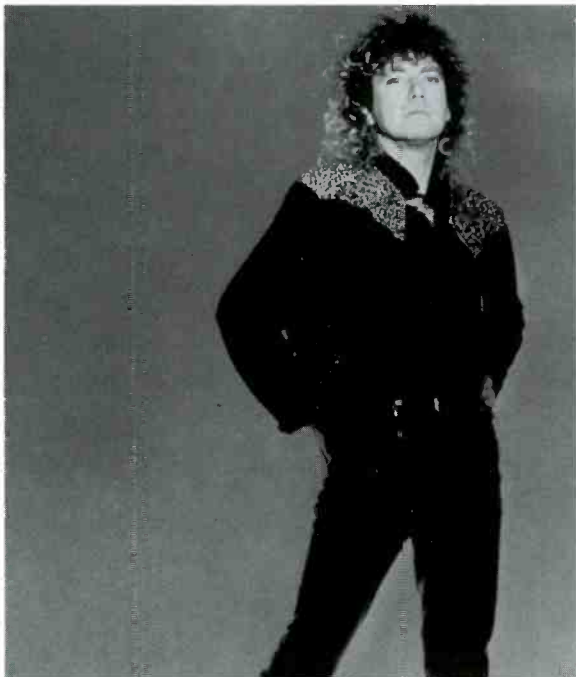

Douglas summed up the company's posture for the future this way: "We have media information...most radio stations have that information, but the winners in the '90s will be those who understand what to do with the data. That's where the meaning of the word 'technology' comes in...it means application of science."

LEADERSHIP CHECKLIST

How do you rate as a leader? How does your boss rate as a leader? Management expert Gary Yukl has come up with 19 categories of effective leader behavior which I am going to summarize here. If you're brave, you'll let your subordinates rate you on each of the categories, and then talk to them about what you're doing well and what you need to improve. If you're even braver, you'll rate your boss on each of the categories and show him or her your ratings! Here goes:

1. Performance Emphasis. Does the leader emphasize high standards, give subordinates regular performance feedback and constantly try to improve productivity and efficiency?
2. Consideration. Is the leader friendly, supportive, available, empathetic, fair and objective?
3. Inspiration. Does the leader stimulate enthusiasm among subordinates? Does she or he build up subordinates' confidence?
4. Praise/Recognition. Does the leader praise and recognize high-performing individuals? Does he or she show appreciation for special efforts?
5. Reward contingencies. Does the leader reward high-performing individuals with tangible benefits such as bonuses, pay raises, promotion, better job assignments, perks and so on?
6. Decision participation. Does the leader consult with subordinates prior to making decisions that affect them? Does she or he value subordinates' ideas and opinions?
7. Autonomy/Delegation. Does the leader delegate real authority and responsibility to subordinates? Does he or she really allow them to make their own decisions?
8. Role clarification. Does the leader clarify responsibilities and priorities for subordinates in such a way that they are clear about what is really expected from them?
9. Goal Setting. Does the leader help subordinates set performance goals and give them regular, concrete feedback about how well they're meeting those goals?
10. Training/Coaching. Does the leader help subordinates determine their training and development needs, and then provide it? Does the leader coach subordinates herself/himself?
11. Information Dissemination. Does the leader keep subordinates informed about what's going on, including developments that affect their work, company-wide trends, and any other events which they find important? Does he or she share information in such a way that subordinates feel they're "in on things"?
12. Problem Solving. Does the leader take initiative in tackling tough problems and suggesting alternatives? Is the leader decisive when prompt solutions are needed?
13. Planning. Is it clear that the leader has a meaningful "game plan"? Does she or he have contingency plans for potential problems?
14. Coordinating. Is the leader involved in coordinating the work of subordinates? Does he or she encourage and help subordinates to coordinate their activities themselves?
15. Work Facilitation. Does the leader provide subordinates with the resources they need, such as supplies, equipment, support services and so on? Does he or she remove obstacles that interfere with their work?
16. Representation. Does the leader use her or his influence to get the work unit help, support and appreciation from other parts of the organization and from outside? Does she or he promote and defend the work unit to superiors and outsiders?
17. Interaction Facilitation. Does the leader try to get subordinates to be friendly with one another, to cooperate and help one another, and to share information and ideas?
18. Conflict Management. Does the leader actively work to reduce unhealthy conflicts among subordinates? Does he or she help subordinates resolve disputes in a constructive manner?
19. Criticism/Discipline. Does the leader confront consistent inadequate performance by subordinates? Does she or he constructively criticize or discipline, when appropriate, subordinates who violate policy, rules or directives?

Well, how do you stack up? Do you and your subordinates agree with your assessment of yourself? It might be a good idea for you to photocopy this page and ask subordinates to evaluate you

If you're brave, you'll let your subordinates rate you on each of the categories, and then talk to them about what you're doing well and what you need to improve.

every few months. This type of regular pulse-taking will help you become a better leader, and it'll raise the spirit and quality of your team as well. And if you can get your boss to buy into this, your own work life will be a lot easier, too. Good luck! ●

ABOUT LAST WEEK.

The nature of our businesses demands that we live in a world of statistics. Stats rule our lives--consider how we all pore over the Gavin Alternative chart each week so we'll know how the latest Brainscan LP is doing. We record people are faced with a bevy of numbers each week as we devour, our Gavin, R&R, Billboard, Breneman, Hits, Hitmakers, MAC, Album Network and assorted other tipsheets, mags, rags, tracking sheets, in-house sales figures and notes from Phil Quartararo. Radio tries to understand the ARBs, Birch, playlists of stations which they're copying and triple frequent flier coupons.

The sheer numbers are mind-boggling, and we'd like to boggle your mind some more with semi-interesting stats compiled by America's number-one news source, the highly venerated National Enquirer. Take note, a.m. Zoo-types. Here's what's happened since you read last week's Gavin:

FACT: American women bought 4.3 million bras and 8.5 pairs of panties last week. Hung on a single clothesline, the panties would stretch 1,600 miles, or the distance from Scott Shannon to Buzz Bennett.

COMMENT: This item fails to take into account the 2.3 million MEN who purchased bras last year, all of them secretly worn under three-piece suits at label marketing meetings.

FACT: Americans bought 94,000 telephone answering machines last week.

COMMENT: Messages from Danny Davis were left on 93,894 of them.

FACT: Americans scrubbed their teeth with 2,400 TONS of toothpaste last week. That's 18 million tubes, or an incredible 100,000 tubes an hour.

COMMENT: The total includes 2,112 tubes of Crest used by Donny and Jimmy Ienner. Amazing but true!

FACT: Over 200,000 rats gave their lives for scientific research last week.

COMMENT: The rats were forced to transcribe Heavy Metal lyrics for Parents Resource woman Tipper Gore. Shocked at the content, they completed their task, then laid down and died. Tipper attended all 200,000 funerals.

FACT: Burglars, striking six times a minute, forced their way into 61,538 American residences last week.

COMMENT: In 59,986 of these cases, the Beatles "Butcher" cover LP was among the stolen items. No Debby Boone albums were reported stolen.

FACT: Americans consumed 7.8 million tons of mushrooms last week.

COMMENT: Immediately afterwards, 1,674 Alternative rock LPs were produced.

FACT: Americans wasted 24 million hours in traffic jams--a total of 2,700 years or 36 human lifetimes last week.

COMMENT: 21 million of those hours were spent in morning commutes by Capitol's Tasha Mack, who passed the time humming Billy Vera B-sides.

FACT: Americans munched 199 million pounds of iceberg lettuce last week--enough to make a head of lettuce 24 stories high.

COMMENT: 197 million pounds of this lettuce had its name changed to either raddichio or arugula and was then served in salads at L.A.'s plush Le Dome restaurant where it was consumed by Charlie Minor at $12 a plate.

FACT: Two hundred and eighty-eight American health workers accidentally stuck themselves with needles meant for someone else last week.

COMMENT: Yeah, right. And we've got some acreage in the Okefenokee Swamp you might be interested in.

BIO FEEDBACK

by RON FELL
STING

Legend has it that he (Gordon Sumner) received his nickname because of his fondness for a yellow and black jersey which he wore constantly. Guess he didn't want to be known as "Bumble Bee."

TEDDY PENDERGRASS

Hard to believe it has been 12 years since he left Harold Melvin and the Bluenotes to sing solo.

WEIRD AL YANKOVIC

He begins filming his first movie this summer. Titled "UHF," the film stars Weird as the general manager of a small-town TV station. He says it's a cross between "It's A Wonderful Life" and "The Texas Chainsaw Massacre."

ADA DYER

She spent most of 1983 as the understudy to Stephanie Mills in the Broadway musical, "The Wiz." Prior to that, Ada toured and recorded for Norman Connors.

DEAN MARTIN

Born Dino Crocetti in Steubenville, Ohio, he'll turn 71 on June 7th.

KOOL & THE GANG

After a recent tour of Africa's Ivory Coast, lead singer James Taylor decided to leave the group to pursue a solo career. Taylor will be working with songwriter Rod Temperton.

FLEETWOOD MAC

The band will have an hour-long concert special on Showtime May 21. The show was taped at the Cow Palace in San Francisco last December.

THE NYLONS

The group is currently recording tracks for their next album with producer David Foster in Malibu, California.

TOTO

Joseph Williams is the third lead singer in the group's 10-year history. His father is Boston Pops conductor John Williams, who composed the themes for "Star Wars," "Close Encounters..." and many other films.

RUBEN BLADES

When Michael Jackson recorded the Spanish-language version of "I Just Can't Stop Loving You," his translator and vocal coach was Ruben Blades.

JUDAS PRIEST

These metal legends are working on a new album produced by Stock, Aitken and Waterman, the team responsible for breaking Bananarama, Samantha Fox, Kylie Minogue and Rick Astley.

TRACY CHAPMAN

While a student at Tufts University in Medford, Massachusetts, Tracy often performed as a street singer in nearby Harvard Square.

MOTLEY CRUE

Their "Uncensored" video is the first music video to be certified multi-platinum by the RIAA. To be so certified, unit sales must exceed 100,000 pieces or the equivalent of $4 million in suggested list sales.

WHITE LION

Though the band was formed in Brooklyn, New York, singer Mike Tramp was born and raised in Denmark.

JULIO IGLESIAS

He's no stranger to duets. Not only is his current single, "My Love," a duet with Stevie Wonder but his two biggest English-language hits to date were duets: 1984's "To All the Girls I've Loved Before" with Willie Nelson, and "All of You" with Diana Ross.

TINA TURNER

Her "Break Every Rule" world tour ended last month in Osaka, Japan. The last of the 220 shows in 16 months included a walk-on performance with Mick Jagger.

MERRY CLAYTON

After singing backup for the Rolling Stones on "Gimme Shelter" from the Let It Bleed album, she decided to record her own version of the song. It was her first solo single and was released in the fall of 1970.

ROBIN TROWER

TAKE WHAT YOU NEED-ROBIN TROWER (ATLANTIC)

Old guys like me remember when a third-billed Robin Trower (who had just left Procol Harum) walked onstage one night in San Francisco and blew everybody away with his brand of dreamy and smoky blues. In a recent (and excellent) CD repackage, Trower recalls that night when the applause seemed to go on forever. Since, Trower worked his way up and down the rock and roll ladder.

TAKE WHAT YOU NEED is Trower's most successful comeback in terms of regaining that mystical tonality. Singer Davey Pattison (formerly with Ronnie Montrose), while closely resembling ex-Trowerite James Dewar, adds further dimension to groove songs like the title track. I'm in love with both the ensemble playing of Trower's band and Neil Norman's spare production. Everyone involved let the music do the talking. Trax: "Tear It Up," the beautiful "Take What You Need," "Love Attack," "I Want You Home" and "Shattered." P.S. Later that night, after the gig, I remember Trower hanging outside Winterland unpretentiously chatting with his fans. Welcome back, Robin.

DIAMOND SUN-GLASS TIGER (EMI-MANHATTAN)

In the context of DIAMOND SUN, "I'm Still Searching" sounds even more like an Album Radio jewel. Here's a song Top Forty is certainly out to steal in order to rock up their sound. But we still have the whole LP, don't we folks? We can pull out a song like "It's Love U Feel" and stay one step ahead. Glass Tiger has evolved into quite an accomplished recording band. This sophomore effort exudes confidence and poise. I'm a fan.

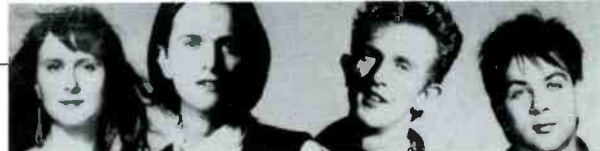

ALIENS ATE MY BUICK-THOMAS DOLBY (EMI-MANHATTAN)

Should we rename this "The Wit And Wisdom Of Thomas Dolby"? ALIENS is the closest thing Album Radio will ever get to being serviced a B-grade drive-in movie. The opening track confirms suspicions I've always harbored--that is, the cars we drive are very often extensions of our reproductive organs. Not your normal recorded output, Dolby samples Ed Asner, cuts a George Clinton song and introduces us to the consummate Hollywood bimbo in "Airhead." Lots of intriguing tones and electronics are fully integrated into what appears to be a fixation with Eighties Hollywood satire. Ah hah! Here it is! BUICK was recorded in Los Angeles. Trax: "Airhead," "The Key To Her Ferrari," "Hot Sauce" and "The Ability To Swing."

NEW

FROM LANGLEY PARK TO MEMPHIS-PREFAB SPROUT (EPIC)

If you're wondering what happened to Thomas Dolby's serious side, here it is. Prefab's Paddy McAloon maintains his fascination for American culture by dropping odd references to cities all through his lyrics. "The King Of Rock N Roll" is a quirky and upbeat opening statement. That clean synth line is a nice hook. While Prefab do lean heavy on the post production, "The Golden Calf" should be a strong Album Radio consideration.

BILLY BRAGG

HELP SAVE THE YOUTH OF AMERICA

HELP SAVE THE YOUTH OF AMERICA-BILLY BRAGG (ELEKTRA)

If you've never seen Billy Bragg perform, you're missing a thoughtful, intelligent performer. HELP SAVE THE YOUTH OF AMERICA is a special election EP released while Bragg's proper album remains in progress. It's also a passionate plea for American youth to remain active inside the democratic process. Sayeth Billy The Brit, "Remember, when you elect a President, you are electing a President for all of us. Please be more careful this time." "SOMETIME TO RETURN"-SOUL ASYLUM (A&M) More sounds of Minneapolis from the folks at Twintone via A&M. Maybe it's the water or the air, but that area surely is a rich outlet for music of all shapes, size and color. Soul Asylum play it rowdy with a borderline slam/metal crash.

SOCIAL INTERCOURSE-SMASHED GLADYS (ELEKTRA)

With the way bands like Motley, Poison and Guns & Roses sell, nasty pop metal bands are now hitting platinum by entering through the back door. Are bands like Smashed Gladys the next generation and new breed of major label bastard stepchildren? Personally, I see it as a Mott The Hoople revival of sorts. Radio rarely touches the stuff, but the retailers, they understand these back-door rockers. How can they not? Songs like "Lick It Into Shape" and "17 Goin' On Crazy" leave little to the imagination. All we ask is that you use a condom. KZ

"IN THE NAME OF ROCK N ROLL"-FELONY (Q-9 DISCS)

While we're in the area, let's take a detour onto KROQ's playlist, where Felony's "In The Name Of Rock N Roll" has been living for many weeks. Stations more conservative have been having good luck with this as well. It's a pretty straightforward modern rocker that many listeners will undoubtedly relate to.

LIVE AT THE WHISKY A GO GO ON THE FABULOUS SUNSET STRIP-X (ELEKTRA)

Next, turn left and you're smack dab in front of the Whisky where Johnny Rivers first found fame. It's also the scene of the crime where X returned late last year (December 13, 15 and 16) to record a retrospective of their amazing and (in my opinion) unsung career. Having seen X many (but still not enough) times, LIVE AT THE WHISKY is a true overview of the long road this band has traveled. Guitarist Tony Gilkyson has incorporated himself 100% in terms of raunch and energy. Exene keeps the band's harmonies from being too rigid. Drummer D.J. Bonebrake is still breaking bones and sticks. As for John Doe, I think of him as the Will Rogers of rock n roll. I wish he'd run for President. Trax: You pick 'em. I like "Burning House Of Love," "True Love," "Hungry Wolf" and "The Call Of The Wreckin' Ball."

The
sister

graham
Parker

(GET STARTED) START A FIRE-GRAHAM PARKER (RCA)

I'm not usually a lyric man, but I'm sure glad somebody thought to print them on the sleeve. Parker's first effort in a long time is almost demo- like in its simplicity. I've always perceived him as part of a trilogy joined by Elvis Costello and Joe Jackson. All three eschew glamour in favor of the turn of clever phrase. That's Mona Lisa's sister on the cover, puffing on a weed.

STICKY FINGERS
RECORDS

INSIDE ALBUM

LETTER OF THE WEEK. Here it is. "Hi There! My name is Lea Pisacane and I work with David Fleischman. Last week that wonderful, good-looking, generous-to-a-fault, caring and quite-wise Mr. Fleischman sent you a letter announcing the release of a new 12" by the Zarkons. He dictated the letter, I typed it, he signed it and then I mailed the records. Unfortunately I had been out til 4:30 the night before head-banging, slam-dancing and generally getting down with some of my heavy metal favorites like Kix, Accept, Princess Pang, Blue Murder, Surgical Aftermath, The Bulging Johnsons, The Daily Grunge and Extreme Penile Torture. In my spaced daze from lack of sleep, I inadvertently neglected to include the Zarkon's 12". Well, here it is. Stay heavy (sorry, Lenny) signed Lea Pisacane, Resident Rivethead." What else could one do than listen to the record? It's a cover of the Yardbird's "Heartful Of Soul." Now sign the Bulging Johnsons so this woman can really put her heart into her work.

THIS NOTE'S FOR YOU. KKLZ's Kevin Vargas was in a fiesty, yet philosophical mood. In between some of his celebratory soap-boxing (you see, some favorable Birches just came in), he mentioned Neil Young. "I feel strongly about the title track, 'This Note's For You.' It's a perfect positioning track that tells your listeners, 'Hey, we're hip, now dig this!'" I agree. I'll go one step further. Segue it in after Clapton's new "After Midnight," affectionately known around here as "After Midnight (The Beer Mix)." Former substance abuser Clapton sings for Michelob while Neil ain't singing for Pepsi, Bud or Spuds.

DEM CHANGES. Say hello to J.D. (alias Jeff Kunes), the new MD at WONE-Akron. J.D. replaces the departed Mike Michelli... Up and over at CHIM /FM-Kelowna, BC (a beautiful region), Phil Vigianni has resigned as PD.

GLASS TIGER. The Tiger, with the release of their new LP, made big progress this week, moving 38-29-21. Included among the heavy rotations are WDHA, WMJY, KATP, KLAQ, KKOW, KSEZ, KQWB, WONE, KBPI, KLLK, KATS/FM, KZEL, Z99 and KSJO. Album conversions should bring in even more adds. Meanwhile 86% of those playing Glass Tiger are doing so in medium rotation or better.

SMITHEREENS. This week Smithereens storm to #3, threatening next week's #2 slot. I'll go one step further. Should Neil Young make a strong push for the #1 slot, Smithereens will be the band to beat. "Only A Memory" is bookended by some intense airplay on both coasts including WBCN, WDRE, WFNX, WFRD, WHTG, WKXE, WKXL, WMDK, WNEW, WXXP, WRSI and WNCS. Westerners include 91X, KBPI, KILO, KOME, KSJO, KVRE, KSPN, KROQ and KBCO. Those smack dab in the middle include KGKG, KQWB, KTCZ, WMRY, WGBF, WSMI, WONE, WWPZ and WXRT.

11TH HOUR TAX FILERS. Ron O'Brien at KATS/FM-Yakima staged a live broadcast at the post office the night of April 15th in honor of those who filed their taxes at the very last minute. The KATS morning show served coffee and donuts, but during O'Brien's shift, things got hot and heavy when the postage stamp vending machine broke down. "Here I am serving as air talent, IRS consultant and Postal employee." KATS/FM gave away t-shirts, albums and cassettes, but next year will include stamps as prizes. By the way, O'Brien already filed and received his refund.

ROCK N ROLL AUCTION. KLOL in Houston is getting serious about this year's Rock N Roll Auction benefitting the Run-away Hot Line, enabling runaways to dial 800-HIT-HOME for help. Eight guitars are awaiting the auctioneer's gavel. Donors include Neal Schon, Joe Satriani and John Mellencamp. The grand item will be the "KLLOL Grammy Guitar" signed by 50 celebrities at this year's Grammy Awards. Other items include Michael Jackson's shirt worn on tour in Japan. The event will be held at the Summit, capacity 17,000. With free admission, Ikky Bop says the station is expecting a full house.

TOP FIVE REQUEST LIST OF THE WEEK. Honors go to KXRX-Seattle, which reads like this: 1) The Church, 2) Midnight Oil, 3) Treat Her Right, 4) Kings Of The Sun and 5) Neil Young. Who says listeners have no taste?

SPOTLIGHT LP

O.E.D., N.L. Centrum (Plat It Again Sam)

This is a noise/industrial compilation - definitely worth a spin, but not for the faint of heart. For three years the city of Amsterdam sponsored a venue called N.L. Centrum where artists could hold exhibitions and musicians could perform. This double LP, plus a single 7", features familiar groups like: SPK, Test Department, Chris and Cosey, Laibach, The Halfer Trio, and Legendary Pink Dots. Groups, like DerPlan teams up with Tuxedo Moon to produce some heavy industrial (almost Aryan) vocals that will make the hair on the back of your neck stand on end. Non Toxique Lost is reminiscent of Afro-dance or Rema -Rema. Blurt suggests similarities of Attrition, and Marie Kawazu sounds like the B 52's played backward, sideways and upside down. This compilation is excellent and worth a spin. For more info contact Play It Again Sam, 312-528- 8753, available only as an import.

INSIDE COUNTRY

APRIL HAPPENINGS. On April Fool's Day, KASE-Austin joined forces with Top 40 station KHFI and switched formats from 7 to 8 a.m. KASE's Mike Carta said, "We both had a bunch of confused listeners on our hands. But after they realized what day it was, they soon found their way to the right music station."...Charlie Van Hall at KFSL-Klamath Falls tells us they celebrated Tax Day - April 15th - in a big way by going AM stereo.

CLOSE, BUT NO CIGAR. Last week we told you that Mike West at KPRB -Redmond/Bend had heard Mel Tillis' "You'll Come Back (You Always Do)" in a movie. That part is true, but we listed the wrong movie. It's not "Tough Guys," it's "Tough Guys Don't Dance," written and directed by Norman Mailer.

GAVIN COUNTRY WELCOMES...We have two new reporters this week. David Bryan (AKA Dink Buckworth!) joins us from WDAF-Kansas City. And Bill Georgi, who was just promoted to PD, joins us from KWDJ-Riverside. Welcome aboard!

PROGRAMMERS ARE TALKING ABOUT...Sean Lisle at KNBA-Vallejo is getting mega-calls for "Rhonda" from Eddie Rabbitt's new LP...Rick Robinson at WEYY-Talladega reports phone requests for Carla Monday doubled over the last week...Ken Conlin at KEKA-Eureka says, "We're getting the same kind of excellent response to this Jimmie Dale Gilmore record as we would to a Dwight Yoakam record"...Susan West at KYKK-Hobbs is still getting good response to Pake McEntire's LP cut "The Work Song"...The top request for Brian Jeffrey at WDMP-Dodgeville is Eddie Rabbitt's "The Wanderer"...Patty Loveless' "A Little Bit Of Love" continues to pull in calls for Scott Winston at KVOX-Fargo...P.J. Emmerson at KFA T/FM-Corvallis tells us the O'Kanes and Rodney Crowell LP's are real hot with her listeners.

RECORD TO WATCH. Radio just loves radio songs. Charley Pride's "I'm Gonna Love Her On The Radio" is off to a great start, with 36 adds this week

Talk to you next week. The Gavin Country Crew

HIT FACTOR

Country
Research:
Lisa Smith
Elma Greer

Hit Factor is a percentage of stations which have it in Heavy or Medium rotation. ie: 100 stations playing the record -- 60 stations have it in Heavy or Medium rotation -- Hit Factor = 60%

REVIEWS

By Lisa Smith & Cyndi Hoelzle

k.d. lang - I'm Down To My Last Cigarette (Sire/Warner Bros.)

A lot of people are predicting k.d. will be one of Country's next superstars, and we find it hard to disagree. Her last outing was a duet with Roy Orbison ("Crying"), and on this single she's surrounded herself with more Nashville legends, producer Owen Bradley and songwriters Harlan Howard and Billy Walker. Walker originally recorded this song, but k.d. has taken it, torched it, twanged it, and made it her own.

BELAMY BROTHERS - I'll Give You All My Love Tonight (MCA/Curb)

The production and the hooks are pure pop, but those famous Bellamy harmonies add up to the perfect sound for "Modern Country" stations.

REBA McENTIRE - Sunday Kind Of Love (MCA)

Reba's award-winning voice gives this standard a contemporary sound. It's sure to be a hit with your listeners any day of the week.

INSIDE URBAN RADIO

Lots of hot news and changes on both the radio side and the record biz side of our industry this week. See Chinwag, beginning on page 25 for the stories concerning four major broadcast groups, most of which concern our reporting stations, as well as rumored changes at both Columbia and MCA. Ratings are in, too, for some of the major markets, including New York and Chicago, which are also somewhere in Chinwag. As for the music, we have a new number one, Mr. Self-Confidence AL B. SURE! does make it to the top. It's not surprising that STEVIE WONDER and MICHAEL JACKSON's duet made Certified this week, and so does popular blue-eyed soul duo of DARYL HALL & JOHN OATES. Duets seem to be the key these days and either of those two combinations spell sureshot. Many comments on TEDDY PENDERGRASS, which also charted this week: Charles Arthur Brown, WNOV-Milwaukee, reports his preliminary listening of the yet-to-be-released album was a great experience. According to Charles, "Joy" is just a sip of what's to come. Tony Wright, WJIZ-Albany, agrees it's great to have Teddy back with Urban radio - he's been missed. Earl Boston, WFXM-Macon, is the first to mention PAULA ABDUL's release, "Knocked Out," which is what it did to Earl. "She sings as good as she moves," he says. most of you know, she's the choreographer for Janet Jackson's videos, as well as those of many prominent artists who are utilizing their legs and feet in videos. Earl is also getting great response to the NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK, which is replacing New Edition in the young demos' hearts. Cy Young, WQQK/FM-Nashville, says listeners reaction to the PRINCE is positive, and he's getting great phones for the TEMPTATIONS' album cut, "Put Your Foot Down." Mike Archie, WHUR-Washington, reports great calls for BY ALL MEANS, and that it reminds him of Miles Jaye, which did well for him. Mad Hatter, WGOK-Mobile, raves about the RUN DMC, saying "For sure!" Other comments on RUN DMC: Steve Crumbley, says it instantly became the number one request-tune on the second day of airplay at WPDQ-Jacksonville. At his WOWI-Norfolk station, the instant response went to GEORGE MICHAEL. Steve commented on two other tunes: GARY TAYLOR is doing great at the clubs in Jacksonville, and BABYFACE took off at WOWI, getting top requests from females 18-34. Chris Clay, KQXL-Baton Rouge, couldn't help but comment on RUN DMC, saying, "It's a great comeback, big with teens here and will probably pick up good adults." Roshon Vance, WPEG-Charlotte, gives RUN a two-for-two: number two in requests after two days' play. Number one requests from his teens is for J.J.FAD's "Supersonic," which is already generating crossover airplay in his market, as well as in heavy rotation at KKDA-Dallas, and in medium rotation at KNON-Dallas and WWDM/FM-Sumter. Other stations on it are WRAG/AM-Carrollton, KKFX-Seattle, and Top 40 crossover stations, Z100, HOT103, FM102, KIIS/FM, POWER106, POWER96, and KSTN. Not bad for a newcomer.

Tom Owens, WBLZ-Cincinnati, likes the NICOLE "Jam Packed (At The Wall)" calling it "Jam Packed with excitement." Dorian Cox, KADO-Texas, reports MANHATTAN TRANSFER is his record to watch, describing it as a good quiet storm entry. Our own RTW this week, HERBIE HANCOCK, took a healthy turn, with this from Tony Lype, WZFX-Fayetteville: "It's perfect for the warm weather coming up. It's funk, and better than 'Rocket '88' for those beach radios and convertible car radios in the summer." Sounds hot! That's it for now - Ciao. Betty

By Betty Hollars and John Martinucci

ROXANNE SHANTE - Go On Girl (Cold Chillin'/Warner Bros.) From the original soundtrack album of Sean Penn and Robert Duvall's new movie, "Colors," Roxanne reminds us again she's the original lady rapper and all the rest are imitators. As she puts it: "My groove gets better and better now, don't it?"

RUN D.M.C. - Run's House (Profile) Yes, we know it's not normal, but this week we recommend not one, but two rap records. Glad to see the boys from Hollis, NJ, are back.

BABYFACE - If We Try (Solar)

We feel it's his best to date, though it may take more than one listen for you to agree. Grab the 12", listen to the four mixes (radio edit, "percussabassapella", dub, extended) and then make your decision. This is a sample of how he got his name - smooth!

PAULA ABDUL - Knocked Out (Virgin) The lady sings as well as she moves. Look out! Kevin Weatherly from KMEL turned us on to this cut two months ago from the Virgin CD compilation distributed at the Gavin Seminar. Heavy bass. Hella beat!

TRACIE SPENCER

TRACIE SPENCER - Symptoms Of True Love (Capitol) The type of music and voice that's big right now, both on radio and in the clubs. Dance crossover stations have had lots of luck with this sound. Production is good enough to make it stand out from the run-of-the-mill dance tune.

DAVE SHOLIN'S PERSONAL PICKS — SINGLES

MICHAEL JACKSON - Dirty Diana (Epic)

A song that reinforces the image of black leather, silver buckles and super badness. Backed by some tough guitar licks, Michael makes his emotional plea very believable.

JANE WIEDLIN - Rush Hour (EMI-Manhattan)

How about a song aimed straight at the heart of radio's largest audience—those trapped in their cars during morning and afternoon drive? Here it is, delivered in true Go-Go's style by another member of the now-defunct band. Programmers and listeners will be bumper-to-bumper behind this one.

PEBBLES - Mercedes Boy (MCA)

Let's see... "Pink Cadillac," "Route 66" and "Get Outta My Dreams, Get Into My Car." Is this songwriting vehicle a trend? Pebbles' pen does it again on a tune that cruises into this week's Urban Contemporary top five. Should keep her riding on the Top 40 into summer.

CLIMIE FISHER - Love Changes (Everything) (Capitol)

Nope, it's not a him. It's a them. Climie Fisher is composed of Simon Climie, co-writer of "I Knew You Were Waiting For Me" and Rob Fisher formerly of Naked Eyes. Currently number two in Britain, this outstanding release has e-v-e-r-y-t-h-i-n-g necessary to win the same acceptance Stateside. Produced by Stephen Hague, who, besides working with The Pet Shop Boys, also produced the Jane Wiedlin effort listed above.

THOMAS DOLBY - Aliens Ate My Buick (EMI-Manhattan)

Any album which opens with a monologue (no matter how short) from Robin Leach, host of Lifestyles of the Rich and Fatuous, is an uphill experience. But TD eventually recovers by the beginning of the second track, Airhead, a song about a man-made creature of legs and breasts who consumes more than her share of precious oxygen in La La Land. Hot Sauce (written by Funkmaster George Clinton) is a spicy, guttural lowride. Then comes Pulp Culture, a purple look at the "brat shacked" high-calorie lifestyle of Hollywood. (Get the idea he'd rather be in Philadelphia?) My favorite track, if I can't pick Airhead, is My Brain Is Like A Sieve, a humbling little ditty about a guy who's willing to forget if not forgive.
