BYE-BYE, RED TIE, HELLO BPME

There's no longer any need for you to be the Rodney Dangerfield of your radio station. I'm officially taking away your red tie and leaving nothing for you to tug at while you utter the immoral line about getting "no respect." You'll get all the respect you need if you come to Los Angeles June 8-11th for the 33rd annual seminar of the BPME (Broadcast Marketing and Promotions Executives).

If you've followed my scribbles over the past five years, you already know I'm a great fan of BPME and work really hard to assist them with their goals and objectives for our industry. When it comes to management, there's the NAB. For sales, we have the RAB. Programmers have the Gavin and NAB Programming meetings. News Directors have the RTNDA, and those of us who labor in the marketing fields have the BPME.

To learn and network with our peers, it is critical that we get our managers to approve attendance at this annual seminar. BPME has been extremely attentive to our needs. They've consistently added radio-based sessions to each of their last four seminars. And we've sort of double-crossed them since we have not steadily increased our numbers to show our support and validation for the meeting.

A significant point here: If you are a General Manager or Program Director who has assumed the creative responsibility for your station's efforts, it is extremely important that you attend a BPME meeting somewhere along the line. I talk to a great many GMs and PDs who lament that they can't find promotion people who are as skilled or experienced as I am. That's baloney! If some of these people who claim they want to rid themselves of the creative burden of their station would attend a BPME, they'd find a bunch of potential candidates for the job at their store, and gain new respect for the multitude of diverse skills necessary to perform properly in the position. They'd also realize that, except for a very few cases, they themselves are not qualified to assume the role they have chosen to play. The world has very few Chaplins who can write, direct, produce, star in and score the music for their own motion picture.

I won't apologize for the rancor. I want to see a bunch of radio people out there in June, and I welcome the challenge to show them some of the brightest and most dedicated creative minds in any industry. But enough of the soap box. Let's take a look at some of the things you might enjoy at the meeting. Here's your invitation to meet the future of our profession—or, as BPME has themed it, "Marketing and Design Excellence in a New Age of Broadcasting."

Wednesday, June 8:

10:45 a.m.-12:15 p.m. "The Power of Sound." Andy Goodman of the American Comedy Network will offer you, in sound, a look at ways you can add new dimensions to your station's production. An invaluable input to enhance your promo production—and aid your Program or Production Director.

2:45-3:45 p.m. "The Radio Station Marketing Plan." Power106's GM, GSM and Marketing Director lead you through their philosophy of the successful relationship between planning, execution and the result of a successful marketing plan. And you can't argue with their results in L.A.!

4:00-5:15 p.m. "Presentations for Radio." Maurie Webster and Charles Furlong show you the classic "Amazing Invisible Market" presentation and also discuss the elements of a successful presentation—theme, cost, execution, effect. A really valuable session for all of us who want to mount a show for our station.

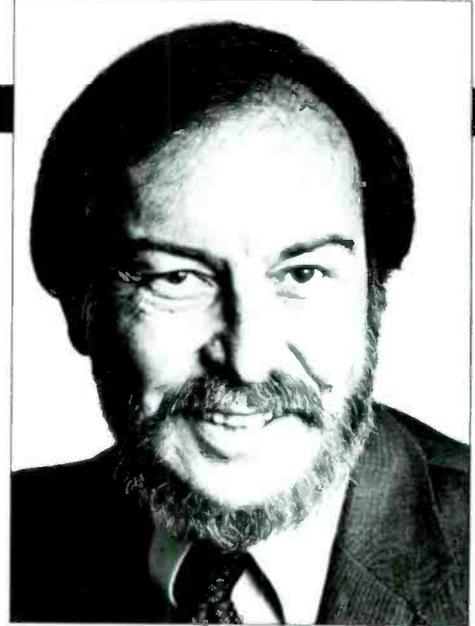

Thursday, June 9:

7:30-8:30 a.m. BPME Radio Breakfast. Jeff Smulyan, President of Emmis Broadcasting, one of the most aggressive companies in the industry, will get your engines started in high gear.

9:00-10:30 a.m. "Marketing the Movies." Steve Sohmer, former head of Columbia Pictures, shares with you a look at how Hollywood markets the movies.

10:45 a.m.-12:45 p.m. "Sales Training for Promotion Directors." Erica Farber of Interep presents an abbreviated version of her company's sales training program. As we've said all along, the future is in sales, and here's a good way to get the inside scoop from a real pro.

2:30-3:45 p.m. "Allocating Promotion Resources for Radio Stations." Leonard Lodish, a professor from the Wharton School of Business, offers a unique academic look at how we invest our dollars, and offers suggestions on how to improve our productivity.

Friday, June 10

9:00-10:30 a.m. "Comedy and Copy for Radio." A pair of our industry's greats, Bert Berdis and Alan Barzman, take a look at how to use comedy for radio copywriting. A must for honing your skills.

4:00-5:30 p.m. "What's the BIG Idea?" The legendary Chuck Blore guides you through the search for that elusive promotional commodity.

Saturday, June 11

10:45 a.m.-12:15 p.m. "Promoting the Way Radio is Used By Listeners Today." Well-known programmer and theoretician George Burns offers his outlook on promoting today's formats.

2:15-3:45 p.m. "What's New in Radio Marketing." A panel of experts led by Dan Garfinkle reveals the latest techniques being used to promote our medium.

4:00-5:00 p.m. "The Price is Right" Don't miss this hilarious send-up of the popular game show where Danny Flamberg of the RAB tests your knowledge of radio marketing and merchandising.

And if that isn't enough, there are many more general sessions, events and parties to keep your mind reeling and your intellect challenged. I sincerely urge you to be there and show BPME as well as your management that you care about your future and the future of the medium. After all, we're the ones who have to tell the story! See you at the Bonaventure! ●

BONNIE SIMMONS TO BE MUSIC DIRECTOR O'HAIR NAMES KOFY'S CREAM

The old, the new and the left field will comprise the new air staff of San Francisco's KOFY-FM when Jim Gabbert takes over the former KKCY on May 14th. PD Thom O'hair has lined up the following air staff:

Mornings--Dan Carlisle, vet of "The City" as well as the old KSAN.

Middays--Bonnie Simmons, another KSAN survivor, KFOG and currently weekending LIVE105. She will also serve as MD.

Afternoons--Billy Kiernan, a KKCY part-timer and KALX-Berkeley grad.

Evenings--Nancy Walton, ex-KZEL, KVRE and KRQR.

Nights--Norman Davis, also of KKCY, whose Bay Area career stretches back to KYA in the late '50s.

Overnights will go to a decidedly unfamiliar voice, Wichita poet/deejay David Oz. He became a regular contributor to the Larry King Show several years ago.

As for the new format, O'hair is calling it "Adult Smokin'" or "Intellectual Alternative," depending on when you talk to him. "I just do what I do, and they make up the initials afterwards," he says.

TO JOIN KL0L SEPT. 1 MOBY MAKES IT OFFICIAL

Two years after his stormy departure from KSRR (now KHTT), Moby will make his return to the Houston airwaves September 1st, as the afternoon voice of KL0L. "We've been negotiating for Moby's return since the day he left," said GM Pat Fant, "and we are confident that (he) will give us the strongest personality lineup anywhere in the country." The cetacean-size Moby, who leaves the morning gig at KEGE-Dallas, will take the 3-7 shift, moving Dayne Steele to middays, and allowing Rick Lambert to concentrate on his PD responsibilities.

There's no place like "Paradise"!!

SADE "PARADISE"

This multi-platinum artist releases her new single, "Paradise," from her long awaited Epic release, "STRONGER THAN PRIDE." "Paradise" received huge radio response at the CHR, AC and Urban formats the first week out! With major anticipation at Retail, initial orders are nearing platinum. Video is soon to be released.

Cafferty's got a new "Song and Dance"!!

JOHN CAFFERTY & THE BEAVER BROWN BAND "SONG & DANCE"

The hot debut single from the new album, "ROADHOUSE," rocks the radio in its first week at CHR and AOR with major CHR commitments in Boston, Detroit and Providence. May is the month for the video release and the kick-off of a major tour.

"Anything" goes all the way!!

GLORIA ESTEFAN & MIAMI SOUND MACHINE "ANYTHING FOR YOU"

"Anything For You" goes #1 CHR and AC in all the trades. Album sales of this Top Ten platinum album have surpassed 1,500,000 units. Major U.S. tour continues—watch for details.

"Flame" burns up the charts!!

CHEAP TRICK "THE FLAME"

"The Flame" rekindles Cheap Trick and they are HOTTER than ever! Currently #2 on the AOR charts, "The Flame" has crossed over to become a huge CHR single. The video is a big winner in heavy rotation on MTV. The album, "LAP OF LUXURY" has already marked sales of 250,000 units.

"Dirty Diana" hot for Jackson!!

MICHAEL JACKSON "DIRTY DIANA"

"Dirty Diana," exploding at radio, looks to be a guaranteed FIFTH consecutive #1 single from the album "BAD." The "Dirty Diana" video remains a Top Ten request on MTV as it continues to be played in heavy rotation. "BAD" has remained in the Top Five since its August, 1987 release with sales exceeding 6 million in the LSA alone! Michael consistently dazzles audiences across America in his scid out tour.

"Fat" is enormous hit for Weird Al!!

WEIRD AL YANKOVIC "FAT"

"Fat" explodes with tons of airplay in LA, NYC, Washington, Cleveland, Minneapolis and many other major cities. The album, "EVEN WORSE" tips the scales over 300,000 units. The hit video is a consistent Top Ten request at MTV. Weird Al is currently on a major market promotional tour, sitting in on the morning radio shows.

"Darlin' Danielle Don't" does it!!

HENRY LEE SUMMER "DARLIN' DANIELLE DON'T"

"Danielle" does, speeding toward the #1 AOR position which was recently held by the former Summer hit, "I Wish I Had A Girl." Album sales soar over the 350,000 unit mark as Summer continues on the Richard Marx tour. The new video is on the way!

P.D. NOTEBOOK

THE AM SOAPBOX

by Eric Norberg

In recent years, I have been up here on the AM soapbox quite a lot. Many readers may think of me as a reactionary on this subject, stubbornly holding onto a past that's gone. To them, I should say that from when I was a high school student in 1957 and saved all summer to buy my first FM tuner, until the early '70s, I was equally gung ho about the missed opportunities on FM. I worked to get FMs into the ratings books, and my first years as a professional in radio were in FM.

Now FM is dominant, and it's the AM band that reeks of opportunity. I'm not a reactionary—I'm a contrarian, believing the opportunities are always where the crowd is not. While FMs are selling for preposterous prices, based only on what buyers believe they can be resold for, the AMs are going for less than they're worth. FM gained its edge by finding niches and developing them, first programming for audiophiles who might be presumed to have FM receivers, then finding progressive rock and background music niches, and finally moving on to all the mass-appeal formats that had previously found their success on the AM band. Now it's time for AM to do the same.

The December 28th issue of Television/Radio Age reported on a University of Pennsylvania study funded by United Broadcasting which concluded, "Although a majority of listeners believe AM is the more interference- and static- prone of the two bands, an even greater number see AM formats as substantially different from FM programming. To most, AM is top-heavy with news and informational programming, nearly devoid of music, over-commercialized and generally out of step with the times and the things people want from radio."

How about that for a bottom line? The reason people have turned away from AM is the programming that AM has turned to, in the belief that it is all that will work for the band. It's the classic chicken- and-egg question, and in my opinion, the chicken came first—AM stations saw their shares dropping and chickened out, conceding their audience to FM. For AM success, find a niche and fill it. And since more than 80 percent of radio listening is done for music, and over half the stations in the United States are AM, it better be a music niche in most cases!

I've pointed out previously that the Satellite Music Network is pitching its "Z-Rock" format almost entirely to AM. Those with FM facilities find the teen male who is into heavy metal is too narrow a niche to optimize profits, even in the largest markets. But there are many AMs which would like to be preeminent in any niche, and this one should work in most medium and large markets—and is not likely to draw competition. I've been listening to a new AM "Z-Rock" affiliate, the sole daytimer in a West Coast major market, and it does stand out. The format is satellite-delivered, and the station only needs board operators for the sunrise- to-sunset period. If they start promoting it in high school and college newspapers, and get visible, I guarantee they'll attract an audience nobody can take away from them. It's small, but it's exclusive, and they'll draw long listening spans, particularly in the summertime.

The station is not stereo, and that's a mistake. Much of its listening will be done in cars, and the newer cars are more apt to have AM stereo radios in them than not. My mind may properly be described as boggled over the way AM people overlook the huge audience available to them with AM stereo radios! Those radios are out there by the millions—over 5,000,000 in the U.S. alone, at last count—and all you need to do is turn on your stereo to activate those radios and give listeners a whole new reason to tune in to AM in general, and your station in particular. ●

TONY'S TOP 10s

Those of you who've read this stuff in the past know that we suffer from recurring insomnia. This usually occurs on Sunday nights when we lay awake worrying about how to get B100's Gene Knight on the phone. After considerable research, we think we've licked the problem. Here are our...

TOP 10 THINGS TO DO BEFORE HITTING THE HAY:

10. Think about John Davidson.
9. Attend a Peter Lupas-Debbie Boone reunion concert.
8. Read the biography of Mrs. George Bush.
7. Watch an unedited tape of Jon Konjoyan's acceptance speech at recent Gavin Medium Professionals Seminar.
6. Listen to spoken word speech cassette titled, "The Best of Dukakis."
5. Using automatic dialer, leave repeated messages for Jack Satter until he returns the calls.
4. Commencing with the Fat Boys and Roxanne Shante, make a lengthy list of artists for potential duets with Julio Iglesias.
3. Tape six hours of all-night Home Shopping Network and play back at slow speed.
2. Spend four hours re-reading the manuals which came with our new typewriter, CD, food processor, calculator, VCR and frozen welsh rarebit.
1. Think about Alan Thicke.

TEN THINGS DAVID LETTERMAN HAS BEEN DOING DURING THE HIATUS CAUSED BY WRITERS' STRIKE:

10. Renting Valerie Harper movies.

9. Helping Paul Schaffer pick out new ill-fitting suits.
8. Having dental work done on the space between his teeth.
7. Taking cue card-reading lessons from the late Ed Sullivan.
6. Sharing plates of dim sum with Stevie Nicks.
5. Taking a long-delayed vacation at Yankton's top resort hotel.
4. Tattooing the words "Kevin McHale" on the forearm of Boston promo guy Tom Jodka.
3. Thinking of ways to level Tipper Gore when she guests on his first return program.
2. Transferring Bobby Goldsboro's "Little Things" to CD single mode.
1. Writing a sequel to "Colors" about vicious street gangs in Beverly Hills.

TOP 10 SUPERSTITIONS, THE FIRST FIVE ASSEMBLED BY THE FACULTY AT PIERCE COLLEGE IN WOODLAND HILLS, CALIFORNIA:

10. If you eat the end of a watermelon, your cocker spaniel will die.
9. If the TV is not turned off before the end of the overture to "Perry Mason," everyone in the room will die.
8. When passing a cemetery, always touch your hair.
7. Democrats win Presidential elections in years when Cuba wins the World Series.
6. Never say, "I'll be seeing you" to an undertaker.
5. Never say to Danny Davis, "What's new? And I want ALL the details!"
4. Never take an Uzi to a Bon Jovi concert if you heard there'll be patdowns.

3. Avoid Howard Rosen on Mondays and Tuesdays, unless you have good news.

2. If you want Ron Fell to say intellectual stuff about your album, don't send him a bottle of Grecian Formula.

1. Always stack your Helen Reddy albums in the hot sun.

TOP 10 ACTUAL NAMES OF DEEJAYS, PAST AND PRESENT:

10. Chatty Hatty
9. The Mad Hatter
8. Dr. Jive
7. Hot Rod Hulbert
6. Fat Daddy Johnson
5. Joltin' Joe
4. Mad Daddy Meyers
3. Diggy Doo Dixon
2. Bugs Scruggs
1. Bob Harlow

TOP 10 POSSIBILITIES FOR 1989 GAVIN SEMINAR KEYNOTE SPEAKER

10. Nitzer Ebb
9. Sam Kinnison
8. Manuel Noriega
7. A guy who hangs out with Billy Brill
6. Bob Rivers
5. Augie Blume's rabbi
4. Ed Grimley
3. Cal Ripkin, Sr. & Jr.
2. Big Pig
1. Diggy Doo Dixon

TOP 10 REASONS THE GAVIN REPORT CONTINUES TO RUN THIS COLUMN

10. Need to cheer up readers after they finish Alternative section.
9. Need to fill space when Bell Records ad drops out at last minute.
8. Not enough Birthdays to pad out publication.
7. Serves as crash course in words of more than one syllable for MCA's Pat Martine.
6. Used as testing material for Joel Denver's new paper shredder.
5. Only section of the Gavin Report taken seriously by Liz Kiley and Bobby Rich.
4. Useful as confetti in astronaut parades.
3. Excellent liner for bottom of Mrs. Hollywood's birdcage.
2. Utilized for paper airplanes thrown by Tom Gorman in Capitol marketing meetings.
1. Gavin couldn't afford Gary Owens.

BIO FEEDBACK

CHEAP TRICK

The band has recorded Barrett Strong's "Money" for the soundtrack to the movie, "Caddyshack II."

FLEETWOOD MAC

Mick Fleetwood married longtime sweetheart Sara Recor April 24 in their Malibu home. John McVie was best man.

CARLY SIMON

Her first-ever live album will be released in July.

BASIA

While still living in her native Poland, she joined an all-girl band, Alibabka, and toured Europe singing pop songs in Polish, Russian and English.

JON ANDERSON

Twenty years ago, his newly formed band, Yes, was recruited as a last-minute replacement as the opening act for a London show headlined by Sly and the Family Stone. That performance led quickly to their first recording contract with Atlantic Records.

POISON

The Wal Mart retail stores' refusal to stock the band's new album, Open Up and Say Ahh, was apparently based on their feeling that a cover with a tiger woman with a foot-long tongue was offensive. A new cover has been designed and the old one is now a collector's item.

by RON FELL

CLIFF RICHARD

In 1958, Harry Rodger Webb changed his name to Cliff Richard and signed his first recording contract.

WHITNEY HOUSTON

She recently travelled to London to film a new Diet Coke TV commercial with director Ridley Scott, who did the films "Aliens" and "Blade Runner."

NIA PEEPLES

After appearing as a regular on the TV series "Fame," she hosted the short-lived American version of Britain's "Top of the Pops."

ZIGGY MARLEY

He was only 12 years old when his father, Bob, died of cancer.

MICHAEL JACKSON

The latest round of his TV commercials for Pepsi will be aired on Soviet television as part of the Soviet Union's pre-Summit coverage.

BRUCE HORNSBY

Bruce studied music at Boston's Berklee School of Music and the University of Miami before beginning a seven-year search for his first recording contract.

DOLLY PARTON

Her next album is likely to have a bluegrass influence, as some tracks will be produced by Ricky Skaggs.

ROD STEWART

His forthcoming album, Out of Order, includes a remake of Otis Redding's "Try A Little Tenderness."

BOURGEOIS TAGG

Their latest single, "Waiting For the World to Turn," appears on their current album under the title "Waiting For the Worm to Turn."

STING

"Every Breath You Take," written by Sting while he was with the Police, is the only song in Gavin Report history to have held the number-one position on the chart for eight consecutive weeks. It did so from June 17 until August 5, 1983.

CAMPER VAN BEETHOVEN

OUR BELOVED REVOLUTIONARY SWEETHEART CAMPER VAN BEETHOVEN (VIRGIN)

Local Bay Area Camperphiles go galaxy-wide with their combination major label debut/limited edition stamp collection. It's great to see a band like Camper granted major label immunity, utilizing a respectable recording budget while maintaining identity and integrity. Both parts of "Eye Of Fatima" open what sounds like an instant Alternative hit album. Our favorites also include "Devil Song," "Tania" and the morose "O Death." The use of the old Virgin logo and psychedelic graphics are more an indication of the music's spirit rather than the rehashing of some era gone by. Camper Van Beethoven should make massive inroads via the alternative avenues that are frequently ventured but seldom tamed.

MELISSA ETHERIDGE (ISLAND)

Yet another example of an entire album triumphing over the four-song preview. Each song on her debut album tends to tell us more and more about Etheridge's modus operandi. Somewhere between Joan Jett and Suzanne Vega in terms of toughness, young Melissa tends to recall the stormy sides of relationships. The more you listen, the more you tend to notice that the production is actually spare while beneath the arrangements lies an aggressive acoustic bottomline. I especially liked "Chrome Plated Heart" while radio has been responding to "Similar Features" and the rousing "Bring Me Some Water."

"SILVIO"-BOB DYLAN (COLUMBIA)

Here's a first: Bob Dylan utilizing the services of a Dead lyricist. Probably the fruits of last year's Dylan & Dead tour, Jerry, Bob and Brent harmonize Robert Hunter's words and Bob Dylan's music. Jaunty and upbeat.

LOVESEXY-PRINCE

(PAISLEY PARK/WARNER BROS.)

Like the controversial cover promises, Lovesexy is an over-the-top effort which rates as one of His Purpleness' boldest and best. Prince is king as he wails on through trax like "Alphabet St.," "Anna Stesia," "Dance On" and "I Wish U Heaven." Anybody who constructs a tight funk piece ("Alphabet St.") using the first four notes of Beethoven's fifth is a genius in my book. CD maniacs will eventually notice that the whole damned thing is on one continuous track. We've been had again.

PERFECT MACHINE-HERBIE HANCOCK (COLUMBIA)

If you dare call it jazz, you may find yourself whistling in the dark. Herbie Hancock (who once changed the face of jazz with his Headhunters LP) pulls another card off the bottom of the deck. Perfect Machine's first side glides through with a satisfying groove that uses Rokit technology without the furious edge. "Perfect Machine," "Obsession" and "Vibe Alive" have a streamlined, futuristic sense of voyage. Coincidentally, "Maiden Voyage" is resurrected and gloriously updated.

"TURNAROUND"-STEALIN HORSES (ARISTA)

Over the past few weeks, we've been on the receiving end of some sensational music by women who sound not vulnerable, but strong and proud. Stealin Horses combine an edged rock sound with their Kentucky roots. Incidentally, one half of this female duo pounds the skins. The guitarist is a refugee from Krokus and Asia. An unlikely collection of renegades, if I may say so, but it works.

STRONGER THAN PRIDE-SADE (EPIC)

Sade's long-awaited third album will casually segue with the rest of her work. What she peddles is a patented groove and attitude. I found the second track, "Paradise" to be the most forceful with an aggressive snare beat but a cool and controlled vocal line.

LIVE 1980/86-JOE JACKSON (A&M)

Joe dips into the vaults and shows us the evolution of his ever-changing sound. Different phases of the Joe Jackson persona are liberally exposed (with the exception of the early days and the Jumpin' Jive tour) via live concert tapes recorded all over the world. Plenty of live options and new interpretations include some lesser-known favorites like "Got The Time," "I'm The Man," "Memphis," "It's Different For Girls" and many more.

OPERATION: MINDCRIME-QUEENSRYPHE (EMI-MANHATTAN)

Queensryche explore their own Orwellian nightmare with a record that's dense but well worth the effort or time it takes to decipher. Their only link to their past reputation as headbangers is Geoff Tate's high-pitched vocals. Operation: Mindcrime is compositional, well played and elaborately arranged. It recalls Rush during their Ayn Rand fixation. Extractable tracks include "Revolution Calling," "Operation: Mindcrime," "Spreading The Disease" and "The Needle Lies." Watch out for the nasties sprinkled throughout the lyrics. Otherwise Operation: Mindcrime is way above most of the rest of the hard rock that files its way through here. KZ

INSIDE ALBUM

CHART TALK. Only as I was inputting this week's chart and chartbounds did it occur to me how much good music is currently making the rounds. This sample of artists sprinkled with an interesting blend of recurrences would make for an interesting and diverse station indeed. What we see this week is an ideal choice of American, Euro, hard, pop, classic and new artists. This week's Top Fifteen is rife with variety including Hornsby, Smithereens, Neil's Blue Notes, Cheap Trick, Ziggy and Midnight Oil. Right after Rod Stewart at #11, there's a statistical wall as Glass Tiger and Honeymoon Suite maintain their underlines, staying at #12 and #13. We saw explosive weeks for Robin Trower, Graham Parker, Van Halen, John Mellencamp and Brian Setzer--the average jump between the five being an astounding 15 slots! Bruce Hornsby showed up under the Most Added banner for the fourth week in a row.

AROUND THE HORN. Well, we made it through this week despite the predictions of Nostradamus and Nancy Reagan's astrologer. It was a rough week. Billy Martin was allegedly beaten up in a Texas men's room without a punch being thrown, my Oakland A's won fourteen games in a row. The day before the streak ended KSJO-San Jose's zany AM man, Perry Stone, proclaimed he would stay on the air until the Oakland A's lost a game. His on-air stunt lasted less than twelve hours with lots of press to show for it...One of the advantages of changing from Top 40 to Album Radio was voiced by Jack Alexander of KKAZ-Cheyenne, "I like dealing with music like Treat Her Right, Pat McLaughlin, Bruce Hornsby and Ry Cooder."...J.D. at WONE-Akron admitted to being a Chief Wa-Hoo disciple. Hey, I didn't know that was the name of the Cleveland Indian logo... Alongside rockers like Van Halen, Joan Jett and Joanna Dean, Jim Kelly is getting calls for Tracy Chapman at KATP-Amarillo...Jim Scanlon at CHIM, outside of Vancouver, passes along another James Reyne track. Jim swears by "Always The Way"...Ask KQWB's Ty Banks about his Leslie West dreams. The man obviously takes his work home with him...Rick Alan at KKEG-Fayetteville is getting great response to Jon Anderson...Adult rocker KTCZ-Minneapolis has found a Robin Trower track. Jane Fredericksen reports "Over You"...Aside from what's cooking on the WMMR list, I got Erin Riley to admit to being hooked on Graham Parker, Ruben Blades, Camper Van Beethoven and Prince...Mike Marrone at WHTG-Asbury Park echoes the sentiments of those who prefer Melissa Etheridge's "Bring Me Some Water"...KLOL is on their third Guns & Roses track. Ikky Bop reports an add on "Paradise City"...Nearing the start of KLAQ's Hot Air Balloon Fest, Magic Mike reports big calls on Memphis' John Kilzer after only two weeks...According to Carter Alan, WBCN is opting for their own Brian Setzer choice, "Red Lightning Blues" and that's not the first time we've heard that...And finally, over across town, Bruce McDonald at WFNX is getting Top Five phones and retail action on Thomas Dolby.

INSIDE ALTERNATIVE RADIO

Prison Bound--SOCIAL DISTORTION (Restless)

These L.A. veterans have been around since 1979. They are a two-guitar, blues-based hard punk group that serves up buzzsaw yet strangely melodic guitar work. On Friday, May 6th, as I was doing my show at KUSF, I decided to segue into Social Distortion's title track, "Prison Bound." Listeners began to call! Mike Ness (lead vocal, lead guitar), is the band's main character. His lyrics are filled with personal anguish, alienation and frustration. "Indulgence" is short on words, long on punch. Other excellent cuts are "I Want What I Want," "Lost Child" and "Prison Bound."

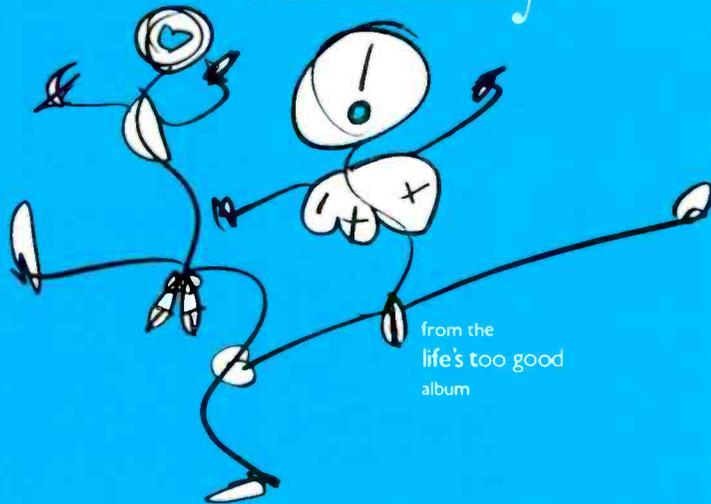

Powaqqatsi Soundtrack--Music Composed by PHILIP GLASS (Elektra)

This film is the sequel to director Godfrey Reggio's "Koyaanisqatsi," with the soundtrack music again composed by Philip Glass. Glass has numerous recordings to his credit, including such brilliant works as "Mishima," "Songs from Liquid Days" and "The Photographer." He has also written several operas including one commissioned by the Metropolitan Opera celebrating the 500th anniversary of Columbus' discovery of America. In his present composition for "Powaqqatsi," Glass has outdone himself. The opening track, "Sierra Pelada," is a free and happy romp with horns, cowbells, the Hispanic Young People's Chorus and definite Afro-beat. Glass' cyclical phrasing is present on every track most obviously on "Video Dream." Other great cuts are "New Cities in Ancient Lands," all three parts. Fine listening from one of America's finest. Michael Riesman conducts.

IRON MAIDEN

INTERVIEW
WITH SINGER
BRUCE DICKINSON
by Keith Zimmerman

*IRON MAIDEN are definitely not your wine^ocoolers of hard rock. No party-hearty lyrics. No cute drug references in their songs. It takes them weeks instead of months to finish an album. And over twenty million units have sold worldwide--not counting the release of their seventh and finest Capitol album, Seventh Son Of A Seventh Son.*

Iron Maiden's form of rock n roll is forceful and pulverizing. Fans from Europe and North America to Japan and Australia, display their devotion by donning those now-familiar Iron Maiden T-shirts bearing the likeness of Maiden's mascot, Eddie. As Eddie has evolved from monster to robot warrior to seventh son spirit, the band's legion of fans never seem to lose interest. Each new album unveils a total concept story packed with intricate musical arrangements and pyrotechnic guitar licks. It's as if every single riff, fill and lead is tested for its maximum stun impact before the band enters the studio.

One reason we chose to interview Iron Maiden was that as successful as they are, they're still somewhat introverted about sharing their accomplishments with the rest of the music/radio industry. Yet through the management of Rod Smallwood and Andy Taylor's Sanctuary Music, Iron Maiden's ability to market themselves beyond their recorded wares is almost legendary. Still, the band is very stubborn about keeping the music in the forefront, insisting that staging and artwork be directly relevant to the songs and the concept of each album.

We tracked down Bruce Dickinson in Cologne, West Germany, as the band rehearsed for their North American tour commencing, oh yes, on Friday the Thirteenth of May. We asked Bruce about Iron Maiden's musical work habits, the storyline behind their latest LP and the secrets behind their eight years of worldwide success.

HARD ROCKIN

MAIDEN

KZ: How long did it take to record the new album?

BD: It took eight weeks to record and two weeks to mix. Remember, you're dealing with proper musicians. We actually play our instruments, you know!

KZ: On the new album, the instruments sound a little more upfront and not so layered.

BD: It is a little bit of a departure from the previous albums. The main thing we tried to do was to take the time that we had off and use it to put more eloquence into some of the ideas.

KZ: Is there a total concept to the album?

BD: Absolutely. The whole album is one complete story. It's the life and times of a seventh son of a seventh son. Because of this accident of birth, he has been endowed with mystical powers. The whole album is about the way he deals with them and the way other people deal with him. There's an allegory in it as well, which is that anybody born with any kind of talent at all automatically has a problem. Anybody who does something different than the rest of humanity has a problem because the rest of humanity is going to treat them as a different kind of person. That person might sometimes adjust to it or they might not even like themselves being different.

KZ: The tortured artist?

BD: Or it could just be a guy who doesn't fit in--the tortured geek. The tortured nerd. It's also about other things as well--reincarnation and religion. The opening track, "Moonchild," is actually sung by the devil. In the opening lyrics, he introduces himself as Lucifer. All the lyrics refer to the Moonchild, and the moon is ruled by the number seven. Therefore, any seventh son of a seventh son would be a Moonchild. In the opening song, the Moonchild is born and the devil is watching him saying, "I want this kid for mine. I'm going to get him." The next song is "Infinite Dreams," which is sung by the kid himself. He's saying, "I have these terrible dreams. I don't know what they mean. I see infinity. I see all my previous and future incarnations. Who am I?" That's why he goes to the prophet and asks him the question, "Can I Play With Madness?"

KZ: When Iron Maiden brings a song into the studio, it is already arranged?

BD: Yes. Steve Harris wrote "Seventh Son Of A Seventh Son." Now he writes with a bass guitar. He can't really play any other kind of guitar or keyboards. So he writes the whole thing on bass guitar and pops it down on a little cassette. Some of his greatest stuff has been whistling into a cassette player. He's worked out all of the bass parts and the rhythm parts in his head. Then we go into a rehearsal room--in this case, a barn near Steve's house--and just go through it. "Seventh Son" took us about three days for everybody to learn it and play it. I have this ghetto blaster that I've had for eight years. We've done four albums on it now. I stick it up in one corner of the room, and we play it through. I record it on the condenser mike that comes with the tape recorder. Then we run off reference copies and go into the studio and play it.

KZ: There are so many time changes and intricate parts on that song.

BD: We remember them all, totally by ear. If the song is written by one person on the credits, then that person wrote, arranged and did everything on that particular song. All the lead fills and the drum fills will be arranged by that particular person.

SEVENTH SON

KZ: Was "Can I Play With Madness" originally written as Iron Maiden's attempt at a single?

BD: I knew it was going to be a single-sounding song as soon as I wrote the first bits of it. I write most of my stuff on acoustic guitar. I was fiddling around with the intro riff and added a verse and melody. I was stuck for a chorus. Adrian came around the house one day, and we worked on "Moonchild." I played him a verse, he played some chords, and I did a scratch vocal. Suddenly, I remembered I had written this song about a guy looking over a bridge and wondering what it would be like to jump. The song was called "Can I Play With Madness." I thought, "That's it!" I started singing it and decided that it had to have an a capella vocal at the beginning, the end and somewhere in the middle. I wrote it and said, "That's the single. It has to be. I know it."

KZ: This is your first serious single release in America.

BD: We released "Flight Of Icarus" as a single, but that was a pretty botched-up job. We were kinda talked into that one. This one has a real shot.

KZ: Has it been released anywhere else in the world?

BD: It got to number three in England.

KZ: You've used Martin Birch as a producer for most of your records.

BD: Martin is one of the old-school producers. He's an engineer first and foremost. He's also a psychologist in terms of his approach to production. His attitude is that if a band isn't good enough to write songs that he thinks sound good in the studio, he doesn't want to produce them. I've always had a downer on artists who can't take responsibility for their own output. I feel the role of the producer is a catalyst to enable the artist to express his own ideas and opinions in the best possible light. But unfortunately what's happening in modern days is that you now have artists with no ideas and no inspiration with nothing to say putting themselves in the position of just getting producers. Then they say, "Hey, you write the album for us. You fix it and we'll spend two years with some programmers." Literally, artists aren't even really playing on the album. I feel that totally ignores questions of morality. But you can't start talking about morality in the music business because the whole industry is completely immoral from top to bottom.

KZ: So you think some artists lack musicianship to the point of being puppets to their producers.

BD: I don't even think it makes good music half the time--except on very odd occasions. For example, Frankie Goes To Hollywood. It was a one-off situation in which the person being manipulated is so excited at the idea of being manipulated because it was his first go at something. But he ends up bringing that naivete and spontaneity to the performance.

KZ: What does the cover artwork signify?

BD: There are six incarnations of Eddie frozen in the background. This Eddie is ascending from the water into heaven. His head is on fire and above is his spirit. There's a ghost of Eddie above his head, which you can't see on the album cover. You can only see it on the cassette or CD cover. He's holding a fetus in one hand that is attached to his rib by tentacles. That presumably is the seventh son of him as the seventh offspring. He's the seventh Eddie and he has a seventh son. There's a book sticking out of the icescape.

KZ: It looks like a bible.

BD: That's the Book Of Life, which is referred to in the book of Revelations. There are seven seals binding it. In the song "Moonchild," when you open the seventh seal, it's the end of the world. There are about forty references to the number seven in the book of Revelations, most of which are mentioned in the album somewhere.

KZ: Do your fans follow the lyrics that closely?

BD: Quite a few of them do. It depends on what reasons they are fans. I think some people often misunderstand the intelligence of our fans. A lot of people like to underestimate them. People always tend to judge rock music by its lowest common denominator, unless you're Sting, or somebody like that, who is forever going around and saying, "I read books"--like the rest of the world doesn't! Everybody seems to think everyone at a Sting concert is terribly highbrow. A lot of them are just there for a good evening of rock n roll and get out of their brains like everybody else.

KZ: When you see people make a fuss over some pop stars and all their hits, do you ever feel locked out of not being on the cover of a Rolling Stone magazine, even though you've sold over twenty million records?

BD: I'd be quite glad to be locked out of Rolling Stone magazine. It's full of old farts. They should have retired long ago.

KZ: You've toured just about all over the world--do all those different audiences react the same?

BD: American audiences tend to be a lot more homogenous than the European rock audience. If it's a good show in town and they've heard it on the radio, they'll go and see that show. Then they'll go and see something totally different the next night.

KZ: How about British audiences?

BD: Audiences in the U.K. are committed to specific groups. Things happen faster because it's a much smaller country. There are two distinct kinds of audiences there. What I term the "junk audiences" don't know anything about music at all. They want music to wash the dishes to or go dancing at the disco to. The specific audiences are people who like one particular kind of music. There's a rock audience, a soul audience, a reggae audience and those sort of people. You can have groups that are actually selling out concerts that a large part of the population has only heard of briefly. In America, you can't get the kind of instant nationwide recognition. One full-page article in two daily papers in England and half the population of England know who you are in twenty-four hours. You can't do that in America. It takes weeks for a single to get in the charts. In England, our single was number four in its first week of release.

KZ: You also do very well in Japan.

BD: Japan is a funny one. Japan's audiences are a reflection of its society. It's almost completely static. You're as big this year as you were last year. Your sales go up about three percent or down by three percent every time you release an album.

KZ: Hasn't each Iron Maiden project sold more than its predecessor?

BD: Yes, of course. But certain territories more than others. For example, in Japan it's almost static--as is almost every other rock band. You have the odd album that might sell fifteen percent more than another one. Whereas in North America, you find a big surge each year. With this new album, we're experiencing a particularly large surge because it's the best album we've ever done. For example, our back catalogue is currently selling 175,000 albums a month worldwide. But this is before the release of the new album.

KZ: I've always been impressed that Iron Maiden has held on to their integrity as well as their audience.

BD: The reason we've been able to do it is because we've never been that involved with the rat race of the music industry. People say, "Oh, you must know him. He's from this or that record company." I don't know hardly anybody from any record company. I know a few people from EMI. To be honest with you, the more I hear about the music industry, the less I want to know people in it.

KZ: Folks in the industry assume Iron Maiden is a self-contained organization--"Just get the record in the stores, and we'll do the rest."

BD: We feel it's better to have things under control, as long as you can keep your act together. In European terms, we have a promotion and marketing side with the management company that is better than any European company. I don't think there's a European label with a better marketing set-up than our management. The other companies are talking in such cynical terms, it's funny. They're going, "Wow, what a great stroke they pulled. What a great move they made." They're just barking up the wrong tree. All we do is say, "How can we present the music in the best way? How can we get over the sense of humor and what the band is all about in an intelligent and interesting way?" Then people will be interested and go and buy the record. It's as close as you can get to selling things honestly.

KZ: You have to keep the quality of those T-shirts as high as possible. You see people all over the world wearing them.

BD: If you care about your fans and the integrity of your music, the only way that person gets to know how serious you are is when he or she buys something. If he buys a T-shirt and it falls apart, and then he reads an interview about how much you care for your fans, he looks at his T-shirt and wonders. It's very important that you pay attention to detail. That means hard work from everybody. One of the problems is nobody from this guy who influences what that person thinks about that group more than anything else.

KZ: We hear about how costly it is out on the road. Can a band like Iron Maiden generate a profit just from ticket sales?

BD: We do now because we've been at it long enough. We're pretty organized about the whole thing. But it's a perennial struggle to get it correct. We want to go out and do a better show each year and do things really well. We do want to present the music in the best way, and there's a lot of money that goes back into the pot every year to make sure that we have enough for next year's show and tour. At the same time, we're doing very well out of touring. Part of that involves working closely with promoters. We've always played pretty fair with promoters. If we've been trying to do nationwide tours, and some markets are very weak and some poor guy takes a dive over five or six concerts, we give him the money back from our profits. It keeps everybody happy and the guy is going to work with us again. He knows we're going to come through in the end because that's the kind of people we are. We believe in the music. It makes me laugh when we've toured with other heavy metal bands and all they're thinking about is dollars and cents--to the point where it obscures the whole aim of the process. Everybody has to make a living, but the aim is to go out there and make music. Let's face it. How greedy can you be in your life before you die?

KZ: What do you think about tour sponsorship?

BD: Mostly, I think it's crappy. I think it cheapens the name of the group. It cheapens their image. Okay, if the group has a cheap image, a cheap name and it's doing cheap commercial trashy music, go and get sponsored. It doesn't make any difference. For Iron Maiden, we have a certain amount of integrity which I wouldn't want to cheapen by being associated with a lousy brand of beer. Or a soft drink I can't imbibe. Under no circumstances will we ever accept any cigarette advertising. I hate smoking.

KZ: How do you get psyched up before a big show?

BD: It's really mundane, actually. Usually a cup of tea. There's no Hollywood hyperbole or anything going on backstage. Our dressing room is the minimum we get away with. No banquets or silliness. We go there to play music. We entertain people and we all enjoy it. Anything else tends to be superfluous. That's not why we're here. I can go and order smoked salmon back at the hotel, thank you.

KZ: I remember seeing a drawing of your mascot Eddie murdering Margaret Thatcher. BD: That was a tongue-in-cheek English joke. This is our sense of humor--something some Americans understand. Other Americans choose not to understand it. That's one of the problems we had with the devil-worship thing. Some people chose not to see it as funny.

KZ: Is it becoming a bit of a drag when you have to go onstage and clarify that Iron Maiden are not into drugs and devil worship?

BD: To be honest, the whole devil worship/PMRC thing was a typical example of U.S. McCarthyism. The thing that made it possible for McCarthy to do the absurd things that he did also makes it possible for people to go on silly diets for six months, and for everybody to think everybody is abusing their children left, right and center. Then they discover that it's not strictly correct. America tends to go off the deep end over issues, and it lasts anywhere from three to six months. It's printed in the papers. They do nothing. It becomes old news, and the rest of the population thinks the problem has been solved.

KZ: Do you have a message to American radio?

BD: I request that they get back to the morality of the late sixties with the modernity of the eighties. ● business is prepared to work really hard. Okay, there are notable exceptions. But the problem is, you need people at the ground level who work really hard--not just the Great White Hopes jetting their way across the Atlantic. INSIDE COUNTRY

GAVIN CONGRATULATIONS. This week's congratulations go to KILT-Houston, whose new staff won more Associated Press Awards than any other Major Market station in Texas. Among the first-place awards presented to the station were Best Sportscast, Best Investigative Report and Best Public Affairs Report. What a crew!

GAVIN WELCOMES...Two more reporters join the Gavin fold this week - Jim Asker from WFLS-Fredericksburg, VA, and Paul Clark from KWGB-Boone, IA... Jeff DeWeese, formerly at WQHK-Ft. Wayne, has moved over to Crosstown WBTU as the new Music Director...And, finally, Bob McCoy from WDRK-Spokane joins the staff of KWYZ-Everett and takes over the 6 PM to midnight shift.

OUR CONDOLENCES. Our sympathies go out to the staff at WDMP-Dodgeville on the death of their GM, Richard Carroll. He died last Monday, May 2nd, of liver cancer at the age of 65. PD Wendall Hamlin has moved up to the GM position.

PROGRAMMERS ARE TALKING ABOUT...Mike Burns-Gilbert at WCOW-Sparta reports great response to Ronnie McDowell's LP cut, "Party Girl"...Tim Closson at WAXX /FM-Eau Claire says he's getting instant phones on Mel McDaniel and moves it from a light to a heavy rotation...David Slater is pulling in nonstop phones at WRNS/FM-Coastal NC...Kurt Phillips at KMIT-Mitchell says Steve Wariner has the perfect LP cut for this baseball season - "Somewhere Between Old And New York"...The most popular LP cut for Mark Burns at WCAV-Brockton is the O'Kanes "Tired Of The Runnin'"...Kelly Thompson at KMDL-Kaplan reports Jeff Dugan is a smash in Louisiana, selling out everywhere...Eddie Rabbitt's new "Wanderer" single is wasting no time pulling in requests. Bob Hamilton at WGTU-Gettysburg tells us phones are ringing off the wall for Rabbitt, and Roger McDowell at KRMS-Osage Beach is already reporting it in his top three requests.

RECORD TO WATCH. Lyle Lovett's "I Loved You Yesterday" is winning instant acceptance on the radio front. With 45 adds, it's among our Most Added records this week. Newcomers include KSO, KASE/FM, KRLL, KIKK/FM, KNIX, K92/FM, WEYY, WAXX/FM, etc.

Talk to you next week.

REVIEWS

By Lisa Smith & Cyndi Hoeltzle

RODNEY CROWELL - I Couldn't Leave You If I Tried (Columbia)

This is the second single from Diamonds And Dirt, Rodney's best album to date. He sounds cool and relaxed as the song just seems to glide by. Although they don't play on the single, you'll spot Sam Bush (New Grass Revival) and Vince Gill appearing as twin fiddlers in the video.

CANYON - In The Middle Of The Night (16th Ave.)

You can almost hear a hot summer night in this pop melody. The sound is in the John Mellencamp/Henry Lee Summer vein, and should go over well with young listeners. Give it a few listens and you'll be convinced.

PATTY LOVELESS - A Little Bit In Love (MCA)

Programmers were quick to pick up on this Steve Earle composition off of Patty's latest album. It has an uptempo beat, an infectious melody and a rockabilly feel.

ALBUM OF THE WEEK

k.d. lang - Shadowland (Sire/Warner Bros.)

k.d.'s pairing with legendary producer Owen Bradley has resulted in a breakthrough album for Country's hottest up and comer. Temporarily without her back-up band, the Reclines, k.d.'s voice is Shadowland's star attraction. The first single, "I'm Down To My Last Cigarette," is already converting listeners into fans. Other highlights include "Western Stars," "Sugar Moon," "Tears Don't Care Who Cries Them" (with back-up vocals by The Jordanaires) and the "Honky Tonk Angels' Medley" with guest vocals by Brenda Lee, Loretta Lynn and Kitty Wells. If you're not already among the loyal singing the praises of k.d., this album should do the trick.

INSIDE URBAN RADIO

Another week with a new number one — PEBBLES, who put on a dynamite show last weekend here with Morris Day, gets there in her Mercedes. Two J's are threatening her, though: JESSE (JOHNSON) and JOHNNY (KEMP), right up there with His Naked Highness, PRINCE, all hanging out in the top five eyeing that number one. GREGORY ABBOTT made it to Certified with ease - and many of you agreed that he's certainly done a good job on this release. Ladies are so tuned in when they hear this, they're even taking the trouble to call in to stations asking for it. Speaking of females, they're calling for TEDDY PENDERGRASS, just like the old days, says Paul Brown, WVOI-Toledo. Paul also says the ALEXANDER O'NEAL "is reaching the 25-54 demos we're after" with "The Lovers."

We won't print all of the quotes we received about VANESSA WILLIAMS' "The Right Stuff." Joe Bullard, WANM-Tallahassee, did say, "Now that we've seen her stuff, you know it's right." Most were surprised, like Tony Brown, WBLX-Mobile, who said, "Hey, it's pretty good." Gary Young, WLUM-Milwaukee, makes it his RTW, and remarks that our RTW this week, J J FAD, is number one with his teens.

Rob Morris, WVKO-Columbus made J J FAD his RTW, and so did new reporter, Kimberly Kaye, WFKX-Jackson. The artist with the most mentions this week was MAC BAND, which we recommended last week. Rick Stevens, WCKX-Columbus, says the phones were instantaneous from all demos. Mickey Arnold, WRDW-Augusta, says, "great sound — surprised me how good it is," Tom Owens, WBLZ-Cincinnati, makes it his RTW, as does Tony Lype, WZFX-Fayetteville. JAMES BROWN gets the other Certified listing. Curtis Wilson, WWDM/FM-Columbia, says the Godfather's getting lots of adult requests. Mad Hatter, WGOK-Mobile, says THE RIGHT CHOICE made the right choice for their first single, it's getting major calls. Thomas Lytle, K94-Norfolk, reports THE TROOP, which was produced by LeVert, is a great production, has a nice hook as well as a good beat, and says to keep an eye on it. He's also very impressed with TERENCE TRENT D'ARBY's new single, "Sign Your Name," saying, "This will be a smash -- D'ARBY's best effort ever. I predict it will be the song of the summer around our beaches!" Charle Arthur Brown, WNOV-Milwaukee, remarked that the new DAVID SEA, a local Birmingham talent, is one to watch out for. "He has a great voice, and with Ronnie Laws playing tenor sax on this cut, should do it for him." Alton Palmore, WQIC/FM-Meridian, likes the BURRELL, saying, "It's going to be a smoker!" He's also getting requests for PRINCE. Lisa Lipps, KACE-Los Angeles, says GUY's "Groove Me" is "making people move to the grooves everytime it's played" and getting great phone response. Mike Archie, WHUR-Washington, predicts "Vapors" by BIZ MARKIE, may produce the new buzzword for the summer. "It's got a great hook, it's catchy, and getting requests." Melvin Jones, KRNB-Memphis, raves about the response to MELBA MOORE & FREDDIE JACKSON: "Excellent voices with a perfect blend, and lyrics that are relatable make for a perfect combination." Matt Morton, WXOK-Baton Rouge, wants to be quoted concerning the PAULA ABDUL, which was listed this week in our Most Added: "Great song!" Please make note that we will be closed on Memorial Day, Monday, May 30th. Reports will be taken all day Tuesday. Ciao for now, Betty.

REVIEWS

By Betty Hollars and John Martinucci

TERENCE TRENT D'ARBY
Sign Your Name (Columbia)

When your female listeners hear the lyric line, "Sign your name across my heart, I want you to be my lady," they will fall head over heels! Face it, D'Arby doesn't camouflage the fact he is selling sex with this song. One play, and you will be drawing in any demo.

VANESSA WILLIAMS - The Right Stuff
(Wing/PolyGram)

Yes, ladies and gentlemen, a former Miss America lands herself a record contract. It seems Vanessa has the right stuff for this uptempo dance cut. Look for more stations to expose her next week.

BOBBY BROWN - Don't Be Cruel (MCA)

Don't worry, Elvis fans, this is not a re-make of The King's classic. Babyface, L.A. Reid, and D. Simmons wrote this with a more mature Bobby Brown in mind, leaving his New Edition days behind. The brief rap should not be offensive to your adult listeners.

LEATA GALLOWAY

With Every Beat Of My Heart (Columbia)

This female vocalist gives us a superb rendition of a love song from her forthcoming album, "The Naked Truth."

TROOP - Mamacita (Atlantic)

The debut single for this quintet is clever and the rhythms are catchy. Gerald LeVert and Marc Gordon wrote and produced this cut and other from the soon-to-be-released album.

DAVE SHOLIN'S PERSONAL PICKS — SINGLES

TERENCE TRENT D'ARBY - Sign Your Name (Columbia)

Nothing subtle in the passionate prose of a man who's received critical acclaim as a future superstar. Those who've listened to his debut album know full well his depth as a songwriter. This third single release rates as his best effort yet.

BILLY OCEAN - The Colour Of Love (live/Arista)

When it comes to Billy's music, the first colors that come to mind are gold and platinum. Future summer lovers everywhere will most certainly remember hearing this tune serenade them on their radios as they reflect back on 1988.

ASWAD - Don't Turn Around (Mango/Island)

Far from being young upstarts, this British contingent has been knockin' around for more than a decade. This reggae track written by Diane Warren and Albert Hammond spent three weeks at number one in England, and it's easy to hear why.

RON FELL'S PERSONAL PICKS — ALBUMS

PRINCE - Lovesexy (Paisley Park/Warner Bros.)

Prince whips out the love rocket for yet another enigmatic magical mystery tour. Naked as a jaybird on the cover and chillin' to be illin' on the inside, Prince makes a nine-track compilation of cold, cold cuts. Outrageous, finked-out, pumped-up production and bold, physical lyric distinguish this latest Prince project even more so than his previous. Some of the songs are approachable if not completely accessible, as he employs love and sexual expression as neo-religions. I'm convinced Prince makes albums, not singles, as he's always breaking new ground and the "rules." Lovesexy, the album, leans heavily to side one for potential airplay and tilts almost off the board on side two, where a spiritual delirium kicks in.

SADE - Stronger Than Pride (Epic)

Now I get it. Folasade Adu is the lead singer in a group. It has finally dawned on me that it takes a lot more than Ms. Adu to make the Sade sound. The lady walks a tightrope, where the slightest miscalculation in beat or tone would be her downfall, yet she traverses both sides without breaking a sweat. Paul Denman's bassline on the lead single, PARADISE, and the following NOTHING CAN COME BETWEEN US is a textbook example of an often-anonymous instrument used for foreground rhythm and melody, respectively. Andrew Hale's keyboards add nothing more, nothing less than texture to every track. Martin Ditchman creates signature percussion, giving balance and cushion should she ever need it and Stuart Matthewman, on guitar and sax, lends poetic shades to a canvas of picture-perfect music. I'd die to hear Sade in a live, smoky midnight jam. I wanna be close enough to feel the heat, as close as this wonderfully recorded album has allowed.

PAM RUSSO "It Works For Me"

KEVIN WEATHERLY - KMEL We've seen consistent Top 10 sales on Pam Russo and now a strong call-out pattern has emerged. This record gets stronger every week, especially with females. ADDED AT 27

AL TAVERA - KPWR We put Pam into test rotation and have received a strong enough positive response to increase the rotation.
We feel this is a hit!

LARRY MORGAN - FM102 Record exploded out of the clubs and onto the air! We're already getting a huge female response. This record is head and shoulders above the competition. ADD

A WEST COAST BREAKOUT!!!
