INTERSCOPE OPENS ITS DOORS

Entrepreneur Ted Field and record producer Jimmy Iovine have officially announced the formation of Interscope Records. As is widely known, Interscope will be distributed through Atlantic Records newest division, East West America Records.

Field is the chairman of Interscope Communications, whose television and film production company has produced major box office smashes such as Outrageous Fortune, Cocktail and Three Men and a Baby.

Iovine is a star of the music industry, having produced and/or engineered albums by U2, Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers, Bruce Springsteen and the late John Lennon.

Steven J. Ross, chairman and co-CEO of East West's parent company, Time Warner Inc. issued this statement: "Years ago we became acquainted with Ted (Field) through Panavision, and are delighted to be reunited with him via Interscope Records...we anticipate significant growth as Atlantic Records and Interscope work together to build the new Interscope Records label."

Interscope plans to staff its own A&R, promotion and publicity departments. Initial product will appear in early 1991.

"Sylvia Rhone and Vince Faraci and their team at East West America are the perfect complement to the creative team here at Interscope," said Iovine. "We feel very much at home with them and the entire Atlantic family."

A&M/Island Scale Down

In what has been described as an effort to consolidate and reduce a staff-heavy organization, PolyGram-owned labels A&M and Island have eliminated over 40 positions.

A&M Senior Vice President Al Cafaro comments, "In an effort to

Miller has been with RCA for two years. Before joining the label he spent 16 years at Motown, and was instrumental in the development of many of that label's acts, including The Jackson Five, Stevie Wonder and Lionel Richie. He will continue to oversee RCA's Black Music Department and report directly to label President Joe Galante.

"Skip's promotion was in recognition of his accomplishments since joining RCA in the development of his accomplishments since joining RCA," said Galante. For the past few weeks there has been industry-wide speculation that the axe would be falling at A&M. Currently their only hot act is Janet Jackson.

"I've worked with Miller London for 19 years now and he is the consummate professional," said Skip Miller. He is creative with product management and marketing, and knows the most effective means of presenting our artists to the public."

The promotions are in effect.

At Island, severe cutbacks were sustained by the marketing, publicity and sales departments. Word has it that some of the Island staffers will be placed within the PolyGram Distribution system.

Glen Lajeski has been named Vice President, Artist Development at MCA Records. Lajeski has been with the label for seven years, most recently as Vice President, Advertising and Merchandising.

SANDS PROMOTED TO OM

LIVE 105-San Francisco Program Director Richard Sands has been promoted to Operations Manager of the Station, it was announced this week. Sands, who's been at the station for over five years, has recently watched his station enjoy considerable ratings success.

"The promotion is a recognition of Richard's contribution to the station's phenomenal growth under his leadership," said VP/GM Pat McNally. "His contributions are even more significant given the competitive San Francisco market and a format that's extremely difficult to program and execute. Richard's been able to maintain a cutting edge sound while achieving ratings success."

Said Sands, "1990 is proving to be a great year for LIVE 105. We have had the biggest one-book ratings increase in the station's history...I'm pleased with the confidence Pat and (parent company) Entercom have placed in me.

Sands will continue as PD.

KWSS PD HEADS TO HOUSTON

KWSS/FM-San Jose Program Director Larry Morgan and his News Director Susan Lennon are heading to KHMx-Houston, Morgan as Morning Personality and Lennon as News Director/Morning News Anchor. Last week KWSS/FM was part of a trade between parent company Nationwide Communications, Inc. which saw the station become a property of Shamrock Broadcasting. In return, Nationwide became owners of Shamrock's Dallas outlet KMGc.

Morgan has been at KWSS since last December, and prior to that across town at Hot 97.7 (KHQT). He began his career in Odessa, Texas, and though, as he said, Odessa's a long way from Houston, this is, in a way, a homecoming.

"I'm excited," Morgan told the Gavin Report. "I've got the chance to do mornings in a top ten market and to work with Guy Zapoleon, who's got to be the smartest programmer in the world!"

Both Morgan and Lennon will be on the air at KHMx at the end of November. Morgan indicated that there's been no replacement, or interim replacement named at KWSS.

GEFFEN HOLDS A REUNION

Geffen Records has signed a long term pact with Reunion Entertainment to distribute the label's product world wide starting in January. Product includes 60 titles from Reunion's catalogue and upcoming releases from the label's fifteen-act roster. The first album scheduled for release is Michael W. Smith's Go West Young Man.

Reunion was originally founded in 1982 by songstress Amy Grant's managers Dan Harrell and Michael Blanton. This marks Geffen's jump into the Christian Contemporary genre.

"We're exceptionally pleased to welcome Reunion Records to the Geffen family," said label president Ed Rosenblatt. "Reunion is the primary force in this area of popular music, and adding their catalog and future releases to Geffen's product line is part of our continuing commitment to developing, producing and distributing the highest quality music for people of all interests."

WILLIAM PALEY DIES

By now you have no doubt heard about the passing of CBS Founder and Chairman of the Board William S. Paley, but The Gavin Report could not let this event go by without acknowledging the man who defined the term "industry pioneer."

Paley's interest began in the 20s, when, like many who came after him, he'd sit night after night listening to radio. His legacy includes the creation the CBS Networks, which gave America the unparalleled talent of unforgettable personalities from Edward R. Murrow to Captain Kangaroo.

We mourn his death, but every time a radio or television is snapped on, William Paley lives again.

At a recent reception in New York RCA President Joe Galante and Jive/RCA artist KRS-One gave a $250,000 check to the Stop The Violence Movement. The sales of the single "Self Destruction" total $400,000, which goes to local STV Programs overseen by the National Urban League. Pictured L-R: Clive Calder, Chairman, Zomba Group; Barry Weiss, Sr. VP, Jive Records; Galante; KRS-One; Ann Carli, Sr. VP of Artist Development, Jive Records; John Jacob, President, National Urban League; Nelson George, Stop The Violence Movement.

INSIDE TOP 40 by Dave Sholin

Faced with increased competition and a weakened economy network television is fighting to maintain the power it has commanded for the past forty years. The New York Times reported last month that networks are bracing for their poorest fourth quarter advertising revenue in a decade or more. Richard Kostyra, Executive VP for Media services at J. Walter Thompson called the current market for network commercials the worst he'd ever seen. Network TV, like Top 40 radio, owned the lion's share of audience for years until upstarts like FM, Cable TV and new networks like Fox and CNN came along to siphon off a few listeners here, a few viewers there. Sure enough, audience shares began declining. How is radio coping with all this and what does the future hold? In the near term at least, don't expect much to change..that's the opinion of Rick Cummings, Vice President of Programming for Emmis Broadcasting. Rick predicts a sluggish economy for the next six months to a year which he says, "began with the S&L crisis and was compounded by developments in the Middle East, causing a rise in oil prices. We're up to our necks in bad economic news and it's bound to impact this business like it does other businesses." Speaking about retail business, Rick notes that, "We always laughed that when retail is on a downswing that's the time when people should be advertising more. But of course they look at their budgets just like radio stations, and the first thing to get slashed is marketing." However, he's quick to point out the good news—although radio may be feeling the pinch "a little bit"—the key word is little because it could be a lot worse. "We could be in television or making newspapers—those guys are really getting killed." Rick is optimistic about the future and feels times will get better "It's all relative," he said, "and companies who are prepared can ride it out for six months to a year when things improve—and they will." But while the economic climate is forcing some Top 40s to reevaluate their direction, Cummings feels it has a lot more to do with "the shrinking demo—particularly 12-24 which is the heart of the format. And media buyers are obsessed with the 25-54 demo. I'm convinced that even in the top twenty markets you're going to see the three Top 40 station markets going to two, and some may hold it down to one Top 40 before it's all over with." Guy Zapoleons success in Houston at KHMx has impressed Rick who admits he initially had his doubts. "Guy's focused on the 18-34-year-old listener remaining a contemporary station in the process, without being a traditional A/C. There's an awful lot of music out there people are playing in their homes—music by artists like Bonnie Raitt and Don Henley that's not finding its way on to Top 40 radio. It seems he's found a way to reach them and at the same time have a much more saleable demo." Committing the necessary marketing dollars and remaining true to the format long-term are keys to winning adds Rick who thinks that more and more, "We're not going to see stations flip to forms of Top 40 as much as they're going to flip completely out of the format and go to something that produces viable/saleable demos. It's real crowded out there." Next week comments from one of those who recently decided to drop out of the Top 40 race in Salt Lake City—KCPX General Manager Wayne Courtney.

P.D. NOTEBOOK

"POSITIONING LINERS"

Steve Wallace, Program Director of WFPS, FM 92, in Freeport, Illinois, writes, "A few months ago, in my continuing effort to make my station 'different' and separate it from the rest, I enlisted the aid of a couple of friends in Chicago (I still retain my on-air position at Infinity's Magic 104/WJMK) in order to produce a male/female series of positioners for WFPS.

"It occurred to me that everyone always uses the 'big' male voice for promos and positioning statements, regardless of location or market size. It seems as though Mark Driscoll, Pete Stacker and Ernie "Love Boat" Anderson dominate the airwaves in the Midwest."

Steve writes that these promos were made with Steve Sands and Amy Scott. "These worked very well, but now I am inclined to take it a step further (to make the liners even more distinctive), and use the female voice exclusively.

"The talent and voice work of Amy Scott is practically unmatched anywhere, and I would like to know why women are not being utilized in this area. Perhaps many programmers feel the solo female voice lacks impact, or think there is a lack of available talent, or both?"

Steve enclosed a cassette containing four of these liners, and I agree with him that "these are as good as any you've heard on A/C radio." The male-female counterpoint was fresh, and I agree that Amy Scott cuts outstanding liners; the fact that they are coming from a female announcer makes them sound more convincing, I think. They certainly do sound distinctive. If you'd like to hear the results for yourself, I'm sure Steve would be happy to send you a couple of the cuts on a cassette, if you write to him at WFPS, P.O. Box 701, Freeport, IL 61032, and I suggest enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

As for whether there is any chauvinism or discrimination in a lack of female-voiced positioning liners on stations so far, my guess is that it simply is a case of the idea not having occurred to people. Our business too often is a copycat field, with originality being the exception rather than the rule. Steve is an original thinker and the results undoubtedly make his station sound fresh and distinctive. Now, Amy Scott may get some liner voice work as a result!

Back to the mailbox for another note—this from a reader who forwards a memo from a consultant, written to clients, indicating an opinion as to the proper total length of oldies libraries for various formats. Because of the nature of the memo, both the consultant and the sender shall remain anonymous (but I will state that the sender is not a client of the consultant). The memo establishes that adults average about 3-1/2 hours a day of radio listening (perhaps half that to a single station), and states that based on that, the oldies library should generally not exceed approximately 1,000 titles in most formats, and a bit less than half that in Top 40. My correspondent wonders what my own reaction to that is. I responded:

"The consultant is correct about the average listening span. The average is bounded by a handful of really long-span listeners and a lot of very short-span listeners (which is why promoting in-store/in-office listening offers such potential gain—it doesn't take too many new long-span listeners to have a real effect—particularly in Arbitron, where the 7-day diary can magnify atypical listening). Although the average listening span is as described, the mean is actually shorter; in looking at many Arbitron "mechanical diaries," I find the most common per-station listening spans are 15 to 30 minutes a day, for the majority of stations. The purpose of fairly high music repetition is to give the short-span listener (a substantial part of the cume) a good probability of being rewarded with favorites every time he or she tunes in, to encourage future listening. But if you lose even one or two of your long-span listeners with too-high repetition you could see your share drop significantly; most radio people do not address this problem sufficiently.

"The solution, in my opinion, is to construct the high rotations with strong material, and with the sort of turnaround these list-length rules suggest—but to construct at least some of the low rotations with lots of strong material in long lists—no junk added to pad them, of course, and every record selected to meet a standard or criterion, but with a long list of such records—so that rotation in that particular category is low, promoting an overall feeling of variety and low repetition in the format.

"With such a philosophy, the list could total 2,000 or even 3,000 records, but with no sacrifice of high repetition of the strongest material which having such short oldies lists as are recommended by this consultant suggests.

"Any rotation must be tailored to the intended perception by the listener! There just isn't any right or wrong answer on record library length—depends on the goals of the station, and the manner in which they are addressed."

That's my comment. What's yours? Your input to this column on this or any programming-oriented subject is always encouraged, and is generally always used! Send it along to me c/o The Gavin Report! ●

HEAR AND THERE

Several of the bands that were all the rage at the recent Foundation's Forum '90 are spreading out across the country in search of some new fans. A&M's Extreme is on the road with Columbia's Alice In Chains for two more months, honing licks on their Pornografitti album. While in Los Angeles the Extreme-team will be cutting a video with director Andy Morhan (Janet Jackson, Van Halen, Bang Tango) for their second single "Get The Funk Out." It will feature the cartoon characters seen on the album/CD/cassette jacket. Following a trip home to Boston, Extreme will be out with Danger Dancer until the end of the year. Alice in Chains is one of the recent signings out of Seattle, and they're touring in support of their debut album Facelift. Their second video, for "We Die Young," was directed by Rocky Shake from Dripping Springs, Texas. Rocky also did the artwork for Alice's album as well as videos for Raging Slab and The Cramps. These Seattle-based musicians hook up with Iggy Pop until the Christmas holidays....

Capitol artist Suzy Bogguss has already

started her holiday season with a 30-minute special for The Nashville Network (TNN). She'll be joined by Riders In The Sky, for "Christmas, The Cowboy Way" scheduled for airing first on December 17 and again on December 21...

Bits & Pieces: Epic's Suicidal Tendencies have finished their new video for "Send Me Your Money." They'll hit the road in November with 24-7 Spyz...Los Angeles-based Barracuda have signed with the In Tune touring and personal appearance machine. In the works is a 30-city trek opening for Tony MacAlpine...Bonnie Hayes is busy juggling two careers. She's out on tour as Billy Idol's keyboardist and at the same time planning the release of her own album by early 1991. It's on the Muscle Records label, which is distributed by I.R.S. The tour just made a swing down the left coast to sold out houses and screaming fans. Faith No More opened the show in San Francisco with a full house already in place to rock with their local heroes...Ozzy Osbourne is well into recording his new album in upstate New York at the famous Bearsville studios. Mike Barbiero and Steve Thompson, who have mixed albums for such artists as Madonna, Metallica, Prince, Cinderella and Guns 'N Roses, will be at the production helm. The only bandmember announced as of now is Michael Inez, a 24-year-old unknown bass player from Los Angeles...Don Was will be one of the producers to work on Paula Abdul's new album. David Was is busy writing the music for Robert Altman's next film. He'll also make his acting debut as a nutty club owner. The film features several short stories by writer Raymond Carver...Steve Winwood's new Virgin album Refugees Of The Heart is due early November. Radio already has the single, "My One And Only"...Barbara Orbison is in the process of finishing the husband Roy's official biography for Bantam Books. Roy actually started to work on he book before his death. Barbara's next project will be to co-produce a film biography with producer Steve Tisch...The Stray Cats are now signed to Jordan Records and have just finished their new album with producer Nile Rodgers. You can expect a January release...

Archer Communication's "QSound" will be used for the first time on an album by Madonna, who has put together 15 of her biggest hits, plus two new cuts—one with Lenny Kravitz. The Immaculate Collection used the "QSound" technology which gives a full 3-D effect. You don't need any special hardware—just a normal stereo system. The hardware/software package was designed to be used in a studio during the final recording process...

More software stuff: Utopia leader Todd Rundgren's Grogware Inc. operates out of Sausalito, CA. They have officially released Flowfazer, a screen utility that promises "music for the eye." The $49.95 Control Panel device, designed for relaxation, meditation, stress reduction and purely aesthetic enjoyment, animates custom color patterns on the screen. It works like a screen saver, but, Rundgren says, "It's a screen enhancer, not a screen saver. It doesn't rest the pixels on the screen, but the neurons in the brain." Order me one, please! ■

MOONLIGHTING

YESTERDAY'S CLASSIC

From American Demographics, one of the top ten marketing blunders of the '80s:

•Coke's Classic Mistake

In April of 1985, Coca-Cola tampered with success. They took the world's most popular soft drink and changed its formula. The strategy was to compete with Pepsi for teenagers and overseas markets.

On paper, there was good cause for Coca-Cola to pursue America's teens: people aged 15 to 18 consume more soft drinks per capita than older people, and Pepsi was capturing these consumers with its "choice of the new generation" theme. But Coke forgot about the giant generation that controls much of American business—the baby boom.

At the time, the baby boomers were ages 21 to 39, no longer teenagers but still attached to the drink that symbolized their free spirited generation. Within three months of the new-formula Coke's introduction, adult fans forced the company to bring back the original. Today, original formula Coke—called Coca-Cola Classic—leads the soft drink market with a 20.1% share. New Coke holds a withering 1.4% share.

New Coke was a test case for American business, posing the question, "Is there life after the baby boom?" Coke found out the hard way that the answer is, "Not yet."

TWO-FER TUESDAY

From communication briefings:

The next time you're trying to decide which day to hold a training session, pick Tuesday.

•According to a study by Accountemps Inc., 59% of personnel directors surveyed indicated that Tuesday is the day when people are most productive and motivated to learn. Source: Elizabeth Jeffries, writing in Creative Training Techniques.

•Tuesday is the day most Arbitron diaries arrive at participants' homes, with instructions to fill them out starting the following Thursday. ●

NEW HIP HOP RELEASES by Brian A. Samson

HARMONY - "Let There Be Harmony" (Album) (Virgin)

Although not totally a Hip Hop album, Harmony's debut is a definite winner. Mostly mental, pro-Black lyrics combined with strictly KRS-One-produced beats on the Rap tracks such as "What You Need, Tear It Up," "I Witness Blues," and "Art Of War," make for good, solid music. With the exception of two cuts, the R&B tracks are lovely alternatives to the typical current R&B arrangements. Urban formatted singles worth checking are "Sing Unto God," "Mother Africa," and the Raelette's cover, "I Want To Thank You." Darren Long, WBNY-Buffalo, NY

KING TEE - Dis You (Capitol)

King Tee releases his third cut off the slammin' "At Your Own Risk" album. My guess is that Tee and Capitol are looking for Top 40 rotation on this wic wacked track. Riding on a sampled bass line from the Rolling Stones' "Miss You," King Tee recalls his experience with an unreliable diva. I'll let you decide, but I give it the gas face. BAS

GANG STAR - Just To Get A Rep/Who's Gonna Take The Weight (Chrysalis)

"Rep" opens up with a slick loungin' bass line that circulates around Keithy E's raw, lyrical literature. Gang Star drops knowledge about social awareness on kids who have the misconception that impressing their peers earns them respect on streets. On "Who's Gonna Take The Weight," Keithy E gives you an autobiographical lecture while DJ Premier keeps you glued on the dance floor with acknickulous noise and rhythms. For service call Jeff Sledge 212-758-3555. Tell him Gavin sent you. BAS

STYLE - The Assassinator (Centerfold/Select)

Style uses the perfect title to describe the smooth, swift lyrical delivery of Tony Tone. On each chorus Mick and Tone intensifies your attention through stone cold rhymes and cuts. "Tough as tree stump/Hard as a brick/ Punishing rappers with the force of a Judo kick/Slicin' 'em, Tearin' 'em, Disin' 'em, Darin' 'em, Torchin' 'em, Teasin' 'em, Slammin' 'em, Damagin' 'em/Rhymes that sound like the tongue of a RattleSnake/Stingin' my enemies who are wannabees." Jump on this groovin' track and join the fashion of Style. BAS

SUPER TRIBUTE TO SUPERFLY

Many friends of Curtis Mayfield gathered together to pay tribute to the composer of "Superfly" and the new Capitol soundtrack, "Return Of Superfly" at the Palace in Hollywood. MARIAH CAREY gets to number one, making her two-for-two in the Urban format. Hot listing goes to THE BOYS, who debut this week—they're definitely on a roll. L.L.

COOL J's new single, "Around The Way Girl" scores big its first week out and Van Wilson, WANM-Tallahassee, says to "...keep an eye on it—good song." Frank Miniaci, KKBT-Los Angeles, agrees, saying, "Huge, huge, huge—could be a #1 record for him." PEBBLES' second single, "Love Makes Things Happen," looks like it will go the way of her first one. "This will 'happen' big time—it has #1 written all over it!" says Gregg Diggs, WKYS/FM-Washington, DC. "Splendid duet with that prominent writer (Babyface) which will make the song go a long way," says Pierre Price, WVOI-Toledo. How about phones? Don Allen, WDXZ-Charleston, says "Phones were instant," and Thomas Bacote, V103-Atlanta, says "Most requested out-of-the-box." James Alexander, WGCI/FM-Chicago, makes RALPH TRESVANT his RTW. Stan Boston, WNHC-New Haven, says "It's really hot." Terron Hutt, KDKO-Denver, agrees. "Ralph Tresvant is hot! And we're also getting big phones for THE WOOTEN BROTHERS' RTW for Morgan Sinclair, WBLX-Mobile, is LOOSE ENDS' "Don't Be A Fool," which was our Top Tip last week. This is the good comeback record that we've been waiting for—great response." Rick Stevens, WCKX-Columbus, lists it as his RTW, too. Roscoe Miller, WXVI-Montgomery, says "JEFFREY OSBORNE goes back to the sounds of his days with LTD. Great tune." Kimberly Kaye, WFKX-Jackson, likes it too. "Beautiful, soulful ballad—good to have him back on the Curtis Waller, WBLS-New York, chooses FREDDIE JACKSON as his RTW, saying, "This is the best way for him—singing about love." Toni St. James, KHUL-Memphis, likes OLETA ADAMS' "Get Here" which picked up fifteen adds for a total of 26 reports. "This is going to take off, especially for adult formats." Chase Thomas, WJDY-Salisbury, likes ADEVA's "I Thank You," and says, "A nice house jam for Adeva. Good follow-up to 'Warning'—all demos." Our own RTW, DNA with SUZANNE VEGA's "Tom's Diner," has been a sleeper for several weeks. Jim Mitchem, WQMG-Greensboro, predicts, "This will be a multi-format smash!" Dana Hall, WILD-Boston, already reports, "One of our most requested." Ciao for now, Betty.

NEW RELEASES by Brian Samson and John Martinucci

MILIRA - Waiting Here For You (Apollo/Motown)

For some reason the spiritual emotion of this Motown diva hasn't yet caught fire on Urban Radio. Third time around Milira graces us with another sultry ballad that should catch the fancy of Urban A/C programmers. The production isn't as impressive as on her prior attempts, but Milira's dramatic vocals provide chartbound appeal. BAS

THE MAC BAND - Love U 2 The Limit (MCA)

The Mac Campbell brothers dish out an inviting, soulful, romantic ballad. Soft melodic grooves complement the seductive vocals on this well-arranged composition. Laidback measures of hypnotic instrumentation deliver a tasteful confession of devotion and sincerity. BAS

TEENAMARIE - If I Were A Bell (Epic) On If I Were A Bell Teena pours her heart out as she did on her 1981 duet with Rick James, "Fire and Desire." This self-penned and produced ballad is perfectly executed from beginning to end. Emotional octaves and smooth climactic transitions guarantee Lady T a top ten hit. Definitely my favorite of the month. BAS

QUINCY JONES featuring SIEDAH GARRETT and CHAKA KHAN - The Places You Find Love (Qwest/W.B.)

Between his biographical motion picture and his current album, Quincy continues to hold his place on the block. This gospel-flavored single featuring Siedah and Chaka is incredibly dramatic. The background vocalists are some of the industry's finest, including Dionne Warwick, Jennifer Holliday and Luther Vandross. Quincy is dipping into the fountain for the fifth time, and so far he hasn't come up dry. JM

C&C MUSIC FACTORY featuring FREEDOM WILLIAMS - Gonna Make You Sweat (Everybody Dance Now) (Columbia)

For those of you who say this won't work for you—think again, 'cause it's kickin'. Gonna make you sweat is a high energy dance track that comes off The Snap tip. Robert Clivilles and David Cole (C&C) have produced an infectious groove that contains smoking guitar and bassline. JM

NAYOBE - I'll Be Around (WTG)

Nayobe follows "I Love The Way You Love Me" with an updated cover of The Spinners' classic. New Jack touches by Teddy Riley make this version surprisingly unrecognizable until the refrain. JM

REVIEWS

by Diane Rufer & Ron Fell

PAUL SIMON

The Obvious Child (Warner Bros.)

Definitely not for the couch potato portion of your audience, this track requires an interest in Paul Simon and his marvelous fusion of poetry and rhythm.

CHER

The Shoop Shoop Song (It's In His Kiss) (Geffen)

Definitely for the couch potato portion of your audience. A pre-requisite interest in pure pop and the reluctant Queen of the Tabloids will make this winner a MOST ADDED next week.

SANDI PATTI

I'll Give You Peace (Word/A&M)

Sandi Patti possesses one of music's most expressive voices. Her past conquest of the gospel world of music should be sufficient introduction to the secular world. She projects a controlled inspiration in this elegant, yet almost understated ballad.

FM, WTWR, JOY99, KSAL, WKYE, WNYR and KATW/FM.

Our RECORD TO WATCH from last week, "The First Time" by SURFACE gathered twenty-five new ADDs. Their total of 60 A/C's has placed this beautiful ballad CHARTBOUND in its second week of release. New this week at WGBE, WTCB, WSUL, KMJC, KSCB, WHIZ, KIDX/FM, KWCD and KTID.

Qualifying for RECORD TO WATCH this week, is QUINCY JONES' "The Places You Find Love," which features SIEDAH GARRETT, debuts in UP AND COMING with a total of 25 stations. The current new are WEBE/FM, WNYR, KBJJ, KCHA, KSCB, KSJM, KWGG, WELW, WFRO, KWSI/FM, WMIR and a few already spinning are CKFM, WHLQ, WXVL, KOKO, WYCO, KBMG and Q92/FM.

INSIDE A/C

by Diane Rufer and Ron Fell

Two LIGHT rotations and one ADD keep BETTE MIDLER from a 100% HIT FACTOR. She maintains a 12% lead in total points over her nearest rivals.

An eleven station lead in total stations was almost enough for WILSON PHILLIPS to pass a strong CARLY SIMON.

The HORNSBY/COLVIN duet has gone up sixteen ranks during the past two weeks (29 to 13). HIT FACTOR is up 31% in that time and the list of its twelve newest players includes KSBL, KXFM, KWCD, KKUS and KLSS.

The HOTTEST A/C record of the last couple of weeks is WHITNEY HOUSTON's "I'm Your Baby Tonight." Up from 38 to 16 in ranking and 29% to 79% in HIT FACTOR, it's proving to be an attractive play for those who can. Among the fourteen new are KESZ, KHLT/FM, WAHR and WIRL.

The perky SARA HICKMAN has scaled nearly half of the chart in her first two numbered weeks. A MOST ADDED this week thanks to thirty new players including KATW/FM, KLSQ/FM, WIHN, KCMX, KVIL, WTPI, WKYE, KFOR, KMK and WDUZ.

In a "New York Minute" DON HENLEY is on the chart at #27. A winner of the number one MOST ADDED in both of the past two weeks, almost two-thirds of last week's 87 ADDs are now committed to serious rotation.

STEVE WINWOOD's "One And Only Man" opens with a 40% HIT FACTOR—an especially strong beginning. Among the forty-five stations ADDing this week are WROR/FM, WEBE/FM, WWDE, WMYX, WKMI, WMXB and WQLH/FM.

Third best HIT FACTOR increases of the week are the 27% leaps for the RAY CHARLES and the new ELTON JOHN. RAY does it with 27 stations converting to solid rotations, while ELTON did it despite having 72 ADDs.

STEVIE RAY and JIMMIE VAUGHAN debut at #37 this week with 89 A/C stations. Of the twenty new please include WFFX/

"...THE RHYTHM OF THE SAINTS [is] a triumph on the order of GRACELAND."

BIOFEEDBACK

by Ron Fell

•DAVID CASSIDY

David Cassidy's first comeback took place in 1978 when he starred in the ill-fated TV series, David Cassidy: Man Undercover which lasted only a few months.

•PATRICK O'HEARN

Patrick O'Hearn's recent solo success as a keyboardist comes after stints in bands such as Group 87 (with Mark Isham, Terry Bozzio and Peter Maunu), and Missing Persons (again with Bozzio) and he also worked with Frank Zappa during the Sheik Yerbouti and Joe's Garage era.

•BILL MEDLEY

Two of the high points of his career as a singer in the post-Righteous Brothers' era of the eighties were being named Best NEW Male Vocalist of the Year (1984) by the Academy Of Country Music and his number one single, (I HAD THE) TIME OF MY LIFE from the mega-platinum soundtrack for the film Dirty Dancing.

•MICHAEL BOLTON

The version of GEORGIA ON MY MIND that appears on Michael Bolton's "Soul Provider" album features Michael Brecker on saxophone. For the single version of the track, Kenny G performs the solos.

•M. C. HAMMER

Hammer recently purchased a $5 million home in the San Francisco suburbs. That's a far cry from his days as an assistant to Charles Finley the then-owner of the Oakland A's in 1978 when he was earning $7.50 a game.

•ANGELA WINBUSH

Angela Winbush's professional separation from her former partner Rene Moore has resulted in a settlement of a breach of contract lawsuit filed and won by Moore over withheld compensation for writing and production credits of the Isley Brothers' album "Smooth Sailing." Reportedly, the settlement awarded Moore with $200,000.

•BLACK BOX

Katrin, Mirko, Daniele and Valerio, better known as Black Box, are credited with developing Italian House music. Their 1989 track, RIDE ON TIME, which included generous portions of Loleatta Holloway's LOVE SENSATION, became the biggest selling single in England last year.

•LED ZEPPELIN

Prior to their involvement with Led Zeppelin, Robert Plant and John Bonham were in a group known as Band Of Joy. That group prided itself on cover versions of songs like Jefferson Airplane's WHITE RABBIT, Moby Grape's HEY, GRANDMA and MARCH OF THE SIAMESE CHILDREN from The King And I.

•QUINCY JONES

Quincy, who grew up in the mean and lean streets of Chicago's South Side, says, "My old neighborhood made Harlem seem like a country club."

•LOU RAWLS

In 1958 while a member of The Pilgrim Travelers with Sam Cooke, Lou Rawls was seriously injured in a car accident which left him in a coma from a brain concussion. The driver of the car was Sam Cooke.

•TIMOTHY B. SCHMIT

When Randy Meisner left Poco in 1969 he was replaced by Timothy B. Schmit. In 1977, when Meisner left The Eagles he was replaced again by Schmit.

•STEVE WINWOOD

Steve Winwood has been a professional musician since 1963 when, at the age of fifteen, he joined The Spencer Davis Group with his brother Muff Winwood who's now a successful A&R executive with CBS in England.

•ERIC B. AND RAKIM

Born William Griffin, Rakim adopted the name after converting to Islam about five years ago.

•BETTE MIDLER

Bette Midler is one of a select few artists to have received Grammys in three consecutive decades. In 1974 she won for Best New Artist. In 1981 she won for Best Pop Female Vocal (THE ROSE). And this year (1990) for her performance on WIND BENEATH MY WINGS.

•JEFFREY OSBORNE

Twenty years ago, Jeffrey Osborne joined the R&B group L.T.D. as its drummer. Four years later, with Jeffrey singing the majority of the group's lead vocals, they signed with A&M Records.

•STEVE WINWOOD

Assuming his band Traffic had run its course back in 1969 and 1970, Steve Winwood began work on what was planned as his first solo album, "Mad Shadows." When Traffic reformed, with help of Jim Capaldi and Chris Wood, the album became known as Traffic's "John Barleycorn Must Die."

•BRUCE HORNSBY AND THE RANGE

Though Bruce Hornsby is reluctant to go into detail, the subject of his current single, LOST SOUL, is a cousin of his "who had some problems."

•BETTE MIDLER

Bette Midler's next film, Scenes From A Mall, in which she co-stars with Woody Allen, opens in December.

•THE BYRDS

The critically acclaimed 90-track CD set just released features four new songs recorded by four-fifths of the original lineup. Seems drummer Michael Clarke's status with Hillman, McGuinn, Clark and Crosby is best described as "estranged."

•ROSANNE CASH

In the October 24, 1990 New York Times, Rosanne Cash explains why she and husband Rodney Crowell are moving from Nashville, TN to Boulder, CO: "I can't take it anymore. The music business in Nashville is insidious. Everybody knows what everybody else does. We're always under a microscope. We want to get our kids out of (Nashville) for awhile."

•RESTLESS HEART

Don Was of Was (Not Was) is going to produce tracks for an upcoming Restless Heart album.

Mike Reid Tackles Country Music And It's First And Goal!

When Cincinnati Bengals All-Pro Mike Reid turned musician/songwriter at age 28, his best years...and biggest triumphs... were still ahead of him!

Some of Mike's biggest hits include: "Stranger In My House" and "Lost In The Fifties," performed by Ronnie Milsap and Grammy winners for Best Song of the Year; "Old Folks," written and performed by Mike and Ronnie Milsap; "One Good Well," by Don Williams; "There You Are," performed by Willie Nelson; and "Born To Be Blue," by The Judds.

Now, with three Grammys, and an ASCAP Award for "Songwriter of the Year," Mike Reid goes the whole nine yards!

His Cincinnati Bengals team- mates called him the Maestro of Mayhem.

We call his new single
The All-American Debut of the Year!

BLACK TIE - Learning The Game (Bench)
Black Tie is Billy Swan, Jimmy Griffin (Bread) and Randy Meisner (Poco/the Eagles.) This, their first single, was written by Buddy Holly. All these ingredients combine to make a terrific record that comes in at just under two minutes. Don't overlook it!

LIONEL CARTWRIGHT - Say It's Not True (MCA)

Lionel wrote this beautiful song about the pain of finding out your true love has found another. Definitely one of his best to date.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC - Memphis Queen (Warner Bros.)

Southern Pacific has done it again, this time evoking the carefree feeling of riverboat days. Listeners raised on Creedence Clearwater Revival will especially love the song.

DOLLY PARTON - Slow Healin' Heart (Columbia)

A delicate song that opens with Dolly accompanied only by a mandolin, and evolves into a beautifully lush arrangement.

PAM TILLIS - Don't Tell Me What To Do (Arista)

Pam calls the choice of using a Harlan Howard/Max D. Barnes composition "song insurance." Not that she needs it. Mel's daughter belts it out, with both coyness and assurance. Arista's got another winner here.

NEAL McCOY - If I Built You A Fire (Atlantic)

Texan Neal McCoy has a new label and brand new product that should have your listeners saying, "Who IS this guy?" The production makes the most out of Neal's powerful voice and harmonies. Let's hope this one catches fire.

NITTY GRITTY DIRT BAND - The Rest Of The Dream (MCA)

The title cut from the Dirt Band's latest is a John Hiatt song that will be familiar to his fans. The Dirt Band stays true to Hiatt's version.

KEITH WHITLEY'S GREATEST HITS

The Story
Behind
The Songs

by Cyndi Hoelzle

On April 28, 1989, just two weeks before his death, Keith Whitley was featured on the cover of the Gavin Report. In the interview he told Lisa Smith about his latest work—what he believed to be the best of his career. He told her he had cleaned up his life after meeting his wife, singer Lorrie Morgan. “I was under the impression that in order to be a big star in my chosen profession you had to be about as handy with a bottle as you were with a song,” Whitley said. “Hank, Lefty, George—all my idols did, so I did too. It got to the point where it almost cost me my career and my life. Fortunately I was able to pull out of a nosedive about the time I met Lorrie. She was that missing ingredient that made it possible for me to straighten out and make it stick.” Tragically, something went wrong on the night of May 9, 1989, and Keith fell victim to alcohol poisoning.

The industry and fans grieved along with Whitley’s family at his death, which came at a time when his music career, and his life were peaking. RCA’s recent release of Keith Whitley’s Greatest Hits brings that sorrow back afresh. The emotion that Whitley invested in his songs reminds us what a loss Keith’s death was to the Country music community, and of just how much Keith still had to offer. Whitley, quoted by Edward Morris on the album sleeve, said “I am an emotional singer. I get completely lost. I’m not aware of anything going on around me when I’m singing. A lot of times I get so wrapped up in a song that I’ll actually cry.”

As the first single off of the package, RCA chose to release the duet between Keith and Lorrie, the beautiful “Til A Tear Becomes A Rose.” Whitley had originally recorded the song several years ago when working with producer Blake Mevis on 1985’s LA To Miami album. Garth Fundis, who produced Whitley’s last two albums, took the masters and went back into the studio, adding Morgan’s vocals and some new instrumentation. Apparently Whitley and Morgan had planned to record a duet together, but wanted to wait until Morgan’s name was more wellknown. “It especially meant a lot to me to be able to sing with Keith, and this album also means a lot to me personally,” Lorrie explains. “Everybody already knows how very much Keith and I felt about each other, but I think this will really show it a lot more.”

Nowhere is that love more evident than on “Tell Lorrie I Love Her,” a song Keith had written as a gift to Morgan before they were married. The song has the sound of a home recording; the only copy was made on Whitley’s stepdaughter’s portable cassette recorder. The song’s lyrics now seem chillingly prophetic, but were actually written before Keith and Lorrie were married.

“I can remember the exact day it was written,” Lorrie recalls. “Keith and I were dating. We’d been together for a few months, and I was gone one day, doing a Statler Brothers video called ‘Only You.’ When I came home that evening, I stopped and bought some Chinese food and went back to the apartment. Keith had ordered me a dozen roses and they were sitting right there on the table, and he said, ‘I’ve got a suprise for you: I wrote something today while you were gone.’ Then he pulled out his guitar and sang ‘Tell Lorrie I Love Her’ to me for the very first time.” The song was very special to the couple, and as they planned their wedding they wanted to include it in the ceremony. So Keith put the song down on tape to give to their friend Curtis Young, who sang “Tell Lorrie I Love Her” at their wedding.

That homemade copy, done in Morgan’s living room, was the only recorded version of song; it’s so primitive that you can hear Lorrie’s daughter watching television in the background.

After Whitley’s death, attempts were made to clean up the recording, and new music and vocals were actually added at one point. “But,” says Morgan, “when the finished tape came back, Joe (Galante) decided he wanted the song to stay just like it was, the way Keith had originally recorded it—with just his voice and guitar.”

Whitley, a Kentucky native who started playing music as a young child, had his first band by age 13 and by the age of 15 was already touring and recording (along with fellow child prodigee Ricky Skaggs) in legendary Ralph Stanley’s legendary Clinch Mountain Boys. He spent many creative years in the music business, as a member of J.D. Crowe and The New South and as a solo artist, recording four albums for RCA, including Don’t Close Your Eyes and I Wonder Do You Think Of Me which both went gold.

Judging from recent statistics, the Greatest Hits package could be Whitley’s biggest selling record. Fans have responded to the music, and to the man, many vowing to keep his memory alive. As his producer, Garth Fundis wrote on the liner notes to the album, “He is sadly missed, but fondly remembered.” ♦

Interviewed by Beverly Mire and Kent Zimmerman

Story by Beverly Mire

On the musical scale, real blues masters and mistresses are the ones who live closest to danger: They're wild-eyed, craggy-faced, croaky voiced, sweaty wildmen and women who could double as devils. People to be feared.

Robert Cray is dressed in a freshly laundered white and black shirt, pressed black jeans and a black hat that seems too small for his head (more because it's holding in a lot of thoughts rather than being the wrong size). He sits amid the Friday-morning-after-a-tough-week clutter of my office looking a little tense but in control. Cray's voice is low enough that I worried that the tape recorder wouldn't pick everything up, so I took some notes. I needn't have worried; when I listened back his words and ideas were loud and clear.

He came in to talk about his new album Midnight Stroll, an impressive synthesis of rock, soul and blues. The album features a new band that includes the legendary Memphis horns, who give Cray's trademark sound a glorious Stax/Volt edge. "Those two guys make horns talk!" he said. "They make them cry, they make them laugh, they make you melt."

Midnight Stroll is a starting-over for Robert Cray. As Kent Zimmerman put it, after 1988's Don't Be Afraid of the Dark, Cray has done some "housecleaning." The only remnants of his former band are longtime compatriots (bassist) Richard Cousins and (producer/collaborator) Dennis Walker. Cray has also officially split from Hightone, the small label that broke him on the international market and in the critics circle. "It was tough having to shoulder the burden of changing things completely," Cray relates. "The guys before had been in the band for a long time—the past few records. But everything's cool now. We can break it down more; we've got a lot of options."

Those options include drummer Kevin Hayes, keyboardist Jimmy Pugh, guitarist Tim Kaihatsu and Wayne Jackson and Andrew Love—the Memphis Horns—veterans who've worked with everyone from Otis Redding and Aretha Franklin to Steve Winwood and U2.

Picking up a guitar and ending up a rock singer seems almost easy—dare I say it?—almost common when you think of the emotion that comes from blues singers. Where does that feeling come from?

An Army kid, Robert Cray spent his youth shuttling between Virginia and Washington state. In the late sixties, after spending his childhood listening to his parents' gospel, blues, Jazz and always up-to-date R&B records, Cray discovered the blues through his high school buddies. "Right before the end of high school I started to hang out with people who were listening to people like B.B. King and Buddy Guy," he said. "We learned all the words to the records and one thing led to another."

The "another" was a fascination with blues singers. "I began reading about Robert Johnson—trying to find out all this stuff about the devil's music," Cray said. "Then I learned about Howlin' Wolf. The first time I heard Smokestack Lightnin' it scared me to death the way that man had all that power, just like shouting at you. That stuff scared me!"

A fascination with people like Robert Johnson and Howlin' Wolf shows a person who, no matter how soft-spoken, sees and hears things differently than most. Robert Johnson, about whom much has been said, and recently written, was believed by many to have supernatural powers.

In his short 27 years, Johnson allegedly sold his soul to the devil for his rare, burning talent. In return Satan gave him the power to play the guitar like none before or since. He could strum and slide simultaneously. He could play the instrument like a drum. While singing, Johnson's head would rear, his eyes roll back, his veins bulge. In 1938, as he died, presumably of some type of liquor poisoning, he was on his hands and knees barking like a dog.

Robert Johnson was one of Robert Cray's influences.

"When I first listened to him...I thought he was from outer space," Cray said. "He had this great passion and great lyrics in his songs. I thought he was the coolest!"

Throughout the mid-seventies, Cray took his influences, stirred them up and came out with his own style. He played in basement and garage bands until 1974, when he and Richard Cousins left Tacoma, Washington and joined the jazz scene in Portland/Eugene, Oregon. The first Robert Cray Band album, Who's Been Talking was released on Tomato Records in 1978. Six successful albums later, Cray's side projects have included outings with John Lee Hooker, Eric Clapton, Tina Turner, Richard Elliott and Katie Webster. In 1987 he recorded a Grammy Award-winning album, Show Down, with Johnny Clyde Copeland and Albert Collins.

As time went on I began thinking, "As good as he is, what gives this guy the right to sing the blues? He comes from the Northwest, for crying out loud. He's smart, well-spoken, and, yes, good looking—come on! He doesn't have the blues!!"

The evening before the interview I was visiting with some old friends, and mentioned (actually, tried not to brag) that I'd be talking to Robert Cray the next day. Eyes flew open. I have to admit I was happy they seemed impressed. One male's analysis—"Robert Cray—lots of heartbreak."

So, as we got into a conversation about the songs on Midnight Stroll, I asked Cray if he

JAZZ NEW RELEASES

ESCAPE OF THE CIRCUS PONIES - LIZ STORY (WINDHAM HILL)

Liz Story marks her Windham Hill return with another digital direct-to-two-track production, which coaxes maximum improvisation. Together with Keith Jarrett's Paris Concert, Escape Of The Circus Ponies promises (and delivers) much more than we've come to expect from standard solo piano efforts. Liz Story seems to have acquired, pardon the pun, a real storytelling technique. It's as if she's drawing from some faraway reservoir of imaginative imagery that engages the listener and keeps them on edge. There aren't any platitudinous ponderings here. "Inside Out" is sparkling and kinetic, with lots of action. Ditto "The Sounding Joy," which romps with a bit of classical pastiche. The spirit of extemporaneous flow remains, but there's more bounce than flounce. Great stuff.

THE WORLD IS FALLING DOWN - ABBEY LINCOLN (VERVE/POLYGRAM)

One listen to the opening title track, "The World Is Falling Down," and we think that Billie Holiday would have sounded like this had she lived and let her talents surge. It's so wide open and, being self-penned, expressive and matter of fact. Imagine Lady Day with modern latitude. It's almost too limiting to call Abbey Lincoln a singer or vocalist. Bandleader is a more fitting description of this colorful Jazz persona, who has always spiced her career by catapulting her abilities past the role of chanteuse into songwriting, acting and political action—along with ex-husband Max Roach, Lincoln was among the first Jazz greats who stood up for Civil Rights. Only a singer with Lincoln's confidence could do the things she does on The World Is Falling Down: fronting an all-star group with the likes of fine call and response soloing from Clark Terry and Jackie McLean; adding words to the ultra moody Charlie Haden classic (from the last Haden/Motian/Allen gem), "First Song." On this album, which was recorded in France, Lincoln draws on her gentle, warm mannerisms.

RHYTHM-A-NING - KENNY BARRON-JOHN HICKS QUARTET (CANDID)

This is one fine live recording featuring a double piano quartet that is highly lucid and damned reliable for fine Jazz chops. The first two tracks, "Sunshower" and "Naima's Love Song," embody the characteristics of one player and could deceive listeners who are apt to take their mosaic performance for granted. It's only when you get to Monk's "Blue Monk" and "Rhythm-A-Ning" would you either suspect that: A) Someone is trying to cop Oscar Peterson's licks or, B) Two heads and four hands are really involved here. John Hicks composes in a very alluring style that's both haunting and satisfying.

TINGRI - JOHN SERRIE (MIRAMAR)

Another superb textural effort from synthesist John Serrie and Miramar, the Seattle based Alternative Adult music label. Yes it's spacey, flowingly melodic, textural, ethereal, but most of all it's moving and immaculately performed. Acoustic/electric guitarist Jim Jagodzinski contributes some strong guitar seasoning which succeeds in anchoring the material and keeps Tingri from oozing into an overly celestial mode. AA strong cuts include "Tingri" "Where Lovers Walk" and the galloping "Iridani."

and put out a serious work. And this is Bobby McFerrin's finest yet. No disrespect to his pop success, but Jazz and AA listeners know there's much more to McFerrin than hamboning, facial drumming and fingerpopping. Medicine Man is a healing collection of harmonies and concepts. An example? "Common Threads," a duet with Lyle Mays extracted from the movie "Common Threads: Stories From The Quilt" (about the famous AIDS memorial), is powerful and soothing, yet emotionally charged. Medicine Man is a personification of McFerrin as a human being. While there's a commercial side of him that hawks cranberry juice, there's the philosophical side that looks at music through a shaman's eyes. I think AA and Jazz will easily be able to extract pieces of Medicine Man to season various dayparts. One thing is for sure. Your audience will hear the best this voice has yet to offer. For starters, dig "Angry Gima," "Baby" and the aforementioned "Common Threads."

FOR THE MOMENT - RENE ROSNES
(BLUE NOTE)

Rene Rosnes takes a giant step. For The Moment is a bastion of beauty, complexity, melody. Her two days in the studio spins and weaves more music than some do in lifetimes. The title track is awe inspiring—a melodic free fall that coasts, glides and pervades. Nine minutes of heaven. Rene is an extremely talented newcomer, taking on Monk ("Four In One") and Woody Shaw ("The Organ Grinder") with ease while shining bright as an original composer. Joe Henderson on tenor is stellar and stunning, providing raging support. This one is right up there with Camilo's On The Other Hand as the best of today's contemporary piano styling. Put it at the top of your stack.

ONE FOR ALL - ART BLAKEY & THE JAZZ MESSENGERS (A&M)

Like Miles and Dizzy, you assumed Art Blakey was always going to be there. But when they leave, you pray they do with their art and abilities left in good standing. It's comforting that Art sounds so vibrant on what will no doubt be judged as his last great effort. Following the Jazz chartopping Bluesiana Triangle, is One For All, an hour and ten minute set with young players like Geoff Keezer and Javon Jackson, who are currently touring with the Harper Brothers. On "Theme For Penny" (written and arranged by Jackson) Blakey delivers a locker room address to his troops: "If you make a mistake, make it loud!" The band then launches into a tribal stomp that magnificently multiplies their numbers, making them sound like at least a dozen pieces. In between the solos and choruses, Blakey rat-a-tat-tats and punctuates each sentence, crossing the tees and dotting the eyes with forceful abandon. "Use your imaginations! That's what Jazz is all about!" he urges his band and ultimately his listeners. Try to imagine Jazz without Art Blakey having carved his initials on the tree stump. Perish the thought.

SHELL GAME - DON HARRISS (SONIC ATMOSPHERES)

Don Harriss has been making successful, computer-friendly electronic music since the alternative adult music explosion began. Steeped in rock (with Pat Travers and Ronnie Hawkins), Harriss has a flair for the dramatic. He also possesses the same spontaneous, creative temperament that Vangelis swears by, i.e. recording with the intention that everything is pre-mixed and ready to record as the process unfolds. Harriss' music contains elements of sixties pop catchiness, seventies Germanic electronic pioneering, eighties New Age melodics and nineties synthspaciousness.

ALBUM NEW RELEASES

BY KENT ZIMMERMAN

VOLUME 3 - TRAVELING WILBURYS (WILBURY/WARNER BROS.)

Volume 3? Did we miss a generation? Creating a spontaneous metaphysical musical rebirth, the Traveling Wilburys don new aliases but the jaunty melodies remain the same. And even if the joke is beginning to wear a bit threadbare, songs like "Inside Out," the toxic "The Devil's Been Busy," "If You Belonged To Me" and "Where Were You Last Night" are fun enough. On Volume 3, the Wilbury legacy is safely tongue-in-cheek and even safer from serious scrutiny, although we miss Lefty.

"YOU'RE AMAZING" - ROBERT PALMER (EMI)

This is as close to automatic as it gets for Album Radio. Robert Palmer brilliantly straddles both the Album Radio and Top Forty psyche finding that thin gold vein that separates the two. It rocks, it dances, it's programmed, it's organic. I understand that the upcoming album (eighteen tracks!) explores many different music styles. Dare I say, amazing?

"MORE" - SISTERS OF MERCY (ELEKTRA)

Darkness, yes, but well orchestrated and addicting as hell after the first few tastes. The Sisters Of Mercy return and isn't it always nearing winter when their music hits our shores? Andrew Eldritch still sounds like he's singing at 16 rpms. Jim Steinman still favors the cavernous, electronic dinge of sequenced machinery. And like the Cure's "Never Enough," the Sisters too are never satisfied. They all need more.

GHOST OF A DOG - EDIE BRICKELL & NEW BOHEMIANS (Geffen)

The continuing story of what I am. Edie Brickell and the Bohemians begin to chart the tricky seas of their follow-up. They weather the storm nicely, expanding their images of barefoot Americana, porch swings and supernatural canines. The opening trio, "Mama Help Me" into "Black & Blue" into "Carmelito," respectively horns in with a New Orleans flavor, a Southeastern REMstyle and a Cajun spice. Throughout the bigger productions, the Bohemians salt and peppere simple acoustic poems like the title track and "Oak Cliff Bra" giving Ghost Of A Dog balance between the grandiose and a more intimate view of rural America. Unlikely guest contributors include the seminal Johnny Lydon and the squeeze box of Country star Jo-EI Sonnier.

WHERE THE PYRAMIDS MEETS THE EYE - A TRIBUTE TO ROKY ERICKSON (SIRE/WARNER BROS.)

I remember the 13th Floor Elevators as a Top 40 radio band passing through town when I was in my teen (I missed them, damn). The first time I saw Bill Gavin's Report mentioned was on the liner notes of their first album. Roky

Erickson's music was the very first crossroads on which the prevailing Texas redneck coped with psychedelia for the very first time. Since then, it's been a stormy, tumultuous coexistence that took the tired course of Rock and Country music to a higher plateau. Anyone who crosses the geographical, boundaries of their art so radically ultimately has the best chance of changing music. The duel versions of "Reverberation (Doubt)" cut by ZZ Top and Jesus & Mary Chain pretty much sum it up. To please both camps, Erickson indeed had to be an extraordinary visionary, surfing the fine wave between innovation and insanity. Hot contributions include those by John Wesley Harding, ZZ Top, Poi Dog Pondering, T Bone Burnett, REM and Jesus & Mary Chain.

LIVE AT THE LIBERTY LUNCH - JOE ELY (MCA)

The state of Texas rock. Expert witness, Joe Ely. I saw a close variation of this set. Joe enters solo, hard strumming "Me And Billy The Kid," eventually joined by an electric trio that included the vivid guitar colors of David Grissom.

This week we get a tri-color sample of Austin's musical city limits, with Roky Erickson's legacy, Edie's New Bohemians and now Ely's veteran view. Live At Liberty Lunch is a retrospective that includes vital renditions of "Dallas," Butch Hancock's "Row Of Dominoes," almost nine (!) minutes of "Cool Rockin' Loretta" and the extended talkin' blues rocker "Letter To L.A." I've seen Joe at almost every juncture. All he ever gets is better, as heard on this live set.

RED HOT + BLUE (CHRYSALIS)

When Cole Porter first began writing his songs while a student at Yale University, he, like the Beatles years later, had a clear shot at the hearts and minds of the mass culture. His songs were crafted primarily for the sheet music/piano market. Practically the only competition he had were books, magazines and silent film. Oh yeah, there was also the Great Depression. Nowadays we have malls, videos, MTV, CDs, Nintendo and more. On the down side we have an AIDS epidemic. What better time to revive Cole Porter's craft? Porter's genius is interpreted all kinds of ways. Contemporary stars like Sinead O'Connor, Annie Lennox and k.d. lang do it straight. U2 and David Byrne experiment while the Neville Brothers and the Pogues adapt Porter's verse to their own contemporary styles. All is not sullen and glum as Debbie Harry and Iggy have fun as well. Here's a project benefiting the fight against AIDS well worth a delve. It's politically and medically, all the more crucial. Two booklets are included with valuable information you can pass onto listeners.

ALTERNATIVE INSIDE

BY LINDA RYAN

I hope everyone enjoyed themselves at the CMJ convention. I had a great time meeting new people and hanging out with old friends. As for the convention itself, I was happy to see things run so smoothly—no registration lines!

What impressed me most—more than any panel per se—was the expressed need for college MDs and PDs to communicate with each other—to help each other deal with industry pressures. I was pleasantly surprised to learn of a computer network that the UC campuses have set up which interlinks with all the other UC systems, enabling say, UC Davis (KDVS) and UC Berkeley (KALX) to communicate via the computer—for free!

Of course, if you're not part of the UC system that's O.K.—a telephone works just as well. The point is, there are people out there going through similar situations—juggling schedules, dealing with record promotion reps and graduating/getting jobs in the industry. Use Gavin's bluebook as a tool and make it work for you. Feel free to call me on Thursdays and Fridays if you have particular questions, gripes etc.

There were many excellent showcases. It was, as usual, difficult to figure out where to be at what time to see the most bands possible. As for myself, I enjoyed THE GOO GOO DOLLS, THE POSIES, THE BAT MASTERSONS and TOO MUCH JOY the most. I have it on excellent authority that REDD KROSS (the Alternative NELSONS) rocked the house in a big way with their showcase at The Ritz.

A couple of people mentioned that spending time with Sire's

HOWIE KLEIN proved more interesting than many of the panels. Howie has a rich musical history and is happy to share it. Do you know he's got a picture of his mom smoking pot with JIMI HENDRIX?

Since we're on the subject of conventions, please keep an eye on your mail, as we've sent out nomination ballots for the GAVIN AWARDS. I can't send you another if you misplace it, so fill it out and send it in before you lose it.

Follow the bouncing label... THE SIDEWINDERS' future releases will now be found on the Ensign/Chrysalis label. MOTHER LOVE BONE has decided to break with their company, PolyGram.

THE PET SHOP BOYS look set to play live in the States for the first time. Japan, Scotland and England have been graced with the duo's presence. Look for an L.A. date on November 6—hopefully more will follow.

It seems JANE'S ADDICTION had quite a time celebrating Halloween and the first US dates of the Ritual de lo Habitual tour. About 1500 tickets were sold for a semi-private party in Beverly Hills on the estate of someone known as "THE COLONEL."

The theme, if you couldn't guess, was Mexican Voodoo and Pagan Witchcraft. There was Salsa dancing, margarita bars & Mexican beer, python snakes and of course—Jane's Addiction playing live. There were pinatas hanging everywhere, and a HUGE chocolate cake in the corner—with a chocolate facsimile of PERRY FARRELL on top.

STING, WEIRD AL YANKOVIC and THE RED HOT CHILI PEPPERS (wearing only jock straps and dildos) were in attendance. The Peppers got up and sang a song after Jane's Addiction left the stage. Needless to say, the slam dancers, in abundance, were having a grand ol' time. Only Jane's Addiction. Only in Beverly Hills!

Congratulations to THE REPLACEMENTS on their new number one. They just edged out THE COCTEAU TWINS, whose stay has been a long one. Closing in are THE CHARLATANS, who in the next couple of weeks will attempt a coup.

THE POSIES move 12-9 as the band heads out for a short tour with GENE LOVES JEZEBEL. With each week the band pulls in more HEAVY supporters including KJJO, KFSR, WBNU, WHTG, WUMS, WXVX, KTAO, KACV, WAPS and WRFL—to name but a few.

REDD KROSS leap 18-11 as LIVE 105 and WUOG come in on ADDs. Look for Redd Kross among the MOST REQUESTED on KUCI and WTSR.

Moving a healthy 17-13 are THE CONNELLS, who boast a nice split between college and commercial stations. Included among the many HEAVY reporters are KDVS, KJQ, WDCR, WRVU, WWVU, KFSR, KUNV, WRAS and KJJO.

BRIAN ENO and JOHN CALE's collaboration also boasts healthy college and commercial radio support. HEAVY supporters on this project include WXPB, WDET, KUSF, WRSI, WMDK, KCRW, WBER, KTCZ, KCOU and WXYC.

Moving 32-23 are THE HINDU LOVE GODS, who rack up two more ADDs this week—

KTOW and WPRB.

GALAXIE 500 races up 48-30 as KBVR, WXPB, WMDK and WOXY come in on ADDs. Among the MOST REQUESTED at WTSR and KCPR.

Our highest debut (33) comes from Scotland's TRASH CAN SINATRAS, who rank among the MOST ADDED two weeks in a row. ADDs come in this week from WRSI, WHFS, WICB, WUMS, KZSC, KACV, WHTG and many others.

Life is a rock but the radio rolled me. LINDA RYAN

NEW RELEASES

LUSH - GALA (4-AD/REPRISE)

Although they've only been together a short time (the band formed toward the end of 1988), Lush has garnered the golden reputation it takes other bands dozens of releases and constant tours to cultivate. Gala, Lush's domestic debut, is a gritty, atmospheric effort that calls past favorites with a handful of new tracks, that were produced by Tim (Talk Talk) Friese-Greene. The key to Lush is recognizing (and appreciating) the dichotomy of the sonics, which are atmospherically spacial and constantly noisy at the same time—harmonies nestled sweetly behind a wall of noise. If, say, The Cowsills started today, they'd probably sound like "Thoughtforms" or "Breeze." Unlike that band, Lush has a great future in this format and don't have to worry about fading into obscurity! Aside from the two amazing tracks already listed, check out "Scarlet," "Sweetness And Light" and a weird cover of Abba's "Hey Hey Helen." LINDA RYAN

NIRVANA - "SLIVER" B/W "DIVE" (SUB POP)

Now here's news! Nirvana wrote a song with such a pop hook and novel subject matter that even commercial alternative stations can play it—at least those that aren't afraid of a little guitar. "Sliver," the song in question, is a two-minute romp back to childhood—to the day your parents dumped you at Grandma's house while they went to the movies. (It's funny how that two-hour movie seemed to take forever!) There are some genuine childlike insights here, and when coupled with Nirvana's intense guitars and vocals, you can't help but feel the angst. Freud would have a field day with this one! LR

THE BLUE AEROPLANES - WORLD VIEW BLUE
(ENSIGN/CHRYSALIS)

Here's one collectors and radio will flip for. The new singles featured on this album are the most radio-friendly projects the band has come up with to date—probably because solo artist-turned-Aeroplane Rodney Allen wrote or co-wrote these decidedly pop songs. Take a listen to "You (Are Loved)," or "Different Now" and you'll see what I mean. Longtime fans of The Aeroplanes won't be disappointed either, as the band offers up Richard Thompson's "You're Going To Need Somebody," an acoustic version of "World View Blue," and live covers of "Sweet Jane" and (Dylan's) "I Wanna Be Your Lover"—both of which compliment Gerard Langley's vocal style. With each release The Blue Aeroplanes make inroads at American radio—this release is no exception. LR

THE POGUES - HELL'S DITCH (ISLAND)

On their last album, Peace And Love, The Pogues displayed many different styles—showing off the impressive songwriting skills of the other band members. This trend, although not to the same extent, is continued with their new effort, Hell's Ditch. Once again the band turns to (ex-Clash member) Joe Strummer for production direction, and once again Strummer rises to the occasion. Perhaps it's because he went on tour with the band that Strummer's able to highlight their strengths so effortlessly. In any case, The Pogues have graced us with an album filled with Celtic-flavored pop songs—some dark and moody and others bright and step-lively. I like the Celtic raves myself, and therefore suggest starting with "The Sunnyside Of The Street" and "Rain Street." Other memorable moments include "Six To Go," "House Of Gods" and the wonderful "Rain-bow Man." LR

BUFFALO TOM - BIRDBRAIN (BEGGARS BANQUET/RCA)

Few bands meld melody and sensitivity to feedback and wailing rock as stunningly or effectively as this Amherst, MA trio. Birdbrain, their second U.S. release, represents the band's move toward fulfilling the tremendous promise of last year's SST LP. Yes, they write inexhaustible hooks that easily bear the weight of all that distortion and searing guitar. And yes, J. Mascis produced this effort as well as their previous album. The band's strongest element—barring their ability to craft unflinching melodies—is probably the talent of vocalist Bill Janovitz. His voice registers an astounding emotional range in a manner similar (in both phrasing expressiveness) to American Music Club's Mark Eitzel. In fact, considering those vocals, the songs' lyrical contents (check out "Caress" and "Enemy"), and BT's Engine-ish use of feedback (see "Guy Who Is Me"), it's probably fair to say that Buffalo Tom are like AMC's more rockin' (albeit undeveloped) understudies. Tracks: "Birdbrain," "Enemy," "Crawl" and "Bleeding Heart." SEANA BARUTH

BRIAN RITCHIE - I SEE A NOISE
(CHAMELEON)

Most of you are already familiar with Ritchie—either via The Violent Femmes, where he plays bass, or from his two previous solo albums. This is perhaps Ritchie's most cohesive solo album to date, and it highlights his talent as a musician (he plays a number of instruments on the album) and song writer. Brian Ritchie has a uniquely bizarre twist on the world, and it colors songs like the humorous "Please Don't Cry For Me," "The Man With The Cigarette In His Nose" and "Song Without Any End." Recorded in Milwauke, I See A Noise lives up its surreal title, and pushes beyond boundaries critics like myself may be inclined to box Ritchie into. Listen for yourself. LR

GEAR DADDIES - BILLY'S LIVE BAIT
(POLYGRAM)

Gear Daddies saunter forward with a piece of bone cold reality. Poignant lyrics are punctuated with music that heightens the pain and hurt of their words. Some songs have a Country flavoring, others are ballads and some are given a folk feel with the use of harmonica and accordion. But the Gear Daddies rock and when they open up, guitars and bass rage while Billy is relentless on the drums. These songs deal with "places" we've all been. Here's six tracks to start with: "Color Of Her Eyes," "Sonic Boom," "Don't Look At Me," "Stupid Boy," "Goodbye Marie" and "One Voice." The liner notes are an interesting conglomeration of recipes, retail meat-cutting charts, a map of Europe and the Periodic Table of Elements. While you're trying to figure them out, crank it up. A Rum-Crazy Pop Party

By Linda Ryan

Nestled deep in the bowels of England's northern industrial area, among the grey city streets and choking skies, our heroes make their home. The factory-dotted landscape seems a strange environment for the purveyors of such bright, uplifting pop, but it was perhaps this mix 'n' match circumstance that allowed The Charlatans to deal the fatal blow to the dragon of cynicism. Good vibrations and universal harmony restored, our knights in baggy trousers move onto their next major task: conquering America.

Let's face it—America isn't such an easy dragon to slay. Jon Brookes, the man responsible for the oscillating drums that propel The Charlatans, remains positive. "America's been waiting for a band like us," he explains. "What we do, the way we perform live—which is our strong point—will really knock you out."

I saw The Charlatans perform live at The Gathering Of The Tribes, and I was knocked out—but that's a bit like preaching to the converted. Would, say, a ZZ Top fan be knocked out?

"I think so." Jon says confidently. He explains, "We've got a distinctly English pop feel about us, plus a certain aura about us that I think will be to everybody's liking."

The Charlatans specialize in groove-ridden pop songs powered by a steady, driving rhythm section. The liquescent melodies are sung over a way-groovy Hammond organ, giving the sound a certain '60s feel.

Like most bands, it took a couple of personnel changes before the current hypostatic union—Jon Brookes (drums), Rob Collins (Hammond Organ), Jon Baker (guitar), Martin Blunt (bass) charismatic singer, Tim "Teenshag Superstar" Burgess (as Sounds magazine is likely to refer to him)—solidified.

The Charlatans are excited about doing a proper tour of America. They're not worried that we won't "get it," and are, in fact, eager to begin. The main worry, as Brookes laughs, is "how much time we're going to have to spend on the road. To cover America properly, it must take months and months!"

"We're really pleased about what's happening over in America," he states. "We're sort of getting itchy feet—we want to get over there and play. I mean," he continues, "things are looking good on this side of the Atlantic—it'd be nice for the buzz to spread."

That buzz is becoming deafening! The single that started it all is "The Only One I Know," the song the band was cheeky enough to start their few American shows with. The song that went number one in England and to number six on our Alternative chart.

The band recognizes a good thing when they've experienced one. Jon explains, "The song actually did us justice over here. It's just really a great song," he shrugs, unable to find the words to explain.

"You see," he begins, sound. Jon comments, "So many bands hide behind their keyboards and samples. We're probably influenced by the same things (as other Manchester bands), but we try to keep it back in our sound."

He continues, "Songwriting is still an art. With The Charlatans, I think we've got the perfect (songwriting) team."

"so many bands sell records purely on reputation. When we released that single our reputation wasn't really that massive. But it did everything for us. It was just brilliant—such an accolade, really."

A fitting accolade to a band who believes in songwriting as an art form—which may, in fact, account for the band's tight, groove-infested

The success of their latest album, Some Friendly, should find some adventuresome Top 40 stations taking a chance on this exciting new band. The tour they're so eagerly anticipating will take place sometime in the new year, and the whole country is invited to The Charlatans rum-crazy pop party! ●

PEOPLE ARE STRANGE and LIFE WITH JIM COULD BE HELL

Riders Of The Storm By John Densmore A Synopsis And Conversation With The Doors' Drummer

by Kent Zimmerman

"The book opens with me at the grave. I'm very angry. I mean, I'm sad and shocked, but I'm angry that he didn't let me in on this. That he split! After four years, I made it to Paris to visit his grave. Finally. I felt responsible and I explore those feelings. The book isn't just an account of gigs. It's more a cathartic dump."

The slight figure at the bookstore lectern could have been the latest flash West Coast writer except the audience is a sprinkling of young rockers, tied-dyed dead heads and bespectacled professionals.

In actuality, the author reading from his autobiography is a musician, lately an actor, now a writer. After reading a few passages aloud, former Doors drummer John Densmore takes a few questions from the silent, attentive audience. Most of the questions are the usual. After the obligatory questions about Jim Morrison's sex life ("Janis Joplin? Well, I wasn't actually in the bedroom, you know"), Densmore flashes a look to his media escort signalling an end to the inquisition. But before leaving the crowd he takes one of the pristine hard-back copies of the book pyramided on a card table and throws it over his left shoulder.

As the book-buying demographics change, the music biography is taking on a new role and entering the publishing world's mainstream. Rather than rely on outside scholars who write steamy overview opinions of rock's role in society, musicians are seeking out ghost writers, and they piece together what happened behind-the-scenes first hand. For instance, Mick Fleetwood recently teamed with writer Stephen Holden for a fly-on-the-wall look at the history of Fleetwood Mac that's entertaining, if not historically precise.

For about ten years Densmore resisted the idea of using a ghost writer, and instead worked on the book himself, taking a more psychological view of his life with the Doors. He attempted to capture in his own words what it was like to punctuate poetic moods for a band that changed rock n roll. He tried to examine the psychological toll of sharing the stage with an insane genius. The result: In Riders On The Storm Densmore forged a writing technique—his style is honestly innocent—dredged up memories and exorcised a few old ghosts.

Today, John Densmore is slim and healthy looking. The night before our chat was the evening he delivered his first reading, an experience far different from drumming behind a drunken prophet.

"I kind of fell into this writing business. I was having trouble with relationships and I went into therapy and that encouraged me to write journals. Then a writer friend of mine felt I had a book inside those writings. So I started, wrote a hundred pages—you know, the gush—and got rejected by everybody, especially by Warner Books who," Densmore giggles, no fan of the Danny Sugarman book, "put out 'No One Here Gets Out Alive.' They didn't want anybody from the band's side. So I kept going, found a new avenue of creativity and became obsessed."

Was it therapeutic?

"Yeah, sometimes. You saw me throw the book behind me. I can move on with my life now. I'm always going to be in the Doors. But it feels much better now."

As a spokesman or narrator, Densmore carefully qualifies that Riders is as much about his personal "catharsis" as it is about Jim Morrison.

"Robbie (Krieger) could feel Jim's pain, but he was too shy to do anything about it. Ray (Manzarek) somehow turns the other cheek, like it's not really even happening. As I wrote, 'The great god Apollo faces the sun, he can't see his own shadow.' Ray used to say (Densmore laughs at himself at the observation) 'We are three Apollonians and a Dionysian lead singer.' There was some truth to that because Jim was so strong and so dark, but you needed that—I'm in a room with a psychotic!! Long hard ride? Yeah. So I shoved that under the rug. A year or two later I had rashes and the dermatologist asked, 'Are you under stress.' And I said no!"

And with all the success and stress came controversy. Morrison's arrest for indecent exposure following a concert in Miami nearly nearly destroyed the band. It cost them three lighter, more stable guys to balance his energy. Maybe what made the band work was having three people holding things together through Jim's binges, to love what we created with him enough to put up with all this shit."

So far the response from the other members has been split—with Robbie portrayed as a close friend, closer than Ray.

"People might also be expecting a more subtle approach like, 'Hey, you should have been here.' I come right out of the chute talking about this maniac. Everybody who was around Jim at the end wanted to be near him," but then he adds sadly but emphatically, "I couldn't stand being in his presence.

"When we just got started I realized, I'm in a band—check thousand in gigs and raised the hackles of parents groups and politicians from President Nixon on down.

"It's ironic how what happened to us in Miami almost wiped out our careers while the same thing made 2 Live Crew's. We had the Rally For Decency backed by the President. All that took a lot out of Jim. You could see it in the pictures. I mean, he was drunk and he had this idea of revolutionary theater that night in Miami. But when he got busted, the media went crazy. The charges were 'simulating oral copulation.' Actually that was Jim bent down looking at Robbie's fingers because he played flamenco style. Jim was enamored with this crab crawling over the strings.

"Jim got beaten down. The media blew it up. It was national news that Jim exposed himself, which he did not do. When he was acquitted, there was only minimal coverage. That combined with drinking pulled him down."

Does Densmore trust film director Oliver Stone with the Doors' story? He mulls over the word trust, repeating the word over and over to himself.

"Trust. I don't want to say no or yes. I'm just hoping, that's all. Oliver's a dark brooding guy, just like Jim. That's good. The movie will focus on Jim. That's one story. There are many truths. Mine's in the book. But Oliver's really into Jim and he's gonna get some magic out of it. Val Kilmer was excellent. He was sensitive. He helped the movie a lot because Oliver had Jim crazy as hell. Yet Val's nature has this gentleness as well as the craziness. And Jim had that, too"

So what if Jim had gotten out alive?

"Jim went for the legal stuff, cigarettes and alcohol, the stuff that kills more than everything. If Jim could have gotten a handle on his drinking, maybe he would now be an old blues man singing in the clubs. Maybe we would have still been behind him. He was interested in film. Maybe he would have gotten to a substance abuse clinic in the nineties..." but Densmore waves off that possibility.

"I don't think Jim was capable. You have to go somewhere like to AA and say, 'I have a problem. I'm fucked.' That would have been tough for Jim." ● indeed has suffered a lot of heartbreak. He immediately took on a different persona. A strange feeling—was it passion? Anger?—filled the room. He sat up straight and proud, like a steed rearing. “Hell yeah,” he said in the same low voice, but it now held a different, more urgent timbre. His eyes lowered to half-mast. “Have you ever tried to get out of a relationship and you’ve got your tail between your legs and you’re going back and forth and she doesn’t want to have anything to do with you anymore??”

Kent’s voice cut through the tension, “I think it’s good to try to remain friends.” The feeling in the air was relentless. “How many times have you knocked on doors late at night and can’t get in,” Cray challenged. “I’ve done that stuff. Yeah that’s the kind of stuff...” He relaxed a bit, letting a wind out of his sails. “When you’re listening to a record—you’ve got it on and you’re walking around and you’re singing to it—man, if you sing about it long enough and hard enough, you’ll feel better about it.”

Agitation hung in the air, but it was almost pleasant. We then verbally danced around the people Cray’s been playing with lately and the conversation turned Stevie Ray Vaughan’s untimely death. We’ll all remember the day, but I especially remember coming in to work and Kent being in a lot of pain, knowing there was an accident, knowing someone was dead, not knowing who and being afraid to say who it might or might not be, as if mentioning names might change things.

“What happened?” Kent asked Cray, as if hoping whatever answer he got things would somehow be made right. But of course they weren’t. “During Clapton’s set we were all standing around the stage,” Cray recalled. “At one of Clapton’s solos he started playing around with ‘Strangers In The Night’—doing a bebop solo and a little bit of something else. And we were all, ‘hey man, check him out, he’s trying to do that.’ We had a good laugh. We just had a good time. We played a big encore, it was me, Eric Clapton, Buddy Guy, Eric’s guitar player Phil, Jimmie and Stevie Ray Vaughan. We had a good time.”

The next morning Cray woke up to the news of a helicopter crash, but didn’t know who was on board. “Whoever it could have been—we knew everybody, so it was...” he trailed off for a second, then recovered. “It’s a sad thing, but we go on—we go on,” he said consolingly. “I’ve known Stevie since 1979—the first time we played was in Golden Gate Park here in San Francisco. We played in Santa Cruz—we played all round the city...” he stopped in the way the grieving do, silently saying, “Let’s not talk about this anymore.”

When you’re hurting, it helps to look into the future. “What’s next?” Kent asked. Cray brightened, “We’re itching to get out and play. We went out in July—we had a good time. We’ve got the organ in there now and it’s there kicking in some of that old soul and gospel stuff—that Jimmy Swift kind of stuff.”

Kent and I wrangle about Album Radio (just a reminder: it’s still occasionally referred to as “Apartheid Oriented Radio”) on what seems like a daily basis. Black acts generally don’t make a dent on the Album Radio charts. Robert Cray is one of the exceptions. All of his past albums, beginning with 1978’s Who’s Been Talking have been well received by that format. Midnight Stroll neared the top of the Gavin Album chart and, as of this writing, is hanging tough in the top ten. I asked him why he was accepted by a format that reveres but virtually ignores Black musicians. Is it the people he associates with? He tilted his head and shrugged as if he was asked a question there’s no real answer to.

Ultimately, Cray’s music, like all credible blues and rock (blues’ bastard cousin) transcends the racial barriers and boundaries. But until the walls are torn down, it will be the colorful exception rather than the purist rule that makes the most noise on radio and television. As long as artists are as sincere as Robert Cray, well, a shred of justice still exists in the selection process.

My more personal theory about why Album radio embraced Midnight Stroll is that some of us like to dabble in danger vicariously. And let’s face it—in the music world, blues men live the word in capital letters. And the best blues men are Black. Like the handsome, well-dressed, soft spoken Robert Cray. ●

Robert Cray talks about his favorite tracks on Midnight Stroll:

“The Forecast (Calls For Pain)” (Dennis Walker/ David Plenn) “I’ve known Dennis for a long time, so it’s pretty comfortable working with the songs Dennis presents because he keeps us in mind when he puts songs together for us. We don’t do them exactly as he presents them to us because Dennis has a little Country and Western in him (laughs) and we can’t do them exactly like that. I like slow grooves and I like to hear everything. I just try to make things funkier.”

“These Things” (Robert Cray) “I don’t know how that came about—but all of a sudden I had this groove like Elmore James and Wilson Pickett at the same time. I like the track. Even if you rubbed out the vocals it’s kind of dangerous.”

“Move A Mountain” (Words by Robert Cray; Music by Robert Cray and Tim Kaihatsu) “I wrote that three years ago and I found it on a cassette. It’s an angry song—I don’t know that I got it off the way I wanted to on the record—it’s an angry tune. I think part of that anger comes out on that very last chord.”

“Labor Of Love” (Tim Kaihatsu) “Bad love’s like an addiction.”

PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

MADONNA - Justify My Love (Sire/Warner Bros.)
On the first day of Christmas my true love gave to me that Madonna greatest hits package called the "Immaculate Collection." Lovers listening to this bit of new material will have no trouble getting in the mood for just about anything. It's wild abandon time for one of the most provocative personalities of our time. Should be listened to alone only while taking a cold shower.

CHER - The Shoop Shoop Song (It's In His Kiss) (Geffen)
In superb voice, Cher revitalizes Betty Everett's classic from 1964—a year before Sonny & Cher earned their first hit "Baby Don't Go." Producer Peter Asher tweaks the song with just the right elements to keep it contemporary while remaining true to the original. One of two oldies Cher performs on the soundtrack of her soon-to-be-released film, "Mermaids."

ELTON JOHN - You Gotta Love Someone (MCA)
Expect a whole lotta folks to be giving the gift of music this holiday season in the form of a new four CD box set called "To Be Continued," featuring classic hits, rare gems and this new track from EJ. Taking off quickly at A/C, this Elton John/Bernie Taupin creation is one of their finest, with the added bonus of Don Was in the producers chair. A four star performance.

C&C MUSIC FACTORY featuring FREEDOM WILLIAMS - Gonna Make You Sweat (Columbia)
Difficult to package any more excitement into this release which exemplifies what fresh music is all about. C&C are producers Robert Clivilles & David Cole, the pair responsible for Seduction, and their factory is anything but assembly line, issuing hot inventions that shake 'em up on the dance floor and on the airwaves.

KEITH SWEAT - I'll Give All My Love To You (Elektra)
Urban radio took his last single "Merry Go Round" to number one but this was the track Top 40 demanded. Everything a love song should be from sweet melody to impassioned lyrics expressing the ultimate in devotion. Already huge at KMEL 4-3, Q106 12-10, FM102 10-7, HOT 97.7 28-19, KLUC 21-17, KROY 26-19 and KDON 16-13.

ROBERT PALMER - You're Amazing (EMI)
Robert's middle name might as well be amazing if for no other reason than his ability to pinpoint changing moods and tastes, as reflected in ever-evolving unpredictable releases. On strictly a personal level I prefer his rockers over his mid- or down-tempo efforts, and he's in absolutely perfect form on his first new offering for the Nineties.

TOMMY JAMES - You Take My Breath Away (Aegis)
Is there anyone who's not familiar with the remarkable pop track record of Tommy James? The man wrote the book on how to make songs for radio, and he's put it all together once again. When I first came across this tune on his latest album "Hi-Fi" it jumped out as a likely single. Top 40 and A/C listeners will be thrilled to hear the singer and the song.

CROSSOVER PICKS

RALPH TRESVANT - Sensitivity (MCA)
Bobby Brown, Johnny Gill and Bell Biv DeVoe have all had their shot and now it's Ralph T's turn. After a top thirty debut at #28 on the Urban chart, it makes another hefty 14 point move to #14. Written and produced by Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis this ultra hip ballad is charted and on the move at KMEL, KOY, Q105, WCKZ, FM102, KGGI, HOT 97, Q106 and POWER 106.

CELINE DION - Where Does My Heart Beat Now (Epic)
Climbing the Adult Contemporary chart this French Canadian only learned to speak English three years ago—a surprising fact in light of the way she handles this stirring ballad. CKOI Montreal charts it top five with the album showing up as the number one seller for more than a month after 27 weeks in the top twenty. Station MD Guy Brouillard says it's consistently as a top three request item, pointing out that it's the first time a French artist has sung in English without upsetting French Canadian audiences who realize she has the talent to be a star beyond the borders of her country.

GARY MOORE - Still Got The Blues For You (Charisma)
Bluesy productions aren't standard fare on Top 40 these days, but infusing this entry with commerciality Gary Moore just might be able to transfer his current Top 10 success at Album radio into a trek up the Top 40. Massive sales indicate the power of Moore's music, highlighted by his skilled guitar work and stellar production. A quality effort that shouldn't slip by unnoticed.

IGGY POP & KATE PIERSON - Candy (Virgin)
An unlikely pair are taking on Top 40 with some winning results. Top three on our Alternative chart in late August, it's been building momentum steadily, and a new single edit should really help it turn the corner.

ALBUMS by Ron Fell

STEVE WINWOOD - Refugees Of The Heart (Virgin)
A shade less bombastic than his previous "Roll With It" album, this latest Winwood draws inspiration from his past successes, yet the composite feel of this new set seems more intimate—more approachable. Many tracks feature Steve's former Traffic partner, Jim Capaldi, and as a matter of fact the current single, ONE AND ONLY MAN, is strictly a two-man band. The exceptionally extraordinary bits include a monstrous blues piece, ANOTHER DEAL GOES DOWN, a radiant IN THE LIGHT OF DAY and the set's true production piece, YOU'LL KEEP ON SEARCHING, which features the Winwood B-3 Hammond and an angelic soprano sax played by Randall Bramblett.
