Perun, Zapoleon Join Forces

Two veteran programmers joined forces this week as Steve Perun announced his intention to work with Guy Zapoleon at his fledgling consultancy effective November 1.

Stressing a deep confidence in the Top 40 format, Perun told the Gavin Report: "We initially are looking to specialize working with ailing Top Forties. We want to restore the belief that there still is room to do Top Forty—that it can still work. It's still a viable option in a lot of places, and the pendulum has swung to the other extreme. Fifteen stations in a market can't all be A/C and expect to win. There's room for adults in the Top Forty format."

Perun said that he and Zapoleon will work together on every project, and stressed Zapoleon's philosophy that the company will not be using a "cookie cutter" approach.

While still a teenager, Perun began a career in radio programming. He's held positions at WLS-Chicago, KBEQ-Kansas City, Y100 (WHYI)-Miami, B-104 (WBSB)-Baltimore and WZOU-Boston. At one time, he was National PD for Metroplex. For the past year he's been National Director of Video/Promotion Operations at Arista Records.

"This has been our dream for the past two years," said Zapoleon, "and in these troubled Top Forty times, I think our services are needed more than ever."

"Guy and I have talked for a long time about doing this, and we feel the timing's right," Perun said. "There are no easy answers right now. We'll be working together in every situation to find a solution and do our part to help our stations win."

Jimmy Steals the Show

As we went to press we learned that Jimmy Steal has been named program director of Q-102 (WKRQ)-Cincinnati.

"We're extremely excited about bringing Jimmy on board at Q102," said station VP/GM Jim Bryant. "He brings great energy, major market experience and tremendous vision to our broadcast facility. We're elated to have a quality buy like Jimmy joining the Great American family.

Steal, most recently at KEGL-Dallas, also did a stint at Pirate Radio in Los Angeles. He was in transit, so unavailable for comment. He was due to arrive at Q-102 Wednesday afternoon (Sept. 30).

MAMMOTH (AD)VENTURE FOR ATLANTIC

Atlantic Records this week entered into a long-time worldwide joint venture with North Carolina-based label Mammoth Records. The unique deal allows the four-year-old Mammoth, which is headed up by Jay Faires, to keep its current staff, and to continue to sign, promote and develop artists. It will continue to market its product independently as well as through Atlantic and the WEA system.

Among Mammoth's artists is the Blake Babies, of which solo artist Juliana Hatfield was a member. The label's first Mammoth/Atlantic product will be from Hatfield and the Machines of Loving Grace.

"I am extremely excited about our new arrangement with Mammoth, one of the most innovative and dynamic young labels in the industry," said Atlantic Co-Chairman/Co-CEO Doug Morris. "This new association offers an artist the best of both worlds: the benefit of Mammoth's proven ability to work artists at the ground level, combined with the long-term potential offered by a major."

"Mammoth's music sensibility and street-level savvy make the label a tremendous asset to Atlantic," said label Senior Vice President Danny Goldberg, who was instrumental in forging the deal. "It is a mutually beneficial situation—Atlantic can tap into a great source of new music, while Mammoth can offer their artists the clout of a major label with powerful distribution."

Riggins Upped To VP/GM, Black Music at Capitol

Jean Riggins was tapped to become Vice President and General Manager, Black Music at Capitol Records this week. Riggins, who has worked at the label for nine years, was most recently Vice President of Artist Development. In that position, she helped along the careers of Hammer, BeBe & CeCe

Winans, Freddie Jackson and Johnny Clegg & Savuka.

When she first joined the company, Riggins was Marketing Coordinator for CEMA Distribution. She also held the posts of Manager Of Telemarketing, CEMA, Director of Artist & Product Development, Capitol and Senior Director of Artist Development.

"Jean brings an overall expertise and 'vision' to this position, having worked in diverse areas within the music industry, ranging from distribution to artist development," said label president and chief executive officer Hale Milgrim. "This makes Jean a unique executive who is able to see the 'big' picture—she has the ability to creatively guide the careers of developing artists from the ground up as well superstar artists moving to higher levels of success."

BMG chief Michael Dornemann (4th left) was recently given the "Spirit of Life" Award from the Music Entertainment Industry Chapter of the City of Hope as a tribute to BMG's raising $2.5 million for the organization. The celebration was truly a multi-format affair. Here Dornemann is surrounded by celebrities (l-r) B.B. King; Lisa Hartman Black; Clint Black; Lisa Stansfield; Al Green; Rick Astley; David Hasselhoff.

Carson Appointed Columbia Black Music Marketing Veep

At Columbia Records this week Ruth Carson was named Vice President, Black Music Marketing. She comes to the label from DePasse Entertainment where she was Vice President in charge of acquisition and management of music and theatrical talent.

"It is very exciting to have Ruth joining Columbia at this time," said

Fred Ehrlich, Vice President, General Manager for Columbia. "She is a hardworking professional whose knowledge of music and previous experiences in product management, artist management and other related fields have established her as a leader in the industry."

QUAYLE RAILS RAP

As the presidential race heats up, Vice President Dan Quayle is once again fixing his sights on controversial Rap songs. In a recent Houston campaign speech, Quayle denounced the 2Pac track "Soulja's Story," deeming it "irresponsible" and he suggested that Interscope Records withdraw the 2Pacalypse Now record.

The track is the focus of a civil lawsuit filed by the family of slain Texas state trooper Bill Davidson, which alleges that the inflammatory lyrics were responsible for his shooting death. "Soulja's Story" makes specific references to the Rodney King case. Interscope is a subsidiary of Time Warner, which is still feeling the sting from attacks directed at Ice-T's "Cop Killer." When queried about Quayle's demand to withdraw the record, a spokesperson at Interscope stated that "We don't conduct our business based upon what politicians say."

The latest development in the "Cop Killer" controversy involves Chrysler Corporation's termination of its multimillion-dollar "Rediscover America" advertising deal with Time Warner publications. Chrysler cited the Ice-T/Body Count song as one of the reasons for its decision. Time Warner has commissioned an hour-long panel symposium called "Popular Culture: Rage, Rights And Responsibility," to address issues arising from the "Cop Killer" controversy. The program

INSIDE TOP 40

by Dave Sholin

Duopolys, LMAs, consolidations. These facts of life on both sides of the business point to the job market not being what it once was. The numbers of strong, qualified candidates for those all-too-rare openings continues to grow. Getting through this difficult period will require both potential employers and employees to be sensitive to each others' needs.

Time is a precious commodity for those working, but the people out there looking can't afford to waste it chasing jobs that have already been filled or eliminated.

Ron Brooks, former APD/MD and midday air talent at Z104 (WZEE) Madison, WI, is one of the lucky ones who's searching out new opportunities while still employed. Now on-air at Z104's Country-formatted AM sister, WTSO, he's one of those frustrated by what is perceived as a lack of consideration on the part of many GMs.

During his seven months of following leads about every Top 40, Hot A/C or Country opening, Ron claims he's "lucky if I connect with a GM one out of ten times, or luckier yet if I get a return call about one out of twenty-five times."

After going through a 100-count box of cassettes, he's received a total of three letters responding to his applications. It's not as though he doesn't understand that time is critical to owners and GMs. He merely wonders why an assistant, secretary or receptionist can't inform people that the job has been filled or that he's no longer in the running. One unpleasant fact, notes Brooks, is "that the way business is going with duopolys and LMAs a lot of these people may find themselves out of work and what goes around comes around."

Ken Richards, former PD at HOT 97 (KHQT)

San Jose echoes many of the same feelings, summing it up in one word "amazing. I can't imagine a GM being afraid to say 'No.' They just don't think a lot about getting back to you. I understand their concerns, but it comes down to, 'Hey, I'm working. I don't have time for you guys out of work.' You begin to feel like a second class citizen when someone doesn't even take time to say 'No.'"

Ken doesn't take offense at that, realizing "They probably do the same thing to someone working as well as those unemployed. But when you're out of work and desperately looking, you latch on to almost anything if there's a shred of hope. You sure don't want to waste all this time and effort on a gig that's already been filled or that you're not really being considered for."

He commends consultant Jeff Johnson of Alan Burns and Associates, who called him the other day saying that even though he's got countless packages for the KQKQ Omaha PD post, he owed it to everybody to get back to them.

Though Ken admits "that's a tremendous amount of work, it boils down to 'a matter of respect.' Whether it's plumbing or broadcasting, out of respect for someone looking to feed their family, give them an answer. If I'm not being considered, I can focus my energy somewhere else."

Richards also heaps praise on KUBE Seattle VP/GM Michael O'Shea, whom he calls one of those "special people." It was Michael who told him that during the recent NAB, estimates of as much as 30% of radio's work force on the street were quoted, "but no matter what the figure is, we owe it to our radio brethren to offer some amount of respect to everyone looking for work and give some solid answers."

As Ken says, "We're such a small community within the industry, that when you hand out just a small amount of respect, it goes a long way in building great relationships later on."

By the way, Ron Brooks offers one tip for getting a GM's attention—the fax machine. "Get the largest font type available and fax a short message overnight expressing your interest so they'll see it first thing in the morning—it says more than just another pink message slip." Ron can be reached at (608) 829-2715 and Ken at (408) 929-4267.

USING COMMERCIAL RECORDS FOR PRODUCTION

In my August 14 column I warned against the "common practice of using pieces of music in station commercial production." A station's ASCAP and BMI licenses do not clear a station to use portions of a licensed recording for production purposes. I received a letter from Elizabeth Lenhart of Bobby Ocean, Inc. of San Rafael, California. Elizabeth used to be a music director in Los Angeles, and she noted that the topic "touches on some very sensitive issues that have been written about most fervently in recent issues of the specialized industry trade magazine Radio and Production."

"I'd like to tell you about one such instance with which I am personally familiar, that involved a popular tune by a high profile '70s folk-rock artist as a production element to back a station-produced commercial for a local sponsor..."

"On behalf of my PD, I received a call from the manager of this famous singer—who was listening to our station at that moment—saying that if that spot as it was produced, featuring his client's music wasn't yanked off the air pronto, the station and the talent who produced the spot were to be sued for copyright infringement, unauthorized use of the recording, royalties, and implied endorsement of the sponsor's product. Needless to say, the PD removed the offending spot the second I gave him the message.

"Across town, in a similar situation, the Production Director of another popular radio station was given 'cease and desist' by the Disney people for having produced and voiced a promo for a co-op venture between the station and Disney, which featured 'When You Wish Upon A Star' by Jiminy Cricket (a/k/a Cliff Edwards). Although it would seem innocuous to anyone that a Disney promo would entail the rights to use a classic Disney theme song, apparently Disney's legal department thought otherwise. The reason: The estate of Cliff Edwards (which owned the copyright) was entitled to royalties every time the song was used for commercial purposes, and this particular promo would have cost Disney a bundle.

"Another instance involving on-air use of licensed music was the time in the late '70s when Bobby Ocean voiced and produced a KHJ promo using an original KHJ Boss Radio jingle from 1965 in order to create a flashback sequence about the station's heritage. Bad move. Johnny Mann, the creator and owner of those classic jingles with the Johnny Mann Singers, was listening to KHJ at the time the promo aired, called KHJ and told them that KHJ/RKO now owed him $5,000 in royalties.

"In closing, I'd like to pass on some published information from a recent article on the subject (from Radio and Production, February, 1992, by John Pellegrini, Production Director of WKLQ/FM in Grand Rapids, MI, 'Where The Hell Did You Get That Music? Part II'):

"BMI and ASCAP only cover...performance of music, but this does not include use in commercials or other programming that would constitute endorsement, and basic fines can start at $20,000."

I thank Elizabeth Lenhart and Bobby Ocean for sharing this information. Their comments may not prevent you from "borrowing" something off a record for production, and if you don't work in a city like Los Angeles or New York perhaps nobody will find out or take action against you, but you should certainly be aware of the risk you're taking if you do. It surprises me that the syndicators of radio production libraries haven't been making this point in their advertising all these years because it constitutes the most powerful argument for buying one!

An interesting related question is whether modern digital technology, which allows sampling, changing of pitch, tempo, etc. sufficiently disguises music borrowed from commercial sources to minimize the risk? I raise this point because in the 1980s some recording artists began using "samples" of other people's records (sometimes just a distinctive rhythm track) to make their own, which is about as public a use of appropriated recordings as there can be, and only recently have the courts started enforcing the payment of royalties for such blatant use for profit of someone else's creativity.

What would be the legal risk of lifting a figure from a record intro or the bridge in a song, looping it, then changing its pitch, and perhaps overdubbing some original melody with a station synthesizer? There is certainly some risk, but to the extent that the original figure might not be readily recognizable, presumably it would be reduced. Computers have given us complicated new ethical problems in using a creative work in a creative new way. Then, too, if the music figure used is brief enough, there is that apparent legal usage waiver provided by the "Dickie Goodman" ruling referred to in my August 14 column. This is not a clear or settled issue.

Well, whatever you decide to do, you are now clearly on notice as to the legal risk involved. ●

HEAR & THERE

by Sheila Rene

The Janis Joplin revival has begun with the release of the new book Love, Janis written by Laura Joplin, the singer's younger sister. Laura was on a promotional tour just days before the Villard Books biography was to be released, and I was lucky enough to meet with her in the Gavin offices. In all my years of hanging out on the concert scene, I was never lucky enough to meet Janis, but I always felt I knew her since we both came from Texas. Laura remembers how it started: "I first wrote a piece about the memorial ceremony which ended up being the last chapter in the book. That was in 1988. It became an emotional push and pull for me. It took a lot of time. I wanted to do all the research myself. I found Sarah Lazen as an agent—Sarah had a lot of first-hand experience working at Rolling Stone and she found Doug Stone at Villard. My experience with Villard was idealistic. Doug wanted to do the book I wanted to do and he gave me a lot of great advice that helped me shape the manuscript." This result will certainly give old and new fans a different look into Janis as the artist, the singer and the intellectual. Now that the book is finished, Laura continues to work on a play about

Janis' life and at the same time is putting together the tunes that will be a Columbia Records boxed-set scheduled for an April 1, 1993 release. "They're talking about the CD being a profile of an artist, so you'll get to see the development of her career from the days in Austin, her early Blues days up to the coffee house days and into rock and roll. It could be fun. Elliot Mazer (Producer) is working with us on this." In the end, Laura remembers "having to deal with Janis' career ever since her death changed our family dynamics certainly—for our brother Michael and myself. We've spent a lot more time together than we would have otherwise because we have to make joint decisions. I got into this thinking that the only way to do it was to have fun and it's just amazing to me to hear the stories and listen to the questions I'm asked on my talking tour. So it's been more than fun—it's been personally rewarding because I get so much from the people..."

Twenty-five years after the now-famous

Monterey International Pop Festival, Rhino Records is preparing to release a four-CD cassette boxed set. Due on October 9, the full-size 12" x 12" box features 70 tracks and comes complete with a booklet featuring extensive liner notes, quotes from performers and producers and dozens of previously unpublished photos. Like the original festival, the boxed set boasts a phenomenal lineup of artists and groups, many of whom were at their creative peaks and/or on the cusp of international stardom in June of '67. Those featured will be: The Association, Lou Rawls, Eric Burdon & The Animals, Canned Heat, Big Brother & The Holding Company with Janis Joplin, Country Joe & The Fish, The Butterfield Blues Band, The Steve Miller Band, The Electric Flag with Mike Bloomfield, Hugh Masekela & Big Black, The Byrds, Ravi Shankar, Jefferson Airplane, Booker T. & The MG's, The Mar-Keys, Otis Redding, The Who, The Jimi Hendrix Experience, The Blues Project, Scott McKenzie and The Mamas & The Papas. Also included are some unreleased tracks by The Who, Janis Joplin, The Byrds. Even if you were lucky enough to be there, you need this

NEW HIP HOP RELEASES by Brian A. Samson

DA LENCH MOB - Guerillas In Tha Mist (Album) (Street Knowledge/Atco EastWest America) The latest act to step up to the plate out of Compton comes straight from the Ice Cube camp. Da Lench Mob consists of three U.S.C. graduates. I'm not talking about the University of Southern California but rather the University of South Central and the education one receives there is unlike anywhere else. Born and raised in South Central Los Angeles, lead rapper J-Dee, Shorty and T-Bone learned most of their lessons from the toughest instructor of all, reality. Perhaps this album can be considered a comprehensive review of their past experiences, a report on the present state of our country and a cry for change in the future. Guided by executive producer Ice Cube, the production formula and sound is nothing new but why mess with success. Cuts to check out are "Ain't Got No Class," "Freedom Got An A.K.," "Who Ya Gonna Shoot Wit That" and "Lord Have Mercy." Also check out the "Predator" flavored video to "Guerillas In Tha Mist" on your favorite music video show. Contact Eric Skinner at (212) 275-2291. K-WOO MAD COBRA - Hard To Wet, Easy To Dry (Columbia) Cobra makes his Columbia debut with "Hard To Wet..." When he was a school boy, the Jamaica-born Ewart Everton Brown was nicknamed after a G.I. Joe character. Soon after Cobra started deejaying, he was on the road with traveling sound systems, opening up for acts like Klymax, Inner City, and Mighty Ruler. "Hard To Wet..." is all phat with a whole lot of butter. Peep the first single, "Flex," currently creating a loud buzz with it's smooth riddims, straight-to-the-point lyrics and catchy chorus. A cut not to be missed is "Dead End Street," a gangsta-Rap/Reggae project featuring the Geto Boys. "Legacy," is a smooth duet with Richie Stevens, "A Minute To Pray" presents a street tale about bad events in the community of colored people; "Wet Dream" taps into Cobra's deep sexual fantasies. Cobra kicks raw skills, backed with traditional Dancehall beats courtesy of dub veterans Sly & Robbie and Steely & Cleevie. Contact Tyesh Harris at (212) 445-7471 or Demette Guidry at (310) 449-2100. Ivan R.

THE LAST POETS - This Is Madness/The Last Poets (Restless) Restless Records reaches back to Hip-Hop roots an release classic narrative Black Poetry from the Last Poets. Famed as the pilots of Black Power Movement of the late 60s, The Last Poets, aka Abiodun Oyewole, Alafia Pudim, Omar Ben Hassen, and Nilaja, were one of the first to promote African-American socio-political messages within the Urban music arena. Before Gil Scott Heron's mainstream influence, The Last Poets gradually worked their way from the streets of New York and found commercial acceptance as the narration of "Wake Up, Niggers" landed on Mick Jagger's 1969 "Performance" soundtrack. The Last Poets debut on Douglas Records made them a collectors item to present. Tracks to wake up with: "Niggers Are Scared Of Revolution," "Black Thighs," "When The Revolution Comes," "Jones Comin' Down," and "Wake Up, Niggers." On "This Is Madness" check out: "Black Is," "Mean Machine," "This Is Madness," and "Black People What Y'all Gon' Do." Contact Keith Moran at (213) 957-4357 x233. BAS

INSIDE URBAN

FLYING SOLO SOON

MARY J. BLIGE's "Real Love" continues to hold on to number one. TONI BRAXTON's "Love Shoulda Brought You Home" has the story of the week: WBLS-New York has already moved it into heavy rotation and six stations have added it to medium: WDKX, WILD, WJDY, WXYV, WFKX, and WGCI. Not only that, it's our Most Added, picking up 28 adds. SHABBA RANKS featuring JOHNNY GILL's "Slow And Sexy" ran neck-and-neck with Braxton and ended the race with a great first week and 25 adds! Thomas Bacote, V103-Atlanta, makes Shabba/Johnny his RTW saying, "It's going to push Reggae further into the mainstream." Rocky Love, K98-Monroe, agrees, saying, "Put your ears to this one and you'll agree it's headed up!" Kimberly Kaye, WFKX-Jackson, likes our Top Tip, SWV's "Right Here" saying, "Great uptempo song from the three sisters from New York." Also added at WHUR, KGRM, WFKX, WPEG, WQQK, WGCI, WRNB; it's in medium rotation at KKBT, WKKV, WJFX, WFXA, KMJJ, K98, WXYV, WDKX and OC104. Casey McMichaels, WVOI-Toledo, makes YOYO's "Black Pearl" his RTW saying, "The lyric content has a message for everyone. This one is conducive for all formats to give it airplay." Speaking of messages, our Record To Watch, CHUBB ROCK's

"Lost In The Storm" has just that—a message, coupled with nice background harmonies to mellow out the rap somewhat. Angela Jenkins, KBMS-Portland, makes PORTRAIT's "Here We Go Again" her RTW saying, "It's hot, hot, hot!" Stan Boston, WNHC-New Haven, makes MAXI PRIEST's "Groovin' In The Midnight" his RTW saying, "This could be another multi-format hit for the talented, up-and-coming Maxi Priest." Caryn Lee, WZND-Normal, makes CECE PENISTON's "Inside That I Cried" her RTW saying, "I think some people were surprised that she could sing something slow—and she sings it very, very well. It's going to do extremely well." Ciao for now, Betty.

TONI BRAXTON - Love Shoulda Brought You Home (LaFace/Arista)

Toni's featured vocals on Babyface's single, "Give U My Heart," gave us a glimpse of this up and coming star. This week she debuts as a solo act, and as one of our Most Added artists. The LaFace family chose the perfect match (song with artist) to catapult the sweet vocal career of Ms. Braxton. Chalk up another hit from the "Boomerang" soundtrack.

MAXI PRIEST - Groovin' In The Midnight (Virgin)

Since Maxi's "Close To You" (Summer '90), I've been drawn to his smooth approach to reggae. I'm sure his appeal became even more apparent on his duets with Roberta Flack and Shabba Ranks, both of which became multi-format winners. Maxi Priest's lead single from his "Fe Real" album continues on his smooth and seductive track, with mid-tempo grooves that won't wait 'til midnight.

AFTER 7 - Baby I'm For Real (Virgin)

Kevon, Melvin and Keith revive the words of Marvin Gaye and Ann Gordy Gaye in this emotional ballad that cleverly segues into a chorus of Bloodstone's "Natural High." Kirk Whalum helps set the mood with his sax playing. This track is hot! Watch the phone response After 7 plays.

BEBE & CECE WINANS - The Blood (Capitol)

Guest vocalist Hammer seeks strength and direction from the Winans siblings. Producer Rhett Lawrence gives BeBe and CeCe the funkier inspirational track from their "Different Lifestyles" album. The Winans' key is trust and faith—"no matter what the problem is/you know that God is love/and when it's time to put your trust/I'll trust in the Blood."

CHRISTOPHER WILLIAMS - All I See (Uptown/MCA)

We haven't heard from Chris since "I'm Dreamin'" was released from the New Jack City soundtrack. "All I See" is Christopher Williams' debut release on Uptown records with his upcoming album, Changes, due out in mid October. Labelmate DeVante Swing directs Williams' first effort by injecting the slow, strong and sensual sounds that make Jodeci what they are.

THE JACKSON 5 - Who's Lovin' You (Motown)

The vault at Motown must be HUGE! Smokey penned this track that The Supremes originally recorded in '63 and En Vogue teased on the intro to their debut "Hold On." Now the Motown vault yields this unreleased live version by the Jackson 5. "Whos' Loving You" sets the tone for an upcoming miniseries, "The Jacksons: An American Dream," set to air on ABC Television Network on November 15 and 18. It's fun to hear Michael's pre-teen vocals, recorded during a 1971 live performance in Gary, Indiana. Music video and soundtrack are close behind.

JAZZ REVIEWS

EVERY ONE OF US - RAY ANDERSON (GRAMAVISION)

Wishbone, Ray Anderson's opus from last year, had the distinction of being the Zimmermen's number one of '91. Every One Of Us, minus its soca shuffles and three-part suites, is a shade more conventional, but Ray's vibrant image as a wacky, waist-coated Jazz urchin comes bubbling through the serious prayers and messages on the CD artwork. So what's new? Bassist Mark Helias switches over to co-producer, Charlie Haden supplies a more standard rhythm feel to the new band and famous jazz photographer William Claxton snaps Ray's portrait—which, oddly, isn't the front cover art, but is on the inside sleeve. The cool tunes stretch out past eight minutes and at times, as on "Kinda Garnerish," Ray sacrifices a slice of Wishbone's zaniness for a more pensive, studied stance. The vocal centerpiece is a chillingly apropos version of "Brother Can You Spare A Dime?" Anderson still pushes his horn to its wildest parameters, something very few musicians bother to do nowadays. It's as if Ray risks tearing his lip off with each solo attempt, or blow his voice out with his vocal razzmatazz. We've always said that Anderson's brilliant Jazz personality is tops. His playing and composing is astounding. Don't laugh, but we think Ray could emerge as a witty screen personality in the Tom Waits tradition. He's hilarious onstage, his music is five stars and he belongs on TV and in movies. Could somebody please get this guy on Leno or Letterman? He'd tear it up!

FROM THE ASYLUM - WINDOWS (BLUE ORCHID/DA)

When Skipper Wise and Windows call, Adult Alternative listens. "Valentines Day" will suffice nicely until the upcoming Kenny G ballad comes around. "Smoky Lane" provides the precise duet of acoustic single-note leads and flute that many major market AA stations favor for afternoon drive. "U.B.U" is a loping combo of soft reggae backbeats, subtle doo wop vocals on the chorus and a barrage of soprano sax notes trailing off in the distance. On "Ondrea's Dance" Dave Camp's soprano sax takes center stage with some pleasant accompaniment from guest keyboardist Mark LeVang. With its elevating double sixteen-bar bridge of swelling electric guitar and tenor sax leads, "Village" begins as a pastoral nylon string guitar/flute/soprano recital and climaxes as the set's emotional tour de force. Incidentally, it clocks in a little under its posted 4:08. The closing "Asylum" is an upbeat rockish jam that will remind listeners of early Santana with some buzzing tenor sax thrown in. Windows provides a large assortment of feels and grooves. No wonder it's a paneless addition to so many AA playlists.

PARTY - VARIOUS ARTISTS (AMERICAN GRAMAPHONE)

The latest salvo from Chip Davis' Day Parts series is Party. Harking back to his days as a jingle writer, Davis seems keen to backdrop easy, rolling grooves over the soundtrack of everyday life. Party, according to Chip, is barbecue, get-together music by various artists on American Gramophone's roster. Folks like Checkfield, Jeff Jenkins, Ron Cooley, John Archer and Chip himself fill out the scorecard. Party is Chip's most viable Day Part project for AA. The production is beautifully rounded and ultra-suave. Synthesist Jenkins enters with some fine soloing on "Township," dancing cleverly against the 4/4 tempo. Television theme composer/arranger Mike Post makes a rare appearance on the bouncy, sentimental anthem to outdoor basting called "Scotty's Barbeque." John Archer's "Party Girl" is a slapping, dapper groove jam. Our vote for best charbroiled track goes to Checkfield's happy-go-lucky "Caribbean Cooler." It has that bumping, soft funk, electro-percussive ambience that best defines AA radio these days. Party on and pass the veggies.

INTIMACY - WALTER BEASLEY (MERCURY)

Look out Najee! Here comes the velveteen strains of Intimacy—the best Urban flavored music available now for Adult Alternative. On Intimacy, the debate continues as to whether Walter Beasley is better as a vocalist or as a sax player. "If You Ever Loved Someone And Lost" is as heartfelt and smooth as anything Luther Vandross has come up with. For instrumental punch check out the gentle Latin undercurrents of "In The Morning (En La Manana)." Although the rhythms and tempo are feel-good and breezy, the sax work is remarkably clean and satisfyingly complex. It's becoming our favorite track. "Lil Touch Of Jazz" might be a bit too pop for AA ears, but it features Beasley's tandem singing and playing talents. Plus his lyrics aptly describe AA's average female listener. Perhaps Beasley will provide listeners with some gentle persuasion. Intimacy is packed with fine, programmable AA music, and Beasley never gets frothy or smarmy. His sax technique is too rooted to become excessive or cliché.

INSIDE A/C by Diane Rufer and Ron Fell

Congratulations to Swing Out Sister on their new number one! AM I THE SAME GIRL leads the format in total stations with 220 and holds a strong 94% Hit Factor. New players this week are WZRT, WILI, KOEL and KPAY.

Michael W. Smith's five-point jump from #10 to #5 this week upsets a competitive chart. Hit Factor increased from 72% to 88% this week while another dozen stations come onboard including CKFM, WRBA, WBDX, WQID, and KMXX.

Curt Stigers' NEVER SAW A MIRACLE is the format's only debut in the top ten, nearly doubling its HEAVY rotations from 38 last week to 71 this week. New for WLLH, WMJQ, KBIG, KWAV, K9FM and KMAS.

Momentarily unknowns Charles & Eddie are taking the chart and the format by storm with their debut, WOULD I LIE TO YOU. Moving #22 to #15 this week, it scores an eleven-point increase in Hit Factor (73%-84%) and nine new players including WKGW, WSTU, KELO/FM, KIDX/FM and WSPL.

Up seventeen ranks in two weeks is Glenn Frey's RIVER OF DREAMS. Due primarily to a four-week Hit Factor of 65% and yet another 21 ADDS, it leaps to #21 on the chart. New for KKUZ, WHMI, KLCY, KZOR, KSSK/FM, KLOG and KSXY.

HOTTEST track in the format over the past two issues is Jon Secada's sophomore single, DO YOU BELIEVE IN US. It climbs from CHARTBOUND to #22 in the last ten working days and increases in Hit Factor by 49%.

Scotland's Del Amitri makes a handsome debut (as predicted last week). Twenty-three ADDS this week alone take it near the 100-station mark and among the newest to play are WPXZ, KSDN, WHIZ, WEIM and KWLO.

Gavin's A/C section once again debuts an act on something other than a "major" label as Rita Coolidge and Lee Greenwood's duet, HEART DON'T FAIL ME NOW on Caliber/Critique, debuts at #37 with a respectable 74 stations including WTSX, WMTZ, KIIK, KFOR, KFYZ, KFMO, KOKO, KKLD, KRNO, KBOL, KKOR, KCRE and KGY.

A great first week for Peter Cetera's duet with Chaka Khan, FEELS LIKE HEAVEN. It opens with nearly a third of the format out-

ELTON JOHN - The Last Song (MCA)

Possibly the most moving song of the year. In the spirit of Mike + The Mechanics' THE LIVING YEARS, this powerful statement on the love between father and son in the age of AIDS is a tear jerker.

MICHAEL BOLTON - To Love Somebody (Columbia)

This twenty-five-year-old Bee Gees' hit was written by the Gibbs for Otis Redding, but it has become a standard nonetheless. Michael and producer David Foster give it a full-tilt production while retaining its soulful essence.

GLORIA ESTEFAN - Always Tomorrow (Epic)

Surviving a near-fatal bus accident and an indiscriminate hurricane gives one license to promise a better day. Ms. Estefan's new single, which proceeds a truly Greatest Hits package, is a hopeful and worthy five minutes of class.

BARRY MANILOW - Another Life (Arista)

More relevant and contemporary than anything he's done in years, this song shakes Barry's past from his present just in time to set up a massive retrospective boxed-set, coming out in time for the holidays.

THE NEVILLE BROTHERS - Take Me To Heart (A&M)

The distinctive voice of brother Aaron may lead this easy listening, rhythmically punctual, highly harmonic track to instant-add status at a host of A/C stations this week.

THE BARRIO BOYZZ - Crazy Coolin' (SBK/ERG)

Don't write this off as some sort of New Kids, high calorie throwaway. Think of it more as a Color Me Badd with a monster chorus for a hook.

of-the-box. Its 81 ADDS include B100, KTID, KEYW, KIDX, KBOI, KBLQ, KKLD, WQLR, WFRO, KXLK, WSKY, WTSX, WKYE, WOAI, WEIM and WMT/FM.

Though somewhat a stranger at A/C radio until now, Melissa Etheridge is taking the format by storm with her new single DANCE WITHOUT SLEEPING. It opens with a MOST ADDED ribbon for its first-week total of 50. Among the earliest are WLDR, KESZ, WIVY, WMT/FM, WFRO, WQLR, KKLD, KAAK, KBOL, KTID,, KVYN and KEYW.

BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN

When Bruce Springsteen taped his MTV "Unplugged" show last month in Los Angeles, among the invited audience was Michael Stipe of R.E.M. who, after the show stood in line with radio contest winners to get The Boss' autograph.

PAUL YOUNG

The new Paul Young album, Hope In A Hopeless World, includes the song LOVE HAS NO PRIDE, made famous by Linda Ronstadt in 1974.

PRINCE

The video for Prince's new single, MY NAME IS PRINCE, includes a cameo from Kirstie Alley, who also appears on the new Prince album being released next week.

BOB DYLAN

Tickets for Columbia Records' tribute to Bob Dylan on October 16 at Madison Square Garden in New York City sold out in a record seventy minutes, a measure of time described by Garden officials as "the quickest ever."

MIKI HOWARD

Miki Howard plays the late Blues legend Billie Holiday and sings the Holiday standard GOOD MORNING HEARTACHE in the upcoming Spike Lee film "Malcolm X."

GARTH BROOKS

Proud father Garth Brooks likes to refer to his new daughter Taylor as "Our Miss Brooks" after the fifties television show starring Eve Arden.

BIOFEEDBACK

by Ron Fell

WILSON PHILLIPS

At birth, Carnie Wilson of Wilson Phillips was almost named Rose, but her mother Marilyn liked carnations better than roses so her daughter became Carnie.

LIONEL RICHIE

Members of Lionel Richie's former group The Commodores have been trying to put together a Greatest Hits package and have been told by their old label, Motown, to do it without songs that featured Lionel Richie before his departure from the group. So the current Commodores have re-recorded songs like THREETIMES A LADY without Mr. Richie.

TANYA TUCKER

In the video for Tanya Tucker's TWO SPARROWS IN A HURRICANE, Mae Boren Axton plays an older Tanya. Mae, besides being the mother of Hoyt Axton, is an award-winning songwriter with HEARTBREAK HOTEL among her credits.

ALABAMA

A three-hour TNN tribute to auto racing legend Richard Petty will be hosted by Alabama later this year.

XTC

Being a full-fledged member of the band XTC may not pay the bills. Andy Partridge admits to making more money producing other acts like the Mission U.K. and Lilac Time, and, in between albums, Colin Moulding and Dave Gregory work at a car rental agency.

ROY ORBISON

King Of Hearts, an album of the late Roy Orbison's recordings which had been in the works before his death, will be released later this month. With the aid of producers Robbie Robertson, Don Was, Jeff Lynne and T-Bone Burnett, the tracks have been constructed from demos and unfinished sessions.

TAMMY WYNETTE

Coming later this month is a three-CD boxed set of songs representing Tammy Wynette's career to-date. Included are her most famous duets with George Jones, plus two unreleased tracks.

GEORGE STRAIT

The band backing George Strait in his "Pure Country" film debut will include John Doe of the seminal modern rock band X.

RACHELLE FERRELL

After attending the Berklee School of Music with the likes of Branford Marsalis, Rachelle Ferrell went on to teach music for the New Jersey State Council on the Arts with legends like Dizzy Gillespie.

RATINGS AND RESEARCH

NEW FCC RULES REVEALED AT NAB

by Rhody Bosley

The long-awaited response from the FCC to industry petitions on the new radio ownership rules was the big topic at the NAB Radio Convention in New Orleans. Several panels dealt with the implications of the new rules and their impact on the way radio stations are operated.

Under the revised rules, a broadcaster may now own 18 AM and 18 FM stations, and in two years this will be expanded to 20 AM and 20 FM. Should the owner provide certain assistance to minority groups, the number can be increased to 23 AM and 23 FM.

Controversy still revolves around the Commission's decision to maintain the 25% audience share as a cap on ownership in a given market. The purpose of the share cap was that the Commission wanted to ensure that there was not an "undue concentration" of ownership. They selected the 12+ Monday-Sunday 6AM shares as the standard by which a prima facie case of concentration may be determined.

A number of parties had asked the Commission to delete any limit on ownership based on audience share. There were two general areas of concern. First, that the limits were not necessary and barring that the measure of audience was inappropriate. Second, there were practical concerns dealing with the cost of data and its accuracy.

The Commission retorted that their goals were to "promote robust competition" and to provide "a means of strengthening the radio industry's ability to serve the public interest." Further, the FCC felt that while the ratings data may not be exact, they are a "probative and accessible measure of market power relevant to the Commission's regulatory concerns." Bottom line: The 25% share figure is a regulatory reality for the foreseeable future.

Does the figure have to be Arbitron? No, but in any case the audience share figure must be explained in the filing.

Can more than one survey's worth of data be used? Yes, but again it must be explained why more than one survey is being used.

Can County Coverage data be used in lieu of a market report? Yes, when the circumstances of market definition are set forth in such a manner that the County Coverage would be appropriate. The Commission, in its Report and Order, spent considerable space demonstrating how County Coverage was to be weighted to arrive at a coverage area share.

Jay Guyther, Arbitron's Vice President for Radio Sales and Marketing says that Arbitron "will license attorneys for the data required to file FCC applications. This will be a limited license for the local market report, AID run, or County Coverage data—whichever is most appropriate." Some law firms have expressed interest in getting Arbitron's "Library Package," which consists of the books from all markets. The limited license is reportedly a very nominal $125 for the 12+ estimates. Much of the 12+ share information is in the public domain and can be used without paying a fee.

The original Report and Order called for audience shares to be calculated among rated (meaning those stations that qualified for the report) commercial station shares. The FCC agreed that this extra calculation made the rules unnecessarily complicated. In order to calculate the shares the original way, the stations reported above the line would have to have their shares added up and then calculate their share of the new number. Now, the reported Arbitron 12+ share is sufficient. This means that stations with audience levels too low to qualify for the report and non-commercial stations are included in the denominator. Lower shares are good news for the first time ever! This way more stations will be eligible for marriage.

Another major change implemented with the revised Report and Order is the ability to submit data other than Arbitron. Audience surveys commissioned by the broadcaster will be accepted from recognized, independent research organizations provided a description of the methodology and an estimate of the reliability are included with the filing. There are some alternate ways the Commission presented to demonstrate that undue concentration is not occurring:

- a special survey with a larger sample size to reduce anomalies
- survey averaging
- extraction by Zip code to eliminate unusual geographic features
- share of advertising revenues
- market value of stations relative to other stations in the market
- the FCC recognizes that certain types of stations, for example, low power daytime stations rarely have large audiences in large markets. A mere count may be sufficient to demonstrate that no public interest concern is associated with the proposed acquisition.

One very important piece of good news for programmers is buried in a section called "simulcasting." This is a job preserver in the program department. "Simulcasting remains unlimited for stations in different services. For stations in the same service whose principal community contours overlap such that the overlap area constitutes more than 50% of either station's principal community contour area, simulcasting may not exceed 25% of either station's daily broadcast time. These rules apply to both stations commonly owned and to those separately owned but time brokered."

New rules. Now, three stations can be owned in the same market with no more than two on the same band. Once again, radio is in a new world, with new realities and with new opportunities and challenges.

Billy Dean

BILLY THE KID
CONQUERS COUNTRY RADIO

By Lisa Smith

When William Harold Dean Jr. left his hometown of Quincy, Florida to try his hand at a career in music, he had talent, optimism and ambition. He was also young, naive and vulnerable—things not at all uncommon among young hopefuls arriving in Music City. Early on, Billy paid the consequences for his naivete by getting tied in to a bad business deal that limited his ability to play his music.

A decade later, Billy Dean has learned from his mistakes and is well on his way to the success he dreamed of. The last couple of years have been especially encouraging. In late 1990, he released his first album, "Young Man," and early in 1991 got a lot of industry attention after exceptional performances at both The Gavin Seminar and the New Faces Show at the Country Radio Seminar. He had his first number one record with "Somewhere In My Broken Heart," a song he co-wrote with Richard Leigh, and later that year released his second album, "Billy Dean," which has produced several hits, including his second number one record, "Billy The Kid."

1992 has also proven to be a banner year for awards—Billy won two Academy of Country Music Awards: Best New Male Vocalist and Best Song of the Year for "Somewhere In My Broken Heart" and a Country Music Association Award Nomination for the prestigious Horizon Award. He's also touring more than ever and building a growing legion of fans—especially among adoring females.

When we talked to Billy, he was in the midst of work on his upcoming third album—tentatively titled "The New Frontier"—and getting ready for this week's CMA Award Show.

LISA SMITH: I hear you're working on your next album. What's going to be different about it?

BILLY DEAN: Everybody is sky-high on this thing. I've never seen (Jimmy) Bowen this excited before. It's a lot more focused than my other albums. It's got the same charm as the "Young Man" album and the material is really strong. But for the first time, Bowen came in and said, "Be who you are. Don't worry about being commercial or any of that stuff. You just do your music and we'll worry about where it fits." This is the first album I've done where I'm showing people a side of me that I wasn't sure Country music would accept.

LS: Are you worried about that?
BD: No. I don't think it's anything Country radio wouldn't play. It's a continuation of "Billy The Kid."

LS: You wrote about your childhood in "Billy The Kid." Was it as happy as you described?

BD: I had a pretty adventurous childhood—I was kind of like Huckleberry Finn. I was pretty rambunctious. I was a really curious kid and it got me in a lot of trouble. I was a really big fan of the television show "The Rifleman," and my dad had a rifle like Chuck Connors'—the one he swirled around during the show's titles. He kept it at our filling station, and when I was about eight years old I found it. I wanted to be just like the Rifleman, so I twirled that thing around and the gun went off and shot a hole through the ceiling! It scared me so bad it was a while before I wanted to see or play with a gun. Another time we had a house out in the country and my dad was having a big poker game one night. Me and a buddy of mine struck a match in a closet we were in looking for the caps for our cap pistol. The closet caught fire. My friend and I were so afraid that we just closed the bedroom door and pretended nothing had happened. Next thing we knew, smoke started filling up the house. The house caught fire and burned down. After that, I thought I was just plagued with trouble.

LS: Where was this?

BD: I grew up in Quincy, Florida, which is near Tallahassee. I did a lot of hunting and fishing and worked on a farm—I had a pretty laid-back childhood. During my teenage years, we had fun terrorizing this small town. When I was twenty I moved up to Nashville.

LS: Did your parents ever forgive you for burning down the house?

BD: Yes. I was close to both my parents. I'm still close to my mom—she lives in Tallahassee now and is very excited about my career. My dad was a singer and a guitar player. We got to spend a lot of time together—more than normal fathers and sons—because he was disabled and had to stay at home most of the time. The only work he did was play in the band on the weekends. He got sick when I was about ten years old and when I was twenty-one he died of a heart attack. It was hard, but it wasn't as tough as I thought it was going to be. I think sometimes death is harder on people who had a little friction between them because it's too late to do anything. One of the reasons I recorded "Only Here For A Little While" was when my own dad passed away everything was cool between us and that made it easier to lose him. And that's what the song says: "You better hold who needs holding, mend what needs mending."

LS: I loved "Daddy's Will."

BD: That was a tribute to him and my whole family. My sisters and I were fortunate to have hard-working parents who believed in their marriage vows, who believed in for better or for worse and who stuck it out. My dad left us with the good values and the really important things in life that make you successful. What's gotten me where I am today is a simple rule—be nice to people.

LS: In "Daddy's Will" you said your dad said he could've left you a lot of money but he decided to be a good dad instead. You're having a lot of success. Do you think you'll be able to handle both when you have kids?

BD: I think I can handle both. If I have a kid and I'm able to hold on to money that'll be the test right there. It's going to be awfully hard not to spoil a kid rotten. I can just see me doing that. I know the reason I've hungered and striven in this business is because I wasn't spoiled. I think if I had everything I wanted while I was growing up, I wouldn't have had the drive to go for the pot of gold. But I've found that money can't buy happiness. I'm also afraid that if I have a kid I might be like Garth—I wouldn't want to do anything but watch it grow up.

LS: You're very optimistic about your career and your life. Have you always been this way?

BD: Not always! I can be pretty mean. This business has a way of making you cold and hard, and I got that way for a while. When I first got here, Nashville was the biggest city I'd ever been in; it was pretty overwhelming. I ended up making a couple of bad moves and getting depressed. I got hard and cold and bitter toward the music industry. When I moved to Nashville after my dad passed away, I changed my name from Harold Dean to Billy Dean. So when I was trying to shake this bad attitude, I started thinking, "What happened to Harold Dean? Where's that naive, innocent kid I used to be? That's how "Billy The Kid" came about—during a period in my life when I was trying to make it in the music industry and trying to grow up at the same time.

LS: What were you so angry about?

BD: I made a couple of bad deals. I signed a contract that tied me up for a long time. The people were shysters. I couldn't write or anything because I was under contract. I felt like a sucker, but I found out that everybody goes through that. In a way it was a steppingstone and in other ways it taught me a valuable lesson. I never made that mistake again.

LS: What surprised you the most about this business?

BD: There's a fine line between the business and creative ends—they have to work together because you can't have one without the other. The lawyers and everyone else here in town wouldn't have jobs if it weren't for the guys who create the songs. The creative person has to understand the business so they don't get bitter. They have to understand that it is a business. I can see both sides now. I thought you just recorded your album, sent it to record stores and they sold it. I didn't realize that there was a whole process involved. Realizing what goes on made me a better artist, a better writer and a better business person.

LS: Is being so involved in your career the reason you changed managers?

BD: Yeah. I had a writing deal, a record deal, a hit record and a booking agency before I ever had a manager. I'm very protective about who represents me. I've always been terrified about putting someone in charge of my reputation. I just don't know of anyone who can represent me better than me. I've opened up my own office. There's a lady there—Jamie Burklow. Jamie was one of the first people I met in Nashville, and she's a dear friend. She deals with people the way that I would. Teri Brown has also been passionately involved in my career since I started because she's followed me and seen the kind of help that I've needed. This year I hired her as my personal manager.

LS: How did it feel to win the ACM award for Song Of The Year with "Somewhere In My Broken Heart?"

BD: That changed my life! When Richard Leigh and I finished that I knew it was special, but I think we were the only ones who knew it. Sometimes songs like that never get what they deserve. "Somewhere In My Broken Heart" got everything I wanted for it. Randy Travis recorded it, it was a number one record for me, it crossed over and then it ended up being the Song of the Year. It really put my faith back in the business.

LS: Do you like your songs crossing over to A/C?

BD: Yes, and it didn't upset anybody. I was concerned about Country radio having some bad feelings about it, but that it wasn't the case. It was neat for me. One night at about three o'clock in the morning I walked out of my hotel room and went over to the local Denny's and they were playing a light rock station. They played Bonnie Raitt, Bruce Hornsby and then, all of a sudden, "Somewhere In My Broken Heart" came on and it made me feel great. To be on both formats felt great.

LS: Do you change your songs to cross-over?

BD: No. We do have to remix things, but once you record an album, you remix a record for radio when it comes out as a single anyway. So if we remix it for Country radio, we might do that a little differently for A/C radio. We'll pull the steel down a little bit and maybe turn up the drums to give it a little more bite. But you don't want to tailor the music. I never say, "Let's don't put fiddle on this song because we'll never get it played on A/C radio." We put a drum machine on "If There Hadn't Been You." You never hear it on the Country version, but when we went in and re-mixed it for A/C, we said, "Let's pull this up."

LS: Your stage presence has really changed. Do you purposely try to play up to your female fans?

BD: I do, because their reaction makes me feel good. It gives me a lot of confidence. But at the same time I'm almost poking fun of it. I don't take it so seriously that it goes to my head. My songs are really the thing I'm serious about—I think that's obvious from what I record. But at the same time it's important to entertain people. I don't want to sit up there and do a whole hour of these emotional songs. I like to perform and I tailor my show to the kind of audience I'm performing to. If they're a little bit older, I'll be a little more serious; I'll show them a different side of me. But if the audience is filled with young, screaming girls I'll adjust to that too. I just like to have fun. I've got to compete with these younger guys. (laughs)

The Gavin Country Crew

AARON TIPPIN - I Was Born With A Broken Heart (RCA)

Man, can this hillbilly sing! Tippin moans his way through a very relatable song. Based on the response this gets in concert, it's a winner.

BILLY RAY CYRUS - Wher'm I Gonna Live? (Mercury)

Cyrus gives us his first all-out Country song, a funny little number with an even funnier history. Cyrus actually wrote the song while his ex-wife was throwing him out. She gets songwriting credit for contributing some lines, including "you're getting way too cocky."

LITTLE TEXAS - What Were You Thinkin' (Warner Bros.)

Three members of the group—Porter Howell, Dwayne O'Brien and Brady Seals—had a hand in writing this song about love gone wrong. Should keep their hot streak going strong.

LIBBY HURLEY - The Beginning Of The End Of The Line (Giant)

Rodeo star Hurley is making a strong showing with her Giant debut. Label head James Stroud produced and played drums on the song, the first from her upcoming album, Roots And Wings.

RONNA REEVES - We Can Hold Our Own (Mercury)

A very appealing song from an equally appealing singer. Ronna definitely holds her own while belting out this mid-tempo number.

THE ELWEL BROTHERS - 9-1-1 (West)

A cute offering from the Pacific Northwest. We've heard the "hey operator" theme before, but this has got a great twist. Just don't try this at home, kids.

PROGRAMMERS PICK

THE CHIEFTAINS with RICKY SKAGGS - Cotton-Eyed Joe (RCA Victor)

What a delight! A pleasure to discover a classic tune given a fresh treatment. Skaggs is in fine form, but the smokin' Irish-tinged fiddle play makes it worthy of mucho spins. We got immediate phone calls and it's packing the dance floors. —Mike Burns-Gilbert, MD, WCOV/FM-Sparta, WI.

He added that "because we have 225 officers working the event I don't think something this inflammatory and suggestive is appropriate." David A. Beran

ALBUM NEW RELEASES

BY KENT ZIMMERMAN

AUTOMATIC FOR THE PEOPLE - R.E.M.
(WARNER BROS.)

R.E.M. bounce back quick, lean and mean. Ironically, by not touring on the last album, they found their greatest success. Does that say something about nineties audiences? Using a decidedly more acoustic approach, R.E.M. put the wood back into their sound, beautifully reinventing themselves in the severe climate of technology. Recorded and mixed at various American whistle-stops (lemme see—New York, Miami, Athens, New Orleans, Atlanta and Seattle), Automatic For The People resembles one of those battered suitcases stickered with a variety of destinations. The music is cozy, almost familiar-sounding, a friendly mountain of melodies and choruses that will reach an expanse of American listeners, demos and lifestyles. The string arrangements penned by ex-Zep John Paul Jones add an extra dimension. Even Michael Stipe is expanding his vocal range, as heard on "Everybody Hurts." As much as "Drive" took some getting used to, I found the remainder of Automatic For The People a breeze. Lots of other gems including "Try Not To Breathe," "The Sidewinder Sleeps Tonite," "Ignoreland" and, my favorite, "Man On The Moon"—a nod to the late comic genius, Andy Kaufman.

US - PETER GABRIEL
(REAL WORLD/GEFFEN)

Throughout his solo music-making days, Peter Gabriel has been a slave to the rhythm. Since collaborating with Daniel Lanois on So and now US, Gabriel has diversified his beats per minute more towards a world-beaten sense of melody. After an extremely productive eight years between vocal albums that included commercial and Amnesty International touring, movies and a bevy of other musical and political side-projects, Gabriel has taken a completely different path. To accommodate Gabriel's hunger for rhythm and tones, percussion is constantly superimposed, creating a nationalistic stew of sonic effects. Example: the opening "Come Talk To Me" mixes Scottish bagpipes, Senegalese percussion and a Russian choir. By combining looped drum grooves with overdubbed "break-beats" you get that unique electronic/acoustic effect most notable on "Digging In The Dirt." However, according to Lanois, it was Tony Levin's late-in-the-game bass overdub that solidified "Digging In The Dirt" into a number one power song. A stepchild to the Passion soundtrack, US toys with a wide range of tempos and instrumental emotions. Rock favorites will undoubtedly include the R&Bish "Steam" coupled with "Kiss The Frog," while our mystical side will feed off more tender moments like "Love To Be Loved" and "Blood Of Eden." "Secret World" serves as the album's dramatic and romantic exit-line, a poignant tale that fittingly epitomizes US's psychological sense of uncertainty and darkness.

OUR TIME IN EDEN -
10,000 MANIACS
(ELEKTRA)

A competent triumph and re-entry. Singer/offbeat poet Natalie Merchant benefits from the steady support of a fine band. It's a real Sandy Denny/Fairport Convention marriage of talent. As Merchant's voice trails off and monotonous its way through yards of lacy verse, her band (particularly guitarist Rob Buck) offers a safety net of consistency. Time has been good to all 10,000 Maniacs. Their music sounds as fresh as their second (third?) album hailing the spirit of Jack Kerouac. Back on the road, Merchant and the Maniacs' autumn-hued melodies can now participate in what has been a year of outstanding American contributions. Trax: "Noah's Dove," "Eden," "These Are Days" and the Sandy Dennyesque "How You've Grown."

LOVE SONGS FOR THE HEARING IMPAIRED -
DAN BAIRD
(DEF AMERICAN/REPRISE)

You'd have to be "hearing impaired" not to tap into the fun of the World According To Dan Baird. His band, sans the rest of his Georgia Satellites save drummer Mauro Magellan, sounds like they're having the time of their lives. Like those early Rod Stewart solo and Faces albums of the seventies, the trips to the corner pub seem to have spilled onto the trax themselves. As a lyricist, Baird is nothing short of a hoot and a holler. Songs like "The One I Am," the rambunctious "Julie + Lucky" and "I Love You Period" are much needed pit stops away from all the political and artistic intensity of late. As Dan himself sings, like "Jack Kerouac, Allen Ginsberg, Sal Mineo and Chuck Bukowski," he's "Seriously Gone." Dig him.

UNTITLED - THE REMBRANDTS (ATCO)

Don't let Untitled—okay, this masterpiece—get lost in the major release shuffle now playing on desks across America. After months and months in the national frying pan, the Rembrandts—Danny Wilde and Phil Solem—have worked their way into radio's hearts and minds using nothing short of hard work, callouses and countless boardroom hootenannies. Now they cash in those bonus miles to concoct numero two. The results do bring a tear. If "Johnny Have You Seen Her?" isn't Beatlesque enough, the following "Maybe Tomorrow" is a page torn from the late Pete Ham's Badfinger songbook. I love the colors that pour out of the disc, the artwork and the songs. They're not unlike an audio version of Yellow Submarine. Not since Artie G. and Paul Simon practiced boyhood parts singing inches from each other's faces have harmonies been tighter. What you hear isn't just notes and intervals, but true brotherhood put to music. Couldn't happen to two nicer guys. Trax: just close your eyes and point. Honest.

AM I NOT YOUR GIRL? -
SINEAD O'CONNOR
(ENSIGN/CHRYSALIS/ERG)

Look up bold and ballsy in the dictionary and there's a mini of this album alongside. I must admit, it's a bit of a shock for Sinead O'Connor to take on Frank Sinatra by not singing the National Anthem in Jersey, then go three rounds with his "Lady Is A Tramp" (unfortunately deleted from the final sequence). Revenge? Maybe so. With a big band and a core of white-shoes-and-belted arrangers, Sinead tackles some pretty difficult standards without losing her scalp. Most bizarre is her cover of "Don't Cry For Me Argentina," a song young Sinead used to slay them with during local Irish talent contests. Contrast the song selection with the most intense liner notes of the year and you get, well, uh, Sinead. Remember that revivals like these have sold truckloads. What's next, a mano a mano tour with Harry Connick, Jr.?

ALTERNATIVE NEW RELEASES

SOUL ASYLUM - GRAVE DANCERS UNION (COLUMBIA)

In the immortal words of Expose, "Seasons change, people change." In the wise words of my mother, "Change is healthy." Grave Dancers Union marks a progression in the work of my favorite band, Soul Asylum. Soul Asylum has weathered a lot of hardship in the past couple of years—Pirner's tinnitus threatened their status as a premier rock and roll outfit, and they've (bitterly?) parted company with a manager and a record label. Consequently, this disc bears a mature air that's new to the band: rather than screaming his lyrics in raw-throated fury, a world-weary Pirner sings more melodically and pensively than ever before; rather than emphasizing careening, full-on frenzied flannel-rock, the band seems more in control, concentrating more intensely on their beautiful melodies and highlighting their trademark two-guitar interplay. For me (but not, I might add, for Linda) it took time to fully appreciate the excellence of Grave Dancers Union, so as you listen again and again, try the singly, "Somebody To Shove," "Runaway Train," "Homesick" (everyone raise his/her lighter and sway in unison), "Get On Out," the tweaky rocker "99%" and "New World." SEANA BARUTH

MUDHONEY - PIECE OF CAKE (WARNER BROS.)

For their Warner Bros. debut, long-time indie favorites Mudhoney seem to have taken their (reportedly hefty) advance into the studio and just had a hell of a good time. There are 17 tracks on Piece Of Cake, but some are inter-song snippets (for your convenience indicated by parentheses—thanks, guys) that add a whimsical touch to this otherwise crunchy effort. With this release, Mudhoney hasn't made any major stylistic changes, they're still playing their distortion-obsured, punk-inspired take on '70s hard rock; in fact, there's nothing on this record that even hints at the poppiness of their last single for Sub Pop, 1991's "Good Enough." College stations will find a lot to their liking on Piece Of Cake, including "Suck You Dry," the rad instrumental "Youth Body Expression Explosion," "I'm Spun," "Living Wreck," "Ritzville," and "Acetone." Commercial might prefer the less edgy/more resonant "Blinding Sun," just one of several tracks here that boasts a smattering of organ. SB

THE BOO RADLEYS - BOO! FOREVER EP (COLUMBIA)

Right from the guitar-strained intro The Boo Radleys make their cacophonous-pop presence felt, and set the pace for one of the best musical romps of the week. "Does It Hurt?" has plenty of noisy, dissonant guitars—the kind you've been hearing all Summer from one English group after another—but what sets The Boo's apart from the pack is that they have a keen pop sensibility that spares most of the trendy, self-indulgent guitar wanking. Thank God! Check them out for yourself when they tour Stateside with Sugar. LINDA RYAN

THE SEXTANTS - EP (IMAGO)

With this seven-song acoustic offering, San Francisco's Sextants show just how versatile a band they are. With the opener, the aptly titled "Morrissey," the band humorously pokes fun at the pofaced one in a spontaneous, stream-of-conscious kind of way. You'll want to check out the band's version of X's "Hungry Wolf," "Every Day," and the country-kissed "I Heard A Train," but for me, the highlight is "Read All About It." Should be of special interest to adult-leaning Album/Alternative stations. LR

DEFINITION OF SOUND - THE LICK (VIRGIN)

I doubt this one's gonna stay in this format for very long—I'd be willing to bet at least three singles are going to explode big-time on the Top 40/Urban level. Most of us were introduced to England's Definition Of Sound through last year's "Wear Your Love Like Heaven"—inspired by (albeit a loose interpretation of) the Donovan song of the same name. This time around, the same "rearrangement" has been given to The Monkees' "She Hangs Out"—resulting in a completely unique song that (aside from the title and first line), bares little resemblance to the original. Most of the pop songs seem to be on side one (the first half for those with CDs) while side two houses the band's issue-oriented rap. "Looking Good" and "Can I Get Over" are going to be major hits outside this format; inside the format—try the ragamuffin-laced "What Are You Under?" LR

INSPIRAL CARPETS - REVENGE OF THE GOLDFISH (CHRYSALIS)

For lack of a better word we'll make one up and describe Revenge's ever-present organ as bejgeiling (who could forget the organ in such J. Geils chestnuts as the tantalizing "Angel Is A Centerfold?"). Fans of Beast Within will be pleased to hear that the Carpets are still rolling out guitar blitzed grooves. "Generations" distorted organ blends well with soulful Tom Hingley singing and shearing guitars while "Savior" is the tale of a reluctant messiah put to the wash of big guitars and rapid fire drums. The jubilant, if eccentric "Smoking Her Clothes" is a jumble of calliope-like organ and cymbals. The best is saved for last as "Irresistible Force" experiments with grating percussion and bullhorn distorted vocals. This record's title should strike fear in the hearts of those twisted folk who take to freezing goldfish in ice cubes and peddling them at parties. DAVID BERAN

DAISY CHAINSAW - ELEVENTEEN (A&M)

The UK's walking, wailing paradox describe their sound as "music for people without friends." Part guitar flooded grunge, part delicate innocence, this band greets contradiction with open arms. Eleventeen includes one of DC's previous hits, "Love Your Money," which explores the frontier of big beat raunch with squelching guitar and enticing Bow Wow Wowish Katie Chainsaw vocals. "Pink Flower" scrapes the stratosphere with hard core percussion and a tweaked guitar that growls and folds into a rabid pool of aggression. The slurred prod of "Hope Your Dreams Come True" features a beautiful waltzing guitar melody before going ballistic and becoming a nightmare of coiled distortion. As convoluted descriptions go, DC sounds like if you left Mary's Danish in the oven too long and Bow Wow Wow gobbled it up for Lydia Lunch. DB

STEEL PULSE - RASTAFARI CENTENNIAL (MCA)

I listened to this three times in a row, laying on the floor with my head practically inside the speakers. Rastafari Centennial was recorded live in Paris at the Elysee Montmartre, and if the sound on the album mirrors the sound in the venue, I have to go to a concert there. Steel Pulse's heady rhythm and steady vocals come through with satisfying clarity, and the song selection is close to perfect. David Hinds' voice and interpretation are extremely strong. This is a definite you-pick, but I like "Roller Skates," "K.K.K." and "Gang Warfare." Don't miss it. BEVERLY MIRE

VARIOUS ARTISTS - INTERNATIONAL POP UNDERGROUND (K P.O. Box 7154, Olympia, WA 98507)

Yeah, I missed it. Last August, while Linda went to the Reading Festival, I held down the Gavin fort as everyone else flocked to Olympia, WA for the first-and-probably-only International Pop Underground Convention. This record, the IPU double album, might not assuage the ache of my regret, but it managed to take a tad of the edge off my bitterness. The four sides of this compilation are packed with live recordings culled from the many "showcases" at the "seminar." As a rule, the sound quality isn't the greatest, and the low-fi production dampens not only the highs and lows of each song, but it also muffles some of the enthusiasm I'm told fired the event. The impressive range here includes garage, surf and love rock as well as grunge, and one cut, from Negativland's Mark Hostler, is a vaguely industrial/dancey/sampled/spoken piece. However, the surf and love rock ensembles—the Spinnanes, Shadowy Men On A Shadowy Planet, Mecca Normal, Courtney Love and Beat Happening—offerings are most successfully captured, since many of the tracks from the less bare-bones bands—the Melvins, L7, Scrawl, Some Velvet Sidewalk and Fugazi—suffer from bad mixing, with vocals either way out front or buried inaudibly. Favorites include the Spinnanes' fabulously funny "Jad Fair Drives Women Wild," Mecca Normal's "Strong White Male," the Pastels' "Speedway Star," Seaweed's "Bill" and the Beat Happening classic "Nancy Sin." Hopefully, if you missed the IPU (as I did), and your copy of the International Pop Underground compilation comes with a Convention Program Guide (as mine did), you'll eat your heart out (like I did.) Then I won't feel so alone.

THE ETHIOPAINS - SLAVE CALL/
LARRY MARSHALL - I ADMIRE YOU/
NINEY THE PRODUCER - HARD
WORKS (Heartbeat Records, One Camp
Street, Cambridge, MA 02140 (617) 354-
0700)

It's not easy to sing the praises of three CDs-worth of music in one paragraph, but I'll give it a try. Two of these sets, The Ethiopians'

Slave Call and Larry Marshall's I Admire You are vintage (circa 1977) collections that, to our knowledge, up to now weren't available in the States. Beginning with the spiritual-like "Ethiopian National Anthem" and ending with "I Love Jah," Slave Call, which has the distinction of being the first concept album to come out of Jamaica, conjures up a pounding, hypnotic cauldron of rasta/Obeah and, yes, even (gasp) Catholic stew. I Admire You is a collection of hit '45s by a guy who can wring emotion out of a cardboard-dry washcloth. Hard Works is a sixty minute showcase of fresh reggae, dub and dancehall tracks from some of today's best-known Jamaican stars—some you've heard of, some you may not have. On Slave Call try "Guilty Conscience," "Nuh Follow Babylon" and a surprising version of Lennon & McCartney's "Let It Be." Suggested tracks on I Admire You are "She Is My Woman," "Shirley" and "You Lied." You pick your favorites on Hard Works, but I like Shaggy Wonder's "Hard Work" and Johnny Osbourne's "Disturb The Peace." If you have a certain amount of latitude, you might try The Ethiopians' "Ethiopian National Anthem." I do believe in voodoo.

GRUNTRUCK - PUSH (Roadrunner, 227
Lafayette St., #407, New York, NY 10012)

Ex-members of Skin Yard, the Accused and Napalm Death have once again combined musical forces, creating a powerful hard rock sound seething with vehemence. Seattle rockers Gruntruck will stoke hard rock and metal fans with their painfully striking release, Push—their second on Roadrunner Records. The difference between Push and the band's previous disc is as clearly evident as the difference between night and day. Inside Yours is a great LP that manifests a rockin' gutter grunge sound—a real sludge-fest. Push, however, reflects the bands' growth by offering a much harder hitting, tighter, broader, grizzly sound that should attract Soundgarden and Megadeth fans alike. The first track, "Tribe," contains hard metal guitar hooks slammed against the ever-so-dominant skins. Another metallic tune, "Break," which treats us to a symphony of blazing guitars encased by Tim Paul's massive bass vibes, is a real head slammer. What I think makes Gruntruck so successful is band unity—after four years these dudes have learned to compliment each other most compellingly. Push is definitely the push Gruntruck needs to be recognized/taken seriously as a hard rock band.

ROB FIEND

THE BROOD - VENDETTA! (Estrus
Records, P.O. Box 2125, Bellingham, WA
98227)

What if? And The Mysterians were reincarnated as an all-femme outfit with an agenda bent on vengeance and pierced by leather smiles? Welcome to the fuzz-toned, raw-boned, organ-honed world of The Brood. The Emma-Peel-having-a-bad-hair-day look of these gals carries over to their sound. "Leave Me Alone" gets things underway with a stammering, tamborine-tinged beat and snarling vocals. The hypnotic unrest of "Party Crashin'" features a plunging blues bass line, bitchin' cymbals and a festive organ. A crunching guitar and bass do a double helix around each other to a background of claps on "Heart Of Stone" and "Too Late For Tears" is a chugging rocker. When The Brood isn't busy throttling you with jeers they're making presents of their tears in bittersweet ballads. Let these girls out of the garage and into your hearts. DAVID BERAN

THE BLOOD ORANGES - LONE GREEN
VALLEY (East Side Digital, 530 N. Third Street, Minneapolis, MN 55401)

If you had as much coffee in your veins as I do in mine, you'd beg for a listen to this mellowing EP. This is a release for those "alternative" music people who like country but are afraid or unwilling to make a commitment. Initially, "Shady Grove," the first track, threw me off the country scent with its dark Irish-folk harmonies. After that, though, the disc was all "boouwarr" twang and lyrics that rhyme with "lier" and "are." The mandolin gives the songs "Fire Escape" and the Cowboy Junkies-ish "All The Way Down" their alternative bent, but the last two ditties are twangier: "Time Will Tell" is responsible for the aforementioned lyrics, and in the ending showoff piece, "Potter's Field," everybody gets a solo. Gee, I'm calmer just thinking about this Lone Green Valley, a place for the cool (and calm).

PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

MADONNA - Erotica (Maverick/Sire) What better name for her new company than Maverick. Never a follower, this amazing writer, producer, performer, choreographer, actress and, yes, businessperson sets trends and then watches as the world reacts. Coinciding with her photo/fantasy book "Sex," Madonna is out to tantalize our sense of sight as well as sound. Expect her to succeed on a grand scale once again.

BOBBY BROWN - Good Enough (MCA) After all that humpin' around, even ol' non-stop enery himself has got to chill for awhile and recharge. L.A., Babyface and Daryl Simmons write the hooks and Bobby knows just how to deliver 'em. Good enough to go from most added to most played in about a nanosecond.

GUN - Watching The World Go By (A&M) There are two bands from Scotland on the chart (Del Amitri and Soup Dragons). Make room for one more. These five rockers from Glasgow debuted two years after working hard to build a base of support overseas. Our own Sheila Rene tells me she fell in love with their new album "Gallus" the minute she heard it, calling it exceptional. So this is an exceptional ballad.

CURTIS STIGERS - Never Saw A Miracle (Arista) Few artists enjoy the kind of reception this highly touted New York singer/songwriter did the moment his first single "I Wonder Why" arrived at radio a little over one year ago. Boosting that exposure by opening on the Clapton tour, Stigers now offers this musically hip and lyrically heartwarming tune. Strong on upper demo appeal, it moves into A/C's top ten.

FAITH NO MORE - A Small Victory (Slash/Reprise) Mark Rankin of Gun, who's new single is also reviewed here, includes Faith No More among the groups that have influenced them. Not suprising, considering their sound has truly blazed new trails in rock music. Check em' out on the current issue of the Gavin video magazine and hear/see them do it again.

ALBUMS by Ron Fell

PETER GABRIEL - Us (Geffen) This, boys and girls, is why they should make music—so that we can experience the aural world of a musical/lyrical genius. Gabriel creates a haunting mosaic mural of widescreen proportions that employs exotic rhythms in the service of provocative penmanship. Gabriel possesses the heart of a soul singer and the mind of a venerable poet. The depth of his every project is uncommon in mere pop circles (although there he has his moments when he unconsciously resembles the genius of a Robbie Robertson, a Randy Newman or a Paul Simon). The set's lead single, DIGGING IN THE DIRT, is a swirling documentary of a shock therapy confrontation, while the brilliant crimson tide of BLOOD OF EDEN gives new testament to the binding union of man and woman. Garbriel also stokes the boiler for the rhyme and reason of the humid STEAM and falls to his figurative knees for the humbling LOVE TO BE LOVED.

MAXI PRIEST - Groovin' In The Midnight (Virgin/Charisma) Whether covering an oldie like "Wild World" or going number one with his biggest hit, "Close To You," this master of pop/reggae can always be counted on to deliver a groove. Once he sets this newest release into motion, it just seems to glide along effortlessly.

MICHAEL PENN - Seen The Doctor (RCA) Ready to cut off a relationship? Might want to save time and just send off the #7 track on Alternative radio instead. A direct message indeed from Michael's second album "Free-For-All" complete with that sixties, pop, Beatlesque style he's become famous for.
