A GLIMPSE INTO THE FUTURE AT SEMINAR

Futuristic technology such as Virtual Reality and Interactive CD ROM are making a special appearance at the Gavin Seminar, the only comprehensive music programming convention in 1993 that brings together radio and the music industry. In addition to format-specific panels packed with personal insight, vital research and management information, a rich variety of artist showcases and the unique opportunity to mingle with your peers, this year's very special event also offers:

- A chance to check out your voice with the experts who helped Bill Clinton win in 1992. What your voice is and how you care for it are just two of the questions Drs. Ed Stone and Steve Mitchell of the Voice Center in Nashville will answer. Drs. Stone and Mitchell will meet one-on-one and give guidelines that'll help keep a voice as healthy as President Bill's. Participants can even walk away with a video of their vocal chord vibrations, produced by a stroboscopy unit.

- A glimpse into the future with Virtual Reality. It's a revolutionary new sensory experience that guides you through a world of amazing sounds and sensations. ZoeMagik Records founder Bryan Hughes says, "We are a young, independent San Francisco label exploring multi-media techniques to generate more than just music. Virtual Reality is one of many new and exciting facets of communicating ideas."

- An exclusive preview of professional Mini Disc for radio.

- The opportunity to test Gavin On-Line. A modem-to-modem look into the Gavin research database, which shows a record developing before your eyes.

- Hands-on experience of Digital Compact Cassette (plus a chance to win a DCC player).

- A theater premiere with Spalding Gray.

- Debut of Gavin Unplugged.

- The management expertise of Joe Calhoon.

- Seminar events reported in a special Gavin Daily.

For further details see pages 6 and 7.

Barbis PLG Executive VP

Veteran promotion executive John Barbis has been upped to Executive Vice President of the PolyGram Label Group (PLG). In his new role, Barbis will work directly with company President and CEO Rick Dobbis developing strategies for the company and working with the heads of each of PLG's labels.

Barbis' career includes stops at Geffen Records and Chrysalis Records. As a marketing and promotion consultant, he worked with major artists that included Elton John and Van Halen. He helped bring Michael Penn to RCA and worked with Robbie Robertson and Steve Earle.

"Johnny has been a key member of the PLG executive group since he and his wife, Edwina, agreed to move to New York," said Dobbis. "We work very closely on all key strategic issues and no one has more or better relationships throughout the music community. This promotion is recognition of his essential role so far and in the future."

Barbis told the Gavin Report, "I'm delighted to have the opportunity to work with the entire PolyGram family, and my partner Rick Dobbis, and we are dedicated to making this a success. Our labels have wonderful rosters of young talent. We are only three years old and growing. As Alain Levy (PLG CEO) would say, 'the experiment is working.'"

Thomas in at Q105

After sifting through 87 applications and 53 tapes, Q105 (WRBQ)-Tampa, GM Tim Menowski tapped Brian Thomas to do the job as P.D.

Thomas, known for his work at Mix 105-Orlando, B104 (WBSB)-Baltimore and B97 (WEZB)-New Orleans, will start Monday. Menowski told the Gavin Report that he doesn't anticipate a format change.

"Brian stood out," he said. "He definitely had a plan and an approach that was fresh. He hit the ground running, knows the market and the Top Forty approach. And, he knows how to stay away from being an A/C station."

Menowski said that going on the air is up to Thomas.

Tony Thomas Upped at KMPS

Last week in Seattle, KMPS afternoon drive personality Tony Thomas was promoted to program director.

Thomas has been with the station since 1989, and previously worked at KIIQ and KOLO, both in Reno, and KFTM-Fort Morgan, Colorado.

"Tim (Murphy, EZ Communications' VP Programming) and I have had a great working relationship," said Thomas. "Our staff in Seattle has done great things in the past few years, and now we're ready for the next step."

Two Promoted at MCA Nashville

Bruce Hinton and Tony Brown have been promoted to Chairman, MCA Records/Nashville and in popularity, and gold and platinum albums from Wynonna, Reba McEntire, Trisha Yearwood and George Strait among others.

"I'm honored to become President of MCA Records/Nashville, a label that is made up of executives and artists who are without peer in the industry," said Brown. "In my new role as President, I'm looking forward to continued teamwork with Al Teller and Bruce Hinton, and I am excited about implementing the division's plans for the future."

President, MCA Records/Nashville respectively. Hinton was President and Brown Executive Vice President of the label. The team saw their company through a record-breaking 1992 in which domestic sales for the label hit over $100 million.

"The explosion of Country music and the unparalleled success of our Nashville division have necessitated these senior level promotions," said MCA Music Entertainment Group Chairman Al Teller. "These promotions are indicative of the company's continuing commitment to the growth of both Country music and our Nashville division."

Said Hinton, "The MCA Records/Nashville team has achieved many exciting milestones in the past few years. I wish to thank Al Teller for his extraordinary level of support and I look forward to working with Tony to maintain MCA's position as the preeminent label in Country music."

MCA/Nashville's banner year is due to Country music's surge

MTV GOES SOUTH OF THE BORDER

MTV, the voice of a generation, is taking up another language. This October, MTV Latin America will be available to cable operators throughout the United States and Latin America. The customized, 24-hour network will air a combination of Latin, international, and American music videos along with the traditional MTV fare of news, interviews, and concerts.

The Miami-based MTV Latin America joins the ranks of other successful spinoffs including MTV Europe, MTV Japan, and MTV Asia. The network has high hopes that viewers in Mexico, Central America, the Caribbean, and South America (minus Brazil) will want their MTV as much as current subscribers. Distribution plans will target 12-34 year-old viewers in over 3 million cable-equipped homes.

MTV Network Chairman and CEO Tom Freston characterized

RADI-O-RAMA

Harvey Kojan, formerly AOR Editor of R&R is the new program director at WNOR/FM-Norfolk, VA. Before his stint at R&R, Kojan was an air personality and music director...Looks like Bush-appointed Sherrie Marshall is leaving the FCC. Marshall's term officially expired June 30. So far President Clinton hasn't replaced her or former chairman Al Sikes...We hate rumors, but here are two big ones. 1) KMEL PD Keith Naftaly's contract is up. Will he stay at KMEL or is he being lured away? Will Hosh Gureli stay if Keith leaves? 2) Are Malrite and Shamrock merging?...Dan Bowen has been named Music Director at WNCI 97.9 FM-Columbus, OH. He's been with the station ten years, and spent the last six as Promotion Director. He replaces John Cline who goes to B94 (WBZZ)-Pittsburgh...Former Y95 (KOY/FM)-Phoenix midday personality Ric Sanders has moved crosstown to THE EDGE, where he's MD and changes to "Sharkman" from 7P-12M. The rest of the lineup is: middays: Allison Strong, new from KFMA-Wickenburg; afternoon drive: PD John Clay; overnights: Christopher The Minister Allen from KJQN-Salt Lake City...Bill Livek and Bill Engel, formerly executives with the now-defunct Birch Scarborough ratings service, have jumped back into the fray with Symmetrical Polling, Inc., which will serve mid- and small markets. The company will be based in Deerfield Beach, Florida...KRNQ-Des Moines showed good growth in 12+ women and women 25-54, and now former PD Matt McCann is on the sidelines awaiting his next opportunity. He can be reached at (515) 243-2607...At KCCQ-Ames, IA this week, Kyle Martin, formerly with KIOA-Des Moines, the project by saying, "We believe now is the perfect time to launch this new network. It's an area rich in its musical heritage and anxious for alternative music programming."

For the past five years, MTV has offered the successful Spanish-language program MTV Internacional. The United States' Hispanic audience numbers 23 million and is the fastest-growing segment of the population.

The decision to base the network in Miami is a natural because of the city's high profile in Hispanic television broadcasting. Programming will be sent to cable via satellite and is expected to stimulate production of Latin music videos. The revived Latin American economy played a major role in MTV's decision to add South America to its roster of foreign territories.

INSIDE TOP 40

by Dave Sholin

Get a group of radio fanatics together, and before long they'll start telling stories and reminiscing about some of the favorite jocks they grew up listening to. At that point, the conversation eventually turns to today's talent and why there aren't more bright new stars in the business. Is it coincidence that successful Top 40 stations have highly visible, identifiable and relatable personalities on the air in all key dayparts?

The unfortunate reality, however, is that at most stations, format, music, marketing/promotion and sales take precedence over the people hired to communicate excitement and dispense information.

Enter a newly-formed rescue squad whose sole purpose is to help on-air staff perform at maximum efficiency. Based in Chicago, the company known as Air Support is comprised of four experienced veterans: Fred Winston, Cleveland Wheeler, Lorna Ozmon and Chuck Buell. Chuck feels strongly that in this age of specialized music programming, where two or three stations are often playing essentially the same list, it's the people on the air who really separate one station from another. He wondered why there isn't more emphasis put on this all-important area, so he and his partners started this new enterprise.

Chuck suggests that a comparison can be made between radio stations and fast food outlets where, "McDonald's, Wendy's and Burger King all sell burgers, fries and shakes. Same format, same product. All good, but the difference is their personalities. McDonald's has Ronald McDonald and Wendy's has Dave."

Buell admits there is a place for no-talk cable radio and cassettes or CDs, but there are millions who get companionship from commercial radio. The question really is, "What kind of companion do you want? Not someone blabbing on and on or someone who can't tell you what's going on."

As for common problems, Chuck cites several including:

- 1) "Not enough localization. It must be done right with commitment, not simply with paid lip-service. There's room for nationally syndicated programming too, but radio's ability to be part of the community can never be overstated.
- 2) "People executing basics, but not with finesse."
- 3) "Handling phones. Not just being told to keep conversations short, but how to get in and get out smoothly."
- 4) "Making creative contests exciting to the listener. Some great contests sound like tossing candy to kids at a parade. There's no emotion, no feeling."

The good news is that Chuck and the Air

Support team believe many stations do not need to replace morning shows or for that matter, their talent in other dayparts on a regular basis. While that occasional parting is unavoidable all too often, he says, "People being let go can do what you're looking for. The key is training, and that's been sorely lacking in the last ten years."

As the name implies, Air Support sees themselves in the role of supporting PDs who are "burdened with so many other duties they don't always have time for talent evaluation, coaching and sitting in on creative brainstorming sessions. At a time when dollars are tight, management sometimes changes personalities when with the proper direction the time and money spent in searching, hiring and marketing a new show can be an unnecessary expense." Anyone wishing to find out more should call (312) 642-7977.

A footnote on the story about Chris Ruh and KSND Eugene, Oregon that ran a few weeks ago. Former contributing editor and ratings guru Jhan Hiber called in to say that being retired, he donated his consulting services to the station's previous owner, who happened to be his neighbor in Carmel. He agrees with Chris that any turnaround takes at least one year and requires marketing, resources and—patience.

Following the same pattern as his two previous Top Five winners, JON SECADA'S "Angel" boasts a long list of impressive gainers including WXMK 27-18, WRKY 17-10, WKHQ 23-17, WNDU 32-23, MIX 99.9KHI 27-17, KJLS 24-16, KKCK 24-18, KSTN 33-28, KEEP 32-24, KQIX 22-16, KAGO/FM 18-8 and KWWW 28-17.

In the year of the saxophone KENNY G is converting some big chart moves, taking the week's biggest jump at KPLZ Seattle 26-11, along with taking over #1 at KMEL San Francisco climbing 5-1. Also Top Ten at WBBQ 7-6, WPLJ 10-8, WAPE 5-4, KFFM 3-2, KFMI 11-7, B95 4-3, KONG 10-6, WJAT/FM 3-2, WSEI 13-7, KTFM 13-10, KAKS 3-1, KOKZ 3-2, etc. Call it a slam dunk for BOYKRAZY'S "That's What Love Can Do," which explodes at WSPK Poughkeepsie, NY 36-21, KQIX Grand Junction, CO 32-22, WZOU 26-17 and KISS 108 Boston 17-13, Z104 Madison, WI 22-17, KLYV Dubuque, IA 23-17, KPXR Anchorage, AK 27-19, Q106 San Diego 11-5 and KTDR Del Rio, TX 32-25.

Former RECORD TO WATCH from JEREMY JORDAN (11/13/92) isn't about to be denied, making a HIT FACTOR leap of 44% to 55%. Top Five at 102 KISS Fayetteville, AR 11-5 and hot at WTIC/FM 11-8, WYKS 12-8, KDWB 17-11, KROC 24-18, WEYQ 19-10, etc. New on: KC101, Y94, FUN 107, KPLZ, KHKS, KCCQ, etc.

Ron Naldi, MD at WNNJ Newton, NJ, reports early request activity on SUNSCREAM "mostly adult in middays," and takes it 31-27. Top Three at 99X Atlanta 6-3; Top Ten at THE END Cleveland 8-5, THE MAX Colorado Springs, CO 16-8 and headed that direction at EAGLE 106 Philadelphia 15-13. New on: Q106, 104 KRBE, WMME/FM, WDJX, KTMT, KQLA, KLAZ, WZOQ, WOKI, WTNV/FM, XL93, KKNB and WAOA.

Cool gets hot as DIGABLE PLANETS shoot to #1 at WPGC in our Nation's Capitol. Fifty-one plays move it 9-7 at HOT 97 New York with ADDs at: KXXR, WYKS, Z100, KKFR, Q96, KC101, WHYT, KPLZ, etc.

Chart and retail activity on SNOW'S "Informer" leaves little doubt this is a song people are in love with. Third consecutive week at #1 for HOT 97 New York's Joel Salkowitz and Kevin McCabe and jumping 22-12 crosstown at Z100. Also Top Ten at CFTR, KJYK, WHYT, BOSS 97, and FM102. New on: KYYA Billings, ISLE 95 St. Croix, KC101 New Haven, WZOU Boston and WILI/FM Willimantic.

This Monday, February 8th, some twenty million-plus fans of NBC-TV's sitcom "Blossom," will see and hear THE PARTY'S new single, "All About Love."

Annette and I are looking forward to welcoming those of you headed to Gavin's 1993 Seminar this week. We're excited about this year's agenda and wish everyone a safe, hassle-free trip to San Francisco.

FIRING PEOPLE

For supervisors with empathy, firing people is always tough. I hate it so much that I'm very careful who I hire. I'm mindful of the fact that if the person I hire can't do the job I need done, it's my fault for not having selected the right person in the first place—and I hate to fire someone for something that's my fault!

But in today's lawsuit-happy society, firing people is not only agonizing, it's dangerous. "Wrongful discharge" suits, and suits alleging unlawful discrimination, are becoming more common all the time and in some cases have resulted in nightmarish outcomes (incompetents or vandals returned to work replacing satisfactory workers who were hired later, for example—and/or huge monetary settlements).

What this means to the program director is documenting all matters pertaining to employment. It's not enough to advertise an opening or to advertise it in sources followed by minorities; realistic criteria must be established, and the disposition of each individual application must be documented in a "personnel file." If a minority applied and you didn't hire him or her, you should be able to document why you made your decision.

Likewise, when someone you have working for you is not doing satisfactory work, whether you hired them originally or not, you need to take two precautions. First, make sure they are informed of the job description and its demands. If you don't have "job descriptions" on file for the positions you are responsible for, you might consider doing them, preferably with input from the people now in them—which not only acquaints you with how that person sees their own job, but lets them know that a "job description" is being constructed!

Second, once the job description is established, you must periodically evaluate the person holding the position in terms of that description. This should appear in writing in their personnel file, and be provided to them in writing, in a personal meeting that includes free discussion of the matters covered. Make notes for inclusion in the file. This is especially important, of course, when their work isn't satisfactory. If you are going to fire a person for incompetence or insubordination, you must be able to document this, as questions arise later.

By the way, a fairly recent legal hazard has arisen, in the form of the lawsuit seeking damages for a "bad reference!" It seems you can now be successfully sued for simply telling the truth about an unsatisfactory employee! The fact that the bad reference was true has not always been found to be a mitigating circumstance in court, as unbelievable as that may seem.

I have always recommended checking references on a new employee—if for no other reason than the personal concern I started this column with! But today, you may not get as much helpful information about a potential hire as you once would have, for the reason just mentioned. Many employers have established a policy that nothing negative be said about a past employee—period. This could cause you to hire someone you shouldn't. (I remember checking—unnecessarily, I thought—the references of a really terrific air person a few years ago, only to learn that though he was a swell guy, well-liked at the station he was working at, they had required him to find another job because he had just been arrested on the air a second time for passing bad checks!)

As a result, when checking references, you are going to have to be more of a detective than you used to be. If the reference is favorable but given in an unenthusiastic tone of voice, be very careful! If the person giving the reference seems to be picking his or her words with great care, and cannot be encouraged to be more forthcoming or informal, be even more careful!

And if you are writing a reference for somebody you really think is terrific, be careful about ending it with an invitation to call for more information on the person, because that is often interpreted as a "code phrase" for "I can't write anything bad here for legal reasons, but you might want to think twice about hiring this person."

It's a shame court decisions seem to be valuing perceived "fairness" over truth, but it's today's reality, and you need to take precautions!

By the way, next week I'll be attending this year's Gavin Seminar for Media Professionals. Since long before I was associated with the Gavin Report, I've considered it the premier radio programming gathering, and I believe it still is. Hope I run into you there! ●

Few shows have stirred up as much excitement as Keith Richards and The X-Pensive Winos, who played San Francisco two weeks ago and are still the talk of the town. His Winos included Waddy Wachtel (guitarist/vocalist), Steve Jordan (drums/bass/vocals), Ivan Neville (keyboards/vocals/bass), Bobby Keys (sax). Sarah Dash of the sensational pipes, who was on Keith's last tour and album, sang backup. The only change I would've made: Stash the chairs so we can dance! Word has it that Keith's next album will be with his fellow Rolling Stones, who are looking for a new bassist. Izzy Stradlin and the Ju Ju Hounds, just back from an SRO tour of Europe, were the perfect appetizer for Richards' main course. This show was a one-time event, as Stradlin and the Hounds are still touring with fellow Geffen recording artist My Little Funhouse, who hail from Ireland. Shining right along with Stradlin was guitarist Rick Richards, formerly of the Georgia Satellites, drummer Charlie "Chalo" Quintana, formerly of the Cruzados and bassist Jimmy Ashhurst, formerly with Broken Homes. After rockin' with Richards for three decades, I finally got to shake his famous guitar-pickin' hand...

VH-1 simulcast the MTV up-close and personal performance from Paul McCartney on February 3. The 90-minute special was taped in December 1992 at The Ed Sullivan Theater in New York where the Beatles made their first U.S. appearance nearly 30 years ago. McCartney and his touring band members featured songs that spanned his entire musical career, including Beatles classics as well as cuts from the new Capitol Records album, Off The Ground... Don't tell me you didn't tape it!...

Bits & Pieces: The new Geffen album from David Coverdale and Jimmy Page is set for a late March release. The album will be called North & South and I've heard a couple of cuts from advance tape #47 that whetted my appetite. Yes, it sounded a great deal like Led Zeppelin coming through Kent Zimmerman's door... Mind Funk recently completed their new album, tentatively titled Dropped, with producer Terry Date. An announcement regarding their new label and the time frame for release will be forthcoming... Following this summer's sold-out Lollapalooza Festival, Ministry completed a sensational tour with Helmet and Sepultura. The memory of this show got me through the musically-bare holidays. Paul Barker and Al Jourgensen will be heading back into the studio to begin producing some of their other projects... Anthrax is busy at work in the studio with producer Dave Jerden (Sacred Reich, Alice In Chains, Janes' Addiction) and you can expect an April release of their forthcoming album, The Sound Of White Noise. Look for some special remixes done by the bands' favorite producers and for B-sides featuring some special guests... Sting is still working with the same band he used on his last album Soul Cages. He'll tour Europe in March and April with U.S. dates by May and June. The new single "If I Ever Lose My Faith In You" is from his new album entitled Ten Summoner's Tales which will be released in March...

Scotti Brothers Records has signed Lost City to a worldwide album deal. Lost City is centered around Kofi Baker, son of legendary Cream drummer Ginger Baker, Malcolm Bruce (son of Jack Bruce of Cream) and guitarist Rue Phillips. Their ground-breaking debut album was produced by Larry Hirsch (Elvis Costello, Los Lobos) and is currently being mixed by Rick Parasher (Temple of the Dog, Pearl Jam)... ●

NEW HIP HOP RELEASES by Kelly Woo

E.C.H.O. - All About Bouncin' (Phat Wax)
Coming forth with a new single that's hard not to bounce to is a duo called E.C.H.O. This dance cut's upbeat tempo guarantees broad appeal. The rhyming style is familiar to most Hip-hop heads but still offers incentive to bounce to the beat. All About Bouncin' is an inspired effort that shows potential.
JANIEN HARRISON

R.B.L. POSSE - Don't Give Me No Bammer Weed (In-A-Minute)
If you're confused about this regional phenomenon that has certain parts of the country jumpin' to DJ Jimi and Dazzey Duks, well here is yet another piece of the puzzle that has the San Francisco Bay Area going crazy. Selling 7,000 copies independently prior to being signed to In-A-Minute Records, R.B.L. (Ruthless By Law) Posse, aka Black C and Mr. C, pay homage to buddah, blunts, endo or dank, as we in the Bay Area like to call it, by kicking the flava over a funky little bassline that packs the dance floor every time. If you don't believe it, ask the Gavin's own DJ Ivan to drop this joint at one of the upcoming Rap showcases during Gavin Seminar '93, and see for yourself. Contact Jason Blaine or Greg at (510) 653-5811.

KAM - Peace Treaty (Street Knowledge/eastwest america)
We all know that the situation in South Central Los Angeles is not pleasant, but if anything good came out of it, it was the truce called between the Bloods and the Crips. A member of Ice Cube's Street Knowledge camp, KAM, an ex-gangbanger himself, kicks his debut single, "Peace Treaty," to support those who have ceased firing upon one another. "More than ever, Black people have to stick together/ But Yo, lets hear it for the Bloods and Crips/ I gots to admit, Y'all Brothers did it/ I just hope it don't cease/ For the sake of all the Homies that's restin' in peace." Don't forget to hit the B-side, "Y'all Don't Hear Dough," for the Vaughn Mason flavor. Contact Eric Skinner at (212) 275-2291. K-WOO

KING TEE - Tha Triflin' Album (Capitol)
It's just a matter of time before stardom knocks on King Tee's door, and this collection of pure Hip-hop tracks and lyrics should put him and another crew, Tha Alkaholiks, in the spotlight.

Unlike many acts from the Compton area, Tee's album doesn't rely solely upon the "shoot 'em up, break 'em off" type of music, but packs in a number of strong tracks that most Hip-hop shows would play in a heartbeat. Standout cuts include "Got It Bad Y'all" featuring tha Alkaholiks, the Marley Marl remix of "At Your Own Risk," and "We Got Tha Fat Joint" featuring Nefretitti & Mad Kap. Those who think King Tee can't come off on the gansta' tip should check out "A Hoe B-4 Tha Homie," a collaboration with Ice Cube and Deadly Threat. Production credits on the album go out to DJ Pooh, Bobcat, Mr. Woody, and King Tee himself. "Tha Triflin' Album" is a phat collection of Hip-hop influenced tracks, and King Tee need not worry about being stereotyped as a gangsta' rapper with no skills, cause the album speaks for itself.

INSIDE URBAN

Ms. Campbell is mmm mmm good

Tisha Campbell, Capitol recording artist and co-star of Fox's hit sit-com "Martin," was the guest of honor at a party in New York, that celebrated the January release of her debut album, Tisha, which features her current single, "Love Me Down." A steamy video for "Love Me Down" has just been completed. Restaurant Romeo Salta was packed with VIPs and celebrities, including (l-r): MCA recording artist Chante Moore; Warner Bros. recording artist Al B. Sure!; Tisha; actress, Sheryl Lee Ralph; Capitol's East Coast General Manager/President, Blue Note Records, Bruce Lundvall.

Reporters Note: Next week is the Gavin Seminar and Monday (2/15) is a holiday. Because of this, we will take Urban Contemporary reports via telephone on Tuesday, February 16. However, our fax machines will be up and running all day Friday (2/12) and Monday (2/15). The number is (415) 495-2580. Peace, John.

NEW RELEASES

by John Martinucci

SILK - Freak Me (Keia/Elektra)

Keith Sweat gives his Silk buddies some writing and producing assistance on this new single. The emotional grind that has made Sweat's career has rubbed off on this group's performance of "Freak Me." This ballad's groove seduces the listener's ear. A great follow-up to "Happy Days."

LEVERT - Good Ol' Days (Atlantic)

The trio's back together (for now) now that Gerald has finished with his solo project. The guys drop a midtempo groove that reminisces about the 'Good Ol' Days.' Gerald and Marc Gordon wrote and produced this track and the lyrics will bring a smile to your face as your memory conjures up images of yesteryear.

WHITNEY HOUSTON - I Have Nothing (Arista)

Producer/songwriter David Foster taps into some energy we haven't heard since Whitney's debut. Her passionate vocals captivate you as the song develops over the 4:49 mark. Watch Ms. Houston compete with herself as "I Have Nothing" chases "I'm Every Woman" up the chart.

LADEEZ 1ST - There From The Start (RCA)

These four ladeez from Philly answer the Shai-guys' smash, "If I Ever Fall In Love." The group uses a melody similar to the original that will taunt listeners. Worth a spin.

ALBUM CUTS

INSIDE A/C by Diane Rufer and Ron Fell

Correspondents Note: Because of our schedule this coming week, and Monday's (2/15) postal holiday, Gavin will take all A/C reports via telephone on Tuesday, February 16. However our fax machines will be up and running all day Friday (2/12) and Monday the (2/15).

A relatively static Top Ten, except for the #13 to #9 debut for "Tell The Truth" by JUDE COLE. A gain of 25 HEAVY rotation reports give it more HEAVYs than any other rotation.

PAUL McCARTNEY's "Hope Of Deliverance" has "delivered." It's the HOTTEST track in the format, gaining #26 to #12 while increasing HIT FACTOR by 28%. New for 25 more A/Cs like KELO/FM, WTPI, WKWK, KLWN, KMGX, WCVQ, KBOL and KEYI.

Only eleven records are being played at more A/C stations than the MARY-CHAPIN CARPENTER. Its 153 stations and 67% HIT FACTOR put it at #17 in just five airplay weeks. New for WMT/FM, WOBN/FM, WQLR, KEYI, WKWK and WCPZ etc.

The BOLTON/FOUR TOPS' "Reach Out (I'll Be There)" has touched 146 A/Cs with 42 new this week KMXV/FM, Q95FM, WKGW, KVVY, WFRO, WSPL, KORQ, WXPS and KHHT.

WENDY MOTEN's steady growth profile is the tip of a musical iceberg as "Come In Out Of The Rain" moves into the Top Thirty and is HIT FACTORED by 62% of all players including JOY99, WFRO, WKYE, KSSK, KRNO/FM, WBMX, WMXB, WQLH/FM and KSBL.

WHITNEY HOUSTON's CHAKA cover, "I'm Every Woman," moves #34 to #27 on the chart, while improving HIT FACTOR 15% and taking on 17 more players like K103, KCRE, KVVN, KHHT, WSUL, WKWK etc.

Last week's TOP TIP, MICHAEL W. SMITH's "Somebody Love Me," debuts above all other newcomers at #31 with a handsome 22% increase in HIT FACTOR and another 32 ADDs from the likes of KMJC/FM, KLCY, WEIM, WSTU, KEYW/FM, WDUZ and WABJ.

A 31% increase in HIT FACTOR for GLORIA ESTEFAN's "I See Your Smile" helps her lead the format in improvement. Half the format is playing it already, including 50 new this week.

TOP TIP this issue is VANESSA WILLIAMS and BRIAN McKNIGHT's "Love Is." Stats line-up with 67 stations. Fifty percent of all stations on it since last week are already HIT FACTORing including WBMX, WSUL, WQLR, WMXB, KBOL, WAHR, KRLT, WFAS, WCKQ and KKIS.

Last issue's RECORD TO WATCH, INXS' "Beautiful Girl," moves into the middle of CHARTBOUND in its second week of release. Now on at 54 A/C stations with 26 of those ADDs. Among the new are CKFM, WCKQ, WMXB, WXVL, KZLT, WHMS, KORQ, KIDX/FM, JOY99 and B100.

Driving to the RECORD TO WATCH box is JOAN BAEZ's "Stones In The Road" currently being played at 44 stations with 19 ADDs this week. Included in the ADDs are WTSX, WAHR, WMSQ, KCHA, KFOR, KSAL, WQRL and KRLT. Rotations at WBEC/AM, WHAI, WXPS, WBLG/FM, WSKY, WZLT, KRDI/FM, KZLT, WMT/FM, KBOL and KTID.

NICKY HOLLAND

Tongue-tied And Twisted (Epic)

A new and improved version of a favorite track from Ms. Holland's self-titled debut album. On the verge of a flustering moment she contemplates the risk of speaking her peace in the waning moments of a relationship.

WHITNEY HOUSTON

I Have Nothing (Arista)

Such a title couldn't be any further from the truth for Mrs. Brown. Could she have three charted singles from one album at the same time? Stay tuned!!

BIOFEEDBACK

by Ron Fell

WHITNEY HOUSTON

In the December issue of Premiere magazine, Whitney Houston says she hopes to play a cop in a future film. Says Whitney, "I like the idea of having a gun and hiding behind walls."

TRISHA YEARWOOD

The Grammy Awards producers were so sure Trisha Yearwood would receive a 1993 nomination that they booked her to perform at this year's ceremony and had her co-host the nomination announcement last month. Only one problem: She failed to get a nomination.

LIVING COLOUR

New Living Colour bassist, Doug Wimbish, is no stranger to rock and soul, having backed the likes of George Clinton and James Brown.

DAN BAIRD

Dan Baird was the leader of The Georgia Satellites for more than a decade. One of his fellow bandmates was Rick Richards, who has since gone on to play in Izzy Stradlin's Ju Ju Hounds.

ERIC CLAPTON

Forty-seven-year-old Eric Clapton was born Eric Patrick Clapp. He was raised in Ripley, Surrey, England by his mother Rose Clapp and his stepfather Jack.

INXS

The six-man band of INXS have been working together since 1976 when they formed in Perth, Australia.

DEBBIE GIBSON

A year ago at this time Debbie Gibson was on Broadway playing Eponine in the musical Les Miserables.

PAUL McCARTNEY

On the last Paul McCartney concert tour, his first in thirteen years, he traveled over 100,000 miles and performed in front of more than 2,800,000 fans.

BILLY DEAN

Wrangler, the jeans maker, has signed Billy Dean as spokesman for a new line of clothing called the Frontier series.

BON JOVI

Jon Bon Jovi's wife, Dorteia Hurley, is a nationally-ranked karate champion. Jon calls describes her as a "petite, five-foot-six maniac."

GARTH BROOKS

Last weekend (January 30 and 31), two Garth Brooks concerts in Los Angeles raised $1 million for riot-relief charities.

MICHAEL JACKSON

A decade ago this month Michael Jackson's BILLIE JEAN was released as a single from his record-setting album, Thriller.

LOUDON WAINWRIGHT III

In the mid-seventies, singer/songwriter Loudon Wainwright III was married briefly to singer Kate McGarrigle of the McGarrigle Sisters. In the eighties he married Suzzy Roche of The Roches.

CHET ATKINS

At this year's Grammy Awards show, guitarist Chet Atkins will be one of six recipients of a Lifetime Achievement Award. Others to be honored include Little Richard, Bill Monroe, Thelonious Monk, Fats Waller and Pete Seeger.

ELVIS COSTELLO

Singer/songwriter Elvis Costello, whose current project is a collaboration with the Brodsky String Quartet, is no stranger to odd configurations. He has worked with The London Symphony Orchestra, Paul McCartney, Squeeze and Country legend George Jones.

Format Events: Country

DEDICATED SESSIONS DESIGNED TO MEET YOUR NEEDS

Don't miss these special Country events at the 1993 Gavin Seminar

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 11

Country Kick-off Cocktail Bash

Join the Gavin Country Crew for our annual "whendidjagetin" gathering. The fun starts at 6PM in the St. Francis Room.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 12

Multi-Label Country Banquet

Nashville's record labels get together to sponsor a special gathering for all Country attendees. Enjoy dinner and conversation and the chance to catch up because tomorrow—we go to work. Immediately following the Gavin Cocktail Party, come join us in the Elizabethan A&B Rooms.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 13

Country Format Session: On The Competition

Join us for an intensive workshop covering all aspects of America's hottest radio format. Learn the ins and outs of database marketing with Fair West Media's Reg Johns, how to recruit top talent with Talentmasters' Don Anthony and explore music research with C. C. McCartney. Let Oren Harari help you plan your next step up the management ladder, and hear it from an artist's point of view as former Headhunters Doug and Ricky Lee Phelps tell you what it's like to spend 30 Days On The Road and what they hope to see when they visit your station. KNEW/KSAN's Marlene Augustine speaks on community involvement: PSA's are not enough and RCA's Carson Schreiber gives a command performance on jingles. Stay tuned for more exciting details. Starts at 9AM in the California West room.

Country Artist Showcase Luncheon

Gavin Country's legendary acoustic showcase returns, featuring Liberty's John Berry, Asylum's the Phelps Brothers, BNA's Tim Ryan and Curb's Rick Vincent. Lunch begins at noon, immediately following the format session, California West room.

"The Gavin Seminar really took away the mystery of the business for me. To get a chance to sit in on meetings with radio and record folks was a big honor."
—Russell deCarle of Prairie Oyster

"I love this convention. For those who want to learn something new, this is the place to be. I wouldn't miss it!"
—Bob Kingsley, American Country Countdown

PLUS!
HANDS ON EXPERIENCE OF DCC AND MINI DISC!

"The Country session at the Gavin Seminar is an intimate learning experience with candid one-on-one conversations. It's definitely worth the trip."

NEW RELEASES

by Lisa Smith & Cyndi Hoelzle

DOLLY PARTON AND FRIENDS - Romeo (Columbia)

We don't know if Dolly had Billy Ray in mind when she wrote this song, but it sure fits. Dolly invited girlfriends Tanya Tucker, Mary-Chapin Carpenter, Kathy Mattea and Pam Tillis to serenade the ultimate barroom babe, played by Cyrus. The squeals and growls are almost as much fun as the lyrics.

SAMMY KERSHAW - She Don't Know She's Beautiful (Mercury)

Smiling Sammy has another winner on his hands. It's a fun midtempo song, spiced up by Cajun fiddle.

STEVE WARINER - Like A River To The Sea (Arista)

Programmers' overwhelming choice for the fourth single from the I Am Ready album is also Wariner's favorite cut on the album. It's a beautifully produced Wariner-penned love song that's a glimpse of Steve at his best.

LARI WHITE - What A Woman Wants (RCA)

Ever since we saw her open a show for Rodney Crowell, we've been anxiously awaiting Lari's first release. Crowell produced her debut, and captured White's spunk and spirit. Lari co-wrote this wise lesson on life and love with her boyfriend Chuck Cannon.

ALAN JACKSON - Tonight I Climbed The Wall (Arista)

Jackson's blonde locks and long legs sometimes draw attention away from his songwriting, which has consistently been excellent. Here he takes a well-known phrase and turns it inside out. And damned if he doesn't nail it right on the head.

TIM MENSY - She Dreams (Giant)

Tim is quite a storyteller, and here he captures the fear and longing of a couple who have lost touch with each other.

Terry Buttram.

MAXI PRIEST

BM: You were popular in England long before you had a hit record in the States. What was the thing that broke you here?

MP: My smile!

Maxi Priest is not a reggae artist. He's invariably described that way, probably because his eclectic style is unmistakably British/Jamaican (as he is) and because he's a black man who wears dreadlocks. And in the recent past, he's talked of "picking up where Bob Marley left off," and "never leaving my reggae roots."

But as he expands his fan-base, especially here in the United States, it's become important to Maxi Priest that we don't categorize him. Indeed, when it's mentioned that he's looked at as a reggae artist, his sultry voice loses its drop-dead, blinding smile.

"I've created my own style," he insists in his melodic English accent—ever so polite, but oh-so-firm. "I've always been open-minded toward different styles—from reggae to R&B to pop to jazz. I appreciate people from Marvin Gaye to Dennis Brown. I appreciate music. That's broadened my singing ability and the way I feel music."

Fe Real is Maxi Priest's fourth U.S. album (1991's Best Of Me was a retrospective), and his sixth overall. Before his first Stateside success, 1988's "Wild World," Maxi was already well-known in his native England, having had two successful albums, some hit singles, and a well-established group of admirers.

The immediate success of "Wild World" gives the impression that winning America over was easy for Maxi Priest. It was in a way, because he was embraced once he hit our shores. But it took some convincing to get his British label, Virgin Records, to release his product over here.

"They didn't really want to release the Maxi album over here," he said candidly. "There were a lot of politics involved. Ziggy Marley had priority over me. But my stuff was selling as imports and that pressured them into releasing my album. Then they put the 'Wild World' single out and it went top five. That's when they began to take me seriously."

Maxi Priest has always taken himself and his music seriously. He became a part of the British reggae scene in the late '70s, working as a deejay, performing at parties and at clubs. With Paul Robertson, Maxi formed Legal Vibes Records and put out a few singles, the first of which went to #8 on the reggae chart. That led to the deal with Virgin and ultimately, stateside success on Virgin's sister-label, Charisma.

So what's Maxi's secret? We want to know. He's done what even the great Bob Marley couldn't—made audiences look beyond the reggae beat long enough to realize there's more going on in the music. The answer may lie in his overall manner. He professes not to be political, but Maxi's songs carry a subtle message. His voice is whispery, but there's just a glint of steel below the surface.

"I have a good life," he insists. "A lot of things are going on in the world, but I'm not really the greatest spokesman—like Bob Marley or Burning Spear. I think I came in a different time. We're trying to achieve more now. We don't sit down and worry about being oppressed. What I'm trying to say is that in the time of Bob Marley, it was about getting out of being oppressed, whereas I think we've gone over that now, and we want to achieve success."

Priest is equally objective about growing up black in England. "I think my generation helped break down walls because we (blacks) weren't going to take any shit from anybody," he said. "We fought our way through barriers. But overall, growing up was okay." He pauses for a second, then says realistically, "But really, we're still fighting to get equal rights. They give them to us on the face, but beneath that we still haven't got it. It's pretty much the same as it is in America."

Such a flexible and realistic attitude is reflected in his songs. Maxi can be achingly romantic, as in his duet with Roberta Flack ("Set The Night To Music"), raw and sexual, as in his collaboration with Shabba Ranks ("Housecall"), or oh-so-cool, as on the first single from Fe Real ("Groovin' In The Midnight").

As a producer, Maxi says he tries to combine his old-school leanings—melodies, lyrics, rhythm tracks with popular technology. "I'm always open to new stuff. I never pin things down; there's no set format. Maybe I might write with somebody, or they already have a rhythm track so we put something on top of it. Sometimes we just come in, I sit behind the piano and come up with some melodies and a few more plans, and we start cranking."

Fe Real was a year and a half in the making. Participating in the project, among others, was Simon Law (Soul II Soul) and Sly Dunbar. It was recorded at studios in England, Britain and Jamaica. When asked why he chose a studio in Jamaica, Maxi laughed and said, "It was just an excuse to go there."

The thirty songs Maxi went into the studio with were immediately pared down to 18. After writing a few new songs, a nice round "ten" were put into Fe Real. The producers Maxi worked with were chosen for their expertise in certain sounds. "I was looking for people who could convey different styles," he said.

"Simon Law is great for R&B and ballads; Mikey Bennett and Handel Tucker have that ragamuffin/reggae flavor; Gussie Clarke is the guy for harder reggae material; and Sly Dunbar, well, this is our third album working together...he knows what I'm about musically. I met David Morales as a result of the remix he did on 'Housecall' and felt he transformed that track."

Priest's diversity is written—or sung—all over his latest album. The bases are all covered: pop, R&B, ragamuffin, reggae. The first single, "Groovin' In The Midnight," set the stage for "One More Chance," which has just been released.

Now that Fe Real is safely tucked in buyers arms, what else is happening with Maxi Priest? A world tour, of course. "I haven't been to Europe for 2-1/2 years," he said almost incredulously. "I want to perform in my home town."

Additionally, he's made his acting debut in Scam, which stars Christopher Walken and will be out later this year. "I play a cab driver," he laughed. "I enjoyed being able to branch out. My music comes first, but I hope acting can go hand-in-hand with it. It was like—gravy." Gravy? "What goes on top, that little extra."

BM: Will we recognize you on the big screen?

MP: Yeah. I smiled!

JAZZ/ADULT ALTERNATIVE NEW RELEASES

BORDER TOWNS - PRESTON REED (LIBERTY)

Border Towns is guitarist Preston Reed's most adventurous recording in recent memory. He attacks his steel-stringed acoustic with an ambidextrous purpose, both hands dancing on the fret board, tossing out the left and right hands' conventional role. Border Towns has a spicy, Southwestern feel to its compositions. They're both rustic and Western. Many of the tunes are non-traditional in the sense that they're rhythmically malleable and spread across the sound canvas horizontally rather than vertically. That is, the four-piece doesn't revolve around a standard rhythm section. The most traditional 4/4 track is "Portofino," but Reed moves away from standard chords and single note leads, and toward tugging and hammering the strings. Like Billy Joe Walker, Jr., Preston Reed is rethinking the role of the acoustic guitar soloist, putting it in a more ethereal light. He's spiralling outward, pushing the borders of standard six- or eight-bar tunes. The eccentric Border Towns should make his upcoming Gavin Convention gig with Billy Joe Walker, Jr. all the more intriguing.

SAILING STONE - MOTOHIKO HINO (GRAMAVISION)

Drummer Motohiko Hino made a pilgrimage to Grog Kill Studios in upstate New York and recorded what on the surface sounds like an homage to Carla Bley, but instead is an outrageous send-up of, yes, the Rolling Stones. Bassist Steve Swallow, Bley's longtime partner, joins the sessions as does Carla's daughter Karen Mantler, who plays a quirky, purring Hammond organ. But as Sailing Stone begins to flourish, it becomes clear that it's the hottest ensemble fare since Dieter Ilg's release on Lipstick. Dave Liebman is downright sinister on soprano and Mantler's B3 chords are off-beat but scathing. Special guest Mike Stern burns up his fretboard on the oddball version of the Stone's "(I Can't Get No) Satisfaction." Even though he's the hottest fusion drummer in Japan, when it comes to taking solo, Hino takes a back seat. He has a penchant for molasses-tempoed covers of Jagger/Richards songs. Besides "Satisfaction," Stern delivers a brooding reading of "Angie," while brother Terumasa Hino's probing cornet blazes a dramatic account of "Lady Jane." Motohiko gives Sailing Stone its playful, tongue-in-cheek backdrop, but the solos still burn with originality. Safe to say, the Stones have never been captured in this light before.

CITI MOVEMENT - WYNTON MARSALIS SEPTET (COLUMBIA)

sleeve of this new double set, looks like a band ready to kill. Clothes may or may not make the man, but they sure count for something. Wynton, decked out in a chartreuse hound's-tooth Versace suit, is poised for serious playing. In this case, it's music for the ballet Griot New York. The compositions seem to be spring-loaded with extra detail and precision and are full of spry tempo shifts. We don't claim to have any knowledge of ballet, but from a radiostandpoint, Citi Movement stands comfortably on its own. Solos and improv are kept to a minimum, but the Septet doesn't bump around like Bebop Keystone Kops. They can wail and flail together, then fall in and out of various-sized formations. This is especially true of the infectious swingfest, "Dark Heart-beat." Wynton, with three-horn support backed by deep, gushing rhythms with piano embellishment, meshes into one seamless music machine on "Bavou Baroque." Here we get the cheekiness of Mingus and the tight shuffle of Wynton's previous work. "Spring Yaounde" is a heart-stopping ballad featuring Wynton and pianist Eric Reed. We also like the Dixieland revue razzmatazz of "The End." The horns, which include soprano sax, alto sax and trombone, resonate and trill sweetly on the upper registers. We could go on and on about Citi Movement, but it's clearly cheeky, funny, brightly lit and darkly shaded, full of repose, and historically grand—all in one go.

ALBUM NEW RELEASES

BY KENT ZIMMERMAN

WANDERING SPIRIT -
(ATLANTIC)

While the soulfulness of "Sweet Thing" initially scared some of the format-worried rockers at first, I found it a long overdue return to what Mick Jagger is best at—combining black roots with hot rock. In fact, I'll go as far as to say that this latest solo delve is the best music to come out of the Stones camp since "Start Me Up." There was always something contrary about Jagger/Richards music adapting to the steely-wheely medium of cold, hard, calculated digital rock. So with Wandering Spirit, Jagger makes his most effective return to the (analog?) warmth that's been missing from his music over the last decade. His duet with Lenny Kravitz on the Bill Withers classic "Use Me" is the best example of why Wandering Spirit works so well. Both Lenny and Mick personify rock—even in these days of formats and de facto segregation—as a colorblind art form. Not that Wandering Spirit is a soul album. There's killer rock (my favorite is "Put Me In The Trash") and even Country ("Evening Gown") to be mined. With Wandering Spirit, Jagger's not only back on the map, but all over it with everything from rock to baroque to traditional Irish.

"DRIVEN BY YOU" -
BRIAN MAY

Already a huge hit (and a Ford commercial) in England during 1991, "Driven By You" finally hits the showroom here in the States. Brian May's Queen experience aside, it's a super terrific song loaded with searing guitars and Orbison-esque vocal layers. There are three handsome mixes to choose from. My favorite is the middle mix, although the deleted Queenish a cappella intro and outro could serve as an effective reference point. Without it though, the song stands on it's own. A mainstream masterpiece!

"I DON'T KNOW WHY" -
SHAWN COLVIN
(COLUMBIA)

Buried as the last track of Shawn Colvin's latest, this one surfaced when she performed the song stunningly on Jay Leno's Tonight Show. It's a sterling performance, soft, passionate, uncertain and beautiful. I know, all wrong for rock n roll radio. But is it really?

LYNYRD SKYNYRD

"GOOD LOVIN'S HARD TO FIND" - LYNYRD
SKYNYRD (ATLANTIC)

Lynyrd Skynyrd's still alive and kickin', with the emphasis on kickin'. With most of 1993 already mapped out in terms of road work, Skynyrd isn't exactly timid about their Southern-ness. Those blues guitars, punch horns and ooohing gospel background voices combine for a hot four minutes of Americana.

"EASY" - FAITH NO MORE (SLASH/REPRISE)

I first saw Faith No More do this on television; a shockingly straight and faithful version of Lionel Richie & the Commodores' "Easy." Right down to the famous guitar solo (and not one single note changed or squandered) Faith No More are either having a huge laugh or know a great song when they hear one. I have a feeling it's both. Also included on this EP disc is the famous theme from my all-time favorite movie, "Midnight Cowboy." I love where these guys are coming from!

DUSK - THE THE (COLUMBIA)

As is the case with most boxing fans, Matt Johnson has his own intensity streak which makes it's way to the surface of his music. Throughout Dusk, there is a thin epidermis of wailing pain. The single, "Dogs Of Lust," is just one example of the running theme that shows up on most of the songs here: The torment of having your mind ruled by lust and desires that once requited are ultimately unsatisfying. Frequently at the expense of melody, The The hammer home such restlessness, perhaps the nineties version of the blues. But, hark! The light at the end of the tunnel is a song called "Slow Emotion Replay." Like past

The The songs like "Uncertain Smile" or "This Is The Day," it serves as the album's melodic centerpiece.

RIFT - PHISH (ELEKTRA)

An amazing band who draw from as eclectic source of influences as humanly possible. Scruffy and alternative, Phish can mix styles as diverse as alternative, fusion, Country, Dead, Allmans and Jazz unashamedly, seamlessly and effortlessly. Far more dexterous on their instruments than many of their charted peers, here's a quartet who can bend the rules just short of the breaking point. Produced by Barry Beckett who has worked with everyone from Bob Dylan to Carlos Santana, Phish provide music that is brazenly intelligent, dangerously diverse and hopelessly uncategorizable. Start with "Rift," "Fast Enough With You" and the scorching "Maze."

HOWLIN MERCY - JOHN CAMPBELL (ELEKTRA)

Slightly reminiscent of Screaming Jay Hawkins, John Campbell's voice and guitar draws from blues' dark side. Harking back to the days when it was the devil's music, white bands like the Stones, Led Zep and now Campbell play their brand of blues as if to break Satan's spell. By the middle of his cover of "When The Levee Breaks" you get the feeling that Campbell is driven to play this music. Whether it's a hell hound on his trail or the simple urge to make a living doing what he loves, there's urgency in every performance. A Southerner by birth, a drag racer by trade, Campbell heard his musical calling while recuperating from a serious racing accident. Since then he's seen the world, interpreting his brand of loud acoustic rock blues. This is lights-out stuff, especially Campbell's reading of Tom Waits' "Down In The Hole." Give him a few songs and John Campbell will indeed put a spell on you.

Dear Diary

Gosh, am i bushed! Who knew that being the Presidents daughter would be so groovy?? Although I'm still exhausted from all the inaugural balls, I can't wait to get to the Gavin Convention!

Daddy just bought a plane ticket for me and socks so that we can go see the dreamiest band, Best Kissers in the world ~~at~~ at the Nightbreak. Isn't that on Haight Street?

I just love all those hippies! Daddy says, "Have fun, but don't inhale..."

ALTERNATIVE NEW RELEASES by Linda Ryan

A quick reminder: Monday, February 15, is a national holiday. Those of you who can fax your tracking information on Friday are encouraged to do so. I will be in the office on Monday from 11AM-4PM if you want to call or fax it in then. Tuesday is going to be crazy so please do what you can to help. Thank you.

JELLYFISH - SPILT MILK (VIRGIN)

I wonder how many hours I've spent listening to Jellyfish's new album? Probably too many, but it's hard to resist their finely-tuned pop sensibilities and over-the-top harmonies. Spilt Milk employs many of the same qualities that endeared us to the band's popular debut, Bellybutton, but there are quite a few twists as well—most notably, the strings and other "classical" instruments used to highlight the songs. I admit to being partial to the more uptempo offerings on Spilt Milk, my favorites being "Sabrina Paste And Plato," "Joining A Fanclub," "My Best Friend" and "New Mistake," not to mention the single many of you are pounding the heck out of, "The Ghost At Number One." Jellyfish is a band that should be experienced live—which you can do next week at the Gavin Seminar. And frontman/drummer Andy Sturmer will make an appearance on this year's Artist Panel.

LINDA RYAN

THE ROSEMARYS - PROVIDENCE (TRIPINDICULAR/CONTINUUM)

The Rosemarys came to the attention of Live 105's Steve "It's A Wacky Shred-fest" Masters, who in turn, made the folks at Continuum aware of this way-hip San Francisco band. The Rosemarys are a young band whose musical savoir-faire sounds like it's taken a thing or two from the British

"indie-kid" invasion of the past couple of years, although The Rosemarys are more melodic than many of the groups that find their way over to this side of the pond—and so much the better for them. Commercial radio should check out "Providence" and "Spiritualized," while College radios should check the entire collection out. You'll be able to see The Rosemarys play live (with Naked Soul) at this year's Seminar in the Colonial Room immediately following the Awards Banquet. This promises to be one showcase worth hanging around the hotel for. LR

311 - "DO YOU RIGHT" (CAPRICORN)

311 are a band from the midwest (ask the guys at KNNC. They've finally got a local band they can brag about!) who play it loud, melodic and with plenty of grooves. "Do You Right" is a punked-up ska party in progress—one that you can't help but groove along to. It's guaranteed to put you in a good mood. And at the risk of repeating myself, 311 will be playing in the hotel on Friday night (with Big Head Todd And The Monster) in the Colonial Room. Come on and skank to da riddem! LR

SCHOOL OF FISH - "TAKE ME ANYWHERE" (CAPITOL)

One of the most striking "personality traits" we fell in love with on School Of Fish's debut album was their knack for coming up with killer guitar licks. For those expecting the same sort of reckless abandon this time around, School Of Fish don't disappoint. In fact, by bringing Matt Wallace (The Replacements, Faith No More, etc.) in to produce, the band has all but assured the guitar gets top billing. But the guitars couldn't be the star if the song didn't have substance, and "Take Me Anywhere" is a taut piece of rock and roll. And guess what? They're in San Francisco Seminar week, too! LR

THE NIGHTBLOOMS - THE NIGHTBLOOMS (SEED RECORDS)

Hailing from distant shores, this Scandinavian four-piece brings a formidable array of looming guitars and bittersweet vocals. Scores of bands stack ethereal/4-AD-ish vocals on top of dense guitars, but only a handful do it skillfully enough that it doesn't sound like they're trying. Add the Nightblooms to this class. "59#1" sends sonic sparks flying once it lifts off—the guitar snarling like an animal finally freed from captivity. Esther Sprikkelman's bell-clear vocals continue through "Slowly Rising" until "Butterfly Girl" reveals a melodic, relaxed side. "Panicle" relies on jarring starts and stops before the vocals hit the firmament in blissful harmonies. Also give an ear to the meditative "He's Dead" and the gleaming pop "Blue Marbles." PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

WHITNEY HOUSTON - I Have Nothing (Arista) Only a handful of movie soundtracks have resulted in a succession of hit singles. "The Bodyguard" went into the record books weeks ago and shows no sign of slowing down anytime soon. Audiences and programmers alike gravitated to this track the moment the album hit the street, undoubtedly because of Whitney's emotionally-charged performance. Like they did on "I Will Always Love You" and are doing now with "I'm Every Woman," listeners will make it clear they just can't hear this song enough.

TISHA CAMPBELL - Push (Capitol) An accomplished actress currently co-starring on Fox TV's "Martin," Tisha embarks on her next phase—a singing career. Only twenty-three, this multi-talented artist has a long list of credentials dating back to her childhood, when music occupied most of her time. Watch her in action as this hook-laden, upbeat, dance track is featured on the current Gavin Video Magazine. Top 30 at KTFM San Antonio, HOT 97.7 San Jose and KKFR Phoenix.

ELTON JOHN - Simple Life (MCA) At a time when programmers have been deluged by scores of one-hit wonders, EJ long ago proved himself an artist of special stature and remarkable staying power. The reason is simple: His songs touch the soul, and are made even more dramatic by meticulous production. Just getting started at A/C, Elton once again brings true star quality to Top 40.

ALBUMS by Ron Fell

STARCLUB-Starclub (Island/PLG)

I may be discovering this fab four a little late in the game, but my enthusiasm is equal to any so far exhibited by my editorial peers here at Gavin. Taking their group name from The Star-Club, the famous venue in Hamburg, Germany where the Beatles played on many nights in 1962, these four young Englishmen bear striking musical resemblance, at times, to early John, Paul, George and Ringo. But beyond the early sonic link, they take a decidedly less juvenile approach. No one ever accused The Beatles' debut of having depth. The group's debut single, HARD TO GET, is ironically accessible and not the least bit mocking of anyone from Liverpool. By the set's third track, CALL MY NAME, the Beatles reference fades, and the influence of Irish icons like U2 is obvious during the remainder of the volume. I find tracks like THE QUESTION and THE ANSWER, as well as and the swirling hypnocracy of FOREVER as strong as anything in the set. There is a bounty of singles to make the rounds during the year. Let's hope we never get enough of this extremely talented quartet.
