FRONTRUNNERS

BAD ENGLISH

"FORGET ME NOT"

These guys have accounted for gazillions of gold platters in their respective combinations and this outing finds the mix so potent that radio couldn't wait for that official street date.

Epic

"ADDICTED TO THAT RUSH"

The focus on new entrants in the Big Bang Bonanza is rarely placed above the waist—but these brash bashers have instrumental credentials that place performance right up there with the package.

Atlantic

"FOREVER FREE"

Bad boy Blackie has flipped over a new leaf and it ain't no fig fern this time around. A legit love song with all the lyrical clarity and acoustic interplay to turn heads, not explode them.

Capitol

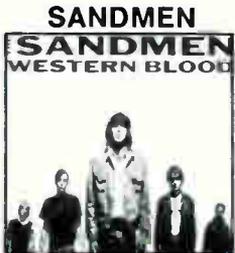

KINSEY REPORT

"MIDNIGHT DRIVE"

"Take those calls from the small labels, guys, because sometimes that's where you have to go to find those true gems. And in the case of the Kinsey Report's 'Midnight Drive', we've stuck gold"!!! Bill Prescott, KGON.

Bad English, "Forget Me Not", Epic.... Here's front page coverage for one that's already off to the races in the airplay department. A resounding 63 Adds "Before The Box" puts Bad English in the fast lane to success with a rock solid 38* debut on the Hard Hundred. WPDH's Pam Brooks predicts, "As far as I'm concerned, Jimmy The Greek will be giving great odds that this will be blowing the doors in! Waite, Schon and Cain have put a serious rock and roll stamp on a piece of vinyl that you surely won't 'Forget'. Let it rip, the boys are wailing!".... When it comes to vocalists who define the spirit of rock and roll, John Waite has always commanded a place alongside esteemed colleagues such as Paul Rodgers, Rod Stewart and Lou Gramm. As for guitarists, can you honestly name anyone with better chops or credentials than Neil Schon? For the icing on the cake, take the man who has written countless hits with this pair of talents, Jonathan Cain, and stir him into the mix. The reported teaming of this trio had expectations at a fever pitch. But this time--the new team have delivered! Just ask Joe Paiano at WRKU, "They reach further than I had hoped. Polished clean professionals doing what they do best!".

Kinsey Report, "Midnight Drive", Alligator.... You can be taught many things in life, from mechanical craft to controlling emotion. You can be endlessly schooled on the technical aspects of playing an instrument, or the comparatively simple task of changing your own oil. One of the few things that can not be absorbed through repeated lessons is the Blues. Sure, you can cultivate an honest appreciation, or compassion for one of America's only true original art forms. But to really play the Blues, it's got to be in your blood. The Kinsey Report is a band that possesses not only the necessary soul, but a heritage of true blue bloodlines. Hailing from Gary, Indiana, a town that also produced another famous family by the name of Jackson, brothers Donald, Kenneth and Ralph got an early introduction to the Blues from their father Lester "Big Daddy" Kinsey. In the twilight of the 60's, Pop had his young proteges on the road as "Big Daddy Kinsey & His Fabulous Sons". The turn of the decade found guitarist/singer Donald spreading his wings on a career path that included stints with Albert King, White Lightning, Peter Tosh and even work on Bob Marley's seminal "Rastaman Vibration" album. A brief reunion with brother Ralph as part of The Chosen Ones yielded an Indie Ep, but in 1984 Kenneth joined his siblings along with second guitarist Ron Prince, and The Kinsey Report was formed. They made their recording debut backing "Big Daddy" on his 1985 "Bad Situation" Lp (with Donald producing), and made such an impression that Roy Buchanan tapped Donald to work on his last two Alligator releases. Finally in 1988 they released an album all their own, and "Edge Of The City" instantly earned a heap of critical praise. With this second effort, The Kinsey Report should break out of their very devoted cult status, and earn widespread acclaim as one of the very best Blues/Rock acts on the scene. "Midnight Drive" is already working at stations like WXRT and KGON, give it a test run at your place and watch the phones explode.

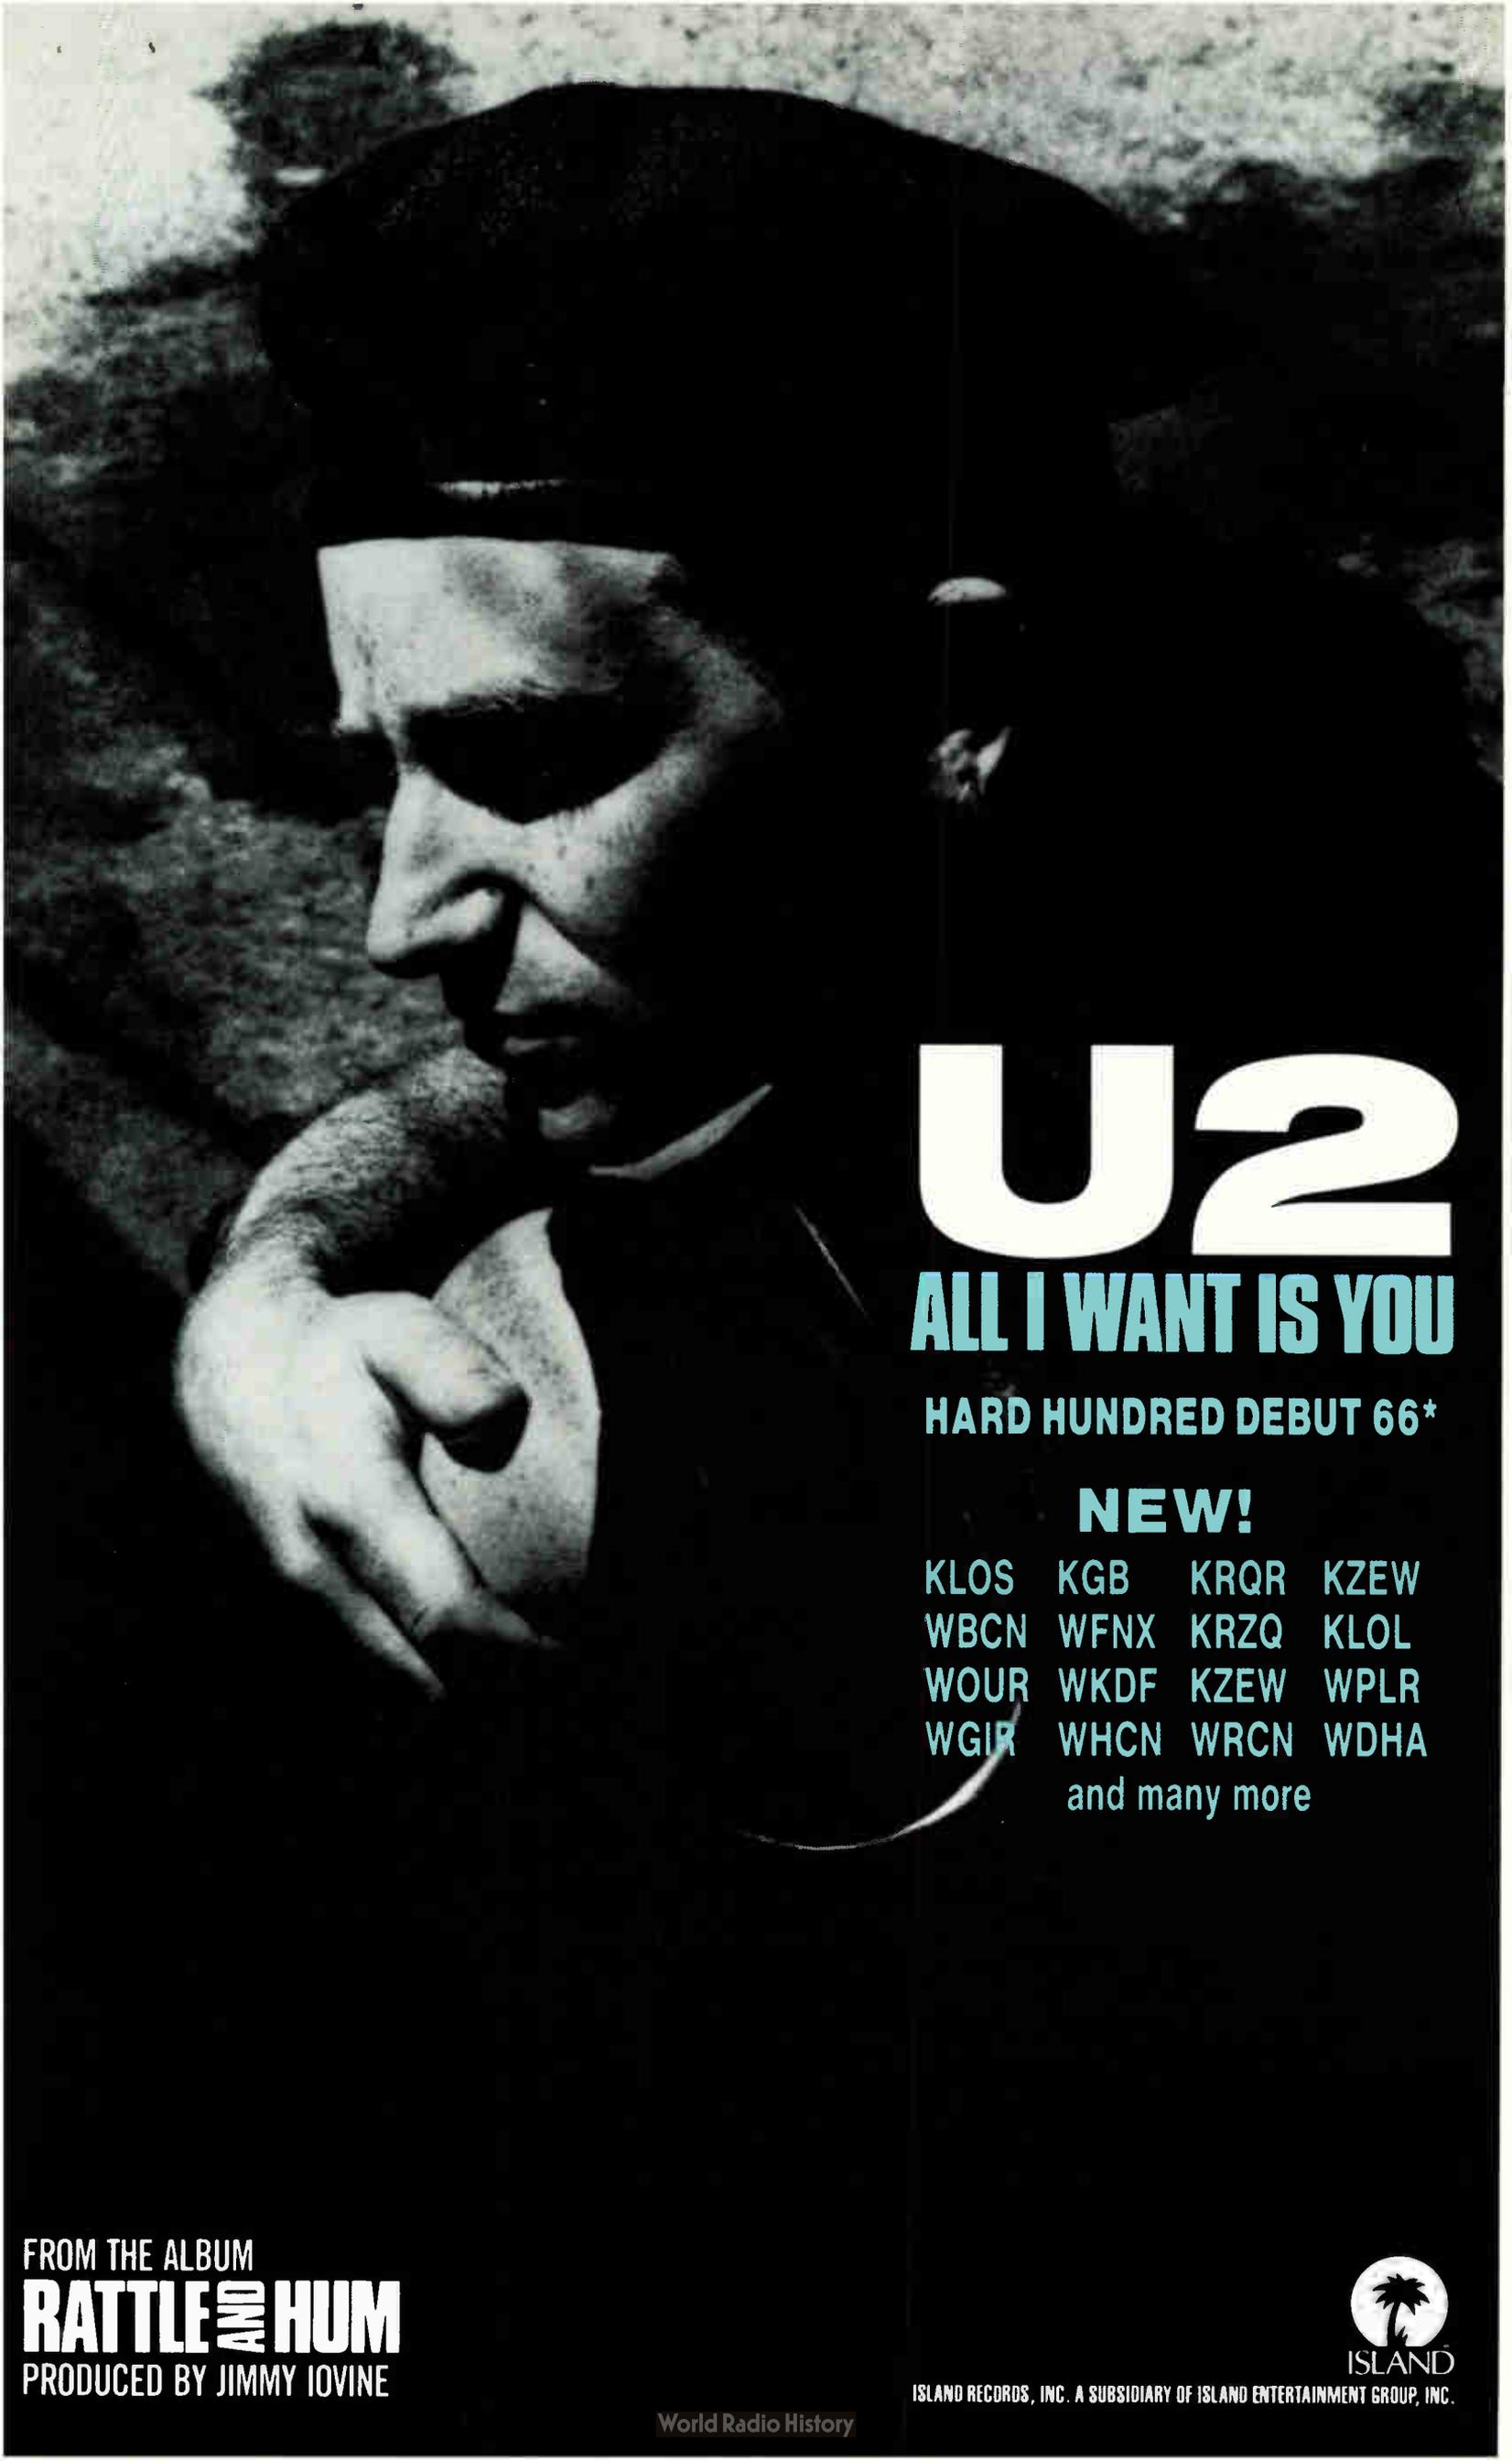

HARD ACTS TO FOLLOW

Bang Tango, "Someone Like You", Mechanic/MCA.... This product of the L.A. club scene has leaped the staircase to the spotlight with the kind of "blink and it's gone" quickness that rock fantasies are made of. Before blowing out the candles on their first anniversary cake, they iced a recording deal! Sounds simple, right? Not exactly. Bang Tango may appear to be the recipient of a "look ma, no hands" lucky break, but it was their rock 'til you drop work ethic that made it happen. A relentless live schedule transformed the locals to lemmings, and created a buzz so big that they were almost caught with their trousers down. Although that's usually a plus, it's no laughing matter when the buzzards are circling the wagon and you've been too busy to record a demo to toss in the air! That snag was solved with a six song live Indie release, and the national reaction on the Hard Rock/Metal front proved that Tango had the talent to dance beyond local hero status. The "Psycho Cafe" album marks the band's first major release, and for this initial emphasis they've enlisted some big name support in the crucial video department. Director Jeff Stein was assured of celluloid celebrity after his "The Kids Are Alright" feature for The Who, but his continued success on the small screen with artists like Billy Idol, Bruce Springsteen, Tom Petty and many others have earned him a house full of awards, including the #1 MTV video of all time, Heart's "These Dreams".

Mr. Big, "Addicted To That Rush", Atlantic.... If the name of this band sounds vaguely familiar, it could be because of the existence of a European group bearing the same moniker. They released a handful of records, including a quite popular 1975 import called "Sweet Silence", but remain strictly a footnote on the pages of rock and roll. Rest assured, there is absolutely no danger of history repeating itself! This new powerhouse is destined to fulfill the promise of their name, and when "Addicted" mixes with air, we're talking Mr. Huge! In recent times the term "Supergroup" is almost as abused as "Comeback", but when you peruse the talent roll call here, it's apparent that this collection of Hard Rockers has earned the tag. Billy Sheehan has had his name at the top of Guitar Player magazine's reader's poll as "World's #1 Bass Player" the last four years, not to mention his ground breaking work with Talas and his stint as Musical Director for David Lee Roth. In short, any discussion of rock bass technique usually begins and ends with Billy. Eric Martin has been flaunting his explosive vocal chords with his own band for years, and "Sucker For A Pretty Face" hit paydirt with solid airplay a short time ago. Paul Gilbert is responsible for the fretboard workout on every Racer X album, and also has a regular bi-line in Guitar Player, in addition to a popular instructional video. Last, but not least, Pat Torpey was most recently the man behind the kit for Robert Plant's live show, and Impellitteri's "Stand In Line" longplayer. He remains one of the hottest session skin men on the scene. This first offering from their self-titled debut, in tandem with the impending tour, is an event you shouldn't arrive at fashionably late.

W.A.S.P., "Forever Free", Capitol.... What's this? The band whose name was rumored to stand for "We Are Sexual Perverts" actually being listed as a legit Fronrunner? Have Bwana and the gang been ingesting Romilar by the gallon? Is this simply a hoax, a cruel prank designed to make us all outlaws with the F.C.C. and P.M.R.C.? Is Elvis really dead? Why does it hurt when I pee? These are all good questions, and while you won't get this staff to give up the truth on each of them, we will say that this latest from Blackie's Bunch more than deserves the high profile treatment. The band who once, to put it mildly, stood for all things very naughty have grown. In fact, on this tune W.A.S.P. could very easily stand for "We Are Sensitive People"! "Forever Free" is, believe it or not, a beautiful "love" song. To be more precise, a lost love song. It appears that Mr. Lawless done got his heart trampled on, and with a melody line right out of Zeppelin's "Your Time Is Gonna Come", W.A.S.P. are about to emerge as a serious all daypart performer. For yet another Led Zep reference, A-B the acoustic intro with "Over The Hills And Far Away". That they've been able to mature in regard to their musical approach is really not the stunner. But that they've done so without losing their indefinable "Edge" is! Forget what you think you know about this band, and spend some time with "The Headless Children". The subject matter of the project isn't pretty, but "Forever Free" most certainly is.

Cheap Trick, "You Got It", WTG.... Although they were written off by many, Rick Nielsen got the last laugh. He assembled the original four corners of the Trick puzzle and rode the "Lap Of Luxury" back to the top of the charts. When you think about it, Cheap Trick was one of the first Stars Of Old who were able to recapture the magic formula. This track is lifted from the soundtrack to "Say Anything", and once again finds the Tricksters at the top of their game. "You Got It" has the energy overload that makes you wonder if it's been in the can since the "In Color" days. Robin Zander is one pin-up from the past who hasn't lost a note of vocal range, and here he sounds like a high school senior let loose on a weekend rampage. When he gets a quality tune to play with the results are always a wonder to behold, and with a master like Rick Nielsen in control of the sound scenery, you know it's got to be a pretty picture. The man with the baseball cap and a zillion guitars is so adept at translating teenage angst to hooky anthems that it's easy to take him for granted. But with any well oiled machine optimum performance from all cylinders is necessary to produce a winner, and this is a rhythm section stingy on waste material. Bun E. Carlos replaces the ride/high hat cymbals with the floor tom as the 4/4 focus, resulting in a tribal call to big beat battle. Tom Petersson's re-enlistment has paralleled the band's return to prominence, and this track is a fine way to keep the ball rolling.

ISLAND RECORDS, INC. A SUBSIDIARY OF ISLAND ENTERTAINMENT GROUP, INC.

The Sandmen, "Western Blood", A & M.... They delivered one of the year's finest debut albums, and the first key cut "House In The Country" earned high marks at a host of reporters. That song displayed the more gentle side of The Sandmen, but as anyone whose absorbed the entire effort will attest, this Danish export can rock with the best. Lord knows the high volume current traffic situation is putting too many deserving new artists in danger of getting lost in the sauce. But to let this outstanding title track fall prey to classic overload would be a grave injustice. The Pro CD on your desk is a nifty new version called "The Garden Mix", and the snap crackle pop of snare that kicks it off signals that this is no ordinary stroll in the park. As they have readily admitted, The Stones played a large part in their formative musical years. However, the guitar work here proves that Dire Straits got plenty of turntable time between the buttons. Knopfler-esque runs abound, and the precise interplay of Stefan Jensen and Sam Mitchell doesn't place quantity over quality. Lead singer Allan Vegenfeldt has the gritty pipes every front man desires, and when he spits out, "Hey you, I've got something to say!", you better believe it's the truth. Don't let The Sandmen get washed away by the wave of big names, "Western Blood" will pump fresh new life into any list.

Diesel Park West, "Shakespeare Alabama", EMI.... It was a pleasure to see this promising newcomer rack up double-digit Adds in a week filled with proven performers. "When The Hoodoo Comes" has such an instantly infectious hook that even industry types like ourselves have been spotted humming along in public places. For example, during the seventh inning stretch at this year's McGathy Yankee outing WDHA's Andy Dean was caught in the act. When we cornered him for a post game grilling Mr. Dean fessed up, "It gets my vote for 'cool' song of the week! It's a bit like U2 but with an injection of boogie. Whatever the score, this mutha cooks!".... Andy threw his call letters into the ring with other early believers like WQFM, WHJY, WCCC, KXRX, WRXK and WZZO helping "Hoodoo" grab a 85* debut on the Hard Hundred. The quality that enables DPW to rise above the jangle jamboree is leader John Butler's ability to craft honest to goodness "songs". He has the knack for penning tunes that incorporate the spirit of the Summer Of Love, and the talent to remove any trace of nostalgia. Now that the album is finally available here, it won't be long before Stateside scribes join in on the overwhelming overseas acclaim. Sample the power of "Like Princes Do", the pure pop of "All The Myths On Sunday" or the beauty of "Jackie's Still Sad" if you doubt the advance rants. If it's a super segue you're after, try "Bell Of Hope" front or back with "Talk Of The Town" by The Pretenders. We could honestly recommend every tune included because this is an album that's almost too good to be true, revealing new charm with every listen. So stop reading and give your ears a treat.

NEW PLAY PRIORITIES

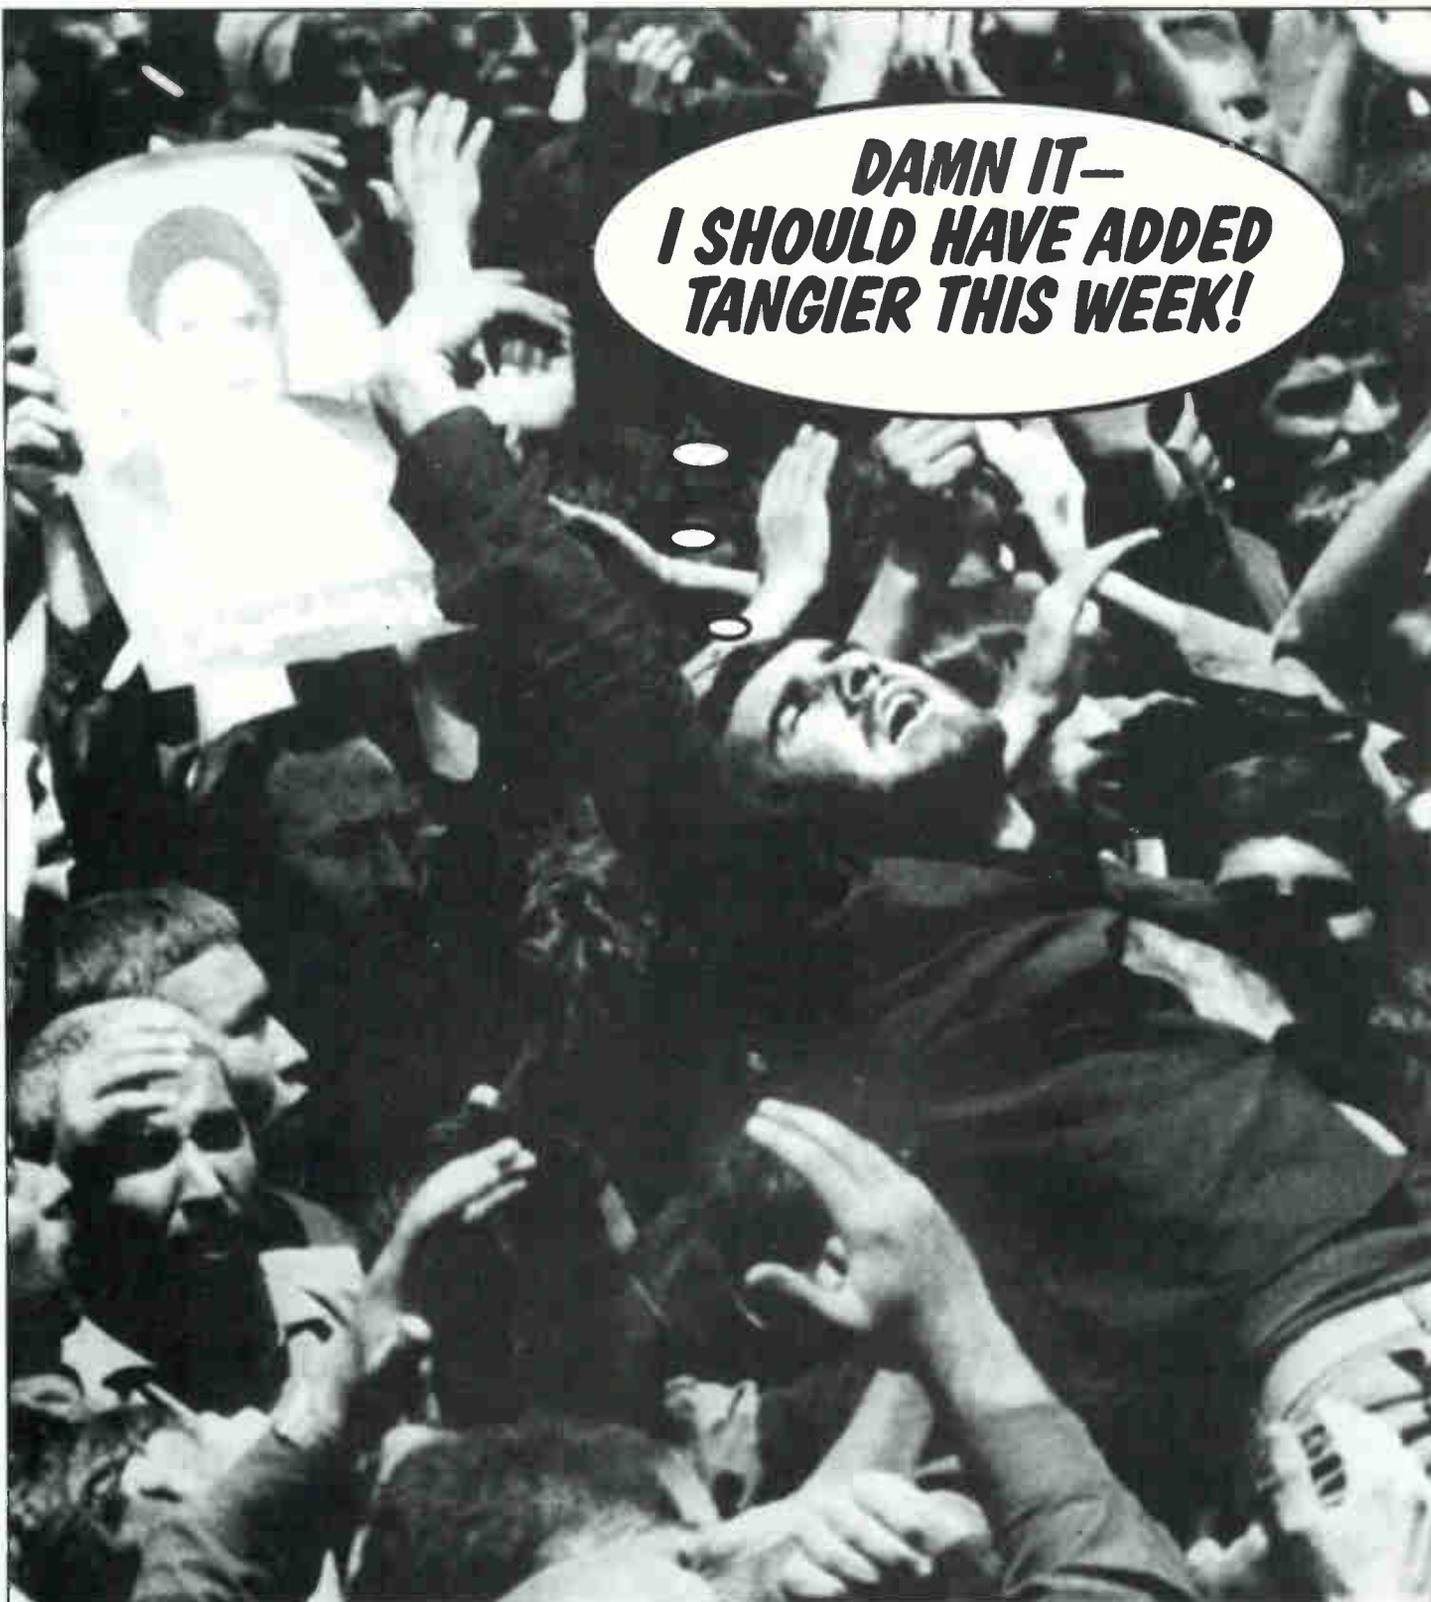

The Cult, "Sun King", Reprise.... The brand new edit is just now starting to arrive, but judging from the early action it's safe to say that Mr. Postman wasn't fast enough. "Sun King" is already warming its way up the Hard Hundred, and this week's 51-42* move reflects new Add action at 20 including KAZY, KGB, KLAQ, KOMA, KZAP, KZEW, WFBQ, WHJY and WKLS. Tom Van Sant at WIZN was among the gang that jumped the official gun, but he ain't afraid to shoot straight and explain why, "The album has been Top 15 here for months, and phone interest has been tremendous, with this track is Top 5 already. This band cannot be denied!".... KSJO is also pulling down major request action, and we show Increases at WBAB, WHEB, KFMH and more. A glance at your retail tracking will no doubt find The Cult constantly at the top of the list, and we all know a ringing register is the best proof you can get. With an Lp this deep in quality, and the obvious smash "Edie" still waiting in the wings, you better believe this story is just getting started. With a statement echoing the overwhelming majority, here's a final word from WKLT's Darryl Delott, "'Sonic Temple' remains one of my favorites right now, and the best is yet to come from the album".

Joe Jackson, "Down To London", A & M.... No matter how much they'd love to, nobody gets to stay "Nineteen Forever". So the only logical course of action is to take a stroll across the ocean in this "Blaze Of Glory". Joe's teen dream did wonders in winning back his airplay base, and make no mistake that was the game plan going in. He's taken his time at the college of musical knowledge, with eclectic electives in everything from films to the sounds of Louie Jordan. With a talent like this, it comes as no surprise that he can still dish out the type of intelligent pop that we've been clamoring for all along. "Down To London" is the right choice for track number two, and a dozen show early airtime including KFMH, KXRX, WDHA, WLAV and WZBH, with Increased action at WIZN and new Adds from WWTR and KRQU. It has a fabulously funky backbeat straight out of 60's soul, and a harmonica sound that could pass for Mr. Fingertips himself. J.J. is ready to reclaim the high profile airplay of "Look Sharp", and when he belts out, "Stop! What's that sound?", you can't help thinking about The Springfield and "For What It's Worth". Can you name another performer with the ability to blend influences as diverse as Stills and Wonder in the space of a single song? A great platter for these days of Summer. Heat and serve immediately!

Wishbone Ash, "Keeper Of The Light", IRS.... Before you groan at the prospect of having to deal with yet another name from the past flinging their hat into the rebirth ring, take a minute to reflect on the history of this U.K. quartet. Throughout their MCA to Atlantic back to MCA career, Wishbone Ash always operated on the outskirts of full blown stardom. Often copied, but never sufficiently rewarded, their pioneering twin guitar attack arrived on the scene a bit too soon to reap the mass adulation showered on bands that lifted their licks. The interplay of Andy Powell and Ted Turner was revolutionary in the sense that it cast aside the norm of the single guitar hero. While either could have very easily been the main man, they chose to explore the possibilities of unison and harmony lines, and proved that even in rock and roll the sum is greater than its components. For a great example of their efforts, dig out a copy of the "Argus" album. You'll be amazed at the record's ability to still sound fresh, and startled to hear sounds that you thought Dire Straits invented. So don't look at a new Wishbone Ash album as a cash in on the comeback craze, because they were never Lear Jet loudmouths in their heyday. This is primarily a labor of love on the part of the esteemed Miles Copeland, who gained his first liner note credit as the band's manager back in the 70's. He coaxed the original line-up to reform for his "No Speak" series, and they had such a blast that a proper Ash album was necessary. "Here To Hear" marks their return, and this track alone is proof enough that they've never sounded better.

Stevie Ray Vaughan, "In Step", Epic.... "Crossfire" continues to burn up the Hard Hundred with a four alarm 30-14* move, and more ranting reporters than you can shake a stick at. One of the mellowest fellas on the planet was transformed into a churnin' urn of burnin' funk when we asked him to opine on the phone line. That's right, our old partner and current WROV music man Dave Cowan was positively possessed when he testified, "Stevie has delivered what is probably the strongest AOR song of the year to date. This smokes!".... Big Dave ain't on lonely avenue, as 58 newcomers place this axe master in the Top 5 Most Added for the second week running. But let's not forget the 13 Increases including KLBK, KPEZ, KWIC, WGIR and WIZN, or the 18 Top 5 phone reports from calls like WDIZ, WDVE, WQFM and WZBH. We expect the same roar of approval once you get to stroll through the rest of "In Step", just ask a man who has, Doug Clifton at KBCO, "Stevie has turned up his guitar playing a notch since turning his personal life around, and his new album could rank up there with 'Texas Flood' as one of his best ever! 'Crossfire' and 'Let Me Love You Baby' only scratch the surface of a project that we'll be able to utilize well into the Fall of '89".... The man's right, and a listen to "Tightrope" or "The House Is Rockin'" will prove it! For a change of pace make sure you hear "Riviera Paradise". Which shows Stevie in a whole new light. The length may prohibit air-time but don't let that stop you from digging it on your own.

Saraya, "Get U Ready", Polygram.... This Garden State quintet may be the new kids on the block, but they are definitely kicking ass and taking names! They're rapidly earning the rep as a serious contender for this year's Rookie award, and when you check the facts it easy to see why. "Love Has Taken Its Toll" was the best testing call-out song of the year for a new artist, and spent a solid couple of months in Top 5 National Request Land-- right out of the chute. Sandi and the boys have taken their regional big name, and spread that lovin' feelin' across the Country, proving that the Saraya brand of Rock N' Raw is able to transcend the tri-State area. With over 150,000 units sold, at the current rate of 40,000 in the last three weeks, they've made the leap to the bigtime because they have the talent to back it up. Next up from their eponymous debut, is another core pleaser, and "Get U Ready" should easily match the 100 market Heavy Rotation play of its predecessor. In fact, it has even more instant appeal, and a better hook, so don't be shocked when it performs even better.

The studio version of "Statesboro Blues" checks in with a 37* Hard Hundred debut, and sole possession of third place on this week's Most Added with 70 stations reacting like it was buried treasure. After all it is! As Roger the Dodger from KRNA reveals, "One pass of 'Statesboro' broke open a flood gate of phone calls from curious brothers' asking where we got it and gearing up for it just like I was in anticipation of the unreleased material and Allmans gems. Whoever's decision it was to put 'Dreams' together, THANKS!".... Bill Levenson is the man that should get the biggest pat on the back, and as we're sure you know he was the guy behind the fabulous Clapton Box as well. The amount of material that is being made available for the first time is staggering, and the inclusion of "Ain't Wastin' Time No More" from the long out-of-print "Mar Y Sol" collection will certainly fill a hole in quite a few station libraries. The retail action on this stunning set is expected to be off the scale, and the request line spill over is bound to match. As Beth Kepple from WKLS remarks, "This collection is incredible, even if you're not a diehard ABB junkie, and that reunion tour can't happen soon enough!".

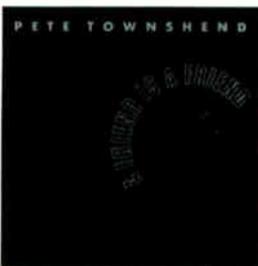

IMPACT TRACKS

Don Henley, "The End Of The Innocence", Geffen.... The Most Added track this week nabs 164 week one stations, with over one hundred of them backing up that enthusiasm with Heavy to Power rotation--good for a phenomenal 9* Hard Hundred debut. J.D. at WONE voices the standard response, "It's been over four and a half years in the making and from the sound of this release it's been well worth the wait. The added touch of Bruce Hornsby on piano makes this track extra attractive". No doubt about the amount of anticipation building for this release and the man with the unmistakable timbre and lyrical inflection can claim instant acceptance with the best of them. "It's a finely crafted song. Lyrically, we grown-ups can really appreciate this. It's deep, dark, haunting, and stunningly beautiful", says WKQQ's Stacy Yelton and she hits the nail square on the first pass. The list of calls includes WDVE, DC-101, KSHE, KISW, WNEW, KZAP, KATT, KYYS, WFBQ, KLOS, WKLS, KGON, KUPD, WHCN and KGB among a galaxy of others. Keith Masters at WAQY is convinced it's the, "Best new single of 89, hands down", and Brian Illes over at WKFM has called it, "A shimmering record that exudes quality". The wait has been repaid on this one.

Pete Townshend, "A Friend Is A Friend", Atlantic.... The runner up in this week's Add Derby sees Pete notching

149 stations on his first day at the races. The plot of this offering is pulled from the Ironman story that has delighted children for so many years and, according to Doug Clifton of KBCO, the choice of material couldn't be better, "If the advance release is any indication it appears Pete is right on target in following his own classic stories "Tommy" and "Quadrophenia" with "Ironman" At any rate the radio dividends are already coming in handsomely with listener interest running high, "It seems to be about all the people care about right now, the Who and the return of Pete to the airwaves", according to Barbara Voight at WZXL and it is safe to say that the man has a rare claim to the affections of many who grew up with the format. That 12* debut is backed by play at KXXR, WBCN, WLUP, WQFM, KRQR, WPYX, KLLO, KEZO, KAZY, KOME, KBCO, WOUR, KSHE, KILO and WEGR with 50% of those reporting showing a Heavy or Power rotation already! "There is something subtle about this song that simply demands airplay" according to WBLM's Robin Mathieu, "Make no mistake, the audience wants to hear this record, period", and at WAQX, Meg Stevens reports, "Instant phones on the Townshend". With the Who tour looking like the biggest story of the Summer and the unique love affair that this man has with your 25+ males you would have to be on the dim side of the street not to see this one coming.

BoDeans, "You Don't Get Much...", Reprise.... Nothing has been more satisfying than watching this band develop into the talent that we knew lurked beneath those raw rhythms and distinctive harmonies. This time they have delivered the song that radio has been waiting for and the reaction time has been remarkable, to say the least. With 58 stations on in week #1 the Deans are getting their fair share at last and it looks like a second helping is only a listen away. "I love the BoDeans track", testifies KWHL's Dan Thomas, "When the song is up and running it becomes obvious that this is what the BoDeans are all about. From what I can hear this time out, their vocals are even better than before". Among other instant supporters we track WLLZ, WMAD, WLAV, KBCO, WAOR, WDHA, KILO, KRZO, WXRT, KSJO, WIBA, KEZO, KTYD and WKRR where John Amberg opines, "The BoDeans are on the threshold of mass appeal popularity. It only took the public three albums to get there. "You Don't Get Much" captures the essence of Kurt and Sammy's sound and then pounds home a hook so massive that you'd have to be catatonic to miss it". Never known for a lack of nerve induction, Pam Brooks at WPDH agrees, "They've captured the essence of cruising in the torrid summer sun looking for that one great encounter. This is a beauty from start to finish and there isn't much that makes my palms sweat". With debut at 54* these lean lads are about to send many far more pudgy acts to a fat farm for some much needed trimming.

White Lion, "Little Fighter", Atlantic.... When the advance tape on this new collection of songs hit our Hard Cabin formica we reeled in anticipation of what the next step would be for this band. Touted as one of the big wins in a very big year for Atlantic last season, this band has answered those raised eyebrows with a masterful blend of styles that misses nothing in the punch department. This track is bound to renew the still vibrating link-up between White Lion and their many fans with radio, luckily for us, being the primary conduit. A total of 28 stations have thrown their weight behind "Little Fighter" with WIOT, WFBQ, KICT, WEBN, KQRS, WAQX, KXXR and WRQK among the contenders. Big phones are reported at KJJO, WQFM, KRZO, WDVE and KUPD already and the number of rotational increases includes KGB, WZZO, KSOY, WRIF and WONE, among others helping along that 35-28* jump this week. A more sure hand is at the tiller this time and the resulting sound is deft and economical while retaining every ounce of six string energy that have been key to the big bang these guys have enjoyed at the younger end of the spectrum. Best of all, the song selection could expand their fan base without harming their already well established legend one iota. The whole package is strong and deep for radio and it looks like another Summer will be wearing white at AOR.

U2, "All I Want Is You", Island.... Another debut for U2 on the Hard Hundred this week comes ready to roll from the continuing "Rattle And Hum" storyboard. The film is already on cable in some markets and the initial frenzy in sales may have died down, but not the interest at AOR. The format gave this band their big break and wisely retains the copyright with more new exposures from this collection of material. A list of 33 players this week include CFNY, KXFX, WAPL, KRQR, WFNX, KLOS, WHCN, KGB, WKDF and KLLO, all helping to fuel that 66* debut on the Hard Hundred. Keeping with their tradition of Non-Lp B Sides, the boys have included 2 classic remakes for U---- get it? "Unchained Melody" and "Everlasting Love" are bound to get plenty of Summertime airplay attention. While deserving bands like the BoDeans and even the critical darlings Deisel Park West get compared to the Irish quartet, the fact remains that the original, with the inspired and chopping rhythms of The Edge, and the rare vocal persona of Bono to the fore, still shows us a band in their creative prime.

Hard Hundred 47-39*

Tangier, "On The Line", Atco.... The first curtain call for the newly refitted Atco squad shows all kinds of promise for this fresh and invigorating sound. Breaking the century mark this week, Tangier pulls in play on WEBN, KXRX, WFBQ, KUPD, KNAC, WPYX, KOMA, WHJY and WFYV while posting early reaction increases at KICT, WCMF, KILQ, WAPL and KBOY. "Tangier is a walkin' surprise", according to Joe Paiano at WRKU, "I heard plenty of talk about the disc, but most often the talk exceeds the rock. And then you go on the line to discover a project truly worthy of your attention". The crisp playing and those mega watt vocals have people rolling in the aisles, "Great songs, great production and a killer vocal, (best I've heard since Paul Rodgers with a flavoring of Billy Gibbons). This equals one mother of a band", sez the right reverend Ralph Tortora from his WBAB pulpit while passing the hat to D-Day down at WRXK, "This rocker reaches up and pulls you down slow and easy into a tight fitting rock groove that sure works for us". Steady play at format stalwarts WLLZ, WLAV, WLUP, WKLS, WBCN, WYFN, WLZR, KZAP, KRQR, KYYS, KRXQ, WSHE, WMMR, KGB, KSJO, WRIF and WLVQ indicates the quality of reaction that these Philly rockers have been able to command. Their seamless production and juiced up fret work showcase a band worthy of all this attention. With a solid 40-32* hike this week and more in the works, this could be one of the new troupes we remember most from the Summer of '89.

MORE HARD ACTS

Marshall Crenshaw, "Some Hearts", WB.... Years ago, he was opening for Howard Jones and now he's firmly ensconced in his own headliner cape. He has always taken great delight in displaying a style little seen in those otherwise crunchin' block-sized cut-out power songs. And, true to form, he and his friends like David Lindley and Syd Straw have crafted an up-tempo yet introspective piece that just whirls along like some dust funnel on an abandoned playground. The instrumentation is complex yet easily absorbed by even the most casual ear. It's high time for Marshall to be embraced by the format in equal measure to his critical success and it's folks like WIZN's Tom Van Sant who knows what it's all about, "Marshall Crenshaw's 'Some Hearts' is a beautiful song from one of rock's great untapped talents."... Pass the malt liquor and praise the emotional output. With 22 OTB's from the likes of KABL, KBLE, KEZE, KFMH, KFMU, KRXX, WCCC, WDHA, WHFS, WROV and WWTR you can count on a solid base for the future but for now, how about that HH Debut of 96*.

Tora Tora, "Walkin Shoes", A&M.... And just when you thought that airplane art was getting rooted in the past, here comes an entirely fresh shot of modern day aerodynamics. And, as if in response, a chorus of airplay slipstreaming has been charting on report day in the last couple of weeks. Ty "Double Your Fun" Banks at KQWB says, "Tora Tora mania mania is still sweeping the country."... And with more detail, is KWHL's Dan Thomas, "Tora Tora is doing good stuff for us already. It's got that raunchy rock and blues feel to it that gets top five phones just two weeks into the project. Actually, the first time I played this track I got phones."... And WWZU's Dave Hazzardd isn't hiding his hand either, "On the horizon, flashing in the sun, this Tora Tora record is going to really take hold once it gets a little exposure. People love that bad boy rock and roll and these guys have the image in spades."... New at KATT, KBAT, KISW, KZOO, WEQX, WKLC, WKLT and WKQZ with Top Five requests tabulated at KKEG, KRZQ, KWHL, WEGR and WYFN. On the Hard Hundred at 59-55*.

Indio, "Hard Sun", A&M.... When it's time to kick off the Birkenstocks, nothing seems better than a little relaxed ambiance. No screaming in your speakers, no self-important solos pedaling your brain into overdrive after a hectic lunch. Sure, you need to sample something with more atmosphere than an induced sugar coma, right? Well we found some downright soothing percussions and guitar lines on "Hard Sun" with more of the same on the rest of the album. WPDH's Pam Brooks takes the triplicate approach, "Love love love 'Hard Sun' by Indio. It's up there in my top ten fave new releases. Dylanesque backed with a spine-tingling toe-tapping thigh-pumping beat that has gotten seriously under my skin. My sincerest wish is that we prove capable of doing what we should do best, exposing greatness to our listeners. Because 'Hard Sun' exemplifies what a hit should be. In your face hooks, great lyrics and unforgettable sound."... An encouraging move at 95-77* on the Hard Hundred and added at KACV, KFMH, KFMU, KTCL, WIZN and WXRT with increases at CHOM, WGIR, WHFS and WMDK.

"Road House" Soundtrack, Arista.... Little Feat have taken the rock radio stable by storm like those large ominous clouds that pass overhead, unsure whether to drop a bucket of rain or not. Well the deluge is all airplay with these boys and in some strange kind of coda follow-up to last year's "Let It Roll", "Rad Gumbo" adds that right amount of infectious spirit to the whole of this very impressive soundtrack. Jeff Healey's cover of "Roadhouse Blues" is just one of four he tackles with equal zest and brilliance, such as "I'm Tore Down", Willie Dixon's "Hoochie Coochie Man" and Dylan's "When The Night Comes Falling From The Sky". Seger's "Blue Monday" may not take over 3 minutes on your timer, but that's just more whiz for your in-between break time. Comprende, muchacho? As for da Feat's, they are taking on adds at KFMU, KRZZ and WZBZ and increases from KSHE, WWDC and WXRT for almost 20 stations on. Note that mega-play already at WWDC, KBCO, KSHE and WTPA. That essential Feats niche has already been long-established, why let it go unsatisfied? Moving up the HH at 98-90*.

John Eddie, "Swear", Columbia.... Sure, we know all about this favorite son in these parts, but we're not going to be selfish any more. If you're keeping one eardrum peeled for that essential artist destined to keep his place in the light o'lime, back off. This is him. Fewer songs have earned such immediate appraisal, and fewer still have the stamina to take the push Columbia has for this. Oh, yeah, how about that chart move, this week on the Hard Hundred it leapfrogs 83-67*, taking a slot in the Biggest Movers column with the likes of Stevie Ray Vaughan and Simple Minds. We'd just about take our own name in vain to get you to listen to this cut and, lord knows, we never do that. Language withstanding, Mr. Eddie has a big head start converting large sums of audience and programmers alike to his side. Attaboy, and teach 'em about how to make a proper cheesesteak, too. New this week at KFMH, KMOD, KQDS, WAOR, WGIR, WHEB, WPDH, WQFM and WWTR. By the time this song takes its rightful place in the AOR cart rack, you'll wonder how you'd gotten along without him.

Bombs away! Don't be caught on the ground while Memphis rockers Tora Tora invade the airwaves with "Walkin Shoes", this one's gonna fly

Chris Herrmann, WHJY, Providence

These Memphis kids have put their finger right on a blend of rock n' blues that will appeal to both young and old alike.

Dave Kane, WCMF, Rochester

Tora Tora is another one of those pure rock and roll records and this album has some legs. "Walkin' Shoes" is already off to a good start and some others to consider are "Guilty" and "Hard Times". This is rock n' roll the way we like it!

Ty Banks, KQWB, Fargo

Tora Tora mania is sweeping the country.

Darryl Delott, WKLT, Kalkaska

Tora Tora shows some encouraging moves on my turntable. This band should stand up to the test of airplay with no problem.

Dan Thomas, KWHL, Anchorage

Tora Tora is doing good stuff for us already. It's got that raunchy rock and blues feel to it that gets top five phones just two weeks into the project.

Dave Hazzard, WWZU, Williamsport

On the horizon, Tora Tora is going to really take hold once it gets a little exposure. People love that bad boy rock and roll and these guys have the image in spades.

From the album SURPRISE ATTACK

Warrant, "Heaven", Columbia.... When we caught this show in the nearby 'burg of Trenton, we still remember that this song caught considerable attention from the audience. "Down Boys" is even now getting the double take from CHR and those other format cherry pickers so now is the time to move it on over. The boys from that yonder coast have taken us rockers by our non-tanned exteriors and the buzz has started to build mightily. Ballads always pack the severest wallop, coz of those young and not so young demos they appeal to. "Dirty Rotten Filthy Stinking Rich" offers quite a selection remaining for those of you motivated by hot phones. New support is already being notched at KBAT, KCAL, KDJK, KFMF, KFMG, KFMX, KKAZ, KSJO, KSQY, KZOO, KZRR, WAOR, WIOT, WIYY, WONE, WRQK and WWWV. These lads are elevating up the Hard Hundred 57-52*, with lots more potential for audio exposure to come. Check it out, it bears closer inspection.

Jet Red, "Not The Only One", Relativity.... Few bands strike such degrees of excitement and literal drooling as the buzz on these boys from Cali have Pavloved. Take a young retiring lad from Modesto, one Beaver "Fax A Deli Sandwich" Brown from KDJK. With plentiful metaphors in hand, they've attacked this project with relish. (Ed note... ouch!) Or, as the Beave would say, "If you haven't climbed aboard the first class accommodations of Jet Red Airlines, you best get your ticket. This little one-listen wonder will fly into your listeners ears at Mach 1 and have them getting to the phones at Mach 2 to hear more. Relativity has another winner on their hands. So find your seat and get ready for one hell of a ride!"... The pack of players on this one already includes 7 early plays from the likes of KACV, KDJK, KKAZ, KKDJ, KRQU, KZEW and WCCC. Check out these pages in the next week for what looks like a strong run at the venerable Hard Hundred.

Johnny Diesel, "Don't Need Love", Chrysalis.... His first track took the ranks of the unwary and shook them firmly by the jugular in a way that only those bred in Western Australia can do. The word straight from Texas last weekend is that the live show blistered the ears of all attending. No doubt, the Dallas weekend has made many a fan and they're still doing that "tell two friends" lippage thang. Johnny stands to bulk up his visibility among decision makers considerably in the next week. KPEZ's Elise Vander Borgh was there and so testifies, "The Johnny Diesel and the Injectors show went very well. We added "Don't Need Love" on the strength of his live performance alone."... Along with Elise's calls, we tally a total of 13 adds from KEZE, KFMG, KFMH, KFMU, KFMX, WDHA, WHTG, WMFX and WQFM among others. That Hard Hundred debut can't be lagging far behind with that kind of action, bubba.

BulletBoys, "Smooth Up", WB.... That ol' serpentine move is just as fresh the day that Adam discovered what makes a boy a boy. And this modern equivalent is a rager of a tune that will fill auditoriums with an abundance of pubescent babes ready to burst, guaranteed. Those hormonal attitudes are impossible to miscalculate and equally as hard to keep out of your mind once they gain access. The tour has made believers out of the nation and nothing is about to slow these boys down now. In fact, we heard from one of the few people who truly understands the mental process behind all this, Beth Kepple at WKLS, "Thanks to WB for re-working the BulletBoys' 'Smooth Up'. That tune still gets my hormones in a lather and conjures up the nastiest mental pelvic thrusts."... Thanks, Beth, we couldn't have put it to ya any better. 17 adds are counted this week from KAZY, KLPX, KQRS, KZLR, WBLM, WEQX, WGIR and WPLR, bringing the bottom line to over 70 calls on this project. The Hard Hundred responds with a 47-39* move which is pretty impressive for the second time around.

Simple Minds, "Take A Step Back", A&M.... "This Is Your Land" took a sizable jump on the Hard Hundred and already radio is making known their real preference for the next offering without any hints needed. Whereas the first track took its time with Lou Reed's vocal pacing keeping things in rein, the energy on this second track is a little more up-front, shall we say. The structure is more familiar to earlier fans and the sparkle is their in abundance. WIZN's Tom Van Sant says, "Simple Minds' 'Take A Step Back' has to be the best rock track from the album."... In fact, the excitement on this project took us all a little by surprise when it snagged a position as one of this week's Biggest Movers at 86-70* on the Hard Hundred. Follow the lead of players like KFMH, KKTU, WIZN, WLAV, WRIK and WVVV and watch the Heavy exposure on 91X, KACV, KLOS, KROQ and WDRE for more indications that this is the single to watch.

Red Siren, "One Good Lover", Mercury.... Pat herself couldn't have belted this any better, and after the reborn appreciation of this band (with or without the Red), nothing is more solid out on those curves. Even the most discerning audio-fiend will be unable to locate a chink or a crack in this production. Oh, and did you know that a foot pedal from the man, Jimi H. himself was used on one of the album's cuts? Talk about catching an ephemeral wave of psychic energy. Yo, dudes. One of our own Jersey vets, KDJK's Beaver Brown muses, "Why has it taken so long for Red Siren to climb up the charts. 'One Good Lover' is great. If you're not on it you're the ones who should be red, in the face."... Other bold visaged believers include KFMU, KISS, KLBK, KLCX, KLPX, KNCN, WAVF and WGR. We are also seeing increases at powerhouse KYYS, WGLF, WKQZ, WONE and WXLP. The new formula is moving this one toward that upper third of the Hard Hundred at 39-35*.

Van Morrison, "Whenever God Shines His Light", Mercury.... Few artists have maintained both their experimental integrity and their faithful following. And this time around, here's a "classic-tinged" slice of sound that radiates Van's musical magnetism. Along with the Waterboys, his style of ethnic influences and modern interplay with the spiritual, has made for some stellar offerings. His presence is as vital and vibrant as ever for this latest full-length offering. This is his 22nd release in as many years and "Avalon Sunset" doesn't make any apologies. Face it, the man doesn't have to explain himself to anyone. Nor does his faith come off stodgy or frumpy. This ought to bestow a smile on your face somewhere along the first pass, if only to have the unadulterated glow of Van's voice back on the air. It debuts at 79* on the Hard Hundred, helped along by 10 adds from KBOY, KEZE, KLPX, WBCN, WNEW, WPDH, WWDC, WWVU, WWWV and WZBH with play already up and running at CHOM, WHFS, WXRT and KLPX.

ON DECK

With
Mike Marrone

An event filled week has left this scribe with a severe case of "Shmooze-Lag"! Beginning with the always wonderful McGathy extravaganza (more on that later) the last seven days have not afforded this shell of a human his usual amount of turntable time. Hey, we might as well wrap this pup up now and call it a deadline, right? Wrong! Last evening (Wednesday the 15th) was spent in the raucous company of a new band called Tin Machine.

Since it was the first of only two shows in the States it would seem only proper to file a full report. By now you're familiar with the pertinent facts: Bowie's harder edged approach, the first time he's ever been a full fledged member of a band, etc. So let's leave the history lesson aside and get down to the nitty gritty, shall we? This was the kind of hush hush big gig that only a pro like The Duke could manage to keep under wraps til the last minute. Official word hit the Big Apple streets precisely at 2PM, so Mr. & Ms. Bowie Fanatic's only chance of guaranteed admittance was to be in fairly close proximity to the venue. To further whittle down the crowds, the buyer had to enter the hall immediately upon purchasing a ticket at the door--if only to prolong the act of breathing. You see, the place chosen for Tin Machine's first USA live date was The World, smack dab at the start of infamous Alphabet City. This neighborhood has all the charm and luster of, say, Ed Norton's place of business. But the location of said hall was really the only negative aspect of a night to remember. When a chance to see Bowie's new character strut his stuff in clubland presents itself, you gotta take a walk on the wild side. After squeezing into this building from Hell just in time to hear Tony Sales introduce the band, the first fact you're faced with is that maximum capacity was reached about four hours ago. As you snake your way up the steps to the "Boy ain't we lucky" V.I.P. section, the next revelation is the hundred plus temperature of the room. And it's impossible to see the stage without climbing aboard someone's shoulders; even then the intense heat would require a defogger for your glasses! So, dripping wet with perspiration, the next setback you're sure of is that, aside from occasional glances, there will be no seeing

Tin Machine tonight. Now, you're probably reading this and thinking, "Wow, this poor guy had an awful time", or more likely, "Jeez, he got to go to an exclusive show, what the hell is this ingrate whining about?". The fact of the matter is that this preamble will only serve to add credibility to what follows. Huh!?! You see, friends, the one sense that was left unobstructed was the most important of all when it comes to live music. In case you haven't guessed, the sound was GREAT! Not a tinge of feedback or distortion, and the five piece band on stage was living up to, and above half of their name. A powerful rock and roll machine that held true to the warning that no Bowie back catalog would be played. They ripped through an hour and twenty minute set of songs from the album and more with ferocious virtuosity. Kevin Armstrong reprised his role on the record as fifth Machine, and the joyous noise exploding off the stage made all the headaches worth it. Come to think of it, with the sauna effect a lot of us were able to get in a pretty good workout! Bowie's latest craze is a band that must be experienced live, and there's a chance that after completing a similar trip abroad, they'll return for a limited run at 3,000 seaters. This is one piece of the rock you won't want to miss. The Sales Brothers form a hot rod of a rhythm section, and the nitro burning lead work of Reeves Gabrels will elevate him to hero status after one lap around the track. His Stein-burger styled axe kept on spitting out sonic blasts with increasing taste and skill. The Cracked Actor himself appeared to be enacting a self portrait rather than a role, but with Bowie's chameleon ability only his hairdresser knows for sure. Sporting a well trimmed beard, and his usual dancer's grace, he prowled the front line clearly in control. Few performers have been able to remain as consistently vital as the former Mr. Jones. Fewer still possess the vision to sustain a career this synonymous with innovation. Whether Tin Machine is where Bowie's current heart beats, or just a vehicle for his latest persona is not an issue worth wasting breath on. That Tin Machine contain the spark and magic we've come to expect from David Bowie should be shouted loud and clear. Many thanks to Jack, Norm and the entire EMI staff for the opportunity to witness the event in the flesh.... Now some quick notes on upcoming releases that deserve attention.... Polygram Records will be shipping a very interesting progressive (as in Yes/Crimson) debut from a band called World Trade. The first single will be called "The Revolution Song", and with the success of ABWH on Arista it makes sense to check this out.... Speaking of Arista, that is the new home of The Eurythmics, and Dave and Annie are putting the finishing touches on their label debut with Producer Jimmy Iovine. "We Two Are One" should arrive in September, and they will be touring in support.... Back to the McGathy outing. Unfortunately we had to witness the Red Sox slaughtering The Bronx Bombers, but a great time was had by all. Thanks to Bill and Rose for their usual super effort, and being a Yankee fan every bit as obsessed as yours truly, it's a lock that Billy shared the delight of the next day's Yankee double dip sweep of the Sox. Too bad that we had to pick the only game they lost out of the four to get up close and personal.... Til next week, remember to keep your ears open.

"If you haven't climbed aboard the first class accommodations of Jet Red Airlines, you best get your ticket. This little one-listen wonder will fly into your listeners ears at Mach 1 and have them getting to the phones at Mach 2 to hear more. 'Not The Only One' is only a prelude to the killer debut CD that Jet Red has to offer. So spin this one and salivate on what's to come. Relativity has another winner on their hands. So find your seat and get ready for one hell of a ride!"

"Love love love 'Hard Sun' by Indio, one of my fave new releases. A Dylanesque sound backed with a spine-tingling, toe-tapping, thigh-pumping beat that has gotten seriously under my skin. My sincerest wish is that we prove capable of doing what we do best, exposing greatness to our listeners. 'Hard Sun' exemplifies what a hit should be—in your face hooks, great lyrics and unforgettable sound."

Tom Van Sant, WIZN

"After three listens, you will be hooked. 'Hard Sun' is an excellent progressive image tune with broad appeal."

Carter Alan, WBCN

"I Believe there's a chance to lock in Peter Gabriel fans on 'Hard Sun'. There's an obvious summer connection!"

SBK BEAT GOES ON

↑ Don Rubin

In a pair of announcements SBK continued to give shape to their new organization. Don Rubin has been named VP of A&R following a twenty year relationship with the "K" in SBK Charles Koppelman. Don has been attached to some of the biggest names in the business and, as Koppelman put it, "Our association going back to 1965 has given the world not just the great music of Tracy Chapman, Phoebe Snow, Gregory Abbott and Dan Hill, but one cannot escape the Lovin' Spoonful, the Turtles, Bobby Darin, Charlie Daniels and other great accomplishments. In a business where traditional A&R executives are an endangered species, SBK is fortunate to have captured one in Don Rubin." In another announcement this week, former Chrysalis mainstay Neil Lasher has signed on with old compadre Daniel Glass to handle the National Album Director post for the label. That pretty much puts things in line for their first launch in the very near future.

GLASNOST GETS WONDERFUL

As part of his ongoing "Peace And Freedom Tour" Stevie Wonder has launched a road trip through the Eastern Bloc that saw him perform to a capacity only 100,000 seat venue in Warsaw. The concerts mark the first appearance by a Motown artist in Eastern Europe and has already netted international raves from his many eager fans. As part of the deal, 50,000 copies of his album "Characters" will be pressed in Poland with all monies raised, including royalties, being handed over to the Polish Foundation for The Handicapped. Other dates on this tour will include concerts in Czechoslovakia, Greece, Hungary and Austria.

GAVIN-ITE HEADS TO REPRIS

Fellow print guy and the man that just oozes Alternative juices Peter Standish is departing Gavin after seven years. Peter is going to join Reprise in their LA headquarters for a marketing and promotion position with that label. Peter was instrumental in establishing the Alternative section of Gavin and making it as integral to the validation of new and progressive music as it has grown to be over the years. We wish him all the best in his new career and will miss his impassioned championing of new music and artists in the Gavin. Look for a replacement to be named shortly.

ROLLING TRENDS

Keep those dogies rollin' rawhide! The trends are beginning to fall into our lap this week and the big story continues to be the radio wars in La La Land. While the CHR combat see saws, we can't help but notice the slump at a leaderless KLOS. KROQ is also down this time out but the good news is that Rick Carroll is back on the scene and local observers can already feel the difference. "It's KROQ again", said one market savant and the change in rotations and song selection is bound to have an impact shortly. Pirate Radio begins an upward trend 12+ that underscores an exciting 18-34 jump 3.8-5.9! As for Classic Rock, we continue to see the local proponent frozen in the basement while suburban signal KNAC continues to have trouble penetrating to those zipcodes where the bulk of the real Diary deal goes down. As for NAC, the drop at KTWV runs across the board 18+ with a hefty one point demise 25-54 of 5.3-4.3.

Los Angeles

KPWR	5.9	6.4	KTWV	3.5	2.9
KIIS	6.2	5.7	KROQ	2.7	2.5
KLOS	4.3	3.9	KLSX	2.2	2.1
QQLZ	2.7	3.4	KNAC	1.2	1.1

Interesting to note that the recent Birch shows Pirate Radio leaping to third place in the market 12+ with a 5.9. This should translate into even more drum thumping in the marketing war that Norm and his boys have generated about their latest brainchild. Also, we have heard rumblings that the first official Pirate Radio affiliates may be close to signing with a certain Florida market being mentioned as the most likely target of opportunity.

McGATHY MAMBO

True to billing, the McGathy Texas BBQ remains one of the best times available to modern man. Depending on your loyalties the baseball game was a boom or a bust, with Boston hammering the hapless Yanks. Many were the avid sportsmen and women who found themselves toasted by day's end when the scene shifted to the Cadillac Bar for fun and games of a different sort. The night was packed with loud sounds and friendly faces galore for this year's festivities and the food and frivolity wrapped up many an otherwise healthy brain in its encompassing haze. Music by NRBQ and King's X was a highlight, especially for those of us who haven't had the pleasure before. Aside from the obvious thanks to Bill and Rose for their non-stop hospitality we feel compelled to mention some of the memorable folk that peopled that night for us... Chris Herrmann and his bullseye appraisal of the NRBQ sound that night... Andy Dean pounding club soda with me at the bar like the wildman he is... D-Day trying to match his tie with my shirt that night... Alan Wolmark raving, with good cause, about the latest from Pere Ubu... Jeffrey Naumann glowing from the big win by Boston that day at Yankee Stadium... Calderone and Loscalzo joined at the hip and looking comfortable... Craig Lambert still too damn tall for my own good and flush from his big win with Tangier... Eric Hodge fast becoming the Mercury Man in Gotham City... Dave Logan comparing his new job to diverse dating techniques from our teenage days... Paul Brown with a sprained ankle from his Marathon training looking spiffy in his Deadhead T-Shirt... Kim Alexander doing her best NRBQ cheerleading... Pam Brooks displaying more energy than any three people have a right to and Alex Miller sporting a new 'do and showing me how it's done. The weekend was gorgeous, custom made for a high time in Gotham City, and we were just damn happy to be on hand for the proceedings.

A&M ASSIGNMENTS

New faces at A&M include some ladies who will be moving into key Western slots at the company. Charlie Minor called to tell us that Kay McCarthy has been secured for the San Francisco turf after working for MCA out of Denver. Also, we hear that Tami Shawn, most recently National Promotion Director for Cypress Records, has joined the label to handle the local Los Angeles job that recently fell vacant.

THE RADIO RUMBLE

KISW/Seattle looks like they have finally gotten the morning man of their dreams this week with all clues pointing to the successful signing of Bob Rivers by the station. While we have no official confirmation from Seattle, the indications at the other end of the pipeline have started piling up like Mount Ranier on a clear day. In fact, we have heard that Bob's start date is the 29th. If so, this would make for some serious shaking along the Puget Sound with Bob taking on entrenched market talents Crow and West. No doubt about it, this should size up as one of the major toast and jam wars in America. Hey Bill, howzabout a plane ticket so I can scope these guys out for a feature? (Yeah-right!) The pricetag on the Bob Rivers roadshow is mighty mighty and we are jazzed that Sky and his braintrust got up the gelt to make the whole thing happen. The most recent Birch shows both AOR's up with KISW maintaining a measurable lead, so it will be fascinating to watch how this latest addition to the commute in Jet Town affects the equation.

KLOL/Houston flew in Bill Wise for their new PD vacancy this week and the rumblings could be heard all along the Southern Rim. Don't look for Bill to make any moves though. Word is that Bill is very happy in Miami and the interview was just a matter of professional form. Next!

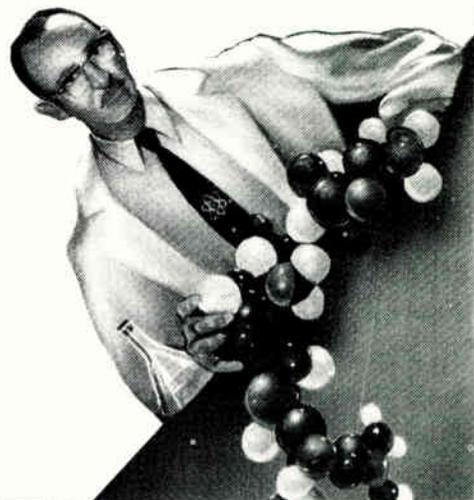

↑ WYNF/Tampa morning show got a shot in the funnybone when Soupy Sales stopped by for a yuk fest. His boys may be making a big noise with Tin Machine but the Soupster continues to get major mileage out of being the world's biggest kid. With Soupy are morning guy Ron Bennington and PD Carey Curelop.

WZLX/Boston announced their acquisition of veteran programmer Mike Harrison to pilot the Classic Rock station. Mike has been newsworthy for a number of years with a history of leading edge programming that has spanned both coasts. He also spent considerable time in the print world with his own Goodphone Communications and both R&R and Billboard. His arrival at the Boston rocker follows the sale of AM station WSPR/Springfield last Fall coupled with a keen desire on Mike's part to get back in the trenches day to day. His efforts are bound to make the Boston scene even more interesting in the months to come.

WKQQ/Lexington needs a strong production hound with top flight writing skills to run their Creative and Production Departments. Interested candidates should send T&R to WKQQ, 1087 New Circle Road, Lexington, KY 40505.

CFNY/Toronto is looking for an artist to put the finishing touches on their 2nd Modern Rock Talent Search project. Local bands will be featured on the latest homegrown Modern Rock Album being organized by the station and they are currently looking for an artist to work on the cover art. The winner will receive $3,000 in combined cash and art supplies for their efforts. Interested candidates should contact Darren Wasylyk, Director of Promotion at (416) 453-7452.

WHFS/Baltimore former personality Damian Einstein was the focus of a fundraiser recently to help him out now that he has lost his airshift. Damian's unique style went hand in hand with the station for years before being relieved and he is obviously missed. A healthy crowd showed up to help and voice their support for the local fixture.

↑ WWRX/Providence and Peter Noone talk about the old days. Shown flanking Peter are MD Rob Wagman and PD Dave Richards.

WDBR/Springfield gets credit for humiliating Rob "The Pony" Lowe this week. The station held a Rob Lowe Getaway Weekend at a local bar with a bed, a video cam and a Rob Lowe cut out. The cutout was a lifesize representation, although certain custom alterations were needed. We hear that the cutout was, in fact, almost as sensitive, caring and responsive as the original.

KZEW/Dallas dumped a couple of tons of sand in downtown Dallas last weekend for a Beach Party that rocked the house to the tunes of Johnny Diesel and The Injectors. The band set the many radio heavies in attendance back a few notches with their spunky live set. From then on it was obviously ChrysaDallas Day as a coming out party for the new Chrysalis saw action all weekend, including buckets of ribs and shrimp at Dick's Last Resort. The weekend was a wall to wall party for those lucky enough to attend and a strong debut for the new Butterfly Brigade.

KDGE/Dallas won't even be on the air until the end of the month but they have signed their first on air talent. His name is George Gimarc, a longtime veteran of the local radio scene including a stint at KZEW. The station is busy rounding up their staff so interested candidates may want to get their T&R in action right away. Assume that the stack of applicants is bound to be thick.

↑ George Gimarc getting ready to walk the Edge.

↑ WHCN/Hartford MD Kim Alexander, WKFM/Syracuse PD Brian Illes and WLWQ/Columbus MD Wendy Steele all having way too much fun during the Bowling Party in LA.

KWHL/Anchorage names a new OM this week with the news that former morning guy Cary Carrigan will return. Aside from doing mornings at the station about a year ago, Cary is also a local TV weatherman, a job he will continue. We have been informed that Cary will also be holding down mornings at the station again with the current morning team being split up and moved to other shifts. And yes, this means that Carter B. is exiting the property.

WCMF/Rochester gets rolling with their Brother Wease Dinky Open this week. The event features members of the Brother Wease Morning Circus at a local miniature golf course raising money for local charity. Celebrity caddies for the day will include a number of players stopping by from the US Open who will probably have a hard time keeping a straight face, if everything works out right that is.

WAAF/Worcester made a few changes in staff recently with T.C. McGuire moving from overnights to evenings at the rocker. Another shift in personnel sees Gregg Hill sliding into that vacant all night post after working as Promotion Coordinator and swing AT for a few years.

↑ KXXR/Seattle models getting up front and casual in their new "X Wear". Make mine an XL gang.

WRIF/Detroit announced that Mark Farner will shortly join other Detroit rockers Mitch Ryder and Rare Earth on the Walk Of Fame. The honor comes for Mark's long work with Grand Funk Railroad and his local gigging as a solo act in the area. His handprint and signature will be encased in cement along the Walk and then he will celebrate with some live shows and a guest spot on WRIF.

WONE/Akron finalized their purchase in a much discussed collective buy out by Ragan Henry Acquisitions that saw $22 Million change hands in the deal. The Philadelphia based company bought WONE and sister station WAKR for $13 Million from Summit and have made no announcements about their plans for the operation.

WIMZ/Knoxville is now accepting T&R material from candidates for all airshifts. Get your best in the hopper and off to John Larson at WIMZ, 901 East Summit Hill Drive, Knoxville, TN 37915. Please, no calls.

KILO/Colorado Springs certainly gets the big prize for fundraising this time out. In less than a week the station helped raise over $34,000 for the American Cancer Society and $35,000 for the March Of Dimes. Not a bad haul for those Rocky Mountain boys.

WWCT/Peoria recently hired a new all night voice for those rockers in their region. Mark Bretsch informs us the new player is Ericha Crews who signs on from WFMB/Springfield.

KRXX/Billings signs on the air with a new 100,000 watt stick and a rock and roll plan to make Montana safe for good music. The PD is Dave Weissman who has logged time at KWHL/Anchorage and his MD is Tim Balbec. The station is ready to go except that they need a midday person so get your T&R to them at 4140 King Avenue East, Billings, MT 59101. Welcome to the rock wars, Dave.

WGIR/Manchester saw their Breakfast Club get in the act when the movie of local creepy guy Stephen King's book "Pet Sematary" hit the bijou. The team of Buck McWilliams and Roxanne Rhodes gathered a slew of cute little stuffed toy for burial but relented and gave them to local pediatrics wards instead. Listeners were tied into the project with long strands of barbed wire and goaded with a pointed stick.

↑ KOMP/Las Vegas welcomed Gallagher to town recently with their very own Watermelon Smash Off. Calling the action is morning guy Randy Morrison.

KMGX/Fresno is dropping their current calls and format for a move to Rock 40 with KXXXR/Kansas City PD Brian Burns in the consultant's seat. The station has broomed the staff with the exception of their morning show and the new calls are KRZR. Look for a hot market to get blistering before the end of Summer.

WTKX/Pensacola settles on Ken Clark as their new PD. Ken relocates from WTKI/Biloxi where he served in a like capacity. Ken is replaced back home by Tamara Duprey.

KOZZ/Reno MD Mark Vaughn is leaving the station for a new life with his recent bride. PD Steve Funk will hold down the fort while looking for a replacement. Interested candidates should forward their specs to Steve ASAP.

WYBR/Rockford breaks with tradition by signing two PD's to handle things at the station. Tim Crull and Sky Drysdale have been inked for the unique situation and Dave Potter is their solitary MD. Talk about a triple threat, these guys have the situation handled!

WAZU/Springfield needs a morning monster who knows no fear. Get your best T&R to WAZU, 1175 Fountain Avenue, Suite 301, Springfield, OH 45502.

WPYX/Albany names Donna Reilly to the post of Marketing Director at the station. Donna takes on the responsibility of developing marketing strategies, station imaging and the positioning of those campaigns. Just one free hint Donna, Rob Lowe condom promotions aren't really all that credible these days.

WKRR/Greensboro hired Pete Bunch, most recently a member of the team at WHTQ/Orlando, as their new night rocker. Pete brings a wealth of experience to the post and will no doubt make the town rock in short order.

↑ WRKI/Danbury hosted Super Cycle Sunday for a gathering of over 5,000 cycle enthusiasts from across the country. The gathering was designed to portray a responsible image for motor cyclists in general and tied into a host of local organizations doing charitable work. Among the attendees was Malcolm Forbes who refused all questions about the shape of Elizabeth Taylor's body these days.

KRQU/Laramie names Mark Waddington to the post of OM for both the FM and AM sister station. Mark had signed on as PD to clean things up at the station and evidently he has done a superlative job in that regard.

↑ Johnny Diesel & The Injectors caught on stage with Charlie Sexton at the Continental Club in Austin. Charlie was heard to say, "Gee, don't I have incredible teeth!"

KFOG/San Francisco has finally taken control over local legendary AM signal KNBR and announced some changes in management as a result. KFOG GM Tony Salvadore sets the pace by combining all management posts at the two stations with himself becoming VP and GM of both KNBR and KFOG. No word on the street regarding any potential changes in programming at the AM shop.

BABY IN MOTION

Congrats to Richard and Darlene Pachter on the birth of their baby boy Raymond Raphael Pachter on June 13th. The lad weighed in at seven pounds and six ounces and is the couple's third child. We hear that Darlene is refusing to leave the hospital and who can blame her.

Alright already, I will be the first to eat microwave crow about the Lakers getting swept. It's not that I didn't think that Detroit had a chance, they obviously have some great guards and their defense was not to be believed. But who gave Norm Pattiz courtside tickets? All it took was one shot of Norm playing corporate cheerleader for me to know that the Lakers were doomed. So, while the clouds darken over LA and the folks Back East jump for joy, can we agree on just one thing? Let's hear it for the Hitman, he was definitely robbed for the sake of a rematch.

TO JUNKET OR NOT TO JUNKET, THAT IS THE QUESTION

In our second installment on this issue we find that the topic of the moment still generates some dynamic reactions as programmers from coast to coast discuss the pros and cons of rock and roll roadshows.

Chris Poole, KBPI

I can answer that for you really quickly. We have had a policy that we don't do those trips ever since I've been here. We just feel it puts us in too much of an implied beholding position. Even though the record company always says, "No obligation", there's always an implication attached and I just think for a good working relationship that it's better not to get involved in them. Those big items are the sort of things that we usually turn down. Hey, listen babe, I've got to go, my plane for the Bahamas is revving on the runway.

Lex Staley, WFYY

The policy with our company has been from day one that we aren't allowed to take trips like this. If we wanted to go we could pay our own way, or do what we can to cut corners, but as far as record companies paying the way for this stuff, absolutely not. Besides the obvious, in a growing world of lawsuits and growing FCC regulations and so on, it's something that the company doesn't want to have to deal with. The responsibility of separating whether this is a business trip or not is just too complicated. I personally look at such trips as a valid business exercise if you're going to hear a band that could benefit the radio station. I've done one where I drove to Atlanta and paid for it myself, and it in that case it didn't really help the band. At some of the conventions seeing an act has made a difference, though. We can go have dinner any time we want, that's a completely different story. They figure that if a record company is flying somebody into our market for a sit down then some business will take place and that's all we are concerned that the time is spent in a legitimate business transaction.

Art Farkas, KKDJ

Station policy on this matter is reviewed on a case by case basis so we don't slam the door on that situation. Such trips are good for two reasons; you get a better chance to get a feel for a band you might not otherwise spend time with, and the other part is a social event with your peers. My feeling is that I am so very busy that it's difficult to get away on a moment's notice and while I enjoy appreciate being invited, I have to pass on the lion's share of these events. About once a year everything falls into place and I can get out of town and usually it's worth the effort. The events themselves really depend on the personalities of the people involved more than anything else. It's always fun to meet someone who has only been a name in the trades for the last five years and catching up with friends who are out on the circuit is always enjoyable too. In every instance you find one or two folks who are there to be productive and share information but it's all very subtle at best. The pitch is always, "Let's get together for an intensive time of ideas and music", and the truth is that you find a little intensity and a lot of socialization. Not that that is a problem, just a fact of life. Now that I'm responsible for two stations in different markets I also have to keep in touch with people who we might need as our chain grows. The whole sphere of influence changes. The best example of "discovering" a band at some function still has to be the Los Lobos show I saw just before they broke big. There were a lot of industry heavies in attendance and I was impressed with their chutzpah and sense of style. Instead of being overwhelmed by the event they embraced the opportunity to show off a very cocky attitude. They were great and the music was drop dead good stuff on top of it. They really had it that night and they knew how to handle the pressure without a hitch. I really had empathy for them performing in those circumstances, they gained my respect and my airplay that night.

Harve Alan, WAAF

Such trips aren't prohibited, but they are scrutinized. There really isn't a policy per se, but the trip has to make sense. It has to be legitimate in the fact that there's no chance of it being perceived as inappropriate. From a personal standpoint, seeing Tommy Conwell in Philadelphia introduced me to a really fine young artist. We didn't go out of the box on that one either. Generally, most times when these trips are put together they're with good intentions of exposing the artist in the best possible light and after the fact pressures aren't really part of the plan. Even if it was, I wouldn't succumb to it. Someone could send me to France to see an artist, but if they aren't right for the station, it won't go on the air.

Ron Eric Taylor, KICT

I think if it's part of an on air promotion, then that's acceptable. The gray area is when it's not part of an on air promotion. And it should never be construed in any way that such a trip is indicative of the acceptance of same in exchange for radio airplay. Its payola if you're accepting something in exchange for airplay. We have done these trips on occasion as part of an on air promotion, a company and listener kind of thing, "Go with so and so from KICT95". The record company realizes this is their chance to capture the minds and ears of a PD and MD and get them away for some quality time and it's a nice perk if it's not a situation where they expect something directly in return. As long as they understand the record won't get added just because you saw the group, we've got no problem.

Mark Davis, KDJK

Such trips are very important to discovering new bands and I treat them as such. As for the problem of post promotional trip pressure, it does come into play a little and it's a shame. I went to Dallas last weekend and a label paid for that trip so that I could see some bands that I was unfamiliar with. It was a great time. I do wish that more programmers were there so I could get to know them better. That makes a big difference to these events. With a better turnout of programmers you can get together and talk about records and the details of this business. It really helps being exposed to people from other places because it expands your own little one market world. The company has been supportive of me making these trips so long as I don't take too much time off and am careful to disclose the reasons for the trip. In a way, seeing a band live really helps in assessing new bands. Johnny Diesel really impressed me in Dallas and if I hadn't seen his band I probably wouldn't give their new track a second look. That was definitely a case where seeing them live made the difference. I haven't let myself feel too much pressure after the fact but it's always there, usually the first thing out of a promo person's mouth on Monday is, "Hey how was the weekend, didja have a good time? I really need some help on this record." In a way, they try to project a sense of guilt that shouldn't be there in the first place but it does come into play and everybody knows that.

Tom Starr, WOUR

Corporate policy here requires full disclosure and documentation of anything exceeding $25 in value provided by a label or an individual involved with the promotion of music. Trips are obviously included. The accounting of this must contain a signed statement that the item or trip was not provided in direct consideration of any airplay for the music that company or individual might be promoting. Any management not covering itself similarly is nuts.

Wil Douglas, WGLF

I feel like if you accept the trip you put yourself in a position where you have to give the band a fair shot. You should listen to the act ahead of time if you have the chance. I think seeing the band live does make a difference because you can tell if their talent is real or if it's just studio tricks and overdubbing. We don't have a definite policy to cover this issue, I have to ask on a case by case basis. Networking with your peers is a very important part of it because you get to meet people from different parts of the country with different ideas about promotion, morning shows, etc. You get to compare notes and it can be like a convention type that way and you get to meet the person behind the voice. This is especially true of people in the record business, which I think is very important. Besides, these trips are a hell of a lot of fun. As for after the fact pressure, I think you put yourself in a bad position if you accept a trip without intending to give the band a shot. If I listened to something and decided it didn't have a shot then I would not accept that particular trip. It wouldn't be fair. Probably the best example of a live show making a difference, (even though we were already playing the record), would have to be meeting and seeing Melissa Etheridge play live.

Oedipus, WBCN

It's very simple for us. Ever since Mel Karmazin has been President, Infinity has had a policy of no junkets, period. If an event is important enough for a WBCN representative to be there, then the company pays for it. Seeing a band can go either way. It can convince me the band does or doesn't have it, or isn't ready yet. So if a record company puts on a showcase, with the proviso that this band is great live, they'd better be great live. A lot of it depends on who is throwing the event. If the label has the showcase, they are doing it to show off the band. Sometimes the band doesn't have it and the label is doing it to placate the manager and they won't be beating you up for the add. And, then again, the band might be great live, but if the record doesn't have it, no way. I'm a record guy, and it's the record first and foremost. And vice versa, if the band sucks live and the record sounds great, I just won't push for a live show.

Drake Hall, WEGR

I can concur with a lot of other programmers comments of last week in that it is a joy to mingle with the other dudes and dudettes in the business and all that stuff. But it really has no impact upon whether or not we add the record. Returning the favor for the good time and the airplane trip just doesn't make sense for me. As far as the station goes, legally and such, they have no problem with it, but I'm just not real wild about doing it.

Scott Douglass, KATT

Our station policy doesn't prohibit any of that because they trust us to be smart about it. So there has not ever been a problem here. Networking is always worth going for all by itself. It's always a plus to meet other people, so I try to make as many trips as I can just for that reason. As for a live performance making the difference, yes it does. Certainly that was the case with Melissa Etheridge. I don't feel obligated to do anything ever. In fact, if I felt obligated and actually did something in exchange, that's illegal isn't it? I can't think of a case where I've hated a band and still gone on a trip to see them. I think it is worth at least half a day away from the station to make these junkets but only if I have the time. However, I find myself turning them down more than otherwise these days because of my time constraints.

Kidd Redd, WKDF

As far as a set policy, we don't have anything in writing at KDF, but as a general rule we'd turn down most of those trips simply because there is a feeling that you are in an obligatory position. If you got to a showcase featuring a new band "so and so", the next week when they're going for the add you are expected to play along, even if it's never really said. In today's competitive scene you want to be as objective as possible on Tuesday when you're doing your music and you just don't need those distractions. There are many instances where the live performance does seem to bring the band home to you, but that's a two edged sword. You go see the group, they're really good, and when you listen to the record you say, "Gee they really didn't capture that on the vinyl". But I guess there are instances where seeing the group could make you appreciate the vinyl a little bit more. I think Pat McLaughlin is a decent example. I've taken very few of these things myself since I've been PD, two at the most. If you felt like there were really no strings I guess it would be an ok thing, but truly if there were no strings, why would they do it?

Gene Romano, WDVE

We do have a policy prohibiting our personnel from attending promo junkets. Even if there wasn't a company policy it wouldn't be a priority for me. There is just an incredible amount of business to take care of at any given time, and when you consider seeing a band and leaving town to do it, it's just not worth the effort. Plus, there is another thing, the majority of our listeners make up their minds on a song or a band based on what they heard on the radio. They don't have a live performance to convince them one way or another, and neither should I. The videos are another element that can make up their mind on a song, but the majority of people when they're listening to the radio make up their mind on what they hear then and there. That's the business we're in. As for the obligation angle, I wouldn't feel obligated if somebody put me up in Hawaii for two weeks. Any serious record company would know that doesn't mean an add.

Dick Tyler, WRXK

At WRXK we have no hard and fast policy with regard to these road trips. I personally look at these as more of an opportunity to rub shoulders with fellow broadcasters rather than as a road trip set up by the record company. I welcome the opportunity to meet programming people from around the country and basically exchange ideas. Each time it's an opportunity to find out who is at the other end of the phone. When it comes down to seeing the band live, I appreciate that it's time for them to impress or die. But if we don't think they have a hook then we won't come back and add the record even if we were blown away by their stage act. Each time the opportunity to make these trips comes up I personally call our corporate attorney, explain the situation and the circumstances surrounding it before committing to make the trip. The reasons for that are obvious, we don't want the reason we would go to be construed as accepting something in exchange for playing a particular company's product. Perhaps if we were to see an upheaval around the country on this issue I would probably form a stronger policy in order to protect not only our license as a broadcaster, but also to protect my integrity as a programmer who can't be bought.

PICKS

The The "Mind Bomb" (Epic) Matt Johnson is a sacrificial lamb when it comes to making music, only he lives to tell about it after the process is over. At whatever juncture you came aboard and discovered his work, it's a pleasure to know that everything he releases is of equal merit. You can go forward or back and get the same great sound every time and at no point has he become a victim of the "other record was better" syndrome. He continues to undergo a state of transformation on "Mind Bomb" and expands the frontier he discovered on "Burning Blue Soul", pursued on "Soul Mining" and polished on "Infected". This record bears witness to his emotional depth challenged by the inner struggle of good and evil, and stuns you with its honesty, hope and despair. Matt Johnson has always been capable of carving into even the coldest of hearts - If not to sober than to at least take a shot at those who possess the traits that haunt him. A brief sweep of the music's surface could be misconstrued as having a bitter, negative tone, but an uplifting, positive message will soon overpower any doubts about this musical episode. "... I know! That God lives in everybody's souls..." breaths Matt in the first moments, and from there the tug o'war continues. "Mind Bomb" also represents a branching out instrumentally, introducing Johnny Marr as a new member of the band. Except for the jangle of "The Beat(en) Generation", the rest of the line-up is marked by dark tension, beauty and an orchestrated descent into spiritual conflict. The percussion team of David Palmer on drums and James Heller on bass is another chemical reaction of less is more. Matt's voice twists and growls in "Good Morning Beautiful", a dramatic, monstrous sound that spins a web around your defenses; and Sinead joins him for "Kingdom Of Rain", a spine-tingling, mid-tempo piece that brings an icy tear to the eye. "Gravitate To Me" forges a slow groove that circles around in your mind as an album standout, but the passion and intensity of "Beyond Love" is among the most beautiful The The ballads to date. "Armageddon Days" lurks under a gospel rhythmic guise and points a finger at corruption and its ultimate end. Once again he paints a striking picture to be admired but not too closely because it's hot under the fire. Who knows what's going on in the recesses of the "Mind Bomb"?

Diesel Park West "Shakespeare Alabama" (Food/EMI) This Leicester, England quintet is already rubbing the U.K. press in the right way. But how many times have you heard that line before, and then the goods just don't measure up? Be aware that this band's sincere, vibrant and hooky songs are put together with melodic perfection, ringing guitars and all the positive samples of 70's influence you can imagine. They receive a resounding stamp of approval for churning out unexpected pop themes that surge forth with echoing strings, fluctuating melodies and an attitude that reaffirms any faith in creative, inspired pop/rock as we know it.

PICKS Continued

When a band comes at you with a vision of this magnitude, the only thing left to do is look it dead in the eye and deal with it. Anyone who goes into orbit at the thought of the Hoodoo Gurus or the high, splashy production atmosphere that many of the best Australian groups crank out will settle down for a long summer session with Diesel Park West. John Butler's fervor only helps him to sweep the scale even further, with a voice comparable to Bono following a different agenda. And the Diesel strum of Rick Willson and Richie Barton fills every empty pocket of space left in the listening room. Don't wait around for guitar solos. These rubbery, chaotic melodies somehow crash together and set the cast. "Shakespeare Alabama" is a true test of whether or not mainstream tastemakers are too engrossed in the status quo to listen to pop brilliance plain and simple, or alternative trendsetters are too tainted by music being forced upon them to take the time out to appreciate. You decide. Either way, Diesel Park West has the ingredients to unite those two factions and the band probably doesn't even know it. Stellar selections include "Like Princes Do", "The Waking Hour", "Jackie's Still Sad", "All The Myths On Sunday", "When The Hoodoo Comes" and the splash of keyboards in "Out Of Nowhere".

Crazyhead "Desert Orchid" (Food/EMI)

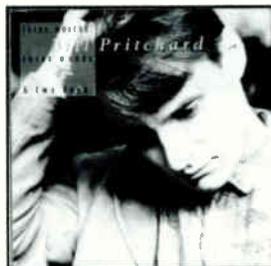

Ready for another pop/rock initiative? You might be tempted to say, "Oh no, not again" but if you listen to what's beaming out of Crazyhead, you'll be turned on to gripping guitars that won't let go. This slightly sonic outfit based in the U.K. is certain to find a niche stateside, with a high energy echo similar to the Lime Spiders, and sing-song writing style that enjoys its lofty status in The Wonder Stuff league. Where some bands prefer to use 60's influence in a psychedelic way, Crazyhead travels the route of grinding bar chords and uses a rumbling beat to plug this musical live wire into the appropriate socket. This troop knows the secret of dishing out anthems to jump, chant, bump and grind to. "Time Has Taken Its Toll On You" is a perfect case in point, with a powerful melody line and mixing strategy that it seem like the band is one big mass moving through the night. The grebo connection comes to light when you cop a glance at these shady characters, and some of the names induce another twist. How many guys do you know named Porkbeast, Fast Transatlantic Dick or Reverb? On the other hand, "Rags" suggests a lot more than grease and motor bikes. Its slick, brass-laden chorus plows through the guitar fuzz and reeks of commercial appeal. But in the long run, they rely on gritty guitars to do the damage. It won't be long before you become committed to "Dragon City", "I Don't Want That Kind Of Love", the bright licks of "In The Sun" and the blistering punch of "What Gives You The Idea That You're So Amazing Baby?"

Bill Pritchard "Three Months, Three Weeks & Two Days" (Nettwerk)

Where did this mellow fellow come from? On his third release, Bill Pritchard proves that there is always a place in our souls for quality acoustic pop, especially the kind that makes your knees weak. The simplicity in his approach, soothing vocal timbre, whispery guitars and prudently constructed songs are perfect nourishment for the "easy listening" appetite we so often suppress or satisfy with oldies but goodies. These tunes are humble but not art-infected, pure by nature but not prefab, and familiar but not smothered with formula. It's refreshing to see that this solo routine doesn't turn into a folk performance. His vocals fall somewhere between Stephen Duffy and Robyn Hitchcock, and the music takes on full-bodied clarity that thrives on a series of ballads, mersey beats and even the quick-paced few tunes in the bunch. Tender melodies delivered by a light touch and Bill's soft vocal embrace make this venture a lot more romantic than you think. Feel like sighing? The light-headed, relaxing style he draws from gives the album an air of confidence, yet the refreshing twist of these wide-eyed pop songs make you feel like someone just took off the training wheels let you pedal home free. His European flavor most easily detected in "Romance Sans Paroles", weaves in and out of an acoustic landscape that always changes shape, depending on whether Bill's Brit or French influence is vying for the spotlight. The seething, political stab he takes in "Kenneth Baker" deserves to be spinning wildly on the airwaves, and for a sure-fire sample of Pritchard's hit potential listen to "Nineteen" - just one time is all it takes. The depth doesn't stop here: Try "Pillow Talk", "Sometimes" and bathe in the blue mood of "Better To Be Bitter". Contact Nettwerk Records at 1717 4th Avenue, Vancouver, B.C., Canada V6J 1M2.

New Releases
And Chartstars

Chris Isaak's album "Heart Shaped World" surges 49-25* this week, making the biggest move thanks to #2 Most Added status. We'll be able to remove the semi from semi-famous very soon when Isaak's solitary croon and lonesome, hollow guitar sounds make women melt in their boots. (Did you see Chris in the Chet Baker movie, "Let's Get Lost". Ouch!) "Don't Make Me Dream About You" pulls in adds from KTCL, KSQY, WXRT and KCRS this week, while new album play from KABL, KTAO, KUSF, WMDK, WWVU, KCPR and WWVU rounds out the 37 station tally so far. Isaak's breezy, flowing style has an air of a decade gone by, but the steel guitar sounds and re-interpretation of classics helps him blaze his own trail to the stars. "Wrong To Love You" is a hands-down choice for radio exposure, sure to reel in the stragglers this time around. Its blues filled measures shape into what is probably his best tune yet, while the title track runs a close second. Dig into "Kings Of The Highway" and "In The Heat Of The Jungle", and while you're at it segue a Cowboy Junkies tune into the mix and witness the calm turn into static electricity. "Heart Shaped World" is out now on

Reprise Records.... Phranc is back with her new album on Island Records, "I Enjoy Being A Girl". Aside from having one of the most entertaining marketing campaigns behind it (have you seen the fully stocked hat box yet?), the album sports blistering lyrics sandwiched in between nimble-fingered guitar pickin'. Although some of her selections could be tagged as novel in approach, the story elements are what keep you on your toes! Just shy of a debut on the Airplay chart, reports from KACV, WKXL, WRVU, KUCI, KABL, KCMU, KDVS, KRCK, KTAO, KUSF, WCDB, WWVU, WXCJ, KCPR and WNHU help spread the word. KABL's Mark Miller opines, "I think it's a very poignant record. Without lumping female folk singers together, her music comes off as sounding the most personal. The like way she sings about black turtlenecks, MTV giveaways etc, as it distances her from the others. 'Take Off Your Swastika' gives me chills." Other tracks to pick and play are "Toy Time", "Individuality", "Myriam And Esther" and the emphasis track, "I Enjoy Being A Girl". Once again, Phranc's pose on the cover points out her amusing personality and ability to serve up a heap of sarcasm that always rings loud and true on the radio.... The Pixies have another go-round at radio with their second single, "Here Comes Your Man", the surfer-singed pop ditty that so many in-the-know admirers chimed about when the "Doolittle" album appeared on Elektra Records earlier this Spring. Although a lot of folks are still trying to pry "Monkey Gone To Heaven" out of their ears, this push track was designed to give the conservative side a nudge. The album has been a consistent Top 5 Most Requested item since its release also. Among those first to cross this band onto their rock 'n' roll airwaves are KFMH, KRIX, WRIK, WXRT plus continued support from the alternative station group that brought the record to Top 5 Airplay status on the album chart. Of course there's still a frenzy over "Debaser", "Wave Of Mutilation" and "There Goes My Gun" but the new single is the one to punch if we're gonna get them branded onto the foreheads of those still oblivious to the one of the greatest albums of 1989. Dave Cowan of WROV says, "Here Comes Your Man" by the Pixies is the most refreshing records we have on the air." PS: The crew misses you, Dave!.... Adrian Belew regains the bullet at #9 this week among stiff competition. His debut Atlantic Records LP, "Mr. Music Head" is now sinking in on commercial outlets with the "Oh Daddy" single, featuring daughter Audie in some pretty snazzy-cute video shots. WEQX, WFNX, WRIK and KUCI add this week and increased play at Live 105, KRCK, WHTG, WKXL, WVVV, KUNV and WLRA show a new surge of airplay is in his corner. On this spicy offering, songs like "One Of Those Days" and "Bad Days" are fine mainstream crossover choices as well, but my eclectic side can't help but go for the perky sound effects in "Hot Zoo" and the shuffling rhythms in "Motor Bungalow" to wake up sleepy listeners. WXCI's Greg Vegas plugs, "Oh Daddy" is a fkn huge song for us. It was #1 Most Requested a few weeks ago and overall this album was a big surprise. It's so diverse, and we especially like 'House Of Cards.' Sabu at KTOW offers, "This is one of my favorite releases. He has again proved that he can tap into his own style and remain current and popular. This record seems to be the evolution of 'Lone Rhino' and our audience loves it. A Top 5 reaction record for us." Phone mentions this week come from WBRU, WHTG, WMDK, WXCI and KACV. "Mr. Music Head" is now solid at over 55 reporting stations and the consistent attention it has received from progressive outlets will surely translate to the masses for Mr. Belew. He deserves it.... Summer officially starts this week and it's a great opportunity to go back and re-instigate excitement on albums that are far from tapped out airplay-wise. Concrete Blonde and House Of Freaks are two such examples, and what do you know, they're about to go on tour together as we speak. First, Concrete Blonde is still climbing the mainstream chart with "God Is A Bullet", and interest in "Scene Of A Perfect Crime" and "Happy Birthday" is keeping the I.R.S. Records album, "Free", steady on the Alternative chart at #12. As for House Of Freaks, the second emphasis track is "When The Hammer Came Down" from the "Tantilla" album on Rhino Records. So far, reports from KACV, WOXY, KFMH, KOTR, KROQ, WHTG, WMDK, WRVU, WVVV and WXVX start the ball rolling on "Hammer" and with the tour about to draw your listeners into a live setting, give it a shot! If you are interested in having House Of Freaks in for a studio appearance call Linda Feder at Rhino (213-828-1980). Here's the schedule: 6/20 Ventura; 6/23 Los Angeles; 6/24 Santa Cruz; 6/25 San Jose; 6/27 San Francisco; 7/1 Tucson; 7/2 Phoenix; 7/3 Albuquerque; 7/4 Denver; 7/6 St. Louis; 7/7 Columbus; 7/8 Chicago; 7/9 Milwaukee; 7/10 Minneapolis; 7/14 Detroit; 7/15 Cincinnati; 7/16 Cleveland; 7/18 Toronto; 7/24 Providence; 7/27 NYC; 7/30 D.C. and more to come.... The debut single from the Glasgow, Scotland band, Texas will arrive this week. It's titled "I Don't Want A Lover" and features the dazzling voice of newcomer Sharleen Spiteri. Coupled with the shimmering acoustic twang of guitars and her deep, sultry delivery, this tune has all the makings of a mega-you know what. The forthcoming album is "Southside" and we'll be pluggin' at the song "Prayer For You" when the time is right.

Watch for it on Polygram Records.... Silvertone in conjunction with RCA Records have picked up the Men They Couldn't Hang and all we can say is: It's about time! This Irish-Celtic-Folk lands this week with the album "Silvertown", featuring the track "Rain, Steam & Speed" and we'll have more as the story develops. Enjoy!.... Everyone always comes away from a Royal Crescent Mob show with energy overload, and now is the time to take advantage of another touring spree: 6/19 New Orleans; 6/22 Jacksonville; 6/23 Atlanta; 6/24 Athens; 6/26 Columbia; 6/28 Charlotte; 6/30 Raleigh; 7/2 D.C.... Congratulations to Sarah Haynes who relocates to Relativity West to join John Schoenberger and the staff. Sarah is formerly of 91X/San Diego and her replacement is Vince Cannova. Vince has been working in the promotions department and now takes on music duties as well.... Until next time, watch out for those Bullets and we'll be with you wherever you may roam.

Kings X, "Over My Head", Megaforce/Atl.... It becomes more evident with every passing year, that finding new musical ideas and territories to explore is becoming 1) less of a priority to new artists (it's easier to follow pre-established paths - and more profitable too), or 2) just too hard for some groups to attempt. Luckily, there are still some leaders amongst all the followers out there. In the last year, a few of them have finally been receiving the recognition they so deserve... And then there is Kings X, the little band from Texas with the enormous sound. Last year's "Out Of The Silent Planet" was a remarkable album, and one that embodied what intelligent and emotional songwriting is, or should be, all about. And while that record firmly entrenched the band in the hearts of the majority of industry types who came into contact with them via the vinyl or in a live setting, it didn't quite make it to the masses like it should have. Alas, the band are back with their latest offering, which will hopefully not only spark the imaginations of the hard rock/metal audiences, but most definitely those of AORs as well. In fact, if ever there were a band with crossover possibility, this is it. Doug Pinnick's is a totally original and soulful voice, and with the additional vocals and superb harmonies supplied by Ty Tabor (guitar) and Jerry Gaskill (drums), any Kings X song is a three dimensional auditory excursion. "Over My Head" showcases the band's harder edges, as well as the wonderful sense of melody and timing that have endeared them to other musicians. It rocks, (don't you know?... there's no such thing as a bad Kings X song), and dips with funky changes in tempo - with an unforgettable chorus that swirls around in your head. Just wait 'til you hear the rest of the Lp and look for them to tour stateside beginning mid-July.

Heir Apparent, "One Small Voice", Metal Blade.... If you, like me, are a fan of a particular group of Seattle artists, who produce some of the highest quality hard rock/metal records in the known universe - then allow me to introduce you to, (if you haven't made their acquaintance by now), the next in line. In fact, their sound is very similar to earlier you-know-who. Because, much like Crimson Glory and the 'Ryche, these guys utilize intricate, melodic and majestic musical palettes, rich in harmony and integrity (this Lp was also produced by Tom Hall - of the first Queensryche Ep fame). They reach for a higher philosophy in that, like the aforementioned bands, (as well as Kings X & Dream Theater), their lyrical content strives to communicate much more than boy/girl fantasies. While those relationships do exist within the context of their songs ("Alone Again"), they are dealt with in a more subtle way, with sensitivity. The band is also graced with a real talent in lead vox Steve Bonito, who maintains a mighty impressive range and super control. He doesn't oversing his parts and he carries his notes only as far as is needed to convey the emotion - geez can he carry them "r's". It is the stellar guitar work of Terry Gorle that is heard on this record, (he's since been replaced by Klaus Dredorf), and his playing sounds like that of two people at times - very strong presence. Just listen to "Crossing That Border" and "Screaming". Keyboardist Michael Jackson, (no, no, no), adds nice texture and dimension to songs like their unique cover of "Sounds Of Silence" (it will amaze or amuse you), "We The People" and the title track. Rounding out the line-up are the very solid drumming and bass pumping of Ray Black and Derek Peace respectively. Many of their songs verge on gothic ("Cacophony Of Silence" with Geoff Tate-like spoken parts), but most are atmospheric and dynamic. Be sure to listen to "Decorated", "Young Forever" and, oh, all of 'em!

Leather, "Shock Waves", RC.... You've heard the saying "small in stature, big in voice" right? No? Well it applies to a great many vocalists these days: Metal Church's Mike Howe, Kix's Steve Whiteman, Ronnie James Dio and this woman, Leather Leone. She's got one of the most powerful voices in metal today, bar none. You all know of her from her four Lp's fronting Chastain. Now, with the help of producer, (is there anything this guy can't do?), David T. Chastain, she gets the chance to strut her stuff on her own. This record features the collective talents of Chastain, (who co-wrote three tracks with Leather as well as contributing three of his own compositions), Pat O'Brian, (the excellent second guitarist of the Chastain touring outfit who also co-wrote two songs with Leather), Mark Shelton, (who wrote the Lp's title track), Chastain bassist David Harbour, and drummer John Luke He'bert. O'Brian and Shelton do not appear on the album as players, only as writers, even David T. doesn't play on it. Even so, the guitarist employed for the sessions, Michael Harris, is more than adequate. His best solo spot can be found on the song "Catastrophic Heaven". The record's best tracks are "The Battlefield Of Life" and the ballad, "It's Still In Your Eyes", but "Something In This Life" and "Diamonds Are For Real" are great too. This is a record that warrants serious attention. Don't pass it by. (J.L.)

Stage Dolls, "Stage Dolls", Chrysalis.... I know what you're thinking. That these are just three more striking, tall, blonde, Scandinavian guys that are probably gonna sound just like Europe right? Well you're right in thinking that they're tall, blonde and good looking enough to make women sigh woefully from New York to L.A., but they don't sound like Europe. Their brand of music is more along the lines of the melodic hard rock hitmakers like John Waite than Joey's boys, but they retain a harder edge. Singer/guitarist Torstein Flakne put the band together in '83 with original drummer Erland Antonsen and bassist Terje Storli. Now Flakne, Storli and new drummer Steinar Krokstad are ready to assault American shores c/o the good folks at Chrysalis Records. This is the Dolls third Lp, (all of which were recorded in English), and their selftitled Stateside debut. This album features nine new cuts including the sure-fire smash single "Love Cries". While the guitar isn't exactly Paul Gilbert, the track is extremely catchy and will definitely lite more than a few phone lines. Also take a long listen to the keyboard laden harmonies on "Wings Of Steel" and the very TNT-ish "Hanoi Waters". (J.L.)

QUICK PICK

Bullet Lavolta, "The Gift", Taang!.... Okay, just about everybody has at least one band that totally rocks their world and makes life worth living, right? I'm sure you all know who that band is for me by now - can you say "mindcrime"? Well, this is our esteemed Altern. editor Dawn Hood's pride and joy, and having been deluged with their music over the past year or so, it's easy to see why. This latest release is nothing short of sheer energy and youth exemplified on vinyl. From the opening assault of "X-Fire" right down the line - this album storms your ears and makes mush of your sensibilities - a true nemesis for the 90's. They bring back to the forefront, all the aggression and raw energy that makes rock and roll such an offensive sport. Don't you just love it? Yukki Gipe's growls can't help but rally the troops into cranium crushing walls of intensity and distortion. Guitarists Kenny Chambers and Clay Tarver answer the call with rapid fire electricity - not unlike many of the thrash masters so successfully ringing the cash registers across America. This band offers a full frontal assault and seem more metal oriented than anything else. Just grind to "Mother Messiah", "Little Tiny Pieces", "The Gift" and the best song they offer - "Trapdoor". You'll see! Call Taang! at 617-527-1647 and get a copy, before they get you.

CHART AX-SHUN

Dangerous Toys, "Dangerous Toys", Columbia.... Columbia's most recent "Hard Hitter", this week makes an impressive five point move up to 16* with support coming from KBER, KFMG, KFMH, KOZZ, KPGA, KRSR, KTEC, WHVY, WJUL, WKNC, WKNH, WMMS, WRFL, Z-Rock and ARN. Their blues based style is reminiscent of Guns N'Roses and Aerosmith but they're not a copy band. They do what they do extremely well. Current faves on the Lp are the jazzy "Take Me Drunk", "Feels Like A Hammer" and "Here Comes Trouble" but most of our reporters seem to be more into the addictive "Sport'N A Woody" and the current 12" and video, "Teas'N Pleas'N". If you've been avoiding this record because you think they're just another Guns/Smith clone, stop. This one is a rocker in it's own right and deserves to given a chance to stand alone. (J.L.)

Sea Hags, "Sea Hags", Chrysalis.... Ron Yocum and pals are doin' the stomp on our chart these days as they head into the Top 20, with a move this week from 26-18* on Hard Hitters. There's just no denying that with some upcoming tour slot with Badlands, things are just starting to heat up. This week the Hags added three to their roster with KBER, KFMG, KSJS comin' in strong this week. Those already hot on their trail include KFMG, KISW, KPGA, KRSR, KSVR, KUSE, KVHS, WGLS, WHVY, WKNC, WKNH, WMMS, WRFL, WRTN, WSOU, WTPA, WVCR, Z-Rock, ARN. "Half The Way Valley" is all the way there, but also check out "Threes A Charm", "Back To The Grind" and "Miss Fortune".

U.D.O., "Mean Machine", Chrysalis.... The man who put Accept on the musical map, has successfully struck out on his own, and this his second outing, proves his prowess at the power punch. Can he rock or what? Slammin' on the airwaves are tracks like "Break The Rules", "Dirty Boys", "Streets On Fire" and the title cut. This week U.D.O. plows his "Mean Machine" up 10 from 30-20* on our Hard Hitters chart, demolishing everything in sight. New adds this week showed up at: KJJO, KTEC, WEOS, WRFL, and WVCR... KBER, KCMU, KRSR M, KSJS, KTEC, KUNV, WCDB, WHJY, WHVY, WKNH, WVCR, WWUH, Z-Rock, ARN and others continue to pound it down with KSJS, WKNH, and WNHU pulling Top Phones as well.

ONE HELLUVA SHOW

-Straight from the mouth of the Pegmeister... Former Shrapnel artists Vicious Rumors will be moving into Fantasy Studios, (where Testament and Mr. Big recorded their latest efforts), July 12th to record their debut Atlantic Lp with Michael Rosen producing.... Badlands are currently playing to capacity crowds in Japan where their, "Dreams In The Dark" video is #1 most requested while the track is riding high at #5 on the Japanese charts. They'll be back in the states for an American tour in July.... Mr. Big guys Billy Sheehan and Paul Gilbert will be in Chicago for the NAMM, (National Association of Music Merchandisers), convention this weekend. Paul will be performing at the Ibanez party. Meanwhile, Mr. Big's first video, "Addicted To That Rush" has just been completed.... Also to be attending the NAMM convention are the D'Molls who have temporarily relocated to Chicago and will therefore be in town.... Dirty Looks is filming their vid this week for "Nobody Rides For Free" in L.A.... Kix's new single and video is will be "Don't Close Your Eyes". Look for this one to put the Lp well past Gold.... The debut album from Hurricane Alice has just been completed with producer Jimmy Iovine. Look for an early Fall release on that one.... Finally, Beggars & Thieves have replaced their previous rhythm section with bassist Phil Soussan, (Ozzy Osbourne, Billy Idol), and seasoned studio drummer Bobby Borg. That project is scheduled for a 1990 release.

-The Metal Blade Seventh Anniversary Bash was reportedly a HUGE success last Wednesday with everybody who was anybody, (and even some who weren't), in attendance. Fashionable notables included W. Axl Rose, the Sarzo Bros.

ARTCH #

- "One of the best albums of the year." - Missi Callazzo, WSOU
- "Artch has the maturity and style of all the major power metal bands without the gimmicks." - Bill Fischer, WJUL
- "Hard rock bands of today should take a lesson from Artch. Get it on your turntable today." - The Krusher, KRSR
- "Another Return To Church Hill is a classic blend of traditional heavy metal done in the style of early Maiden. Artch is the forefront of the 90's N.W.O.B.H.M." - Jeff Gilbert, KCMU

METAL BLADE RECORDS

(Rudy and Robert), John Sykes, Simon Wright from AC/DC, Chris Holmes, Phil Lewis from L.A. Guns, Billy Sheehan, Paul Gilbert, King Diamond and band and Mikkey Dee, Nigel Harrison from Blondie, Nigel from the Quireboys, Sacred Reich including a slimmed down Greg Hall, Bang Tango, Tomorrow's Child, Excel, Mark Ferrari, Loudness, Joe Holmes (ex-Lizzy), Jim Matheos, Mark Zonder, (Fate's new drum god), Stegmon Von Heintz from School Of Violence, Bob Kulick, Jeni Foster from Princess Pang, Bill (production god) Metoyer, Warrant, White Lion, Max Norman, Tom Werman, Attila the Hunk and the unbelievable Mrs. Faley -- Ruth, wife of Michael. Also, rumored to be in the building but not actually seen were Chris Impellitteri, Fifth Angel and Vince Neil. The evening also featured performances from Little Caesar, Lizzy Borden and Armored Saint and for the Saint's last song they did "Hell Bent For Leather" for which they were joined onstage by Brian Slagel, Jim Matheos, Lizzy Borden, Jason Rainey and countless others.... In other news, Steve "infamous" Poss reported that two weeks worth of the Murphy's Law/Ramones show were postponed due to an illness to Joey Ramone. Apparently Joey's foot was infected with the rather disgusting disease, gang green.

WHERE THE WILD THINGS ARE

Choices. Life is just a bunch of choices. But what if we are not presented with all the facts to make intelligent choices.

Last year a Houston based trio Kings X debuted an Lp called "Out Of The Silent Planet" which, though musically adventurous and exciting, fell by the wayside due to unadventurous and unexciting programmers. If the public doesn't know about it, of course it's not gonna sell. If only the people knew about this great band, then they'd demand it. But wait, there's a second chance. "Gretchen Goes To Nebraska" is the title of the second Lp coming out June 29th. It again features a diverse array of sounds from heavy rockers to ballads all sporting a strong sense of melody and thick harmony vocals. The influences are so many and varied from the Beatles, to Sly and the Family Stone to Black Sabbath... the list is too long to even complete. Last year, critics praised their debut as comparable to U2's first or Metallica's first in groundbreaking originality. The first single, "Over My Head" has some pretty unique jazzy chords over a Sabbath groove on the bass. The video is being produced by long time manager and former ZZ Top executive Sam Taylor, and will probably fit into MTV's Headbanger's Ball and newly extended Hard 60 afternoon shows easily. But there's more here than neatly labelled heavy music. Headbanger's Ball aired a feature segment last weekend on where the band talked about their feelings on the current state of rock and roll, the Houston scene and the origins of their strange Lp title. They're planning to tour this summer, possibly with Living Colour, and will also be doing nine dates in Europe with the mighty Anthrax. I'll tell you more as soon as I get my hands on a tape.

Bay Area Thrashers Testament have got their third studio release, entitled "Practice What You Preach" coming out by the end of July. Producer Alex Perialas captured their fresh sounds live in the studio by having the band play all their parts live with no overdubs. Judging by the titles, the songs seem to have a socially conscious flavor with titles like "Greenhouse Effect", "Perilous Nation", "Envy Life", "Sins Of Omission" and a ballad simply called "The Ballad (A Song Of Hope)". "We didn't try to be more accessible," says drummer Louie Clemente, "we wrote to please ourselves in hopes that everyone would like it as well. It was a natural progression and one that we are proud of."

Derek Shulman, the ex-lead singer for art rockers Gentle Giant and now the new President of the newly revamped Atco Records has signed his first act there. Tangier graduated from the Philadelphia club scene when Mr. S signed them on the spot. The debut vinyl, (or rather is it laser etched foil nowadays?), is produced by veteran Andy Johns who's done everyone that my generation grew up listening to. Johns has produced or engineered for the Stones to Zeppelin to Rod Stewart, etc... He seems the perfect choice for this blues based act. They sound a lot like the early British Blues stuff like Free with an extra nineties edge, (meaning more keyboards and that big vocal sound). Though it doesn't break any new ground, it doesn't overly offend and is a safe first record from a new label.

Tesla are going out on the road with Great White and will be doing it as a co-headlining tour. They'll alternate nightly their positions of who goes on first, (sounds like a spin-off of Abbott and Costello). Anyway, it looks to be a cool tour with opening act Kix to provide you with the third angle.

The Dan Reed Network has finally moved on to a new management company. Q-Prime is the new home base due to Dan's dissatisfaction with Bill Graham's management capacities. I always wondered how they never scored with their debut. Every song sounded like CHR to me. Well, we'll see this time.

Alice Cooper will have new product coming out in July on Epic Records... Motley Crue is scheduled for the end of August... Soundgarden is coming in August.... Bad Brains with the original lineup is putting a new one out in July.... Tin Machine just played the World in NYC -- I didn't go cause I didn't know.

See Ya!

Hard Hitters # 1!

Music Now! is contributed by Mike Cooper, P.O. Box 4111 Atlanta, GA 30302. 404-627-2834.

Jerry Lee Lewis' manager is quitting, because of comments Lewis made about Elvis Presley in a magazine article. Jerry Schilling says Lewis' remarks in Fame magazine were "the final straw." In the article, Lewis said Presley's "backbone was made of jelly" and he called Elvis a dummy who wasted his talent. "I guess there was a jealousy there," Schilling says. "I think it's a shame because Jerry Lee is a great artist himself. But there's nobody who can top Elvis Presley."

Stan Ridgway admits to having an interest in the paranormal. "There's always been sightings of ghosts, fairies, elves and trolls. Nowadays, with all the technology, people see UFOs. They may or may not be real, but they demand investigation," Ridgway says. He says he's particularly interested in the tales of people who claim that have been abducted by aliens in their spaceships. "One of the fascinating things about the abduction phenomenon is the way these things happen to the most boring people. It's always the hillbilly farmer who sees a four-legged crab creature crawling around his backyard, dragging off his cow into some weird tin can that suddenly takes off." Ridgway says his interest in such events stems from his interest "in the more offbeat sides to people's lives."

Rapper the Fresh Prince has been arraigned on assault and conspiracy charges for allegedly having his bodyguard beat up concert promoter William Hendricks in March of this year. Police say the Fresh Prince, whose real name is Willard Smith, ordered bodyguard Charlie Mack to beat the promoter after an argument at a local radio station. Hendricks suffered a broken left eye socket and received six stitches. Smith turned himself into police, but police are still looking for the bodyguard.

The last year has been a difficult one for the Hoodoo Gurus. They took their Australian record company to court, and they completed a world tour that ended with their bass player leaving and the rest of the band suffered from total exhaustion. Despite all the complications, the band recorded its fourth album, "Magnum Cum Louder." Lead singer Dave Faulkner says he was feeling so stressed out about the band that three weeks before they were to record the new album, he told the other guys that he couldn't do it and he didn't have the songs. He says that was a turning point for him and the Hoodoo Gurus. Faulkner explains he was on the verge of insanity and exploding at the other guys released the pressure that had been building up inside him. When he arrived at the next band meeting, Faulkner had found or composed enough songs to record a double album. "Magnum Cum Louder" ended up becoming a single album. The first single from the album in Australia is "Come Anytime."

Hurrah! have parted ways with their record company after two albums, claiming the label held up release of the album and didn't get their records into the stores. "We were in a position where we weren't allowed to progress," complains vocalist Paul Handyside. "We have the new Hurrah! album written and can't wait to get on with it. For us this is a happy end to a pretty miserable chapter in Hurrah!'s career."

Ian McCulloch will have his debut solo album out in September. Recorded at the Eurhythmics' studio in London, it features Liz Fraser of the Cocteau Twins and Boris Williams, drummer for the Cure.

Roger Daltrey and George Carlin star in "The Teddy Bear Habit," a film being directed by veteran video clip director Jon Small. The screenplay was adapted from James Lincoln Collier's novel.

Depeche Mode's Martin Gore is releasing his first solo album, called "Counterfeit e.p." It includes covers of six songs, including tunes by the C.S. Angels, Sparks and Durutti Column. Gore is now in Italy recording new material with the rest of Depeche Mode.

Former Housemartins members Paul Heaton and Dave Hemingway are in the British top 20 with their new band, called the Beautiful South. Their single, "Song For Whoever," features some local musicians from Hull, in England.

Stevie Wonder will perform for 5,000 invited guests at an hour-and-a-half party celebrating the Eiffel Tower in Paris. Wonder will sing "Parents Of The World" at the show, a song that will be on his upcoming album. The concert will be televised nationally in France a week later.

U.S. Postmaster General Anthony Frank says he expects an Elvis Presley stamp to be issued in the next year. In replying to an inquiry from a Tennessee Congressman, Frank wrote "my guess is that we will commence a series of stamps on popular American music and that Mr. Presley will be represented."

Ike Turner has pleaded innocent to cocaine possession charges in Beverly Hills, California. Turner was charged with possessing cocaine for sale, transporting cocaine and being a felon in possession of a gun. He's been ordered to return to court next month, and is free on $10,000 bond.

The Who will warm up for their 25th anniversary tour with a show for 7,000 people at Glens Falls, New York. The concert, in more relaxed surroundings, will precede the 37-concert, 25-city tour planned for this summer. Elton John will play the part of the Pinball Wizard and Robert Plant the part of the Hawker in the Los Angeles Who concert.

Steve Hogarth is the new vocalist for Marillion, and the band have now finished the album it was working on when Fish left the group last September. Hogarth, formerly of the Europeans, is said to have made "a significant contribution, both musically and lyrically" to the band's album, "Season's End," which will be out in October. "We're all very pleased with the way things have worked out," says keyboardist Mark Kelly. "Steve clicked immediately at the audition and things have gone from strength to strength since then."

The Fall have a new album coming out called "Seminal Live." Half of the album is live, while the rest of the tracks are studio recordings. The band is already partway through work on a follow-up LP.

Jackson Browne continues a political stance on his new album, "World In Motion." "I'm just trying to bring about positive change -- and to show that there are other people around the world trying to do the same thing," Browne says. "If you just see the problems and start thinking you're alone, then the problems seem insurmountable. But you're not alone." Browne says he wrote the song "How Long," around the time of "We Are The World" and Live Aid and Band Aid. "I wanted to contribute something, so I wrote that song. It's a huge subject. It starts with talking about starvation and the planet, then identifies the arms race as the real problem. The arms race is the biggest robber of freedom in the world."

Initial copies of the vinyl LP of the Beastie Boys' new album, "Paul's Boutique," will include an 8-panel gatefold sleeve offering a 360-degree view of New York City's Ludlow Street.

Cliff Richard has released his 100th single in England, "The Best Of Me," and it's reached the number two spot on the British charts. Ninety-three of Richard's singles have reached the top 20 in England, and 12 have been number ones. Richard says it was difficult deciding which song to release as his 100th. "It's not the most obvious song of the ones I've got, but the sentiments are right," Richard says. "It allows me to be me, singing to anyone that's supported me over the years, and say thanks." He says it's a love song, but was a good tune to celebrate his 30 years of recording. "If it's not a massive hit, it doesn't really matter because the song will still be part of history."

Jack Blades, bass player for Night Ranger, has been auditioning members for a new band being put together by Ted Nugent, Tommy Shaw of Styx and Aynsley Dunbar.

Yoko Ono smashed a Chinese vase in front of 1,000 people in Paris to demonstrate her support for students in Beijing. She then gave out pieces of the vase to the people who had gathered at the Ecole des Beaux Arts in Paris. A Paris art gallery is currently exhibiting Ono's work.

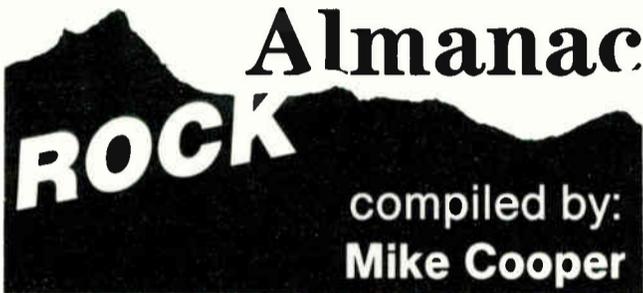

Bette Midler is to star in "Stella," a remake of the 1937 soap opera "Stella Dallas," which starred Barbara Stanwyck and Alan Hale. John Goodman and Stephen Collins are co-starring in the film, most of which has been shot in Canada. The movie will be out this summer. It's the story of a blue collar woman who marries a man far above her station, bears his daughter, and then loses her husband and child.

Drummer Ron Wilson of the Safaris has died of a massive cerebral aneurysm in Grass Valley, California. Wilson was the author of the band's classic, "Wipe Out."

Dion says that when he was first approached two years ago about making a new album, he was skeptical about the idea. "I had fear, a lot of it," he says. "But it didn't overwhelm me. I figured I got a shot at bat. Let me relax and give it a good cut, a good swing, be myself and get 10 songs I have a passion for." He says he wanted to make "an '80s record, but with elements of my music, which is black music filtered through an Italian neighborhood that comes out with an attitude."

UK MUSIC NEWS

Nearly 100 fans were injured at a Pogues concert in Birmingham, in the English midlands, after a crush towards the stagefront. The Pogues were not headlining the bill, but supporting UB40 and it seems as if the confusion was partially caused by the differing behaviour of fans of the two bands. The Pogues left the stage after only five minutes, when it became clear that fans were being crushed at the front. St. John's Ambulance Men moved in quickly to tend to suffering fans. One eye-witness recounted what happened to "The New Musical Express": "I saw about 25 people pulled out of the crowd during The Pogues first song - mostly young girls who were there to see UB40 and didn't know what to expect from a stadium gig. Pogues fans were jumping up and down behind them and the kids were being crushed in front of them. It was chaos for the first couple of songs. A lot of them were carried away on stretchers." The Pogues later returned to the stage and finished their set. Their fans are notorious for their rowdy behaviour but this incident and the crushing to death of two young fans at last year's Castle Donnington festival raises serious questions about conditions at concerts in Great Britain. Overbooking by greedy promoters, alcohol venues are some of the issues which many feel should be examined quickly to avoid a Hillsborough style tragedy.

The Castle Donnington Monsters Of Rock festival, has been canceled at the last minute. The heavy metal festival which suffered two fatalities last year, was due to go ahead this year after negotiations with local authorities, where the promoters agreed to substantially reduce the size of the crowd. But Aimcurve Promotions also intended to appeal against the alcohol licensing restrictions placed on them by the local council, after their enquiry into last year's chaos, but now with time running short, the event has been abandoned. A spokesman for Aimcurve said: "As our appeal could several weeks to be heard, it is felt that there is insufficient time to organize the show." But it was also rumoured that they had run into problems attracting big name acts. It's been suggested that Whitesnake had pulled out because of recording commitments while Guns N' Roses were only tentatively scheduled to appear.

At presstime, it was rumoured that Donovan was planning to put together a supergroup to appear at The Glastonbury Peace Festival in south-west England 18th June. Although the details are being kept secret, it's rumoured that Donovan has been recording an album at Peter Gabriel's studio in nearby Bath with help from Paul McCartney, Eric Clapton, Ringo Starr and Keith Richards. Meanwhile the festival, organized by The Campaign For Nuclear Disarmament, looks set to be one of the best ever, with literally hundreds of artists appearing, including musicians, performance artists, comedians and a huge variety of smaller stalls and events. The main musicians will be: Donovan, Elvis Costello, The Waterboys, Suzanne Vega, All About Eve, The Wonderstuff, The Pixies, Throwing Muses, The Hothouse Flowers, Fairground Attraction, Van Morrison, David Rudder, Lucinda Williams, The Bhundu Boys, Azido, Martin Stephenson And The Daintees, Youssou N'Dour, The Mahotella Queens.

David Bowie's Tin Machine club dates in the British cities of London, Bradford, Newport and Livingston, sold out immediately after going on sale last Sunday. Fans lined up for four days - with lines forming outside St. George's Hall in Bradford the previous Wednesday. In London, there were over 7000 people outside The Dominion Theatre by the time the tickets went on sale. Despite the fact that many of the fans had lined up in vain, there were no reports of any problems. Meanwhile, a new single is released from The Tin Machine Album. "Under The God" will be released on June 19th backed with "Sacrifice Yourself". A limited edition 10 inch, 12 inch and CD will also feature a six minute interview with the band.

Pretenders lead singer Chrissie Hynde narrowly averted legal action being taken against her by McDonalds Hamburgers, following remarks she made at a press conference. The controversy started at the launch of Greenpeace's "Rainbow Warriors" album at London's Hard Rock Cafe. As a vegetarian, Hynde has often stated that her dream is to put the hamburger chain out of business. She and other artists have also criticized McDonalds alleged contribution to the cutting down of Brazilian rainforests, to clear land to graze cattle. Asked at the press conference what she had personally done for Greenpeace, she snapped back, "I've firebombed McDonalds." To add confusion to the incident, a McDonalds restaurant was firebombed three days later in the English town of Milton Keynes. No-one was hurt. Hynde was given a deadline of 4pm on Monday to retract her statement and to say that she would not encourage fans to damage or boycott McDonalds restaurants, which she did at the eleventh hour. She claimed that her comments had been taken out of context. "I will at no time suggest or imply that I have been responsible for firebombing McDonalds, or that anyone should firebomb or cause any other physical damage to the customers, employees, franchises or the physical property of McDonalds restaurants." A McDonalds (UK) spokeswoman said the threatened civil proceedings against Ms. Hynde had been dropped. Police are still investigation the circumstances of the Milton Keynes firebombing, but there was no direct evidence to link the attack with her comments, although it is still being considered as a possibility. Ms. Corrinne Reed of McDonald's said that she understood Ms. Hynde's aversion to the company was based upon a belief that its activities were damaging the world's rainforests. "Nowhere in the world does McDonald's use of beef threaten or remotely involve tropical rainforests." Ms. Reed said. Later, Ms. Hynde said: "It was a joke. Everyone present laughed because of my well documented stand against all fast food chains. I deeply regret the firebombing and I thank God that no one was hurt." The Greenpeace "Rainbow Warriors" album features tracks from The Pretenders, U2, Simple Minds, R.E.M., and The Eurythmics. The album was first released in The Soviet Union last March and has since sold 2 million albums there, making it the biggest selling record in that country's history. Other stars who took part in the press conference included Lou Reed, Bryan Adams, Eurythmics' Dave Stewart, The Thompson Twins and Brinsley Forde from Aswad.

Prefab Sprout will release their "lost" album, "Protest Songs" this week. It was originally recorded in 1985, and was due to be released at the same time as "Steve McQueen" (or "Two Wheels Good" as it was retitled in North America) as a bonus record. But with the sudden success of "When Love Breaks Down" as a single, CBS were unwilling to confuse the public with a record with a very different, acoustic style to it. In interview, Paddy Macaloon has often spoken affectionately about the album, which fans now have an opportunity to hear for the first time. Currently, Prefab Sprout are in the studio, recording a follow-up album to their successful "From Langley Park To Memphis".

R.E.M.'s Peter Buck, Robyn Hitchcock, Dinosaur Jr., Richard Thompson, The Icicle Works and Thin White Rope are among the artists who have recorded "Time Between - A Tribute To The Byrds" compilation album out this week on Imaginary/APT. Peter Buck and Robyn Hitchcock appear together under the pseudonym of Nigel And The Crosses for a version of "Wild Mountain Time" which they performed at a London concert a couple of weeks ago. Other tracks include "I'll Feel A Whole Lot Better" by Dinosaur Jr. "Triad" by Icicle Works and "Here Without You" by Richard Thompson.

Marillion played their first concert with their new lead singer Steve Hogarth last week. The group who have already announced a December tour of Britain, played as The Low Fat Yogurts at a capacity crowd of 100 people at a small pub in Henley. According to "Sounds", they played songs from their next LP, which they are currently mixing, plus a few oldies, including "Kayleigh". Hogarth replaces Fish, who is now involved in solo career.

The Who are about to start their comeback tour across North America, beginning in Canada later this month. Original members Roger Daltry, Pete Townshend and John Entwistle are joined by drummer Simon Phillips, keyboard player Rabbit Bundrick, a six piece brass section, a second guitarist, a percussionist and backing vocalists, making a 15 piece band in total. "The Kids Are Alright" tour will play 30 shows between June and September, with some British dates in the fall. They will also put on a children's charity show of "Tommy" at New York's Radio City Music Hall featuring Elton John, Tina Turner, Phil Collins and Robert Plant. A further two charity shows in Houston and Dallas will raise $5 million for charities for retarded and autistic children. No album is planned to coincide with the tour, but Townshend has a solo album "The Iron Man" out on Virgin at the end of June. It features guest appearances from other members of The Who as well as Nina Simone and John Lee Hooker. Pete Townshend told "Sounds" this week: "We've got no new product and we are creatively and clinically dead, so it's just about history. It feels comfortable for people of our age to say we had a great time then and some good stuff came out of it: If you want to hear it we'll give it to you. In a rather sad way we're behaving like country artists on a roadshow. I don't know whether I'm saying something good or bad about American rock audiences, but they're not interested in Robert Plant, Roger Daltry, Dave Gilmour, Roger Waters or Pete Townshend, they're interested in Led Zeppelin, The Who, The Stones, The Beatles - these institutions that they've created. They're not really interested in what they're really about, but what they represent. That's their initial response, but I'm hoping that when they get closer they'll perhaps change that view. We're not even sure the British dates will sell out. I don't think it will be as much fun as America."

More details have emerged about the charity single, "Spirit Of The Rainforest" released by Virgin, and more names than previously thought are involved. It's a double A-sided single too, with different artists playing on each version of the song-there are 60 acts in all! Among the names are Kate Bush, Debbie Harry, Donna Summer, The Ramones, Little Steven, The B-52's, Ringo Starr, Pink Floyd, XTC, Big Country, Fleetwood Mac, Thomas Dolby, Brian Wilson, Belinda Carlisle, Joni Mitchell, Brother Beyond, Sam Brown, Fish, Kim Wilde, Chris Rea, Was Not Was and Bonnie Raitt. The video features close-ups of the various artists singing, Band-Aid style, but the makers have cleverly managed to shoot it in several places while giving the impression and atmosphere of everyone being in the same studio. There is also some thought provoking footage of forests being burnt down, and a very pleasant Spanish music break in the middle. Profits are donated to the Earth Love Fund. Meanwhile, Greenpeace launch their "Rainbow Warriors" album in the UK and elsewhere, two months after it first became available in the Soviet Union, Among artists featured are U2, The Waterboys, R.E.M., Peter Gabriel, The Eurythmics, Lou Reed, The Pretenders, Simple Minds, Talking Heads, Terence Trent D'Arby, Hothouse Flowers and Martin Stephenson And The Daintees. All the music has been donated by the artists, record companies and publishers. All proceeds will go to Greenpeace. The album, which is released in Britain by RCA, was originally called "Breakthrough" in the USSR and was launched in Moscow by various musicians including Gabriel, Chrissie Hynde, The Edge, Annie Lennox, Karl Wallinger from World Party, Brinsley Forde from Aswad, David Byrne and Jerry Harrison from Talking Heads and The Thompson Twins. Here in London, a Greenpeace benefit is being held next week, featuring Martin Stephenson And The Daintees, Voice Of The Beehive, The Senators and others.

At Bob Dylan's concert in Dublin, he was joined onstage by Bono. The two performed versions of "Knocking On Heaven's Door" and "Maggie's Farm", although for this, "Maggie" was changed to "Charlie", in reference to Ireland's Prime Minister Charles Haughey. Ironically, Mr. Haughey had publicly thanked U2 for the "magnificent contribution to the cultural development of their native city" as he opened a new arts complex in the centre of Dublin. Bono used the event to criticize Margaret Thatcher for closing down similar arts institutions in The United Kingdom. Students were also demonstrating at the event according to eye-witness reports in "The New Musical Express". U2 financed the centre's rehearsal and studio space, persuading the European division of Yamaha to provide instruments and recording equipment, which will be available to professional and amateur musicians alike. It's claimed to be the only such service of its kind in Europe.

The Pogues release a new single this month, followed by their fourth album in July. The single is called "Misty Morning About Bridge" and is released on the group's own Pogue Mahone label, through WEA. It's taken from the next album "Peace And Love", produced by Steve Lillywhite and released in the UK July 17th. The band at presstime were due to play with UB40 at Birmingham's main soccer stadium in the English Midlands.

The multi-talented Peter Gabriel is interviewed this week by "The New Musical Express" (10th June issue with Lou Reed on the cover, the second part of a two week feature) The article reveals his passion and unswerving commitment to world music. As reported last week in this column, Gabriel is the founder of Real World Records. Initial releases include artists from Zaire, Pakistan and Cuba. Out now is "Passion", Gabriel's own soundtrack to Scorsese's "Last Temptation Of Christ" together with "Passion Sources", some of the music which inspired the soundtrack. His own involvement with other kinds of popular music stretches back to WOMAD - an organization which nearly went bankrupt when it first held a festival in London in 1982. These days WOMAD is a flourishing business, taking artists like longtime friend Youssou N'Dour on would tours. "The royalties from 'So', gave me a basis from which to work," he says. "It's provided a foundation in that we can make records in the studio of really good quality without being killed by budget. We have as much light and space as we can-if a studio cannot provide the situation for a great performance, then it's failing as a studio...There's lots of successful pop which doesn't have much soul to it but I'm drawn to music which has a passionate spirit. Historically religion and music have always been very close. Ours is probably one of the first cultures to separate the two." Although Gabriel has been fascinated by visual things - his videos for "Sledgehammer" and "Big Time" opened him to a new mass market and contributed to the huge sales for "So" - his involvement in soundtrack work and his close relationship with Rosanna Arquette, he has never been tempted to act himself, unlike counterparts like Sting and Bowie. "It's partly because those artists get their records done quicker than I do," he says diplomatically. "Perhaps if there's something I could try in a small way I would, but there are things I want to do a lot more than action. Also, there's a tendency when you become well known in any field to think you can move in any other, which is wrong." Gabriel is currently going through divorce proceedings with his wife Jill and his relationship with Arquette is the subject of much inaccurate speculation in the British tabloid press. "I'd rather be hanged for what I've done than what I haven't done," he says. "Passion" and "Passion Sources" are not official follow-up albums to "So". He plans to record perhaps two new albums, possibly returning to a concept album formula. "One will be melody and atmosphere, the other, more rhythm and dance," he says. He hopes to use some of the proceeds from that to start a Real World Experience Park. "In a sense, part of the aim is to create places and journeys and passages in an artists world. The intention is to help artists, musicians, photographers, film-makers, architects, psychologists, to help them in the design of experiences. Then to put people inside and allow them to interact. It's still at the planning stages but we've approached people like KD Laing, Laurie Anderson, Brian Eno and Terry Gilliam.

The Pet Shop Boys are planning their first ever live dates with some dates in Hong Kong and Japan and three UK dates in July. The stage show will be directed by Derek Jarman who has made controversial alternative movies like "Jubilee", "The Last Of England", "Sebastian", "The Temptation", "Carabaggio" as well as videos for The Smiths' "Panic", "The Queen Is Dead" and "There's A Light That Never Goes Out". He was also the screen designer for Ken Russell's "Gothic" and Neil Jordan's "Company Of Wolves" and the stage designer for "L'Inspirazione" at The Florence Opera House last year. The band lined up to play with The Pet Shoppers includes the gifted young British jazz saxophonist Courtney Pine. A troupe of dancers are rehearsing in Los Angeles with choreographer Casper Canidate, who did the "Smooth Criminal" video as well as The Pet Shop Boys own "Left To My Own Devices". There will also be four backing singers. Neil Tennant said this week: "This is the tour we have waited three years to do, in terms of presentation and production." The duo have spent most of this year in the studio and they release a new three track single on Parlophone June 26th, "It's Alright" from the "Introspective" album. It's been re-recorded with producer Trevor Horn and contains additional lyrics. It's accompanied with two new songs, "One Of The Crowd" and "Your Funny Uncle". There will also be an extended 12 inch, a three track cassette single and a four track CD. The Pet Shop Boys have recently completed the album they have produced with Julian Mendelsohn for Liza Minnelli. Released by Epic in the fall, it will feature five new Tennant/Lowe songs. They have also completed a new single for Dusty Springfield.

Then Jericho guitarist Scott Taylor has left the group after a series of arguments within the outfit. When they were recording their "Big Area" album, work was split up into five studios and it was learnt this week that rows broke out as to who would record in which studio. This resulted in literal punch-ups between Scott, lead singer Mark Shaw and drummer Steve Wren. The next day, Scott and Steve left the Los Angeles studio and flew straight back to England. A press statement says that Taylor has left by "mutual agreement". He has been replaced for the remaining dates of their British tour by Keith Airey.

IN BRIEF

The Fall will have a new album out at the end of June... Pop Will Eat Itself are denying that a row is breaking out between themselves and their new label RCA, after the latter sent out copies of their new album without an inner sleeve lyric sheet... Fish hurt his arm two months ago and following persistent agony, finally went to see the doctor last week. He has now discovered he's been walking around for a couple of months with a broken arm!... Playing around Britain this week The Beautiful South are out and about. Featuring two ex-Housemartins, the group have received commercial and critical success here for their debut single "Song for Whoever". Bob Dylan wraps up his UK jaunt with a big date at Wembley Arena, while Lou Reed competes for attention in the big name All-American stakes. Also doing the rounds: The House Of Love, The Stranglers, Stone Roses, Elvis Costello, The Inspiral Carpets, Ghostdance, Dizzy Gillespie's United Nations All Star Orchestra, The Swans, Frazier Chorus and Love And Money... Is there a ska revival going on in London at the moment? One of my spies seems to think so after witnessing the Second London International Ska Festival at The Sir George Robey pub in the northern stretches of the city. Bands included The Deltones, The Toasters, Buster Bloodvessel and 14 others!... EMI have just released the essential Dr. Feelgood album "The Singles - The UA Years" featuring 26 tracks spanning 1975-1989... Martin Gore from Depeche Mode releases his first solo album, "Counterfeit" on Mute Records, June 12th. He's currently in Italy with Mode recording new material... Jesus And Mary Chain are wrapping up their fourth album for release in September... Elvis Costello rumoured to be hopping mad after seeing Blue Rodeo at London's Borderline Club. Seems the great bard feels that they owe a lot of their music and success to his style of music. And we all thought imitation was the sincerest form of flattery!... Ex-Bananarama lady Siobhan has made a new single which "Melody Maker" compares to Wendy and Lisa... After much speculation, David Bowie's Tin Machine has finally confirmed some dates in the UK at the end of June... Finally, "Time Out" magazine gave their "Time to give up award" to Mungo Jerry, who sold a total of five tickets (two of which were purchased by relatives) for their concert last week in Salisbury. Oh well, in the summertime when the weather is fine, etc.

Cheerio Til Next Week..... Lee Carter

David A. Ross, KMJX, Little Rock

We decided on a new look for the nineties. We just debuted our new logo to commemorate our tenth year as an AOR. Not many AOR's make it 10 years. We have and we're still going strong.... Our Casey Jones went to Dallas to catch the Chrysalis show. She says hi to Mike Bone, Grant Spofford, Dave Ross, Kenny Ryback and Mark, Glen, Ted and Tommy.... Don Henley is multi-format everything and we're getting good phones on Stevie Ray Vaughan, Badlands, Billy Squier and Queen.

J.D., WONE, Akron

It's been over 4 and a half years in the making and from the sound of this release it's been well worth the wait. "The End Of Innocence" from Don Henley is a genuine masterpiece. The added touch of Bruce Hornsby on piano makes this track extra attractive. Once again Don Henley comes through with a brilliant record with exceptional lyrics and a Hall Of Fame sound for record of the year. Can't wait until the Lp ships in a few weeks.... We're getting set for the very first Akron Batman Convention featuring original Batman Adam West. This convention ironically will coincide with the national release of "Batman" the movie - the weekend of June 24-25. Other special guests include Tom Savini, make-up and special effects wizard of "Dawn Of The Dead", "Creepshow" and "Friday The 13th", Kyra, girl star of the original 1968 classic "Night Of The Living Dead", "Repo Man", "Heavy Metal!" plus a Batman museum, costume contest and art exhibits. Also, on hand will be 50 dealer tables with Batman, Star Trek, Freddy and Dr. Who merchandise and collectibles.... Another promotion we're gearing up for is the first ever Akron Grand Prix. A mini-Indy car race in and around the city of Akron. The engines get roaring on Saturday July 8 which promises to be a very exciting race. These mini-Indy cars are the coolest machines revving up to top speed of 20-25 mph (30 mph if you really push it!) These cars are great. When you get behind the wheel of one of these little machines you think you own the road.... Another event we're getting ready for is one of the concert events of the season which lands here Monday July 3rd at the Akron Rubber Bowl. Bon Jovi, Cinderella, Winger and the BulletBoys roll into town for a 4th of July extravaganza!

Mike Jones, KISW, Seattle

My new hours for music calls are Monday and Friday 10am to 1pm. Say, with world events being what they are, why isn't China Crisis getting a heavier push? How 'bout Adrian Belew's "Oh Daddy" for Father's Day? Just wonderin'. (By the way, the concept of Father's Day was born in Spokane, Washington. More morning show prep pays off.).... Best concert I saw last week was "Lamefest '89" which showcased three bands on the Subpop label. Did you notice the letter in Rolling Stone that said Subpop was the hottest indie label in the country? I would guess most in the soldout Moore Theater that night would agree. Mudhoney, Tad and Nirvana displayed the best of the "Seattle Sound". Tap into these bands before they tap into you. Will the Posies be the next Seattle band to make the jump to the majors? We'll see....

Kim Alexander, WHCN, Hartford

Bill and Rose rule! My third McGathy party was the best ever. Great food, great drink, great entertainment provided by the coolest band in the universe... NRBQ. We here in the Northeast have known and loved these guys for ages. I can't wait for the rest of the country to get turned on to them. It made my month to see so many jaded industry types tearing up the dance floor to these guys. Look for a record on Virgin in early September. Anyway, back to Bill and Rose. You guys are the best. Really. And finally, Jeffrey, you're a great dancer. Didn't know you had it in you. And I found Ed Mimms and now we can rest easy.... Oh, more other stuff. Check out Indio. It's great.... Todd Rundgren is flying high here, as is Jeff Healey's "Angel Eyes" and Skid Row's "I Remember You". You guys at Atlantic better hurry with that one!

Michael Young, WIOT, Toledo

Talk about the "Walk On The Wild Side" of the 80's, check out Love & Rockets' "So Alive". This one has the phones going crazy.... I'm also very happy with Pete Townshend's "A Friend Is A Friend", the man is a brilliant writer and his music is always refreshing. I'm really looking forward to hearing the entire "Iron Man" project.... Finally, thank you Jim Steel for breaking down and ordering the Hearn/Leonard fight on cable, but who paid off the judges? I think Sugar Ray is one of the best, but man oh man, Hearn should've won. Way to go Hitman, you kicked ass.

Wendy Steele, WLWQ, Columbus

Thanks to Bill and Rose McGathy for a fantastic weekend. I felt honored to be there, except we didn't get to slide around on our chairs at Yankee Stadium this year. That's okay, the bus ride back was much fresher. Did you notice Bill's outfit at the game? Bill, you are so dapper!!!

Robin Mathieu, WBLM, Portland

Went with the Henley/Hornsby collaboration this week. The piano intro may surprise but once Don starts singing, the song is definitely his.... Townshend's tune may not exactly reach out and grab you on first listen, but there is something subtle about this song that simply demands airplay. This is definitely something that must be put on the radio. Make no mistake, the audience wants to hear this record, period.

Joe Marino, WCCC, Hartford

A humongous thanks to Bill and Rose McGathy for the invite to their party. Not only are they the two nicest people in rock n' roll, but they also know how to throw one hell of a party!!

Tom Scheppke, KISS, San Antonio

Don Hornsby or is it Bruce Henley sounds like one of those guys. I think it's the one on piano. Does this mean that the track with the Guns & Roses boy sounds like "Welcome To The Fucking Jungle". We'll see.... Townshend's track is great hopefully the lp will revitalize nina samone career.... So far I'm not real impressed with the Yes Not Yes lp. We'll start with the old Bruce Lee tune "Fist Of Fire" and I'll keep listening.... Stevie Ray Vaughan lp is fantastic. His best. Stand outs are the house is rockin, let me love you baby and scratch and sniff.... Bad English is a great direction, back to rocking for both Waite and Schon.... Also new this week the newly colored Siren's "One Good Lover", Kingdom Come "Who Do You Love" (not Quicksilver Messenger Service or George Thorogood, but Zeppelin's version).... Saraya's "Get You Ready" and finally Living Colour's "Middle Man".... Personal to Steve Schmur, Elvis lives...on my wall.

Dayna Steele, KLOL, Houston

As you read this, Ed Levine is on his way to, if not already in, Washington, D.C. at WJFK... They'll never know what hit 'em! So, once again, here I sit as the "acting program director" for KLOL. Yes, I have considered taking the position. But, after further discussions with management and my significant other, we have decided that it would be impossible for me to take on the duties of P.D. on a permanent basis in addition to a five hour airshift. No, I would not go off the air.... I'm gonna brag. Right now I'm sitting at the #3 position 12+ in the market for middays and I ain't gonna give that up! So, until a name is announced as the new P.D. of the Texas rock and roll authority, "Ya'll" call me, ya hear?

Joe Moss, WPYX, Albany

Congratulations to Ed Levine on being summoned to WJFK/Washington. All of us here at PYX wish Ed the best of luck. He'll always be the ultimate yuppie to us. I'd bet the farm that JFK does double digits in no time. We were proud to be among the first to hear Ed and Howard Stern go at it in New York last year. Now we can finally look forward to a rematch. Way to go Snake! Now that's one I'd get pay per view to see.... Don Henley is nothing short of exquisite. I'm more excited than ever to hear the rest of the album.... ABWH give us the Yes record diehard fans have waited years for. Who says progressive rock is dead?... The Allman Brothers sampler is a treat. This boxed set should be a real charm.... Stevie Ray Vaughan's single smokes! Looking forward to seeing Stevie Ray play for us here in Capitland this week.... Finally, if you're not playing Love & Rockets, slap yourself a frying pan then walk directly to your playlist and add it. It's one of my favorite new records of the year -- a real "turn up the volume" record you shouldn't miss!

Brian Illes, WKFM, Syracuse

Henley's record contains no surprises, it's a shimmering record that exudes quality.... The more I listen to Pete Townshend, the more it grabs me. More than lots of Townshend or Who stuff, it's not a one listen thing.... Paul McCartney tries his best to return to rock n' roll and on a couple of tracks, he even accomplishes that. Maybe after he tours, he'll be capable of doing a full rock n' roll album.

In the meantime, "Figure Of 8" and "This One" are two tracks that any rock station can play.

Keith Masters, WAQY, E. Long Meadow

Don Henley, best new single of 89, hands down.

Ty Banks, KQWB, Fargo

We just finished a "Full Moon Fever" weekend debuting the entire Lp from Tom Petty and giving away tons of cassettes and CD's. The response was tremendous. "Runnin Down A Dream" is the #1 request this week.... Personally, I'm still wallowing in Todd's "Nearly Human" and Tora Tora mania mania is still sweeping the country.

Joe Paiano, WRKU, Youngstown

From the first word of Neal Schon working on a new project, my expectations were aroused. Bad English reaches further than I had hoped. Polished clean professionals doing what they do best.... Tangier is a walkin surprise. I heard plenty of talk about the disc, but most often the talk exceeds the rock. And then you go on the line to discover a project worthy of our attention.

Pam Brooks, WPDH, Poughkeepsie

As far as I'm concerned Jimmy The Greek will be given great odds that Bad English will be blowing the doors in. Waite, Schon and Cain have put a serious rock n' roll stamp on a piece of vinyl that you surely won't forget. Remember what it felt like to slap on a great piece of rock n' roll that didn't have heads banging and long locks flying, just straight ahead power that made your short hairs stand up? So it goes with "Forget Me Not". Let it rip. The boys are wailing.... Love love love "Hard Sun" by Indio. It's up there in my top ten fave new releases. Dylanesque backed with a spine-tingling toe-tapping thigh-pumping beat that has gotten seriously under my skin. My sincerest wish is that we prove capable of doing what we should do best, exposing greatness to our listeners. Because "Hard Sun" exemplifies what a hit should be. In your face hooks, great lyrics and unforgettable sound.... A wild weekend with the wonderfully wacky McGathys. Too much killer tequila. I'm always telling them to keep that stuff away from me, but do they listen? As always a pleasure to see all of the magical music heads that make this business fun.... The Sunday ride home was soothed by the sounds of hot new Bodeans. Not only am I totally in love with this band, but they've captured the essence of cruising in the torrid summer sun lookin for that one great encounter. This Lp is a beauty from start to finish and you don't get much makes me palms sweat.

Dave Cowan, WROV, Roanoke

A couple of minutes left before my airshift -- just enough time to free-associate about some music we're playing. Stevie Ray Vaughan has delivered what is probably the strongest AOR song of the year to date. "Crossfire" smokes.... If you make special cassettes to play on long car trips, then Tom Petty's "Runnin Down A Dream" is a must for that sort of compilation... "Here Comes Your Man" by The Pixies is the most refreshing thing we have on the air. Just plain fun.... I've been a bit burned out on Bruce Hornsby of late, but after 3 or listens, Don and Bruce have really grown on me. "The End Of The Innocence" is great therapy -- very relaxing without being boring.... Sad to see quality music from the likes of Blue Rodeo, Peregrins and Bob Mould languishing on the AOR charts.... WROV-FM is taking 3 busloads of listeners to Raleigh for the July 27 Who concert. Response has been phenomenal as listeners vie for boarding passes on the 96.3 ROV-FM "Magic Bus". Pretty darn clever, huh?

Stacy Yelton, WKQQ, Lexington

Vic Lentini - Say it with pride! Have a hoagie - you're a funny, funny guy and thank you for a great weekend.... I guess Queen will have to be "stuck" in my car cassette player. These guys are back in a big way.... Bruce Hornsby would probably sue Don Henley had he not joined him on "The End Of Innocence". It's a finely crafted song. Lyrically, we grown-ups can really appreciate this. It's deep, dark, haunting, and stunningly beautiful.

Randy Maranz, KDJK, Modesto

Hello nation. First off, thanks a million to the folks at Chrysalis, Gina Horton, Grant Spofford, and the rest! For a great time in Dallas on the 10-11th. Just to much fun. Thanks again. And now music - I'd like to steer you towards a band from our area that's got a real good debut on Relativity. They're called Jet Red. (Being that we were the first in the nation to add their record and interview them on the air, we have great anticipations that this band will do real well.) Check out the first single "Not The Only One" on the Tune Up CD #35. Other tracks to consider when you get the Lp are "Lolita" and "Bad As Heaven". As with the album, these tracks are really strong.... King Swamp still remains hot. If you're not on this one, please listen again. It does work.... Pete Townshend is very good - can't wait for The Who tour. And still doing well here at KDJK: Winger, Queen, Badlands, Doobie Bros and Love & Rockets.... Oh, and one more thing, or two or three. A big hello to Ginger at KKEG, and my Yeagermeister buds Tommy Nast and Dale Kelly. That's it, that's all.

Beaver Brown, KDJK, Modesto

If you haven't climbed aboard the first class accommodations of Jet Red Airlines, you best get your ticket. This little one-listen wonder will fly into your listeners ears at Mach 1 and have them getting to the phones at Mach 2 to hear more. "Not The Only One" is only a prelude to the killer debut CD that Jet Red has to offer. So spin this one and salivate on what's to come. Relativity has another winner on their hands. So find your seat and get ready for one hell of a ride!! If you want to find out more about the band call Mark, Randy or me at 209-869-2594!... Love & Rockets is still getting great phones and there is absolutely no burn factor here!... Is anybody else getting calls from those religious freaks about "Praying To A New God"? Screw 'em, keep spinning that Wang Chung, it cooks baby!... I sure am glad to have new stuff from The Call. Michael Been's talent is to good to be ignored, so don't.... Why has it taken so long for Red Siren to climb up the charts, "One Good Lover" is great. If you're not on it, you're the ones that should be red, in the face.... Bonnie Raitt has quite a following here and the calls are all positive for "Love Letter". What more can I say about The Rainmakers but "wow"! "Spend It On Love" is only a taste of the fine things on "The Good News And The Bad News". So grab a big spoonful and eat up.... I hope Badlands will get more attention soon, "Dreams In The Dark" with Jake E. and Ray should fulfill your minimum daily requirements for great rock and it contains no cholesterol.... Another local boy making good is Chris Isaak. How can such a cool, sultry song go wrong? It can't, spend more time with it. "Those freaks was right, when they said he was dead".... J.L.

Mark Bretsch, WWCT, Peoria

We're hitting stride for summer! Friday's Louie Louie Parade raised over $6,000 for Leukemia. Saturday, four buses to see The Who in St. Louis sold out in two hours! Combine this with all the great new music and we've got a hot summer. The Call and 10,000 Maniacs get top 5 phones after their first weeks.... We're expecting the same out of Bad English - what a rocker!

Elise Vander Borcht, KPEZ, Austin

I can't imagine any hold outs on Virgin's King Swamp project, but if there are, let me tell you something. Live, they are fantastic. The lead singer is the son of Lizard King, I swear, with a little Michael Hutchence thrown in for added appeal. The album has at least four or five more cuts quite suitable for AOR.... Don Henley is an obvious automatic heavy, Bruce Hornsby's co-production makes it an across the board winner, all day parts, all ages.... Two more ladies get added this week, each with her own unique style. Bonnie Raitt with "Love Letter", and the esoteric Maria McKee with "I've Forgotten What It Is In You That Puts The Need In Me". This lady can send you to heaven and the music's not bad either. Neither is she, all the guys in the office are drooling over her picture... Johnny Diesel and the Injectors' show went very well, so we added "Don't Need Love" on the strength of his live performance.... Stevie Ray Vaughan, what else can I say but number one phones?

Andy Dean, WDHA, Dover

Thanks to Jon Bon Jovi for almost giving me heart failure when he dedicated "Runaway" to WDHA in front of 72,000 crazies at Giants Stadium this past Sunday. David Leach is right. Jon doesn't forget the people who have helped the band get to where it is today, and we're very proud that he obviously includes us on that list. Thanks also to Billy Squier, Sam Kinison and Dave "Snake" Sabo of Skid Row for stopping by our broadcast booth at the Stadium during the Bon Jovi "Homecoming" concert. Just a few notes on music.... Don Henley is an instant classic and promises to be a three-format smash. The time for AOR to play it is now and often!... I love Marshall Crenshaw as well.... And my vote for "cool" song of the week goes to Diesel Park West with "When The Hoodoo Comes".... It's sorta like U2 with an injection of boogie and this mutha cooks! See ya....

Paul Cavanagh, KFMU, Steamboat/Vail

Out of the box this week on three cuts: Pete Townshend, Don Henley and BoDeans. Looking forward to the rest of those albums. KFMU switching tracks on Indigo Girls after meeting with great response on "Kid Fears" we will go after "Closer To Fine".... Also a bit deeper on Paul McCartney's

"Flowers In The Dirt" - another McCartney and MacManus track "You Want Her Too" and deeper yet on Tom Petty's flawless "Full Moon Fever" this time "Yer So Bad".... KFMU has also jumped on the Indio bandwagon.... June 24th - Softball, fun, fun, fun - See ya then!!!

Tom Bass, WPLR, New Haven

Thanks to Bill and Rose McGathy for a great weekend in New York. Too bad about the Yankees, but everything else was perfect!... I should thank WPLR's listeners as well. I mean, they show amazing good taste with enough phone calls and retail action that I get to put Concrete Blonde into Power rotation. Just when I think I hate them, I find out I love them.... Didn't take long to get people calling up on Stevie Ray Vaughan's "Crossfire". But then, why would it? It's a great song! The Indigo Girls' retail picture won't stop, and they continue to be a Top Five phone item, so we're giving "Closer To Fine" Power rotation. It's earned it, who am I to argue.... Ditto the Godfathers. If you haven't played "She Gives Me Love", you missed a hit record. Period.

John Amberg, WKRR, Greensboro

Don Henley has crafted a song so sad and beautiful, I stop whatever I'm doing and sort of trance out, listening to the lyrics. This is a song that will be around for many months of Sundays.... The BoDeans are on the threshold of mass appeal popularity. It only took the public three albums to get there. "You Don't Get Much" captures the essence of Kurt and Sammy's sound and then pounds home a hook so massive that you'd have to be catatonic to miss it. Having seen the Deans live three times on the last tour, I know these Midwest guys are real. If you don't play "You Don't Get Much", then you probably haven't gotten any since High School.... I love Heavy Lenny's enthusiasm over Michael Been and The Call. He has a powerful voice, and "Let The Day Begin" is an excellent life-affirming tune.... I also dig Stevie Ray Vaughan (He's sort of got a BB King thang goin'), 10,000 Maniacs, oh my goodness, what a windfall of wonderful songs. And so many more to come, too. These are times that make music directors delirious and frantic at the same time. It was good to see the Charlotte gang up at my house Saturday June 10 for the cook-out. Julie and I enjoyed having you here, even if Kingrey broke my good drum sticks, Carter wore dead fish on his shirt, and Gleekman kept harping on "Disco Shit".

Paul Marszalek, WMAD, Madison

Boy do I feel sorry for the baby bands. Each week a few stations plant the seeds. Hoping to ensure format growth into the next decade. But then the dinosaur lawnmower comes along and stomps the seedlings into the dirt. The collective radio and record company myopia amazes me. One minute we're heroes for saving room for the baby bands. The next minute we're insulted as our sanity is questioned because we didn't come out of the box on some dinosaur. Very frustrating. I think the next time someone questions my adds, I'm going to pack up the entire catalog and land it on his or her desk - next day air. How long before we run the format into the dirt? Have you ever seen a dog chasing its tail? To me, that image is analogous to the current state of non-metal AOR. Thank you for your time.

Dominick Milone, WNGZ, Elmira

What a combination, Don Henley and Bruce Hornsby. "The End Of Innocence" is a killer. If this is just a preview of what's to come, look for an incredible album from this former Eagle.... Also, Pete Townshend, "The Iron Man" project looks and sounds to be another "Tommy". "A Friend Is A Friend" is an incredibly refreshing song.... Also new this week, The Call and "Let The Day Begin". Heed The Call, let the phones light up.... From the Deja Vu Department... The Burns Sisters The Burns Sisters The Burns Sisters The Burns Sisters... WHEW!

Malcolm Ryker, KZLR, Little Rock

You won't believe it, today as I was listening to some of my prospective adds, a huge alien spaceship landed and sucked me aboard. As I stared in amazement I saw that the upstairs of the spaceship was filled with Whitesnake clone bands, yet downstairs I saw and heard 25 polished U2 clones. Unfortunately this mother ship was from Clonatononia and I was scared that the aliens were about to take me on some wild Journey. Now this had to stop so I put my foot down trying not to be a Baby and said, "look dammit, do Clonatonians appreciate any bands that don't sound like clones?". The alien replied to me in its broken and somewhat Bad English, "yes, there is a band they can't play pool, Clonatononia's national sport, but they sound incredible. And these words I speak are the truth so 'Forget Me

Not". Wow, what a day.

Mark Waddington, KRQU, Laramie

A great many thank you's need to be said for an incredible weekend in Denver. These are some of the hardest working record reps in the industry so listed in order of appearance, thanks to Rich Abravaia at Warner for a great Italian dinner Friday night. Yes, there is a great Italian restaurant in Denver. Thanks to Michael Brannen at Atlantic for a great time with drivin n' cryin'. Thanks to Bob Margolis at Geffen for bed and breakfast. Thanks to the new guy, Jim Scott from Elektra, he didn't know Denver any better than I did so we spent Saturday afternoon exploring. Thanks to James Israel of Mercury for the backstage party with the Rainmakers and to Randy Robbins of Capitol for the backstage festivities with the Doobie Brothers on Saturday night. It was a good weekend with good friends and great music. Thanks to each and every one of you.

Virgil Thompson, WIXV, Savannah

Belated congratulations to Bill Weston on his ascension to the throne at WHJY. Bill, be sure to call us if you need advice on our sure-fire upper demo audience features, such as "Metallica in the Morning".

Ralph Tortora, WBAB, Long Island

Something wonderful happened to me a couple of weeks ago as I drove home from NYC. I popped in a tape by a new group and I'm happy to say I did something I have not done with a new album in a long time. It was so damn good I couldn't wait to get back to the beginning and listen to it again. The album is the debut by Tangier and I haven't stopped listening yet. Great songs, great production and a killer vocal (best I've heard since Paul Rodgers with a flavoring of Billy Gibbons) equals one mother of a band. This will be a platinum album, probably more. Pull that rip cord.

Chaz Mixon, KZEW, Dallas

It was quite a successful beach party, huh? Thanks to House Of Lords and all the RCA guys as well as Johnny Diesel and the Chrysalis crew. Great to see all you guys from around the country in town.... Plenty of music this week. Don Henley, Pete Townshend and U2 all sound great.... I like The Cult, Bad English, Bodeans and White Lion. Those will last a while.

Beth Kepple, WKLS, Atlanta

drivin n' cryin' grabs #1 phones again this week, beating out even Lita and Ozzy.... Every time there's mention of a new "supergroup", I cringe and expect the worst, but Bad English ain't a disappointment, except perhaps to parents who want rock n'roll to be to their kids what school can't.... This Allman Brothers collection "Dreams" is incredible, even if you're not a diehard AB junkie, and that reunion tour can't happen soon enuf.... Thanks to WB for re-working the BulletBoys's "Smooth Up". That tune still gets my hormones in a lather and conjures up the nastiest mental pelvic thrusts.

Barbara Voight, WZXL, Atlantic City

Went with Don Henley in medium this week. Should work well with his many fans, Hornsby's piano is distinctive, to say the least.... Pete Townshend is getting lots of phones already. It seems to be about all the people care about right now, The Who and the return of Pete to the airwaves.... Our one increase in rotation this week sees Love & Rockets moving up.

John Loscalzo, WRCN, Long Island

Is it just me or is life getting just a little too much like "Spinal Tap"? Great party, Bill! Thanks again!... Personal to Archie, you look great in red.... Did I say Pere Ubu's album is outstanding?

Darryl Delott, WKLT, Kalkaska

Stevie Ray Vaughan's song has to be an automatic for us this week. Great tune!... Great White continues to do real well around here and I can't wait to get those ballads on the air after "Mista Bone" runs its course.... Tora Tora shows some encouraging moves on my turntable. This band should stand up to the test of airplay with no problem.... Talk about performers! Billy Squier's record looks like the real thing around here and you can pretty much take your pick off the Doobie Brothers album as well.... We are seeing good local sales on 10,000 Maniacs and reaction to the song seems to justify our investment in this band.... The Cult remains one of my favorites right now and the best is yet to come from the album.

Joe Skare, KFMQ, Lincoln

I want to thank Bob Blend from Capitol for all his help in our Classic Queen Free Music Weekend as we gave away CD copies of Classic Queen. Lots of summer activity at the Q with our Concert in the Park recently netting 1,200 pounds of food for the Lincoln Food Bank. We recently welcomed Chicago and the Beach Boys to an outdoor show and we are gearing up for Lincoln's Flatwater Festival. We'll have a street dance on Friday to kick things off with the Leroi Brothers headlining.

Dan Thomas, KWHL, Anchorage

Tora Tora is doing good stuff for us already. It's got that raunchy rock and blues feel to it that gets top five phones just two weeks into the project. Actually, the first time I played this track I got phones.... I love the first BoDeans track. It has that U2 sound to begin with but when the song is up and running it becomes obvious that this is what the BoDeans are all about. From what I can hear this time out, their vocals are even better than before.... The Cure have snagged top five phones here and they've never done this well before in Anchorage. This song is obviously strong enough to make the difference for this band and, face it, the women just go nuts for this band. And we can all use a few more of those ladies.... The first time I heard Junkyard I knew these boys had what it takes. It's one of those records that just grabs ya by the nads.

Dave Hazzard, WWZU, Williamsport

I like Henley and Hornsby a lot. This is a very solid piece of work from the man who built the perfect beast.... Queen continues to be the biggest of the big on our phones. No sign of this one slowing down around here.... Fine Young Cannibals is also a strong example of what works in this market.... Ditto Cinderella, hard rock this area eats up non-stop.... On the horizon, Tora Tora is going to really take hold once it gets a little exposure. People love that bad boy rock and roll and these guys have the image in spades.

Rick Gangi, WRUF, Gainesville

Big reaction for Tom Petty continues behind that homeboy vote.... Anderson Bruford Wakeman Howe end up in Heavy this week based on some strong performance on the air.... Big first week phones for Tangier. This is a great rock song that takes to the air without a ripple. Custom fitted for the format.

D-Day, WRXX, Ft. Myers

Major thanks to Bill and Rose McGathy for the ballgame and boogie bash in party-town. True transplanted Texas hospitality. My many fine new friends, including Trapper, are too numerous to mention. However, one delicious word should surmise it all, "debauchery", it's a wonderful word.... Indigo Girls' "Closer To Fine" is rich in texture and full of life. I'm betting it goes top five phones in our daytime.... Kingdom Come is back for real with all the force and energy it takes to move the younger rock set. "Who Do You Love" pounds the point home and lights up our nights.... Check out Tangier. This rocker reaches up and pulls you down slow and easy into a tight fitting rock groove that sure works for us.... And finally, "When The Hoodoo Comes". Listen to Diesel Park West. Very strong stuff.... For your new music shows, listen to Eliza Gilkyson, Peregrins, Jason and the Scorchers and House of Freaks.... Oh, and by the way, Rob Junklas blows me over. This guy is truly a marvelous writer.

Anthony Alfonsi, WDVE, Pittsburgh

Don Henley has once again proven why he's my hero. A lot of people are saying the record sounds like Bruce Hornsby. This assumption is obvious because Bruce does play on it and he helped co-write it, but the voice is unmistakable Don Henley. "The End Of The Innocence" will be another in a long line of hits credited to Don Henley. Don is one of the few song writers who composed his success in the 70s and 80s.... Pete Townshend's "Friend Of A Friend" is pure Pete. The song is part of another Townshend concept album and I'm curious to see where it fits in with the rest of the story.

Sue Frey, WAOR, Southbend

A special thanks to Bill and Rose for a great weekend in New York. Also thanks to Marko and Danny for the show at the Ritz. And special thanks to D-Day for after the show.

Roger "I'll never eat at McDonalds in Dekalb, Illinois again" Dodger, KRNA, Cedar Rapids

For those of you not in the know, the break room at the big 93 has been dubbed the "Dwayne Allman Memorial" break room for almost three years. One of the Allman's last concert with Dwayne was in Iowa City. We figured it was the least we could do for one of the best guitarists and most memorable bands in the history of rock. Now the "Dreams" compilation is helping to keep the jams alive and I couldn't be happier. One pass of "Statesboro Blues" broke open a floodgate of phone calls from curious brothers asking where we got it and gearing up for it just like I was in anticipation of the unreleased material and Allman's gems. Who ever decided to put "Dreams" together, thanks!

Tom Van Sant, WIZN, Burlington

Eleven adds? You bet! Don Henley's "The End Of The Innocence". This will be a three-format smash by mid-summer. Watch Out!... Pete Townshend's "A Friend Is A Friend". Wonderful tune and ties in well with all the hoopla surrounding The Who tour.... BoDeans' "You Don't Get Much" shows incredible development. A real spine tingler.... Simple Minds' "Take A Step Back". The best rock track from the album.... Marshall Crenshaw's "Some Hearts". A beautiful song from one of rock's great untapped talents.... The Cult's "Sun King". The album has been top 15 here for months and phone interest has been tremendous. The Cult cannot be denied.... Indio's "Hard Sun". After three listens, you will be hooked. Excellent "progressive" image tune with broad appeal.... Bad English's "Forget Me Not". Journey with John Waite singing? Kid me not.... J.C. Mellencamp's "Jackie Brown". One of his all time best songs, pure and simple.... Allman Brothers' "Statesboro Blues". Warning: big-selling box on the way.... Stevie Nicks' "Long Way To Go". Top five sales already for Stevie. This one's a good rocker.

Meg Stevens, WAQX, Syracuse

It's the start of the summer concert season in Syracuse! Bad Company, Eddie Money and a club show with Great White, all within three days! Many thanks to Bad Company's Brian Howe for the interview and to Atlantic's Kevin Young for the fun time. Also, Jim Delbalzo and Jerry Blair for the help in setting it all up. Last but not least, thanks to the coolest man in record promotion - Capitol's Jack Snyder. All the shows rocked! It's a summer for concerts and for great music. Instant phones on Townshend and Don Henley, but everyone who called for the Henley asked about that "Bruce Hornsby" tune.... Anderson Bruford Wakeman Howe knocks me out - the best album in '89. Yes, it is!

Bernie Bernard, VOA, Washington D.C.

It's a wonderfully ecumenical country, when a soap opera swain can score a number one hit. But honestly, isn't Chris Isaak better looking than Michael Damian? And he sure writes better songs! So, in all fairness, let's get Chris into the Top 10 as well!... Then, on the other side of the coin, there's Anderson Bruford Wakeman Howe - and how! What a swell time-warp of an album, but still perfectly suitable for today's formats... We're happy to say Boris Grebenshikov's music has been heard on VOA for a number of years. His candid comments were in part responsible for an award winning documentary about Russian rock we produced last year. We hope he can do a full-fledged tour soon.

Doug Clifton, KBCO, Boulder

The biggest week of the year so far with new music from Don Henley, Pete Townshend, Stevie Ray Vaughan and the BoDeans not to mention releases from Jackson Browne and Anderson Bruford Wakeman Howe.... Henley's was a bit of a surprise but everyone here likes it a lot. Don and Bruce Hornsby make a fine writing duo as "The End Of The Innocence" brings both musicians' talents to the same level. Best song of the summer at this point!... Pete Townshend has been able to adapt his story lines to rock and roll for many years. Now he takes someone else's words and creates a rock musical around a children's tale. If the advance release is any indication it appears Pete is right on target in following his own classic stories "Tommy" and "Quadrophobia" with "Ironman". The timing couldn't be better with the tour just about to get underway!... Stevie Ray Vaughan has turned up his guitar playing a notch since turning his personal life around and his new album could rank up there with "Texas Flood" as one of his best ever! "Crossfire" and "Let Me Love You Baby" only scratch the surface of a project that we'll be able to utilize well into the fall of '89. A little U2 has rubbed off on the BoDeans from their touring together but the vocal distinction sets this band apart from everyone else. "You Don't Get Much" will probably be just one of many success stories from "Home". The BoDeans are ready to rock radio by storm!... Jackson Browne delivers another album full of songs that tell it like it is. He's never held his feelings back in the past. No reason to now! "The Word Justice" is a personal favorite with "Enough Of The Night" and "Anything Can Happen" other staff favorites.... Yes Not Yes or ABWH has gone back to their roots and created an album you would expect to hear from one of the seventies premier art rock groups. It's the perfect evolution into the 80's (or 90's at this point). "Quartet" and "Birthright" will sound great on the air. Finally made a decision on what King Swamp track to use. And the winner is "Louisiana Bride". Thanks to Hugh Surrat, Michael Papale and Bob Margolis for -- oh, I'm sorry. It was all a dream.... Great to finally meet Ray Tusken and his lovely wife Michelle. Art Phillips gave them the grand tour of Colorado and then joined KBCO for the opening of the 1989 Red Rocks Season with the kick off of the Doobie Brothers reunion tour. By the way, the band is as tight as ever and covers most of their best material over the years plus much of the new album.... Ten O'Clock News: Bugs Henderson, B-52's, Roxette, Kenny Neal, Phranc, Diesel Park West, Loudon Wainwright, Goodbye Mr. McKenzie, Tim Finn, Peregrins, Spirit Of The Forest and Pat Methany.... Thanks to James Isreal of Mercury for lining up our backstage interview of Bob Walkenhorst of The Rainmakers. Big thanks to Sean, Jay and Hilaire and Arista's support of our live broadcast of the Jeff Healey band. It sounded great!

Karyn Bryant, WBRU, Providence

Hey kids! We here at 'BRU are still recovering from the wonderful party thrown by Bill McGathy this past weekend. Ted and Neil and I had a great time at the game (yeah BoSox!) and the bash. It was great getting to meet all you New York folks etc. Ted is settling into the new job quite well, I hope you all have called him to say hello lately.... We added some great things from a few different genres this past week, I love hearing reggae on the airwaves, and the Wailers are one of the best reggae acts around... The BoDeans sound better than ever, with a tune that sounds as though it could have been written with U2 during a soundcheck on the last tour.... Prince is as hip as ever with "Batdance" and Wang Chung's pop sounds can't be kept from the airwaves. That's about it for now, until next time, take it easy!

Phil Manning, WOXY, Oxford

You want music from the street? Music with guts, sweat and a rose-like voice? You want Concrete Blonde. It's been top ten requests since day one and "Happy Birthday" is already generating interest. They're coming to town in July and we're excited.... If Roy Orbison topped your playlist in recent months, then Chris Isaak's song "Don't Make Me Dream About You" should also be an automatic. The crooner of the 80's with a backup band that could shine a dirty nickel with smooth and polished licks.... From Phil and Kerry: 99.9% of the past Memorial Day weekend Rock and Roll 500 countdowns saw Dead Zeppelin's "Stairway to Oblivion" as the #1 song. 97X, Cincinnati's Best new Rock conducted our own Modern Rock 500, with the help of several hundred listener's postcards. The Top Five tunes with the most votes were: #1 The Smiths "How Soon Is Now?"; #2 R.E.M. "It's the End Of The World As We Know It"; #3 Modern English "I Melt With You"; #4 New Order "Blue Monday"; #5 The Cult "She Sells Sanctuary". The very first Modern Rock 500 and there were dozens of tunes we had to leave off. If anyone is interested in programming a Modern Rock radio station, we've got a pretty good start with these 500 tunes. 97X had been bringing Cincinnati (Dayton, Richmond, Indiana, and parts of Kentucky) new rock and roll for seven years now. And are ready to establish at least another 500 tunes in the next seven years. We're also engrossed in our 5th annual 97-Xposure, featuring local music, noise and assorted treats from bands in the tri-state area. 125 tapes were trimmed to 20 and judged live on the air May 31st. There are now 4 finalists who will playoff live at a local venue in July. I can't wait to see the synth-banjo band pull it off. Thanks to Norrin at Elektra for helping us judge. Kerry and Phil leave you with this summer thought from the new Identity album. "Relax, take a rest, chill out".... Ya mon. See you at the ball yard.

Mark Miller, KABL, Minneapolis

I think Phranc's album "I Enjoy Being A Girl" is a very poignant record. I don't mean to lump female folk singers together, but her music comes off as sounding the most personal. The like way she sings about black turtlenecks, MTV giveaways etc. All of this helps to distance her from the others. "Take Off Your Swastika" gives me chills.... Mary's Danish sounds similar to Fetchin' Bones. I heard Ed Stasium played the new Fetchin' Bones songs while back for the guys in Soul Asylum and they were really into it. We're anxiously awaiting the new Fetchin' Bones album to say the least. I couldn't believe some of Hope's vocal sounds on the pre-release cassette. Our local Capitol guy calls it a cross between Janis Joplin and Aerosmith. After hearing the first two songs I really liked it. Fetchin' Bones rocks me in a big way.... Lemonheads album "Kick" is has a cool, melodic rock sound in the same way that the Buck Pets or Soul Asylum or the Pedaljets do. We're starting out with "Mallo Cup" and "Glad I Don't Know".... The Peregrins kind of remind me of the old Swimming Pool Q's and I'd really like to see the band live.... As for PiL, this is the most accessible album they've ever done.... But play Bob Mould or die, radio scum!.... The B-52's have returned to the fun days of old. Our listeners really like it. In a way the band is new to a lot of people.

Carter Alan, WBCN, Boston

Greetings from Rock and Roll Rumble Land. The eleventh annual WBCN Rumble is underway and I'd like to thank all the record company folks and music industry friends who've decided to attend, as we look for Boston's best new emerging band. If you'll recall, last year's Rumble winner Heretrix, were recently signed to Island Records and that label will be re-releasing the group's "AD" EP, and then a new album.... So, who dies in the U2 video? Is it the dwarf or the pretty acrobat/love interest? While we debate that in the music department, we've been enjoying the new U2 B Sides! My pick is "Everlasting Love" for a great spice track on the air.... Reactions from our audience are mixed on the Townshend cut, but I like it. I've been waiting for the new solo LP for a couple of years. Listeners are already calling up about the rest of the upcoming album and are especially curious about that version of Arthur Brown's "Fire" which is included. In the meantime, "Friend Is A Friend" is building anticipation.... I love the latest XTC choice. "King For A Day" is a bright, psychedelic pop gem that I think should go the distance.

Cole Gill, KSJS, San Jose

I am leaving KSJS for the summer. Any messages for me can be left at 408-236-2066. Correspondence can be directed to 86 S. 13th Street, San Jose, CA 95112. Hope to see some Midwest and West coast folks as I go out on tour with Forbidden and Exodus as a drum tech. Watch for Forbidden. I will return.

Rosanne Samson, WVCR, Loudonville/Albany

Another week rolls around, and I'd like to express my appreciation for the fine folks at Geffen, MCA, Atlantic, Arista, A&M, Warner Bros., Reprise, Epic, CBS and Island. Their willingness to provide WVCR with great rock is the foundation on which we have built the Capital Region's #1 up and coming commercial free radio station.... On the metal side, we've got Exodus making a big move to #1, and Blacksmith's not far behind. Wrathchild's playing up at Saratoga's Winners on the 16th, and Zebra will be there the week after. We're just going crazy with all the excitement, and so, until next week, adieu.

Tracy Barnes, Z-Rock National Network, 800-527-4892

A busy week of rock and roll, both live and recorded! Great White (them white boys) return again at #1 for the second week, with music to keep an eye on from Skid Row - the album world premiered on Z-Rock over seven months ago, slams into #6 with "18 And Life" the "gain-banger" for this week. With debuts from Winger, world premier White Lion and another seven month old Z-Rock world premier in Mr. Big rounding out what's happening on this week's chart. Don't forget Badlands either, we're ready to go on track two from this former Z-World premier. Live rock as it happens? We've got it going strong with concerts #23 and #24 just a few days old. Chastain put on a rippin' show with the guitar god never missing a note, and Sea Hags -- phenomenal rock and roll! And thanks to Mike Bone for the food and drinks, as well as introducing his own band live to over three million Sea Hags fans. What a week! And also to Greg Giuffria for coming in to tell us the House Of Lords story - it was great! Keep jammin', C-Ya!

Steve Prue, WKNC, Raleigh

What a quandry... Destruction and Cro-Mags or Tora Tora. Sometimes it really sucks being Music and Metal Director. Oh well, it's just like my mother always said, "Deal with it".... I had a pleasant surprise Saturday night on my metal show, Todd Gordon of Torrid records came by to visit. His little brother is attending that other school, University of NC at Chapel Hill, so they drove 30 miles to see the studio and just to hang out. Thanks guys.... Also much thanks to Trish at Loud N' Proud and Traci at A&M for setting up the Tora Tora interview and giveaways.... Uh-Oh, I'm on the air and my song just started skipping... started skipping... started skipping.

Kevin Sutter, RCA, 800-627-4926

Love & Rockets continues their march to #1 this week with great adds at KQRS, KSHE, KDKB, KTGR, CHOM and WWDC. The first leg of their U.S. tour starts in Orlando, Florida June 22. Get with your RCA rep and catch this tour.... Lita Ford has passed platinum on the success of "Close My Eyes". Well, they say the first million is the toughest and the second million rolls in. We intend to make that happen by releasing a new mix of "Falling In And Out Of Love". Wait till you hear this song!... While working second tracks by the Sidewinders and Treat Her Right, I'm finding too many programmers aren't listening to their music and therefore making very subjective judgments on whether they can use them. Remember my friend, it all boils down to the music. The big names mean shit if it ain't in the groove! So check out "What Am I Supposed To Do" by the Sidewinders and "Junkyard" by Treat Her Right. And catch Treat Her Right on their Amtrak cross-country tour.... Mary My Hope keeps building. Sales and stories are developing. Tune into this one.... Silent Rage has delivered a clearer rock song worthy of airplay. In spite of the competition, we've delivered 28 quality stations, maybe a second listen is required.... Be on the lookout for Brendan Croker and the Five O'Clock Shadow, as well as a new Hoodoo Gurus Lp. I should tell you there's a new Starship on the way and a Poco reunion Lp, too.

Jackie Tesman, Atlantic, 212-484-6002

Some very important Adrian Belew facts. 1) "Mr Music Head" is a top five Alternative album. 2) VH-1 has just added "Oh Daddy" into their newly created five-star rotation category. Do you know what this means? It means that "Oh Daddy" will be seen 7-8 times a day! 3) MTV has "Oh Daddy" in Active Rotation. Do you know what that means? It means that "Oh Daddy" will be seen 3-4 times a day. 4) Press is phenomenal. Ever see Adrian Belew in a swimsuit? Look at the latest issue of Spin. 5) His tour starts on July 6 and runs through August 7. 6) "Oh Daddy" continues to request big time on radio. 7) His next spotlight alternative track will be "One Of Those Days". 8) Adrian Belew deserves to be played on all of those mainstream AOR stations that aren't afraid to program so-called "New Music". Remember, if it ain't so new, it is just a little different.

Jay B. Ziskrout, Arista, 212-830-2256

Thanks for your immediate support of "Brother Of Mine" from Anderson Bruford Wakeman Howe, the members of Yes (also known as ABWH, Yes Not Yes, And Howe, etc). As "Brother Of Mine" reaches the top of the request and airplay charts, now is the time for the move to Heavy rotation. You now have a new 4:39 edit to facilitate this. Watch MTV (or call me for a personal copy) for the video. Roger Dean did the animation and it is spectacular! Favorite album tracks include "Order Of The Universe", "Quartet" and "Themes". Check it out!... The Jeff Healey story continues with the success of the title song from the "Road House" soundtrack, "Roadhouse Blues". This is a natural. The song is instantly familiar and so is the unmistakable Healey style of guitar playing. He really rips it up! Play it! To all past, present and future "Angel Eyes" supporters, be aware that this cut is making solid inroads at Top 40 radio. With over 130 Gavin reporters and 60+ R&R CHR's already on and getting phones -- look out!... More from Roadhouse. Bob Seger's version of Fats Domino's "Blue Monday" is a catchy 2 minute ditty that's a perfect image record for rock radio. Also, we are in the process of shooting a video for Little Feat's "Rad Gumbo". We will be working this one soon.... You have just received a copy of "Wait For Fire Burning" from San Francisco's Legal Reins. This track's infectious hook is bound to create interest in this exciting new band. Please listen today.... As MTV shifts their dayparts to attract the extensive 18-24 summer vacation crowd, VH-1 becomes an even more important outlet as it appeals most to your 25+ target. If you watch VH-1, you can't miss "Written On The Subway Wall" from Dion. It's been a five-star clip for a few weeks now getting 6 plays a day! If you haven't done so already, give this record a shot.... After only a few months on NAC and college radio, "Touch", the debut from Sarah McLachlan has already sold close to 100,000 copies. Get a jump on your competition and listen to this album. Check out the first single, "Vox" and the live 12" of "Steaming" and "Solsbury Hill". This will be a major priority at rock radio soon.

Norm Osbourne, EMI, 212-603-8600

Diesel Park West is our newest rave!! This week we are building the story with adds at WQFM, WDHA, KXRX, WZZQ, WRXK, WSHE, WCCC, WHJY, WEZZ. This is a must listen in your music meeting for the next week. Cris Kimsey at the controls on this one.... Queensryche is now at 700,000 after one year of sales. Our newest track will be in your hands for adds on or before June 26th. This track will put the Ryche exactly where they need to be - on the top!... Tin Machine is smokin' at retail, 148-35-30. This is a #1 in store play record... "Heaven's In Here" is shipping soon.... Richard Marx "Nothin' You Can Do About It" is our next track at AOR with stations now programming this track.

Calvin Lew, Polydor, 818-955-5260

This week we commence with Part II of the Saraya project. We have established the group as a Top 10 exciting new act for Rock Radio. We've come with a great club tour that is blowin' people away and now, this week we hit hard with "Get Your Ready". You should have a stickered CD on your desk today. Kingdom Come's "Who Do You Love" is one of the Best Rock Records on the streets -- check it out!!!! Thanks to all of Rock Radio for your support on the Allman Brothers. You will receive your box sets of "Dreams" late this week.... And lastly, if your Polydor rep hasn't played you World Trade yet -- ask him to. For those who have experienced World Trade, they're one up on those who haven't.

Graham Hatch, Atlantic, 212-484-8680

Oh Man. "Oh Daddy" hits Top 5 in R&R this week! Are we excited about Adrian Belew's Alternative success? We're F'N livid man! See Tesman, Jackie in these comments pages for more info on the man and his "Music Head".... Blue Rodeo is just finishing off spot dates in the States and at the same time doing a weekly residence at the Borderline in London (ya dude, England not Ontario) every Wednesday. Made their Philadelphia shot Tuesday and I have to impress upon you that this is the band you absolutely must see live! No hype Joe, they're the real thing.... Hope everyone survived the McGathy party extraordinaire this weekend. It was impressive seeing the Providence turn out. Obviously WHJY and WBRU both know the importance of a good shin dig.... Speaking of BRU, you'll find this Summer's Reggae anthem, "Irie", on their playlist this week. If you're not rotating the Waiters yet, you might want to reconsider your listening habits. All you need do is listen to know that "Irie" is perfect to mix with just about anything but "Pet Sematary". They're still on tour and selling plenty of records -- so get out of your drug-induced haze and play the Waiters (ironic statement?!... Alphaville's new single "Ariana" is out on the air. Count CFNY, WDRE, WXVX, KJQN, KTCL, WRAS and more to the list of stations already on.... Great to see Alternative radio is not waiting for Bullet LaVolta's third record to discover them. "The Gift" is a most awesome song!

Jeffrey Naumann, Virgin, 213-288-1446

Hats off to Bill and Rose McGathy who put the best get together of radio and record people I've seen in years! All good, fun people. Everything went great, the Red Sox killed The Yankees, NRBO blew everybody away - even though Danny Buch tried to clean the house. We all had a blast! New from Virgin this week comes Syd (a girl!) Straw. Syd was the main attraction in the Golden Palominos, Syd sings like a bird--- absolutely flawless! And what a personality. Both the album called "Surprise" and the pro CD single ship simultaneously. Our first track is called "Future 40's (String Of Pearls)", which is a duet featuring R.E.M.'s Michael Stipe. What a combo, what an album! You're gonna love this one.... King Swamp continues to plow through the dreck of new (?) releases with "Is This Love?" We're also doing quite well with King Swamp at Top 40 and MTV. It's amazing that there is a few stations still not playing King Swamp, add these guys for crissakes, it's a great investment.... I thought "Statesboro Blues" was an oldie --- I guess that says it all now, doesn't it? While I was on the road last week, I think I heard an AOR station say, "If you can hear a current you win a million dollars".

Chris Baca, EMI, 213-960-4614

Diesel Park West's debut album has many great hook-filled songs. "Shakespeare Alabama" is just what the name implies, a merger of English lyricism and American sound. "When The Hoodoo Comes" picks up quality calls across the country in heavy traffic. Listen and believe.... Queensryche found many new believers with "Eyes Of A Stranger". Look for "I Don't Believe In Love" in push them to platinum. MTV is already over the great video but it is their fanatical following of over 850,000 that demands this band be heard. If you didn't play Queensryche before, listen with no preconceptions. This is music with ideas and ideals that appeal to everyone. Add date is June 26. Look for it on your desk soon.... The next Tin Machine track is "Heaven's In Here" This bluesy mid-tempo tune is playable in all dayparts and will continue this hot-selling project's momentum. Adds officially July 10.... Richard Marx has sold over 700,000 units from one track. "Nothin' You Can Do About" will be the next track. "Satisfied" is still strong at many stations. Richard Marx is a rock radio core artist.

Michael Schnapp, Epic, 212-975-5987

If I tell you that I was just hanging out with Grandpa and Eddie, what would you think? But before I tell you, you should be banging in a very major way to Accept! On its way, an Accept CD of "Eat The Heat". On its way, a video of "Generation Clash". On its way, an import tape and autographed band photo courtesy of the dudes in Accept. On its way, a box of Red Hots ("Eat The Heat"). On its way, a killer tour and a fuckin' great record. Look for our latest delivery, Accept "Eat The Heat". Also look for Ozzy Osbourne this summer on tour with White Lion and Vixen also on the bill. Spend your summer vacation with Ozzy. I know I will I saw Ozzy live last week. Him and Geezer on stage together again is a major huge thing. Ozzy Osbourne, Geezer Butler, Zakk Wyld and Randy Castillo. Incredible live and all cool guys.... Also on the road is Suicidal Tendencies (in Europe with Anthrax). Suicidal Tendencies video is on MTV and the record increased in sales. Keep playing "How Will I Laugh Tomorrow When I Can't Even Smile Today" not for me, for Mike Muir. Thanx.... Meliah Rage are at rest in the "Bates Motel" gearing up for mo to (for more tour, dudes).... Marchello are winding down after a month of great shows, headlining and opening for Meatloaf and Ozzy. "Destiny" is still the track from Marchello.... Coming soon, a new band (and personal friends of mine) Danger Danger, hard rock from NY.... And Germany's Kreator, personal friends with somebody. Huge buzz on these guys. Get ready to be trashed by Alice Cooper. New Lp "Trash" out in July and Bad English featuring John Waite and Neil Schon. First single is "Forget Me Not". Out later this summer, Fifth Angel, FM, Jeff Beck, Killer Dwarfs and Shark Island. Epic metal releases are and will be real fun. And now Grampa and Eddie. Eddie is from a band you should be receiving a CD called Melidian. Check em out. Grampa is adopting them. Sounds nuts. It is- check it. Ya gotta love it!

Bruce Flohr, RCA, 213-468-4177

It is ten minutes to noon and I still have to fax these words! Eight weeks. Eight weeks Love & Rockets has been on top of every Alternative chart. The record has withstood the competition and proven to be the alternative release of the year. Keep it up radio!... Mary My Hope each week is adding to the underground swell that has been building since March. If you are still unsure about this band call -- Kim at WRAS, Matt at WVKR, Andrew at WBER or Perry from Jane's Addiction, Kevn from drivin' n' cryin' or me. Sidewinders just finished touring with the Replacements. The crowds were big, loud and fun. Treat Her Right is going to be Amtrak's favorite band. They are the first band to tour using rail to support their great new album "Tied To The Tracks". Also out or on its way -- Rob Junklas, Kool Moe Dee, Boogie Down Productions, Pop Will Eat Itself, Hoodoo Gurus and Stone Roses. No, we are not busy at RCA. One more record, The Men They Couldn't Hang, will be with you next week but if I don't fax this thing now I might not be... Detroit's victory was tainted (there, I can say that til October).

Jetson, Relativity, 718-740-5700

Thanks to Bill and Rose McGathy for another great party. I survived with only a few scars and a slight headache. When I finally got home I noticed that my underwear was missing and I had a tattoo, I'm not sure what happened but I'm pretty sure I had a good time.... Records this week -- Jet Red is off to a great start. We're getting excellent response to "Not The Only One". Don't miss out. It looks like we've got a hit at rock radio.... Also the buzz continues on 24-7 Spyz. Alternative and college radio is doing great with it where it's getting play. The phones are lighting up. It's moving up the Billboard Top 200 sales chart. The video for "Jungle Boogie" is in full-time rotation on MTV. This record is happening. If you're not already playing it, you should ask yourself one question? Why not?

Jay Harding, Frontier, 818-506-6886

Dharma Bums kick off their first national tour this week, linking up for a few shows with drivin' n' cryin' and Love Tractor along the way. The Bums first leg -- 6/18 San Rafael, 6/20 San Francisco, 6/21-22 L.A., 6/23 Long Beach, 6/24 San Diego, 6/25 Las Vegas (we're there), 6/26 Tucson, 6/28 Dallas, 6/29 Austin, 6/30 Houston. The Bums rock goodtime so if you want to spaz out and get loose, don't be shy, call for tix.... Frontier Records has licensed the Damned's first release "Damned Damned Damned" from Demon Records. It's a killer rock n' roll record originally released on Stiff Records in 1977 during the heyday of punk rock and it will be coming your way in mid-July.

Brian McEvoy, Grand Slamm, 609-853-8312

Lion - It's the call of the wild. June 23rd. Z-Rock World Premier! Lion "Trouble In Angel City" - preorders close to 30,000 and climbing!

Jerry Rubino, Bar/None, 201-795-3809

Summer's here and the time is right for They Might Be Giants. Flansburgh and Linnell are back to invade your airwaves. "Purple Toupee" is set to be a summer smash and a very timely one too. In addition to the line "Purple Toupee will show the way when summer brings you down", there's more irony. With all the unfortunate troubles in Beijing, there's this prophetic lyric, "Chinese people were fighting in the park, we tried to help them fight, no one appreciated that." And believe it or not, in a recent TV coverage of the fighting, a kid was spotted wearing a They Might Be Giants tee-shirt!! Kind of strange huh? The promo CD will be on your desk June 23rd, with plenty of interesting teasers on the way.... This week's Super-Segue: "Ton Of Bricks" by Rob Junklas, "I'm That Type Of Guy" by L.L. Cool J and "I Want That Girl" by Bill Drummond. Later....

Justine Chiara, Second Vision, 212-334-9260

The The's new album "Mind Bomb" is ready for radio. "Gravitate To Me" is the track and it's filled with the guitar hooks and breaks that only Johnny Marr can do. The Lp hits retail June 26th. Radio get ready for the huge sounds of Texas. The Lp "Southside", produced by Tim Palmer, entered the U.K. charts at #3. Not bad for a debut album, is it? Check out the single "I Don't Want A Lover" guaranteed to give you radio gods all the raunchy rootiness you guys can want. Trust me.

Russell Gerroir, Concrete, 212-645-1360

Congrats to Sister Ris who with Enigma finally made the move we've been hearing about forever. I only have two questions for Sis. First, are you still out partying? And second, did Biff make the move, too? On to the music. Junkyard is really coming on strong, they've been steadily moving up the Metal charts by leaps and bounds -- this one is a must.... Dangerous Toys is off to a good start too. You can play just about any song off this record, the strongest tracks are "Teas'N Pleas'N", "Scared" and "Ten Boots".... An already proven performer is Black Sabbath. Their latest LP "Headless Cross" has been in the Top 2 on all three metal charts for weeks. Look for a new CD single of the current emphasis track "Black Moon" and a previously unreleased track "Cloak And Dagger".... Sir Mix A Lot (with Metal Church) covered Black Sabbath's "Iron Man". The heavy metal rap should already be on your desk, if not call me.... The long awaited Faith No More LP should be arriving as you read this, please give it a spin.... Lastly, things on the not too far horizon include EZO, Deadringer and Vein.

Charity Kurz, MCA/Mechanic Records, 212-226-7272

I apologize to all who expected to see Alison "WPSU" Matochak and me on Friday at The Alcatraz. We were detained at a Steve Morse show at the Ritz. In my defense, I challenge anyone to pry any member of Dream Theater away from a Steve Morse show before it's ended. It is simply not possible. We would like to wish a happy belated birthday to Bill Fischer, Russ Gerroir and Jeff Luttrell.... MCA has put together a great Bang Tango hotline in England. The number is 011-44-0836-403-380. It will cost you a bit but it is well worth it. Also check out the "Someone Like You" video on the MTV Hard 60 and Headbanger's Ball. Z-Rock, WHMH, and KNAC already have Bang Tango in rotation. You could be next!

Clarissa Garcia, Enigma, 213-390-9969 x215

The imminent move of the last nine months finally happened last week. Enigma and Restless switched buildings and we're just recovering now. I made sure to bring my Z-Rock inflatable shark, my skeleton glasses and my Rigor Mortis Chainsaw Chili. If I haven't returned your call, mailed out the promised package, or given you this week's dirt on one Mr. Russell Gerroir, please forgive me. Amidst boxes of junk collected the past couple of years, doors without knobs, furniture-less office mates, and earthquakes -- I'm hoping I'll be all caught up soon. We here at Enigma and Metal Blade are mighty proud of some upcoming releases: "Perfect Symmetry" by Fates Warning and "Master Of Disguise" by Lizzy Borden. Just be ready to worship both albums upon release. Speaking of which, next week, Ms. Cheryl V. and I have reports on Metal Blade's 7th Anniversary Party at the Palace here in L.A.. Just when you thought it was over, school is back in session. But this time, it's more fun than recess! This week, the fab gals in Girlschool will be doin' the California thang: San Francisco (6/19), San Jose (6/20), Hollywood (6/22), Long Beach (6/23), and Ventura (6/24). They'll soon make their way to Texas and then to your part of the country. Til then, remember Guardian, Barren Cross, Laaz Rockit and "Head Over Heels" by Girlschool. See va!

Kathie Reed Barr, Roadracer, 212-219-0077

Sword should be the word on everyone's lips after their world premier on MTV, with "Trouble Is". For you of the heavier persuasion check out "State Of Shock"!... Crimson Glory is finally on MTV with "Lonely"! Get those fingers dialing 1-800-Dial MTV!!! For you deep people into Crimson, check out "Red Sharks" and "Lady Of The Winter".... Annihilator is headed for Europe till mid-July. The boys are polishing up their live show for the U.S. which should start sometime in August! "Alison Hell" will be on MTV this week and "Wicked Mystic" is a true killer cut to check out! Well, I learned a big lesson in Dallas, don't come home!! I've been back 3 days and my luggage has not gotten here yet!! Big mega thanks to Tracy and Carol Barnes, Mike Paine, Mad Maxx Hammer and all at Z-Rock for all their help with the Chastain live broadcast and to David T., Leather and company for an amazing show! An extra big special thanks to David Counter from Combat in Dallas, without whose help I could have never gotten around Dallas. Thanks to a great tour guide and a cool friend.

Stewart Morales, Torrid, 914-664-3885

Mucky Pup continue to expand their musical boundaries. Last week the band played a "blues" set with a conga player in New York City. It had to be seen to be believed. Just ask Craig Prince of WWVU who was lucky enough to be in town that night. Mucky Pup's Lp, "A Boy In A Man's World" continues to defy description as it hits the airwaves in various formats. Join them!

Jill Cohn, Medusa, 213-390-9969 x124

Well I'm in my new office but I still have the same extension. The only difference is that I have a window, so I can see every single person who goes into and out of this building. I can just tell you all are so stoked to hear this news. Ok, enough small talk. The news is Sacrilege B.C.'s "Too Cool To Pray" is getting great support from a lot of stations such as; WHVY, WIDR, KRSR, WLFT. Thanks to these and all the others that are playing "Cold" and "Silence Screams". Here at Medusa we're getting ready for Coven's new Lp, "Death Walks Behind You" and a new Wrath Lp that will be out in the fall. Be watching your mail for our summer release of Miss Daisy. Their debut Lp "Pizza Connection" is too tasty for words (stay tuned). So thanks to all for the great names for my Kitten, but the name hunt goes on! So far "Damien" and "Acid Kitty" just don't fit. Well that's it for me, I'll talk to you all soon.

Dyana Kass and Cheryl Valentine, Metal Blade, 818-981-9050

Golly gee, Cheryl missed my presence so much on the East Coast that she traveled through rain, sleet and earthquakes to join me in L.A. for the Metal Blade 7th Anniversary Party. Tonight we will commemorate the existence of Metal Blade for not once, not two, but seven years. I can hear you all saying, gosh, oh golly, I wish I was there but since I'm not, how can I contribute to this phenomenal occurrence? Well, I'll tell you people. Show your joy by "Preying" on loss of words, acting like a "mean machine" over the airwaves with UDO and being "still alive and well" with Circus Of Power. Follow these simple guidelines and you will experience the vicarious thrill of actually standing in a pool of sweat in the overcapacitated Hollywood palace while drunken lifeless bodies are hurled through the air to the musical genius of Lizzy Borden, Little Caesar and Armored Saint. It's easier than you think.

Missi Callazzo, Megaforce, 201-254-6533

Hello mutants of the world!! As you can see, I am just as obnoxious as Jessica and even when I'm alone. Well, now I need help from all of you. Many of my intelligent stations have had the sense to add Trust, France's biggest hard rock band, to their playlists. Here is just a sample of them: KCMU, KFMG, KFMH, KGRG, KJOT, KKZR, KFOR, KOZZ, KPGA, KRCK, KTEC, KUCA, KZRZ, WAIF, WARC, WBCR, WBER, WBSD, WBUQ, WCDB, WCNI, WDPS, WEOS, WFBG, WFSE, WGLS, WHMH, WHVY, WJUL, WKNC, WKNH, WKPX, WNYU, WPSU, WRFL, WRRG, WSOU, WVCR, WVBR, WVFS, WWSU, WWUH, WXCT, WZMB, WPOB and WCWP. Quite an impressive list.... Do yourself, your listeners and the overall world population a favor, add Trust!! You should have found a single for the song "Over My Head" in your pile of mail. You will also find that it is from the band King's X. Once you come to this realization, it will no longer be in that pile. It will be on your turntable. This is where such a masterpiece belongs. Enough said!!! Until next time, report Trust and King's X!!! (Testament coming August 8th).
