Royal Jelly, "Ceiling," Island

As illustrated by the success of bands such as Candlebox and Green Day, we're now at the point in the 90's curve where the mainstream pretty much demands edgy/alternative musical elements in their rock radio hits. That's Royal Jelly's area of exploitation. Driven by its strong percussive elements, RJ is truly positioned to please both your traditional core audience and the more forward thinking fans. As analyzed by Sue Dunn at KLPX, "It's one of those records that straddles the fence between alternative and Regular Joe rock. Since we've been trying to move the station in a newer direction without blowing off the core audience, this fits perfectly. This record just moves me!" WJRR's Steve Robertson hears it, too: "You've got to dig that Ravi Shankar, put a hookah in the middle of the room kind of retro hook. But in the context of this song, it really works. We've already tested it with really good response." From WKLQ's Dave Wellington, "I think it's a hit. I hear some U2 type appeal, which really stands out from some of the grungier stuff coming down the pike." And speaking for more than a few female programmers, WHTF's Carol Seidel hears a tune that "Flows really great and is fresh, too. Multiple o's here."

Widespread Panic, "Airplane," Capricorn

That this band plays 250 to 300 dates a year is a well known fact. That they enjoy active and ongoing sales action behind that touring is also common knowledge. Up until this point, their penchant for somewhat noodly, loosely structured songs has also been a given — this despite AOR answering Top 10 Triple A play on "Wanderin" with action in the high 30s. Now, say hello to the album destined to change all that. With the help of producer John Keene, who did a lot of R.E.M.'s early work, Panic has put together an uncommonly compelling collection of trademark tunes. The smooth, keyboard/guitar interplay makes it easy to anticipate more adult appeal, but with college radio spinning the band over 5000 times last quarter, arguing legitimate 18+ appeal is really miles from hype. The hip, melodic, uncluttered "Airplane" perfectly illustrates the point, as do the title track and potential hit single "Can't Get High." Listen and tell us this isn't the week's best surprise.

Toad The Wet Sprocket, "Something's Always Wrong," Columbia

Who didn't know this was the album's smash hit on first pass through the album? Columbia also knew, and now that "Fall Down" has done such serious multi-format damage. it's big numbers time for Toad. Thanks in part to "Fall Down"'s research success, the Lp's now at the 500K sales mark, the major touring plans are in place, and the situation's that of an act that's truly been broken. As Dr. Dave Rossi notes, "It's obviously another smash for them. It's everything a hit song should be. It's instantly catchy, and now that they've established themselves, it sounds just like Toad." Already off to a nice start everywhere, COR included. Check the early spins at KLOS, WAAF, KRRK, WHCN, WAPL, DC101, KCLB, KKEG, WSHE, etc. etc.

Steve Perry, "Young Hearts Forever," Columbia Say what you will. Steve has methodically racked up almost six hundred thousand records sold, and is still selling at a pace between twenty and thirty thou a week. Current trends aside, solid Top 5 mainstream rock radio play on "You Better Wait" underscores Perry's ongoing viability with the AOR audience. particularly 25-44 females. With a solo tour set for the fall (half solo material/half Journey), expect your Columbia rep to come up with more than a few reasons for you to sustain this survivor's air share.

Freedy Johnston, "Bad Reputation," Elektra At some point, AOR programmers are going to have to start realizing the validity of Triple A approved songs and artists — and Freedy's at the top of our list. Formerly #2 on Lisa Riegel's AAA list, Freedy was an unqualified success with the adult audience. with major market sales success surrounding that play. And you know what? Heard it on WDRE and WMMR several times this week and it works like crazy on both of those formats. New on DC101, KLBJ, and KSPQ, with WSHE, WLUP, WNEW, KEZO and WAVF also on board.

Peter Gabriel, "Red Rain" (Live), Geffen

The well documented excitement of Gabriel's performances aside, howzabout those clever Geffen types taking advantage of the snoozy holiday week to make Peetah #1 Most Added! When's the last time a live track (other than an unplugged anything) topped the Most Added? And there are two ways to win here, as indicated by A) WTPA's Chris James and "We never played 'Red Rain' from 'Go', so this is a natural for us," and B) Debbie Gilbert 3WV, "We play a lot of catalogue Gabriel stuff, so this is a natural for us, especially with school in session." KATP's Dale Miller even feels "It's better than the original. I think this performance breathes new life into this classic tune." Early spin leaders include KDJK with 11, WIYY 16, WKLS 10, and WBCN 7.

Live, "I Alone," RadioActive

17 adds takes the count to 63 this week, with KLOL, KLPX, WTUE, KOMP and WPLR among the new believers. 12 reporters listed spin increases, with WMMS up 29-40, WTKX 3-15, KRRK 29-33, WRXK 2-17, and KILO 3-11. Rounding out the "most play" division, WAAF reports 20 plays, WAVF 14, and KEZE 10. WJRR's Steve Robertson comments, "We're definitely seeing the phones here, and when they call, we're turning them on to the first album as well. The lyrics to this song are very powerful." 62-42* on the Hundred, 45-33* COR. Seems like the audience is reacting already to it. Good choice to the follow up. "I personally think it s a bit melodramatic," says the typically acerbic Sue Dunn at KLPX, "But it seems to be striking a chord the listeners are relating to."

Dream Theater, "Lie," EastWest

Last week's #2 Most Added track comes back with another 14 stations, good for #3 overall, with KLOL, KLPX, KQRC, KRRK, and WAXQ heading the list. KQRC's Valorie Knight comments, "Definitely the strongest track on the album. Lots of curiosity calls and a good buzz here." From Vinnie at Q104.3, "We like it a lot and the phone response has been amazing." WKLQ's Dave Wellington adds, "it's heavier than what I was expecting, but we've had good success with them before and we're already getting some good response." And from Phil Marlowe, WCCC, "We had tremendous success with 'Pull Me Under' and the other two tracks. This is real consistent with that work, but shows a little more depth.

Key calls to date: KEGL, KIBZ, KLAQ, KMOD, KUPD, WBZX, WKDF, WKLL, WKLQ, WLZR, WUFX, KBPI, KILO and KIOZ. Up 86-50* Mainstream, 47-29* COR

Bloodline, "Stone Cold Hearted," EMI

Here's a band the label obviously had major expectations for, and the momentum to date hasn't disappointed. EMI continues to establish their blues rock beachhead, as 13 more adds take the play count to 65, with 17 solid increases registered this week, including KLAQ, WHJY, WKLS, WOUR, WRIF, and WXQR. WTPA's Chris James updates, "We started it in the morning and thanks to dynamite reaction, we're set to move it up." From 3WV's Debbie Gilbert. "It's that blues based sound we like and it's doing well." WHTF's Carol Seidel adds, "I saw them a couple of years ago when Sammy Hagar's kid was in the band. I love the blues live and the blues live with Bloodline." Just moved to KATP this week, with Dale updating, "They love it. We're getting top ten calls and it'll be Top Five before long." Bulleted 44-37" Overall, with a corresponding 49* COR debut.

Weezer, "Undone (The Sweater Song)," Geffen

The somewhat novelty overtones here still have more than a few programmers skeptical, but from where we sit there's little doubt about Weezer's hit potential. Just look at the credible COR count to date — with WXTB, WUFX, WBZX, WAAF, and KQRC new this week, and KIOZ, KSJO, KUPD, KEGL, KRRK, WJRR, WKLL and KEZE already in. WMMS, WJRR, WAVF, KRRK, KRAB, KMOD and KEGL all show increases, with WMMS already indicating Top 5 phones. Now on 38 Hard reporters, new at 37* COR, up 87-56* mainstream. KQRC's Valorie Knight comments, "I think it's a cool tune, and it's such a big hit at Alternative that we can't ignore it." From X107's Steve Blatter, "I think this band has the potential to attract the Green Day type audience."

Nine Inch Nails, "Closer," Interscope

Their rock radio breakthrough puts 10 more on the board, replete with WMMR, WBZX and WHJY, where Sharon Shifino told us, "It was a scary one for us, but I personally love it." That brazen hussy Sue Dunn ain't scared. Sez she, "Hey, what's wrong with being sexy? All I've got to say about this record is 'Chicks dig it." WXTB, KRNA and WDZR report Top 5 phones, with KISS, KOMP, KRAB, KRRK, WAAF, WAXQ, WKLQ, WNCD, WRXK, ZROCK and WHMH all reporting increases, along with steady play at KBPI, KEZE, KIOZ, KISW, KUPD, WCCC and WCGY. 64-48* on the Hundred, 37-22* COR.

Offspring, "Self Esteem," Epitaph

Stations that played this before "Come Out And Play" reported active response, and given the band's current success curve, waiting on this track constitutes major lameness. KLOS hit it this week, along with WLLZ, WKLQ, WIYY, KSJO, KQRC, KLPX, KSPQ, and KILO. The phone count looks terriff, too, with KUPD, KZRX, WDZR, WMMS and WTKX all Top Fivers. Q104's Vinnie Marino updates, "It's huge! The most active record on the radio station. #1 requests this week, bumping Nine Inch Nails, who were #1 for the previous six weeks." 71-52*, thanks in part to increases from KNAC, KRRK, KUPD, KZAK, WAXQ, WMMS and ZROC.

dada, "All I Am," IRS

"I just know their last song researched really well for us," sez X107's Steve Blatter, "and I think this is very R.E.M. like. In fact, it sounds more like R.E.M. than their new record does." From WZBH's Cepth Michaels, "It's got a lot of energy and I like that. It gets the shot here for that reason." WTPA's Chris James predicts, "This one's definitely going to be around at the end of the year. It sounds great and we've gotten some calls already." WHCN's Parn Brooks adds, "I think it's wonderful. Incredible hook. Tim really pleased with the follow-up. I think they came back with a a really hook-laden, very catchy second effort." KLBJ's Loris Lane confesses, "I can't figure it out, but I like it. It sounds different every time you hear it, and we're already getting some calls on it." New at 97*, with WMMS, KUPD, WHEB, WKQZ, WXRC, KKEG and KEYJ just in, and WJRR, KDKB, KLBJ, WAOR, WHCN, WNCD, WPDH, WTPA and WZBH among last week's add highlights.

Gin Blossoms, "Allison Road," A&M

Phil Marlow's read is radio reality: "We've played this great song for quite some time and we're super comfortable with this new version." Nuff said. New on 9, now on 68, and increased at 15. Strongest current support at KDKB (naturally) with 32 spins, KLOS with 21, WFBQ 13, WAVF 21, WOUR 16, WOZN 17, KKEG 19, WCCC 20, WRUF 14, WMMS 18, KLOL 14, WAAF 16, WHEB 16, WKIT 15, KATP 16, WZZO 15, and WXRC 14. Still kicking major chart butt 38-31*.

Bonnie Raitt, "Hell To Pay," Capitol

Tasha'll tell you it ain't easy — but there's only one Bonnie, and bit by bit, adult oriented rock radio's makin' room. WAVF, WRDU, WHDQ, KFMZ, KCLB, and WSTZ add this week, with WGIR already reporting 13 spins and WKIT 15. KCLB's Ron Stryker calls it, "Good morning/midday material. She's always worked well here in the past." Ditto WAVF's Dave Rossi, "She fits what we're doing during the day. More of that bluesy sound she's known for." Or, as Pam Brooks puts it, "It did really well when we played it from the album. If you're looking for the Lp's one really good rock song, 'Hell To Pay' is the only way to go. That's why we played it months ago."

R.E.M., "What's the Frequency, Kenneth," Warner Bros.

So... Is radio glad they're rockin' or whut! WDIZ's Tim Travis hears, "The best song in the last two alburns. It's about time we got a guitar rock song. The listeners are loving it." Carol Seidel, WHTF, "Awesome! Great to hear the guitar coming through again." Steve Robertson, WJJR. "Glad to hear them return to the electric guitar sound." Erin Carmen, WONE, "Glad it's got a harder edge. They needed the diversity." Pam Brooks. WHCN, "I like the moody, guite side of the band, too, but kick ass rock and roll is what R.E.M. is all about." Phil Marlowe, WCCC, "Nice to see them back to their rock roots instead of being so artsy fartsy." Dave Rossi, WAVF, "I like it because they've re-established the guitar as the force behind the band, which it was in the beginning, and because it's not a formula song."

Green Day, "Basket Case," Reprise

The reaction intensifies. 4 more adds, 26 increases loaded with majors, and a solid plus request build, with KCAL, KRAB, WBAB, WIXV, WMRR, WROQ, WVVV, WZZQ, X107 and half a dozen more already reporting Top Five phones. How about 20+ spins at KBPI, KEGL, KILO, KKEG, WAXO, KUPD, WKLS, WMMS, WXRC, KBAT, KIOZ, and WAAF? Clearly hit stats. As WJRR's Steve Robertson says, "It's huge!! Selling in this market just in front of Offspring. This has the total sound. The lyrics are funny, the video's funnier." As WTPA's Chris James puts it, "Already Top 5 phones for the Clash of the 90's."

Traffic, "Some Kind Of Woman,"

Virgin If you played the first two (and most mainstreamers did), this is pretty close to your basic no brainer, especially, in light of the tour's penetration. As noted by Pam Brooks, "Everyone we talk with around here seems to have caught the tour. We've played all the tracks thus far and we consider this an important one to play also." From

KCLB's Ron Stryker, "I liked the first two and we'd like to further the album's momentum." KMJX's David Allen Ross adds, "If you want that passive, older audience, Traffic's the band and this cut will work just fine, thank you."

Former WIMMS Assistant Engineer Pleads Guilty

William Alford went before the Cuyahoga County Court of Common Pleas on Wednesday (9/7), and changed his plea to guilty of one count of "disruption of public service," and one count of "criminal trespassing." Alford, an assistant engineer at WMMS at the time of his arrest, admitted to cutting a satellite feeder cable that disrupted Howard Stern's nationally aired radio show on Friday, June 10. Stern was broadcasting live from a "funeral"/street party celebrating his ratings success at WNCX, when he was knocked off the air for 45 seconds. Now that Alford has changed his plea to quilty, prosecutors say they will investigate his former bosses. Assistant County Prosecutor Craig Weintraub said that he will present evidence to a grand jury about the role of managers who ran WMMS and WMJI. "It appears that there was some knowledge at management level, Weintraub said after Alford's pleas yesterday. Wayne McKee, Associate Chief of Investigations for the FCC, stated, "The agency has placed its investigation of the incident on hold. Federal officials are waiting to see how local authorities handle Alford and his former employers. If the prosecutor's investigation turns up anything, the FCC would resume its investigation into the matter." Common Pleas Judge Timothy McGinty, who scheduled sentencing for September 28, told Alford that he had to tell the investigators the truth about why he cut the wires and whom he was helping. "If you lie to the Court or lie to the police, it may be as serious as the offenses to which you just pleaded," the judge warned Alford. Weintraub intends to include information from Alford when he presents evidence to the grand jury in the next month. Weintraub said that Alford boasted on June 10 that "If John Gorman knows that I'm down here, I'm going to get a medal for this." Alford was talking to Rick Bennett, known on the air as "Rocko The Rock Dog," at the time of that statement. WMMS has released a statement that Alford acted on his own, and that the station is "...confident that any further investigation of this matter would reach the same conclusion." Alford faces a two year prison sentence, but lawyers said that probation is possible because Alford has no criminal history and cooperated with investigators.

CALDERONE JOINS JACOBS MEDIA Jacobs Media tapped WDRE PD Tom Calderone

as a consultant for The Edge. "Tom Calderone is one of the format's true trailblazers," said President Fred Jacobs. "He's been on the front lines of Modern Rock and brings his experience and industry reputation to Jacobs Media. He's a class act and is respected by broadcasters, the record community, and by the people who make the music." Calderone has been PD of WDRE/Long Island and the WDRE Network for the past four years. Prior to that, he was the PD of career I had two distinct paths from which to choose, and my decision was easy," explained Calderone. "I enjoy my work as a programmer, but it is time to move on to another level of the business. I feel that consulting for Jacobs Media is the next natural step. They've proven to the industry that Modern Rock is not a cookie-cutter format. They've built winners in markets where many thought Modern Rock had no chance. It's exciting to join such a visionary company. Fred Jacobs continues, "Three years ago, we predicted that there would be a Modern Rock station in the top 50 markets. The Modern Rock format is cresting - we will have at least eight Edge stations by the end of the year — and it's time to bring in someone of Tom's caliber to insure that we're able to manage our growth and stay on the cutting edge." Calderone will work out of the NYC area and will work closely with consultant Bill Jacobs in developing The Edge. "Bill has done a great job with this format," stated Fred. "He's responsible for transitioning The Edge from a niche to the mainstream. We've scored recordsetting ratings from Minneapolis to Las Vegas, and now Tom will help us take The Edge to the next level." Bill Jacobs will continue to consult Jacobs Media's AOR and Classic rock clients, in addition to working with Calderone on the growth and development of The Edge.

WHFS in Washington/Baltimore. "At this stage of my

Letter To The Editor

From: Brian Lewis, formerly Operations Director Cincinnati's Z-Rock Currently WLLZ/Detroit.

I thoroughly enjoyed your interview with Lee Abrams, however, I'd like to make a small correction.

Cincinnati's Z-Rock was not purchased by WEBN at the end of Cincinnati's take-no-prisoners rock war. WEBN had LMA'd a 3000 watter and turned it into a jockless COR station.

In the end, Cincinnati's Z-Rock was LMA'd and eventually purchased by WUBE, the dominant country station in the market. They turned Z-Rock to YOUNG COUNTRY, so they could "own" country.

DUCED BY MICHAEL BEINHORN

By Spiro Phanos

Michael Beinhorn has developed quite a resume over the course of his career. A founding member and keyboard player of the band Material, Michael has extensive production experience, ranging from Herbie Hancock's 1983 release Future Shock to Soundgarden's Superunknown. Not to mention producing two Red Hot Chili Peppers records (Uplift Mofo Party Plan (1987) and Mother's Milk (1989)) and Soul Asylum's Grave Dancers Union. He's just been hired by Epic to the position of Staff Producer, which will allow his skills to be further utilized along the label's front. Join us for a look at the mindset of one of today's most talented producers, as he gives us an inside glimpse into the heart of today's recording process.

How have the past few weeks been for you? On the crazy side, I bet.

Michael: No crazier than others, but it has been pretty hairy. I have two records at once, and neither are going to be ready to start for some time. So we're still trying to coordinate stuff and make everyone feel happy and creative and all that other kind of bullshit. That really only happens when people come together and do great creative things...

Like singing "Kum Ba Yah" around a campfire...

Michael: (Laughs) That's the prelude to group suicide, I think.

So, when did all this go down with Epic?

Michael: I don't remember... It's been over the past three or four months, I guess.

Michael: To tell you the truth, it's not any different than what I've been doing, except that I'm working a little bit closer, and on a regular basis, with the same people. Whereas before, I was really dealing with a lot of different people and the relationships are very transitory — they tend to evaporate after the work gets done. In this case, I'm working with a lot of the same people over a long period of time, and what's nice about that for me is that we get to work together on things and really develop a relationship, where in the past a lot of times you really don't have a clear sense of what people mean when they say yes or no to something. Obviously, the differences with this is that I'm a little bit more restricted as to what kind of outside projects outside of Epic I can deal with.

You're not entirely limited in terms of taking on outside work?

Michael: No, I'm not entirely cut off from doing outside projects. I don't think that anyone would want to be completely distanced from doing something that they really want to do if it comes along. I've established relationships with so many people that I've worked with and hopefully would like to do more stuff with in the future. So, if the opportunity arose, it would suck to have someone else tell you no. I really wouldn't be able to go for that. But they are really cool about that, and it's not like I really want to jump on a whole bunch of stuff. I've committed to Epic because I think they're an exceptional label in many ways.

What specifically is it about Epic that you admire?

Michael: First off, they have a great roster. I really think that they know what they're doing and they really want to try and give a poor burn like me a chance to have fun making a record (laughs), because often times, I think that people are into this head of getting a record out as quickly as they can, and I think that they are less concerned about how many different ways you can creatively look at a record. For me, if I can't have a good time making a record, and if I can't look back at what I did and really appreciate it, I just don't really want to do it.

Do you ever find where you get to that point in the middle of a project?

Michael. I've experienced that momentarily on stuff — not very often, and then something else would happen and I would actually sit back and look at what I was doing with the people that I was working with and go 'Jesus, this is killing me!', but then I turn around and see the whole picture and go 'Wow!'

You've probably developed the instinct where if you feel that a project couldn't work, you wouldn't get involved in the first place.

Michael: Anyone who produces has to have that kind of instinct, and I think that most people who produce records, or refer to themselves as record producers really kind of know that. You just can't take everything that comes your way, just because it's work. That's crazy.

You also have to get to a point in your career where you can really pick and choose the projects that you want to work on.

Michael: I don't know — I'm speaking from my own perspective, but there have been times in my life when I was dirt broke and starving and I turned down stuff just because I knew that it would be a colossal drag to do it. I don't think that just because I've done a couple of records that people have liked and sold a couple of copies, that that should really change just because I have a big production deal with Epic Records or anything else.

I really want to get into the nuts and bolts of production, and your views on the subject. I've always thought of production as coming entirely from the gut, something you feel rather than compute.

Michael: There are a lot of degrees of it really. A lot of times it's everything from that to figuring out how much a record company is going to have to pay to put a band on something. It just kind of involves every angle of the entire recording process, from the infantesimal to really big things. Each project is completely unique and different from the one that preceded it, so I think that you have to use a different kind of sensitivity for each project. Personally, if I thought the same way and tried to work the same way on each project, I would be depriving myself and the people I'm working with of tremendous amounts of development. That's kind of something that I like to take into account, also, that there can be any degree of growth for all parties.

Describe the process you go through before you actually say yes to a project. Do you sit with an artist's existing body of work? Do you spend time getting to know them personally? How do you decide whether or not to take a project on?

Michael: It's usually going to be pretty instantaneous. To me, the best feeling that I get, the best barometer is when I have a very strong feeling about it one way or another instantaneously. If I don't get a strong read from it, chances are I probably won't do it.

So it's something that you pretty much know right away.

Michael: Yeah, from hearing people, usually it's in demos. I'll go back after I've heard demos and listen to anything that has been recorded prior, but for the most part I just try to get a feel from that. And, of course, meeting people. You can usually tell a lot about people's personalities just by hearing what they have recorded. It's pretty easy to tell whether not you are going to like someone or absolutely hate their guts.

Has there ever been a case that you can remember where you've been surprised?

Michael: Surprised how?

When your picture of an artist in your mind was totally blown out of the water when you met them.

Michael: After hearing a demo or something? Not really. It's easy to depict in your mind how things are going to go, but generally, I've been able to get a good sense of the people that I'm working with after having listened to what they have done.

How do you decide where you're going to record? Do you have an order of preference of studios in which you like to work?

Michael: It changes a lot. I like to try and stay close to home, just so I can be near my family, but at the same time, there are a lot of really good studios that are outside New York and the tri-state area.

Is there anything in particular that you look for in the studio, something that you want to feel? You can put a board in a soundproof room anywhere, but there's always that X factor that changes with every studio.

Michael: It depends on the project. Some projects do better in a real dumpy, crappy, looking environment, and some really do much better in a more sleek, space-age type environment. It really depends. I just don't like to get tied into one thing. How do you decide where to go?

Michael: I really don't know. The situation takes shape itself. Generally, there are a couple of studios that I like. I just did some work with Aerosmith for their Greatest Hits album at this studio in the Isle Of Capri, off the coast of Naples in Italy, which is a fucking unbelievable studio. If everyone I worked with had the budget, I wouldn't mind doing a whole lot of work there. But it varies a lot with each project. It depends on the needs of the project, it's a very tough call. Obviously, there are a certain kind of consoles that I prefer.

Like what?

Michael: Either an old Neive up to an 87D8 series or an SSL with ultimation.

What are your views on working with a partner, as you did with Bill Laswell during your Material phase?

Michael: To tell you the truth, I don't think that it's anything that I would care to do again. Once you've got a group of musicians, and someone comes in to serve as the proverbial sixth or seventh band member, I don't think that you need to have an ace there. There doesn't need to be another person — at least not with the kind of records that I've been working on, and not the kinds of situations that I've been involved with. Everyone gets input. Everyone contributes to the production side of recording on some level, but I think it's just kind of overkill. I learned a lot from working like that, and working with those guys, though. In retrospect, it was good for the time, but for now, I don't think that it would work at all, especially not for me.

How long did you work with Celluloid?

Michael: I didn't actually work for them, we just worked with them, and in conjunction with them, and it was something like three or four years.

What was the first record that you worked on?

Michael: That was the Material EP, a four song EP for some little label in Philadelphia called Red Records, which I don't believe exists anymore. It subsequently got released on a couple of other independent labels in Europe, and of course, on Celluloid finally, and that was a Material record.

I want to touch on your view of the whole A&R process. Will you be involved with that?

Michael: No.

What's your view on the state of A&R in general?

Michael: All I can say is that it's a hard job, and I don't know how to do it. I have a tremendous amount of respect for those that do know how to do it. It's just not something that I have any expertise in, or any interest in.

Has the "changing of the guard," so to speak, in terms of Alternative music coming to the forefront, affected you and your work?

Michael: In a lot of ways it has, and in a lot of ways it hasn't. I find that because of that, a lot of bands that wouldn't have been taken seriously in the past have made records that have sold millions of copies, and that's really great. I also find that it's created a sort of hopefulness for freedom and flexibility in music. I think that it has also created a tremendous sort of logjam of ideas, and that people are so afraid of what can happen if they really let themselves free, like they might do if they didn't have a lot of people involved in the creative process. In my mind, there are two sides to it. I've seen a lot of people really become very frightened because they are on a major label, or because they have some sort of involvement like that. It's kind of weird, and I think that now people are in a position to do so much good and to make so much amazing music, and on a certain level it really hasn't happened yet. But on another level, it is happening. It's my very convoluted view of things. Also, I think that the process of being with a major record label for some people is the wrong way to go. There are some people that are much better off not going anywhere near a major record label at all, and some people on the other hand belong with it. It can challenge an artist so much to have a lot of creative input from people at the record company if you, in fact, believe that those people have any brains or any sensibility. I think that Alternative music — if we can use that particular very fashionable name — that kind of music becoming popular has been a boon for a lot of people, and at the same time, I think that it has fucked a lot of stuff up. It also puts a lot of undue pressure on people that are on independent labels to come over to a major label, and that's totally wrong

Well, you invariably find bands looking to cash in whenever they can.

Michael: I think that also there's a lot of pressure. Everyone has that tendency somewhere to want to cash in, or to at least consider it for a moment, but there is also a lot of pressure to be on a major label, to go where the action is so to speak. That's not what all bands that are trying to forge a new direction for themselves should necessarily be doing. A lot of my favorite music gets made by people that should stay as far the fuck away from a major label as possible.

Is there any specific type of artist that you would say is best served on an indie level?

Michael: If we try and separate people by their creative output instead of what category their music falls under, I think that makes a difference right there, and takes a lot of pressure off the creative process for a lot of people. There are just certain types of people that should be on a major label and certain types that shouldn't. There is a tremendous amount of spontaneity that happens outside of the major label process, and that's a real shame, too, because a lot of people — they almost act like they got caught with their pants down when they start making big budget records, and that ain't the way it's supposed to be either.

I really want to try and get into your mindset as a producer. What is it you attempt to capture on tape? What's in your mind when you start the recording process?

Michael: When I have a strong feeling about what I heard from a demo, whatever sensation there was that hit me, I just kind of instinctively what to find out the best way to amplify that tremendously, to create almost a tangible sensation out of it, to really take an aspect within the person's music and just really — I wouldn't say character them, but make them larger than life, and make them so they are literally tangible. On a certain level, I am, but on another level, I'm not a big fan of subtlety. Time is too short to say all the things that you really need to say. If you can say as much as possible in a very perceptible manner, and capture it on tape, that's the key for me.

And how do you do that?

Michael: For me, it's down to the performances, the textures, the way that they relate, the way the musicians are playing together. It's just subtleties, and obviously the quality of the songwriting as well. I think that each — with the exception of the songwriting, which is a major factor — of the other things are just tiny things that may have virtually no impact on their own, but when you start adding them together, they create a cumulative effect. What you're left with, or what I feel like when I've worked on something that I'm really excited about, is you get a really strong feeling from it. A really strong emotional kind of response to it.

How much does what an artist is going through in his or her personal life have to do with what comes out on record?

Michael: I guess it can't help but play a part, but at the same time, a lot of people might want to hold back things that have happened to them or experiences that they have had because they don't feel that it relates in any way to what they are trying to achieve, and that's fine. It's going to make its way into it whether a person likes it or not, it's pretty unavoidable. It's everything — what the person ate for breakfast is going to play a part. Everything just gets dragged into the process and gets synthesized into some kind of expression, and as far as I'm concerned, that's a good thing.

What about the time spent on a project? I know it varies, but are you more a fan of the "let's get it on tape and see what sticks" mentality or would you rather it be more of an extended process?

Michael: I'm kind of partial to the latter approach.

Taking your time?

Michael: Yeah, I think that the other idea was sort of born of this whole part indie rock sensibility, 'This is the way that they used to do it in the '50s and '60s,' which is total nonsense. It isn't the way that they used to do it anytime, and even if they did, who cares? I just think that it's so foolish to apply an aesthetic merely because 'This is how you make a record.' The way that I like to make a record is just to assess the situation, so that everyone knows what they've got. Unless you're really amongst a very fortunate few people who have a project where the songs are just absolutely unbelievable, they need no work whatsoever and the performers are just remarkable. I've never seen that kind of situation, though, where everything is perfect and you can do it right away. At the same time, I did some stuff with Aerosmith and it took a couple of days to get the whole thing down, but of course that was more like one whole song, it's not like doing a whole record in an afternoon. If someone can do it, great, but I can't. I don't think that I'm capable of that.

"A good producer thinks like a drummer." Total cliche?

Michael: A good producer thinks like a producer. If you are going to produce a record, you have to think about every single thing, you don't think about one aspect of it, or you're fucking everyone. If that's the only thing that a producer can do, what do you need a producer for? Get another drummer. I try and be considerate of every aspect of what people are doing, not just one, so that's a total cliche to me.

I think that it's probably meant in the sense of you bringing everyone together and being able to coalesce all the different musical elements involved.

Michael: Sometimes you're not the guy to do that. I think that you have to go with the way that everything is working. I find that, regardless of whatever kind of effort you are going to put into something, a record is going to make itself, and you have to respect that and try and get behind that as much as possible so that it goes the right way. When people fight the way things are going, they inevitably tend to screw something up real badly. If you want to look at it in terms of being a backbone, yeah, but I've seen a lot of bands where the drummer ain't exactly the backbone, so I don't know from that.

What have been some of your favorite projects that you have worked on?

Michael: I really enjoyed the Herbie Hancock record that I did with Material on it. That just was a very interesting time, and there was a lot of creative thinking that went into that. It was something that turned into a big deal and, at the same time, it was done at a totally grass roots level. The Chili Peppers records that I did, I liked those a lot, especially the first one that I did with those guys. It really captured a certain kind of magic that I think they were really hungry to find and it brought them to some sort of realization of what they were doing. The Soul Asylum record that I did, I liked that very much too, and the Soundgarden and the Aerosmith record.

I know that you can't really give an across the board answer for this, but how much time do you normally budget when you embark on a major project?

Michael: It all depends. Those Chili Peppers' records took about 15 months between the two of them, which was an ungodly amount of time to do that record, but there was a lot more that went into those records than just recording. There were months of rehearsal, a lot of personal stuff went on that's pretty unmentionable. Some projects take three months, some take two, some of them take four. The Soundgarden thing took about six months, but that's not all recording time. It varies a lot.

Do you find that it helps you to be present during rehearsals?

Michael: As much as possible. You should try to get into every aspect of what people do together and to try and have some input in that as well.

What would you, as a listener to something that you haven't worked on, hear that would make you say, 'Wow, the producer did a great job on this record.'

Michael: If the people who were making the record didn't kill each other and they managed to express themselves as best they could. When you get to that point, there ain't a whole lot more. You weren't able to face some chemical reaction that made our earth reverse poles and all life cease to exist and new life forms develop, so you might as well be happy with the former.

A lot of times you find producers that want/need to stamp their signatures on everything they work on. How do you feel about that?

Michael: I don't really understand that logic at all. It's just so foreign to anything that I like to do. To tell you the truth, that's the reason that I didn't want to be involved with Material anymore, because I felt that was starting to happen. To me, that's comparable to recording the same thing over and over and over again, and that aspires to a level of tedium that is indescribable. I just can't imagine that. Fortunately, I don't think that I know anyone who feels the insecure need to do stuff like that.

A lot of it is based on insecurity. Selfishness, as well.

Michael: It's tragic that people should be so interested in cutting off the work of people that they essentially have made an agreement with to help capture and craft their ideas, that they should take advantage of that to make it a producer's record. That's beyond me, and I find that incomprehensible. I couldn't ever imagine myself doing that, in fact, the idea really, really upsets me very much. It's just very weird to me.

If someone was to look at the body of material that you have worked on as a whole, do you think that there would be any one or two characteristics that are pervasive throughout your whole body of work?

Michael: One characteristic is the interest in dynamics and trying to create interesting instrumental textures and get good performances out of people.

What's on your plate for the next six months or so?

Michael: I'm hoping that one of the records that I'm supposed to be working on will finally get into a recording studio. That would be nice. I'll be working on a new record with Social Distortion and a record with Ozzy Osbourne.

A pretty diverse menu right there. That's the great thing about your gig now — Epic's roster is such that you have a great pool to choose from.

Michael: That's why I wanted to work with these guys among certain other reasons. They have great artists, they seem to know a lot of what they are doing, and they are just a great bunch of people to work with. If you are going to do something like this, it's not an undertaking that should be entered into lightly. Doing it, I definitely gave up something, but I really like the label and the idea of being able to work with bands like these or individuals like Ozzy is fabulous. I definitely look forward to being a part of the kind of records that we can make.

Any ideas, going into either one of those projects, of what you want to capture?

Michael: It's essentially the very general sense of wanting to give these people the freedom to express themselves completely. And also have a tremendous amount of fun in the process and experiment a little so that everyone gets a chance to have their hand in it.

Santana, "Brothers," Guts & Grace/Island On their new album, Brothers, Carlos Santana, his brother Jorge and nephew Carlos Hernandez have once again elevated the art of playing guitar to extraordinary heights. Early adds include KBCO, KGSR, KINK, WTTS and WXLE. Scott Arbough KBCO, "We just added it. Santana is certainly a core artist for KBCO, and this will definitely catch the attention of the listeners. We are already getting good phone response." Zeb Norris

WXLE, "Many of Carlos' instrumental melodies have proven indestructible, while Jorge has always had a sensitive style of his own. The melding of guitar rifts is irresistible and an automatic for Triple A." Jon Peterson WCBE, "Lovely, melodic and visceral, Carlos' tone is unmistakable and these duets hit the mark with grace and intelligence." Bob Terrill KCSU, "I keep hoping more people in Triple A will be encouraged to play some world music, and this may be the ticket. Try it out, it will work on your station."

R<sup>obbie</sup> Robertson & The Red Road Ensemble, "Music For The Native Americans," Capitol This soundtrack to the six-hour documentary, "The Native Americans," (premiering in October on TBS) combines mostly traditional Native American rhythms and harmonies with contemporary music. It is an uncommonly beautiful body of work that marks an impressive chapter in Robertson's musical career. Greg Hils WNCW, "I can't stop listening to the advanced cassette. This is an unbelievable bit of work. The people who don't believe that Native American artists are viable to Triple A are either out to lunch, or haven't heard this record yet. This will be huge for us, I can guarantee that." Chris Douridas KCRW, "This is absolutely amazing. 'Mahk Jchi (Heartbeat Drum Song)' along with the 'Ghost Dance' are soul stream achievements. Some of the best work Robbie has ever done is on this record." Dean Carlson KMTT, "If it didn't say Robbie Robertson, I would never have guessed it. The whole project really makes sense for the Pacific Northwest because we have a large Native American population here. I am really anxious to hear the entire CD." Jon Peterson WCBE, "Although not for everyone, this experiment delivers elaborate textures with an incredible arrangement. Perfect spice to complement Robbie's solo work or a classic Band cut."

Victoria Williams, "Loose," Mammoth/Atlantic Williams' quirky songwriting style came into the mainstream last year when her musician friends recorded some of her songs on the benefit album Sweet Relief. Victoria was diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis in '92, and the album helped defray her medical bills and also established a foundation to assist other uninsured musicians coping with medical crises. On Loose, her highly-anticipated Mammoth/Atlantic debut, Williams is joined by an impressive line-up of guests including R.E.M.'s Peter Buck and Mike Mills, Gary Louris and Mark Olson (her husband) of the Jayhawks, and Soul Asylum's Dave Pirner. It is a wonderfully unique and idiosyncratic release from a singer/songwriter whose recognition as a solo artist has long been overdue. Standout out tracks include "My Ally," (co-written and sung with Pirner), "You R Loved," (featuring backing vocals from Mike Mills), and "Crazy Mary," (the single from Sweet Relief). Chad Gilley WCL2, "I only heard the track `Crazy Mary' but it sounds real good. There is an interesting style going on that I really like. I can't wait to hear the rest of the album."

Triple Crown

Beveryone from X to Loudon Wainwright III — is a fitting and long overdue tribute to an exceptional artist. Greg Hils WNCW, "Richard Thompson is one of the great songwriters of the 20th century. The line-up is varied, but highly representative of the musical influence Richard Thompson has had on all kinds of songwriters and performers." Dean Carlson KMTT, "I like this a lot! There are at least three or four tracks on here that we'll be dealing with. We love both the R.E.M. and the Bonnie Raitt, and we also like Graham Parker and the Dinosaur Jr. — I guess you could say we like the whole thing. We are definitely going to deal with this, and I think this is a great way to expose Thompson's potential." Dennis Constantine, "Beat The Retreat features some of todays great artists covering the songs of Richard Thompson. Check out Bonnie Raitt, R.E.M., Los Lobos, and June Tabor. This collection of songs should get great reaction!" Steve Cole KSPN, "Retreat is the last thing you'll want to do when you throw this CD into your player, although, you might want to duck for cover when Dinosaur Jr. bursts onto the scene with a version of 'I Misunderstood.' Richard Thompson has been one of the best writers around for a long time, and it's a treat to hear his wide ranging compositions covered by such a wide variety of artists. There are many potential favorites on this album including Bonnie Raitt, David Byrne, Shawn Colvin, Loudon Wainwright, Los Lobos and R.E.M., who makes 'Wall Of Death' the most unlikely cheery sing-along song of the year. Fascinating and absorbing listening."

Sinead O'Connor, "Universal Mother," Chrysalis/EMI With her first album of original songs since 1989's I Do Not Want What I Haven't Got. Sinead expresses her feelings with characteristic intensity and emotion, beginning with the song "Fire On Babylon," the single release. While Sinead has become notorious for her public displays of outrage, the album only touches briefly on human injustice, a track called "Famine," a unique brand of Irish hip-hop with a chorus line from "Eleanor Rigby." As the album title would indicate, her focus throughout the album is motherhood, and she explores in great depth its wonders and heartbreaks, from the birth of a child in "My Darling Child" to the sorrow of a retarded child in the beautiful "Scorn Not His Simplicity." Two other tracks illustrate Sinead's ability to sing beautiful ballads - "John, I Love You," and "A Perfect Indian."

Eddi Reader, "Eddi Reader," Reprise This debut album from Eddi Reader features an interesting collection of songs from a sensitive and expressive woman. Backed by a strong band on some tracks and performing solo acoustic on others, she sings about life and relationships in a very personal and heartfelt way. The music tends toward folk, but varies in style from song to song. A good sampler of the more up-tempo tracks could include "The Right Place," "Scarecrow," and "Wonderful Lie." Sounding at times like Shawn Colvin, Patty Larkin and The Story. Eddi Reader's lyrics and music combine to make her a distinctive new voice in the growing realm of female singer/song-writers.

Bryan Ferry, "Mamouna," Virgin Brian Ferry is back with his first album of original material since Bete Noire (1988). Like the previous album and Roxy Music's Avalon, the music maintains a haunting and ethereal atmosphere, with Brian's distinctive, lilting vocals floating throughout. Many of the tracks include a driving bass beat which complements the textured quality of the synthesizers and vocals. The overall effect of the album is spacey, but the music contains underlying energy and emotion that distinguishes it from New Age. The tracks flow from one to another effortlessly and are almost indistinguishable. The only exception is "Wildcat Days," co-written with Brian Eno, which brings back some early Roxy memories.

Various Artists, "Best of Mountain Stage Vol. 7," Blue Plate The Mountain Stage "performance radio" format is one of the most admired in the Triple A world, and the CD releases are invariably a fine collection of live performances by contemporary artists. This one is no exception — it might even be the best. Beginning with Ben Harper's witty "Mama's Got A Girlfriend Now," the set continues with the angst of the Counting Crows, the sarcasm of the Violent Femmes, and the jug band sound of Hot Tuna — and it all works. The next six songs, beginning with Morphine doing "You Look Like Rain" and finishing with the Cowboy Junkies with "Pale Sun" (parallels: drug names & rain/sun, even the songs have similar feel), include excellent performances by Uncle Tupelo, The Bodeans, Bela Fleck, and the Judybats. A wonderful collection of some of the vest music happening these days.

Adios Amigos: A Tribute To Arthur Alexander Although the songwriting genius of Arthur Alexander has been appreciated (and utilized) by many high profile recording artists over the past thirty years, widespread recognition skyrocketed with his 1993 album, Lonely Just Like Me, released shortly before his untimely death. This tribute album gathers seventeen of his songs, many recorded previously by other artists (e.g. "Anna" by the Beatles). The artists who perform on the album do an outstanding job of interpretation — expressing these distinctive, soulful songs with their own distinctive vocal styles. It's hard to highlight particular tracks from this collection because of the consistent high level of quality, but some of our favorites include, "Sally Sue Brown" - Elvis Costello, "It's Really Got To Be This Way" - Robert Plant, "You Better Move On" - Chuck Jackson & Mark Knopfler and "Lonely Just Like Me" - John Prine. Other noted artists include Graham Parker, Marshall Crenshaw, Nick Lowe, and Roger McGuinn. This collection will serve to further enhance the appreciation and legacy of Arthur Alexander.

Rockin' Boulder

Now that we've fully recuperated from the Boulder Summit, we'd like to use some ink to thank Keith & Kent Zimmerman and the rest of the Gavin folks for opening up the festivities this year, and a special thanks to Dennis Constantine and Jason Parker for their hospitality and for showing us some of the best of Boulder.

Arista's roving reporter Howard Leon captured some of his favorite summit moments on film for us. Of course, that means that Howard will be prominently featured in most of the following pictures, but they're pretty good shots anyway...

Sandwiching Howard are Crash Test Dummies Ellen and Brad.

Back row: KFMG's Ron Sorenson, Vanguard's Michelle Krupkin, CTD's Ellen and Brad, and WFUV's Darren DiVivo. In front: WFUV'z Liz Opoka and Rita Houston.

Some of the Boulder summit bags.

Howard's brief appearance on stage at the reception tent. Needless tc say, he will be keeping his day job.

Atlantic's Bonnie Slifkin, Atlantic recording artist Jim Lauderdale, Bonnie Simmons and Kim Rossi.

Brad Roberts and Brad Hockmeyer wishing they had Ellen's sunglasses.

WXLE's Zeb Norris and Howard returned to the Clarion lobby after an exhausting morning of tie shopping at the Boulder J.C. Penney's.

Howard placed 5th in the "Which Birkenstock Belongs To Dennis?" competition.

Bonnie was obviously impressed with Howard's tie selection.

Delmark 40th Anniversary Blues Dan Klefstad, WNIJ FM, (815) 753-0081

This concise history is as much about Bob Koester as it is about "West Side" Chicago blues. Delmark's founder and executive producer is the leading blues historian in Chicago today, presiding over forty years' worth of master recordings by many of the finest blues artists. Koester opens the archives with Jr. Wells" "Snatch It Back and Hold It" from Hoodoo Man Blues (1965). That Wells appears first is a testament to the important place he holds in Koester's memory. These sessions were the label's first to emphasize a sound built around the electric guitar (provided by Buddy Guy who, due to contractual obligations, appeared as "Friendly Chap" Of course, Cobra Records turned up the distortion nearly a decade earlier. but the label quickly folded and their best guitarist wound up at Delmark. I am, of course, speaking of Otis Rush and Magic Sam (and "Friendly Chap"). Rush makes an appearance here, from Cold Day In Hell (1975). These were not his happiest days; "You're Breaking My Heart" is an example of Rush wringing out his most diffuse, yet most authentic, blues. There is plenty of acoustic blues on this sampler. During the folk boom of the 1960's, many early southern bluesmen were rediscovered. Sleepy John Estes, known for recordings he made from 1929-41, was picked up by Delmark for the Brownsville Blues sessions, recorded in Estes'home. "I'd Been Well Warned," included here, is a choice slice of Mississippi blues. Arthur "Big Boy" Crudup was also brought back from obscurity by Delmark. His song "That's All Right" was an early hit for Elvis Presley, and the 1967 remake here does much to provide context. The stronger material Delmark ever produced was that by "Magic Sam" Maghett. "I Need You So Bad" is one example from his six albums for Delmark which combined authentic soul, blues and very taste ful quitar licks. This sound disappeared with Sam's fatal heart attack in 1969, and has never returned to blues. That Sam closes this program is fitting, as Bob Koester consistently has championed this artist's memory.

to Part 2 of the Sampler-O-Rama. This week, you lucky readers out there get to see pictures of what each CD looks like. Because of a doofus move on my part, last week's page had no pictures next to the CD reviews. But never fear, we're trying to make up for it by running pictures of those CD's THIS week. So enjoy this veritable feast for the eyes! And now, read about what a feast for the ears these great blues samplers are! Yours meekly, Lee from Alligator.

New Blues Classics Bullseye/Rounder Records John Small, Blues North, Rock Radio Network, Canada

Rounder Records was the first to launch George Thorogood, ship him out, tell him to get a haircut and a real job! It is one of many success stories of the enormously successful one-time boutique label. The Rounder mentors saw a need to create, of course, another separate label called Bullseye devoted to blues and other related music. New Blues Classics represents the fruits of a gargantuan harvest. Marian Leighton Levy desired to let the people know about the great diversity of expression in blues today. His interest was not only the obvious Chicago, Memphis, New Orleans sounds - but a wide, pluralistic and rich spectrum of music. If you're a collector - New Blues Classics offers you some tasty appetizers and a desire for full CDs of all the sampled offerings. What a wonderful album...Roomful Of Blues' Dance All Night is one of the strongest new blues releases out there. The addition of Sugar Ray Norica to the band helps to make Dance All Night a collection of all different kinds of blues songs—the very strength of Dance All Night lies in the variety of music within. "Horns?" you ask...yeah, horns in your face and music to your ears; three saxes, a trombone, and trumpet accompany a strong rhythm section fronted by Sugar Ray Norcia, his harp, and some real fine vocals. All of these songs are worth their weight in gold, but there are a few that are simply priceless: "Hey Now" and "You Don't Know" are 2 of a kind, and "Cuttin'In" is another track that simply demands your attention. There is absolutely no possible no way to wrong with Dance All Night from Roomful Of Blues—12 great tracks from 10 great musicians working together---just play it.

Danzig, "When You Call On The Dark" (American)

Although the programmers at metal have been tipped to the subtle ferocity of Danzig for years now, it was a revamped version of his classic track "Mother" that opened up the eyes of both MTV and most of commercial radio. With a fanatically loyal fanbase that has been built through three releases of music that consistently seize your thoughts, and a live performance that is equally dark and mesmerizing. Now that their recent success has made them a household name with hard rock fans, and the band just finished a summer tour of the sheds with Metallica, the mere mention of new material will perk the ears of your listening audience. The first track off of Danzig 4 is the affecting, sinister track, "When You Call On The Dark", that will not only pick up where "Mother '93" left off, but should lift Danzig to the next level. Glenn Danzig may be an enigma unto himself - one of the most mysterious men in music today - but come this fall you will see his face all over the place and his music will be all over the airwaves.

Dangerous Toys, "Hard Luck Champion" (DMZdos) If you were around a couple of years back, you should recognize the sounds of this Texas based bunch from their southern fried brand of rockin' on songs like "Teasin' Pleasin" and "Scared" from their debut release, which sold loads of records - almost to gold status - and found them on the road with the likes of Judas Priest, Alice Cooper, The Cult and Motorhead. It's been a couple of years, but the 'Toys are back and they are really pissed off this time. With all of the somber, depressing music being released these days, it is a welcome relief to check out their kinetic, raunchy and rowdy execution. The bluesy intro of "Hard Luck Champion" kicks into a boot kickin' groove that will liven up your airwaves during any daypart. With Dangerous Toys already seeing some airplay at KIBZ and KZRX, these ass-kickin' Texans are ready to change their luck the "Hard Luck Champion" way, and find their way back onto the radio airwaves.

Moist, "Push" (Chrysalis/EMI)

This group from the Great White North have already established themselves as the next success story from their native Canada with four tours of the country in the past year and a half, and with the release of Silver, which was released there before it was in the U.S., the band have had some action at alternative and some early believers at COR, including KISW and KUPD. The first track, "Push", is already getting a hefty 33 spins a week at WMMS, whose Doug Kubinski explains that, "Our PD John Gorman heard them when in Canada, tracked down the CD and we started playing them. The CD was only available as an import, so we brought the band in to do a live show and afterwards requests tripled and the demand for that import went up. We are bringing them back to do a free 'MMS show with Green Day also." How is that for belief in a baby band! "Push" is driven by a strong guitar melody, their clean precise sound and the haunting vocals, but despite the smooth personality of the song, there is a crunch and rhythmic backbone present to make it a perfect fit for any COR station. With a promising start, it shouldn't take much shoving around to get COR programmers to do some "Push"-ing of their own.

XC-NN, "Young, Stupid, and White" (550/Epic)

Guitarist Tim Bricheno, got his first taste of working with a major rock band when he joined up with Andrew Eldritch in Sisters of Mercy. Despite the underground success of this British industrial/punk outfit, Bricheno had already hooked up with future bandmate David Tomlinson, and the origin of XC-NN was formed. Their self-titled release is already on the streets overseas, and having already developed a reputation and a following in their native England (where they raised the ire of CNN because the original name of the outfit was in cynical recognition of the media giant) XC-NN is set to enter into the U.S. mainstream with their provocative single, "Young, Stupid, and White". The churning distorted guitars, which buzz endlessly throughout the song while the languid vocals - dripping with both attitude and irony - explore the rhythm of the song. XC-NN is a band that will stand out on your airwaves with their futuristic flavor and original style. So, if you are searching for a song to go beyond the normal fare on the dial, don't be stupid, be "Young, Stupid, and White".

Corrosion of Conformity, "Broken Man" (Columbia)

Rising out of the not so bustling scene in Raleigh, North Carolina, the ever evolving Corrosion of Conformity put a musical star on the map for an area that is probably best known for its good old boys. First emerging in '82, the band became one of the first "crossover bands" among the hardcore/punk circuit of the day with their fierce rebellion against the backwards conservatism that swirled around them. COC have churned out indie releases — such as their '83 debut Eye For An Eye, Animosity, and Technocracy — with a rabid regularity and, even with the revolving door in their vocalist slot, have maintained an undying amount of credibility from their fans. After that time period, the mighty COC machine almost came to a grinding halt after original member Mike Dean left the band. With the additions of Karl Agell, Phil Swisher, and New Drleans based guitarist Pepper Keenan, the band regrouped and in late '91 released Blind: an intensely brutal release that combined the angry elements of their hardcore roots with speed injected metallic guitar heroics. This breakthrough collection cut through the forest of releases with the ease of a sharpened machete, and established the band as a force to be reckoned with. While COC have always been known for combining a serious, discontented message along with their music, they took the lead and stepped out with actions to back up their disgust for the "New World Drder". Working both with national organizations and local networks to encourage voters to break out of their apathy during the last election, the members of COC were major activists of Harvey Gantt's campaign to take Jesse Helms out of his congressional seat along with his fear spawned tactics. While they didn't succeed this time, Helms surely must be looking over his shoulder to this day, after the "Vote With A Bullet" sentiment of COC was lashed in his direction. For the first time in their groundbreaking career, they found themselves on a major label with this Columbia release and true to form, there are some line-up changes. Continuing from the last release are founders Reed Mullin and Woody Weatherman plus Pepper Keenan - who now finds himself with the addition of vocal duties. Back into the lineup on bass is original member Mike Dean to contribute to a combination that is streamlined, potent, and is as close to the original formation as they have been in ten years. The first track the emotive, prodding "Broken Man" - from the upcoming release, Deliverance, features the production of North Carolina based John Custer, who produced Blind. With Custer at the helm, the sound quality of Deliverance is very similar to the intangible, vaporous disposition of its predecessor, but "Broken Man" conjures up power in the composite, rather than the speed alone. While still showcasing their cerebral lyrics, the anger isn't as much in the forefront as the atmospheric thick sound that was inspired from the releases of Deep Purple and Black Sabbath, combining the acute modern angst with the subtle might found in those classic releases. Corrosion of Conformity been around for over ten years because they are able to progress without shedding a bit of their snarl. Grasp onto the power of "Broken Man" and don't dismay, because your Deliverance will be arriving soon.

Danzig, "When You Call On The Dark" (American) With the recent breakout success of the "Mother '93" remix, Glenn Danzig and company are a hot topic on the minds of young rockers. But for many of us, "Mother" was a song that has been familiar for years, and through his early work in the underground scene, that has affected many musicians including Metallica, Danzig has developed a rabid, rock solid fanbase. Creating a persona that is shrouded in mystery and an evil aura, he explores the world of the supernatural with such ease that even Alister Crowley has to step back. With this forbidding image, and shrieking guitars that grab you by the throat, the mournful croon of Glenn Danzig has found the steadfast acceptance in the format that is quite comfortable alongside guttural growls and thrash speed deliveries - their music displays so much intensity and power, that the extremes aren't necessary to have their impact. On the upcoming release, Danzig 4, the band stands on the brink of commercial superstardom, but as you can plainly hear on the first track "When You Call On The Dark" - the sinister tone and throbbing rhythm invoke their spell from the first note. This ear catching quality is probably the best aspect of Danzig's music - every song grips onto your brain and won't let go. "When You Call..." has a Iulling nature that pulls you in, just before the deep hooks grasp on and don't let go. We have no doubt that many of you will be calling on the dark very soon - and re-entering the world of Danzig.

Monster Magnet, "Negasonic Teenage Warhead" S.F.W. Soundtrack (A&M)

The movie business has been gracing our radio stations with a plethora of metallic releases, and with the combination of new and previously released material the soundtrack for S.F.W. (we think that you will be able to figure out what that stands for) is a mixture that will find its way onto many radio playlists and past many cash registers. With a movie that is embroiled in darkness not unlike The River's Edge, S.F.W. picks up where Reality Bites left off, and makes the latter look like a walk in the park by comparison. The first taste for metal radio is our preview of that psychadelic/metallic musical combination that is Monster Magnet. With a new album set to be unveiled early next year, we have a song, "Negasonic Teenage Warhead," to whet the anticipation of your listeners. The title itself displays their ability to borrow from the acid trips of the past, and project into the apprehension for the future. The fazed out spacey feel of "Negasonic Teenage Warhead" would make it perfect background music for any voyage of the spaceship U.S.S. Enterprise, but since they don't take passengers, we can take a trip of our own on the "... Teenage Warhead

Moist, "Push" (Chrysalis/EMI Records)

This Vancouver based band grew out of the union of two other defunct bands on the scene, and in the short time of a year and a half - the band started writing together in November '92 and by August '94 their record had hit the stores - the band has gone from auditioning drummers to locking in radio airplay. The sound of the band gelled from constant touring including dates at Canada's Music West Conference and at South By Southwest - sending them all over Canada, and the benefits of the bonding that goes along with spending that much time together in the tight quarters of a van has made them a cohesive unit. The full length release, Silver has already been in stores for a month, with alternative stations getting the first shot, but the lead track, "Push", has been finding a home with some COR stations like KISW and KUPD, plus metal stations such as DMX and WMMR. The song is driven by a strong guitar melody, their clean precise sound and the haunting, compelling voice of David Usher, with enough crunch and rhythmic backbone to more that hold their own at metal stations. With a carefree attitude, to go along with a healthy work ethic, plus a large dose of energy to keep their kinetic activities going, the world is starting to look a little more Moist everyday!

Headlock, It Found Me (Pavement)

This trio from the clubs of New Jersey (Bob McLynn bass/vocals; Adam Tranquilli - guitar/vocals; Adam Keiffer - drums) became the streamlined triumvirate that they are today mostly because of their bad experiences with various singers their laziness and eqo problems. Originally formed as the band Last Remains, the threesome eventually gave up on the frontman and controlled the focus of their aggression. "One Unconscious Deed" is the initial focus track, complete with thick chunky riffs; and with songs like the opening "Too Much Power", "Jaws of Insanity" with its double bass bullet rhythm, and the paranoia journey of "Wake Up Screaming" to showcase their slowed down power groove and emphatic, driven vocal delivery, finding a track to play won't be a problem. Headlock is currently on tour in Europe with M.O.D, and are in the planning stages of a U.S. tour in which they will bring their formidable brand of metal to a new audience each night. So if you find yourself in a Headlock on the air, don't worry because that will be to your benefit.

Twisted Sister

Twisted Sister, Live At Hammersmith (CMC International) In a time not so really long ago (sometimes it just seems that way) we can all remember watching MTV and being sympathetic with that kid feeling the brunt of his militant father as he bellowed, "What Do You Want To Do With Your Life!?" The answer "I Wanna Rock!", must have struck a nerve because here we are ten years later, and we still turn the volume up to eleven! Twisted Sister took their theatrical and pounding heavy metal sounds straight into top 40 radio with the explosive hit "We're Not Gonna Take It" and forever marked their spot in rock n' roll history. And frontman Dee Snider hasn't changed his loyalty to hard rock - that wild and wooly singer is currently preparing to unleash his second Widowmaker release this fall, while at the same time programming his own metal show at WRCN. The two disc compilation that is now in your hands is a live recording of the band at the legendary venue, London's Hammersmith Odeon, during the height of their popularity. Songs like "You Can't Stop Rock 'N Roll", "I Wanna Rock", and "Under The Blade" will make you and your listeners a bit nostalgic, and at the same time serve as a primer for the upcoming Widowmaker disc. Either way you can't go wrong, so slip on some classic metal and let the headbanging commence.

QUICK Picks

Atrocity, Blut (Massacre)

If you have ever been lucky enough to go to Germany, you know that they like their music heavy out there. And we mean heavy. From this rugged scene emerged the band Atrocity, a five piece from Ludwigsberg, to carve their way onto the stereos of metal fans. Unlike the grinding, often unintelligible vocals of most death records, the vocals of Alex Krull are diabolic and rough, but his point comes through loud and clear. Filled with lumbering rhythms, walloping riffs and the occasional spice of intricate guitar licks, the music of Atrocity is as heavy as Godzilla's foot on your head, but at the same time they are accessible to a wide range of metal fans. With 17 early adds, including WNHU, WVUD, WVBR, KSJS, and WBAU, Atrocity shows that Blut is thicker than water and on their fourth release they hope to bring a bit of the German old country back to the states!

METAL EDITOR - HOLLY MCCORMACK METAL ASSISTANT - JODIE FABRICUS

Attn: Reporters -All college reports are due by 5:00pm Monday. All others are due by 4:30pm EST. Tuesday

By the time you read this we will have done the Foundations Forum hang thang - I'm sure it was great seeing you all and I would bet a good time was had by all! Next up is the CMJ Music Marathon but until then... everyone should be spinning the sh*t out of the Corrosion of Conformity (Columbia) track "Broken Man", the first single taken from their forthcoming John Custer produced record, Deliverance... Waste no time in getting the Monster Magnet (A&M) track "Negasonic Teenage Warhead" tune on the air. The cut, from the S.F.W. soundtrack, should be enough to appease your need for new stuff from the Magnet, at least until their Alan Molder engineered full length (King Of Mars) record arrives in the new year... So, have you reserved space on this week's playlist for "Push", the first single from Moist (EMI)? If not, why?! You might also want to make room in next week's list for the full length Silver album from the band as it goes for metal adds September 19th and 20th... Danzig (American) has delivered again — this time with "Until You Call On The Dark", the first cut taken from the looming release, Danzig 4... You might want to consider giving the eleven song Headlock (Pavement) album, It Found Me, some rpm's now, considering it goes for adds today (that would be September 12th and 13th) ... Scorn (Earache) fans will be quite happy to note that the band's new record, Evanescence, will hit the streets September 20th... Make a note of the fact that the clean version of Born Dead from Body Count (Virgin) ships September 16th, for radio play September 26th/27th... Widowmaker (CMC International) send a couple of songs your way for September 26th/27th radio play. "Long Gone" and "Ready To Fall" arrive basically to whet your appetite for the band's upcoming LP, Stand By For Pain, that has been scheduled for an October 10th entrance... Headed your way in the near future is a collection of b-sides from the alternative leaning Smashing Pumpkins (Virgin). The band deliver thirteen tracks on the Pisces Iscariot disc... Word has it that a new Leeway record is on the way (around the 3rd and 4th of October) courtesy of those at Futurist Records... An October 3rd arrival has been slated for Skinned from B-Thong (Pavement). Make a note of it... The DGeneration (EMI) self-titled album is scheduled to arrive on your desk on October 4th. In case you didn't notice, two of their tunes can be found on the EMI Rocks Never Mind The Bollocks sampler that crossed your desk recently... Another EMI Records release bound to catch your attention is Primitive Enema, the debut album from Butt Trumpet. The record has been slated for an October 4th arrival... Prepare for the devastation as Low, the latest and possibly greatest record from Testament (Atlantic), has been given an October 4th delivery date. The single of the same name will arrive a few weeks earlier for September 19th/20th adds... We are quite happy about the fact that Sick Of It All (EastWest) are gonna be back in the face of metal radio when their album, Scratch The Surface, is released October 10th. We here at the Hard hut still proudly wear our SOIA baseball caps sent out with the last album!... The King and Co. are currently wrapping up work on their upcoming disc, Time. The record, serviced to you by Mercyful Fate and Metal Blade Records, should fall in your lap the 11th of October... And, another Pavement Records release comes via the Solitude Aeturnus album. Through The Darkest Hour. Look for it around the 17th of October... Put a big red X through the entire month of October to remind you that the Fudge Tunnel (Earache/Columbia) album, The Complicated Futility Of Ignorance, is scheduled for release... The Brainchild album from those industrialites in Circle Of Dust (REX) will be re-issued in the late fall... Look to November 11th for the emergence of a new single from Animal Bag (Mercury). "Stupidity" is the first taste of the band's 1995 release. SSSSLooks like the end of the current Nine Inch Nails (nothing/TVT/Interscope/AG) tour is near with the final dates being September 14th in Memphis, Tennessee; the 17th in Kansas City, Missouri; and the 24th Seattle, Washington... Look for Bloodline (EMI) to stop in San Francisco, California on the 13th of September; in Santa Cruz, California on the 15th and in Sacramento, California on the 16th... The final four dates of the Pro-Pain (Energy) and Overkill (Atlantic) double billing are September 14th with a stop in San Antonio, Texas; on the 16th in Austin, Texas; the 21st in Atlanta, Georgia; and finally, on the 23rd in Tampa, Florida... Just a reminder to flip to the Hard Tour Guide for specifics on the Drown (Elektra), Prong (Epic) and Clutch (EastWest) triple billing. It could very well be the coolest tour of the fall months... By the way, the kick off for the upcoming Danzig (American) live show thang has been moved to November, as opposed to the 25th of October as reported before. SSSSAnd on the radio side of things, KDZR/Dallas/Ft. Worth has set their local programming hours as follows: Monday 12:00 - 1:00 a.m. Local Loud Stuff (a showcase of local bands) and Tuesday - Friday 6:00 - 6:30 p.m. The Listening Post (national acts on-sale now). And, there will also be programs put together for special events such as artists dropins, pre-concert activities and backstage reports, and on-sale announcement specials. Got all that? SSSSFinally, much peace, love and happiness is sent to Mr. Greg Derbas and his new wife Patrice, the two tied the knot on August 20th... Congratulations to KFMX's Mike Driver and his wife on the August 16th birth of their child, Jakob Gunner. Ahhhhh!.

It just so happens the men in black, and looking like mafia trainees, are none other than Prong-sters Ted Parsons and Tommy Victor, along with KWVA type Steven Woodward

Oh yes, Ted, Tommy, and Steven (those men in black) again — this time they have recruited KAVE/Z-ROCK's Kelly Frost and his friend to join them for some pre-show grin and grip activities.

Looks like KWVA's Steven Woodward and KAVE's Kelly Frost were men on a mission to get their picture taken with members from each of the bands on the Prong, Sepultura and Pantera metal-fest. Here they have snagged Sepultura's stixman Igor Cavalera to pose for the camera's eye.

This Chaos iced tea (or is it Chaos A.D.?) is for you! Or so says Igor Cavalera as he displays a tasty sample straight from the factory. The marketing possibilities for Sepultura have expanded to new horizons. Unbelievable!

In the metal line-up of the week Epic's Cheryl Valentine and WB's Linnea Nan were held responsible for gathering the likes of Biohazard's Danny Schuler and Bobby Hambel, WVCR's Andrea Wedler and Gari Calvert, WIZN's Mike Wilhide, Sepultura's Igor Cavalera and Concrete's Steve Prue.

Bryan Ferry, "Mamouna," Virgin He's got a new deal with Virgin America (he's been on Virgin Worldwide for many years), he's collaborated with old pals Brian Eno, Phil Manzanera, and Andy Mackay, and he's recorded what many feel is his strongest record in years. Here's the story - after the Bete Noire record/tour in 1988, Ferry did some writing, but felt his efforts were corning up short. So he recorded Taxi, his cover album which came out last year. Perhaps it was the act of interpreting other artists' songs that spurred Ferry's creative juices, and he continued on to record this one with a clean slate. Hooking up with producer Robin Trower, Ferry enlisted some heavy duty musicians, including Nile Rodgers, Nathan East and Maceo Parker, in addition to his former Roxy brethren. "Mamouna," a modern track with understated elegance — signature Ferry -- means "good luck" in Arabic.

Lucas, "With The Lid Off," Atlantic All the rage. With a video given "Breakthrough" status at MTV, it's a sure bet for hugeness. Bom in Copenhagen and spending most of his youth swinging between Europe and the States, Lucas settled in New York at age 18, where he got a record deal with Uptown/MCA and put out To Rap My World Around You, a well-received album in hiphop circles. He then moved to London, where he recorded Luccacentric, where this track can be found. A thoroughly original track, "Lid" blends two musical styles that are not often combined - reggae and ragtime, resulting in "ragga-time." The track was released on white label last summer, where select club-goers were privy to Lucas' brand of fusion. A most remarkable fact about the video is that it was filmed in one continuous tracking shot, with no edits and no postproduction. And, with what will probably be 1,756 daily showings on MTV, this lid will certainly blow off. Added this week at KTCL and WEQX, with KROQ already on.

Guided By Voices, "I Am A Scientist," Scat The buzz on GBV has long been loud in industry circles, and it seems pretty certain that the band's ninth full-length will be the one to introduce them to the newly indie-crazed masses. The steady stream of low-fi newcomers that has abounded in the format for much of this past year should be displaced with this release from the term's pioneers. Recorded on a four-track machine, Bee Thousand possesses a gritty, beautifully simple feel present all throughout its 20 songs. At the core of the band is the prolific singer/songwriter Robert Pollard, whose genius is instantly evident when considering his brand of cerebral, sweetly atonal pop songs are unbounded and thoroughly affecting. Look for a new commercial radio edit of this track (getting nice 120 minutes play) coming soon.

The Connells, "New Boy" extremely well received at the forn "Slackjawed" and "74-'75." Well, afte stant touring, they've added to their all and come at us with a new EP. The bank in the bright, ringing guitars, as well as Mil lyrical and vocal style. Chances are you dio precious release - why not give this a shot?

"Living In The Past," a cover of on old Jethro Tull song.

the rumor mill churns. All of a sudden radio has two key positions open (WDRE PD and KROQ MD), and the jockeying has already begun. With Tom Calderone's departure from Garden City and his new role as consultant for Jacobs Media (based in New York), a number of questions have obviously been raised with regards to the station and his replacement. Could this lead to Jacobs' consultation of the station? If so, how will that affect the scope/number of the possible replacements? Not to mention the wonder over the station's musical direction. Let's see what transpires... Daniel Glass out at EMI... Michael Idlis has been named National Director Of Alternative Promotion at Mercury, taking over for Tim Hyde, who's gone to indie-world. The one-two Idlis/Westfall punch takes effect immediately, as Thomas made it out to San Francisco in one piece. Idlis, a true music head, was previously in the label's AOR department based in the West Coast ... Contrary to some reports you might have heard/read, Brett Gurewitz has NOT left Bad Religion — he is still a member of the band, it's just that he will not be touring with them. As you may know, the reason for this is so he can keep his eye on Epitaph... WRLG has officially changed its moniker to Thunder 94, (thunder, lightning, get it?). Beginning last Friday, Heather & Co. confused the station's listeners by going without jok talk and bombarding them with many different types of music, much of which was pretty firmly in the schlock vein. Then, at 9:40 AM (matching their frequency, get it?), they officially came on air with their new name. Incidentally, the station is producing its own morning show now, helmed by the duo of Adam Dread and Sling... Keep your eyes open for Looking Through... from the Bent Backed Tulips, a.k.a. Dramarama. The record contains much-sought after material, as it was released in a limited edition in France (the band's name was changed so as not to confuse the casual fan with the band's stateside release at the time. The record includes 16 original John Easdale compositions as well as cover versions of songs by Faces, the Monkees, Stevie Wonder and T. Rex... Seed is still going strong. "Rapture" has been bumped to regular rotation at MTV, the band will appear on the Conan O'Brien show on 9/22, and their three month club tour starts this week. Our ravings (feels like light years ago) will hold true, just you see... A Meirose Place soundtrack is coming your way, featuring tracks from Paul Westerberg, James and Dinosaur Jr. among others... Damian Einstein, after having left WHFS a couple of weeks back, has joined WXZL/Baltimore's (soon to be WRNR) airstaff, doing the 10-2P shift Mondays, Wednesdays & Fridays and a weekend blues show, as well as acting as Local Music Director... Former KBCO MD Ginger Havlat has joined KXPK/Denver's airstaff, doing the 12-4PM shift... The wonderful Velvet Crush has just been confirmed as the opening act for the Jesus and Mary Chain/Mazzy Star tour to be commencing soon... Three Morrissey concerts, scheduled to play at Carnegie Hall in New York on September 19 and 20 and at the Olympic Auditorium in Los Angeles on September 30 have been cancelled. These shows were postponed from their original play-dates last April... Every Friday afternoon, beginning September 16th, Q101 will be broadcasting live from Chicago area colleges and universities. Afternoon jock Steve Fisher will be taking his show on the road from 2-7pm. Steve and Q101 will also be the host of tailgate parties at all of Northwestern University home football games... Wichita's The New 96, the city's only alternative outlet, has been going strong for 7 months now and has gained a nice following. Service Greg Bergan call at 316-832-9600... LIVE 105 and 2 Bay Area bands (The Alley Boys and Ted 302) from the station's local band compilation CD will be joining President Clinton's kick-off of AmeriCorps on Monday September 12th at 9am at the Palace of Fine Arts. AmeriCorps will be kicked off in San Francisco in a ceremony including live musical performances by the bands. AmeriCorps is a program of community service in exchange for education financing, styled after the Peace Corps. The San Francisco launching ceremony of AmeriCorps will feature President Clinton by live satellite simulcast, connecting a handful of selected sites around the country... Piano player Nicky Hopkins, formerly of the Jeff Beck Group, has died in California at age 50 after a lengthy illness. Hopkins, a veteran session pianist, played on records by the Rolling Stones, the Who and the Kinks, who wrote a song about him ("Session Man") on their "Face To Face" album. Hopkins performed on the Stones' albums "Let It Bleed," "Exile On Main Street," "Black And Blue" and "Their Satanic Majesties Request." He also worked on the Who's debut album, "My Generation," the Jefferson Airplane's "Volunteers," Steve Miller's "Your Saving Grace," John Lennon's "Imagine," and records by Quicksilver Messenger Service. In the early 1960s, Hopkins was hospitalized for emotional problems and exhaustion. He remained active despite being prone to illness

"Love Is All Around" by Wet Wet Wet has become biggest-selling single of the decade in Britain. Sales have surpassed the 1.5 million mark, and there seems to be no signs of them slowing down. The song, originally released as a b-side, is currently in the top five in 20 different countries and has reached number one in Australia, Denmark, Holland, Norway, Singapore, South Africa, Sweden, New Zealand and Iceland. Reg Presley, who wrote and recorded the song in 1967 with the Troggs, may earn $1.5 million in royalties because of the song's new success.

Lenny Kravitz, fresh from supporting the Rolling Stones on their North American tour, has returned to the studio to complete work on a new album. Like Bruce Springsteen and Guns N' Roses before him, Kravitz plans to release two albums next spring.

Led Zeppelin's "Unledded" album, recorded for MTV's "Unplugged" series, features two new songs one written by Robert Plant and the other by Jimmy Page. The record, due out in early November, also features reworkings of Led Zeppelin classics like "Kashmir," "The Battle Of Evermore," and "Since I've Been Loving You."

Over 2,000 people turned out when Jon Bon Jovi and Richie Sambora played an impromptu concert at Covent Garden in London. "This beats...going to work," Bon Jovi told the crowd. "I thought we were going out for a cheeseburger for lunch and look what we're doing." Their half-hour set included a version of Simon & Gartunkel's "Bridge Over Troubled Water." Bon Jovi have a greatest hits album coming out in October. Bon Jovi and Sambora also played an acoustic set recently at a benefit dinner in the U.S. conjunction with the premiere of the film "Blue Sky," which stars Jessica Lange and Tommy Lee Jones.

Rush drummer Neil Peart has produced an album called "Burning For Buddy: A Tribute To The Music Of Buddy Rich." The album features drummers performing mostly big band arrangements from Rich's repertoire. "Although Buddy Rich was justly celebrated for his fiery drum solos, he was also known for his exciting ensemble work," Peart says. "The arrangements which he commissioned for his big band were designed to showcase the songs and the band, not just the drums alone - and that's what we've set out to do with this tribute." Drummers featured on the LP include Bill Bruford, Billy Cobham, Steve Gadd, Simon Phillips, Matt Sorum and Peart himself. The LP includes an updated version of the Average White Band's "Pick Up The Pieces," featuring AWB drummer Steve Ferrone.

Former Rolling Stones bass player Bill Wyman and his wife, Suzanne, have their first child. Katharine Noelle was born in London. Wyman already has a 31year-old son from a previous marriage. Almost $4 million in donations have been received from a week-long Farmhand Appeal intended to benefit drought-stricken farmers in Australia. The Australian government agreed to match the sum contributed by the public during the effort, which culminated in a Best for the Bush concert which featured John Farnham, Jason Donovan and Olivia Newton-John, among others. Almost $1 million was raised at the royal fundraising event.

Roger McGuinn, John Prine and Nick Lowe are among the artists contributing tracks to "Adios Amigo: A Tribute To Arthur Alexander." The album features covers of Southern soul classics written by Alexander, who died in Nashville last year.

Lollapalooza '94 grossed $24.3 million at 43 dates over two months this summer. Organizers say over 215,000 "smart drinks" were sold over the tour, while participants went through 40,000 bottles of beer. There were 927,000 paid admissions, and over 46,000 backstage passes were given out over the course of the tour.

Dave Edmunds has just begun a U.S. tour in Richmond, Virginia, that continues through the end of this month. Edmunds says he doesn't expect Rockpile to ever get back together, because of Nick Lowe's reluctance. "He's lost his chance now," Edmunds says. "I'm drawn towards the idea of doing it all myself and having total control. It's not an ego thing. I just find I can work really well like that. All on my own. Whenever I want."

James Brown, Ray Charles, Boy George, Culture Beat, Paul Young, Steve Hackett, Steve Howe and David Palmer were among the acts who performed at the Golden Stag Festival which took place in Brasov, Romania, about 100 miles north of Bucharest.

Sinead O'Connor has entered Priory Hospital, a rehabilitation clinic in London, in an attempt to end her marijuana-smoking habit.

Ozzy Osbourne has recorded a duet with Miss Piggy for an upcoming "Kermit Unpigged" album (on Jim Henson Records/BMG Kidz). Osbourne and the Muppet perform "Born To Be Wild" on the LP, which also features duets with Don Henley, Linda

Ronstadt, George Benson and Jimmy Buffett, among others. "Miss Piggy is the Ultimate Rock Chick," Osbourne says in a press release. "I thought I'd done it all and seen it all until I met her." Osbourne is working on his own album, to be called "X. Ray."

Steve Isaacs, who has the title role in the national touring production of "The Who's Tommy" has written his own rock opera, called "Strawberry." It's about a 15-year-old fatherless boy named Herald Johnson. "Not until I looked at life through the eyes of Tommy was I able to....write about things outside myself," Isaacs says. "It's changed my whole perspective."

Unlike previous years, this year's MTV Video Music Awards show isn't being syndicated to local television stations in the U.S. Instead, the awards program will be repeated more frequently on the cable channel.

Bonnie Raitt, Jackson Browne, Joan Baez, John Hiatt, Bruce Cockburn and Buddy Guy played at the 24th annual Bumbershoot concert in Seattle on Labor Day.

Brian Setzer of the Brian Setzer Orchestra has married real estate agent Christine Schmidt in Sierra Madre, California. Setzer's group played at the wedding reception.

Queen drummer Roger Taylor has a new solo album out in Britain called "Happiness?" It includes a song criticizing newspaper mogul Rupert Murdoch, whose Sun newspaper published pictures of Queen singer Freddie Mercury when he was dying from AIDS. "It was prompted originally by a full page photo shot with a telephoto lens that they published of Freddie when he was very ill, when he was trying desperately to lead some type of private life," Taylor says. "I thought it was a gross intrusion on my friend's pain and privacy. I felt outraged the way his house was surrounded by these vultures when he was basically trying to die in peace." One song on the album, "Nazis 1994," reached number 22 on the British singles chart earlier this year in advance of the LP. "A couple of these songs were written because I was angry about a particular subject," Taylor says. "I wanted in my own small way to say something because as musicians it's the only way we can express a personal point of view."

Fans who want ticket refunds for Woodstock '94 are getting the run-around, even though New York state Attorney General G. Oliver Koppell worked out an arragement for refunds with the concert's promoters. People who weren't able to get into the concert because of problems with shuttle buses or police roadblocks have been asked to obtain a refund form through a telephone hotline. But the hotline is an answering machine that says it's full. And concertgoers must send in their unused tickets and parking passes to obtain a refund. But promoters didn't tear the tickets of fans who did get in, to allow them to keep their tickets as souvenirs. (The hotline number to obtain a refund form is 212-333-6709.)

The Rolling Stones are playing two shows in October at the MGM Grand hotel and casino. The dates October 14 and 15 in the 13,050-seat arena will be the smallest on the band's three-month tour. The Stones recently added eight more concerts to their U.S. "Voodoo Lounge" tour, which opened in Washington, D.C., on August 1.

Blind Melon are opening for the Rolling Stones beginning the middle of this month in Denver and continuing through a show in Arnes, Iowa, on October 1. Bryan Adams will open for the Stones at seven shows in the southern United States in October and November.

At least 121 people were arrested at a concert featuring Black Sabbath and Kiss in Santiago, Chile. About ten people were injured as police and cars were pelted with bottles and stones thrown by fans who couldn't get tickets to the show.

Roger Daitrey says his solo album was supposed to have included vocals from Eddie Vedder of Pearl Jam, but Vedder didn't appear on the album. "I was told he couldn't be on the record because his record company said no. I don't believe Eddie Vedder would let a record company tell him to do anything. I know I wouldn't," Daltrey says. "Eddie had met all his heroes except us. We were the last ones, and he met us and the bubble burst. But he's a talented kid. If he didn't want to be on my record, he should have just told me."

Brian Ritchie of the Violent Femmes has been awarded full custody of his 9-year-old son Silas by a court in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Ricthie says his exwife had been giving herbal treatments to their son, who has cystic fibrosis, and refused to allow antibiotics, steroids or even a routine flu shot for the child.

Phil Collins has posed for photographs in Geneva, Switzerland, with Orianne Cevey, a Swiss heiress. He's told the British press that the 22-year-old is the new woman in his life.

The Red Hot Chili Peppers asked if they could appear on the PBS-TV program "Sesame Street," but the program's producers decided they "would not be appropriate." "We just don't feel they'd be suited to our audience," says Caroline Miller, spokeswoman for the Children's Television Workshop.

Rod Stewart and his wife, Rachel Hunter, have their second child a boy named Liam McAllister Stewart. The couple, married for four years, already have a 2 1/2year-old daughter.

Redd Kross played a concert in Los Angeles recently in conjunction with the release ten years ago of the film "Desperate Teenage Lovedolls," which features band members Steve and Jeff McDonald. The band has also covered "Yesterday Once More" for the upcoming Carpenters tribute album, "If I Were A Carpenter." The Carpenters album also features tracks by the Cranberries, Sonic Youth, Cracker, Sheryl Crow, Matthew Sweet, 4 Non Blondes, Babes In Toyland, Grant Lee Buffalo, Shonen Knife and Johnette Napolitano with Marc Moreland.

Rob Rule guitarist Robbie Allen is playing with the Red Hot Chili Peppers as they tour Europe. Allen will be back with Rob Rule in time for their tour opening for the Judybats.

Big Audio Dynamite are back as Big Audio when they release a new album in mid-October called "Higher Power." The last Big Audio Dynamite LP was 1991's "The Globe."

Sordid Humor have a posthumous release called "Light Music For Dying People" coming out later this month (on Capricorn Records). The band, which was together from 1987 through 1992, recorded the album beginning in 1990. Seven tracks on the LP were produced by Counting Crows guitarist Dave Bryson.

Harmonica player Corky Siegel has a new album out this month (on Alligator Records) called "Corky Siegel's Chamber Blues." The album is a mixture of blues plano and harmonica with classical string music.

London Suede release their second album in late October (on Columbia Records) called "dog man star." U.S. versions of the LP will include "Modern Boys," a track unavailable elsewhere. The LP was recorded before Bernard Butler left the band. New guitarists are being auditioned.

"Euro-Trash Girl," an unlisted track (number 69) on the Gracker album "Kerosene Hat," is the third and latest single from the LP.

The Brotherhood Of Lizards, a group that includes New Model Army bass player Nelson and singer-songwriter Martin Newell, release an album in October (on Long Play Records) called "Lizardland." Newell collaborated with Andy Partridge of XTC on an album released last year called "The Greatest Living Englishman." "Lizardland" was already released in Britain, but the U.S. version will include an additional song called "Carmosine" not included on the U.K. version.

Kate Bush's home video, "The Line, The Cross & The Curve," comes out in late October. It was inspired by the classic film "The Red Shoes."

Sepultura had to cancel the last ten dates of its U.S. tour with Pantera after vocalist and guitarist Max Cavalera required surgery on his right knee. He apparently pulled a ligament in his right leg when the band was playing the Castle Donington festival in England in early June. "The longer you wait to have this kind of operation, the longer it takes to recover," Cavalera says.

Keyboardist Kevin Moore has left Dream Theater in a parting described as "amicable." "Musically, I think my approach to writing has changed a lot in the past several years," Moore says. "It came to a point where my views were so different from the rest of the band that we were having trouble relating to each other's ideas." Jordan Rudess, who has played with Jan Hammer and the Oixie Oregs, will be filling in for Moore until a permanent replacement is found. The band has a new album coming out in early October called "Awake." Johnny Cash is recording a third album with the Highwaymen — Waylon Jennings, Kris Kristofferson and Willie Nelson. Don Was will oversee the album. "I think we're going to do it in L.A., but I'd like to do it in Nashville," Cash says. "I haven't talked to Willie yet. Waylon and I are talking about it every couple of days and sending each other songs. By the time we get into the studio we're going to know exactly what we're going to record." Cash is also planning to work on a new album this winter. "I do have another album of gospel songs recorded, songs that I performed with just the guitar, like the other American Recordings album. I'm not sure when Rick (Rubin) is going to release that. After I started working on this album I started writing a lot. I wrote three songs that are in the album."

Producer Mitch Easter has been playing dates with Velvet Crush. "When they asked me to do it, I told them that they had to give me some glamour," Easter says. "We took care of the flavour when we did the Japanese tour and 'The Conan O'Brian Show.' The stateside tour will be like working on a chain gang by comparison but that is fine. I have fun — and I need the practice." Easter produced the band's latest album, "Teenage Symphonies To Good." "The record is not all that complicated, but there is something special that comes through each song and performance," Easter says. "The twin gods of their music universe while making this record were Buck Owens & The Buckeroos and the Byrds. But there was also still plenty of their suburban white-boy power-pop roots on display."

Collective Soul's debut album "Hints Allegations & Things Left Unsaid" has been certified platinum for sales in excess of a million units.

Country bluesman Keb' Mo' is playing dates opening for John Mayall and the Subdudes this fall, as well as appearing at a number of blues and folk festivals. His self-titled album was produced by John Porter, who has worked with Roxy Music, Buddy Guy and the Smiths.

The Walter Trout Band has a new album, "Tellin' Stories," about to be released (on Silvertone Records). Trout had played with John Lee Hooker's band, Canned Heat and John Mayall's Bluesbreakers. "I guess I fit in somewhere between Stevie Ray Vaughan and Jeff Healey," Trout says.

Manchester, England, quintet Dasis, go on a short U.S. tour later this month in support of their current album "Definitely Maybe."

Ravi Shankar has a live album coming out this fall, recorded at the Royal Albert Hall in London.

New York hardcore band Sick Of It All release a new album next month (on Eastwest Records) called "Scratch The Surface."

Hank Williams Jr. sings the opening theme for "ABC Monday Night Football" this season, after a one-year absence. Williams has signed to open all the football broadcasts through the 1996-97 season. "Last year ABC decided that after four years, maybe it was time for a change and decided to do different themes with different artists each week," Williams says. "I guess a lot of fans started writing to the network asking about me."

Joe Cocker has a new album just about to be released, called "Have A Little Faith." It includes songs written by Robbie Robertson and John Sebastian.

Singer Jon Secada has denied a report by a news agency in Argentina that he praised Cuban President Fidel Castro during an interview. "Anyone who knows me and my family knows it's not true," Secada told the Miami Herald newspaper. "My father was in prison for three years for trying to leave Castro's Cuba. For me to say that is for me to slap my father in the face. And my father is the person I love the most in my life."

A woman dressed as a chicken tried to throw a pie in Kenny Rogers face during a concert in Elkhorn, Wisconsin. But Rogers' bodyguards wrestled the woman and a companion to the ground as they tried to get on stage at the Walworth County Fair. The two women said they were animal rights advocates upset that Rogers is a partner in Kenny Rogers Roasters, a chain of 165 roasted chicken restaurants. They were arrested and charged with disorderly conduct.

Honeymoon In Jazzland

By Jacqui Brown and Jesse Nash

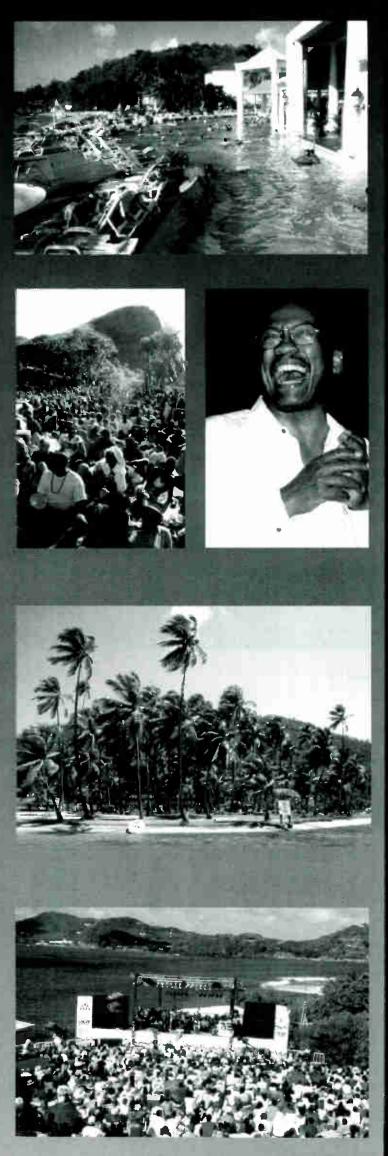

Ever wondered what it would be like to spend your honeymoon with George Benson, Herbie Hancock or Nancy Wilson? Well, not literally of course, but while you're agonizing over the site for that all important vacation, a worthy recommendation would be to check out what possible fest vals and events are going on in that chosen spot, so your plans won't go awry. In fact, it might well influence your decision.

Imagine, a short airplane flight away lies the beautiful Caribbean Islands. The Caribbean remains the number one destination for newly-weds and with good reason. Warm sunny days and cool summer nights are the norm, pretty much all year round. Set against a backdrop of luscious rainforests, pristine white sandy beaches, filled with happy fun loving residents, these islands have become the ideal location to melt away the stress, soothe the post-wedding jitters and provide romance with a little harmless madness and constant relaxation; key ingredients for any honeymoon.

An added bonus worth considering are the many jazz festivals dotted throughout the Caribbean. From the larger well organized St. Lucia Jazz Festival to the more intimate Curacao Jazz Festival, there is something for everyone, from Lionel Hampton to Maxi Priest.

If the lure of delicious local cuisine, coupled with spectacular scenery, and enhanced by some of the greatest jazz musicians alive today wasn't enough, we were truly surprised by some members of the audience for these events. At Pigeon Island's outdoor venue, guitarist George Benson played to hundreds of picnickers at the recent St. Lucia Jazz Festival which included the likes of singer songwriter Paul Simon, his wife Edie Brickell (of the New Bohemians) and Nobel prize winner for Literature, local resident Derrick Walcott. It seems Simon and Walcott were taking time out from their latest joint project, a musical headed for Broadway.

Later on, we caught up with Herbie Hancock in a rather mischievous mood. Some private performances were given far away from his sold-out concert appearance to entertain the honeymooners at Sandals, the Caribbeans premier couples-only all inclusive resort.

TJ BRYAN, WDHA, CEDAR KNOLLS

H.O.R.D.E. festival '94 wrapped up this weekend in New Jersey with a fabulous day of rock & roll under perfect skies. The Allmans, Blues Traveler, Big Head Todd and the Monsters, Dave Matthews Band, The Hatters. Cycmotogoat. Rusted Root, of course the soon-to-be-legendary SCREAMIN' CHEETAH WHEEL-IES, were all outstanding. Thanks to all the labels for your support on the show, and thanks to Harvey Leeds for taking home the leftover potato salad from the DHA BBQ tent!.. Thanks to Drew Murray, David Leach, and Maria Aronis from Mercury for inviting me to their label meetings and a special performance from Bon Jovi. The new tunes from the best-of are really good! Even the ballad, "Always," is a quality song. It's always a pleasure to chat with Jon about all things in New Jersey and more ... Milo Z also blew the roof the tent that night. Check this band out for a good dose of funk n' roll!.. Other bands to see: Rusted Root, The Hatters, Pete Droge, Hootie and the Blowfish and Blessed Chloroform See you at the Billboard/Monitor seminar. As always, it's been a business doing pleasure with you!

CATHY FAULKNER, KISW, SEATTLE

Every Labor Day weekend in Seattle, we have a festival called Bumbershoot where there are many stages, many bands, many cool things to buy, and many many people. KISW presented Joan Jett on the Bumbershoot Mainstage... incredible. My eternal thanks, respect and eternal friendship goes to Kenny Laguna for all his hard work in making this show, a reality. Have you really given Joan's record a shot?.. Our list is frozen this week.

PEG POLLARD, KIOZ, SAN DIEGO What a season for the "Hard Stuff". As I prepare myself (or at least try to) for Foundations Forum '94, I've got some really heavy music to crank. The new Danzig is awesome. Slayer rips and I love White Zombie's "Children Of The Grave" from Nativity In Black, the upcoming Sabbath tribute. Turn it up!.. Oh, and I love this too, a certain "baby" band I've been trumping in the trades lately came in last week for an interview. First, they dick around and miss the jock that was prepared for them. Then they arrive and immeidately comment on what horrible music we play (such as AC/DC and Judas Priest). Then they play live onair and scream "Fuck" in the middle of the song. And, of course, they were cocky and arrogant on-air. My question is this: can't we come up wiht a "Rock Star 101" course for these little idiot bands? At the very least I suggest you record reps always accompany your bands to a radio station interview you've set up. Make sure they are there for the correct shift and with the correct attitude. Hey, I'd rather have a no-show any day than a temperamental artist in a bitchy mood live on the air. That just makes everyone look bad. Please take this part of your job seriously. It could blow your relationship with the station. Most of you know damn well if you can't trust the road manager or the college rep, or the band!.. Thanks for letting me soundoff!.. See you at Foundations.

SYBIL MCGUIRE & PAT GALLAGER, WMMM, MADISON

"All Apologies" we're frozen this week to regroup/recover from the weekends' big deal; "The Taste Of Madison" went off with only one snafu (rain on Sunday)... Thanks to Atlantic artists, Billy Pilgrim, 22 Brides, Willy Porter (el sporto), Marques Bouvre & the Evil Twins, and Madisons' favorite Peter Himmelman. (Who gave us a "Second Chance" concert by jamming w/the Evil Twins for nearly an hour Sunday night after the Taste at a local club - 200 people had to be turned away!) No one who was there will ever forget the scorching version of "All Along The Watchtower"... We'll send pictures soon - Thanks to Jane Purcell (CD101 - Columbus) for all the help during her visit this weekend. Love to all.

GARI CALVERT, WVCR, HEAVY METAL DIRECTOR

I find it really hard to believe that many stations in my area as well as throughout the country are not on certain records. Granted, if a group sucks and it just doesn't work with your format, than you make the call, but if a group THE HARD REPORT smokes but you just have to much pride to "test" it out, then you suck!.. My picks that should be played everywhere but aren't: Stompbox - No Woods, Type 0 - Bloody Kisses, Fates Warning - Inside Out, Downset -Downset, Shootyz Groove - J.I.V.E. Give these a few spins and see what your listeners think. I bet you be suprised by the reation... I'm in L.A. 4 days after the Forum, so if you are trying to get ahold of me, leave a message. Andrea and I will be moving back to our respective homes, so I am planning on getting a beeper for your beckoning call (yeah, right)... Great shows up here in the next couple of months and weeks: Type 0, Life Of Agony, Propain-M.O.D.-Spudmonsters, Madball, Entombed-Pungent Stench.

IndustryComments

DAVE CIANCIO & SCOTT HAMMER, WDBM, EAST LANSING

Greed-ings and salivations! How is everyone? I'm sure most of you are at Foundations. You bastards. That's alright. because I found out this morning that I'm the lucky winner of the Sony Music/Sponge, Win A Trip To CMJ contest! Yes! Yes! Yes! I'm excited. Because I will not only aet to meet most of my favorite reps. but I aet to see cool bands like Marilyn Manson, Prong, Drown, Sponge and Stompbox! Talk about excitement ... You can't tell me that Marilyn Manson is not topping off your metal charts. This is the coolest thing to come out of Florida since Donald Duck Orange Juice. We are still getting big phones for Bile (you know, the ten piece noisemaker), and Machine Head... However, the coolest thing has recently found its way to my desk (actually it's an aluminum fold up tv tray) is the new Mighty Mighty Bosstones CD Question The Answers. It's not necessarily a "metal" album, but none the less it is damn fucking cool. These guys define Ska-Core. I would give anything to be able to hang out with those bearers of the almighty plaid suits... Another very cool thing I was able to check out was the S.F.W. Soundtrack. If you haven't yet, be sure t listen to the acoustic verion of "Just Like Suicide" by Chris Cornell and the new Monster Magnet tune "Negasonic Teenage Warhead". All you old Pink Eye's fanatics can come back out into the light and get it. The new Bad Religion album will do very well, as I see it. Is "intelligent, friendly but angry, punk rock"... Last week on our show, we played the death metal remix of Neil Diamond's "America" on our show. It received a huge, popular response. I have it if you would like to hear it, or just have me tell you about it... Other things we are listening to: Kyuss, Pro-Pain, M.O.D., Bodycount and of course the N.I.B. stuff. We have Sepultura, White Zombie and we can't wait!.. Until next week ... Ruh!

LARRY MAC, KUKQ, PHOENIX Body Count Rules! Ice-T has done it again with a very aggressive, angry song called "Born Dead." The "Q" Programming staff feels it is one of the best tracks of the year. Program Director Jonathan L says it's "the most powerful display of meaningful words that I've heard in a long time...the guitar riff at the beginning and the end of the song is something that I can NOT get out of my head. Honestly, I can't get it out of my head!"... Assistant MD Allison Strong is high on another RAP oriented band-Juster. "All the Club Jocks in town are pulling their hair out and scratching their heads trying to figure this band out," says Strong. I concur, this band is already showing a big buzz here in the Phoenix Area just on Airplay alone... Public Enemy is another band that we are getting good response too here at the Q... Beastie Boys and 311 are a couple other bands that are doing well in that genre. It seems to me that it shouldn't matter if the artist is black, white, brown or green, it it's a good song... IT'S A GOOD SONG ... We are playing the likes of P.E. and Rage Against The Machine, and House of Pain, and mixing it in with the Sisters Of Mercy, The Offspring, Pixies and Magnapop. We throw in a song from Lard, Metallica and Danzig for good measure. If it's a good song, It's a good song! As Jon L. says "It's a sound in my head that we all share here at the Q. The Boundaries of our little musical world are there, but it is always growing and challenging itself. So if you're wondering what type of stuff we play... It's not really Alternative in the Strictest sense of the word, nor is it

COR/ROAR/METAL. We are a combination of all of them. It's new music, it's a sound in Jon. L's head that we all share... So, if you got a record and you're not sure It's us, send it anyway, You may get suprised!.. Until next time...

JOHN LENAC, KEVIN KLINE, KTOZ FM, CHANNEL Z

Hi There, Did you have a nice weekend? Ours...Fine, thanks for asking. We started early Friday with a channel Z and Zima all-request Labor Day weekend. Thousands and thousands of callers, eager to get their voice and favorite song on the air, kept us extremely busy. Many of them won Zima prize packs which also included a copy of the new Sugar CD before it's retail release. Thanks to Michael Sylvia and Rykodisc for their help... Friday night was a sight for bored eyes. We had a party: What would you do for Nine Inch Nails Tickets and Backstage Passes?!!! All six hundred eves in the club were focused on the dance floor when we started the contest. We won't mention all of the crazy antics we experienced. The winner had someone tattoo Nine Inch Nails on the inside of his lip. His mouth wasn't the only one open that night!.. We spent our day-time hours at the U.F.O. festival. We sponsored this ultimate Frisbee tournament and outdoor extravaganza. It was two exciting days of Frisbee action and many games of Foot Bag... We'd also like to thank Happy Cloutier for stopping by.

DUG, WPUP, ATHENS

OK, I put the Gigolo Aunts back in active rotation insreda of the gold category they were in. I'm still going to list that I've been on them for something like a year though. I'm not going to let you forget that ... And who was saying MONTHS ago that Dave Matthews is great?. Who was playing Magnapop of of their demo in 1991?. R.E.M. is godlike... Moe Tucker is too. I like "Me Myself And I" and "I Wanna". Both tracks have Sterling Morrisson on them to satisfy that VU need... My new bedroom has holes in the door from where a latch was put so that you could lock it from the outside. Knowing the history of the apartment, I don't want to think about what might have been locked inside. That is an icky thought and I don't want it ... Sorry about all the faxes last week, but I was feeling very communicable. Why do I feel the chill of winter creeping in the windows? Moved vesterday. Now all of my wordly possessions are packed in a box and everything I want is on the bottom. The globe on my new room's light was defective. At least that's what I'll say during the lawsuit. After all, if that geezer can sue McDonald's for serving hot coffee and win a gazillion dollars, I should be able to sue for the glass breaking when I slammed the box springs into it. Shards of glass raining down all over me...looked like one of the opening bits of Akira (for you animefreaks), or one of the sequences from Kovaanisqaatsi (for those of you who think too much). Luckily I only got one small scratch. On my eyelid. Could have been worse. Could have been radial keratotamy, the home game. Somehow I think only other people who are legally blind will understand that. I was right ... No sleep this week... Too much caffeine causes migraines. You'll have to excuse me ... Pretty In Pink just came on. I have to sing along now...ok, we're clear until "dumbwaiter" or Sister Europe. I love shuffle ... Found my old Hugo Largo t-shirt while moving. Now if I could only find the Morris the Cat t-shirt I'd be happy ... Why does my brain insist on wasting space on a phone number I saw in a magazine 10 days ago when I can't even remember my best friends' numbers?.. My new address is 137 St. Andrews Ct. Everything else remains the same. For now. I'm going to go away now ... Dumbwaiters is on ..

MARK FISCHER, ATLANTIC RECORDS, 212-275-2085

Just got back from a Labor Day weekend full of great music. Stone Temple Pilots completed their first leg of their American tour as we see "Interstate Love Song" top the charts along with "Vasoline". "Purple" has remained in the Top 5 of sound scan for fourteen weeks, with over three million shipped at this point. And by the time you've read this they will have already performed on this years MTV Music Awards. Wow! That's a lot of stuff... I also had the pleasure of witnessing two spectacular shows by Collective Soul. This band has grown exponentially with one of its best weeks yet. Attracting such majors as KEGL and WRIF. You may remember the Atlantic motto "Why not play both?" Well guess what boys and girls, it definitely applies here. Why, you ask? Who was the artist who spent the most weeks at No. #1 in trade industry? What band has sold over 1 million ecords, and is currently getting MTV and VH-1 airplay on both of their rock tracks? Who, you ask? Collective Soul... If MTV, with as multi-formatted as they have to be can play both videos, there is no excuse not to play "Breathe" if you are still banging the shit out of "Shine". According to BDS, last week was the first time "Breathe" actually surpassed "Shine" in airplay. "Breathe" deserves at least half the time to develop that "Shine" got. With that logic applied, I'd say "Breathe" should have at least 12 weeks in heavy rotation on your play list ... Don't short step a group, one of the few groups radio can say they were totally responsible for

SCOTT DOUGLAS, VIRGIN, 212-332-0418

Compuserve: 72760.545. Prodigy: JDGF59A... On Compuserve: Go Virgin! Cowboys win! Sorry Steelers fans...the boys are back and Switz had the goods. Hey, Hey, You Got Me Rockin'...Rolling Stones. Time to focus on the biggest reaction track the Stones have seen in years. ("Love Is Strong" continues to garner good call-out research between your airplay and heavy saturation on other media...including this week's MTV Music Awards.)... By the time this gets ink, the Stones will have rocked Radio City Music Hall (along with labelmates, Smashing Pumpkins) !!! "You Got Me Rockin" seems to be getting the calls. Sales are blowing out, the CD climbs back to 11 on the Billboard Hot 100 LP chart... Gilby Clarke starts touring solo when he returns from Europe in a couple of weeks. "Cure Me Or Kill Me" has broken into the teens on all airplay charts with excellent call-out research at the early stations...KBPI, WAXQ, WXTB are all reporting strong call-out... Plus, we've got the top 5 phone stories. Don't mistake this tune for just a night record or for just ROAR stations. It chews you up and spits you out. Play good music... See you at the Billboard/ Airplay Monitor shindig this weekend ... Then it's vacation time.

CHRIS WOLTMAN, COLUMBIA

Well, now you know that Pink Floyd's "High Hopes" is turning out to be a classic track from the band - the chart moves are amazing, the requests are picking up and the climb tot he top is well underway ... Toad the Wet Sproket's "Something Always Wrong" is out for the official reports next week...We have over 20 early believers that are up and running with this track and the reaction has been great. Steve Perry is preparing to hit the road this fall...Word is the band kicks ass and the show will combine Steve's solo material as well as music from Journey. We are going for "Young Hearts" this week. We have some amazing music on the way the next few months including Soul Asylum from The Clerks Soundtrack, White Zombie's version of "Children of the Grave" from the Black Sabbath Tribute record, new music from Bob Dylan that sounds great, Eddie Money, and an amazing new track from a new band Fat Tuesday ... Also get ready for Corrosion of Conformity...their day is comina!

MICHAEL J. SCHNAPP, EMI RECORDS, 212-492-1812

EMI ROCKS...all you rock dogs...look in your mail slot for the EMI ROCKS Sampler Tape. It's pink and green, so you shouldn't miss it. If you're out at Foundations, look for it in the freebie goody bag. On this here tape, you'll find current and upcoming EMI Music from Butt Trumpet, D Generation, Moist, Mutha's Day Out and Bloodline... Listen to it and love it!

Dave Lombardi, Warner Bros. Records Yet another wacky thing developed here this week, even though the week was a whole day shorter, thereby limiting the potential for hijinx...or so it seemed. As Americans, I think we're getting accustomed to NOT getting more for our money, or more than what we asked for. With that in mind, we planned to back up our direct R.E.M. servicing this week (the one scheduled to leave our local reps' hands on Tues. and wind up in yours on Wed.), as usual, with a warehouse mailing. With the holiday and all, it was calculated that we could FedX packages with Economy 2-day service (2 regular business days, not counting weekends and holidays) to arrive at radio Wed. afternoon. Except FedX's policy guarantees delivery within those two business days, not necessarily on the second day. So, those busy beavers at FedX went about their customer pleasing business and delivered a whole bunch of R.E.M. pro-CDs to a whole bunch of radio stations at a whole bunch of formats, only A WHOLE DAY EARLY, and our first day back was not spent sharing vacation stories but was, in fact, spent calling radio and apologizing and explaining why your competition got this new song and you didn't. Thankfully, we got it to everybody who needed it (in some cases reps flew out-of-market for SAME-DAY-SERVICE-let's see FedX do that!), but we've come up with a new plan for the future, regarding hot, new WB releases (like Tom Petty, Van Halen, Chili Peps & GooGoo Dolls), that should assure everyone gets them when the want'em: you can pick them up yourself from your closest WB rep!.. See you in NYC at the Billboard/Monitor Confab (no, we're not upset with BDS); gods child plays Sat. nite at CBGB'sbe there at 10:30 ... I will be, but now I'm out.

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic, 212-275-2135 How "LOW" can you go?!?

MARK ABRAMSON, ROADRUNNER RECORDS, 212-219-0077 x207

So, before I went to Florida on my whirlwind tour of the southeast I saw the most original movie to surface in years - Natural Born Killers. In a word - intense (with a soundtrack to match!) Woody Harrelson - serious? You bet your ass!.. Thanks to all those for your presence and hospitality in Fla. What was I in the sunshine state for? Why, Type O Negative, of course! A monstrous show in Tampa and a show so full in Ft. Myers that the police shut it down! This record is real! For all of you who thought that myself and this record would just roll over and die - forget it! This is a true reaction record that works, researches and sells (just ask WXTB, WMMS, KEGL and countless others!) Many of you claim that it's not what you are looking for, well, I'm sorry that I'm offering something fresh and exciting rather than a single rehashing todays trends! I don't mean to offend/attacjk anybody but you can't deny wha this band is doing! Don't let the originality scare you away!.. Black Train Jack is starting out their attack on rock radio (KIOZ has already seen the light and added into medium). Check it out and you will find a band so completely in tune with whats happening today that it will seem a natural add. Check it out... I'm coming to you and I won't go away ... (and no, I wasn't at Foundations).

JOHN PERONE, TVT-WAX TRAX RECORDS, 212-979-6410

School is back and the big question is, "What are your office hours?" Answer: "I not sure, yet!" Well when you find out give me a call! Cool stuff happening here at TVT.. The Connells have a new one which you should have by now. New Boy is a compilation of some live tracks, new stuff and a cover of 'Living In The Past'. Add date is September 12th. They'll be on the road starting the first week of September... Get ready for the great debut full length from Catherine. The band just got off the road with such acts as Dig, The Meices, and Chainsaw Kittens. They'll be hitting the midwest in the middle of September with dates in Milwaukee(9/16, Ames(9/17), Madison(9/18). The record, Sorry will be at your station in October, but split 7" with Starchildren will wet your whistle in 2-3 weeks ... Underworld dubnobasswithmyheadman is a #2 RPM record, this means people like it and it is the best that is out there, so why are people not playing it in there so-called "normal rotation"? People say, "The songs are too long." Hey, your college radio, there is no such thing as a song being too long. Get with it! Check out 'Dirty Epic' and 'Cowgirl'... Coming: D*Note, Chris Connelly, KMFDM!!

DAVE MAC, GUITAR RECORDINGS, 914-935-5241

He doesn't drink. Won't smoke (his guitar might, though). Not time for drugs. Father of 8. Donated memorablia to the National Library of Canada the represents every event in the man's distinguished career in the music industry. The National Library had to add a new room to the building. This wiley veteran of the rock and roll business has been takin' care of it for 35 years, building a monumental fortress brick by brick. Each brick a raw chunk of marble, limestone, sandstone and shale; each brick a ouitar sound that can't be removed. A lyrical turn that won't be forgotten. A sound. As important to Rock radio as Niagra Falls is to Rand Mcnally and the Department of Tourism. His past is our present. This classic participant in your Gold category has just released the first CD-pro to AOR, AAA and Classic radio, promoting his new record, "Any Road". Guess who? Randy Bachman. "Any Road" is quite simply, one of the baddest ass-kickingest artistic achievments this artist has ever been party to create. "Overworked and Underpaid" is a drop-kick, no-brainer for Skynyrd-prone AOR's looking to relate to their audience. "It's Only Money" is dead-on, tailor-made monster for AAA. Randy was takin' care of business in the 70's. In 1994, it's your turn. Here are the tools. Adds on 9/13. Choose your weapon.

LINNEA NAN, WARNER/REPRISE METAL, 818-953-3692

SUE STILLWAGON, ZOO ENTERTAINMENT, (213) 468-4225

September 7, 7:40 AM. Hello to Linda. I'm glad everything at Capitol is wonderful. Thanks for reading. Hockey pre-season to begin on Sunday the 11th. Anyone that knows me can see the glow through the words... Killing Joke is now top 10. I said everything is just around the corner so I guess is top 5. Hugs & kisses. I love you all... Beware of Mrs. Lindros and her stick. She can cause trouble on the Jersey shore... Samantha Fox a bornagain Christian? I am sooo sure!.. Congrats to Chrisby. You will shine... Killing Joke is glowing bright. All you have to do is open the refrigerator door.

WAYNE PIGHINI, ATLANTIC PROGRESSIVE MARKETING (212) 275-2112

Week one of the fantasy football season is over and I must thank the Dallas Cowboys defense for keeping me in the game. Anyway, the summer is unofficially over but our work at Atlantic has just begun... Bad Religion in stores this very minute. Stranger Than Fiction is all over the place and the buzz grows a little more every day ... Samiam appearing with Green Day in Clevland in front of over 18,000 people. If this isn't enough to open a few eyes, then I don't know what is ... The new Liz Phair is called Whip Smart and will be out on September 20th. How huge will this record be? Well, all fingers point towards an absolutely massive release from this cutting edge artist... New Testament, Victoria Williams, and Daniel Johnston on the way as well... Oh. I forgot to mention that the Unledded project (featuring Jimmy Page and Robert Plant) has been recorded and will be released soon.

DARREN MARANI, NAT. MANAGER MECHANIC/FUTURIST (212) 226-7272

Sometime Sweet Susan was the number five most added record!! Now let's make it a top 5 record. The single "Kendall" has been doing great so far, so for those of you that haven't touched this, you are missing the ball. The POINT EP contains 5 songs but it's almost forty min. long!!! So don't give me some lame excuse like "we're waiting for the full length."... You should be adding the Dangerous Inventions now!! It features Xanax 25, Very Pleasant Neighbor, Geezer Lake, Fin and more... Seed have just been added to MTV's Alternative Nation and played live on 120 minutes. This band will be huge!.. The Beatfarmers are selling like mad. You must have a sense of humor to play their latest "Viking Lullabys."... Some of you will get to sample The Rake's progress with their 7" for "You Must Be On Drugs" & "Annie." Expect the cd really soon. The first single is "I'll Talk My Way Out Of This One." It goes for adds on 9/26, 9/27... Splatter (formally Elvis Hitler) arise with their single "Smurf." I dare you to add it... Look out for some great releases, including the CBGB's Project, The Cramps and Big Head Todds newest...

TOM GATES, ROADRUNNER, 212-219-0077

Holy Music Conventions Batman! Give me a ring if you're planning to be in town over the next few weeks, especially if you'd like to play the "escape the convention" game with me for a day... I hope that everyone is taking notice of Black Train Jack's "Handouts". An October/November tour is 99% confirmed and we're currently setting up some pre-tour dates (need a band for your Halloween/Octoberfest type party?). "Handouts" is proving itself to be a big winner and block shows are already jumping on "The Struggle", a song that Jonathan L. has been screaming about for six months... Check out our bands at CMJ! 9/21, Wednedsay - Kevin Salem at Tramps Cafe & Lazy at Brownies, 9/22, Thursday - Buzzover, Karma To Burn, Thorn at TILT.

GREG DERBAS, PAVEMENT MUSIC, 708-916-1155

The responses are flooding in. Headlock kicks ass! There is no other way to put it. You have their latest "It Found Me", so play th crap out of the first single, "One Unconscious Deed". Add it now. That's right, today is the day, so take care of business. Currently on tour overseas with M.O.D. They will tour the states in October, but those who can't wait can check them out at CMJ Sat. Sept. 24th... Scatterbrain is coming your way. You will have this disc this week. Now i know you'll want to add it right away, but you should wait till the 19th. That's right the madness begins with your add Sept. 19th with their single "Beer Muscles", off the latest the Scattered ones, "Mundus Intellectualis"... Feel like some Swedish delight. Well B-Thong will take it and ram it down your throat. Their debut disc, Skinned, has already been raging overseas. They will be coming your way Oct. 3rd. Thats about all for now, hope you all had fun at Foundations, see ya soon at CMJ, and CALL ME!

JOHN BUTLER, SILVERTONE RECORDS, 212-620-8798

A buzz has been coming back to me for two weeks now regarding our guitar phenom Chris Duarte. Triple A loves this guy! Where else are you going to get that Texan shuffle and guitar that spits out your speakers like burning sticks in an Austin barbeque. If you haven't spun the Chris Duarte Group's EP for your audience yet, you are missing an awesome artist development story happening right under your nose. Get on board this train cause seats are going quick. Try "Letter To My Girlfriend" and "My Way Down" for starters... Buddy Guy's new album sounds fantastic and we couldn't be happier about what this record will mean to our programming friends at Progressive and AOR... Things to listen to this week: Jeff Buckley!

MARNI HALPERN, ROADRUNNER RECORDS, 212-219-0077

Well, in about five hours I will be on a plane out to Foundations. As some of you know, I am a neurotic freak when it comes to getting on a plane. This time I will be brave and not take Valium, or use the plane phone while taking off screaming 'get me off this thing!' (Mike Rittberg was the lucky one who I harassed last year). What are friends for!.. Well, for those coming back from summer vacation, we got a lot of new music out. Call me and we shall chat... Machine Head are sellling many records, shooting up all the charts and receiving listener repsonse like it's going out of style. If you're not on their single "Davidian" yet, you're way out of hand!.. Everyone is bowing down to Dbituary's fourth release World Demise. Keep spinning "Don't Care", and then when I return from LA we'll talk new tracks... Their tour with Machine Head and Napalm Death is doing great. However, the last date of the tour is September 18 in NYC, then the Obituary boys are off to Europe until January. Machine Head will continue here in the states with Napalm... Madball will be back soon with a northeast tour, Buzzov-en will be playing CMJ and Kirk (singer) will be on the artist panel... There are some serious tour plans for Type O Negative and Dog Eat Dog are in Europe becoming huge... Front Line Assembly's new release Millennium will be on your desks by the end of September... It's just a fabulous thing to be working all these bands as well as to be at your every beckon call... G-bye!

MICHELLE KRUPKIN, VANGUARD RECORDS, 310-451-5727

Hey all you Triple A people! Paul Kelly "Wasted Man" is on your desks now and going for adds September 12th. Word of mouth has it that this is going to be a big record. This release already has tons of excitement regarding adds next week. The pack of early believers is led by Brad at KTAO who is the self-proclaimed biggest Paul Kelly fan in the world Also soon to be on the record is Mike at FM101.9 (the new KSCA!). Tracks to key in on are #3 "She's Rare", #4 "Just Like Animals", #6 "Song From The Sixteenth Floor", #2 "God's Hotel" and #8 "Ball And Chain". These songs all have a great sound. This is his first release without his well known band The Messenaers but with tons of areat quests such as Nick Cave and Randy Jacobs of Was (Not Was). Look for US tour dates as soon as Paul returns from his Aussie tour in October ... If you don't have this release (and you should!) you know the number.

MEG MACRAE, EARACHE RECORDS, 212-343-9090

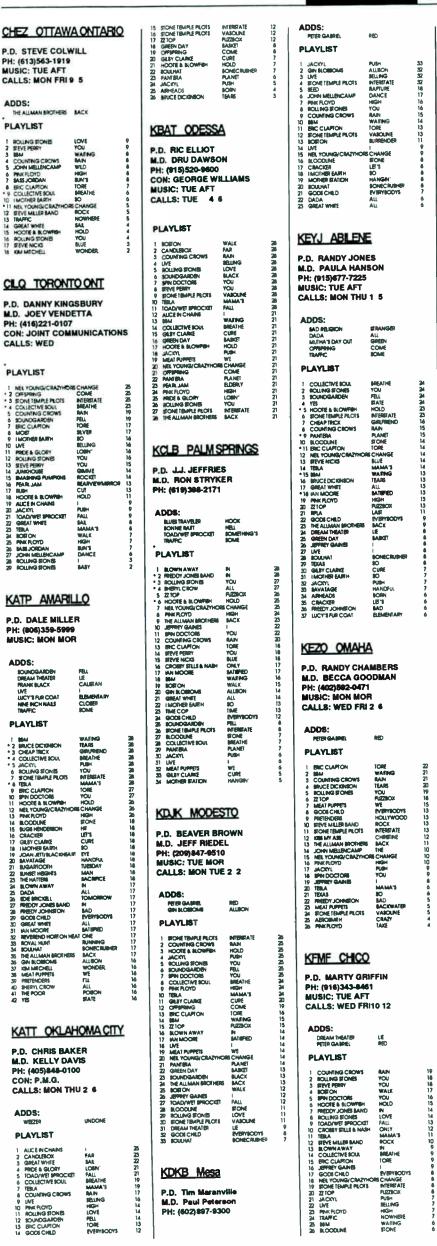

Howdy all! Just some quick things before we leave for Foundations. Yes, I know it's "unbelivable", but I'm gonna ask you to add another A.C. track, so do this for me - add Anal Cunt's cover of EMF's "Unbelivable" puhleeze! Add dates are 9/19 & 9/20. This record's definitely still kickin! Seth-n-the-rest o' the A.C. gents will be doing a CMJ show 9/22 at Tilt with my fellow Southern boys Buzzov-en. Seth will also be on the Artist's Panel on Fri. (There will be another A.C. show before CMJ at Wetlands on the 12th with the Mentors and the Murder Junkies - R.I.P., G.G. - just in time for our return from LA but that'll be over by the time this is in print)... Seth will be in house and available for interviews, i.d's and general verbal assault on Thurs. 22nd and Fri. 23rd. Please give me a call if you're game ... Special thanx to Sean at WRBC, Christine at KSJS, and Jesse from WRCT becuz you guys rule nad you know why!.. Brutal Truth have been doing some shows around the area, preppin' up for their October release "Need To Control" ... Also new Fudge Tunnel comin' to va in Oct. These two records rule! Trust me. Gots ta run...stay evil!

GARY JAY, CODE NAME: SVEN, AIM MARKETING, (908) 679-9111

Badder than the funk emanating from Tommy Delaney's sneakers, it's the debut LP from Wool entitled Box Set. Smart programmers have already let their DJ's air tracks from the vinyl, the CD has arrived, let's start playing it! This bands ties to such heavyweights as The Scream, Nirvana, and Drive Like Jehu (who rule) make for a great conversation, but let's not base our opinions on street cred, the music here is the clincher, please give Box Set your undivided attention and turn your listeners onto something very new and very special... Bad Religion's Stranger Than Fiction makes smart programming sense, it the success of Green Day and Offspring is the impetus, then so be it, but Bad Religion are the granddaddies of them all. This band's been producing top-notch records for years, Stranger Than Fiction is loaded with radiofriendly winners, dig into the CD and see for yourself ... Dig this...the 1994 CMJ Marathon will feature performances by: Wool, The Goats, Janet Speaks French, Scratch, Melting Hopefuls, Orangutang and many more...call for details!...Outta here like Vladamir, thanks for your ear.

DENNIS CONSTANTINE & JASON PARKER CONSTANTINE CONSULTING, 303-440-5470

Here's a story from KIOT in Santa Fe/Albuquerque. This past week a bear wandered down from the mountains into the city of Santa Fe. Officials were called, but it seems that the city of Santa Fe only has one tranquilizer gun, and it was in the back if a truck of one of the Park Rangers who couldn't be reached. So, Rangers showed up and shot and killed the bear. Local citizens were outraged, as were Mickie and Joe of the KIOT morning show. They got on the air and told listeners that they would match, dollarfor-dollar, every donation that listeners gave to buy the cities new tranquiliaer equipment. The press ate the story, with two huge stories in both the Santa Fe and Albuquerque papers. The television stations all covered the story, and one station, Channel 13, devoted two minutes to the story. TV cameras were in the studio with the outraged morning show. It was radio at its best. Congradulations to the folks at the Coyote for localizing and being involved in their community... Peter Gabriel is set to release his second live album, entitled Peter Gabriel Secret World Live (Geffen). These new live versions (three from Us and one from So) will give your Gabriel catalog a fresh sound ... Maria Muldaur's last album brought her back into the public eye with it's New Orleans sound. Her new one, called Meet Me At Midnight (Black Top), is a great follow-up, as Maria stays in the funky groove... Capitol Records has released a wonderful tribute album, Beat The Repeat. It features some of today's great artists covering the songs of Richard Thompson. Check out Bonnie Raitt, R.E.M., Los Lobos, and June Tabor. This collection of songs should get great reaction!.. Widespread Panic is ready for widespread acceptance. Ain't Life Grand (Capricorn) is decidedly harder than their previous efforts, with crunchy guitar and gritty vocals ... You should have received a sampler from Johnny Clegg and Savuka's forthcoming album on Rythm Safari Records in your Gavin bag at the Summit. South Africa's voice of conscience is in top form of these cuts. Magic Dick & Jay Geils proved that can get blue with the best of 'em during their show at the Fow Theater. The band is tight and the Chicago sound is there... Luscious Jackson is not generally considered a AAA band, but that's what makes their new album so exciting. Many of the tracks on Natural Ingredients (Captiol) will fit in with our electric sound. Give this one a try and see what the reaction is. It's hard to imagine playing the Carpenters on AAA radio, but the tribute album, If I Were A Carpenter (A&M), does have some redeeming qualities. Try Sonic Youth and Cracker. Hey, guess what-many of your listeners were 14 years old when the Carpenters were being played on the radio... Speaking of voices from the past, Joe Cocker has switched labels and released a new album, Have a Little Faith (550). He covers some of the best contemporary songwriters in the distinctive Cocker style ... Pat MacDonald and Barbara K, better known as Timbuk 3, are back with a new label, and an album called A Hundred Lovers (High Street). There was a six track sampler in your Gavin bag... The Chris Duarte Group is another fine band out of Austin, Texas. With a sound much like Stevie Ray's, it's clear they must be hot live... 5 Days in July (Discovery) is the most country sounding album yet from Canada's Blue Rodeo. This is perfect crossover music for AAA The country debate was tossed around a bit in Boulder. Here's a chance to test the theory... Single Gun Theory is an intriguing ambient pop band from Australia. "Fall" is the single from their new release Flow ... River of My Soul (IRS), and grabbed us on our first listen. It should sound great on the air, and add a little spice to your playlist ... Jim Trapp alerted us to the band Nine Below Zero. Their album Hot Music For A Cold Night (IRS) contains a great song. Written and performed with Glen Tilbrook for Squeeze, "Hangman in the Sand" blends the Squeeze sound with a blues feel to create some top notch music. Be sure not to miss this one... Best Line at the A3 summit Jim Lauderdale during his set in the A3 Late Nite Lounge. "These are the folks that put the 'Trip' into Triple-A.
