Coldwater Flat, "Magnetic North Pole," MCA

What do Dinosaur Jr., Belly, The Lemonheads, Julianna Hatfield, Billy Bragg, Buffalo Tom, Throwing Muses and Radio Head have in common? They all recorded their career-making music at Boston-based Fort Apache Studios. Recognizing the studio's track record, MCA has entered into an agreement with Fort Apache, and Coldwater Flat is the first "new" band from the association. This particular song, to front the forthcoming album, is contained on the Welcome To Fort Apache compilation disc, already garnering nice alternative action. This is a major score for MCA, with the studio really without peers in terms of street cred and results at the register. Obviously, MCA is poised to reap major multi-format benefits. We think this high-charged, attitudinal track is the perfect calling card. A timely, hooky track, with all the guitar driven-edge any mainstream rock station could ask for. Barely out and already on WBCN, WAAF, WBZX, and KTYD.

HARD ACTS TO FOLLOW

Megadeth, "A Tout Le Monde," Capitol

Any student of the band will tell you they've matured over the last two records, and this will be the track to totally take Megadeth out of the speed metal perception league. It's been on the air since November at KILO, with Rich Hawk updating, "It's an all day-part song, very listenable. I've even had 40 year old women commenting on us playing that song, which is amazing for Megadeth"... KLOS was also an early add, with Carey Curelop commenting, "Musically, I like that it's a little different than most of our current material, and I particularly like the texture of the record"... As well as "Train" did mainstream, it also came out of the box hard enough to keep core fans happy, and that particular crossover is no small feat. Now the even greater challenge is to fully establish Mustaine and Megadeth as songwriters. But, as Dave Downey noted this week, you'll actually see fans flicking their bics to this tune in concert, the first time that's ever happened. Factor in brainwash rotation at MTV, and Dave Letterman's unflagging support, and it's not hard to predict more play than Megadeth has ever enjoyed.

Bad Religion, "Infected," Atlantic

The Hard Hundred heats up 91-72", but the read on this track is really much stronger than that might indicate. Frinstance, this from Carey Curelop, "We went on it early because we like the song and they're L.A. guys, but what we've got now is a huge Top 5 researching record for us"... One of my favorite quotes this week from Steve Robertson at WJRR, "The first track was no slackard, and this one seems just as good if not better. A great sing-along tune, and I don't mean that in a stupid, sarcastic way"... From Rich at KILO, "I think it's a hit. It's hooky, it rocks, it sounds '90s and it requests well". KSJO, WSHE, and three more add, with 15 increases: KLOS, WBCN, WBZX, WRIF included. This one's just now getting out of the blocks.

MORE... HARD ACTS TO FOLLOW

Green Jelly, "Jump," Zoo

Yeah, Ray Grainer and Zoo have their work cut out in convincing radio that any Green Jelly track merits serious consideration as music and not kitsch. That's why they took blank copies out on the road for a blank taste test. And how did radio react? Q104.3's Vinnie Marino responded, "Hey, I can play this. It could be a Seattle band, and it fits in with everything else. Good record"... Up the road a few miles, WCCC's Todd Heft agreed, "I was surprised it wasn't stupid. I think it's absolutely competitive"... WBZ's Rick Church adds, "My vibe is they just kind of decided to take themselves seriously for a minute and produced a great song, not the usual hokey stuff. This is a serious music effort and it sounds good"... Now, if they could only come up with an idea for a clever video...

Corrosion of Conformity, "Clean My Wounds," Columbia

Rocky's gonna roll this record, and radio's happy to get in line. 19 early adds kick in, with 19 increases to match, and plenty of nice early action: KILO 17-25, WAXQ 23-29, WKLQ 1-13, WRIF 1-10, WXTB 15-14, WBZ 16-23, to name a few. KISW was one of the first on board, with Cathy Faulkner reporting on her station's twin spin, "This record is doing really well here. The two songs are completely different, but both are giving high phone activity"... From Doug Podell at WRIF, "It's my pick right now. For me, it's reminiscent of the great Thin Lizzy rock stuff, with an infectious hook that just screams 'Motor City Rock And Roll!'"... Up 74-53* on the Hard Hundred, 33-27* COR.

Flaming Lips, "She Don't Use Jelly," WB

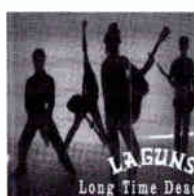

Not an easy fit at many stations, we realize, but at station after station, initial programmer trepidation faded in the face of surprisingly wide demo phone response. As WCCC's Todd Heft told us, "I personally didn't have a lot of faith at first, but now I've been converted. We're still getting a lot of phones"... Nothing phony about the week: 17 total, led by WHJY, KATT, KISS, WDHA, WDIZ, WEBN, and WUFX. Ditto the 24 station increase count, with KICT, WBCN, WIOT, WIXV, WNEW, WTPA and WZZQ among those upping. Now on 60 Hard reporters, with a corresponding 57-48* chart move.

Spell, "Superstar," Island

Not exactly for the faint of heart either, Spell's insidious little hook continues to build a solid new believer file. KILO, KNCN, KZOZ, WCCC, WXRC and WZMT hit it this week, with KISW jumping 11-15, KLOS up 6-9, WKLQ 10-12, and a dozen more increases in all. Now on 31 reporters, moving 87-71* on the Hundred. From Rick Church at WKQZ, "It really grows on your after a couple of days. Nice curiosity calls"...

L.A. Guns, "Long Time Dead," A&M

Not really back from the dead, the Guns grab a healthy add week right on cue. Let's just say they've been at the barber for a few years. KISS, KSJO, KZRX, WKLL, WTUE and KFMZ join the party, with KIOZ, WBTZ, KILO, KIBZ, and two more upping the spins. Naturally, COR leads, with a 50-41* advance, while mainstream moves it 89-75*.

Chris Duarte, "My Way Down," Silvertone

As direct and edgy as this song sounds on first listen, the real hook is really more time delayed. It's a record you hear a day later, and that's when this project really makes sense. On the other hand, listeners in Fort Wayne didn't need much time. Rick West updates, "Chris has already gotten phones after only a couple of days. We have great hopes for this record"... WCMF was also a very early add, with Dave Kane commenting, "That's my new favorite. We get a couple of calls every time we play it. He's a slinger"...

New at KEZE, KISS, KJKJ, KJOT, WXKE, and WZNF, with KEZO, KLBJ, KNCN, and WHMH increasing. Now on 27 stations, and lookin' good at 62* on the Hard Hundred.

Bill Hard & Lisa Riegel

THE WORK BEGINS FOR SR. VP BAUMGARTNER

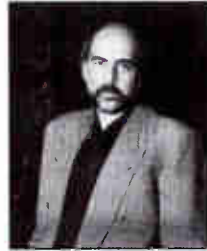

Burt Baumgartner

Co-Presidents Jeff Ayeroff and Jordan Harris unveiled the name of their new Columbia Records Group label, The Work Group. Work's initial artist roster includes Chris Whitley, Terence Trent D'Arby, Sponge, Youssou N'Dour, Ned's Atomic Dustbin, among others. "The caliber of our roster accurately reflects the depth, diversity, and philosophy behind Work," stated Ayeroff and Harris. "We believe in a creative environment for artists with their own vision, their own sound, and their own place in the world. We're here to help them get there. To create a full service label from scratch with artists we respect is not 'work,' it's a pleasure. We're also here to be a West Coast home for Columbia and Work artists to attract talent based on the West Coast." Ayeroff and Harris also announced the appointment of Burt Baumgartner as Sr. VP/Promotion for Work. Baumgartner is a 17-year Columbia veteran, where he most recently served as Sr. VP/Promotion. "Bringing Burt Baumgartner on board as head of promotion is the best indication of the commitment to our artists that defines work," commented the Co-Presidents. "Burt's remarkable achievement during his 17-year run at Columbia will remain the record to beat for promotion executives on both coasts. The East Coast may be losing one of its favorite executives, but the West Coast has won back a native son. We're fortunate to have Burt home again, and we look forward to a prosperous future with him overseeing our promotion activities." Columbia Group Chairman Don Jenner remarked, "I thought long and hard about what Burt's shift to Work would mean, and decided that it was not only in the new label's best interest, but it would also allow key members of the Columbia promotion team that Burt developed to continue their individual career growth as they took on increased responsibilities at Columbia. Burt has contributed greatly to the success of Columbia Records, and his appointment to this key position at Work is important to his continued growth as an executive and a record man. He helped re-define Columbia in the '90s, and as he helps establish Work, Burt's advancement will only continue." Commenting on his appointment, Baumgartner said, "After 17 incredible years at Columbia, I'm looking forward to taking the benefits of that experience with me to this exciting new venture with Jeff and Jordan. Don Jenner has been the best teacher a record man could have, and I'm more than ready to use what I've learned to make Work the artist label of the 90s and beyond."

DOBBIS MOVES TO PLG CONTINENTAL EUROPE

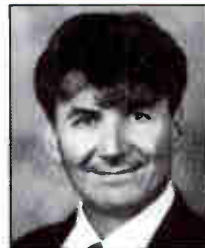

Rick Dobbis

Former PolyGram Label Group President Rick Dobbis is the new President of PLG Continental Europe, reporting to Alain Levy, PLG's President & CEO. "I am extremely pleased to have an executive of Rick's calibre handle the responsibility of such a big part of PolyGram's activities," said Levy. "His music experience combined with his overall business capabilities make him ideally suited to this role at a time when our Continental European companies are poised for growth in their core business as well as in movies and other entertainment activities. His US commercial background linked to his affinity for European cultures will I'm sure be very beneficial to PolyGram." Dobbis was President of PLG from its inception in December 1990. Prior to joining PolyGram, he was an Executive VP & GM for RCA for four years, and before that, spent eight years with Arista. Dobbis commented on his appointment, "Europe is evolving in ways that will profoundly affect how entertainment companies will do business. Frontiers are changing rapidly as globalization and technical innovation challenge the old order. I am aggressively working to learn about all the European markets and at the same time I believe my US experience will bring something fresh to PolyGram here. Personally, this assignment is a fantastic opportunity for me to work from a new vantage point, with great people, for a market leader which is also expanding into new areas of business."

JOHN KNAPP NABS PD POST

John Knapp

John Knapp has been named Program Director of Liberty Broadcasting's Modern Rock station in Hartford, WYSR. Knapp previously served as National Director of Alternative Promotion for Sony 550 Music, and prior to that, he was the Assistant PD at WIYY/Baltimore. WYSR VP/GM Al Pellegrino commented, "We're excited about having John come aboard. His passion for the music and desire to win will manifest itself into great success for the New 104." WYSR flipped to Modern Rock late last year and has been running jockless under the watchful eye of sister station WHFS. The first order of business for

Knapp will be the hiring of a staff. "This is a great opportunity to work with Mike Craven and Jim Thompson's fast-growing Liberty Group," said Knapp. "It's going to be a lot of fun bringing Modern Rock to Connecticut. This is a homecoming of sorts for me. My family has Pilgrim friends from these parts."

ISLAND SECURES PROMOTION APPOINTMENTS

Dave Ross

John Sigler

Ed Green

Kyle Wong

The official announcements from Island VP/Promotion Sky Daniels arrived this week with several appointments in the label's promotion department. As we previously reported in Noise, Dave Ross has been elevated to VP/AOR Promotion. Since 1992, has been National AOR director at PLG. Prior to joining PLG, Ross held similar positions at Chrysalis and American Records. Also named to Island's AOR team is John Sigler, who was appointed Sr. Director of National AOR Promotion. Sigler previously spent three year as head of rock and alternative promotion at Giant, and prior to that, worked at RCA in NYC. "Dave Ross has proven to be an insightful and determined executive for Island," commented Daniels. "Dave has had former experience running a department, so this transition is clearly warranted. Likewise, John Sigler was formerly a department head, so he provides exceptional depth in this area." In the CHR and Crossover area, Ed Green has been appointed Associate Director of CHR Promotion. Green formerly served as local promotion manager in the Baltimore/D.C. area for PLG, a position he held for one year. Prior to that, he served in a similar capacity at Geffen/DGC. Marthe Reynolds has been named National Director Crossover Promotion. She most recently performed similar duties at Island Independent Labels. On the college and alternative front, Kyle Wong was promoted to National Director, College and Alternative Radio Promotion. Wong had been PLG's Associate Director, College and Alternative Promotion. Tina Dunn has also been promoted to Associate Director, National Video Promotion. She began her career in 1989 at Island as a Video Promotion Assistant. Wong and Dunn will both report to VP/Alternative & Video Promotion Steve Leeds. "Ed Green is a young potential superstar, and Marthe Reynolds brings an acute focus to an area of increasing importance to Island," stated Daniels. "With our commitment to cutting-edge artists, Kyle Wong's role is greatly accentuated. And Tina has proven to be an important part of the promotion staff since her arrival. With this team in place, Island will continue to nurture the development of a broad scope of artists. These talented executives are dedicated to this task.

BMG SHAKES UP RCA & ZOO

Major staff reductions were in full swing this week at BMG labels RCA and Zoo Entertainment. RCA eliminated at least 27 positions, and Zoo dismissed 11 staff members. At presstime, there was no official word on who's in and who's out, so look for details in next week's Noise.

ANN DELISI JOINS THE RIVER

CIDR/Detroit, The River, announced the addition of market veteran Ann Delisi as Director of Music and Special Programming to the Triple A station, effective February 22. Delisi was with WDET for 12 years, and left the station as Music Director and host of the Ann Delisi Program, 10am-1pm. CIDR Program Manager Murray Brookshaw commented, "The addition of Ann Delisi to our team is another building block in making The River 93.9 FM the most exciting radio station in Detroit. I am convinced that given her style and music sense, there is no one in the country that would be more of an asset to The River than Ann Delisi. This is a major coup."

The hipness quotient was at a peak as Mike Mills, Tabitha Soren, Michael Stipe and Bill Berry nonchalantly posed at L.A. International airport before R.E.M. headed off to Australia for the first leg of their 1995 Monster World Tour.

RANDY MICHAELS

by Bill Hard

Jacor's Randy Michaels. He's the crosstown rival's worst nightmare. Not only is this consummate radio professional smart as a whip, he's also a tall-twister of the highest order. WFBQ's Marty Bender, who worked with Randy in Cincy, comments, "The guy is amazing. He knows the frequency of every radio station in the country, and where most of the transmitters are located"... His wife Lori, who is also Frank Wood's long time assistant, tells of Randy stopping to take pictures of antenna towers on their honeymoon last year. Frank himself describes Randy as "the only guy I know who can drive a rented Lincoln 75 miles an hour while hanging bare ass out the driver's window, tune in a station 650 miles away to check its skywave, all the while carrying on two conversations at the same time, one decrying the downside of the welfare state, the other giving a perfectly lucid explanation of phrennel zone clearance problems"... As President and co-COO of Jacor, Randy presides over the country's ninth largest radio group, with 500+ employees and a station list that includes WEBN-FM, WLW-AM, WLWA-AM/Cincinnati, WPCH-FM, WGST-AM/Atlanta, KRFX-FM/KBPI-FM, KOA-AM/Denver, WQIK-FM/AM/Jacksonville, WFLZ-FM, WFLA-AM/Tampa, and WMYU-FM/Knoxville, as well as half a dozen LMAs and JSAs.

After noticing the dayglo accents in the Jacor yearly report and reading your introduction, my initial response is to ask if you guys see yourselves as the Ben & Jerry of corporate radio.

Randy: I don't know about Ben & Jerry, I hardly ever think about the rain forest. One of my favorite things is driving too fast, burning precious fossil fuels with no remorse or guilt. We're not quite as concerned about the environment as they are. But, in the context that you mean, we understand that radio is a little unreal, that it is the entertainment business. It's not an insurance company. Even though we're publicly traded, we wanted a report that said, 'Hey, we're different. We're fun. We're a little irreverent. We take our business seriously, but part of our business is having fun.'

You came from the engineering side of things to programming and finally to the President/COO post of one of the largest publicly-traded radio companies. What was that a function of?

Randy: I probably wasn't that good an engineer.

Gosh, and now even guys from the programming side are running major radio stations. Whoda thunk that fifteen years ago?

Randy: The priorities have changed in an increasingly complex environment. When it was just AM, the stations your parents listened to — a couple of Top 40s and one or two specialty stations — the sales guys could make a couple of calls in the morning, meet for martinis at 11:00 after they had picked up each others orders and swapped them around, and screw off for the rest of the afternoon. They were geniuses. It wasn't a tough world. When AOR came around, it was one station and it was mysterious. Nobody quite understood how it worked. The air of mystery was part of the appeal. The programming guys created that.

But you didn't want to put those guys who dressed like they did and did things you didn't understand in charge of the radio station. Today, I don't care what format it is, it's marketing. We are marketing managers. Revenue will follow a winning product. Developing a marketable product is becoming a much more valuable skill. All a PD has to do is learn how to count. Admittedly, when a lot of us were PDs in the '70s, we didn't care about learning how to count. The PD has to learn the business side of things a little bit, and he/she is in a much better position than a sales guy.

With duopolies, the number of prime PD slots is down, and the overall salary has shrunk accordingly. Do you think that will change?

Randy: I think it will. We're so new in duopoly that we don't know what we're doing. We will all know more as we continue to slide down that slippery slope of experience. Everyone is starting to understand that if you're the person expanding horizontally in the market, that's good. If you're on the other end of it, it's bad. In terms of optimizing it, we're just learning how. One of the unfortunate things is that when the concept of duopoly was first proposed, the thing that popped into a lot of managers' and group owners' heads was, 'Great, we can save a lot of money. We'll consolidate and cut a lot of costs.' When you look back to our experience running AM/FM — which is kind of a duopoly — we made the most money when we had an FM manager and an AM manager, an AM PD and an FM PD, an AM sales department and an FM sales department. We let them compete for ratings on the street. Somehow that was the way to make the most money. The industry is coming back around to realizing that is the way to make the most money if you have two FMs, or an AM and an FM, or multiple stations. If each of those stations has a decent enough signal and a good format, you make the most money by staffing up and letting them compete.

THE Hard INTERVIEW

I think that trend will continue. We're all slow learners, but eventually we figure out where the money is. I think that's where it is.

In Cincinnati, you've got an LMA and three JSAs. Is that a particularly strong profit center for Jacor at this point?

Randy: It is. I would be wrong if I didn't tell you we're still learning how that works. We've tried a number of experiments, some of which were clever and creative and complete failures, and others that worked well.

Sources tell me that Jacor recently tried to buy Shamrock for around $450 million. Can you talk about the deal-breaker there?

Randy: I can't discuss it. You may be assured that of the top groups out there, we have tried to figure out a way to buy most of them. We have access to virtually unlimited capital, if we find an intelligent way to deploy it. We've not tried to buy Infinity — I don't think we could do a better job than Mel does. We have not tried to buy Cap Cities. If you look at the rest of the big guys, we've at least had talks. Some of them have gotten closer than others. The reason I can't comment is that we are continuing to try to find the creative strategy that gives us a win-win and lands us one of the big boys. I don't know if we're going to do it, but because we're continuing to try it, I can't talk about it.

Is acquisition a key to the kind of year you're looking for?

Randy: We've had a couple of great years back to back, and we seem to be starting on another year that will be quite good. Look at our balance sheet. We have no debt. We have a blind acquisition pool of $100 million. We have $30 million cash in the bank, and with no debt, that's just growing. We financed all of the small expansion out of the checking account. This is not a very efficient return on equity. You need a little leverage on the balance sheet. It is clear that our balance sheet has been scrubbed clean and positioned for growth. The difficulty in a duopoly-crazed universe is finding something that produces the right return. Business has been good for most broadcasters for the last couple of years. We've all done well, we all think we're geniuses, we all want to grow. We probably need a tough year to shake it out a little bit, to find out who was right.

And also to get prices back to a more realistic level.

Randy: I don't know when they'll come back to a realistic level. There's a lot of talk about relaxation or elimination of ownership rules. While I don't expect that to happen, I do think there's an excellent chance they'll relax cross-ownership rules, maybe expand the national caps.

All of that will put more hot money in broadcasting. It may drive prices up without driving up any real value.

Given Jacor's liquidity, does losing Braves baseball — and the six mil or so a year that brings in — matter in the grand scheme of things?

Randy: Sure it matters. There's no question that major league baseball drives come through a station. For a news/talk station, that's extremely valuable. Not only that, we got the Braves right before they got hot. We had a favorable rights fee. Typically in sports, it's a loss-leader and you're lucky if you break even. We actually made money on the Braves three ways, and now have to counter the loss of the cume, the loss of the cash flow and the fact that the Braves will be on a competitor — that's a hit. On the other hand, because of the rights fee that was paid, we don't think there's any way for Cox to avoid losing a couple million bucks. That's a very dear price to pay.

Do you profit the longer the baseball strike goes on? Not to make you sound un-American, of course.

Randy: We still have the Rockies and the Cincinnati Reds, so the baseball strike is most assuredly not good for us.

With Atlanta your biggest market, is it a mandate to get into larger markets?

Randy: It's not a mandate. It's desirable. Market size and the amount of work don't necessarily correlate. You can afford bigger people in bigger markets. Even though bigger markets may be more of a challenge and the competition may be tougher, you can afford to play at that level. It's the Willy Sutton theory. He robbed banks because that's where the money was. Big markets are where the money is. We're doing 20% of the revenue in Jacksonville. But there are radio stations in Los Angeles that do more than the whole Jacksonville market.

How would you rate the level of competitiveness between radio groups as opposed to individual stations? And can you think of a couple of groups that you feel Jacor is on the same tier with?

Randy: We don't focus on that. Through the Radio Operators' Caucus and the NAB, radio group heads have been talking to each other and building dialogue, relationships and consensus on some of the exogenous things that affect our industry. For example, digital and direct broadcast satellite and PCS. The changing technology and changing regulatory environment have pulled the group heads together a little more. Even though we may file against each other in the fight, and say horrible things on the air, most of the group heads can still talk. I hear a lot of guys saying, 'Oh, I want to be like Mel.' At Jacor, we don't spend a lot of time on that. We admire many groups and would like to emulate some of the successful things people have done. We would like to avoid the mistakes we've seen others make, but to say Jacor is like 'blank' group, I don't know who that would be.

Do you feel that your relatively informal corporate structure affects your bottom line? Is there a payoff in that — beyond saving on dry cleaning?

Randy: Absolutely. Because we have a less rigid structure, we've been able to attract and keep high caliber people who I guarantee would be working in New York or L.A. or Chicago if they didn't like where they are. That's a tangible payoff. We have the best PDs in the country and they're not working in New York. They're working in Denver and Cincinnati and market size 25. These guys could get a job anywhere. They stay here because it is a less rigid environment. They don't want to work where they have to run through a whole floor of lawyers to put a liner on the air.

What would you consider the most heavily-structured, formal company?

Randy: I don't know. Most radio companies are trying to reduce the rigidity. The rigidity that typified some of the big network companies a few years ago is lessening. It's still true that at Cap Cities/ABC, there are a lot of lawyers. A friend of mine, Jim Fox, took a programming job in Houston with ABC in the mid-'70s, when the Bee Gees were hot. He ran a concert replay, and because they didn't clear it, they sent lawyers in to run a payola investigation. All because he played two songs by the same artist in the same hour. This is a company that in 1976 wants to see if you're taking money to play the Bee Gees.

Does the diversity of Jacor's formats help or hurt your bottom line?

Randy: It helps. Instead of saying we're the 'soft rock company' or the 'soft AC,' or the 'Ten-in-a-row light rock with less talent and less talk,' or whatever, we want to do whatever works for that market.

Are there things about your own privately-held Randy Michaels company that appeal to you at this juncture as it once did with Republic?

Randy: I have Critical Mass Media, which makes annoying phone calls and hands out junk mail. It does research and marketing.

Do programmers resist having Mr. Jacor lodging in their frontal lobe?

Randy: Absolutely. That's a limitation, but it's also a strength for a lot of people. When they take a look at our ratings, they want a piece of that, too. Most of the big research companies have an affiliation. Mel Karmazin is associated with The Research Group. Cox is affiliated with Susquehannah, Coleman has an affiliation with Cap Cities. It's tough to find a completely independent research company. I say look at the group they're affiliated with and see who has the best ratings, and you'll hire us.

You're obviously a bright guy and very experienced. You're also a tough competitor many people are intimidated by. Certainly the war paint and personal profile have been effective, but is there a price you've had to pay for that?

Randy: There's a price. I want my competitors to think I'm crazy and rabid. I want them to think that when they go out of town I'm going through their trash. And if they put fifty cents in the pop machine and don't get any pop, I had something to do with it. I want them to think that. I don't want anyone to mess with me. I want a guy to come to town and look at all the stations to decide who to pick on. I want him to say, 'I'm not going to pick on the Jacor station because they're crazy.' Do you pay a price for that? Occasionally. Somebody who has been across the street has to be convinced things are different once you're on our side. It was one thing to run around and do that as a national program guy, but things have changed slightly as I've moved into a group head role. The FCC reads the trades. When I'm the programming guy, though, to the competing manager I want to create the persona of the guy driving the rented Lincoln town car with my butt out the window. He'll think, 'I'm going to stay away from him!'

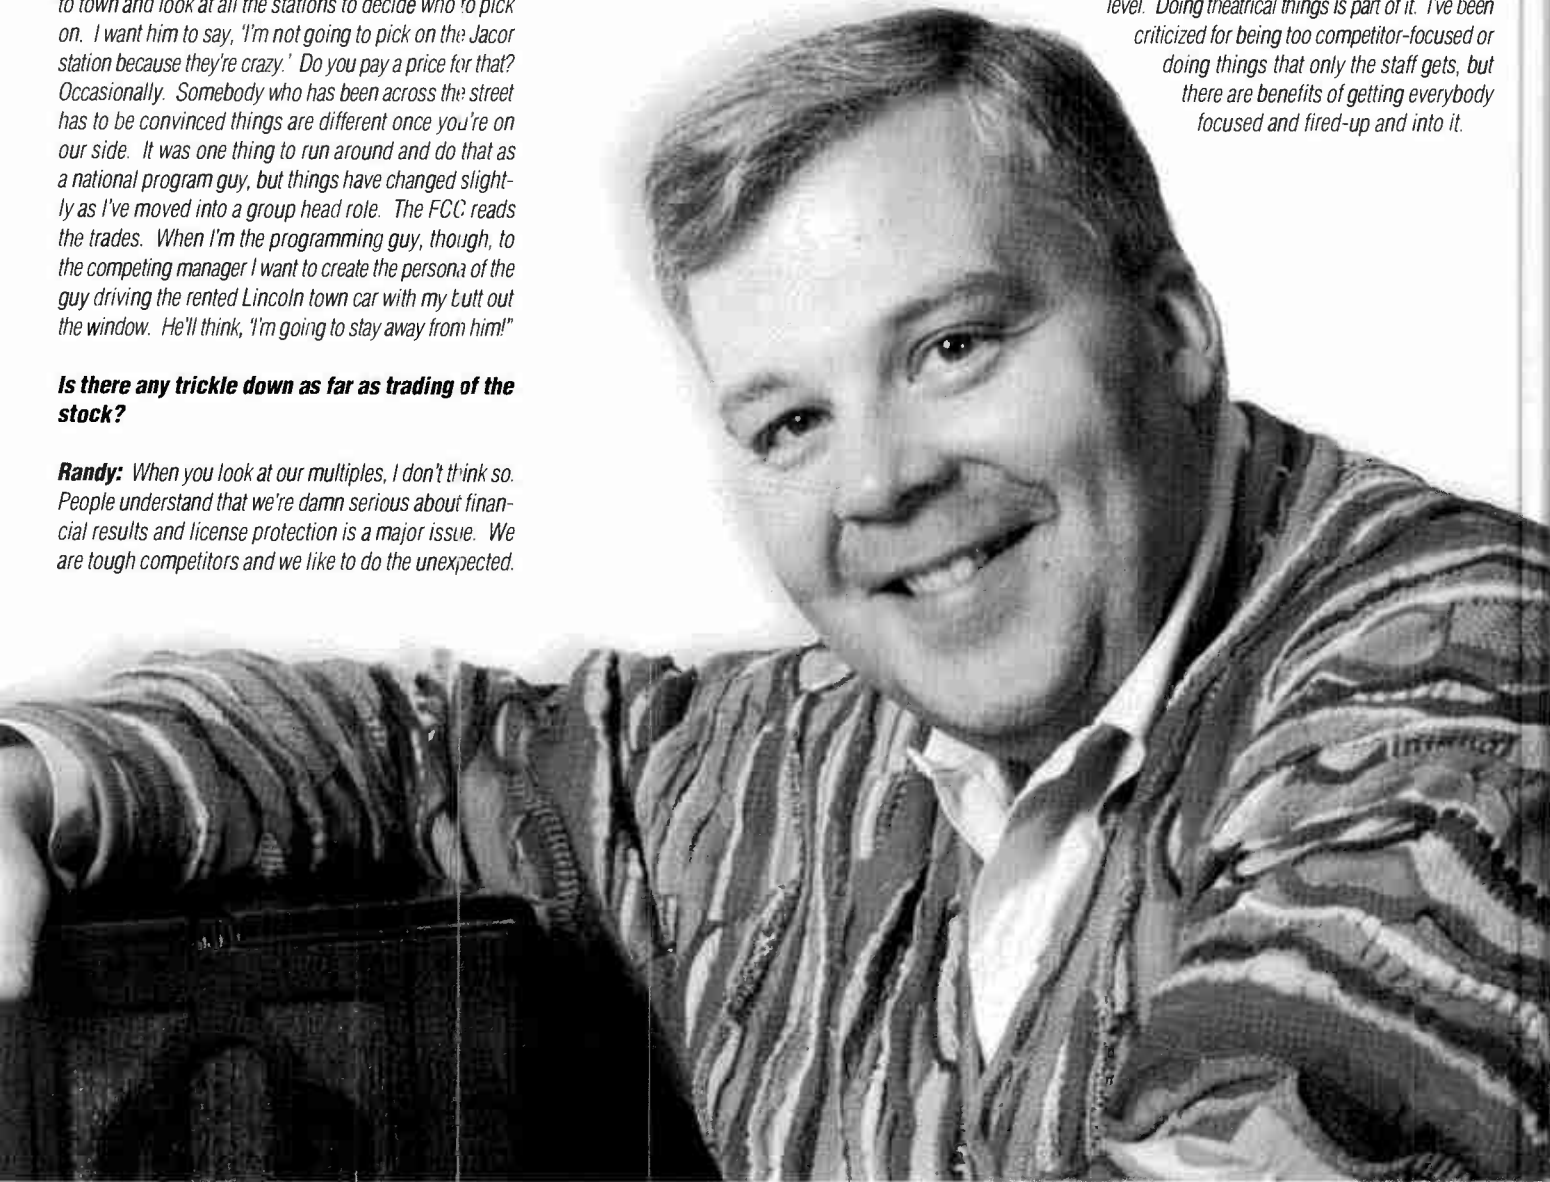

Is there any trickle down as far as trading of the stock?

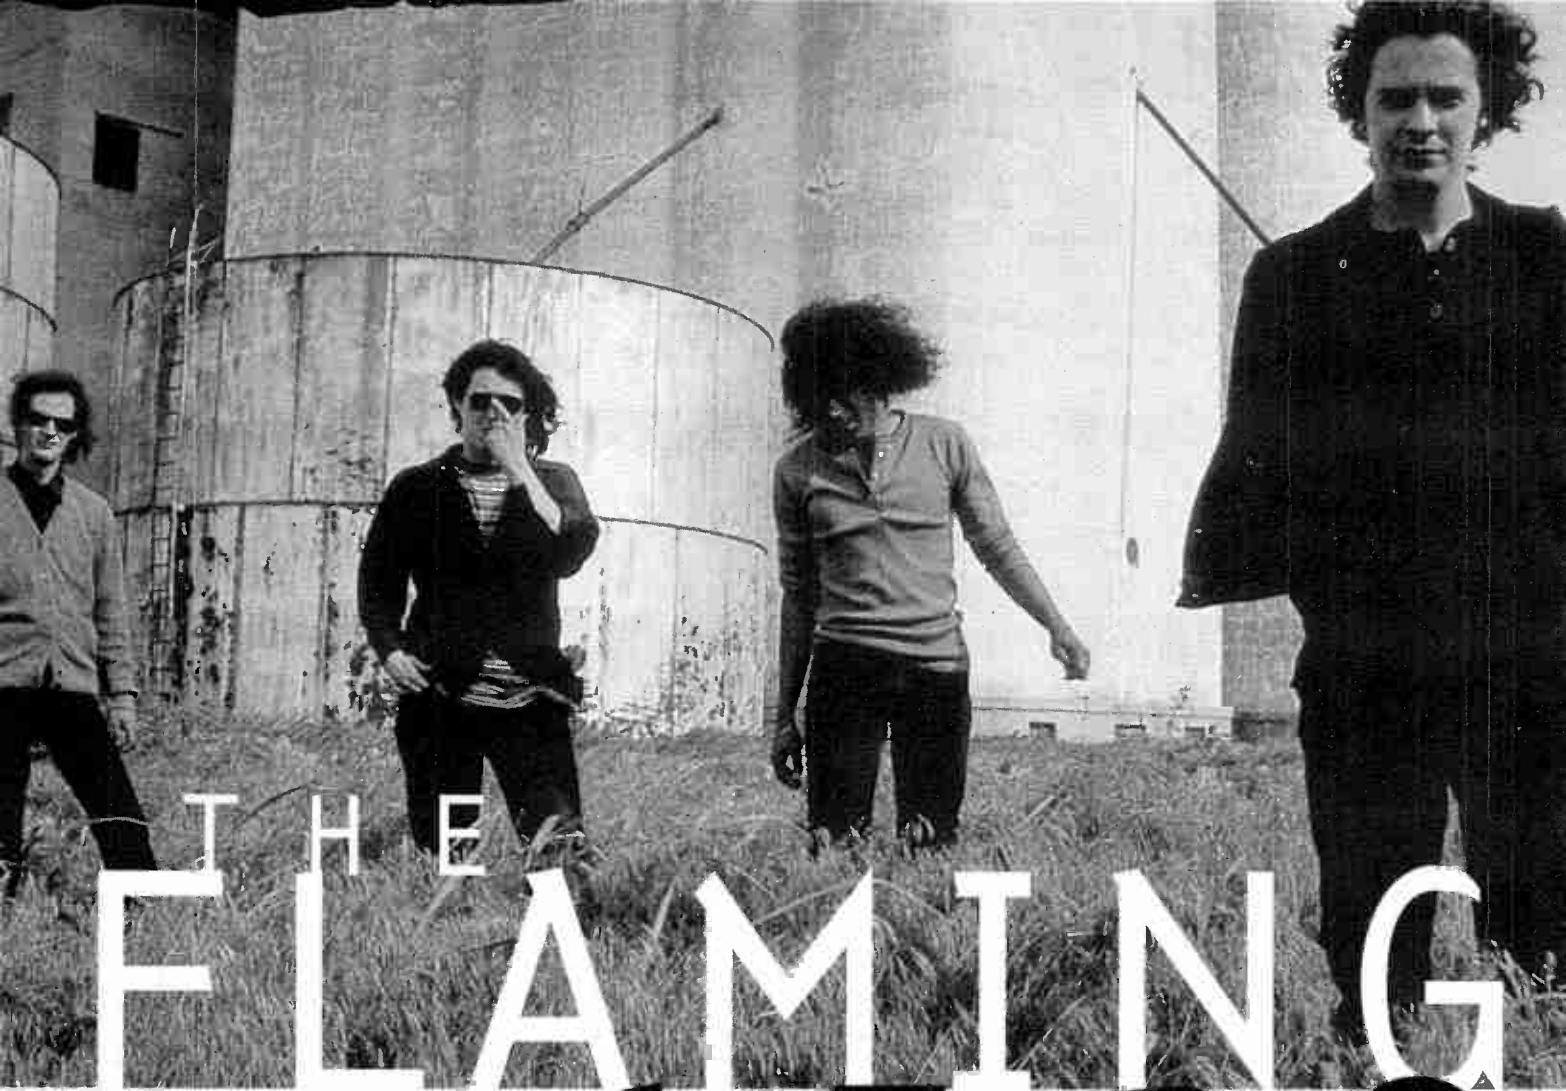

Randy: When you look at our multiples, I don't think so. People understand that we're damn serious about financial results and license protection is a major issue. We are tough competitors and we like to do the unexpected.

Broadcasting is extremely simple. You put a product on the air that's interesting enough that you can charge more for the ads than it costs you to put on the product. Unlike a lot of broadcasters, we believe that's if it's interesting, compelling and emotive for the listener, you build loyalty. The problem with a lot of radio stations today is that they are commodities. It's 'Twelve in a row with less talk' and a marketing battle. Whoever has got the loudest TV spot wins. We like to build product attributes that build loyalty. That's really not very hard. Any great product is built around a desirable, difficult-to-duplicate attribute. If I can distract my competitor, it's a little like the magician waving his right arm while he's doing the trick with his left. I don't think that the down-side is as great as the up-side of creating a little confusion for the competition.

Denver is a textbook example of how you can shake a market up. Do you think that KAZY's fake move to country before going straight at KBPI achieved the desired result?

Randy: It was fun. A lot of the stuff we do has its biggest tangible benefit in creating a magic moment. You've been on radio staffs when things come together. Everything is adrenaline and electricity. It all just feels so good you can't lose. That's not sustainable over the long haul. That kind of a high has to be staged. But knowing when it's valuable and how to create it is important. Creation of an event involves theatrics and drama. Capturing the attention of your competitor, the attention and energy of the staff and creating one of those wonderful time periods is the way to launch a radio station. Sometimes we've tried it, and it doesn't work. Sometimes you try it and it fires up the competitor. For the most part, we've been lucky we've been able to create the right kind of energy level. Doing theatrical things is part of it. I've been criticized for being too competitor-focused or doing things that only the staff gets, but there are benefits of getting everybody focused and fired-up and into it.

THE Hard INTERVIEW

I think it's fascinating that the 'Power Pig' phrase started out as an in-house code phrase for the station, later to be such an obvious rallying cry for the station — and it's listeners — in Tampa.

Randy: Mike Albi, who works at Critical Mass, put it in the computer as Power Pig, and he meant it as a joke. Marc Chase just line-extended that thing. When we announced the format, he gave pink pig T-shirts to everyone on the staff, opened up two cases of pink spray paint, and sent everyone out into the parking lot. They spray-painted all of the cars pink, including the general manager's, and wrote 'Power Pig' all over them. It was a concept that he brought to life.

What are your feelings about Greg Mull and WXTB?

Randy: Greg is great and so is the station. In terms of the Pig, we were a CHR station playing basically dance music with a 50-50 male-female ratio. The men hated the music, but they loved the attitude. When Greg brought that attitude to XTB, and played music more resonant to that group, that was a matter of serious attrition to the Pig.

Was WYNF a well-run station in their hey-day?

Randy: I consider their hey-day the early '80s, when Bobby Lawrence was down there, and George Harris was the PD. Back then it was an extremely well run radio station. I'm not sure what CBS did to it. The Ron and Ron morning show was terrific. From time to time, the station sounded great. Was it well run? No.

Stations like WFBQ and WDVE have done a great job of maintaining almost total market dominance. Do you feel WEBN has kept pace in that sense, with as much, if not more heritage than those stations put on the table?

Randy: WEBN went through a tough position of being muddled between The Fox and Z-Rock. We dispatched Z-Rock with our heavy metal Power Pig. They are out of the format. Now, with our duopoly with WPPT, we're on the other side of The Fox. WEBN is a little more focused on a mainstream AOR position. WEBN, in trying to be very broad, got in the middle in a way that WFBQ and WDVE have not been. If you look at the recent trend, WEBN is on a roll back up and The Point has neutralized The Fox to a great extent. Now we have two stations to play with. Whether or not we can be WFBQ, I don't know.

You and 'FBQ owner Frank Wood are good buddies and former co-workers. Why don't you make him a nice offer for Secret?

Randy: We've talked. We haven't taken the talks very far. Frank is a brilliant operator. He's the best in this business at many things. He doesn't need me. I, on the other hand, could do a little better with Frank.

The KAZY/KBPI head-to-head was as intense as radio wars get. What made you think you could put KBPI out of the format? Did you know something strategically about Great American?

Randy: Fundamentally there were too many similarly-formatted rock stations in Denver. With the opportunity to have two of them, I was certain we could kill 'BPI. Understanding Bill Betts and the company was helpful. Some of the stories haven't been told.

Why didn't you grab Betts for the 'new' 'BPI?

Randy: He couldn't get over it. He thinks what I did to him was unfair. It wasn't unfair. It was just 'bidnis.' I'll tell you what happened. Bill faxed me a drawing of a dog —

Actually, it was a fox getting boned by a wolf.

Randy: Yes, and he wrote KAZY's ratings on the fox and the 'BPI number on the wolf. It said, 'It's a long way to the top when you want to rock n' roll.' He also sent one to Sam Zell with a note that said, 'Why would you trust Randy Michaels with your radio station or your money?' Sam called me and said 'What is this?' though he wasn't upset about it. Great American's Carl Linder is very religious, so I typed up a letter to him saying, 'Fun is fun and war is war, so let's define the rules. Say whatever you want, but this was sent to our principal owner in Chicago, and his secretary was shocked when she cleared it off the fax machine. If you think this is okay, let's discuss it.' I made copies for each of Great American's board directors, with a polite letter saying, 'This got sent to our directors. I don't think it's appropriate. What do you think?' I understand that there was considerable fall-out from that and a conference call. I heard from some PDs that Linder went kind of crazy. Sam Zell had someone go out and buy one of those giant body condoms. He sent it to Betts with a note that said, 'Wear this next time you fuck with us.' Betts thought that was over the line. He wants to play these mind games. I don't mind that. I sent him a note that said, 'Bill, you like to play mind games. You're in kindergarten. I'm teaching grad school.' Psychologically, for me, when I did that, I think Bill lost some of his edge, his confidence. Through a series of things, we were able to get him to react emotionally and not logically.

What could he do in that scenario, though? Caught between KRFX's dominance 25-54, and KAZY's willingness to run next to no spot load and rock their socks off, that was strictly a no win situation for him.

Randy: Ultimately it was no win. We were able to speed it up. It happened a little quicker than it might have. I would love to work with Bill Betts. He was very bitter. That's too bad. I think highly of him. I didn't mean any of it personally, and would have loved to have had him as part of the package.

When you bought the intellectual property from KBPI from Frank, what do you think the most valuable thing was?

Randy: KAZY had been so many things that those heritage calls were pretty much cooked. But 'BPI had a good image, a great airstaff and heritage.

Who would you least like to dog you the way you guys wore down 'BPI?

Randy: Anybody. I'm trying to stay out ahead of them. There are broadcasters that scare me more than others. Cox is pretty competent. They give us trouble. Regarding Denver, if it had been the other way around, if Bill Betts and Great American had gotten KAZY and taken it classic, we would have been in just as much trouble. We had to do it.

Were you surprised to see KBCO get stung so quickly by The Peak? Or did you think with Skibitsky and that crew that they were destined for big numbers quickly?

Randy: We were tracking it weekly. When the book came out, we knew it was going to happen. That was a huge hit. You've got to be surprised any time something in a market the size of Denver works that quickly.

Do you think the Peak can sustain?

Randy: Our research shows them sustaining. They've leveled off, but at a huge share. I think 'BCO is in complete disarray. John Lynch has his sister up there running the thing. They've lost most of the air staff. They don't understand what's going on. It's been public in the building, when 91X put Howard Stern on, they considered putting Stern on 'BCO. If you can imagine a lifestyle fit that would be less resonant, I can't. They jerk the music around constantly. One week they were soft alternative. The next week it's practically classic rock. Then they started to throw in Motown records. I understand that to a certain degree, 'BCO can get away with anything. But in jerking the format around when the Peak came on, KBCO gave the Peak one of the biggest helps they had. Driving all over the road without clear-headed focus, KBCO did a series of boneheaded things. For instance, announcing that they were going to move it out of Boulder, which has been part of the cache about that station. There was such a howl about it that they didn't. We're such helpful people, though, that we took out some ads welcoming 'BCO to Denver, and rubbed it in.

THE Hard INTERVIEW

You don't have any Triple A stations. Are you comfortable with that format?

Randy: Triple A is a natural reaction to what we've been doing with research. We find out what listeners want, and we put it on. The edges fry and we take them off. We keep narrowing the focus. There's a huge demand. Every time there is a focus group, people want to hear deeper cuts and wider variety. For years what we've said is, "Yeah, yeah, they want another song they like as much as "Stairway to Heaven," it just isn't out there." Triple A and 'BCO are a reaction to people who want more sophistication and variety and more adventurous music menus. I have no trouble listening to 'BCO. I can listen to almost any format and know most of the tunes. If you asked me to program country or classic rock or soft AC, I could do it. I would not know how to program 'BCO. I don't know half of those songs. It is mysterious to me.

Do you know the Peak's songs?

Randy: I know more of them. The Peak is playing 400 records. 'BCO's playing 8,000. Under certain circumstances I would do Triple A. I've spent 20 years being a 'playing the hits' guy. Part of what makes 'BCO work is playing unknowns. We did an interesting experiment in Denver one year. We did a series of ten artist clusters and asked the appeal and tried to cross-tab between clusters and listening groups. Mike Albl at Critical Mass made up three group names and we put them on the list. With the KBCO group, it was corporate rock — Foreigner, Journey, Survivor — that came out last. Near the top was the collection of made-up names. That indicates how adventurous they are, indicating interest in groups that don't even exist. That's intriguing to me.

How does the business you're doing now at the new 'BPI compare with what Great American was doing?

Randy: It's much higher. We don't sell Fox and 'BPI as a combo. There isn't a KAZY anymore. Before, when the Budweiser guy came in, he said, 'If you don't do this promotion, I'm going to give it to KAZY.' Now, if you want to buy mainstream rock in Denver, it's The Fox and 'BPI. We're not subject to the blackmail that we used to get. We can control the fact that it's not going to go to The Fox. We can get our rate and do things in a more businesslike way.

Have you considered corporately investing in enterprises outside of radio? And are you surprised with what Mel has done with Westwood One?

Randy: Yes, we've considered investing. And no, I'm not surprised. Mel is extremely bright. He understands that when he can't find a logical place to put money in radio stations, controlling more inventory and software is brilliant. If you think about the way the world might look in eight or ten years, when digital comes around, that's going to be another form of competition. I don't know if cable radio will get off the ground. Direct broadcast satellites are around. PCS is coming. People with attributes that are difficult to duplicate are going to be driving. If you want to hear Howard Stern, you don't care if he comes on FM or digital or whatever. You want to hear Howard Stern. Mel is brilliantly locking up software. As the hardware becomes less specific, it's the software that will make the difference. Anybody can be the twelve-in-a-row hit-kicker.

You don't seem to have made any noticeable moves in personalities from a talent standpoint, have you?

Randy: For our market sizes, we're controlling some awesome talent. Louis and Floorwax at The Fox, Dean and Rog at 'BPI, Gary Burbank is about to be syndicated out of Cincinnati. He won the Billboard 'Personality of the Year' three years in a row. He's not in New York, he's not in Chicago. He's in Cincinnati, Ohio. For our market sizes, we've got big names. We do build around personalities and around attributes that are difficult to duplicate like 'Play-by-play' sports. That's exactly what Mel is doing, only in bigger markets. That's what Jacor needs to do before it can play the game Mel is playing. We don't have stations in New York and Chicago and L.A. That's where you need to be to lock up the big names.

What do you think the future holds for the stations so dependent on labels for their promotion budgets?

Randy: It doesn't disturb me because once research hit, we went through a period when everyone was tightening up. It was tough to get a read on new products. No one was taking a chance. Running stations in larger markets, I'm appreciative of the fact that smaller stations are exposing new product and giving us read and feel on it. So, we don't have to take those risks.

How it goes on isn't an issue then?

Randy: Any time someone is influenced to make a decision, not focused on the audience but on the promotion budget, there is the danger that it is a sub-optimal decision. At least the product is getting exposed and the larger stations are getting the feel. If I owned one of the smaller stations, I would not be thrilled about that.

What is the most important function a PD performs?

Randy: Paying attention. It's an attention business. You're managing people. You're managing talent, and by definition they are all psychotic. They are. They sit in a little room. They talk to people they can't see. That's psychotic. They do a great break, they know no one heard it. They do an awful one, they know everyone heard it. There are all kinds of PD styles. Tom Owens is linear and scientific. Marc Chase is running around in Jams in the snow and hollering like a redneck. You hire talent. They are fresh and new. The way you keep them up and fresh and bright is to have somebody who is passionate and focused. Frank and I used to argue and he'd always say, 'You get too emotional. You have to separate emotion and commerce.' I don't want to separate emotion and commerce. If I weren't emotional about this, I'd get a real job. I don't think you should manage anything you're not passionate about. A PD has to be passionate and focused on one or two fundamental things. That's the job.

TRIPLE ACE

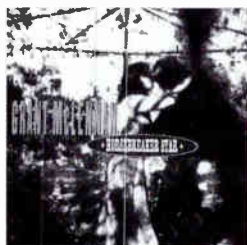

Better Than Ezra, "Deluxe," Elektra We jumped the gun with this Triple Ace pick — the official add date for the first single, "Good," is 2/27 — but the album has been burning up our CD player for a couple of weeks now, and we were just gonna bust open if we couldn't start shouting that this is one of the best albums of '95. Deluxe is jam-packed with the kind of sweet melodies and pop sensibilities that add up to an across the board smash! Remember the first time you heard Counting Crows? We got that same warm fuzzy feeling when we heard Better Than Ezra. Jeff Bieri KRCC, "We're playing it early, and we don't care what the reps say. It's just too good to wait." Dave Leonard WKZE, "I heard Better Than Ezra on the Aware soundtrack, and I was really impressed. There's a good buzz on them. I'm looking forward to seeing them at the Gavin Seminar." Greg Roberts KFMU, "Better Than Ezra is a staple here at KFMU. I first heard them on the Aware soundtrack, and the listeners love them. They have a nice, fresh sound."

THE HOT CORNER

Charlie Sexton, "Wishing Tree," MCA Lyrically and vocally, this 4-song sampler from the forthcoming Wishing Tree is some of the best work Charlie Sexton has ever done. It's a safe bet that all four of these tracks will garner Triple A airplay, paving the way for what promises to be a stellar album. Steve Cole KSPN, "After thoroughly enjoying Charlie Sexton's most recent recorded work with the Arc Angels a couple of years back, I approached the new disc with eager anticipation. The 4-song EP on first listen is deep, dark, and captivating. Each track builds an intensity in an increasingly mesmerizing way. I threw 'Ugly All Day' on the air today and quivered in quiet excitement as the tune played out. I'm looking forward to more listening and air play." Dean Carlson KMTT, "We really dig it, it sounds like a lost track from Unforgettable Fire. It's real organic and atmospheric. We're going with 'Home Sweet Home'." Jeff Hansen KPFT, "Charlie Sexton will fit well into our mix here. An immediate ad." Jim Olsen WRSI, "This is a really nice, ethereal-sounding record in the tradition of Daniel Lanois. Spooky atmospherics and great guitar work make this a great album." Greg Roberts KFMU, "Straight ahead, good ol' rock n' roll!"

Grant McLennan, "Horsebreaker Star," Atlantic Greg Hills WNCW, "Marvelous, beautiful melodies that create a haunting back-drop to the rest of poetry. I hope he doesn't wait another four years before doing another record." Don Ferrell KRVM, "I got the Atlantic sampler, and of all the outstanding songs on the CD, this one stuck out. 'Horsebreaker Star' is a great song from an artist that will be around for awhile. This is the kind of song that you think you've heard before, it has a familiar sound."

I love the song 'Simone & Perry,' it's a catchy little ditty, and it's a song that fits perfectly into the Triple A format. It caught my attention the first time I heard it." Dave Leonard WKZE, "I heard him on the sampler that came out after Christmas. It's good to have something out from Grant McLennan, his sound works well for us here. I'm looking forward to hearing the album." Greg Robert KFMU, "I was so impressed after the first listen, that I marked eight out of the eleven tracks on the album to go back and give a real good listen to for some airplay. Fresh-sounding, and the lyrics really stood out. Great record!"

SINGLE SPOTLIGHT

Dave Stewart, "Jealousy," EastWest/EEG Dennis Constantine/Jason Parker

"The single from Dave Stewart's forthcoming Greetings From The Gutter release is funky, good-time music. Co-written by Bootsy Collins, 'Jealousy' sounds more like Boxing Gandhis than Spiritual Cowboys." Shawn Taylor WVAY, "It went out of the box into heavy!" Don Ferrell KRVM, "I knew when I heard the first note of 'Jealousy' that I loved it. I ran across my office to the computer and threw it into heavy rotation. I even danced around, but I kept my clothes on, which was a hard thing to do. Everyone here loves this song, it's definitely a keeper. 'Jealousy' is an upbeat, happy, feel-good tune, and you should seek medical attention if you don't like this song." Dean Carlson KMTT, "Lots of fun. I can't get this song out of my head. It is nice to have Dave and Annie's solo stuff simultaneously. 'Jealousy' is hooky, and it sounds really good. By the way, I like the girls on the CD cover." Bruce Raney WXPB, "I've always enjoyed his music, and all of his different outfits. I'm looking forward to this being a continuation of great things to come. We added this out of the box, and hopefully others will follow suit."

Del Amitri, "Here And Now," A&M

Sybil McGuire WMMM, "'Here And Now' is a great song. I like it more every time I hear it. I'm looking forward to the album." Steve Cole KSPN, "In the span of just two albums, Del Amitri has become a core favorite at KSPN. 'Here And Now' is a terrific track and a promise that the third release will continue their strong tradition of widespread appeal. You don't have to think too hard to get the point with Del Amitri — it's just solid writing, singing and playing. A welcome return to Triple A." Don Ferrell KRVM, "'Here And Now' is a song that everyone should be playing here and now. We're already getting a great response on it here at KRVM." Dean Carlson KMTT, "'Here And Now' is happenin' on The Mountain. We've been playing it since the minute we got it. 'Driving With The Brakes On' from the EP is really, really strong, and we are absolutely going to deal with it."

John Mayall, "Ain't No Brakeman," Silvertone

Jody Denberg KGSR, "If you're gonna play the blues, why not play the real thing. We love the title track and its acoustic feel." Steve Cole KSPN, "Once again jammin' the blues with conviction, Mr. Mayall leads his fine ensemble through the romp that is 'Ain't No Brakeman.' Infectious, and propulsive, you'll want to hang onto this caboose for dear life. Yet another welcome return." Colter Langan KMMS, "Added it! This is a good piece of blues for Triple A, with the added heritage of John Mayall's works from the very beginning." Sybil McGuire WMMM, "This guy does not let us down. This album was a no brainer, especially for a town that likes blues the way Madison does. Great album." Ian Taylor WKVT, "This is absolutely wonderful stuff. We just got the sampler in, and it sounds real good. Looking forward to hearing the rest of the album." Jeff Bieri KRCC, "John Mayall's got a big following here, and, once again, a sure bet for our Blues Plate Special. The full length is in before I even get it in my hands."

TRIPLE CROWN

Ivan Neville, "Thanks," Iguana

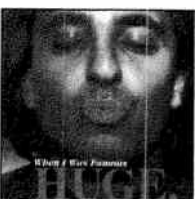

Thanks is the second release by Ivan Neville, seven years after his first album, If My Ancestors Could See Me Now, which is widely regarded now as ahead of its time. On the new album, Ivan is joined by several distinguished guests, including his father, Aaron, and Bonnie Raitt. Ivan's raspy and soulful voice accentuates the lush musical production in "Same Old World," the opening track. "Don't Cry Now" sounds like a Bonnie Raitt song, upbeat and spirited, and enhanced by her backing vocals. Ivan shows off his fine keyboard skills in the anthem "Hell To Tell," also featuring the guitar of Keith Richards. Aaron Neville joins Ivan for an interesting father/son duet in "Stay What You Are," with Ivan reflecting on his father's inspiration. Another standout track is "Never Grow Up," a percussion groove with intriguing lyrics.

Jolynn Daniel, "Suspended," RSM

Jolynn Daniel is an Iowa-bred singer/songwriter who now lives and performs in Miami. Her first release, Suspended, is an interesting 6-song set of personal tunes, all acoustic yet varied in style. The first track, "Some Wicked Season," uses several acoustic instruments, including a mandolin, in a lively waltz rhythm. The next three tracks are thoughtful and often captivating songs about family, trust and commitment. "Thrown By You" is a lively, upbeat and sarcastic song about the music business, while the final track is a dark, haunting and pessimistic view of life in the age of nuclear bombs and environmental destruction.

Huge, "When I Was Famous," Calico

When I Was Famous, the second album from Huge, is a diverse collection of songs matching personal and image-laden lyrics with a variety of musical styles. The first two tracks, "Delicious Heavy Petting" and "Bag Of Goo," offer different impressions of the human touch. The title cut is an outstanding track, highlighting Huge's vocal talents and a Police-like musical accompaniment, including a Duran Duran guitar riff. Another standout track is "I Think I Know A Way Out," a reggae-influenced song which also displays his vocal versatility. The only cover on the album is an interesting take on Cole Porter's "Miss Otis Regrets."

Clarence "Gatemouth" Brown The Man Verve

Bruce Bjorkman, host, 1490 Bluez Boulevard
KBZY Radio, Salem, Oregon

Clarence "Gatemouth" Brown's latest release (and first ever) on Verve, The Man, proves that age is no barrier to producing one hell of a piece of work. Listeners will find a compilation of all the styles of music which have influenced this veteran Texas musician, from blues to country and even zydeco, under the capable playing of "Gate." The release kicks off with a rollicking cover of Bill Doggett's "Honkey Tonk." You'll find three new C.G.B. compositions, all stuck right in the blues, including "You Can Disagree," "There You Are," and "Some Day My Luck Will Change." One standout is Gate's Dick Dale-style arrangement of "Unchained Melody"...you can almost hear the rustle of pastel satin prom dresses as he plays the Alex North classic. The Man finds Gate in perpetually great form, from his silky smooth string-bending on guitar and viola to his exuberant leathery vocals. Help from a super tight eight-piece horn section and a special guest appearance by zydeco accordion master Jo-Ei Sonnier adds the cherries to this great musical sundae. Blues radio shows will want to highlight Gate's "You Can Disagree" or the Louis Jordan cover, "Early In The Morning." Overall, this is a wonderful effort by the spry man from Texas. It's most definitely his very best effort yet, and provides a wonderful introduction to newcomers who may be unfamiliar with Gatemouth Brown's special brand of blues and music. This is a release that deserves serious airplay.

Jimmy Rogers "Feelin' Good"

Blind Pig Records

A tip of the hat to Blind Pig Records for continuing to re-release classic blues albums on CD. Following the release of The Harmonica According to Charlie Musselwhite at the of 1994, Blind Pig has just released Jimmy Rogers' 1984 album Feelin' Good on CD, an album where he's backed by Rod Piazza and The Mighty Flyers. The last remaining member of Muddy Waters' original band, guitarist Rogers is credited with co-creating and defining the postwar Chicago blues sound. He started his recording career in 1958, cutting sides for Ora Nelle Records. Proceeding to Chase Records in 1994, Rogers cut a myriad of what are now considered blues classics: "That's Alright," "Stoppo Drunk," and "Walkin' By Myself," as well as "Rock This House" and "Chicago Bound" both of which were re-recorded on this latest CD. Feelin' Good originally was recorded in 1983 and 1984 and features then up-and-coming harp player Rod Piazza and his band The Mighty Flyers. A student of George "Harmonica" Smith, Piazza has since gone on to become instrumental in developing a West Coast "swing" style of blues. Backing up Rogers on these tracks, however, The Mighty Flyers get down to the nitty-gritty of the Chicago sound, due in large part to the Otis Spann-esque piano-playing of Rod's wife Honey. Hopefully, as I did, you'll discover just how good Jimmy Rogers is from this disc. If you're not familiar with Rod Piazza, this disc will open your eyes to The Mighty Flyers as well. Two eye-openings for the price of one. Who'd-a-thunk it?

Blues Plate Special

The Last Real Texas Blues Band Featuring Doug Sahm

Antone's Records

Paul Kenedy, Premiere Radio Network, L.A.

One of the great things about the "Texas" blues sound is that it incorporates so many different elements. Nowhere is that more evident than in the latest release from Doug Sahm on Antone's Records, called "The Last Real Texas Blues Band." "My early memories of the blues date back to the early 50's," says Sahm. "San Antonio was abuzz with western swing, blues and you name it...I owe so much to my dear ol' Dad. He—like me—loved it all." Sahm's music was influenced by everyone from T-Bone Walker to Hank Williams, Sr., Hank Ballard to James Brown; and on this latest release, he pays tribute to them all. For this effort, primarily recorded live at Antone's in Austin, Sahm gathered a stellar array of musicians; including old San Antonio buddies George Rains and Rocky Morales and Austin stalwarts Derek O'Brien (guitar) and Thomas "Sauce" Gonzales (organ). The material is as varied as Sahm's influences. He tips his hat at 50s R&B with a Texas feel; ("My Dearest Darling") does a great version of Louis Armstrong's "Bad Boy" (with that infectious "stutter" hook vocal); a nod to New Orleans ("I'm A Fool To Care" and Fats Domino's "My Girl Josephine" and great Texas-blues covers of Lowell Fulson and T-Bone Walker. There's even a cover of Bill Doggett's "Honky Tonk" thrown in for good measure. The Last Real Blues Band? Good God, I hope not!

THE HARD REPORT

FEBRUARY 10, 1995

Seminal British blues band Savoy Brown cut a "returning to their musical roots" album, which was released as an import last year and is now being released in these parts by Viceroy Music. Guitarist and band founder Kim Simmons is joined on this venture by ex-Kingsnakes frontman Pete McMahon on vocals/harp and ex-Robert Cray drummer Dave Olson. "Lonesome Dave" Peeverett is back to contribute, too. Blues cover trues include songs originally done by John Lee Hooker, Percy Mayfield, Freddy King and Howlin' Wolf. Look for the CD within the next couple of months, and a review of the CD in an upcoming Blues Breaker page...In addition to their latest Stax releases (which include music from the Staples Singers, Issac Hayes, Carla Thomas and Albert King), Fantasy Records keeps churning out blues with their Original Blues Classics series. The latest: "Hootin' The Blues" by Lightnin' Hopkins, "Some Of My Best Friends Are The Blues" by Jimmy Witherspoon and "Good Times" by Shakey Jake...If you liked Johnny Copeland's guitar partnership with Albert Collins and Robert Cray on Alligator's Grammy-winning "Showdown" lp of 1985, you'll also dig his teaming with Gatemouth Brown and Lonnie Brooks on his latest (out on Verve), "Catch Up With The Blues."

ON THE COVER

Low Pop Suicide, "Life and Death," World Domination

On The Death Of Excellence, this L.A. band's second full length effort, we see Low Pop Suicide spreading its wings and displaying its maturity as the band delves deep into an aura of darkness. An entirely visual record with intense lyrical arrangements, this one impresses in part due to its unpredictability. Look for them on tour starting this week, as they bring their raging live set throughout the country, opening for Chris Connelly through the end of March. They've got a strong college base, combined with a fair amount of metal cred makes this a more than worthy contender for those hard rocking slots on your playlist. After all, you all know how much you're liking that harder stuff nowadays, don't you?

Armageddon Dildos, "Too Far To Suicide,"

Sire/Warner Bros. The format warmed up to the German duo, as their cover of Morrissey's "Every Day Is Like Sunday" did nicely a few months back. For their second Sire release (third overall), the Dildos ventured to Chicago, teamed up with producer Keith "Fluffy" Auerback (of Ministry, Lard and Revolting Cocks fame) and recorded a highly expressive album, a record not for the meek or musically closed-minded. We've always admired the band's ability to deliver a powerfully effusive, intensely polyrhythmic sound; the clincher is that the material is presented with a fair share of humor and a commanding sense of style. This single possesses a depth and a realness not often heard in the dance arena — soul is the word here, folks. The increased guitar presence beefs up the Dildos' sound nicely. The folks abroad are way hip to the band; we feel that this effort is their best yet, and that format acceptance beckons. Can you handle it?

hHead, "Answers," IRS Hailing from Toronto, this trio recorded their debut full-length with their winnings from CFNY's "Discovery to Disk" contest, which netted them $100,000. The band's pop acumen is evident on first listen, as is their material's biting air and overall sense of knowing. This first track is a nice, tidy package bursting with energy and guitar based punch. The record as a whole features more of the same, as irresistible melodies packed with that slight sneer that we so love is purveyed throughout. Their live show is not to be missed; you can catch them at SXSW. And remember, as Lori B. never ceases to remind the world, the first "h" is silent.

Matt Keating, "McHappiness," Alias Matt's come by and played for us a couple of times and let's just say that what he does, alone with a guitar, is stunning to say the least. Catch him live with his band and the force grips you. Yep, he's quite a musician, this Keating fellow. And, what's more, his songwriting is absolutely top notch. His songs shine with alacrity and style, blending astute wit and charm in a warm, musically vibrant context.

The first single off Scaryarea is a scathing (though subtle) commentary on the state of living in the vapid, shopping mall-filled existence that modern day Middle America has unfortunately sunk to. Sean-boy at KXRK says, "It's kick back, it's mellow, it just works. Can I get some fries with that?" And from DMX's Dave Sloan: "An acoustic song with biting lyrics that by the end turns into guitar feedback frenzy. Listeners eat this one up."

Fun-da-mental, "Dog Tribe," Mammoth/Beggars Banquet/Atlantic

This band has been in the news a fair amount over the past few months, as their efforts to combat racists and fascists within England has garnered much attention. A large part of the band's M.O. is centered around opening England's eyes to the injustices within, and mobilizing the masses, so to speak. At the core of the group is Aki Nawaz who, along with Ian Asbury, formed The Southern Death Cult. After leaving that band in 1987, Nawaz moved to England, where his political fire was set ablaze. The lead single reproduces a taped death threat made by Combat 18, the paramilitary arm of the far-right British National Party, to a largely white anti-fascist organization. The song itself, a forceful and bombastic romp, was written as a response to a near-deadly beatdown of two Asian men. FYI, Fun-da-mental worked with Pop With Eat Itself on "Ich Bin Ein Auslander."

Mike Mena checked in and wanted to do some philosophical waxing. So, following the maxim of trade publications — if it's space you want, we've got plenty. Here goes...

It was my intention to "get away" and consume myself with issues like "frozen or on the rocks" and "is number 15 enough protection from the sun." After research for the proper location for the world headquarters for my next venture (Jamaica, Bora Bora and Moorea are all possibilities) I remembered the liner notes of an album jacket that deserved to see the light of day. Although there's a lot of fun to be had in the music business there is also a purpose that drives some of us (me).

In 1977, The Tom Robinson Band released an album called Power In The Darkness. Never a success stateside but the message of these liner notes have remained with me 18 years later. They are dated. They were written by an Englishman and not an American but I think the point comes across.

Politics isn't party broadcasts and general elections, it's yer kid sister who can't get an abortion, yer best mate getting paki-bashed, or sent down for possessing one joint of marijuana, the GLC deciding which bands we can't see... it's everyday life for rock fans, for everyone who hasn't got a cushy job or rich parents.

Way bummed about what happened at Zoo, especially since the label is on the eve of what is sure to be their biggest release to date (the brilliant new Matthew Sweet record, 100% Fun). There was massive downsizing, with 11 victims, including the entire A&R department (including Bud Scoppa and Scott Byron), and the paring down of promotion, publicity and sales. We were also way saddened to hear that they've relocated Mary Divney's job to L.A., and that she will not be relocating. It would be a grave injustice (as well as highly unlikely) for her to remain among the ranks of the unemployed for long. She'll still be in the office for the time being, but you can also reach her at home at (203) 226-1561.... So glad to hear that John Knapp has been named PD of WYSR/Hartford. Knappy's official quote is "this is a great opportunity to work with Mike Craven and Jim Thompson's fast growing Liberty group. It's going to be a lot of fun bringing modern rock to Connecticut. This is a homecoming of sorts for me — my family has pilgrim friends from these parts." Knapp's first plan of action is putting a staff together. He's expected to start this Wednesday.... Our man Marc Alghini has been named IRS Records' East Coast Promotion Manager, covering all formats (but we all of course know his alternative cred is top notch). Play their wonderful new hHead record. You can reach Marc at (212) 334-2177.... The Safe And Sound benefit series was a huge success, as the efforts by Boston's music community raised more than $40,000 through nine shows last week. Morphine, Throwing Muses, Letters To Cleo, The Mighty Mighty Bosstones, Kevin Salem, and Bill Janovitz of Buffalo Tom were among the musicians who donated their time and played February 1-5. Aerosmith band members, who were also moved by the December shootings at three women's health care clinics, donated $5,000 to the fund, bringing the total raised to $45,000.... A total of $10,000 was presented to the Surfrider Foundation and to the Foodbank of Monmouth and Ocean Counties from funds raised at a charity held by WHTG-FM in conjunction with Swing Street Legend Entertainment on December 17, 1994. The concert, which also yielded nearly 900 pounds of goods for the foodbank, was a part WHTG's constant commitment to promote community relations in the shore area. According to WHTG Account Executive Bill Benter, the money raised at the December 17th concert was split with $6,666.67 going to the Foodbank and $3,333.33 being donated to the California-based Surfrider Foundation, which promotes environmental consciousness toward coastal regions.... Pretty cool playlist at KBKS in Boulder. What they've done is build on an alternative foundation, mixing in a good amount of rap, dance, metal, hard rock and reggae. The station bills itself as "The Difference," and you can contact PD Kelly Oliver or APD Ryan O'Bryan at (303) 444-1490. KBKS is having their Listeners Choice

Awards on March 18th. Starting at noon they'll have 56 bands and five hours of music. Four bands will go to the finals where one will be awarded the KBKS Listeners Choice Award.... DRE adds the Poster Children way early, as the Underground Network hits the ground running this week. This one's a hit, folks.... Jason Ringenberg, Lead singer of Jason & The Scorchers was a guest DJ on Thunder 94, WRLG Nashville last week for two hours. He joined WRLG MD & evening jock E. Heather Lose, who allowed him to pick his playlist. Among the tunes Jason & Heather aired was "EMI" by the Sex Pistols, "The Long Cut" by Uncle Tupelo, Todd Snider's "My Generation", the Velvet Underground's "Pale Blue Eyes", R.E.M.'s "Carnival Of Sorts" and Weezer's "Buddy Holly". Besides playing some Scorchers tunes new and old, Jason also picked L7's "Stuck Here Again", noting that the band had found themselves in that very same situation many a time, and that when he first heard it, he was so amused that he almost ran off the highway.... Former KPNT production director Chris McConnell joins T.O.N. Records (Hollywood) as National Promotions Manager. Dorian Cummings (formerly of SST) will handle college duties.... Zomba Group announced the launch of Battery Records, a new division devoted to making some of the best new European dance and pop releases available in the United States. The label's first release, "Cotton Eye Joe," is an upbeat mixture of country and techno by the Rednex, a Swedish foursome who have already sold 2.5 million copies of the single in Europe. The song has also reached the number one chart position in nine European countries including the United Kingdom, Germany (where it is the largest-selling single of the last decade, remaining #1 for 12 weeks) and Sweden (where it is the best selling single BMG Europe has ever released). Battery will be releasing the "Cotton Eye Joe" single February 24th, while the album titled Sex & Violins is currently scheduled for a March 28th release. Zomba's main subsidiary label, Jive Records, features Aaliyah, A Tribe Called Quest, KRS-One, Too-Short, Shaquille O'Neal and R. Kelly.... Tour Dates: KORN/Sick Of It All/Orange 9mm: 2/18 New Orleans; 2/20 Augusta; 2/21 Atlanta; 2/22 Jacksonville, FL; 2/23 Tampa; 2/25 Houston; 2/26 Fort Worth; 2/27 San Antonio. Chris Connelly/Low Pop Suicide: 2/13 Minneapolis; 2/14 Madison; 2/15 Grand Rapids; 2/16 Kansas City; 2/17 Denver; 2/18 Salt Lake City; 2/20 Berkeley, CA; 2/21 San Francisco; 2/22 Santa Barbara; 2/23 San Diego; 2/24 Los Angeles; 2/25 Phoenix; 2/26 Tucson. Nine Inch Nails/Melvins: 2/13 Columbia, MD; 2/14 St. Louis; 2/16 Pensacola; 2/18 New Orleans. Jawbox: 2/17 Durham, NC; 2/18 Knoxville, TN; 2/19 Birmingham, AL; 2/21 Pensacola; 2/22 Tallahassee; 2/23 Jacksonville, FL; 2/24 Orlando; 2/25 Tampa; 2/26 Miami. COR CUTS

This band has been developing its fanbase since the release of the groundbreaking Killing Is My Business... and Peace Sells albums, and while most COR radio stations may not be pulling cuts from those two releases for their recurrent catalogs, that music was instrumental in developing the solid core of listeners that spring boards their current success. Another factor in the abundance of radio play and sales (and appearances on David Letterman) are the aggressive yet melodic songs on Youthanasia - of which the latest single, "A Tout Le Monde", is one. Thanks to the early support of twelve stations - including adds at KIOZ, WHMH, and WKLL - the latest single has already found itself up at #39* on the COR chart this week. One of the early supporters includes KIBZ's Dave Douglas, who tells us "We just added 'A Tout Le Monde' because it sounds good on the air. They have started to develop into somewhat of a core artist for us in the past year." Darren Johnson at KEZE had plenty of foresight in saying "We have been playing it for a month and a half now, and it was our choice from the album before we knew it would be a single!" With the band currently on a headlining tour, and radio airplay building up, we expect that those platinum discs that Megadeth just received will be obsolete soon because they will be needing some double platinum to replace them!

Melvins, "Revolve" (Atlantic)

MELVINS

While Seattle bands like Soundgarden, Nirvana, Pearl Jam, and Alice in Chains cover radio playlists like a blanket these days, most of those bands were either influenced, excited, or both by the Melvins for years. What the underground has known for years, is now becoming apparent to the mainstream: the power of the Melvins. While still holding strong with a leap back into the Hard Hitters top 10 from the release of "Revolve", many programmers are hailing this as their best material yet, including Ron Michels of WXZR who calls it "A great song! I think that it's going to be a hit!" The strong guttural vocals of King Buzzo (which sound a bit like classic Gene Simmons) combined with the thick plodding riffs create a musical punch in the gut, and "Revolve" has enough of a groove to keep you moving as well. The retro tinged sound of "Revolve" is starting to see some response at COR with 55 spins last week and increased airplay at KUPD, KZRZ, WBTZ, and Q104.3. With rave reviews from Rolling Stone and Spin as well, don't miss the boat with of the most influential bands of recent times.

Slick Lilly, "Dirty Water" (Kudzu)

Despite the fact that many people are trying their best to be ultra hip and trendy, there is always room on hard rock radio for a good, no-holds-barred, rockin' song. In this case the band is Birmingham based Slick Lilly, with a down to earth, bluesy, southern rock ditty called "Dirty Water". It isn't often that a band on a small label like Kudzu are able to crack the COR charts, and "Dirty Water" has climbed up to #45* pretty quickly with airplay at KILQ, KNCN, WAXQ, WBTZ, WBZX, WDZR, WHMH, along with WKDF whose Jon Nagarya was telling us about this band before the CD even arrived. He relates, "Anyone that had success with Brother Cane will have success with this: it's cutting edge without being trendy." Dave Douglas of KIBZ who was tipped off on this song by the band's manager, also got on "Dirty Water" quickly, saying "It really struck me as something that is a straight ahead rock n' roll song." Seconding that opinion would be Darrin Arriens of WKLQ, who calls it "No frills, straight ahead rock - very format friendly." So put some fun back in your airwaves and jump into some "Dirty Water"!

Slash's Snake Pit, It's 5 O'clock Somewhere (Geffen)

Ever since Appetite For Destruction first hit in 1987, Slash and Guns N' Roses have been under the spotlight and in the public eye consistently with eternal touring and recording. It's a miracle that Slash would even have the energy for creating a solo release, much less one as strong as It's 5 O'clock Somewhere. But while GN'R is taking a much needed break from their unending schedule, the Snake Pit took form and brings to the forefront the ripping, blues based guitar mastery of the Guns guitarist. Also bringing their skills to this slithering concoction are: Gilby Clarke - who we know from his solo release as well as his work in Guns N' Roses, Mike Inez - from Alice in Chains and before that Ozzy Osbourne's band, Matt Sorum - also from GN'R and previously The Cult, and Eric Dover - an Alabama singer with a gritty, soulful, and powerful vocal delivery. As you can see - and hear with one listen - the collection features a collaboration of strong, accomplished musicians. It comes as no surprise that they were able to create such a spontaneous energy in the twelve days that 5 O'clock Somewhere was recorded. While mainstream radio (along with WDHA and WMMR in the Hard Hitters panel) has been playing "Beggars and Hangers On", some of you harder rocking stations may want to explore now that you have the full CD in your hands. The opening cut, "Neither Can I" is a sweltering, hypnotic, groove dripping with Southern boogie and will pull you into its swaggering rhythm for keeps. The quickened pulse of "Soma City Ward" will please those stations who live for a faster pace, as will "Dime Store Rock" - an ode to the Sunset Strip scene. Those are just a few highlights; this release is stuffed with unpretentious, from the heart rock n' roll. Slash's blues influence has always been apparent with his work in Guns N' Roses, but it is refreshing to hear the end result of his exploration into this side of his musical personality. While this release may put new meaning to the term "get into the Pit", it is in every respect just as much fun!

TOP Picks

Thorn, "Pacing" (Roadrunner)

This is the first sample that we are getting from New York's Thorn since signing with Roadrunner, and their sound is such an usual blending of styles that would seemingly sound awkward, but it appears to work with the spirit of what they are trying to convey. Band members John Jesse and Roy Mayorga started their musical careers in the punk group Nausea, but eventually the two sought out a new and different musical path. Their percussion heavy music is spiced up with industrial touches, middle eastern melodies and tidbits, intermingling with the gritty, frigid voice of Jesse. If you are looking for some music that tonally reflects the harsh realities of life with an eerie sensation injected throughout, then "Pacing" will be right up your alley. This first taste of Thorn is just the beginning, since their debut full length, Bitter Potion, will be arriving in April. With an ample 27 adds this week, it looks like this Thorn will be in our side for quite some time.

Big Chief, Platinum Jive (Capitol)

While Detroit isn't typically known for its funky, eccentric side, the band Big Chief have plenty of those elements in their music to spark up your day. Eut Detroit is famous for being the Motor City, or the Rock City, and this five piece rocks, motors, moves, and grooves with the spontaneity of a New Orleans jazz ensemble. Their unique sound travels through different musical landscapes, and some of our favorites include the opening groove-heavy romp of "Armed Love"; the low down funk of "Locked Out", and the persistent grinding of "Sick to My Pants". Big Chief first appeared in 1989 and developed enough of a buzz through their 7" releases, three full length records, and the artwork of guitarist Mark Dancey (who also created the album artwork for Badmotorfinger), to land tours with the Beastie Boys and the Cult. Without a doubt, the musical diversity of Big Chief will appeal to many segments of your audience - just ask KDUR, KNDI or WSGR who added the record a week early - and it will leave them moving!

Grief, Come to Grief (Century Media)

If the doomy sounds of Black Sabbath meets death metal are what you crave, then this is your lucky day! A band well named because of their melancholy sound, with tuned down, lumbering, riffs threatening to leave a black cloud of despair hanging over your head - and if it doesn't, nothing will. With the speed of a tortoise, and the subtlety of a sledgehammer, the onslaught of Grief on your senses is slow and disturbing; which, of course, is just how many of you like your music. The second full length release from Grief is already seeing some action at WKLL, WVBR, WXPL, WBGU, and WFCS, and if any of you follow the directions written in the album title - Come To Grief - there will be some more adds around the bend.

Royal Hunt, Clown in the Mirror (Rondel)

The members of European based Royal Hunt hardly fall into any "slacker" categories, with its members - especially keyboardist/composer Andre Anderson - having backgrounds equally proficient in hard rock and classical. For those of you who enjoy the intricacies of progressive hard rock in the realm of Dream Theater, Rush, Queensryche, and Helloween, may want to pop this CD in and give it a listen. The first thing you will notice is the regal quality of the album, (ironically, band leader Anderson has a blood line that traces back to the royalty in the former Soviet republic of Georgia), along with the fluent layers of keyboards and elaborate melodies. Some of the faster paced songs for hard rock radio include the opening "Intro/Wasted Time", the title track "On The Run", and "Third Stage". They are already a huge success in Japan, where they have already sold 100,000 units of Clown in the Mirror, and the band hopes to duplicate some of that success Stateside, starting with the 13 adds they pulled in last week.

Means to An End, Means to An End (Futurist)

While most people may not immediately think of Lawrence, Kansas when asked about musical hotbeds, the college town has seen its share of talented act, come out in the past two years with Stick, Paw, and now, Means to an End. Their raw, throbbing, yet unobtrusive style seeps into your consciousness with the treading determination and churning of songs like "Favorite Finger" and "Licksplitter". They also show off their more spirited side with the pummeling "Breaking Dummy", the infectious "Bendsinister", or the brisk pace of "Lemon Tastes Like Ammonia". Means to an End originally formed in 1991 in Missouri and released four demos, which caught the attention of former King's X producer Sam Taylor. But rather than relocating to Houston, the band opted to stick in the Midwest. Their Ed Rose produced debut release should find fans from many programmers who appreciate sludgy, meat on your bones hard rock with plenty of hooks. So don't think of this as just another record, think of it as a Means to an End.

Slush, Step Inside (Worthless)

In the current hard rock radio environment, it is unusual to find a self supported release from a band make as quick an impact as Slush has. Having been recently serviced with the 4 song Step Inside, five stations - KTSC, WIZN, WJUL, WKLL, and WTSR - are already spinning them and four new stations - KMSA, WOZN, WVBR, and Digital Music Express - added the EP this week. Their music is accentuated by their shredding guitar riff attack and their pounding rhythms which occasionally borrow from the hard-core tradition. Hailing from Vermont, Slush have developed an East Coast following through club touring in the area in addition to a demo and a 7" release circulating the scene. But don't let the name fool you, for their sound is as crisp and sharp as a Vermont winter. If you haven't received a copy of Slush's latest, contact Jeff of Worthless Records at 802-863-3052 for a copy. If you do have a copy, just Step Inside and check it out!

SINGLE Matters

Megadeth, "A Tout Le Monde" (Capitol)

Let's get this straight - MegaDave and Co. have been retaining a top five position on the Hard Hitters chart for quite some time, while standing firm in the number one most requested position, as well as currently rocking the road on tour with C.O.C. And now, are offering the metal ranks a new three song CD-pro featuring the impact "A Tout Le Monde", along with a cover of the Sex Pistols' classic "Problems", and "New World Order", a previously unavailable left over from their Countdown To Extinction studio time. Hmmm, not bad. "A Tout Le Monde", as recently performed on the late night show with David Letterman, is an incredibly catchy, well written song - making the most of Mustaine's snarling vocals, as well as entwining the guitar grooves with an underlying attack of bass and drums. Basically, what you have in your hands is just another reason why Megadeth have established themselves as one of the premier hard rock talents on the musical front today and should be gracing your stations airwaves now.

S.F.W. Soundtrack, Gwar "So F*cking What" (A&M/Metal Blade)

The creative, musical art form known as Gwar have contributed to the material found on the S.F.W. Soundtrack with the title track, "So F*cking What". The interplanetary travellers in the band have forged their own niche in the hard rock realm with their full-on, in your face blast of guitar droning, bass line maneuverings and the unmatched, evil vocal sounds of Oderus Urungus - not to mention their notorious on-stage antics, but that's another story altogether. The recently serviced CD-pro offers up two different versions for your perusal - the 2:12 f*ck free version and the regular 2:12 album track - both with enough fire power to rock even the most die-hard of the metal legion. If there was any doubt about the potency of Gwar, the track is already gracing the air-space of 16 stations, including the most recent followers at KZRX, WIYY AND WVUD, along with notching a place in WVBR's top five phone list. With stats like that how could you lose?

POWER OF INNER STRENGTH

FIRST TRACK "SAVAGE SEAS"
ADD IT FEBRUARY 20TH!!!

METAL Filings

As you may have noticed on the cover, Slash's Snakepit (Geffen) offer up It's Five O'Clock Somewhere for metal adds today. The fourteen song, Mike Clink produced Slash side project - with the help of his friends - follows "Beggars & Hangers On", the first cut taken from the full length. The single is already garnering some action with spins at WJLA and WMMR. Join the trendsetters by giving the all-star cast air space and add the record February 13th/14th... Did ya'll catch Megadeth (Capitol) when they dropped by the Ed Sullivan Theater to perform their second single, "A Tout Le Monde", for David Letterman and his entourage? This showing, by the way, was the band's second appearance on the late night show in the last three months. The single, by the way, goes for metal radio adds February 13th and 14th and comes packaged as part of a three song CD-pro. Also available are the previously unreleased trax, a cover of the Sex Pistols' "Problems" and a Countdown To Extinction leftover "New World Order"... Also debuting this week at metal radio are the twelve songs bundled and delivered by Means To An End (Mechanic/Futurist) on their self titled record. Add it February 13th and 14th... Three early adds came in on the Big Chief (Capitol) record Platinum Jive this week, so take heed and follow the lead of KJZZ, KNDI and WSGR by adding the album February 13th and 14th... Low Pop Suicide (World Domination) returned to the radio ranks with the January 24th release of their sophomore album, The Death Of Excellence. Now you too can join the Low Pop brood of followers by adding the new CD-single, "Life & Death", February 13th and 14th. The band take their coercive, guitar driven sound to the road (joining Chris Connelly), with shows rampaging along from a February 11th launching through a March 17th stop at the Ritz in Detroit, Michigan... Po' Boy Swing (Royalty), who are currently rumbling just below the Hard Hitters chart with their brand of funkadelic rock, now hand out "Not Fade Away" for February 13th and 14th adds. Help propel the band up into the upper echelon by giving track #5 found on Lite And Sweet some rpm's today... If the name I.C.U. - that would be short for Intensive Care Unit - doesn't clue you into the ferociousness of the band's euphonious goods, then you better sit down before you drop the Defy disc in the stereo. Released on Radical Records, the full length album features the main pick, "Til The Ting", and goes for adds February 20th and 21st... The Demon Night Soundtrack (Atlantic) has offered metal radio tons of great music for some serious spins, now comes the track you've been waiting for - Filter's "Hey Man, Nice Shot". The song is set to be serviced on a CD-pro in the Bud Gets The Lead Out Edit and in the original album form for adds February 20th and 21st. The band, by the way, have recently inked a deal with Reprise Records with intent on delivering the upcoming album, Short Bus in April... Fear not metal heads - Dave Lombardo is poised to take back his seat on the stixman pedestal with the February 20th/21st arrival (and add date) of "Savage Seas", the first impact track from his new band, Grip, Inc. (Metal Blade). The single is the first auditory taste from the upcoming disc Power Of Inner Strength, which is slated for arrival in March... Didn't get any good Valentines this year? Well, the 550/Epic Records offices are prepared to deliver with the February 20th and 21st add dates for "We Like You" from Devil Head... Jani Lane and the crew in Warrant have joined the CMC International family and will be delivering "Family Picnic" for air-play 27th and 28th... Look to March 6th and 7th for the arrival of the full length Stuck Mojo (Century Media) album. Looks like this could be a very highly anticipated release, considering KMSA, WKLL and WXTB are already spinning the first track, "Not Promised Tomorrow"... Forget all your preconceived notions about Big Hair - the band - they really are cool and are about to prove it as their debut Energy Records release, The Pickle Farm, ships to metal radio at the end of February. The record will then be in stores April 4th... Also rearing it's trailblazing musical head in March is Persona Non Grata, the ripping new record from Urban Dance Squad (Virgin). The impact track taken from the disc is "Demagogue", which is slated to go for radio play (and adds) on March 6th/7th. The album hits the retail shelves on March 7th - make a note of it... We've been told that the epitome of Motor City rock is on it's way in the form of the Speedball (Energy) first effort, Do Unto Others. Then Split. Speedball have nothing to hide, and if you aren't prepared for their spring release you better just get out of the way... Another March release comes from those psychedelic, grunge rockers in Monster Magnet (A&M). They return with the Dave LaRue produced Dopes To Infinity... Looking off into the month of April, be prepared for the release of The Blueprints For Madness from Deceased (Nuclear Blast/Relapse). The first cut and video track will be "The Triangle". And speaking of Deceased, the band will have a spot on an upcoming Napalm Death tribute album... Benediction (Nuclear Blast/Relapse) are currently working on their follow-up to the The Grotesque! Ashen Epitaph EP. Drummer Paul Brookes is recording the record with the rest of the band but will not tour with them. A replacement stixman has not been announced. ☹☹☹☹ In preparation for the March release of their remixed and remastered version of The Holy Bible album, the Manic Street Preachers have arranged to take the stage in Phoenix, Tucson, Las Vegas, Palo Alto, Sacramento, San Francisco, Modesto and San Diego from the launching date of February 22nd until the ending show on March 3rd... Moist (Chrysalis/EMI) have launched their maniacal stage assault with shows booked from the February 8th showing in Porchester, New York until a February 20th stop in Orlando, Florida. Tentative shows have been planned for routing from Detroit to Chicago to Atlanta to Norfolk to New York to, well, you get the picture. More on that later... L.A. Guns (Polydor) take their Vicious Circle to the road with shows scheduled from a Valentine's Day blast off in Las Vegas, Nevada. Twenty five dates have been tentatively booked on the upcoming road trip... Tune in here for more information on the Season To Risk (Red Decibel/Columbia) travel plans. So far, the band are slated to be on the road throughout February and well into March, with the final stop being March 26th at the Trocadero Transfer in San Francisco, California... KoRn (Epic/Immortal) are preparing to wander the states with the likes of Orange 9mm (EastWest/EEG) and Sick Of It All (EastWest/EEG), but first they have booked four non-tour headlining shows the last of which is February 18th in New Orleans, Louisiana. Bagpipe wielding Jonathan Davis and Co. will join the Melvins (Atlantic) on February 17th as part of the Gavin convention, and then will join Bad Religion (Atlantic) on the 18th... Broken Hope (Metal Blade), who deliver their clamorous style of music to the radio congregate with the April arrival of Repulsive Conception, have tentative plans to embark on a North American tour with Opressor in March. More info on that as it comes in... Pay attention — San Francisco four piece New Idol Son (Pavement), Joey Vera (Metal Blade) and Exhibit A (featuring Alex Skolnick) will all be stopping by Berkeley Square in Berkeley, California for a show March 18th... The grapevine sez that when Danzig (American) hits the road in March KoRn (Epic/Immortal) and Marilyn Manson (nothing/Interscope/AG) will be the supports acts. Good rumor. ☹☹☹☹ An interesting bit of Relapse news concerns the formation of the Relapse One Stop! - said to be the ultimate source of America's extreme metal, guaranteed to fulfill all of your needs. They distribute all the labels you can ever want in the fanatical genre (Osmose, Peaceville, Adipocere, Nuclear Blast, etc), along with offering a complete line of hats, sweatshirts, tees, etc. For more info call Andy Hosner at (717) 397-9221 or fax 'em at (717) 397-9381... According to KTOZ/Springfield and WQNF/Louisville, Type O Negative (Roadrunner) are the perfect band to have a blood drive with. Both stations worked with the local Red Cross and Roadrunner Records to help provide blood for their local blood banks - with KTOZ holding a promotion where any fan who attempted to give blood at the station sponsored event became eligible for a grand prize. KTOZ provided ten listeners/donors with tickets to the show, who then became eligible to meet the band at the show. WQNF has designated February 19th as the date for their blood drive, with the first 100 donors through the door set to receive a limited edition t-shirt declaring "Type O Negative and WQNF took my blood". ☹☹☹☹ To quote Tigger - Ta ta for now. Peace.

METAL Photos

How incredibly cool that Los Angeles Dodgers catcher/rookie-of-the-year Mike Piazza joined Slayer types Tom Araya and Kerry King for their golden moment.

In writing a photo caption for a snapshot such as this the only thing necessary is a list of the names of those found in the all-star line-up. The sedate faces of Metallica's Kirk Hammett, Godflesh-types Justin and Benny and the one-and-only Jello Biafra all grace this week's Hard photo foray.

To help celebrate the Slayer golden moment an abundance of musical dignitaries showed up - included in that category were American Recordings head honcho/Slayer producer Rick Rubin, friend Rosetta Millington and the man behind the voice of the Red Hot Chili Peppers, Anthony Kiedis.

Okay, so it's been awhile since EMI's Michael Schnapp, Epic's Cheryl Valentine, Skateboard Marketing's Munsey Ricci and WSGR's Mark Morden all gathered at the same place - so what! At least someone was around with a camera to catch it on film when the fearsome foursome assembled at the last McGathy bash.

Considering Overdose happen to be one of the most happening bands at metal radio right now (and we here at the Hard hut are big fans too!), it only seems fitting to run each and every photo of the band we get in. This snapshot featuring the adorable mugs of Matt Cohen (WBAU), Sergio Cichovicz, a man named Chainsaw and Eddie Weber was taken at the Roxy in Long Island.

In the true form of backstage gathering, the boys in Tree welcomed back a plethora of metal radio types while also entertaining AIM's Anya Feldman and Roadrunner's Marni Halpern. And ya know, it looks like a good time was had by all.

The Black Crowes are inviting fans to tape record any of the shows on their "Amorica Or Bust" tour which begins in Minneapolis on March 3. The band is asking concert promoters to print the words "Audio Recording Allowed" on all tickets for the tour, and radio and print advertisements will say "The Black Crowes invite their fans to make audio recordings of any performance." "The tour of going to be definitely more bootleg-friendly," says Chris Robinson. "The sets are really different every night now." Robinson says the Black Crowes have even started a newsletter called "Taller" to facilitate fans getting in contact with each other and exchanging tapes of the band's shows. "We want to keep things more in a communal sort of place," he says.

Cher, Chrissie Hynde and Neneh Cherry have teamed up to sing on "Love Will Build A Bridge," a charity record coming out later this month that also features Eric Clapton on guitar. It's hoped that the single will sell throughout the world and raise money for Comic Relief, an organization that's been involved in charity efforts for some time. Two-thirds of the money raised will go to projects in Africa, while the rest will go to needy causes in the United Kingdom.

Pearl Jam's Congressional appearance last year concerning concert ticketing may not have been for naught. Congressman John Dingell of Michigan is planning to reintroduce legislation that would require ticket vendors to disclose the fees they add to the ticket price. A similar bill died in a Congressional committee last year. Representatives of Pearl Jam recently met with staff members of Senate Republicans, who are generally considered to oppose such legislation. The new legislation being proposed by Dingell would also require the Federal Trade Commission to study current ticket practices, including the exclusive arrangements between promoters, venue operators and vendors that influence ticket pricing decisions.

The Beatles' "Live At The BBC" album has now sold 10 million copies worldwide, including four million in the U.S. Sales in the U.S. have been running as high as 50,000 copies a week, according to a record label executive. "Live At The BBC" has been on the top five of the album charts in over a dozen countries.

Steve Forbert is releasing a new album at the end of March on a new Nashville-based record label (Paladin/Giant Records). "Mission Of The Crossroad Palms" is Forbert's seventh album and is produced by Garry Tallent, the bass player for Bruce Springsteen's E Street Band. "I gave Steve a six-album deal and I intend to make six albums with Steve," says Jim Zumwalt, who's launching the independent label.

South African Police have begun to investigate the disappearance of $120,000 donated by Paul Simon to the Foundation for Peace & Justice, a charity run by anti-apartheid activist Allan Boesak. A police spokesman says Simon will be interviewed as part of the investigation. "Paul Simon donated the proceeds of his Graceland tour to the Children's Trust for the benefit of children suffering under apartheid," says a statement from foundation trustees. "We were among the trustees and ($120,000) was deposited into a First National Bank account in July 1988 in the name of that trust. A preliminary investigation has indicated that no immediate record of the whereabouts of the money is available." Appointment of Boesak to become South Africa's first black ambassador to the United Nations has been delayed pending an investigation by DanChurch Aid of Denmark into allegations of mismanagement of funds by the foundation.

The Recording Industry Association of America says that Fleetwood Mac's "Rumours" album has sold 17 million copies since its 1977 release — making it the second biggest-selling album of all time. Michael Jackson's "Thriller" remains the biggest seller with sales of 24 million.

Beatles fans are trying to preserve a blue frame house in Benton, Illinois, because George Harrison stayed there with his sister for 2 1/2 weeks in September 1963, a month after the release of "She Loves You." Harrison visited the small town in southern Illinois with his brother, Peter, to see their sister, Louise, who had just moved down from Canada because her husband had taken a job with a nearby coal mine. While there, Harrison camped in the Shawnee National Forest, bought a $700 Rickenbacker guitar and played Hank Williams and Chuck Berry covers at a couple of shows with a local group called the Four Vests. "It was just a nice down home vacation," Louise Harrison says. "He did a little performing, but quite accidentally. We were invited to visit with some friends who were doing a gig down in the little VFW outpost in a little town called El Dorado." The state of Illinois recently purchased the five-bedroom home, which Louise Harrison had sold in 1968. She hopes Beatles fans will send a dollar each to purchase the house and move it. "We're asking people in the area if anybody has a couple of acres near the highway that they're not using for any specific purpose that they would allow us to put the house on," she says. "They would keep the land but allow us to put the house on, so we can make a nice garden and have picnic benches and so on." Mrs. Harrison says she hasn't spoken to her brother George about ideas to save the house. "He'd probably be horrified," she says.

Pearl Jam, King Crimson, Van Halen, REM, Jimmy Page & Robert Plant and Tom Petty are planning tours in the next few months. It's also reported that Neil Young will headline this year's Lollapalooza. However, promoters expect tour grosses to be smaller than in 1994, when the Rolling Stones, Pink Floyd and the Eagles went out and performed live. "What's the business going to do (this year)," asks Pollstar magazine editor Gary Bongiovanni. "Probably lead last year's grosses!" He says the Eagles may have the biggest-grossing tour this year.

The three-bedroom terraced row house in Liverpool, England, where Paul McCartney lived with his family from 1955 to 1964 is up for sale. The home, already a tourist attraction, is where McCartney and John Lennon rehearsed as the Quarry Men. They collaborated on dozens of songs in the house's front room, and McCartney's initials are on the wall of his former bedroom. McCartney is said to have found the bathroom's acoustics excellent for the guitar. The home is currently owned by Sheila Jones, who moved in when the McCartney family moved out.

A four-day concert in Kingston, Jamaica, launched a year-long celebration of what would have been the 50th birthday of Bob Marley. The concert in Negril was staged by the Bob Marley Foundation and featured Bunny Wailer, Rita Marley, Toots & The Maytals, Buju Banton, Vanessa Williams and Ziggy Marley & The Melody Makers. There was also a concert at the Bob Marley Museum in Kingston, broadcast live on radio and television, where Prime Minister P.J. Patterson appeared to proclaim "Bob Marley Day" on the island. The Jamaican government plans to issue four postage stamps later this year featuring Marley, who died of cancer in 1981. The central bank also plans to issue a commemorative coin. Jamaican radio stations played nothing but Marley's records on his birthday, as well as featuring call-in programs to discuss the meaning of Marley's music.

Damian Neville, the son of singer Charmaine Neville and grandson of Charles Neville of the Neville Brothers is facing second-degree murder charges in New Orleans for the stabbing death of his girlfriend last September. Neville initially confessed to the killing, then recanted his statement. District Attorney Harry Connick, the father of singer and pianist Harry Connick Jr., has removed himself from the case because he knows Charmaine Neville. Criminal Court Judge Ray Bigelow has denied a defense motion to throw out the confession. Neville's attorney contends the confession may have been coerced.

Football fans in Melbourne, Australia, are worried about damage a Rolling Stones concert might cause just before the Australian Football Season opens with a match between North Melbourne and Adelaide. The Stones are scheduled to play at the stadium March 27 and 28, but fans are concerned because a Madonna concert a couple of years ago softened the playing field. "We had a problem after the Madonna concert because it was after a Sheffield Shield game that followed a U2 concert and it was before Christmas," says stadium official Peter French. "The ground was soft in areas but none of these problems exist here. You could compare this concert to the McCartney concert which was at about the same time of year and we had no problems after that." The stadium has purchased plastic material to put on the playing field to prevent damage from the thousands of fans expected for the Stones' show.

Elton John has been awarded Sweden's Polar Music Prize, which was founded by former Abba manager Stikkan Anderson.

The debut albums by Hootie & The Blowfish and Weezer have been certified gold by the Recording Industry Association of America for sales of 500,000 copies.

The Violent Femmes self-produced their new album, "New Times," and singer-guitarist Gordon Gano says "there wasn't anybody around who might've tried to discourage us from being too strange. In fact, there's one song we put on the record — 'Jesus of Rio' — thinking, 'No one will like this, absolutely no one!' But we liked it, so we put it on." Another track, "Key Of 2" was inspired by a strange dream of Gano. "In my dream, I was sent to prison, and I had a year to do. But people were taking me aside, saying 'Actually, it's not so bad, because we have a band in here!' I decide to stay in there forever, because I have a sense of this music that is really different, something that completely grabs me. I hope it's intriguing, and I think the more you listen to it, the more you get out of it, both lyrically and musically, because it's not the kind of thing you listen to once and get at the fullest level."

Trent Reznor of Nine Inch Nails says he's not the angry guy that his band's music would suggest. "Probably because I don't bite heads off of pigeons, I'm going to disappoint some people," Reznor says. "What we do is closer to Alice Cooper than Pearl Jam," Reznor says.

Michael Jackson's "HIStory" double album, slated for release on Valentine's Day, has been delayed until sometime this spring.

Billboard magazine reports that a triple-CD Beach Boys compilation, tentatively entitled "The 'Smile' Era," is slated for release (on Capitol Records) in August. It's said to include parts of Brian Wilson's composition that were not included on the 1967 "Smile" album.

Don Henley has been given the "don't do us any favors" award by Aspen magazine for his successful effort to bar night flights into the Aspen, Colorado, airport. The magazine says the ban costs the town over $1 million a year. Barbra Streisand was given a "best immoral victory" award for visiting Aspen while entertainers were boycotting the town because of a proposal to prevent homosexuals from protection against discrimination.

Aerosmith, the Eagles and the Rolling Stones were nominated for the 21st annual People's Choice awards, based on a Gallup poll of 25,000 people. None of the nominees for favorite performer were rock musicians. All three of the male nominees and one of the female nominees are country singers, while the other two artists nominated for favorite female performer are pop/R&B acts.

Van Halen bumped Garth Brooks from the top of the album sales chart with sales of 295,000 copies the first week of release of the band's new album. Brooks' "Hits" album had topped the chart since the start of the year.

Pete Droge will be opening for Tom Petty on his tour which begins February 20 in Columbia, Missouri.

The Recording Industry Association of America reports that U.S. record companies shipped 900,000 vinyl albums during the first half of 1994, compared to 500,000 for the first six months of 1993. However, most major label releases are not issued on vinyl, and RIAA chairman Jay Berman predicts records will remain a "nostalgic cottage industry."

Wim Wenders is directing a film this summer called "The Million Dollar Hotel," based on a script written by Bono, lead singer of U2. Wender directed the video for U2's "Stay," and U2 has done songs for the soundtrack of two of Wenders' films.

Hootie & The Blowfish have donated $10,000 to the Carolina Children's Home, which provides homes for up to a hundred homeless or unwanted children every year. A recent fire caused over $150,000 in damage to the Children's Home campus in Columbia, South Carolina. "Let Her Cry" is the second single from the band's debut album "Cracked Rear View."

The Jayhawks are going on a short tour this month in support of their fourth album "Tomorrow The Green Grass."

Blue Murder guitarist and vocalist John Sykes is working with Kip Winger of Winger and Dokken bass player and vocalist Jeff Pilson on a new project. Sykes' Blue Murder was dropped by its record label last year.

Pearl Jam sent tickets to fan club members in Seattle for a pair of unpublicized concerts at the Moore Theater in the band's hometown.

Breeders guitarist Kelley Deal has pleaded innocent to charges of signing for delivery of a package containing four grams of heroin. She could be sentenced to 18 months in prison and $2,500 if convicted.

Veteran producer Mickey Most will come out of an eight-year retirement to produce an album for British-Jamaican soul singer Tee (for Motown Records). "I believe this is the first time they have signed a non-American black artist," Most says. "But I have contacts in the industry and I thought Motown was the best label for Tee because it's got credibility." Most has produced artists ranging from Herman's Hermits and Mud to Hot Chocolate and Suzi Quatro. Tee's "Totally" album is slated for release in April.

Plans for a museum honoring the late Jimi Hendrix have evolved into one celebrating the music of the Pacific Northwest. Microsoft Corporation co-founder Paul Allen is funding a group that wants to build an over $50 million Experience Music Project at the site of the 1962 World's Fair near downtown Seattle. Some of Hendrix' Fender Stratocaster guitars would be shown at the museum, including the one on which he played "The Star-Spangled Banner" at Woodstock. The guitars would be among over 6,000 items of Hendrix memorabilia to go on display.

British folk singer June Tabor has released a new album called "Against The Streams."

Jason Ringenberg of Jason & The Scorchers secured his latest record deal (on Mammoth Records) by driving to the label's headquarters in North Carolina. "I came back with a record deal," he says. "It was literally that simple. We pitched it four or five places and had a little interest, but it seemed like Mammoth, a high percentage of the people are old Scorchers fans." "A Blazing Grace" was recorded in late 1993 and early 1994 with producer Jozef Nuyens. Jason & The Scorchers' new label also plans to re-issue "Reckless Country Soul," an album recorded in 1981 just after Ringenberg left his parents' pig farm in Illinois and arrived in Nashville.

L.A. Guns are releasing their first album in over three years, "Vicious Circle." After their first three albums, the band decided to take a break to relax and allow group members to pursue outside projects. "We got kind of a six-year itch," says vocalist Phillip Lewis. "From the early stages of L.A. Guns until the final tour for the last album. We had been working flat out for six years straight, going straight from the road into the studio and then straight back on the road again. So it was really good to take some time to renew our enthusiasm. I guess it seemed like an odd thing to do, but I do think we benefitted a lot from it." The band had originally intended to record the new album as quickly as possible, but instead decided to take the time needed to do it right, Lewis says. "We definitely pulled together in making this record. We were under no pressure, no time restraints and we were encouraged to be ourselves," Lewis explains. "We recorded nearly 40 songs, and it was hard to pick the ones that were gonna go on the record. If we'd chosen different songs, this could have been a psychedelic record, a speed-metal record or a turbo-folk record. We're pleased with the outcome and believe that our fans will be as well."

Jerry Lee Lewis has recorded a new album (for Sire Records) but no release date has been set.

Attorneys for Willie Nelson say his arrest in Texas in May was based on an illegal search of his car. Nelson had pulled off an Interstate highway in Hewitt, Texas, to take a late-night nap when Waco police peered through a window and spotted a joint in the ashtray. They then searched his car and found less than two ounces of marijuana. A judge has set a March 1 hearing to determine if the search was legal. Nelson is facing a misdemeanor possession charge that carries a maximum penalty of six months in jail and a $2,000 fine.

J-Dee, a member of rap group Da Lench Mob whose real name is Dasean Cooper, has been sentenced to 29 years to life in prison for the 1993 murder of his girlfriend's male roommate. The rapper had been convicted by a jury last year in a murder that prosecutors said stemmed from a fight between J-Dee and another man.

Jim Kerr of Simple Minds said recently that the band would break up if the group's new album wasn't successful. However, that now seems unlikely, as the band's new album has debuted in the top ten of the British album chart.

Marvel Comics plans to develop a series of cartoon characters based on some of the best known rap singers in the U.S. Soon, you'll be able to follow the fictional adventures of Public Enemy, Onyx and Snoop Doggy Dogg as they do battle with a variety of villains and bad guys. Chuck D of Public Enemy is characterized as an international spy working undercover in South Africa.

Madonna and k.d. lang will reportedly appear in an anti-meat advertisement for People For The Ethical Treatment of Animals. PETA was initially upset with Madonna's plans to feature bullfighting in her video for "Take A Bow," but when she contacted the organization "she and PETA hit it off," Esquire magazine quotes a source as saying.

Eddie Van Halen says he suffers hearing loss because of his years as a rocker. "I've been told that at 10K, which is 10,000 hertz (cycles per second), I have the hearing of a 70-year-old," Van Halen says. "But it isn't too bad because that's the frequency of someone screaming at you. So, when (wife) Valerie and I fight, I just don't hear it."

Tracks from Billy Bragg, Belly, Buffalo Tom, Throwing Muses, Juliana Hatfield and the Lemonheads appear on the compilation album "This Is Fort Apache." The 13-song album is a collection of tracks recorded at the Cambridge, Massachusetts, studio co-owned by Bragg with Gary Smith.

Rapper 2Pac Shakur has been sentenced to one to four years in jail for sexually assaulting a female fan in a New York City hotel suite. Shakur was convicted of the assault but acquitted of a charge of sodomy during a trial last year. Sentencing Supreme Court Judge Daniel Fitzpatrick called the November 1993 incident "an act of violence against a helpless woman." Shakur's manager, Charles Fuller, was given a four-month jail term and five months probation for his role in the attack. Attorneys for both men asked that they be released pending appeals, but the judge denied the request. "Delaying justice would be inappropriate," Fitzpatrick said. "I hope both defendants get the message."

Sheryl Crow, k.d. lang, Bonnie Raitt and Bruce Springsteen are to perform at the 37th annual Grammy Awards, being given out in Los Angeles on March 1. Tori Amos and Annie Lennox will be among the awards presenters.

Faith No More is recording a new album called "King For A Day...Fool For A Lifetime" with producer Andy Wallace. The album will be the first to feature new guitarist Trey Spruance, who replaced founding member Jim Martin last year.

Former Slayer drummer Dave Lombardo has formed a new band called Grip Inc. The group is currently recording a debut album in Germany for release in the spring. The album is being produced by the group's guitarist, Waldemar Sorychta, formerly of Despair.

Alice Cooper is reportedly close to signing a new record deal (with Hollywood Records).

Hootie & The Blowfish say they don't want to be like other alternative bands who use their lyrics to complain about life. Lead singer Darius Rucker cites "Hold My Hand" as an example. "It just says, stop whining about how bad things are, and get up and do something," he says.

John Prine will have a new album out early this year, featuring Marianne Faithfull on vocals on two tracks.

Mudhoney are working on their fifth album in Seattle with Jack Endino producing. The band hopes to have the album out in the spring.

The Cure, PJ Harvey and Simple Minds are the latest names to be added to the bill for the Glastonbury Festival, which will take place in June on a site in the south west of England. The festival celebration its 25th anniversary this year and organiser Michael Eavis has decided to feature a special dance tent for the first time. Speaking to the New Musical Express, Eavis explained: "We've always held back from dance music and this will be the first time we've had a separate stage. We'd like it to go through until about 3-4am, but if we can't get a late licence we'll still have the stage and it will go on until 12.30am." Bands so far confirmed or almost definite for Glastonbury are: Friday June 23: The Black Crowes; Saturday June 24: The Stone Roses and PJ Harvey; and Sunday June 25: The Cure and Simple Minds. With most festivals taking place later in the summer, few details are currently available on other events. However, Dasis and Blur have both been linked with the Isle of Wight Festival (August 25-27), while Metallica are being tipped to headline the Castle Donnington Monsters of Rock heavy metal bash (August 19)...Bono's screenplay 'The Million Dollar Hotel' will be filmed this summer in Los Angeles and London by the German director Wim Wenders, according to press reports in the UK. The two have been friends for some time. Bono will not be appearing in the movie. In other U2 news, Bono has recorded a version of "Save The Children" for a Marvin Gaye tribute album due in stores later this year. Stevie Wonder, Lisa Stansfield, Arrested Development and Meneh Cherry are also contributing to the project. Bono will also be heard this year on a Leonard Cohen tribute singing "Hallelujah," and has recorded a version of The Alarm's "Give Me Back My Job" with Johnny Cash and Willie Nelson for a World's Children Foundation benefit album...Rupert Perry, Chairman and CEO of EMI Records and Chairman of the BPI, is the most important person in the UK music industry according to the rock monthly Vox. It's the fourth year the magazine has compiled such a list which reads as follows. (last year's position in brackets):

- 1 (8) Rupert Perry, Chairman & CEO - EMI
"The Success of Eternal, Pink Floyd, Blur and The Beatles proved EMI's ability to cultivate sales from relative newcomers as well as hardly regulars."
- 2 (1) Roger Ames, Chairman & CEO - Polygram
"An unhealthy reliance on greatest-hits compilations cost Ames his pole position of last year."
- 3 (-) Colin Bell, MD London
"More than 80% of London's releases from such diverse artists as East 17, Orbital & New Order make the UK top 40 in 1994."
- 4 (-) Simon Burke, MD Virgin/Our Price Retail
"The UK's most powerful entertainment retail chief."
- 5 (-) Andy MacDonald, MD Go! Discs
"Home of The Beautiful South, Paul Weller & Portishead."
- 6 (7) Derek Ingoldsby & Oliver Smallman, MDs First Avenue
"Home Of Eternal whose album became the first UK debut to produce six Top 15 hits."
- 7 (-) Howard Berman, MD Mercury
"The appointment of Berman...last year heralded many chances for the label."
- 8 (4) Rob Dickens, Chairman Warner Music
"Last year is probably one Dickens is glad to put behind him."
- 9 (3) John Preston, Chairman BMG
"Arguably a year of transition at BMG, but good success for several new acts."
- 10 (9) Paul Burger, Chairman & CEO Sony
"Sony's biggest successes in the UK were American-derived. Label has ongoing problems of George Michael's contractual dispute."

11 (-) Richard Manners
MD of Polygram/Island Publishing

12 (16) Ric Blaxill
Producer of BBC1's weekly chart TV show 'Top of The Pops'

13 (-) Phill Savidge & John Best

16 (15) Brent Hansen
President/Creative Director MTV Europe.

17 (-) Mark Cooper

18 (-) Garry Blackburn
MD Angelo Plugging representing such bands as Portishead, Oasis & Suede.

19(12) Vince Power
Chairman of Mean Fiddler Group who run several London venues & the Reading Festival.

20 (-) Marcus Russel
MD of Ignition, management company who handle Oasis and Electronic.

Elicita's Justine Frischmann has been writing about her relationship with Blur's Damon Albarn and on the subject of adulation from the band's male fans for Sky magazine. Of Albarn, she writes: "People think that I get upset because there are always girls hanging around lusting after Damon, but actually I find it funny. Honestly. The only thing that worries me is the suspicion that an awful lot of them probably hate my guts for going out with Damon. It's quite devastating for a lot of young girls when they find out their idol is actually a normal person." Frischmann says of the band's fans: "On stage people sometimes throw clothes and we get loads of Vaseline pots. There's this one guy who comes to our gigs and always throws them. What's funny is that they've always got the Vaseline scooped out and notes and messages stuffed inside — which is quite a lot of effort to go to really. I've met the guy and he's nice. Generally I don't feel uncomfortable with the male fan/female band-member relationship and if anything it's probably scarier for boys having female fans, because it's certainly been my experience that girls can be a lot more obsessive about people in bands."...Suede front-man Brett Anderson has recorded a duet with Jane Birkin, most (in)famous for her 1969 hit "Je T'Aime." The track "Les Yeux Fermes" was written by Guy Delacroix and Lionel Florence and will be released on an AIDS charity record in France. All tracks on the project have been written or co-written by people who are HIV positive. All other artists featured on the release are French. Elsewhere, Anderson has again denied he is a heroin addict. The singer was talking to the national newspaper The Daily Mirror and also hit out at Blur's Damon Albarn who first alleged Anderson used the narcotic: "Albarn should stop talking about me because it gets really boring. He obviously hasn't got anything between his ears."...Courtney Love will commission the music for the film "Tank Girl." The Hole singer told an Australian magazine Drum Media: "If Trent Reznor can put a bunch of songs and a bunch of dialogue together for "Natural Born Killers" and sell a million, then I'm sure I can. I make really good compilation tapes so what's the difference? It's not going to be L7, Hole or Nirvana. I'm going to delve into stuff that maybe hasn't been heard lately because of all that other stuff. I'll go as far as something like Echo And The Bunnymen's "Over The Wall," which I happen to think is the most cinematic song I've ever fucking heard." Frank Wynne, editor of Deadline, the British comic in which the strip "Tank Girl" first appeared, has confirmed the story. The movie "Tank Girl" is currently being produced in Los Angeles...Sinead O'Connor has made fresh allegations concerning child abuse by Catholic priests in Ireland. However, speaking to the Irish Times, the singer also says she has made peace with the church after receiving help from a priest. On the subject of abuse, O'Connor commented: "To me, the most un-Christian thing is the rape of a child. The child is the closest thing to God. It is the symbol of God. It's not just sexual abuse. Throughout history, children in the schools were brought up with violence. Even at the time my brothers were at school, they were being dragged out of their desks by the hair and slapped around the place. The representatives of Christ on earth were bashing children, teaching them their own warped sexuality." O'Connor though, also points out that criticising the Church and priests is not the same as criticising Christianity. O'Connor goes on to talk about a priest who she says helped her with drug problems: "I put myself in a treatment centre last August when I wanted to come off spiff. There was a very old priest there, who's really restored a lot of my faith in the church. He taught me a lot about forgiveness." O'Connor is currently working on new songs and putting a band together with a view to touring in the USA...Siouxsie And The Banshees were forced to cancel shows in Cardiff, Wales and Liverpool on January 25 and 26 after Siouxsie lost her voice. The band hope to reschedule at least one of the shows. The Banshees' new single "Stargazer" b/w (on various formats) the previously unavailable tracks "Hang Me High" and "Black Sun," and a Mark Saunders/June Reactor remix of the lead track, will be released this week via Wonderland/Polydor...The BBC Radio One network seems to have managed to stem the drastic loss of listeners which had been leading many observers to talk of a "crisis" at the station. From September to December 1994, the station lost 200,000 listeners, its figure falling from 11.2 million to 11 million. This compares with losses of 1.1 million, 876,000 and 1.1 million in the preceding three quarters. Head of the station Matthew Bannister had been predicting the figures would stabilise at the end of 1994. Sue Farr, head of marketing and PR for BBC Network Radio, called the results, "Good news." Overall, the radio market in the UK continues to look extremely competitive. Over the last few years, there has been a steady growth in the number of stations so that broadcasters have to be careful to identify their key audience. One recent success story is Virgin 1215 (see also, Vox's list of the 20 most important people in the UK music industry above). Last quarter, the station's listenership grew by 78,000 to 4 million, an increase of eight per cent. Virgin now has a 3.9 per cent share of the market (compared to Radio One's 11.3 per cent). To give a flavour of the station, its chart last week was as follows:

Paul Dakenfold says he should be receiving the credit for The Perfecto All Starz' hit "Reach Up (Papa's Got A Brand New Pigbag)" which is strongly based on Pigbag's 1981 club classic "Papa's Got A Brand New Pigbag." Oakenfold says: "I'd been playing the Pigbag record on and off for about a year but it's not my record like everybody thinks. Paul Marks and Ben Hillier came up with the idea; I just mixed it and it's on my label (Perfecto)." Oakenfold is currently finishing an album from Rise, a project he put together with one of his regular musical partners Steve Osborne...Boyzone, the Irish teen sensations, could face legal action from a London-based group of the same name. The London version have the name registered with the National Band Register and were signed to PolyGram France, releasing two singles in the late eighties...INXS are booked into a London studio to work on new tracks which will be co-produced with Bomb The Bass mainman Tim Simenon. Bomb The Bass, meanwhile, release a new album Clear in March. The project will feature contributions from the writers Will Self, Benjamin Zephaniah and Leslie Weiner (who has previously worked with William Burroughs), and musicians such as Sinead O'Connor, Justin Warfield and Jah Wobble. Lead single from the album will be "One To One Religion," available on March 6 via 4th And Broadway/Stone Heights. One last piece of INXS news: the band's Kirk Pengilly is reported to have had a very nasty fishing accident involving a sharp knife and the genital region. If The Hard Report is spreading idle gossip then all apologies. If the reports are true, get well soon Kirk...The Who's classic live set Live At Leeds is being re-released by Polydor on February 20, celebrating the 25th anniversary of the show. The album has been re-mixed, re-mastered and re-packaged and will feature eight tracks not included on the original Track release, including versions of "I'm A Boy" and "Can't Explain"...Blur are to play at the London Mile End Football Stadium on June 17, a show that should attract a capacity 13,000 audience. Damon Albarn has been recording a French version of "To The End" with Parisian singer Francoise Hardy...EMF members and Oasis singer Noel Gallagher were nearly arrested shortly before Christmas after a drinking session at a London Hotel. Speaking to the New Musical Express, EMF's Ian Dench explained: "We bumped into Noel, had a bit of a binge and nearly got arrested. Derry and Zac were shouting at some policemen from the hotel window. The police wanted to arrest them but Zac's comments were so obscure they left. They didn't want to put him in the back of the car because they couldn't understand him." As previously reported, EMF's new album Cha Cha Cha will be released via EMI on March 6...Simple Minds next single will be "Hypnotised," available via Virgin on March 27. The band's world tour will open Dublin, Ireland on March 17, while "She's A River," the lead single from Good News From The Next World, is currently number one played single in Europe...King Crimson will release a new album in April. The line-up on the latest recordings is Adrian Belew, Robert Fripp, Bill Bruford and Tony Levin. Pat Mascolotto and Trey Gunn have also contributed. The band will play at London's Royal Albert Hall on May 17/18...Future Sound Of London seem to be working on something interesting. To quote their latest press release: "In their own inimitable style, FSOL are creating their own web site on the internet. All of you Net Surfers should be able to experience their parallel world in cyberspace some time in March. More details soon." So now you know...The Tindersticks release a new album via This Way Up on March 27. Self-titled, the album has 16 tracks and has been described as a "refinement" of the band's critically acclaimed debut...The Specials are rumoured to be recording a new album, but without singer Terry Hall and keyboard player Jerry Dammers. Original band members Lynvald Golding, Neville Staples, Sir Horace Gentleman and Roddy Radiation are said to be working with Mark Adams (ex. The Pogues) and Charlie Buchanan (ex. The Selecter).

ALAN CARTER/WBCN, BOSTON

Yes, the rumors are true. I got married on a sailboat cruising off of Captiva Island, Florida and then honeymooned in the Caribbean. But, the tan is already fading and we're now on skis (finally) in two feet of fresh powder (yeah!). The music is happening here at WBCN. My personal faves of the latest material is Wolfgang Press "Going South." It really reminds me more of The The than Wolfgang Press, but sounds great and has proven to be totally infectious. Bush "Everything Zen" and Face to Face "Disconnected" continue to build after early debuts here last month. The new Extreme album is a brave one, but it's obvious that here was a quality '80s band that had to evolve. With the always-stunning guitar work and musical direction of Nuno Bettencourt, Extreme has always had my respect. Waiting For The Punchline rocks with a '90s darkness and a more mature palate of studio colors. We feel stronger about "Leave Me Alone" than "Hip Today," so today we're switching tracks. Also love "Tell Me Something I Don't Know" and "Unconditionally." Boston honors Extreme this Saturday by giving the group a star on the Tower Records' "Walk Of Fame." The star will be right next to Aerosmith's!

CATHY FAULKNER/KISW, SEATTLE

Pearl Jam did a couple free shows in Seattle's intimate Moore Theater. Tickets were circulated through their fan club and various youth charities. Everyone in attendance had the time of their life, especially when Neil Young hit the stage with the band. We added "Kill For You," from Moist and "N.I.B." from Ugly Kid Joe. We also proudly stand up in support of the Melvins "Revolve." Incredible tune... please, do listen to it.

JOHN NAGARYA/WKDF, NASHVILLE

Hey, I'm still here for a few more weeks and I'm still getting records on the air. So those of you who have chosen to stop calling me to work your records — you are stupid! Enjoy that big fat BDS. For those that have been calling such as the folks from Atlantic — they get Collective Soul. We had to be one or two stations on the planet that didn't play "Shine." (I think the other one was in Madagascar). Well we're playing "Gel" now and while I still think "Shine" was a piece of shit (yah I know I'm the only one) "Gel" is thousands of times better! Pisacane still uses the phrase "I'll Call Ya Back" more than any P.D. or M.D. says, "We're looking at it." While I'm in the process of looking for a new gig in promotion I would like to thank all the V.P.'s and national directors who have been kind enough to talk to me about any prospects! To those who haven't had the courtesy to take or return a call — well thanks for extending the same courtesy that you've expected and gotten from me for the last nine years! If anyone needs a kick ass promo person for their staff (if I can get Kidd Redd to add records I can get anyone to). Call me here at the station 615-244-9533 or at home 615-228-7677! See you at the ABBA Reunion!

BRUCE WARREN, WORLD CAFE

Here's the flava in yo' ear from the Cafe Crew... How awesome is the debut from Ivan Neville? To quote Timothy White, Ivan "plays rock n'roll the way it was meant to be: lowdown and swampy." Amen, Tim. With Bonnie Raitt, Keith Richards, Branford Marsalis and Aaron Neville helping young Ivan out, there ain't a bad song on the record. Bonnie's duet on "Don't Cry Now" smokes a bong and a half, as do "Stay What You Are" and "Never Grow Up." Check out Ivan's Thanks on Iguana Records... Shit ain't been this funky since Little Feat's last record album/Feats Don't Fail Me Now... Let me take you down to Funkytown, or at least to the Mambo Inn Collection on Rykodisc, a compilation of the smoothest, grooviest world/jazz/hip-hop/funk you'll have heard since The Tramps cut "Disco Inferno." This is the record for all you PC Public Radio gangsta's who wanna be down by law but are too scared to drop the bomb (if you know what I'm saying)... It's twoo, it's twoo... Pop music meister Rob Lauder inks record deal with the coolest label... Will Rob now appoint Merilee, Maxanne and I to fan club duties???... Are The Courage Brothers not like another Hootie waiting to happen??? Is the Nits "Da Da Da" not the coolest pop song since the Gigolo Aunts "Serious Drugs"... Is the new Underground Network on WDRE not the most fund radio has sounded since Dave Herman's "Marconi Experience?" The answer to these and other questions at 11... What We Shoveled Out To: Jen Trynin's Cockamamie; Edsel's Detroit Folly; Massive Attack's "Weather Storm;" American Music Club's cover of "On A Clear Day;" the raw, Delta blues of R.L. Burnside's Too Bad Jim on Fat Possum/Capricorn' pop raves of the moment PFR and Better Than Ezra and PJ Harvey's To Bring You My Love — the first Best Album of 1995... Shouts this week to Brian "Call Me Hank" Corona, Howard Leon a.k.a "The Notorious Small;" new Reprise local Pam Trickett; the Dag crew; Streets, Sutcliffe, and the JC Dobbs Slash mosh-pit crew... By the way, Jeff Buckley sends his best... and we out.

JOHN LENAC & KEVIN KLINE KTOZ, SPRINGFIELD

A Channel Z congratulations to all of the winners in the first New Rock AIR Competition. What an amazing weekend?! Both the lighter side and the heavier side of the music industry were well represented on the Channel Z airwaves. On the lighter front, it was a Sheryl Crow weekend, with Channel Z listeners getting a chance to win Sheryl's CD Tuesday Night Music Club. Winners also were registered to win one of five pairs of tickets to see Sheryl Crow in Kansas City on February 23 playing with Freddy Johnston. The Sheryl Crow touchstones lit up the phones as Channel Z inducted many ecstatic fans into Sheryl's "Club." A fraternal thank you to Loraine Caruso, Karl Bader and the rest of the A&M club for helping with this promotion. It was fantastic. On Sunday, the members of Type O Negative joined Kevin in the studio before their show with Pantera. This was Kevin's first in-studio interview... needless to say, his emotions ran the entire emotional spectrum since he is also a big fan of the band. After the interview, liners, photos, and autographs it was on to the venue for some serious bodily harm. Kevin's diet for the next few days will be a steady dose of Doan's pills. A sellout crowd was treated to a slammin' good time by both bands. Thanks you to Type O Negative, Tom Gates at Roadrunner Records, and Wendy Naylor for tickets to the show and for setting up the in-studio appearance by the Boys from Brooklyn. Saturday night Catherine rocked the house as part of our rising artist concert series. The Regency Showcase smiled as the sold-out crowd of 600 people were exposed to another great live performance by an upcoming Channel Z artist. Call us about getting your band into the market to play in front of these live-show hungry listeners.

RECKLESS ERIC & JULIE HOYT CHANNEL Z, AUGUSTA

Hello to everyone from the Golf World of Augusta, Georgia. Hope that things in your world are going as well as they are here. We've been really busy with The Goodies that have been coming our way lately. Unfortunately, The Dada concert we had scheduled for this Monday night had to be canceled because their lead-guitarist had to go in for surgery on his hands. Seems that he is having problems with his nerves and tendons in his wrists, and we'd like to wish him a speedy and 100% recovery. We did a Win-It-Before-You-Can-Buy-It weekend with that fantastic new Simple Minds LP. Thanks to all the happening people over at Virgin for that. It kept the phones tied up all weekend. We also had Julie's favorite band, Dag, into town this Monday night. Talk about a great show!!! "Ass grinding grooves" is an understatement!!! Check these guys out as soon as you get a chance. We also had a retro night at our weekly live dance show Groovenation. People really can't get enough of those old '80s dance tunes, like Frankie Goes To Hollywood and The Waitresses. Trivia question for the week: Who did "Pass The Dutchie?" We've got all kinds of goodness coming up this next week, like visits from Moist and The Cranes, plus a promotion with The The's "Hanky Panky". Stay tuned for all the updates on that good stuff! Until next time, stay warm and buy something special for Valentine's Day.

KBKS, BOULDER

Here's the latest: the new "Morning Breath" team is in place! Jon Konstan & Val Wolf! Teyah Mikels is solidly holding down middays but still looking for a show name! She's getting the listeners involved in choosing name. If you have an idea let her know. I hope your also aware of Boooger's "Evening Circus" had gotten off to a flying start...A lot of upcoming events!!!! The Benefit Bed Ride, details soon. And the "Listeners Choice Awards" are coming Sat. March 18th!! We're already promoting the awards. 5 solid hours of local bands in a Colorado playoff! The listeners chose their favorite local act from the 56 artists we're airing on the show Sat. March 18th!!...A couple of new faces!! Jason B., helping in promotions and Robb M., who's doing a little of everything including live concert reports. "Trip Roberts" has already given reports from local and national shows. He also somehow wormed his way into Biohazard's motel room, that's how we got the cool liners. As for the rest of his visit, file it under un-printable! Is that a word?

GREG ROBERTS

KMFU, STEAMBOAT SPRINGS

Every once in awhile when the mood is right and the music strikes me I need to put my thoughts into writing...I think it's been since October of '94 that I've placed a pen to paper to write so here goes...So the snow has fallen and fallen some more here in the Rockies. Gosh it sure is beautiful. Over seven feet since January first. "No" to answer the question on many of friends' minds, I have not had a ski lesson yet. Don't think I will have the time either. Things at KKRK in Wenatchee are well. Station continues to dominate with adults who crave quality music and programming. Remember record label type service both KKRK and KFMU. We do not share any affiliation through ownership or simulcasting, so KKRK does need their own product! I just plug it in to make sense for them. Speaking of music to plug into...if you haven't gotten deeper into the Todd Snider record do yourself and your listeners a favor by spinning "That Was Me" or "You Think You Know Someone" bot are great mid-day type records...Can't get enough of the Wolfgang Press on Warner Brothers! Top 5 requests at KKRK and KFMU. Also don't let the small label fool you...Bottlerockets are not just for the Fourth Of July! It's a smash on KFMU. Try "Welfare Music" and watch the phones light up for questions on about a new band record!! And finally a nod of the Fez goes to Paulette at Lee Arnold Marketing for the job she has done on the Will Porter disc. Single-handedly Paulette has worked this project relentlessly and it is paying dividends. Congratulations. Well the pen is just about out of ink for this week...So I close with the usual thanks for the readage. Until next time...

CARL CRAFT/WCIZ, WATERTOWN

Back when we were playing "Pain Lies On The Riverside," if you would have told me that the whole world be going three tracks deep on their next record, I would have believed you, yeah really I would. Hey, two bands for you to check out: Tragically Hip are back with their loosest recording yet. Hassle your Atlantic rep and check out "Grace, Too" (killer bass line) and "So Hard Done By." We got to see the band again last night along with a kazillion others, tight as rocks. Also like that Our Lady Peace sound.

THE HARD REPORT

GUY DARK/WHDQ, CLAREMONT

"I'm stage diving off the church of holier than thou, I'm bigger than Jesus now." Clever wordplay worthy of Elvis Costello or Billy Bragg comparisons from The Caulfields' "Devil's Diary." Instant cure for a bad mood — crank "Roots Radical" from Rancid. If you don't groove to it, apply for a job at the nearest Arrow station!

ED TRUNK/WDHA, CEDAR KNOLLS

Hosted a great local New Jersey show by Cinderella a few weeks back. I have never seen a club as crowded as The Birch Hill was on this particular Saturday night. I must be honest. I never was a huge Cinderella fan, however the band turned in an impressive set that the 1500-plus in attendance loved. The phones on my show since that gig have been non-stop. What really sucks is this pathetic mentality in the business today that any band that had success in the '80s can't possibly be worth anything in the '90s. I'm not saying all the '80s stuff is great, but I really wish people would open their minds (and their playlists) to some of these artists without immediately writing them off. You may be surprised to find a sizeable and loyal audience that finds it a nice alternative to all the alternative. Something else that really sucks is the fact that D-Generation are looking for a new label. My favorite band of '94 are dealless, and I'm shocked! Anyone with a clue should sign these guys ASAP! Their unbelievable debut is still smokin' on the Hard Show, and the guys have built a huge following with their unreal live show. If you want something refreshing and exciting check out D-Generation! Thanks to Charlie Londano at A&M for bringing Nuno and Gary from Extreme a few weeks back. The new CD sounds like another great effort. Other things doing well include Marilyn Manson, L.A. Guns, Megadeth, and Slash (Axl Who?). Some other music tremendously overlooked Tesla, Richie Kotzen, and the amazing Jeffrey Gaines! For music info call 201-455-1055 Ext. 1804 anytime.

DUG/WPUP, ATHENS

My theory about the accursed day (Feb. 14th): Nature abhors a vacuum, and life is awfully fucking empty. It's been a bad week, I don't want to talk, goodbye.

THE TINK/WVUD, NEWARK

Why hello there! Here's that update on WVUD's Second Annual Benefit for it's Metal Department. It will be held on March 11, 1995. This year's Metalthon II has already secured the likes of the area's best in hard music and all three band's would not mind opening for a national signed act. So if you're going to be anywhere near the first state (Delaware) on the 11th of March drop The Tink a note, or have your manager get in touch, or have the record company call, or tell your booking agent you wanna see why this The Tink guy got to be a nominee, or have your marketing people plow through the heavy phone play on them very busy Tuesday office hours. Aw'right! I'm stoppin', I made the point here. (I really should find a way to get my name in print just one more time, I'm not sure if it looks that good or not).

SCOTT "LO/JACK" DOUGLAS

VIRGIN, 212-332-0418

What a country! I'm on my way home on the subway and there's this guy doing Speedy Gonzales voices... quoting chapter and verse from some cartoon. He even looked like Speedy Gonzales. Everybody in the car was in hysterics. And! He didn't even ask for money! That one I might have paid for... Well, me amigo's — the Simple Minds are kickin' ass. No doubt about it. We've jumped into the top ten in the significant trade press and we're starting to get some very promising call out stories. Nothing major yet but it's looking good. The record hit the stores today (2/7) so we'll see how well these spins translate to the audience. Did you listen to "And the Band Played On?" It's wicked. John Lee Hooker comes with "Chill Out" for adds on 2/20. Guest star: Carlos Santana! If this is appropriate for your air, obviously, you'll know right away. Play it on your specialty shows, too. But, if you've got no place for it, take it home and play it for the neighbors. They will dig it no doubt!!! On 2/27 the Rolling Stones give us "I Go Wild" and some of you have already. Glad to know that. Last thing, Gilby Clarke "Johanna's Chopper" (cut 5 on the CD) is next for 3/6. It's got the crunch you want and the melody you need (sorry Ted). I'm hearing the rumors about Snakepit, too. We'll see. Lo/Jacks to: David Allen Ross, Bonnie Stacy, Tasha Mack, Brad Copeland, Shakin' Mawheeny, and Barry Griffin.

MARK FISCHER

ATLANTIC, 212-275-2085

Your attention please!! From the mouth of Kim Thayil of Soundgarden... "Nirvana and Soundgarden are probably the two biggest bands directly influenced by The Melvins..." The Melvins have arrived. This original three-piece from Seattle has been filling clubs even before their town was recognized as some sort of grunge heaven. The Melvins up til now have not been a consideration for commercial radio, but consider this. WAXQ/New York, KUPD/Phoenix, and KISW/Seattle have all felt it necessary to add The Melvins "Revolve" before the box. Your chance is this week. And as you ponder this record keep in mind that the band is currently on the road with Nine Inch Nails and will be in your town soon. In other news, Hootie has just completed its second appearance on Letterman. It seems as if fewer of you are resisting "Let Her Cry" now. That's good. If you have any doubts, check your local sound scan, or just call one of the two hundred plus stations playing Hootie. Collective Soul is absolutely exploding, already the 2nd most requested record at rock radio. Bad Religion "Infected" gets added to MTV and can now be heard on such major market stations as KLOS, WBCN, WRIF, KSJO, WQFM and WSHF. Bad Religion starts their tour on Monday in Orlando. Please take a good listen to Victoria Williams "You R Loved." We are going to get this record! Victoria will be appearing on Letterman in March and on Leno soon. Her tour starts mid-March and the video for "You R Loved" will be seen on MTV and VH-1 momentarily. What am I trying to say?! We are going to break Victoria Williams!!! I just want to let everyone know how much I appreciate your support. In the three and a half years that I've worked for Atlantic I've never experienced this much good music. Please understand that we do our best to get the hits to rise to the top. But it can't be done without you. Thank you... Did I hear someone say Tragically Hip?

FEBRUARY 10, 1995

CHRIS WOLTMAN

COLUMBIA RECORDS, 212-833-8505

Where do I start... Bruce is back, the E Street Band sounds absolutely awesome!! The satellite transmission is Wednesday (February 15th) at 5PM E.S.T. any questions about the details, call me. The CD Pro. of "Murder Incorporated" will be at radio on Thursday, February 16th. The Satellite coordinates are Satcom C5, Transponder 19, Channels 10 and 11. Get ready because this is going to be great!! C.O.C. — "Clean My Wounds" — if you don't feel the buzz on this track you live under a rock... a big fucking rock!! Last week WRIF, WRCX, WLZR, KUPD, and 20 other stations came in early... this week the roll continues with KLOS, KEGL, KQRC, WSHE, and 25 others that know what this band is about and what this track is going to do. I could climb way up on my high horse on this track but I'll stop by telling you this is real!! Look at that quality of the stations that believe, look at the early moves on the chart — BDS 210-85* — and listen to your gut when you hear "Clean My Wounds." Alice In Chains "Got Me Wrong" — hey we may not have baseball, but it's a homerun!! Toad the Wet Sprocket's "Fly From Heaven" is another amazing track from these guys. The tour with Hootie starts soon... this week stations like WFBQ and WLWQ came in. It's summed up by a conversation that our Cleveland local Dave Watson had with Greg Ausham at WLWQ where Greg basically said... "Hey, I know how well Toad has performed for WLWQ." I'm sure "Fly From Heaven" will continue that roll!! Take a look at Ugly Kid Joe's track "N.I.B." on the Tribute to Black Sabbath. WROC and KEZE led the way this week. Mad Season... the music is incredible! That's it...

KIM LANGBECKER, COLUMBIA RECORDS

When we first got Deliverance and started playing it, everyone who heard the record brought up "Clean My Wounds." The guitar licks would stick in their brain and they could not wait to play this track. Now with the first "official" week under our belt, "Clean My Wounds" is proving that C.O.C. is the goods. When you have credible and incredible call letters like KLOS, KEGL, KLOL, KIOZ, WQFM, KQRC, WSHE, WAAF, along with 26 others to tie you for #1 most added, it's hard not to feel that rare adrenaline rush when something is about to bust wide open! The BDS took a tremendous jump from 210 to 85* up 170 spins. Top 5 phones are already starting. We now are on over 70 stations ranging from Mainstream to C.O.R. "Clean My Wounds" is the rock anthem for 1995. Don't be the last on your block to add this! Toad "Fly From Heaven" also sports a solid week with 17 new adds including WFBQ and WLWQ to place in the Top 10 most added. The BDS is up to 200 spins and the tour is set to kick in the first part of March. In fact, anyone who is heading west for the Pollack Convention will have the opportunity to them first hand on Saturday Mar. 4 at the Palladium. Alice In Chains "Got Me Wrong" is absolutely on fire! The BDS looks spectacular up to 1250 spins making it the 9th most played record in the country! That's number 9! There should be no in the land who at this point can make a valid argument against playing this track! Ugly Kid Joe keeps rolling with "N.I.B." picking up KISW, KEZE, WZBH, KZBB, and WROC. KIBZ us already at 17 spins and WBTZ us at 31. The record is already familiar to your audience and fits in perfectly at night. Bruce will be opening the Grammys and the album is in store the 28th. "Murder Incorporated" will drop next week and then it's off to the races. The Mike Watt recorded is starting to should like a swarm, of king bees around a king (huh?)! The video for "Big Train" us killer!! If you had a train set when you were a kid you'll appreciate it. And Mad Season music is awesome. I happened to be lucky enough to also catch the first video from "Above" which will be "River Of Deceit." To say this is one of the best clips I have ever sheens would be an understatement. You should be able to hear the music within the next week or so from you local Columbia rep. And last but not least Jeff Buckley. Two small words that carry amazing power! Listen to "Last Good-Bye." This one will haunt you!

JOHN BUTLER

SILVERTONE RECORDS, 212-620-8798

I've finally found a place to live, so I'm slowly putting the contents of my life away in boxes. This includes my record collection which has been collecting dust for itself. Found a mint copy of this record from a band called Shy on RCA from the mid-'80s. Did any of you play the record Brave The Storm? Did I really buy this? Other notables that re-surfaced include: Orion The Hunter, Head East, Sweet, Tygers Of Pan Tang, Zebra and Martin Briley ("The Salt In My Tears" features one of the easiest guitar riffs committed to vinyl and plagiarized from Def Leppard's "Photograph"). As for guitar riffs nearly impossible to recreate, let's go to Chris Duarte Group's new single "My Way Down" now spinning with extra strength at KISS, WQUT, KEZO, WGLF, KZRR, WBCN, WCMF, KTXQ, WTUE, WRCX, WRXK, WROQ, KMOD, KRZZ and over twenty others. We're kicking into high gear! Here's a great story for you. After five days on the air WTUE-Dayton, "My Way Down" was the #1 requested record!!

It has cracked the Top 10 requested at KMOD, KTXQ, and KMKF over the past two weeks and each airplay market has seen a sharp increase in sales even after 10 plays a week. In some cases after 5 spins. "My Way Down" has a instantly heritage and recognizable sound and will draw some comparisons to the great Stevie Ray, but Duarte rocks much harder and sounds like the '90s when played next to your new VH cut or any number of great current songs on your list. The buzz back from diverse playlist and Duarte champions like Redbeard, Oedipus, Dave Kane, Dave Richards confirm what Carter Alan wrote in these pages a couple of weeks back: "Anyone who programmed Stevie Ray, Arc Angels or The Black Crowes should have no problem with this one" Dat's dat! (By the way, Chris showed up on two Guitar World magazine readers poll award lists: "Best Blues Album" for "Texas Sugar Strat Magik" and "Best Blues Guitarist." You can guess that EC showed well in each category and that SRV and Eric Johnson were previous winners.

JON NARDACHONE

ATLANTIC, 212-275-2135

I'm really delirious... not only am I sitting here listening to the new Monster Magnet, but I just realized the killer music hitting your mailboxes in the next three weeks... The new single from the Demon Night soundtrack is "Hey Man, Nice Shot" from Filter. The CD-pro features an edit and a remix of this amazing track which shoots for 2/20 adds... I couldn't be more proud of my N.J. home-boy's Skid Row... "My Enemy" is 3 1/2 minutes of rage and goes for adds on 2/27... Look for your advance cassette of Orange County's latest export Sugar Ray, whose Lemonade & Brownies LP will be out in late March. The first single will be "Mean Machine."

BRIAN MCEVOY

MERCURY RECORDS, 212-333-8458

A big thank you to Jeff Gillis for his support of the Cinderella show in Syracuse. A great turn out and a great hour on the air with Jeff himself. The new Kerbdog "Live At Concrete" has put the band back in the Hard Top 10 again. How many bands stay in or around the Hard Top 10 for 6 months. The Downset tour is doing amazing business. Every show is selling out. Catherine Wheel!!! Catherine Wheel!!! The new Wheel is coming.

Confirmed dates are coming in as you read this, please call for tickets and more information. Rage Against The Machine is getting a great response from those playing it, please do not ignore this ground-breaking band. If they are getting the spins, how about reporting as such!?! (Enuf said, I hope). Lots of music in orbit, ready to land on your desk, everything from a new Devilhead song ("We Like You" - adds February 21st) to Firehouse (March 7th), Manic Street Preachers (March 21st), and Fight (tentatively April 4th). As always, look both ways before you cross the street, Epic music aims for the skull...over and out!

Now back in the taxi cab...new driver this week is Mohammed Ali (He's even got an 8-track player).

I want to thank everyone who added Thorn and Holy Gang into rotation last week. If you have not yet listened to either one, please check them out fast! Yes, it's true, Thorn is not your typical metal band, but that's O.K. The innovation this band puts forth into their music is reason enough just to play it. The positive response from the trades and DJs is totally appreciated. Please play the "about the belt edit" of Holy Gang's "Free Tyson Free" before going crazy with the "below the belt edit." Also check out track three "Get Chained." Interviews with Mike Tyson are not available, but if you want one with Richard 23, that can be arranged. If you want interviews with Machine Head, Dog Eat Dog and/or Madball while they are still on the road, please call me. Death is inevitable.

First off, all West Coast people, could you puh-leeze send some of that sunshine and warm weather this way? It's just way too cold here and the snow has made a nice icy layer over the sidewalk which makes walking to work a new adventure every morning. Calgon, take me away!!!

Ok on to more important things...Pitch Shifter's remix EP should be added to your playlist now. Careful of the f-word at the tail end of the Biohazard track and also in the Gunshot version. Pitch Shifter's own mix of "Triad" is the track to play - also check out Therapy?'s mix of "Diable." Jon C. (vocalist extraordinaire) is around for a bit and will be doing phone interviews so give a shout if ya would like to talk to him. Many thanks out to John Lovely at WKLL - he knows the deal, he named Pitch Shifter's Desensitized album of the year...Bolt Thrower - what else needs to be said? This band is kickin' ass all over the place - "...For Victory" is the track. Gaining spins and already top 5 in quite a few of your charts so keep it up. And if you have not checked this out yet, you really need to get a swift kick in da butt...Godflesh - "Xnoybis" - this single need not stray very far from your CD player cuz you know people want to hear it again-n-again. Just can't get enough Godflesh. Plus, EJ is the Lord O' Metal (side note - can you say C.O.C.? Can you say Godly? I can)...Don't forget Fudge Tunnel folks, I refuse to leave ya alone about this band. Give "Circle of Friends" or "Suffering Makes Great Stories" a spin. Those nifty 7s I have are going fast...Remember, Al Goldstein loves Brutal Truth! Al also just got arrested but he was heard screaming out the name of a new track for you to play "Displacement! SONIC UNDERGROUND, 1-800-347-6642

Ha! That is me laughing at the one's who wouldn't listen to me when I screamed, "Naked Rhythm will go gold!!" Well... it isn't yet! But it is heading in the right direction. "Fatbox" is now numbered on some very important charts at metal/loud/rawkland plus passing the 100 add mark at college alternative plus a very nice tour starting in March plus a review in a couple of those same tips using superlatives! Play Naked Rhythm! Overdose Top 10 for three weeks... or Top 5 for one... either way, you can stop looking for the mirrors. This is a very real record from a very real band and do we have a summer tour! Speaking of tour, Spudmonsters are presently on the road with Overdose and Skrew and doing very well. Seeing is believing with these guys. See them live or see the phones light up when you play them! Sickening Gore is all over death radio... and then some! This record is surprising me... and that's not easy. Have you heard it? Have you heard Babylon Sad? Half the battle, people! Baphomet, Mystik, and Atrocity are still doing well when they are played and the increase in spins on all three prove it. Speaking of proof, I look forward to proving to the few left who don't believe in Naked Rhythm. These guys are for real and for you... and will be as big as Grubby! (But that's another story!)

After the large response to the Fudge Tunnel contest and what has come to be known as the Tootsie Roll problem, the Earache boys and girls have come up with a new competition for any and all that wish to enter. This is the low down. It's a Pitch Shifter sticker contest with a drawing to win one of ten Dragon sunglasses packages.

Don't forget it's Pitch Shifter vs. Biohazard, Therapy?, and Gunshot. Call for more info. Now more new info. Martin Van Drunen of Pestilence/Asphyx is now fronting one of the most brutal bands of all time. That band issued a limited double CD of one of their last shows with the old lineup. That band with their fifth release is undeniably one of the most powerful bands of all time. That band is Bolt Thrower. This is ...For Victory. Brutal Truth getting ready to clean up in the Far East. Not only that but we have reissues of Carcass, Fudge Tunnel, Napalm Death, and Morbid Angel. We have the "Stayin Alive" 7-inch from Anal Cunt. Kevin Salem hits the road this week with support for Soma City building at AAA. Press has already had a kit-ten for this record! Adjectives that have been used to describe it include "impassioned" (Rolling Stone), "out-standing" (Billboard), "memorable" (Entertainment Weekly), "remarkable" (Interview), "irresistible" (Huh), "heartfelt" (Chicago Tribune) and "moving" (Request). Could there be more here than you've noticed the first time around? Hmm...Modern Rock will receive a taste of Kevin's talent later this month with the single "Will." Give me a ring if you're interested already. Big thanks to Albert/Shred at WBCN and Steve at WFNX for having Kevin on the air last week. Type O Negative continue to impress anyone who has played "Christian Woman," with the list growing every week. Those who believe that "different" is synonymous with "unpalatable," I highly suggest that you take a second look at how this track works for stations like 99X, X96, KTCL, KTOZ, KNNC, WRXQ, WQNF, WHTG, and X107. Over 230,000 record buyers can't be wrong! Thanks to those who have added some adventure to their playlist by playing Type O Negative; at least you know that this track works as well anything else out there!

BROADCAST CONSULTING

Radio stations pay a fortune to BMI and ASCAP every year to have the rights to play licensed music on the radio. At large markets, the bill can run as high as a million dollars a year in license fees. Now another firm is holding its hand out to be paid — SESAC. Many radio stations ignored bills from SESAC because the only music that they really owned licensing rights to were obscure country songs. But that has changed. SESAC had just announced they signed the music libraries of Bob Dylan and Neil Diamond. If your station is playing "Girl You'll Be A Woman Soon" by Urge Overkill, or any of the 3,000 Bob Dylan cover songs, as well as songs by the singer/songwriters, you will have to start paying SESAC's annual fee to be able to play this music. SESAC's rates are a lot lower than BMI's and ASCAP's. For a station in a market of one million people, the fee will be around $1,500....The single from Dave Stewart's forthcoming Greetings From The Gutter (EastWest) release is funky, good time music. Co-written by Bootsy Collins, "Jealousy" sounds more like Boxing Gandhis than Spiritual Cowboys....If you're a fan of Siouxie & the Banshees, you're going to love their new single, called "O Baby." It's a happy, shuffling song that reminded us more than a little of the Pretenders. Look for the album The Rapture (Geffen) later this month....After a successful run as a solo artist, Kristen Hersch is back with her band Throwing Muses. The album University (Sire/Reprise) is sure to be a critical favorite, and is lead by the track "Snakelace." It's a somber song, but one that sticks with you....Arista has scored with the soundtrack to "Boys On The Side." With many new songs, including covers from Bonnie Raitt, Sheryl Crow, The Pretenders and Sarah McLachlan, and a new original from Melissa Etheridge called "I Take You With Me," there's plenty of material to choose from....Gabriel Dorman's release Give That Dog Some Peace (Palmetto) has been floating in and out of our CD player for weeks. We keep coming back to it, so it must be working for us. Lil Anel sings with Gabriel on all but one track, and their voices mesh so well together that they sometimes sound like one. Couple that with Dorman's rhythmic guitar playing and you have a top notch indie release. "Walkin The Devil" will give you a good idea what the album is all about....Clarence "Gatemouth" Brown is the elder statesman of the Texas blues. His guitar and fiddle playing have an innate sense of humor about them, and his songs blend extremely well with AAA music. The instrumental "Honky Tonk" leads off the album with The Man (Verve) in swinging fashion. Be sure to listen to Gate's cover of "Early In The Morning" (written by Louis Jordan and made famous by Nisson), as well as the zydeco number "Say You Love Me", and "There You Are"....We are so glad that Epic decided to bring back the Oken label. In their short 2nd lifespan, they've given us G. Love and Special Sauce, Keb' Mo', and now Little Axe. The Wolf That House Built is the title of the album from Skip McDonald and crew. It features samples of blues music and the lyrics of Howlin' Wolf, Leadbelly and Son House, with modern day beats and vocals laying the groundwork. It's hard to classify this music as blues, hip-hop or anything else — listen to it and make up your own mind. "Another Sinful Day" and "Ride On" are a good place to start.
