Volume 30 No. 1

- 9 Label Directory
- 17 Management Directory
- 26 Talent Agents Directory
- 29 Publicity Companies Directory
- 33 Artist Services Directory
- 35 2010 Artist Roster

The Artist Roster contains four company appendices complete with client rosters—Label, Management, Talent Agents and Publicity. An Artist Grid section connects artists to their team players in each category. New this year are listings for companies offering artist services such as web development, online marketing and radio promotion.

Included artists are mostly drawn from the ranks of Nashville country record labels. Inclusion in the company appendices required that a business be Nashville-based and/or have significant Nashville clients. Due to the vast nature of this annual guide, it is possible (perhaps probable) that an artist or support company has been inadvertently omitted. We apologize in advance. Please report errors, omissions or changes (directory@musicrow.com) immediately as we update the online version of this information throughout the year. (Available to subscribers at www.musicrow.com)

Our sincerest appreciation and thanks to the many label publicity departments which were crucial in the process of collecting and updating our information.

Two Six Paks in, Shelton is feeling as good as he's ever felt about his career. "This has been an amazing year for me," he says. "If you would have told me when I started out that I would have two major awards, a CD in the upper reaches of the charts, a sold-out show at the Ryman Auditorium and a career that's generally on fire, I would have thought you were pulling my leg."

He's got all that and more. The Six Paks, of course, are Blake's two most recent CDs, innovative ways to get music into the hands of his fans more often. The first, Hillbilly Bone, included a title track that sped to the coveted No. 1 spot on the singles charts and won Blake two major awards—Vocal Event of the Year from the Academy of Country Music and Collaborative Video of the Year (with his partner in crime Trace Adkins) from CMT.

Now, with the release of the follow-up, All About Tonight, Blake is ready to take it up yet another notch. "No one should be surprised that I love a good six-pack," says the Ada, Oklahoma, crowd-rocker, "and when you've got a party crowd, if one is good, two is better."

Blake has hit a sweet spot with these latest releases, drawing on the talents of songwriting buddies like Rhett Akins, Dallas Davidson, Ben Hayslip, Jeff Bates, Tony Mullins and Craig Wiseman. All About Tonight continues Blake's tradition of capturing on record both the touching and the rowdy aspects of country life.

Blake has visited the No. 1 spot on the country singles chart six times, with three of those coming in the last three years. Both "Home" from Pure BS Deluxe and "She Wouldn't Be Gone" from Startin' Fires hit the top, and he has not had a single that peaked outside the Top Ten since 2007.

And while he is blazing trails with Six Paks, he is also re-inventing the way country's rowdier acts are connecting with fans via social networking. Though Twitter, YouTube and the like were once thought to be the domain of younger, more pop-oriented artists, Blake has recreated the genre in his own image. His tweets are irreverent, edgy, timely and hilarious, and they have become the talk of fans and industry alike.

AFTRA introduces two new Agreements which not only help our members, but also help AFTRA producers and employers:

AFTRA Independent Artist Label Agreement

AFTRA Touring Agreement

The new AFTRA Independent Artist provides an opportunity for the professional Independent Artist to have their total earnings credited as AFTRA covered earnings. All income from touring, merchandise, CD sales and digital downloads can be credited towards AFTRA benefits and provide Independent Artists with the same benefits package provided to AFTRA Recording Artists signed to AFTRA record labels.

The new AFTRA Touring Agreement provides an opportunity for singers and dancers who tour with AFTRA Recording Artists to have their touring earnings credited as AFTRA covered earnings. Touring companies can now provide a true benefits package to performers that tour with their Artists. Touring singers and dancers no longer lose benefits coverage because they chose to tour and no longer work in the studio.

AFTRA Members Have Been The Voice of Music For Over 70 Years

Working under an AFTRA Contract provides employer paid benefits which include major medical/hospitalization/prescription drug coverage/pension and life insurance.

13-SONG ALBUM

Melanie Denard
Dare To Live

"Melanie is one of the most dynamic new personalities I have met this year! Her spirit is matched only by her talent! She will not go unheard, I promise you that!" M. FletcherBrown, PD WXFL/WLVS 'Kix 96'

"WOW!!! That about says it all. WOW vocals. WOW looks. WOW personality!! Melanie Denard is the whole package." Jim Kay, PD/MD KVVP-FM 'Big Dog Country'

"If you were able to look up "country soul" in the dictionary—you would see a picture and hear the voice of Melanie Denard", Steve Ferguson, WTHO, MD 'Better Country'

"ALL I EVER DID WAS LOVE YOU"...is a smoldering slice of soulful country rock which would get, in a perfect world, as much attention as the latest singles from the country radio format's top stars....Dare To Live can compete with the output of the major labels..(it's) as good as any mainstream album you're gonna hear out of Nashville these days, if not better...Dare To Live should appeal to fans of Underwood, Wilson, Clark, Messina, ...(and) to people who just love good music." Cory Walker
"Soldier's Last Letter"

16-year-old Nashville recording artist Cory Walker is gaining the attention from country radio by following in the footsteps of legendary Ernest Tubb and Merle Haggard with the release of his debut single—a tribute song to the American Veterans. Produced by Grammy-nominated Eric Paul, Cory's debut album includes some of Nashville's finest session musicians, including Charlie McCoy.
