PICKS OF THE WEEK

SINGLES

THE JACKSON 5, "MAMA'S PEARL" (Jobete, BMI). Here they go again! The "5" follow their "I'll Be There" smash with a fast-paced number from the "Third Album" that's already on its way to the top. The kids have it in the bag, Motown 1177.

SLEEPERS

DUSK, "ANGEL BABY" (Pocket Full of Tunes-Saturday, BMI). Sister group to — you guessed it — Dawn has a good thing starting. The gals have that "Knock Three Times" sound but are no relation to Rosie and the Originals. Bell 961.

ALBUMS

JANIS JOPLIN, "PEARL." Janis Joplin's last album shows that the Pearl of a girl was operating with all engines going. The fans will be glad to have this galvanic farewell performance. Janis tries a few new things, like an a cappella "Mercedes Benz" and a rustic "Me and Bobby McGee." Columbia KC 30322.

THE GUESS WHO, "HANG ON TO YOUR LIFE" (Dunbar / Cirrus / Sunspot / Expressions, BMI). Canada's leading balance-of-payments equalizers are on the gold trail once more. Follow to "Share the Land" is a hard rocker that's bound to take off. RCA 74-0414.

SWEETWATER, "JUST FOR YOU" (Rainwater, BMI). Title cut from the group's long-delayed second album is a Latin-flavored number that's real sleeper material. Tune is reminiscent of Sergio Mendes' "Mas Que Nada." Reprise 0987.

BEE GEES, "2 YEARS ON." Getting wise to themselves, the Bee Gees have re-banded and, as could have been predicted, have made it straight to the top 10 with their comeback single. The album should follow the same trail, being a collection of the weirdly romantic ballads the three brothers have always excelled at. Atco SD 33-353.

IKE & TINA TURNER, "PROUD MARY" (Jondora, BMI). Ike & Tina play it "nice and rough" on Creedence Clearwater's contemporary classic. Great to hear Ike join in with his fine bass and Tina's far out intro is worth the price of admission alone. Liberty 56216.

TOWER OF POWER, "BACK ON THE STREETS AGAIN" (Fillcorp, ASCAP). The East Bay greasers sound nice and lubricated on their first single. Heavy horn rocker features the rawest of vocal power that is a refreshing change from the smoothie trend. San Francisco 64 (Atlantic).

POCO, "DELIVERIN'." Poco perform at the Felt Forum on this package, and they certainly did the right things for the crowd there. The crowd at home will love the lively interpretations of some of the group's best material, which, as usual, is by Furay and Messina, for the most part. Epic KE 30209.

DAVE MASON, "WAITIN' ON YOU" (Coachhouse, BMI). No question that Dave Mason is going to get giant singles action all by his lonesome. Tune from his colorful "Alone Together" album is a tasteful rocker that will be hard to stop. Blue Thumb 7122 (Capito).

THE LOST GENERATION, "SOMEDAY" (Julio-Brian, BMI). The guys are expert at serving up the sweetest soul around. Their vocal work on this outing is truly impressive and will meet with the approval of R&B and pop audiences alike. Brunswick 55445.

SIR LORD BALTIMORE, "KINGDOM COME." Sir Lord Baltimore could do Three Cheer-Grand Funk Railroad-type business with this album of unbroken hard rock. Group members are Louis Dambra, Gary Justin and John Garner and much will be heard from them in the weeks and months to come. Mercury SR 61328.

New Look, Philosophy at UA Liberty Phased Out

David Picker

■ LOS ANGELES — David Picker, President of United Artists Records, outlined new company policies and philosophies at a press conference held here last Wednesday (13).

One of the first moves will be the elimination of the multi-label aspect of the firm. All of the artists under contract will now be on the United Artists label, with the exception of Blue Note and UA-Latino which have become well established in their respective specialized fields. The Liberty label has been eliminated.

The new look, centered around a re-designed label, will more closely identify the record company with the parent United Artists film company. The closer alignment with the movie industry will allow the label to offer recording artists other entertainment field opportunities.

Picker stated that the firm will actively seek musical talents that want to expand into related fields. The first two artists—who both have outside recording affiliations—are Frank Zappa and David Crosby. Zappa is currently winding production of his first film, "Two Hundred Motels," for United Artists, which will combine live action and animation; and Crosby will produce and star in his first film, "Family," for UA.

UNITED ARTISTS RECORDS

According to Picker, Zappa and Crosby are just two of many artists that have come to United Artists with film projects, and he stated that both the film and recording companies are looking with discrimination for new artists who will be granted full creative freedom in both areas. Evidence of the new selectivity at the label is the fact that in the Jacobs Joins Roulette As A&R, Creative Services Dir.

■ NEW YORK—A major executive appointment at Roulette Records has been made with the announcement that Dick Jacobs has joined the company in the dual capacity of Director of A&R and Creative Services.

Roulette President Morris Levy detailed Jacobs' assignment as one of varied responsibilities including the screening of new talent, supervision of recording dates and maintaining liaison throughout all phases of production with the many independent producers working with the company. In addition, Jacobs will be deeply involved with graphics on all album covers and merchandising displays and coordinate LP production and packaging.

Jacobs joins Roulette following an association of 17 years with MCA during which he headed the A&R staff of Coral Records and was, in 1968-69, executive producer for the MCA Special Markets Division.

Beginning his career in the music business as an arranger, Jacobs worked with many prominent artists including Louis Armstrong and the Tommy Dorsey Band. His arrangements contributed to hits by numerous Coral, Brunswick and Decca artists with whom he worked including the McGuire Sisters, Teresa Brewer, Buddy Holly, Jackie Wilson, Rod McKuen, Debbie Reynolds, Steve Lawrence and Eydie Gormé. Once a recording artist himself, Jacobs had several instrumental hits, among which were "Petticoats of Portugal," "Man with the Golden Arm" and "Fascination."

Johnson Polydor LP Promo Chief

Charlie Johnson

■ NEW YORK—Charlie Johnson has been appointed Director of National Album Promotion for Polydor Records, announces President Jerry Schonenbaum.

Johnson will be responsible to David Chackler, Director, National Promotion, Polydor Records, for the overall promoting of the label's album and single product. He will be keeping in constant touch with trade papers and key radio stations in order to insure the best play and marketing for Polydor releases. He will be working in close and constant touch with the label's national promotion force, as well as coordinating advertising and merchandising with the label's ad agency and the national sales department.

Charlie has worked in various aspects of the music industry for the past 28 years. For 20 of those he was a well known disc jockey on major stations in Canada and the United States, his last gig being at KMPC in Hollywood, Calif. He has also been involved in personal management and directly prior to his joining the Polydor staff, he was West Coast Promotion Manager for Certron Records.

Norman Whitfield is spreading the Undisputed Truth.

The whole industry is waking up to the kind of morning Jim Ed's singing about.

Jim Ed Brown's single of "Morning" was number one on Record World's country chart.

And now that it's one of the most familiar songs in America, Jim Ed's followed it with an album.

Naturally, "Morning" is the lead cut.

But there's more: a song like "Good Brother John" informs us anew of the color bar in Vietnam. A song like "Sunday Morning We'll Be Singing" gets us in a glorious mood for worship.

There's a lot of other good country music in "Morning." All just right for Sunday afternoon. And the rest of the week, too.

DFK's Krieger:

Advertising Must Suit the Music

By DAVID E. KRIEGER

Vice President, Creative Director
Davis Fried Krieger, Inc., Advertising

David E. Krieger

■ NEW YORK—Let me first say, that if I were Bill Bernbach, of Doyle Dane Bernbach Advertising, or David Ogilvy or Mary Wells, and I were offered a record advertising account—no matter how big—I'd turn it down.

Because record advertising, in one sense, has nothing to do with anything in their experience. And, ironically, in another, has everything to do with it.

Other than records, there are no product areas where just about every ad means an entirely new marketing direction and concept — where every ad is virtually the ad campaign. Where every product is a new product with an active shelf life measured in weeks instead of years, where a budget is in the thousands, rather than millions, and where in less time than it takes to start thinking about a new detergent, you've thought out, executed, placed, and in many cases actually seen the ad run. But where the man hours of sweat seem hardly worth the billings involved.

Yessir, if I were Bernbach, Ogilvy or Wells, I'd really think twice. (And don't think that every once in a while, I don't say "What the hell am I doing in this madhouse?")

Yet in spite of all I've said to warn these three, many of the things that they have personally brought to the advertising profession is exactly what record advertising is, and should be all about.

Everybody's got his own way of doing ads—and I've got mine. But for whatever differences there are between the Bernbachs, the Ogilvys and the Wells' and the Kriegers, if you will, the end results are the same—ads that can sell.

Secret to Great Advertising: Think First

I've got a secret to great advertising. Think first. (The rub is how thoroughly.)

You can't sell what isn't good. You can't tell what isn't happening. So product quality has to be there and the timing has to be right.

There are very few acts around that merely require a simple announcement that a new piece of product is shipping. In fact those acts could do just as well, in many instances, without that ad.

Turning down an ad is a hard decision to make, and I can't tell you how many times I've wanted to bite my tongue as I started to suggest that the client wait and see for a couple of weeks longer, because there wasn't anything we could say about the product at that point which would help its cause.

By the same token we might advise our client not to hold back on something he was holding back on, because we felt that a lot of well-placed advertising was just the thing he needed to overcome sales resistance. And when you do something like that, you'd better be right.

An ad has to talk to someone. Who do you talk to when you do a trade ad? The distributor? The dealer? The dj or pd? Generally,

I like to talk to everyone. But mostly the dj and the pd. They're the guys that influence a record's success the most. If the stations are playing it, the dealers and distributors aren't likely to cut their own throats by not stocking it.

You can't give them a line either, because they tend to be better educated and more perceptive than we are. Do you actually think you can con Rick Sklar over at WABC-AM or a Rosko or a Jonathan Schwartz from WNEW-FM with the old "Smasheroo hype" or a couple of "Outtasights"?

Ads are ads, whether they're trade or consumer. Every ad has its own specific target and market objective. And every ad is meant to be read by someone.

I believe in copy and I believe in people. And people get their information, as they say, "from the advertisements." So when it comes to a business decision, like stocking records, it seems to me they'd want to read those ads even harder. Because the charts don't tell everything—just where the records were last week.

Making the ads. (This is the part I like to talk about the most.)
Must Have Client's Complete Confidence

The most important thing you can have going for you when you set out to do an ad is the client's complete confidence. Because a lot of times when the ad is finally done, you can surprise yourself and really surprise the client. So he's got to be ready to see everything with an open mind and be willing to fight your battle with self-appointed experts within the organization—and often with himself.

We always start with the record itself. (Of course.) The writer and art director listen and evaluate the music. What is it saying? They also listen to what the client has to say about it and (if they're available) what the group itself has to say. And believe me, the groups have a lot to say. Understandably, because a lot of rock advertising is simply garbage, and they're frustrated to the point of wanting to do it themselves. I'm open to any good idea from any quarter, but professional chores are better left to the professionals.

I can't tell you exactly what the thought processes are because they're different from ad to ad. But we do look for a basic selling idea.

If we're dealing with an album from a new group, it might be in the uniqueness of their sound. And we build the ad around that idea.

If the album has a unique artistic concept, we might focus on that. Or if a new group is made up of well known artists with a big following, that simply might be the strongest thing to focus on.

But above all, we want to give the reader a feeling of what the music sounds like. (Sit down sometime and try to put into words what your favorite piece of music sounds like—the mood it evokes—the pictures it makes you see—the way it makes you feel. It's not easy.) Then when we have the thought or selling idea, we try to tie the whole thing up in an arresting headline and an exciting visual.

Don't Go Gratuitously Far Out

We look for the original headline/visual, but we don't go gratuitously far out. (Unless of course the client says so.) We're dealing with the best educated, most skeptical and most sensitive generation of young people that ever lived and they can spot a clinker a mile away.

I'll tell you one thing an ad shouldn't be—the self-serving kind of which the writer takes your time up by proving to you what a clever and positively adorable writer he is. Ads aren't

Polydor Intro's Unique Ad Concept To Present Randall's Island Album

Chuck Gregory

■ NEW YORK—When the original cover for the "Randall's Island" album was designed by the Davis Fried Krieger Agency for Polydor, it was good. But was it, Polydor General Manager Chuck Gregory wondered, just that right idea, that right concept that would present Elliott Randall and his group to a record buyer unfamiliar with them? Would this album cover generate the kind of excitement necessary to sell a comparatively new group?

An ad was then designed. "This ad (which was soon to become the initial 'Randall's Island' cover) was good, art-wise, copy-wise and placement-wise, but it was typical. It was not unlike almost every other ad that runs in most of the undergrounds and trade papers," noted Gregory.

Gregory then met with the advertising agency and between them they developed a new album cover. It was to become the first album concept of its kind and was destined "to create both great excitement and total confusion," said Gregory.

The decision was made to use the actual ad as the album's cover. This was even more unusual because the ad had already appeared in various publications.

"The reasons were fairly simple. It was Polydor's idea that it would be an attention-getter and that a consumer might be likely to pick up the album and examine it more closely, merely to find out what the cover was all about. In a way, it was also unique to have a publication find out that they actually printed the cover instead of a typical cover ad," continued Gregory.

Actually Two Covers

There are actually two covers. The ad cover and the original cover concept which the company is returning to now that people are recognizing the group's name and buying the album.

There was a problem, however, with this kind of promotion idea, namely a bit of confusion. Comments ranged from "a total freak-out" to total dislike because some did not understand the concept. Polydor, however, feels that idea was a good one in that it got "Randall's Island" much attention

Everything you always wanted to know about Elliott Randall but were afraid to ask.
Elliott Randall / Randall's Island on Polydor Records and helped in the initial merchandising.

The company plans to follow up the album idea with a major tour, both in Europe (Feb. 12-March 16) and in the United States (March 25-May 22) with John Mayall. Randall's Island will be appearing at several major clubs in Los Angeles and San Francisco and then will be returning to New York to participate in a special Phoenix House benefit on Jan. 31 at the Fillmore East.

1971 is 'Year of the Ram' at Chess

■ NEW YORK—Len Levy, head of the GRT Records Group, announced that a major promotional, publicity and advertising campaign will be undertaken during 1971 for pianist Ramsey Lewis, who has been with the Chess Records organization for the past 15 years.

Titled "The Year of the Ram," the campaign will include the release of at least four albums on the Cadet label during the next 12 months, extensive trade and consumer ads, a national college tour coordinated with a talent search, major TV exposure, point of purchase displays and incentive programs. The GRT tape division will also be involved in the promotion.

The first Ramsey Lewis album to be released in 1971 is "Back to the Roots." Set for a late February or early March release, the LP marks the reunion of Lewis with Esmond Edwards, now Vice President of

A&R for Chess, who co-produced this LP with Lewis. Several years ago, Edwards produced the million-selling "The In Crowd," "Hang on Sloopy" and "Wade in the Water" for Lewis.

A double-record set listing for $5.98, which will include 15 years of the best of Ramsey Lewis will be released in the fall and at least one other Lewis LP will be issued in 1971. Each album will receive extensive merchandising support under the direction of Arnie Orleans, vice president of marketing. Point of purchase material is being prepared including browser bins and window and counter displays. Radio and co-op ads will be placed in major markets.

Special Press Kit

A specially prepared Lewis press kit, which will include a sampler record, a complete discography and other material, will be given away at the NARM convention in February and will be utilized during the year.

One of the key segments to "The Year of the Ram" promotion is an all-out effort structured around Lewis' forthcoming, extensive college tour and talent search. Tie-in publicity, advertising and promotion between specially selected campus representatives, local Chess Distributors and national coordination with Chess, their public relations firm and Lewis' staff will result in the deepest possible penetration of this all-important record market.

The entire Chess executive team, including Vice President of Marketing Arnie Orleans; Vice President of A&R Esmond Edwards; Sales Manager Worthy Patterson and National Promotion Manager Chuck Fly, will be involved in the Year of the Ram campaign.

Rex Single Inserted

■ LOS ANGELES — Blue Thumb is inserting the chart-climbing single of "Ride a White Swan" by Tyrannosaurus Rex into the group's LP "Beard of Stars," originally released several months ago.

The LP, which Capitol distributes under terms of a recently concluded marketing and sales program, bears the sticker "Bonus — this album contains the hit single 'Ride The White Swan.'"

The marketing idea is a first for Blue Thumb, and possibly the record industry, believes Sal Licata, Blue Thumb's Sales Director.

Geremia to Sire

■ NEW YORK—Paul Geremia has been signed to an exclusive long-term recording contract with Sire Records by President Richard Gottehrer, who will co-produce Geremia's recordings with David Wilkes.

ALFIE KHAN—Parrot 353

SHE'S COMIN' BACK (Felsted, BMI)

COME ON BABE (Al Gallico, BMI)

This was a smash in Germany but Khan's English is pretty good. Hand-clapping live performance may make him known here.

JOE HINTON—Soul 35080

LET'S ALL SAVE THE CHILDREN

(Stein & Van Stock, ASCAP)

YOU ARE BLUE (Jobete, BMI)

The man who hit with "Funny" years ago is back in a mellow mood. Easy going message is a good MOR possibility as well as R&B and pop.

HANK MANCE AND THE BLUES FACULTY—

Santo 751

CANDY (Cape Ann, BMI)

RED BEANS AND RICE (Santo, BMI)

Straight blues number should gain regional acceptance thanks to "Cover Shakin' Daddy's" sincere delivery.

DEREK AND THE DOMINOS—Atco 6803

BELL BOTTOM BLUES (Casserole, BMI)

This could be considered the follow-up to "After Midnight," with Eric assuming his Derek guise. Soulful and subtle, not unlike George Harrison's latest. Stands a good chance of happening.

THE MANHATTAN TRANSFER—Capitol 3036

WINTERLUDE (Big Sky, ASCAP)

MAYBE MEXICO (Cotellion/Danel, BMI)

One of the hokiest tunes from Dylan's "New Morning" is given a smooth reading by the group. You can take it two ways—as corn or as a joke—thus realizing a double potential market.

FLEETWOOD MAC—Reprise 0984

JEWEL EYED JUDY (WB, ASCAP)

STATION MAN (WB, ASCAP)

The new Fleetwood Mac, sans Peter Green, has been well received via their "Kiln House" album. Haunting heavy single is worth getting into.

ROGER WILLIAMS—Kapp 2129 (MCA)

THEME FROM LOVE STORY (Famous, ASCAP)

FOR ALL WE KNOW (Pamco, BMI)

And then there were six . . . versions, that is, of Francis Lai's hot movie theme. Williams adds brass for a bit more spunk than most.

TONY BENNETT—Columbia 4-45316

LOVE STORY (Famous, ASCAP)

I'LL BEGIN AGAIN (Stage and Screen, BMI)

Now that we've been deluged with instrumental versions of Francis Lai's song, the vocals are starting to pour in. Bennett's treatment is both sensitive and to the point; chances are good.

ANDY WILLIAMS—Columbia 4-45317

LOVE STORY (Famous, ASCAP)

SOMETHING (Harrisons, BMI)

The Williams approach is quieter, relying on subtlety to get the passion-filled message across.

JAMES LAST—Polydor 2-15017

WASHINGTON SQUARE (Showboat, ASCAP)

PROUD MARY (Jondor, BMI)

The European king of the middle-of-the-road has a good shot with his sprightly choral version of the Village Stompers oldie.

LIGHTNIN' HOPKINS—Jewel 816

MR. CHARLIE (PT. 2) (Su Ma, BMI)

MR. CHARLIE (PT. 1) (Su Ma, BMI)

Lightnin's blues roll on into another decade. His original Texas style is often imitated but the real thing is definitely where it's at. Progressives take note.

STEVE & EYDIE—RCA 74-0420

LOVE IS BLUE/AUTUMN LEAVES (Croma/Morley, ASCAP)

HI SWEETIE (Flonan, ASCAP)

The Lawrences revive two big songs simultaneously. Not really a medley, but a mélange of the two tunes.

EXPRESSION—Mediarts 104

CALIFORNIA IS JUST MISSISSIPPI (Surety, BMI)

LET US PRAY (Mayday, BMI)

Gentle folkish number vaguely in the James Taylor mode. The sound is a bit country and that helps get the message across; real sleeper.

ISRAEL "POPPER STOPPER" TOLBERT—

Warren 107 (Stax)

SHAKE YOUR BIG HIP (Carwar, East/Memphis, BMI)

LOST LOVE (Carwar, East/Memphis, BMI)

Remember the "Big Leg Woman (In the Short Mini Skirt)"? Now Popper Stopper gives the world the logical funky follow up that is destined to be even bigger.

BUCHANAN BROTHERS—Event 201 (Polydor)

GET DOWN WITH THE PEOPLE (Blendingwell, ASCAP)

YOU DON'T KNOW (Blendingwell, ASCAP)

These guys came up with a number of hits awhile back and could get back up there with this Cashman & West song and production. Intense top 40 contender.

GARY PUCKETT—Columbia 4-45303

KEEP THE CUSTOMER SATISFIED (Charing Cross, BMI)

Puckett gives Paul Simon's song a rave-up gospel treatment that bounces right along. Richard Perry produced.

JIMMY WITHERSPOON—ABC 11288

HANDBAGS AND GLADRAGS (United Artists, ASCAP)

STAY WITH ME BABY (Ragmar/Crenshaw, BMI)

You can always count on 'Spoon for the mellowist of tones, and this is no exception. Rod Stewart song written by Mike D'Abo is a smart choice.

CLARK AND MARILYN—Cream 1002

CHAIN OF LOVE (Gnossis, ASCAP)

New duo in a soft rock bag come over as folkey Carpenters. Gentle song has a good chance to catch hold.

ERIC ANDERSEN—Warner Bros. 7459

BORN AGAIN (Wind and Sand, BMI)

ROCKY MOUNTAIN RED (Zoftic, BMI)

Here's the song Eric debuted on the recent Johnny Cash show. His old fans will dig and he should get a few more thanks to a very popish production.

JOHN TOWNLEY & THE APOSTOLIC FAMILY—

Vanguard 35122

JUST ANOTHER DAY (MCA, ASCAP)

An involved, vaguely inspirational song written by Townley. He sounds like a cross between Roger McGuinn and Jake Holmes vocally.

JAMES ROYAL—Capitol 6131

CAROLINA (Sunbury, ASCAP)

BIG HEAT (Chandos, BMI)

Why is it that English singers always sing about America? Grandiose production number.

OSCAR WEATHERS—Top and Bottom 405

(Jamie/Guyden)

YOU WANTS TO PLAY (One Eye Soul & Dandelion, BMI)

As solid an R&B narrative as there ever was. Nice and raunchy but it gets tedious after awhile.

THE PREMIERS—Scepter 12298

LONELY WEATHERMAN (First Class/Our Children's BMI)

I WON'T STAND IN YOUR WAY

(First Class/Our Children's, BMI)

Title notwithstanding, this has nothing to do with radical politics. This is a weather report (not a sunny one) for love complete with thunder.

The original smash instrumental hit: "WHOLE LOTTA LOVE" by a great new group, C.C.S.

(ZS7 4501)

A new single, on a new label, from the man who helped you sell 125 million records over the last five years.

Mickie Most brings his Rak Records to America with the release of "Whole Lotta Love" by C.C.S.

This is the original instrumental, "Whole Lotta Love." Currently, it's Top 10 in England. And even before its official American release, it's getting airplay in cities where the English pressing has found its way, including: Denver, Phoenix, El Paso, Lansing, Akron, Providence, Cincinnati and New York.

From now on you'll be able to receive all Rak Records in America, from your Columbia distributor.

With a whole lotta love.

DISTRIBUTED BY COLUMBIA RECORDS

DIFFERENT STROKES

VARIOUS ARTISTS—Columbia AS 12.

Nineteen Columbia and Epic artists render a song a piece from their recent albums on a $1 sampler compiled as part of a new Col/Epic rock sales campaign. For a buck, buyers will figure they can't lose. Oddly enough, Sly Stone, who supplied the title, isn't represented.

GUESS WHO PLAY THE GUESS WHO

P. I. P. PIP 6806.

Guess Who fans will be interested in this collection of early sides the group cut just after forming. Members have evidently changed since then, and certainly the quality of material improved in later albums. But true fans, who want to know everything about their idols, will grab.

FRESH AIR

WHITE LIGHTNIN'—Polydor 24-4047.

This album is so country that, according to the paradoxes of taste, it probably will only sell in pop markets. Byard Ray and Obray Ramsey, who play fiddle and banjo, act as if they were the new Flatt and Scruggs, and Eric Andersen, Harvey Brooks, Judy Collins plus join in.

A MAN AND A WOMAN

STEVE AND EYDIE—RCA LSP 4393.

Nobody will have to ask Steve and Eydie who? Steve and Eydie are both great, but never as great as when together. Their songs here are very commercial MOR (some so commercial they lack personality) and the chanters know exactly how to sell them.

IF

IF—Capitol SW 676.

If has a beat and a drive and a flair for melody. They also like to show off their instrumental prowess. They're good at playing, but if they'd cut down on the musical bridges, they might have gotten more variety into the package. As it is, there is plenty here for the fans to grab onto.

FROM A NAKED WINDOW

JEREMY STORCH—RCA LSP 4447.

Jeremy Storch sings his frail songs in a tiny voice. Occasionally a big orchestra gets carried away, but usually the songs remain small and gentle. Might be too understated for some, but others will find them gorgeous and sensitive. "Lynn and Sue are a Country," "Delia."

RED WHITE & BLUES IMAGE

BLUES IMAGE—Aico SD 33-348.

A new sextet who keep the blues alive by writing new blues that pack a punch and who also keep the blues alive by playing with facility. All the songs are new and those on the first side are especially good. "Rise Up," "Behind Every Man," "Take Me Back" could all be singles.

GLEN CAMPBELL PRESENTS LARRY MCNEELY

Capitol ST 674.

Affable Larry McNeely, another one of Glen Campbell's proteges, sure can play just about anything he picks up. He has a professional first album here, one that'll thrill instrument fans especially. Others might wish for something just a little more exciting as far as material goes.

SUPER BAD

JAMES BROWN—King KS 1127.

A new, super-bad album from James Brown, which, needless to say, is pegged onto his recent hit single. Brown is super-bad for almost 10 minutes of the first side and does similar long work on "Giving Out of Juice." The Brown crowds will love it.

BLACK ROCK

BAR-KAYS—Volt VOS 6011 (Stax).

Very heavy rock here. If the album has a flaw, it's the sameness of the cuts, but that could be a plus, too, since the guys are so adept at what they're about. Almost all of the material is new. The familiars are "Dance to the Music" and "Montego Bay."

DICK GREGORY LIVE AT THE VILLAGE GATE

Poppy PYS 40001.

Dick Gregory, who rarely misses hitting the center of his target, keeps most of this album low-key. His comic observations are amusing and true, almost throughout, but fans might wish he'd been his more abrasive self. Disc was recorded during a recent New York engagement.

SCOTT JOPLIN PIANO RAGS

JOSHUA RIFKIN—Nonesuch H 72248 (Elektra).

Scott Joplin's piano rags are as important to the evolution of American music as Stephen Foster, Irving Berlin or Charles Ives. On this package, Joshua Rifkin pays homage to eight of them. His interpretation is very dry, very sedate, very commercial.

PEACE & QUIET

Kinetic Z 30315.

Some groups write songs and others write springboards for their musical improvisations. Peace & Quiet are in the latter school. Depending on buyers' tastes, this album will be attractive or not. They unleash a hard rock, laced with country spirits.

LOVE STORY

AL DELORY—Capitol ST 677.

A collection of recent hit melodies, half of them from movies, treated with great respect, perhaps too much respect. Erich (misspelled Eric on the jacket) Segal's one-sitting weeper is the inspiration for the package, and success of that tome will help this disk.

14 LPs Plus Sampler Via WB in January

■ BURBANK, CALIF.—Warner Brothers Records is releasing 14 albums in January, plus a new promotional sampler LP, "Non-Dairy Creamer," which includes cuts from many new artists on the Warner/Reprise labels.

The January release includes Dion's "You're Not Alone"; Petula Clark's "Warm and Tender"; "Paranoid" by Black Sabbath; Rod McKuen's "Pastorale"; "The Lady and the Unicorn" by John Renbourn; Pentangle's "Cruel Sister"; Dean Martin's "For the Good Times"; "The First Edition Greatest Hits" and the soundtrack from the film "Fools," which features music by Kenny Rogers and the First Edition.

The release also includes five company debuts: "Going Back to Colorado" by Zephyr; "Fanny" by the rock group of the same name; "Air Conditioning" by Curved Air; a new

English group, "The End of the Game" by Peter Green, former leader of Fleetwood Mac; and "Tony Joe White."

"Non-Dairy Creamer," which is available nationally by mail order for one dollar, is designed to introduce record buyers to new Warner/Reprise artists. A brochure and order form for the sampler have been sent to approximately 70,000 record buyers across the country. The sampler has also been manufactured in 8-track tape format with spoken introductions to each cut as an aid for the company's sales force.

Artists included on the sampler are Little Feat, Brownsville Station, Jeffrey Cain, cuts from the new albums of Peter Green, Tony Joe White, Curved Air, Zephyr and selections from three albums to be released in February by Rosebud, Ron Nagle and John and Beverley Martyn.

Agnew LP Scores Despite Airplay Ban at Some Stations

■ NEW YORK—"Spiro T. Agnew is a Riot," an LP that satirizes the Vice President of the United States, has leaped onto the charts just three weeks after it was released by Cadet Records.

Arnie Orleans, VP, Marketing, for the disc company, reports that a large number of disc jockeys have indicated that while they personally like the album, the executives at their stations have asked them not to play it.

Orleans concludes that "the atmosphere created by this administration has obviously made the management at many radio stations (which depend upon government approval for their license) reluctant to offend. Record companies are still too independent to have their irreverence intimidated.

Word-of-Mouth Aid

"Word-of-mouth and the press along with some of the braver radio and television personalities have enabled political comedy to thrive in spite of the obstacles. Besides 'Spiro T. Agnew is a Riot,' Orson Welles' 'The Begatting of the President' is a recently released album which sold well despite a paucity of radio exposure."

Orleans also points to a recent single, "The Prayer," by Ray Scott, which has sold close to 100,000 copies with virtually no airplay. A station in Texas played the record until the mayor asked to have it taken off the air, commented Orleans.

Rist-O-Craft Expands

■ NEW YORK—Nick Raftis, President of Rist-O-Craft Industries, international import/export complex, has announced the assignment of 4,000 sq. feet of space in the Rist-O-Craft home office at 1343 East Gun Hill Road, Bronx, N.Y., to his recording and publishing firms.

In Coast Debut

John Rosica, West Coast chief of Bell Records, joins Lesley Gore and her parents, Mr. & Mrs. Les Gore, in toasting the singer's Coast debut at the Westside Room of L.A.'s Century Plaza Hotel. Lesley headlines San Francisco's Fairmont Hotel April 15-May 5.

RECORD WORLD ALBUM PRODUCT

AN ASTROMUSICAL ODYSSEY

SOUNDS GALACTIC—London SP 44154.

This album has a strong enough theme (followed through imaginatively) so that it could get heavy airplay and spinoff sales. Moog and things used on a series of songs with an outer space connotation or denotation. "Across the Universe," "Aquarius," "Good Morning Starshine."

SHOOT YOU FULL OF LOVE

WILBERT HARRISON—Juggernaut ST/LP 8803.

Wilbert Harrison doing some of that early rock and roll sound here. The fans will love the simplicity of it and, sometimes, as with the title tune, the suggestiveness of it. One puzzling inclusion is "Down on the Corner," an under-baked version of the Creedence Clearwater classic.

FIRST ALBUM

Z Z TOP—London PS 584.

Another of the blues groups London likes to encourage. This trio writes all of its material, as is the current vogue, and they do so with not a little amount of savvy. The album might have to be worked, but it would seem to be worth it. Ten new blues.

ONE KISS LEADS TO ANOTHER

HACKAMORE BRICK—Kama Sutra KSBS 2025.

If these fellows had put a little more energy into their work, they might have had a heftier weapon to face competition with. There are a few good tunes that could get them attention—"Got a Gal Named Wilma," "And I Wonder" being among them.

HELP

Decca DL 75257.

People on the look-out for new country-rock groups will find their way to this new album. The Help trio keep it relatively simple and close to the roots. Everything they do is sincere, if not ground-breaking. To show where they're at, they include "Tennessee Waltz" with the new stuff.

LACEWING

Mainstream S/6132.

Here's a five-man group who sing a sort of spaced rock with a lilt. There may be a market for them, but work will have to go into finding it. As it is, the sound is rather basic and could use a little more liveliness. All new material.

Buddah Bows 'Do It Yourself' Promo

NEW YORK—Neil Bogart, co-President of the Buddah/Kama Sutra Group of labels, announces the "Buddah Record," a unique and comprehensive tool for distributor and dealer co-op advertising.

Designed to "eliminate the middleman and make advertising fun," the 24-page booklet contains screen Velox reproductions of album covers, captions, headlines, 100-, 200-, 300- and 400-line ad forms, instructions on the booklet's use and biographies of all Buddah Group artists.

Conceived by Milt Sincoff, Buddah Director of Creative

Merchandising and Packaging, the "do-it-yourself mat kit" is seen by Buddah as a built-in incentive to co-op advertising. The booklet was shipped in quantity last week to distributors and retailers.

"By utilizing the materials in the 'Buddah Record,' the distributor and dealer no longer have to depend on expensive outside studios," said Bogart. "Through this program, the dealer and distributor have control over how the ad looks and what it says. It's another means of making the Buddah family closer and more effective, so that we can all do better business faster."

Mangione Joins Mercury

Chuck Mangione, Charles Fach

NEW YORK—Mercury Records has signed musician-composer Chuck Mangione to a long-term contract and will issue "Friends and Love," Mangione's nationally televised concert with the Rochester Philharmonic, as a double-album in early February, according to Charles Fach, company Vice President.

"Friends and Love," a Mangione composition, was videotaped by National Educational Television before a standing-room-only audience in Rochester, N. Y., in May of 1970. Mangione himself then issued the performance on a local label, GRC Records.

"We heard about the phenomenal success of the GRC LP," said Fach. "It sold over 4,000 copies in upstate New York and set off reactions from all over the country. We are very impressed that a regional record could create such intense national interest."

"'Friends and Love' defies any categorization. It's a combination of jazz, classical music, rock and country-and-Western, but it's really absolutely unique. We've also commissioned Mangione to do more work of this nature."

Mangione is now an Associate in Ensembles at the Eastman School of Music and Director of the Eastman Jazz Ensemble.

House, Jarman to London S' East

Cy House Ed Jarman

Cy House has been selected to head up the new London Records Southeast Distributing Corp., according to Herb Goldfarb, Vice President, National Sales and Distribution, for London Records. Also announced was the appointment of Ed Jarman to Sales Manager for London's new Atlanta branch, the firm's fourth factory-owned distribution outlet.

House is a veteran of 23 years in the industry. For the past eight years he has been Southern Division Manager for London Records. Prior to this, he served as Sales and Promo Manager for Columbia Records southern division. Earlier he was Sales and Branch Manager for King Records and District Manager for Modern Records.

Jarman, still in his twenties, was, until recently, Branch Manager for the Atlanta division of Mainline Distributors in Cleveland. Before this, he served with Liberty Records'

CMA Hears Format for NARM Film

The CMA's special presentation on country music to the NARM convention March 1 in Los Angeles was revealed to the Board of Directors by Bill Farr and Bill Williams, Co-Chairmen of the Presentation Committee at their quarterly meeting in Houston, Texas, Jan. 11.

The entire presentation will involve several minutes of introduction by one of the statesmen in the country music industry, followed by the film slightly less than 15 minutes long. The film will be followed by a live country music presentation by Merle Haggard approximately 40 minutes in length.

A special brochure of facts is being printed for distribution to the conventioners.

The feature film makes use of a specific character named "Albert" who has no feeling for country music whatsoever but figures and facts turn him on. With this approach the film portrays the awakening of Albert to country music.

Incident to production of this multi-thousand dollar film has been the assembly of vast amounts of figures and facts from every facet of the entire business where country music has been exposed. The effort undertaken by CMA and its members has involved many of the large and small companies in the country music business.

The Board meeting took up other matters of importance, among which was a tentative proposal for a Spring Country Music Festival oriented toward the fan rather than trade people. Estimates of several thousand who would be interested in participating in such a festival where disclosed by Committee heads Irving Waugh and Hubert Long. Live shows and televising are considered as essentials to such a festival.

1971 Country Music Month Celebration was the subject of extensive planning, according to Country Music Chairman Roy Horton, who reported his committee expects to move into exploitation of untouched areas for promotion of October as Country Music Month. He mentioned the possibility of reaching the national motion picture theaters with public service promo slides or film strips.

CMA's participation in the Third International Country Music Festival at Wembley Pool, London, England, during the Easter holiday in conjunction with the quarterly CMA Board Meeting was discussed. Announcement was made of numerous business and social functions correlated with the meeting and festival. The Board Meeting will be held at the Churchill Hotel April 10-11.

The new Country Music Radio Sales Kit was reported by Chairman Don Nelson. The new kit is 75% laid out and artwork should be completed by the April meeting.

The Record Merchandising Committee report by Jim Schwartz included the heavy cooperation by the record men in the NARM presentation.

Other items included Bill Williams reporting on public relations and the passing of a resolution offering CMA's support to efforts by various organizations across the nation to instigate a Jimmie Rodgers Memorial Stamp release by the Post Office in 1971; and announcement by Banquest Chairman Frances Preston of con-

■ NASHVILLE—A late model hearse owned by SSS International artist David Allan Coe almost caused the total collapse of the service department building of a local Cadillac agency.

While a repair man was driving it, Coe's hearse had complete brake failure and crashed into a side of the building sending bricks tumbling on top of several new automobiles as well as the hearse. A crane was quickly brought to the scene to prevent total cave-in.

Other Committee reports were made by Ralph Emery, Membership; Joe Talbot, Meeting Arrangements; Bill Denny, Awards; Jim Schwartz, By-laws; Bill Lowery, CMF; Harold Hitt, Finance; Wesley Rose, Elections; Richard Frank, Insurance; and Gary Buck, International.

The meeting was chaired by Richard Broders, Board Chairman.

Germany Looks To MIDEM, 1971

By PAUL SIEGEL

BERLIN — Thirteen active German firms have made their bookings for this year's big trade meetings at MIDEM. The music publishers far outweigh the record companies although the record companies who haven't made official bookings will be at MIDEM unofficially to survey the scene of activities.

Alphabetically, the German firms who will appear at MIDEM are Ariola Records, Bellaphon Records, Intercord Records and Polydor Records. From the publishing side, Rolf Rudde Musikverlage, Chappell Publishers, Francis, Day & Hunter Pubbery, Hans Gerig Musikverlage, Intro publishers, Melodie der Welt, Montana, Schott Söhne and Hans Sikorski.

All of the above named firms have taken more and more action on the domestic and international scene. Ariola Records, or Ariola-Eurodisc headed by Egmont Lüftner and Friedrich Schmidt, has some of the leading artists in Germany today, such as Peter Alexander, Udo Jürgens and Mireille Mathieu. Recently, they acquired distribution of A&M Records for the German territories. Bellaphon Records, headed by Branko Zivanovic, reaped a fortune with their Creedence Clearwater Revival group and other hot artists such as Die Flippers, Lee Reed, Orange Peel and Jeronimo. Publisher Rolf Budde has a very effective catalogue and a setup which includes many enticing copyrights like the Gershwin standards. Leroy Anderson, etc.

The world firm Chappell is under new direction in Hamburg with Dr. Michael Müller-Blattau. With their big catalogue, they are taking an active part in independent production. England's Francis, Day & Hunter has a very capable and active German businesswoman, Mrs. Lilo Bornemann, in Hamburg who had a streak of hits in '70 such as "In the Summer-time" in Germany and the James Last hit, "Happy Heart," with Andy Williams stateside.

The Hans Gerig Musikverlage in Cologne, under Dr. Gerig and his able assistant Heinz Korn, has a giant operation in Germany with many hit songs. Outside of the many American and British firms they represent, they also have the many commercial productions of producer Kurt Feltz with his golden-voiced artist, Peter Alexander. Edition Intro, headed by the Meisel brothers, Peter and Thom, have had a flock of hits with their stable of artists under their Hansa Records label, besides producing independently for top German record firms with good artists. One of their biggest money-makers was the Archies' "Sugar, Sugar." Their song in the German festival placed #1 in 1970 "Das schöne Mädchen von Seite 1" with Electrola artist Howard Carpendale whom they also produced. Mrs. Imtrud Meisel is a well known and active figure on the international scene for this active company.

Capable Distrib System

Intercord Records, located in Stuttgart, intends to build up a solid active catalogue and has set up a very capable distribution system in these territories. Melodie der Welt, literally World Melodies, headed by the capable publisher Johann Michel in Frankfurt, not only has a very timely and commercial catalogue, but a string of hits which often led the German charts, like "A Song of Joy" and many others, like "Raindrops Fallin' On My Head," which Michel acquired for his German firm. Johann Michel is also on the ball on the Nashville scene, and attended the Country Music Festival last year, with big results. Michel's son, Peter, also runs one of Germany's most active juke box operations with Reco.

Edition Montana is headed by alert Hans Beierlein, whose big money-maker is Udo Jürgens (who shattered box office records last year in a mammoth tour lasting several months which netted the firm a fortune). Beierlein's activity widened in the promotional who've hit very big internationally of late. The Soviet Union will be represented by A Trio and Valentin Baglaenko, and South America by Sandro of Argentina and Jair Rodriguez of Brazil. Also appearing are Katja Ebstein of Germany, Serge Lama of France and Massimo Ranieri of Italy.

France's Frank Pourcel will conduct the orchestra.

Most important is the benefit to be enjoyed by our artists: Now when we release new product it won't be breaking in just one country, but all over the world at the same time.

Our one-company global outlook is just one more of the exciting changes happening at the new RCA Records. And we have to admit that for a new record company, we're pretty proud of our worldwide size.

MIDEM Hosts Parties

■ CANNES—MIDEM will feature two big parties in addition to the galas this year.

The first, a welcome cocktail party in celebration of the fifth anniversary of MIDEM, will be held at the Ambassadeurs on Jan. 17 at 9 p.m. It has been organized by Lucien Barriere, Director of the Ambassadeurs, and will afford all participants an opportunity to meet upon arrival at MIDEM.

The second party will close MIDEM on Jan. 22 with the world premiere of the film "Mad Dogs And Englishmen," featuring Joe Cocker. A "pop night" will follow the film and spotlight several internationally known pop performers.

Info Committee at MIDEM

■ MIDEM, this year, has placed an information committee of internationally known lawyers who specialize in music and law at the service of its 5000 participants.

Thus, any participant has the opportunity of receiving free and immediate information on legal matters that might concern him such as, for instance, the establishment of a new firm abroad or the intricacies of copyright law.

This year the committee is composed of lawyers from France, Great Britain, Germany and the United States, under the general direction of Alfred Schenz, who is lawyer for the Supreme Tribunal in Bavaria and to the Munich Tribunal. In 1972, the MIDEM Judicial Committee will include representatives of other major countries of the recording world.

Committee members are available for consultation at a special office at the Palais des Festivals, where they are free from any interference from either record companies or publishers. It is hoped that the international composition of the committee will allow for a fruitful exchange of information and views.

Request to MIDEM

■ Request Records will be represented at MIDEM Convention by its President, H. J. Lengsfelder, and Manager, Ruth B. Gamba.

Both will be staying at the Martinez Hotel in Cannes. Re-scene with artists such as Adamo, Helmut Zacharias and others. Polydor, which is affiliated with Deutsche Grammophon Records, headed by Kurt Kinkele, and A&R'd by "Ossie" Drechsler, ran their earnings way up with their albums and money-making artists James Last, Roy Black and releases from their international tieups, especially from their American partner Polydor with artists like Cat Stevens, etc.

A surprising entry into this year's MIDEM is the symphonic publisher in the music business for several generations, Schott-Söhne, based in Mainz, Germany. Their catalogue reads like Who's Who in the classical composers repertoire. Veteran publisher Dr. Hans Sikorski of Hamburg has a famous catalogue which lists many standards. He hit the top of the German charts with his group, produced by his people, the Soulful Dynamics, on Philips, which also saw stateside action. Dr. Sikorski is well known to the international music industry for his ability and serious mindedness in the publishing field, and was one of the first to travel to the USA to secure copyrights and place copyrights. He has a good eye and ear for the future.

Representing the German record industry will be: Wilfried Jung, Electrola/EMI; Dr. Laci Veder, EMI Europa GMBH; Kurt Richter, Telefunken-Decca (Teldec); Dr. W. Vogelsang, Wolfgang Kretzchmar, Philips (Phonogram); Rudy Wolpert, CBS; and Leif Kraul, Metronome Records.

The common goal of all those present will be to acquire good product from new contacts and to solidify current partnerships and representations. As in the past, MIDEM has headed in the direction of a "One World of Music." This year MIDEM should fulfill many such goals, and introduce new advances in the industry such as the video cartridge system which certainly could prove a boom in sales for the coming year.

CBS Publishing Meets in London

■ LONDON—Representatives of CBS music publishing operations in Europe and the United States met last week at the White House Hotel to review publishing activity over the past year and to discuss plans for 1971.

The two-day sessions were chaired by Sol Rabinowitz, Vice President of Publishing and A&R for CBS International in conjunction with Peter de Rougemont, Vice President of European Operations for CBS International. Participating in the meetings were: Deke Arlon, April Music, England; Philippe Boutet, Editions April, France; Dag Haeggqvist and Gunnar Bergstrom, Sonet Music, Sweden; Ettore Carrera and Vittorio Samalvicco, April Music and Suag Music Group, Italy; Bernd Simon, April Music, Germany; Bas Mul, April Music, the Netherlands; and David Franco, April-Blackwood, New York.

In reviewing CBS successes during 1970, Rabinowitz pointed out that major European money-makers came from both publishing and sub-publishing efforts: from the U. S. came "Everybody's Talkin'" which was a major title when sub-published in Great Britain and other parts of Europe; another American copyright, "Hey Joe," was successfully sub-published in Britain. The entire James Taylor catalogue began to be exploited with success over the past year. The Dutch title "Cha La La" was an important song in its native market and also when sub-published in Germany and South Africa. Editions April in France brought in the soundtrack to "Z" which was significant throughout the world.

CBS sub-publishers in Europe also did well with the music from a number of Cinema Center films, particularly "The April Fools" and "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown."

ITALY

By MARIO PANVINI ROSATI

■ MILAN—An audience of 30 million has marked the success of this year's "Canzonissima," a top musical contest presented on Italian TV screens, and has seen the victory of Massimo Ranieri (CGD).

The contest "Canzonissima," whose title means "The Greatest Song," is organized every year by the Italian Radio and TV Monopoly Company, state-owned, RAI Radio and Televisione Italiana. The program is televised and broadcasted each week on Saturday night for three consecutive months. It starts in October and ends on Jan. 6. The contest is coupled with a national Lottery, also called "Canzonissima Lottery," which this year has awarded prizes for a total of more than $1,000,000.

48 singers, among the most popular on the Italian music scene, have taken part in the show during the 12 nights, but only eight of them, voted by the public, have entered the finals. They are: Massimo Ranieri (CGD), Gianni Morandi (RCA), Claudio Villa (Fonit-Cetra), Mino Reitano (Durium), Orietta Berti (Phonogram), Iva Zanicchi (Rif), Caterina Caselli (CGD) and Marisa Sannia (also CGD). Needless to say, the results of the contest this year have been extremely satisfactory for CGD. They brought together in front of the small screen 30,000,000 people.

The success of the last night is also due to the fact that the winners of the Lottery were also announced—$25,000 as a first prize is a good incentive for getting people to watch TV. It is also true that this year the show was better produced than in the past, in spite of the fact that the costs for the production have been cut to half as compared to the 1969 edition.

As we said, Massimo Ranieri was declared the winner. The song he performed is entitled "Vent'Anni" (Twenty Years) and it's an original Italian song published by Sugar Music. It's a kind of romantic ballad in a typical Italian style, with an easy flowing melody. Composers of the song are Bigazzi Polito and Savio. Enrico Polito is also the producer of Ranieri's recordings.

Second in the final classification of this year's "Canzonissima" is Gianni Morandi. The top RCA star was the winner of the past two consecutive editions. The song presented by Morandi was "Capriccio" (Whim), it's written by Migliacci, Farina and Lusini and published by Edizioni Mimo. Franco Migliacci is producer of Morandi's discs.

Mino Reitano is the third name in the finals. The young singer who was introduced on the record scene by Ariston just recently has been pacted under a long-term exclusive agreement by Durium, and he really seems to be the new sensation of the year. The song he performed: "Una Ferita in Fondo Al Cuore" (A Wound at the Bottom of the Heart), published by Edizioni Fiumara and composed by Mino himself, in collaboration with top Italian lyric writer Mogol.

Together with the millions of dollars of prizes awarded by the National Lottery, "Canzonissima" has also well rewarded, for the first time this year, the Italian music industry. After the great crisis of 1970, which by the way had put some of our record and publishing firms in very difficult situations, 1971 seems to have started under the best omen. "Canzonissima" marks the climbing point of the record sales on our market. All songs presented in the finals have entered the charts and the records are in increasing demand, while three of the songs (namely, "Capriccio" by Gianni Morandi, "Vent'Anni" by Massimo Ranieri and "Viale Kennedy" by Caterina Caselli) are listed among the top 20 on our hit parade. Also, the opening tune of the series, sung by the actress Raffaella Carra' (who was MC of the show together with Corrado), entered the charts and has reached the third position. Title of this number is "Ma Che Musica Maestro" (But What a Music, Maestro!), released and published by RCA.

1970 has been the year which has marked the debut and the success of a new Italian record and publishing firm, Numero Uno, owned by Mariano and Giulio Rapetti. Both names are well known in the music field all over the world. Mariano was for many years one of the leading figures of the Italian publishing firm Ricordi, while Giulio, better known as Mogol, is one of the most famous among the Italian lyricists.

The success of Numero Uno, which started its activity in April,

■ BERLIN—The German industry, after the holidays of the past December, should explode into action with the advent of MIDEM. This great song originates from Anne Lecat's Radio Music France . . . New York's George Pincus informs us he'll leave shortly for London, and then he and his British arm, Ray Mills, will stay at the Majestic Hotel at MIDEM . . . That nice lady chief, Lilo Bornemann, of the Francis, Day & Hunter German operation, has a real hit in Dave Edmund's "I Hear You Knocking." The monies from this money song ought to pay for a fur coat in this freezing weather . . . Ariola's Nobby Varenholz ought to buy a trailer. This fella's always on the move for new product.

Munich's Hans Beierlein told me a few years ago that he's out to make a million, and he really accomplished this goal with his golden artist, Udo Jürgens . . . Orange label Prexy Hans Wewerka has a hot song which he recorded with Don Adams, "Ev'ry Minute, Ev'ry Hour." Dick Voltter contracted tune for his powerhouse firm, Shapiro-Bernstein . . . Hamburg's vet publisher, Dr. Hans Sikorski, riding the charts again with the Soulful Dynamics Philips single, "Birdy" . . . Teldec had an unusual promotion giving their artist Peter Maffay a gold record earned in Germany, but presented, of all places, in Tunis, Africa . . . One of Germany's oldest publishing firms is Schott's Söhne. Their catalogue reads like the who's who of the symphonic composer's great classical works . . . The Kinks single, "Lola," sold a quarter of a million here, and solidified their comeback on Vogue Records . . . BMI, who will also be at MIDEM, medaled K. G. Neumann for his millionth performance of "Wonderland by Night," which started the Bert Kaempfert landslide . . . A hot firm in Stuttgart is Intercord Records, who look forward to big sales this year . . . Peter Kirsten's new Global Records due for some global hits . . . Rudi Petry of Edition Accord in Cologne has a whale of a hit song in "Can't You Feel My Love For You" . . . Electrola duo Adam & Eve have a hot new single, "Summernight in Santa Barbara" . . . England's vet publisher, Cyril Shane, has a song called, "Never Talk to Strangers," which could be a hit for Caterina Valente in German. I predict that his firm will be loaded with charts hits in '71 . . . America's Peggy March, now based in Munich with hubby Arnie Harris, could take many curtain calls for a great TV show in Berlin, which resulted in 25,000 autogram requests. It sounds like her new Decca single, "Einmal Verliebt" (Once in love), is breakin' wide open . . . Bell Records has a goldmine in "Candida" disc'd by Dawn, and published by Aberbach headed by the capable Otto Demler . . . Bob Klein and Sol Handwerger rushed us a honey of a record: Michel Legrand's main title song from the original soundtrack of the flick, "Wuthering Heights." Great for my RIAS dj shows.

I am interested in acquiring foreign material and in placing my catalogue throughout the world.

I look forward to meeting you.

Italy

1970, has been confirmed by the great number of hits published or released by this company which have appeared on the Italian charts during 1970. It has been reconfirmed at the beginning of this year by a song entitled "Anna," presently listed at the top of the Italian charts.

One of the great merits of Numero Uno is to have introduced and launched on the music scene the exciting Lucio Battisti. This young author, composer and singer (as a singer he is under contract to Dischi Ricordi) is the discovery of the past year. Now every song he pens and sings enters the Italian hit parade. "Anna" is his latest.

This year the San Remo Song Festival will take place at the end of February. The organizers elected by the San Remo Municipality are Ezio Radaelli and Gianni Ravera. They have told us that this year there will be very few new singers on the stage. Among the top Italian names expected to participate: Al Bano (Ami Italiana), with a song entitled "13 Storia D'oggi"; Orietta Berti (Phonogram), who will sing "Via dei ciclamini 123"; Domenico Modugno (RCA), who together with Ornella Vanoni (Ariston) will present a song penned by him, "Come Stai?"; Nada (RCA); Nicola di Bari (RCA); Rosanna Fratello (Ariston); Tony Astarita (Ariston) and newcomers Nanni and Marisa Sacchetto. Sergio Endrico, as every year, will be present on the San Remo stage singing one of his latest songs.

Among the foreign participants, we have heard the names of Mungo Jerry, who has already recorded in London a song entitled "Sant'antonio, San Francisco" especially written for San Remo by Vito Pallavicini; Aphrodite's Child (Phonogram), and coming from France, the new discovery Michel Sardou plus Michel Delnesch. Somebody also mentioned the Wallace Collection and Jose Feliciano, as well as Ringo Starr and Marvin Lee.

■ LONDON—Gerry Hof comes to London this week from the West Coast to take up the position as General Manager for the Moody Blues' publishing company, Threshold Music. Hof previously worked for Walt Disney's company in the U.S., and his popularity around the West Coast as a promotion man caused the Rolling Stones to name a track from one of their most popular albums after him—"West Coast Promotion Man."

Norman Newell returns to Philips Records this week, where he spent a good part of his career in the 1950s, under a long-term production contract. Newell will continue to produce artists under existing contracts, one of which includes new talent Marc Sebastian who is already signed to the company. Meanwhile, on the executive front at Philips Paul Swainson joins the company handling cassettes, replacing Roy Tempest who moves to A&R in charge of Pop Product. Geoff Hannington leaves the company to join RCA as Marketing Manager, joining former colleague Olaf Wyper and Richard Swainson.

After delay and denials from Apple, George Harrison's "My Sweet Lord" is released as a single this week. . . . Top British vocalist Long John Baldry, previously with Pye, has changed his name and record company to just John Baldry and Warner Bros. Records, respectively. His first album under the new deal will be produced by Elton John and Ron Stewart—one side each. . . . Dick James has agreed settlement of the action he initiated against Northern Songs' USA subsidiary Maclen and will continue to manage the British company. Compensation will be paid to James for the decision to switch Maclen's management to Don Kirshner's company, although the settlement figure has not been disclosed.

Personal Opinion: Alan Keen

■ To follow the views expressed by David Symonds and Jonathan King on Britain's radio services and with the current possibility of the system being re-organized, we decided to request Alan Keen's view as General Manager of the only commercial station received in the U.K.—Radio Luxembourg.

Readers of Record World obviously are aware of the unique government control of commercial enterprise which has prevailed to date in the U.K., when the only fully licensed commercial radio station beaming to this country since 1935 has been Radio Luxembourg, which, incidentally, can now claim a total audience in Great Britain of 14,070,000 persons.

For a considerable time now the music and advertising industries of Great Britain have been anxiously awaiting the government white paper which is now to be issued within the next few weeks. This will show us the intentions of the Conservative Government, being the recommendations by Christopher Chataway, the Minister of Post and Telecommunications.

So much publicity has been given to various opinions of what the future holds for us. I have, myself, on numerous occasions been asked whether we at Radio Luxembourg are going to be placed in the unenviable position of being one of the "also rans."

■ HOLLYWOOD—In cooperation with Pan American World Airways and a special celebrity foreign language lesson program coordinated by National Musitime Corp., Monument Record Corp. has tied in with PAA with international singing star Charles Aznavour being featured in the French language lessons, it was confirmed by Monument VP and Director of their international division Bobby Weiss.

During the next three months, various selections from the current Monument LP featuring Aznavour, "A Man's Life," will be spotlighted in the segment devoted to French language lessons to passengers on board PAA. Pan Am is embarking on an extensive ad and promotional program on the series, with special credits being given to Aznavour, the songs and Monument on the various programs and in the "Clipper" magazine of PAA.

Frankly, I have never been more confident of the future and speaking as an ex-advertising man myself, I know that every major advertising agency will be forming radio divisions within their media departments. Radio Luxembourg can offer the cheapest cost per thousand available today.

To be truly viable, radio stations have to rely upon the use of commercial gramophone records, and it is most likely that they will want to follow pretty closely the pattern of commercial broadcasting as it is today in the United States of America and Australia.

Commercial radio stations in these territories have successfully adopted a top 40 program format. These companies are able to pursue this policy only because they are permitted free use of commercial gramophone records. On the other hand, however, the BBC has been handicapped by the restrictions of needle time imposed by the Phonographic Society. It is most unlikely that the new commercial radio stations will enjoy better terms than those imposed upon the BBC and they will therefore be forced to use live music, as well as talk and discussion programs, etc. It must be clearly understood that profit margins will be seriously affected if live music is to be used. It may well be possible that a certain amount of religious broadcasting will be necessary, and it is my view that the authority will insist upon balanced programs which will include pop music, serious music, drama, children's and religious programs.

The success and future of any radio station is entirely dependent on the final balance sheet.

I have heard it said that about 10 million will be spent within the first year of local commercial radio by British advertisers, but quite frankly I believe that a great number of people quoting such figures talk without any previous knowledge or experience.

Radio Luxembourg enjoys complete freedom from needle time restrictions, and our format presents us with the opportunity of playing about 18 records per hour together with commercials and news every hour.

It is a successful format, and our advertising revenue per annum is now well in excess of ½ million. This figure is being increased regularly. I look forward to the future with utmost confidence.

New Look at UA

last six months the artists roster has been pared from 265 under contract to 71 at the present time. New artists signed will be treated to heavy promotion, merchandising and advertising.

At present the label is concentrating on a strong promotional campaign for the recently signed group War (without Eric Burdon). Emphasis will be placed on contemporary acts, and new acts signed in this field include George Gerdes and El Quintet. The firm will continue to be based in Los Angeles with the possibility of a move to new quarters.

The executive line-up under Picker as President includes Executive Vice President Mike Stewart; Ron Bledsoe, Vice President in Charge of Product; Mike Lipton, Vice President in Charge of Sales; and Bob Cato retained as a consultant to re-design the new look of the label.

Excerpts were shown from "Fiddler on the Roof" which UA expects to be the blockbuster film of '71, with the original soundtrack scheduled for September release. Another major project planned for 1972 release is the film version of "Man of La Mancha."

United Artists Records will continue to maintain regional offices in both New York and Nashville, as well as their five shipping depots and 31 branch operations. Foreign companies will be retained. The present tape facilities will remain the same and the parent firm will be open to acquisition of other labels.

New Mediarts LPs

■ Mediarts Records has concluded production of both the second Dory Previn LP and its initial album of Spencer Davis re-teamed with Peter Jameson.

The Previn album, with the singer-composer performing 10 of her new compositions, was produced by Mediarts Executive Producer Nick Venet, as was her initial album. The Davis-Jameson LP, marking the return of Davis since he dissolved the Spencer Davis Group three years ago, was produced by Jay Senter.

In the international field, Bang has completed deals with numerous foreign companies and plans are now firm for overseas distribution through Bellaphon (West Germany), Dureco (Netherlands), Inter-Continental (South Africa) and EMI of Australia. GRT of Canada has also been named a Bang foreign licensee. Web IV, Inc., is also negotiating for foreign publishing deals at present.

An announcement is expected in the near future of a new label to be distributed by Bang.

Since "Cowboys to Girls," Gamble and Huff songs have rarely been off national pop charts. Their list of hit tunes include singles and albums by Nancy Wilson, the Intruders, Dusty Springfield, the Vibrations, Jerry Butler, Soul Survivors, Billie Paul, the O'Jays, Archie Bell and the Drells and Wilson Pickett.

In addition, Gamble and Huff have supervised dates for other top recording artists, among them Bobby Hebb and DeeDee Warwick, and have written and produced five gold singles. They won the coveted NATRA Golden Mike Award for the best R & B production team in 1968 and 1969.

Gamble and Huff will produce a variety of music on their label, including pop, rock, R & B and jazz, as well as country.

Spring/Event Gets New Talent

■ The Spring and Event labels which are distributed by Polydor Records have both added new talent to their rosters, announces Julie Rifkind, President of Spring and Event.

The first acquisition was a master purchase (on the Virgo label) of a new single by Lou Jackson, "Peace To You Brother." The single has already sold over 15,000 copies in the Philadelphia area and is garnering airplay on WDAS in Philadelphia. "Peace" is also beginning to show sales in the New York area and has been programmed on both WWRL and WLIB in New York. Lou Jackson has now been signed to Spring on an exclusive contract as an artist.

The Event label has also acquired two new acts. In an agreement with independent producer George Tindley, the label has signed Sunny Ross and Cindy Webster to long-term recording contracts. Sunny will have a single in release within the next few weeks and Cindy will have one within a few months. These two new artists join the Buchanan Brothers and Horatio on the Event talent roster.

Curtis' 'Love' Clicks

■ King Curtis' instrumental version of "Whole Lotta Love," the Led Zeppelin hit of last year, is getting air play on scores of key radio stations across the country and is starting to grab early sales.

Rascal Cornish Now Producer

■ NEW YORK—Gene Cornish has left the Rascals, manager Sid Bernstein reported last week, to pursue a career as a producer.

Cornish had been with the group since their beginnings at The Barge in East Hampton, L. I., in 1965. During his years with the Rascals, Cornish assisted both Felix Cavaliere and Arif Mardin in production work and comes to the field of independent production with considerable experience. His parting with the Rascals was amicable, Bernstein stated.

"We have two super super guitarists," Bernstein announced, "who will be taking Cornish's part in the group. Their names along with the name of the replacement for Eddie Brigatti who left the group last year will be announced next week, and the group will grow to five members including Felix Cavaliere on organ and Dino Danelli on drums."

The new group is "better than half through" with their first Columbia album and a Carnegie Hall concert has been set for Feb. 21. A Fillmore East date in March will follow their debut.

Collins Gets Gold

■ "In My Life," Judy Collins' seventh Elektra LP, released in November of 1966, has just been certified by the RIAA as a gold album with sales of over a million dollars. This makes the third gold album for this artist.

Judy Collins' current and 10th Elektra LP, "Whales and Nightingales," is heading for gold certification, as is the hit single, "Amazing Grace."

SINGLE PRODUCT

LYNN HOPE ORCH.—Hijaz 3858
HOOK, LINE AND SINKER (Azeez, BMI)
MARY'S BLUES (Azeez, BMI)

Dig it, a real jump number. This would have been a smash in 1951, and it makes great listening in 1971. Fats Witherspoon on vocals — any relation to Jimmy?

GLENN YARBROUGH—Warner Bros. 7448
GENTLE HANDS AND GENTLE PEOPLE (Wild, ASCAP)
Yarbrough has built up a ready following but the hits are few and far between. This is catchier than most but will take time.

GAIL WYNTERS—Hickory 1591
HELP ME MAKE IT THROUGH THE NIGHT (Combine, BMI)
THE RAINBOW SIGN (Milene, ASCAP)
Here's that Krist Kristofferson tune that all the gals seem to be picking up on. Gail renders a sensitive reading but the competition has a head start.

DESI ARNEZ—Reprise 0986
GIANT MAN (Here, There and Everywhere, BMI)
OUR WORLD (Here, There and Everywhere, BMI)
Dino and Billy's pal goes it alone on this one and sounds quite a bit like the Beach Boys, which is quite an accomplishment for one guy.

ARTHUR WILLIAMSON—Capitol 3037
EYES (Three Bridges, ASCAP)
COME ON, COME ON (MBP/Chappell, ASCAP)
The message is alienation and the medium is a slow-building ballad. One can sense an effort being made to make the production distinctive.

FANDANGO—Warner Bros. 7450
MACHO (Southern, ASCAP)
MANO DE GATO (Peer Int. BMI)
Latin-flavored instrumental (arranged by George Tipton) is a natural toe-tapper that starts with convulsive giggling.

KATHLEEN EMERY—Love 100
SOMETIMES I FEEL LIKE A MOTHERLESS CHILD (Public domain)
EVIL WAYS (SAH, BMI)
Traditional song given a sultry reading. Sounds like a throwback except for the fuzz effect.

RICK McCLELLAN—Quad 108 (MGM)
FROZEN SUNSHINE (Stellar, BMI)
JULIE MAKES IT RIGHT (Stellar, BMI)
Here's a guy who sounds like the Association singing "Along Comes Mary," if you can believe it. Good tune and production.

PRIMBROCK SKIGGS—Pzazz 049
THAT WAS YESTERDAY (Luap, BMI)
WAKE UP (Luap, BMI)
This chap has really taken his Jerry Butler lessons to heart. Smooth soul sound with rough edges.

STICK IN THE MUD—Ansonia 6775
IT'S A DOGGONE SHAME (Total, BMI)
MUD (Total, BMI)
Here's a group with a low energy sound sure to make your eyelids heavy. Dirge-like number is sort of bluesy.

HEAVEN BOUND—MGM K14023
HEAVEN BOUND (Marathon, BMI)
Cheery big choral number reminiscent of the Mike Curb Congregation features the happy kind of sound people seem to be digging these days.

ALBERTINA WALKER AND THE CARAVANS—Hob 1342 (Scepter)
PUT A LITTLE LOVE IN YOUR HEART (Unart, BMI)
THREE PEOPLE (Our Children's, BMI)
This is a gospel record to be sure but they do such a good job on Jackie DeShannon's song they may get pop action. Try it and see.

TURLEY RICHARDS—Warner Bros. 7458
TRAIN BACK TO MAMA (Ridge, BMI)
THE LAST DAY (Warner-Tamerlane, BMI)
Richards has written himself a memorable song that is both compelling and down home in texture and approach.

JOHN ELLISON—Phil-L.A. of Soul 341
(Jamie/Guyden)
ALL I WANT IS YOUR LOVE (Dandelion, BMI)
DOGGONE GOOD FEELING (Dandelion, BMI)
Ellison sings somewhat like Arthur Lee of Love; he's got the kind of high haunting voice that stays with you and he writes his own—good bet.

PLASTIC PEOPLE—RCA 74-0423
DANCING & DRINKING (Sunbury, ASCAP)
REJECTION (Sunbury, ASCAP)
Dutch group sings about two of the world's favorite pastimes. They're enthusiastic but not extraordinary.

THE DIAMONETTES—Alston 4590 (Atco)
RULES ARE MADE TO BE BROKEN (Sherlyn, BMI)
DON'T BE SURPRISED (Sherlyn, BMI)
Girl groups are making a come back this year and the Diamonettes may be in the forefront to their return. Compelling R&B ballad is a song that stays with you.

DON VARNER—House of Orange 2404 (Santo)
THAT'S ALL RIGHT (Notes of Gold, ASCAP)
I CAN IF YOU CAN (Notes of Gold, ASCAP)
Strange R&B number is traditionally oriented except for the extra echo effect, a good attention-grabber.

NINA SIMONE—Bethlehem 3099 (Starday-King)
I LOVES YOU PORGY (Gershwin, ASCAP)
MY BABY JUST CARES FOR ME (Bregman-Vocco-Conn-Gus Kahn, ASCAP)
This was a hit for Nina in the '50s and it sounds great again today. Reissue should pick up wide play; good wine mellows with age.

NOTES FROM THE UNDERGROUND

By CARL LaFONG

■ KPFK-FM, the Pacifica Foundation's L.A. listener-sponsored station, is throwing a "Friend-Raising" party this Wednesday. The Byrds will entertain. The bash was put together by John Carpenter, who recently left his Freep post to become Promotion Director of the outlet. He also hosts a weekly rap show . . . "First Tuesday," NBC's bellwether magazine of the air, is putting together a segment on "Pearl," Janis Joplin's final album for Columbia . . . Television station KTTV in Los Angeles, most famous for rightist newsman George Putnam, rejected Warner Brothers' television commercial for Capt. Beefheart's "Lick My Decals Off Baby" album. Station Manager Charles Young was quoted as saying the title is obscene, and refused to allow the spot on "my air." His air? The spot was conceived by Beefheart himself, filmed in black and white by film makers Larry Secrest and John Fizdale under the auspices of WB's Van Dyke Parks.

A & M is previewing the "Mad Dogs And Englishmen" film for critics and distributors in Hollywood . . . Neil Young's producer David Briggs is moving to Toronto from whence he will produce records for his own label—which has not yet been named . . . The Firesign Theatre is looking for money to finance their movie, "The Big Suitcase of 1969," formerly titled "Problems in Democracy." Their production company is the Good Luk Chinese Film Company . . . Leo Kottke is recording his first Capitol album on the coast.

Taj Mahal's new band includes John Simon, piano; John Hall, guitar; Bill Rich, bass; Greg Thomas, drums; and Howard Johnson, leader of brass section which includes four tubas. His first appearance was made this past weekend at Fillmore East, after a week and a half of work on his new album at Bearsville Recording near Woodstock . . . Christopher Milk may or may not have been formed by supercritic John Mendelsohn as a satire. Whatever, it is a serious thing for someone now. The group has been recording at A & M intermittently and looking for a contract, and their new lead guitarist Don Alvarado is reportedly faster than Alvin Lee. In their one and only audition performance at the Troubadour, CM broke three mikes and freaked the folkies . . . Blue Thumb will be releasing a first album by the Mark/Almond Band in mid-February. It's jazz-blues, recorded in England.

The Grease Band, sans Cocker and Chris Stainton, will be touring with the Small Faces and Savoy Brown in February, and their first album will be released by A & M sometime within the next six months . . . Dave Mason's next solo album will be released by Blue Thumb in March . . . Mercury has bought a single by old-time Rhythm and Blues artist Roy Brown entitled "Love for Sale" which will lead to an album by the artist. Brown next appears on Epic's "Johnny Otis Live at the Monterey Jazz Festival" LP.

Boz Scraggs' excellent Columbia album will be released in February and he will be touring simultaneously . . . Buddy Miles' tour of Europe has been cancelled because of visa hassels. But Fairport Convention won't be coming here for the same reasons . . . Leon Russell and Shelter Records have bought themselves a Memphis studio called Beautiful Sound . . . Peter Asher will be recording James Taylor's "Sister Kate" for Atlantic. The first album will include songs by James, Livingston and Carole King. James' Fillmore East gig Jan. 25 will fulfill an old option and the proceeds will go to a charity mutually agreed upon by Taylor and Bill Graham . . . Karen Black, the foxy lady who is winning awards for her performance in "Five Easy Pieces," will be recording in Nashville with producer Elliot Mazer. She was a folk singer before turning to films . . . Elektra has bought Mickey Newberry's Mercury contract. He's the singer-songwriter who wrote "She Even Woke Me Up To Say Goodbye," among a lot of other very nice songs.

NOTES FOR THE SEVENTIES

"Here it is Post-Rock already, and a pair of neo-classic synthesizers have arisen to offer a provocative sample of what may turn out to be THE sound of the Seventies."

Esther Phillips
Burnin'
Atlantic SD-1565

Esther Phillips has seen changes aplenty in her years in the record business. At the tender age of thirteen she was discovered by band leader Johnny Otis in Los Angeles and opened, billed as "Little" Esther Phillips, at the fabled Barrelhouse Club in that West Coast r&b center in the Forties and Fifties. In late 1948 her first disc appeared on the Modern label with Otis backing her up but it met with little success. In 1949 Johnny and Esther moved over to the Savoy label and had a smash hit with "Double Crossin' Blues" and followed it up with a booting "Cupid's Boogie" in 1950. In 1952 Otis folded things up for a while and Esther went out on her own with scant success, recording for a variety of small Southern labels. Personal problems and ill health led her home to Houston in the mid-Fifties, where she spent a couple of years recuperating and then, like a true artist, hit the road again. 1962 was the turning point in her career when she waxed the c&w tune "Release Me" for the New York-based Lenox label. It sold a million and led to a whole, much disputed, album of c&w tunes and landed her a reputation in the supper-club, easy-listening circles that contrasted solidly with her tough, little-girl role in the Forties and Fifties. Atlantic bought her contract up in 1965 and pursued the c&w tune thing at first, but soon allowed her to cover The Beatles' "And I Love Her," that turned out to be her last big hit. Albums followed on Atlantic, but these were basically string-loaded and full of standards.

With this album—recorded live at Freddie Jett's Pied Piper Club in Los Angeles—Little Esther lets her hair down once more and proves she is yet a blues singer extraordinaire, with healthy dashes of jazz-inflected stylings a la Dinah Washington, Carmen McCrae or Nina Simone overwhelmingly in evidence. Her tight, little-girlish voice rocks out on "Cry Me a River Blues" and enchantingly possesses one on her live version of "And I Love Him." Not to mention her sensuous, emotionally abusive "I'm Getting Long Alright" that's "for all my lady friends in the house tonight—I do most of my blues songs for the ladies because we always have the blues." She moans her way into the "ice man," "meat man" and "coal man" peopled tune in syncopatedly funky fashion.

And that is only part of side one of this disc. Side two includes a live version of her come-back tune, "Release Me," that is lyrically propulsive as the tight ensemble, including Cornel Dupree on guitar and Jack Wilson on piano, moves things along expertly. Side two also contains two ballads that, as Leonard Feather accurately notes, "take on the coloration of the blues." Entitled "If It's the Last Thing I Do" and "Please Send Me Someone To Love," both feature Esther moaning, wailing and emoting off of deliberate piano backing, curling the notes at times and elongating states of mind as she holds syllables at other moments. Intensity mingled with gospel-stung syncopation.

Esther Phillips returns on this marvelous album that should be another stepping stone in her up and down career. She deserves a break and this album demonstrates she still has that low-down r&b feel coupled with a jazz ballad sense of timing and coloration that matches Nina Simone.

Farrell, Grever in Joint Latin Artist Venture

NEW YORK—Wes Farrell, President of The Wes Farrell Organization, and Bob Grever, President of Grever International of Mexico City, announce a joint venture for the production and publishing of Latin artists for distribution in Central and South America.

Farrell indicated that the duo will "discover and develop Spanish-speaking performers who are right for the Latin 'pop' market. Few people are aware yet of what the growth of a middle class, a phenomenon of the 1960s, has done to the record-buying potential in these countries. Today a hit single in these combined markets can easily reach the $million mark. This is an audience that is worth a great deal more effort than is currently being directed towards it and one that we will grow with. We want to develop a minimum of three acts during the first year and more after that."

Bob Grever and Wes Farrell have an association stretching back many years. In addition to representing Farrell's Pocket Full of Tunes publishing firm in the Mexican market, Grever also represents such major publishing houses as E. B. Marks, Chappell Music and the Big Three.

May Establish New Label

Farrell indicated that it is likely that he and Grever will establish a new record label to market their product. According to Grever, several established Latin artists have already been approached to record for them and for other producers in the Wes Farrell Organization.

It was pointed out by Farrell that "we will, in many cases, be making cover-records of contemporary English-language pop hits as well as cutting original material specifically designed for the Latin American pop market."

(This column appears first in Spanish and then in English)

Mientras Luisa María Güell debuta en el Chateau Madrid de Nueva York, Fernando Casado y Nydia Souffront abren el Montmartre de Miami en la semana del 12 Enero. Se espera que la temporada de comienzo de año de estos tres artistas sea muy exitosa. Yo me alegraría, pues talento les sobra para ello . . . Después de su "debut" en el "Teatro Blanquita" de México, viajará Marco Antonio Vázquez a Los Angeles para presentarse en el Million Dollar's durante las próximas semanas . . . Lanzará Kubaney próximamente un nuevo long playing de sus Diplomáticos que atraerá muy buenas ventas. Entre el repertorio se cuentan "Cándida," "Knock Three Times," "La Distancia es Como el Viento," "Black Magic Woman," "I Think I Love You," "Se te Nota" y "Sounds of Silence."

Con el anuncio del nombramiento de Robert F. Cook, como Vice presidente de RCA Ltd., del Canada y Gerente General de la División de Discos, anunciada por Rocco Laginestra, Presidente de RCA Records en Nueva York, queda abierta la plaza de Presidente de RCA Argentina, ocupada exitosamente por Cook durante varios años. No dudo que Laginestra elevará a esta posición al hombre que seguirá sentando pautas dentro de la organización RCA y que es en gran parte responsable de la posición privilegiada que mantiene RCA en Argentina y su producción bonaerense internacionalmente. Me refiero a Adolfo Pino, actual Gerente General de esta empresa . . . Estoy bajo la impresión que Guillermo Infante si está llevando adelante a Orfeón . . . ¡Se imaginan Uds. lo difícil que es mover, halando por la cola, a un enorme elefante!!! . . . MGM Records adquirió la Transcontinental Record Corp. . . . Con pocos días de diferencia demandaron a la empresa de la cual son artistas exclusivos, Dunhill Records. Steppenwolf y los Three Dog Night. Los cargos básicos son: daños por rompimiento de contrato, "royalties" no declarados y ganados e intimidación . . . Abrió la semana del 19 de Diciembre hasta el 17 de enero del 1971 la "Primera Exposición Internacional del Espectáculo" en Buenos Aires ("Expo-Show"), en la cual serán exhibidos los 14 cuadros originales, pintados por 14 pintores argentinos, interpretando los 14 tangos con música de prestigiosos compositores de música típica argentina y letra de poetas y escritores argentinos, con el cual se dió vida a la producción discográfica "14 con el Tango," producida por Ben Molar. Los cuadros han regresado de una jira que ha cubierto Grecia, Israel, España, Italia, Estados Unidos, y últimamente fueron presentados en "Expo 70" en Osaka, Japón. ¡La obra discográfica "14 con el Tango" es un tesoro musical!

RECORD WORLD EN Mexico

By VILO ARIAS SILVA

■ Con las fiestas navideñas, el medio disquero sufrió una paralización total, ejecutivos, artistas, compositores y todo el mundo dijo "alto" a sus labores y hasta el próximo año. Pero paralelamente a ese vacío, la "familia" del acetato, tuvo una agradable y prestigiosa visita, nos referimos a la simpática y experimentada ejecutiva de la "Peer Southern Organization"

Vilo Arias
Silva

Provi García, quien fué portadora de un saludo muy cariñoso que enviá la Sra. Peer desde su reducto en Nueva York, a los autores, compositores y pueblo mexicano. Su visita fué relampago, los compromisos profesionales adquiridos con anticipación practicamente coparon todo su tiempo, pero en cada una de sus expresiones manifestó siempre el cariño grande y sincero que siente por México y deseó en su rápida partida que estas fiestas navideñas hayan sido de paz y alegría para México entero. . . . Scottie Scott, la simpática chilena autora de varios exitos como "Mi Niña," "Y Buen Viaje" está decidida a radicar en México, talento y simpatía son sus armas, y seguramente la satisfacciones no se harán esperar, tiene el pensamiento puesto en dar en corto tiempo varios "hits," solo nos cabe esperar. . . Falana, volvió a sus actividades y rápidamente su figura se pasea triunfante por los medios artísticos. . . La gran incognita ¿Quién será el nuevo gerente de publicidad de la disquera Musart? . . . Y a propósito de Musart, su nuevo compositor-interprete Napoleón se proyecta con muchas posibilidades de éxito, su poesía y su sentido musical están trazados con la idiosincracia que está prevaleciendo en América latina, por lo que los ejecutivos de Musart han puesto toda su atención. . . Cesar Costa, colocó otro éxito "Mi amigo el viejo mar," de esta manera aumentó a 4 los números de la preferencia del público en lo que fué el año 70.

Continúa la pregunta, ¿Como formará su equipo Guillermo Infante?, la capacidad ejecu-tiva de Don "Memo", ha sido demostrada en su larga trayectoria, por lo que estamos seguros que se rodeará de los mejorcito del medio.

Definitivamente, Peerless tiene los conjuntos más vendedores del año, Los Sonor's, Los Babys y Los Solitarios, han acaparado los primeros lugares de venta y popularidad y se manifiestan en el sitial preferencial. . . Y hablando de Peerless, en la disquera se respira una atmosfera de superación, claro está que se deba a las innumerables satisfacciones que han tenido en estos últimos tiempos, sus ventas han superado largamente a las realizadas en años anteriores. . . Muchas propuestas de la competencia está recibiendo Alfredo "Guero" Gil, por lo que lo han puesto a pensar muy seriamente, no sería extraño que el popular "Guero" cambiara de "camiseta" . . . Buena labor de reconocimiento efectuada por Jorge A. Riancho, Gerente de Publicidad de Capitol, sus viajes al interior de la republica le han dado un "norte" a seguir, y sacó en claro que promotor y vendedor no puede ser la misma persona. . . Totalmente negativa la orientación que la están dando al pasado idolo José-José, qué lástima que se pierda un buen elemento cuando podía haber dado muchas satisfacciones a México, y pensar que RCA, votó la cast por la ventana en sus promociónes. . . Constantino Escobar, integrante del mismo equipo con mucho entusiasmo en su nuevo cargo del Dpto. Artístico, está seguro de que el éxito va a ser de mucho impacto. . . y siguiendo con RCA. Martín del Campo, Gerente de Publicidad tiene un plan que dará mucho que hablar en este nuevo 71 según él, quiere y siente el disco en la sangre, es su carta de presentación, razón no le falta por que es la razón primordial para el éxito de un ejecutivo disquero, vino de la linda Guadalajara como el lo dice donde conoció el acetato, dedicandose a la venta. . . Que gran satisfacción siente el periodista cuando trata con ejecutivos capaces, sinceros y decentes ojalá en todas las disqueras llevaran ese distintivo. . . Y será hasta la proxima, no sin antes desearle a México entero, un nuevo año lleno prosperidad y hermandad.

■ Se realizó el "Festival de la Canción de Buenos Aires" con gran aceptación del público. Este se transmitió a casi toda América Latina via satélite. El Festival tuvo cosa rara en estos eventos, ya que hubo plena coincidencia de público y jurado. El ganador fue el tema "Las Cosas que me Alejan de Ti" interpretado por Hector Cabrera. Este tema ya está ubicado en el primer lugar de ventas de Argentina. El segundo puesto correspondió a "Una Hora para Dos" que defendieron Dany Martín y Juan Carlos Monterrey. El tercer puesto para María y Federico con el tema "Con una Flor en la Mano," artistas Philips de nueva promoción. Se destacó también el duo Nelly y Tony con la canción "Gondolero."

Intensa disputa por la edición de los discos de Hector Cabrera entre Sicamericana (Music Hall) y RCA. El disco que está en venta es Music Hall. ¡No hay que pelear!

El canal 4 de Montevideo, conjuntamente con Radio Montecarlo organizó el Festival para elegir la canción que representará a Uruguay en el Festival Internacional de la Canción de Rio de Janeiro. Resultó ganadora la canción "Andrea" que compuso e interpretó la Dupla Georgette y José. Son intérpretes de Music Hall Argentina. El tema "Andrea" lo interpretan en Inglés. ¡Suerte!

Santos Lipesker, director artístico de Phonogram, asistió a una convención con sus similares en Rio de Janeiro.

Hay gran expectativa por el "Festival de la Canción Argentina para el Mundo." Este se realizará el 30 y 31 de Octubre en esta ciudad. Es interesante destacar que en este Festival solo intervienen artistas C.B.S. y R.C.A. ¡Hasta la próxima!

Bell Records a Gold Disc Leader

■ NEW YORK—In a recent list published by the RIAA, Bell Records ranked among the first five companies in the record industry, having garnered 10 gold record certificates for their seven singles and three albums during 1970.

Commenting on these published results, Larry Uttal, President of Bell Records, said: "In just six years Bell Records has established itself as one of the major forces in the industry. Our gold records reflect credit on our staff and the independent producers and artists who have provided us with such excellent product. I have every confidence that 1971 will be an even bigger year for us at Bell."

Uttal also pointed out that several of Bell's gold records not only sold the required million for certification but went well beyond, most notably "I Think I Love You" by the Partridge Family which recently passed the three million sales figure. "The Partridge Family" LP sold over one million units. "Knock Three Times," by Dawn sold well over two million copies and is currently No. 1 in the country. "One Less Bell To Answer" by the Fifth Dimension has exceeded 1.7 million in sales, and is now No. 3 on the best seller charts.

The new Edison Lighthouse single, "It's Up To You Petula," is climbing the charts and looks like a follow-up to their 1970 million-seller for Bell, "Love Grows (Where My Rosemary Goes)."

CLUB REVIEW

Carla Harrah's Hit

■ RENO, NEV.—Sophisticated, tailored, melodic and interesting are the words for Stax artist Carla Thomas appearing at Harrah's Club here.

Miss Thomas delivered seven numbers in diversified manner. She brought about a hush from a packed house on, "Save the Country" and "What Are You Doing The Rest of Your Life," then sailing effortlessly through a Joe Sydnor and Ray Resse tune, "Seen As a Child."

The combination of all her assets, including marvelous poise and a fine ability to chat with her audience without cluttering her set, puts her into the category of class singers.

'Music' Campaign

Our second program ran the following year, and we billed over twelve million dollars. Any program is only as strong as the artists whose product it embraces, and with the heavy artists on Columbia, Epic and our Custom labels and some of the bright new people we'll be launching during the next few months, I fully expect that we'll double the sales of our last program."

Over 60 Releases Highlighted

The "Music of Our Time" program will highlight the more than 60 new releases of the next couple of months such as the live albums of Miles Davis at the Fillmore, Johnny Winters/live, highlights from the Atlanta Pop Festival, the Johnny Otis Show/live at Monterey Jazz Festival, highlights from the Isle of Wight Festival and the new releases by the Rascals, the Chambers Brothers, Chicago, Al Kooper, Boz Scaggs, Poco, Janis Joplin, Ivory Joe Hunter, Edgar Winter's White Trash, John Hammond, Ballin' Jack and Leonard Cohen.

Debut albums by important new artists and groups will also be released during these months such as by Diane Kolby, singer/writer from Texas, Chelsea Beige, Tin House, and Grin, a rock group from Maryland.

Spearheading the campaign will be a special sampler album, featuring 19 of Columbia's current contemporary artists. Called "Different Strokes," the album is designed to introduce as many people as possible to the label's contemporary catalog. The "Different Strokes" album will feature performances from the new albums of Johnny Winter, Tom Rush, Poco, Dreams, Big Brother and the Holding Company, Miles Davis, Spirit, It's A Beautiful Day, the Chambers Brothers, Laura Nyro, Ballin' Jack, New York Rock Ensemble, the Hollies, Redbone, Elvin Bishop Group, Fraser & DeBolt, Bill Puka, Soft Machine and the Flock, and will be available in record stores for the suggested retail price of $1.00, as well as tapes at a slightly higher price.

A 16mm. film featuring many of the artists on the "Different Strokes" album also will be made available to record stores.

Additionally, the program introduces an innovation in economy line products with the release of three contemporary underground albums on the Harmony Headliner Series, Mike

Sire/Polydor Pact

Stein, in commenting on the move, said, "We were not at all unhappy with London. They adequately distributed our records and during our two years together enabled us to release almost 30 albums and build up an enviable catalogue and roster of artists. The move to Polydor was prompted first by a growing desire on our part to expand our marketing potential through an alternate means of distribution. The rack-jobber method of selling records, although successful, limits the quality and variety of records sold, by concentrating primarily on moving large quantities of a limited assortment of records.

"We intend, without competing with or eliminating the rack-jobbers, to circumvent these traditional methods and develop new channels of distribution through 'head shops' and directly to colleges by means of on-campus representatives."

'Team Totally Aware'

Commenting further, Stein stated, "From experience with our Blue Horizon label (distributed by Polydor for the past year) we have found Polydor to be a young, vital company constantly open to new ideas in production, promotion and merchandising. Also, Schoenbaum's new team, headed by General Manager Chuck Gregory and Product and Marketing manager Jon Sagen, are totally aware of today's music. The new music requires new understanding, and this company has it, and together we will work to implement our new ideas and methods. In short, we will have the total freedom we need and the help of the Polydor organization when it is needed."

Sire has scheduled its first release for mid-March and will use the interim period to ready product and firmly establish a working relationship with Poly-

Bloomfield, Moby Grape and Grace Slick.

The "Music of Our Time" merchandising campaign will be supported by an extensive advertising schedule.

During the coming months, national radio time buys for key artists will supplement the "Music of Our Time" advertising campaign. A large assortment of display material featuring the artists and their albums will be available to record stores, too.

dor personnel and their distributors. Under the terms of the new agreement, Sire will function autonomously in all aspects of production, and will work in conjunction with the Polydor staff in all phases of promotion and marketing.

London will continue to sell existing records in the Sire catalogue during their six-month sell-off period with special emphasis on recent album releases by Climax Chicago Blues Band, Barclay James Harvest and Focus. Many key items will be immediately repackaged for distribution by Polydor.

Current Sire Roster

The current Sire artist roster includes Martha Velez, Aum, Climax, Peter Kelley, Jean Ritchie, Barclay James Harvest, Paul Geremia, Focus and the New Deal String Band. There will be new releases by all of these acts by mid 1971. In addition, Sire is currently negotiating with several other American and English groups.

The move to Polydor is one of the most important events in Sire's five-year history and brings Sire a step closer to global representation by Polydor, which now distributes Sire product throughout the world with the exception of France and Italy. In addition, Blue Horizon, the English based-blues label, jointly owned by Sire and Richard and Mike Vernon, is distributed by Polydor in the U.S.A.

One Month Long European Trip

Sire/Blue Horizon Managing Director Seymour Stein left on Jan. 13 for a month-long European trip. At MIDEM, Stein hopes to conclude several foreign publishing deals. Stein will also confer with key Polydor executives and Barbara Baker of Disc' A-Z, Sire's French licensee, to plan Sire releases in Europe. In England, Stein will meet with his Blue Horizon partners and several newly signed Sire producers.

Final stop will be Amsterdam, where Stein will supervise new sessions by Focus to be produced by group members, Jan Akkerman and Thijs Van Leer.

CLUB REVIEW

Holmes Impressive

■ NEW YORK—Polydor Records' Jake Holmes appeared at the Bitter End last Friday (8) and gave an impressive performance.

Holmes, a proven writer and producer, showed he also possesses good stage presence. After jokingly referring to himself as "just a WASP from Huntington, Long Island," he proceeded to present his "ethnic WASP material," which contained some interesting reflections. One song's theme, in particular, was strikingly familiar yet uniquely done. "My Idol Fell Behind" told the story of how Jake's home town hero depreciated in value as Jake became more enlightened.

The high note of the performance, however, was the tender and melodic "So Close." This tune, more than any other, demonstrated not only Jake's ability to write a great song, but his mellow vocal quality as well.

Jake had fine support from Teddy Irwin, who played beautiful fills on lead acoustic guitar.

Also on the bill was Cheryl Dilcher, who made her Bitter End debut. Including songs from her Ampex album, Cheryl and her three-man back-up group deftly moved through her original material with both versatility and professionalism. The standout song was the touching, "Little Miss No One."

Edmunds and Curley, comedians who use sound effects as their ultimate weapon, destroyed the crowd with their clever routines. F. L. Goodman

Woody Herman's big band kept right up to date via the arrangements of young (23) Alan Broadbent. The big come-on is a new version of "Blues in the Night." But other cuts, including Blood, Sweat and Tears' "Smiling Phases," will attract play and eventually sales.

GUNTHER HAMPEL: THE 8TH OF JULY 1969

Very, very loose jazz, presided over with an invisible baton by pianist Gunter Hampel. Sounds are varied from what seems like Japanese wind chimes to a buzz saw. But there's no denying that the music is not without its intriguing aspects.

Three New Lowery Pubberies

■ Bill Lowery, President of the Lowery Group of Music Publishing Companies, announces the formation of three new firms bringing to six the number of active companies included in the Lowery publishing enterprises.

Included among the new firms is Terri Music, the first Lowery member of ASCAP. The other firms, which will be based in Atlanta, are Tecumseh Music and Young World Music, both members of BMI.

Terri Music counts Lowery as President with Gary Walker as First Vice President. Other officers include Joseph A. "Cotton" Carrier, Second Vice President, and Mary Tallent, Secretary-Treasurer. Young writer Bob Frank has been signed as the first composer for Terri Music.

Tecumseh includes the same officers and has signed its first writer, Kendall Hayes. Hayes wrote the country classic, "Walk On By."

Infant Young World Music, a partnership between Bill Lowery and Columbia recording artist Freddy Weller, is an affiliate of BMI. Weller is the first writer of international note inked to the new organization. A writer with Lowery Music and Low-Twi Music for the past eight years, Weller has written or co-written "Dizzy," "Jam Up & Jelly Tight," "Pearl" and "Stir It Up And Serve It," among others. A member of the group Paul Revere and the Raiders, he has enjoyed recording success on his own with country hits "Games People Play," "These Are Not My People" and the current chart-climber, "The Promised Land." Freddy has cut three new songs from the Young World Music catalog for release on his next Columbia LP and for possible release as single product.

The Atlanta-based Lowery Group includes Lowery Music Company, Low-Twi Music and Low-Sal, Inc., in addition to the newly formed trio of publishing companies.

ATLANTA-MACON

By LEE BARRY

■ Gettin' their thing together baby, that's the story of Master Sound Recording Studios as the hot 'lanta facility opens its lavish new 16-track studio Co-owner Bob Richardson reports booming business at the new plant which was given a raging test by rockin' Plymouth Rock under the production of Epic's Kelly Gordon.

Sessions galore in hot 'lanta-Macon these days with Don Carroll doing sets on North Carolina cucumber farmer Joe Odow and Ray Whitley, hit writer for many Big A artists. Sitting in for some rhythm tracks at the Carroll sessions were G. C. Coleman and the original Winstons . . . Across town at Studio One, Buddy Buie is currently cutting a new Liberty single for Dennis Yost and will begin production on the next B. J. Thomas single in "Just a Matter of Time." Capitol star Joe South continues to work on LP product for the label . . . Just a "hop, skip, and a jump away," Mike Clark is producing the Centaur, a nine-man rock contingent as opposed to the half-human, half-horse beast, at the Sound of Birmingham Studios . . . "Down the road a piece," Greg Reeves is recording his first solo album in Macon's Capricorn Sound Studio. Joining Reeves in the studio are Neil Young (who came in "After the Gold Rush"), Nils Lofgren and Duane Allman (who also put down the hot licks on the new Laura Nyro album for Columbia) . . . Over the bridge and across the ridge at Macon's Starday-King studio, Bobby Smith is cutting single product on recently signed artist Gloria Walker. Smith is also cutting Mickey Murray's forthcoming Federal label single "People Are Together" at the same Macon facility. Speaking of Mickey Murray, Percy Sledge is "Going Back To Alabama," as Murray exclaimed in his most recent single, with album and single sessions scheduled in Muscle Shoals.

Tony Joe Joins Cash TVer

Smiling faces are going places as Tony Joe White, who is due with his first Warner Brothers LP, "Any Day Now," has been set for an appearance on the Feb. 24 edition of the Johnny Cash TVer. Introducing the new "Alex Taylor Album" at the Boston Tea Garden on Jan. 21 is "Sweet Baby James'" baby brother Alex! . . . "Proud as a Peacock" was the story of Bill Lowery as he winged his way to Houston to attend his first meetings as a member of the Boards of the Country Music Association and the Country Music Foundation.

"Signed, Sealed and Delivered" are the Hour Syn rockers as they put their "John Hancocks" on an exclusive pact with Johnny Hensley and his Augusta-based Masters City Attractions. Present plans call for the group to begin work immediately on an LP at the new eight track Soundcraft Studios in North Augusta . . . "The High Priest of Bubblegum," Tommy Roe, has certainly had his holiness all over the "tube" with appearances on the Andy Williams, Don Knotts, Steve Allen and Merv Griffin shows within a matter of two weeks.

Kinney Income Up 22%

■ NEW YORK — Kinney National Service, Inc., announces that it achieved record earnings and sales for the fiscal year ended Sept. 30, 1970.

Fiscal 1969 per share earnings were $1.60 before giving effect to an unusual motion picture and pre-production cost write-down of $27 million (after taxes) made shortly after Kinney acquired Warner Bros.

Net income for the fiscal year ended Sept. 30, 1970, increased 22%, to $33,882,000 from $27,716,000 a year before (prior to the unusual write-down).

DIALOGUE

high school editorials . . . they're meant to sell records and very few albums can afford the luxury of a writer's fatuousness.

Another thing it shouldn't be is dishonest in any way—ever. Turn off a young reader and he'll never believe you again.

The one thing I can't describe is the process of creativity that goes on inside the heads of writers and art directors. I can't even tell you who comes up with what first. It's a thing that happens, and the great insights and inspirations happen best to the hardest working and most involved. So when you have a great art/copy combination, you cherish it because great advertising pros don't come around that often to agencies. (And far less often to record company advertising departments, might add.)

The medium is some of the message. Ad making is the whole business of telling the public about your wares. And there's a hell of a lot more than newspapers, magazines and radio to do it in.

In fact, I think that the whole subject of media is long overdue for a complete re-evaluation of effectiveness.

Simply put, the message belongs where it's right—where the message is most dramatic and most efficiently run. Maybe it belongs in the sky, or stencilled on the ground, or on a billboard, or on a TV spot adjacent to a TV appearance, or in a film that's distributed to colleges, or on sandwich signs, or coming from a sound truck, or on bumper stickers. Or all, or none.

That's what we mean at DFK by the "ripeness of ideas" thing. The entire selling idea completely thought out and brought to its logical fruition.

The worst used medium of all? Oddly enough, it's the record jacket itself. Surprised? Go into a record store sometime and just watch the browsers. A jacket catches their eyes, they take it out of the rack, they turn it over, they shake their heads and they put it back. All in the space of a couple of seconds. And somebody's missed out on a sale.

Wasn't there anything useful in the way of information about what's inside that could have held the browsers' attention and made him purchase? (Even a reprint of the current ad slipped inside the skinwrap could turn a sale.)

That's why I like to do covers, too, for my clients. And I assign the same art director and copywriter to do the ad and the cover. So there's an integrity of concept. So the covers sell what's inside.

Most covers today do nothing for and some even work against the sale of an album.

Just recently we received an album from one of our clients. They asked us to take a look at it and a listen, and then do an ad. Well, we went through the existing photography from the jacket and found a shot that became a knockout concept for an ad. And it turned into a knockout ad that made the jacket pale by comparison. With a little talking and convincing, guess what became the new record jacket? That's right, the ad—headline, visual concept and body copy . . . intact! And it's working.

The second worst used medium. What a great thing—you can actually let people hear what they're buying. But instead, most record advertisers fight against it. With only a few exceptions, copy is a banal or shrill or completely irrelevant to what the selling message should be. You here the words "incredible, beautiful, great or outtasight" a lot. Plus some bad cutting of music.

Suffice it to say that I think of radio as a very visual medium and try to create images to fit the medium and the music. To amplify the music and to give selling information. (I could do an entire separate piece on radio alone.)

Poor Media Strategy Rankles

But the thing that really rankles me most about radio is the way money is thrown down the drain with poor media strategy. Spending money against a trend you couldn't possibly buck, given the limited funds available for most albums. Instead, money should be spent when the odds are with you. When album tracks are getting airplay. When a single has really emerged. When the group is doing personal appearances in the area. When you want to enhance crossover interest. When you want to hit a very small segment of the whole with really maximum impact. (For instance, instead of hitting, say three cities with a flight of commercials

Polydor Awarded

Polydor's Classical Division Creative Services Manager Lloyd Gelsassen (right) accepts the Record of the Year award from William Anderson, Editor of Stereo Review. Their annual award celebration took place last week at New York's Sheraton-Russell Hotel. The silver plaque was presented for Deutsche Grammophon's recording of Wagner's "Götterdämmerung," the latest album to be released in Karajan's "Ring" Cycle. Deutsche Grammophon also received honorable mention plaque for its two-volume, 25-record edition of Schubert Lieder, with Dietrich Fischer-Dieskau and Gerald Moore.

First Rak Record Breaks

■ The first American release on Mickie Most's Rak label—"Whole Lotta Love," by CCS is rapidly breaking across the nation. The label was recently added to the roster of Custom labels distributed by Columbia Records.

Within a week of the record's release, top 40 stations in thirty seven different cities had added it to their playlists.

According to Mike Kagan, Director of National Promotion, Epic and Columbia Custom labels, "The most exciting aspect of this record's initial success is the fact that in addition to Top 40 play in major markets such as New York, Detroit, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Washington, Miami, Houston, Seattle, Denver, Buffalo and Phoenix, we've picked up airplay in FMs, R & B stations and MOR stations."

each, spending three times the money in just one of those cities might be the best thing to do.)

The record company's relationship to an ad agency. Advertising is one of the least important things that a record company does from the standpoint of selling records. (That makes me shudder.) From other standpoints, it's one of the most important. (Aha!)

You can't sell records to a public that won't accept them. If the record stinks, good advertising is the worst thing you can do for it.

You can advertise with all the gold in Fort Knox, but if promotion men don't promote and merchandising men don't merchandise, and in-store materials aren't in stores and nothing's coordinated and timed properly, nothing works.

Mary Wells' painted planes did beautifully for Braniff, because Braniff was willing to listen. They showed painted planes on television and when the people got to the airport, there were painted planes. But most importantly, painted planes were right as an idea because they evoked a positive attitude about the airline.

Bill Bernbach did wonders with an obscure rent-a-car company because he made it human.

The same is true for Polaroid—because he showed the camera involved in situations of real humanity and warmth.

David Ogilvy showed a lot of disbelievers that you can't do advertising if you don't have all the information inputs. And he proved that before you do a fantastic ad, it had better be the right ad.

'Record Advertising Must Get Better'

Record advertising must get better. The sheer volume of the music being written and recorded today requires it. And the nature of the "product" itself demands it. The day of the hype was over long ago. Because it goes against everything the music is supposed to be. The competition involved in selling music exists on a level quite apart from other, more mundane consumer goods. Because while soap A must compete with soap B in order to survive, Pink Floyd will never be in competition with Pearls Before Swine.

Advertising must suit the music. It must reflect it. It must be an extension of it. Meaningless labels like "acid-rock," "heavy blues" and "voodoo R&B" illustrate the ignorance of the phrase-maker rather than the nature of the music. Because if music is nothing else, it is specific. It's a cerebral/gut/social/religious/political experience that can't be summarized with a simple throw-away line. The faster all of us in the music business get closer to the music, the better the advertising will be.

And if we can get the advertising end of music together and keep it together, we might actually turn into something people can believe in.

Fillmore Bill All-Star

■ NEW YORK — Reprise's Sweetwater opened the concert at Fillmore East Jan. 8 with the title cut, appropriately, from their new album, "Just for You."

The song began with a cello solo by August Burns and then went into some very tight jazz riffs, followed by an extremely exciting percussion break. The group exhibited only fairly on vocals due to the fact that their girl lead singer couldn't play the gig because of a car accident. What they did come up with was some very together music. However, the audience's reaction did not do them justice.

Next on the bill was Columbia's Big Brother and the Holding Company. One can easily see how they could have done well as Janis Joplin's back-up group, because a back-up group is really what they're best at. Their first song, "Sunshine Baby," was a rock and roll song, with blues guitar riffs and mediocre vocals. Something more can be said of their second song, "Home on the Strange." Here there was a fair attempt at double leads from the two guitars which was somewhat interesting.

After a few more rather boring songs, Nick Gravinites, also known as "El Grecco," came on to sing. His first song, a foot-tapping rock song, "Buried Alive in the Blues," was followed by a heavy blues song, "Heartache People." This song proved Gravinites to be a very fine singer and Big Brother to be a good back-up group. They finished up with "Be a Brother" from their latest album, a very commercial sounding LP tune.

Miles Fine

Then, of course, the headliner of the evening, Buddy Miles' (on the Mercury label). With a nine-piece band of really great musicians behind him, Miles came out with some fine music. The group consists of two drummers, four brass pieces, an organ and two lead guitarists (one of which was only 17 years old.)

One of the songs was "Wrap it Up" from his days with the Express. The music was extremely tight and there was an intense drum solo. The vocals were excellent and there was an absorbing jazz solo on the alto sax. In fact, nothing negative can be said about the entire performance.

Miles has an unbelievable charisma with the audience.

He had the entire Fillmore standing, clapping, singing—anything he wanted them to do, they did.

One song which mustn't be overlooked is "Down by the River" by Neil Young, which the audience loved. Here the whole group was so together with the audience that one could feel the vibrations in the air. Toni Merkur

CLUB REVIEW

Edwards Hand Debuts

■ NEW YORK—Rod Edwards and Roger Hand, the British duo collectively known as Edwards Hand, opened at the Bitter End last week (13) with a low-key program emphasizing technical excellence in lieu of profundity.

The duo is at a definite disadvantage due to their low-key approach. Their songs, which are a bit self-conscious, are not profound; their melodies are not memorable. Edwards on piano and Hand on guitar create a mood rather than a lasting impression and the mood they create is most pleasant.

The two harmonize with facility with Hand sounding quite like Paul McCartney at times. They opened their set with "U.S. Flag" from the "Suite US" which occupies the first side of their new RCA album; they were previously on the GRT label. It is interesting to consider that this song, which vaguely concerns America's dilemma in the modern world, was written by two people who, by their own acknowledgement, "have been waiting five or six years to come to America."

Perhaps their best number is the title song of their new album, "Stranded." This number, in contrast to most of their other material, keeps up the listener's interest thanks to the many changes in texture that are part of the tune.

Edwards Hand could become popular if large numbers of people are willing to invest vast quantities of time; this seems to be what's necessary to get into their music.

CONCERT REVIEW

Diversity at Fillmore

■ NEW YORK—The diversely entertaining show at Fillmore East Dec. 30 opened with Capitol's David Rea in his first appearance at that theater.

With only an acoustic guitar and his voice, Rea came across right away to an already receptive audience of fanatic Mountain fans. After some very well done country songs, "A Drunkard's Dream" and "Hell Hound on My Trail" (by Robert Johnson), and some old Elvis Presley tunes, "Guitar Man," etc., he did a funny story-song, "David and Goliath," which went over fantastically.

Next in line was Cotillion's Mylon. With his Joe Cocker style, his choice of songs and a good group of musicians behind him, Mylon could very well gain a lot of popular attention. However, the three gospel singers he used seemed out of place.

Then the moment everyone (almost) was waiting for! The one and only Mountain! With an amazing amount of equipment for only four musicians, the Windfall Records group proceeded with their first song, "Never in My Life," heavy rock in which the drums were heard least! Next came "Animal Trainer and the Toad," which sounded like a loud psychedelic circus.

King Biscuit Boy Scores

King Biscuit Boy

■ NEW YORK—King Biscuit Boy, otherwise known as Richard Newell, is the Canadian blues star whose first Paramount album, "Official Music," has aroused much attention in the world of blues and progressive music. The album, released by Daffodil in Canada, is a tremendous hit north of the border and is picking up good action here.

Biscuit was given his name by Ronnie Hawkins with whom he played for two years. The name is derived from a brand of flour which sponsored the late Sonny Boy Williamson's show over KFFA in Helena, Ark. It was through radio, notably WLAC in Nashville and XERF in Del Rio, Texas, that young Newell first became interested in the blues listening late at night in his Hamilton, Ontario, home.

Biscuit, who plays harp and sings, was greatly influenced by fellow harmonica men Little Walter, Big Walter Horton and Sonny Boy himself. On the album, he is backed by Crowbar, the members of which have all dispersed including pianist Rick Bell who became a member of Janis Joplin's Full Tilt Boogie Band. A new Crowbar is going to be assembled in the near future, and may well include elements of Full Tilt Boogie.

The album received extensive FM airplay and a single, "Biscuit's Boogie," is being readied. Newell has been performing the song since 1964 and included a 10-minute version in the "Official Music" album; the single will run approximately three minutes.

The second King Biscuit Boy album is nearing completion with a spring release scheduled. Efforts are underway to obtain rights to pack the album in authentic King Biscuit Flour sacks. In a related development, KFFA has begun playing "Official Music" in an ironic self-fulfilling prophesy for which we can probably blame Ronnie Hawkins. Bob Moore Merlis

Nashville Agencies in Action

By CHUCK NEESE

■ NASHVILLE — This city is recognized world-wide as the country music capitol of the world, so it's only natural that country talent agents should operate their agencies from Music City, USA.

Today some dozen or so Nashville booking offices handle 75% of all country talent. Because of the number of sellers in the market, talent has a tendency to move from agency to agency after very short durations of time. Although competition is heavy, it is by no means cut-throat. Agencies are very cooperative and often book each others' talent on a co-op basis.

Exclusive representation doesn't mean a long-term written contract. In Nashville, an agent and his talent will seal an agreement with a handshake and void it six months later with a phone call or a personal letter. When the talent feels it is being overlooked, undersold or overbooked, the artist will cancel his agreement and walk across the street to another agency who will gladly pitch the new artist to promotion and club owners.

The country artist's value to the booking agency is totally dependent upon his current acceptance with the record-buying public. Agencies do very little to develop acts; generally this is due to the lack of excess operating capital which can be spent on promotion. Artists furnish agencies with promo photos, albums, singles and all other promotional tools. Artists and agencies alike rely on record producers to build acts into saleable items. If an act is cold on the turntable, he's worthless to the promoter. Unlike pop artists who put together well-rehearsed and choreographed club acts while they're on the charts, a country artist usually has nowhere to go after his chart days end.

All country agencies are owner-operated companies which remain independent of Louie (whose dad is sideman with Hank Snow's band) was discovered in a WSM-sponsored talent contest . . . Ronnie Robbins (Marty's 21-year-old offspring) due for album-cutting session at Columbia. Baunach Named Paramount/Dot Country Marketing Director

■ NEW YORK — Paramount/Dot Records' position in Nashville and in country music has been solidified with the establishment of Dot Records as a self-contained label in Nashville.

In addition to recently named Country Music A&R Director, Jim Foglesong, Famous Music Corp. Executive Vice President Jack Wiedenmann has appointed Larry Baunach to the newly created position of Director of Marketing for country product. Baunach, who has already relocated in Nashville, assumes direct responsibility for the promotion, sale and merchandising of all country product issued on the Dot label.

Baunach returns to Nashville after a year in New York as Eastern Field Marketing Director for Paramount/Dot in which position he was active in the creation of the labels' independent distribution set-up and the organization of the field promotion force. Prior to his year in New York, Baunach was Decca's Southern Regional Promotion Manager based in Nashville and was the recipient of the Gavin Southern Regional Promotion Man of the Year Award. Prior to his association with Decca, Baunach was with the Columbia label in Nashville involved in country product coordination and administration.

"The Dot label originated in Tennessee and had its initial, as well as its most important successes in the country field," noted Wiedenmann. "In creating this self-contained music operation, we wish to reconfirm the fact that Dot will continue

COUNTRY PICKS OF THE WEEK

SINGLE BUCK OWENS, "BRIDGE OVER TROUBLED WATER" (Charing Cross, BMI), "I'M GOING HOME" (Blue Book/Peso, BMI). Buck does a fantastic singing job on the Paul Simon song. The tune has been cut by everybody, but Buck's is the strongest country cut to date. With the reading the "Buckaroo" gives the gospel-type melody, the friends and neighbors should go for it. Capitol 3023.

SLEEPER BARBARA MANDRELL, "DO RIGHT WOMAN—DO RIGHT MAN" (Press, BMI), "THE LETTER" (Earl Barton, BMI). Billy Sherrill produced an uptempo version of the old R&B tune and, as with most blues tunes, it makes a great country record. "Do Right" was written by Memphis music moguls Dan Penn and Chips Moman. "You can tell it's Sherrill, it's swell." Columbia 4-45307.

ALBUM "THE NASHVILLE STRING BAND IDENTIFIED." Would you believe Homer and Jethro and Chet? Long-time funnyman Homer & Jethro have been overlooked as instrumentalists, but Jethro's mandolin picking, together with Homer's and Chet Atkins' guitar work, will change all that. They run the gamut of standard instruments like "Col. Bogey," "Red Wing," "Oklahoma Hills," "Rocky Top," "Release Me" and "Green Green Grass of Home." Highly recommended. RCA LSP 4472.

Leslie West on guitar to Felix Pappalardi (over which the crowd went beserk) came what I consider the best song of the Mountain performance, "Theme from Imaginary Western." Pappalardi did a good job on the vocal and the tune was more melodic than the rest of their repertoire.

Another one of their tunes worth mentioning was "Nantucket Sleighride," the title song from their forthcoming album.

Wells-Wright Show to Lee

From left: Kitty Wells, Buddy Lee, Johnny Wright, Oscar Davis and Bill Phillips at recent contract signing.

■ NASHVILLE — Long-time Decca artists Kitty Wells, Johnny Wright and Bill Phillips, who are featured performers on the traveling Kitty Wells-Johnny Wright Family Show, have signed an exclusive booking agreement with talent impresario Buddy Lee.

The Wells-Wright show worked some 169 dates in 1970 covering all the 50 states including Alaska. Kitty, who has been dubbed the "Queen of Country Music," has been a major Decca record seller since 1952 when her "It Wasn't God Who Made Honky Tonk Angels" record topped everybody's charts. Husband Johnny Wright's string of hits began with "Hello Vietnam" in 1965.

Jobete Launches Country Campaign

■ HOLLYWOOD — A major push to fully develop catalog product in the area of Country and Western music is among 1971 programs launched by Jobete Music Company, Inc., and Stein & Van Stock, according to Herb Eiseman, General Professional Manager of the Motown publishing subsidiaries.

Of 20 demo records recently produced in Nashville studios, 15 already have been placed with various labels and artists. Nashville is regularly covered by Marty Wekser, who headquarters in Jobete's New York office.

Eiseman, former board chairman of the Hollywood-based Academy of Country & Western Music, remarked, "Jobete through the years has been fully aware of the suitability of our material for C&W audiences.

"The awareness has worked the other way, too. Now we're simply expanding on both the proven potential of songs already in the catalogs and the creative vitality of our contract writers."

Glen Campbell's "Honey Come Back" on Capitol was cited by Eiseman as one example. The Jimmy Webb ballad is in the Jobete catalog. He also pointed to "Someday We'll Be Together Again," the Bill Anderson-Jan Howard smash on Decca that hugged the hit charts for more than 15 weeks, and "It Takes Two," a hit by Connie Eaton and Dave Peel on Chart Records.

"It's not a matter of Motown music going country," Eiseman remarked. "A hit song is a hit song, no matter how it's arranged or by whom it's performed. We have many songs in our catalogs that tell the country story."

More than 100 Jobete (BMI) and Stein & Van Stock (ASCAP) songs have climbed into the Top 10 on best-seller charts during the past decade.

The companies headquarter at 6464 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood 90028. Other offices are maintained in New York (157 W. 57th St., New York 10019) and Detroit (Motown Center, 2457 Woodward Ave., Detroit 48201).

LeGardes Go Commercial

Baunach to Paramount / Dot

to build an important position in the country music industry and in the appointment of Larry Baunach to direct the sales and promotion of country product, from Nashville, we are placing a well seasoned marketing executive in this key position."

Assuring Flow

In order to assure continued flow of country product into the marketplace, Foglesong has begun work with several Dot artists and producers with the result being that key single and LP product has been scheduled for the first quarter of 1971 and production of this product has been going ahead over the last three weeks.

Foglesong's move to Nashville as Paramount/Dot's A&R Director in that market came as a natural outgrowth of his long interest and involvement in Nashville and country music over the years that he spent in A&R at both Columbia and RCA. While producing such acts as Ed Ames, Al Hirt, Les Paul and Mary Ford, Bobby Sykes, Dick Flood and Thumbs Carlyle, among many others, Foglesong has often recorded in Nashville and has more often than not, gotten the material for his sessions from Nashville's publishers. The musicians for his sessions in both New York and Los Angeles often came from among Nashville's finest studio men.

Foglesong has, in addition to setting immediate new product goals, been working with Dot's complete country roster and producers, and has expressed his enthusiasm and satisfaction in the high quality of the people making country music for Dot.

"I was happy enough to find a roster headed by country giants Roy Clark and Hank Thompson, but in the past weeks having met with and worked with so many tremendously talented young artists, I can only look forward to Dot's coming into its own as a major country label. Our roster of independent producers including people like Joe Allison, Buddy Killen, Henry Hurt, Bobby Boyd, Rick Merino and Buddy Mize is certainly representative of the finest record makers in the business. I plan on continuing these associations as well as looking to bring into the Dot family producers and artists of equally high caliber."

The new Dot operation is currently working on three breaking singles: the Compton Brothers' "Nadine"; Jack Barlow's "Dayton, Ohio"; Joe Stampley's "Take Time To Know Her"; and a major new project in Roy Clark's two-sided, one vocal and one instrumental, version of the "Theme From Love Story," which is being released immediately.

COUNTRY SINGLE PRODUCT

LESTER FLATT—RCA 47-9953

I CAN'T TELL THE BOYS FROM THE GIRLS (Peer, BMI)
EVERYONE HAS ONE BUT YOU (Manner/Belton, ASCAP)

Les is back and his new producer Bob Ferguson has found a novelty tune about the difficulty of finding out who's who when everybody wears long hair. It'll be popular with the country folk.

DAVID WILKINS—Plantation PL-70

SHE HATES TO BE ALONE (Moss-Rose, BMI)

If you liked the melody to "Honey," you'll dig Big Dave's new record. You have to listen to all three-and-a-half minutes to get the story. A remix would help the lyric.

CHARLEY PRIDE—RCA 47-9952

I'D RATHER LOVE YOU (Pi-Gem, BMI)
YOU DON'T BELONG (Pi-Gem, BMI)

Charley pulled both sides from his own publishing company. The "A" side sounds like it was written for Charley and should surpass his recent efforts.

JAN HOWARD—Decca 32778

BABY WITHOUT YOU (TRO-First Edition, BMI) MARRIAGE HAS RUINED MORE GOOD LOVE AFFAIRS (Stallion, BMI)

Jan's new record was written by Mike Settle of the First Edition. It's a medium-tempo "love gone bad" song. The "B" side is the one; give it a listen.

TOMMY COLLINS—Starday 907

CIGARETTE MILNER (Blue Book, BMI)
THE ROOTS OF MY RAISING (Blue Book, BMI)

This record has been out for some time but mention must be made of its importance to a well-rounded library. Collins' record is the very real and funny story of an aspiring hillbilly artist.

STAN GUNN—Sugar Hill 011

A VISION OF BLINDNESS (Yonah, BMI)
WE'RE ALL THE SAME SIZE (Yonah, BMI)

Here's a tear-jerker that you might try on your listeners—the lyric has a message, the production is solid and the performance is okay.

BOBBY HODGE—Volunteer 0001

CLOSE UP THE HONKY TONKS (Central Songs, BMI)
ANOTHER BROKEN HEART (Acaustic, BMI)

Red Simpson and Buck Owens wrote this juke box type release some time back and Bobby does a good interpretation. Harp-picker Charlie McCoy arranged. Starday product.

Glen Campbell "Goodtime Hour" (CBS-TV) in 1970, has been signed as a regular.

BIRTHDAYING—RCA exec Harry Jenkins, Bill Phillips, Bobby Goldsboro, Jerry Collins, Stu Phillips, Dolly Parton, Slim Whitman, Pam Dickinson, Doug Kershaw.

Jim Reeves— a good listener

When you hear Jim sing you know he has listened to the people around him. To you and me. Our problems, our joys, our mistakes, our triumphs. He has listened to life. And then he has written us a record. One that we'll probably never stop listening to because it's all about all of us.

Roger Miller Tapes Pilot

■ NASHVILLE—Roger Miller, gold-record winning singing star and composer of some of the funniest hits in music during the 1960s, will tape the pilot for the new "Roger Miller Show" during the first week of February in Nashville.

The Yongestreet Productions, Inc., project will be filmed in the studios of WLAC-TV where Yongestreet films the "Hee Haw" television series. "Hee Haw" stars Gordie Tapp and Grandpa Jones will be regulars on the show, with Tapp acting as Miller's sidekick. The Nashville Brass will be the regular band.

Guests for the pilot will include Johnny Cash; Paul Hemphill, who wrote the book "Nashville Sounds: Bright Lights and Country Music," plus renowned composer-singer Tom T. Hall and songstress Jodie Miller.

The program will be a cooperative production between Yongestreet and Miller's "Engine Productions," with the same staff as "Hee Haw"—Sam Lovullo and Bill Davis as coproducers with Davis acting as director and Frank Peppiatt and John Aylesworth as executive producers.

The "Roger Miller Show" will first be offered the networks, and if not picked up there will go into national syndication.

Another Yongestreet pilot, starring the Hagers from "Hee Haw," is currently in production.

RECORD WORLD COUNTRY FROM THE CONTINENT

By MURRAY KASH

Murray Kash

■ LONDON—Northern Ireland's number one country music enthusiast and member of the Country Music Association of Great Britain Mervyn Solomon has started a new pop and country music label called M and M. It will be located at Mallusk, just outside of Belfast, and close by the Belfast Airport to allow for speedy delivery to Great Britain. The initials M and M stand for Mervyn and his father, Maurice, head of Ireland's leading record distributors, Solomon and Peres. They will kick off with releases by the California Brakemen, a leading Irish C/W group. The LP will be called, "The Country World of the California Brakemen." Another album will be Frankie McBride's "Daddy's Little Man."

More and more of the Irish country music groups are doing regular tours of the United Kingdom. The latest is by Big Tom and the Mainliners. In return, the Kingpins had a successful first-time appearance in Belfast in December for one week at Tito's Club. And speaking of the Kingpins they have been invited with the Tumbleweeds and five other acts to appear at the Second Anniversary show held by the Wildwood South C/W Club at the imposing Guildhall in Southampton on Jan. 22. Since they are calling it the Kash Country Festival, no prizes for guessing who is going to be MCing the whole shindig!

Jack Warner is holding another C/W Festival at Clacton-on-Sea Feb. 7, after the sell-out of his last show in October. The show will feature the Tumbleweeds, the Johnny Young 4, Tex Withers, the Southern Ramblers and several local acts. The next day, Feb. 8, over in Manchester the Waggon Wheel Country Music Club is holding a gala affair with a four-hour program of leading British country music groups, such as Frank Yonco and the Everglades, the Idle Hours and the Trailmen, with your correspondent as master of ceremonies. The guest list will include executives from leading commercial television companies and BBC Local Radio, as well as officers of the Royal Grenadier Guards, including Her Majesty's representative, the Right Honourable Earl of Derby.

Mervyn Cohn has announced the names of those scheduled to appear at the Third International Country Music Festival on April 10 and 11 at Wembley, London: Waylon Jennings, Jr., Bobby Hamilton IV, Roy Acuff, Hank Snow, Hank Williams, Jr., Bobby Bare, Tommy Cash, Tompall and the Glaser Brothers, Loretta Lynn, Lee Conway (from Australia) and Tommy Booth. Looks like another smashing success!

Writers Flock to Southern ASCAP

NASHVILLE — During the past two months, 69 new writers have been elected through the ASCAP Southern Regional Office, according to Ed Shea, ASCAP's Southern Regional Executive Director. This is a record total for a two-month period.

19 publishers were elected during the same period.

Among the new ASCAP writers are singer-writer Linda Hart, Gary McCullough, Maceo and All the Kings Men (whose first release hit the R&B charts), Sorrells Pickard (who wrote four of the songs on Ringo Starr's "Beaucoup of Blues" album), Harold Lee, Rob Chartier, Bill Pursell and Freada Wallace.

"This completes ASCAP's most successful year in this area," Shea commented. "A record number of publishers and writers were elected to ASCAP from the Southern region in 1970. This includes Nashville, Memphis, Atlanta, Muscle Shoals, Miami, Dallas, Houston and other music centers."

Butler at Westpark

Country and Western performer Larry Butler has signed with Westpark Records, a division of Jimmy Duncan Productions, Inc., of Houston, Texas, according to Jimmy Duncan, President of that firm.
