NetSDR

The RFSPACE NetSDR is a high performance networked software designed receiver covering 10 kHz to 34 MHz with a 1.6 MHz bandwidth. The NetSDR uses a high performance 80 MHz, 16 bit ADC with both dithering and randomization for best performance. The output IQ bandwidth is configurable via software. PC communications are handled over a 100 base-T port using 24 or 16 bit IQ words.

The NetSDR is a complete plug and play solution. As opposed to other SDRs in the market, there is no need for additional preamplifiers, preselectors or code development. The unit is compatible with the Moetronix SpectraVue and SDR-Radio software that will have you up and running in minutes. The software includes analog and digital mode demodulation and IQ capture of spectrum at up to a 1.6MHz BW. The SDR-Radio software allows the use of the NetSDR over the internet. The full

1.6 MHz waterfall and demodulation audio can be transported via a 5 KB/s link. For those interested in writing their own applications, RFSPACE supplies a fully documented protocol for communicating with the hardware. There is no need to calculate the downconverter DSP parameters. The NetSDR just needs the correct frequency, attenuator and preselector filter settings, output sample rate and mode to begin streaming data. Other solutions require complicated USB interfacing that is platform specific. The NetSDR utilizes straight TCP/IP and ethernet for all communications. This offers the highest possible performance due to the highly optimized ethernet drivers on PC, Mac and Linux systems.

The NetSDR packets are fully routable. This means that the receiver can be placed at remote locations. Multiple receivers can also be combined and their data transported over a higher data rate ethernet pipe using simple switches and routers. In this application, each NetSDR can be set to a different IP address or port.

NetSDR Order #0383 $1449.95
 The NetSDR may also be ordered with the REFLOCK option factory installed.

This month's Journal features a Country List Committee (CLC) report from Don Jensen, Chairman CLC. The report discusses the addition of South Sudan to the country list. The effective date for the new country is July 9, 2011, the date the Republic of South Sudan declared its independence. See Don's full CLC report for the important details.

For those members interested in the Fire-drake Musical Jammer, NASWA International Log Column editor, Steven Handler has recently finished updating his article that appeared in July's NASWA Journal. The updated article entitled "Toasted by the Fire Dragon" includes not only some additional information not published in the original article but three pages of color frequency and time charts. This 11 page document was made available to members of the NAWSA Yahoo Group in the download section. In addition, for those NASWA members who would rather have a copy of the PDF file which includes the the article "Toasted by the Fire Dragon" including the color frequency charts, can send Steve an email at handlersmail-naswa@yahoo.com and he will be happy email you a PDF copy. He would also be pleased to receive any of your international band loggings for the monthly Journal at the same email address. For NASWA members who do not have access to email, a black and white version of the article and frequency chart is available by writing to Steve (see his column for the mailing address). Please include a #10 sized envelope with postage affixed. For those wanting just the three pages of frequency charts please affix $0.44 in US postage to the envelope for destinations in the US, $0.80 in US postage for Canada and $0.98 for everywhere else. For those that want both the article and the frequency charts, please send a #10 envelope with $0.84 in US postage affixed for US destinations, $1.36 in US Postage affixed for Canada, and $2.54 in US postage affixed for everywhere else.

The National Association of Shortwave Broadcasters (NASB) is sponsoring the HFCC/ASBU B11 shortwave frequency planning conference in Dallas, Texas September 12-16, 2011, along with its associate member Continental Electronics. Jeff White is encouraging NASB members and associate members to take part in this conference, which will be the first time the HFCC has ever held a conference in the United States. HFCC Chairman Oldrich Cip notes that the scope of the HFCC Conference is expanding to all delivery platforms for international broadcasting — not just shortwave, although high frequency shortwave will remain at the core of the organization's activities (see musings for the full remarks by Chairman Cip). Jeff is encouraging attendance by non-NASB members. If you would like to participate in the conference, more information is available at the webpage <http://www.hfcc.org/B11.phtml> or you may contact Jeff White, NASB President, at radiomiami9@cs.com.

A.J. Janitschek of Radio Free Asia (RFA) announces the release of RFA's 37th QSL card. This is the second QSL card commemorating 2011 as RFA's 15th anniversary. RFA's first broadcast was in Mandarin Chinese on September 29, 1996 at 2100 UTC. Acting as a substitute for indigenous free media, RFA concentrates its coverage on events occurring in and/or affecting the countries to which we broadcast. Those countries are: Burma, Cambodia, Laos, North Korea, Peoples Republic of China, and Vietnam. This QSL card will be used to confirm all valid reception reports from July 1 - August 31, 2011 so get your reports into them soon. The new card not only commemorates RFA's 15th anniversary but also helps capture the spirit of the RFA's family and friends around the world while promoting peace, freedom and democracy. RFA encourages listeners to submit reception reports. Reception reports are valuable to RFA as they help us evaluate the signal strength and quality of our transmissions. RFA confirms all accurate reception reports by mailing a QSL card to the listener. RFA welcomes all reception report submissions at www.techweb.rfa.org (follow the QSL REPORTS link) not only from DX'ers, but also from its general listening audience. Reception reports are also accepted by email at qsl@rfa.org, and for anyone without Internet access, reception reports can be mailed to: Reception Reports, Radio Free Asia, 2025 M. Street NW, Suite 300, Washington DC 20036, USA. Upon request, RFA will also send a copy of the current broadcast schedule and a station sticker.

photo. Spouses, significant others, and children are most welcome, but no pets or smoking please. The organizers will provide soda, beer, and snacks. Please RSVP to allow the Noonan's to know how many people to expect. Please contact Tim, preferably more than a week before the event, using the most convenient method: Tim Noonan, 801 E Park Blvd, Oak Creek WI 53154-3929. Phone: (414) 762-2702 (where there is an answering machine); E-mail: DXing2@aol.com.

Also, the National Radio Club (NRC) gathering will be hosted by Ernie Wesolowski and Carl Mann in Omaha, Nebraska on October 13-16, 2011. The registration fee is $45.00 per person and room rates are $88.62 per night for up to four in a room. Once again, it will be a joint convention with the WTFDA. Details are in the Calendar of Events.

Don't forget about the 18th Annual Madison-Milwaukee Get-Together for DXers and Radio Enthusiasts on Saturday, August 20, 2011, from 1:00 PM until whenever. Hosted this year by Tim and Jill Noonan (801 East Park Boulevard, Oak Creek, Wisconsin) this offers a great opportunity to meet and discuss the radio hobby with other like-minded folks. There is no formal agenda. This is a chance to have fun, exchange ideas, make new friendships, and renew old ones. If you like, bring along radios, antennas, stickers, QSLs, photos, or any show-and-tell items. Be sure to bring your camera for our annual group

Please remember to direct all communications about subscriptions, bulletin delivery issues, summer vacation ideas, the use of PayPal as a payment method, etc. to Bill Oliver at the club's Levittown address or to his new electronic address, billoliver@verizon.net. The regular postal address is the familiar 45 Wildflower Road, Levittown, PA 19057. Inquires sent to Wyomissing only slow down the process. Thanks!

That's it for this month. Enjoy this month's edition of the Journal; it's another good one.

FRENDX: Twenty-Five Years Ago (June 1986)

In the Helping Hand ads, Fritz Mellberg was selling a Collins R-390A in excellent shape for $250.00 plus shipping. Stephen Leite was selling his mint condition Yaesu FRG-7 modified with 3 kHz filter by Gilfer for $200.00. Don Jensen was selling his Hallicrafters S-41G Skyriider receiver in a gray cabinet, circa 1940's and a Hallicrafters Skychampion receiver more than 40 years old for $33.00 and a Hallicrafters S38-D receiver more than 25 years old to the best offer. In Stephen Moye's Contact column, Robert Horvitz of ANARC provided an update to recent modifications to the Electronic Communications Privacy Act-1986. Discussion continued on Mike Nikolich's portable transmitter idea with letters from Nelson George, Don Moore and Sam Alcorn. In Paul Lannuier's Soundwaves column, he noted the purchase of a used Sony ICF-7600D, aka ICF-2002 at Gilfer's flea market. Paul also noted that the merger between Monitoring Times and International Radio has been successfully pulled off. In Bill Cole's Computer Corner column, the editor presented a log processor program modified by Tom McElvy to print QSL reports for submission to the log report columns. In the NASWA Awards column, John Kapinos noted that Terry Colgan and Robert Horvitz received ANARC Executive Council Award for Excellence at the Montreal ANARC Convention. Gerry Dexter received the North American DXer of the Year award, Jens Frost received the International DXer of the Year award, and Glenn Hauser received the International Broadcaster of the Year award. Also, Terry Palmersheim earned the Arab World DXpert and Master Pacifica DXer awards and Bill Flynn earned the Master DX Centurian, the All Continent "QRP" DXer (5 KW), and the Maple Leaf DXer awards. Tom Sundstrom presented English Language Broadcasts using a dBASE III Plus database on a Compaq Portable with a 20M hard disk. In Log Report A, editor Jerry Berg noted that Chris Lobdell would edit the September column. In Friendx Log Reporters, substitute editor Abe Lewkowicz pinch hit for an ailing John Henault noted 23 reporters for the month.

One of my avocations is the study of the history of military intelligence on the short-wave frequencies. Early this spring I finished a website called THE SHORTWAVE INTERCEPT + INTEL NEXUS (NEXUS). The home page of my website may be found at: <http://shortwaveintel.com/index.html>. This page contains a number of pertinent definitions I use on the website. From the home page readers can go to THE HISTORIC IMPORTANCE OF THE SHORTWAVE INTERCEPT AND INTEL NEXUS. This section is self-explanatory. From the home page readers can also go to APPENDIX 3, open source intercepts recorded by me. At APPENDIX C a NASWA member may leave a report for consideration for permanent posting. This report must be in MS Word 7.

I want to review each report before I permanently post it. I want to insure that no names or email addresses are included. I will assign any person whose information is permanently posted a code name. I do this for security purposes.

If you have any questions, please call me at 740-967-3481. Thank you for your input. Any response is appreciated.

Ed Insinger <lenapeland@aol.com>, New Jersey

As a new facet of the listening hobby, I decided to try my hand at the 13 Colonies Special Event Contest, which took place from 1 July to 5 July, 2011. During this time period, all 13 colony states were on the air in the ARO bands, commemorating our independence in patriotic fashion. I began the search on 3 July, arriving home from a vacation stay in Cape May, NJ. My first exploration began in the 40 meter band, as I scanned the dials from 7000 to 7300 kHz, using my NRD-525 and e1. The first contact was a group of ARO's ID'ing as the "Tin Can Sailors Net." However, their call signs were all four digits, so I continued, seeking the 3 digit call signs of the 13 colonies that I had handwritten along with their corresponding state (K2A through K2L). My first contact was made at 2336 UTC on 7195 kHz USB, with K2K-New Hampshire, followed at 2350 UTC on 7197 kHz USB, with a logging of WM3PEN. This was a "special event participating with the 13 colonies," meaning this log qualified the listener for a special sticker affixed to the awards certificate. Wow, I was really getting into the contest now and pressed forward for more loggings! Next, I heard K2C-Rhode Island at 0010 hours UTC (now 4 July 2011) on 7220 kHz, followed by K2J-North Carolina and then K2L-South Carolina on 7194 kHz. Next came K2A-New York and K2H-Massachusetts on 7230 kHz LSB. At this point in my state search, I came across K4US working KJ4BVM. The ID at 1748 UTC said: "This is kilo 4 Uncle Sam calling Alpha Amateur Radio Club in Virginia, the home of George Washington." I noted the frequency of 7240 kHz LSB and kept this aside for QSL'ing after the contest was over. Next came K2G-Georgia at 0029 UTC on 7175 kHz and K2L-South Carolina at 0037 UTC on 7194 kHz. My next log was K2B-Virginia on 7220 kHz at 1753 UTC, followed by K2E-Delaware at 0232 UTC on 7197 kHz LSB, then K2F-Maryland on 7204 kHz LSB and K2I-New Jersey (finally, my home state!) on 7213 kHz at 0240 UTC. On 5 July 2011, I completed the 13 colonies by logging K2M-Pennsylvania on 3842 kHz LSB (my sole 80 meter logging) at 2244 UTC, followed by K2D-Connecticut at 2300 UTC on 7225 kHz LSB. I then compiled all my data into a spreadsheet and mailed it to the Awards Manager, eagerly anticipating a reply. This really turned out to be an enjoyable experience and a great way for me to "link up" with ARO's from the 13 colonies, via our shortwave hobby. Thank you NASWA Journal, for the heads up that this contest was taking place and open to SWL'ers.

Today (Jul 19), I received my 13 Colonies Award and it was stamped "Complete Sweep," along with the bonus WM3PEN sticker and a QSL Card from the organizer, K2A, Ken Vilone from New York. The 13 colony representatives all had special QSL's printed up for this occasion, in addition to the certificate. These hobbyists really know how to run a great contest! He sent me a nice note of congratulations on logging all 13 colonies and mentioned that he was glad to have me participate from NASWA. Since he has extended the invitation to SWLers, I do hope others in NASWA participated and showed their interest.

The 40 and 80 meter bands were noisy all contest long, but readable, on my E1 and 525 receivers, also aided by their use of SSB.

Oldrich Cip Chairman, HFCC <ocip@hfcc.org>, Vinohradska 12, 12099 Praha 2, Czech Republic
We have concluded during the Plenary Meetings of past several conferences and also in the recent Steering Board discussions that there is an urgent need now to adjust the HFCC activities to the rapidly changing scene of content distribution of international broadcasting.

The merits of broadband delivery of media through the internet or via mobile devices in comparison with the traditional delivery of TV and sound radio from terrestrial transmitters are frequently on the agenda of meetings and discussions of domestic broadcasters and broadcasting unions. Such an in-depth debate has been missing in international broadcastings. We are now ready to provide a forum and environment for such discussions.

We have accepted the fact that what was only one programme distribution method only about twenty years ago has now been replaced by a multitude of technologies where media consumers and listeners are offered a whole range of distribution platforms. We support this strategy and also the synergy - rather than competition - among them.

In keeping with our original commitment to the ITU and to International Radio Regulations we will carry on providing tools and services for global shortwave frequency coordination as our core activity. At the same time we feel that our members will benefit from enlarging the HFCC remit with the aim of providing guidance to members in the increasingly fragmented sphere of content delivery.

These proposals will be on the agenda of the incoming B11 Conference in Dallas, Tx, in the U.S. We are taking this opportunity of asking you to invite to this conference also your colleagues in distribution planning or station management and also representatives of those stations that have reduced or completely stopped shortwave transmissions. Most of the Conference programme will be devoted to the usual HFBC co-ordination for the B11 season. The enlargement of the HFCC activities - including the suggested name change - is on the agenda of the B11 Conference on Thursday afternoon September 15th 2011.

Your contribution to the debate in the Conference or in writing is very much appreciated.

Yours sincerely, Oldrich Cip Chairman, HFCC

I had a nice opportunity to vacation in early July in France. Enjoyed the visit, food and wine ... oh yeah, the sights too, hi! Although we were kept busy, I did manage to find a few minutes one evening to listen a little to the shortwave bands from a hotel room. France is UTC+2 during the summer so tuning at 2100 UTC which was 11:00 PM local but only 5:00 PM back home was strange. It provided a whole new perspective on listening to the shortwave bands.

A small batch of QSL returns this month clearly reflecting my enjoyment of the warm weather with outdoor activities and travel. I will need some cooler temperatures to drive me back indoors for some serious listening and reporting. Anyway, here is this month's activity. Deutschlandfunk Radio verified an electronic report with a full data postal "Studio" card from an illegible verie signer. The Voice of Indonesia verified with a short letter and a full data "Barito Bridge - South Kalimantan" card. According to the envelope the station's slogan is "The Sound of Dignity". Besides English, the station says they also broadcast in French, German, Spanish, Mandarin, Japanese, and Arabic using 9525, 11785 and 15150 KHz. Finally, Vatican Radio via the 10 kW transmitter in Vatican City State verified an electronic report again with a full data "Interview with Benedict XVI during flight to Cyprus" card by postal mail reply; no verie signer. Also included was a blank "His Holiness Benedict XVI" postcard and a Radio Vaticana 2011 program guide.

An alternative to capturing streaming audio if you're on dialup Internet

One criticism I've heard over the years regarding streaming audio is that you pretty much have to be on broadband Internet access in order to stream audio and do anything else with your Internet connection. That's even more the case now, as most streaming radio stations opt for the higher bandwidth that a broadband Internet user has access to. This can be particularly problematic if you're trying to listen to live audio.

An intriguing new service, DAR.fm, will record audio from stations you identify at times you specify, placing the recorded audio in your own personal "inbox" for time-shifted listening. This can enable you to capture audio that would not otherwise be available "on demand" for later listening.

To me, the service seems incomplete; it's great to be able to time-shift listening — heck, I used a voice-activated cassette recorder with my Sangean ATS-803A back in the late 1980s to capture Radio Netherlands if I wasn't at home, so I could then pop a cassette into my car's audio system the next day...or listen to a Walkman as I went about my business. The capability to easily transfer audio that DAR has captured to a portable device (like, say, an MP3 player or iPod) is limited only to those devices that connect to the Internet.

Radio Netherlands contemplates its future

As feared, the Dutch parliament has approved a 70% budgetary cutback for Radio Netherlands, which would appear to mean that Dutch language programming will disappear altogether, and English language program (and, presumably, all other languages) will see their scope reduced to news and information for those regions where free speech is suppressed. Exactly what that will mean for programming subjects and content remains to be seen; the flagship human-interest program, The State We're In, may be among the programs eliminated, so you may want to catch such excellent programs as The State We're In and Earth Beat while they're still on air, in case they do disappear.

RCI drops mandate to serve aspiring immigrants

One of the more curious strategic decisions of any international broadcaster was Radio Canada International's decision to target aspiring immigrants with its programming — to help "market" Canada to those who were considering moving there. That mandate seemed to make RCI's programming bland, and also added segments that would help a prospective immigrant better assimilate into Canada. That mandate is now off the books — RCI once again is mandated to raise the visibility of Canada to an international audience and improve the attitudes and impressions of listeners in what they think of Canada. RCI has also dropped the second hour of its weekday English language program The Link, which had primarily aired online and not on shortwave.

RCI's mandate to improve the visibility of Canada is a fine mandate, but I find the regular CBC Radio One programming to be much more compelling than RCI programming in most instances anyway. RCI ended shortwave transmissions targeting North America earlier this year; technically the CBC uses shortwave to North America, though we're talking about low power transmitters relaying the domestic Vancouver and Goose Bay Radio One services, as well as the multilingual CBC Northern Quebec service.

Speaking of CBC Radio One, it's currently in the midst of its summer season, with several programs on hiatus with some interesting short series substituting for them. One that I'm particularly enjoying is Strange Animal, a 10-part series looking at various aspects of human behavior; particularly, why we all do the strange things we do. Strange Animal airs Tuesdays and Saturdays at 11:30 AM local time (ranging from 1430 to 1830 UTC depending on time zone). In addition to the shortwave services mentioned earlier, several CBC Radio One stations in each time zone stream their programming live. If that air time isn't to your liking, you can listen online or download the audio to your favorite device for on-demand listening. Check out <http://cbc.ca> for this and other CBC Radio One programs.

Interesting BBC Radio 4 series on international broadcasting: Soft Power, Hard News

Soft Power, Hard News is a two-part documentary series on BBC Radio 4 hosted by Rajan Datar (the host of Over To You on the World Service) that aired in July and remains available as of this writing. The program looks at how Middle Eastern broadcasters (probably including Al Jazeera) and China broadcasters (specifically CRI) are using a "...new weapon of influence — News Media — to win our hearts and minds."

Exactly how they claim this is something new is a mystery...though the resources invested by both Al Jazeera and CRI are significant. In any event, it's an interesting subject that has long fueled much of the use of shortwave radio, dating back to Berlin Betty days.

Best way to find the program is to simply Google "Soft Power Hard News BBC Radio 4" and you'll reach the program site straight away.

Speaking of CRI...a new mobile app

As broadcasters continue to deemphasize the use of shortwave to target North American listeners, they are investing in ways to enable listening via mobile devices such as smartphones. CRI offers a mobile app that provides on-demand access to its magazine programming, Beijing Hour, China Drive, and China Now on smartphones including the Apple iPhone. Wifi-connected mobile devices (such as the iPod Touch) that don't function as mobile phones (and can only connect to the Internet via Wifi technology) could also use the app.

Many radio traditionalists chafe at the notion of using something like a smartphone to do what they've always used a radio for, but you can't fight the numbers: here in North America a lot more people have smartphone access nowadays than have shortwave radio access, and it's the size of that potential audience for their programming that prompts broadcasters to invest resources in technologies and Internet bandwidth.

Also, it appears CRI has also landed another mediumwave outlet for their English language programming here in NASWA's back yard: the daytime-only 50kW station on AM 1540, WNWR, is reported to be airing CRI programming, as its other ethnic and multicultural programming has moved to 860 kHz in the area. CRI is also on the local MW dial with English language programming in Boston, MA too; it appears CRI arranged for a Boston MW relay in June, 2001 as well.

Set your calendars for March 1-3, 2012 for the 25th (!) Winter SWL Fest

If you need to plan ahead to schedule days off from work, go ahead & get those vacation days set aside for next year; we plan to schedule program activities for the Thursday of Fest weekend in addition to the usual Friday and Saturday. We're just now starting to develop the program for the weekend, but we hope to make it particularly special as we commemorate 25 years. Once again we'll be at the Doubletree Guest Suites in Plymouth Meeting, PA; more details later this autumn!

Until then, 73 DE Richard

Radio Vlaanderen Internationaal — we'll miss you even though we could never pronounce your name: From Radio Netherlands Media Network, citing Dutch news media: "The Flemish government has reached agreement on a new strategy for [public broadcaster] VRT for the next five years. ... Radio Vlaanderen Internationaal (RVI), the Flemish Worldwide service, will disappear, but as an alternative Radio 1 and Radio 2 will be broadcast worldwide via satellite, and all radio channels will also be available worldwide via the Internet. It's not yet clear exactly when RVI will close."

So ends the final vestige of what was once a very popular international radio station. Many of us remember freeform ramblings of David Monson, who, with a few others like Rudy Espinal, broke the stodgy presentation mode of shortwave broadcasting. Another notable RVI broadcaster was Frans Vossen, really the quintessential international broadcaster. He spoke excellent English, but with just enough of an accent that you would know he was broadcasting from another country. His style was relaxed, informal, and friendly.

RVI ended English broadcasts in 2005 and dropped shortwave in 2009. What was left in the end was mainly Dutch-language content from VRT, with just a bit of its own production, sent via satellite and internet. Now bureaucracy catches up with reality, and VRT's Radios 1 and 2 will be distributed worldwide of their own accord.

Cambodian PM criticizes VOA and RFA, but likes RFI: AP reported on July 22: "Cambodia's prime minister denounced two U.S.-funded radio stations Friday for what he described as inaccurate and unfair reports. Hun Sen said that reports broadcast in the Cambodian language by Voice of America and Radio Free Asia were groundless. The stations carry news and analysis sometimes critical of the government on subjects such as human rights and corruption. ... 'VOA and Radio Free Asia are very inferior. They distort the situation,' Hun Sen said during a news conference, calling their news and analysis programs groundless and charging they contained "zero" information.

"However, Hun Sen praised Radio France International, a French station, for its broadcasts. 'Radio France International, aired in the Cambodian language, their news and analyses, are accurate. I always save their analyses as part of my basic information,' Hun Sen said."

The AP story also stated: "Shortwave radio stations are a major source of unfettered news for people in Asian countries with authoritarian regimes, such as Cambodia and Myanmar. Satellite TV broadcasts are also popular where media is controlled or heavily censored by the government."

It's gratifying that the importance of shortwave is noted by a major news agency. In Cambodia, however, VOA and RFA achieve their big audiences by being rebroadcast by popular FM stations in Phnom Penh. VOA additionally gains some listeners, mainly in western Cambodia, from the IBB Bangkok 1575 kHz MW relay. Few listen via shortwave. RFI and Radio Australia, which have Khmer services, have 24/7 FM transmitters in Cambodia. So does BBC World Service, in English only.

Reprieve for VOA Chinese on radio and TV? In February, VOA's Mandarin Service received the shocking news the Broadcasting Board of Governors planned to take it off of shortwave radio and satellite television, leaving it as an internet-only operation. Over 30 VOA Mandarin jobs would be eliminated. Radio Free Asia Mandarin would remain on shortwave and, in fact, would take over VOA's prime morning and evening transmission times. BBG member Enders Wimbush, a former RFE/RL official, was open about his affinity for “surrogate” stations as one of the reasons he helped award this advantage to RFA.

Now Rep. Dana Rohrabacher, R-CA, has entered an amendment to the House Foreign Affairs Committee authorization bill: “Of the funds to be appropriated to the Broadcasting Board of Governors [BBG], [US]$13.76 million is authorized to be appropriated only for Voice of America Mandarin and Cantonese-language radio and satellite television broadcasting. Such funds may not be used for any other purpose.” The $13.76 million happens to be the exact budget for the VOA China Branch (Mandarin plus Cantonese). Of course, the real budget decision making will take place in the Appropriations Committee, whose decision is too late for this column. And then there is the Senate.

Shocker: Nine BBG members have access to 53 SUVs. Sen. Tom Coburn (R-OK) has released his “Back in Black: A Deficit Reduction Plan,” a huge $9 trillion deficit reduction proposal. With one exception, US international broadcasting is not mentioned in the report, even though there are obvious instances of duplication and opportunities for savings. Here’s the exception: “Since 2006, the federal vehicle fleet has grown by five percent. Meanwhile, the cost of maintaining and servicing those vehicles has grown over 25 percent, to $4.6 billion. It is unclear why some agencies need many of the vehicles they own. For example, the National Science Foundation, which issues grants and does no outdoor field research and the Broadcasting Board of Governors, which counts only nine members, each have 53 SUVs.”

Somebody on Senator Coburn’s staff apparently thinks the Broadcasting Board of Governors consists only of the nine members of the board, rather than five entities with 3,791 employees. The SUVs are probably mostly used at transmitter sites, where one must drive on dirt lanes or through the bush to maintain antennas and feedlines. This is no job for a Chevy Malibu.

And speaking of transmitter sites, the U.S. Department of State and Broadcasting Board of Governors Office of Inspector General inspected the IBB Botswana SW + MW relay site. “The Botswana Transmitting Station (BTS) is well run. The station manager has improved station operations and cut costs. He has renovated and repaired station facilities, and implemented energy-saving initiatives to offset increased energy costs.” You can download the entire report and put it on your closet shelf: oig.state.gov/documents/organization/169045.pdf

Balochi? Wasn’t he in the original Saturday Night Live cast? The Balochi-American community is pressuring the Broadcasting Board of Governors to add Balochi as a VOA language service. Balochi is spoken in southern part of Pakistan — one of the flavor-of-the-month target countries for US international broadcasting — and in adjoining regions of Iran and Afghanistan. The BBG is looking into it but, with likely downward budget pressure, it will be difficult to find the money.

Perhaps even more than you ever wanted to read about international broadcasting: PD Magazine, Summer 2011, of the University of Southern California Center on Public Diplomacy, is devoted to international broadcasting. Its contents include: Alan Heil, “VOA and BBC at a Crossroads”; Shawn Powers, “R.I.P., Broadcasting”; Philip Seib, “Al Jazeera English in Focus”; Oliver Zollner, “International Broadcasting in the Social Network Era”; Interviews with former members of the Broadcasting Board of Governors James Glassman and Ted Kaufman and current members Michael Meehan and S. Enders Wimbush; Philip Wang, “Transformation of Radio Taiwan International”; Alex Oliver and Annmarie O’Keefe, “Struggling to be Heard: Australia’s International Broadcasters Fight for a Voice in the Region.” And, finally, I rain on the parade by warning against advocacy, even for good causes: Kim Andrew Elliott, “In International Broadcasting, Even the Static Must be Credible.” All of the contents are available at publicdiplomacymagazine.com.

Country List Committee Report

Don Jensen • 5204 70th Street • Kenosha, WI 53142 • dnjkenosha@acronet.net

The NASWA Country List Committee has a rare opportunity — at least rare these days — to announce the addition of a new radio country to its list.

It is: South Sudan (Sudan). It should be inserted into the NASWA list under AFRICA, between South Africa (Union of South Africa) and Sudan (Anglo Egyptian Sudan) (Note: In the NASWA Country List, words within parentheses indicate former names of the country. And while the parenthetical words formally are considered part of the list's official name entry, for most practical purposes, South Sudan will do.)

The effective date for this addition to the list was July 9, 2011, the date the Republic of South Yemen declared independence, following a referendum vote Jan. 5-9, 2011, more than five years after a UN-brokered Comprehensive Peace agreement in 2005 ended a half century of civil war between Sudan's north and south.

One requirement for adding a radio country to the list is that a shortwave broadcasting station operates or has operated there. In this case, there is/was such a station, Radio Peace.

Radio Peace, owned by Educational Media Corp., a Spotsylvania, VA religious group, began transmitting on shortwave in about November 2003. It was heard and verified by many DXers in 2004-2005, and later. It was off the air from Spring 2008 and returned for some months in 2009. It operated on 5895 kHz and 4750 kHz (later, 4740 kHz) It has not been reported since and is off the air.

The exact location of Radio Peace was never officially announced, although unofficial but reliable information is that it was located outside of Narus Town in South Sudan. It was not officially licensed but could not have broadcast without the without the tacit consent of the pre-independence "government," the Sudan People's Liberation Movement. The SPLM also encouraged a number of private FM broadcasters in the area during the past five years.

Radio Peace General Manager Peter Stover specifically declined to provide a location for the station citing "security reasons." However, in the next sentence he noted that the World Radio TV Handbook listed the station location as "Narus" in South Sudan. Stover did not confirm nor deny Narus as the location.

A recent contact with Stover indicates that EMC no longer owns or operates Radio Peace. The old transmitter has been moved to Juba, the capital city and most important place in South Yemen, on the banks of the White Nile. It has a current population of about a quarter million people. Stover indicated that the transmitting equipment was donated to the Episcopal Diocese of Juba, and that he understood the Bishop of Juba was applying for a license so as to return the station to the air, likely under a new name. Although there have been rumors in the past about another SW station operating, on a test basis, within the borders of South Sudan, there has been no recent news of this.

We have received a question from a NASWA member, the answer to which may help clarify how the CLC works. The question was, in effect: I thought that the CLC did not add a breakaway territory to the radio country list until after it had been independent and functioning as a state for at least a year. Has this rule changed?

That is not quite accurate. Normally the CLC will wait a period of time when it has questions of whether a "breakaway" region is credible as a "radio country."

Example: Years ago, when the former apartheid regime in South Africa tried to claim certain black Homelands were independent nations, virtually all other major nations saw this as a sham and refused to recognize them. Indeed, before long, any pretense of separate country status simply faded away. And though there was, at the time, an SW station in one of these Homelands, the NASWA held off and never added it as a radio country.

Example: Abkhazia has been a breakaway region from the Republic of Georgia since 1992. It is politically recognized as a country by only the Russian Republic and a handful of tiny states, such as Vanuatu. The US and most other countries do not recognize Abkhazia as a country. But, even though Abkhazia is not politically recognized by most of the rest of the world, the CLC, after waiting years, did add it to the list when it became clear that Abkhazia continues to be a reasonably functioning de facto state. The same would be true of Pridnestrovie.

But South Sudan is different from both the Homelands and Abkhazia. The United Nations and most major nations were virtually midwives to the birth of South Sudan, and gave it political sanction from the date of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement more than five years ago. What its real future might be is hard to say, but it has started out with the blessing of the world. The CLC accepts that and believes it appropriate to add it to the NASWA Country List now.

Another question: I heard Radio Peace in 2005. Can I count it now as South Sudan? The answer is yes.

We are happy to be able to add a new radio country to the NASWA Country List to help counter what has seemed to be a continually shrinking SW world.

Don Jensen

This is my last month as LN editor with Jerry Lineback taking the reigns for the September column. I have been the temporary editor since October 2009 enjoying every minute but it is time to pass the baton. Thanks for your support and constructive feedback.

AUSTRALIA 5050+, Ozy Radio, randomly from 1243 to 1417, July 6. Continues to have decent reception; The Chordettes "Mister Sandman", The Zombies "She's Not There", Tom Jones "The Full Monty" and Nina Simone "Sinnerman" (song from the Thomas Crown Affair movie); frequent IDs ("This is Ozy Radio", "You are listening to Ozy Radio", etc.); QRM from stronger than normal BBR (China); // very weak 3210. (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group) 3210 and 5050, Ozy Radio. Seems possible that both transmitters are finally being prepared to be moved to a new location. July 10 and 11 both of them unmistakably not broadcasting. 3210 and 5050, Ozy Radio continues to be silent July 12. They are indeed off the air now, as confirmed today by Craig Allen. Ozy Radio will soon be via the web, with the shortwave station being back on the air within 6 months. Craig has just uploaded an interesting video to <<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aEmfw-E5kU>> showing his transmitter setup. So now we can see what we have been listening to. (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group)

BHUTAN 6035, Bhutan Broadcasting Service, Sangaygang, Thimphu, 0100 and 1130, Jul 04, is back after being off the air for a while, pretty weak. (Goonetilleke in DXplorer). Has been Off since November 2010. Not even a carrier noted here at 0100, Jul 11. (Petersen/DX Window)

BOLIVIA 4111.5, R Virgen de los Remedios, Tupiza, tentatively heard 0157, Jun 06, weak with talk. Affiliate to R Católica Mundial according to <http://www.aciprensa.com/radio/bolivia.htm>. (Nilsson in SWB). This station was last heard in Sep 2009 on 4835. Covered in Denmark by a utility station. (Petersen/DX Window)

4409.80, R Eco, Reyes, Beni, 2255-2301, Jul 06, Latin American songs. Very weak, best in LSB 14221. (Méndez). Also noted a carrier at 0245, Jul 09, but no audio. (Petersen/DX Window)

4699.98, R San Miguel, Riberalta, 2250-0130, Jul 05, 06, 11 and 12, some talks in Spanish and Latin American songs, 14321. Also heard at 0250, Jul 09, with faint audio. (Bolland, Méndez and Petersen/DX Window)

4864.98, R Logos, Santa Cruz de la Sierra, 2306-0100, Jun 27 and Jul 06, religious talks in Spanish and religious songs, clear IDs. Close down sometimes after 0110. Signal weak and bad modulation, 14321. (Méndez and Nilsson/DX Window)

5952.38, Radio Pio Doce, Siglo Veinte, 0156-0229:05*, July 9. OM and YL in Spanish playing some nice Bolivian music. At 0226 their usual theme music which is the distinctive whistling "Colonel Bogey March", written in 1914 by Lieutenant F. J. Ricketts (a.k.a. Kenneth J. Alford), a British army bandmaster; often folks tend to now incorrectly call it "The River Kwai March" from the movie (I have done so myself in the past!); full ID; series of chimes and off. (Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group) 5952.41 R. Pio Doce 1049-1100 Jul 10. Man and woman with news and/or anmts, frequent ID's and UTC-4 time checks. No QRM until 1058 when CRI signed on 5955, then switched to LSB. Signal was starting to fade out but had been good up to that point. This has been widely reported recently - wonder if they've upped power? Rivals R. Santa Cruz in strength. Heard here morning and evening for past several days with good signal. (Wilkins-CO)

6025, R Pátria Nueva, La Paz, 0954-1009, Jun 25, romantic Andean music, time pips at 1000, ann on music "1° feira nacional agrícola", advs, Andean music, "Pátria Nueva y radios comunitárias, la voz del pueblo". Progressive enhance of QRM, at peak 33433. (Otávio/DX Window)

BRAZIL 4878.5, R. Roraima, Boa Vista RR, 2140-2154, 16/6, chatter, IDs, folk songs; 34332, splatter de B on 4885! Acc. to Karel Honzik's audio clip, it seems they've got some prgr by the name of "Rádio Metro", at least that's what I heard: "Rádio Roraima, Rádio Metro!" "Metro" not in the sense of the "metre" unit as it's clearly pronounced [metrô], so surely referring to the metropolitan area [of Boa Vista]. R. Roraima is also Mark Davies' "UNID" on 4787.8 as already confirmed to him, after listening to his two audio clips. (Carlos Gonçalves-Portugal/Shortwave Bulletin) I was quite confused this morning (June 17, 2011)

when I heard a lot of "Radio Metro" (Retro?) IDs on 4878.46 between 03-04. The usual Brazilian pop format, later also Roraima mentioned and the closing ceremony shortly after 0400 was completely the one of Radio Roraima (B) which should occupy this frequency. So why the Radio Metro IDs? (Karel Honzik-CZE via RealDX/SWB) To all concerned - but chiefly Karel Honzik! - the doubt about the slogan or prgr name at Brazil's R. Roraima was finally made clear thanks to Fabrício Silva and Ivan Dias at Radioescutas yg to whom Karel agreed I could send his audio recording for verification. So, it is indeed a prgr name, not a slogan, and it's "retro" after all: it stems from "retrospectiva", only the authors at R. Roraima chose to use a corrupted form thereof and even modified the pronunciation too, to "retrô": It might also work up here, I mean that name for a kind of oldies prgr, only we'd read it "retro" [rrétru], or possibly a more stylish [rrétrô], but not "retrô" [rretrô]. (Carlos Gonçalves-Portugal/SWB)

CANADA 6030, CFVP, Calgary. The following was received on Jun 22 from their engineer: "CFVP's transmitter has been turned off for the past month because of a flooding issue at our antenna, but as soon as the water level drops (hopefully soon) we will turn it back on." (Sellers/DX Window) 6030, Calgary - CFVP relaying CKMX (AM 1060). Had been off the air due to "a flooding issue at our antenna" per DXLD 11-26; back on the air 0413-0430, July 11; C&W songs; ads; frequent IDs ("Southern Alberta born and raised, Classic Country AM ten sixty"); PSA for Calgary census; 0501-0510 "I Love A Rainy Night" Eddie Rabbit, "Ode To Billie Joe" Bobbie Gentry. Respectable signal for only 100 watts, but bothered by heavy QRN. Clearly not heard earlier from 0327 to 0330, when I heard Radio Oromiya (ETHIOPIA), with their distinctive repetitive xylophone sounding IS mixing with the pulsating Cuban jamming. Jamming gone by 0413 reception of Calgary. Nice to have them back again! (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group) 6030, Calgary - CFVP relaying CKMX (AM 1060). Monday (UT) with no R. Marti and no Cuban jamming; nice to finally find the jamming off, but now with QRM from Radio Oromiya from their *0323 to their fading out by 0420; Calgary weaker than last Monday; 0320 to 0435, July 18; coverage of the Calgary Stampede's Rangeland Derby; C&W songs (Jimmy Dean "Big Bad John", Del Reeves "Girl On The Billboard", etc.). (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group)

CENTRAL AFRICA REPUBLIC 6040, Radio ICDI, Boali, new frequency ex 6030. Schedule now reported 0500-1100. (Kenny/DSWCI)

CHINA 5050, Beibu Bay Radio (BBR). Finally heard in the clear now with the absence of Ozy Radio; random checks 1220 through 1356, July 10 and 11; in Vietnamese; pop songs; ToH and BoH multi-language IDs ("FM 96.4 Beibu Bay Radio"); frequently with multi-language series of "Hello B-B-R"; often with slogan in English "The road to health." (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group)

15670, China's State Administration of

Radio Film & TV (SARFT) may be the source of the dramatically increased jamming of Radio Free Asia's Tibetan language broadcast. On June 24th at 1242 one transmitter broadcasting China National Radio's (CNR-1) Mandarin program and a second transmitter broadcasting Firedrake's musical jamming was heard on RFA's 15670 frequency. Firedrake was the louder signal (Good) with CNR-1 underneath (Fair). The Firedrake transmitter normally goes silent at the top of each hour, did not do so today. Rather, at 1259.55 I heard the Firedrake music end and the Firedrake transmitter then broadcast several time pips followed at 1300 by CNR-1's Mandarin broadcast. The CNR-1's Mandarin broadcast from the Firedrake transmitter continued until at least until 1303 when I stopped listening to 15670. The apparent use of the same transmitter to broadcast both the Firedrake musical jamming and then CNR-1's Mandarin program adds strong evidence that the probable source of the Firedrake musical jammer is China. At 1316 I again tuned in 15670 and the Firedrake musical jammer was heard with its musical jamming broadcast along with a second transmitter broadcasting CNR-1's Mandarin program which could be heard underneath. Both the Firedrake and CNR1 broadcasts were heard until 1342 at which time I again stopped listening. On June 25th from 1248 to 1259.55 on 15670 I again heard the Firedrake musical jammer along with CNR-1 using a separate transmitter apparently targeting RFA's Tibetan language broadcast. In addition at 1256 I also heard both CNR-1 and Firedrake on separate transmitters broadcasting on 13830 another of RFA's Tibetan language frequencies. Also RFA's 11605 frequency was also being jammed but the audio was not good enough for a positive id of the jammer. Similar to yesterday, at 1259.55 on 15670 the Firedrake music ended and I heard Firedrake's transmitter broadcast several time pips and then CNR-1's Mandarin program. Prior to June 24th, China National Radio's CNR-1 Mandarin program has been broadcast daily between 1200 and 1400 on RFA's Tibetan language frequencies in an apparent effort to jam RFA's broadcasts. This week's increase of using of two transmitters one broadcasting Firedrake jamming music and the other broadcasting CNR-1's Mandarin program on each of RFA's Tibetan language frequencies is a major increase in the efforts to jam RFA's Tibetan broadcasts. (Handler-IL)

CLANDESTINE 5985, Shiokaze/Sea Breeze via Yamata, *1330, July 8. Jamming was already here waiting for their sign on; another Friday in English; usual segments "Today's News Flash" and "Today's News on North Korean Issues"; IDs "This is Shiokaze

Sea Breeze from Tokyo, Japan". A message given in Thai from 1338-1343; message repeated in their second half hour English segment (1400-1430). First time I have noted this language used and wonder what message they would be giving in Thai? As a semi-regular listener to Shiokaze, I was interested in a story in the April 2011 issue of The Atlantic magazine. Here is a portion of Robert S. Boynton article "North Korea's Digital Underground": "GIVEN THE GRIP that the North Korean regime retains on information, the mission of these subversive organizations can seem quixotic—an act of faith as much as it is journalism. Of all the narrowcasters tenaciously targeting North Korea, the narrowest is Shiokaze ("sea breeze," in Japanese), a station created by the Investigation Commission on Missing Japanese Probably Related to North Korea, or COMJAN. In the late 1970s, North Korea began randomly abducting Japanese citizens from beaches and parks, and holding them captive in Pyongyang for the next quarter century. Their families assumed they had either eloped or died. Precisely why they were abducted has never been clear, although it most likely has to do with training spies. Even the exact number of abductees isn't known. At a 2002 summit with Japanese Prime Minister Junichiro Koizumi, Kim Jong Il confessed to having taken 13 Japanese, five of whom were still alive (and were soon returned to Japan). The Japanese government insists that at least 17 were kidnapped, and refuses to believe that the others have died. From the third floor of a less-than-spiffy apartment building near Tokyo's Iidabashi railway station, COMJAN advocates on behalf of abductees not officially recognized by the Japanese government, and hopes to reach them with its radio broadcasts. On the day I visit, Araki Kazuhiro, a professor of Korean studies and COMJAN's chairman, is sitting in the tiny, makeshift plywood radio booth, reading news about recent nuclear-arms negotiations for one of Shiokaze's twice-daily shortwave broadcasts. After he finishes, we sit at a conference table and have some tea. Araki says he believes that more than 400 Japanese have been abducted, and that the kidnappings continue even today. As with many of the other shortwave broadcasts, North Korea often jams Shiokaze's signal. Shiokaze regularly switches frequencies, but the North quickly locates the new one, and jams it. While the Daily NK and other outlets occasionally interact with their listeners, Shiokaze operates in a virtual void. Other than the five Japanese released in 2002, no abductee has ever been heard from. I reluctantly broach the subject: Does Araki have any evidence that anyone in North Korea—abductee or not—has ever heard the broadcast? Araki and his producer consult with each other. "Well, we once heard about a high-school student who was able to pick up the program in Pyongyang, but we're not sure about that," he says. After more tea, Araki excuses himself and returns to the booth. It is almost noon, and he needs to finish one more Korean-language segment before the afternoon program is beamed across the sea and into North Korea." (Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group)

6070, Voz de la Resistencia (FARC clandestine), Colombia, 0134-0211, Jul 21, Spanish long talk by two men, looks like a translation from some language to Spanish with frequent words such as "Libre", "Comunismo" or "Estalinismo, 0147 patriotic music, 0148 talk again, 0202 march music, almost good-fair at the beginning with distorted audio, then fair-poor due to downward propagation, local noise and Belarus on the same channel. CYPRUS On Jul 11, shortly before 0300, an explosion happened at the Evangelos Florakis Naval Base, on the southern coast of the island near the town of Zygi, destroying the island's biggest power station at Vassilikou resulting in widespread blackouts. A depot with 98 barrels containing an estimated 2,000 tonnes of high explosive, seized Iranian arms exploded causing at least 12 killed and 62 injured on the Naval Base. The shock wave could be heard 40 miles away in the capital, Nicosia. The Cyprus authorities are looking to obtain two floating power stations and restore the country's generating capacity. Nearby BBC/Babcock Zygi relay station lost nearly all power and the broadcasts had to be relayed from BBC/Babcock relay stations in the UK, Thailand, Singapore, Seychelles, Oman and United Arab Emirates. The MW station at Ladies Mile is still operating with 150 kW on 1323. The only SW transmission from Zygi as of July 12 was in English Fr/Sa/Su at 1900-2100 on 12095. Nobody was hurt at the relay station. (Summary from Bueschel, Ferguson, Hauser and others/DX Window)

Marti and Cuban jamming; QRM from Calgary; on with repetitive xylophone sounding IS till 0329; announcer in language that sounded similar to French; played a lot of music; 0400 seemed to be OM and YL with news and back to music; had faded down to unusable by 0420; certainly the clearest and longest reception I have had to date. (Ron Howard-CA)

INDONESIA 4789.96, RRI Fak Fak, randomly 1141 to 1312, July 1. OM and YL DJs playing EZL songs and on air phone calls; David Sharp's description fits very well: "Actually, the broadcast was horribly modulated, nearly to the point of FM'ing, but signal strength was impressive"; 1301 newer version of Rayuan Pulau Kelapa (SCI) followed by the news and ending with the usual song at 1306; strong CODAR QRM. Thanks to Sei-ichi original alert in dxldy and to the others who have sent in logs of this reactivated station. Back again July 5 at 1202 with the Jakarta news relay which ended at 1226 with usual patriotic/national song; audio sounded much improved; news and song // RRI Palangkaraya (3325), RRI Makassar (4749.95) and RRI Jakarta (9680), but not // RRI Ternate (3344.96). Was off the air by 1240 check; Atsunori Ishida indicates 1233*. (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group) 4789.97, RRI Fak Fak, 1030-1450*, Jul 02, 05 and 07, Jakarta news relay which ended at 1226 with usual patriotic/ national song; audio sounded much improved; news and song // RRI Palangkaraya (3325), RRI Makassar (4749.95) and RRI Jakarta (9680), but not // RRI Ternate (3344.96). 7289.95, RRI Nabire, 0800-0820:00*, June 27. Nice to see Atsunori Ishida, et al. reporting on the newer version of Rayuan Pulau Kelapa (a.k.a. song of Coconut Island - SCI) being played before the relay of the Jakarta news, as I reported in DXLD 11-25. There are two formats used for the Jakarta news; one with just straight reporting and the other with frequent musical bridges; today had many musical bridges till suddenly off, by which time reception was almost fair. Now on a slightly higher frequency than heard back in May. (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group) 7289.87 RRI-Nabire. 0805, back on after many days' absence, with news and comments; off midsentence at 0811, 5/6. Also heard at 0756 on 19/6 with local vocals, talk, then into SCI (a slower orchestral version, I've never heard before), followed by news. (Sharp/ARDXC)

9525.96, Voice of Indonesia, 1313-1323, June 21 (Tuesday). "Exotic Indonesia", a joint production by VOI and RRI Banjarmasin; news from Jakarta and Banj; IDs for both Jak-Banj; local TC for Banj ("21:22 Central Indonesia Time"); "Today in History". Was interested to note that on Thursday, June 16 it sounded at 1036 very much like the "Exotic Indonesia" program with two YL chatting from different locations; heard what sounded like "102.4 FM", which would have been from Gajahmada; said was a "weekly" program; rather weak. I was not worried about IDing this, as I planned on hearing their repeated programming from 1300 to 1400 which would have stronger reception, but no, the programming was completely different; first time I have caught them being different. Needs more investigation! (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group)

LAOS 6130, LNR, 1149, June 29. Indigenous pop songs; assume in Laotian; 1159 routine indigenous theme music followed by the ringing of the distinctive gong/bell (assume rung 7 times as they normally do); anthem; news; only heard bits and pieces due to varying amounts of adjacent QRM/splatter. Has been a while since I last had a positive reception. (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group) 6130, Lao National Radio, Vientiane. 1314, announcer, with local vocals. Suffering badly from adjacent splatter, even with tight filters. Currently seems to be the only active HF xmtr from Laos, with the external service and Sam Neua still untraced. 19/6 (Sharp/ARDXC)

MALAYSIA 6049.63 Asyik FM 1143-1230+ Jul 11. Pop vocals hosted by YL to ToH, then an "Asyik FM" jungle and 10 mins of chat and phone call(s) - not sure of lang; after 1210, a mix of vocal music and chat. Good signal - this is now the best low-band RTM outlet, now that 5030 and 6100 remain off the air. 5964.7 Klasik Nasional usually has a fair/good signal as well. 7270 is also still silent (since June 30). (Wilkins-CO/DXplorer) 6050.0. It was back in June 2006 that Malaysia moved from 6025v up to 6049.6. All this time they have always been on 6049.6 (very slight variation) until today. I thought I was seeing things, but it's true. It's now 6050.0. Is this a new transmitter or have they finally, after 5 years, adjusted the old one? Heard the R. Suara Islam program from 1409 to 1500, July 20. Almost non-stop reciting from the Qur'an. Had to stay with it till ID'ed finally at 1500 and into the Kuala Lumpur news; fair. (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group)

11665, Wai FM, via Kajang (near Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia), 0924-1000, June 29. Two YL DJs playing pop songs and indigenous chanting; 0940 and 0950 clear Wai FM IDs; fair till the start of CNR1 jamming at 1000; after ToH and subsequent checks till 1244 found clearly // 7270.3v. (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group)

MALAYSIA (Sarawak) 7270.3v, via Kuching-Stapok (Sarawak), from fading in about 0925 to 1000, June 29; still hearing an unid RTM relay in vernacular; pop songs; indigenous chanting; can definitely confirm was not Wai FM (not // 11665) or Sarawak FM (not // 9835); still a mystery; noticeably drifting in frequency, as also noted by John Wilkins. At 1000 a positive Wai FM ID and start of // 11665 and still // at last check at 1244. Difficult to tune; in LSB heard a het from 7270.0; in USB adjacent QRM/splatter from 7275. (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group) 5030 and 7270.3v continues to be off the air July 7; no open carrier or anything. (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group)

MYANMAR 7200.05v, Myanma Radio, 1109, June 28. Back on their normal frequency again and transmitter working fine after yesterday's problems. Poor reception. PAPUA NEW GUINEA 3205, NBC Sandaun. Recently I gave the WRONG address for this station. The correct address is NBC Sandaun, PO Box 37, Vanimo. Definitely not "371" as I thought I was hearing. Common sense should have told me I was wrong, as the postal address I gave had no city. The "one" that I was hearing must have really been "Vanimo". Sorry for the confusion. Thanks to Ian Baxter (Australian) for pointing this out to me. Always appreciate it when someone keeps me on the straight and narrow, as I hate to have misinformation posted with my name to it! (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group) 5960, Radio Fly via Kiunga, 1007, July 24. Several montages of brief audio bits from Beatles, etc. with the "Radio Fly" ID; YL DJ in Tok Pisin playing pop island songs; 1044 tuned out; 3915 off the air. Thanks to Walt Salmaniw, who has already reported that 3915 continues to be off the air (DXLD 11-29). Received an explanation from James Kaltobie: "Thanks Ron for your continual input. We have been experiencing some technical problems in that regard after our Radio Technician left and we are yet to find a replacement. Have you received the QSL card that I sent you? [Not yet, but hope to get it this week!] Let me know when you do. Best regards, James." So let us hope they are able to fill Roseanne ("Rosie") Kulupi's position, which she left vacant about a month ago. Otherwise there seems little likelihood of 3915 coming back on line. Fortunately 5960 seems to be trouble free. (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group)

Sorry to report that Roseanne ("Rosie") Kulupi, the Radio Fly radio technician and announcer, is no longer with the station. Her last email to me is as follows. She certainly had been very helpful in providing some interesting insights into Radio Fly. I will miss her entertaining correspondence! The photo of her is posted at <<http://www.box.net/shared/uhm382tbyzy84fhvss7q>>. - - - email from Roseanne ("Rosie") Kulupi: It's good to know 3915 is above par on audio quality. Yes we have Radio Fly Special on Monday nights - a program which is more or less like Australia's Current Affair. It covers current issues within Western Province, especially the North Fly District where Radio Fly is situated. It's been great receiving feedback from you comparing both frequencies and I greatly appreciate your time and effort. I have resigned from this company so officially as of yesterday, I no longer work for Ok Tedi Mining Ltd. I will be flying out on Thursday (hopefully). Thank you once again for your time and effort. Find attached pic of me and Communications Techs up on Mt Robinson where our FM transmitter 95.3 and also where the short wave and FM links are located. In the back ground is the mine's mill where copper and gold are processed. Have a great week. Kind regards, Roseanne. (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group)

Have been corresponding with Radio Fly regarding their long awaited QSL cards. The cards in fact have been designed, printed and all have been signed by the GM of the company, so perhaps they will go out next week, as they would like to send them out all at once and have not sent one yet to anybody. To date they have received more than 40 reception reports; some have sent more than one report. Those who have already sent in reception reports do not need to do anything else but keep checking your mailbox. Looks as if we should certainly have them in July. Very good news! For those wishing to send in new reception reports, please send them to a very nice fellow at Ok Tedi Mining Limited: James Kaltobie <James.Kaltobie@oktedi.com>. He sincerely apologizes for the delay in getting these QSL cards out to listeners, but this is all rather new to him. (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group)

7325, 0804, Wantok Radio Light fair 13/6 in clear on measured 7324.97 but unstable transmitter makes SSB reception difficult - AM mode best. EE ident and "welcome to our international listeners in Norway... (long list including NZ)". Prgm summary mentioned NBC news to follow at 7pm (0900 UTC). Also noted fair-good at 2014 on 15/2 with gospel songs. (Bryan Clark-NZ/NZDXTimes)

NETHERLANDS "It's happened, I'm afraid: the Dutch Parliament has just rubberstamped sweeping cuts to the Radio Netherlands Worldwide budget. What this means for our radio programmes remains to be seen. Senior RNW editors have started drawing up a plan in line with the new company focus: freedom of speech. We'll keep you posted. According to reliable sources, it appears that the SW b/csts from RNW will be until December or perhaps a little more. They might run a frequency for the Caribbean from a transmitter in Guyana. These decisions will be announced between October and November. Regarding the Spanish section is likely to be smaller, this will be known better in next September or October. (Horacio A. PORTUGAL Privatization of parts of the public broadcaster RTP is in the program of the new Portuguese Government, delivered on Tuesday in Parliament. The privatization of RTP was a campaign promise of Prime Minister Pedro Passos Coelho. Portugal is to receive a €78bn bailout package from the European Union. The program says that the RTP group "should be restructured in order to obtain a strong containment of operating costs in 2012, thus creating conditions for both a significant reduction of the financial burden on taxpayers and for the privatization process." "This will include the privatization of one public channel to be implemented at a time and in a model that will depend on market conditions. The other channel, as well as being a repository of archives, plus RTP Internacional and RTP Africa, will be programmed to ensure the public service," the document says. "Antena 1, 2 and 3 [the public radio networks] will follow the same general principles that apply to RTP. The state will divest its stake in RDP Lusa, the mixed economy company, to private operators in due course," it also explains. SUDAN (South) There has been interest expressed about future broadcasting from the newly independent South Sudan. Radio Peace, operated in the 60 mb, at various times from 2003-2009, but has been off the air for about two years. Radio Peace was owned and operated by a non-profit religious corporation, Educational Media Corp. of Spotsylvania, Virginia. I am informed by EMC that the transmitting equipment, once operated from an unofficially not-to-be-disclosed location in South Sudan, generally thought to have been in the vicinity of Narus Town, has been moved to Juba, the capital and major city in South Sudan. EMC no longer owns this transmitter/equipment, it having been donated to the Episcopal Diocese in Juba. EMC spokesman indicated that he understood that the Episcopal bishop was attempting to get permission to return the shortwave station to the air. I have inquires out to Episcopal authorities in Sudan for details. (Don Jensen-WI/DXplorer)

The only known shortwave station in Southern Sudan has been R Peace which was a very small religious station owned and operated by Educational Media Corp. (EMC), in Spotsylvania, Virginia. Its station manager was Peter Stover who had about five employees. It was broadcasting from the Nuba Mountains with 4 kW on 5895 and 1 kW on 4750, but moved later to 4740 to avoid QRM from R Dunamis, Uganda. But in Sep 2009 when it became evident, that the Nuba Mountains stay as a part of North Sudan, the station ceased operations and relocated to the future capital of South Sudan, Juba. It has not yet been heard by DX-ers. The best hours to try for it are at 0230-0415 and 1600-1800. (Ed/DX Window)

UGANDA 4976.04, UBC R, Kampala, 0329-0400, Jul 10, mellow African rhythms with very nice signal. Not heard with this strength in many years. (Jensen and Wilkner). Also heard at 2035-2051, Jul 07 and 10, English/vernacular ann, Afro pop music, talk with listener on phone, 45333. (D'Amico and Petersen). Not reported since Feb 2011. (Ed/DX Window)

UNITED KINGDOM BBC World Service Audience Drop: Meeting a mandated a 16 percent cut in funding has lead to a falling of global audiences for the BBC World Service by some 14 million listeners. The British foreign-service broadcaster saw its audience slip from 180 million in mid 2010 to 166 million in mid 2011. To meet the budget cuts, the broadcaster eliminated multiple language services and shifted some operations from shortwave and medium wave to local FM relays, mobile platforms and to the Internet. By 2014, some 650 BBC World Service positions will have been eliminated. Although total listenership declined, the BBC World Service did see a 40 percent increase in its online audience, rising from 7 million in 2009/10 to 10 million in 2010/11. English-language listenership was also up over the previous year will a total weekly reach of 43 million. In the United States, the BBC World Service garnered a new audience high of 10 million listeners. BBC Arabic TV services also saw a significant increase in viewership. USA OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — The California radio preacher who predicted the apocalypse on May 21 has been moved to a nursing home, where he is recovering from a stroke he suffered last month. Harold Camping's daughter confirms her father recently moved from an area hospital to a skilled nursing facility. He is undergoing rehabilitation there to regain his strength following the June 9 stroke. Camping's Family Radio network is working to replace the 89-year-old's show, Open Forum, with interim programming. The station has been playing repeats since his stroke. It's unclear if the show will return. Camping predicted Judgment Day would occur, first in 1994 and again in May. His media empire spent millions of dollars, some culled from followers' donations, over seven years on billboards and other publicity for his 2011 predictions about the spiritual Rapture in May and the end of the world in October. Broke away to check for Radio Oromiya from 0320 to 0330. By 0332 reception had improved; brief reciting from the Qur'an; 0340 usual segment that sounded like YL in the studio getting live reports from sporting event(s); 0356 EZL music till their normal signature drum music till pips at ToH and into what must have been the news; some adjacent QRM/splatter; one of their better receptions. Enhancing my listening enjoyment was the beautiful sunset out over the Pacific Ocean! (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group) 6015, RTZ, *0258-0402, July 20. Another grayline reception; tx on at 0254; started with xylophone sounding IS; 0302 Islamic singing/chanting; into monologue; by 0318 was very impassioned (I am thinking religious?); BoH YL, could have been news; 0336 brief Islamic chanting; into excited sports coverage; ToH YL with assume news; poor. (Ron Howard-CA/NASWA Yahoo Group)

HFCC Shortwave Conference in Dallas
The National Association of Shortwave Broadcasters will team with Dallas-based transmitter maker Continental Electronics to host the first U.S. meeting of a High-Frequency Coordination Conference/Arab States Broadcasting Union conference, Sept 12-16, 2011 in Dallas. Officially the B11 HFCC/ASBU conference, the gathering of shortwave broadcast professionals is expected to pull approximately 100 delegates from 40 countries. The NASB is encouraging shortwave professionals in the U.S. to attend to make a good showing. These twice-yearly conferences rotate among various countries. According to a release: "This will be an excellent opportunity ... to meet with the world's shortwave broadcasters, and to discuss some of the new platforms of delivery for international broadcasting, such as the Internet, satellites, podcasts, etc. Topics dealing with programming, audience research and others are also being planned for the agenda." A tour of the Continental Electronics' factory along with local tourist destinations such as the nearby Ft. Worth Stockyards will be included. Pirate Radio Report

Mike Rohde • 2615 Willow Glen Road • Hilliard, OH 43026 • hfpirates@gmail.com

Welcome to the August pirate report. Activity has been moderate with a few ops going at it with some zeal. Propagation continues to be poor. It is almost enough to wish for the winter season and the much-improved propagation that it brings.

For the first time in a long time we saw a posting of FCC documentation regarding a shortwave pirate operator although the operator is not identified. See: <http://transition.fcc.gov/eb/FieldNotices/2003/DOC-308562A1.html>

This is bound to encourage reduced activity in the near future.

We appreciate your logs! Please feel free to send them to me. Thank you to this month contributors.

And now to the logs!

Captain Morgan Shortwave, 6925, 7/2 0133-0206* The Captain with a fair to good signal. The show was older rhythm and blues songs about drinking like "Ain't Drunk Just Drinking" (Majewski CT)

Captain Morgan Shortwave, 6925, 7/2 0129-0206* The theme of the show seemed to be wine, beer, and spirits. Crazy House, Marylou, Another Bottle of Beer on the Wall, Moonshine, Wine-wine-wine, One Scotch-One Bourbon-One Beer. Great signal! (45444--Hunsicker, PA)

Captain Morgan Shortwave 6924.9 AM 0031-0114 7/18/11 SIO=343. Prgm of mostly classic rock mx. Twilight Zone theme mx also mixed in at times. Pretty good level, but weakening toward the close (Zeller-OH)

Captain Morgan Shortwave, 6924.8, 07/04 2340-0019 SIO=121+ Program of primarily blues music but also some rock incl Born to Be Wild and Brown Sugar. Weak level in local noise, but a clear ID at 0012. (Zeller-OH)

Captain Morgan Shortwave 6924.9 AM 0031-0114 7/18/11 SIO=343. Prgm of mostly classic rock mx. Twilight Zone theme mx also mixed in at times. Pretty good level, but weakening toward the close (Zeller-OH)

Captain Morgan Shortwave, 6924, 7-22-11, 2200utc, very poor below S6 noise floor with Drake R8 & 7mhz dipole, 2 Jimi Hendrix & 1 Byrds tune from late 60's, I don't recall names of those tunes, Twilight Zone theme, if this was Capt Morgan QSL at captainmorganshortwave@gmail.com. (Hassig-IL)

Captain Morgan, 6924.25am, 7-10-11, 0105utc, fair S8max S6nf, heard C&W music at first then variety of blues and blues-rock music incl songs: "baby boogie with me" and "seventh son", nice program, twilight zone theme at end, captainmorganshortwave@gmail.com. (Hassig-IL)

Captain Morgan 6924.2 AM 0102-0140* 7/10/11 SIO=242+. Prgm of largely blues mx. OM several times gave captainmorgan-shortwave@gmail.com for repts. (Zeller-OH)

Captain Morgan Shortwave 6924.2AM 10 July 0101-0115+ Swing music, ID, and e-mail address followed by a comedy song. (35444,Hunsicker, PA)

Captain Morgan, 6925, 6/26 0434-0437*, tuned in to hear "American Woman" followed by Twilight Zone Theme music prior to carrier being terminated. Fair. (D'Angelo-PA)

KARR, 6925U, 6/25 0320-0348* Noted with a massive signal, up to s4-s6 at times, with great audio. Hard Rock music, such as 'Crazy love' (@0329) 0330 KARR Electronic ID, followed with 'Run for your life (to the Hill)' by a group (Iron Maiden), with 'Freedom' at 0344. Gave a KARR ID 2x and off at 0348 hrs. Well heard on the Drake R8A and with almost the same signal level on the Eton E1XM with the indoor loop!

Liquid Radio, 6925.35, 7-5, 0240-0257, poor S8max S7noise floor, slow freq updrift, dance music incl one that sounded like Australian didgeridoo used in recording, lucky to hear ID during upfade. (Hassig-IL)

MAC 6924.5 AM 2200-2212+ 7/9/11 SIO=322. s/on w/old R. Prague IS as usual, into prgm of rock mx hosted by young boy Ultraman, incl the Ultraman theme song. Poor copy despite fair level due to loud local noise. Multiple clear IDs hrd. (Zeller-OH)

MAC Shortwave, 6925, 6/26 0130-0152, tuned in to "I Want to Rock 'n' Roll All Night" followed by youngster with macshortwave@yahoo.com and, macshortwaveradio@gmail.com e-mail addresses plus talk about video game Zelda. Twisted Sister song at 0137. ID at 0141 "This is M-A-C". More rock music. Youngster announcer mentioning this was The Ultra Man Show. Fair. (D'Angelo-PA)

Rave on Radio, 6925U 6/23 0206-0307+ SIO=141. Program of rock music with a few clear OM IDs. Much weaker signal than I had from them last week, so copy difficult, except on peaks. Gave raveonradio@gmail.com for reports. Also asked for reports to the reactivated FRN. (Zeller-OH)

WMPR 6925 AM *2239-2346+ 7/10/11 SIO=211+. Clear ID at s/on and two other clear IDs hrd. But, the mx was difficult to copy given a weaker signal than normal from this one and also very severe local noise. Never known to announce an addr. (Zeller-OH)

Wolverine Radio, 6925U, 7/2 0207-0254 A wine, beer and spirits program. Alcoholic Blues, Rum and Cocoa-cola, Cherry Berry Wine, Bottle of Wine (Fruit of the Vine), Whiskey Bar, "...leaping gnome..." song, Tequila Sunrise, One Bourbon-One Scotch-One beer. (Hunsicker, PA)

WRNI, Radio Ronda International, 6925, 0145-0213 7/18/11 SIO-242. Prgm of rock mx by Rush and other artists. Three clear ID's. The call letters are definite, but the spelling of the stn name is slightly uncertain. Copied no addr. (Zeller-OH)

XFM, 6940/U, 7/5 0349-0400+, "This is XFM the power of X"; rock music & music commentary. Actual UTC TCs @0355 & 0359. QSL/comment via xfmshortwave@gmail.com. SIO=4+54 killer! (Frodge-MI)

QSLs

George Zeller got one from Rave on Radio. It was a 6925 full data "Burlesque" sheet in a couple of days for a report to FRN. Different from another QSL that I got from them previously, but still says that they broadcast from a tree in the woods. Thank you, Rave on Radio!

Happy DXing!

Dear shortwave listener,

It is always good to hear from a new listener! It is our desire to provide quality Christian programming to the world in these last days. Please keep listening and tell someone to tune in. Our station is new and needs your prayers. Someday in the near future we will have a web page to keep listeners abreast of latest developments which will be of interest to our listeners. May God Bless you and keep listening!

got me pointed towards shortwave and I began experimenting w/ transmitters last year. The broadcast you heard was from a portable setup I use w/ a quarter wave vertical antenna and a 750W PEP tube amplifier. The audio is played from a laptop which then runs into a CRL Amigo audio processor which has been slightly modified for bass extension. The exciter is a Yeasu FT-100D...(D'Angelo-PA)

FREE Grundig G6 Receiver

Purchase your Satellit 750 from Universal Radio for a limited time and receive a FREE G6 with your order. A $89.95 value! (G6 also sold separately).

The Grundig Satellit 750 will give complete coverage of all long wave, AM, shortwave frequencies (with S.S.B. mode) and FM (stereo to the earphone jack), plus the VHF aeronautical band (118-137 MHz). Tune your favorite stations by the conventional tuning knob (two speed), keyed entry or via 1000 memories. Enjoy the fidelity you have come to expect from Grundig enhanced by separate bass and treble controls. The radio has both an earphone jack and a Line Output jack. The built-in 24 hour clock has a dual alarm and sleep feature. This radio can simultaneously display the frequency and the time on the large backlit LCD. It will also indicate antenna selection, battery status, wide/narrow band and the built-in 360 degree rotatable ferrite antenna. External antennas may also be attached (BNC). 14.65 x 7.25 x 5.75 inches 5.25 lbs. Includes AC adapter or may operate from four D cells (not supplied). List $400.00 Order #0750 $299.99

GRUNDIG G6

With the Grundig G6 Buzz Aldrin Edition at your side, you'll always have great listening options. Tune in to longwave, AM, FM, the VHF aircraft band or continuous coverage shortwave. Use the auto-tuning feature to browse stations and stop on the next available frequency. You can also use "DS" tuning to get a taste of what's playing—stop on the next available frequency for five seconds at a time. This advanced dual conversion circuit also features the reception of S.S.B. (Single Side Band) signals. This radio has keypad entry, manual tuning knob and 700 alphanumeric memories, arranged in 100 pages. The backlit display features a signal strength indicator and there is a stereo/mono and a mega-switch switch. There are mini jacks for earphones and external antenna. Use the international clock and wake-up alarms to keep you on schedule. This radio comes with an AC adapter and earbuds. It can operate from two regular or NiCad AA cells (not supplied). 5 x 3 x 1.2 inches 9 oz. This radio is simply a great value. List $150.00 Order #0626 $89.95

GRUNDIG G3

FREE Grundig M400 Receiver

Purchase your Grundig G3 from Universal Radio for a limited time and receive a FREE M400 with your order. A $29.95 value! (also sold separately).

The Grundig G3 Globe Traveler is an innovative portable radio covering long wave, AM, FM (stereo to earphone jack), continuous shortwave plus the VHF aircraft band. It features dual conversion AM/SW circuitry for exceptional sensitivity and image rejection. It offers S.S.B. - Single sideband reception. It has a large 700 channel memory system with memory scan and auto tuning store. Memories may be labelled up to 8 characters. Unlike other portables in its class, the Globe Traveler offers Synchronous Detection. This special feature addresses the issue of selective fading and adjacent channel interference on shortwave. Other enhancements include: Wide/Narrow selectivity, auto search, RDS, signal indicator, Local/DX switch, direct frequency entry and 24 hour clock with four alarm timers. It has an external antenna jack and a Line In/Out jack. Requires four AA cells (not supplied). If four NiMH AAs are inserted, they may be recharged inside the radio. Supplied with manual, protective pouch and AC adapter/charger. 6.62 x 4.13 x 1.1". 13 oz. G3 Globe Traveler Order #4033 $129.95

M400

The Grundig M400 is an ultra compact portable radio that covers the AM (520-1710 kHz), FM (87-108 MHz) and shortwave in two bands: 5.9-10 and 11.65-18 MHz. The M400 features an analog circuit with digital display and has easy-to-use controls. The frequency display is to the nearest 1 kHz on AM and to 5 kHz on shortwave. There is a built-in clock-alarm. The left side of the radio has the tuning knob, an earphone jack and a lock button to prevent accidental frequency changes. An amazingly thin radio... under 1/2 inch! The built-in 4 ohm speaker is 40mm wide. The collapsible telescopic whip is for the FM and shortwave bands, and does not need to be extended for AM band reception. This radio operates from two AA cells (not supplied). Supplied with an elegant soft case that permits the radio to be played even while inserted. 2.75 x 4.33 x 0.472" 3.2 ounces. M400 Order #3400 $29.95

The Uniden Homepatrol

uniden HOMEPATROL-1

A whole new approach to scanning the VHF - UHF spectrum. Programming is as simple as keying in your zip code! When you enter your location, the Homepatrol searches its databases for channels within a specific distance from that location. And coverage is great. You can monitor many service types from 25-54, 108-512 and 758-960 MHz (less cellular) in AM, FM and FM wide modes. Trunk Tracking EDACS (NAW), LTR, Motorola (analog/mixed/digital) and APCO P25 is supported. A micro SD card is included to store your favorite frequencies! The Replay feature can instantly replay the transmissions you have just heard. Comes with: SMA antenna, AC adapter, car adapter, base stand, computer cable and four rechargeable NiMH AA cells. Order #0738 $499.95
