GRATEFUL ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

To the Chairmen and members of all committees, who have willingly devoted their time and labor to insure the success of our "AFRA ANTICS" of 1940.

To all AFRA members who have been generous enough to make personal appearances in an aid to publicity and whose names could not be added to those on this page due to a dead-line with the printer—

In the name of AFRA—THANK YOU! If any names have been omitted, please credit it to human frailty and bear in mind that "To err is human, to forgive divine."

SALUTATIONS AND GOOD WISHES

I am very happy to send you my photograph for the AFRA ANTICS souvenir program. Am so sorry I will be unable to be with you to enjoy the evening in Chicago. I hope the affair will be a tremendous success.

Margaret Speaks
National Second Vice-President of AFRA.

If it should happen that I am going east near the time of your ANTICS on November 29th, I will be more than glad to stop over in Chicago and holler my head off for AFRA. May I wish you all every success for your coming affair?

Edward Arnold
National First Vice-President of AFRA.
President of the Screen Actors Guild.

Greetings and congratulations to my fellow members of AFRA on the progress made this last year. Please, dear folks, keep up your interest in your organization, attend its meetings so that the true majority voice of AFRA will always be its spokesmen.

Bert Lytell
President of Actors Equity.

4. PAW: Did you hear that?
5. MAW: What, Paw?
6. PAW: It's comin' on to rain.
7. SOUND: (DOWNPOUR ON THE RIGHT)
8. MAW: You're right.
9. PAW: I'm always right.
10. SOUND: (MORE THUNDER)
11. MAW: Fierce storm.
12. PAW: Yeah, fierce.
13. MAW: Listen to the thunder.
14. PAW: Where?
15. MAW: HEY, SOUND!
16. SOUND: (WIND BLOWS)
17. PAW: There 'tis!
18. MAW: Late as usual.
19. PAW: Fine night for a murder.
20. MAW: Don't say that.
21. PAW: Why not?
22. MAW: Let the announcer say it.

THEME MUSIC

ANNOUNCER: Yes, folks, it IS a fine night for a murder. But will there be a murder, or something? Only the author knows. Be sure to tune in again -- next year, at the same time. And now, speaking for the sponsor, this is Watt A. Yeller saying, "Goodnight, Kiddies!"
