RADIO GUIDE

You must have had great fun this week unpacking your record company sample parcels!! We hope they included new hot singles by Paul Young, Alphaville, Hall & Oates and Alison Moyet which are already breaking on the Euro airwaves!! With these and the title song of Prince's film smash Purple Rain reported by 67% of our correspondents (and the video as most broadcast music video in Europe this week!) there is plenty of good new stuff for programming. Paul Young's I'm Gonna Tear Your Playhouse Down was a well known Ann Peebles song and this first single after Paul's enormous album success No Parlez has entered the European Airplay Top 50 at nr 40.

German band Alphaville, competing with Nena for the International success price of 1984, score with their third consecutive single, the title tune of their debut album Forever Young. The LP enters the European Top 100 Album charts at nr.39 this week (Single is 14 in the Airplay list and bubbling under the Top 100. If it enters next week it will be the third Alphaville single in the Top 100 at the same time). But Nena also has a very strong contender with their Irgendwie, Irgendwo, Irgendwann already at 6 in Germany, so German rock/pop continues to lead the way for continental European talent.

Interesting on the singles front; while Freddie Mercury's Love Kills goes up on all fronts it may have 'killed' the chances for Queen's fourth consecutive single from the album The Works. Tina Turner even seems to be in competition with herself. She has 3 singles charted in different countries (Private Dancer is a beauty!) while her duet with Bowie will undoubtedly attract a lot of your airplay time. Biggest surprise in the European Top 100 Albums is the nr. 1 for Heavy Metal giant Iron Maiden but it is in a very close fight with Mike Oldfield and Stevie Wonder as there are minimal point differences between the three.

PLAYTIPS

New play-tips for Euro Pop radio include Kim Wilde's latest The Second Time, the debut single on her new label MCA and it is receiving great airplay in Central Europe; Limahl's Never Ending Story which already is a big hit in Germany but has definite cross-over potential for the other countries; Roger Hodgson with Had A Dream (on A&M) which we strongly recommend and which will help to break his super solo debut album after his departure from Supertramp.

New for Euro Rock Radio are the already mentioned Paul Young single; Scandal with The Warrior (CBS) bringing the intriguing vocals of Patty Smyth (not not Patti Smith), who sounds like a Benatar/Blondie mix which may be the result of the production since Mike Chapman was involved with all three ladies; Hall & Oates and Huey Lewis & The News who at long last come to Europe and deserve to break big.

FILM SCORES

After a long silence Stevie Wonder is completely back on the map, at the moment his sultry ballad I Just Called is no. 1 in no less than 8 countries (and Top 5 in 3 others). This is the highest number of simultaneous number ones since the start of the European Top 100. The album stands at nr. 3 and will reach the top position upon entering the French charts. That will mark another soundtrack reaching gold status. 1984 really is the year of musical soundtracks with Stevie and the new Paul McCartney film scores adding to the already successful Footloose Soundtrack, Against All Odds (due to France making a re-entry at nr. 53 this week), the soundtrack Breakin', Streets Of Fire, Ghostbusters, and Metropolis.

Sade keeps on doing extremely well with both her single Smooth Operator (nr. 12 in the European Singles chart) and her debut album Diamond Life currently at nr. 11 in the Euro Album chart. The album contains a good collection of slow jazzy pop tunes, normally doing well in night programs, but with such commercial impact that she is fastly becoming a darling of Euro Deejays. She's in fact a perfect cross-over artist attracting new audiences.

Paul McCartney songs fill a lot of air time with not only his own single doing so well but also the Everly Brothers single On The Wings Of A Nightingale getting more and more airplay. The whole Everly Bros album is featured on many album shows.
