THE INDUSTRY'S NEWSPAPER

Congratulations to Arista Records for capturing the top spot on R&R's annual year-end Label Performance Review. Arista finishes No. 1 in four formats (CHR/Rhythmic, Urban, Urban AC, and AC) and places No. 2 in CHR/Pop and Country. Arista's many superstars, including Whitney Houston, Toni Braxton, and Brooks & Dunn, contribute to its exceptional overall success. Last year's winner, Atlantic, places second and also ranks No. 1 in four formats (CHR/Pop, Active Rock, Rock, and Alternative) and No. 2 in Hot AC and Adult Alternative. Strong airplay on Stone Temple Pilots, Seven Mary Three, and Collective Soul help fuel Atlantic's first-place showing at R&R's Rock formats. Pittman To Speak At R&R Talk Radio Seminar '97

Bob Pittman — veteran of radio, broadcast and cable TV, and now President/CEO of America Online Networks — has been named a featured speaker at the R&R Talk Radio Seminar '97, slated for February 27-March 2 in Washington, DC.

Ever since he began his career as a 15-year-old DJ in his native Mississippi, Pittman has been known as an innovator of consumer marketing, with a background that also includes theme parks and real estate.

In the '70s, Pittman became one of the youngest people to program a New York station when he was appointed to WNBC/New York.

He also worked in Pittsburgh and Ch.cago radio
— all before the age of 25.
Pittman later joined Warner Amex Satellite
Entertainment and subsequently became COO, then CEO of MTV Networks. While there, he oversaw the creation of VH1, Nick At Nite, and the relaunch of Nickelodeon.

He also was head of his own
Quantum Media, CEO of Time Warner Enterprises and Six Flags Entertainment, and
Managing Partner/CEO of Century 21 real estate.

Anti-Liquor Ad Drive Gaining More Backers

Former Surgeon General C. Everett Koop is recommending that the FCC ban distilled spirits advertising on radio and television. But FCC Commissioner Rachelle Chong continues to counter that taking such an action would be out of line for the Commission.

In a letter to FCC Chairman Reed Hundt, Koop backed a recent petition for rulemaking filed by the State of Alaska (R&R 12/6). "The combined effect of television and hard liquor advertising will ... wield an untoward influence on our nation's youth and the millions of Americans who fight alcohol addiction," Koop wrote. "Please trust my knowledge and experience in evaluating the seriousness of the issue and merits of the petition."

Odyssey Rings NYC With Country Y107

Smith stays on board as PD of 'trimulcast'

Odyssey Communications debuted two-thirds of a three-station Country "trimulcast" on December 5, when Alternative WRGX-FM/Briarcliff Manor (Westchester County), NY and newly acquired Oldies WZVU-FM/Long Branch, NJ kicked off the new format with Garth Brooks's "Friends In Low Places." WWHB-FM/Long Island — currently simulcasting Rock WNEW-FM/New York — is slated to join the Country club this week. All three stations are at 107.1 and will be known as Y107; new calls are expected for all three outlets.

WRGX PD Darrin Smith has been named PD for the new Country trio, currently positioning itself as "New York and New Jersey's New Country, Y107." Odyssey VP/Programming Steve Blatter told R&R, "Darrin is a well-rounded broadcaster and a veteran of New York radio. He's really embraced country music since the day we decided to take these stations Country. He was born and raised here ... that's really important."

Smith told R&R, "I'm thrilled to be able to program a format that will be exclusive in this market — a refreshing change from the crowded Alternative field. I love the music and look forward to working with all the great talent in Country."

Smith joined WRGX two and a half years ago as MD/air talent and was named PD six months ago. Prior to that, he worked at WDRE-FM/Long Island for three years and at WRCN-FM/Long Island for two years.

Regarding the stations' coverage area, Blatter said, "Our signals match very well with where Country listeners live in the New York area. Traditionally, Country does the best in New York's non-ethnic suburbs, and we'll cover the three main suburban areas of New York."

Both Blatter and Odyssey President/CEO Mike Kakoyiannis have ties to New York Country. Kakoyannis was Exec. VP for Westwood One's radio station group when it owned WYNY/New York, and Blatter was WYNY's MD from 1988-91.

Blatter says Y107 will be focusing on music from the late '80s through today. However, he notes, "We have a lot of catching up to do, since a lot of the market's been without a Country station for almost a year."

Meszaros To Manage WSB Radio Group

By the end of this year, WATL-TV/Atlanta LSM David Meszaros will return to radio as Station Manager of crosstown Cox Radio's WSB Radio Group. He'll succeed Jim Prain, who recently left to become VP/GM of Cox/Tampa. The Atlanta quartet consists of Cox-owned News/Talk WSB-AM, AC WSB-FM, and Cox-operated Sports WCNN-AM and NAC/Jazz WJZF-FM.

According to WSB Radio Group VP/GM Marc Morgan, "We're fortunate to have David join us in this important position, as he enjoys an excellent reputation in the radio industry and in Atlanta's media community. He's recognized for excellent people skills and a strong work ethic, as well as for his operational management ability."

Prior to joining WATV-TV, Meszaros was VP/GM of WZGC-FM/Atlanta. His past radio credits also include stints as VP of WZLX/Boston and GSM of KFMK/Houston.

FCC Ordered To Act On RTNDA Petition

The U.S. Court of Appeals in Washington, DC last week ordered the FCC to act on a nine-year-old petition submitted by the Radio-Television News Directors Association (RTNDA) that asked the Commission to abandon the personal attack and editorial rules left intact following the repeal of the Fairness Doctrine in 1983.

On September 16, RTNDA petitioned the court for a writ of mandamus asking that the FCC be required to act on an earlier petition filed by the electronic media association. In that petition, filed in August 1987. RTNDA urged the Commission to invalidate the rules on the grounds that they were extensions of the general fairness doctrine and were therefore on shaky constitutional ground. In 1990, RTNDA filed a second petition making the same request, but no action has been taken by the FCC.

The Court's one-sentence order gives the FCC until December 26

What we want is to see them repeal the damn rules," outgoing RTNDA President David Bartlett told R&R. "If not, we want them to at least react to our petition. The fact that the court ordered the Commission to react is very good news."

But RTNDA Counsel Kathleen A. Kirby put the order in seasonal perspective. "We expect they (FCC) will ask for more time because it is the day after Christmas," she said. "And they'll probably get it in the spirit of the season."

Westinghouse, Infinity Shareholders Give Nod To Merger

Calling it a "stroke of genius" and predicting a "hell of a ride," Westinghouse Electric Corp. shareholders Tuesday (12/10) approved the merger with Infinity Broadcasting by a wide margin. Earlier in the day Infinity shareholders gave their approval to the deal. The merger was approved by the Department of Justice on November 12. It now must receive the FCC's blessing before it can close.

Newspaper/Radio Cross-Ownership Discussion Extended

n response to a petition from law firm Haley, Bader & Potts, the FCC $\,$ has extended the comment deadline on the proposed changes to its newspaper/radio cross-ownership waiver policy.

The Commission extended the comment deadline to February 7, 1997 because that date coincides with the deadline for comments on the proposed radio/television cross-ownership waiver policy.

'Given the similarity of the issues ... we believe it is appropriate that they share the same comment and reply comment deadlines," the Commission wrote. "This will enable interested parties to submit more complete comments regarding the interrelated issues raised by these separate proceedings."

THE POWER TO COMPETE... THE POWER TO WIN... THE POWER OF THE BENCHMARK

The Most Powerful Perceptual Research in Radio

You're battling two format competitors. They're all testing the music you're testing. They've got clusters, you've got clusters. Sound familiar?

The answer is differentiation. Not just with music but with what goes on in between the music. With stationality. And you won't get those answers in an auditorium test. The key is perceptual research and the acknowledged leader is...

The Benchmark Company

We know how to listen to listeners without any agendas... so you get the most honest, and actionable answers.

Benchmark Perceptual Research uses open-ended questions... no boiler plate B.S. or endless agree/disagree questions which are the equivalent of 15 minutes of mental cruise control.

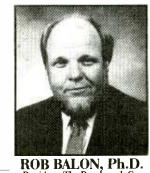

The Arbitron diary is a blank page. Top-of-mind awareness wins. Benchmark's open ended approach replicates, in a telephone interview, what the diary keeper faces. That's how our clients get the knowledge they need to win.

The Benchmark Perceptual Study.

Modern AC & The 25-44 Revolution

By Alan Burns

O ver the past two years, popular music tastes have changed faster than at any time since the British Invasion in the '60s and the Disco explosion in the '70s. In slightly more than 24 months, contemporary stations targeted to 25-44 year olds have seen a rapid turnover in the kind of songs testing best with their targets.

Starting with the Spin Doctors' "Two Princes," Hot AC stations began to see songs by artists such as Melissa Etheridge, Natalie Merchant, and the Gin Blossoms supplant '80s artists such as Phil Collins and Elton John at the top of their music tests AND less and less compatibility between the two musical styles.

In recent months, that turnover has slowed down: The revolution in audience tastes is over — and Hootie & The Blowfish won.

A few stations elected to stay focused on the older artists; most Hot ACs began adding the new artists and slowly decreasing the old-guard titles

However, a smaller group of programmers and operators — perhaps no more than a dozen major-market operators — recognized an opportunity to own an extremely popular form of music and have created "Modern AC" stations specializing in the new genre of adult-appeal music.

Now, many operators are wondering if Modern AC is a format that could generate ratings at their stations, but most have questions:

- What exactly is Modern AC?
- Does it work?
- Is it a real format or just a fad?
- Who's the target?What's the future.
- What's the future of Modern AC?

Our goal here is to answer those questions.

What Is Modern AC?

The table at upper right displays the results from a music analysis of one broadcast day for six individual stations programming a form of Modern AC. Every song was given one of six sound codes:

Pop/AC: Songs that got immediate airplay on AC stations. Example: Eric Clapton's "If I Could Change The World."

Alternative/AC: Songs that started on Alternative stations and crossed to AC. Example: Collective Soul's "The World I Know."

Alternative/CHR: Songs that started on Alternative stations, were also played on many CHR stations, but didn't receive widespread AC play. Example: Seven Mary Three's "Cumbersome."

Alternative: Songs that started on Alternative stations and didn't receive CHR or AC airplay.

Alternative Gold: '80s songs that sound like the forerunners of today's pop alternative. U2, R.E.M., etc.

Other: Everything else. Novelty songs, rhythmic songs, etc.

The single largest musical component of these stations is Alternative-to-AC crossovers, making up about 40%-45% of all the music played.

Next is Alternative Gold with 20%-25% of the musical day.

Pop/AC accounts for about 20% of the music at Modern AC veterans KYSR/L.A. and KFMB/San Diego and well into the 20%-plus range at sister stations WSHE/Miami and WDIZ/Orlando.

Alternative-to-CHR crossovers play a fairly small part in this format. Half the stations are in single-digits; the others play 13%-15%.

The least important single type of music for these stations is alternative songs. Look at the numbers. From these percentages, it's apparent that these are not Alternative stations — not even close. Modern AC is based on AC-compatible music.

The following table breaks down Modern AC music by era:

ages, and in the spring L.A. Arbitron, KYSR ranked as the market's No. 1 AC.

Other Modern ACs seem to be happening even faster, either in Arbitrons or perceptual studies. KFMB/San Diego became No. 4 in 25-54 in its second full book as a Modern AC (Winter '96), and it stayed in the Top 5 this spring. KMXB/Las Vegas launched Modern AC this spring and went from tenth to fifth in 25-54 this summer.

AC WJQI/Norfolk shifted to Modern AC and the WPTE calls in March; 120 days later the station dominated partisanship among the market's AC and CHR stations with women 18-44. As of this writing, WPTE ranks No. 3 in 25-54 — five months after launch.

Format Or Fad?

Even with a long track record there are no guarantees that a format or style will continue to work in the future. However, short-lived formats such as Disco are based on fads, while long-term successes are built on trends. Modern AC capitalizes on a couple of trends:

Percentage Of Modern AC Music (By Era)

		95-96	90-94	85-89	80-84	70s
	KYSR/L.A.	43	28	16	11	0.5
Ŕ	KFMB/SD	53	15	16	15	1
ß	WDIZ/Orlando	43	29	16	9	2
	WSHE/Miami	49	23	14	13	0.4
	WPTE/Norfolk	57	17	11	14	09
	KMXB/Las Vegas	58	28	10	4	0
			Total Control

Modern AC is clearly a '90s-based format; about 66%-75% of its music is drawn from 1990 to today.

'80s gold is the spice of the format. On average, '80s songs represent 20% of the music on the six stations profiled here. However, it's interesting to note that the two veteran stations (KYSR and KFMB) play more '80s gold (about 27%) than the upstarts (18%). That's a difference of about one song an hour.

'70s music is an insignificant part of Modern AC.

Incidentally, all stations are playing between 277 and 329 titles in a single day. The average number of spins for the Top 5 titles at each station — a reliable method of recording the turnover times of their power lists — ranges from five to 7.2 per day (every 3.5 to five hours).

Does Modern AC Work?

It looks like in most cases Modern AC stations succeed faster than most new station launches. KYSR/Los Angeles was arguably the first station to focus on Modern AC, starting more than a year ago. KYSR rapidly captured positive im-

1) Most non-ethnic adults grew up listening primarily to Rock-based (as opposed to Urban- or Countrybased) musical styles. Pop/Alternative is a Rock-based style.

2) Boredom with '80s artists, and discomfort or satiation with Urbanbased music.

In addition, Modern AC represents fresh new sounds and artists, some of which are developing into major stars with wide recognition.

Like any format, Modern AC could suffer down the road if it becomes too extreme musically. For example, if it takes excursions into harder Alternative, or if the artists and music become too predictable and formulaic.

We think one key to Modern AC longevity is common to most other formats: These stations must not be one-dimensional in the long-term. In addition to music, they need to become fully developed radio stations with personality, promotion, and occasional surprises for the listener. Take '60s Oldies as an example: The Oldies stations that were just juke-boxes were quick up-quick down disappointments; those that developed other dimensions generally

Percentage Of Playlist (By Musical Style)

	Pop/AC	Alt/AC	Alt/CHR	Alt	Alt Gld	Other
KYSR/L.A.	20	41	13	0	25	0.5

WDIZ/Orlando	28	45	3	0	18	6

have been extremely successful.

Ultimately, we feel Modern AC stations will see one of two things happen over the next two or three years. If the current Pop/Alternative style continues to be as positive — and product from the record companies as available — as present, then the Modern AC of the future will sound much as it does today.

On the other hand, if tastes and product releases change significantly, those Modern ACs that remain responsive enough and wide enough to change with the times will become their market's most successful Hot AC.

Who's Listening?

The success of stations such as KFMB and KYSR and the early returns on KMXB indicates that Modern AC is an extremely strong 25-54 format.

The appeal of Modern AC music has spread upward to 35-44 rapidly. In many markets, Pop/Alternative montages rank No. 1 in appeal with 35-44 female AC fans. Our experience is that the initial audience surge will be among 25-29s, then 30-34, and finally into 35-44. In some cases, depending on market makeup, 18-24s may come in first because they are often the first to try anything new on the dial.

In the Spring '96 Arbitron, the strongest demo cell by share for KYSR and KFMB was 25-34 women. Their strength in that cell, plus spillover into men and women 35-44, gave both stations Top 5 ranking in adults 25-54.

The Marketing Challenge

While Modern AC songs dominate the AC charts, the artists responsible for the music are generally much less well-known than the '80s AC stars. That's only natural: Phil Collins, Rod Stewart, Elton John, etc. have been around since the '70s.

At this moment, however, adult focus group responses to music by Natalie Merchant, Blues Traveler, and Collective Soul in many cities would be "Who?"

Also, there is as yet no "word"
— no one simple verbal label — for the Modern AC style of music.
When asked to define or label the music played on stations such as KYSR or KFMB, listeners frequently resort to describing it as music that "used to be Alternative."

Therefore, it's unlikely that either billboards or TV commercials featuring the core artists by name would be effective for Modern AC. Nor is there yet a simple word or phrase that clearly communicates the position. Given the era-focus of the format, best bets so far are "80s And '90s" or "Today's Music."

Modern AC needs to meet this challenge in four ways:

- 1) Advertise using TV commercials featuring big songs for the audience, while including the better-known artist names.
- 2) Use a variation of "'80s And '90s" or "Today's Music" as the unifying statement.
- 3) Help develop artist awareness, and be patient while it happens.
- 4) Keep in close touch with the audience to see if and when a listener-based term emerges.

Because the music's popularity presently greatly exceeds the artist's recognition, there's a research ramification as well. When Modern AC's potential is probed in research using artist descriptors instead of music montages, the position's potential is usually underestimated.

In other words, the Modern AC potential is usually larger than research indicates, if the research describes the format using artist names instead of playing music samples. Keep this in mind when researching your market.

Is It A New Format?

Modern AC pulls audiences from several directions, primarily AC, CHR, Alternative, and Rock competitors. You could call it a new format or simply a new strain of AC. Having a female base, 25+ strength, and a high component of AC and AC crossover music argues in favor of calling it a "new category of Hot AC."

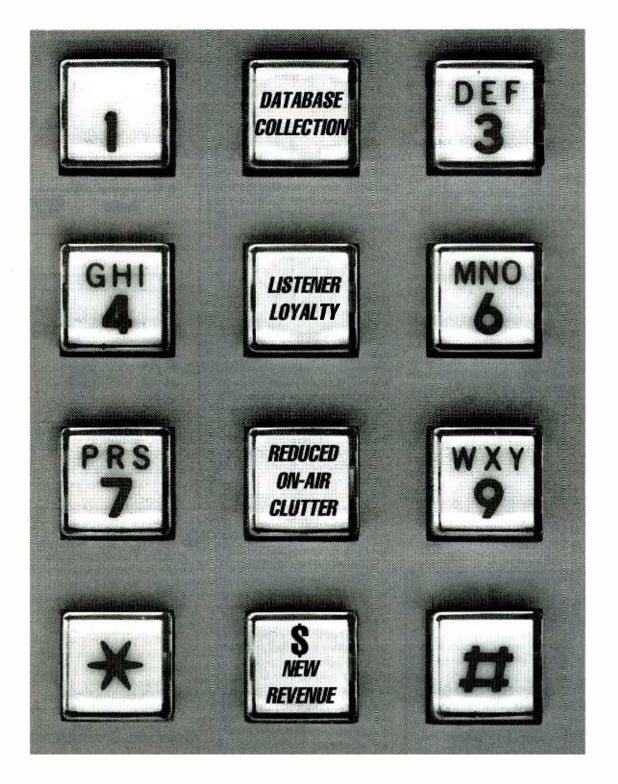

For sales purposes, also, it may be best to describe Modern AC to advertisers and buyers as a version of AC. That description will produce less "wait and see" reaction than presenting it as a new format. (By the way, Modern AC has the advantage of appealing to the "buyers' demo.")

Whether you think of Modern AC as a new format or a variant of AC, the important thing to keep in mind is that Modern AC fulfills one of the critical laws of marketing: "Set up a new category you can be first in!"

Dealing With Performance Problems

S tations don't have radio station problems; they all boil down to people problems. Ask yourself which departments aren't performing, then determine who's ultimately accountable for that department and go from there. In the end, you'll find it's a people issue.

Nine Key Questions

When it comes to addressing non-performing individuals, ask these nine questions:

- 1) Does the person know what's expected of him or her? Are you sure? Is it addressed in writing? Where's the job description? Remember: Just like a first-time radio advertiser who says, "It didn't work," it all starts with unrealistic up-front expectations.
- 2) Does the person know the level of performance expected? Are you sure? Is it documented?
- 3) Has the employee ever performed his or her job at an acceptable level before? If so, then the answers to questions one and two obviously are "yes." Equally obvious, something is going on right now that is the root of the problem.
- 4) Is something going on at home or at work that's getting in the way of the employee achieving success?
- 5) Has the job changed? Has the bar been raised so high that this person is no longer able to perform at an acceptable level?
- 6) Does the employee do a good job?
- 7) Are you as the employer providing the tools and adequate resources to perform the

- 8) Is over-qualification or an inability to do the job an issue?
- 9) Does the employee know that he or she isn't performing at the level at which you need them to perform? How explicitly have you communicated this point?

Other Issues To Address

At some point in time, if nonperformance continues, the issue of further employment enters into the picture. Some issues to address are:

- How well have you documented the situation? Have you had and kept notes from conversations with the non-performer? How about written memos regarding the same?
- How objective are you being with this person? Are there any personal issues between you that might be affecting the professional relationship? Consider seeking the advice of your supervisor or legal counsel (if necessary).
- If a change needs to be made, who'll be the replacement? Have you started building "bench strength" inside the station? How about looking outside the station? Where would you start? (Now's the time to be addressing these issues with yourself—not the day the person is gone.)

• Refamiliarize yourself with the cost of turnover. Loss of time invested in training the departed employee. Loss of pay given to the departing employee. Loss of time invested in the recruitment process by wooing the departed employee. Loss of the cost of mistakes made by the departing employee during his or her first year on the job. Loss of knowledge only the departing had

Termination Guidelines

when leaving.

Finally, if the time comes when you decide the radio and the non-performer need to go separate ways, consider the following guidelines to make the termination process less traumatic for both parties:

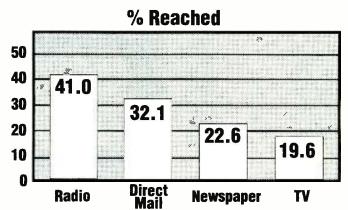

- 1) Get the right attitude. Remember, this is best for the employee and the radio station. Don't rob the person of a valuable career that he or she will have somewhere else.
- 2) Remove any and all emotional attitudes you might have when breaking the news to the employee. In today's litigious society, it could haunt you later if any comment or movement is perceived as anything less than logical and fair. Be cautious of becoming defensive.
- 3) State the purpose of the session right away. Avoid building up tension
- 4) Let the person know your decision is final. Don't appear to be tentative.
- 5) Give straight, honest reasons for the dismissal.
- 6) Let the person know you feel the disappointment to be mutual. If justified, take some responsibility for the relationship not working out.
- 7) Make sure the person being let go knows his or her skills will be used effectively somewhere else. If possible, provide letters of recommendation.
- 8) Avoid focusing on personal shortcomings. Emphasize financial conditions that exist (return on investment, fewer people for the same jobs at hand) instead.
- 9) Hold back from offering unsolicited advice.
- 10) Don't enter into an argument regarding subjective issues. Remind the departing employee that your decision is final.
- 11) If the person being terminated starts grasping at straws or making excuses, bring him or her back to the real reason for the termination.
- 12) Conduct the session early Monday morning. This will give the person the entire work week to find a new job. Next best time: At the end of the day, as soon as you've made your decision.
- 13) Meet one-on-one and, if possible, in the person's office. That way, when it's time to leave, you can exit and keep control.
- 14) End as quickly as you can. Wrap up all particulars in one session, and encourage the person to leave as soon as possible. Tip: Have a termination checklist on hand reminding you of all the issues that need covering.

By following a step-by-step system when relieving an employee of his or her duties, you'll reduce the possibility of a hostile reaction or — even worse — wasted time and money in a litigious situation that's cost-prohibitive (in time and money).

Most important: Smart and slow hiring. This can help you avoid the non-performance and — ultimately — the termination problem altogether.

The 12 Real Secrets To Marketing Success

By Beau Phillips

The fall book is under way, but is your station ready? The songs and slogans have been tested. The music is rotating just right. The airstaff has trimmed the fat. That big promotion is set to go, and your consultant says your station sounds better than ever. But before you head for the winner's circle, make sure to check your strategic marketing plan.

With consumer loyalty at an alltime low, you can't expect listeners to automatically know the difference between stations. Your station may sound formatically correct, but the real work is just beginning.

In today's competitive environment, good programming is only your admission ticket to the game. Most stations have access to quality research and programming consultants to fine-tune their onair sound. However, it's marketing that focuses the station's image and feeds new cume into the station. Once this new cume is in the door, it's up to programming and promotions to drive Time Spent Listening.

In the packaged goods industry, this concept is known as "branding." A worthy product is assumed. Then, marketing invents icons such as the Nike "swoosh," Budweiser's frogs, or the Energizer bunny to stimulate demand. Ultimately, it's marketing that shapes the perception of a product, while advertising and promotion generate a call to action.

As an industry, radio broadcasters underestimate and misunderstand marketing. Too often, marketing is confused with promotion and advertising tactics.

• Marketing is a framework for the station's listener benefits. It attracts new cume by focusing the station's strategic differentiation.

• Promotion usually speaks to your existing audience; the creative tactics used to titillate your audience.

• Advertising sells your product, usually via external media.

Radio may be the most difficult product to market. It's free, sitting just a centimeter away from your free competitor. Your station cannot be seen, held, tasted, worn, or taken for a test drive. If that weren't enough, consumers can change brands with a simple punch of a button. Even when they are using your product, they may not even know it. Radio stations change formats and personalities like underwear, yet we expect listeners to recall precisely what they listened to.

Faced with a similar challenge, look at how brilliantly NBC-TV has used marketing to bolster its image and ratings dominance. With its programming lineup solidified, it packaged its shows with breakthrough image marketing. Even its weaker programs are thriving under the aura of NBC-TV's look. Innovative peacock graphics and "seamless" show changes are as entertaining as the programs themselves. The same opportunity exists for radio.

The challenge now facing radio is to develop a keen sense of what I call "mega-marketing." It incorporates strategic planning, marketing marksmanship, and promotional wizardry. Think of your competitive challenge as a blank canvas. Your strategy is the pencil sketch of your painting, and the promotional tactics and advertising represent the colors. Strategic marketing weaves a thread of continuity through every facet of a station's presentation. Together, they create the listener's perception of your station. The first step is to create a comprehensive marketing blueprint spanning the next 12 months.

Marketing is where the rubber meets the road. Convincing, ongoing marketing is the critical link between your product and the audience. It maximizes your station's key benefit and represents your most potent weapon to trigger listener recall.

Effective marketing is rooted in focus and perception, not about the merits of a product. In the 1970s, Japanese products were regarded as cheap, inferior-quality junk. Twenty years later, companies such as Nikon, Sony, and Lexus are world-class brands. Has the quality improved? Probably, but the marketing has been superior.

Beau Phillips is a Fairfield, CT-based marketing consultant. His background includes 14 years as GM and PD at KISW/Seattle as well as Sr. VP/ Mktg. at VH1. He is currently consulting CBS-TV and Sony. Reach him by phone at (203) 254-9403 or e-mail at BeauPhilps@aol.com

The 12 Commandments Of Mega-Marketing

N o station wins with music alone. If that were the case, digital cable audio would be winning. Once your strategy is focused, the challenge becomes growing the station with targeted marketing and creative promotion ideas.

1) Strategy comes first, then creativity. This is not an either-or proposition. Several years ago, VH1 gave away 36 Corvettes in the biggest promotion in its history. After spending $4 million to advertise the contest, the ratings didn't move. The creative was good, but the strategy was wrong. What may have been a smart launch for a car-racing channel was a bust for a music video network.

2) Differentiation. Also known as "unique selling proposition." To quote Reis & Trout, "If you can't be first in a category, set up a new category to be first in."

3) Perception. Listeners don't distinguish between station image promotions and car-dealer remotes. Both air on your station and contribute to your station's perception. In other words, be careful not to let your weaknesses neutralize your strengths.

4) Create a master plan. Everybody, from your group VP on down, must buy into the station's strategic plan. It reduces friction and encourages synergy between the programming, promotion, and sales departments.

5) Think like a fan. To quote the late promotion wizard John McGhan, "Give listeners a prize they can't buy." Create an experience and engage their imagination. Make the listener a star — not just the 10th caller.

6) Create talk. Not only is word-of-mouth the most credible form of advertising, it outperforms TV, print, and outdoor combined. Design your station campaigns and promotions to stimulate "water-cooler talk."

7) It ain't the meat, it's the motion. Lotto has rendered most cortesting meaningless. Yet, stations still insist on devoting hours of airtime to servicing the 5% who play contests instead of the 95% who won't. The prize is secondary to the entertainment value in what you create. When you fail to entertain, you fail.

8) Just say now. Radio has the singular advantage of immediac. Be opportunistic and seize the moment. John Parikhal, consultant extraordinaire, recommends that stations set 50% of their promotion budget in fixed plans, leaving the remaining half for opportunistic promotions.

9) When they zig, you zag. In the mid-'80s, big corporate advertisers were spending millions on Super Bowl TV campaigns while Disney stole everyone's thunder with its "I'm going to Disneyland" campaign. Total cost? $50,000 to each team's quarterback. There is one format that shoulc embrace this philosophy as the foundation of its promotional strategy.

10) When a promotion works, make it a station franchise. V/hen you connect with an idea, make it a recurring, signature event. Only through repetition will listeners credit your station.

11) The added-value tripod. The advertising community has radio sales staffs jumping like circus dogs. If not managed, sales promotions will swallow your format. Adopt a "tripod" philosophy wherein promotions must work for the station, the listener, and the client. Unless all three legs stand, the concept collapses.

12) Get out of town. Get your smartest, most creative brain trust offsite three to four times per year. Brainstorm. Plan. Create. Bond.

Great radio stations evoke an emotional response and make listeners laugh, or cry, or think. The best radio stations will rise to the occasior and reinvent themselves, rather than regurgitating the "cash call," "enter-to-win" baggage that we've been dragging around for years.

Really BIG Stories

Michael Jackson's future son, Madonna's daughter, Alanis Morissette's angry young soundalikes, Courtney Love's acting career, Kiss's and the Sex Pistols's reunion tours, the Fugees' hit covers. Wal-Mart vs. Shervi Crow. Tupac Shakur's death, unoriginal British rock bands, and David Lee Roth being in-then out of Van Halen are among the 96 biggest stories of '96 (Us).

Entertainment Weekly runs five photos from the forthcoming How-

Everyone Wants To Be A Critic

Fiona Apple's "Tidal," Wilco's "Being There," and Tom Waits's "Closing Time" are the three LPs that never leave Winona Ryder's trailer while she's making the "Alien Resurrection" movie (Entertainment Weekly).

"With a lot of the music, it's hard to distinguish one band from another. I've seen A&R people, who know music better than anyone, hear a record come on, and even they can't tell which band it is" -Island Exec. VP Hooman Majd offers one explanation as to why alternative rock's sales are slowing (Time).

"If I could have written decently. I never would have done anything but that" - Mercury President/ CEO Danny Goldberg gets wistful in the middle of his eight-page feature/interview with Us.

Each week R&R sneaks a peek through the nation's consumer magazines in search of everything from the sublime to the ridicu-lous in music news. R&R has not verified any of these reports.

RTNDA President Bartlett Resigns

ongtime Radio & Television News Directors Association (RTNDA) Prez David Bartlett resigned Saturday (12/7), citing philosophical differences over his role in the organization. A search committee, headed by KMTV-TV/Omaha ND Loren Tobia, has been formed to find a new president. Bartlett will remain on board through December 31.

While the decision reportedly came amidst pressure from RTNDA's board of directors, Bartlett — who had a year left on his contract - told ST, "The board was not prepared to give me the authority to do the job as I feel the members deserve it should be done. Under those circumstances, I think someone in my position should resign."

Until a successor is named, the president's duties will be divided among board members, with day-to-day duties handled by RTNDA Dir./Ops Michelle Franklin.

WNEW/NY OM Steve Young amicably parts ways with the station.

WXTU/Philly PD Kevin O'Neal exits, citing philosophical differences.

Concurrent with Jacor's takeover of Gannett's KIIS-AM & FM/L.A., Nat'l Sales Mgr. Luz Erdmann, Production Dir. Ron Shapiro, overnighter Bruce Vidal, and parttimers Wendy and Todd Violet exit.

In other new Jacor acquisitions news, Hot AC WUSA/Tampa Prez/GM Marc Kaye exits as the former Gannett outlet changes calls to WUKS and the "100.7 Kiss FM" slogan, and KSDO-AM & KKBH-FM/San Diego GM Susan Hoffman exits.

WTIC-AM & FM/Hartford OM Bill Stairs exits. Look for WTIC GM Suzanne McDonald and Mktg. Dir. Steve Salhany to assume Stairs's duties in the interim.

Rumors

- · KHIS/Bakersfield has applied for new calls KSMJ. Will there be a format flip to NAC in its future?
- · Is Guardian VP/Mktg. & Promo Chris Hensley up for the Sr. VP/Promo gig at Revolution?

KIND OF A DRAG - KMXJ/Ft. Smith, AR morning drivers Ed Rush & Alicia Cruize recently held a Drag Queen Olympics that included a poetry reading contest (the "poems" were Alanis Morissette lyrics) and a good of fashioned drag race — up and down the station halls on a child's bicycle. Here's Rush — flanked by the dueling dragsters — getting into the spirit of the festive occasion.

Don Imus and WFAN/NY signed a contract extension that'll keep the syndicated morning mouth in the Sports outlet's lineup for the next seven years. $$$ not disclosed.

Radio & Revenues

ST's all-seeing eye couldn't help but notice that two-page Newsweek (12/16) story on radio entering the golden age - of revenues. Among the highlights:

- Mel Karmazin's statement that he loves traffic jams, because "every time I get stuck at the Lincoln Tunnel, I see my cash flow going up."
- Westinghouse Chairman Michael Jordan's prediction that radio will generate more profit for CBS next year than TV will perhaps $500 million in cash flow.

There appears to be some confusion about Chancellor Broadcasting Co. (Nasdaq: CBCA). A company press release this week pointed out to the trade and financial press that it is not related to any of the other "Chancellors" out there.

Apparently some enterprising journalists have asked Chancellor Broadcasting for information about Chancellor Corp., Chancellor Group, and Chancellor Energy Resources Inc. — companies about which the radio types at Chancellor Broadcasting have no real knowledge.

Incidentally, there are also a Chancellor Computer Corp. and a Chancellor Financial Corp. All but the last are publicly traded.

Radio programmer/consultant/voiceover artist extraordinare Mark Driscoll survived a harrowing day on the links earlier this week. Driscoli — part of a foursome on a Santa Barbara golf course — was alone in a golf cart when he pulled up to the edge of a cliff in order to snap a shot of the ocean view.

The ground beneath him suddenly gave way, plunging Driscoll and the golf cart 120 feet down the rocky cliff — only a four-foot ledge kept him from falling another 100 feet into the Pacific.

Driscoll was airlifted to a hospital where he underwent seven hours of surgery to repair a seriously fractured leg. (He otherwise suffered relatively minor injuries.) He'll recuperate at Goleta Valley Cottage Hospital in ed Tom Miller to PD. Miller has been acting PD since Lee Hansen left to become OM at co-owned KKSF/San Francisco.

WNUA VP/GM Ralph Sherman told R&R, "Paul Goldstein is one of the nation's premier programmers and a founding member of the format. WNUA's programmers have had a reputation as the best in the country. Paul certainly meets and exceeds our desire to continue this tradition. His record speaks for itself, and I'm thrilled to have Paul's style, experience, and expertise as part of the Evergreen family.

"Tom has proven himself as a master in the format," Sherman continued. "And reunited with Paul, he'll continue to keep WNUA one of the most respected NAC stations in the country.

"I'm so excited to be joining Evergreen, a company rich with talent, from the Broadcast Architecture braintrust of Frank Cody, Brian Stone, and Allen Kepler to the programming wizardry of Steve Rivers. I'm looking forward to working for Ralph Sherman and to being reunited with my friend and collaborator Tom Miller," Goldstein told R&R.

"I'm so honored that Ralph and Evergreen COO Jimmy de Castro have put their faith in me," Miller commented. "My expectation is that we are going to do some serious damage to the Chicago radio market."

Koop's statement follows a letter sent by 26 members of Congress most notably Reps. Joseph Kennedy (D-MA) and Ed Markey (D-MA) who also urged the FCC to investigate whether it has jurisdiction to ban liquor ads. "We believe cable and broadcast advertising of hard liquor is detrimental to our children and the public interest," the congressmen wrote. "We urge you to issue a notice of inquiry to ... explore avenues of possible Commission action."

The congressmen also asked the Commission to gather information on the effects of liquor ads on youth, warning that without action, "The airwaves will be flooded with new liquor advertisements nationwide, leaving our children to drown in images of academic and athletic success ... gained by drinking liquor."

The Commission has not yet responded to either letter. Last week the Federal Trade Commission issued subpoenas to Stroh Brewing Co. and Seagram Co. to investigate those companies' advertising practices.

Chong has written a paper arguing that the FTC — and not the FCC has primary jurisdiction over alcohol advertising on radio and television. Her position is a stark contrast to Hundt's:

"I believe that any government decision to limit or ban alcohol advertising should be carefully considered and weighted against its infringement on free speech." Chong proposed that a private group, the National Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependence, should follow through on its proposal to educate the public to counteract the negative effects of alcohol advertising.

The solution is more information, not government censorship," Chong said.

Arista Nabs '96 Label Honors

Arista's strong rhythmic roster and No. 2 finish in Country propelled the label to first place for the year. Arista earns the 1996 Label Performance Review crown on the strength of multiple singles from the multiplatinum "Waiting To Exhale" soundtrack, Toni Braxton's sophomore set, and several country hits from Brooks & Dunn and Diamond Rio.

Strong airplay gives Arista runaway top showings in Urban (outscoring rivals by more than a two-to-one margin), Urban AC and CHR/Rhythmic. The label — which improves its overall share 8.0% to 9.5% from 1995 to '96—also ranks No. 1 in AC and scores a second place finish in CHR/Pop.

Atlantic also ranks No. 1 in four formats: CHR/Pop, Active Rock, Rock, and Alternative. Additionally, Atlantic ranks No. 2 at Hot AC and Adult Alternative and No. 3 at AC. Columbia leaps sixth to third (6.3%-8.6%) thanks to top five finishes in 10 formats (seven of those in the top three). In fourth place is A&M, which rises 5.1% to 6.1% based on its No. 1 showings at Hot AC and Adult Alternative, and strong performances at Rock (No. 2), Alternative (No. 3), and Active Rock (No. 3). MCA finishes fifth overall, boosted by another No. 1 finish in Country

Strong Singles

For Arista, it was a year in which most pop formats felt the force of the "Waiting To Exhale" soundtrack. The album yielded such hits as Brandy's "Sittin' Up In My Room" (No. 3 at Urban and No. 4 at CHR/Rhythmic); Mary

J. Blige's "Not Gon' Cry" (No. 11 at CHR/Rhythmic, No. 13 at Urban, and No. 16 at Urban AC); Whitney Houston's "Exhale (Shoop Shoop)" (No. 16 at AC and No. 19 at Urban AC); and Houston's duet with CeCe Winans, "Count On Me" (No. 5 at Urban AC and No. 14 at AC).

Just as important was the success of "Nobody Knows," the smash debut single by the Tony Rich Project. The song is the No. 2 song at CHR/Pop and AC, No. 8 at CHR/Rhythmic, and No. 9 at Hot AC for '96.

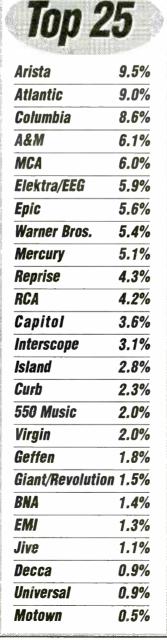

Atlantic's rock juggernaut continues to roll thanks to the triumvirate of Stone Temple Pilots, Seven Mary Three, and Collective Soul. STP's "Trippin' On A POWER OF TOWER — Capitol Records unveiled a newly constructed lobby last week as phase one of an expansion of its world-famous Hollywood headquarters. Celebrating at the label's annual tree-lighting ceremony are (I-r) Hollywood Chamber of Commerce President Emeritus Bill Welsh, Hollywood Council Member Jackie Goldberg, Capitol President/CEO Gary Gersh, L.A. Mayor Richard J. Riordan, Capitol CFO Charles Goldstuck, and Assistant Deputy Mayor Rocky Delgadillo.

Hole In A Paper Heart" is the top song in Active Rock, No. 3 in Alternative, and No. 7 in Rock. Seven Mary Three's "Cumbersome" lands at No. 5 in Rock and No. 14 in Active Rock. Meanwhile, the continued momentum of Collective Soul's 1995 success scores the band the No. 4 track in Rock with "The World I Know." Additionally, the band's "Where the River Flows" places No. 12 in Rock and No. 16 in Active Rock.

Atlantic leads the CHR/Pop arena for its second year. Format label leaders include Everything But The Girl's "Missing" (No. 1 at CHR/Pop, No. 10 at Hot AC, and No. 18 at AC), Donna Lewis's "I Love You Always Forever" (No. 3 CHR/Pop, No. 6 at Hot AC, No. 14 in CHR/Rhythmic, and No. 19 at AC), and Jewel's "Who Will Save Your Soul" (No. 11 at CHR/Pop and No. 19 at Adult Alternative).

Multiformat Successes

Columbia superstar Mariah Carey thrusts the label to a third place showing based on the multi-format success of "Always Be My Baby" and "One Sweet Day," her duet with Boyz II Men. The former takes top honors in CHR/Rhythmic, No. 8 status in CHR/Pop and AC, the No. 11 spot in Urban AC, No. 12 in Hot AC, and No. 14 at Urban. The latter snatches No. 4 in AC, No. 15 in CHR/Rhythmic, No. 17 in Hot AC, and No. 19 in CHR/Pop. Columbia also benefits from the instant and longlasting airplay of the Fugees. The hip-hop trio's remake of Roberta Flack's 1973 smash "Killing Me Softly" lands at No. 3 in CHR/Rhythmic, No. 10 in CHR/Pop, and No. 17 in Urban.

A&M act Dishwalla's "Counting Blue Cars" ranks No. 1 In Alternative and Rock, No. 3 in Active Rock, No. 17 in Adult Alternative, and No. 20 in CHR/Pop. Meanwhile, labelmate Jann Arden's "Insensitive" finishes in fourth place for Hot AC, sixth at AC, and at No. 13 in CHR/Pop. A&M ranks in the top three at all four Rock-based formats thanks to the assistance of Tonic ("Open Up Your Eyes") and Soundgarden ("Burden In My Hand" and "Pretty Noose").

MCA remains dominant in Music City, with George Strait's "Blue Clear Sky" placing second on the year-end Country chart. Other MCA/Nashville superstars enjoying year-end chart success include Reba McEntire, David Lee Murphy, and Trisha Yearwood.

RABBITT EARS — K-tel staffers surprised Eddie Rabbitt following a recent concert with a gold record for the "Academy of Country Mus.c's 101 Greatest Country Hits" box set. (Rabbitt hosted a K-tel infomercial marketing the set.) Hopping to it are (I-r) Business Affairs execs Joan Heyes and Mary Lehnard, Direct Response Marketing exec Bruce Feinstein, Rabbitt, Promotion/Publicity exec Bill Hallquist, Royalty Accounting exec Becky Stumpf, and Business Affairs exec Darlene Parpart.

RR LAW (CHELLER LAND)

Alternative's 'Faceless' Suicide Machine

Hollywood Records is reaping the benefits of Alternative's new-found appetite for ska-flavored singles. "No Face," the debut track from Detroit-based quartet Suicide Machines, finished among those earning second Most Added status at Alternative last week.

The song has picked up some impressive endorsements. Major market stations playing the single include KROQ/Los Angeles, KITS/San Francisco, CIMX/Detroit, WNNX/Atlanta, XTRA-FM (91X)/San Diego, KREV & WREV/Minneapolis, WENZ/Cleveland and KNRK/Portland.

Given the airplay and sales history of many ska-tinged bands, Hollywood Records adopted a low-key marketing and promotion campaign for the project. The album "Destruction By Definition," which was released 10 months ago, has sold just over 34,000 units on the strength of endless touring and simple word of mouth. The set picked up only minimal college and specialty show airplay earlier in the year; touring with such format stalwarts as Social Distortion, Rancid, and the Descendents almost certainly turned that scenario around.

Hits Without The Hype

Maintaining credibility was first and foremost, says Hollywood VP/Promotion Tim Burruss. "We felt the best way to expose the band to core Alternative fans was to get them on the road and let the kids discover them. We didn't want this to hype the band. They don't need it."

After looking at the band's impressive sales based solely on touring, Hollywood decided to accelerate its promotional push. To gauge the band's potential, the label implemented last month a six-city marketing strategy that focuses on L.A., San Francisco, San Diego, Phoenix, Boston, and Salt Lake City and uses a combination of touring, retail price and positioning, and local MTV spots. Says Burruss, "We wanted to concentrate on those markets to see if we really had something."

The strategy worked. Soon afterward, the Alternative grapevine started buzzing about the record. The net result: 20 reported the track before its official December 10 add date. 91X MD Chris Muckley tips his hand to Hollywood. "They are breaking this band the right way. They didn't even mention it to us until we mentioned it to them. [Hyping bands like this] doesn't work. The album is full of great pop-punk ska songs. San Diego is a huge punk/ska market and this band sells out shows here. The music is right up our market."

Given the popularity of the musical style, Muckley is even more selective about what makes it onto the playlist. "There are a lot of good records out right now, and more are coming out in the new year. I can't get too heavy into the sound so we're playing only the best."

Another fan of the track is KNNC/Austin MD Andy Meadors. "The song grooves well with what we're playing. We think it has great potential. This market pretty much mirrors what goes on in California, more so than many people believe. We had a similar ska movement going on the same time it was happening over there."

Looking at the holidays, Burruss also isn't worrying about the record getting lost in the Christmas shuffle. "It's the perfect time of year to come out with this. When you have a credible buzz going on about a band, programmers are going to be there when we come back in the new year."

Holiday Meets Hip Hop

Contemporary hip hop with the soul of Billie Holiday. That's how some Urban programmers are describing "On And On," the debut single from Universal/Kedar vocalist Erykah Badu.

The track, taken from the debut album "Baduizm," was the fourth

Most Added at Urban last week. Key outlets reporting the record include WEDR (99 Jamz)/Miami, WAMO/ Pittsburgh, WCKX/ Columbus, WOWI/ Norfolk, and both Memphis reporters, WHRK and KIMS. Universal Sr Director/Urban Promotion Michael Horton credits a trio of stations WOWL WXYV(V-103)/Baltimore and WCDX/Richmond - as early supporters of the single that helped spur interest in the track.

One PD who has championed the track is WKKV/Milwaukee PD Nate Bell, who calls the song "one of the most interesting tracks I've heard in a while. She has a sound that reminds me of Eartha Kitt and Billie Holiday rolled into one with a funky beat beneath it. The last [few records] I've heard that were that distinctive came from D'Angelo and Maxwell."

Bell, who's spinning the record during WKKV's midday "Quiet Storm" set, believes the audience will embrace Badu's unique blend of traditional jazz and contemporary hip hop. "My thinking was to have something on the air that's interesting and motivates the listener. Her music is so unique that it stands out in the mix."

Badu was the first act signed by Kedar Entertainment President Kedar Massenburg, the former manager of platinum-plus artist D'Angelo, who also executive produced "Baduizm." Badu first came to Massenburg's attention when the performer opened for D'Angelo in her hometown of Dallas.

In setting up the record, Universal initially targeted airplay at mix shows, colleges, and clubs in order to establish a base with younger demos. "We wanted to build a credible street vibe with the younger audience. We knew the record would appeal to everybody, but we also knew that if we didn't establish the younger end first it would be difficult later on."

Universal, which serviced the record in late August, also wanted to ensure that radio had enough time to get a feel for Badu's unique sound. "We wanted to make sure they had time to understand her and what her music is about."

The strategy worked better than imagined. The label initially planned to let radio live with the record during the holidays and then go for adds in early January. Its course changed when listener reaction started blossoming around mid-October. Says Horton, "The buzz became so strong and started coming from all directions, including retail, that we knew demand was there. So we started alerting people around the first week of November that we were officially going for adds the first week of December."

Badu's next promo step is a week-long showcase at New York's Soul Cafe that culminates today (12/13), and some visits to stations in select markets that's set to begin early next year. The album is slated for a February 11 release date.

Talk Radio's Unsung Gatekeepers

□ Call screeners are the doormen behind the velvet ropes

Call screening can make or break a talk show. Hosts might not agree that this is true, but they'll get an argument from one call screeners.

Call screeners usually don't like to be called "screeners." In many cases, they do much more than that, even though screening is incredibly important and requires small amount of skill, knowledge, intuition, and just plain show-biz savvy.

For this column, I talked to a couple of screeners and a talk show host who's worked Mike Caccioppoli with dozens of them. I also dusted off an old copy of the screening guide for the long-defunct ABC Talkradio Network.

WABC/New York's Lou Pate is quick to point out that he's more than just a call screener; he also helps produce evening and overnight talk shows for the station. He runs the board occasionally, even when he's also screening and producing. When Pierre Salinger went public with a claim that TWA Flight 800 was the victim of friendly fire, Pate tracked him down overnight in Cannes, France and got an eighthour jump on the rest of the me-

Like most call screeners (and program directors), Pate knows that a series of good calls can make a talk show sing. Bad calls, especially at the start of a show or the beginning of an hour, can drag it right back down.

Some hosts can make entertainment out of salvaging bad calls, but many cannot. And even the best hosts don't always have the energy or motivation to turn water into wine.

Pate says the best callers are ones with a "bulls-eye, dead-on comment based on what's being discussed. They have to be intelligent and informed." It also helps if they're understandable, lucid, succinct, witty, thoughtful, and able to engage the host in invigorating conversation. Needless to say, it is not so easy to find these people. Especially at

Former WABC screener Mike Caccioppoli says it's important 'not to overscreen. Don't talk to them too much or it sounds second-hand when it gets on the air." Pate agrees, "Don't blurt it all out to the call screener. Save it for the air." This is why many talk show hosts — both radio and TV - won't talk to their guests during commercials. It can waste the spontaneity of a really good

Small Talk

So how does a screener know which caller will be good if he doesn't let the caller reveal much? Caccioppoli says it's "hard to predict how well a caller will translate to the air." He says a few pointed questions and even a little small talk will show how fast they think on their feet. If he tells the caller the point has already been made, and the caller can't come up with a new angle quickly, the caller is out.

Caccioppoli spent most of his WABC career working with the legendary Bob Grant, who was fired earlier this year and now does afternoons for competitor WOR and the WOR Radio Network. "Bob was not very demanding. He doesn't want a screener or producer to control his show. In the case of callers who violated the [conveniently enforcedl once-a-week rule, he liked to be the one who blew them off - on the air."

WABC Caccioppoli savs evening host "Lynn Samuels was the best with young kids. Grant ate them for dinner. He didn't take kids seriously and felt they were calling on behalf of their parents." Caccioppoli says adults don't know who wrote the 10+-year-old ABC Talkradio "General Guidelines and Philosophy Related to the Conduct and Overall Responsibility of a Program Coordinator." But it's productive reading for everyone connected with Talk radio. Here are a few condensed excerpts:

Call Screening Guidelines

- The Coordinator's taste and judgment, experience, and sense of showmanship, awareness, and temperament must always be in sync with the talent and guest. The Coordinator acts as the conduit and control valve of the final product that is accepted or rejected by the
- · A Coordinator's role in Talk radio is one parallel to that of a writer/ director's responsibility for a theatrical production.
- The upcoming phone calls provide information, stimulate conversation, and help to provide constant entertainment. Always check with the talent or guests prior to each program as to any type of calls that might have a high or low priority.
- The first call always helps set the tone and tempo of the hour and program. Let me repeat that. The first call always helps to set the tone and tempo of the hour and program. It's the "opening act" and should be as interesting and provocative as possible.
- Once you have made up your mind to reject a call, be polite and courteous, but always be positive, firm, and direct...Donot change your
- . In between phone calls, listen to the program.

The last one is critical for all kinds of reasons. Screeners have to learn how their pre-air perception of a caller jibes with the on-air version. Screeners need to know what is and isn't being said so the right mix of viewpoints gets on. Screeners need to gauge the tempo of the hour — the topic's "legs" --- and above all, the host's mood.

Most importantly, a screener needs to let the host see them listening to the show. The screener and/or engineer is the only visible audience a talk show host has. Says WABC/New York evening host Lynn Samuels, "The worst thing is talking, reading, or watching TV in the control room. It's very demoralizing."

One way a PD knows if his screeners are on the job (other than by listening, of course) is whether or not he gets calls from listeners upset that they weren't allowed on the air. If you never get these calls, your screener is being too nice.

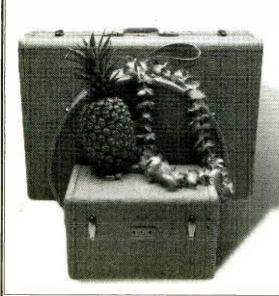

who disagreed with Grant always went to the top of the list because "Grant likes a good fight. If Bob was bored or tired, it was all the more important to give him a stimulating call of disagreement. Other hosts required friendly callers when they were in that kind of mood."

Caccioppoli says it's not easy to get rid of boring callers, especially when they keep calling back. "I wouldn't say we don't want you, but that we're not into that subject or we're backed up and it'll be a long wait. The trouble with that excuse is, as soon as you get the caller off the line, the host starts trolling for calls! Then they call back and yell at you like it's their First Amendment right to get on."

Lou Pate sympathizes, "Sweet little old ladies aren't nearly so sweet when you turn them away. They start gushing words that could make your hair curl. I must admit I have lied to would-be callers on occasion. But some are very persistent.'

This is a good time to mention that, in Talk radio, it is better to make one person upset than thousands of people bored. Not to mention your ratings will drop and you'll all be fired.

Screener-Host Relations

Pate likes it when a host rewards his efforts with an occasional on-air acknowledgment. "It makes you feel like you're a part of the show when they talk to you on the air or at least mention that you're there. I like to talk to some hosts, like Curtis Sliwa, in their headphones during the show. Other hosts, like Lionel, don't like it because it interrupts their rhythm or concentration." Pate also likes to contribute clippings and items he finds on the newswires.

A screener is the first to notice the quirks of the talent. Pate has seen many. "Curtis Sliwa's security blanket is eight milk crates stuffed with meticulously organized information. [WABCto-WOR host] Jay Diamond and his newspapers were like Linus and his blanket. One recent guest host built a circular wall around him with papers, a briefcase, and copy holders. So here he is behind this blockade, and he gets upset when we can't see his hand cues. Another guest host wanted all the lights out, including the control room. He went out for a new can of soda during every break."

When asked if he'd like to work the other side of the glass, Pate says, "Without a doubt. I'd like to get a hold of some of these callers on the air. At least once a show, sometimes more, you think you would have had a better response or been a bit more wittier or informative than the host was. Some more than others."

At WABC, the host, screener, and engineer all have access to the "dump button," which takes the station out of digital-delay when terrible things are said. The button also comes in handy for certain guest hosts, once in a while.

Keeping aggressive, politically connected host-baiters at bay isn't always easy. Caccioppoli says, "Certain pain-in-the-[neck] callers aren't that good about disguising their voices. Some are very good. The worst, as far as getting obscene words or slurs on, is the fakeout who hooks the host and everyone else with a really calm conversation for a minute or two. Then he gets nasty all of a sudden. This means everybody has to scramble for the dump button and sometimes it's too late.'

WABC host Lynn Samuels has qualified praise for call screeners: "Screeners control, not make—pardon me— the show. They may make it or break it within that parameter because we have no idea what's going on in the other room, like who's calling and what they want to talk about."

Samuels adds, "Screeners with their own agenda can skew your whole show. Some try to keep a theme going, thinking it's your theme. Some favor calls about politics or race. I prefer the surprise element — people waiting all day to get something off their chest; it's more spontaneous." Samuels hates sticking to one topic for an entire hour. "The perfect screen is six people talking about six different things. Something you toss out as an aside can totally light up the phones. Something you spend a whole monologue on can result in zero, zip calls. Makes me wonder if I don't have my finger on the pulse of the audience." (She does.)

What Makes Good Talk?

One subject that never misses on Samuels's show is ... mice. "I found one alive once and 30 people gave me 30 ways to kill it. When it finally died and started stinking up my apartment, I got a dozen ideas on how to get rid of it without having to touch it."

Samuels has her own ideas about what makes for good Talk radio: "Many PDs don't like old callers, but I do. I had a terrific 91-year-old lady on today who wouldn't have got by the screener if she'd stated her age. I also like children — the younger the better. Teenagers — even a few of the Howard Stern 'Babba-Booey' types — are smarter than 90% of the adults."

When she runs low on calls, mainly after a sports broadcast or around holidays, Samuels has

Every talk show host should have to screen or engineer at some point just to know what it's like on the other side of the glass.

Maybe they'd appreciate us more.

EXCELLENT WORK! — WCBS Newsradio 88/New York received the 1995 Associated Press Broadcasters Award of Excellence for its coverage of the "Great Hamptons Fire." The station won out over 5000 other entries in recognition of the best overall enterprise or spot news coverage. Looking proud are (I-r) WCBS VP/GM Dan Griffin and Director/News Programming Harvey Nagler, AP VP/Director Broadcast Services Jim Williams and WCBS Assoc. Director/News & Programming Lou Giserman.

Call Screening Guidelines (ABC Talkradio Manual)

- Is it relevant to the subject, guest, or program?
- Does it have a different point of view?
- Will it provoke good listening and conversation?
- · Has the content been brought up or discussed before?
- · Can the caller articulate the information?
- Would you be interested in hearing the question or answer?

How To Reject Calls (ABC Talkradio Manual)

- "Your question/statement is a little too general. Please be more specific. Call back after you've taken the time to write it out. Thank you."
- "Your question/statement is not quite provocative enough for this particular segment. Please call again. Thank you."
- "We'd like to use your call but there are quite a few already waiting and I don't think there will be time. Please try us again, Thank you."
- "We'd appreciate your taking the time to condense what you want to say into 2 or 3 sentences that ask a specific question or make a specific statement. After you've done that, please call us back. Thank you."

a couple of tricks. "I threatened to read [NY Sen.] Al D'Amato's 700-page Whitewater report if no calls came in. Every line lit right up!" She adds, "I don't like to say it, but we all know the hot buttons — guns, abortion, race, homosexuality, English-only, welfare, and anti-Semitism. These topics get action but they bring out the worst in people. It's too easy."

Samuels talks about another call she could have done without: "A new screener put this guy first in the show. All he wanted to talk about was this terrific, wonderful, spectacular TV program that was on at that very moment!"

Samuels came to WABC from Pacifica's listener-supported WBAI. "There was no screening at 'BAI. We used to have 'the Belcher' who called and belched at the worst possible times. Years later, a guy belched on my WABC show. I said, 'You're not the belcher, are you?' He said, 'I am the WBAI Belcher.' I couldn't believe he was still around, and belching, after all these years."

Samuels, herself, used to call talk shows until her heavily New York-accented voice became instantly recognizable. "I called Bob Grant all the time. He would talk to me, but then get upset, call me names, and yell 'Get off my phone!' When I started at WABC, he still called me names."

The bane of every talk show — radio or TV — is the daily Howard Stern/Babba-Booey call. Lou Pate says some, but by no means all, of those callers are easy to spot. "A bunch of college kids in Jersey stalk us with those Stern-type calls. Young males are always suspect. You pretend you don't know what they're up to and park them on hold. But now we have an 800 system with six lines instead of 12, so you don't like to tie up lines if you can help it."

Pate says, "Sometimes it's fun

Screeners control, not make — pardon me — the show. They may make it or break it within that parameter because we have no idea what's going on in the other room.

—Lynn Samuels

to deal with the Stern calls on the air. If the host doesn't hang up, it spoils their fun and they run out of things to say or just start laughing. They go away if they can't get under your skin. If you think you've got a Sterntype call, you can tell them you have a technical problem and need their number to call them back. If they're playing games, they'll laugh and hang up or say, 'You got me!'"

On a related, high-tech note, yours truly thinks a Talk station should (a) not have and (b) make a point of saying it doesn't have Caller ID. Anonymity is the mother of many good calls.

Though some PDs hate the idea of talk show "regulars," others encourage them as personalities in their own right. Mike Caccioppoli gave first-class treatment to regulars like "Frank from Queens" and "John from Staten Island." "The good regulars go to the top of the list. Like a restaurant, they get a better seat, a better table. They go to the head of the line."

Adds Caccioppoli, "Every talk show host should have to screen or engineer at some point just to know what it's like on the other side of the glass. Maybe they'd appreciate us more."

CHR/POP CHART SHARE

In 1996, Atlantic once again tops R&R's CHR/Pop label performance chart, increasing its share from 11.3% in 1995 to 12.5%. Atlantic placed four songs in the year-end Top 25 for a combined 104 weeks, and a grand total of 438,135 combined plays. Helping build Atlantic's lion share this year were hits from Everything But The Girl, Donna Lewis, Jewe, and Collective Soul.

Top 25 hits from the Tony Rich Project and Toni Braxton spent a compined 57 weeks on the chart, helping Arista increase its share from 10.2% in 1995 to 10.7%. Rounding out the big three is Columbia,dramatically improving upon its fifth-place 7.0% last year with 10.5% this year. Helping propel Columbia were two hits from Mariah Carey and one from the Fugees camping out in the Top 25 for 74 combined weeks and 290,291 total plays.

Call 1996 the year of the woman. In the R&R chart year December 8, 1995 - December 6, 1996, Mariah Carey, Alanis Morissette, Celine Dion, Tracy Chapman, and Donna Lewis made the No. 1 spot on R&R's CHR/Pop chart a female-only zone for an incredible 49 of 51 weeks.

Six weeks were occupied by female-voiced records from coed groups Everything But The Girl, the Fugees, and No Doubt. Morissette alone spent 14 weeks at the top with three different songs: "Ironic," "You Learn," and "Head Over Feet."

Everything But The Girl's "Missing" takes the crown as 1996's most-played record, raking up 129,503 plays and spending four weeks at No. 1. Lewis's "I Love You Always Forever" received the most plays in any individual week, tallying 6511 the week of September 13. "Forever" also spent the most weeks at No. 1 (12), followed by Carey's "One Sweet Day" (8), Dion's "Because You Loved Me" (7), and Morissette's "You Learn" (6), "Ironic," and "Head Over Feet" (4 each).

The rest of the year's chart-toppers were Chapman's "Give Me One Reason" (2), the Fugees' "Killing Me Softly" and No Doubt's "Don't Speak" (1 week each), and the only male song to THE YEAR reach the top — the Tony Rich Project's "Nobody Knows" (2 weeks).

It should come as no surprise that with the exception of "One Sweet Day" — which logged several chart weeks in 1995 — and "Head Over Feet" and "Don't Speak" — which are currently high on the chart — all of the aforementioned songs are among the top 10 most-played of 1996.

The men fared better on the CHR/Rhythmic chart, with Keith Sweat living at the No. 1 spot for 18 weeks with two songs: "Twisted" (14) and "Nobody" (4).

Hot Scores

BY KEVIN McCABE

In this week's "Year In Music" special, R&R presents an exclusive look at the top-testing CHR/Pop songs of 1996. See page 30 for the Callout America 96 of 1996. Songs qualified for the year-end survey if they were tested for a minimum of six weeks during R&R's chart year — December 8, 1995 through December 6, 1996. Songs are ranked by total average favorability. Over 19,000 total respondents contributed this year to the Callout America year-end chart!

Alanis Morissette is overwhelmingly CalloutAmerica's Artist of The Year. "Ironic," "Head Over Feet," and "You Learn" place at Nos. 1, 3, and 4, respectively. Additionally "Hand In My Pocket," from her 14 million-selling album "Jagged Little Pill," ranks No. 22. Congratulations to Maverick and Reprise for this unprecedented accomplishment.

Celine Dion ranks No. 2 with "Because You Loved Me" (550 Music), earning a 4.06 average score. "It's All Coming Back To Me Now" proves to be another across-the-board hit and places No. 6 overall.

Newcomers No Doubt (Trauma/Interscope) score big with "Spiderwebs" at No. 7 and "Just A Girl" at No. 20. Their latest hit "Don't Speak" currently tops this week's survey. Also landing two songs in the year-end top 20 are Mariah Carey (Columbia) with" One Sweet Day "at No. 8 and "Always Be My Baby" at No. 12 and Oasis (Epic) with "Champagne Supernova" and "Wonderwall" at Nos. 17 & 18 respectively.

Callout America's 96 of 1996 not only lists the top testers of the year but also lists the airplay hits that drove album sales this year. Use it as a supplement in finding hot recurrents and library titles.

A reminder: This is the last Callout America chart for 1996. The survey returns in the R&R issue dated January 10, 1997.

Superstars Jam In '96!

☐ The biggest and best top year-end charts

A diverse mix of superstars and powerful newcomers dominate both charts. Even more apparent is the difference in the two as Urban AC gets its first 96 Of 1996.

Exclusive artists to Urban AC include Tina Turner, Quincy Jones, Gerald & Eddie Levert, Johnnie Taylor, Randy Crawford, George Benson, and Will Downing, just to name a few. Exclusive to Urban are 112, 2Pac, Bone Thugs-N-Harmony, Immature, Ghost Town DJ's, and Ginuwine, among others.

R. Kelly reigns at the top of the Urban chart with "Down Low (Nobody Has To Know)" and Joe tops Urban AC with "All The Things (Your Man Won't Do)." In fact, this was a big year for male vocalists and groups — 54 out of 96 Urban slots are held by male

Old Becomes New

Remakes played an important role this year, with several re-worked classics rocketing to top five. The Fugees added a hip-hop texture to "Killing Me Softly" (No. 2 Urban/No. 4 Urban AC), which was an international smash when Roberta Flack recorded it 23 years ago. "A Thin Line Between Love & Hate" helped H-Town score a number one Urban hit (No. 6 UAC), which was also a number one pop hit for the Persuaders in 1971. Pure Soul made its way up the Urban chart to No. 7 with a rendition of the O'Jays' 'Stairway To Heaven.'

Speaking of the O'Jays, father and son Gerald & Eddie Levert's collaborative effort on "Wind Beneath My Wings" gained them the No. 8 spot on the Urban AC chart.

The song was previously a number one record for Bette Midler's from the "Beaches" soundtrack. Also dancing to the beat of repeat was Chantay Savage's cover of Gloria Gaynor's "I Will Survive" (No. 1 Urban/ No. 4 Urban AC)

He And What Is He To You.' Newcomer Donell Jones covered "Knocks Me Off My Feet," written and recorded by Stevie Wonder, Babyface also stepped to the forefront and revived the old Shalamar tune "This Is For The Lover In You" and brought it back to the charts (No. 3 Urban/ No. 13 Urban AC) with the help of Jeffrey Daniels. Jody Watley, Howard Hewett, and L.L. Cool J

One of the more memorable songs of the year is Mariah Carey's "One Sweet Day." It's a bittersweet way to remember 2Pac, who died September 13.

Urban Asst. Editor Lanetta Kimmons contributed to this column.

URBAN AC CHART SHARE

 Although this is the first label performance review for the Urban AC chart Arista, Columbia, and Elektra/EEG take their bow as the top three labels with the highest number of plays for both Urban and Urban AC. The remaining seven labels share the spotlight in both formats with Island leading the pack with its top song staying on the chart for a total of 30 weeks followed by Arista (25), A&M, Columb Jive (tied at 24), Atlantic and EEG (tied at 18), Mercury and Warner Bros. (tied at 16), and MCA (14).

Fearsome foursome rule Country as 14 acts debut on Top 15

At a time when many folks proclaim that Country has been taken over by pop sounds, the list of 1996's leading format artists is topped by some talent who are as, ahem, straight-ahead Country as you can get.

As if you needed me to tell you, George Strait is the format's No. 1 artist of the year, with three records that spent a total of six weeks at the top of the charts and a fourth that peaked at No. 3. Two of his hits, "Blue Clear Sky" and "Carried Away," rank second and 10th, respectively, among the year's Top 10 tunes. Incredibly, Strait was almost 3 million chart-points ahead of second place finisher Tracy Lawrence!

Lawrence, of course, was no slouch in '96, scoring a pair of No. 1's among his four releases (his fourth, "Is That A Tear," is still moving up the chart). These include "Time Marches On," the No. 5 song of 1996 and arguably the biggest record of his career.

Close behind Lawrence was Tim McGraw, whose four releases in 1996 include two that spent three Leading the incredible charge of female performers was Shania Twain, who had three records spend four weeks at No. 1. Twain and Faith Hill were among the format's Top 10 overall MVPs, which last year featured Reba McEntire as the loan distaff entrant

New And Notable

New artists were very much on parade again in 1996, as 14 perform-- eight men and six women notched a Top 15 record for the first time. This is the fourth highest artist breakthrough number for a single year in the past 22 years.

Interestingly, through the first six months of 1996, only Linda Davis, Mindy McCready, Jo Dee Messina. and Ricochet were Top 15 newcomers — 10 of the artists turned the trick in just the last half of the year! Six of them - Trace Adkins, Gary Allan, Deana Carter, David Kersh, Mila Mason, and Kevin Sharp hit that mark for the first time in just the last few weeks.

A total of 264 records charted in 1996, a rise from last year's 257 and tying 1991's total. Of those, 131 peaked at or above No. 15 and were divided among 64 different artists. No duets between two otherwise solo acts placed a song that reached the Top 15.

The breakdown for recent years

Year	# of artists	Top 15s	Charted records
• '95:	60	132	257
• '94:	54	136	262
• '93:	61	146	244
• '92:	55	138	260
• '91:	66	135	264
• '90:	68	146	257
• '89:	62	139	257
• '88:	70	142	258
• '87:	68	139	256

The 14 artists achieving Top 15 status for the first time in '96 accounted for 20 of the 131 Top 15 hits and for 14 of the Top 96 of '96. The acts/Top 15 hits comparisons for the last few years are: '95, 16/25; '94, 10/21; '93, 13/17; '92, 7/14; '91, 19/30; '90, 9/15; '89, 7/ 10; '88, 8/12; and '87, 9/15.

COUNTRY CHART SHARE

The MCA juggernaut continued to roll toward its guest of "Country Label of the Decade" in 1996 with an unprecedented sixth consecutive year as Country Label of the Year.

For the fifth consecutive year, Arista is the format's No. 2 label, and is the only other imprint to post double-digit chart shares. The jump of the year belongs to Mercury. Missing from last year's Top 10, the label increases its chart share by 2.5% to place seventh for '96. An honorable mention goes to Curb, which leaps from sixth to third while increasing its share by 1.8%.

MCA wins the No. 1 battle as well, spending nine weeks on top of the charts with six different records from four separate artists. Arista also places second here, nabbing eight weeks at the top spot with six different songs from three individual acts. Epic places third with six weeks at No. 1 with six different records from five performers.

MCA leads the way with the most Top Five records at 10, with Arista close behind at nine. Capitol finishes with eight, with Atlantic, Epic, and Mercury next with seven apiece.

As you might expect from the Label of the Year, MCA is No. 1 in Top 15s, leading the way with 21. Arista comes in second with 15 and Atlantic finishes with 12.

McBride, John Michael Montgomery, Robert Ellis Orrall, Larry Stewart, Doug Supernaw, and Clay Walker — were represented in this year's Top 15s by the same folks as last year - Byrd, Hill, Keith, McBride, Montgomery, and Walker along with Doug Supernaw making a return.

• Class of 1992: Of the seven acts reaching Top 15 for the first time in '92 -- Confederate Railroad, Billy Ray Cyrus, Radney Foster, Tracy Lee Roy Parnell, Michelle Wright, and Wynnona only Lawrence, Parnell, and Wynnona were counted among those ranks this · Class of 1991: An all-time high 19 acts had first-time Top 15s in '91 Brooks & Dunn, Mark Collie, Rob Crosby, Davis Daniel, Billy Dean, Diamond Rio, Sammy Kershaw, Hal Ketchum, Little Texas, Ray Kennedy, Shelby Lynne, McBride & the Ride, Pirates Of The Mississippi, Collin Raye, Mike Reid, Remingtons, Pam Tillis, Aaron Tippin, and Trisha Yearwood. In '95, nine of them had Top 15s; in '94 it was 11. This year it was down to eight - Brooks & Dunn, Dean, Diamond Rio, Kershaw, Raye, Tillis, Tippin, and Yearwood.

Number Ones

Thirty artists accounted for 41 No. 1 songs in 1996. In 1995, 29 acts put 45 records on top. In 1994, 29 acts accounted for 28 No. 1 records.

Eight artists scored multiple charttoppers. Posting three records at No. 1 were Alan Jackson, George Strait, and Shania Twain. Those with a pair of No. 1s were Brooks & Dunn, Tracy Lawrence, Patty Loveless, Tim McGraw, and Bryan White. Of the 14 acts reaching the Top 15s for the first time, three notched No. 1s - James Bonamy, Paul Brandt, and Ricochet.

NASHVILLE THIS WEEK

What A Difference A Year Makes

☐ Rimes, Carter reach star status; veteran acts prosper with tours, TV, films

If you don't think things can change in a year, talk to two of 1996's biggest country success stories: LeAnn Rimes and Deana Carter. Most country fans had never heard of them 12 months ago, but now Rimes and Carter can claim platinum albums

Make that double-platinum for Rimes, whose MCG/Curb debut album's sales were fueled by the title track, "Blue." And when Carter was wandering around the Fan Fair press room in June, she couldn't have predicted that her Capitol Nashville debut album — "Did I Shave My Legs For This?" — would attain platinum status just a few months later.

The Tours

A list of RIAA certifications appears below, but Shania Twain made history when her Mercury/Nashville album "The Woman In Me" reached sales of 8 million to become the best-selling album by any female country artist. Even more remarkable, Twain accomplished this without touring.

Others in the year's multiplatinum club took the traditional approach: Garth Brooks, Travis Tritt, Alan Jackson, George Strait, and Vince Gill embarked on extensive tours. Another tour resulted in the marriage of Tim McGraw and Faith Hill during their "Spontaneous Combustion Tour"

Those were domestic tours, but artists performing in Europe included Alison Krauss & Union Station, the Mavericks, Don Williams, Victoria Shaw, and Kenny Rogers. Arista/Nashville's BR5-49 made numerous European appearances and traveled to Japan for a music festival that also featured Toby Keith, Ronna Reeves, and Mark Collie.

TV & Movies

The year also saw several country artists making guest appearances on network television shows that aren't usually known for their music. Naomi Judd covered both drama ("The Client") and comedy ("3rd Rock From The Sun"). In the sitcom realm, Alan Jackson guested on "Home Improvement" and Trisha Yearwood visited "Ellen."

Billy Dean made his acting debut on "Lois And Clark: The New Adventures Of Superman," while Bryan White was seen in the day-time drama "The Bold And The Beautiful." Barbara Mandrell filmed episodes of "Dr. Quinn, Medicine Woman" and "Baywatch."

Travis Tritt co-starred in the made-for-TV, holiday-themed movie "Christmas In My Hometown." On the big screen, meanwhile, Dwight Yoakam earned high marks for his role in the film "Sling Blade."

Alison Krauss contributed a track to the film "Twister," while Faith Hill was featured on the "Mr. Wrong" soundtrack. And George Jones, Patty Loveless, and Mary Chapin Carpenter recorded tracks for the "Tin Cup" ST.

Bits 'N' Pieces
It was a year when the Beach
Boys performed at Fan Fair and Michael Bolton appeared on the CMA Awards show. Other tidbits and trivia for 1996:

- Garth Brooks declined to accept the American Music Awards trophy for Artist of the Year because he thought the honor should have gone to Hootie & The Blowfish.
- A Harris poll concluded that the Statler Brothers are the nation's second-most popular musical act. Frank Sinatra came in first, with Reba McEntire placing third.

- Tom Wopat was ousted after a three-month tenure hosting TNN's "Prime Time Country." Contemporary Christian singer-songwriter Gary Chapman later replaced him.
- In July, the "Fruit Of The Loom All-Star Country Fest '96" attracted more than 250,000 people to the Atlanta Motor Speedway. The concert featured Alan Jackson, Alabama, Hank Williams Jr., Pam Tillis, Patty Loveless, Tracy Byrd, the Charlie Daniels Band, Lee Roy Parnell, and Kenny Chesney.
- And Faith Hill, Trisha Yearwood, and Mark O'Connor performed at the closing ceremonies of the Olympic Summer Games in Atlanta

Country Mines Metal In 1996

Pryan White enjoyed his biggest year ever in 1996.
After winning the CMA's Horizon Award in October, his two Asylum/EEG albums received platinum certification a few weeks ago. Up Close And Personal With A Record-Setting Year

A journey that changed AC's chart-history world

Fittingly, the year's most significant music story is at the top of the charts. And once again, we see how a film can dramatically spike a song's popularity.

R&R's always-coveted AC/Hot AC No. 1 spots were virtually impossible to attain in '96. Chew on this mind-boggling tidbit: Only seven songs reached the AC primo spot in the entire year! At midyear, a grand total of three songs had been penthouse occupants, with all seven AC number ones remaining there for at least two weeks.

Ten different titles reached No. 1 in Hot AC with an average stay of five weeks, compared to seven weeks per No. 1 in AC.

And The New Champion ...

Celine Dion became a major part of R&R AC history. The first week her smash 550 Music hit "Because You Loved Me" (from "Up Close And Personal") reached No. 1 in AC, baseball players were in the middle of spring training. When she finally relinquished the top spot — a record-shattering 17 weeks later — it was All-Star game time.

"Because You Loved Me"'s AC chart history is nothing short of sensational. The Diane Warren-penned/David Foster-masterfully produced song debuted at No. 23 and — in three subsequent weeks — made no less than six-notch improvements. Following its incredible 17-week stay at No. 1, it remained in the Top 10 for yet another nine weeks.

Her Hot AC story is nearly equally as impressive: 12 straight weeks at No. 1 (followed by one week each at No. 2, No. 8, and No. 10) and 10 post-No. 1 weeks in the Top 10.

Putting things in perspective, Elton John's "Can You Feel The Love Tonight" (1994) was the first-ever AC song to stay at No. 1 for more than 10 weeks (11). John — who himself had a No. 1 hit this year — became the title holder by surpassing Michael Bolton's eight weeks at No. 1 with "Said I Loved You ... But 1 Lied." Dion outdistanced John's record by an eye-popping six additional weeks!

And if that weren't enough, she followed up that feat by becoming the year's only AC or Hot AC artist to power two different songs to No. 1, managing to do it in both formats.

Clap For Change

It appeared that Dion had definitively dissolved any mystery of what would be the song of the year — if not the decade. But no sooner had we applauded and marveled at her Cal Ripken-like record than Eric Clapton made his presence felt. Directly following Dion's 17-week run at the top. Clapton's "Change The World" became a No. 1 AC fixture for 13 weeks and is still in the Top 10 on both AC and Hot AC.

The Babyface-produced track from "Phenomenon" was also No. 1 on the Hot AC chart for six weeks and No. 2 for eight non-successive stanzas.

Seemingly lost in these two remarkable displays of chart-topping longevity was Mariah Carey, whose "One Sweet Day" kicked off our chart year (12/8/95) with a nineweek No. 1 run in AC and Hot AC.

Additionally, she qualifies as AC's hard-luck artist of the year. Incredibly, the Columbia artist was runner-up for 15 of the 30 weeks Dion and Clapton were at number one! Dion prevented Carey's "Always Be My Baby" from being No. 1 for seven weeks, while Clapton locked out "Forever" from the top spot for eight successive weeks.

Heretofore, "Fast Car" was Tracy Chapman's strongest format entry. The Boston-born singer's 1988 song peaked at No. 4. Armed with 25 Top 10 weeks — including a combined 13 at No. 1 and No. 2 — "Give Me One Reason" edged out Dion's "Because You Loved Me" for year-end honors. Chapman's 2% margin of victories in Hot AC compares to the 29% Dion enjoyed over AC's No. 2 Tony Rich Project.

Journey ended a nine-year AC chart absence with "When You Love A Woman," which hit No. 1 for the last three weeks of the chart year in both AC and Hot AC. The Bay Area act's last AC appearance was a midcharter, "Why Can't This Night Go On Forever" (1987).

It's uncommon for new artists to hit No. 1 with their first format release, but that's exactly what Donna Lewis did with "I Love You Always Forever." For good measure, the Atlantic artist kept the song atop Hot AC's chart for six weeks.

Chronologically (at right) is the cream of a particularly select crop of the '96 hits. "Exclusive" in this context means that a song hit number one in only the designated format (AC or Hot AC). Total weeks at No. 1 is followed by the maximum chart position on the "other" chart.

Three Whitney Houston chart appearances and two Top 10 Toni Braxton hits provided some of the punch for Arista to unseat A&M as AC's top label. Three songs by debut artist Tony Rich Project — including the year's #2 song — helped propel Arista from #5 last year to the top. Mariah Carey's spectacular year helps Columbia — AC's dominant label six of the last eight years — rebound from #6 to a solid #2.

Celine Dion's record-setting accomplishments lead 550 Music to #6; Eric Clapton's largely responsible for Reprise's #8 showing; Tracy Chapman's a major reason for Elektra's #9 chart share; and #10 River North—proves smaller labels can be AC forces.

Gimme A Break

Less than half the songs that debuted on R&R's AC chart in 1996 (47.7%) reached Breaker status, and — for the fourth consecutive year — the number of AC Breakers has declined. Slightly more than half of the number of songs debuting on the Hot AC chart this year (51.9%) became Breakers. Ironically, AC and Hot AC produced exactly the same number of Breakers.

In AC, Rod Stewart's "So Far Away" reached Breaker at the highest chart position (No. 10, 1/12/96). There were three Breakers on June 7 and October 4.

Achieving Breaker status at Hot AC's highest chart position were Celine Dion's "Because You Loved Me" (No. 10, 3/8/96) and Eric Clapton's "Change The World" (6/14/96). In all three cases, the songs eventually reached No. 1. There were three Hot AC Breakers January 19, March 29, July 5, and October 25.

HOT AC CHART SHARE

In a photo finish, A&M successfully defends its Hot AC label title over last year's runner-up Atlantic. The latter may take some comfort in knowing that A&M's margin of victory (0.1) is quite a bit slimmer than last year's (3.5).

Among others, A&M boasts Jann Arden, Gin Blossoms, and Dishwalla. Rookie Donna Lewis, Everything But The Girl, and Hootie & The Blowfish helped Atlantic.

Eric Clapton and Celine Dion were significant factors for Reprise (#3) and 550 Music (#9) to crack this year's Hot AC Top 10. Advancing from last year's first-ever HAC label list are: Columbia (#4-#3), Elektra (#9-#5), and Arista (#8-#6).

The Format's Heartbeat: Another Great Year In Music

☐ From jazz legends to emerging artists, charts reflect format's vitality

The English poet Thomas Carlyle said, "Music is well said to be the speech of angels." In this format, music is critical to a station's success, so every year, we evaluate chart trends to determine whether the pulse is strong and healthy. Good news: The prognosis is excellent.

Early in the life of R&R's NAC editorials, now-WQCD/New York PD Steve Williams was quoted as saying, "Although we've become much more mass-appeal in recent years, NAC is still all about the music." Williams's observation is as true today as when he first said it, and I hope to be repeating it as still true years from now. Happily, our year-end charts reveal that NAC's heartbeat — its unique, sensual, groove-laden music — beat as strongly as ever in 1996.

1996's Notable Quotes

This format has become a commercial hotbed. Many musical genres - new age, straightahead, Latin and Brazilian, acid jazz that used to be part of the daytime fabric of our stations are now being niche-programmed. And that's not a bad thing. Michael Fischer. KOAI/Dallas PD

Despite rumors to the contrary, jazz is alive and well on NAC radio. Many will be encouraged by the fact that our top track of 1996 is straight from the jazz-funk idiom: Herbie

H a n c o c k 's "Thieves In The Temple" (Verve) not only brought great musical vibrancy to the airwaves, but it also is one of the year's strongest-testing titles in audience research. Jazz legend Joe Sample scored the sixth spot this year with an outstanding track, "Hippies On The Corner" (Warner Bros.), that invigorated the NAC format and pleased listeners mightily. Broadcast Architecture VP/ Programming Allen Kepler characterized these two tracks as among the most valuable of 1996. Jeff Lorber's "State Of Grace" CD earned fifth place on our Top 96 Albums chart. Another strong jazz entry, Ed Hamilton's "Gray Day" (Telarc), placed 10th. And Ramsey Lewis's intoxicating "Les Fleur' (GRP) scored 14th. If this year's chart performances by these great jazz artists is an indication, we may now put to rest fears that the jazz genre is disappearing from NAC.

After holding down 1995's No. 2 slot with "M.L. In The Sunshine," Count Basic placed second again this year with his very cool cover of "Joy And Pain" (Instinct). Other leading NAC guitarists figured heavily at the top of the charts, too. Norman Brown's "Better Days Ahead" (MoJazz), Peter White's "Caravan Of Dreams" (Columbia), and Doc Powell's "Sunday Morning" (Discovery) scored third, fourth, and fifth, respectively. Powell added a second track — "Laid Back" — to his

Top 10 holdings
(at No. 8), and his CD of the same name took second place on our Albums chart,
too. Dave Koz's
"Let Me Count
The Ways"
(Capitol) captured seventh (plus, he shifted the very face of the format with his "Off The Beaten Path" CD, which features a distinctive new approach to instrumentation), while the Rippingtons' "Hideaway" (GRP) took ninth with ease.

The tracks vs. albums debate continues, but Warner Bros.' re-emergence as this year's leading label really punctuates the issue. Its whopping market share was generated, in large measure, by the unrivaled airplay strength of Boney James's "Seduction" CD, which has been a fixture on our chart for well over one vear. With three successive hit tracks, the album set an R&R NAC chart record by holding at No. 1 for 17 weeks, and it earned the No. 1 position on the year-end Albums chart. And Warner's strategy of working one track at a time from

NAC CHART SHARE

WARNER BROS. REBOUNDS — Warner Bros., which dipped from first to seventh in last year's performance, rebounded strongly to recapture top label position with a 9.3% chart share. '95 winner GRP slipped to second and Verve Group made a strong showing at third.

"Seduction" — plus the added muscle generated by releases from Sample, Earl Klugh, Marilyn Scott, Quincy Jones, and Andy Snitzer — ensured the label's dazzling chart performance in '96.

1995's leading label, GRP, performed well but slipped to second place in '96, with seven tracks on the year-end chart. The label's album performance shone, with stars such as the Rippingtons, Ramsey Lewis, and George Benson proving their timeless appeal, and eight GRP titles earned a place among our top '96 Albums.

Capturing third in label performance, the Verve Group demonstrated that business is best when art meets commerce. Hancock's chart dominance catapulted the label to the top with his smash offering, and was bolstered by Lorber's superb CD and Art Porter's "Lay Your Hands On

An encouraging number of artists benefitted from serial airplay on tracks. Paul Hardcastle, Paul Taylor, Count Basic, Avenue Blue, Oleta Adams, Jeff Lorber, Bob Mamet, Richard Elliott, Herb Alpert, Rick Braun, and Najee all enjoyed more than one track on our year end chart. Make no mistake, Broadcast Architecture has recommended many more second — and even third — tracks in the past year than in 1995, which serves the medium and the artists well.

The influence of new artists was felt on the charts in 1996, despite the plethora of fine releases by format stalwarts. The artistry of Virbaphonic, Soundscape, Strange Cargo, Tony Rich Project, and Phillipe Saisse was recognized and embraced by programmers. Artists who are not new, but who enjoyed their first widespread acceptance by NAC radio, include Pete Escovedo, Ed Calle, George Jinda (as a soloist), Jonathan Cain, and Chris Camozzi.

The definition of "format fit" regarding vocals continues to be a major issue among programmers and the record community alike.

Many NAC stations — particularly those consulted by Broadcast Architecture — routinely program suitable crossover AC vocal tracks and devote less air time to NAC-specific artists than in the past. Others continue to support actively the vocalists who helped define the format in the first place. In any case, while no vocals appear in our Top 20 (unless you count remixes from Count Basic and Koz), quality vocals remain an important — if controversial — aspect of NAC. Art-

1996's Notable Quotes

We've trained our listeners to accept and expect a certain amount of left-field 'adventure' cuts. If we use that latitude responsibly and in a disciplined fashion, it adds another dimension to our radio stations.

—Steve Feinstein, late KKSF/San Francisco PD

ists like Randy Crawford, Toni Braxton, Bobby Caldwell, Marilyn Scott, Oleta Adams, George Benson, Vanessa Williams, Luther Vandross, Slim Man, Everything But The Girl, and Angela Bofill lent sophisticated songs that promoted NAC's vitality.

Finally, we should all take heart that a record man like Ricky Schultz has resurfaced; indeed, the effects of his previous involvement with jazz and NAC artists still reverberate on the airwaves and can be seen clearly on our Top 96 charts. The rebirth of Zebra Records, of which he is president, is another positive indicator for the future of this format's most vital asset: its music.

KMJZ'S STRONG POSITIONER — KMJZ/Minneapolis recently relaunched, and the station's new logo (seen on right of billboard above) is only part of a new image. A series of billboards reveal that — among other things — Elvis may be dead, but attitude is alive and well in the format.

The only thing missing is the J&B

NAC NOTES By Carol Archer

Many stations have started to add and play Christmas music in earnest, so overall plays on current non-seasonal fare is down somewhat. That makes this week's gainers that much more significant. After six months on the Album chart, Jeff Lorber's sumptuous "State Of Grace" rose to No. 1. Congratulations to the Verve Group promotion team and to one of this format's most talented and enduring artists.

format's most talented and enduring artists.

Another Verve entry, the late Art Porter's lovely "Lake Shore Drive," surged 7-3* while demonstrating upward momentum with +110 plays. The track is receiving strong rotation at such stations as WSMJ/Richmond (29 plays), KEZL/Fresno and KUCD/Honolulu (27 each), KSSJ/

Sacramento (26), and KCJZ/San Antonio, which gave it a big increase (10-23 plays).

Keiko Matsui's "Bridge Over The Stars" (Unity/Countdown) appears destined for the top of our chart, too. She's enjoying hot-current rotation at many Broadcast Architecture-consulted stations, such as WJJZ/Philadelphia (30 plays) and WSMJ (11-29 plays), and is among Most Increased with +119 as a result.

With three reporters holding out, Wayman Tisdale's "Don't Take Your Love Away" (MoJazz/Motown) still powered 12-9*. WQCD/New York gave Tisdale 16 plays, and another 15 came from WJZF/Atlanta.

Yet another great cut from Doc Powell's "Laid Back" (Discovery) CD, "From The Heart," is not only among Most Added (tied for fourth), but is top Most Increased with +142 in only its second week.

Paul Hardcastle's "Jokers Wild" (JVC) had an extraordinary week and came out number one Most Added with 17 reporters, such as KTWV/Los Angeles, WJJZ, WJJJ/Pittsburgh, and WSMJ, jumping on the bandwagon.

KOAI/Dallas PD Mike Fischer is getting such wildly enthusiastic response from listeners on Bobby Caldwell's track "Stuck On You" (Sin-Drome) that the station has decided to bring Caldwell in for two big Christmas concerts.

The Two Sides Of Rock

☐ Musical comparison of formatic leans

In May 1995, R&R separated the Rock format into Active Rock and Rock to reflect the growing differences between two distinct factions within the genre. This is the first full year in which we can compare the two sides of Rock, and the year-end charts confirm much of what we already know.

The total play levels at Active Rock are greater than at Rock, and Active Rock is more willing to take a shot on new bands (or at least new to the format), such as Butthole Surfers, Folk Implosion, and Primitive Radio Gods.

On the other hand, Rock proved to be a safe haven for heritage artists like John Mellencamp and Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers, as well as for newcomers Kenny Wayne Shepherd and the Why Store.

Song Remains The Same

While the two formats play nearly all the same songs, their respective year-end chart positions reflect a difference in timing between the formats, along with a certain demographic appeal. Active Rock and Rock share the 25-34 cell, but Active's strength tends to lie 18-34, with Rock's strength closer to 25-44; the song titles in each format reflect those differences.

The first place this is apparent is with Stabbing Westward's "What Do I Have To Do?" It ranked No. 12 in Active Rock, but No. 79 in Rock. S.W.'s "Shame" showed even greater disparity: It was No. 20 in Active Rock, but fell

On the other side of the coin, the Wallflowers' "6th Avenue Heartache" ranked No. 8 at Rock, while only ranking No. 69 at Active Rock. Rush's "Test For Echo" ranked No. 22 in Rock, No. 49 in Active Rock. Black Crowes' "Good Friday" notched No. 14 at Rock, but only No. 63 at Active

Similar Features

One thing both Active Rock and Rock agreed on is the number of female-led artists: In each formatic lean, less than 10% of the new music played this year came from female acts. Specifically, of Rock's 229 tracks that charted in 1996. 13 featured a female singer.

This is interesting, since listener compositions are 66% male/ 34% female for Active Rock and 63% male/38% female for Rock, according to Scarborough Research information on R&R Rock reporters. So while the format's programmers primarily target men, over one-third of the actual listening is still attributed to women. You have to love the fact that females do fill out diaries!

Auld Lang Sign Off: Year-End Results Of Our 'Year Of Fear'

It's over! The spins are in! Do we have a winner? For label execs, the R&R year-end chart represents a scorecard that says, "The work was worth it." For radio personnel, it's a means of measuring the choices they made, seeing if their instincts and analyses were correct. For me, it's a lot of phone calls explaining why record "X" was No. 53, while record "Y" was No. 51.

Seriously, this year-end chart denotes the most-played songs of the year in ranking order. Songs with the longest chart life — reflecting the factors of when they were released and how long they

THE YEAR 1996 NINUSIC

Songs Reaching The Top Spot

S ixteen songs reached No. 1, up decidedly from 1995's total of 11. No record came close to equalling Live's nine-week run for "Lightning Crashes," though Bush theoretically could do so with "Swallowed."

Here are this year's number ones, how many weeks they held the top spot, and where they placed on the year-end chart:

ARTIST	Title	Weeks No. 1	Year-End Pos.
BUSH	Swallowed	5	65
OASIS	Wonderwali	5	26
CRANBERRIES	Salvation	4	22

maintained support from radio—fared the best. There are many means of validation, be it securing a No. 1 chart position or selling tonnage. Oh, yes ... being good should count for something (e.g., Beck).

I always like to look back five years and see what lasting cultural impact that year's chart-toppers had. In 1991, No. 1 through No. 5 were R.E.M., EMF, Jesus Jones, Big Audio Dynamite (B.A.D.), and Electronic. Clearly, it was a big year for acronyms.

What lasting impact will this year's most played artists have?

The Sins Of Spins

I'm never comfortable when I hear artists themselves proclaim, "Our spins are up!" or "We went 9-7 with a bullet!" Somehow. I figure that perspective should primarily remain the concern of promotion execs and radio programmers. This is not to suggest artists remain unaware or ill-informed. Rather, they should always be encouraged to focus on the most meaningful muse: human experience. When artists measure their success solely by numbers. I can't help but feel something is misguided.

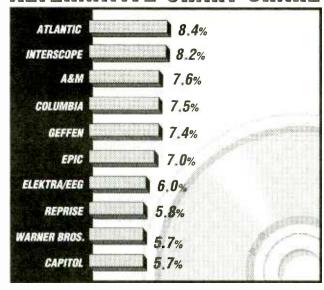

Therefore, let those with the "most" celebrate, but let's take a moment to honor "meaningful" as well.

ALTERNATIVE CHART SHARE

ATLANTIC PLACES FIRST — Atlantic Records scored a victory as the top Alternative label by holding off late-charging Interscope Records. A&M rose to third from a seventh-place finish in 1995, while Columbia upped its spot from ninth to fourth. Geffen rounded out the top five. If any promotion execs scored bonuses on these rankings, then I expect a nice meal ... at the very least.

You Broke It, They Bought It

oney talks ..." If cash is a currency of conviction, then record sales should represent more than the culmination of a good marketing plan. Some people like to think the ultimate vote of confidence is consumers laying down their hard earned bucks and buying a CD.

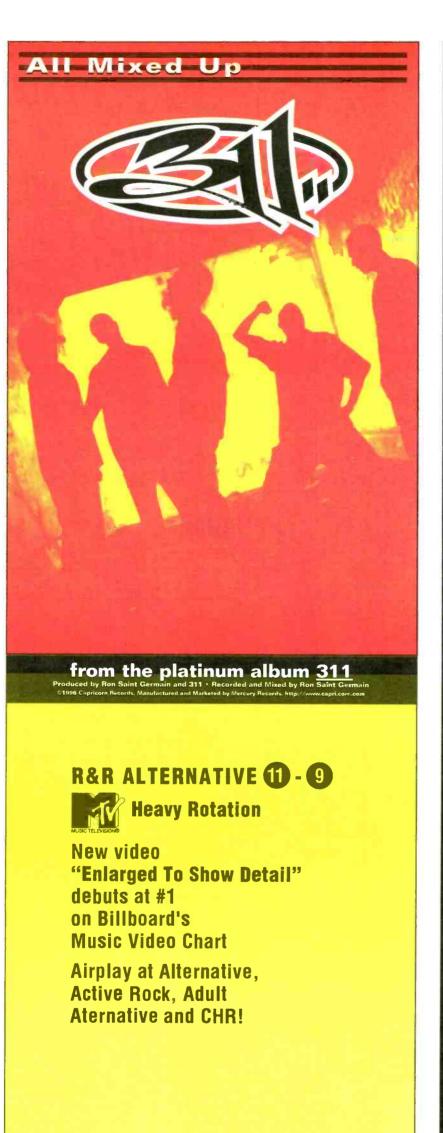

TVT Records' Gary Jay and John Perrone made an argument for sales' — and their label's Gravity Kills' — year-end importance with a memo they sent me documenting the sales of records released in 1996 by this year's Alternative breakthrough bands. (Note: Certain bigger sellers such as Garbage, 311, Dishwalla, Poe, etc. were released prior to 1996.) The Top 20 Alternative sellers contain more than a few surprises ...

• Artist: Descendents

• Track: "I'm The One"

• LP: "Everything Sucks"

• Producers: Bill Stevenson/

Stephen Egerton

• Label: Epitaph

• Essentials: The real deal. Let me see you tough it out playing dives since 1978! Oh sure, vocalist Milo Aukerman might have taken a break in 1987 to get his Ph.D in biochemistry (you need to know about the body after being a punk rocker for 10 years).

All right, so Bill Stevenson tried to make some cash drumming for Black Flag. Still, the Descendents — including Stephen Egerton (guitars) and Karl Alvarez (bass) have been creating the essential punk experience for two decades. That's a lot of gobs, mosh, and road coffee. Admit it, you couldn't do

• Influences: the Last, Reatles

• Artist POV: Regarding life in today's Alternative world, Aukerman says, "It seems that this time period is all about one record. People don't want a band for more than one record. They want these little bands to come along with whatever their gimmick is. To be the hip flavor of the day means there will be a day not too long from now when you're not the flavor. So I say it's their pot, they can stew in it. We've never been hip."

Format's First Year Of Measuring Tracks Reveals ...

Follow You Down

(Wks @ No. 1)

Adult Alternative played a significant role embracing numerous artists who went on to break at other formats, faring well on the format's tracks and album year-end charts in the process. With the Dave Matthews Band's "Crash" as the No. 1 album of the year and the Wallflowers" "6th Avenue Heartache" the No. 1 track of the year, "adult" remains the key word at the format.

Incidentally, the No. 1 album of 1995 was the Dave Matthews Band's "Under The Table And Dreaming," so congratulations are certainly in order for the band and RCA.

There were many albums from the Top 95 of '95 that made repeat performances in the Top 96 of '96 album chart. In the top 25, five were encores from 1995.

Collective Soul

One of the striking aspects of Adult Alternative is its continued espousal of female artists: 37 out of 155 tracks with female vocalists charted in 1996 — that's 24%. Musicians like Tracy Chapman, Natalie Merchant, Sheryl Crow, Cranberries, Jewel, Melissa Etheridge, Joan Osborne, and Tori Amos have found an important level of support and acceptance here.

New Beginning

However, 1996 will likely be remembered as the year that a significant shift occurred in Adult Alternative concerning how stations programmed music. It reminds me of what happened in Rock in 1994-95, when stations took noticeably different strategies to program 75% of the same music. R&R reflected this change by dividing the Rock panel into two groups, which allowed stations to realize specific benefits within each association.

Traditionally, Adult Alternative stations have focused on anywhere from a 30-to-150-song playlist — rotating several album cuts instead of singles. Throughout the course of this year, a number of stations adjusted their direction to a shorter list — rotating singles at a note-worthy rate. A natural, spontaneous combustion is brewing in Adult Alternative.

'Creme De La Creme'

These 16 songs earned the coveted No. 1 position in the Adult Alternative Tracks chart. The figure to the right of each reflects the number of weeks spent at No. 1. In case of a tie in No. 1 weeks, the song with the highest cumulative plays is listed first.

ADULT ALTERNATIVE CHART SHARE

A&M TOP LABEL AT ADULT ALTERNATIVE — With a guy like J.B. Brenner behind the scenes, it's no surprise that A&M is the No. 1 Adult Alternative label by a landslide. With such artists as the Gin Blossoms, Sting, Dishwalla, Sheryl Crow, the Badlees, Jackopierce, Suzanne Vega, Blues Traveler, Del Amitri, and Ashley MacIsaac leading the pack, the label garnered 85,142 total plays at the format.

A NEW STATION ZONE — 93.3 "The Zone"/Dallas threw a "Zone In" party to celebrate its new format with clients and label reps. Sporting earto-ear grins are (I-r) Ticketmaster's Renne Faulcomer, Zone VP/GM Dan Halyburton, Atlantic's Zan Hefner, Ticketmaster's Charlotte Allison, and Revolution's Randy Smith.

JUST FIDDLIN' AROUND — Ashley MacIsaac (I) paid a promo visit to KMTT/Seattle's Mountain Music Lounge recently. Here he is with KMTT's John Fisher and A&M's Steph Fairweather.

GIMME SHELTER — Daniel Lanois and Emmy Lou Harris performed at KSCA/Los Angeles's Gimme Shelter benefit for the homeless last month.
