PICKS OF THE WEEK

SINGLES

BOB DYLAN, "WATCH THE RIVER FLOW" (Big Sky, ASCAP). As is always the case with a new Dylan release, this one will be scrutinized, analyzed and sell like mad, as well it should. Piano flourishes courtesy of Leon Russell and brilliant slide guitar. Columbia 4-45409.

SLEEPERS

THE FUZZ, "LIKE AN OPEN DOOR" (Fernecliff/JAMF, BMI). Follow-up to their "I Love Ycu for All Seasons" top 10 breakthrough can't help but repeat. Mellow, soft soul sound that's so pretty it always appeals pop like Smokey Robinson and the Miracles. Calla C-177 (Roulette).

ALBUMS

ELVIS PRESLEY, "LOVE LETTERS FROM ELVIS." Elvis Presley fans will be overjoyed to receive these sealed-with-a-kiss letters. Included are "Life," the current single, and "Love Letters." Most of the inclusions are on the quietly crooned side of things. RCA LSP 4530.

THE ROLLING STONES, "WILD HORSES" (Gideon, BMI). Stones lose no time in following their "Brown Sugar" comeback smash with edited "Sticky Fingers" cut. Beautiful stylistic shift of gears will go directly to top. B/w "Sway" (Gideon, BMI). Rolling Stones RS-19101 (Atco).

LOBO, "SHE DIDN'T DO MAGIC" (Famous/Kaiser/Big Leaf, ASCAP). From the man responsible for "Me And You And A Dog Named Boo" comes more of the same catchy story-telling in song. Hit sound! B/w "I'm the Only One" (Famous/Kaiser/Big Leaf, ASCAP). Big Tree BT 116 (Ampex).

GRAHAM NASH, "SONGS FOR BEGINNERS." Graham Nash is the last of Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young to release a solo album, and this one was well worth waiting for. The perceptive Nash sings songs of personal and societal love, and the buyers will appreciate them. Atlantic SD 7204.

THE BEE GEES, "HOW CAN YOU MEND A BROKEN HEART" (Casserole/Warner-Tamlerlane, BMI). Gibb brothers' "Lonely Days" made their comeback a smashing success and sealed the fate of this follow-up. Lovely tune can't miss. B/w "Country Woman" (Casserole, BMI). Atco 45-6824.

BOZ SCAGGS, "NEAR YOU" (Blue Street, ASCAP). San Francisco's favorite adopted son shifts to a pretty pop sound for his follow-up to "We Were Always Sweethearts." Has that special summer lilt to it. Quality is the word for this man's music. Listen and love it. Columbia 4-45408.

ROD STEWART, "EVERY PICTURE TELLS A STORY." Rod Stewart, away from Faces for another solo album, sings up a storm with that husky, inimitable voice of his. The tunes, some of which he wrote, are savory and just a little bit different from the norm. Mercury SRM 1-609.

CAT STEVENS, "MOON SHADOW" (Irving, BMI). With the single success of "Wild World" this Cat joined James Taylor in the ranks of the troubadour superstars. Here's a preview of his next album that will definitely pave the way for its acceptance. Interesting song. A&M 1265.

IAN MATTHEWS, "HEARTS" (Campbell-Connelly, ASCAP). Former lead of Matthews Southern Comfort makes his solo single low for new label an impressive one with this beautiful ballad. From his new album. B/w "If You Saw Thro' My Eyes" (Campbell-Connelly, ASCAP). Vertigo VE-101 (Mercury).

OSIBISA, "OSIBISA." Decca is just about to start a big campaign in support of this group, who are very much into African rhythms (their name means just that). Action should pay off because there is much to excite in the grooves. Decca DL 75285.

Weintraub Forms Wooden Nickel; RCA Distributes, Manufactures

Jerry Weintraub (left) and Dennis Katz, Division VP of Contemporary Music, RCA Records, discuss formation of Wooden Nickel Records headed by Weintraub and manufactured and marketed by RCA Records.

■ Wooden Nickel Records is the name of the new label formed by Jerry Weintraub in association with three important contemporary producers, Bill Traut, Jim Golden and Bob Monaco.

Weintraub, who serves as Chairman of the Board of the new company, also announced that two of the most sought-after groups on the contemporary scene—Siegel-Schwall and String Cheese—are the first acquisitions of the label.

RCA Records will manufacture and market the product of the new label under the direction of Dennis Katz, VP, Contemporary Music.

Katz said: "We have, in Wooden Nickel Records, producing and artistic talent which we are proud to be associated with. We're pleased they've elected to enter into an association with us. We at RCA look forward to a fruitful relationship."

All three of the men who will be producing for Wooden Nickel—Traut, Golden and Monaco—have been associated in the past several years through their own producing company, Dunwich Productions. In the past five years, they have been responsible for more than 70 chart singles and albums for many of the most important labels in the business.

"They are the heaviest and most influential and respected musical outfit in the Midwest," said Weintraub, "and through their efforts, we expect Wooden

Programming Innovation:

Peters' FM Principle: Appeal to Her Psyche

By TONY LAWRENCE

■ SAN DIEGO—Locally based Peters Productions, headed by Ed Peters, has come up with one of the most important concepts in FM programming history: a format package called "Music Only for a Woman" based totally on the feminine psyche; communicating directly to her emotions, thoughts and needs in the intimacy of radio.

The Peters idea utilizes two kinds of music: highly emotional instrumentals and male vocals. This is uniquely mixed and put on a master tape that is programmed with brief snatches of poetry (by Jacques Wilson) and small bits of narration. Time signals are then blocked into three-hour portions devoted to six individual segments by time and mood. Starting at 6 a.m. (until 9 a.m.) with the "Far Away" portion the rest of the day's listening is 9-noon: "Precious Moments"; noon-3 p.m.: "Alone by the Sea"; 3 p.m.-6 p.m.: "Escape"; 6-9 p.m.: "Soft Whispers"; 9-midnight: "Silent Stars."

This completely taped programming is supplied each month on a one-year contract. Each of the 64 reels is intermixed with each other within a three-hour segment to avoid repetition. The ratio of music is two instrumentals to one vocal and each sound is customized per blocked format and interwoven into the eighteen hour programmed day. A re-entry announcement is made every 10 minutes to identify that particular block of time.

■ Aug. 1 is the deadline for the 1970 Deems Taylor Music Awards. Submissions or inquiries should be addressed to the ASCAP-Deems Taylor Awards at 575 Madison Ave., New York City 10022. Five copies are required of each book or article submitted.

Peters Productions, Inc., is a full concept radio service that provides each subscriber with, in addition to the programming, promotion plans and materials and a complete sales plan enabling the station rep to present a potential time buyer with every aspect of the service.

The full programming package, supplied each month, includes: the complete format, music (taped on 1/4"-1 1/2 mil 3M tape on 10 1/2" metal reels), station jingles, poetry, all voice tracks, time signals, a detailed operating manual governing all facets of programming and rotation of tapes and a public service plan.

The complete promotion package provided is comprised of 10, 30 and 60-second TV and radio spots on video and audio tape, newspaper mats, billboard art work, a direct mail pack (to be duplicated by the station), station's logo with art work, public relations kit and a continuing consultation on promotion.

Extra merchandising is also being developed by Peters in terms of soft cover poetry books with excerpts of Wilson's poetry.

RIAA Instigates N.Y. Piracy Raids

■ NEW YORK—Climaxing an investigation of several months, detectives from the New York County DA's Office on May 3 conducted simultaneous raids on 14 stores in Manhattan. More than 15,000 pirated tape cartridges and cassettes have been seized.

The investigations and raids were supervised by Assistant DA Roy R. Kulcsar. It was reported that the detectives (armed with search warrants) seized many thousands of these bogus tapes.

These raids were based on information presented to the DA's office by RIAA.

'Sweetback's Song' Sets Records as Film, LP

■ NEW YORK—Just seven weeks after release, the controversial "Sweet Sweetback's Baadasssss Song" by Black filmmaker Melvin Van Peebles became the #1 grossing movie in the nation. The soundtrack album on Stax Records has been setting its own impressive sales figures due to extensive merchandising and marketing, including in-theatre sales and a mail order program in conjunction with Lancer Books.

Stax has been concentrating its promotion on the cities where the film has appeared. "Sweetback" has set many box office records and three major theatre chains have offered the best playdates for summer bookings.

Van Peebles, who scripted, produced, directed, edited and stars in the movie, also composed the score, accompanied by the sounds of Earth, Wind & Fire. Although he has no formal musical training, Van Peebles created his own method of scoring. He numbered all the keys on a piano from one to 88, picked out the notes he wanted and wrote down the number of the appropriate piano keys.

"Van Peebles resists the temptation to preach except through the lyrics of his soul songs, which exhort his hero like some Greek chorus," reported Newsweek. Cue cited the "knockout of a score truly integral to the pulsating film."

Stax has shipped an unusually large number of soundtrack albums to Detroit and reorders are already reported. Album sales in the lobby of Detroit's Grand Circus Theater were so heavy that their initial allotment of 300 promotional copies was completely sold out on the first night. The album is a pick on several Detroit stations, with "Sweetback's Theme" and "Hoppin' John" being the most popular tracks.

Two Previous Albums

Van Peebles, who directed "Watermelon Man" starring Godfrey Cambridge and "Story of a Three Day Pass," and has written five novels, has recorded two albums prior to the "Sweetback" soundtrack—"Brer Soul" and "Ain't Suppose to Die a Natural Death" on A & M Records.

Lancer Publications has issued a paperback edition of "Sweet Sweetback's Baadasssss Song," adding to Van Peebles' multi-media exposure. The book, which includes the script, stills and a behind-the-scene account of how Van Peebles made the movie, also features a mail order offer for the soundtrack album on Stax.

"Sweetback" is the second soundtrack album Stax has released. The first was Jules Dassin's "Uptight," with music by Booker T. Jones performed by Booker T. & the MGs. In the works is the score to the MGM film "Shaft," which is being composed by Isaac Hayes.

Stax will become increasingly involved in the area of film soundtracks as part of its stature as a versatile record company with product geared for every segment of the record market.

Record Plant Unveils New Truck

■ NEW YORK—The Plant, New York and Los Angeles-based recording studios, has unveiled a new remote recording studio on wheels designed by Tom Hidley. It now becomes possible to record live concerts and still achieve the sound of a studio.

Record Plant executives Chris Stone and Gary Kellgren feel that because so many groups have equipment at home the remote truck becomes a natural.

Doe; "Workin' in a Coal Mine," Lee Dorsey; "Holy Cow," Lee Dorsey; "Ride Your Pony," Lee Dorsey; "Pain In My Heart," Otis Redding; "I Like It Like That," Dave Clark Five; "Land of 1000 Dances," Chris Kerner; and "I Like It Like That," Chris Kerner. Also, "Greatest Love" and "Naomi," a Country & Western hit.

Fanny Spreads to Record World

Playing Grab-Austin are Reprise Records' Fanny and Record World's Publisher Bob Austin during group's visit to magazine in New York last week.

■ NEW YORK—Fanny is one of the rare all-girl, self-contained, instrumental-vocal groups. More to the point is the fact that they make good music together. Their first album for Reprise proved that. They were in town last week for a Fillmore East appearance and dropped in at Record World to keep us posted on what to expect from Fanny in the future.

Most exciting is the imminent release of a single on which they back Barbra Streisand singing "Where You Lead," a tune from Carole King's "Tapestry" album. Fanny was matched with Streisand by Richard Perry, who produced each on their latest albums. They are assisted only by Billy Preston on organ.

With the excitement generated by the release of the Streisand single, the way will have been paved for widespread acceptance of Fanny's forthcoming album, "Charity Ball," which is also due for release this month. It will consist completely of original material save for one old Stephen Stills' tune. The girls feel it is far better than their debut outing. That means it's very good indeed.

The New York stopover was in the middle of a tour which will take them to Toronto to tape the Kenny Rogers show. Fanny is comprised of Jean Millington, bass; June Millington, guitar; Alice DeBuhr, drums; Nicole Barclay, keyboards.

The Lennons Arrive in N. Y.

John Ono Lennon and Yoko Ono Lennon are met at Kennedy Airport by Apple and ABKCO Promotion Director Pete Bennett and newsmen upon arrival for a short stay in New York during which John will finish his new album due to be released shortly. Mrs. Lennon will be finishing an album also. Bennett reports that ABKCO plans an initial shipping of one million packages of what he describes as a "super" album. Phil Spector co-produced with Lennon.

CONCERT REVIEW

Aretha Home at Apollo

■ NEW YORK—The marquee proclaimed that "SHE'S HOME!" That she felt so herself was clearly evident in her performance on opening night (2) at the Apollo Theater in Harlem. Aretha Franklin had returned to her root audience. This was a different Aretha than one hears at Philharmonic Hall, or even on her extraordinary new Atlantic album, "Aretha Live at Fillmore West."

It wasn't that her program had changed very much. "Dr. Feelgood" will always bring down a house and "Spirit in the Dark" still lifts an already supercharged atmosphere to new levels of excitement.

Rather, it may have had something to do with the relaxed rapport she had with an attentive, receptive and responsive audience that might have gone away satisfied with the mere fact of presence among them. That she was in magnificent form was a bonus that did not go unappreciated. She was so at ease, perhaps, because she fully understood the special nature of her relationship with this particular audience. She is their royalty. She is truly Lady Soul.

A new addition to Aretha's repertoire is "Brand New Me," the flip of her current "Bridge Over Troubled Water" single smash. This song joins the ranks of those that she has transformed into personal vehicles of expression, such as "Respect" and "Natural Woman." Others may sing them very well, but they are forever Aretha's.

She closes her show now with "Reach Out (And Touch Somebody's Hand)." She does that and more during the show.

CLUB REVIEW

Lettermen Delight Empire Room

■ NEW YORK — The Lettermen have been making pretty music for the past decade or so. That music is now on display at the Waldorf's Empire Room. Their opening night (1) was a fine tribute to the art of making sweet melodies.

These Capitol recording artists, with four certified million-selling albums to their credit, breezed through the evening delighting, among others, Alan Arkin, David Frost and Roddy McDowell along the way.

Some of the best-liked tunes were "A Time for Us," from the film "Romeo & Juliet," "Portrait of My Love," Paul Anka's "Put Your Head On My Shoulder" and "Hurt So Bad." Musically, the standout of the evening was the ever-popular medley of "Goin' Out Of My Head"/"Can't Take My Eyes Off You." It certainly is a fitting compliment to the Lettermen that this particular arrangement has been copied by so many recording artists around the world.

"It's a Sin to Tell a Lie" was the fun number of the night. The boys walked through the audience with a microphone giving many a guest a chance to show their individual musical prowess. Highlighting the enjoyment was Capitol promo man Joe Maimone. Like a true professional, Joe took the mike, and although his lyrics were a little rusty, the booming baritone gave a wonderful account of himself.

Unfortunately, the Lettermen (Tony Butala, Jim Pike, Gary Pike) did not highlight their terrific drummer, Ronnie Simon. More time should be devoted to him, because his tight sound goes way beyond musical accompaniment. Then again, they probably don't want to lose him.

Nonesuch Cleans Up with Rag

■ NEW YORK — Nonesuch, Elektra's budget classical line, seems to have a hit album and perhaps a hit series.

The album is "Piano Rags by Scott Joplin" with Joshua Rifkin at the piano.

Released in December, the package has now exceeded 22,000 in sales.

Nonesuch released last week "Heliotrope Bouquet Piano Rags 1900-1970" with William Bolcom at the piano. (Bolcom also contributed some original rags to the act.)

Label is planning a second Rifkin-Rag album for later this year.

DIALOGUE

THE VIEWPOINTS OF THE INDUSTRY

■ This page will be devoted each week to your opinions. We welcome letters on all subjects pertinent to our industry. There may be a time when your thoughts differ from ours editorially. You are welcome to express them here.

The Rack Jobber: Friend, Foe or Victim?

By A RACK JOBBER

■ NEW YORK— Due to the fact that the opinions expressed here are very controversial, repercussions could follow. Therefore I prefer to remain anonymous.

As it stands today, the rack jobber is a monster created for and by the whims of the people who run the music industry.

We were created by the music industry to serve their needs when they could no longer cope with the so-called "major consumers." We, in turn, have now become Atlas, holding the full weight upon our shoulders. The music industry on one hand forces upon us its rules and regulations and the major consumer on the other bends the rules to suit his needs. What are we to do? Granted, we were created to serve the needs of major consumers and with it, given certain benefits not allowed the ordinary record dealer. But where does one draw the line? How much abuse is to be taken by our distributors?

Companies want their product exposed to the public as much as possible. When this means that I have to take in as much merchandise to cover all my stores, where do I as a buyer draw the line as to what I take in and what I refuse? Does personal taste govern my choice, or does the stature of an artist?

The Chance of 'Bombing Out'

When buying large quantities of any artist, one takes the chance of "bombing out." This can happen whether or not the item sells for a similar company. Should we be penalized for this? When our customers indiscriminately send back merchandise without approval, what are we to do? There is only one answer: Grin and bear it. Sure, we are given an extra discount by the record company so that we can weather the storm. But what happens when it comes time finally to return the merchandise after it has been recycled?

The name of the game is profit. No one wants to be in the red. When it finally comes time to return merchandise, what happens? In most cases an exchange order is needed—usually a quantity much larger than that which is being returned. I agree that one should suffer for one's mistakes, but why should one suffer for the mistakes of others?

Is the percentage of returns as compared to purchases more important than knowing one's customers?

If the answer is yes, then why push new products to the rack jobbers who, in turn, must put this merchandise into stores who have no regard for one record or another?

As I stated earlier, exposure is the most important fact of life to the distributor. I ask you this: do I limit myself to the product I feel has the best chances of being sold in my racks, or do I speculate on unproven artists? I am in favor of new discoveries but should I endanger my return percentage for them?

Even Exceptions Will Have to Stop

Logically, with less purchases there tend to be less returns. This, provided the returns are re-cycled. If the policy is adhered to, then we would probably be within the return percentage allotted to us. But when you are forced with having to make everyone happy the return percentage goes up. The rack jobber is not equipped to expose more than a limited amount of product in a given time. Exceptions are made but unless the distributors are willing to remember the agreements that were made, then even the exceptions eventually will have to stop.

I am not opposed to special promotions, in fact I encourage them because they create an excitement our customers rarely see. If I can go out on a limb for any customer, I expect that company to reciprocate if and when it seems necessary.

We have now reached the inevitable fork in the road which holds the answers to the question that I have brought up. Do we work together for the betterment of one another as a team, or, do we, the rack jobbers, go the way of the monophonic record? The answer lies with those people who hold the key. Will they open the right door, or will the rack jobber become a thing of the past?

Spielung with Chappell, Germany

By PAUL SIEGEL

(Editor's Note: The following is an exclusive interview between Paul Siegel, Record World European Editor, and Dr. Michael Müller-Blattau, head of Chappell Music in Germany.)

Record World: What great change do you see for tomorrow's market?

Müller-Blattau: The German market has finally become more exacting, and it is important that the artists and composers are of international quality.

Record World: As music publisher what do you search for in a new song?

Müller-Blattau: A new song has to touch you immediately. You must like it even if you listen to it over and over again. The music and lyrics and interpretation by the artist have to match perfectly. Only then has it got a chance for international exploitation.

Record World: In your opinion, which foreign countries have most influence on the German record and music market, listing the countries from one to six in importance?

Müller-Blattau: USA, England, France, Italy, Holland and Scandinavia.

Record World: Who are the current German pop composers whom you believe can best compose for the international market?

Müller-Blattau: Bert Kaempfert, Udo Jürgens, Joachim Helder, Giorgio Moroder and, of course, you, yourself, Paul, as you've written for Eddy Arnold, Al Martino, Vic Damone, etc. You are an American in Berlin and have the feel for both sides of the Atlantic!

Record World: There is an overflow on record product currently sent to German radio stations, so that it is difficult to get airplay on all material. Therefore, what programming suggestions can be made to the program directors of German radio stations so that your new song and record get more airplay?

Müller-Blattau: The German

program directors should inform the music publishers exactly about their directions and the sort of music they need for their programs. In that case they would only receive the material they really need, and it would save a lot of time for all parties involved.

Record World: What do you feel is wrong in today's market and how would you change it?

Müller-Blattau: First of all, the German music business is not willing to invest as much money and energy as the Americans do, and there are too few German managers who are active and capable enough to take the risk that is involved in a

WHY YOU'RE PROBABLY HAVING A HARD TIME KEEPING THIS MYSTERIOUS-LOOKING ALBUM IN STOCK.

The "Weather Report" album has surprised a lot of dealers.

The cover tells you little more than "Weather Report" and the titles of the songs. Songs you've never heard of.

But, apparently, your customers know what we've known all along. That Weather Report is the group formed by down beat and jazz & pop poll winners Joe Zawinul, Miroslav Vitcus, and Wayne Shorter. With Airto Moreira and Alphonze Mouzon.

They also must know that Joe Zawinul and friends have been somewhat responsible for Miles Davis' "Bitches Brew" sound. As well as some of the most highly respected free-form music being made these days. (Playing on albums as diverse as The Rascals' new "Peaceful World," and Tim Hardin's new "Bird on a Wire.")

Somebody must know all these things because dealers across the country have reportedly been selling out their "Weather Report" albums within hours after they go on the shelves!?!

Which isn't all that mysterious, now that you know what your customers know.

Marketing: New Role for the Producer

Nightingale Productions Sings Out on 'Total Packaging' Idea

By RON BARON

■ HOLLYWOOD — Should a producer have some power of decision over the method of marketing which will affect his product?

The answer is yes if Pancho Makzoume's Nightingale Productions has anything to say about it. Actually, Makzoume, a former ad man, sees a vicissitude in the record industry concerning further responsibilities for the producer. Intrinsicly included is "total packaging," where the producer not only helps select material and supervises the date but now also creates a campaign to enhance and assist in the marketing of his record.

Makzoume has initiated this concept with Nightingale's first product on artist Danny Lawyer. Lawyer was a member of the San Francisco company of "Hair" and has recorded the song "Electric Blues" which is in the show. Though this tune is more arcane in terms of popularity than the others, it is uniquely Danny's and his performance of it specifically has been lauded by critics who say it is "the show-stopper of the evening."

Made More of It

Pancho explained, "In 'Hair' it was a very strong visual number to open the second act. But Danny made much more out of it than that. He made it even more theatrical than it already was. And what we've done now is to translate that very powerful piece of visual theater into an equally powerful piece of audio theater."

Now that this has been captured Makzoume proceeded to develop a complete marketing picture. His firm retained "the best art directors in the business to design a creative and compelling advertising and promotion program. What Nightingale has done is to help alleviate this time-consuming task for the record company."

Perhaps it is his ad agency days which make Pancho a savant when it comes to knowing how to properly market an item, whether it be a sports car or a record. Presently it happens to be a record and already this Danny Lawyer disc, "Electric Blues" b/w "Little Girl Blue" (the classic Rodgers and Hart song), has caused a lot of excitement. The tunes were arranged and conducted by Gene Page.

It was reported that Eddie Reeves of UA Music (which own the "Hair" music copyrights) showed enthusiasm over this new rendition of "Electric Blues." Some of the other songs from "Hair" have served as vehicles in launching many new artists from the show, including Jennifer, Robin McNamara and Ronnie Dyson.

Rock Ensemble Film

■ NEW YORK — New York Rock Ensemble has completed a 15-minute documentary film for Dick Barkeley and Gaby Monet of Concepts Unlimited, 150 West 55th St. "Line Repairman" portrays telephone personnel involved in their daily routine.

Kirshner Corp. Moves

■ NEW YORK—Kirshner Entertainment Corp., in line with expanding operations in music publishing, recording, motion pictures and television, has moved its headquarters to 1370 Avenue of the Americas. KEC will occupy the entire 28th floor, it was announced by Don Kirshner, Chairman of the Board of Kirshner Entertainment Corp.

Fantasy Forms Promotion Film Unit

■ BERKELEY, CALIF. — A full-scale film and video-tape department has been formed by Fantasy Records to make promotional films for Fantasy/Galaxy artists, video tape material for cartridge plus special projects including film shorts, features and TV programs.

Fantasy's film unit operation is headed by Fantasy Vice President Ralph J. Gleason and includes Irving Saraf as Manager and producer, Robert N. Zagone as producer and Kitty Allen as Production Manager.

Saraf was head of the award-winning film unit at KQED-TV in San Francisco for 16 years during which time he worked on many films as producer and cameraman and edited many documentaries for KQED and National Educational Television.

Zagone produced (with Ralph J. Gleason) and directed the recent NET two one-hour programs on rock music, "Go Ride the Music" and "A Night at the Family Dog" with the Jefferson Airplane, the Grateful Dead, Quicksilver Messenger Service and Santana.

Both Saraf and Zagone have worked on numerous films and TV shows in recent years produced by them with Gleason at KQED in San Francisco for National Educational Television. Included among them are the two programs on Duke Ellington, "Love You Madly" and "Sacred Concert," both of which were nominated for Emmy's; the documentary on the Monterey Jazz Festival; and the 24 programs in the Jazz Casual Series which Gleason produced and hosted for NET. In addition, Saraf was editor and cameraman on "Anatomy of a Hit" which Gleason produced for NET.

Already underway at the new Fantasy Film Unit is a promo film on Redwing, the new Fantasy rock group; a projected short film on the Congress of Wonders, the satirical group who have just released a Fantasy album; and an hour film TV documentary on American cultural change which is being done in conjunction with several foreign TV networks.

Hayes, Communiplex Work on 'Shaft' Movie

■ HOLLYWOOD — Stax recording star Isaac Hayes has been contracted to write the musical score and theme for the MGM film "Shaft," starring former black model Richard Roundtree as tough private eye John Shaft.

In a simultaneous move, MGM announced here that Communiplex, Inc., a recently incorporated international black-owned communications and marketing consulting group, has been retained to handle creative concepts in marketing and promotion for the "Shaft" movie. Communiplex, directed by Stax VP of Advertising Larry Shaw, is based in Memphis.

Communiplex has affiliated firms in Los Angeles, Chicago, New York and Africa, Shaw revealed. For example, Uni-World Group, Inc., a black ad and pr agency, headed by Byron Lewis and Bill Cherry in New York, is one affiliate; Communicon, Inc., a marketing group headed by William Fonvielle and Fred Grant in Chicago, is another.

the same?

THE NITE-LITERS—RCA 45-264

K-JEE (Rutri, BMI)
Irresistibly funky R&B instrumental is, for once, truly infectious and really should catch on top 40, if only as a time fill. Check this one out.

CROW—Amaret 45-133R

SOMETHING IN YOUR BLOOD (Irod/Lorlimar, BMI)
Crow makes hard rock with a difference. That is, they've always got things under control and Dave Wagner's vocals are consistently exciting.

CISSY HOUSTON—Janus J-159

DARLING TAKE ME BACK I'M SORRY (Murbo, BMI)
HANG ON TO A DREAM (Koppelman & Rubin, BMI)
Cissy revives the fine tune that Lenny Welch did so nicely some years back. She gives it a power-packed treatment that can't miss R&B.

THE DOOBIE BROTHERS—Warner Bros. 7495

NOBODY (Warner-Tamerlane, BMI)
Newcomers offer a driving rocker in their single debut. Progressively oriented, still no reason why this shouldn't get a top 40 shot.

DETROIT EMERALDS—Westbound W-181 (Janus)

WEAR THIS RING (WITH LOVE) (Bridgeport, BMI)
I BET YOU GET THE ONE (WHO LOVES YOU) (Bridgeport, BMI)
The "Do Me Right" guys return with a soulful ballad that's a sure thing R&B but has an unmistakable top 40 feel to it. Try some.

THE LOST GENERATION—Brunswick B 55453

TALKING THE TEENAGE LANGUAGE (Julio-Brian, BMI)
YOU'RE SO YOUNG BUT YOU'RE SO TRUE (Julio-Brian, BMI)
Group has come up with a catchy, haunting soul sound in this disc which catalogs the world's ills in the lingo of the younger generation.

SERGIO FRANCHI—Metromedia MM-219

NO MAN IS AN ISLAND (Bourne, ASCAP)
Sergio's first for his new label is the inspirational favorite in a big production by Neil Warner and Larry Levinson that features the Texas A&M Singing Cadets.

CLAUDINE LONGET—Barnaby ZS7-2033 (CBS)

ANYTIME OF THE YEAR (Blackwood, BMI)
GUESS WHO I SAW IN PARIS (Caleb, ASCAP)
Robert Brittan has added English lyrics to the by now familiar Israeli airlines ad. Claudine sings them beautifully.

VICKI CARR—Columbia 4-45403

SIX WEEKS EVERY SUMMER (CHRISTMAS EVERY OTHER YEAR) (Con Brio, BMI)
Shades of Tammy Wynette from Vicki this time around. Strong song tells of failed marriage and its effect on children will find MOR audience.

HEAD HANDS & FEAT—Capitol P-3124

LOOK AT THE WORLD IT'S CHANGING (Sound Is Now, BMI)
Britishers impressed mightily with their double record album. Single pulled from it is a pretty ballad that should appeal pop and MOR.

STEVE ALAIMO—Entrance ZS7-7501 (CBS)

WHEN MY LITTLE GIRL IS SMILING (Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI)
GEMINI (Press, BMI)
Artist returns on producer Chips Moman's new label with the Goffin-King classic that the Drifters made famous. Almost as good as the original, and that means very good.

BRIAN HYLAND—Uni 55287

SO LONG MARIANNE (Stranger, BMI)
Brian continues his comeback with this tune from the pen of Canadian poet-composer Leonard Cohen. Nicely produced by Del Shannon.

GARY WRIGHT—A&M 1267

STAND FOR OUR RIGHTS (Irving, BMI)
Another extraction from the works of the ex-Spooky Toother. He wrote and produced this tune that could become an anthem for the younger generation.

JERRY BUTLER—Mercury 73210

HOW DID WE LOSE IT BABY (Butler, ASCAP)
DO YOU FINALLY NEED A FRIEND (Butler, ASCAP)
The Iceman returneth with an uptempo R&B workout that will garner its fare share of pop action as well. Solid soul sound, as usual.

JOHNNY K. WILEY—Epic 5-10747

MUD ISLAND (Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI)
Newcomer speeds the tempo of the tune that Rita Coolidge included on her album. Impressive performance on excellent material. Give it a listen.

JAMES LAST—Polydor PD 2-15024

GIRL OF THE NORTH COUNTRY (M. Witmark & Sons, ASCAP)
European MOR master offers a full blast rendition of the early Dylan folk classic. Will introduce this material to new audiences. Listen.

JERRY RIOPELLE—Capitol P-3125

TAKE A CHANCE (Savona/Bumbershoot, BMI)
DARLIN' DAUGHTER (Savona/Bumbershoot, BMI)
This fellow, at times, sure can sound like Leon Russell. This country-flavored tune's intro is one of those times. Joyous cut from his first album.

DUCKBUTTER—Paramount PAA-0099

GOSPEL TRIP (MEDLEY) (Famous-Kaiser, ASCAP & Oleta-Starday, BMI)
Floridians sandwich "We Need a Whole Lot More of Jesus" between "Gospel Ship" and "Let The Church Roll On" in as solid a gospel-rocker as there's been to date.

NANCY SINATRA & LEE HAZLEWOOD—

Reprise 1021
DID YOU EVER (Tree, BMI)
BACK ON THE ROAD (Lee Hazlewood/N & H, ASCAP)
Duo that did so nicely with "Jackson" a few years back returns with another country-flavored tune. They produced it together, too.

LEON WILKS—Apollo 11

HOT PANTS MARY (Gorial, BMI)
I CROSS MY HEART (Maureen, BMI)
Intense, uptempo R&B workout is exhausting to listen to, but no doubt great to dance to. Flip a strong ballad.

FRIJID PINK—Parrot 45-358 (London)

WE'RE GONNA BE THERE (WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHIN' HOME) (Knip Unlimited, BMI)
Detroitters who revived "House of the Rising Sun" return with a rock update of the Civil War tune. Group wrote and produced with Vinny Testa.

KYLE—Paramount PAA-0100

VIRGINIA TRAVELER (Layne, ASCAP)
THE REASON (Layne, ASCAP)
Two cuts from artist's impressive "Times That Try a Man's Soul" first album. "Virginia Traveler," with funky folk feel, might be best pop bet.

JODY MILLER—Epic 5-10734

HE'S SO FINE (Bright-Tunes, BMI)
Jody's a country favorite who's bound to pick up plenty of pop play with her revival of the old Chiffons smash that inspired "My Sweet Lord." But no doo-langs!

JOE L—Hi 45-2195 (London)

AS THE YEARS GO PASSING BY (Lion, BMI)
PLEASE MR. FOREMAN (Soral, BMI)
R&B artist revives the D. Malone blues classic with clean setting provided by producer Willie Mitchell. Solid stuff out of Memphis.

THE KLOWNS—RCA 74-0485

FLOWER IN MY GARDEN (Heiress/Klowns, BMI)
I DON'T BELIEVE IN MAGIC (Top Floor/Trapeze, ASCAP)
Jeff Barry-produced, circus-related group is back with a somewhat heavier sound than you might expect. Its got that top 40 feel.

REPARATA—Big Tree BT 114 (Ampex)

THERE'S SO LITTLE TIME (Animals, ASCAP)
JUST YOU (E. B. Marks, BMI)
How many people do you know named Reparata? Former lead of the Delrons returns with a soft rocker that merits a top 40 shot. Nice.

STONEGROUND—Warner Bros. 7496

LOOKING FOR YOU (Chuckie Tunes, ASCAP)
ADDED ATTRACTION (COME AND SEE ME) (Chuckie Tunes, ASCAP)
Sal Valentino, late of the Beau Brumels, sings lead for this bunch. He also wrote this one, and produced it with Tom Donohue.

CHARLIE RICH—Epic 5-10745

A WOMAN LEFT LONELY (Equinox/Dan Penn & Central Star, BMI)
The "Lonely Weekends" man has created a solid niche for himself in the country and MOR market place. Great Oldham-Penn material.

DING-A-LING—Rotten Rat 45-R-1007

YOU KNOW WHAT MAKES ME MAD (Ogfile, BMI)
HI KIDS (HOW TO USE A TELEPHONE BOOTH) (Ogfile, BMI)
This tirade against the telephone company is somewhat reminiscent of Napoleon XIV's tirade against himself of several years ago. Novelty possibility.

SOUL PATROL—Zuma Z 100

DON'T KNOCK THE COP (Softcharay, BMI)
PETER PAN (Softcharay, BMI)
Group consists of three Black policemen from Lubbock, Texas. They've produced a funk workout that takes a stand for the finest.

MAN IN BLACK

JOHNNY CASH—Columbia C 30550.

Billy Graham makes a guest appearance on this new Johnny Cash album, which Cash says in his liner notes is his favorite album. June Carter and the Tennessee Three are the only other participants. "Singin' in Viet Nam Talkin' Blues" could be the single.

PURPLE IMAGE

Map City 3015.

The cut to wait for here is "We Got to Pull Together." It has a little bit of everything going on, and that makes it that much more exciting than the bulk of the package which comes across as slightly diluted Sly and Family Stone. Will get listens and buys, though.

BIRD ON A WIRE

TIM HARDIN—Columbia C 30551.

Tim Hardin albums are few and far between, and so this package in which he just barely gets it on will be a welcome sight and sound to the loyal fans. "A Satisfied Mind," "Georgia on My Mind," "If I Knew," "Love Hymn" are best of a very underdone set of tunes.

LOOKING ON

THE MOVE—Capitol ST 658.

The Move, who have moved to Capitol from A&M and taken some of their tapes with them, make very hard, acid sounds on this new package. "What?," which sounds like late period Beatles, is particularly ear-catching. A couple of the sides are lengthy. Nice enough.

EXPOSED

VALERIE SIMPSON—Tamla TS 311.

Valerie Simpson has been writing hit songs for Motown and other artists for quite awhile, and now she's decided to write herself a hit or two. And she has. Gal sure can cut it in any area she tries. "I Don't Need No Help," the opener, is an eye-opener.

INSIDE THE GLASS HOUSE

THE GLASS HOUSE—Intrictus ST 7305 (Capitol).

"Touch Me, Jesus" is already singling from this album. The spritely gospel-based tune should lead buyers to the package, which also contains "Crumbs Off the Table." Album is fleshed out with a number of other R/B sides that have sheen enough to recommend them.

HELIOTROPE BOUQUET PIANO RAGS

WILLIAM BOLCOM—Nonesuch H 71257.

Rags are not only recalled on this album, their tradition is revived. Pianist William ("Dynamite Tonight") Bolcom plays rags by Tom Turpin, Scott Joplin, Joseph Lamb, Louis Chauvin and Charles Roberts. He also throws in a few of his own, notably "Brass Knuckles" with William Albright.

HEAD OVER HEELS

Capitol ST 797.

Here's a Los Angeles rock group, who seem to have been making a name for themselves in the boiler rooms there. The trio is into hard rock, a hard rock of the sort that will be very, very familiar — perhaps too familiar — to hard rock fans. Package would seem to need work.

HOMEMADE

THE OSMONDS—MGM SE 4770.

The Osmonds continue their impressive impersonation of the Jackson Five on this new album, which contain currently climbing single, "Double Lovin'." Double bubble gum sounds fill up the album and fans of Donnie and frères will like it just like that. "If You're Gonna Leave Me" best.

WARM WATERS

CHARLES LLOYD—Kapp KS 3647.

"All Life is One," Charles Lloyd tells us in his first song, a sleepy ditty of the philosophic sort that is catching attention these days. Package seems to represent a new direction for Lloyd and it could turn out to be a very commercial one. The Beach Boys appear here, too.

AIN'T NO BIG THING, BUT IT'S GROWING

THE NEW BIRTH—RCA LSP 4526.

The New Birth, brimming with life (as their name, of course, implies), reprise a number of hits like "O-o-h Child," "Make It with You," "Never Can Say Goodbye," "Fire and Rain," "Let It Be Me" and, in doing it, sound more like the Jackson Five than they used to. "Honeybee" is cute.

THRESHOLD

PAUL CARNEY—Mercury SR 61345.

Paul Carney has written an attractive group of songs here, that have gentleness and spice and thought to recommend them, if not something absolutely riveting. "Product of the Past," which seems to be Carney's major message, is the best ditty in the collection.

OVERDOG

KEEF HARTLEY BAND—Deram DES 18057 (London).

Keef Hartley and group tear into a mess of rock songs here, and the way they chew up those grooves will undoubtedly impress a large segment of the buying public. Should do very well on the album trail, since the package has its own sound. "We Are All the Same" okay.

HIGH CONTRAST

GABOR SZABO—Blue Thumb BTS 28 (Paramount)

Gabor is into a whole new kind of rhythmic thing here. He is aided by Bobby Womack, who authored a few of the tunes and who also plays along. Album has all the simmer of previous Szabo, but now has a new electricity. Should get plenty of play here and there. Try "I Remember When."

Doc Delights

■ NEW YORK — I always envied the "Tonight" show's studio audience. While those of us at home suffered through Alpo commercials, the lucky ones were being treated to the horn playing of Doc Severinsen.

Complete with Johnny Carson introduction, the Doug Sanders of musicians delighted an overflowing first night crowd at the Persian Room (26). There was Doc, four outfits in all, leading his troupe, which seemed like the silent majority's answer to Mad Dogs and Englishmen. Specifically, they're called the Brothers and Sisters with the Now Generation Brass.

Doc gave us a varied set that included easy listening ("My Favorite Things," "Love Story"), gospel, ("Put Your Hand in the Hand"), a salute to the Beatles ("Here Comes the Sun," "The Weight") and for a finale, the Mac Davis tune, "I Believe in Music."

As a trumpeter, Doc has few peers. As a singer, I found him surprisingly convincing. Make some time to see his show. If you disregard the hokey atmosphere, you'll have a good time. Look for Doc's first RCA album in July.

Mitchell Fink

Gladys' Act a Pip

■ NEW YORK—They've come a long way.

Gladys Knight & the Pips, for years overshadowed by the Motown "super acts," have come into their own at last. In recent years they have been steadily gaining recognition as "super" in their own right. Recently (27) they opened at the Copa, and gave a fine, well-rounded performance.

Opening with their version of "Nitty Gritty," Gladys and the guys proceeded to do a program of contemporary standards such as: "Mama Told Me Not To Come," "He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother," "Hey Jude" and "Put Your Hand in the Hand." The Pips, comprised of two cousins and Gladys' brother, were spotlighted on "We Can Work It Out," as was Gladys on Kris Kristofferson's beautiful "Help Me Make It Through the Night." They included their hits, "Friendship Train" and "If I Were Your Woman," but omitted "I Heard It Through The Grapevine," which disappointed.

Overall, Gladys Knight & the Pips have a strong club act that virtually insures their longevity.

Gary William Friedman

By DAVE FINKLE

■ NEW YORK — Although he says that he doesn't like to talk about himself, Gary William Friedman (make sure to use all three names) doesn't hesitate to tell you when a melody of his is "really a gas" or "really good, if I have to say so myself"; and in a disarming way it should be added, he did so when he visited Record World last week to talk about how his score (lyrics by Will Holt) for "The Me Nobody Knows" (original cast album on Atlantic) is suddenly breaking just as the show is celebrating its first anniversary.

The deciding factor seems to be Bell Records' Fifth Dimension single of "Light Sings" from the show (the Fifth Dimension, remember, helped break the "Hair" score when they released "Aquarius/Let the Sun Shine In," also just about a year after it opened).

Suddenly, and in the past few weeks, Johnny Mathis, Roger Williams, Ike and Tina Turner, Melba Moore, Karen Wyman, the Staple Singers have released or announced plans to release versions of songs from the show. And Friedman is now confident that the score is on its way. "I think a lot of praise is due Tommy Valando and Frank Military," he said, "because they've been working very hard to get the score around." Valando and Military, of course, head Valando Music, which publishes the "Me" songs.

Broadway — And Zonk

Another reason that the score is getting known, Friedman suggested, is because of the show's move to Broadway. "We played downtown and then there was the strike and all that hassle and so we moved to Broadway and zonk, the show took off. Now we're building our audiences constantly."

Now that show and score seem set, how did it all start? "I called a friend of mine," Friedman reported. "Herb Schapiro, who was working on an opera with me and asked him how he was doing. He said he was working in the Trenton ghettos with a version of a book called 'The Me Nobody Knows.' I went down to see it, and somehow I divined that this was a musical. I told Herb that and I immediately began to set some of the children's letters, which were compiled by Stephen Joseph, to music. Originally I planned to set all the words verbatim and I did so with about three of them, but I realized that that was too loose. That's when Will Holt came in, and he was the perfect man to complete the job."

"I think of the show as an opera," Friedman said, "although we really avoid the word because people around Broadway seem to tighten up when they hear it. It's an opera not in the 'Tommy' rock opera sense, but in a more classical sense. Well, I guess that maybe it's hard to categorize the show, but scratch me and I'd have to say I conceived an opera."

To underline its opera specification, Friedman said that the touring company in Germany, which is a tremendous success, is using a cast of older children with trained voices. (Companies are also ready or being readied in France, Israel, Turkey and England.)

Builds from Song Before

"Each song in 'Me,'" Friedman went on to say, "builds out of the song before it so that the second song contains within it something of the first song, and the third song is the first two plus—two plus one—and by the end of the score, the last song 'Let Me Come In' is the logical outcome of what has gone before, if you get what I mean. That's the sense in which the score is serious."

All the math talk mixed in with description of music—the hint of geometric progressions—might be left over from the days before Friedman made it in the music world and spent his time teaching math and science in Bedford Stuyvesant. He left teaching when his then new wife, Barbara, decided he was a composer and should be composing.

"I was substitute teaching in those days and I used to get

Angela Returns As B'way 'Sister'

■ NEW YORK—Angela Lansbury will return to Broadway just after the first of the year in a new musical, "Sister," by Al Carmines and Paul Zindel.

Edgar Lansbury, Miss Lansbury's brother, will produce the show with Stuart Duncan. Lansbury's most recent offering is "Godspell."

"Sister" is an evangelical lady of the '30s, who goes around saving souls, among them, according to the press release issued at a Sardi's conference, her own.

calls, and I'd say to Barbara, 'we could use the gig,' because we were literally watching our bank account dwindle from 12 dollars to eight dollars; but my wife would point to the desk and say 'there's your work.' We were just about at the end of our bank account and my wife announced she was pregnant, and just when things looked bad, I got a commercial and then the show came along."

Work Piled Up

Well, the Friedman bank account gives indications of continuing to grow because Friedman has plenty of work piled up on his desk. He has just completed the score for the Stratford Shakespeare Festival's production this summer of "Merry Wives of Windsor" (he referred to the music as "renaissance rock," but promised never to use the term again) and has just begun work on a new musical based on Ray Bradbury's short story, "Sing the Body Electric," which should be ready for the fall of 1972. He has finished setting the Friday night Jewish services to music (in an attempt to revivify what he feels has become a stagnant service) under the title "Prayers for Friday Night" and he also is trying to place an album of Daniel Berrigan poems, which he has underscored, with a record company. There are a couple of other projects with a relevant topic or two attached to them that he's involved with but can't talk about.

"You'll notice," Friedman said, "that with all my music I try to incorporate a social theme. That's because I believe that a serious composer—and I think of myself as a serious composer—I suppose I should say that with a German accent—komm-poss-ehr—that a serious composer has a social as well as an artistic obligation."

Kahl Sets Up Music Complex

■ NEW YORK — Phil Kahl, President, has announced formation of a new production-publishing-management complex, for which Richard Roemer will be Legal Counsel.

The publishing firms are Kahl Music Publishing Corp. (BMI) and Lizdan Music Publishing Corp. (ASCAP). Kahl, veteran music business exec who maintains an open door policy for writers and producers, can be reached at Pramco Management, Inc., 6 East 45th St.—(212) 988-7250.

Echo Sound Active

■ NEW YORK — Activity continues to abound at Echo Sound Studios in Levittown, reports President Nick Balsamo.

Recent sessions included an album date of a group called Elbo (formerly the Good Rats), produced by Merchello Enterprises, Ltd. Another session was a singles date by the Soul Invaders, produced by Vivian Rogers. Balsamo also advised on the appointment of Harold Barber to chief of engineering, effective immediately. Barber had been staff engineer for the past year and a half.

Atco Re-signs Dr. John

■ Jerry Wexler, Exec VP of Atlantic/Atco, has announced the re-signing of Dr. John the Night Tripper (Mac Rebennack) to a new, five-year deal with Atco.

A new album, his fourth, by Dr. John, has been completed and is being scheduled for early summer release on the label. Recorded partially in London, it features an all-star back-up, including session visitors Eric Clapton, members of the Dominoes and Graham Bond.

Jubilee Pacts

■ NEW YORK — Mickey Eichner, Exec. V. P. of the Jubilee Group, announces a quartet of production pacts.

Irwin Levine, Larry Brown and Charley Calello teamed to arrange and produce the new Happenings single, "Lullaby in the Rain," with the assistance of Hank Medress of the Tokens. Jackie Mills is producing Sonny Denton, new Jubilee Group artist, via Denton's first single, "Gretta." John Madara has produced the new Tony Devon single, "Mary Mary." While Billy Meshel has produced "Every Day in My Life with Linda" by Horizon.

Weiss Daybreak Exec VP

■ HOLLYWOOD — Bobby Weiss has been named Exec VP and General Manager of Sonny Burke's Daybreak Records, helming all business matters for the firm here and internationally.

Weiss, for the past six years VP and Director of the international division of Monument Records, thus frees Burke to concentrate exclusively on A & R, production and talent acquisition.

Stated Weiss: "We are aiming for a fall debut of Daybreak and Sonny already has finished six of our initial albums. Therefore, I am beginning discussions immediately concerning a major USA label handling our distribution, promotion and sales. We shall negotiate global licensing of Daybreak country-by-country later."

Burke already has inked Bing Crosby; Frank Sinatra, Jr.; the orchestras of Les Brown, Nelson Riddle, Gordon Jenkins and Burke; the Aliis, the Don Ho vocal group; the Surfers; Manfred Fesl, Brazilian pianist, organist and composer; Larry Groce, pop-folk composer-singer; the Braziliants, all-girl vocal group; and Sandy Scott, Australian vocalist.

This marks a reunion for Burke and Weiss, both having worked together in the late '40s with the Musicraft label.

New Allman LP

■ Capricorn Records will release the third album by the Allman Brothers Band on June 15, "Allman Brothers Band Live at Fillmore East." LP was produced by Tom Dowd, and is a two-record set.

ASCAP Wins Case

■ In a decision by Circuit Judge Robert P. Anderson on May 24, 1971, Columbia Artists Management, Inc. (known as CAMI), has been held liable for copyright infringement in a test case brought on behalf of ASCAP member Gershwin Publishing Corp.

Judge Anderson, for the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, held CAMI liable for infringement of a copyrighted musical composition in a concert sponsored by a local community concert association, which had been organized by CAMI. CAMI has in the past refused to recognize its obligation to clear the rights for performances sponsored by community concert associations.

The Court held that CAMI had caused copyright infringement of George Gershwin's "Bess, You Is My Woman Now" by "organizing, supervising and controlling" a concert sponsored by the Port Washington Community Concert Association. The Port Washington Association had been organized by CAMI for the purpose of sponsoring local concerts promoted by CAMI. CAMI also manages artists who appear in these locally sponsored concerts. It makes an extra charge to artists, over and above its usual management commission, for appearances at Community Concerts.

The test case was argued by Herman Finkelstein, General Counsel of ASCAP.

Next Arnold Album

■ Eddy Arnold's newest single, "Welcome to My World," will be the title of his next album, which will be produced by Jim Malloy at the RCA Studios in Nashville starting June 8 for July release.

Fisher Unveils 4-Channel Tape Units, Converter Model

RCA Co-Hosts

■ NEW YORK—Fisher Radio, leading quality-component producers, recently unveiled its first 4-channel, 8-track tape units. At a special press showing, the firm announced that its commitment to 4-channel sound will be extended by addition of three pieces of equipment to the new line.

Models shown were the first Fisher 4-channel converter which enables the stereo equipment owner to convert his present components into a discrete 4-channel playback system by addition of the Model TX-420 and two speakers; and a new 4-channel receiver, the second marketed by Fisher.

Co-hosting the conference demonstration, RCA called the event significant since "participation of equipment firms with the stature of Fisher Radio will induct other manufacturers to enter the field and will also build confidence in 4-channel sound among consumers."

Irwin Tarr, RCA VP of Planning, further noted that such playback creates "greater realism and sensations, offering sound impressions not before available. The advent of 4-channel sound places the listener in the shoes of the conductor rather than the audience."

In this way, Tarr explained, the expanded sound and new impressions possible would work as an aid to classical awareness and to heighten emotional involvement for rock musical forms. RCA currently has 68 album titles on the market and will release 12 new sets per month.

Equipment shown last week featured the TX-420 two-channel to four-channel converter for "music lovers who have over the years made a substantial investment in stereo equipment" that need not become outdated in light of 4-channel stereo. Rated at 50-watts music power, the 420 is priced at $299.95.

The four-channel, eight-track player deck (CP-100) plays conventional 8-track cartridges or new Quad-8's and is to retail at $169.95. This unit may also be used to convert current systems to four-channel with addition of extra speakers.

NOTES FROM THE UNDERGROUND

RECORD WORLD

By CARL LaFONG

■ The Incredible String Band was in Southern California recently serving up their musical magic at the Santa Monica Civic. They got the audience off with their blend of mysticism, exuberance, energy and general all-round musicianship. Robin Williamson is truly a one-man band. During the concert he played flute, oboe, drums, keyboards, bass, cello, kazoo, mandolin, fiddle and both kinds of guitar—electric and acoustic. New incredible Malcolm Le Maistre, replacing Rose Simpson, is also versatile, playing bass, keyboards, clarinet and all manner of weird percussion instruments. He's a good dancer and actor to boot.

Mike Heron stuck mainly to guitar, bass and piano. He also has a great solo album out on Elektra entitled "Smiling Men With Bad Reputations." The LP is a bit of a departure for him. "Call Me Diamond" (the most commercial cut on the album and already released as a single in England) features saxophones and not the Guy Lombardo variety, either. "Warm Heart Pastry" employs a back-up band called "Tommy and the Bijoux." In case you don't know by now the boys in the band are Peter Townshend, Keith Moon and the Faces' Ronnie Lane.

Also of interest are some cuts that didn't make "Smiling Men With Bad Reputations." One unissued cut, "Lady Wonder," features

Elton John and Jimmy Page, Traffic's Steve Winwood and Chris

Wood recorded a version of "Flowers of the Forest" that had to be discarded due to the fact that some of the instruments used on the cut were not in tune.

Robin Williamson will also have a solo album due out in a few months and he will be playing most of the instruments on it. After the Incredible String Band's current American tour they will return to England and start work on a new album. This one they will produce themselves, now that Joe Boyd is living there and working for Warner Brothers.

Maybe we're doing something right. A few columns ago we suggested how nice it would be if certain record companies were to release greatest hits or Best Of LPs by artists currently not represented by such albums. United Artists has just announced plans for albums by Rick Nelson, Fats Domino and Eddie Cochran. A fall release date has been set. While you're waiting you might latch onto a copy of "The Very Best of Eddie Cochran" on English Liberty. That album contains 16 Cochran cuts of which 15 are great. The 16th is a ditty entitled "Three Stars" which I'm sure you'll remember as being about rock and roll heaven and three occupants therein—Buddy Holly, Ritchie Valens and the Big Bopper. Presumably it is Eddie singing in the background, because who ever is doing the tasteless rapping on the record sounds more like a top 40 jock than the guy who did the original "Summertime Blues."

Also on United Artists—an LP entitled "Winwood" which has made Stevie mighty unhappy. He and Island Records sent telegrams to lots of industry folks claiming that the whole thing was a ripoff. One of the biggest complaints, besides the fact that it wasn't authorized by Winwood and Island, was that all the cuts on the LP were group effort—Blind Faith, Traffic, Spencer Davis Group—not solo Stevie Winwood recording. KPPC's P.D. Les Carter read his telegram over the airwaves. UA claims Winwood owes them one more record.

Newest bootleg—now being imported from England is an album containing performances made in Britain during a 1965 tour by Bob Dylan and the Band. The sound quality is reported to be very good.

Primal Scream Department. Ever thought of putting together a tape consisting entirely of rock and roll screams, yells and other unnatural sounds? Little Richard and John Lennon would certainly be on it, but we think the most horrendous scream of all belongs to Edgar Winter. Toward the end of his recorded version of "Tobacco Road" he lets fly one of the most fantastic sounds ever put down on vinyl. Much more piercing and certainly longer than anything brother Johnny has yet come up with. Also give a listen to Ta Ta the lady singer with Pollution. She hits notes that only dogs can hear on "Mother Earth."

Revelation Records is a small jazz label run by Jon Horwich and John William Hardy. The label is dedicated to presenting fine jazz performers doing their decidedly musical thing. The musicians are allowed total freedom but they don't abuse the opportunity. They produce good, solid jazz. Our favorite recordings from Revelation are by super guitarist Dennis Dudimer (REV 1, 4, 11). Also notable are recordings by pianist Clare Fischer and former Lennie Tristano associate Warne Marsh. Revelation records are hard to find in the local record shops, so interested parties should write Revelation Records, P.O. Box 65593, Los Angeles, Calif. 90065.

Fearless Forecasts: The next big supergroup will be black. Very possibly it could be the Tony William Lifetime. Gone from Williams' new album, "Ego," is less harsh and considerably more mellow than his last two Polydor disks. He has added, for the LP at least, two percussionists, Ron Carter on bass and Ted Dunbar. Khalid Yasin (Larry Young) is still with the group and still playing fantastic space-age organ.

Hoagy Carmichael is ripe for a comeback via the re-issuing of his old recordings. The first company to repackage Hoagy singing his own material will make a mint.

ORVILLE STOEBER is contagious!

UNI what it's all about...

ANOTHER MEMBER OF THE MCA SOUND CONSPIRACY.

New Previn Single

■ Set for immediate release by United Artists Records is the Dory Previn single coupling

"Lemon Haired Ladies" with "Lady With The Braid." Sidings were culled from the recently-issued LP by the lyricist-composer-performer, "Mythical Kings and Iguanas."

Atlanta NARAS Youth Seminar

■ ATLANTA — The Atlanta Chapter of NARAS in conjunction with Georgia State University radio station WRAS will hold a Commercial Music Seminar for young Atlantans on July 12-16 in the Activities building at Georgia State University.

The seminar is being planned for young persons who are interested in learning more about the recording industry and who are possibly contemplating a career in commercial music. The entire week of morning panel discussions and afternoon field trips will be supervised by professional people in the recording industry.

Attendance will be limited to 50 persons, including approximately 30 high school and college students, 10 teachers in the field of music, and 10 persons already employed in the recording industry. There will be no charge for those participating in the seminar.

Applications are now available through the music departments of many metropolitan Atlanta high schools and colleges. They may also be obtained by calling the Record Academy at 233-6703 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. during the business week.

Subjects to be covered during the morning sessions include a history of the recording industry, types of music, types of recordings, the role of the composer, the role of the publisher, contracts and copyrights, the record company, the artist and his relation with the record company, personal management and the booking agency, the musician, the recording session and technical problems and advertising and sales.

Afternoon sessions will include tours of recording studios, radio and TV stations, and visits to other businesses involved in commercial music. The students will also observe an actual session.

The seminar is being made available by the Atlanta Chapter of NARAS and the NARAS Institute for Creative Development and Training. The Atlanta sessions are part of the Record Academy's overall program to provide educational facilities for persons seeking creative positions in the music industry.

RECORD WORLD MEMPHIS MUSIC

By PHYLLIS WICKHAM

■ Lots of action at Fame of Memphis this week. Sonny Limbo has been engineering some new sides for Jimmy Velvet, whose string of hits in the early '60s would just fill this entire column. Also at Fame, George Jackson has been cutting demos that have chartmaker possibilities from the first run-through. Especially liked "Saying Good-Bye to an Old Friend." Of course, everyone at the studio was talking about the upcoming Muscle Shoals Music Festival. We can't help but wonder why no hard-rockers are on the bill. Heard some nonsense about state ordinance against rock festivals. If it's true, it amounts to legal discrimination. And no one but no one, should be able to tell anyone else what they can and cannot listen to.

Nitro-Function is preparing for a tour of England sometime this summer. Nashville's Lelan Rogers is producer/promoter for new rock threesome.

Since we declared a vacation for ourself following the Memphis Music Awards, we haven't as yet congratulated the winners in print. Congratulations, winners. The show itself went fairly smoothly. We felt the standing ovations were a little overdone, but the enthusiasm was genuine in most cases. All in all, it was a remarkably successful evening, and Memphis Music, Inc., has much to be proud of.

Also want to say hello to "Tex" up in Jamaica, N.Y. He tells us that's Memphis Music Country. Wonder why he doesn't call himself "Mem"? Oh well, a rose by any other name and all that.

Since this is make-up week, we also want to welcome Record World's new jazz editor, Michael Cuscuna to the fold. A trifle belated, Mike, but a strong hello from a jazz buff.

By the way, it's funny how our Mid-South jazz guitarists seem to disappear. Does anyone know what happened to Louis "June-bug" Sheldon? He used to back Joe and Eddy way back when. Also missing is Ed Finney, who used to completely floor everyone who heard him at the Music Box.

Isaac Hayes' Movement group, with guitarist Bobby Manuel, really turned-on the Memphis Music Awards show. Fantastic togetherness. Also contributing to the evening's entertainment was the Willie Mitchell band. That's Mabon (Tenie) Hodges, Charles Hodges, LeRoy Hodges, Howard Grimes, James Mitchell and, of course, Willie.

Albert King is set to help close the Fillmores, East and West, starting in San Fran on June 3 and ending in N.Y. on June 27. An appearance at Hunter College is also scheduled for Big Al on June 19. The Bar-Kays and Clara Thomas are on their way to Tokyo. Carla will stay through June 17, then leave the Bar-Kays to scrutinize the inscrutibles on their own till July 29.

Our condolences to the family of Mamie Dell, who for so many years was the owner-operator of Memphis' famous jazz spot, The Sharecropper. She will be missed by many.

Rock LP Cover Book Via Boundless

NEW YORK — Boundless Books has announced plans to publish an art book consisting of the "Hundred Best Rock Album Covers." The book, as planned, will be hard-cover, 12" by 12", and in full color.

Boundless, headed by Peter Leeds, has established a panel of judges from music industry people connected with the creation and execution of such covers. William Harvey, Executive VP of Elektra Records, is Chairman. John Berg of Columbia Records, Marvin Schwartz of Capitol Records and photographer Joel Brodsky are also on the panel. Other industry creative heads are expected to participate.

"We have mailed a questionnaire to over 100 people in the music business, such as creative directors, artists, critics, radio personalities, retailers, etc., to get their choices of the best album covers, and to get their feelings about album covers in general," explained Leeds. "Of course, we will be talking to artists and art directors at the individual record companies for their choices. Taking these selections into consideration, our panel will then select the 100 best for the book."

Ivy Hill Sale

NEW YORK—An agreement in principle for the sale by Whittaker Corp. of its Ivy Hill Lithograph Division — large supplier of record jackets—to Ad Press, Ltd., has been announced.

Chappell Coordinating Porter 80th Anniversary Year Promo

■ Wednesday, June 9, marks the 80th anniversary of the birth of the late composer-lyricist Cole Porter.

In conjunction with this, Chappell & Co., Inc., publishers of Porter's music since 1936, is coordinating an entire 80th anniversary year (June 9, 1971 - June, 1972) aimed at refocusing public attention on the timeless quality of Porter's contribution to our musical heritage.

A year-long program of Porter broadcasts has been planned. Initiating this will be WNBC's "Monitor" on Saturday, June 5, with a national Porter tribute.

In addition, on June 9 entertainer Bobby Short, a definitive interpreter of Porter music, will perform an evening of his music at the Hotel Carlyle, N.Y.

New record action has also been spurred by the 80th anniversary celebration. Among those labels coming out with new product are RCA, which will release an album in October featuring the Living Strings and the Ray Ellis Orchestra; and Atlantic, which will issue a deluxe two-record set by Bobby Short.

In the area of stage and TV revivals, John F. Wharton, Trustee of the Cole Porter Musical and Literary Property Trusts, reports increased activity and interest. Among those properties being prepared for Broadway are a revised version of "Anything Goes," "The Gay Divorce," "Nymph Errant," a musical version of "The Pirate" (film), and "DuBarry Was a Lady." This last is also being primed for TV exposure, as are both "Red, Hot and Blue" and "Jubilee."

International Side

On the international side, the Marlowe Theatre in Canterbury, England, goes into rehearsal in early fall with "Out of This World." This revival of the 1950 musical will retain the original score with a new George Oppenheimer book. The production, starring Libby Morris, will tour England prior to a proposed West End opening. Also, the Sadlers Wells Opera Company has scheduled "Kiss Me, Kate" for the summer.

Porter displays, featuring manuscripts, sheet music spanning his career from his first published song (at age 11), photographs, album covers, show programs and photographs, will be on exhibit at various points in the New York area during the year. The exhibit was compiled with the aid of Warner Bros. Music, Porter's publishers prior to 1936, the Cole Porter Trusts and Robert Kimball, former curator of the Porter archive at Yale University. G. Schirmer, 49th St. music store, will be the first to utilize the display beginning June 7, followed by Playland in Rye, N. Y.

A special reference brochure prepared jointly by Chappell and Warner Bros. Music, entitled "Music and Lyrics by Cole Porter," will be issued in June. It contains complete listings of all published show TV and film scores with an article, "Porter in Perspective," by Kimball.

Other events planned for the Cole Porter 80th anniversary year include publication of a new book, "Cole" (Holt, Rinehart and Winston); a New York-based Porter film retrospective and a Friends of the Museum of the City of New York tribute in spring, 1972.

Flipping Over 'Flip Side' TVer

Neil Bogart, co-President of the Buddah/Kama Sutra labels, hosted a program on "The Flip Side," new weekly TV musical series with a behind-the-scenes look at the industry. Among Bogart's guests were (from left) Johnny Maestro, who does double duty as soloist and lead singer of the Brooklyn Bridge, and Tom Shipley and Mike Brewer, better known as Brewer & Shipley. Bogart rapped with his guests about the golden age of rock and the new directions in music. Brewer & Shipley performed "Tarkio Road," their current hit; Maestro sang his new solo single, "Yours Until Tomorrow." "The Flip Side," slated to begin broadcasting in the fall, is produced by Betty Sperber.

Thompson Music Established

■ HOLLYWOOD — Feature film distributor William Thompson and record executor Grant Gibbs have formed the William Thompson Music Corp. with Gibbs heading the new company.

Centering immediate emphasis on the development of new material and production of soundtrack albums (produced under the banner of William Thompson Productions), the company will also include contemporary music publishing, producing and commercials in its plans.

Current soundtracks in pre-production are "The Tender Warrior," "The Bus is Coming," "Shanghai Patrol" and "Return to the High Country," all planned for release during the summer months.

The main thrust of Gibbs' development program is the installation of a mini-recording studio in his offices at Producers Studio which will permit recording, over-dubbing and four-track tape mixing right from his desk. Other plans for Gibbs and Thompson are a series of one-hour syndicated concerts early next year.

Music Coordinator for the company is JoAnn Content, formerly involved in rock group management.

Próximamente saldrá un nuevo álbum de Laserie . . . Garrote de Miami Records nos cuenta los grandes triunfos de Rodolfo en Puerto Rico. Su número "sufrir" lleva más de seis semanas en el "hit parade" de la Isla del Encanto. Aquí está vendiendo muy bien su "álbum" . . . Nos informa Galo del sello Panart, de los triunfos en Los Angeles de su artista exclusivo Fernando Albuérne con "Toca Tres Veces." Por primera vez en la historia del radio en esa ciudad, un cubano logra mantenerse por más de cuatro semanas en el primer lugar de todos los cancioneros . . . También del sello Musart es el Long Playing de Los Galos, formidable grupo que nos ha impresionado extraordinariamente por sus maravillosas interpretaciones. Lograrán grandes ventas . . . Muy lucido el ágape ofrecido por la gerencia del sello Kubaney a su artista exclusivo Tomás de San Julián. Fué en el restaurant Montmartre donde se reunieron periodistas, artistas, disqueros y amigos del festajado. Allí saludamos a Lourdes Montaner y su esposo, el poeta Montaner, Jorge Ubieta, Alexis Farí y Ricardo Jorge, así como a Mateo San Martín, presidente del sello Kubaney, Jose Serra, Vice del mismo y René Velarde Ejecutivo de Ventas y Relaciones Públicas de dicha firma disquera . . . Luisa María Güell actuó en el Dade County Auditorium en el Festival "Canta la juventud" obteniendo grandes aplausos por sus bellas interpretaciones. La acompañó una gran orquesta bajo la dirección del pianista y compositor Julio Gutierrez.

Tone Latino dejó fuera a Raoul Aguilar. Mucho tiempo dedicó Aguilar al departamento latino de dicha compañía. La falta de interés por los norteamericanos de esa firma, y el no querer entender como debe manejarse ese negocio para los latinos, dio al traste con los esfuerzos de Aguilar. Muy lamentable lo sucedido . . . Armada y Rodríguez distribuidores para la Florida del sello Gema acaban de lanzar al mercado un "álbum" del trio "Los Condes" con interpretaciones del desaparecido compositor mexicano Agustín Lara . . . Rare Earth Files Mich. Piracy Suit

A tape piracy suit was filed in the Oakland, Mich., County Circuit Court on May 18 on behalf of the Rare Earth and Rare Earth Corp. by attorney Henry Baskin of Cooper Baskin & Feldstein against Pan American Distributing Co., Muntz Stereo City, Universal Tape Outlet, Stereo City, Harmony House and the Lear Jet Corp.

Suit seeks to enjoin the Lear Jet Corp. from supplying blank tape cartridges to the Pan American Distributing Co. alleging that by their knowledge of the purposes for which the blank tape cartridges were ordered, the Lear Jet Corp. "did cause severe financial loss" to the Rare Earth.

The suit would enjoin the other defendants from reproducing and selling all material included in the Rare Earth LPs "Get Ready" and "Ecology."

El "álbum" lanzado por Caytronics está vendiendo como pan caliente . . . Grabaron Los Pekenikes en España el tema "Tren transoceánico a Bucaramanga" en el sello Hispavox. Este es creación de Alvaro Serrano, arreglista, compositor y trompetista colombiano, que pertenece a Los Pekenikes desde hace tiempo.

United Artists Records ya aumentó los precios de su producción en UA Latino a $3.98 en long playings Estereo Compatibles. La producción Estereo se mantendrá al precio de lista de $4.98 hasta que duren las existencias en el mercado. Los primeros álbumes lanzados en este nuevo precio y modalidad serán los de Chucho Avellanet de "Love Story" y el de Vicentico Valdés, "Canta al Amor" . . . Se une ya con ello UA Latino al nuevo proceso de subida de precios en el mercado latino iniciado hace algún tiempo. De momento, se están celebrando reuniones a puertas cerradas, entre dirigentes de sellos norteamericanos dedicados a lo latino y productores latinos, para incrementar también el valor de los discos de sus producciones. Todo parece indicar que todo el mundo aceptará el aumento a fin de cuentas. Ello indicará a las claras en el futuro, que tenía razón cuando decía en columnas previas: "Si el mercado discográfico latino no va a un aumento de precios, puede irse ya preparando a la quiebra comercial." Ahora lo único que falta es que respeten los pactos y se anexasen los más necesitados, que son la mayoría de las veces los "aguafiestas" . . . Y ahora . . . ¡Hasta la próxima!

Willie Colon flew to Paris for performances at Halles de Paris May 29 - June 6. George Cabaz is the promotor responsible for his contract . . . Fuentes will release an album by their new group Los Idolos with Rodolfo taking care of the vocals. The title of the album will be "Los Idolos en el Idolo" . . . Sergio Denis is clicking in Buenos Aires with "Por Favor no te Encariñes Conmigo" (Francis Smith) on CBS. A new album by this singer will be released shortly in Argentina. Caytronics released in the states an album by Estela Raval and Los Panchos. Superb package! Estela was the soloist who made a success out of Los Cinco Latinos.

Ismael Maisonave, President of Mary Lou Records, has returned from Central and South America. Maisonave licensed record manufacturers in Panama (Discos Itsmeños) and Colombia (Codiscos). Deals are presently being negotiated for Venezuela, Brazil and Mexico. Yolanda Records will distribute these labels in Chicago and Enrique Gonzalez in Puerto Rico. All this is a part of the all-out campaign Mary Lou has launched to promote its catalog and to introduce the newly-formed Salsa label, which will specialize in the production of Latin-soul recordings. Producer Bobbv Marin is signing established Latin bands and production of several LPs are now in progress. Mary Lou will immediately release LPs by José Manuel Calderón, Conjunto Típico Ladi, Miguel Angel Figueroa and Dominica y su Conjunto . . . La Discoteca is smashing in Venezuela with their group Azúcar, Cacao y Leche. A single by this group containing "La Guitarra" already sold over 100,000. Also, their version of "Jesucristo," by their exclusive artist Victor Gamez, has sold this month over 50,000 copies. I deeply appreciate an invitation from La Discoteca to visit their facilities in Caracas. Caytronics Corp. will shortly launch their new labels, Caytronics Latino and Madison Records. This, plus the rights acquired from Audio Latino to distribute their product in the states and Puerto Rico is making Caytronics one of the strongest distributors in the U. S. Caytronics is the exclusive distributor for the states and Puerto Rico for all CBS Latin product . . . "Nube Gris" by Oscar Solo is a smash in Puerto Rico. Also, an album by Juan Luis in which he performs "Los Perdidos" is selling big.

United Artists Records will release all product in compatible stereo (UA Latino). The new product will be priced at $3.98. The label's present stereo line, which now retails at $4.98, will be discontinued as soon as the current stock is exhausted. With this increase in their prices, UA Latino is reflecting a great need in the Latin market. Most of the American companies producing Latin recordings are going up with their prices, which indicates that a new policy is being secretly established. Meetings and discussions over this matter are taking place among all Latin manufacturers and it looks like all of them are also going up. For several months this writer has been advising all Latin manufacturers to go up in prices, or prepare to go out of business. I am glad they are taking the needed steps to save the market.

Broderick Forms Tara International

■ NEW YORK—Formation of Tara International by Richard L. Broderick, former International VP for MCA Records, has been announced. Company will specialize initially in artist management and overseas representation for American labels.

Quest for Talent, Inc., has been established simultaneously as a wholly-owned subsidiary, and will concentrate on the discovery and development of new talent.

Broderick is President and chief executive officer of Tara, and he has named Harry Palmer as President of Quest for Talent.

First artists signed to Quest are composer-performer Orville Stoeber, whose debut album, "Orville Stoeber/Songs," was released last week by Uni Records, and Peter Thom, for whom a label deal is presently being negotiated by Broderick.

Tara, meanwhile, has concluded negotiations with two Nashville-based labels, Mega Records and Royal American Records, for representation outside the United States.

Broderick, explaining his representation concept, said, "We will function as the 'International Division' for the smaller important labels, handling their overseas growth and development on a full-scale basis, taking total advantage of international sales potential.

"Tara will do everything from shipping parts to specialized promotion, confining representation to a half dozen labels, so that we can give each of them the personalized attention they deserve."

Other negotiations are in progress with a pair of New ■ LONDON—Mickie Most's publishing division of his Rak Company is beginning to achieve the same success that the label has already enjoyed under the guidance of Mickie's brother Dave and assistant Bob White. They have secured Sweet's follow-up to their U.K. hit entitled "Co Co" released on RCA and also publish Hurricane Smith's smash "Don't Let It Die" on EMI. Meanwhile, on their own label they have New World's next, titled "Tom Tom," which was written by Rak writers Nicky Chinn and Mick Chapman.

No wonder that Chicago cancelled their early concert at the Royal Albert Hall. The single performance on the night of June 1 consisted of a power-packed, two-hour show from the Band during which they gave their everything to achieving an incredibly tight and well balanced sound. It would have been a physical impossibility for them to have given two shows in one night, but Chicago exercised great stamina nevertheless by flying straight to Germany and then on to every major European city and, in fact, taking only 11 days rest in nine months touring. Full marks for not only their musical ability but also their enthusiastic desire to please their fans.

Activity continues at Polydor with their Arwyn Davidson fast approaching the charts and having just secured bookings during the summer for all major European song festivals visiting Poland, Belgium, Spain, Italy and France. There is also the possibility of an Australian/New Zealand tour later in the year with the Everly Brothers. Polydor in representing Atlantic has the fastest moving record of the week with Tammy Lynn's "I'm Gonna Run Away from You" jumping from 26 to 11. This record was reissued as a result of bootleggers shifting several copies some six weeks ago and we predicted a big hit for it at that time. Also out on Polydor this month is the long-awaited John Mayall album, "Back to the Roots," which should repeat its stateside success here.

GERMANY

■ BERLIN—Our Joe Frazier shook my shaky hand in Berlin while photographers snapped us during his guest shot appearance on my RIAS dj show for his new single, "Come & Get Me Love," on his own label, Knockout. I was pleasantly surprised to hear his professional voicing with great feeling, while his friendly manager, Daniel Smythe, agreed with me that Joe has a big heart and gentle manner . . . George Pincus, one of our industry's pros, with million sellers such as "Go on With the Wedding" (Patti Page), "A Taste of Honey" (Herb Alpert), "Calcutta" (Lawrence Welk) and many others, has come up again with a big song called "Greta Von Wiedersehen." I hope you A&R men don't get hurt crowding George's door . . . Likable Lilo Bornemann has a smash with the new McGuinness Flint single, "Malt and Barley Blues," on Capitol . . . Another gentle lady in our biz, Erni Bilkenroth, will be happy to know that Joe Frazier has recorded "My Way" . . . Siggie Loch has achieved a flying start in Germany for the new Kinney group with "Brown Sugar" for the Rolling Stones hitting big . . . Very sorry to hear of the passing of Alfred Schacht's loveable mother.

Electrola's international star Petra Pascal doesn't even blink an eye while driving 180 kilometers per hour on the German Autobahn. When she invites me for a drive, I'll make my will . . . I would like to praise Manfred Sexauer for his network hookup show from Europawelle Saar premiering Petra Pascal's English disc, "This Is Mine" and "Holy Maria" . . . A few years back during a trip in the Mediterranean on board a luxury yacht, I met Sven Jenssen who impressed me with his flair and as a great performer. Now he has a hit single with "Love Story" in German, "Schicksals Melodie" on Resono Records . . . Vico Torriani will have a host of stars in his coming TV series, "Personality Show." Heading the list is Peggy March, who just returned from a successful tour of Japan . . . Uwe Lencher, Editor of Germany's

Paul Rich Recovering

■ LONDON—Paul Rich is recovering from a minor heart attack and is now expected to be able to take up his new duties with Carlin and Carbert Music some time in the summer.

Rich's exact role in the expanding music complex being assembled by Freddy Bienstock will not be announced until his return to Savile Row offices.

However, it is understood it is a promotion from his most recent post as General Professional Manager and Director and will entail working on both sides of the Atlantic.

Carlin is the British end of the Bienstock interests. Carbert has been formed to handle the American and international field.

Ex-Fleetwood Mac Peter Green is recording again. A single is already set for release on Kinney's Warner label entitled "Heavy Heart." We understand an album also has been completed although no release date is fixed. Drummer on Green's sessions, Chris Kelly, is also cutting an album for the company which will probably be titled simply "Kelly" . . . Board of Trade officials have told British music papers that under the new trades descriptions act they can be prosecuted if they claim to be printing a best-selling chart and that chart is not accurate to the last record. In future, the small print will have to say something like, "In the opinion of the editors, this chart is representative of record sales in Britain."

ITALY

By MARIO PANVINI ROSATI

M. P. Rosati

■ MILAN—In spite of the fact that Adamo is still extremely popular in France, for 15 months none of his records in Italian have appeared in our market. "Non Aver Paura" (Do not be afraid) and "Il Nostro Amore" (Our love) are the titles of two songs that Adamo has recorded especially for the Italian market . . . Carosello announced that Robertino on June 13 will present the song "Cosa Fai Ragazza Mia" (What are you doing, my girl) and composers Meccia and Micalizzi on TV's "La Feccia d'Oro" (The Golden Arrow).

Luciano Beretta. What can you say about him? He is a poet, writer, dancer, painter, composer and singer. Certainly his early life was not an easy one, but thanks to his perseverance he has reached his aim. Besides writing the words for some of the most important Italian songs including those of Adriano Celentano, he has written for Aznavour, Edith Piaf and Gilbert Becaud. To give a complete list of Beretta's successes would fill many pages, so we will list the most important: "Journalist's Prize of Reggio Emilia for pop music"; "Telefono Amico"; "Golden Juke Box"; and "Silver Mask." Now Beretta wishes to launch himself as a singer, and in the "Summer Disc" show he will present "La Tiziana." However, we would like to add that the title song of the popular TV show "Per un Gradino in Piu" (One step more) and "La Voglia di Fragola" (Desire of strawberries) were performed by him (SAAR).

Spielung with Chappell Germany

close cooperation with American managers or agencies. Secondly, it is very difficult for German artists to get a work permit in America, whereas this difficulty hardly exists for foreign artists coming to Germany. We think that artists like Peter Alexander, Udo Jürgens, Sven Jønsen, Vicky Leandros and Katja Ebstein could very well tour the USA.

Record World: Do you hear a new trend evolving in Germany regarding songs in the soft or hard rock style? Do you feel that a new trend is coming into Germany from any specific foreign country?

Müller-Blattau: It is certain that after this long period of hard rock, beat and progressive music, the more romantic titles will have a great influence on the German and other European markets. These songs, already on the charts, come mainly from the USA ("Love Story," "Rose Garden," "What Have They Done to My Song," "My Sweet Lord"). England, too.

Record World: In Germany, the record artists who appear on TV usually lip-sync their recordings, so that it isn't live, outside of rare occasions. Are you in favor of live performances on TV by record artists?

Müller-Blattau: Only in a live performance can an artist prove that he or she is really a good singer and actor, and that he or she has the capability to influence audiences with strong personality. We are very glad that the ZDF (2nd TV network) is setting a good example with the ZDF "Hit Parade."

Record World: What do you feel our industry needs?

Müller-Blattau: We need strong independent producers who have the courage and musical knowledge to promote young composers and artists with new, really unusual productions.

Record World: What do you feel are the most important characteristics and qualities a music publisher must have in today's market?

Müller-Blattau: Self-will, courage, feeling for quality, personality and the capacity to get good personal relationships and contacts with other people.

Record World: If you had two more words to say what would they be?

Müller-Blattau: "Love Story."

TONY WILLIAMS LIFETIME—
Polydor 24-4065.

This new album debuts Williams' new group with Khalid Yasin (Larry Young) on organ, Ted Dunbar on guitar, Ron Carter on bass and Don Alias and Warren Smith on percussion. Williams' music has toned down in volume and increased in percussive interaction. Very timely and unusual. "Mom and Dad" and "The Urchins of Shermese" should receive some progressive airplay.

WHAT WAS, WHAT IS, WHAT WILL BE

KENNY GILL—
Warner Brothers Raccoon WS 1913.

This debut album by pianist Gill is produced by two of the Youngbloods for their own Raccoon label. There is one solo piano piece and three quintet tracks featuring saxophonists Carlos Garnett and Bob Berg, bassist Stafford James and drummer Norman Connors. This music is exciting and creative. "Valley of All Brothers" should draw a lot of attention.

BURNING SPIRITS

HUEY SIMMONS—
Contemporary S 7625/6

Reedman Huey Simmons (or Sonny Simmons as he has been called up to now) is a powerful musician with strong, beautiful music. On this double album, he uses Pharoah Sanders' rhythm section, violinist Mike White, Barbara Donald and Richard Davis. Each of the six compositions provides a springboard for free, yet cohesive solos from Simmons and ensemble. Possibly the best recording by a very underrated musician.

THE CHASE!

GENE AMMONS AND DEXTER GORDON
Prestige 10010.

The romping sax battle is not new to either of these brilliant tenor saxophonists. On this album recorded live in Chicago, there are two rousing battles, one of which features vocalist Vi Redd. Both Ammons and Gordon step out on solo pieces too. An extra feature is the two superb Chicago rhythm sections, not often heard on disc.

CHARLES WILLIAMS

Mainstream MRL 312.

Alto saxophonist Williams with David Brooks on tenor and the versatile Don Pullen on organ present a beautiful set of funky tunes including Jimmy Reed's "You Got Me Running." The group plays hard and gets into some beautiful grooves without relying on clichés. A fine record.

instrument, opens for one week at the Guitar on 51st St. and 10th Ave. on June 16. He will be off the following week, but will re-open on June 30 for a second week.

JAZZ

By MICHAEL CUSCUNA

■ With a few exceptions, we have seen in the so-called jazz world groups led by a single person who excels as a soloist or composer. In the past month, I have been frequently exposed to two groups that may point the way to restructuring in the music world. The groups are co-operatives in which everyone is equally known and everyone composes and solos in equal proportions. Weather Report consists of Joe Zawinul, keyboards; Wayne Shorter, saxophones; Miroslav Vitous, basses; Al Mouson, drums; and Don Um Romao, percussion. Circle consists of Anthony Braxton, reeds; Chick Corea, piano; Dave Holland, bass; and Barry Altschul, drums. Circle recently played one week at the Village Vanguard and two at Slugs. Weather Report debuted at a Columbia press party, celebrating their first release. The music of both ensembles is unclassifiable and a beautiful mixture of strong, creative musical personalities. Neither band has a star with one single direction, and the music is better for it. If Circle and Weather Report receive the recognition that they deserve, we might see more brilliant co-operatives creating more pure music.

A significant structural change is also occurring on the business side of music. Large companies can hardly be bothered with the artistic treasurers that lie in their vaults. Biograph has arranged with Columbia to lease and issue many older jazz and blues items that the larger company has neither the time nor inclination to reissue itself. Serious music fans and collectors will now have more valuable music available to them. Hopefully, more majors will use the small independents to get old masters back to the people. It seems to be a perfect arrangement for all concerned.

Buddah Records, which has been busy playing down its bubble gum image by signing such fine artists as Biff Rose, is now about to create a jazz line. The label will be headed by Joe Fields, who is readying the initial release, setting up policies and considering new artists to sign. The first release will include an album by the late bluesman Elmore James, a Richard Davis album with Chick Corea and a Grant Green session.

Bob Shad and his Mainstream Records are getting back into jazz full force. He hopes to release 50 albums by December of this year. Already released are discs by Harold Land, Charles Williams, Blue Mitchell, Carmen McRae, Roy Haynes, Lightnin' Hopkins and Sonny Terry-Brownie McGhee. Shad has also signed Charles Kynard, Gloria Coleman, Dave Young, Hadly Caliman, Maxime Weldon and others. Shad will also reissue some of his earlier modern jazz material. By August or September, he hopes to attain and maintain a release schedule of six albums per month. Shad commented, "There is a big jazz market, and it's been underplayed and mishandled." He feels that a lot of companies handle jazz in a shoddy way and wants to rectify poor procedures. He records his artists in eight to 16 tracks, spares no expense on covers, maintains a photo library on each artist and will fully service college and underground as well as jazz stations.

What little black music that has been seen and heard on television has come mostly from educational, NET-affiliated stations. Once again, the new Public Broadcasting Service network is featuring a series of 10 programs produced in Chicago by Down Beat Editor Dan Morgenstern and Bob Kaoser called "Just Jazz." The series, which is aired every Wednesday at 8:30, began with programs on Erroll Garner and Dexter Gordon. The remaining ■ Seventeen young composers from the United States and Canada will share a total of $10,150 in the 19th annual BMI Awards to Student Composers competition, sponsored annually by Broadcast Music, Inc. Columbia CS 30661.

This record contains the combined genius of Joe Zawinul, Wayne Shorter, Miroslav Vitous, Al Mouzon and Airto. And genius it is. The music is unclassifiable tone poems that could reach any audience. "Tears" and "Waterfall" are the most representative. "Weather Report" points to a new future.

CLUB REVIEW

Hancock a Leader At Bitter End

■ NEW YORK—If it's true free-form jazz is on its way in, then Herbie Hancock should be leading the way. After a lengthy monologue that could be called a lesson in sound, the Warner Brothers artist proceeded to delight some and frighten others with his own special jazz interpretations.

Through the use of abstractions and electronic distortions, Hancock's band displays extraordinary talents for getting the most out of any particular sound they choose. That sound ranges from assorted sticks to the submerging of a microphone into the bell of a horn.

Some at the Bitter End (2) became frightened enough to leave, but for the most part those who stayed were thrilled. Herbie's latest album is called "Mwandishi."

Opening the bill was another Warner artist, Jackie Lomax. His hard-driving rock seemed out of place with Hancock's free jazz. Jackie's set included cuts from his latest LP, "Home is in My Head."

Finley Sees Non-Music Audio Cassette Boom

NEW YORK — "Though the future of videocassettes is bright, the non-music use of audio cassettes is booming."

So said Larry Finley, Executive Director of the International Tape Association, at a luncheon given recently by Cassette Development Corp., creative division of Avery & Elkins, Inc.

This was the first of a series of luncheon seminars sponsored by Cassette Development Corp. to facilitate a useful exchange of information and ideas between tape industry users and producers.

"Numerous publishing, educational, pharmaceutical and business concerns are now engaged in extensive programs using audio cassettes," said Finley. "New uses of audio cassettes are found daily. However, a second great period of cassette growth will occur as soon as a standard for the videocassette is agreed upon. The possibilities suggested by practical videotape, which will carry both pictures and sound, are truly infinite."

Finley told the audience, "With further miniaurization of equipment, desk units will become practical. Salesmen will carry video point of purchase units and executives will carry units in attache cases. Doctors will be trained in new techniques right in their own offices," he predicted.

Finley stressed the important role that a quality duplicator played in making a program successful. He stated that many producers of non-music tapes spent many hundreds of dollars to produce a tape, and then took it to a "bargain basement" duplicator, only to end up with disappointing results.

The luncheon was attended by a cross section of executives from insurance companies, banks, advertising agencies, industry, education, consultants and other users of tape.

Cassette Development Corp. plans to hold similar seminars in the future for members of the tape industry and tape users.

dent of Marketing for the Bell and Howell division.

The agreement begins immediately for the Uni and Decca labels while the Kapp label is currently under contract to Ampex.

The Bell and Howell Magnetic Tape Company is headquartered in Irvine, Calif.

company's short history, 13 Creative Sound albums were included in this year's Grammy Eligibility List. "In the Beginning..." a documentary on the Apollo program, went to the finals for Best Spoken Word Recording. This same album also won the Christian Booksellers Association Promotional Award for Best Album Cover in the religious field. CBA represents over 1000 retailers that market religious books and records.

The Creative Sound artist roster includes the Armageddon Experience (with a current regional hit, "I've Got Love"); The New Creation, Arthur Blessitt and the Eternal Rush; Love Company; Justin Time; Agape; Wedgwood; the Unknown Quantity; Sound Foundation; the New Light; the Weatherfords; New Folk and the Forerunners.

Attended UCLA

Cotterell first entered the recording industry while attending UCLA in 1957. He formed a pop group named the Galleons and they recorded "I Played the Fool" and "Pickup," both songs that he wrote. He then became Sales Manager for Sacred Records and, later, Supreme Recordings.

When Cotterell started Creative Sound, the first album was a religious organizational fundraiser featuring Dale Evans, Dr. Bill Bright, Lawrence Young, Dr. Roy McKeown and Al Sanders.

In Other Areas

Along with the aim of building a "Jesus Underground" part of Creative Sound's catalogue, they are also building a group of artists in the traditional sacred, folk gospel and other areas of religious music such as Jimmy Owens & the Westminster Sinfonia of London, Goran Stenlund and Carl Olivebring from Sweden, the Spectrums, the Gamble Folk and The Creative Strings. Creative Sounds has a current catalogue of 32 albums.

Vonda Kay Van Dyke Spreads the Word

Vonda Kay Van Dyke

■ NEW YORK—Vonda Kay Van Dyke likes to open her performances with Jackie DeShannon's "Put a Little Love in Your Heart." It begins with the phrase "think of your fellow man" which reminds Vonda Kay of her obligation to her audience. This concern for others reflects through all the activities of the former Miss America.

Besides recording religious music for Word Records, she has written two very successful books with a third on the way. Her "Dear Vonda Kay" column in Christian Life is directed towards young people. And she has worked in Billy Graham Crusades and plans to continue to do so.

For now, However, Vonda Kay has plans to record her first non-secular album, for which she is currently writing her own material. One song to be included will be "I'm Gonna Be Somebody," which she wrote in collaboration with Bobby Gosh. She counts among her major influences Jim Webb and Ray Stevens.

'Nicest Experience'

Vonda Kay has a method of committing herself to goals and then working diligently until she achieves them. It was in that manner that she became Miss America. She explains that it was not so much winning the title that was important to her, but rather reaching the level of competence that enabled her to do so. Still, she assures that she enjoyed being Miss America thoroughly, terming it the "nicest possible existence."

Vonda Kay, you will recall, was an accomplished ventriloquist when she became Miss America. She still is, and although she no longer employs a dummy in her act, she still throws her voice on occasion.

For the immediate future she will continue her television and radio work (she holds a degree in same from UCLA), but has no plans to try acting at present.

She explains: "I prefer singing because then I'm me." And that's just fine with all her admirers. Gregg Geller

TRO Recycles Paper On Seeger Book

■ NEW YORK—Judy Bell, Director of Publications for The Richmond Organization, has produced the first TRO publication utilizing recycled paper with the issuance of a song collection, "Pete Seeger on Record" (Vocal Edition).

Other TRO publications using recycled paper scheduled for release this month include "Campus Sing," songs of the '70s for group singing with optional 2, 3, and 4 part harmony.

Development of this project was handled by Miss Bell with Arthur Brezenoff of Faculty Press in cooperation with Kimberley Clark Paper Mills. TRO is also working with Radom Music Press in the production of choral music editions using recycled paper. "A Time for Living—Set 1," a series of medleys on timely themes with rhythm and bass guitar accompaniment, is scheduled for release this week.

It is estimated that by the end of this year, all TRO publications will be printed on recycled paper. TRO publications carry a special note that reads: "We use recycled paper to help save our forests and conserve our natural resources. May we urge all our readers to assist in this common effort by returning old paper through agencies set up in most cities for this purpose."

Thompson Directs N'ville SESAC

W. Robert Thompson

W. Robert Thompson has been appointed Executive Director of Nashville Operations by SESAC, announces A. H. Prager, Executive VP and Managing Director.

Thompson returns to SESAC where he had served from 1964 to 1966 as Director of Public Relations. He will make his office in the SESAC Building, 1513 Hawkins St. in Nashville.

Prager said, "SESAC is indeed fortunate to obtain the services of Bob Thompson as his background is one that is uniquely suited to our growth plans in Nashville. We regretted his leaving in 1966 when he chose to pursue other facets of his career. However, he returns to us with a more extensive knowledge of the industry. We are anticipating a long relationship as we look to him to provide leadership in strengthening our already successful Nashville based activities."

A leading independent record producer for the past five years, Thompson had been with Columbia Records from 1960 to 1964. During that tenure, he was both a regional promotion manager and the national promotion manager during Columbia's emergence as a top singles label. He has served in many industry capacities including the planning of NAB convention participation by the RIAA and as a past chairman of the Music Industry Committee of the United Jewish Appeal.

Thompson is a Navy veteran of the Korean conflict and served from 1954 through 1958 as sports director and supervisor of shortwave operations for the Armed Forces Radio Service at their worldwide headquarters in Los Angeles. He received numerous citations including a letter of commen-

Country Hall of Fame Expands

NASHVILLE — The Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum has recently undergone a face-lifting to enhance its appeal to the touring public coming to Music City, U.S.A.

Ever-changing with additions of personal belongings of the country music stars and artifacts from the history of country music, the Hall last year drew nearly 200,000 visitors. In late November of 1970, the then 3½-year-old museum had been seen by over ½ million visitors from all over the world.

The newly finished addition to the Artists Gallery contains another 75 photographs of country music artists in color to complement the original 60 pictures on display. The lighting system has been keyed to a taped series of the songs made famous by each of the artists. As a new song starts, a flashing light behind a picture draws the attention of the viewer. Running continuously the total of 135 pictures and songs is a never-ending pleasure to the thousands of fans who troop through weekly. Many artists and songs date back nearly to the turn of the century, while others are current in the popularity charts.

In the auditorium of the museum a newly created film, "History of Country Music," shows every half-hour. The script for the 25-minute film was the work of Paul Ackerman, a Trustee of the Country Music Foundation. It was edited by Allen Green; production by Bayron Binkley and Bill Holden, all three of WSM, Inc. The film credits the many record companies who have specialized in country music through the

"A Gunfight," the Western shoot-out movie in which Johnny Cash co-stars with Kirk Douglas, received such favorable reviews that there's talk of teaming them in another feature film . . . Watch yourself, Charlie Pride! Epic has signed a black country music singer. He is 27-year-old Welton Lone of Louisville, Ky., who grew up in Beaumont, Tex. COUNTRY SINGLE PRODUCT

NORRO WILSON—Mercury 73213.

SHOW ME THE WAY TO HER ARMS (AI Gallico Music, BMI)
IF YOU GET TO WHERE THE HEART IS (Don't Hurt Me)
(AI Gallico Music, BMI)

A Margie Singleton-Leon Ashley-penned tune that is the heaviest release Norro has had. This Jerry Kennedy production should put Norro in the superstar category.

RED STEGALL—Capitol 3119.

GOOD CHRISTIAN SOLDIER (Return Music, BMI)
TELL THE MAN I'M COMING HOME (Palo Duro Music, BMI)

Moving lyric and smooth Earl Ball production give talented West Coast newcomer Stegall a good chance at the charts. Should be heavy play item.

GEORGE JONES—Musicor 1440.

RIGHT WON'T TOUCH A HAND (Glad Music, BMI)
SOMEONE SWEET TO LOVE (Glad Music, BMI)

Sterling Jones performance on beautiful ballad with an unlikely title, but the story explains it. Another easy chart-topper.

DALLAS FRAZIER—RCA 47-9991.

MY BABY PACKED UP MY MIND AND LEFT ME
(Blue Crest/Hill and Range, BMI)

I'M FINALLY OVER YOU (Blue Crest, BMI)

Lots of good mandolin and dobro pickin' on a fast-moving novelty written by Frazier and partner "Doodles" Owens. Flip is a strong ballad.

BOBBY HARDEN—Mega 615-0028.

JUST BECAUSE HE LOVED HER (Green Grass, BMI)
ST. VINCENT MOTOR HOTEL (Jerry Chestnut/Moss Rose, BMI)

Bobby has had some good releases recently and this well-done waltz tempo ballad may be the one to establish him in the big time. Jim Malloy produced.

J. DAVID SLOAN—Starday 45-932.

COUNTRY BOY (Finius Myth, Inc., BMI)

The "country boy" has an uptown arrangement, but it'll get good play on MOR stations.

JACK RENO—Target T-00133.

SOMETHING HAPPENED (Spanka Music, BMI)
AIRLINE GIRL (Golden Arrow, BMI)

Reno takes a Paul Anka multi-million seller of a few years back and does a terrific job with it. Easy listening ballad that should get a lot of action.

ROD CREAGH—Epic 5-10743.

GRAVEYARD TRAIN (Sauk Music, SESAC)
THANK YOU LADY, AND GOODBYE (Sauk Music, SESAC)

An ode to death and getting ready for it. Features some strong guitar-pickin' and nifty vocal job.

JOE STAMPLEY—Dot 17383.

TWO WEEKS AND A DAY (AI Gallico, BMI)
CAN YOU IMAGINE HOW I FEEL (AI Gallico, BMI)

Hard-driving tempo on a self-penned tune gives Joe a good outing. Solid production by Norris Wilson.

FRANK IFIELD—Hickory 45K1595.

SOMEONE Acuff-Rose, BMI)
ONE MORE MILE, ONE MORE TOWN (Acuff-Rose, BMI)

A plaintive plea for "someone" is very convincing in Frank's persuasive style. Lush string accompaniment fits the mood.

ROY DRUSKY—Mercury 73212.

I CAN'T GO ON LOVING YOU (Moss Rose, BMI)
YOU'RE SHAKING THE HAND (Funny Farm, BMI)

A pretty Hank Mills tune gets the smooth Drusky treatment. Jerry Kennedy has produced another strong chart item!

COUNTRY FROM THE CONTINENT

By MURRAY KASH

Murray Kash

■ LONDON—On Wednesday, July 7, George Hamilton IV will be heard on BBC Radio in a 45-minute show devoted to telling the history of American country music. This should prove to be a very popular listening, as George is held in high esteem both as an entertainer and for his interest and knowledge of American country music and its British roots.

With this in mind, George has just completed an album, produced by Ian Grant, for RCA called "Heritage." The title is based on the six tracks chosen by Hamilton that are all British compositions (e.g., Ralph McTell's "Streets of London," Brian McColl's "Dirty Old Town")—backed by the Hillsiders. The other side of the LP has six tracks by these talented Liverpool boys—performing their own compositions—which shows the influence of Nashville music on their work but with a Mersey-beat sound. In his interview on a recent BBC radio show, "Folk in Fashion," George explained his constant quest to record songs that are different from the usual Nashville compositions, which are based on the three B's (booze, broads and bummin' around).

By the sound of it, "Heritage" should be a very listenable album for all country and folk fans.

At the recent Pre-Wembley Festival Awards Dinner, over $500 was raised in the raffle for a giant Easter egg (won by Hank Williams, Jr.). This amount was presented to the family of John Robinson, a member of CMA of Great Britain and former executive with MCA. The membership drive of the CMA (GB) is paying off with the signing of Keith Prowse Music and seven other potential members.

Ken Woolard, organizer of the annual August Cambridge Folk Festival, is planning to bring Pete Sayers over this year, as one of the feature performers. While Pete is here, he will be doing a tour of the clubs and U.S. bases.

J. David Sloan's "Country Boy" pick at WINN; starting at KCKN.

David Rogers breaking out at WCMS, WYDE, KTAL, WIRE.

Marty Robbins consistently strong at WCMS, WRFD, WMGS, WIRE.

Charlie Rich's "A Woman Left Lonely" pick at WYDE; moving at WUNI, KFDI.

Be watching for a new Bobby Goldsboro smash--it was recorded last week and it's probably the best he's done yet!

Bill Anderson Day

Bill Anderson Day was celebrated at the Atlanta Braves Stadium when the country music star was honored recently by the baseball team, the City of Atlanta and the entire State of Georgia. Proclamations announcing the tribute were issued by Governor Jimmy Carter, Mayor Sam Massell and the Atlanta Braves Baseball Club. Above, Bill and members of his group, the Po' Boys, entertain at ceremonies preceding the game between the Braves and the Philadelphia Phillies.

NOW IN PREPARATION THE NEW COMPLETELY REVISED

Country Music Who's Who,

A RECORD WORLD
PUBLICATION

1972

WITH ENLARGED CIRCULATION OF OVER 50,000

As the trade annual of the Country Music Industry, the Country Music Who's Who has become a standard reference of history, vital statistics and listings useful to all members of the music industry. For the 1972 edition, our editors have completely revised, updated and added new listings. They have also included entirely new consumer-oriented articles.

The handsomely bound annual is being merchandised as no book of its kind has been marketed before. It is being introduced to a vast audience through television, radio, and the press.

In addition to the editorial revisions, there is the added benefit of increased circulation—music trade sales, library sales, direct-to-the-consumer sales, and the important addition of record club distribution.

This all adds up to a good advertising buy. Make reservations now for best ad positions.

Only Freda could make Contact!

She's one of the most beautiful creatures in the business, and probably on the planet. Miss Payne's new album is called CONTACT SMAS 7307 and it contains her third smash single "BRING THE BOYS HOME!" IS 9092. It comes in a very special package which includes a 37" full color poster, featuring both sides of FREDA, suitable for fantisizing. Better stay in touch.
