WHO IN THE WORLD

SEPTEMBER 11, 1971

PICKS OF THE WEEK

SINGLES

TOMMY JAMES, "I'M COMIN' HOME (Big Seven, BMI). The Tommy James renaissance can't help but continue with this cut from his new album. At times reminiscent of "My Sweet Lord"; should follow "Draggin' the Line" to the top. Roulette R-7110.

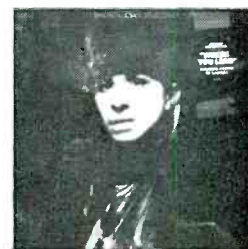

HAIFERS

MELVIN VAN PEEBLES, "SWEETBACK'S THEME" (Yeah, ASCAP). Groovin' instrumental theme from the hit film "Sweet Sweetback's Baadasssss Song" by jack of all trades a.k.a. Brer Soul. Of top programming value for all radio markets. So together. Stax 0097.

ALL RIGHTS

BARBRA STREISAND, "BARBRA JOAN STREIS-AND." Barbra J. Streisand has turned herself into quite a supple rock singer during the last two albums, and here she gives funky, shimmering readings of Lennon, Nyro, King, Bacharach and David. Oh, wow. Columbia KC 30792.

CYMARRON, "VALERIE" (Press, BMI). The "Rings" crew returns with a pretty pop-rock ode to an oft-sung of girl. Surefire top 40 item, produced by Chips Moman for his new label. B/w "Across the Kansas Sky" (Press, BMI) Entrance ZS7 7502 (CBS).

DON NIX, "OLENA" (Deerwood, BMI). Long-time Memphis music man sounds a lot like his sometime compatriot Leon Russell. What better way to sound? Intense, exhilarating gospel-like fervor. B/w "Riding The Blinds" (Deerwood, BMI). Elektra 45746.

BEE GEES, "TRAFALGAR." The Bee Gees, with their curious sense of history and faded romance, have put together another one of their lush, curiously decadent, egocentric packages. "How Can You Mend a Broken Heart," songs about England included. Atco SD 7003.

DAVE & ANSEL COLLINS, "MONKEY SPANNER" (Interglobal, ASCAP). "Double Barrel" duo follows-up with more of the looney tunes and silly sounds that so delighted the top 40 novelty audience last time out. Jolly good fun! Big Tree 125 (Ampex)

TERESA, "HE'S A COOKER" (Green Isle/Fred Burch, BMI). Catchy then some, "He's a Cooker" is a cooker especially noteworthy for its distinctive percussive effects. Lyrics are kept simple and to the point. Great vocal by newcomer. SSS 850.

JOAN BAEZ, "BLESSED ARE . . ." Joan Baez stresses the spiritual sides of things with this album, which includes tunes of her own devising, "Let It Be," "Put Your Hand in the Hand," "The Night They Drove Old Dixie Down." Cut with Nashvillians. Vanguard VSD 6570/1.

THE FUZZ, "I'M SO GLAD" (Jamf/Ferncliff/Sharrieff, BMI). The Fuzz, Val, Barbara and Sheila by name, have mastered that sweet soul sound. Follow-up to "Like an Open Door" ups the tempo a touch. Unique fade out-in. Calla C-179 (Roulette).

WEEKEND, "EVERYDAY" (Equant/Roslyn, BMI). Buffalo-based bunch sure have the pop-rock sound down pat. CSN&Y-type vocal cver organ makes their first single stand out above the pack. Hit sound! B/w "Country Fair" (Equant/Roslyn, BMI). Janus 168.

JOHN SEBASTIAN, "THE FOUR OF US." John Sebastian has evidently been going through some rather sobering changes. The package at hand shows him at a very mature point in his life. The second side—a breath-taking four-part song—shines. Reprise 2041.

New Campus Record Report Dialogue: Johnny Mathis Speaks Out Settler RCA Commercial Sales VP Wiedenmann Metromedia General Manager Klein Denies Stones' Charges A&M Holds International Meet September 8-10 Asylum Label to Atlantic

pany's fall releasing schedule and a new, multi-faceted campaign for the "Jesus Christ Superstar" album. ## Johnny Mathis Speaks Out

By TONY LAWRENCE

■ HOLLYWOOD—The summers of 1959-60 seemed unusually balmy. If your girlfriend had a swimming pool—all the better. If she had a hi-fi and some Johnny Mathis albums—the relationship was complete, for this archetypal balladeer provided the best

Johnny Mathis

“make out” music possible. A Mathis song was (and is) always done with impeccable care and a thoughtful sensitivity which makes him the keeper of a very special place in pop music history. Today Mathis, in addition to overseeing Rojon Productions, which produces all of his live concerts and live television appearances, and Jonmat Records, which owns all the masters and then rents them to Columbia for distribution, enjoys as active a career as ever. We recently sat and talked in his elegant suite of offices, not about the past but the present through the eyes of someone who hates the word “heavy” but has, nevertheless, earned that distinction. Here is what he said concerning a variety of topics.

Male Superstars and the Selling of Sensuality: “There is an audience for everything. Certain people get a lot of mileage out of little ability and a lot of sensuality. The subtler you are, the more sensuous you are. Tom Jones has gotten a lot of mileage out of that [non-subtle] aspect. By the third time around it becomes very calculated. The level of volume in his singing doesn’t change and that becomes tiring. Engelbert Humperdinck has a much better voice but he capitalized on Tom Jones to the point of moving more on stage. So you get a heavy-handed, lopsided kind of performer. I like flexibility and variations and many shades. The public is very fickle. They always have been and that’s their prerogative.”

New Material, New Artists & Rock and Roll: “Carole King has been writing great stuff for years. It’s nice to see her perform her own material and to get the recognition that is due her. The Holland-Dozier-Holland songs are all good songs and each seems to be more successful than the next. Glen Campbell is an exceptional artist. I go to see Lena Horne or Dionne Warwick here, or if I’m in New York, Mabel Mercer and Bobby Short. I had never seen a rock group in person until Blood, Sweat & Tears at the Columbia Convention. I could never enjoy a whole evening of that music at that sound level.”

Kris Kristofferson and James Taylor: “I like James Taylor very much. I like his subtlety. I like the way Kristofferson writes, but I don’t particularly like the performances of his music that I’ve heard. He’s a fine writer. I like cowboy music. Cowboy music has a sound, a mournful wail and, usually, a shuffle beat underneath. The lyric content is very placid without any pyrotechnics. Kristofferson writes cowboy music as can Carole King.”

The Beatles and Simon & Garfunkel: “Their material is the kind that I can work and re-work. It has a foundation for a song stylist to work on. I go back and re-work a lot of what is on ‘Abbey Road’. Nowadays the songs seem to have such a short duration. They plan them for two or three weeks and then they’re gone.”

“The Strength of Earlier Songs Today: ‘Chances Are’ and ‘Twelfth of Never’ hold up very well mostly because they weren’t pretentious. They were a very legitimate kind of music that was pleasant to hear. There are songs that are not super pop, but they border on that, such as ‘Tenderly’. People can always sing those songs.”

Musicians Who Have Since Found Fame: “Quincy Jones and I worked together for the three years I was at Mercury. He did the a&r work. I always knew he had great abilities as a creative thinker and writer. Burt Bacharach was just a tune player over at Paramount when I started and he wrote ‘Heavenly,’ ‘Warm & Tender’ and ‘Faithfully.’ A girl at Columbia who couldn’t get arrested was Aretha Franklin. We were old buddies, but they didn’t know what to do with her.”

Recording—Yesterday Vs. Today: “I used to do—and still do on occasion—four songs in one three-hour session. They were all four tracks. We weren’t looking for any pyrotechnics within a song. We wanted to do outstanding material in an outstanding way. It didn’t hit anybody in the head. In my first singles session we did ‘Wonderful, Wonderful,’ ‘When Sonny Gets Blue’ and ‘It’s Not for Me to Say’ and ‘Warm & Tender.’ Ray Conniff did the arranging and we had 13 musicians. We didn’t want a big sound.”

Motown: “I’m thrilled with the success that Berry [Gordy, Jr.] has had. I’ve always felt that r&b artists have given us so much pleasure and yet have never gotten the monetary rewards or the public recognition that they deserve. They’re also handling that success extremely well. Berry is so bright and I see nothing but more success for him.”

Films: “About a year ago I was all ready and auditioned for producers, read for them and told them how much I was interested in doing a film. Just that quick I’m not interested anymore, and it’s because of the emergence of TV as a medium for me. I never enjoyed it until two years ago. I was uncomfortable and nervous and it showed. I never enjoyed seeing myself. Now it’s different.”

Personal Development of New Artists: “I’m not interested in taking anyone over to run their lives. I usually end up by giving them some money. There are times in a performer’s life when the thing they are lacking most is some money. When they show me that they are professional enough and that this is the only thing lacking, I don’t mind helping them.”

The Future: “I plan to do more concerts and more television both here and abroad. I’m getting ready to do a weekly half-hour show for syndication that would feature me and a group singing the songs of the day. Hopefully, it will be flexible enough so that it can be done wherever I’m performing around the country. I also just finished producing myself on a new album.”

Letter to the Editor

On Behalf of Secondaries

■ In a previous issue Mr. Jack Fine’s letter appeared taking a heavy hand to the secondary stations because of their “follow the biggie” attitude with their playlist. Let’s put the blame where it is due and it most certainly is not with the average secondary.

The WFSO policy calls for us to audition every record and album cut that the station receives, and if it fits our contemporary music format it is given air play. With a full-time request line we then note the request response to the new record and if no response we drop them. If the reaction is good we know we have a record our 18 to 35 audience likes

Every label tells a story. On Vikki Carr's new single, it's Top 40.

Because "I Can't Give Back the Love I Feel for You" was written by Brian Holland (of Holland, Dozier and Holland) and Valerie Simpson and Nick Ashford ("Ain't No Mountain High Enough").

As Billboard put it, "This driving blues-rock ballad will hit with impact... by far one of Vikki's most potent entries.... It could easily go all the way."

And Cash Box said, "Diana Ross favorite is given a stupendous performance. Stunning vocals and electrifying production make the hit potential of this outing a certainty."

And Record World's front cover read, "Vikki has simply never sounded better.... Hit sound!"

"I Can't Give Back the Love I Feel for You." It's another Vikki Carr story with a happy ending.

The Value of College Radio

By GARY K. COHEN

■ (Editor's Note: The Campus Record Report is a new weekly feature of Record World that will deal with the goings-on of campus radio around the country. It will include reports on the activities of college broadcasters, interviews with industry people and a programming section, indicating what product is receiving airplay at the college level.

Gary Cohen, who will write the Campus Record Report section began as music director of a college station. He was co-editor of the Yellow Banana, a New York-based publication devoted to college radio that appeared in May and June of 1970. Presently, he is editor and publisher of the College Radio Report, which is now entering its second year of publication.

All correspondence should be directed to the Campus Record Report, P.O. Box S, Corona-Elmhurst, N.Y. 11373.)

Most people are by now aware of the value of college radio, but I'd like to toss out a few ideas on the subject as an introduction to what we will be dealing with.

College radio is a training ground for the future.

Tomorrow's air personalities, music directors, program directors, and record company executives are finishing three or four years of radio at the campus level, and are stepping into jobs at record companies and radio stations. Many people in radio today cued their first record, sold their first spot, dismantled their first board, announced their first sports events, etc., in college radio. And one of the benefits of learning all facets of a radio station's operation is to prepare him for the future when he will be doing the same cueing, patching, selling, engineering — except at a 50,000-watt major market station . . . it's the case in the small markets and the large ones like New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Detroit.

Serves as Indicator

Campus radio serves as an indicator market for new product.

With eight million college students as potential buyers, and college radio reaching some 45% of them, it is apparent why record companies are now spending part of their promotion dollar on campus broadcasters. Music directors often send back detailed comments, reactions and response on new product to record companies. So when a record does not receive immediate response at the commercial level, promotion men use college station response as a guideline in determining acceptance of their product.

College radio sells records.

A check of the major labels shows that each one has either a college promotion director, an entire college promotion department or a network of representatives on campuses around the country. These promotion people service stations with new product and communicate with them on new and upcoming product, new artists signed, local bookings, special promotions, etc. Other labels make regular mailings to stations and keep them informed through mailings—giving them the same useful information.

Labels that have devoted time and research have found that college stations can help them sell their product. Quite simply, if an album is receiving no commercial airplay in a market, the college station is the only one playing the record, and the album has sold in the local record shop, head shop or bookstore, it is the college station that is selling the album.

Not Limited to Local Stores

But sales from college stations are not limited to local stores. Many college students do their shopping in local discount centers and pay discount prices for the records they buy, rather than pay the higher price at the local retail level. Other students hear a record and then order it through the mail from a record club they joined, or through an ad in the local paper offering albums by mail order. Still other students wait until they get home to buy their records — they may have large, non-portable collections of a few hundred records that they do not have with them at school. They may buy all of their records where they live. And this does not take into consideration the students who commute to school, who may hear a record played over the campus station (which is piped into the lounge, cafeteria or recreation area) and go out and buy the record. The market is a large one indeed.

There are also college stations in geographic areas around the country that have no competition . . . there are no other stations that can be picked up. So stations like WVBR-FM of Cornell, KASF-FM of Adams State College in Colorado and KCHO-FM of Chico State College in California are the only stations students can pick up. In other areas, even with the local competition, campus stations have the listeners. Some of them are 50,000 watts and are FM stereo.

Some companies have been successful in using time buys on stations tied in with artist appearances on campus. A prime source of bookings is the college campus, and many artists and groups prefer to work college dates because they are able to identify more with the audience. Tying the airplay, time buy, concert and other promotion together results in sales.

Advantage Over Commercial Radio

Why do people listen to college radio?

College broadcasters have an advantage over commercial radio. They are closer to the scene. Nobody can tell the moods, tastes and feelings of the campus more accurately than a college person himself. College stations can provide local news and, of course, in-depth coverage of campus happenings. A network of stations banded together during last year's Moratorium and fed coverage to each other via phone lines . . . listeners can sense this feeling of cooperation. There are also few commercials on college stations, as the primary goal of campus radio is not to make a profit but rather to operate as a public service to its listeners.

People involved with campus radio stations feel that the broadcasters have progressed in the last 12 months. There is more sophistication, more of an understanding of the radio/record industry. And people in the industry are paying more attention to college radio as an important broadcasting medium. This school year will continue to prove the value of college radio to the industry.

Kicking Off ASCAP Interview Series

Kicking off the new series of taped interviews with ASCAP writers, Los Angeles dj Bill Stewart interviews ASCAP composer and Board member Henry Mancini. The tapes are being distributed free to college and other stations. Tapes also will be heard overseas via Armed Forces Radio.

THE TIME TO LIVE IS NOW

BUZZY LINHART—

Kama Sutra KSBS 2037.

For whimsy and good times, there's no one around (unless you want to count Biff Rose, who's also on this label) who can match Buzzy Linhart. Linhart does his "The Love's Still Growing," which is growing with cultists and a number of other deceptively simple ditties.

ONE DOZEN ROSES

SMOKEY ROBINSON AND THE MIRACLES—

Tamla T312L.

Smokey Robinson and cohorts have been as consistent as any Tamla/Motown act over the years, and this album includes latest, "Crazy About the La La La," and early "Tears of a Clown." Interesting that Smokey hasn't yet been bitten by the social conscience bug around waxery.

STREET CORNER TALKING

SAVOY BROWN—

Parrot PAS 71047 (London).

Savoy Brown have never cut an album as good as this one, and they've never had one packaged so engagingly either. This is the disc that will finally bring them to the attention of a very wide spectrum of listeners. "Let it Rock," the title tune, just about all click.

TRANSITION

KENNY ROGERS AND THE FIRST EDITION—

Reprise RS 2039.

Kenny Rogers and the First Edition are just about to hit the tv screens in their own syndicated show. That exposure and their true treatment of the songs—many of them spiritual-flavored—on this package should turn this into a charter.

JAMES GANG LIVE IN CONCERT

ABC ABCX 733.

The James Gang have gotten it on live at Carnegie Hall, and the group have gotten it on hard. It seems these guys have bucked recent trends toward softness as they've gone in the opposite direction. Enough fans to make the album count will go in counter direction.

DUST

Dust are not all that different from the Grand Funk-Lord Baltimore groups of this world, but they keep their music together almost throughout, and occasionally even stop to take a quiet, deep breath. They could break through to the big money, if the breaks are right. Try "Goin' Easy."

THE FIRST GREAT ROCK FESTIVALS OF THE SEVENTIES

VARIOUS ARTISTS—

The market may be tiring of these blockbuster packages and may have all these artists doing those particular numbers on other discs. And the truly big Wight names aren't included. However, there are 14 heavy names showing up for one or more numbers and lines may queue.

SOUL TO SOUL

SOUNDTRACK—

Atlantic SD 7207.

Roberta Flack, Eddie Harris and Les McCann, Wilson Pickett, the Staple Singers, Ike and Tina Turner and the Voices of East Harlem are featured in this quasi-documentary now setting fire to local movie screens. The silver screen combustion might carry over to counters.

GENE CLARK

A&M SP 4292.

After being a Byrd and one half of Dillard and Clark, Gene Clark goes out on his own. His songs are tempered and quiet, for the most part, and sound as if they were first sung around a campfire. All of the tunes, with the exception of "Tears of Rage," are of his devising.

BLACK SEEDS

THE MAIN INGREDIENT—

RCA LSP 4483.

Ethnic pride is the theme running, like a stream to the sea, through this album. It's the last on which lead singer Donald McPherson sings (he died in July) and he gives out with compelling sounds. These are the songs that are making it r/b and pop these days. Sleek job.

LOOK AT YOURSELF

URIAH HEEP—

Mercury SRM 1-614.

Mercury has put a lot of faith and muscle in the hard rock sound. Group after group from that quarter play it as solid and unrelenting as possible. Uriah Heep is just one of them, but one of the best out of the waxery. Niftily-packaged set of acceptable tunes here.

UNTOUCHED

THE EMOTIONS—

Volt VOR 6015.

Isaac Hayes and David Porter produced this album, for starters, and although the guys might have been more stringent about the choice material, the album still has enough sheen and juice to command attention. Girls have the pussycat delivery, which could help place them on charts.

I FOUND ME A WHITE MAN YOU FIND YOURSELF ONE!

STEVE ROSSI AND SLAPPY WHITE—

Roulette SR 42065.

Steve Rossi and Slappy White have been making a go of integrated comedy for the past couple of years, and the very live audience here seems to dig the slick and fast gags. This is strictly stand-up stuff, but, paced against competition, it stands up.

ROCK REQUIEM

LALO SCHIFRIN—

Verve V6-8801.

Lalo Schifrin, who's so busy running from one tv series to the next tossing off note strings that you'd think he couldn't do anything else, has revised the mass for the modern ear. Fetchingly traditional and modern, it could find its market. And the beat goes on.

SP-4292 Gene Clark

The legendary Gene Clark in his first solo album since his affiliations with The Byrds, The Gosdin Brothers, and Dillard & Clark. A quiet, reflective album containing a whole new brace of Clark originals, in addition to songs by Bob Dylan and Jesse Davis. Produced by Jesse Davis.

SP-4308 Earth Quake

The exciting guitar band rock and roll group from Berkeley, whose sound is sometimes referred to as IBM Music (Involuntary Body Movement). It's healthy rock and roll, and if people are trying to tell you rock is dying, Earthquake will convince you otherwise. Produced by Allan Mason.

Free SP-4306

This is the Final, Definitive statement from one of England's legendary rock groups. This album features electrifying "live," extended versions of "All Right Now," "I'm a Mover," "The Hunter," "Mr. Big," and the group's last studio single, "Brother Jake." Produced by Ancy Johns and Free.

SP 77010 Cheech & Chong

Here we are in the seventies. Vietnam, racial unrest, disagreeable dope laws. The release of the Pentagon Black Diaries, etc. So in light of the current Funny World Situation we live in and with our distinct longing for laughter in the face of disaster, may we offer you the "Hard Rock Comedy" of one Chicano (Cheech) and one Chinese (Chong) in hopes that laughing with tears in the eyes does not become the national pastime... Produced by Lou Adler. On Ode Records

Mimi and Tom SP-4310

Mimi Farina and Tom Jans sing a variety of exciting, original songs about the Human Condition. Mimi is the singer-songwriter-guitarist whose past is now the legend of Richard and Mimi Farina. Jans is a young singer-songwriter-guitarist whose background is of Sixties college turbulence, and whose recent coming of age was a quiet, personal confrontation with some of the institutions that rule our lives. Mimi and Tom—The musical warm-up act for the individual. Produced by Michael Jackson.

SP-4316 Hookfoot

Elton John's fave English rock and roll band, Hookfoot has already been hailed by the English musical press as one of the most brilliant newcomers on the rock and roll scene. Led by dynamic Caleb Quaye, group's first album for A&M features definitive versions of Neil Young's "Don't Let It Bring You Down," Steven Still's "Bluebird," and a variety of exciting original compositions. Hookfoot will be coming to America this summer for a national premiere tour with Elton John. Produced by Caleb Quaye and Hookfoot.

Bill Medley SP-3505

This is Medley's first solo album in more than a year. And it is Definitive Medley, produced by Herb Alpert. Included on this album is a spectacular version of Medley's Righteous Bros. days hit "You've Lost That Lovin' Feelin'."

SP-4315 Sergio Mendes

This is the new, rocking Sergio Mendes & Brasil '77. A Mendes that proves once and for all that he can take his place among the great pop pianists of our time including John, Emerson and Michaels. Produced by Sergio Mendes.

SP-3038 Jack Daugherty

The Big, Big Band Sound is Back! And spearheading that movement is Jack Daugherty (producer of Karen and Richard Carpenter) and His Big Band. It's the Big Band Sound of the late Thirties and Forties with THAT rock beat of today, applied to a whole bunch of Daugherty originals.

Arlington House is publishing Simon's "Simon Says," a collection of his writings on the big band era; and Macmillan is bringing out his updated volume of a few seasons ago, "The Big Bands." Arlington House later will publish John Fowler's "Moonlight Serenade. A Bi-Discography of the Glenn Miller Civilian Band," with an introduction by Simon.

Belwin-Mills Print Goes Pop

■ NEW YORK—Belwin-Mills Publishing Corp., diversified music publisher, has shown vitality moving into the current pop market. "The printed music program in the last year represents a particularly complete exploitation of the scene," according to Martin Winkler, President.

The following is a list of the pop publications put into print within the last year:

For marching band: "I'll Be There"; "Rudolph The Red-Nosed Reindeer"; "Never Can Say Goodbye"; "Heaven Help Us All"; "You've Got Your Troubles"; "My World Is Empty Without You"; "My Cherie Amour"; "Mama's Pearl"; "For Once In My Life"; "United We Stand"; "I Hear A Symphony"; "Little Drummer Boy"; and "You've Made Me So Very Happy."

For stage band: "Everything Is Good About You"; "I'll Be There"; "For Once In My Life"; "Honey Come Back"; "My Cherie Amour"; and "You've Made Me So Very Happy."

For elementary band: "Little Drummer Boy."

For large concert band: "A Motown Portrait" and "Selections From: Joseph And The Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat."

For string orchestra: "Little Drummer Boy"; "For Once In My Life"; "Sleigh Ride"; "Syncopated Clock"; and "Fiddle Fiddle."

For chorus: "Abergavenny"; "For Once In My Life"; "Heaven Help Us All"; "Honey Come Back"; "I'll Be There"; "My Cherie Amour"; "United We Stand"; "You've Made Me So Very Happy"; "Never Can Say Goodbye"; plus four selections from "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat."

The program of music for schools also includes a complete half-time football show entitled "The Sound of Young America," featuring songs from the Jobete catalog.

While for the home, David Carr Glover has developed an elementary piano program titled "The Now And Forever Piano Series."

The folios for voice and piano or guitar include: "Chartbusters"; "The Jackson 5—Now"; "Galaxy, The Age Of The Stars"; "Selections From Joseph And The Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat"; "Diana Ross—Now"; "Rare Earth—Now"; "Stevie Wonder—Now"; and "Temptations—Now."

Coming this fall is the compendium of Jobete songs to reach the Top 10 on the charts. This book will contain about 125 songs and, in addition, photos of Motown artists plus a complete discography. The book will be issued in both hard and soft cover editions by Grosset and Dunlap.

Rosoff at Scepter

■ NEW YORK—Stanley Greenberg, VP of Scepter Records, has announced the signing of a long-term production agreement with Elliot Rosoff Productions.

The first single released on the Scepter label is "Fields," by Six Feet Under, a contemporary rock group.

Rosoff started in the music business as a classical violinist and is well known as a top session musician. He's also an arranger and has worked with Jay and the Americans and other artists. For the past five years, Rosoff has worked with Scepter as an arranger, copiest and has been Scepter's A. F. of M. contractor.

Lawrence Named

■ Dick Schory, President of Ovation Records, has appointed Ray Lawrence, Ltd., National Marketing Consultant for the Illinois-based corporation.

Lawrence, who headquartered in Los Angeles, will work directly under Schory and be in complete charge of sales, promotion, marketing and assist in the national advertising campaign for Ovation.

Sly, Etc., at Garden

■ Sly and the Family Stone perform with Ruth Copeland and Rare Earth at Madison Square Garden Sept. 8, 9 and 10.

On Behalf of Secondaries

to hear and could possibly be a national hit. But then what happens . . . ?

The record may be on a label that services us only occasionally by mail and we have no means of contact. (This happens quite a bit since we are not the major station of the market and the companies are only working their "bread accounts.") If we do have a channel of contact we get responses like this from the distributors: "Sorry, you should drop it, the company decided not to push the song"; "No stock available"; "You're the only station playing it"; "Since you are a secondary, if maybe W--- will play it we can get the manufacturer to push it harder"; "Why do you keep playing records no one else does." And the list goes on. How can you sell what is not available?

I have tried letters to the manufacturers which are never answered so my attitude has become "the hell with them." WFSO gives the listeners what they want to hear and we explain at times on the air that listeners will not be able to purchase a particular record, even though popular in the area. So as gifts to our listeners we run simple and easy contests and give away any dupes of the record we may have. All manufacturers and distributors are not this unconcerned, but I could count the good ones on one hand.

Couldn't Care Less

There is nothing that makes me madder than for a distributor to call and tell me a certain record is being played by all the "biggies" and is red-dotted in all the trades. I couldn't care less if every station in the world is playing it and all the trades show it with polka-dots. If my listeners don't react to the record then it is of no value to me.

WFSO continues its present policy in spite of all this, and so far our music stays a good two to three weeks ahead of any other station and sometime as much as a year. We so far have earned a gold record for this effort and we plan for more of these. But for this to happen and for more secondaries to strike out on their own they need cooperation, not tolerance.

With the restricted playlist of the biggies, where will the new groups get recognition or exposure? It will have to come from the secondaries.

Let the manufacturers, distributors and promoters clean up their own yard before they start throwing rocks.

Rich in U. S.

■ NEW YORK—Paul Rich, VP of Carlin and Carbert Music Inc., London, is on a three-month visit to the states in connection with the newly opened American office of Carbert. Address: 1619 Broadway.

Bell Inks Fuller

Jerry Fuller (left) poses with Bell President Larry Uttal after signing long-term production agreement with label. Fuller, who has earned four gold LPs and six gold singles, recently formed his own Moonchild Productions, Inc.

Bowling League Cut-Off Sept. 30

■ NEW YORK—Al Altman, who is organizing the local trade bowling league, has announced that the cut-off date for entrants is Sept. 30.

■ LONDON—RCA has won the battle to sign Gnidrolog, a contemporary four-piece act proving very popular in the London area. A & R Manager Mike Everett is justified in being "delighted," as he stated at the signing, for Gnidrolog could at last establish RCA's Neon label which must be of supreme importance to him, considering his recent added responsibilities reported last week. Another RCA-represented label, Vanguard, is off to a powerful start with a single by Joan Baez titled "The Night They Drove Old Dixie Down."

The first and certainly one of the most effective companies in the budget line here is Pye Records, now launching the first-ever 60-minute album series. The series will be launched in October with albums by Donovan, The Kinks, Sounds Orchestral, The Tony Hatch Orchestra and Sir John Barbirollis's Halle Orchestra which will all sell at approximately three dollars . . . Former lead singer with the successful CBS act Love Affair, Steve Ellis, has been signed by Chas Chandler to a management contract. Ellis and recording manager Mike Smith have chosen a Randy Newman title, "Have You Seen My Baby," for his next CBS single, his first under Chandler's guidance. The 20-year-old soloist has spent time recently on sessions with Hookfoot and Chandler managed Jimi Hendrix and more recently Slade.

Last weekend we experienced in one respect the most disastrous and, in another, the most successful of our open air summer concerts. The gloom of fires and fights, followed by several arrests, was offset by the glory of much money being raised for charity organization Shelter. The festival held at Weeley on the East Coast features 40 acts including the Faces and T-Rex and was attended by approximately 130,000.

Kass to CDF

■ BERLIN—"Where Do I Begin" could be the theme of this column re: the Radio/TV Record & Music Exposition taking place this week in Berlin, with 21 countries showing their product. Last-minute Soviet Russia entry makes it really the key international spot on our globe for this industry.

Without doubt America's Henry Mancini was the peak on the gala evening TV Eurovision show televised to 12 countries. The TV audience in the studio consisting of VIPs from our business gave Hank the most enthusiastic and prolonged applause of the evening. Later, on my RIAS microphones during the interview he told the radio audience, "I was very surprised and grateful at this demonstration of acceptance, especially by Berliners, in this very special city of Berlin" . . . The night before, the ZDF second TV network in Germany had a real gimmick televising Andy Williams in California over Telstar direct to Berlin singing "Love Story" in German. England's Shirley Bassey hypnotized the audience with her inspired singing, and later did my RIAS dj show. Dr. Laci Veder, of EMI Europe, remarked as guest on RIAS, "The most important technical achievement of Berlin's 1971 exposition is the Color Audio Record. I see the year 2,000 with positive belief that the Record will still exist, and stronger than ever."

800 foreign and domestic journalists reported all over the world in this history-making exposition. All German labels had their booths and showed their leading product with key artists, domestic and international . . . Polydor had Daliah Lavi from Israel, who won the first place in the Record World Annual Achievement Awards as Germany top female vocalist . . . CBS showed off their Danyel Gerard . . . BASF, the new German record company with world distribution topped the exposition with the package "Glory Hallelujah 2000," which premiered in Berlin. The BASF album was produced by Hans Falkenberg . . . Philips had their star Vicky on the TV screen, and Ariola had Udo Jürgens repping them . . . Electrola had Gilbert Becaud and Nancy Wilson . . . The great Ray Charles punched out his dynamic interpretation of a song . . . The orchestras backing the artists were James Last, Kurt Edelhagen, Helmut Zacharias and Paul Kuhn.

The biggest amount of product repped at the Berlin exposition came from the Japanese . . . The best press party was made by BASF Records, who rented an entire building and restaurant. Following the TV show, the AGS in Berlin gave a midnight party at the Hotel Gehrus. Surprise record of the exposition was Romeo backed by the orchestra of Riz Ortolani on BASF in Germany . . . Leif Kraul, Prexy of Metronome Records, doing overtime arranging for tickets to the midnight party after the gala evening of the record industry . . . Publishers, writers, producers, record men and all the people making up our industry roamed the exposition halls by day and the parties by night which resulted in the average of three hours sleep a night, including yours truly.

Moodys Begin Tour

CLUB REVIEW

Sam Has Potential

■ NEW YORK—Sam Signaoff, a new singer-songwriter on the RCA label, debuted at the Gaslight 11 in New York last week (25) with a set that revealed his potential both as a performer and a composer.

Most of Signaoff's songs deal with the familiar themes of love, loneliness and life in the city. There were many strong numbers, particularly "It's a Lonely Day" and the profound "Blue Duck Fly to North Country." He sang with obvious feeling and the personal quality of most of the songs was their outstanding feature. The only weak spot came in a protest number. It had an appropriate peace message, but somehow words like "Ho Chi Minh" and "Saigon" didn't lend themselves to Signaoff's type of music.

All in all, however, Signaoff could develop into quite an effective performer, and he can presently be heard on FM radio or on his new RCA album, "Blue Duck Fly to North Country." Mike Sigman gram that will cover most of the major markets with AM radio spots, and ads in the music trade papers.

In-store selling aids will include a specially designed point of sale poster created under the supervision of Atlantic's Sales department that will spotlight the nine Aretha Franklin albums on the label including the "Greatest Hits" LP and "Aretha Franklin Live at Fillmore West" which was recently RIAA-certified for selling a million dollars.

Eight LPs From Bell for Fall

NEW YORK — Gordon Bossin, VP of Album Sales for Bell Records, announces that the label's eight-LP lineup of fall releases will be backed by full-scale promotion, sales and publicity campaigns.

Underscoring the importance of the new LP releases are the personal visits being made by Key Bell execs to introduce the albums to distributors. From New York, VP Bossin and VP Oscar Fields plus West Coast General Manager John Rosica will go on the road to meet distributors and distributor salesmen in many major markets.

Recent chart singles which will be included in Bell albums this fall are "Never My Love" by the 5th Dimension, from their live album recorded in Las Vegas; "Summer Sand" by Dawn; "Rainy Jane" by Davy Jones and "Sweet City Woman" by the Stampeders.

Other highlights of the new release: a comedy album revealing the foibles of the Jewish-American Princess, by the producers of the First Family: the 5th Dimension's "Reflections"; the first Christmas LP from the Partridge Family; and a Christmas album featuring David Frost and Billy Taylor.

Backus Ruffs-It

Engineer Stan Ross, producer Ray Ruff and actor Jim Backus listen as latter's lines are played back at them. Backus plays God in Ruff's mammoth Biblical LP project, "The Truth of Truths," now being completed. A reception was held last week at RCA Studio A in Los Angeles for the package.

What Quad Means

middle of the bandstand or an arranger is going to want to set up in quad in the studio the way he's going to hear on the speakers.

Stone: Is phasing going to be a big problem?

Position of Sitting Problem

Cicala: I think position of sitting is.

Flye: If you take two speakers and face them at each other and put the same thing coming out of them, if they're the right distance apart you're not going to hear anything. Theoretically, that is. You're always going to hear something, because it doesn't work exactly so you're going to have to take this into consideration when you mix these things together. Sometimes you're going to want to get double power out of a certain frequency, and you put them on opposite speakers and sometimes it's going to work and sometimes it's not. And also, depending on where you're sitting in the room it's going to work better or not so well.

Stone: The sounds are going to cancel each other out?

Flye: Right.

Wax: So how does quad relate to this statement?

Flye: You're going to have to do some thinking to make sure that if you set it up a certain way the listener is going to hear it that way.

Stone: Is it true that to hear quad you have to be in the center of all four speakers?

Wax: So what you need is one chair with people sitting on top of each other.

Cicala: No, but you're going to hear a different mix, and I think that's groovy. The drag about regular stereo, when you have people over and want to play them something you have to sit them in one spot.

Flye: With quad you could get some sort of a feeling of surrounding, but stereo really falls apart as soon as you move.

Wax: So quad will have a personality even though you're not in center. Stereo is deficient in that area because if you're to the left or right you really get a bad mix, but with quad, wherever you'll be you'll get a fulfillment, but why is that true?

Yakus: Because if you have a speaker in a corner of the room and you just listen to those two speakers you hear the sound here; but you could put almost anything on those back speakers and it will fill up the whole room like it was around you, not just in front of you, and the difference is unbelievable, it's like night and day. Once I started listening to four speakers I never wanted to go back to two.

Flye: Imagine sitting in the middle of a piano, right there on the sound board.

Wax: Get a bathtub full of Jello with four speakers around it and... wow!

Circular Couch the Answer

Stone: A circular couch is going to be the answer.

Flye: I was talking to a guy the other day and he said it would be great if you could pull one riff out of a record and just get into that, separating the instruments yourself in your own home.

Yakus: You'll have to write listening instructions to the records.

Flye: There is one more thing I wanted to say about mixing. I think at first the mixing is going to be tough, but eventually it's going to be a lot easier than stereo because you can split things up and things won't mask each other. I find now when I'm mixing stereo there are certain instruments that play together, like when acoustic is playing with drums or a bass and bass drum are playing together I find that when I split those up the mix falls apart. You really have to split a lot of things up to have them work well.

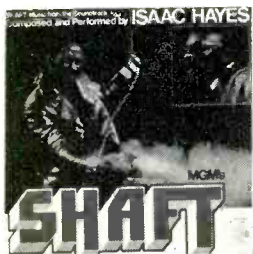

Yakus: It's going to be harder to mix if it's a group.

Flye: And still have it work.

Yakus: I've heard tapes come in here where a guy takes a stereo and just puts a thing here and a thing there and the mix falls apart, and maybe he doesn't know the difference. But when I remix sometimes and try to go back to what the group should sound like and you hear the real sound you can get from quad—it's going to be hard, but if you can capture it, it's going to be unbelievable.

Artista de la Semana

(Artist of the Week)

Tania Martí

■ Mi primer contacto con el talento de Tania Martí ya me resulta inolvidable. Había asistido como invitado de Pepe Delage, a uno de sus Programas "Buscando Estrellas" que se efectúan periódicamente en el Teatro Martí de Miami. Resultó triunfadora en Primer Lugar. Se lo merecía ampliamente. Como quiera que en la vida tienen que coincidir talento y oportunidad, a Tania las circunstancias le sonrieron. Augusto Monsalve, productor de Peer-Southern, para su recién estrenado sello Mónica, se encontraba en localización verdadero talento, para comenzar sus producciones . . . Ambos coincidieron. La primera grabación ha resultado un éxito. La promoción ha sido impresionante y cada vez aumenta más. La producción ha sido de las mejores que he oído en Estados Unidos, realizada dentro de la industria latina.

Sus éxitos "Te Debo Tanto" y "Otra vez Volvió el Amor" esperan ansiosamente ser in-cluidos en su larga duración, primero de Mónica y de Tania, que será posible, después del Festival de la Canción Latinoamericana de Nueva York, al cual asiste nuestra Artista de la Semana, como competidora de otros muy grandes talentos. Su tema también será incluido en el larga duración.

Tania Martí nació en La Habana, Cuba, el 31 de Enero del 1953. Surgió como artista en el programa nacional de aficionados de Radio Progreso. Resultó triunfadora en Primer Lugar. Después, el Circuito C.M.Q. también le dió el Primer Lugar en su Programa de Aficionados. Después, Estados Unidos . . . exilio!

Hoy día, Tania ha logrado hechizar a su auditorio en el Restaurant Montmartre de Miami, por tres semanas consecutivas. Sus actuaciones en el Night Club Tropicana, del Hotel Dupont Plaza, de Miami, resultaron en triunfos absolutos. Su "Te Debo Tanto" se está oyendo en casi todas las localidades latinas en Estados Unidos y ya comienza a hacerse sentir en toda Latinoamérica a través de la vasta organización de la Peer. Ambas combinaciones solo pueden llegar a una situación definitiva . . . ¡Éxito! . . . Y me alegro por Tania Martí . . . se lo merece!

Rhina Wins Gold

DESDE NUESTRO RINCON INTERNACIONAL

By TOMAS FUNDORA

(This column appears first in Spanish and then in English)

Tomas Fundora

■ He oído varias veces la grabación en vivo del recital de Gloria Simonetti, en el Teatro Municipal de Santiago de Chile. ¡Cuanto lamento no haber estado allí presente! . . . "Gracias a la vida" de la gran compositora de Chile y del mundo, Violeta Parra, "Pura Cuando Vuelvas," "Prometo Recordarte," "Debes Reír" y "La Violeta y la Parra" entre un gran desfile de bellas melodías. Felicito al maestro Horacio Saavedra por los arreglos y la dirección orquestal. Felicito a Julio Zegers y Nano Vicencio por sus temas. Un abrazo a la ya gran Gloria Simonetti. A Chile . . . ¡nuestro reconocimiento como cuna de grandes talentos!

Todavía resuena en mis oídos la última frase de Joe Ramírez de RCA de Nueva York, en mi última visita a sus oficinas; "Tomás, tenemos tantas grabaciones disponibles en cada una de nuestras empresas filiales en Latinoamérica, que nos vemos enloquecidos viendo o decidiendo qué material lanzar en Estados Unidos" . . . ¡Y lo creo a plenitud! Pero no obstante ello, vale la pena considerar también a Fernando Gutiérrez en "No Habrá un Sol en Nuestro Amor" de Leonardo García, en grabación de RCA chilena. Bueno, ¿debe o no debe RCA conceder el disfrute de algunos de sus catalogos a otras empresas? . . . No sería mala idea, ya que cada uno de nuestros grandes talentos latinos, en cada una de nuestras latitudes y en cada uno de nuestros mercados locales, merece una oportunidad. Dénseles . . . ¡por favor!

Luis García

Los Arriagada interpretan "Qué te Parece" magistralmente. El número es de gran impacto. También debe Capitol solucionar su problema en Estados Unidos. De todas maneras, recomiendo a todos los djs. en Estado Unidos y Latinoamérica este número! . . . "Chico de mi Barro" por Tormenta puede ser un exitazo dondequiera . . . "Carnavalito" es éxito impresionante en México por Los Babys, en Peerless . . . "Qué dolor en mi Tierra He Dejado" en la voz de Luis García, está recibiendo promoción en la Florida . . . Los Iracundos tendrán un nuevo éxito en "Infidelidad, es tu Traición" . . . Muy buenas las grabaciones de Los Dominicanos, un excelente duo como el nombre indica, que ha puesto Marfer en el mercado español y Latinoamericano . . . Va aumentado la popularidad de Julio Iglesias en Latinoamérica, a medida que su jira va en desarrollo . . . "Sufrir" por Rodolfo, en el sello Fuentes, se ha colado en el primer lugar de ventas y popularidad en Puerto Rico y Nueva York. Debe Rodolfo cuidar su peso, ya que podría estropear su figura internacional . . . Acaba de producir Ralph Lew un nuevo elepé para Cotique Records. Se trata de Pipo y la Superior . . . Agradezco invitación de Fuentes, para visitar sus instalaciones en Medellín, Colombia, y concederme el alto honor, de inaugurar sus nuevas oficinas del Depto. Artístico. Estaré con Uds. aproximadamente el 5 de Octubre próximo, después de asistir al II Festival de la Canción Latinoamericana de Nueva York . . . Y ahora . . .

Gloria Simonetti

Julio Iglesias

Hasta la próxima!

Record World in Texas

By GUILLERMO LOZANO

Acabo de regresar de un viaje de vacaciones. Quince maravillosos días por México. Esta vez hice el viaje por carretera pues deseaba pasar por Dolores Hidalgo, San Miguel Allende y Queretaro, lugares que vieron nacer la Independencia de México. Todavía conservan el aspecto colonial de fines de siglo, sus calles angostas empedradas y las viejas casonas envidia de modernos edificios anti-estéticos. Podría uno amanecer creyendo que se había envuelto en la máquina del tiempo y que había retrocedido ciento cincuenta años, pero despierta uno con Los Beatles Los You Know Who? con La Fresa Acida y otros grupos modernos que es lo único que se oye en la radio. Es difícil creer que está uno en el corazón de México y no oye uno en la radio ni una canción ranchera ni algo mexicanista . . . serpenteante carretera hasta llegar a la Ciudad de México, en donde lo primero que hicimos fué saludar a los amigos de las grabadoras, pero con la sorpresa de que éste ya no está acá, que se fué con fulano, pero aquel que estaba allá, ya se vino para acá. Esto quiere decir que Memo Infante, Calderón y Ruben Fuentes ya no están con Orfeón, que el caballero amigo Miguel Angel se fué de Musart, y que en lugar de Memo Acosta está el Ingeniero Sanches Rosaldo, bueno eso de, en su lugar, es una manera de decirlo, pues a Sánchez Rosaldo le falta muchísimo para ocupar un lugar como el que deja Memo Acosta, y no hablo únicamente de la experiencia, sino del don de gentes que caracteriza al señor Acosta y que le falta al señor Rosaldo. Estuve en su oficina y esa fué mi presión, ¡perdon! En el Distrito Federal suena mucho "Felicidad" con Victor Yturbe, "Golpe Traidor" con Los Sailors, "A Mi Manera" con Raphael, "Vamos a Platicar," con Los Socios del Ritmo, "Lo Que Se Queda" con Los Pulpos. Les recomiendo esos numeros.

En la RCA fuimos atendidos por el señor José Vias, por Alfredo Zavala, y por Don Constantino Escobar, quienes nos invitaron a un cocktail que daba RCA a la prensa y Radio para presentar a un nuevo valor, se llama Sola, y su presentación fué exitosa acompañada por la orquesta del Pocho Perez. Sola cantó las canciones de Manuel Alejandro que forman su primer LP de presentación. Se las recomiendo. En "La Fuente" triunfa Marco Antonio Muñiz, al lado de la guapa Morucha . . . Y con ese ritmo pasamos quince días, así que regresamos a San Antonio con intención de descansar de las vacaciones.

Pero a la llegada lo primero que veo sobre mi escritorio es una carta entrega inmediata, con el membrete de "Asociacion De Periodistas Especializados De La Republica Mexicana," y una gran sorpresa que me llena de orgullo. Perdonen la lata, pero les transcribiré un párrafo de la carta, y no es como para sentirse feliz . . . "usted ha sido dignamente seleccionado para recibir la codiciada presea "El Aguila De America" por su brillante impulso al medio artístico nacional e internacional, misma que le será entregada el 29 de Agosto en el Centro Social "El Patio," durante el Décimo Festival Internacional Artístico de México . . ." # LATIN AMERICAN HIT PARADE

DESDE NUESTRO

Gloria Simonetti—a great voice and performer who will really climb the charts if she is promoted. Congratulations to arranger Horacio Saavedra for his arrangements and orchestra direction on her new album . . . I understand that RCA has so much product available from their branches in Latin America that it is difficult for Joe Ramirez to decide what to release in the states. RCA should grant the rights to other companies to release the product they are not able to. For instance, Fernando Gutierrez from RCA Chile should be released immediately with “No Habra un Sol en Nuestro Amor” (Leonardo García).

Capitol is having problems in the states. Now, Los Arriagada could make it big with “Qué te Parece” almost everywhere. This was released two weeks ago in Mexico and included in their new album. Somebody take care of this problem regarding distribution of their product . . . “Carnavalito” is a hit in Mexico by Los Babys on Peerless . . . “Qué Dolor en mi Tierra he Dejado” by Luis García is being promoted in Florida . . . Los Iracundos will have another smash with “Infidelidad, es tu Traición” . . . Los Dominicanos were released in Spain by Marfer. Their performances of “Rico Azuquita” and “Cami-Caminado” are outstanding . . . Julio Iglesias is touring Latin America. As a result his sales are going up. He deserves the best! . . . “Sufrir” by Rodolfo smashed in Puerto Rico and New York, now is moving to all areas in Latin America. Rodolfo is with Fuentes from Medellin, Colombia. They have invited me to attend the inauguration of their new office for the creative department on Oct. 5 . . . Cotique is releasing a new album produced by Ralph Lew presenting Pipo and La Superior.

RCA Inks Everlys At Elektra Offices

An incident occurred last week that demonstrates the increasing comradeship between record companies.

Recording at Elektra's West Coast studio facilities with producer Paul Rothchild, RCA artists the Everly Brothers and RCA VP in charge of A&R Dennis Katz used the office of Mickey Kapp, Elektra's West Coast General Manager, to shoot their signing pictures for the industry's trade press.

Also recording this week in Elektra's West Coast studio, which has been used by such Elektra artists as Bred, the Doors and Crabby Appleton, is Harry Nilsson, being produced by Richard Perry for RCA.

Crosby, Nash Plan Tour

David Crosby and Graham Nash have been set for an extensive tour of the U.S. and Canada beginning Sept. 10 in Vancouver.

JAZZ

By MICHAEL CUSCUNA

Columbia Jazz Swinging

Michael Cuscuna

■ Jazz activity at Columbia Records is ever-increasing.

It has been almost a year since Ornette Coleman and Columbia started discussing a deal. Now, at long last, Ornette has been signed and will soon go into a studio. Ornette has been doing a great deal of writing and may be employing classical musicians on future projects. Charles Mingus has returned to Columbia! He is currently planning his first recording which will include many long-time associates as well as some older musicians such as Harry Carney. Meanwhile, Barnaby Records, distributed by Columbia, will reissue Mingus' second Candid album from 1960. In 1959, Mingus recorded two albums, "Mingus Ah Um" and "Mingus Dynasty" for Columbia. Next month, Columbia will re-issue "Ah Um" under the title "Better Git It In Your Soul." They will eventually reissue "Dynasty" as well.

Two of the finest blues labels in this country are Arnie Caplin's Biograph Records and Chris Strachwitz' Arhoolie Records. Both men have surprisingly similar outlooks.

Both prefer to maintain their own distribution, even though that is the main headache of the small independent. The problems are getting distributors to give your records attention, getting them to pay their bills and penetrating small markets. But Chris and Arnie value the freedom and directness of totally running their own labels. They have seen the majors absorb and destroy too many good labels.

Strachwitz has produced several albums for larger labels; Caplin is entangled in a leasing deal with a major. Neither has kind words for big business record companies. Chris feels that it is important to allow his artists one shots on major labels when possible. It gives them added exposure and serves as free publicity for Arhoolie's catalog.

But Both men know that serious black artists cannot really benefit from a long-term relationship with a major. Their records get lost in the shuffle and are usually prematurely deleted. They feel that their quality one-man operations can sell records very well and help the artist's career over a period of time.

Strachwitz' label has a modern jazz series that, surprisingly, has sold poorly. But Strachwitz' contacts and operation are not geared to the jazz world, thus reducing the potential sales of his fine series. Similarly, Milestone, a jazz label, has trouble selling its blues albums.

The series includes a superb and varied album by guitarist Jerry Hahn (Arhoolie Changes 7001) with violinist Mike White and drummer Jack DeJohnette. There is also a strong Sonny Simmons record, entitled "Manhattan Egos" (Arhoolie 8003).

But the most interesting Arhoolie jazz albums are the three which feature San Francisco musicians who might otherwise have never recorded. The group Luna (Arhoolie 8001) is similar to Sun Ra's orchestra in concept and instrumentation. The Now Creative Jazz Ensemble of 10 outstanding musicians (Arhoolie 8002) features the extraordinary composing and playing talents of vibist David Wilson, tenor saxophonist Bert Wilson and drummer Smiley Winters. Winters' own double record set (Arhoolie 8004 5) covers a wide range of musical settings and styles and includes Wilson, drummer James Zitro, trumpeter Barbara Donald, Mike White and many other Bay Area greats. These recordings have provided a valuable service for the San Francisco jazz scene. I might also recommend James Zitro's own album with Bert Wilson on ESP-Disc as well.

Arhoolie Records can be reached at Box 9195, Berkeley, Calif. 94709. Biograph Records is at Box 109, Canaan, N. Y. 12029.

MCA Holds Week-Long Clinic

Frio also revealed the diskery's new division of the midwest into two districts—as opposed to one for all the midwestern states—because of the great increase in company volume and activities there.

Dave Wulfsohn, formerly Assistant Midwest District Sales Manager headquartered in Milwaukee, will now be the District Sales Manager for the Upper-Midwest. This area encompasses Chicago, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Kansas City and Des Moines. Wulfsohn began his career in the retail end of the business and was the midwest sales representative for Kapp Records before his previous MCA Records, Inc., assignment.

Dearborn RCA Operation Manager

Domestic facilities which come under Dearborn's supervision include recording studios in New York, Nashville, Chicago and Hollywood; research and engineering headquarters in Indianapolis, Hollywood and Rockaway, N.J., and office locations in New York, Nashville, Chicago and Hollywood.

Jenkins Concentration

At the same time, Laginestra said that Harry Jenkins, Division Vice President, who had been in charge of record operations as well as country music A&R, will now be able to direct his full attention to maintaining and strengthening RCA's dominant position in the ever-growing country field as well as supervising RCA's activities involving the new Grunt label formed last month by Jefferson Airplane.

"We are at a time," Laginestra said, "when the recording industry embodies a growing number of product formats—

LPs and 45 rpm records, Stereo 8 and Q-8 cartridge tapes and cassettes. Looming on the horizon are 4-channel records and videocassettes. It is a period when all our facilities have to undergo almost continuous modernization merely to keep pace with the changing industry. Dearborn's excellent experience and performance make him the ideal executive to direct these activities."

Dearborn, who joined RCA in 1950 as a Record Engineer in Standards and Packaging in Indianapolis, had been Manager, Manufacturing and Engineering in New York since 1968. For four years prior to that, he had been Manager, Indianapolis Record Plant, and for the last three of those years was manager of the Indianapolis Tape Plant as well. Prior to those positions, he had held increasingly important managerial positions at the RCA Indianapolis recording complex.

Asylum/Atlantic

Ahmet Ertegun said, "We are very pleased to announce formation of Asylum Records with David Geffen. Over the past three years he has built an enviable reputation as a manager of outstanding talent. During that period he has been responsible for the sales of over eight million records. We believe he will be very successful with Asylum, which is one of the most important labels ever started by Atlantic. With the talent on its roster, Asylum is a major label from its inception."

First releases on Asylum Records will be issued Sept. 15. They include LPs by Judee Sill, Jo Jo Gunne, Jackson Browne and David Blue. Judee Sill's album will be rush-released as she is a featured performer with the David Crosby-Graham Nash tour that begins Sept. 10.

Asylum will be helmed by David Geffen, President of the label, with headquarters in Los Angeles. Most of the recording is taking place on the West Coast. The firm intends to issue two or three LPs a month for the rest of the year. Asylum will have its own promotion men and will work with Atlantic promotion staffers.

Taylor Gets Gold

■ James Taylor's "You've Got a Friend" single has been certified by the RIAA as a gold record, signifying sales in excess of 1,000,000 copies.

Jones, Flack and Thielmans Score

■ HOLLYWOOD — A & M's Quincy Jones, who seems destined to be part of the more brilliant re-birth of the big band sound coupled with equally fine light jazz compositions and musicianship, and Atlantic's Roberta Flack played a most impressive week at the Greek Theatre Sept. 30-Oct. 5.

With a backup band of heavies (Ray Brown, J. J. Johnson and Toots Thielmans, among others), Jones directed the group with skill and an alternating deference to Miss Flack who sang and played the piano. She definitely has one of the most dazzling voices in music today; a voice that personifies support and range. Her first selection was "Let It Be Me," the most exciting interpretation of that song I've heard since the Everly Brothers introduced it.

Jones also previewed his new theme for the upcoming season of "Ironside" and an array of superbly executed jazz numbers which featured an exemplary brass section.

A mention of Thielmans is in order for the sound he achieves on the harmonica (his artistry was in best evidence in the soundtrack theme from "Midnight Cowboy") is so beautiful and so consistent, that his assist to the overall showmanship of the evening was a delight. It's a wonder that more people haven't picked up on his solo album on Command.

'Pretty Music,' Pretty Maid

Susan Hart

■ NEW YORK—For those who remember "Doctor Goldfoot and the Bikini Machine," or "The Pajama Party," or any of a host of other products of the beach movie craze of a few years ago, the name, face and by all means figure of Susan Hart are certain to ring a bell.

The one-time movie starlet is now making records for MGM, and her latest release, "Caress Me Pretty Music," brought her to Record World last week to discuss her new career.

Favors Country/Western

"I'm as serious about singing as I've ever been about anything," remarked Susan, who hails from Hollywood but is currently on a cross-country tour promoting the record. "I would call 'Caress Me' light rock as opposed to a ballad. But my favorite kind of music for listening is country and western."

Susan's future plans depend largely on the fate of "Caress Me," which is already picking up play in several major markets, especially in the Washington, D.C. area. Having done

"The Joe Franklin Show," she is also interested in making other radio and TV appearances, and, looking further into the future, she sees the possibility of developing a night club act.

This October, Susan will travel to Vietnam with Sammy Davis, and on her return she will probably begin cutting her first MGM album.

Wonder is currently at work on an album which he is writing, producing and recording for Motown. A young admirer slips Wonder five.

only yesterday (Sept. 1, 1971). ABKCO, however, in connection with its nine-month earnings report issued on Aug. 17, 1971, denied any impropriety in their dealings with the Rolling Stones and further declared that they believed the Rolling Stones' lawsuits to be without merit. Speaking only for myself, however, I believe the allegations are at best ludicrous, and at worst, malicious. The transactions apparently now complained of by the Stones date back to 1965 and 1966, and such transactions, including ownership of American Nanker Phelge Music, Ltd., and Gideon Music, Inc., were fully disclosed to them at the relevant times and also to their independent advisors, whom the Stones have frequently changed. Moreover, in the proxy statement issued in connection with the acquisition in 1968 of Allen Klein and Company, Inc., by Cameo Parkway Records, Inc., now ABKCO, the ownership of these companies and the various contractual relationships between these companies and the Stones were fully and publicly disclosed.

"The Stones, according to newspaper stories, have recently 'dropped out' of England to live in France for tax reasons. Apparently, the New York and English lawsuits are an attempt to rewrite both history and their agreements in order to bludgeon ABKCO into accelerating, during this dropout period, the balance of the guarantee payments due them over the next 17 years. These long-term guarantees presently are in excess of $3 million, subject to various offsets for loans and advances made to them."

Lemongello Fine

■ NEW YORK—Pete Lemongello's got what it takes to be a staple on the supper club circuit for years to come. As was evident at his Rainbow Grill opening last week (30), his clean cut good looks, casual manner and easygoing delivery are particularly appropriate for such a showcase.

He selects his material carefully; most of the songs he sings are recent and currently popular. While he may yet be a bit young to deliver Paul Anka's "My Way" convincingly, songs like "Until It's Time for You to Go" and "For All We Know" have an ageless quality that he conveys very well. A medley of Rod McKuen and Bacharach-David tunes, including "Love's Been Good to Me" and "I'll Never Fall in Love Again," was exceedingly well received.

One minor, and hopefully, constructive criticism: every song built up to essentially the same high-powered conclusion that, while impressive at first, wore thin the third time around.

Pete Lemongello records for the Rare Bird label. They've got themselves a fine young singer. Gregg Geller

ATLANTA/MACON

By LEE BARRY

■ Edgel Groves, recording star, tire salesman and leader of his own musical contingent, provided the entertainment during a recent sunny hot 'lanta lunch hour in Peachtree Center, the concrete and glass heart of this Southern city's business district.

Groves and his group the Coconuts, 20 kids between the ages of 6 and 10 plus one white dog that howls on recording sessions, collected for the East Pakistan Relief Fund while entertaining cheering onlookers with an a cappella version of their first Tallent label single, "Wall Socket Baby." The 1920s vaudeville sounding tune is the first recording endeavor for the Coconuts, but it is not Groves' first disc. As a matter of fact, several recording executives can't seem to recall how many records Edgel, the son of an Ohio minister, has made. Groves recalls being with such name record companies as Whirl, Gary and his own Tiretown label in the past 15 years.

The subject of an Associated Press story over a year ago, Groves recently reflected on his Nashville recording career by stating, "They were building me to be a star, if you can dig that." The 15-year show business veteran, as Groves likes to think of himself, added, "I broke out with a country smash—right out of Nashville a little less than a year ago."

Now a retail salesperson at a popular downtown Atlanta automotive chain, Groves has worked across the country as a solo performer in the Hilton Hotel chain. He has additionally worked as an artist under the Hubert Long Talent Agency banner in Nashville.

Asked what brought him to Atlanta, Edgel Groves clutched his wall socket medallion dangling from his neck, tugged his silk-screened "Wall Socket Baby" tee shirt and then responded with the force and quickness of electricity, "To succeed as a recording star man!"

Georgia related artists are certainly more than succeeding these days on Nevada's "Silver Circuit" with Billy Joe Royal being held over for an additional two weeks debut performance in the Juniper Lounge of the Sahara-Tahoe. Meanwhile, in the Sahara-Vegas, dynamic showman Cortez Greer was such a success during his recent debut that he has been booked for an 8 week return engagement beginning Dec. 6. Cornell Gunther and the Coasters are working the Sahara-Vegas until Sept. 14 when they will be followed by the Big A's Fabulous Entertainers.

Scarlett O'Hara is alive and kicking in Underground Atlanta with hometown artist enjoying immeasurable success with summer engagements. The Tams drew standing room crowds during a recent gig and have been booked for not one but two return engagements with "Miss Scarlett." Atlanta Mayor Sam Massell was a surprise ringside guest for one Tams set as his honor stopped in to wish the hometowners good fortune on their forthcoming English tour. Dee Brothers and Dee Band are currently packin' 'em in at Scarlett O'Hara's. Dee Band has their first single on the Royal American with a rousing treatment of the Dolly Parton-Porter Wagoner tune, "Look What Love Has Done to Me."

Three Bobby Sherman concerts, scheduled in Bakersfield (27), Fresno (28), and San Bernadino (29) were cancelled due to Sherman's physical exhaustion, however.

Stephen Stills (Atlantic) played the Inglewood Forum (18) with an attendance of 14,800 and a $83,300 box office.

Procol Harum (A&M) did two nights (10 & 11) at the Santa Monica Civic drawing a total of 5,352 patrons and a gross of $24,458 with Spencer Davis and Peter Jameson (Mediarts) and Fanny (Reprise) also on the bill.

Hall of Fame Radio Spec Offered

■ "The House That Music Built," a one-hour radio documentary on the Country Music Hall of Fame, is being offered free of charge by KBUC Radio in San Antonio, Texas, to any interested station.

The program includes a history of the Hall of Fame, representative music by its performing members, a brief biography of each member and exclusive interviews with Ernest Tubb, Roy Acuff and Wesley Rose. It is believed to be the first radio documentary ever produced concerning the Hall of Fame, and was accepted in June of this year by Country Music Association Executive Director Jo Walker for permanent placement in the Hall's Library and Media Center.

Aired on the fourth anniversary of the opening of the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum in Nashville, the program proved so successful that it was re-broadcast on KBUC and subsequently sold to several radio stations. Recognizing its relation to Country Music Month in October, KBUC General Manager Harre'l Banks decided to offer the show without fee, in hopes of promoting Country Music across the nation.

The show has three 60-second commercial inserts and two 30-second sponsor identifications. Including intro, outro and commercials, the program runs 55 minutes.

Stations interested in obtaining this documentary should send a 7½ inch reel of .5 mil tape and a self-addressed postage-paid envelope ($.96 first class) to KBUC Radio, P.O. Box 20267, San Antonio, Texas 78220. A cue sheet will be returned to the requesting station along with the dub of the program. Additional information may be obtained from KBUC Program Director Jim Travis or Music Director Andy Jackson, who narrated and produced by Pam Smisek, Editor of the show from a script written station's newspaper, the KBUC Kicker.

Jeannie C. on MGM Label

■ NASHVILLE — MGM official B. J. McElwee told Record World last week that singer Jeannie C. Riley has just recorded her first session for MGM.

Miss Riley, formerly with Shelby Singleton's Plantation label, reportedly inked a five-year contract with MGM on the West Coast two weeks ago. Singleton forces are rumored to be preparing for a court fight in defense of a Plantation contract allegedly still in force.

Singleton's office told Record World: "We have no comment to make at this time."

Miss Riley is currently Top 10 country with her Plantation release, "Good Enough to Be Your Wife."

Rodgers Stamp Needs Support

■ A campaign is underway for the issuance of a Jimmie Rodgers Commemorative Stamp.

The Citizens Stamp Advisory Committee will meet the end of September to review over 4,000 proposals, and can act favorably on only 20. Letters endorsing the project could be the determining factor in the "Father of Country Music" being so honored.

The following resolution has been adopted by the Country Music Association and sent to the Advisory Committee:

Resolution

Whereas, Jimmie Rodgers is generally known as the Father of Country Music and is one of its greatest Pioneers; and

Whereas, 1972 marks the 75th anniversary of the birth of Jimmie Rodgers and the 45th anniversary of his first phonograph recording; and

Whereas, no recognition in the form of any honor on a nationwide basis has been afforded him; and

Whereas, country music organizations, record manufacturers and consumers feel strongly he should receive such honor;

Be it resolved that the country Music Association unanimously lends its support to a proposed commemorative stamp honoring Jimmie Rodgers.

Letters supporting the proposal should be sent to the Advisory Committee and individual Senators and Congressmen immediately. The address for the Committee is: Citizens Stamp Advisory Committee, c/o U.S. Postal Service, Washington, D.C. 20460.

COUNTRY PICKS OF THE WEEK

SINGLE  FREDDY WELLER, "ANOTHER NIGHT OF LOVE" (Young World/Center Star/Equinox, BMI). Freddy and hit writer Spooner Oldham penned the follow-up to his Top 10 chart record of "Indian Lake." This is Freddy's best to date. Billy Sherrill produced. Columbia 4-45451.

SLEEPER  JERRY SMITH, "GEAR JAMMER" (Papa Joe's Music House (ASCAP)/"THE TOUCH OF LOVE" (Papa Joe's Music House, ASCAP). The Jerry Smith piano instrumentals always make good airplay and jukebox items. This one is super uptempo and rinky tink. Decca 32869.

ALBUM JERRY KENNEDY, "JERRY KENNEDY PLAYS WITH ALL RESPECT TO KRIS KRISTOFFERSON." Great idea, guitar instrumental collection of KK's best melodies. This is Kennedy's first album in a while but for programmers and LP buyers, let's hope there will be more and soon. C&W stations, try "Come Sundown," "Just the Other Side of Nowhere," "When I Loved Her." MOR stations just drop the needle. Laurels to Kennedy's guitar, McCoy's bass and Carrigan's drums. Mercury SR 61339.

Tommy Overstreet.
When you're number one, you try harder.

"I Don't Know You (Anymore)" is Tommy's free spirited follow-up to his #1 smash single—"Gwen (Congratulations)". Once again, Tommy brings it all back home.

"It was," said the Festival's manager-booker X. Cossé, "one of the very best of our tours. It was especially gratifying in face of the pessimistic reports from some promoters about attendances in some areas." Cossé also said that Jethro worked as a single with the Festival and has been added to the show as a regular for this season and that negotiations with him are underway for 1972 appearances. Meanwhile, the Festival co-headliners (Chet, Boots and Floyd) have been set for a guest-shot on the David Frost syndicated TVer. It will be taped in New York Sept. 28.

Bill Rice's "Honky Tonk Stardust Cowboy" making rapid gains in several major areas.

Word has it that the Brood singing on the Dot release "Ride the Bus" is in reality producer

Jim Foglesong's four children. The tune was written by a Vanderbilt University medical student. Co-producer on the record was WMAK air personality Dick Kent.

Pubberies Open in Greenville

■ Slim Williamson, President, and Vance Bulla, General Manager of Sue-Mirl, Sixteenth Avenue and Peach Music Publishing Companies, jointly announce the opening of a branch office in Greenville, S. C.

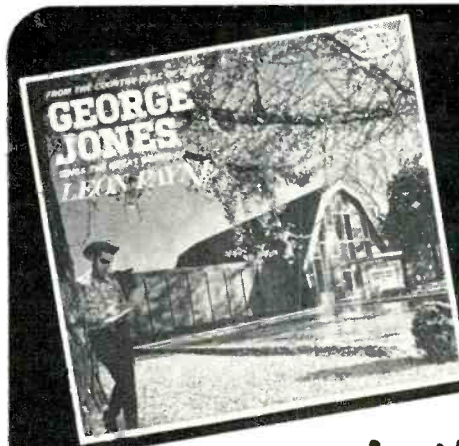

The office will be located in the Mark Five Studio Building. Tommy Ptak will manage the branch office. Ptak is a native of Mississippi and was chief engineer and announcer at WBLW in Royston, Ga. (one of Slim's stations) prior to his appointment with the publishing firms.

It was noted that activity in the country and gospel field had increased tremendously in the past few years in Greenville and the Southern States area.

Ptak says he expects to work with new writers as well as se-

COUNTRY

GEORGE JONES—
Sings Leon Payne From the Country
Music Hall of Fame.
Musicor MS 3204

Jones salute to composer Payne is a beauty that will result in a top seller LP. He delivers such notable Payne songs as "Blue Side of Lonesome," "Things Have Gone to Pieces," "Lifetime to Regret" and "Take Me." An outstanding package.

GEORGE JONES SINGS THE SONGS OF LEON PAYNE Musicor MS 3204

It's finally been done—the long-awaited tribute to one of country music's legendary songwriters, the late Leon Payne; and nobody could do it better than the "Jones Boy." Not a weak one in the bunch, but give a special listen to the relatively unknown "The Selfishness in Man" and "Lifetime to Regret" as well as classics like "Take Me," "Things Have Gone To Pieces" and "They'll Never Take Her Love from Me." A collector's item for sure!

Country LP Reviews

SINGS THE GREAT SONGS OF LEON PAYNE—
George Jones—Musicor MS—3204

Being a salute to the great Leon Payne, one of the foremost members of Songwriters' Country Hall of Fame, who, though blind, could bring visions to others through his songs. George Jones does a fine tribute to the gentlemen with whom he collaborated for "Take Me," one of his biggest hits. The other tunes were written by Payne alone and include such fine examples of talent as "Blue Side of Lonesome," "Things Have Gone To Pieces" and "There's No Justice." Jones does more than justice to Payne; he brings out the very best in his work. Album should be a substantial chart item.

RECORD WORLD COUNTRY FROM THE CONTINENT

By MURRAY KASH

■ LONDON—BBC Producer Douglas Hesse is now finalizing plans regarding the country music talent that will be appearing on the forthcoming George Hamilton IV TV series due for taping on Oct. 11, 12, 13 and 14. Besides George and his backing group the Numbers, the other American performers will be Bill Anderson, Jeannie C. Riley, Tompall & the Glaser Brothers and John D. Loudermilk.

The English performers mentioned in the series to date are the Hillsiders, Little Ginny and the Tumbleweeds. Lee Conway, Australia's top singing star who scored a big hit at the 1971 Wembley Festival, is also billed to do one of six shows.

The summer doldrums of country music releases on discs are just about over, and new product is now available e.g. a single by Lynn Anderson (CBS) called "How Can I Unlove You." Also from CBS, the Johnny Cash album "Man in Black" to tie in with Johnny's tour of Great Britain, which by the way is S.R.O. at all four venues where he is due to appear — London, Manchester, Birmingham and Glasgow. Countless J.C. fans are complaining that they are unable to obtain tickets to see their idol . . . No less than three Jim Reeves albums are currently in the British charts—"The Intimate Jim Reeves," "Jim Reeves' Golden Records" and "Girls I have Known" . . . "The Johnny Cash at San Quentin" album is still in the top 50 as well.

Bryan Chalker's New Frontier appeared on the popular "Opportunity Knocks" TV program (a showcase for new talent). Although voted third, they were close behind the top two. Bryan informs me that they have just signed up with Chapter One Records and are preparing material for their first album . . . Marvin Rainwater backed by the Country Fever made a big hit with country fans at the public concerts they played in Scunthorpe and Hartlepool. They are touring the U.S. bases in England as well. Country music shows are breaking B.O. grosses all over the place. The London Borough of Greenwich held its first country concert with Tex Withers, Brian Golbey, the Saddle Tramps and Country Expressions for an outdoor concert that filled the Greenwich Open Theater.
