PICKS OF THE WEEK

SINGLES

GEORGE HARRISON, "BENGLA DESH" (Harrisons, BMI). Ravi Shankar asked George to come to the aid of the victims of the Pakistani civil war. The result is his forthcoming Madison Square Garden benefit and this beautiful record. B/w "Deep Blue" (Harrisons, BMI). Apple 1836.

GUESS WHO, "RAIN DANCE" (Cirrus/Sunspot/Walrus-Moore/Dunbar, BMI). Very few groups have mastered the art of the rock & roll single as well as these guys. They've got the sound, the structure and the style together here in one of their best to date. RCA 74-0522.

HONEY CONE, "STICK-UP" (Gold Forever, BMI). With "Want Ads" these gals discovered the magic touch. That they haven't lost it is demonstrated by this follow-up. Automatically and immediately to the top. B/w "V.I.P." (Gold Forever, BMI). Hot Wax 7106 (Buddah).

CLARENCE CARTER, "SLIPPED, TRIPPED AND FELL IN LOVE" (Fame, BMI). With its decidedly Marvin Gaye "Grapevine" beat, this is about as solid a Clarence Carter side as there has ever been. Rick Hall-produced Fame session can't miss. No way! Atlantic 45-2818.

SLEEPERS

TOM FOGERTY, "GOODBYE MEDIA MAN PART 1" (Woodmont, BMI). Brother Tom's first post-Creedence solo venture will really grow on listeners. Its message is a topical one. He wrote and plays with Merl Saunders and Bill Vitt. B/w "Part 2" (Woodmont, BMI). Fantasy 661.

LABELLE, "MORNING MUCH BETTER" (Noma/Schefrin/Zager, BMI). As Patti LaBelle and the Bluebells, their "Junkman" was one of the incredible sides of the '60s. This one's sensational and of the '70s! B/w "Shades Of Difference" (Gospel Birds/Track, BMI). Warner Bros. 7512.

THE GRAND PIANO COMPANY, "ESPERANTO" (Beechwood, BMI). This should be the instrumental to hit paydirt in the summer of '71. Pop rocker features memorable melody with expert piano and driving drums. Hit sound! B/w "Sunday's Coming" (Clear Sky, BMI). Ampex X11032.

LLOYD PRICE, "NATURAL SINNER" (Anne-Rachael, ASCAP). If "Hooked on a Feeling" started Mr. Personality on his way to a comeback, this gospel rocker should complete the trip. Alive and catchy. B/w "Mr. and Mrs. Untrue" (Pocketfull of Tunes, BMI). Scepter 12327.

ALBUMS

HOWLIN' WOLF, "THE LONDON HOWLIN' WOLF SESSIONS." Also billed on this album because they dropped by to participate on these Howlin' Wolf sessions are Eric Clapton, Steve Winwood, Bill Wyman, Charlie Watts. Unbilled but supposedly there were Ringo Starr and Mick Jagger. Chess CH 60008.

BOOKER T. AND PRISCILLA JONES, "BOOKER T. & PRISCILLA." This two-record set contains some of the most gorgeous singing heard on a contemporary collection. Many of the songs are also in a special class of their own. Very, very big. A&M SP 3504.

ORIGINAL CAST, "GODSPELL." Stephen Schwartz' score distinguishes this current and very timely off-Broadway adaptation of the Gospel According to St. Matthew. The cast makes up with energy what they lack in professionalism. Bell 1102.

8TH DAY, "8TH DAY." "She's Not Just Another Woman," the single by the 8th Day, hitting the top 10 at present, is the first cut on this package of Holland-Dozier-Holland-produced goodies. Album could have same success as single. Invictus ST 7306 (Capitol).

These days, you never can tell who'll show up at a Mancini concert.

That music does it every time. It's—Mancini. The King of the middle-of-the-road has gone off the beaten track a bit for his latest, "Mancini Concert." (LSP-4542) But what else can you say, after all, about an album that includes in close proximity upon its sleek black sleeves such things as "Ciribiribin" and "Mrs. Robinson," the "Creature from 'Tommy'" and "March of the Cue Balls," a medley from 'Jesus Christ Superstar' and "Moonlight Serenade"?

You say Henry Mancini's done it again, is what you say. And he does it in and with typical Mancini style. This summer, Henry will be appearing in concert in a number of places, and he'll be performing the entire "Mancini Concert," plus other items from his very extensive repertoire.

Mancini in concert, this summer. "Mancini Concert," is for this summer too. Support your local Mancini Concert.

Laura Nyro and Joni Mitchell Signed Reveals Manager-Turned-Label Chief Geffen

David Geffen

By TONY LAWRENCE

■ HOLLYWOOD — As the turbulence of that phenomenal entity called rock and roll continues with facilities closing, heroes dying and a general resistance from many factors, one person who continually comes out on top is David Geffen—one of the most influential individuals in rock and probably the most consistently successful agent and manager in its history.

Often called the "greatest negotiator in the business," it was rumored that once he made a deal for Johnny Rivers on some publishing contracts and that his percentage for the contract was Rivers' mansion in Trousdale in Beverly Hills. Geffen flunked out of three colleges and then became an usher at CBS. From there he went to the mail room at William Morris in New York and remained there for six months in 1964 before moving up as a secretary, then a junior agent and finally a full agent. He was responsible for the beginnings

Columbia 'Music People' Hold Most Successful Convention to Date

■ LOS ANGELES — Columbia and Epic/Columbia Custom Labels has just completed the most productive and successful national sales convention in company history. Attended by members of the Columbia and Epic families, representatives of CBS International from throughout the world, artists and guests, the convention ran from July 21-25 at the Century Plaza Hotel, location of the 1969 meeting.

Clive Davis, newly appointed President, CBS/Records Group, placing him in charge of worldwide recorded music and related activities for CBS, addressed the convention delegates on opening day (see separate story). One of the most challenging years in the recording industry, 1970 was the year Columbia was awarded 20 out of 44 Grammy Awards.

Bruce Lundvall, Vice President, Marketing, opened the first day of business meetings on Thursday, July 22, by greeting the delegates and guests. In his speech (see separate story), Lundvall set the theme for the 1970 Convention by outlining the criteria of excellence that has been and must continue to be maintained by The Music People—the convention theme.

Stan Snyder, Vice President, Sales and Distribution, spoke, placing particular emphasis on the ever-expanding role of national and local promotion in the consistent success pattern established by the ever-increasing Columbia family, and Ron Alexenburg, Vice President, Epic/Columbia Custom Labels, gave the convention gathering an update and rundown of the growth of those labels. After pointing out the strengthening of Epic A&R on both coasts and in Nashville, Alexenburg congratulated the sales and promotion force for

MCA's Maitland Reveals Near-Total L.A. Move

■ MCA Records, Inc., President J. K. ("Mike") Maitland has made the following announcement in connection with the corporate changeover that has made Los Angeles the near-total base of operations for the company:

"The move has been long-planned," Maitland said, "and I have often discussed it in interviews and in releases made by the company under my name."

Maitland said that the moving of almost all of the company's activities here is an "obvious" and "natural" occurrence in the face of the industry as it exists today. "Los Angeles is a major record capital of the country," Maitland em-

Clive Davis Calls Rock 'Very Healthy'

■ LOS ANGELES — At the Columbia/Epic convention held here last week, opening speaker CBS/Records Group President Clive Davis called the record business a business of superstars.

He noted that "rock music is very healthy" and that "the day of the medium-sized concert hall is gone." He added that the toughest challenge for the record company is the breaking of a new artist, and that in the case of Columbia and Epic this is now being done with Chase and Ballin' Jack.

He also stated: "Columbia builds long-term careers with promotion more crucial to success than ever. Everyone at Columbia should be open to changes in policy and the standing policy of a company does not fit every situation."

"We must change and not stay with tradition for tradition's sake," he added. As an example of this he cited the case of the Raiders album, in which 100,000 allocations were made when it seemed to branch managers that they would be cutting back on orders. This was done because as the single broke, Columbia wanted enough LPs out for maximum sales.

Davis closed by saying, "I exalt in our international success." He introduced Harvey Schein and Goddard Lieberman. He added that Columbia saves their pioneering for the music, implying that other companies have been pioneers and gone down the drain trying to change the business.

Funk's Terry Knight Flails Shea Reporting

By MITCHELL FINK

■ NEW YORK — The infield dust has settled at Shea Stadium since Capitol's Grand Funk Railroad has returned the pitcher's mound to the hapless New York Mets. In the wake of what was billed as "an historic event," the group's manager-producer, Terry Knight, has again found time to chide the press.

An informal press conference was held last week (21) for the trades in Terry's New York office. He cited instances of what he termed "irresponsible reporting" by local daily newspapers and weekly news magazines. They spent much of their column space discussing the police, arrests, drugs and mob scenes, Knight alleges.

"The fact that the concert went off smoothly seemed to disappoint these writers," said Terry. "What they're doing is openly inviting a riot the next time around."

According to Knight, there were no regular police within the confines of the stadium, save for the squad car that escorted the boys to and from the stage. Only Shea personnel and a group of karate instructors wearing special shirts were inside the park. "When tactical police are on the scene, it's like asking for a confrontation," remarked Terry. "We did it with the people involved, and it proved successful."

Official medical reports of the concert were disclosed and, unexpectedly, the number of illnesses reported was low. Drug intoxication was at a minimum. Only seven cases of indigestion were reported, surprising considering what is sold at Shea.

Said Terry, "We must credit two individuals for the way they handled things. They are Ted Mastroianni of the Parks Dept. and Captain Ferriola of the Queens Police Dept."

In conclusion, Knight felt that too much is being done to surpass, or dampen, the business today. He continued, "Management and record companies should report events as they happen. Keep the information flowing, especially since personal appearances are singularly the most important vehicle for an artist's product. I don't give a damn what a writer says about Grand Funk's music. Just report the news as it happens."

Frio, Pipolo to New MCA Posts

Rock Frio, Pat Pipolo

■ LOS ANGELES—A change in the sales and promotional operations of MCA Records, Inc., has been revealed by company President J. K. ("Mike") Maitland with the formal announcement of the appointment of Rick Frio as National Sales Director and Pat Pipolo as National Promotion Director of the company.

Formerly, Frio was National Sales Manager of Uni Records, while Pipolo was National Promotion Manager for the label.

"The promotion of these two men to be the sales and promotion heads of all our labels," Maitland said, "is a recognition of the vast services they performed in their respective posts at Uni Records. Under them, Uni has attained immense success and helped launch the meteoric careers of Elton John, Neil Diamond and Brian Hyland."

"They've been a team for more than three years, and they work together in perfect harmony," he added. "Now that Los Angeles is the worldwide headquarters for all sales and promotion functions, I wanted them to head our realigned departments in their respective fields."

Concentrating Efforts

Under the new MCA Records set-up, all the sales and promotional activities of Uni, Decca and Kapp Records will be consolidated under one department, but with personnel in the department concentrating their efforts on the product of each label and individual releases.

"We've consolidated our departments because it makes more economic sense to do so," Maitland said, "but albums can't be sold and promoted by computer and we intend to give individual attention to the product of each label—which differs—and to each album release."

Before joining Uni, Frio was National Sales Director of Imperial Records for three years and a District Sales Manager for Liberty Records in various regions. He began his career in Chicago with the MS Distributing Company as a mid-west salesman.

Pipolo, before joining Uni, was the National Promotion Manager of Liberty Records for two years.

Lundvall Cites Columbia Secret: Continued Striving for Excellence

■ LOS ANGELES—Welcoming conventioners at Columbia Records' National Sales Meet last week held at the Century Plaza here, Bruce Lundvall, Vice President, Marketing, stressed what he considered his label's outstanding motivation — "the continual striving for excellence."

"It is this adherence to high standards that has built a roster of artists rather than a short term stable of stars," he said, "and that has insisted on a creative atmosphere in which they can thrive and a creative business approach in which they can prosper. This striving for excellence is at the very core of a branch distribution system that, at this very moment, serves as the industry model that an aggressive competition hungers to duplicate; or, in thoroughly planned and tough-minded decisions, says that all records needn't be priced traditionally in order to sell exceptionally.

"Individual examples? There are many: from the will to stay with a beautiful ballad by a veteran country artist for almost one year and to finally drive it into the top 10—Ray Price's 'For the Good Times,' to the belief and determination it took on the part of both artist and company to put Paul Revere and the Raiders back into the number one slot in all three trades this very week. This is what the pursuit of excellence is really all about."

Lundvall sent the attendees out to enjoy and absorb the current meet with the following enjoiner, "In this wildly competitive business the word success can only connote past tense. Its use in the future depends exclusively on a striving for excellence on the part of each of us, no matter how great our skills or, for that matter, our limitations."

Becce Polydor Promo Dir.

■ NEW YORK—Jerry Schoenbaum, President, announces the appointment of Mike Becce as Director, National Promotion, Polydor Records and affiliate labels Sire, Blue Horizon, Spring and Event Records.

Becce is responsible to Schoenbaum for the planning and coordination of all promotion activities relating to both singles and album product. Becce came to Polydor from Avco-Embassy Records, where he was employed as National Promotion Manager for the past two years. Prior to that, he spent several years at MGM and ABC Records.

Martell Exits MCA

■ NEW YORK—Tony Martell has resigned his position at MCA Records.

Martell, Vice President and Director of Marketing for MCA Records, did not find it feasible to relocate to the company's new West Coast headquarters at this time. An announcement of his plans will be forthcoming.

During his tenure at MCA Records, Martell played a key role in further developing the recording careers of the Who, Neil Diamond, Elton John, Decca country artists and many others. In addition, the goals of the massive "Jesus Christ Superstar" project were realized while Martell headed the marketing arm of the MCA complex.

Martell joined Decca Records in 1968 as Director of Marketing. He was subsequently promoted to Vice President, Marketing, and played a major role in merging the Decca, Kapp and Uni labels under the MCA banner in 1970. Since this formation, the Decca, Kapp and Uni labels have enjoyed the largest sales increases in their history.

Prior to joining MCA, Martell was associated with CBS (Columbia) Records.

RCA in New 'Fiddler' Push

■ RCA Records announces it is participating in the activities surrounding the event of "Fiddler on the Roof" becoming the longest running musical in Broadway history on Wednesday, July 21, by re-packaging its original cast album and mounting a massive advertising-promotion-publicity campaign on the show album which already is among the all-time top record sellers to come out of the Broadway area.

Announcement was made by Rocco Laginestra, President, RCA Records, who said: "Fiddler" has been a phenomenal success story for all who have participated in one way or another with its sensational history on the musical stage. For RCA Records, which has been fortunate in having recorded the original cast album, this show has meant more than $9,000,000 at the wholesale level. We feel that release of the motion picture version will greatly broaden the market for our original version."

It was not quite a year ago that another show for which RCA Records had the original cast album, "Hello, Dolly!," moved in to the long-run championship spot, only to be supplanted on July 21 by "Fiddler."

Speaking of Wednesday's milestone, Laginestra said: "That moment will establish 'Fiddler' as the champion, just as the show established its producer, Harold Prince, as the prince of the theater. Champions and princes are nice company to be in."

Arnold at Fairs

■ Eddy Arnold has signed to headline at three state fairs during August, announces Jerry Purcell, his personal manager. The singer will star at the Allentown (Pa.) State Fair on Aug. 11-12, the Wisconsin State Fair on Aug. 14 and the Indiana State Fair on Aug. 24.

Mayfield, Impressions, Hawkins Re-up

■ NEW YORK — Neil Bogart and Art Kass, co-Presidents of Buddah/Kama Sutra Group of labels, announced extensions to the distribution and recording contracts of Curtis Mayfield, the Impressions and Edwin Hawkins.

Mayfield's Curtom Records label is distributed by Buddah. Hawkins records directly for Buddah. The extensions in each case total four years.

The Record Business: What Makes It Run

By MURRAY ROSS

President, Idea Planning Associates

■ Most brilliant A & R men do not concern themselves with facts. Or quality. Or talent. Or even musicality. They sniff and inhale the atmosphere of a new single and determine, through cosmic awareness, not whether the record is good, but whether it's a hit. The excitement of singles is no one is ever consistently right about a single. If someone was, he would soon have all the money in the world.

One famous A & R man told me that with a new artist on a first hit record, the artist's talent is not at all a significant factor. It's like in gin rummy: the first three discards are purely a matter of chance. "The hit single on a new artist," my friend said, "depends 60% upon the producer, 30% upon the material and only 10% on the artist. You and I, singing over the right track, could have a Top 10 record."

How Do You Write To A 10-Year Old?

A very erudite record executive told me that a Top 40 hit single is a "creative expression of infantile pathos. The 'stone' Top 40 hit single causes tears to roll down the cheeks of a lonely, misunderstood pre-teener who's sitting alone in her room on a Saturday afternoon watching the rain pelt her curtained window like a million tears."

Promotion

If the radio stations went news or easy listening, all the record people could pack up and go home. The game is all over. Obviously, this is not going to happen. But what occurs to me is there is a more imaginative way to get your record played than by putting it in a brown envelope with an 8¢ stamp and mailing it to the program director.

A program director, like any other marketing executive has problems. Ratings, key personalities, station promotions, station image in the marketplace are things that bug him every day. I believe that the great promotion man is one who understands these problems and goes out of his way to help the program director to do a more effective job in his market. Specifically, the great record promotion man should understand the radio rating game and the potential of radio promotion. He should be a surce of creative ideas that make the PD solvent and solid in his market. You'd be amazed at how quickly a tight play list can open up for the enterprising promotion man.

Timing Is Everything

The biggest dollar rewards in the music industry today are in the rock & roll area. What follows is a random walk with a new act in its quest for stardom.

1. You find a four-man group in the East Village, playing in a small club to sell-out audiences.
2. Give them a name. Outfit them. Give them a contemporary life-style or image. Support them. ($125 per week per man.)
3. You rehearse them. Find them a producer. Make a dub. (Six months and about $20,000 have now evaporated.)
4. Get them an agent.
5. He gets them a few gigs. (Close by.)

6. Get them signed to a label.
7. Get them into a studio to cut an LP. (At this point, 10 months have elapsed and over $75,000 has vanished.)
8. Release the LP. The following efforts should occur simultaneously in one market:

- A prominent live gig in a major market must be obtained.
- (A press kit is prepared.) A press release announcing the live gig is sent out to the underground press. Included in the release are hyped comments about the album and an LP. Also biographies about the group: the drummer who played with Bob Dylan, the bass who played with Al Kooper, the lead guitarist who played with Leon Russell and the piano player who filled in for Ray Charles.
- Full color ads in all the music trades.
- Top 10 album picks in all the music trades.
- Twenty major retail accounts in the market must prominently display the album. (This may be accomplished by giving the distributor salesmen a 25¢ spiff on each album placed.)
- A giant full-color poster of the group is put in the stores. ($1.00 spiff per store.)
- Heavy airplay on the underground FM stations on the two great cuts.
- Co-op advertising in the underground press for the LP and supporting live gig.
- FM radio spots promoting the LP, tying in with the gig and mentioning key stores stocking album.
- 10,000 buttons given away at the gig. Maybe balloons, too. Also bumper stickers.
- Post-gig press party. "Aren't they fabulous?"
- Trade and underground press reviews. Unbelievably good.
- Lead guitarist gets busted for dope.
- Drummer gets busted with 12 year old groupie.
- Twenty retailers reorder. And the racks start to order in.
- The group spends the next six months repeating this formula in 20 major markets.
- A word of caution: A cardinal rule of the game is that product must be out in the stores before the game plan explodes.
- Concentration of effort in a single market, one market at a time, is critical to the success of the promotion. One market at a time gives you total control with limited manpower and the opportunity to evaluate the sales results quickly and accurately. And you don't get killed if you bomb.
- Hype the charts.
- Count the money.

I have created an example of an ideal success pattern for a new rock group because that's where the money is. The great record man must understand the chemistry of all the elements that contribute to the success of a rock group. He should have a little of the following characteristics in him.
(In order of importance):

RCA and Paramount Herald 'October is C & W Music Month'

■ NEW YORK — RCA and Paramount/Dot have informed Record World Publisher Bob Austin of the CMA's Country Music Month Committee that they will feature the line "October Is Country Music Month" on all points of sale in store promotion, visual aids, streamers, etc.

Bill Lucas, RCA Director, Creative Services, in agreeing to carry the line, made the following statement: "We here at RCA welcome the opportunity of tying in with Country Music Month. Our involvement with country music is immense and of long-standing. In all of our advertising and sales promotion units or items that in any way relate to country music, we will feature the line 'October Is Country Music Month'."

Jack Wiedenmann and Warner Pagliara of Paramount/Dot expressed their pleasure at being able to cooperate with country music and the Country Music Association.

The decision to contact record companies on this matter was made at the Country Music Month Committee meeting in Denver recently.

Last year the governors of 40 states and President Nixon issued proclamations proclaiming October as Country Music Month. Indications are that even more will do so this year.

Motown Holds Four-Day Promotion Meeting in Montreal

■ MONTREAL — Everyone graduated Magna Cum Laude.

The Institute of Higher Learning with that unique distinction was "Motown University, The Class of '71," the name given to Motown Record Corporation's recent national promotion meeting here.

The four-day conference was built around a university theme and was conducted in the classic textbook style. Lectures, seminars, diplomas, class rings and even a cap and gown graduation ceremony were some of the highlights. On the social side, several extra-curricular field trips took place to enlighten the class to the charms and culture of Montreal.

Presiding over the university was Dean Barney Ales, Executive Vice-President and General Manager of Motown. Other members of the faculty were Phil Jones, Director of Sales; Mel Dakroob, Marketing Director; Gordon Prince, Single Sales Director; Al Valente, Director of National Promotion; Joe Summers, Rare Earth Label Manager; Dick Sherman, Mowest Label Manager, and Weldon McDougall, Marv Johnson, Chuck Young and Bob Ganim of the Motown promotion staff; plus Al Di Noble, Ed Gilreath and Stan Fantich of Rare Earth.

Notable Guests

Several notable guest lecturers spoke to the student body, among them Kal Rudman, representing Record World; Jerry Boulding, Operations Manager, WWRL, New York City; Jim Davenport, Manager, WFOM, Marietta, Ga., and Bill Williams, Program Director, WCHB, Inkster, Mich.

Kal Rudman expressed a long-time Motown philosophy when he noted, "There's only one number and that's #1." Rudman's comments on the relationship between programmers and promotion men were well received.

Jim Davenport brought home the importance of the secondary market, likening the relationship between radio and record industry "to that of the farmer, who to be successful, must continue to refresh the soil from where growing things thrive." Jerry Boulding spoke on the trends of the '70s. One of his observations was that "black population has spread so much that music programming should not be limited to previously accepted geographic marketing."

Phil Jones, moderating the panel, summed up by paraphrasing Jerry Boulding's earlier statement: "Motown has delivered for a decade and will continue to maintain that #1 attitude in the years ahead."

The "University" theme of the convention was developed by Tom Schlesinger, Director of Advertising and Creative Concepts, working in conjunction with Jones and Al Valente.

Crayola Contest Colors Buddah's Biggest Consumer Contact Campaign

■ NEW YORK — Neil Bogart and Art Kass, co-Presidents of the Buddah/Kama Sutra group of labels, has announced the most extensive direct-contact consumer campaign ever mounted by the label.

Tagged "Buddah's Cosmic Coloring Book Contest," the promotion centers around a 24-page coloring book with replicas of current Buddah album product. The last page of the coloring book is a perforated replica of the new Sha Na Na album cover. Contestants submit their versions to be judged for prizes.

Over 100,000 coloring books will be distributed free at the retail level. Stores needing extra quantity may write to Buddah Records.

Prizes include a Honda motor bike, "Sailfish" sailboat, a 23-inch color TV, a Bean of Maine super ruck-sack, a set of hand painted R. Crumb undershirts, a baker's dozen of favorite LPs (any label), a year's subscription to any music magazine, a complete home library of Buddah/Kama Sutra LPs, and one hundred copies of "Rock And Roll Trivia."

Bogart said: "Traditional concepts of advertising and promotion are fine as far as they go. What we are attempting to do with this contest is extend the range of communication. Involving the audience directly, and doing it in a pleasant way, gets our message across and will make more people aware of the Buddah Group."

part series which airs Sunday evening 9:30 to 11:00 beginning Aug. 1, was acquired by Time-Life Films after having enjoyed an excellent audience reaction both in England and in Canada. A single from the album, "I'll Give You The Earth," appeared on the British charts.

Six Hammond LPs

■ Columbia Records, at its 1971 National Sales Convention in Los Angeles, announced the release of six vintage albums from the John Hammond Collection: "Spirituals to Swing, 1967," "Born at the Apollo," "Solo Flight . . . O.V. WRIGHT—Back Beat 622
A NICKEL AND A NAIL (Don, BMI)
PLEDGING MY LOVE (Lion, BMI)
 Whew, can this man sing the blues. "A" side is terrific, but it might be time for flip, an update of the Johnny Ace classic, to hit again.

YUKON—Sussex SUX 220 (Buddah)
UNDERSTANDING IS SORROW (Interior, BMI)
SAVE MY WORLD (Interior, BMI)
 Absolutely beautifully produced side. Not sure whether the sentiment expressed by the title is correct, but it sure sounds great.

RAY JOHNSON—GNP Crescendo GNP 440
LOVE MEANS (YOU NEVER HAVE TO SAY YOU'RE SORRY)
 (Benton, ASCAP)
NO COLOR LINE (Skyview, ASCAP)

THE CHARMERS—Stuyvesant T-10011
THE ONE YOU LOVE (Time More, BMI)

WAR—United Artists 50815
ALL DAY MUSIC (Far-Out, ASCAP)

NINA SIMONE—RCA 74-0514
ANGEL OF THE MORNING (Blackwood, BMI)
HERE COMES THE SUN (Apple, BMI)
 In which Miss Simone gives a customarily brilliant reading of the Merilee Rush hit. From her beautiful new album; George Harrison's flip is title cut.

TIM HARDIN—Verve Forecast KF 5116 (MGM)
REASON TO BELIEVE (Faithful Virtue, BMI)
SMUGGLIN' MAN (Faithful Virtue, BMI)
 Rod Stewart has revived interest in this tune, so the label has dug into its vaults and come up with this live cut from the past. Beautiful.

BILL BLACK'S COMBO—Mega 615-0036
RINGS (Unart, BMI)
COTTON CARNIVAL (Bill Black, ASCAP)
 Elvis' original bass player and his group had a way of taking a hit record and making it a hit all over again instrumentally. They've done it again, with the Cymarron smash.

ELECTRIFIED PEOPLE—Red Lite RL 113
ELECTRIFIED PEOPLE (Delightful, BMI)
ONE THOUSAND DIMENSIONS IN BLUE (Delightful, BMI)
 Name of group and its record accurately reflects the kind of sounds they make. Tremendously exciting space-age music. Wow!

BARRY RICHARDS—Cream 1010
STOP! IN THE NAME OF LOVE (Jobete, BMI)
 High powered re-working of the early Supremes smash. Inventive arrangement of the sort that Tom Jones specializes in. Good record.

BLACK OAK ARKANSAS—Atco 45-6829
LORD HAVE MERCY ON MY SOUL
 (Marlu-Far Fetched, ASCAP)
 Perhaps this single will focus some attention on these hard rockers' deserving debut album. Energetic, fast-paced stuff.

HEAVEN BOUND WITH TONY SCOTTI—
 MGM K14284
HE'D RATHER HAVE THE RAIN (Colgems, ASCAP)
COME RUN WITH ME (Famous, ASCAP)
 Soft-rocker was written by Terry Cashman and Tommy West and they certainly have the knack of coming up with catchy pop fluff for the MOR market.

NATRA Presidential Candidate Shaw Sets 10-Point Program

■ Curt Shaw, 1971 candidate for the NATRA presidency, spent more than two months (March 21-June 1) meeting with fellow broadcasters, owners, recording company executives, national officials, politicians and fund-raisers to map out a strategy to make NATRA financially sound and able to function efficiently.

The program of the Shaw Campaign Committee includes the following points.

- 1) Reduce the Board of Directors to 12.
- 2) Form executive committees to review inner-organization affairs.
- 3) Complete in detail and update the NATRA constitution.
- 4) Initiate membership drive (annually) to meet the membership potential.
- 5) Establish the much-needed rapport with owners and management in all areas of the industry.
- 6) Set up a job skills bank at the national office with resumés for those employed and unemployed.

- 7) Establish the national image of NATRA as high on principles, integrity and desirous of unifying all people on the problems in the industry.
- 8) Investigate possibility of one-week seminars and orientation programs to develop and prepare NATRA members for new responsibilities.
- 9) NATRA must be monetarily independent. There is a five-point plan that will work to the tune of approximately $250,000 a year excluding the national annual convention.
- 10) Annual convention must be more relevant to all in the communications and entertainment arenas.

The 1971 NATRA Convention is being held Aug. 11-15 at the Regency Hyatt House in Chicago.

STEPHEN HARTLEY DORFF—Capitol P-3155
SHE WAS A SAD GIRL (Lowery, BMI)
MR. HONEYWELL (Lowery, BMI)

Can anybody named Stephen Hartley Dorff make it as a singer? Based on the strength of his first single, the answer is yes. Nice ballad.

THE BAD HABITS—Paula 353

THANK YOU FOR THE LOVE (Su-Ma, BMI)
MY DAYS ARE NUMBERED (Sea-Lark, BMI)

Consistently good Southern rock & rollers have never gotten the shot they've deserved nationally. Top 40s should try some of this.

THE IMPALAS—Down To Earth 76

THINK IT OVER GIRL (Storball & Merye-Earl, BMI)
Could this be the group that did "Sorry (I Ran All The Way Home)?" Must be. Why else would anybody call themselves the Impalas in 1971.

DEE BROTHERS AND DEE BAND—

Royal American RA-43
LOOK WHAT LOVE HAS DONE TO ME (Owepar, BMI)
THERE'LL BE LOVE (Owepar, BMI)

A first! Two tunes from the Dolly Parton-Porter Wagoner catalogue are given the rock treatment. Exciting music is ideal top 40 stuff.

ENGLAND DAN & JOHN FORD COLEY—A&M 1278

NEW JERSEY (Cold Zinc, BMI)
TELL HER HELLO (Cold Zinc, BMI)

From their nice new album, folk-rock duo serves up a self-penned entry for their first single. Take note of the Harrisonian guitar touches.

MIXED BAG—Scepter SCE-12323

ROUND AND ROUND (Burlington, ASCAP)
YOU'RE MY GIRL I SAY (Burlington, ASCAP)

Here's one with a novel approach. Caliope-carousel sound inspired by title makes it memorable MOR stuff. Left-field possibility.

BRONCO—Island 1200 (Capitol)

WOMAN (Irving, BMI)
CIVIL OF YOU STRANGER (Irving, BMI)

High voltage rocker from Great Britain could be just what the market requires to liven things up a bit. Features frantic vocals and instrumentation.

CARMEL QUINN—GP 513

FOUR GREEN FIELDS (Tiparm, BMI)
WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME (Terry, ASCAP)

When it comes to wearing of the green, count on Carmel to lead the parade. St. Patrick's day is nowhere in sight and she's already out with a Tommy Makem gem.

BUDDY LAMP—Duke 468

IF YOU SEE KATE (Muriel/Don, BMI)
HEN PECKED (Don, BMI)

Typically strong R&B effort from Buddy on this release. Title can be quite suggestive if heard the right way. Try to figure it out.

SONNY GREEN—Hill H-777

JODY'S ON THE RUN (Respect, BMI)
IF YOU WANT ME TO KEEP ON LOVING YOU (Respect, BMI)

Newcomer bows with an incredibly strong soul side. With proper distribution there's no way this can miss R&B. Great dance workout.

BOBBY PATTERSON—Paula 352

IF YOU TOOK A SURVEY (Su-Ma/Rogan/March Thirteenth, BMI)
RIGHT ON, JODY (Rogan-Jetstar, BMI)

The folks from Shreveport just keep the funk flowing. This one's sure good enough to do very well R&B, so program it. Excellent.

PICCOLINO POP STRINGS—Red Lite RL 115

CLOWN TOWN (Spiral, ASCAP)
VOUS ETES BEAU (Spiral, ASCAP)

Two sides of delightful, sprightly Gladys Shelley material done up in the MOR mode. Ideal easy listening programming.

"Recorded Live in Europe" has finally reached our shores. It's a bloodthumping bellywhumping screamer. We recorded the best of the best of their recent European tour, put it in a package and sailed it across the Atlantic. Cleansed by time and tides, it's now stateside. Pick it up—dry it off—and watch it move.

Columbia C 30362.

The liners note: "Pacific Gas & Electric changed their name to PG&E and changed their band by adding five new musicians." And how! The changes have been a catalyst in improving their music so that it shines, gleams. "Rock and Roller's Lament," the kick-off cut is really something.

THE LAST TIME I SAW HER

GLEN CAMPBELL—Capitol SW 733.

Glen Campbell sings as well in a recording studio as anyone you can mention. Although there is no monster single to kick the package off, it should do well nonetheless. The selections include "Help Me Make It Through the Night," "He Ain't Heavy," "The Last Time I Saw Her," "Rose Garden."

HARMONY ROW

JACK BRUCE—Atco SD 33-365.

Jack Bruce tries a number of beats on for size and they all fit. There is absolutely nothing formula about this package, which is actually a succession of unexpected and unpredictable songs. Cultists will spend hours getting into the Bruce vision.

VICTIM OF THE JOKE?

DAVID PORTER—Enterprise ENS 1019.

Here's something a little different. Although billed as an opera, it's more like a rhythm and blues musical comedy. Story is about a love triangle. New and old songs are interspersed with dialogue. Hard to say what will happen with this, but singles could take off.

DEATH IN VENICE

SOUNDTRACK—Deutsche Grammophon 2538 124 (Polydor).

In Luchino Visconti's adaptation of Thomas Mann's "Death in Venice," Dirk Bogarde trails after a very languid Bjorn Andreson while excerpts from a couple of Gustav Mahler's Symphonies, more syrupy than remembered, play. Here's the Mahler without the cruisers.

BEAST OF THE BONZOS

BONZO DOG BAND—United Artists UAS 5517.

For some reason mass audiences aren't terribly interested in satire when it comes to rock. And so, even though, this package is bizarre and hilarious, it may have, as Bonzo albums in the past have had, rough sledding. Deserves big boosts, because the band is in there trying like mad.

TOUSSAINT

ALLEN TOUSSAINT—Scepter SPS 24003.

Allen Toussaint has been writing R/B-pop hits for a number of years, and now he's decided to sing a few of them himself. Included on this album, which has its share of funk, is "From a Whisper to a Scream," "Working in a Coal Mine," "Everything I Do Gonna Be Funky."

I WILL WAIT FOR YOU
LOUIS ARMSTRONG—
Brunswick BL 754136.

This is the last of new product from Louis Armstrong. Louis plays his trumpet and sings and is backed by a chorus. Most of the songs are cheer-up numbers from movies and shows, and the Armstrong jocularly is ever-present. "I Will Wait for You," "Talk to the Animals."

LONESOME
SAMMI SMITH—Mega M31-1007.

Merle Haggard, in his brief liner note, says that Sammi Smith is "real people" and suspicion of that quality in her will probably make many real people pick up this second album. "Then You Walk In" and "Fire and Rain" are the best of a number of savvily-sung country ballads.

EXCERPTS FROM THE ROCK OPERA
JESUS CHRIST/SUPERSTAR
THE KINGSDAY YOUTH OPERA COMPANY—Decca DES 18060.

Those who, for some reason don't want the "original cast" of "Jesus Christ/Superstar," might turn to this version. For one thing, it's cheaper—only one disc. The Tim Rice-Andrew Webber score gets respectful, treatment from a cast including Brian Keith, John Goodison and Jenny Mason.

VICTORIA
San Francisco SD 206.

Victoria writes songs and sings them in a mode akin to that of Laura Nyro and Joni Mitchell. She might be too much like them to find her own way, but then again her similarities may just be what gets her attention initially. Personal, touching music.

NORMAN PLAYS NOVELLO
FRED NORMAN AND HIS ORCHESTRA—
GP GPN 5004.

Here's an unlikely album event, but a cheerful one. Fred Norman arranges and conducts the music of Gene Novello. Most are new Novello selections, and this package could turn into a sought-after easy listening programmer. Lush and lively.

HIGH TIME
MC5—Atlantic SD 8285.

It's Detroit rock time again, and here are MC5 back after a spell away and making that raunchy sound the city seems to be so fertile for. Not everybody is into this kind of unrefined rock these days, but there are enough around to get the package respectable sales.

RASMUSSEN
Reprise RS 6449.
Flemming Rasmussen could go places and not just because he sings a little like Paul McCartney and writes a little like George Harrison. It's that and a few other things, or maybe it's just that. The songs, like Harrison's, are all slightly enigmatic. Watch.

ASCAP songwriter Simon has written a hit, "That's The Way I've Always Heard It Should Be," with newly-elected ASCAPer, Jacob Brackman, Esquire magazine's film critic. Miss Simon will appear with comedian David Steinberg at the Schaefer Music Festival Wednesday, Aug. 25.

RECORD WORLD ALBUM PRODUCT

BLACK MAGIC WOMAN

PERCY FAITH—Columbia C 30800.
Percy Faith takes the chance to go exotic via recent tunes gussied up to evoke the sights and sounds of southern continents. The effect will mean most to buyers looking for the easiest of listening. "Black Magic Woman," "The Sun King," "Big Yellow Taxi," "If."

MICK ABRAHAMS

A&M SP 4312.
"Winds of Change," third cut on side one, has a kind of wistful beauty to it, and seems to indicate what Mick Abrahams and quartet can be at their best. They're not at their best throughout, though some long "Seasons" on side two shows some more of their virtuosity—instrumental, this time.

ACQUIRING THE TASTE

GENTLE GIANT—Vertigo VEL 1005.
Cerebral rock is the domain of this group, Gentle Giant. They lull and lure. While some will find the music mesmerizing, others will find it merely soporific. One of the major attractions is the cover, which, when opened up or just front showing, is highly-sensuous.

PHILWIT & PEGASUS

Chapter 1 CPS 39003 (London).
Philwit & Pegasus, "devised, arranged and directed by Mark P. Wirtz," sounds like they might have something here. The songs are small and quirky, home-thing like Cat Stevens', and they're sung with understated sincerity. One to keep an eye and ear on.

MAN AND BOY

SOUNDTRACK—Sussex SXBS (Buddah).
J. J. Johnson wrote the score for Bill Cosby's new film and nobody will ever guess it. Johnson has completely submerged his personality in the western idiom. And subsequently, score, though very pro, sounds like many that have preceded it. Funky title tune sung by Bill Withers.

WHAT A PLACE TO LAND

SOUTHWIND—Blue Thumb BTS 26.
This is Southwind's second album, and there's the strong chance that those who liked the first will cotton to the second as well. New partisans may be more difficult to find, since the album is a little on the repetitive side. Jocks might find a single.

BABY

DIANNE DAVIDSON—Janus JLS 3031.
Dianne Davidson is a girl with a big, husky voice and a no-nonsense delivery. Her songs are all where country-folk is today, and a couple of them could step out as singles. "Trying Time," which she wrote with Mac Guayden, is especially salty. Some marvelous production values.

Bright Future For Hedge & Donna at Last

Hedge and Donna

■ NEW YORK — After four years of knocking around the country, sleeping in the basements of tiny clubs and making records they didn't like, Hedge and Donna are finally in a position to be optimistic about the future.

For one thing, there's their contract with Polydor, "the first label," according to Hedge, "that knows how to sell our product."

Then there's the recently released Polydor album "Revolution" ("the title is Revolution with the R crossed out"), which has been received well and contains many outstanding single possibilities.

And third, they are presently on an extensive tour of the U. S., which includes a New York engagement at the Bitter End. But most important, and underlying all these concrete developments, Hedge and Donna feel they now have both their performing and recording acts together enough to make some important noise in the music business.

Hedge and Donna, who write most of their material together, dropped in at Record World last week and exuded more optimism and confidence than most established acts on the current scene. Guitarist, pianist and vocalist Hedge explains, "We cut loose everyone we had been involved with, and we are satisfied that we have developed an original style that will go over with many kinds of audiences." The resulting album and recent performances bear this out, and Donna feels that the duo "will soon be able to play to much larger audiences, preferably in large concert halls and at colleges."

As of now it is a little too early to tell how well the just-released album will do on a nationwide basis, but if the reception to their recent appearances is any indication, Hedge and Donna's enthusiasm is fully justified.

NOTES FROM THE UNDERGROUND

RECORD WORLD

Ellen McIlwaine: Star on Rise

Ellen McIlwaine

■ NEW YORK — We promised in last week's review that Ellen McIlwaine would be another story. Keeping that promise, Record World met Ellen at Polydor's New York office (19).

The adopted daughter of missionary parents was born in Nashville 25 years ago. At age two, Ellen was taken to Japan, and it was there that the family settled for the next 15 years. Musical instruction began early. "My father lay down the rules. Become a musician, practice, practice, practice. And I did," remarked Ellen.

Early musical influences were mostly classical, and, understandably, Japanese. But, somehow Ellen picked up on America's black music, and then Presley, so by the time the McIlwaine family returned to the U.S. in 1963, Ellen was well versed with her native land's custom called "rock and roll."

After two years of educational attendance at King College in Bristol, Tenn., she made her professional singing debut at a small club in Georgia called the Eighth Note.

We know that in order to "make it," a trip to New York is mandatory. Ellen did just that. She recalls, "I was lucky enough to get a gig, if you can call it that, at the old Café Au Go Go. The pay amounted to $1.50 a day. Some guy promised me the world, but all I wound up with was $1.50 worth of rip-off." Back to Georgia. Nothing. Back to New York with a group called Fear Itself. Another zero and another rip-off.

Hopefully, the rip-off days are over. Polydor's Peter Siegel found Ellen singing at the Holliday Inn in Kingston, N.Y. Recording sessions are in progress, and the girl who uses the slide guitar of the late Mississippi John Hurt will have an album ready in the fall.

Rest in peace, Mr. Hurt. Your precious instrument couldn't have fallen into more talented hands.

The group was signed to the label by President Mo Ostin after a recording hiatus of two years. Their debut album is scheduled for a September release and was produced by David Rubinson, Moby Grape's original producer.

Tara Reps Youngblood

■ Tara International has entered into agreement with Youngblood Records of England to represent the latter's product and artists in the United States, according to Tara President Richard L. Broderick.

Joshua Covers Show

■ Joshua Television will provide color videomagnification of the Stephen Stills and Band concert at Madison Square Garden on Friday, July 30, at 8 p.m.

Shapiro, Chappell Ink Pact

■ A unique international music publishing and consultancy arrangement between Chappell & Co., Inc., and producer-manager-writer Nat Shapiro was announced last week by Jacques R. Chabrier, President of Chappell.

Shapiro, who played a key role in assembling the creative teams responsible for the theatrical productions of "Hair" and "Jacques Brel Is Alive and Well and Living in Paris" and who acts as personal representative for Michel Legrand, Galt MacDermot, Nina Simone and a number of other composers, ly-ricists and performers, will set up new collaborative publishing entities with Chappell.

Projects already underway are joint publishing enterprises for both Academy Award-winning film composer Legrand and for "Hair" composer MacDermot.

Under the terms of the new collaboration agreement, Shapiro will also act as a consultant to Chappell in matters involving film and theater music acquisitions, the signing of new composing and writing talent, and special projects relating to book and music folio publishing.

Jarrard to Produce for Bell

■ LOS ANGELES — Larry Uttal, President of Bell Records, announced the signing of a long-term, production agreement with independent record producer Rick Jarrard, whose credits include Jefferson Airplane, José Feliciano, Nilson, Glen Yarborough and John Hartford.

Jarrard's four gold albums include "Surrealistic Pillow" for Jefferson Airplane, out of which came the singles "White Rabbit" and "Somebody to Love," which made Jefferson Airplane leading group and established Grace Slick. Feliciano had five releases on RCA before Jarrard recorded "Light My Fire" (in the "Feliciano" album) with him. Nilsson was a bank clerk at the time that Jarrard signed him to RCA, produced the "Pandemonium Shadow Show" LP and then followed "Aerial Ballet." Among the trio of albums Jarrard has cut with John Hartford is one which will shortly be released.

Among the myriad honors garnered by Rick Jarrard-produced recordings are a Grammy nomination for the "Feliciano" LP and for two consecutive years the "Best Male Vocal Performance" awards—first for Feliciano's "Light My Fire" and then Nilsson's "Everybody's Talkin'".

The first artists Jarrard will produce for Bell are the hit songwriting team of John Hurley and Ronnie Wilkins.

CONCERT REVIEW

Humble Pie Verdict: Yes!

■ PORTCHESTER, N.Y.—Two of the more extraordinary sides of the current British rock scene were well represented at Howard Stein's Capitol Theater recently when Humble Pie and Yes stirred a near-capacity crowd set for disappointment after Warners' top-billed Black Sabbath, cancelled suddenly.

Highlighted by stunning arrangements of cuts from their third Atlantic LP "The Yes Album," Yes' set exemplified the kind of professionalism and showmanship that has characterized English groups since the Beatles. Tight harmonies featuring lead singer John Anderson and fluid imaginative guitar work from Peter Banks helped to make the live performances of "Yours is No Disgrace" and "The Clap" even better than the album versions, with which many in the audience seemed familiar.

The real showstoppers, however, were Humble Pie, whose second A & M album, "Rock On," has ridden the charts for several months. Lead by ex-Small Face Steve Marriott, the quartet has a sense of humor and an instrumental facility that offsets refreshingly their relentlessly rhythmic interpretations of Muddy Waters' "I'm Ready" and their own melodramatic "Walk on Gilded Splinters." If we must have HEAVY groups, would that they were all as tight and versatile as Humble Pie. A live album recorded at the late Fillmore East is due by the end of the summer, while A & M will release a single, "I Don't Need No Doctor," this month.

The omens are good: the crowd was happy with only two of the scheduled groups, the bands themselves were top-notch and the Capitol continues to provide great entertainment only 45 minutes from Broadway. Ron Ross

Firsts For Jim Dawson

Jim Dawson

■ NEW YORK — "This is the first time I've ever been able to get my music across on record," says Jim Dawson, who's been in and out of many groups over the years, and who now has his first solo album out on the Kama Sutra label.

Jim, formerly a member of Good Earth, chatted with Record World last week and voiced high hopes both for the LP and an upcoming set of appearances which includes Central Park, the Bitter End and Folk City.

The album is entitled "Song-man," and Dawson has written 11 of the 13 cuts, many of which express a highly personal message. What makes him so encouraged about his musical future is that "Kama Sutra virtually left me alone in the studio, which is something that has never happened to me before." The result, he feels, is an accurate statement of what he wants to communicate at this point in his career.

Also on tap for Jim in the near future is the release of a single "Man in Question," taken from "Songman," and hopefully a college tour beginning in September. Judging from the enthusiasm of the Buddha-Kama Sutra team and the self-confidence of Jim Dawson, we will probably be hearing a lot from this artist as time goes on.

Previously, all recording at the company has been handled only by Studio B which contains the custom Neumann mastering facility used for recent mixing and editing of albums to be released in August by Elektra recording artists Lonnie Mack, Jeanie Greene, the Wackers and British acts Lindisfarne and Medicine Head.

Among other clients who have of late used the studio for sessions work are John Sebastian, Buffy Ste. Marie and Atlantic President Ahmet Ertegun recording new group John & Mark.

■ The Village Recorder, West Los Angeles-based recording studio, has added a specially constructed "Acoustic Absorber" wall to its existing facilities, announces Doc Siegel, Studio Manager.

The wall, built according to the specifications of California Acoustical Consultant Michael Rettinger, M.A., satisfies the need, in Dr. Rettinger's words, for "sufficient low-frequency absorption in modern music recording studios employing multiple microphone setups for multi-track recording.

"In modern music practice," continues Rettinger, "the reverberatory character of the studio is generally made to be a little noticeable in the recording."

What Rettinger's wall accomplishes for the Village Recorder's Studio "A" is a live, open feel, but no reverberation.

ARP Names VPs

■ HOLBROOK, N.Y.—Norman Dufour, President of American Record Pressing Company, a leisure-time subsidiary of Viewlex, Inc., announced the appointments of David M. Howell and John Ivanits as Vice Presidents.

Fat Chance Studio Formed

■ HOLLYWOOD—The Recording Studio, Inc., and Fat Chance Productions have merged into one company called the Fat Chance Recording Studio, Inc.

Formerly owned by members of the group Morning, the 8-track studio is enlarging to 16 tracks. Prices for mono through 8 track will be $25 per hour while 16 track recording will be $50 per hour. Equipment includes the brands of Scully, Ampex and Spectrasonics along with a Kawai concert grand piano, a Hammond B-3 organ and Ludwig concert drums.

The atmosphere at Fat Chance is that of a living room, relaxed with a room for beverages and refreshment. It is precisely this kind of surrounding that keeps groups such as Chicago recording again and again at the Torzana studio.

Fat Chance also has its own roster comprised of 10 acts plus a group called Dakota—based in San Diego. Favorable aspects of dealing with Fat Chance include one stop contracting which covers only one album with no long-term agreements. Another positive angle is that producers and musicians may exchange studio time for negotiable percentages. Fat Chance's staff has Joe Long, Bruce Wallace, Harvey Schwartz (chief technician—he helped build the Ray Charles Studios), Roger Reinhart and Andi Krusoe.

The company signs acts for single record projects and then negotiates subsequent deals which can include single club dates. Tony Lawrence

Brito Back In Studio

■ NEW YORK—Veteran Singer Phil Brito has recovered from open heart surgery.

On July 23 cut four sides at A&R Studios for his own label, Jerida. These singles will also be the basis of his forthcoming album, "It's Ballad Time Again." One side is "Just For a While" by Ken Curtis, whom Brito met when both were having heart operations. Arrangements are by Jack Andrews.

Victrix Produces Rock Series

■ NEW YORK — Steve Metz and Victrix Productions, Inc., and Tobe T. Fedder, President of Motivation, Inc., announce that Victrix will be producing the music for a television series to be called "Igor and the Beavers."

Fedder, producer/director, has been in the film business for 25 years and has been involved in television shows geared to young audiences, including "Zip the Piper," a 52-week, 30-minute, children's series. "Igor and the Beavers" will use animated figures. Plans call for the formation of a six-member rock group, five boys and a girl.

Gold Will Write

Bruce Gold will write some of the music for the show, which will be published by Broude/Bregman Music, Inc. Members of the rock group will be managed by the firm Metz and David Lipton head up, Catalyst Management, Inc.

Sigma Sees Action

■ Among those recording recently at Sigma Sound Studios in Philadelphia were Laura Nyro and the Four Tops. Studio also provided all audio equipment and engineers for the video taping of the live performance of Peter Nero and the Woody Herman Band locally.

Recotape Designated

■ Sam Goody, Inc., has announced that its subsidiary, International Recotape Corp., has been designated by Memorex Corp. as the exclusive Eastern Regional Warehouse for the Memorex audio recording tape line. The territory covers principally New York, Connecticut, New Jersey and parts of Pennsylvania.

Record Royalty

John Lennon talks it over musically with Atlantic record band-leader King Curtis at a session at the Record Plant studio in New York City where the singer-composer was putting together an album on the Apple label to be released in September. Curtis dubbed that Lennon felt would be appropriate to give his music "more soul."

Big Response for Dawson

■ NEW YORK — New York's Bitter End, the starting place for many acts which have since become household words, may have itself another star-in-the-making. The artist is Jim Dawson, who opened there last week (21) with established stars Brewer and Shipley and drew a fantastic response from the packed house.

Dawson plays 6 and 12 string guitar, picking effortlessly and almost flawlessly, and sings soft songs with truly deep and meaningful lyrics. His songs are good, as can be heard by turning on almost any FM station or by listening to his first Kama Sutra solo album, "Songman." But the really special thing about this artist is the rapport he establishes with his audience. From opening number "Songman" to the finale, "Simple Song," Dawson maintained an intimate, magical connection with the audience that is rarely seen in this day of superstars and huge arenas. A talent like Jim Dawson has to make it sooner or later, and his time well may be right now.

Headlining the show were Kama Sutra artists Brewer and Shipley, who showed once again that they are fine singers and songwriters, though their guitar work was not as tight as it could have been. They played the songs which have made them well known over the past year—"One Toke Over the Line" and "Tarkio Road"—and some less widely known but equally pleasant material.

There was also a political tone to many of the newer songs, a tone which was less noticeable in their previous New York appearances. Interestingly, the highlight of their set was a song written by another composer, as they performed a driving, intense version of one of the greatest of all Bob Dylan's songs, "All Along the Watchtower."

Grindle Starts Rock Policy

■ NEW YORK — New York's upper East Side was the scene last weekend as a very young, very new group called Grindl heralded the start of rock music at a new club in the area. The club, which may eventually take up some of the slack left by the closing of such East Side discothèques as Wheels, is Gladstone, Pushbottom & Co. And although it was nearly empty last Saturday (17), partly due to a policy which admitted only couples to the band room, Grindl managed to put on a basically good show for those who were there.

Grindl opened with what turned out to be by far the best number of the night, an original called "Sunny Days," which is an excellent song reminiscent of some of the things the Beatles were doing way back in 1965. Given the current "return to rock 'n' roll" mood among many record buyers these days, this song should definitely be released, perhaps as a single, as soon as the group gets a record contract.

After "Sunny Days" and a couple of similar tunes, things appeared to go slightly downhill, as the group experienced some difficulty in presenting a unified instrumental sound. They were weakest in their attempts to perform other people's material, such as Otis Redding's "Pain in My Heart," but were saved to an extent by fine vocal performances from Jimmy Daley and Peter Belmonte, who changed off on lead.

There were many moments of fine music throughout the evening, however, and with more work Grindl may emerge as a solid rock 'n' roll act for both recording and performing.

Capitol Sets 11 New LPs

■ LOS ANGELES — Capitol Records and its affiliated labels, Harvest and Island, have announced that 11 new albums will be released in August.

Charlie Daniels' first LP for Capitol, "Charlie Daniels," is scheduled, as well as a new album by the Move, "Message from the Country." Canadians Aarons & Ackley debut on Capitol with their album, already issued north of the border, and a two-record retrospective album, "Cannonball Adderley and Friends," is also due.

England contributes with LPs by Richard Barnes, "If," and on the Harvest label debut albums by Michael Chapman, "Fully Qualified Survivor," and East of

PBS Begins Music Series on Television

■ The Public Broadcasting Service will launch a new series of uninterrupted pop-rock concerts Wednesday, Aug. 4, at 8:30 p.m., EDT*.

The nine-program PBS series, titled "Boboquivari," will feature an outstanding jazz, rock, folk or blues performer each week. Blues guitarist Freddie King will present the first half-hour color concert.

Following King will be the Roger Kellaway Cello Quartet (experimental jazz); Roberta Flack (jazz vocals); Kris Kristofferson (Country and Western); Odetta (folk-rock); Sir Douglas Quintet (rock); Tim Buckley (folk and jazz); Lightnin' Hopkins (Texas blues); and the series ends with Ramblin' Jack Elliott (folk).

"Boboquivari" was designed, according to producer Alan Baker of KCET/Los Angeles, to give artists complete freedom to perform their own work in their own way on national network television. (The programs will be transmitted by PBS to 205 public TV stations across the country.)

The title, pronounced Ba-bo-KEE-var-ee, is a Papago Indian word that, roughly translated, means "joining together." The series is a solid 30 minutes of music with no host, no theme and no interruptions.

Russo, Levine Form Cartunes

■ NEW YORK—Formation of Cartunes Productions and Russo-Levine Management, with performer-composer Jim Carroll the initial artist on their roster, has been announced by Aaron Russo and Joey Levine.

Russo and Levine will specialize in the development of contemporary artists, placing them with all labels and overseeing record production and elements vital to proper career direction. Headquarters for the two firms is 201 East 21st St. Phone: (212) 260-1540. Offices in Hollywood will be established by September to be supervised by Russo.

For several years Russo owned and operated the Kinetic Playground in Chicago. Levine, with Artie Resnick, furthered the development of "bubble gum" music.

Black poetess Nikki Giovanni chats with Record World's Mike Sigman and Marty Snider at party held to celebrate the release of her Right On Records LP, "Truth Is On Its Way." The album, produced by Right On President Carl Proctor, is enjoying airplay and sales, features Miss Giovanni reading her poetry augmented by the gospel music of Benny Diggs' New York Community Choir. Party was held at Thursday's.

ATLANTA/MACON

By LEE BARRY

■ "Sam Massell, superstar, who do you think you are." And so the jingle went on Big A radio station WIIN heralding the one-morning-only top 40 show hosted by his honor "Fat Sam" Massell, Mayor of this fair Southern city. The swinging Mayor kicked his show off with "Games People Play," written and recorded by Atlantan Joe South.

Mayor Massell, with a more than casual interest in his city's music community, has in recent days given the city to one rock group and sent flowers to Tommy Roe, Ray Stevens, Billy Joe Royal, Dennis Yost and the Classics IV and the Tams prior to their appearance on the recent Tops of the Pops concert sponsored by the local NARAS Chapter and the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra.

The Three Dog Night rockers recently attracted 28,000 persons to a Stadium concert where they received the key to the city. Asked the difference between this Atlanta appearance and one several years earlier, a member of the group replied, "A reporter and a TV camera crew." On the bill with Three Dog Night were Lobo and Sea Train . . . The rhythm section from Macon's Capricorn Studios are winging their way toward New York City and a session with Livingston Taylor in the Atlantic Studios. Pickin' and grinnin' on the Taylor LP sessions are Robert Popwell, bass; Bill Stewart, drums; Paul Hornsby, keyboards; and Tommy Tarlton, guitar. Engineering is Johnny Sandlin. Coming soon LP sets, as cut in Macon's Capricorn facility, are "Five'll Getcha Ten" from Cowboy and Wet Willie's debut "blues power" disc.

Clarence Carter will "Slip Away" for a few days to attend a gala Homecoming being given in his honor by the city of Montgomery, Ala. . . . Jonathan Edwards has been inked on the Capricorn dotted line. Work is set to begin on first LP . . . While on a recent tour of the Southeast, Goose Creek Symphony cut in Macon for Capitol Records . . . Earl Goode has joined the Rogers Agency as Southern nightclub rep for the hot'lanta outfit . . . Freckle-faced, 17-year-old Atlanta lassie Turner Rice was feted at the downtown Playboy Club by Wade Pepper, Gene Rumble and the Capitol label folks. Turner's new Capitol single asks the puzzling question: What's it all about "When Love Runs Out." The tune was composed by Stephen Hartley Dorff from a poem written by his girl in New York City. On hand for the Rice Party were producer Don Carroll, writer Stephen Hartley Dorff and publisher Bill Lowery . . . After catching the garter at the wedding of a Lowery employee, Billy Joe Royal hightailed it out of town for several weeks of club work. Don't blame you, "Bee Jay," I'd run too! Royal will record in New York with Dave Apple and the Tokens during the first part of August.

Somebody Up There Likes Stephen Schwartz—Appropriately

"Godspell" composer and lyricist Stephen Schwartz (left) and director John-Michael Tebelak (right) discuss the current influence of religion and the Bible on contemporary music and theater with hostess Barbara Walters during a recent appearance of the "Today" show. The two-hour TV show was devoted entirely to the off-Broadway musical and featured several numbers from the musical performed by the entire cast. The original cast album of "Godspell" is on Bell Records.

By DAVE FINKLE

■ NEW YORK — "Everything good that's ever happened to me I've blundered into. I've been very lucky. I'll tell you. It tends to make one superstitious. I keep thinking that somebody somewhere is being awfully good to me, and so I'd better be careful."

Stephen Schwartz, who composed the music and "new" lyrics for off-Broadway's most recent musical success, "Godspell," based on the Gospel According to St. Matthew, has the air about him of a man whose luck has been so good that he expects it to run out at almost any minute—perhaps with the turn of the next corner. He's cautious. He makes sure to express gratitude to the people who have helped him along the short way. He remains modest.

At least he did at Record World last week.

"I got a call about the beginning of March from Edgar Lansbury and Joseph Beruh, telling me that they were going to be doing an off-Broadway show that needed a score. They had heard a score of mine and were interested in me. They asked me if I'd go see their show, which was being given a showcase production at the La Mama. I went to see it and up there on the stage were a lot of friends of mine from Carnegie Tech — called Carnegie-Mellon now. I'd known all these kids at school, and I had no idea they were even in New York. 'Godspell' was John-Michael Tebelak's show. He did it as a senior thesis or something, and then got to Ellen Stewart somehow.

There were some songs thrown in, but they needed a new score. I said I'd do it because, with all my friends in it, it sounded like it would be a party. And it was. The conditions were right. There were never any problems. We all liked working with each other. Nobody resented it if a song was cut. When the show, opened we were all still friends, and I think that quality came across.

"I wrote the score in about six weeks. Well, the lyrics were almost all there, which was good, because lyrics are hard. Well, if you're Steve Sondheim, maybe they come just like that, but for me lyrics come slowly. I ended up writing original lyrics for only about five songs."

Published by Valando

"Godspell" is on Bell and the music is published by Tommy Valando, at whose office Schwartz has been spending a great deal of time transcribing his "Godspell" score.

"A hit show is not to believe.

The Godspell LP, And How It Grew

By GREGG GELLER

■ NEW YORK—When Frank Military of Metromedia's Valando/Cadenza publishing arm invited him to see a new off-Broadway musical named "Godspell," Bell Records President Larry Uttal accepted reluctantly.

There have been so few musicals worth recording during the past year, he thought to himself. Still, Bell's Fifth Dimensions had achieved considerable success with "Light Sings" and "The Me Nobody Knows," a Metromedia copyright, and the two organizations had developed a good working relationship. So, he went to see "Godspell." He hasn't regretted doing so.

Uttal termed the experience "my biggest surprise of the year. I didn't expect to, but I loved it." His enthusiasm for the show impressed its producers, Edgar Lansbury, Stuart Duncan and Joseph Beruh, and when he agreed to let its composer Stephen Schwartz produce the original cast album, it went to Bell.

The album was released recently and has met with immediate and widespread exposure and acceptance. Initial airplay has been heavy and a recent NBC-TV "Today" show, devoting its full two hours to the "Jesus revival," spent much of that time on "Godspell." Word-of-mouth has contributed to the demand for the show, and the first of several road companies is due to begin in Los Angeles shortly. Stephen Nathan, lead of the New York cast, is slated to join that company.

Regular Treatment

Uttal believes the "Godspell" original caster has a shot at becoming a number one-rated album. Toward that end, Bell is treating the album as they would a regular record rather than a standard show album. A full-scale advertising campaign in both consumer and trade press is planned.

And "Godspell" T-shirts were made up for promotional purposes. Perhaps you've already seen one. They're being worn all over town. More importantly, says Larry Uttal, "see the show."

I'd like to do them. He'd seen 'Godspell' and liked it very, very much, I guess. The first time I met Lennie—well, I had been introduced to him about three years ago—he was in a state. He wanted to know if certain parts of the score were angry enough or humorous enough. He hasn't written anything for a while, and when you're Leonard Bernstein, when you've become an institution, you get to the point, I suppose, where you wonder whether every little thing you write is worthy of Bernstein. I said, 'Don't worry. It will be Bernstein, and they will like it or they won't.' We spent two weeks together in Los Angeles—all of us—Gordon Davidson, who runs the Mark Taper Forum there and who is going to direct the 'Mass,' and Alvin Ailey, who is going to choreograph. I did the bulk of my work there. I'm still working here. We go into rehearsal Aug. 11, and there are still great gaps missing. I like the music. It's so exciting to hear new Bernstein music. It's humorous, and not that kind of superior humor that puts an audience off. It's rhythmic and jazzy. My classical vocabulary isn't good enough to describe it, but there are 12-tone tone rows used. About five parts of the traditional Catholic mass are being set, but Lennie is trying to keep it very light. There will be about 200 singers. I only hope it's there by opening night. I hope it all comes together."

Educated at RCA

After he completed the "Mass" with Bernstein, Schwartz, who produced records until March for RCA ("I didn't do that much there, and I have to be grateful to them for letting this punk kid make money for two years while getting an education on recording"), is set to do a Broadway show, "Pippin," set during Charlemagne's rule, for Stuart Ostrow.

Besides producing little at RCA ("The Sweet Days of Isaac" caster and one or two other albums), producing the "Godspell" LP and co-producing the recent Paramount "Survival of Saint Joan" with David Blume, Schwartz has done little songwriting. He wrote the title tune for Broadway's "Butterflies are Free" but doesn't expect Columbia to use it for the movie. "If I had Carole King

Audio Fi Armstrong Push

■ Audio Fidelity Records and Milestone Records will be placing special emphasis for a two-month period beginning Aug. 1 on albums by the late Louis Armstrong that are included in the catalogues of both labels.

In addition, Audio Fidelity is bringing out for the first time a single record of "Bill Bailey," sung and played by Louis.

This August-September Armstrong activity, which will include in-store promotion and special discounts to dealers and distributors, was announced by Herman D. Gimbel, President of Audiofidelity Enterprises, Inc., parent company of the two labels. The albums, recorded in the late 1950s, were produced by the late Sid Frey.

Noone on Bell

■ NEW YORK — Larry Uttal, President of Bell Records, announced a long-term, exclusive dual agreement with Peter Noone as a recording artist and Mickie Most as his producer for the states and Canada. First release on Bell will be "Oh You Pretty Thing."

CONCERT REVIEW

Electric Performance By Moog, Headband

■ NEW YORK—In what must have been one of the weirder combinations of talent and concert hall in recent memory, the Trinity Church in New York's Wall Street area played host to a giant Moog last Thursday (20).

The fantastic machine, which seemed capable of making virtually any sound at almost any speed, was the vehicle for a set of fascinating electronic music from Robert Margouloff and Malcolm Cecil, a two-man team better known as Tonto's Expanding Headband. And although things didn't turn out quite as well as was hoped, perhaps a commentary on the difficulties inherent in presenting the Moog and other similar devices as instruments of live music, there were many flashes of brilliant music from the Headband. In a piece called "Tama," Margouloff and Cecil were especially successful in blending a hauntingly melodic tune with a background of crashing, never-before-heard electronic sounds.

Tonto's Expanding Headband may be heard to best advantage on their new "Zerotime" album on the Embryo label. Anyone with an ear for the future and a respect for the past would do well to give the record a listen.

No Ringy-Dingy

Polydor's Lily Tomlin, whose Ernestine the Telephone Operator character is internationally-known from her "This is a Recording" bestselling album and her appearances on "Laugh-In," appears as herself in support of telephone workers who were picketing Ma Bell during the recent strike. Lily marched in San Francisco, where she was stopping to do a concert. Reviews for the on-stage stint heralded her as the best comedienne to emerge in 20 years.

CLUB REVIEWS

Soft Machine, Loudon Delight Gaslight

■ NEW YORK—The Gaslight at the Au Go Go recently (7) sported an extraordinarily esoteric bill consisting of the Soft Machine and Loudon Wainwright III.

The Soft Machine records for Columbia and is perhaps the most consistently compelling ensemble in avant-garde jazz today. The British quartet played one hour-long extended piece in which they dissected sound, refracted rhythm and generated a many-colored music of rare impact and unquestioned quality. Get into the Soft Machine.

Memorable Melodies

Loudon Wainwright III is an acquired taste. His two albums for Atlantic give an accurate indication of his unique talents and give rise to inevitable questions concerning that talent. Is he a poet? A put-on? Punter? Probably he is all of these things and more. His lyrics are at times nonsensical, but more often probing and poignant. His melodies are always memorable. His best songs to date are "Motel Blues" and "School Days." Start getting acquainted with Loudon Wainwright III. He's important.

Jean-Paul Scores

■ HOLLYWOOD—French singer Jean-Paul Vignon is making his first Los Angeles appearance at the Playboy Club. He is a swinging, cool performer who has all the qualifications.

His vitality, perfect pitch and mod look are all going for him. Jean-Paul is a personality formidable and his singing talents are assured.

Vignon started with "Turn Around Look at Me," followed by the "Love Story" theme, "If You Go Away" and "Close to You." His versions of "A Man and a Woman" and "I Will Wait For You" (both done half in English and French) were well received by the audience. For novelty Vignon sang what he called "a typical French tune" which we know as "Old MacDonald." The highlight tune and closing number was "Inch Allah."

Vignon's relation with the audience was relaxed and intimate. To put it mildly, he is an excellent entertainer.

Kinney International Grows

■ During the last year Kinney National Services realigned its international record operations to bring under the corporate umbrella of Kinney Music International divisions in Australia, Germany, France and Japan. These four operations join Kinney's Canadian and English operations (formed in 1967 and 1969 respectively) in this newly established international network of Kinney owned and operated record companies. Kinney Music International is headed by President Neshui Ertegun and Executive Vice President Phil Rose.

The Warner Bros. Record Division's first venture into the international market dates back to 1967 with the formation of Warner Bros. Records of Canada. Now under the corporate banner of Kinney Music Canada Ltd., the Canadian company is headed by President Ken Middleton. Then, in 1969, Warner Bros. Records Ltd., which has now become Kinney Record Group, Ltd., was opened in England, with Ian Ralfini the managing director.

The realignment of the international division got underway in early 1970 with the formation of Kinney Music International. The Australian operation, Kinney Music Pty., Ltd., is under the supervision of Managing Director Paul Turner. In Germany, Kinney Music GMBH is headed by Siegfried Loch. The German operation is undertaking an experiment in the distribution of records with another Kinney company, National Periodical Publications German affiliate. They are testing the Berlin market for distribution through the National Periodical affiliate.

The operation in France opened last July under a partnership agreement with Daniel Filipacchi. Filipacchi serves as President of the company, Kinney Filipacchi Music, and Bernard de Bosson is managing director. Kinney Music International began its Japanese operation last January as a joint venture with Pioneer Electronics and the Watanabe Group (Japan's most proficient producer of native talent). Mrs. Gitta Peschko is the resident representative in the Japanese firm, Warner Bros. — Pioneer Corp.

Each of the international operations is a full-line record company and as such will record and produce talent for its own ethnic market with the expectation of developing international artists from each company's home market. The firms will also distribute, promote and sell their own product and each has a license to distribute product from all the labels under the Kinney umbrella (Warner Bros., Atlantic and Elektra).

Phil Rose stated that "Kinney is now represented in 80% of the important world markets with further expansion planned." He expects Kinney Music International's attention to turn towards the Latin American countries within the next two years.

NARAS Elects

■ The Los Angeles Chapter Board of Governors of NARAS, has elected four National Trustees and six alternates to the National Board.

Named as National Trustees are Jerry Moss, President of A & M Records; Paul Weston and Mike Post, musical directors-arrangers-conductors; Lee Young, and ABC Dunhill Records A & R Administrator. Both Weston and Moss were re-elected to second two-year terms, while Young who is also Los Angeles Chapter President had been serving as an Alternate Trustee. This marks the first time on the National Board for Post who is also Los Angeles Chapter Secretary.

The Alternates elected are producer-composer Jerry Fuller, musician Ralph Grierson, conductor-arranger Earle Hagen, engineer Dave Weichman, producer-composer Ruth White and freelance designer Christopher Whorf.

The newly-elected Trustees join incumbents Larry Levine, Dave Pell, George Tipton and Peter Whorf as Los Angeles reps to the National Board which is made up of representatives from all five NARAS chapters.

Wild Time

Buddah artist Jack Wild stopped by Record World during a promotional swing for his new LP, "Everything's Coming Up Roses." The 18-year-old Britisher has recently been seen in the films "Melody" and "Flight of the Doves" and has just completed shooting "Pied Piper of Hamelin." Release of latter is expected next Easter.

Soul Day Picnics

Jocks at the Raleigh, N.C., RCA Soul Day Picnic

■ NEW YORK — George Morris, RCA Records' National R&B Promotion Director, has announced a series of "Soul Day" picnics which RCA Records is sponsoring for disc jockeys in the South.

Among other things, the picnics will serve to introduce Gene Burleson who was recently appointed to head RCA's R&B promotion in the South.

The first Soul Day picnic was held in Raleigh, N.C., on July 11. Following that, picnics were held in Atlanta on the 18th, and Nashville on the 25th.

Rounding out the schedule, picnics are to be held in Miami on Aug. 1 and New Orleans on Aug. 8.

According to Burleson: "These picnics afford us an opportunity to spotlight the dj as a family man and he and his family to meet others in the same business.

"By holding these picnics we're having a great time and are letting people know that RCA Records is in the mainstream of R&B music."

WSIX Distribs 'Outta Sight' TVer

■ WSIX Television in Nashville has signed an agreement with L&M Productions of Cleveland, Ohio, to distribute a new half-hour comedy-variety series titled "Outta Sight" combining comedy segments with top performing talent.

Recording artists appearing in the production include Gary Puckett and the Union Cap, Gladys Knight and the Pips, Creedence Clearwater Revival, the Intruders, B. J. Thomas, Ike and Tina Turner, Joe South, Wilson Pickett, Steppenwolf, Lou Christie, the Watts 103rd Street Band, Gene Chandler and many others.

The shows are hosted by Leon Isaac and Michael Payne, producers and owners of L&M Productions.

Gerald McNaulty, Director of Syndicated Sales for WSIX-TV, noted that the "Outta Sight" production fills the void in television programming with a well produced program showcasing black talent.

Labelle at WB

■ Mo Ostin, President of Warner Bros. Records, announced that the label has signed Labelle to a long-term exclusive recording contract.

The female vocal trio, who had a succession of hits under the name of Patti Labelle and the Bluebells, came to Warner Bros. through an agreement with Track International. Labelle features three of the original members of Patti Labelle

WORLD

People's Choice has exploded as a national instrumental smash, and it has picked up some big pop stations.

Dramatics is now well on its way to going all the way pop. The heavies have proven it will sell pop, and many more are going on it.

CONCERT REVIEW

Poco Scores at Schaefer

■ NEW YORK—Country music and company kind of made it on a recent Friday evening (16) in Central Park. Epic's Poco gained new fans and impressed old friends with their tight, well-thought-out set at the Schaefer Musical Festival.

Having established themselves as one of the best performing newer bands with their last album, "Deliverin'," recorded live last year, Poco are a hot attraction on campus and since a slight reformation they have refined their rocking style of country music to near-perfection. As the group's reception in the park proved, they're going to make it very big very soon.

Their greatest appeal isn't their incredible instrumental versatility or their surprising funkiness under a rural exterior, although those qualities take part of the credit. What makes Poco such a joy is their enthusiasm and good-humored attitude toward themselves and the audience, the like of which hasn't really happened since John, Paul, George and Ringo smiled their way to stardom. Of course, Poco has the ability to put their energy on record, and their next for Epic, due by the end of summer, should put them over the top.

Highlights of the show were "Railroad Days" and "Bad Weather," two new songs by Paul Cotton, Pocos newcomer. Steel guitarist extraordinaire Randy Young was as exciting as ever and George Grantham continues to amaze as he remains one of the best drummers in rock, while singing on Poco's faultless harmonies. Richie Furay holds all the action together with his lead vocals and guitar.

Opening the concert was Capitol's Jerry Riopelle, who has managed to sound a great deal like Leon Russell without being imitative. Tightening his band and pruning his material should make him stand out as a singer/songwriter in the near future. Ron Ross

New Audio-Visual Branch

■ HOLLYWOOD — Jack L. Levy, President of WPA (Words & Pictures Associates), has announced the formation of a branch within his advertising firm which will specialize in the creation and development of audio-visual presentations of new product for showing at record companies' distributor meetings.

"What we have to offer is a complete distributor meeting package," explained Levy. "From our past experience in this field, we feel that record labels have spent far too much in the past and received far too little for their money for this type of service.

"That is the reason we are setting up a specialized department for the convenience of the recording industry."

The presentations which WPA offers are mixed media, combining slides and motion pictures with 360° sound. "We generally utilize multiple screens, but without gimmicks," Levy continued. "The impact of a presentation of this sort must depend solely on its content, both artistically and audibly."

Golden Crest Sales Hit High

■ NEW YORK—Sales and net income of Golden Crest Records, Inc. (Over-the-Counter) for the fiscal year ended April 2, 1971, were the highest in the company's history, reports Clark F. Galehouse, President.

Net income for fiscal 1971 amounted to $247,619, or 25 cents per common share, a 23 per cent increase over earnings of $200,926, or 22 cents per share, for the fiscal year ended April 3, 1970. Sales for fiscal 1971 rose 22 per cent to $3,137,755, from $2,572,777 for the prior year.

Artista de la Semana

(Artist of the Week)

Carmela & Rafael

■ "Ya no son dos sino uno solo" es el título de su último L.P. y efectivamente Carmela y Rafael ya no forman un dueto, sino que se han llegado a identificar de tal forma que hacen una sola personalidad dentro y fuera del mundo musical.

Cada tema que ellos abordan se transforma en una verdadera obra clásica del romanticismo.

Artistas del sello Musart de México, Carmela y Rafael, esposos en su vida privada llevan más de diez años unidos por el vínculo matrimonial.

Carmela, es Veracruzana por nacimiento y lleva como hermoso recuerdo el haber iniciado su carrera artística como intérprete del recordado maestro que en paz descansa, Agustín Lara.

A pesar de los éxitos obtenidos hasta el momento, Carmela manifiesta que todavía tiene mucho camino por recorrer musicalmente no se encuentra satisfecha de lo que ha logrado hasta el momento.

En cuanto a Rafael, vino al mundo en la ciudad de Tampico, pero fué la agitada Tijuana dondó trascurió su niñez y su adolescencia.

Al concluir el bachillerato, estudió para mecánico-dental, recibiendo el título pero sin llegar a ejercer su profesión.

Paralelamente al terminar sus estudios, logró salir airoso en un concurso de canto para aficionados, no presagiaba todavía Rafael, que ahí cambiaría el rumbo de su vida.

Posteriormente viajó a la capital mexicana, dondó comenzó a alternar sus presentaciones en centros nocturnos y programas de radio.

Más adelante, los ahora esposos se conocen y comienzan a trabajar juntos, lo que llega a estrechar los vínculos, primero amistosos y luego amorosos, los que culminan en el altar.

Desde un comienzo, Carmela Y Rafael dieron muestras de amor y comprensión, lo que dió como resultado que trascendiera en un éxito completo, tanto en su profesión de artistas como en sus negocios.

En la actualidad, poseen dos "restaurants" en la capital de México, que responden al nombre de "Apache 14."

Entre los últimos éxitos de la pareja romántica de México, como le llaman sus admiradores, esta el tema "De Qué Color es la Piel de Dios," que llegó a colocarse en los primeros lugares de venta y popularidad en toda la república.

By GUILLERMO LOZANO

■ Nunca en la historia de esta ciudad, de mas de medio millón de gentes de nombre latino, se había presentado un festival con tantos y tan buenos artistas, como el que presentó la emisora KCOR a su auditorio con motivo de su aniversario numero 25 . . . Fué en la Arena de la Hemisferia, con capacidad para once mil personas. Los boletos se agotaron desde un fin de semana anterior, y con un local lleno a su máxima capacidad, vimos desfilar por el foro a las siguientes figuras: (por orden de aparición) Orquesta de Paul Elizondo, Felipe Arriaga (CBS), Martha Angelica (Musart), Roberto Jordan (RCA), Los Aguilar (RCA), Victor Yturbe (El Piruli) (Philips), Carmela y Rafael (Musart), Lazaro Arroyo (RCA), Sonia La Unica (Orfeon), Juan Mendoza El Taria-curí (Musart), Claudio (Musart), Cornelio Reyna (Musart), Rosario de Alba (Peerless), Enrique Linares (Peerless), Imelda Miller (RCA), Gilberto Valenzuela (Orfeon), Erik (Peerless), Pedro Vargas (RCA), y José Alfredo Jimenez y Alicia Juarez (RCA).

Casi cinco horas de espectáculo en donde la gente no quiso ni siquiera intermedio, y aplaudió a rabiar todos los numeros.

El programa se inició con la presencia del excelentísimo obispo de la Arquidiócesis de San Antonio, Patrick Flores, que presentó a la KCOR la Bendición Papa] por todos sus servicios, El Cónsul de Mexico, en San Antonio, en nombre del gobierno de la Republica Mexicana otorgó un trofeo a la emisora por su difusión de la música y cultura mexicana. El alacalde de San Antonio John Gatti entregó un pergamino al gerente de KCOR Sr. Nathan Safir por la labor en beneficio de la comunidad. Luego todo fue alegría pero hubo momentos sobresalientes. Se imagina usted a once mil gentes ponerse de pié y aplaudir por mas de cinco minutos cuando salió a escena Pedro Vargas . . . El tenor continental lloró entusiasmado, y recordó que él inauguró hace 25 años esta emisora.

Todos estuvieron extraordinarios, se crecieron ante un público tan numeroso, pero lo que más me sorprendió en lo particular fué Erik, un muchacho muy joven, que empieza a destacar y que tiene una voz maravillosa, que hasta ahora no ha sido plasmada en discos con la potencia y dulces matices que tiene. Le deseamos un futuro muy brillante . . . Estuvieron representantes de todas las firmas grabadoras. Carlos Gonzalez vino representando Peerless desde Miami, Carlos Valido, de San Antonio y Memo Acosta de la ciudad de México de la firma Musart. Joe Ramirez de Nueva York a Constantino Escobar representaron a la RCA, Osvaldo Venzor de Los Angeles y Juan Calderón cuidaban de los intereses de Orfeon, Agustin Hernandez de Peerless de Mexico. Comb directores invitados estuvieron el formidable arreglista Jorge Ortega y el maestro Jonathan Zarzoza. Como en todos estos festejos hubo "cocktails," banquetes, etc. Y desde luego no faltó quien quisiera manchar el festejo, algunos empresarios se quejaron de que ellos perderán dinero cuando vuelvan a traer un espectáculo a San Antonio con cinco o seis figuras y cobrando más caro que los dos de Blanca Rosa Gil "Vete Ya" en su sello Benson. Entre los temas figuran "Te Regalo Mis Sueños," "Cualquiera," "Yo También soy Sentimental," "Eres un Mentiroso," "Has Llegado Tarde" y "No Has de Verme Llorar" entre otras. ¡Ahora sí Blanca Rosa está en algo grande! . . .

Muy bueno el long playing "Y . . . Sigue el Ritmo Caliente" que la RCA Chilena ha lanzado al mercado por Los Cumaná. Sus interpretaciones de "El Marinero" y "Qué Claro es el Azul del Cielo" son excelentes. La mayor parte del repertorio es integrado por cumbias y música tropical en general . . . Iempsa lanzó el larga duración "25 Años de los Morochucos" integrado por dos long playings, conteniendo lo mejor de este gran Trio de América . . . Si la RCA lanzara al mercado "A Ustedes Dos" interpretado por Juan Carlos en producción de RCA de Chile, localizaba un éxito importantísimo. ¡Ojalá y lo noten! . . . Tico lanzó al mercado "Lindo Palomar" y "Watch it" por Tito Puente y su Orquesta . . . Borinquen sacó el LP "Tan Solo El Amor" por Los Gemelos del Sur, que tan altas cifras de ventas alcanzaran anteriormente con "Una Mentira Piadosa" . . . Si UA Latino no se mueve con energías, perderá la gran fuerza interpretativa de Nelson Ned y Martinha, en grabaciones originales de Copacabana de Brasil. El repertorio de primera de estos artistas, está siendo copiado exitosamente por innumerable cantidad de artistas, en varios países . . . Cumple 22 años en el aire la KIFN Radio de Phoenix, Arizona, que sirve a más de 250,000 habitantes de habla hispana en est área.

Estos datos serán tratados con la mayor confianza y puedo asegurar que la empresa radial es de primera y manejada por hombre de gran honestidad, disciplina y caballerosidad. ¡Alto Salario! . . . Después de pertenecer muchos años como Director Artístico a la disquera Musart, Guillermo Acosta presentó su renuncia. El "divorcio" definitivo entre "Memo" Acosta y Musart, fué objeto de infinidad de comentarios dentro del medio artístico. La noticia se dió a conocer por intermedio de un boletín de Prensa el cual transcribimos textualmente:

"Hacemos de su conocimiento que el señor Guillermo Acosta presentó su renuncia efectiva al día 30 de Junio de 1971, al puesto de Director Artístico, que venía desempeñando en esta compañía; Discos Musart por medio de su Director General señor Eduardo L. Baptista, desea al señor Acosta toda clase de éxitos en las actividades que realizará en el futuro. Atentamente Discos Musart S.A. . . ."

No cabe duda, que cuando existe el deseo de hacer las cosas bien, surgen ideas que realmente valen la pena elogiarlas. RCA, inauguró en fecha reciente lo que le ha llamado "Festivales en las Estaciones del Metro." Miles de capitalinos se han visto de esta forma beneficiados gratuitamente al espec-tar y aplaudir a sus ídolos favoritos. El numeroso elenco con que cuenta RCA ha cosechado muchos aplausos en cada una de sus presentaciones, las cuales han sido programadas para todo lo que resta del año 71 . . . Armando Manzanero, levantando nuevamente muestras de admiración. Ahora su triunfo es por partida doble. Como intérprete de sus canciones en el "Chateau Madrid" de Nueva York y con su composición "Olvidalo" que acaba de grabarla nada menos que Tony Bennett bajo el título de "Forget It" . . . Qué manera de ganar simpatizantes Los Carpenters, su "Close To You" los hizo grandes y el resto de sus grabaciones los hará inolvidables . . . El jovial y alegre Leo Dan nuevamente entre las preferencias con su tema "Mary es mi Amor" . . . Estamos en la época en que el estilo está por encima de todo y para muestra basta la identificación que tienen Los Freddy's con su popularísimo tema "Aunque me Hagas Llorar," que se escucha en todas las estaciones y que estoy seguro que perdurará por buen tiempo en los primeros lugares, es un éxito más entre los muchos que cuenta Peerless . . . Los mediodres espectáculos presentados por los centros nocturnos capitalinos se vieron recompensados con la figura de Marco Antonio Muñoz y la bella Morucha. Marco hizo honor al calificativo de "triunfador de América," sus recientes grabaciones "Mas Amor" y "Ni soy de aqui Ni soy de Allá" acaparan popula-

CONCERT REVIEW

Ovations for Joe at Museum

NEW YORK—The Museum of Modern Art's highly successfully Jazz in the Garden series presented one of the finest concerts in recent months last week (15) as Country Joe McDonald showed a large crowd that he has lost none of his greatness in the transition to solo status.

Playing an acoustic set interspersed with low-keyed, ironic conversation, Country Joe presented a markedly contrasting, though equally effective, musical personality to his old days as lead performer for the raucous, electric Country Joe and the Fish.

The lengthy set featured tasteful guitar work and compelling vocals on such tunes as "Here I Go Again" and "The Ballad of Jean Desperez." But the irrepressible old Country Joe was not completely absent, and the political and humorous overtones finally burst forth as he performed Fish classics "Feel Like I'm Fixin' To Do Rag" and "Sweet Lorraine."

There were truly no weak points about the Vanguard artist's concert, and the standing ovation he received was totally deserved. Soundmen have been recording recent Country Joe concerts for an upcoming live solo album, and hopefully many of the cuts he performed at the Museum will go into the LP.

Also appearing at the Jazz in the Garden event were Milkwood Tapestry, a duo who performed gentle, sensitive songs with a medieval flavor. Some of the songs, with titles like "Purple Side of Sunset" and "Fragile Birds In Winter," verged on the pretentious, but on the whole the group was most enjoyable. Mike Sigman

MJQ Returns

The deal for the MJQ encompasses world rights, and forthcoming recordings will be handled overseas by Kinney Music International. The MJQ's first album for Atlantic under the new contract is already completed and will be released in the fall.

Irene Reid
 NARCO Library

NEW YORK — Polydor singer Irene Reid will have a library named after her by NARCO II (Narcotics Addiction Confrontation and Rehabilitation Organization) on Aug. 20. The library, which will be named the Irene Reid Library will be located at NARCO II headquarters, 360 West 123 St.

The announcement was made by Mrs. Cecile Boatright, director of NARCO II, who said that "the dedication of the library is in appreciation for the time and effort Miss Reid contributed to NARCO." Last Feb. 22 Miss Reid headlined a benefit concert at the Top Club, 354 West 125 St., in order to raise the funds necessary for the library of Afro-American history, which will now be named after her.

■ LONDON—Rapidly becoming the most "in demand" arranger throughout the world is our own Paul Buckmaster. Originally known for his highly imaginative work with Elton John and his close association with producer Gus Dudgeon, Buckmaster has now spread his wings wide, especially after his recent trip to the states where he met, among others, Joel Dorn, which subsequently resulted in extensive work with Roberta Flack and Donny Hathaway. He has most recently added Harry Nilsson to the already long and star-studded list of artists who have benefited from his arrangements, for Buckmaster's work will be heard on Nilsson's next RCA single. It is little known that besides directing many successful records, Buckmaster is cellist and bassist with the Third Ear Band who are currently working on the soundtrack for Roman Polanski's film of "Macbeth." American impresario Gerry Weintraub has also shown interest recently and has arrived in London to discuss the future of this coveted music man's stateside recording career with manager Tony Hall. The only problem in writing about this really talented and interesting man is that no matter how hard one tries it is impossible to be comprehensive enough to mention all his current involvements—in demand, indeed.

The New Seekers now have their long-awaited first big U.K. hit with their cut of "Never Ending Song of Love." They will undertake a three-week British tour commencing Sept. 28. The tour, set by David Joseph's Toby Organization, will consist of approximately 20 one-nighters all over the country culminating on Oct. 16. At London's Royal Festival Hall where, as at all other dates, they will perform for two hours without a supporting act. Their hit also gives the group's U.K. record label, Philips, their first home-produced top 30 record for some time, but also marks a total of three chart records recently for the company who were lifted from the doldrums by Eurovision's Severine and U.S.A.'s Lobo. One senses an even brighter future for Philips following Fred Marks' major realignment which are now backed up with strong British product from new signings Palk Salad and the better known Edison.

Donovan's final album under his present contract with Pye has been issued on their Dawn label. The excellently produced and packaged double album contains the U.S. hit "Celia of the Seals." Another Pye group that has completed their present contract is the Kinks. Both acts are negotiating new contracts amid speculation that neither will re-sign with the label. Also planning a label change is David Bowie, who wrote Peter Noone's hit, "Oh You Pretty Thing," and is currently in the studios with his new band. His last was on Mercury . . . B and C Records' new contemporary label, Pegasus, is launched with four Here's a tip to Art Talmadge with his country single chart hit, "Right Won't Touch a Man," sung by his great Musicor artist, George Jones. Art, get your foreign licensees to release this country record—think of Lynn Anderson's "Rose Garden" which made it big overseas . . . Kinney in Germany has its opening night premiere in their new Hamburg offices and is flying in key djs, press, etc., for a big party on Alster Lake on July 21, headed by Sigi Loch, Conny Schnur, etc. I'll be there, too, to tape the affair for my RIAS dj shows, and it would be nice to see Jerry Wexler of Atlantic, there, too, as he belongs to Kinney clan . . . Glad to hear that German thrush and eye-ful Maria Duval has returned from a successful USA trip.

Saul Zaentz flew to Frankfurt with his attorney, Al Bendich, from California to present a gold record (Creedence Clearwater Revival) to his German partner Branko Zivanovic, who is Yugoslav . . . Polydor's new press chief is likable, capable Uwe Lencher, who formerly was Editor of the German trade magazine, Automatenmarkt. I predict bigger doings and sales with Uwe now at the helm . . . The CBS team of Germany, Rudy Wolpert, Helmut Hecht and Hermann Zentgraf, flew to L.A. for the CBS pow-wow. I hope that CBS will arrange a German tour for one of my favorite CBS artists, Tony Bennett . . . BASF Records with headquarters in Hamburg, has almost a complete city in Ludwigshafen, Germany, where 65,000 employees work and reside. The record industry can look forward to some big happenings especially from talented producer Hans Falkenberg, formerly with Polydor/Deutsche Grammophon for many years. Hans had 60,000,000 records on the dj turntables during his Polydor years with Bert Kaempfert, Freddy and now Hans just produced one of the biggest money record "finds" of this year, Romeo . . . Thank you, Billy Joe Burnette of BJB Records in Hollywood, for the exciting records mailed to us for our dj shows . . . Werner Wunderlich, press man at CBS, deserves a raise from his boss for the good will he has created with the djs . . . I like Bellaphon's new release with Tom Fogerty, "Goodbye Media Man." I like another Bellaphon release, "Give More Power to the People," with the Chi-Lites . . . UFA pubbery's gal Friday, Ingrid Schön, asked me to listen to "Walkin' Easy" which I can't do when I see this gal. I run! . . . Global Musik's Peter Kirsten has a Tony Christie single, "I Did What I Did for Maria," which should be great for discotheques . . . Ken Keene, can you hear me all the way from Berlin to New Orleans? Tell your artist, Frankie Lord, that his new disc, "Peace of Mind," accomplishes just that when one hears this moody disc . . . Electrola/EMI all charged up with their new Gilbert Becaud single, produced by my handsome buddy Nils Nobach. Becaud will premiere this disc, "Was ist so schön der Liebe" ("What's So Beautiful About Love?") . . . Reprise has a hot disc with "Song of Peace" by Free Rose . . . There is much worry about the problems of earning a livelihood

ITALY

By MARIO PANVINI ROSATI

■ MILAN—Phonogram states that two of the most important artists for the future of Deutsche Grammophon are Italians, Claudio Abbado and Maurizio Pollini.

Phonogram has also announced the visit to Italy in September of Hervert von Karajan, who will conduct the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra in two concerts in Venice and Trieste . . . The name of Mahler is popular today on the record scene in Italy, thanks to the latest Luchino Visconti motion picture, "Morte a Venezia" (Death in Venice). Visconti has chosen for the soundtrack of his film the romantic music composed by Mahler. An LP with the film title has been released by a new record company which just opened in Rome with this album. The name of the company is Beat Records. The album is following the success of the film, and is listed among the best selling LPs on the Italian market . . . RiFi is introducing in Italy the USA group Ocean, originally on Kama-Sutra. Their present American best seller is "Put Your Hand in the Hand," promoted in Italy via Festival-Bar, a contest conducted around the country covering most-played records in Italian juke-boxes. It seems Ocean's single is getting extremely good reaction.

This week we want to put the spotlight on two Italian artists whose names are well known in our country but whose popularity has not passed the Italian border. We refer to Tony Cucchiara and Gipo Farassino. Both are composers and singers. Their songs are mainly derived from typical Italian folk tradition, brightened by their own personal experiences—pop in the case of Cucchiara, a little more sophisticated in the case of Farassino. Especially at this moment, when originality in Italian songs seems to have faded, it is our opinion that these two talented artists can offer much to the international public. Cucchiara records for Saar, and Farassino was discovered by Fonti-Cetra. Cucchiara's single "Vola Cuore Mio," is listed among the top 10 here. Fonti-Cetra has just presented the new single recorded by Farassino, his latest composition, "Il Mio Viaggio" (My Travel). This song will be presented by Gipo at the International Festival of Vigo (Spain), in which he is taking part July 23, 24 and 25. Farassino will also present to the Spanish public another song penned by him, "Avere un Amigo" (Have a Friend), which was a hit here. Since the Festival is televised in all Latin countries, the Spanish record company Zafiro, which distributes in Spain the Fonti-Cetra production, has planned a special promotion for this Italian artist.

Planning U.S. Tours

■ Booking agent Ira Blacker of American Talent International, Ltd., New York City, arrives in London Aug. 9 to finalize arrangements for European tours for Buddy Miles, Lobo and Tommy James.

'L.A. Woman' Gold

■ "L.A. Woman," the Doors' eighth Elektra LP, has been certified by the RIAA as a gold album with sales of over a million dollars. The album, released in April of this year, was the final recording the late Jim Morrison made with the group.

Well Received

MCA Records President Mike Maitland (right) and the company's British chief, Derek Everett (left), surround artist Tony Christie at a reception in London to celebrate Christie's No. 1 spot on the charts with "I Did What I Did For Maria," a 200,000 seller (in the U.S. on Kapp). Christie was presented with a gun because the lyric of the song tells of his shooting a man to avenge the death of his wife. Christie's first MCA hit, "Las Vegas," was also a big seller in Europe, particularly Belgium and Germany.

DIALOGUE

- A brilliant manager.
- A hit record producer with a fine engineer.
- A tasty A & R man.
- Heavy booking agent.
- Great LP sales manager.
- Public relations professional with underground contacts.
- Dynamic FM promotion man.
- Long-haired ad director.
- Good sound man (with excellent equipment) who understands what a good sound check is all about.
- A wholesale wine source.
- Live producer who plans a great and exciting set (not too long, just enough to leave the audience shouting "encore").
- Road manager with degrees in Electronics, Dale Carnegie, and Karate.
- A psychiatrist or confessor who reports to the agent.
- A heavy dope pusher.
- Freak advisor (also spiritual).

I have personally lived through the above game plan. At this writing, the experience was a total disaster; financially and esthetically.

We signed four extraordinarily talented musicians. They did not particularly think as a group, but their talent more than compensated for this lack of group feeling. When they were sufficiently loose (and on time), their live performance was electric. They wrote beautiful music and each of the four played outrageously exciting solos. The group had everything going for it. America's most important rock promoter was their manager. Their agent was super-heavy. They had a talented advertising and PR team. Lots of money was available.

What happened? Why did they bomb? Mainly, because there were four individuals who could never learn to talk to each other, trying to speak as one to a manager they could never understand and who would never understand them.

One year of enormous energy and $150,000 could have been spared if we had all gone to a psychiatrist for group therapy before we signed the contract. I think everybody in this business should go to a psychiatrist.

What Happened to All the Horses

Many years ago, I visited the winter training quarters of the Hanover Shoe Farms, one of America's largest standard bred (trotters) breeders. The Ben White Raceway in Orlando, Fla., is the site of a beautifully maintained half-mile training track and immaculate white stalls.

Sitting on the fence, I watched 150 magnificent yearlings and two-year-olds taking their scores. It was only February and many of them were running in 2:20. Each had been carefully bred for speed, courage and determination. Some of America's smartest trainers sat with stop watches, clocking their valuable charges. The brilliant Florida sun reflected on their shiny sulkeys and tack. Sweat glistened on their superb coats.

I started a rap with one of the Hanover trainers.

"What happens to all these beautiful horses?", I said.

"Out of the 150 you see here, worth about $1,500,000, only 25 will ever make it to para-mutuel track," he replied.

"What happens to all the rest?"

"Many of them wind up racing at obscure county fairs; some become saddle horses; some eventually pull hansoms in Central Park."

"It seems incredible," I said. "The finest bred, some of the most meticulously trained and equipped young trotters in the world are here. They are stars for just a fleeting moment and will vanish into oblivion in just three weeks."

"That's about it," he agreed. "The reasons vary. Mostly, they don't show enough courage and determination or you can't control their early speed and they burn out at the 3/4 pole. Or their temperament is unmanageable; kicking and biting and doing more harm to themselves than to the grooms, drivers and trainers trying to bring them along. Some of them have leg injuries and they don't have the sense to favor their injured leg. Some of the

Biggs W-E-A Mgr. in Atlanta

■ Bill Biggs, formerly General Manager of Record Sales Co., Memphis, has been appointed Branch Manager for the new Warner-Elektra-Atlantic Distributing Corp.'s Southeast offices in Atlanta, Joel Friedman, President of W-E-A, announces.

Biggs is a veteran of fifteen years in the record business, having run the Liberty-UA operation in Memphis, and before that Record Sales Co. The new Warner-Atlantic branch is slated to open in Atlanta Sept. 1.

Firm Partners

■ Mike Gruber, President of Just Us Productions, musical-personal management firm, has just finalized a partnership deal with Paul Curcio, owner of Pacific Record Studios.

Arrangement provides that all San Francisco-based acts under the direction of Just Us Productions will record in the fully-equipped 16-track San Mateo studios.

Acts currently preparing albums for recording at Pacific include Tucky Buzzard. Help and Ken Lauber. Just Us is currently negotiating for a similar recording studio affiliation in Los Angeles.

fastest yearlings won't be broken to the pace or trot, galloping wildly at the first flutter of a blade of grass. So much potential down the drain."

I continued, "How many of the 25 trotters that make it become great?"

"Well," he answered, "three become free-for-all pacers, stake racing for big money at big city tracks. The rest spend 8-10 years racing 30-40 times a year at small tracks, consigned to obscurity."

Thinking back over this, there is a strong analogy to the record business. More than 2500 beautifully packaged FM rock LPs by new talent have been released in the past year. Millions and millions of dollars have been spent on these acts, on their LP and promotion. Pretty much like the horses, three have emerged as new stars in the heavens: Elton John, Cat Stevens and Carole King. (And she's no yearling.)

Yes, where do all the horses go?

Most Profitable Bag Still Rock

The most profitable music "bag" is still rock. Artists like the Rolling Stones, Grand Funk, Carole King, Elton John, James Taylor, Jethro Tull and Santana still account for a disproportionate amount of sales dollars vs. their pop (Top 40) counterparts.

I am firmly convinced that concentration is a key to the "making of a new group." Concentration in selection so that adequate personnel (like product managers) are available to "live" with each group. Promotion and sales efforts should be taken market by market.

One executive or product manager should be charged with charting their path to the planets. Sell-in of album product, promotion and live concert support should be carefully planned and evaluated. If a hit group is going to emerge, concentration in a single market will show the signs of break-out. (Otherwise, XxO=O.) The judgment to go with a rock group is an expensive decision. The odds are outrageous. The average hit rock group has two non-selling LPs before they make it with a third. Total investment: close to $200,000. If you're an independent label, you can't afford too many misses. Presuming your promotion is well coordinated, the odds reduce a bit. But that's all. Since the dollar rewards are so great, it occurs to me that when even the complete record man hits with only two out of 10 acts, it's very tough to get into the winner's circle.

The competition is getting tougher. More groups are emerging; fewer groups are making it. Durability remains a vital key. The group that "survives" together for more than 18 months, sometimes makes it where more talented groups disband. The kids begin to believe they're for real and finally see the musicality, which was the basis for your initial decision. Sound marketing, merchandising coordinated with live appearance planning are essential.

The spoils of victory belong to a new breed of record executive, the true super-star of this industry. (There are so few.) He leaves nothing to chance. He is totally involved and immersed in the group, their music, and their live appearances. And in the ever-changing trends and directions of rock.

He is beyond space, beyond time, without limit. He, like the hit act, has passion, guts, greed and need. He requisitions these traits and effectively exposes them to the dynamic, ever-shifting public taste. He approaches total omnipotence.

The other new product shown, the Ampex CD-200 high speed cassette-to-cassette duplicating system, was said to perform five times faster than previous cassette duplicators. It was also announced that the first units of the CD-200 will be available in August of this year, and that deliveries will begin on the AD-15 in November.

Geffen Readies First Asylum Releases

of such groups as the Youngbloods and the Association. When he became very hot he quit William Morris to head the music department for Ashley Famous and also quit that to have his own management firm handling Laura Nyro, David Crosby, Steve Stills, Graham Nash and (later) Neil Young.

Growing tired of management he turned the business over to his partner and long-time friend Elliot Roberts and went to CMA as a Senior Vice President. About six months ago he decided to finally realize his ultimate wish: to have his own record company which is now called Asylum Records.

The following is a recent interview with Geffen.

Record World: How did Asylum Records get started?

Geffen: I made a deal with Ahmet Ertegun at Atlantic. He's not only the most soulful cat in the music business but he's a terrific record person. Having dealt with every label as either an agent or manager there was no other company I could even consider going to.

Record World: Why did you choose the name Asylum?

Geffen: We felt the music business is an insane asylum. It also means a refuge and a sanctuary. We'd like to feel that that's what our company is to the people we're involved with.

Record World: How is the company set up distribution-wise?

Geffen: Atlantic distributes us in the United States and Canada. We will be the fourth label in the group of Atlantic, Atco, Cotillion and Asylum. We will run our company independently and they will distribute our records. We are responsible for the signing, recording, promotion and advertising of our people.

Record World: How many acts do you have?

No Limits

Geffen: We don't have any limits or numbers. We expect to record whoever we come across who is talented. We certainly can't compete with Atlantic or Columbia or those kinds of companies. We don't pay large advances. As a matter of fact we pay very small advances.

Record World: It has been said that you pay no advances.

Geffen: Well, we help support all the people involved. If they need money we give it to them. We don't pay them to sign with us but we also don't let them starve. We're a family. We exist for each other and hopefully we'll all be together for a long time.

Record World: How will this new company affect Laura Nyro? Will she record for you?

Geffen: Laura's contract with Columbia is over. She is signed with us and her first album on Asylum, "Gonna Take a Miracle," will be out Sept. 1. Joni Mitchell is also going to record for us.

Record World: Many people seem to be skeptical about someone like Jackson Browne who hasn't gone anywhere so far. Now that he is firmly with you, what direction do you foresee for him? What's going to happen with him?

Geffen: Jackson Browne is a genius. When his record comes out, he will be a star. The reason that he hasn't made a record in all this time is because we put no pressure on our people. I have a great deal of money invested in him and I've supported him for a long time. We are not in the business of paying out a lot of money and then forcing someone to make a record so we can recoup it. If it took Jackson two or three years to make a record then I would sit here patiently because I believe in him as I do in Laura or Joni and always have from the very first day I met them which was also before either of them had made it.

Everybody in the business likes to second-guess and after you've made it they say, "Well, of course, how could you miss with Joni Mitchell or Laura Nyro?" But Laura Nyro was a total failure as a performer and as a writer when I became involved with her. Joni had been around for many years. David Crosby was thrown out of the Byrds and Columbia thought so little of him they gave him a release. The Buffalo Springfield were never really very successful. Graham Nash was unknown. The Hollies were not the most significant group in America and Graham was one of seven people. Jackson Browne is like them. He is one of the most talented people in the world. As far as I'm concerned he is up there with everyone else we represent and you'll see how great he is when his record comes out in September.

Record World: Is that the first Asylum record?

Geffen: No. I can't say what the first Asylum record is at the moment but it will probably be out in August.

Record World: Is it a one-record set?

Geffen: No. I just can't announce the artist at this moment.

Record World: Who's producing Jackson's album?

Geffen: Jackson and Richard Sanford who is an engineer.

Record World: Who's doing the promotion for you?

Geffen: We will have an independent promotion staff plus Atlantic's promotion team which is the best in the world, I think. But ultimately it's the music that sells and not the people selling it.

Record World: Do you believe that every record is a hit?

Geffen: I believe that every record I put out will be a good record. I don't care if they're all hits or not. Not every artist is a hit artist but that doesn't mean they're not talented. We're recording David Blue and we are very proud to record him. He's never sold a record with two other labels. But I think his album will be successful and if it isn't I'll be real happy that I recorded it.

Record World: What about budgets for albums?

Geffen: Whatever it costs to make the best album then that's what they get. We try and have as few restrictions as possible. I don't want artists to release anything they are not totally happy with. That's the only restriction I have.

Record World: Having been a successful agent and manager, do you entertain the possibility that maybe it just isn't there for you as a record person?

Still Productive, Creative

Geffen: That's entirely possible. Anything is possible. What has made me a successful agent and manager is that I've always found talented people and protected them and helped them build and maintain their careers. Everyone I've handled is still around being productive and creative. They haven't come and gone. Those are the kinds of people I'm going to record of they want to record for me. I mean Jo Jo Gunne (recently signed to Asylum) are going to be a big group. They've been knocking people out all over town and they took less from us than anyone else because that's who they wanted to be with. They were offered more by every other label but they went with us. They'll never have to hassle with us about putting out a single they don't want to put out or editing one of their songs or repackaging one of their albums. We just won't do that—ever. Record companies don't make artists. Artists make record companies. I didn't make Laura Nyro. If anything she made me. I feel that way about Joni and everybody else. I mean it's a team effort.

Record World: How did you help Laura Nyro? What do you feel you did?

Geffen: Laura is a totally unique, creative person. Without a hit record ever, and without any AM airplay ever, Laura is a star and a personality and a success and she's never had to do those things that people don't want to do because I've never asked her to. Laura's a talent and a talent always makes it no matter how long you have to wait. When you're dealing with The Iron Butterfly or Grand Funk Railroad, who knows how long it's going to last because you don't understand what made it in the first place. But a talent is forever.

Record World: Have you ever been wrong?

Geffen: I'm wrong every day: I've never been wrong, however, about people I've believed in.

Record World: In your trade ads it says at the bottom "Direction: Geffen Roberts Management." Is it more that now, a direction of sorts? What direction is planned for someone like Steve Stills?

Geffen: It's more to keep artists from making mistakes. With Steve we try to keep as much pressure from him so that he can create. You have to give an artist what they need. Everyone has different needs. In the case of Joni Mitchell she doesn't work, she hasn't done a concert in a couple of years and she makes one album a year and tries to maintain a private life and we try to help her do that. God knows she doesn't need us to tell her how to write the songs or how to their individual expertise in moving Epic's fine new product, singling out the special concentration of the Mid-West Region for Chase, the Philadelphia Branch for Redbone, and the East Coast staff for Edgar Winter's White Trash. In addition, Alexenburg emphasized the increasing importance of the 10 exclusively distributed Columbia Custom Labels.

A most significant event of Thursday morning's opening program was a live demonstration of Columbia StereoQuad. This innovation in sound was demonstrated to the press, international delegates and guests—many of whom were experiencing quadrasonic sound for the first time—via a StereoQuad disc featuring David Frost explaining the mechanics of quad and taking listeners on a tour of sound through various kinds of music.

There were four enthusiastically received banquet/shows beginning with Wednesday evening's country music presentation featuring Ray Price, whose records are enjoyed by country and pop audiences alike; Tammy Wynette, Epic's Queen of Country Music; Columbia's Earl Scruggs; and Epic's Tommy Cash. Other artists from Columbia's and Epic's country rosters rounded out the evening of Nashville Sound.

Thursday's banquet/show rocked to Taj Mahal, Edgar Winter's White Trash, Chase and newly-signed Columbia group Dr. Hook and the Medicine Show.

Highlighting Friday evening's entertainment was Columbia super-group Chicago, Epic's Poco and Madura, another new addition to Columbia produced by James William Guercio.

The closing convention spectacular presented newly-signed Karen Wyman, Percy Faith and his Orchestra and Chorus, Mark Lindsay, Boots Randolph and, in a special appearance, Johnny Mathis.

Over the course of three business days, July 22, 23 and 24, the staffs of Columbia and Epic/Columbia Custom Labels' merchandising and promotion departments accentuated this year's person-to-person seminars and product presentations with tape, slide and film presentations.

The Archive Series presentation included highlights from the life and career of John Hammond, this year's archives releases' namesake, and Columbia and Epic utilized a triple screen slide show to dramatize their singles product. Odyssey, Harmony, Masterworks and the 10 Columbia Custom Labels also presented original slide and film montages in programs designed to showcase their new product.

Additionally, the three business days included special presentations of new artists on the label, country artists and fall product from Columbia's Children's Books and Records. There was also an opportunity during the business sessions for Milton Selkowitz, Director, Audio products and Accessories, to introduce the growing line's new addition's, including the provocative SQ 440—the first quadrasonic system equipped to handle both tapes and discs soon to be made available to the consumer.

Noteworthy Events

Other noteworthy events of the 1971 Sales Convention included the presentation of annual awards to outstanding members of the promotion field force (story next week); Masterworks' special luncheon and presentation of their "Johann Awards" (see separate story); a cocktail party hosted by CBS International Division; a special Stravinsky presentation spotlighting the career and work of the maestro; and the major highlight of the convention, the special Columbia Convention Film. Produced by Arnold Levine, Creative Director. Advertising and Sales, and film-maker Howard Enders, the film features 30 Columbia and Epic artists spanning all categories of music and was shot on location in New York, Los Angeles, Nashville and Detroit.

The 1971 National Sales Convention was coordinated by Chairman Roselind Blanch, with Bruce Lundvall, Vice President, Marketing, serving as Creative Design Chairman, and Dave Wynshaw, Director, Artist Relations, as Convention Expediter. Miss Blanche commented that this convention's success was owed in great part to the able assistance of Columbia's Engineering Department and Photo Department, and thanked her entire convention personnel staff for their cooperation and help in producing the Music People Present the Music/Convention '71.

London Has Hot LP Summer

London Records has announced four new LPs to follow on the heels of the "Jesus Christ Superstar" excerpts album by the Kingsway Youth Opera Company of London. The new deluxe, one-disc package, carrying the special price of $4.98, was released a fortnight ago and is already garnering heavy on-the-air activity as well as in-store displays. The company has blue-printed a sustained push on this album.

Due for immediate release are albums by the Moody Blues on their London-distributed Threshold label and by Engelbert Humperdinck on Parrot, according to Herb Goldfarb, Vice President for Sales and Marketing for London. Also upcoming within a few weeks are new albums by British imports, Savoy Brown and Brotherhood of Man.

The Moodies package is the first new release by the group this year, "Every Good Boy Deserves a Favour." From the new set, which for the first time for the group, includes lyrics to all songs in the album printed on the inner disc sleeve, a single, "Story in Your Eyes," has been rush-released. A massive promotion effort has been launched on the album, which will be closely coordinated with a U. S. national concert tour for the group in September.

Also due for early August release is the new Humperdinck album, "Another Time, Another Place," which is also the title of the singer's new single.

De-Lite, Red-Lite Increase Roster

sing them. None of our clients need that from us. However when they started out, nobody needed them and nobody wanted them. Clive Davis passed on Joni Mitchell four years ago.

Record World: What kinds of mistakes do you think are made with artists?

Geffen: Well, I think someone like Elton John has been handled very poorly. He has too much product, too much over exposure, too much hype. I think that's hurt him. Artists have to be handled with a great deal of care.

Record World: What if he wants that for himself?

Geffen: Well, if he wants that then he's responsible. I don't think you can maintain like that.

Record World: Why are you going in to the record business?

Not for Money

Geffen: I want to create an atmosphere where the people we care about can do their art as comfortably as possible. For me, though, if the company doesn't make money, if it only breaks even then I'll be happy. I'm not starting it for the money. I have plenty of money. I took no advance from Atlantic to start this company. I don't want a pressured situation for myself or for the artists. If you get into a money trip you start from the first day with an enormous pressure. Who needs it?

Record World: What about the stories concerning you and the Rolling Stones?

Geffen: The Rolling Stones asked me to help them put together an American tour and I've helped them for this coming tour. We've done that as an accommodation for them. Mick asked me to do that. We don't manage them and we don't want to manage them, frankly. They live in the south of France and we live here. They manage themselves. There isn't a person in the world who can manage them.

Record World: Who do you respect most in the industry? I mean people that you aren't connected with in any way.

Geffen: I love Cat Stevens and Carole King. I have a great love for composers like Bob Dylan. When Albert Grossman was into it, he was the best manager in the world. He got tired of it and it's understandable because it's a real tough business.

Pop Goes 'Clown Town' Reveals Composer Shelley

■ NEW YORK—The Piccolino Pop Strings' version of "Clown Town," a song written several years ago by Gladys Shelley (who wrote "How Did He Look" and other standards), has just been released on the Red Lite label.

According to Miss Shelley, who considers the song to be the best wedding of tune and lyric in her career, Harry Finfer, Vice President of Red Lite, "heard the song and flipped." Red Lite immediately purchased the master from Spiral, and has released the single with a heavy promotional push.

In the past few years there have been many records on "Clown Town," including a German version by Angela Monte, a Verve recording by Odetta and a Riparia d'Oro deck by Lon Ritchie. In addition, it has been the official song for the P. T. Barnum Festival in Bridgeport, Conn., in recent years, and was the opening number for San Francisco radio station KPAT. Recently, David Drew of station WRFD spent an entire program playing different versions of "Clown Town."

phasized. "There's no doubt about that. What was a gradual trend has become a near-stamped in recent years by many other companies in the industry.

"Los Angeles now has the greatest creative manpower pool—on both the music and business and sales side of the industry—in the country."

Maitland also said that the fact that MCA Records' parent company, MCA, Inc., headquarters in Los Angeles and has vast physical facilities here also has made the move inevitable.

L. A. Headquarters

"Los Angeles is now headquarters for all our marketing, sales, promotion, advertising and creative functions," Maitland said. "We brought many of our staff out to the coast to resume their duties in these fields. Others chose to remain in New York for various personal reasons. A few were discharged."

Maitland said that the New York operation, under MCA Distributing Corp. Executive Vice-President Jack Loetz, "will continue to have an active

A & R department under Tom Morgan just as our Nashville office does for the country music field."

"New York," he added, "will continue to be operational headquarters for our manufacturing, international, order service department and special market functions. We have decided that these duties would best be filled—and more economically—from New York." He added that New York would continue to have an artists relations and publicity office under Tammi Owens.

Maitland said he didn't want to reveal a roster of employees dismissed from New York because "there was no one reason why they were dismissed and a vast majority of them are able professionals who would be valuable employees with other companies. And we don't want to cloud their future employment prospects."

Maitland issued this formal statement from the Universal Tower before leaving the city with most of his executive staff for regional sales and promotional meetings on fall product in Chicago, New York and then here.

Country Survey Shows Continued Broadcast Strength

The annual survey of the radio stations in the United States and Canada conducted by the Country Music Association has been completed with returns showing continued growth in the use of country music as a form of broadcast entertainment. Of all the stations broadcasting commercially excluding simulcast 35.6% are airing some or all Country Music.

Over 6,000 radio stations were mailed questionnaires earlier this year. Some 3,000 replied not only to the factual data requested but also included comments about the use of country music. From the returns 25% or 624 stations are broadcasting country music on a fulltime basis. This figure includes stations which are on the air 24 hours a day as well as those which broadcast only during daylight hours. Of the total stations contacted which are not simulcasting, some 10% are fulltime country music broadcasters across the nation.

Another 62% or 1563 stations (those answering the questionnaire) are broadcasting Country Music on a part time basis. This varies from two hours per day to as much as 18 hours per day. Of the total contacted in the survey 25½% of the nation's stations broadcast part time Country Music.

Many Played Pop By Stations

The replies to the questionnaire do not reflect the numbers of stations which broadcast much country music as pop, featuring such artists as Johnny Cash, Ray Price, Glen Campbell, Anne Murray, etc. These artists are not classified by many broadcasters as hard country and as a result are played consistently on many pop or MOR stations. Many other country artists and country songs are played on those stations as pop music. Tabulations by CMA show those stations which deliberately breakdown their programming formats to show that they do broadcast country music as a specific musical form.

Scoring success to date with this same approach, Jangle Jingles has put together production for ad agencies on such national accounts as Kraft, Quaker Oats, Libbys, Seven Up, Standard Oil, Oldsmobile, Ford, Alberto Culver, Dr. Pepper, Busch Beer, Sterling Beer, Hamms Beer, Sears, Aunt Jemima and Tastee Freeze.

Country Survey Shows Strength

The survey is compiled into a listing of the stations and the program or music director responsible for selection of music; in some cases a dj has been listed. The listing breaks down within the individual state into the number of hours per day of broadcast and within that category the stations are alphabetized. The 1971 radio station list also contains a listing of all the djs who are members of CMA with their addresses. The lists are available to CMA members free of charge on request. Others desiring the list are charged a nominal fee.

NASHVILLE REPORT

seats and chairs were temporarily installed for the one-nighter. "It was sold out four days prior to the play date. We could have sold 3,000 more tickets," reports promoter Roger McDaniel . . . Merle Haggard, who took a two-month hiatus to recover from a serious sinus ailment and throat trouble, is back in action. He was here last week cutting the final segments of a gospel album (live in a remote church). The Hag's also doing personal appearances and TV . . . Charley Pride has recorded "All His Children," a Henry Mancini composition with lyrics by Alan and Marilyn Bergman for the soundtrack of the upcoming Universal movie, "Sometimes a Great Notion" . . . Ray Stevens appears on ABC-TV's Val Doonican show Saturday, Aug. 7.

Singer-writer Mickey Newbury and his good-looking wife Susan, a former member of the New Christy Minstrels, met two years ago and after knowing each other for eight hours got married. Mickey and Susan assure me that they've never had an argument. It's been strictly wedded bliss all the way. (That shoots the long-engagement, get-to-know-your-mate theory to pieces). The Newburys—he's from Texas, she's from Oregon—live the year-round on a houseboat on Old Hickory Lake. Do you suppose the water has something to do with their domestic tranquility? Currently Mickey is converting an old post office transport bus into a stainless steel mobile home, which they'll furnish with antiques (none less than 100 years old), and which they plan to use for traveling.

Country music entertainers with shoulder length hair and beards? It's happening. James Marvell and Buddy Good who are billed as "The Country Cavaliers" are garnering favorable receptions and upbeat reviews with their act—which is strictly country. They (and their manager, John Centinova) are heartened by the acceptance. "We are an innovation in the country field, just like Charley Pride was when he became the first black country artist," say Marvell and Good, who were members of the defunct Mercy rock group when it had a million seller in "Love Can Make You Happy" two years ago. Although they have been residents of Nashville for the past year, the Cavaliers have gained most of their success on the West Coast. However, in recent weeks they have been crowd-pleasers at local clubs.

Things are happening for the Willis Brothers (Skeeter, Guy and Vic). The old pros have tested for a featured role in "Pay Day," a movie to be filmed down South next September. Fantasy Records of Berkeley, Calif., is bankrolling the picture which is about the final 36 hours in the life of a country music star. The siblings have also signed with a new booking agent, Atlas Artists Bureau, and are readying the release of a single titled, "You're Making My Heart Want A Dip of Snuff." (A real love ballad) . . . The first International Fan Fair, co-sponsored by WSM and the Country Music Association, here April 12-15, 1972, will coincide with the official opening of Opryland—WSM's Disneyland-like amusement park, now under construction. (You'd better believe it).

Wiseman Joins 'Renfro Barndance'

NASHVILLE—J. Hal Smith, co-owner with Hank Cochran of Renfro Valley Enterprises, has announced veteran bluegrass artist Mac Wiseman is joining the "Renfro Valley Barndance" as a regular member of the roster.

The announcement, which was made during the first Bluegrass Festival ever held at Renfro Valley, said that in addition to appearances on the regular Saturday night barndance, Wiseman will also make occasional appearances on the "Sunday Morning Gathering" which is produced and narrated by Renfro Valley founder John Lair.

Wiseman produced the three-day Bluegrass Festival at Renfro Valley July 9-11, with continuous entertainment from 10 a.m. each morning until midnight. Fifteen acts appeared including Lester Flatt and his group, the Country Gentleman, the Osborne Brothers, the Shenandoah Cut-Ups, J. D. Crowe and his band, Big Howdy Forrester, the Blue Grass Alliance, the Boys from Shiloh, Joe Green, Old Joe Clark, Buddy Durham, the Jackson County Boys, the Bluegrass Drifters and others.

Allen-Martin Productions of Louisville, Ky., moved into the festival on Sunday, July 11, with mobile television equipment and recorded several hours of the festival for possible future use in a television special on bluegrass music.

RECORD WORLD COUNTRY FROM THE CONTINENT

By MURRAY KASH

Murray Kash

LONDON—The Country Music Association of Great Britain held its last meeting on Wednesday, July 14, at which time it was decided to have the Annual CMA (GB) Awards dinner on Nov. 12 at the Royal Lancaster Hotel here. A committee has been set up to handle the details for the awards which will be of a similar nature to those presented in America.

Tony Byworth, CMA press officer, has been put in charge of preparing a directory that will contain a summary of the Association's history and of country music in Great Britain. It will also list the various members of the CMA and their various connections with the industry in this part of the world . . . Congratulations are in order on the marriage of David Williams, co-director of London's famed Nashville Room. David, by the way, is the brother of Charles Williams, Chairman of the CMA (GB). And writing about the Nashville Room reminds me what a great week they had there with Canada's number one country singer Stompin' Tom Connors (these Canadians do get around, don't we?) . . . During the week of the announcement of the passing of Satchmo, Avco Embassy released a cassette called "Louis 'Country and Western' Armstrong." This has a selection of titles such as "Miller's Cave" and "Ramblin' Rose," among others.

On the Irish Hit Parade, Mick Roche and Arrows are riding high with the country music hit "My Woman, My Woman, My Wife" . . . Britain's number one country female singer Little Ginny is about to go into the recording studios for Polymax to make an album called "Ginny Country" . . . It was good to see Showbiz, Inc., exec Bill Graham in London town combining business with pleasure. Following on to play golf at St. Andrew's in Scotland and a visit to the Continent before returning to Nashville.

Your correspondent had the pleasure of participating in a Country Carnival and concert down Bristol way which had an attendance of 7,000 in the afternoon for the out-door spectacle and close to 1,000 at the country music entertainment in the evening. This was the first time country music had been featured at this annual event in the past eight years and was an all-time money-maker for the local charities. Featured at the show were Julie Byrne and the Nashville Cats plus local entertainers Pete Martin, Johnny Spencer, and the Bridge Valley Boys. It all proves how country music is becoming one of the major attractions around the British Isles.

WAYLON JENNINGS—RCA 48-1003
CEDARTOWN, GEORGIA (Pamper Music, BMI)
I THINK IT'S TIME SHE LEARNED (Baron, BMI)

It took four writers (Mack Vickery, Jimmy Peters, Sammi Smith and Charlie Cobble) to put the "Wailer's" new one together. Danny Davis and Chet Atkins produced the easy-rocking surprise song.

WARNER MACK—Decca 32858
I WANNA BE LOVED COMPLETELY (Page Boy, SESAC)
SWEETIE (Page Boy, SESAC)

Pretty ballad with strings and things. Good easy listening country product that's a change of pace for Warner. Flip is back in the bag, uptempo and cute.

MARGARET BRIXEY—Decca 32856
A WOMAN TOO SOON (Moss-Rose, BMI)
I WISH I COULD BE LIKE YOU (Peppermint, BMI)

Very interesting new voice. Margaret's release was written by writer-publisher Arthur Thomas. This record makes us want to hear more.

ANNE CHRISTINE—CME 4634-1
SUMMER MAN (Tail Feathers, BMI)
HOW IMPORTANT CAN IT BE (Aspen, ASCAP)

This Miami label is getting quite a bit of action on Anne's self-penned release. She comes into the Record World chart this week and some major labels have shown interest.

SLIM WHITMAN—United Artists 50806
IT'S A SIN TO TELL A LIE (Bregman/Vocco & Conn, ASCAP)
THAT'S ENOUGH FOR ME (4-Star Music, BMI)

This is the old Billy Mayhew hit redone in the best Slim Whitman style. Slim does some vocal gymnastics that will get the attention of people who dig just plain old country singing.

PAT DAISY—RCA 48-1005
ARE YOU REALLY LEAVING, BABY (Green Grass, BMI)
ONE MORE NIGHT OF CRYING (Green Grass, BMI)

New RCA artist Daisy has hooked the commercial sound of early Chet Atkins productions. Jerry Bradley produced and Pat wrote.

BOBBY THOMAS—Thom-A-Hawk 45-01
THAT'S WHY I'M DRINKING (Cedarwood, BMI)
TWO MILES OUT OF MEMPHIS (Cedarwood, BMI)

Pretty good piece of hard country material. John Denny and Peanut Faircloth produced for the new label.

LAWTON WILLIAMS—Mega 0035
ASPHALT COWBOY (Fraulein Music/Shelby Singleton, BMI)
COLD, COLD HANDS (Western Hills, BMI)

Texan Lawton got a good truck driving tune. It ought to get some jukebox interest.

MERLE HAGGARD'S STRANGERS—Capitol 3144
SONG FROM "SLEEPWALK" (Hudson Bay Music, BMI)
SLOW 'N EASY (Shade Tree Music, BMI)

Expert instrumental version of pop hit of 10 years back. This is a cut from the LP "Honky Tonkin." Earl Ball produced.
