

HITS OF THE WEEK

SINGLES

EARTH, WIND & FIRE, "SING A SONG" (prod. by M. White & C. Stepney) (Saggifire, BMI). These "shining stars" who recently sang about the "way of the world" are now singing a new song. With vocal parlays reminiscent of early Sly & the Family Stone and a horn section that is as tight as Chicago's, the group should soon be back on top. Columbia 3 10251.

AWB, "SCHOOL BOY CRUSH" (prod. by Arif Mardin) (Average, BMI). In a very short time, AWB have established a distinct sound of their own. Here they employ their proven strengths; smooth, silken vocal exchanges over a lazy churning beat and a soft cushion of sound. An excellent follow to "If I Ever Lose This Heaven." Atlantic 3304.

THE POINTER SISTERS. "GOING DOWN SLOWLY" (prod. by David Rubinson) (Warner-Tamerlane/Marsaint, BMI). Allen Toussaint's song serves as a spunky follow to the girls' "How Long (Betcha Got A Chick On The Side)." Still high steppin' and pumping out snappy vocal lines, the Pointers' professionalism continues to shine. Blue Thumb BTA 268 (ABC).

GLORIA GAYNOR, "HOW HIGH THE MOON" (prod. by Meco Monardo, Tony Bongiovi & Jay Ellis) (Chappell, ASCAP). A song that has been heading disco playlists since her vibrant "Experience" album was released. Gloria has put it all together with the help of arranger Harold Wheeler. One of the disco blockbusters of the year! MGM M 14838 (Polydor).

SLEEPERS

THE WHO, "SQUEEZE BOX" (prod. by Glyn Johns) (Towser, BMI). After 11 turbulent but infinitely influential years, The Who may justifiably be crowned, "The World's Premier Rock 'n' Roll Band." Here, the group gives a display of their tremendous creative powers; a lilting rocker with all the immediacy of a "Happy Jack." Figures to be a major hit. MCA 40475.

BOB DYLAN, "HURRICANE (PART 1)" (prod. by Don DeVito) (Ram's Horn, ASCAP). A topical song from Dylan about the plight of Rubin "Hurricane" Carter \bigcirc is his latest call to arms. The story is true and the names haven't been changed to protect the innocent. The original eight minute song has been edited for airplay, so pick up on it! Columbia 3 10245.

FOX, "IMAGINE ME IMAGINE YOU" (prod. by Kenny Young) (Moth, BMI). Fox left a favorable impression with their debut single, "Only You Can." Now, once again lead by the enticing and mesmerizing vocals of Noosha, the group achieves a continental European sound with a Kenny Young song. Fox are a group for all tastes. Ariola America P 7608 (Capitol).

JOE McDONALD, "BREAKFAST FOR COUNTRY TWO" (prod. by Jim Stern) (Alkatraz BMI). From Country Joe's Corner, Paradise With An Ocean View," a warm, sensitive ballad that says more than actually meets the ear on the first couple of listenings. A smooth, relaxed performance marking an excellent label debut. Fantasy F 758.

ALBUMS

"BARRY WHITE'S GREATEST HITS." The soul maestro, whose impact has been strongly felt on the charts and elsewhere, is out with a compilation guaranteed to keep 'em swooning, playing and purchasing for a long time to come. Hits the likes of "Never Never Gonna Give Ya Up" and "Can't Get Enough of Your Love, Babe" boost Barry's best. 20th Century T493 (6.98).

"RUFUS FEATURING CHAKA KAHN." Chaka Kahn's in flight once again, her high-powered rhythm and blues voice soaring through such numbers as "Have A Good Time" and "Dance With Me" and smoothly sliding on the more down tempo "Ooh I Like Your Lovin'," "Circle" and "Sweet Thing." Excellently programmed to keep the momentum up, up and away. ABC ABCD 909 (6.98).

"HELEN REDDY'S GREATEST HITS." The songstress who's been topping the pop charts for about three years now is out with a set featuring her finest musical moments-just in time to make holiday selling history. On tap for listening enjoyment are Reddy rousers '' Am Woman,'' ''I Don't Know How to Love Him,'' ''Delta Dawn'' and lots more. Capitol ST 11467 (6.98).

JOHN, "HOLLYWOOD BE THY DR NAME." The cajun mystique that's been the good doctor's trademark since 'Walk On Gilded Splinters'' days holds fast still. The live set emits a smokey nitery feel that's sure to appeal to progressives as well as top 40 formats. An evocative "Yesterday" and "Back By the River" are prescribed. UA UALA-552-G (6.98).

Buddah, GRT Sign License Agreement

■ NEW YORK — The exclusive tape license agreement through 1982 between Buddah Records and GRT Music Tapes has been announced jointly by Arthur Kass, president of Kass Media Corporation and Buddah Records, and Alan Bayley, president of GRT Corporation.

Concurrently, Kass announced completion of the purchase of Buddah Records from Viewlex.

"Our license agreement with GRT was a key step in eliminating the remaining contingencies on the sale," said Kass. "During the last six months we have developed a very close relationship with GRT," Kass added. "The license extension is an expression of our confidence in their outstanding ability to market and merchandise our product."

Alan Bayley added, "We have seen outstanding cooperation between our marketing staff and Buddah's at all levels-sales, advertising, merchandising and promotion. They have demonstrated their vitality not only with established acts like Gladys Knight & The Pips and New Birth, but also with emerging acts like the Charlie Daniels Band.

"The Buddah license is the second signing in the last four months that goes into the 1980s," Bayley added. "It demonstrates GRT's commitment to the music industry on a long term basis. I am comident of Buddah and GRT's ralutual success."

Superstars Dominate Pre-Holiday Charts By DAVID McGEE

■ NEW YORK—Recent and forthcoming releases indicate no shift in the trend noted among major record companies in previous years to release product by "superstar" or established artists in the months and weeks prior to and during the holiday buying season. A comparison of this week's Album Chart with that of November 1974 shows the continued domination of the top 20 positions, and indeed the entire top 100 positions, by established artists.

The number one album at this time last year was John Lennon's "Walls and Bridges," and this week's Album Chart is topped by Elton John's "Rock of the Westies." Only two new acts-Olivia Newton-John and Bad Company -had albums in the top 20 last year at this time, whereas only three new acts-Bruce Spring-steen, K. C. and the Sunshine Band, and Kiss-are represented with albums in the top 20 this week. With the exception of the Kiss album, "Kiss Alive," all albums by the new artists mentioned above were or are on their way down on the chart. In 1974 one had to search all the way to the number 71 position to find a bulleted album by a new act ("Average White Band"); on the current album chart, Freddy Fender's album, "Before the Next Teardrop Falls," is bulleted at 51.

As with last year, major acts are jockeying for the top chart positions. Paul Simon's "Still Crazy After All These Years" is bulleted at 5 this week; David Crosby and Graham Nash's "Wind on the Water" is bulleted at 10; "The Who By Numbers" is bulleted at 11; Art Garfunkel's "Breakaway" is bulleted at 14; ELO's "Face the Music" is bulleted at 22; and Herbie Hancock's "Man-Child" is bulleted at 27.

Other Acts

Other major acts with albums set for release shortly or already in release as the holiday buying season edges closer are "House Party" by the Temptations, the Osmonds "Around the World-Live in Concert," "Schoolboys In Disgrace" by the Kinks and Greatest Hits packages from John Lennon ("Shaved Fish," bulleted at 61 this week), Helen Reddy, Gordon Lightfoot, Barry White, America, and Seals and Crofts (Chartmaker of the Week at 81).

Beserkley Records: Maverick Alternative By ELIOT SEKULER

LOS ANGELES — What began two years ago as an unsuccessful record deal and an idea so improbable as to make its success inevitable has resulted in one of the most unique alliances to be made thus far this year. The alliance is the distribution deal recently concluded between Playboy Records, currently enjoying its first major hot streak, and Beserkley Records, a Berkeley-based company owned h-Matthew King Kaufman local group Earth Quake Jurmer A&M artists whose wo albums for that label were less than successful. For the past two years, Beserkley had been selling records by mail order and on a C.O.D. basis to retailers in the San Francisco Bay area. According to Kaufman, who was interviewed last week by Record World, the label sold some 20,-000 units before entering into its new distribution pact. The vast majority of sales were in his home market, through WMMS airplay, in the Cleveland area.

UA's Sal Licata Praises Indies

■ LOS ANGELES—UA's VP and general manager Sal Licata has attributed the label's recently announced increase in volume to the success of its independent distribution system, inaugurated earlier this year, as well as to the strength of current UA product.

Stated Licata, "Since going with independent distribution in June of this year, we've seen a day-today improvement in our sales picture. It is clear that our independent distributors have been doing the job, especially in the area of catalogue sales, where independent distribution traditionally shows strength. When you couple this with our very strong product, you come up with a strong sales picture."

Correction

■ Due to a typesetting error in an ad on page 77 of the November 8 issue of Record World, Curtom Studios was incorrectly identified as Curtom Records. The artists listed in the ad do not necessarily record for Curtom Records, but all have recorded at Curtom Studios in the last three years.

THE COAST

By BEN EDMONDS

■ JUST THE FACTS (OCCASIONALLY): Contrary to whatever else you may have read or heard, Mick Jagger has not, I repeat not, been contracted to play the role of Paul Newman's son in the film "Ragtime." As things now stand, Newman isn't even on paper to do the project, let alone Jagger. What you can believe is that the Rolling Stones are working out arrangements for a major European tour sometime in the spring. And they promise that next album, recorded in Munich

(some of it so long ago that it hardly even qualifies as being new anymore), not too long after the first of the year . . . DJM Records in England claims that they'll release a live Elton John album, recorded at Madison Square Garden and Wembley Empire Pool in London, next year. Rocket Records here, however, claims that there's no such album. Hmmmm . . . There are no less than three incarnations of the Bob Dylan single "Hurricane" floating around. The first, which we'll call the FM Version, is the full 8:34 shot, serviced at 33 1/3 with stereo on one side and mono the other. The next, which we'll call the AM Version, is an edited and bleeped-where-appropriate 3:45. The third and final, which we'll call the Consumer Version, is unedited and unbleeped for your listening pleasure, but cut in half on the A and B sides for Columbia's pressing pleasure. How could your collection be complete without all three? . . . Bobby's "Rolling Thunder Revue," meanwhile, might be graced by the presence of Patti Smith on at least one of its stops; that's the one we wanna see . . . Pete Best, the drummer that the Beatles dumped in favor of Richard Starkey, was convicted in England on a cocaine rap, and received a stiff five year sentence . . . David Bowie's "Space Oddity" recently made #1 in England, the third time that the song has been on those charts. His new single, "The Golden Years" (which is quite unlike anything he's released before, including "Fame"), will be released worldwide on November 15, with the album of the same name unleashed on the first day of 1976 . . . Bowie's former backing band, the Spiders From Mars, have regrouped under that banner and will have a single out in Europe at approximately the same time as their ex-leader's new one. Bowie isn't in on it, of course, and neither is guitarist Mick Ronson; held over are drummer Woody Woodmansey, bassist Trevor Boulder and keyboard philosopher Mike Garson. The two new members are Peter MacDonald and David Black, both from Newcastle . Bernie Taupin off to Canada to record his second solo album (the first was released by Elektra over three years ago) . . . Plans are afoot for some kind of an album collaboration between Marc Bolan and Roy Wood . . . The Doobie Brothers broke a total of fifteen attendance records on their recently-completed tour, among them Elton John's mark in Pittsburgh and Elvis' in Asheville, North Carolina ... Al Green smashed an attendance record of his own during his two-night stand at the Sahara in Las Vegas. Demand for seats was so ridiculous that several offers for tables reached $1500. In attendance were the Jackson Family (as they're now known), the 5th Dimension (as they've always been known, even with their two new members), Juliet Prowse, Don Rickles, Jeff Baxter and Keith Knudsen of the Doobie Brothers, and Fats Domino . . . Our very own Rodney Bingenheimer can be seen in one of his most outstanding dramatic roles tonight (Monday) at 5:30, if you live in the LA area. He appears in an episode of the Monkees TV series entitled "The Prince & The Pauper," originally filmed in 1966, and brought back by popular demand . . . The Dave Clark 1 has been in town, visiting the Smokie recording sessions and expressing quite an interest in local wonderband the Stars . . . Bev Bevan of ELO has also been making the rounds. He was last spotted checking out the latest Yank business techniques at Rhino Records; Mr. Bevan, you see, is a record shop owner himself back in Jolly Olde Keith Emerson has been recording solo with the 95-piece London Philharmonic Orchestra . . . Pink Floyd's David Gilmour puts in a guest guitar appearance on the Sutherland Bros. & Quiver's new (and first) album for Columbia, "Reach For The Sky" . . . For the second consecutive year, Bryan Ferry will take a respite from Roxy Music to do a few select solo concerts in the UK around Christmastime . . . Special Ellington Album Offered As Cancer Center Fund Raiser

■ NEW YORK—The music industry's campaign to build The Duke Ellington Cancer Center in conjunction with The Hamptons Hospital and Medical Center on Eastern Long Island, moved into high gear this week with a nationwide mailing to Ellington fans and devotees, inviting them to "spend Monday evening, December 15, at home listening to a recorded tribute to The Duke from his friends in Tokyo."

This stereo Ip was produced in Tokyo by A. Torio, president of Victor Publishing of Japan and donated for the specific purpose of raising funds for the proposed Cancer Center. The pressings and jackets were contributed by RCA Records, U.S.A. Included are big band arrangements of such Ellington favorites as "Satin Doll," "Mood Indigo," "Take the 'A' Train," "Solitude," "Sophisticated Lady," "Black and Tan Fantasy" and others.

Last year, the music industry committee presented as its fundraiser, "The Cotton Club Returns To Broadway." This year the committee felt that because of the number of banquets, balls and special events being held throughout the country for various charities, it was preferable to invite supporters to "spend an evening at home" listening to the lp and thereby allow all the proceeds to go directly to the Cancer Center Building Fund and not into additional expenses for dinners, entertainment, printing fees, etc. The special lp is offered at a tax deductible $25 price.

The Duke Ellington Cancer Center, designed as a permanent and lasting tribute to The Duke, will maintain five beds in the hospital complex for use by indigent musicians in need of cancer treatment. Honorary chairmen are Mercer and Ruth Ellington, with the presidents of America's three major performing rights organizations serving as co-chairmen: Stanley Adams, ASCAP; Ed Cramer, BMI; and Alice Prager, SESAC, who is its founder. On the executive committee are some of the nation's leading recording artists, managers, musicians, record company and trade paper executives.

Checks for the stereo "Tribute To the Duke" lp may be sent to: The Duke Ellington Cancer Center, Suite 1350, 10 Columbus Circle, New York, New York 10019. Delivery by the "evening at home" date of December 15 is assured for all orders received before December 1.

COUNTRY RADIO

By CHARLIE DOUGLAS

■ Calm and sanity of sorts returns following the annual DJ convention in Nashville—and the moves keep on moving. Tom "Cat" Reeder, after nearly 13 years at WDON (Wheaton, Md.) moves over to 5kw WKCW (Warrenton, Va.). He'll be on the air in addition to assuming the PD's chair. Herb Hunt, new at WDON, said last week he'll have a playlist of 55. Reeder says his playlist at WKCW will be 142 and will include some bluegrass and gospel. Stu Brooks, GM at WKCW, says Reeder will be on the air as of November 3.

Billy Cole of WHO is now doing a monthly remote from a truck stop just outside Des Moines, and invites artists in the area to visit . . . Dave Donohue, now PD'ing at KHAK (Cedar Rapids), is looking for three: a morning, all night and news director. If you're a good showman with a dramatic delivery of news you may want to look into this.

AM ACTION

(Compiled by the Record World research department)

Staple Singers (Curtom). The excitement continues to build with several super adds this week. New on

WABC, WQXI and WCFL. It moves 14-1 WHBQ, 5-3 CKLW, 6-6 WDRQ, 24-20 KFRC, 29-22 KHJ, 22-15 KSLQ, 24-14 Y100 and HB-26 KILT.

Ohio Players (Mercury). One of the leaders in this period of strong r&b crossovers continues to drive on with more pop adds — WIXY and KFRC are new, 10-7

WDRQ, HB-17 CKLW, HB-36 WCOL and 29-25 WPGC. Good top 40 sell-through. (This week's Powerhouse Pick.)

Barry Manilow (Arista). More key stations on this two-week old record, with special attention from heavyweights WFIL, WCFL, WMPS, WCOL, WQAM and WBBQ. 29-20 WHBQ, HB-28 WIBG; remains HB at WMAK and KLIF.

Ohio Players

David Ruffin (Motown). The follow-up to last week's taste of action are these morsels: added KHJ and KFRC and broke strongly on an r&b level; jumps HB-16 CKLW, HB-23 KFRC, 29-26 WHBQ.

Bay City Rollers (Arista). Continues to be one of the hottest records on the street. Going to #1 at WCOL

(3-1) and remains their #1 request record. Other stations following suit as the adds come tumbling in: KFRC, CKLW, WIXY (37), KILT and KJR. Some other terrific jumps include HB-17 WRKO, HB-27 KHJ, 28-19 WHBQ, 26-17 WSAI, 21-14 13Q, 39-30 KTLK and 28-20 Y100.

Hot Chocolate Hot Chocolate (Big Tree). Building steadily on an r&b as well as pop basis and also receiving disco sales for added support. New airplay on WIXY, WCOL and WPGC this week. The action is as follows: 26-6 WHBQ, 29-24 WCFL, 28-25 WIBG; also on WMPS, WPIX, WZUU and WBBQ among others.

CROSSOVERS

Miracles (Tamla). Detroit most certainly seems to be the place these days for black product with strong pop potential. R&B action on this has been explosive and now, with the addition of CKLW, there will surely be some more pop sparks flying.

Norman Connors (Buddah). Very early crossover indications on this record, which is currently #1 at WJLB and has taken jumps like 16-2 at WCHB. A strong sell-through has materialized in this area — pop as well as r&b — and record breaker WDRQ has picked up the ball and added the record. (Note: A similar pattern is remembered on Bowie's recent #1 record, "Fame," and credit goes to WDRQ for starting the pop action on that one also.)

NEW ACTION

Harold Melvin & the Bluenotes (Phila. Intl.) "Wake Up Everybody (Part I.)" Immediate response from both sides of the fence on this new release by the "Bad Luck" boys. Added out of the box to KFRC and KRLY. R&B action is outstanding.

The Sweet (EMI) "Fox On The Run." The race is on and this record wins the status of being one of the most added sides in the country this week. New on WRKO, WQXI, KJR, KTLK, WCFL and Y100. Breakout sales in numerous areas.

PINK FLOYD-Columbia 3 10248 HAVE A CIGAR (prod. by Pink Floyd) (Pink Floyd, BMI

These progressive pioneers mix ethereal keyboard sounds with crunchy guitar rhythms for a sound that many have attempted, but few have mastered.

EDGAR WINTER GROUP WITH RICK

DERRINGER—Blue Sky ZS8 2762 (Epic) PEOPLE MUSIC (prod. by Rick Derringer) (Hierophant-Silver Steed, BMI)

Throaty vocals from Edgar and Dan and scorching guitar licks from Rick show that this band knows how to rock with the best of 'em.

THE MAIN INGREDIENT-RCA JB 10431 SHAME ON THE WORD (prod. by Gooding & Simmons L.T.C. Prod.) (Incredible, BMI)

Riding high with a disco/gospel flavor, the group carries a strong message. The world is living in shame, they say, but take heart because "Jesus is coming.

THE J. GEILS BAND-Atlantic 3301

LOVE-ITIS (prod. by Bill Szymczyk & Allen Blazek) (East/Memphis-Lennie La Cour, BMI) Raunchy rock rhythms are what J. Geils know best. "Love-itis" is a contagious disease like the boogie woogie flu, but it's a bug you won't mind having.

DIONNE WARWICK—Warner Bros. 8154 ONCE YOU HIT THE ROAD (prod. by Thom Bell) (Mighty Three/Sacred Pen, BMI)

Dionne has again come up with winning material with which to show off her impeccable vocal prowess. A great record with a great production.

LYNSEY DePAUL-Mercury 73739 SUGAR SHUFFLE (prod. by Lynsey DePaul) (ATV/Lynsey/Bluey, BMI)

This English chart vet has racked up an admirable string of hits back home, but her soft sound should appeal to many tastes here as well.

LINDA HOPKINS—Columbia 3 10244 ROMANCE IN THE DARK (prod. by Henry Cosby) Duchess, BMI)

The star of the Broadway biography of Bessie Smith shows a thing or two 'bout blues singing. A penetrating vocal that could hit big.

MICHAEL FENNELLY—Mercury 73738 TURN TO ME (prod. by Denny Bruce) (Hard Core, BMI)

Fennelly mixes electronics with hard rock and pleading vocals on this track from his "Stranger's Bed" album. A choice cut with a great arrangement.

AMERICA-Warner Bros. 8157 WOMAN TONIGHT (prod. by George Martin) (Warner Bros., ASCAP)

A deviation from America's soft, willowy sound, the group take a hearty rockin' romp with a reggae flavor. A nice change of pace.

THE UNDISPUTED TRUTH-Gordy 7147F (Motown)

BOOGIE BUMP BOOGIE (prod. by Norman Whitfield) (Stone Diamond, BMI)

The Norman Whitfield sound which incorporates spacey sound effects with down to earth rhythms has never been more extravagant. A great dance record!

TOWER OF POWER-Warner Bros. 8151 TREAT ME LIKE YOUR MAN (prod. by Emillio Castillo & Tower Of Power) (Kuptillo, ASCAP)

Though the song is co-penned by the group's former lead singer, TOP demonstrate a new sleek, but gutsy sound sparked by vocalist Hubert Tubbs.

PURPLE REIGN—Private Stock 052 THIS OLD MAN (prod. by Mike Natale) (Rallodyenom, BMI

Philadelphia group has exploded in the region with this disco treatment of the old rhyme. Strike up another one for the dancers.

THE CHOICE FOUR-RCA JH 10445 UNTIL WE SAID GOODBYE (prod. by Van McCoy) (Charles Kipps, BMI)

Group with the distinction of having Van McCoy conduct, produce and arrange them, are themselves a talented vocal outfit. Watch for crossover action.

BOBBY RUSSELL—Private Stock 046 LITTLE BOXES (prod. by Burt Bacharach & Bob Montgomery) (Pix-Russ, ASCAP)

This self-penned tune from Bobby carries all the credentials to put it into motion. A sentimental ballad that should garner heavy MOR play.

FREDDIE KING-RSO 516 (Atlantic)

BOOGIE BUMP (prod. by Mike Vernon) (Uncle Doris/ Crystal Jukebox, BMI) Freddie's guitar work, an inspiration to many an aspiring bluesman, takes the disco beat to unexplored regions. You won't be able to sit still.

ELEGANT TASTE-Magna Glide 5N 328 CHAMPAGNE AND CAVIAR (prod. by B. Flax & L. Lambert) (American Broadcasting, ASCAP) First r&b song from the K&K studios has a rich Jay & the Techniques-type sound. A song that should mean something to everyone.

THE STYLISTICS Avco 4661

FUNKY WEEKEND (prod. by Hugo & Luigi) (Avco Embassy, ASCAP)

At one time, weekends meant drive-ins and backseat concertos. Here's a whole new definition under the group's distinct vocal trademark.

NOTATIONS-Gemigo 0503 (Warner Bros.)

IT'S ALRIGHT (THIS FEELING) (prod. by C. Jackson & M. Yancy) (Jay's Ent. / Chappell, ASCAP)

Good solid r&b sounds with crisp horns providing a supple accompaniment while a non-stop rhythm provides a steady, pulsating beat.

CLARENCE REID-Alston 3717 (TK)

BAPTIZE ME IN YOUR LOVE (prod. by Steve Alaimo) (Sherlyn, BMI)

Clarence confesses that he's a sinning man -but now he's willing to make amends and calls for a baptism of love. A disco song with a difference!

AMAZING RHYTHM ACES—ABC 12142 AMAZING GRACE (USED TO BE HER FAVORITE SONG) (prod. by Barry ''Byrd'' Burton) (Fourth Floor, ASCAP)

Following the group's success with "Third Rate Romance," they turn to a more country oriented song. A fine follow-up.

THE STRAWBS—A&M 1747

LITTLE SLEEPY (prod. by Tom Allom) (Arnakata, ASCAP)

Under the leadership of Dave Lambert on this track, the Strawbs have stripped their sound down to its bare essential rockin' quality. A high energy mover!

JIMMY NORMAN—Buddah 504

I WANNA MAKE LOVE TO YOU (prod. by H. B. Barnum) (El Patricio, BMI)

This isn't the Willie Dixon classic, but an excellent song by a singer carrying the same message. His strong voice holds it all together.

PAUL DELICATO—Artists of America 105 THOSE WERE THE DAYS (prod. by Harley Hatcher) (Essex Music Inc.)

A timeless story that everyone relates to no matter how often they hear it. Strongest cover of the song since Mary Hopkins is a natural for MOR play.

BROTHERS BY CHOICE—Fretone 034 LONELY CITIES AND ONE WAY STREETS (prod. by E. J. Gurren) (Jimmy McHugh/Pack, ASCAP) Brothers By Choice paint a picture of desolation as suggested by the title. A song with a persistent, jazzy beat and a mean streets message.

SIREN

ROXY MUSIC-Atco SD 36-127 (Atlantic) (6.98) Taste and dignity are the earmarks of Roxy Music's ever-broadening style. And the original tunes presented on this fifth lp display yet further imagination in both writing and execution. "Sentimental Fool," "Love Is the Drug," "Both Ends Burning" and "Just Another High" are tributes to the Homerian title.

TELLIN' IT

ANN PEEBLES—Hi SHL 32091 (London) (6.98) Propelled by a sensationally spinnin' Willie Mitchell production, Ms. Peebles is out with her best-aesthetically and commercially speaking-set to date. Whether soulfully sultry ("Come to Mama" and "I Don't Lend My Man") or rhythmically rousin' ("Beware"), Ms. Peebles definitely tells it like it is and should be told.

HOUSE PARTY

TEMPTATIONS-Gordy G6-97381 (Motown) (6,98) A far cry from anything Art Linkletter could dream up, this "House Party's" full of danceable rhythms and the customary quintet-essential vocals. "You Can't Stop a Man in Love," "Keep Holding On" and "Darling Stand By Me (Song For My Woman)" are classic Temptations cuts. Join the party and you'll never leave.

BA-FA

HUDSON BROTHERS—Rocket PIG-2169 (MCA) (6.98) From the sound of these harder-thanbefore rocking tracks, the Hudsons are moving away from their own "Apple Pie Hero" image, even if the song itself is of a less than clean-cut fellow idol. Produced by Bernie Taupin, "Rendezvous," "Spin-ning The Wheel" and "Lonely School Year" are for the Hudsons' growing TV fans.

OREGON—IN CONCERT

Vanguard VSD 79358 (6.98) Few groups have mastered the ability to control musical/emotional intensity as has Oregon. This live set shows the quartet as the disciplined, improvisation-based ensemble it is. "The Silence of A Candle," a theme dating from the Winter Consort and expressed briefly on Oregon's debut album is rendered beautifully.

SOUTH SHORE COMMISSION

Scepter WDS 6100 (6.98) "Free Man" was one of the bigger disco hits of the past year, the album version presented here being almost twice the length of the original single. "We're On the Right Track" is more currently popular, and the album as a whole is a prime representation of Philadelphia's finest craftsmen. "Before You've Gone" mellows.

AFRO-INDIO

MONGO SANTAMARIA-Vaya XVS-38 (Fania) (6.98)

Santamaria has a long-standing following that continues to grow among r&b and Latin afficianados. An all instrumental album (except for the voices on "Lady Marmalade"), the arrangements by Justo Almario and William Allen, especially, coupled with Marty Sheller/Jerry Masucci production make for strong pop possibilities, too.

SQUITH SHORE COMMISSION

MR. JAWS DICKIE GOODMAN-Cash CR 6000 (Private Stock)

(6.98) Dickie's got a 15 year track record for scoring hits in his very unique fashion. Couple that with the fact that the title track recently enjoyed top chart slotting and it looks like Cash Records is about to collect plenty of that. Programmers and consumers will enjoy having the collection at their fingertips and retailers will reap the benefits as well.

SUPERSOUND

JIMMY CASTOR BUNCH—Atlantic SD 18150 (6.98) Castor is dubbed "the everything man" having taken on writing, production and arranging duties in addition to performing as lead (and all backup) vocalist, and playing saxophone and timbales. "King Kong" will mount the disco charts with the instrumental "Drifting," a well-rounded slow dance number for any feet.

CATE BROS.

Asylum 7-E-1050 (6.98) If the Righteous Brothers had been influenced by reggae, the Cate Bros. could have been the result. Though a carefully polished sound emerges under Steve Cropper's production aegis, the assimilation and fusion of reggae and r&b is first class. Try "Time For Us," "Can't Change My Heart" and "Easy Way Out."

AROUND THE WORLD-LIVE IN CONCERT

THE OSMONDS—MGM/Kolob M3JB-5012 (9.98) Those poppin' siblings are out with another set sure to accrue sturdy sales and usual airwave exposure. Vibrantly produced from Tokyo to Paris to Madrid and all over the globe, the 2-record disc offers the best of the family and new renditions, too. Lots of medleys make musical magic!

ANYTHING GOES

RON CARTER—Kudu KU 25-S1 (Motown) (6.98) Bassist Carter's move to CTI is mostly a matter of production emphasis. No less the jazzman, the rhythm section is beefed up, the arrangements more mainstream pop and the horn section brassier. The title track, "Can't Give You Anything (But My Love)" and "De Samba" are choice cuts geared to bring Carter to the fore.

KIM CARNES A&M SP-4548 (6.98)

Cross Rod Stewart and Bette Midler and wrap it all up in an attractive blondhaired/blue-eyed lady . . . well, it's been done and Kim Carnes comes through as a most individual talent. "Bad Seed," "Do You Love Her" and "Somewhere In the Night" showcase Ms. Carnes' raspy voice perfectly. Produced by Mentor Williams.

THE VOICES OF DELIVERANCE

RODENA PRESTON—Beegee BGS 1075 (6.98) Billy Preston's sister is the leader of this gospel r&b group, coming forth with its second collection on Beegee. As keyboardist and occasional soloist ("Where Peaceful Waters Flow"), Ms. Preston exhibits the same hit potential that marked the Edwin Hawkins Singers' 1969 recording of "Oh, Happy Days."

Nell Sedaka

beginnings to the present with wit, insight and a comprehensive knowledge of the industry.

Record World: So how does a nice Jewish boy from Brooklyn become a rock 'n roll star?

Neil Sedaka: When I was in the second grade at P.S. 253, a teacher somehow spotted some musical ability in me and put me in front of a chorus of kids where I was supposed to wave my hands. Later, she was able to convince my mother that she should buy a piano for me and my sister and I began taking lessons at age 8 with a private teacher in Brighton Beach, where we lived. By age 9, I was at the Juilliard Prep School with a scholarship, and at 13 I first began writing songs. In those days my songs weren't yet rock 'n roll-we started at about 15 when Howie Greenfield, who lived in the same apartment building on Coney Island Avenue, knocked on our door. It seems that his mother had heard me play some classical piece at the Kenmore Lake Hotel, which is at Livingston Manor in the Catskills. She said "My Howie is a poet and he could write songs with you maybe." So Howie rang the bell and said "so do you want to write songs together?" Now Howie and I never got along because he was four, maybe five years older than I was. "Songs? Are you crazy? I'm into Brahms, Bach . . . " and that day we sat down and wrote a song called "My Life's Devotion" which was terrible, but it was a song. From then on, we wrote a song every day; it was perfect. I lived, breathed, slept and ate music. I used to have to wait for my mother to go shopping before we could write these songs because she thought it would take time away from my piano practicing; I would practice about five hours a day.

RW: Did you still want to be a concert planist by that time?

Sedaka: I still did, yes. I didn't do any singing then, just demos and knocking on publishing firm doors. Three years after I started, Jerry Wexler became the first person to take my songs when he started me writing with Laverne Baker. She did "I Waited Too Long," "Sadder" and "Since You've Been Gone;" the Cardinals did "The End Of The Story" and the Clovers did "Bring Me Love." That was the beginning; there were a lot of New York hits. I started the Tokens out of Lincoln High School with Hank Medress and Jay Siegal—Jay sat next to me in our math class and I had heard him sing in falsetto. We used to sing in all the local places.

RW: Did you perform with the Tokens?

Sedaka: Yes, but just locally in Brooklyn. We were semi-professional. RW: That was before "Tonight I Fell in Love" and "The Lion Sleeps Tonight"?

Sedaka: Yeah. I convinced my mother at about that time that I should take a leave of absence from Juilliard. I'm skipping around a bit chronologically, but in 1956 I was chosen by Arthur Rubinstein as best classical pianist in New York City. I played on WQXR and that was a big thing for me.

Then, in 1958, I met Connie Francis, who had just had an enormous success with "Who's Sorry Now." I thought it was the biggest thing in my life, meeting her, because I had only had a few r&b hits, never anything that was big on a national basis. We went to her house, which was in Bloomfield, New Jersey, and I was so happy because while we were driving in the car, the radio played a song I wrote for Dinah Washington. I said "That's mine," very proudly. We got to the piano and I played all of my ballads for her, because she had just come off that hit with "Who's Sorry Now," but she kept saying "no, no, no." Then I played "Stupid Cupid," which Howie had already promised to the Sheppard Sisters; I wasn't supposed to play that for her, but she wasn't buying any of the ballads. Anyway, she loved it, she took it and it was a smash.

RW: What did the Sheppard Sisters say? What did Arthur Rubinstein say?

Sedaka: I don't know what Arthur Rubinstein's comments were, but I'll tell you that it was finished with the Sheppard Sisters. Then I got the itch, after making demos for years and years, to sing on my own records. Nobody would record me though; they thought my voice was high, freaky and strange and they always took my songs and passed on my vocal. Then Steve Shoals, who had brought Presley from Sun Records to Victor, heard a demo of mine called "The Diary," which I wrote for Little Anthony and the Imperials as a follow-up to "Tears On My Pillow."

In those days I used to run home from school at 3:30 to watch Dick Clark every day and on one show he said "and now for the follow-up for 'Tears On My Pillow' . . . " and it wasn't "The Diary." I said, "Oh My God, that's an omen." That was going to be my first record for RCA Victor. So even though 1 had been signed to RCA Victor for a few months, I had waited until I found the right song and that was "The Diary." I'll never forget, it came on the charts in the 60s and stopped in the 20s, and I thought "well, it was nice while it lasted."

My second record was "I Go Ape," which nearly wrecked me because there had been an expression during the war like "I go apeshit" and the disc jockeys didn't like that. My third record, "Cryin' My Heart Out For You," went to the 80s and they were going to drop my contract. We got out a fourth record, "Oh Carol," and after a month and a half, I went out on a promotion tour with my mother. We started in L.A. and nada—nobody played it. We went to Texas nothing. Finally, we got to Chicago and walked into one disk jockey's studio who said, right away, "This is a hit record." So the record broke out of Chicago and went to the top three. I was 19 or 20 at that time. RW: You were already associated with the Aldon office at that time; when did that association begin?

Now I am the type who not only coproduces, hand-picks the musicians, writes the songs and goes through the mastering sessions, but I would also go to the factory if they didn't close the doors on me saying, 'Watch it, here he comes!'

Sedaka: I started with them in 1958. I knocked on Aldon's door after Marty Schuman told me that there was a new publishing firm opening up at 1660 Broadway on the third floor. Howie and I were like Mutt and Jeff—he was very tall and I was very little—and we knocked on the door and Donny said, "I'm sorry, we're in conference, please come back later." He was really sweeping the floor. Well, we came back and after I played about 12 songs, I could see that they were fainting a little bit. They said, "where did you steal these songs" and I said I had written them. Now Al Nevins had class—he was really a classy guy. He was very cool about it; he said come back tomorrow and we'll draw up a contract. P.S., they became my publishers and my managers.

It was more profitable for them to have me write songs than to perform and even after the top 10 records were happening, one after the other, they were turning down offers for performances. They turned down many, many concerts. I remember that when Little Eva went to England, her record sales slowed down and they were probably afraid that I wouldn't be a good performer and would hurt those records. (Continued on page 29)

Crosby and Nash: Carrying On

By HOWARD NEWMAN

■ NEW YORK—Being half of the legendary Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young is certainly no small responsibility in terms of maintaining a high level of music. David Crosby and Graham Nash are willing and able to continue this tradition of quality with their latest album, "Wind On The Water" (currently bulleted at 10 on RW's Album Chart). Although the lyrical harmonies that the public associates with Crosby and Nash can be found on this release, both artists believe that there is a lot more to "Wind On The Water."

David Crosby remarks, "People's impressions of us, and rightly so, because it's some of the best stuff we've done, is colored by the acoustic music and by harmony, so they expect us to be ballad singers. They expect pretty, soft and warm music. This album has a lot of strength to it, too. We didn't go in trying to prove a point, but that's the way the music came out. It's more ballsy and more rock n' roll than most people expect of us."

Graham Nash continues, "I truly believe in what we're trying to communicate, which is basically the human condition. What I try to do is shorten the space between people because that's where I believe it will start to get better. We must become interdependently responsible for our own space which we occupy on this incredible thing which we call the planet." Strongly reflecting this attitude are the lyrics from Nash's "Cowboy of Dreams" from "Wind On The Water." He writes, "Yes, the way I live determines the way my people survive."

Crosby and Nash blend their concert and recording careers as well as any group in the business. They both have definite theories of how to handle the live vs. recorded situation. Nash believes, "When you're making records you have to realize the longevity of the art medium in which you're working. Plastic has a half life of a couple million years. When you put it on record it's there forever. You must try to get as much emotion as possible on that plastic. In concert you have to deal one-to-one with the audience." Crosby jumps in, "It's art of the moment. You don't have to sweat making a mistake on stage. When we perform on stage the only thing that matters to us is did we tell the tale? Did we manage to include anybody in some kind of experience; did we manage to move anybody, and that's quite different from making a record. On a record its going to last. I want it to be as flawless as possible without failing to tell the | tale."

The emphasis on "telling the tale" places Crosby and Nash in the tradition of the minstrel as well as in the rock heritage they helped create with CSNY. Their "To the Last Whale" on the latest album is a fine example of musicians functioning as minstrels, communicating important ideas about the world situation that Graham is so deeply concerned with. Nash states, "I'm always trying to get as much information into myself as possible about the environment in which I live."

■ NEW YORK — Fred Ruppert, director of FM promotion for The Buddah Group, has announced that a special tape of the Charlie Daniels Band Volunteer Jam '75 has been prepared for FM station programming.

Drew 13,000 Fans

The Second Annual Volunteer Jam took place on Friday, September 12, at MSTU's Murphy Center in Murfreesboro, Ten-Nearly 13,000 nessee. fans crammed the hall to witness the event, which featured the Charlie Daniels Band performing with a host of their friends. Among the musicians who participated were Richard Betts and Chuck Leavell of the Allman Brothers Band; Jim Hall from Wet Willie; Grand Ole Opry star Roni Stoneman; Drew Lombar and Steve Miller from Grinderswitch: the Marshall Tucker Band; Mylon LeFevre; Billy Crane from Buckeye; Jamie Nichol, who has recently toured with Dan Fogelberg; Paul Hornsby; and session man Karl Himmel.

The Jam ran for over four

Music gives him the opportunity to share this information with a wide audience.

Helping Crosby & Nash communicate is a fine band consisting of Danny Kortchmar (guitar), David Lindley (fiddle and slide guitar), Russ Kunkel (drums), Craig Doerge (keyboards) and Tim Drummond (bass). Graham and David are extremely pleased to work with this talented aggregation and feel they add immeasurably to the concert performances. Good music is the real name of the tradition that Crosby and Nash carry on.

hours. But, for the sake of programming, the specially prepared tape has been edited to run as a two-hour presentation, allowing time for insertion of commercials and station breaks.

Announcer and producer for the Volunteer Jam '75 tape was Ron Huntsman, formerly of WKDA-FM in Nashville. Also involved in the production was Paul Hornsby, producer of both the Marshall Tucker Band and Charlie Daniels Band. Sound 70 Productions coordinated the project.

This two-hour special is being offered to stations for exclusive airing in their respective markets. Distribution is being handled by Buddah Records, under the supervision of Ruppert. Although a number of markets have already been committed, Ruppert said that the syndication plans are just now being finalized, so the special is still available for most parts of the country. Any programmers interested should contact Ruppert at (212) 582-6900 for further information.

THEATER REVIEW

Linda Hopkins in 'Me and Bessie'

■ NEW YORK — Observing the transition of "Me and Bessie" from experimental coffeehouse status to full-fledged Broadway production points up both its strengths and weaknesses. An assuredly gifted singer, Linda Hopkins is not Bessie Smith-a notion she (Ms. Hopkins) verbally reinforces moments after her entrance. Yet the narrative monologue which accompanies Ms. Hopkins' interpretations of Bessie's songs often goes into the first person, and the delivery of those lines-whether first person or third — is overly simplistic. There is not enough biographical information to make this an informative evening, nor are the songs themselves tied together in any especially meaningful way.

First Class Performance

And yet . . . Linda Hopkins is never less than an all-out entertainer determined to give her audience a first class performance every time. An exceptionally graceful woman, she dances as well as sings much of the time, and it would be difficult not to enjoy watching her. The material is also uniformly excellent, as such. But the end impression is that "Me and Bessie" is still a glorified cabaret act. Ms. Hopkins needs a more challenging (in the dramatic sense) role to really bring out her talents in their fullest glory.

CONCERT REVIEW

The Isley Bros. Brew Up Boogie

■ NEW YORK—On what was designated "Fight the Power" Day by the Mayor's office, the Isley Brothers (T-Neck) performed for a near capacity crowd at Madison Square Garden (24). Armed with 20 years of stage evolution of black music, the Isley Brothers enchanted the audience with their potent pioneering in rhythm and sound.

The audience's response was wildly ritualistic as fists flailed and feet stomped to the beat of "It's Your Thing," "Who's That Lady," and "Flight the Power," the title track from their latest album. Temporarily leaving the realm of r&b, via songs by Neil Young, Todd Rundgren, and Seals and Crofts, the group displayed determined diversity. The Brothers musical blood runs through the tingers of guitarist Ernie Isley, who has mastered the usage of feedback, reverb, the wa-wa pedal.

KC & The Sunshine Band

Currently riding the crest of the wave of TK hits are K.C. and the Sunshine Band. The funky charttoppers were on fire as they warmed up the audience with raving versions of "Get Down Tonight" and "That's The Way I Like It." The group emphasizes heavy horns and a simple, repetitive lyric in a most fascinating manner.

Jimmy Castor Bunch

Rounding out the bill was the Jimmy Castor Bunch (Atlantic). Novelty songs like "King Kong," "Bertha Butt Boogie" and "Troglodyte" are their forte.

Vanguard Signs Brian Gari

■ NEW YORK — Vanguard Records has announced the signing of singer - songwriter - producer Brian Gari to a recording contract. A single, "The Ashville Union Rescue Mission," is being rush-released. The song was written by Gari and Jim O'Loughlin, based on a true story involving O'Loughlin.

Atlantic Signs Foxx

■ NEW YORK—Comedian Redd Foxx has been signed to an exclusive, worldwide recording contract on Atlantic Records, it was announced by Atlantic's west coast general manager Bob Greenberg, who brought Foxx to the label with the help of west coast regional r&b promotion director Jay Butler.

Redd Foxx, Bob Greenberg

Foxx, a seasoned comedy performer for over four decades, is the star of NBC-TV's top-rated Friday evening series, "Sanford & Son," now in its fourth season. "You Gotta Wash Your Ass," Foxx's first new recording in 12 years, was taped "live" at the Apollo Theater earlier this year and is set for early-December release on Atlantic.

By IRA MAYER and ROBERTA SKOPP

AND THE BEAT GOES ON, AND ON, AND ON: When approached at a recent Labelle concert as to whether or not he would like tickets to see Toots & the Maytals, Frank Zappa said nix. "I saw Toots & the Maytals in Boston," the Mothers leader said, "and reggae's not my idea of a good time." Well, Zappa may not like it but an eager crowd that showed for Toots' midnight show at the Beacon (1) certainly did. The time definitely seems ripe for reggae-the rhythms are irrestibly directed towards having a good time-and who wants to pass on an opportunity like that? As more and more reggae groups are making it (Toots, Bob Marley & the Wailers, Jimmy Cliff) and more established artists are adding reggae rhythms to their repertoire, we're sorry Frank, but it doesn't look as if you're going to be having too good a time. And while we're on the subject of reggae, Joe Cocker says he'll be more inclined in that direction on his forthcoming effort, due out early in '76. The disc's currently being recorded in Kingston, Jamaica and his new band line-up includes Gordon Edwards on bass, Cornell Dupree and Eric Gale on guitars and Steve Gadd drumming.

HEAR, THERE AND EVERYWHERE: RW's teen queen, Tanya Tucker, was in a car accident in Nashville, but rest assured that she's recovering well. Tanya was in a car that flipped and she suffered a slight concussion and some minor scrapes. Our pals at MCA report that she's recuperating at home and will be up and about in no time at all . . . Seems a new group, The Movies, opened up for Jackie De-Shannon while she was at Reno Sweeney recently, and lots of people are interested. Rumor has it that Arista and CAM are curious, but for different reasons . . . Robin Kenyatta's in the studio with Joel Dorn producing . . . Alice Cooper reportedly ready to open in Vegas . . . Hugh Masekela honored with a Casablanca bash at Leviticus Roxy Music set for the Beacon Theater on November 26 November 17 is release date for both Carly Simon's best of collection and Joni Mitchell's newie . . . Atlantic dropped both Amon Duul II and Nikki Giovanni ... New Band album to be released this month titled "Northern Lights-Southern Cross" . . . Capitol's signed a new band called Paris, which includes Bob Welch, formerly of Fleetwood Mac, Glenn Cornick, formerly of Jethro Tull and old Nazz-man Thom Mooney . . . Street talk sez Art Garfunkel's chatting with ABC, and CBS may be distributing Sire and Passport labels in the future. Could it be a trade? . . . Atlantic's signed Gloria Gaynor's back-up singers and they've cut Charlie Chaplin's "Smile" ala-what else-disco . . . Capricorn will be shipping a double record Allman Brothers greatest hits package ... Elektra/Asylum's just inked a new white reggae group, Shaker . . . Jay Black now with Private Stock . . . Atlantic's signed Penny McLane, Silver Convention lead singer, and expects to be out with a single soon . . . Cable television watchers tune in to channel 'C' on Tuesday (11) when the "Creating With Alan Corby" show will feature Wonderama's Jan Bridge and RW's very own unique personality Mitchell Kanner. They'll talk about Jamaica, obscene toys, music and other things . . . Cheers for David Bromberg who was originally scheduled for a sole appearance (with band) at the Bottom Line and was real anxious to have The Chieftains perform with him even though it will lower his overall gross for the engagement . . . On Monday (3) WXLO, right here in the big apple, played Barry Manilow's "New York City Rhythm" 25 times in a row in order to "show sympathetic reaction for the city." Perhaps the sym should be dropped from that quote.

It was very poor management, because I knew that I was a performer. I didn't do the rock & roll tours hardly at all, except for one Brooklyn Paramount show, but was doing the Copacabana type things in bowties and tuxedos. All the while, though, there were about ten top-10 records in a row and my major performances were mostly outside of America. I don't know why, but my first gig was in Rio De Janeiro and I became the biggest American singer in Brazil, Japan, Italy and a few other countries.

RW: After your popularity waned here in America, you were still very big internationally. Do you have any idea of why that happened?

Sedaka: In those days you had to sing in Spanish, Italian or the language of whatever country you were in and I was very good with languages. Also, I looked Latin and my parents, who are of Spanish descent, used to speak Spanish in our house when I was little.

RW: What happened to your career after the early '60s?

Sedaka: It was the old story, the same as with most solo male performers at that time. There were changes, the acid things came in and I wasn't going to put out records just to have them sit on the shelf. I was married by that time, too, and I was tired of travelling all of the time. I'd made enough money to not have to work, so I really stopped to become a family man.

RW: Did you have any trouble placing songs between '63 and '70? Sedaka: There were mostly easy listening things: "Working On A Groovy Thing," the 5th Dimension's "Puppet Man," Tom Jones' "Rainy Jane," album cuts with Johnny Mathis, Andy Williams, Peggy Lee and Nancy Wilson. The groups that were happening then were mostly self-contained and wrote their own songs, so the easy-listening artists were really the only outlet. Then, in 1970 an agent friend of mine, Dick Fox, suggested that I go to the Albert Hall in England; he thought it might be a good way of breaking back into performing. I had done the London Palladium back in 1971 and had still been getting fan mail through the years from England. So I accepted the Albert Hall engagement with the condition that I be allowed to sing my contemporary songs-I had an album called "Emergence" out at the time and was spending thousands of dollars of my own money on promoting it. And at the same time I found a group in the north of England called the Hotlegs; they were later to become 10cc.

RW: What were they doing at that time? Did they have Strawberry Studios yet?

Sedaka: They had their studio and their manager was Harvey Lipsberg, who also managed Tony Christie. Harvey said, "If you're coming to England, why don't you cut a couple of tracks with my group? I did two tracks with them and was completely knocked out. We did the whole "Solitaire" album there before I went back to the States.

RW: How did that progress to your relationship with Elton and Rocket Records?

Sedaka: Well, when I went back to the States, Colgems released the single "Rainy Jane" but otherwise really didn't do anything. The "Solitaire" album, although critically acclaimed, didn't do well commercially and 1 did a second album with them (10cc) called "The Tra-La Days Are Over." It went 100,000 in the U.K. and I began to do concerts all through England and played The Talk of The Town for five weeks; there were also a couple of BBC specials. My purpose at that time was to shatter the old image, which was my biggest obstacle. I felt it would never happen in America if I had to rely on those old songs; I would always be a ghost from the past. So slowly I started to take out the old songs and put in the new in my concerts.

RW: Why was it easier to do that with an English audience as opposed to an audience over here?

Sedaka: There are fewer radio outlets over there, and if you're heard on the BBC and Capital radio, you're reaching Scotland, Ireland, Wales-all over the British Isles-and a very concentrated audience. So it was easier than trying to go to thousands of radio stations in America.

RW: Do you think that the British audience was more receptive to a new Neil Sedaka than an American audience might have been?

Sedaka: I don't know. If I had done it in America it might have taken longer and eventually it might or might not have worked. But then in 1973 or '74 I met Elton and it was suggested that I ask him to put the records out in America. Meanwhile, I had recorded an album here in Los Angeles at Robert Appere's Clover Studios which wasn't released here in the States but was put out by Polydor in England and did another 100,000. "Laughter In The Rain" was out as a single in the U.K. and became number 10 or 12. The "Sedaka's Back" album was a compilation of "Solitaire," "The Tra-La Days Are Over" and "Laughter In The Rain." Who In The World: On-Stage Style Scores for Outlaws

■ NEW YORK — The Outlaws' success story is one of the most interesting of 1975. The first fulltilt rock 'n roll band signed to Arista Records had shown all the ingredients for potential national stardom even when their reputation was confined to a passionate regional following in their home state of Florida and throughout the southeast. Their live performances won believers and rave reviews while providing stiff competition for any featured act that they appeared with. A special aura of star-bound momentum and inevitability surrounded the group as Arista released their debut album, "Outlaws," this past summer.

Immediate Sales

The immediate sales response indicated across-the-board geographical impact. It was a smash right out of the box." The initial shipment was appropriately geared to a first release by a brand new act. Within a week the phones started ringing, and they haven't stopped since. The album completely exploded out of Los Angeles, Miami, Atlanta, Buffalo and Detroit, thus making it abundantly clear that the Outlaws were no mere regional breakout. With these major markets already converted into Outlaws strongholds, the rest of the country was soon to follow suit. In less than a month, 100,000 albums had been sold. As a result of this powerful reorder pattern the record broke into the top 20 only five weeks after its release.

Already known as an exciting live act, this immediately recognizable retail action convinced promoters that the Outlaws would be an important addition to any major concert, and the group was quickly added to several key dates with the Rolling Stones, most notably, the gala closing show of the Stones tour in front of 80,000 fans at Buffalo's Rich Stadium.

The release of their first single, "There Goes Another Love Song," and its rise on the charts has boosted sales even higher.

With the exciting dual lead guitar interplay of Hughie Thomasson and Billy Jones, the rock solid rhythm section of Frank O'Keefe on bass and Monty Yoho on drums, and the inimitable lead vocals by Henry Paul, the group continues burning its way through sizzling live performances like the one just recently at Madison Square Garden in New York with the Doobie Brothers.

After the completion of their current nationwide concert tour the Outlaws will go back into Criteria Studios in Miami, with Paul Rothchild producing (as he

October Label Bows

LOS ANGELES — October Records has been formed here by Steve McCormick and J.C. Phillips. The first signing to the label is Jonathan Cain, whose first single "Till It's Time To Say Goodbye" is being rushed released this week. The label will be distributed by Claridge Records.

Steve McCormick, who was formerly general manager of the Landers / Roberts label, Mums Records, will be president of the new label. McCormick helped to break such records as "Play-ground In My Mind" by Clint Holmes, "Pillow Talk" by Sylvia, "Brother Louie" by Stories and "The Morning After" by Maureen McGovern. He also held the position of assistant editor to Bob Hamilton at the Radio Report.

J.C. Phillips, who is vice president of October, was responsible for co-writing and co-producing the Sugarloaf hit "Green Eyed Lady." He has also worked in the publishing wing of Claridge Records. Phillips produced the single by Cain for the label.

KoKo has been named to the post of national promotion director. Prior to joining October, she ran her own independent promotion firm, "Komotion Company." An album is due shortly by Cain entitled "Cain Was His Name."

■ FEEDBACK: Tom Savarese from 12 West, who lists Nanette Workman's terrific "If It Wasn't for the Money" (Atco) on his top 10 this week, has also come up with a copy of the original French version, "J'ai le Gout de Baiser" (which is, I believe, too raunchy for translation in a respectable American trade paper), an import on Pacha. One of the first to get into "I Am Somebody" by Jimmy James & the Vaga-bonds, Savarese is now on a similar gutsy message song from the recent Rance Allen Group album ("A Soulful Experience" on Truth) called "Talk That Talk." "Talk," which has some fine O'Jays overtones, is in two parts (total time: 7:31) and gets really hot with a pounding drum break in Part II. Also doing well at 12 West: Henry Mancini's heavy-handed version of Van McCoy's "African Symphony," with a too brief kalimba break (from Mancini's new "Symphonic Soul" album on RCA) and an early entry into what I'm afraid will be a popular novelty market this year—Christmas Disco—with a souped-up instru-mental version of "The Little Drummer Boy" produced by the Gary Toms Empire guys, Rick Bleiweiss and Bill Stahl, for a group called Moonlion (PIP). "Drummer Boy" comes in a five-minute disco version and is already being reported by a number of DJs.

We should note that the version of Al Martino's "Volare," listed by Edmund Timothy of Le Cocu, is the new, longer length (4:53), now pressed on Capitol special "DISCO" label, and minus the spoken introduction . . . Bacho Mangual, DJ at Revelation II in Brooklyn, has put two cuts from the "Mahogany" soundtrack album (Motown) in his top 10 list this week: a bouncy cut with some flimsy Jermaine Jackson vocals called "She's the Ideal Girl," and "Erucu," a very short (1:23) instrumental break of a track that might pick up in the same way that "2 Pigs & A Hog" from the "Cooley High" soundtrack did. Motown Plans Campaign For Two New Albums

LOS ANGELES-Motown Records' November album release, consisting of new albums by the Temptations and Stephanie Mills, will be highlighted by an extensive field-oriented marketing program encompassing product presentation meetings at each of Motown's local distributors.

The Temptations' album, "House Party," follows the album "A Song For You" and features production by Brian Holland, Steve Cropper, Terry Woodford & Clayton Ivey and James Carmichael & Suzee Ikeda.

Stephanie Mills' debut release, "For The First Time," features 10 compositions written, produced and arranged by Burt Bacharach and Hal David.

To emphasize the importance of both albums, Motown's vice president of sales, Mike Lushka, sent his entire regional sales staff on the road just prior to the album's release, to set up direct product presentation meetings with the personnel of each of the label's distributors.

In addition to concentrated programs of print advertising, both albums will be supported with multi-rotating radio spots. For the Stephanie Mills album, one spot has been aimed directly at the MOR market, with Burt Bacharach narrating the copy.

Boulez' 'Daphnis et Chloe' And Other New Delights

By SPEIGHT JENKINS

■ NEW YORK—To anyone who has followed Pierre Boulez in his years as music director of the New York Philharmonic or listened to his records on Columbia, his new Daphnis et Chloe should not come as a surprise. But a great reading of a familiar score is always an especial delight, and Boulez brings to this Daphnis all his accumulated enthusiasm for Ravel: there is color, enormous dynamic variation, the classic Boulez emphasis on clarity and a kind of excitement that the conductor brings to the music he loves. The Camerata Singers seem unusually strong and effective. How interesting that in such a short space of time two recordings, one by Seiji Ozawa on Deutsche Grammophon and the other on Columbia by Boulez should capture in very different ways the magic of Daphnis. The first is charged with a nervous electricity; Boulez' is a truly

French look at the work. Both merit serious consideration.

Walter Carlos

In the less serious area of electronic rewrites of familiar music Columbia has entered its classic competitor, Walter Carlos, in a new record, so offering competition to RCA's Tomita. If one likes the whole idea of transforming music electronically, "Carlos by Request" bursts with ingenuity. He also has the help of one of the most scholarly pianists in this city, Philip Ramey. Three dances from "The Nutcracker Suite" are delightful, and the Bach has the by now traditional Carlos treatment. The best piece on the record is the last, "Pompous Circumstances," a free fantasy on Elgar's familiar march. What Carlos does is to bring in a world of other music into his variations: possibly to guy Tomita, there is a good bit (Continued on page 51)

■ HOLLYWOOD: Personal Pick: "Sing A Song" — Earth, Wind & Fire (Columbia). The first extraction from their forthcoming album, entitled "Gratitude." The group has once again outdone themselves with pure, unadulterated harmony and rhythm. Give a listen once again to a group which keeps on moving with force.

DEDE'S DITTIES TO WATCH: "For Your Love" - Ronnie McNeir (Prodigal-UPT); "Higher And Higher: ----Martha Reeves (Arista-UPT); "Shame On The World" -Main Ingredient (RCA-UPT).

Once again in the news is NATRA, the organization designed to lend a helping hand to all within the sphere of entertainment. There are some new happenings: Al Gee of WLIB-AM (New York) is now the executive secretary; Spider Harrison of WLAC-AM (Nashville), who was voted the organization's treasurer this past summer at the convention, has announced his resignation. According to Harrison: "personal obligations will not allow me to devote the time needed to hold the post."

The William Morris Agency has picked up, for exclusive booking, Midland Intl. artists, Silver Convention. This act's recording of "Fly Robin Fly" has made such impact that they will be touring the States from mid-January to mid-March.

Harold Melvin & the Bluenotes opened recently at the Playboy Club here. Melvin carried the show on to Oct. 14th, only to walk off stage, not completing the performance. According to Melvin, a veteran of approximately 15 years, "Conditions were not conducive for myself and the group to remain. When artists of our caliber, or for that matter, any artist, have to subject themselves to the standards this club has set aside, such as changing clothes in an office and bathroom, and poor lighting and sound, it becomes a definite hindrance with regard to performing to our fullest capacity. These were the difficulties we encountered; therefore we felt that it was fitting and proper to act in the manner we did. Another situation that has befallen us as a unit was that of the sudden illness of one of our members, in which the club manager expressed neither his sympathy or well wishes. Instead he felt that he should have been there to perform. To sum it up there were no professional courtesies extended."

When contacted for comment, Casey Geller, manager of the Playboy Club, stated that "basically they (Harold Melvin & the Bluenotes) had internal

Peaches Praises Isleys

T-Neck recording artists the Isley Brothers have a brand new single, "For the Love of You (Part 1 and 2)," from their platinum Ip "The Heat is On," which has already spawned one gold single, "Fight the Power." In recognition of their star stature, Peaches Records and Tapes in Atlanta, Ga., asked the group to immortalize their hands, feet and signatures in cement outside the store. problems that couldn't be solved."

Harold Melvin Enterprises has released the group's road manager, Buddy Nolan; he no longer has any affiliation with the group. For further bookings, please contact Philadelphia International Records. . . . Being rush released on Monday (10) by Buddah Records will be "Hold Back The Night," recorded by The Trammps. This particular cut from their 1p a hit in England and has been cut down in length.

Both are the only cuts on the album produced and co-written by Jermaine—the first such credit that I know of ... Moving up steadily: "Love Explosion" by Bazuka (A&M), even stronger than "Dynomite," on a single now (4:45) but longer on the album (5:26); "Chicano" by Black Blood (Mainstream), which should be out soon as a single, too; the long disco version of "Drive My Car" by Gary Toms Empire (PIP); and nearly all the cuts on the just-out Salsoul Orchestra album, but especially "Chicago Bus Stop," "Salsoul Rainbow" and "You're Just the Right Size," all of which went into the Disco File Top 20 this week.

RECOMMENDED ALBUMS: South Shore Commission's exciting debut on Wand, including a new long version of "Free Man," one of the year's 10 best singles, expanded to a beautifully rich 7:21 and picking up all over again; an equally knockout "Train Called Freedom" (5:16) and "I'd Rather Switch Than Fight," a rough-tough woman's song with a very funny monologue ending—shaping up as the three favorites right now—plus a complicated "Handle with Care" which is very interesting but difficult and, of course, the group's version of "We're on the Right Track" The first album from the Reflections (Capitol), containing their two successful singles, "Three Steps from True Love" and "Love on Delivery" (the album's title cut), plus several up-tempo cuts very reminiscent of the Spinners, notably the opening tracks on both sides, "All Day, All Night" and "Day After Day (Night After Night)"... The latest from the Blackbyrds, "City Life" (Fantasy), not as striking as their previous releases, but worth checking out for "Happy Music," which features a fleeting vocal from Merry Clayton, and a delightful "Rock Creek Park" . . . Scepter's "Disco Gold Vol. 2," also not up to the quality of the previous volume but an essential album; Ralph De Blanc's sugary disco interpretation of Maxine Brown's "Undecided Love," "El Bimbo," "Breakaway," Bobby Moore's "Anything Man" and a longer version of "Waterbed" by LTG Exchange. Again, this volume is dedicated to spinners all over the country, with the names of hundreds of clubs and DJs filling the album cover inside and out.

RECOMMENDED SINGLES: The Sylvers' first release on Capitol, "Boogie Fever," a very jumpy song with an early Jackson 5 sound and a cute production by Freddie Perren, who did the latest Miracles album; Ralph De Blanc's sugary disco interpretation of Maxine Brown's soul classic, "Oh No Not My Baby" (Arista)-best parts: the intro and the end; Dionne Warwicke's excellent Thom Bell production, "Once You Hit the Road" (Warner Bros.), an overly familiar sound perhaps, but a supremely comfortable, attractive one; "The Soul City Walk," another wonderfully up song from Archie Bell & the Drells, reportedly already very hot in L.A. (on TSOP); "Inside America," a two-part, mostly-instrumental oddity by Juggy Murray Jones (Jupiter) that includes snatches of all sorts of American music in a complex, fascinating disco setting-my west coast correspondent, Kenn Friedman, suggests a new category: "Bicentennial Disco;" another unusual record, "You Got Me in a Whirlpool" by Gino Washington (Atac International), interesting primarily for its instrumental side (3:16); "Funky Weekend," the nicest thing from the Stylistics in some time (Avco); "Sing a Song," the usual optimistic bounce from Earth, Wind & Fire but more than usually irresistible (Columbia).

LEFT FIELD: Exuma's "Africa" (Inagua), typical of the man's eccentric brand of Afro-American funk and perhaps for hard-core Exuma fans only, but worth a listen; another eccentric record, by Cy Coleman, called "Chloe" (RCA), started out in a strange Brazilian-tinged disco sound and ends up with some tinkly piano solo work—almost as crazy as George Fischoff's "King Kingston;" "Evil Woman," an interesting disco-rock number by the Electric Light Orchestra (UA) with some characteristically bizarre production touches; and Rozetta Johnson's odd blend of funk and sweet soul in "(1 Like Making That) Early Morning Love," which has something of a Miami sound (Columbia).

Les Lays It on the Line

As Atlantic recording artist Les McCann's new album, "Hustle To Survive," hustled into its first week of simultaneous listings on the pop and jazz lp charts, McCann and his group opened a 6-night stint at the Bottom Line club in New York, their first appearance in the city since last March 21, when they shared a date at Carnegie Hall with Nancy Wilson. Licorice Pizza

The Piano Player;" #23—"Caribou;" #26—"Tumbleweed Con-nection."

Licorice Pizza's Third Annual Halloween Sale and Party also occurred during the Elton sale, and this separate promotion featured a dollar discount on all albums, tapes and accessories priced over four dollars. Black said this sale was supported by radio ads only. The dollar-off sale ran from seven in the evening until three in the morning and as an extra attraction, included a costume contest held every hour on the hour, with the winner receiving a prize of free albums. From midnight until 3 a.m. there was a "giveaway album sale." in Black's words, with the number of giveaways increasing each hour. From midnight until 1 a.m., customers received one free album with every purchase; from 1-2 a.m., they received two free albums with every purchase; and from 2-3 a.m. three free albums were given away with each purchase.

"There was no limit on the type of purchase," Black explained. "Customers could buy anything and they'd get a free album. From 12 until 3 the stores were packed. When you tell people they're getting something free, they show up.

Black added that the giveaway albums were not frontline product but were cutouts and older albums supplied by manufacturers at the request of Licorice Pizza.

"We asked the labels for any old warehouse product they had lying around and they came through," said Black. "They sup-plied us with albums, singles, posters, old display kits-I think WEA alone gave us 5000 singles, and we had several of the 7-foot high, X-rated Roxy Music posters that retailers wouldn't use when the album came out. We gave all of them away. In all, we had about 5-6000 albums to give away.

"This kind of promotion heips build awareness in the record buying public that Licorice Pizza is a really nice place to shop at and lets them know that we're really working to make them happy. That's the idea behind the whole thing."

Tower Of Power Cancels Dates

LOS ANGELES—Warner Bros. recording artists Tower of Power have been forced to cancel several remaining dates in their current national tour schedule due to an injury sustained by saxophonist Lenny Pickett. (Continued from page 3)

As personal manager of Earth Quake, Kaufman became disenchanted with the mainstream record industry after the failure of Earth Quake's second lp. "Hollywood wasn't really geared towards groups at the time and I felt that my band was getting a less-than-second-rate-shot," recalled Kaufman. He and the band retreated to their Berkeley stronghold, where Earth Quake had long been a local favorite. While they licked their wounds, Kaufman schemed an "alternative course."

"I thought there should be a farm system in the record industry, just as there is in baseball. So that's what Beserkley became - our farm team - and Earth Quake did very well in the minors." Other additions to the new label's roster followed the release of a first single in 1974. Greg Kihn, another former A&M artist, Jonathan Richman, a cult figure whose group, the Modern Lovers, "had been mangled at Warner Bros." (per Kauman) and the Rubinoos, a local bubblegum oriented act all took refuge at Beserkley, dubbed by Kauf-man as "The Home Of The Hits."

The label's growth was understandably cautious. "We put out "Mr. Security" by Earth Quake as the first single and after it sold "X" number of units, we were faced with a question. Should we take the money we'd made back in the mail, put it into more records and front them to some record stores or should we just take the money and make another record?" Kaufman fond- shop around the corner that ly recollected. The latter course wasn't happening in their store," another record?" Kaufman fond-

At BMI's Showcase

Roger Miller was celebrity question/answer session guest as the BMI-sponsored Songwriters Showcase in Los Angeles celebrated its fourth anniversary by moving into a new location, The Improvisation. There was an SRO crowd on hand for the occasion, along with Showcase directors Len Chandler and John Braheny and Ron Anton, BMI vice president of performing rights, west coast. Shown from left are Chandler, Miller, Braheny and Anton.

was chosen and Earth Quake gloated Kaufman, "so they startrecorded a former Easybeats hit, ed buying about 250 records at a "Friday On My Mind." Via wordtime, sending them out to each of-mouth, press reviews and store in batches of five or six. some progressive airplay, that They would have loved to have record sold as well and the idea had them sit there in their little for the label's first album, a slots on the racks - because it various-artists album by unreally galled them to have to pay known groups, was then born in c.o.d.-but the records wouldn't Kaufman's mind. An additional stay in their stores." six songs were cut and the quixotically titled "Beserkley Chartbusters," repersenting all of While Beserkley flourished in hometown U.S.A.,

Kaufman leased Earth Quake's "Friday On My Mind" to Charisma Records in England where the record did respectably well. "Then I got bored," yawned Kaufman, "and I said that the only way I'd make a record deal again would be to close my eyes and pick a letter from the alphabet. That letter would be the first initial of the company I'd sign with." The wheels of fate began to spin, resting momentarily on the let-ter "U." With the field thus narrowed, Kaufman chose United Artists as a British lessee and Jonathan King's UK label in the States, (the latter on a one-shot basis only). UK released Earth Quake's "Tall Order For A Short Guy," coincidentaly written by Jonathan King. "But nobody really wanted a lease situation here in America; they wanted distribution" said Kaufman.

The question of a full-time distributor was to be decided in a similarly arbitrary fashion. Owing to the gravity of the decision, Kaufman allowed himself two letters and decreed that that either of them would be the last letter of the potential distributor's corporate name. "Y" and "C" came out of the hat and Playboy was among the four companies that were approached. Playboy also appealed to Kaufman because its indie distribution system, in his estimation, better suits Beserkley's regional popularity.

Playboy, which has already released the two Beserkley lps and a single titled "Gorilla" by the Rubinoos, will not be obligated to accept all Beserkley product. Two new projects-in-progress at "The Home of The Hits" will probably be marketed by the label on the same mail-order/ c.o.d. basis; they consist of what Kaufman describes as a patriotic single and a demo album recorded years ago by Richman's currently-defunct Modern Lovers. "How else can you top a variousartists album by unknown groups and a live album by a little-known band?" was Kaufman's rhetorical question. "By putting out a demo by a defunct band that was completely unknown," he answered himself, adding that the album will be available in record, cartridge and cassette configurations.

El disco es de Sigla (Som Livre).

Una de las más importantes fiestas del año tuvo como escenario el Hotel Ramada Inn Pampas, en Sao Bernardo do Campo,, destacando los 40 años de vida artística de la "Divina" Elizeth Cardoso (Copacabana). Amigos, artistas y autoridades fueron allí para rendir su homenaje a la gran cantante, a quien la prensa en general honra en todas partes del país.

Roberto Carlos (CBS) está preparando su nuevo disco. Se queda hasta este mes en Brasil, desde donde volará a Ecuador y Perú. A su regreso, comenzara un nuevo espectáculo en "Canecao" de Río de laneiro.

Según me informa el amigo Enrique Lebendiger, otro gran cantante grabó la canción "Feelings" (Dime) de Morris Albert (Charger). El cantante italiano Wess se suma a la gran cantidad de intérpretes que han grabado este exitoso tema.

A pesar de las noticias relacionadas con un cambio de sello de la cantante Betty Carvalho, se anuncia la salida de un nuevo album en su sello de siempre, Tapecar.

A cuanto rincón hay en este mundo llegó Margarita Lecuona con su "Babalú" en la interpretación de Miguelito Valdés. Su "Tabú" es inolvidable. Autora de gran fuerza exquisitez romantica, reflejada en "Eclips," ha dejado de existir en la Ciudad de Nueva York. Todavía vibra en mis oídos una de nuestras últimas conversaciones. Otra sensible pérdida en el mundo de la composición lo es la del compositor argentino Gabino Coria Peñaloza, autor de los inmortales versos de "Caminito" que recorrió el mundo entero con la música de Juan de Dios Filiberto y en las voces de Carlos Gardel e Ignacio Corsini. También de su autoría los afamados "El Panuelito" y "Margaritas." ¡Descanse en paz!

...DE AQUI Y DE ALLA..

ALBERTO CORTEZ tendrá para mediados de este mes su nuevo sencillo para el sello "Pronto", en el mismo vienen dos canciones que han tenido repercusión bastante en Europa, "El amor desolado" y "Los demás". Tanto Alberto Cortez como Karina y José Luis Perales, son los nuevos artistas que nuestra firma ha lanzado, al obtener los derechos exclusivos para Estados Unidos del sello "Hispavox". Pero no sólo son estos tres artistas los que tenemos en cartera, el catálogo de "Hispavox" es extenso y antes de final de año tendremos ya algunos discos de larga duración en el mercado, con todos estos grandes artistas de la canción internacional... EN CALIFORNIA Y TEXAS los artistas nuestros que están constantemente en el Hit Parade de las estaciones de radio de esos Estados son los siguientes: Leo Dan, Lyda Zamora, Camilo Sesto, Vicente Fernández, Imelda Miller, Federico Villa, Carmen Silva, cada uno de ellos ha ido penetrando en la preferencia del público. Y se demuestra que son buenos, ya que no solamente en California y Texas están en la lista de los más solicitados, sino también en la Florida, Puerto Rico y New York. Es decir que estos artistas están en la popularidad en todos los Estados Unidos. Felicitaciones para todos ellos de parte de nuestra Compañía... MANOELLA TORRES concurrió a Puerto Rico al "Festival de la Voz y la Canción" y no al de la OTI, como erróneamente publicamos en la semana pasada. Para el Festival de la OTI que se celebrará el próximo 15 de noviembre en Puerto Rico, irá representando a México el popular cantante Gualberto Castro. Se espera que este cantante tenga mucho chance en obtener algún primer lugar. De España vendrá Cecilia, representando a la Madre Patria. En este Festival de la OTI se espera una reñida competencia, ya que los que concurren al mismo, son artistas de calidad... IMELDA MILLER se presentó con gran éxito en República Dominicana. La linda mexicana actuó en centros nocturnos, así como en la Televisión Dominicana... ROCIO JURADO, la estrella internacional española, se presta a penetrar rápidamente en el mercado de Estados Unidos. Su primer long play en el sello "Arcano" estará en la calle el próximo mes de Diciembre. Rocío Jurado es una de esas artistas que conquistan rápidamente al público. Su gracia y su aporte de gran dama, la hacen acreedora para triunfar ampliamente. Sus lindos programas de televisión que han sido vistos en varias ocasiones en New York, nos hacen pensar que Rocío Jurado será la nueva reina del canto de España.

JOSE, JOSE el creador del hit "Dime" (feeling) ha sacado un sencillo a duo con Marco Antonio Muñiz, con los temas "Tiempo" y "Cruz de Olvido", que es una maravilla. Estos dos números de seguro penetrarań rápidamente entre los amantes de la música romántica. Bueno será hasta la próxima semana, en que les traeremos nuevas noticias de Caytronics ...

Mucho lamento que el pueblo mexicano se vea privado de disfrutar de la buena música de España, como lamento infinito que España se pueda ver privada de la excelente música de México.

Sin paliativos, la canción "Feelings" (Dime) de Morris Albert acapara la atención de nuestro otoño. Número uno en "Superventas" y número Uno en los "40 Principales." ¿Hay quien dé más? . . ¡Enhorabuena! . . . Si mis líneas sirven de ilusión a un cantante, se las ofrezco a Tony Genil que con su canción "España cuando te Quiero" ha visto convertido en realidad uno de sus mayores sueños ¡Adelante Tony! . La canción "Manuela" de Manuel Alejandro ha visto el éxito de la mano de Julio Iglesias. En Francia ha vendido más de 500,000 copias y ya en España está situada en "Superventas" . . . Muy buena la canción "Anda" de Luís Eduardo Aute (Ariola). ¡Merece mejor suerte que toda la que a lo mejor tendrá.

Por primera vez veo que una compañía saca un éxito por dos artistas distintos. Esto, de entrada supone un sacrificio para uno de los dos. Me refiero en este caso a Claude Francois (CFE) a favor de la de Domenico Modugno (CFE) con "El Telefono Llora." La jugada ha salido bien por casualidad, ya que la primera versión de dicho tema que se escuchó mucho antes por la radio, lo fué la interpretada por King Clave en Movieplay. ¿Y yo me pregunto? ... Si los derechos de esta canción son para España de Ediciones Montserrat y sabemos de la vinculación de dicha Editorial con la Compañía Fonográfica Española (CFE), como no vetó por un tiempo el número para que no lo sacara nadie que no fuera el propio autor, mejor dicho, el coautor, que en este caso es Claude Francois, que es artista de esta empresa. Y en segundo término: ¿se durmió Movieplay con este número? En fin, al Sr. Milhaud ahora le salió bien, pero . . ¿Será siempre así? . . . De la misma empresa un tema de lo más bonito que se ha escuchado en este verano. Se trata de "Aria," cantada por el italiano Dario Baldano Bembo.

Mención extraordinaria para los larga duración de Cecilia (CBS) "Un Ramito de Violetas" y el de Jarcha (Zafiro) "Andalucía Vive," cada uno con su estilo. Dos discos para escucharlos y volverlos a escuchar . . . Juan Carlos Calderón acaba de regresar de Londres, donde ha grabado el material de su nuevo álbum según anuncia su casa discográfica (CBS). A propósito de Juan Carlos y de Cecilia, diremos que ésta ha sido seleccionada por T.V.E. para representar a España en el próximo "Festival de la OTI" con la canción de J. Carlos titulada "Amor a Medianoche" (creo han existido problemas entre compositor y artista).

Cholo Aguirre, el argentino afincado en España anuncia un nuevo elepé titulado "Los Nuevos Rios" del cual se sacará un sencillo con lo títulos "Nuestro Viejo Amor" y "Adios a Pablo Neruda." El primero con letra y música de él y el segundo con letra de A. de la Vega . . . Guillermo Basterrechea participará con un tema titulado "La Cuna" en el próximo Festival de Yamaha Music ha celebrarse en Japón el próximo Noviembre.

Clemencia Torres saca un nuevo L.P. titulado "Canción para una Esposa Triste" de varios autores, aunque Carlos Luengo es el que más colabora en el mismo . . Y ahora . . ; Hasta la próxima!

"Bochinche" por Cortijo y nuevo Combo es sin lugar a dudas un tema muy vendedor. Coco Records está dandole fuerte promoción en la costa este de Estados Unidos ... Luís Felipe, cantante de Nelson y sus Estrellas, acaba de formar su propia orquesta en Colombia bajo el nombre de Don Felo. El primer sencillo ha logrado fuerte impacto en el mercado colombiano. Codiscos es la firma en Colombia y Discolando Records en Estados Unidos . . . Enrique Estrada de Discomoda de Colombia de paso por Estados Unidos para efectuar compras de maquinarias para su fábrica ... Pablo "Yoruba" Guzmán, previamente con WQIV de Nueva York, tiene ahora su show radial "Barrio Nuevo" a través de WIBF FM en Philadelphia . . . Art Kapper ("Arturito") está en el aire de nuevo, ahora a traves de la WFAB de Miami. Su programa "Our Latin Thing" (Nuestra Cosa) patrocinado por Fania Records se, radiará de lunes a sábado desde las 6:30 a las 9:30, desde esta esmana en adelante. Nuestro saludo al fraternal amigo y talentoso discjockey . . . ¡Y ahora . . . Hasta la próxima!

Margarita Lecuona has reached every corner of this world with "Babalú" in the voice of Miguelito Valdes. Her "Tabu" is unforgettable. "Eclipse," with that beautiful sentimental accent and deep touch that characterized most of her themes, achieved great popularity. Margarita passed away in New York early this month. Our deepest sympathies to the Armillas Lecuona family. A superb composer is no longer with us!

Chucho Avellanet was a success at Centro Español, Miami, where Brizilian singer Nelson Ned will debut this week ... Paul Gerard from Argentina is touring Venezuela, Santo Domingo and the States. We appreciate his visit to our offices in Miami ... Hector Lavoe and His Orchestra will make their first appearance in Europe at the Salle Pleyel Concert Hall in Paris on the 6th and 7th of November. From Paris they will fly to Berlin for appearances at the Berlin Jazz Festival with some of the top stars in jazz ... Betty Missiego, talented Peruvian singer, signed with Discos Columbia from Spain ... Nydia Caro was married in Madrid to Spanish photographer Gabriel Suau. Happiness! ... Angelica María, from Mexico, signed as an exclusive artist with Caytronics Corp. Joe Cayre flew to Mexico in order to sign the very popular singer ... Sandro is doing very well through his personal appearances in Mexico.

Another great loss in the author's field occurred in Argentina when lyricist Gabino Coria Peñaloza, whose lyrics for "Caminito" travelled all around the world with the voices of Carlos Gardel and Ignacio Corsino, passed away several weeks ago. Among other unforgettable creations by this talented writer are "El Pañuelito" and "Margaritas." Juan de Dios Filiberto was the author of the music of "Caminito."

Lindomar Castilho is climbing to the top of popularity again in Mexico via "Hechicera." RCA released this Brazilian singer on a single with this theme and "El Patron" as side B . . . Another Brazilian group that is also enjoying air coverage in Mexico is Pholhas, also called in Mexico Las Hojas. A single by the group was released several weeks ago containing "Ya me Voy de aquí" b/w "Siempre." The group is a top seller in Brazil, recording in English. Their version in English of "Ya me Voy de Aquí," titled "Good-Bye," was a smash hit in their country.... WXLO-FM aired two complete radio shows on Ray Rivera and his music on October 25 in New York ..., Rico Records opened their new offices, located at 464 W 51st St. in New York. From their new facilities they will handle promotion and production of all their artists, such as Gran Combo, Tony Pabon and his Orchestra La Protesta, El Gran Trio, Tempo 70, Joe Valle, Primitivo Santos, osé Miguel Class, Luís Valentín and Trio Los Treboles. They will also perform through Cartagena Enterprises as booking agents for the abovementioned artists. Rico is also involved in signing Grupo Candela, consisting mostly of ex-members of the Johnny Pacheco orchestra, to their label Rico. The new group is under the direction of Hector Castro.

Mercy Lopez, executive secretary of Rinel Sousa, vice president of Caytronics Corp., New York, deserves congratulations for her excellent achievements in promotion and public relations. Mercy is the daughter of our dear friend and colleague José Alfredo Lopez of Vanguardia Newspaper, New York. Our best regards! . . . Alicia Bruni, on Mate Records, is enjoying good air coverage on the east coast via "No Puedo Darte Más que mi Amor" (Hugo & Luigi-G. David Wels-Enrico) ... "Bochinche" by Cortijo and his new Combo is without any doubts a terrific cut. Coco Records is promoting it . . . Luis Felipe, formerly with Nelson y sus Estrellas, formed a new group called Don Felo. Their first single is a smash hit recently released in Colombia by Codiscos. Discolardo Records will shortly release it in the States.

"hits" ni "standards." Al nacer la canción surge el principio de todo.

Señalamos la visita del amigo Guillermo Acosta (Gas) de México, que nos ha traído su alegría. Guillermo ha visitado a todo el mundo en la industria.

La otra visita fué Aldo Pagani de Italia, que sigue en jira por países latinos, la cual terminará en Puerto Rico para el Festival de la Canción y la Voz. Pagani está muy contento ya que es el editor y productor de Astor Piazzola en las presentaciones en Brasil.

En el primer puesto de las listas de ventas un nuevo artista, Paul Denver, lanzado por Young y con un tema muy bueno titulado ''Rain and Memories.''

Grabando Nelson Ned un nuevo long playing en España. De allí saldrá para Miami, Houston y de nuevo al Brasil.

Se escucha mucho a Suely (Beverly) por radio con "Volte Aquí." Suely acaba de regresar de una excursión al norte del país donde obtuvo sonado éxito.

Johnny Mathis (CBS) abre sus presentaciones en Sao Paulo con "Dime" (Feelings).

Ya están actuando en Brasil, ager. The Audiofidelity labels that RR will be distributing are Audio Fidelity Records, BASF Records, Chiaroscuro Records, Black Lion Records, Enja Records, Thimble Records, First Component Classical Series, World Jazz Records and Audio Rarities.

Bill Halley y sus Cometas. Otro cantante que acaba de volver con la idea de quedarse en Brasil es Carlos Ramírez. Antonio Carlos y Jocafi ya no salen hacia Buenos Aires, (RCA) ya que María Creuza se encuentra grabando con ellos un nuevo album titulado "Os Grandes Mestres do Samba."

Presento la televisora Globo en su "Show Fantástico" un "Homenaje Especial a Agustín Lara." (Un saludo, Vilo Arias) donde actuaron Carlos Ramirez, con "Maria Bonita," Claudia (Odeon) con "Oración Caribe," Trio Irakitan (Odeon) con "Santa" y Caubi Peixoto (RCA) con Granada.

El autor Clayton, conocido por sus canciones grabadas por Antonio Marcos (Pelos Caminhos) Nilton Cesar (Amor, Amor), Paulo Sergio (Maquinas Humanas), Originais do Samba (Os Cabras de Lampiao) acaba de firmar contrato con Continental. Un "single" por este intérprete será lanzado inmediatamente al mercado. Tuvimos el placer de visitar con Clayton el continente africano cuando allí estuvimos con la cantante Carmen Silva (RCA) . . . Y por ahora . . . jesto es todo!

This is how it came about: We had a party in my flat and I asked Elton if he was interested in putting out a single and an album on Rocket Records. Elton fainted. He really wasn't aware that the records hadn't come out in America and I had already had five hit singles and two hit albums in the U.K. He asked, "what do you want to put out first?" and I told him "Laughter In The Rain." So we went to Caribou studios and Elton picked the other songs. I told him to take the royalties from the first album and put them into a promotion campaign; 1 figured that Elton's endorsement of the record would make my chances much, much better, because it's hard to get airplay when you haven't had a hit in 10 years. At the same time, we learned that somebody else was about to release a great cover of "Laughter In The Rain," which actually did come out a week or two before mine. So Johnny Musso, who was at MCA then, picked up the phone and said "Let's get this record out in seven days." Now I am the type who not only co-produces, hand-picks the musicians, writes the songs and goes through the mastering sessions, but I would also go to the factory if they didn't close the doors on me saying "Watch it, here he comes!" They mastered the record very quickly and it was very low; I'm very conscious of levels and like the record to jump out of the radio. I said "O my God, it's a flop." I called Elton, who told me not to be paranoid. He said "It's a home run." It took 16 weeks to sweat it out.

RW: How did you start writing with Phil Cody after all those years with Howie Greenfield?

Sedaka: Howie and I had been writing for 23 years or so and he wanted to write with other people. We both felt it would be healthier. The last two songs that Howie and I wrote together were written when he was moving out to California. They were sort of an au revoir. The last of them was called "Our Last Song Together"—he gave it to me as a present and I cried; I thought it was poignant and beautiful.

RW: Who do you think your audience is now—the old fans or the younger people who became aware of you only recently?

Sedaka: At last night's concert I'm happy to say that the new songs were better received than the old ones. To me, that's my greatest accomplishment over the years—reaching a new audience with new material.

RW: In some of the lyrics of "The Hungry Years" songs, there seems to be a certain bitterness . . .

Sedaka: I had three martinis one night and I wrote "Standing On The Inside" because I've been in the business for almost 20 years and I feel that I have a lot to say. So I suppose that a lot of it is autobiographical. In the case of "The Hungry Years," I find it to be one of the best Howie Greenfield lyrics ever; I think a lot of people relate to it.

RW: When you first began recording, you were among the few artists who were writing their own material. How crucial was your songwriting ability to re-establishing yourself in the business?

Sedaka: If not for the songs, I don't think I'd be here. My wife said it perfectly: "My husband might not be the greatest singer, nor the greatest writer, nor the greatest piano player. But when he puts them all together, he's the greatest;" which I thought was very nice. But if not for the songwriting, forget it.

RW: Do you watch trends in the business very closely?

Sedaka: I'm constantly listening. I buy every new McCartney album, every new Joni Mitchell, James Taylor and Elton John album that comes out. I bounce off of creative people and that's where I get my inspiration from. Then I sit at a piano five days a week, four hours a day and I write 50 songs a year. I'm a very regimented person and I've been doing it so long that it's what I know best.

RW: There are legends concerning the Aldon Music office about writers who were able to write a song each day with a specific artist in mind. How much were you influenced by that training?

Sedaka: It was definitely an education. And all those stories about the little rooms are true. When I had a few hits, I got a room with a window but it was all a matter of training then, of learning to write. It was trial and error.

RW: Do you write for any other artist these days?

Sedaka: No, I have to produce two albums a year and that's a lot. It's a lot of writing and recording. But if somebody wants to do a song from one of my albums, and they can do it as well as The Captain and Tennille, then fine.

RW: What kind of dates are now scheduled for you?

Sedaka: Well, I'm headlining for the first time in Vegas on November 6, right after an Australian tour. I'm booked through 1976. There are four nights at the Troubadour, some college dates and next year, on my birthday, March 13, I'm at Philharmonic Hall in Lincoln Center. My music is such a potpourri that I can reach a lot of different kinds of people and that's what I want to do.

RW: You seem to stay very aware of the business side of music.

Sedaka: I'm an old record man and I know that you have to stay on top of everything. I'm very aware of promotion, merchandising, pack-aging—all of that. I do have people who take care of a lot of things for me, but I oversee the whole thing because I have a big mouth and I like to yell a lot if it's not being done properly. You have to.

RW: Have you ever been interested in producing other artists?

Sedaka: I've had many offers to produce other people but I really don't have the time. Performing and doing my own things takes all of my attention, but eventually I'd like to. I give this time around another few years—if it would last five years, I'd be happy.

RW: Did you say the same thing the first time?

Sedaka: Yes, I did say that the first time around. It's usually about five years; you're lucky if it goes longer than that. 😵

It's more fun than meditation.

Jigsaw Plans Set

LOS ANGELES — Chelsea Records President Wes Farrell has announced plans for a rush-release album by Jigsaw, the Englishbased rock group whose initial single, "Sky High" is currently bulleted at 16 on The Singles Chart.

formulate a coordinated in-store program that would invite consumer involvement. Under the direction of Warners' merchandising director Adam Somers, "The Works" display materialmobiles, posters, divider cards, banners, T-shirts, together with consumer ads and radio scripts -was designed and produced. Regional marketing managers and WEA field personnel were introduced to the program last month by Warners executives who traveled from branch to branch with "The Works" film. Somers then mailed out "material requisition forms" to the sales force which ordered in-store materials for their accounts.

Country Joe: Of Whales, Fish And An Ocean View By ELIOT SEKULER

BERKELEY — It's about nine years, seventeen albums and a helluva hangover later for Country Joe McDonald, whose "Paradise With An Ocean View" album, first-born of his recently consummated Fantasy contract, is his most polished and musically sophisticated recording to date. Overdubbed strings, a horn section featuring among others, Bobby Keys, and songs that are as imaginatively constructed as any he's written have netted comments like this one from Bill Gavin: "Apparently Joe has forsaken his social commentary policy and is just making music. It's a big improvement."

Not so, says Country Joe, and he'll hand you a book and a sermon on the looming extinction of the whale species to prove it. "I'm still saying something in an industry in which people generally don't say anything," said Joe, never one to mince words. "But people used to say, 'Well yeah, we like what you're saying but there just isn't enough music to it.' The only difference is that this time, I've got the music, too." "Save The Whales," a polemic from the "Paradise" lp, had been the focus of Fantasy's merchandising and promotion efforts prior to the release of the more idvllic "Breakfast For Two" as a single. And as McDonald sees it, a campaign to save the whales in 1975 is a logical extension of the opposition raised by him and his songs against the Vietnam war and other idiocies that plagued the past decade.

So the socio-politico-etc. is still very much McDonald's concern and if this album is a slicker product, "it's because 1975 is a slicker time," according to the artist. "When we went into the studio in '65, the purpose of recording was to just reproduce sound, not to alter it. We experimented around some, but nobody was using dolbys or arps or anything like that."

Road to Fantasy

With and without his Fish, Country loe was as responsible as anybody else you might come up with for exporting the Great San Francisco Regional Breakout of the terrible '60s to a world that's been just a little bit different ever since. The Fish played for free in Haight-Ashbury, for a pittance at the old Avalon Ballroom, at the first Monterey Pop Festival and, after rock turned bigtime, they gave their infamous Fish cheer in Europe and in front of a half-million people at Woodstock. Inevitably they split, and "if you've ever been with all of them in the same room at the same time," said Joe, "you'll know why." Six solo albums, a compilation of Fish oldies and a soundtrack lp (for the Henry Miller-inspired "Quiet Days At Clichy") followed as Country Joe opted for a solo career. McDonald was more than a little bitter about his former label affiliation: "We signed at a time when everybody was having their first contact with the mainstream of the music business. It was a learning experience that just went on too long." Mc-Donald bought out of his recording contract early last summer and began shopping around for the New Deal. "I wanted a company where we could get something done on the one hand and wouldn't feel like freaks on the other. And Fantasy is also a hometown label," said McDonald, who's lived in Berkeley throughout most of his career. "We're pretty comfortable here."

The satirical "Holy Roller" song on the new album is something of a self-parody, describing the New Country Joe McDonald in exaggerated terms. "I used to be stoned on every kind of drug," confess the lyrics, "hangin' around pool halls, complaining about my luck" until religion helps clean up his act and lets "the holy light shine." "I'm trying to communicate to people that Country Joe is clean now. They won't believe it maybe, but they'll get the point after a while," said Joe. Harrowing stories accompanied that declaration. "When you get to the point when you can snort a bunch of stuff, smoke 15 joints, drink a fifth of scotch" — his memory strained for the details --- "a fifth of wine, a couple of bottles of beer, a tab of acid and still look around for something to do, it's time to change your life-style." Amen.

Things Change

A tour is now being put together for this month to consist of one-nighters in small concert venues. Country Joe won't be playing clubs, finding the atmosphere of dissipation to be repugnant. So some things do change. Another project has McDonald going into the retail side of the music business in the form of a store called The Red Star Music Company, located on an island off Washington's Puget Sound. The Red Star will sell everything musical, according to McDonald, from records to kazoos. "I can't imagine not being in the music industry in some way-I've been involved with music since I was nine years old," he said. "If I'm not recording, I'll be writing music, teaching music, or selling music. But you won't hear about my retiring."

ENGLAND

By RON McCREIGHT

■ LONDON—A busy time for London concert-goers last weekend with The Who closing their season at Wembley's Empire Pool; The Hollies headlining at the Fairfield Halls; and Sparks playing the Hammersmith Odeon. The Who have met with mixed reviews on their first British tour in three years but certainly on the closing date lived up to their "Greatest rock & roll band . . ." tag. The Hollies 'one-off' British concert played to capacity too, and they featured several of their countless top 10 songs including their biggest-ever American hit, "Long Cool Woman," as well as tracks from their forthcoming "Right On" album (Polydor). Sparks' own specialized form of entertainment also proved popular at their only London concert.

Scottish singer/comedian Billy Connolly has now achieved a total national breakthrough having previously enjoyed massive sales in certain areas and in particular his home country during the past two years. Connolly's first Polydor album, "Cop Yer Whack For This," is back in the charts and his "D.I.V.O.R.C.E." single has hit immediately and looks set for no. 1 following his most successful nationwide tour to date. Polydor is issuing a new "live" set this month, recorded at Connolly's five day season in Glasgow, titled "Get Right Intae Him," which is the obvious no. 1 Christmas album.

Procol Harum compete with themselves with two singles both issued this week—"Final Thrust" (Chrysalis), taken from their currently successful "Procol's Ninth" album, and the revived late '60's hit, "Homburg" (Fly). Another re-release comes from Charisma— Lindisfarne's classic "Lady Eleanor," while Dan McCafferty's reggaestyled treatment of Doris Troy's "Watcha Gonna Do 'Bout It" (Mountain) makes a very strong single of the week. Rory Gallagher has his first album out on Chrysalis—"Against The Grain," and Jim Capaldi, breaking with his "Love Hurts" single, offers a good set on Island titled "Short Cut Draw Blood."

Warner Brothers managing director Derek Taylor has appointed Nigel Molden as director of administration and special projects, leaving his WEA post of field promotion manager. Chris Wright makes changes too at Chrysalis, where Tony Woollcott becomes marketing director, leaving CBS, Roy Eldridge switches from marketing to a&r chief, and Steve Pritchitt goes into international marketing reporting to Des Brown (director of international operations). Allan James, Anchor 's head of promotion and publicity, has resigned to set up his own RIME Enterprises, specializing in independent promotion; Mike Regan leaves his post at Ember where he was Jeff Kruger's executive assistant; Peter Misson becomes sales administration manager at Island, being replaced by tape sales manager Malcolm Parry as assistant sales manager; and Fran Burgess joins UA as stock control manager after working in that area for CBS and Motown.

Chappell creative director Roland Rennie has concluded a joint co-publishing arrangement with Charisma's Tony Stratton-Smith involving all titles assigned to his Charisma, Mooncrest, Love, Esedla and all other affiliated companies. The new company, to be named Chappell/Charisma, will handle compositions by several Charisma artists, including Van Der Graaf Generator, String Driven Thing, Howard Werth and Refugee.

GTO has announced details of its winter campaign, which revolves around three of their top acts, Dana, Fox and the reunited Walker Brothers. Dana supports her new album, "Have A Nice Day," with several major TV shots and live dates leading up to her opening in Christmas pantomime on December 23rd at the New Theatre, Oxford. Fox follows up their first silver album with "Tails Of Illusion" and the already heavily played "Strange Ships" single. This coincides with an extensive University and concert tour which closes on December 1st with an appearance at the New Victoria Theatre. The Walker Brothers album and single, both titled "No Regrets," are produced by Scent and the album has already been previewed by top Radio One DJ Tony Blackburn as an Album Of The Week.

United Artists fronts its Christmas campaign with a revival of Laurel & Hardy. An album featuring titles from movies made between 1929 and 1937, titled "The Golden Age of Hollywood Comedy," includes a recently released single, "Trail Of The Lonesome Pine." In addition, Dr. John has been signed to the label and his debut album will be "Hollywood Be Thy Name," produced by Bob Ezrin.

Three-Part Harmony

Charlie Daniels took time out from his extensive national tour to visit the Harmony Hut in Paramus, New Jersey. of "Pictures at an Exhibition." while elsewhere there are bits from the William Tell Overture and from the same composer's Barbiere di Siviglia. At the end appears the familiar opening music from Strauss' Also Sprach Zarathustra. It is all great fun and shows an extremely clever musical mind at work.

Amid several worthy records from Deutsche Grammophon, one album should not be missed: Pinchas Zukerman and Daniel Barenboim playing all the Brahms Violin and Viola sonatas. Zukerman has a rich, throbbing tone and musicianship to burn. His performance of the First Sonata (Opus 78) was particularly interesting to this listener, who two nights before had reviewed the Russian violinist Vladimir Spivakov in the same music. By himself or in comparison, Zukerman has the sense of Brahms, the romantic strength and sensitivity that a cool, less involved reading such as the one of Spivakov does not match. Barenboim is one of the rare stars who can work in combination with someone else, but such is really required in Brahms: these sonatas were written not as showpieces for the violin but as pieces of chamber music equally significant for piano and violin. Zukerman, who seems of unlimited prodigality in both instruments, plays the viola with warmth and beauty. It is a great recording, beautifully produced.

Among the records that have been issued recently by London, one in particular has need of comment. Montserrat Caballe, who is in some ways a female and operatic Dietrich Fischer-Dieskau (she has recorded more repertory than she has ever dreamed of singing onstage, and probably more than any other singer), has put together a new series of arias for London. The record brings to the fore a serious discussion on the nature of the opera aria record. For dealers it is significant only in how the record can and should be sold. To this listener, Miss Caballe is almost totally uninvolved; in no case does she make an attempt to bring the character portrayed in the aria to the kind of stage life that she has scrapped. After listening to the completed studio tapes, GRT decided to cut the material in half and record some new material under nightclub conditions . . . New Suzanne Stevens English single is a remake of "Make Me Your Baby."

■ NEW YORK—An audience at | the Beacon Theater recently (11) revved up their rock & rolling engines for a heavy dose of rough 'n tumbling sounds when the bill featured Warner Brothers recording act Montrose, MCA rockers Black Oak Arkansas and Bearsville's own Foghat.

CONCERT REVIEW

Montrose set the heavy metal mood, interspersing selections from their recently released "Warner Bros. Presents Montrose" set with previous and more familiar material. Drummer Denny Carmassi and bassist Alan Fitzgerald held the bottom steady while Ronnie Montrose set the rockin' riffs with his guitar expertise and scruffy vocal quality.

Onto scruffier and tougher lead vocals with Black Oak's Jim Dandy out front all the way during the Southern sextet's set. Clad in white leather from the tip of his toes to the fringe of his vest (all of which he must have been poured into), Mr. Dandy danced and pranced about the stage-keeping a good portion of the audience up and gyrating for much of their well-received performance. Like Montrose, Black Oak chose a little something old and a little something new to round out their set. From their first MCA set came "Too Hot to Stop" and "Strong Enough to Be Gentle," the former a high volume rocker (as is the bulk of their material) that's rythmically exciting the latter an unusually slower paced pleaser from the boys, performed with an effective dramatic flair. "Jim Dandy to the Rescue" displayed their adeptness at macho music, with other audience pleasers including the "Hey Y'All," "Fancy Nancy," and the encore "Keep the Faith."

British musicmakers Foghat capped the evening with a heavy yet remarkably clean talent dislay. Decked out in glitter and satin, the foursome set the pace for their portion of rock with the title tune from their most recent album, "Fool For the City." They too, kept the folks in the almost sold-out theater on their feet for most of the rocking set, and enhanced the effectiveness of their performance with a strong lighting coordination. Potent bass qualities coupled with driving rhythms, smooth lead vocals and good harmonies showed the band at their best. "Slow Ride" and "My Babe" from the new set contrasted well with more wellknown selections "Honey Hush" and "I Just Wanna Make Love to You."

at her fingertips when she sings in the opera house. This may seem a severe criticism, but is it? On an aria record, does the buyer desire to find all of Mimi in the "Addio" and "Mi chiamano Mimi"? Does she imagine to recreate all of Adriana Lecouvreur in the one familiar aria? Or instead does he buy the record to hear a beautiful sound from a favorite throat? Probably without realizing what he is doing, he seeks the latter. He simply wants to hear beauty, and this Miss Caballe serves up in copious quantities. In fact, her voice has rarely seemed more effortlessly lovely. It is a testament to beautiful singing, not bel canto or verismo, but the making of sheerly beautiful sounds.

The Connoisseur Society is one of the smaller lables that almost always turns out an interesting product. In a recent release the award-winning pianist Antonio Barbosa turns his hand to the four scherzos of Chopin and two Liszt arrangements of Chopin songs, "The Maiden's Wish" and "My Joys." Barbosa's approach to the Scherzos is surprisingly hot: he makes them boil and practically becomes too percussive. Yet there is an undeniable excitement, and when he plays the softer passages all the wanted poetry is there. It is performance that cannot be treated as average; it digs into the subjective variety that defines Chopin and comes up with a fascinating rendering. Barbosa is never, fortunately, just a technician; though he has a fine technique, there is always a mind at work.

A few weeks ago RCA's new Gold Seal series was discussed. Mention incorrectly was made of the recording of Fritz Reiner's reading of the "Eroica." Maybe it was wishful thinking; RCA has not reissued the "Eroica" but a fine Brahms Third Symphony and a fascinating, highly controversial reading of Wagner by the great conductor. Also in that set of records can be found a treasured recording: "Sviatoslay Richter in Recital," playing Chopin, Ravel Rachmaninoff and Prokofiev. The selections were taken from his two 1960 recitals at Carnegie Hall and at the Mosque Theater in Newark. They not only catch moments from two of the most important debut recitals any foreign artist has given on these shores in decades, but they stand as compelling testimony to the magical pianism of Richter.

10cc Stand Out in N.Y. Gig . . .

■ NEW YORK--Mercury recording artists 10cc made a recent appearance (25) at this city's Beacon Theatre. Their dexterity, as displayed on disc after disc, drew a large and eager crowd. After all, since they've given so much musical pleasure via re-cordings, why not take advantage of that factor with a live performance? With the aid of some tapes to supplement the intricate backing heard on some of the selections, 10cc proved to be all we had previously experienced with them - tight, professional, moving and effective.

A Forceful Sound

A voice of God intro and onto some hard driving rock & roll, opening with "Silly Love" and revealing a double drumming duo that made the band even more potent and the sound more forceful. Effective lighting coordination coupled with a simultaneously fresh yet experienced quality of musicianship showed the super vocal interplay at its best. Their ability to make the transition from a heady rock intensity to a natural melodic flow was at times quite hypnotic, too. And, with Gouldman, Stewart and Creme switching lead vocal roles, one couldn't ask for more variety of style and sound.

critically acclaimed Their three-part suite "One Night In was splendidly rendered, Paris" with the drama inherent to the song expertly conveyed and the studio meticulousness (with the assistance of tapes) convincingly close to the recorded sound. A good deal of the material on the "Sheet Music" album more than verified their rock & rolling roots. The same holds true for their delivery of "I'm Not In Love" — drama-wise and the studio sound-alike quality, that is-and a falsetto from Lol Creme on "Donna" showed the '50sstyled selection in unique 10cc form.

Preview New Single

The encore included "The Film of My Life," their new single "Art for Art's Sake (Money for God's Sake)" and "Rubber Bullets." The single showed both their strength as musicians and their ability to produce viable selections, and will no doubt soon accumulate lots of exposure on the airwaves. The show, all in all, amply displayed 10cc's strong sense of style, musicianship and professionalism. It's taken them a long time to get to the top, but rest assured that it's a place where they're destined to stay for a long time as well.

Dr. John Cures What Ails 'Em

■ LOS ANGELES—Being a musical symbol of, say, Asbury Park may be one thing, but to represent a city like New Orleans—the town that served as mid-wife to contemporary music — is very much a horse of another color. But Dr. John (UA) by now has become just an institution. To the rock audience, his name is as synonymous with New Orleans as gumbo, the Mardi Gras and that creole-speaking hooker we heard so much about last year.

Transformations

Dr. John has undergone several transformations since his music was first committed to vinyl. We've seen him as the spokesman for obscure cajun medicinal traditions, as the more mainstream purveyor of top 10 singles ("Right Place" et al) and in more recent times, as the master of ceremonies of his very own personal Mardi Gras. This new and improved Dr. John, the one who showcased his first UA album, "Hollywood Be Thy Name," at the Roxy recently, is minus the feathers and plumes but as unruffled and as energetic a performer as ever, and that's saying some.

Always big on large ensembles, Dr. John had a stageful of very competent musical help on hand for the set and allowed his players plenty of room for individual showcases. So sandwiched be-

. . and Festivities

Mercury recording artists 10cc recently embarked on their first major headlining tour of the U.S. which began in New York at the Beacon Theater October 25 and will wind up in Boston December 6. Pictured, top row, from left: 10cc members Graham Gouldman, Kevin Godley. and Eric Stewart with Ric Dixon of 10cc's management; Reinhard H. tween the Doctor's own melodic rasping of such songs as the selfdescriptive "Reggae Doctor" and the r&b-inflected "Back By The River" were musical interludes by his back-up girls, the Creolettes, a gospel-tinged bit by sideman Alvin Robinson and some spotlighted passages by guest keyboardist Ronnie Barron. A master showman, the Doctor employed musical variety as an old vaudevillian might have done, building excitement by keeping the eyes and the ears of the audience constantly moving.

Musically, Dr. John seems to be leaning more and more toward a personalized brand of rhythm and blues, as was especially evident in a rendition of the title cut from his new lp, and in a thumping version of "Wang Dang Doodle." An encore treatment of Leadbelly's "Mama Don't 'Low" (featuring some of yer better bass work by Julius Farmer) was a perfect nightcap to a very excellent Dr. John extravaganza

Gentle Giant Keeps 'Em Jumping With High Calibre Musicianship

■ NEW YORK — With Gentle Giant's (Capitol) current tour and the release of "Free Hand," their sixth album, the British quintet has firmly established itself among the forerunners of progressive music.

The group, which opened a midnight concert at the Academy of Music last November and promptly proceeded to overshadow the headlining act, recently made a triumphant return to that venue (11) before another amazingly receptive audience.

Introduced by a tape of electronic sounds, the group, one of Britain's best kept secrets for years, went on to display a wide range of influences from baroque to rock. In between, their feats of pyrotechnic virtuosity included a stab at a madrigal chorus, a strong leaning toward jazz, and an underlining sense of folk stylings.

This is accomplished through the high calibre of musicianship among the five members, who between them manage to play at least three instruments each, including electric and acoustic guitars, bass, vibes, cello, violin, trumpet, recorder, keyboards and all manner of percussion.

The focal point of the group is vocalist Derek Shulman, whose madcap gesticulations are reminiscent of lan Anderson. He led the group through expanded versions of their album material, the highlight being the title track from their "In A Glass House" lp (one of this country's most consistent import items, as the group's previous label saw it unsuitable for release here) which involved a complex and precise instrumental exchange before building to the main theme.

Another highlight of the evening was the group's version of "On Reflection" "from "Free Hand," which has been re-arranged and extended for this tour to include a segment that featured a quartet of xylophone, violin, cello and recorder.

As precise and musically accomplished as Gentle Giant can get through the course of a performance, darting through dissonant sections and unorthodox time signatures, their sound never approaches the somewhat sterile, carbon copy routines of several of England's so-called progressive bands. Gentle Giant merge with a sense of the daring to their arrangements and pull it off with the flair and panache of a group on the rise. And their future continues to look brighter than ever. Barry Taylor

Allmans Cook with Southern Style

■ LOS ANGELES—The kings of southern rock, the Allman Brothers Band (Capricorn) recently startled a capacity Forum crowd with its instrumental virtuosity, and showed once again why they are probably the most imitated rock group on the scene today.

The fluid and highly imaginative guitar playing of Richard Betts was an obvious focal point of the show, and—as the group's new "Win, Lose Or Draw" lp also shows—Betts has taken an even greater role in the Allmans' musical direction. He is now fully assimilated into the band, and finally free of the once-inevitable comparisons to the late, great Duane Allman.

Betts Emerges

As a result of Betts' emergence as singer/songwriter, the spotlight has shifted away, somewhat, from Greg Allman—whose distinctive blues-steeped vocals have always been an ABB hallmark. His new co-starring role, however, seems to suit him fine, as some of the creative pressures are off his shoulder.

The extended instrumental pieces, "Jessica" and "High Falls," cooked savagely, as much because they were well conceived as because they were expertly played. And Betts' country-rockers, "Ramblin' Man" and the similarly constructed "Louisiana Lou," were given a crisp, clean performance.

On "Can't Lose What You Never Had," Allman's singing was exemplary—the vocal was emotional, but resisted lapsing into melancholy, as had sometimes been the case in the past.

In turn, pianist Chuck Leavell was excellent, as were Lamar Williams on bass, Butch Trucks and Jaimoe on assorted percussion.

Elvin Bishop (Capricorn) was a perfect opening act for this show.

Vogue Adds Andron

According to the company's vice president, Dean Kay, singer-songwriter Jamison Andron has signed an exclusive artist and writer's agreement with Vogue Productions. Andron, who is currently in the process of recording his first Ip, is represented by Bart Levy and Associates. Shown in the above photo are, from left, Kim Espy of Vogue Productions, Andron, Evan Archerd, also of Vogue, and Stan Milander of Bart Levy and Associates.

His music, also southern-fried, is a little on the lighter "Let's have some fun" side, and his performance is always certain to win him new friends. "Struttin' My Stuff," the title tune from Elvin's forthcoming lp, and the zany current single, "Calling All Cows," were both delights, as were the steamy double leads by Elvin and his sidekick Johnny Vernazza.

A new vocalist, Mickey Thomas, is a welcome addition to Bishop's talented circle of friends.

Mercury Moves Into Reggae

■ CHICAGO — Phonogram, Inc./ Mercury Records moves into the reggae field this month with the release of the new Roy C. album, which has four tracks recorded at Dynamic Sound Studio in Jamaica.

December will see three more Mercury reggae albums. Byron Lee and the Dragonairs Ip, "Disco Reggae," will feature several Jamaican hits, plus reggae interpretations of pop hits. Greyhound, a Jamaican group, arrives with "Leave The Reggae To Us" and "G. T. Moore" marks the U. S. debut of this British, white reggae artist.

Mora To Tour Japanese Clubs

■ LOS ANGELES—Columbia recording artist Silvia Mora has been scheduled for a club tour of Japan beginning December 3 and continuing for three weeks. Cities included on the itinerary are Tokyo, Kyoto, Osaka and Nagoya.

Ms. Mora's most recent single on Columbia Records is titled "Fool."

CBS Names Three to Nashville Posts

NASHVILLE—Tony Martell, vice president, marketing, CBS Records Nashville, has announced three appointments as part of what is described as a major build-up of the company's Nashville operations. Joe Casey has been named associate director, sales and promotion, Columbia Records; Roy Wunsch will serve in the same capacity for Epic and CBS Custom Labels; and Gene Ferguson has been named manager, artist development, CBS Records Nashville. All three men will report directly to Martell and will be based in Nashville.

Prior to these appointments, Wunsch was sales and promotion manager, Epic and CBS Custom

Columbia, Nelson Firm Prod. Pact

■ NASHVILLE — The agreement between Lone Star Records and Columbia (RW, October 18), has been formally announced by Bruce Lundvall, vice president and general manager, Columbia Records. The announcement was made in Houston, Texas, October 31 at a press party just before Willie Nelson performed at a "Halloween Party" there.

The future product will be released on the Columbia label with the Lone Star logo with initial releases by Milton Carroll and Bill Callery, both singles, and a gospel album by Nelson entitled "Troublemaker" in January.

Following the release of Nelson's next single on Columbia, all future releases by him will be on the Columbia label with the Lone Star logo.

The agreement reached is basically a production agreement with Willie Nelson responsible for the acquisition and signing of talent. Neil Reshen, Nelson's manager, is vice president of the venture and the label's offices will be located at 50 West 57th Street in New York. Labels, Nashville; Casey was regional promotion manager, Columbia Records, Atlanta, and Ferguson was promotion manager, Columbia Records, Nashville.

The responsibilities of Casey and Wunsch will include coordinating sales and promotion of country product for their respective labels, working closely with regional promotion and branch managers, regional directors and accounts. Ferguson will be involved in all phases of development, planning artist artist tours and support. He will work together with the artist and management to formulate programs designed to further the artist's career through personal appearances.

The move is being made to expand CBS Records' penetration of the country music market by having artist and sales and promotion staff where most of the product is generated. Along with the art and publicity department of CBS Records' Nashville facilities, these new appointments will form the core of an effort to strengthen the company's leadership in the country music field.

Audrey Williams Dies

■ NASHVILLE—Audrey Williams, widow of Hall of Famer Hank Williams, died in Nashville last week. Her body was found in the bedroom of the house where she and Hank lived, on Tuesday, Nov. 4, by her personal secretary. She was 52.

Mrs. Williams had been in poor health recently as well as beset by numerous personal problems, including the injury of her son, Hank Williams, Jr. recently and a law suit that has given partial rights to Williams' royalties to Billie Jean Berlin, who was his common law wife at the time of his death in 1953.

Mrs. Williams will be buried in Montgomery, Ala., where her former husband Hank is interred.

NASHVILLE REPERT

By RED O'DONNELL

■ Tanya Tucker (17) suffered minor facial abrasions and a slight concussion when a foreign sports car she was driving left the road and flip-flopped a couple of times. "A flip side accident," she later quipped... But the news isn't all on the bad side: Charlie Rich and his wife, Margaret Ann, reconciled. They had been separated for almost a month —and Mrs. Rich reportedly had filed for divorce. Charlie is okay now, after several weeks rest, and was scheduled to resume his career the past weekend with a three-day engagement at the San Carlos (Cal.) Theater-in-the-Round.

Getting back to Tanya: I had visited her at the Tuckers' recently purchased 200-acre farm outside Nashville, two days before the automobile mishap. The fresh-faced Tanya—much prettier in person than in pictures—had said that she collects T-shirts. "It's not a hobby, just a pastime," she explained. "I must have dozens of the shirts. All with names of entertainers or acts printed on the front or back. Performers or record companies, bookers, promoters, agents, etc. hear that I'm a collector and send them to me. I got several the other day from Mick Jagger."

I've been studying the Record World country singles chart and have come to the conclusion that Waylon Jennings and Jessi Colter, as of now, are the most successful man-and-wife singing-writing team in the entertainment business. Waylon has "Are You Sure Hank Done It This Way?" and Jessi "What Happened to Blue Eyes?" competing for the no. 1 position. It's been happening like this for almost a year now. "They work 23½ hours a day," I was told.

Prediction: Before the snow flies in Tennessee, Loretta Lynn's "When the Tingle Becomes A Chill" will be a red hot record. It's amazing how she keeps coming up with best-sellers, matter not if they are ballads or novelty songs. She's the Pete Rose of the music biz. A new girl on the scene: C.C. Weather. Records for the Mako label.

A new girl on the scene: C.C. Weather. Records for the Mako label. Does the "C.C." stand for Clear Cloudy or Cloudy Clear? Weatherwise, that am.

Bigger-than-life Kenny Price doesn't hide from his fans. Publisherwriter Ray Tarter says Kenny has a sign in front of his northern Kentucky home that reads: "The Prices Are Right Here." Tarter also says that Kenny's steel guitarist on Cincinnati's Hayride TV program—Chuck Rich—also lives in northern Kentucky and a line on his mailbox reads: "The Rich People Live Here"... Connie Smith winged to Amsterdam, Holland to host and perform on a gospel music television special. Connie, now managed by Billy Deaton, is going public again. She'll start making personal appearances pronto.

Hee Haw back on the CBS-TV network? Well, four members of the cast for one show, anyhow. Buck Owens, Junior Samples, Gordy Tapp and Lulu Roman will be in Hollywood the early part of December to tape an appearance on the Tony Orlando and Dawn program, tentatively scheduled for airing Dec. 17 . . . Jimmy Dean, here to promote the sale of his sausage and pigskin products, said he intended to return to performing. "I'm tired sitting around," he admitted, "and frankly I miss that spotlight and the roar—even the boos—of the (Continued on page 59)

'River' Radio Promo Scores for Taylor

■ NASHVILLE—Warner Bros. artist Chip Taylor's recording of "Big River" was the recent subject of a radio promotion for WSLR (Akron).

The contest, conceived by WSLR MD Bob Fuller and Warner Bros. regional marketing manager for Cleveland, Al Frontera, required listeners to mail postcards guessing the name of the river Chip Taylor was singing of in the record. All cards submitted with the river, "Mississippi," were placed in a hopper, one card drawn and the winner received an all-expense paid vacation for two to Nashville during WSM/CMA convention week.

The "Big River" winners were Mildred and Carl Hughes of Doylestown, Ohio.

BOOK REVIEW

Clower Power Prevails In 'Ain't God Good'

■ NASHVILLE — MCA comedian Jerry Clower, who has made a second career for himself telling funny stories after spending the first part of his life as a successful fertilizer salesman, has written a book about his life entitled "Ain't God Good!" (Word).

Religious Theme

The book not only tells of Clower's life and show business career, but has a strong religious vein throughout as Clower attributes all his success and good fortune to his strong religious beliefs. The book is actualy more "talked" than written, as Clower tells a number of funny stories, incidents and events as well as bringing forth his religious philosophy.

The book is interesting and gives an insight into a man who has made a successful career out of doing what he loves to do more than anything in the world —talking. And Clower is certainly inspired and inspiring to readers in his stated beliefs that always manage to appear whenever he speaks.

Finally, Clower brings an approach to show business that is not only Christian, but unique from someone who grew up and spent most of his life outside the realm of "show biz." His insights there are most refreshing.

Gov. Ray Blanton Honored by MASCMA

■ BELTSVILLE, MD. — Governor Ray Blanton of Tennessee recently became the second Governor to be installed as an honorary member of the Mid Atlantic States Country Music Association. Francis Gosman, chairman of the board and president of CSA Records, made the presentation at the State House in Nashville. Maryland's Governor Marvin Mandel received that honor last year at the MASCMA Hall of Fame in Beltsville, Maryland.

Governor Blanton, former Representative for the state of Tennessee, was a resident of Tantallen, Maryland during his term in Congress.

UA Signs Rogers

"Love Lifted Me," Rogers' debut UA single, produced by Butler, will be released shortly.

Tour

Rogers, who recently made his United Artists debut with a surprise appearance at UA's country show during CMA week in Nashville, is currently on tour with The First Edition, with appearances upcoming in Phoenix, Arizona, and Tahoe and Reno, Nevada.

The next time you have a chance to talk to Craig Scott at Plough, ask him about his WJJD "security leak"-funny story . . . C.E. Hooper, long thought by many to be the most accurate of the surveys in that it is an immediate coincidental, but one that has never really been accepted by the agency gnomes, shows some pretty good numbers for KBOX (Dallas), WMAQ (Chicago) and KENR (Houston) . . . If you do some interviewing or on-air discussion with the stars and you are looking for a man that has no compunction about stating his views about what country music is and where it's going, set up a chat with Doyle Wilburn of the Wilburn Brothers. Over the months we've heard from a number of airfolk who complain about artists who won't state an opinion or don't have anything to say that has value. Try this one; he's a good interview. Reach him through the Wil-Helm Agency in Nashville. One incredibly honest remark he made last week: "The Wilburn Brothers probably have less vocal talent than most in Nashville, but we've been lucky, the fans have accepted us and we stick to what we believe in and do best." Refreshing and interesting.

If you're really into country music and enjoy historical commentary, if you want to learn something about the music that pays your bills, a ten dollar investment for a book called "Country Music Stars, USA" will be one of the best you'll make. Edited by Professor Bill Malone and Judith McCulloh, it is available from the University of Illinois Press. I've got 40 or 50 books scattered around the place that deal with country music, but this new one is by far the best yet—$10.00—University of Illinois Press. Bill Malone is also a great interview. You can reach him through Tulane University in New Orleans. The Professor is one of the few cerebral folk that you can get down with and understand what he's talking about—has his own bluegrass group and is a good dude.

"Whispering" Bill Anderson will probably soon realize one of his fondest dreams. He'll more than likely become a radio station owner within the next few weeks—place and station later. Anderson was one of the happier people at the convention when his long-time friend and mentor, Hubert Long, was posthumously honored with the Connie B. Gay Founding Presidents Award from the CMA . . . Timothy Adams, formerly of WJJD/WEEP, is looking; phone: (616) 455-2308 . . . KERE (Denver) needs a personality, male or female . . . KIOV (Sioux Falls) needs two full-time folk with a minimum of two years experience.

Hap Hansen, WPTF (Raleigh), mentioning he welcomes artist calls for interviews . . . There is a new 101 cut acapella package that will be marketed shortly by Jody Lyons Productions of Dallas, and the price is better than right . . . Tom Miller of WCAW (Charleston, W. Va.) is looking for a pair—a news man and a PM jock . . . Buddy Ray of WWVA (Wheeling) and I will be doing a two station remote from a truck-stop in Knoxville during mid-November . . . Mike Moyes at KACE (San Bernardino) is looking for some first phone types . . . Jim Brady MD'ing at WHK (Cleveland).

COUNTRY ALBUM PICKS

LOVE IS THE TEACHER LINDA HARGROVE—Capitol ST-11463

"I Wanna Do It Right The First Time," "Close the Door" and "Save The Children" are prime examples of the writing and singing talent of Linda Hargrove—one of the leading spokeswomen for a whole generation and genre of country fans. The blue jean country queen is a lady's outlaw —and a major talent on the horizon.

RED HOT PICKER

JERRY REED—RCA APL1-1226 The best way to describe Jerry Reed's

music is "funtry"—funky and country. Like a good pitcher, he mixes his delivery well with some funny numbers, story songs, some beautiful love songs and some redhot picking. Special cuts are "The Coin Machine," "The Boogie King," "Papa's Knee" and "You Got A Lock on Me."

UNCOMMONLY GOOD COUNTRY DAVE DUDLEY—United Artists UA-LA512-G

The title of this album says it all as the truck driver's favorite singer belts out some fine country songs. Best are "Me and Ole C.B.," "Wave At 'Em Billy Boy," "That's How Cold" and "Where Did All The Cowboys Go?" Side one is labelled "uppers" and side two labelled "downers" to fit all moods. Truck on!

FLYING AGAIN

THE FLYING BURRITO BROTHERS—Columbia PC 33817

One of the original groundbreakers in the area of "progressive country," the Flying Burrito Brothers were into country rock in the '60s. Coming back after a rest from the business for awhile, this album will attract both country and pop fans. Best cuts are "Wind and Rain," "You Left The Water Running," "Why Baby Why" and "Bon Soir Blues." Welcome back Burritos!

crowd." Readers of RW may recall that Jimmy D. firmly stated last year that he was retiring from show biz to devote his entire time to his sausage-selling and fishing with his son and ejoying the new home he had bought in South Carolina.

Birthdaying: Donna Fargo, Onie Wheeler, Barbara Fairchild, Van Trevor, Top Billing's Delores Smiley.

Johnny Cash, who, on advice of his physician, canceled an Oct. 13 appearance at a White House dinner by President and Mrs. Ford for Anwar Sadat, president of Egypt, is still resting at his home-awayfrom-home in Jamaica. (Wife June and their son John Carter are there, too.) I'm told that Cash and his act will resume performing next Monday when they open at the Music Theater in Silver Springs, Md. for a week.

A month or so ago I was told that Sterling Whipple had signed songwriting contract with Tree Music. I asked, "What is a Sterling Whipple?" Well, I've found out. Young Mr. Whipple-he's only 20wrote a sad, sad song, "The Blind Man in the Bleachers," and it is breaking big in the U.S. and overseas, thanks to a country version by Kenny Starr and a pop cut by David Geddes. Incidentally, Whipple is a member of the Mormon faith.

John Hartford was in the past weekend for a recording session at Sound Shop studio . . . Cal Smith just organized his own band. He calls it Country Bumpkin. He's also formed a publishing company with Don Wayne. It too is called Country Bumpkin. Yes, Don is a writer and Cal the recorder of the 1974 hit "Country Bumpkin" . . . I hear that Burt Reynolds summoned Bobby Goldsboro to Savannah to write a love song for his "Gator" movie, filming in that area of Gawga. Uh huh, Burt is going to sing it in the picture. C&W publisher Jim Pelton asks: "Did you hear about the booking agent who didn't know whether to hire Kenny Price or Ray Price? It finally boiled down to money and was decided by which Price was right."

When Danny Davis' son Kerry and Trish McCullough were wed this past Friday night at Christ the King Church in Nashville, the Nashville Brass leader performed "Amazing Grace" on his trumpet during the pre-nuptials ceremony.

"Jimmy," a new Warner Bros. single, is a song about missing labor leader James Hoffa. It was written by singer-writer Bob O'Donnell, formerly of Utica, N.Y., and Nashville Police-Detective Capt. Paul Godsey-and recorded by O'Donnell. (Red's note: O'Donnell is not related to this column-writing O'Donnell. At least he doesn't claim any kin!)
