PICKS OF THE WEEK

SINGLES

ARETHA FRANKLIN, "BRIDGE OVER TROUBLED WATER" (Charing Cross, BMI). Look for this teaming of Lady Soul with Grammy-winning material in the top 10 in short order. Flip makes this a double-sided smash. B/w "Brand New Me" (Assorted-Parabut, BMI). Atlantic 45-2796.

SLEEPERS

C COMPANY FEATURING TERRY NELSON, "BATTLE HYMN OF LT. CALLEY" (Shelby Singleton/Quickit, BMI). Here's a timely single. Cut is an up-dated version of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," and anyone who reads the front pages can be expected to take an interest. Plantation PL 73 (SSS).

ALBUMS

JOHN MAYALL, "BACK TO THE ROOTS." John Mayall has called a reunion of former Mayall sidemen for this funky package. Performing are Johnny Almond, Eric Clapton, Sugarcane Harris, Keef Hartley, Paul Lagos, Harvey Mandel, Jerry McGee, Mick Taylor, Larry Taylor and Steve Thompson. Polydor 25-3002.

NITTY GRITTY DIRT BAND, "HOUSE AT POOH CORNER" (Pamco, BMI). Follow to "Mr. Bojangles" smash will follow to top of pops. Sound slightly harder this time out but nice as ever. Based on a story by A. A. Milne. B/w "Travelin' Mood." United Artists 50769.

SWAMP DOGG, "CREEPING AWAY" (Jerry Williams, BMI). Swamp Dogg, a.k.a. Jerry Williams, makes his label single bow an auspicious one. Strong r&b delivery merits pop crossover. Watch it catch on. All right! B/w "Do You Believe" (Jerry Williams, BMI). Elektra 45721.

JERRY REED, "WHEN YOU'RE HOT, YOU'RE HOT." The title tells the story. Jerry Reed, who's hot and therefore hot, reprises his "Amos Moses" single and has fun with a number of other songs. He also plays it straight for a few attractive tunes. Clicko. RCA LSP 4506.

JOE SIMON, "TO LAY DOWN BESIDE YOU" (Cape-Ann, BMI). "Chokin' Kind" Grammy winner some years back hit big last time out with "Your Turn to Cry." Will repeat pop and top 40 with this one. B/w "Help Me Make It Through the Night" (Combine, BMI). Spring SPR 113 (Polydor).

SHA NA NA "ONLY ONE SONG" (Kama Sutra/Scottarina, BMI). Rock revivalists go modern with lovely melody, big production. Ideal single has pop sound that rings true, produced by Electric Lady's Eddie Kramer. Check it out. Kama Sutra KA 522 (Buddah).

JAMES GANG, "THIRDS." The James Gang has produced an eclectic package that's their best to date. Pick a cut, and it's a potential single smash. All members contribute a melody or two and play and sing as if they mean big business. They do. ABC ABCX 721.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF MAN, "REACH OUT YOUR HAND" (Burlington-Hiller, ASCAP). Tune and delivery remarkably reminiscent of the Four Tops favorite of a similar title. Crisp, tight sound with brass deserves to hit again. Can't miss. Deram 45-85073 (London).

PAUL ANKA, "WHY ARE YOU LEANING ON ME SIR" (Spanka, BMI). Artist has kept active over the years writing hit tunes for others. Has come up with one for himself here. An inspirational return. B/w "You're Some Kind of Friend" (Spanka, BMI). Barnaby 2027 (CBS).

MOTT THE HOOPLE, "WILDLIFE." Mott the Hoople seem to be working out all right. The fellows inject a great bittersweetness into their music, and the distinctive sound could keep the fans lining up for quite a while. All but Melanie's "Lay Down" is original. Atlantic 8284.

Youthful Consumer Leading Way To Dealer Re-emergence, Say Execs

By DAVE FINKLE and RON BARON

■ In analyzing the around-the-hotel banter at the recent NARM convention, Record World observed that a consensus felt the dealer—both independent and chain-operated—is re-emerging as a forceful sales factor after a long period of languishing in the shadow of rack outlets.

Everybody was talking then; but, in following up the story, Record World found that traders were less anxious to talk officially, usually because they feared provoking rack jobbers or because they suspected that their quotes might tend to over-emphasize a trend they feel is not all-pervasive.

No one Record World contacted, however, denied the situation exists.

The indication is that something is happening, but not strongly enough yet for the industry to speak out openly.

Among those who responded emphatically were Dave Glew, Vice President and Director of Atlantic, who said: "It's true, the dealer is re-emerging, and the reason is that many retail stores are staffed by hip kids who can talk. Every major city has an important retailer now, and the reason is that kids want service. When there's a hit, kids start looking for the entire catalog and the retailer can stock the whole catalog. And, of course, we're interested in catalog. When an artist is hot, we must sell the catalog. Stores are attractive and the dealers know they don't have to give records away. We can really feel the trend. It started with the kids, but adults are going too. The only problem will be if there are too many."

Harold Coston, National

Sales Director of Invictus Records, opined: "In five years, dealers will have a dominant influence over the industry, because they are chain-operated, which gives the added emphasis of regional marketing and consumer orientation. However, the total effect will not be felt for about five years."

Russ Reagan, Vice President and General Manager of Uni, said: "The more outlets the better for the entire industry. It can only add to the health of the record business economy. Dealers serve a better sounding board for hit record business economy. Racks are still filling the need and serving the purpose for which they were designed."

Rocco Catena, Vice President of Merchandising of Capitol, reported: "Although racks and the new dealers both have their place and serve different needs, the dealers serve a definite purpose for the retail customer. Dealers are concerned with the 'shopping environment'. Atmosphere is conducive to browsing and shopping; the young customer knows he can find a greater variety and the young personnel in the stores share the same interests as the young customer and help make the shopping experience a pleasant one. Listening to and buying records is a unique shopping experience and the new stores make more pleasant in contrast to the cold discount store."

Jac Holzman, President of Elektra, said: "I'm getting tired of walking into record stores and finding that the customers know far more about music than the sales personnel. That's one of the chief things that's wrong with most current dealer operations. There's no question that the record busi-

Solo Artists Score On Charts

■ Solo artists, for the first time in many years, hold the top three places on the singles charts this week.

They are in order, Tom Jones with "She's a Lady" (Parrot); Marvin Gaye with "What's Going On" (Tamla); and the late Janis Joplin with "Me and Bobby McGee" (Columbia).

Three Others in Top 10

In addition there are three other solo performers in the top 10.

They are Andy Williams with "Love Story" (also Columbia) at 5; Sammi Smith with "Help Me Make It Through the Night" (Mega) at 7; and Paul McCartney with "Another Day" and "Oh Woman, Oh Why?" (Apple) at 9.

The successes of these records would seem to corroborate the findings of those who say the trends in music these days are toward solo performers and a softer sound.

Record World Story Aid Towards Legislation

■ In "Dialogue" of March 20, Record World pinpointed the need for stronger copyright legislation by interviewing a tape duplicator who admitted he simply taped material he bought in a record shop.

That same week RIAA gave its annual dinner in Washington which is attended by numerous senators and congressmen. It was brought to our attention by several record industry leaders that reprints of this article were given to key legislators including members of the Judiciary Committee and played a significant role in bringing this problem to their attention.

Record World is proud of the type of journalism we are providing this industry and we are equally proud of the industry's response.

Limited Copyright Disc Bill Introduced

■ Representative Richard Fulton (D. Tenn.) has introduced a bill into the House of Representatives (H.R.6927) granting a limited copyright in sound recordings to protect them against counterfeiting and piracy.

The bill is identical to S. 646 introduced before the Senate in February by Senator John McClellan, Chairman of the Senate Subcommittee.

WJRZ Sold? Turns Rock?

■ NEWARK, N. J.—Rumor has it that Pacific and Southern Broadcasting—based in Atlanta—will announce this week the acquisition of WJRZ here.

Outfit is expected to convert the country station into a rock outlet with Dave Kroninger of WNEW-New York as new General Manager.

Lyric Influence Minimized By Narcotics Dir.

■ WASHINGTON, D. C.—The relationship between lyrics of rock songs and drug use was minimized during an interview given here last week by John E. Ingersoll, Director of the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs.

"It is too much to single out songs as a causative factor," he said. "It certainly is not the most important factor in the drug problem."

Ingersoll said that the FCC had not consulted him before issuing last month's ruling that radio stations must be supplied with all lyrics to popular songs.

Ingersoll did note that he had made several speeches recently pointing out what some new lyrics contain. "I've done this," he said, "mainly to alert parents to what their children may be hearing."

"We've had drinking songs throughout all times," he also said, and observed no one ever suggested drinking songs led to alcoholism.

"He possesses an innate sophistication for what is good and what is bad in rock music, and what will and what will not sell. Broderick Exits MCA To Go into Management

■ NEW YORK—Dick Broderick, Vice President of International for MCA Records, has announced that he is leaving the post to go into management.

At the same time Broderick, who was largely responsible for the MCA involvement in the successful rock opera "Jesus Christ Superstar," has immediately signed Orville Stoeber for management. As Broderick said, "I'm sure people reading the press announcement will say 'Orville who' but I remember the days at RCA offices when they said 'Elvis who.' Stoeber, in my judgment, is one of the most exciting vital talents in writing, singing and—for that matter—even guitar picking.

"It wasn't easy for me to make the decision to leave the international business world for the hectic frenzy of management, but Stoeber's talents are so great that I could never forgive myself if I did not take a direct personal interest in his career. He and I are particularly pleased that Orville will be released on the Uni label, the breeding place for such stars as Neil Diamond and Elton John."

Mickie Most Speaks Out

Mickie Most

(Editor's Note: With an artist list that includes the Animals, Herman's Hermits, Julie Felix, Lulu, Donovan and C.C.S., there have been few times in the last eight years that Mickie Most-produced records have not been near the top of the charts in many countries. In the U.K. his recently formed Rak label has so far had seven releases, all of which have made the top 15. The following interview with Most is the first half of a two-part dialogue to be concluded next week.)

Record World: How much of your youth did you spend in South Africa? How did you arrive in entertainment, and when did you come to Europe?

Mickie Most: I spent none of my youth in South Africa—I went there when I was 19 and came back when I was 24, I think. While in South Africa I learned to produce my own records because I was a singer, and when I returned to England I returned purely to produce and not to perform. On returning in 1962 the English music business had no direction, so I did not make a record until I discovered the Animals in the latter half of 1963.

Record World: Did you return on the strength of an offer from England, or had you come over to try your luck?

Mickie Most: Yes—to try my luck. The end of '63 was the British pop boom, so the timing was very fortunate for me.

Record World: You are regarded, admirably, as being dictatorial in your methods with artists. Is that a fair comment?

Mickie Most: Yes, it is a fair comment. I believe that if an artist trusts you with his or her future in recordings, and they ask you to function as a producer, then you really have to take a strong hand because artists whose records you are producing always see themselves quite different from the way the public does. A producer should link the public with the artist's performance.

Ingredients for Success

Record World: That partly answers the next question. You have a remarkably sustained success record. What other ingredients have contributed to it?

Mickie Most: I think people buy—I know people buy records because they are attracted by the sound, the color of the magic and nine times out of 10 those three are all in the sound.

Record World: You are outspoken about "amateur" agents and managers. Do you go so far as to record a substantial talent that is in your opinion in the wrong hands?

Mickie Most: Yes, I am outspoken about amateur agents and managers. There have been a lot of big talents that have been in the wrong hands, but they soon get into the right hands. Somebody buys them out—Tom Jones was with all sorts of people before he made it. I think they eventually do end up in the right hands. If I really believed in the artist then I would be forced to make some changes in his agents and managers—I would be forced to, if I thought they weren't the right type of agent for this particular act. To get the right manager or agent is difficult because there aren't many good ones, anyway. If I really believed in the artist I would make the changes.

Record World: Do you consciously contrive formula hits as Tony Macauley has been said to do?

Mickie Most: Yes, I do. I didn't know Tony Macauley did it specially—does he? I am not against that. Yes, I do. Not all the time—it really depends on occasions. It's timing, isn't it?

Record World: Do you, in all modesty, feel there is any connection between Lulu's absence from the charts and her dispensing with your services?

Mickie Most: I don't want to discuss Lulu if I can help it. No.

Qualities Guiding Epic Decisions

Record World: When you recently formed your own label you entered into distribution agreements with EMI for the world except North America, which you gave to Epic. What qualities in these two companies guided your decision?

Mickie Most: EMI is the best record company in the United Kingdom. I have worked with them for seven years. I have a good relationship with the management, and I believe they can press and distribute a record better and quicker than anybody else in this country. In the United States, Epic is a part of Columbia Records, and Columbia Records must be the largest record company in the United States and the most efficient, plus the fact that they get more mileage out of artists. Their roster of stars proves that. They have Stars on Columbia.

Record World: Do you think that any one American record company can claim to be strong over a wide range of product?

Mickie Most: It is only the majors you can really talk about in the USA—Columbia, RCA, Capitol. I think once again Columbia Records is the only one that gets anywhere near it. They're into country, classical, fantastic catalogue; they're into Tony Bennett, Andy Williams, they have everything covered. I would say yes, Columbia Records. I don't think any record company in America could really disagree with that.

Record World: Do you often pursue a different recording policy for the same artist in respect to the U.K. and U.S.A. and for that matter European market?

Mickie Most: I think that the U.S. is 60% of the world record sales—for me it is, anyway, so I make records mainly for America and Britain. They are a similar market—plus all other English speaking territories. Any hit I get in foreign countries is a bonus. I intend this year to make bigger markets for Rak in these European territories, but you have to work on each country. You have to go to France and advertise and find the right sound—it really drives you made to do that.

Record World: How do you compare the difficulty of breaking new artists here as opposed to America? You might comment on the attitudes to sales, returns and racking.

Mickie Most: I don't think sales or return break an artist in America or anywhere. I think the competition between American record companies is so fierce that it has forced them into punishing deals with dealers. In places like Texas I've seen hit records sell three for the price of two. One of the most difficult things in the record business is to break a new artist. There are two avenues in the record business, one the sale of records and the other the sale of artists. There are very few stars, so making a new artist into a star in England or in America is far more difficult than just having a hit record.

Record World: Can you see any economic sense in the level of product in England? I believe there were 84 singles issued within a two-week period recently.

Mickie Most: There have been 84 issued in a week. One of the main reasons for forming my own record company, Rak, was to be selective. The record industry in England is trying to cut down on releases but unfortunately somebody has to say "No" to a record being issued, and there are very few people who can qualify as judges, or want to take the responsibility.

THE GOOD WORD ON THE RAIDERS' NEW SINGLE IS SPREADING.

Top 40 and MOR stations everywhere are playing "Indian Reservation (The Lament of the Cherokee Reservation Indian)." Within a few weeks of its release, The Raiders' new single is already on the charts in Miami, Kansas City, Phoenix, Denver, Roanoke, Augusta, Montgomery, and Shreveport. And it's also on the air in Baltimore, Indianapolis, Omaha, Erie and Seattle.

Which is exactly why Bill Gavin picked "Indian Reservation" for "strongest regional chart action" last week.

And why Record World's "Money Music" column noted, "We are now convinced that The Raiders on Columbia will be a smash."

So if the medium is the message, it's reading loud and clear.

The Selling of the Two-Record Set: Rod McKuen's New 'Pastorale'

Rod McKuen
On TV Location in England

By WADE ALEXANDER

General Manager,
Stanyan Records

■ The entire feel of Rod McKuen's latest album, "Pastorale," is subtle in its sound, theme and packaging. However, the promotional plan accompanying its release is a hard-hitting one.

"Pastorale" is a two-record set produced by Stanyan Records and distributed by Warner Brothers. It finds McKuen not only performing his own poetry and songs but selections by other contemporary composers as well. And, although McKuen has three classical works currently in release (two concertos and a symphony), this is the first time that his vocal performance is accompanied by a full symphony orchestra, England's Westminster Symphony.

"Pastorale" was recorded last fall in England when the composer-poet was filming six hour-long television specials for the BBC. The programs, which have since been shown in Europe and will soon be televised in America, starred McKuen and his sheepdog in various locations around the English countryside. While traveling to film the series, McKuen came up with the idea of doing a record with a "pastorale" theme — serene, gentle and flowing like the rolling hills of England he was visiting.

The package, designed by Stanyan Art Director Hy Fujita, includes a 12-page booklet of 27 photographs taken of McKuen and his animals during his stay in England. The photos not only reflect the idyllic theme of the record but also chronicle the poet's well-publicized work on behalf of humane treatment of animals. The idea of a premium booklet with an album is not a new one for McKuen. Last year, in "The Complete Sea," a deluxe boxed three-record set of the San Sebastian Strings best-selling sea trilogy, McKuen enclosed a book, "Sea Cycles," containing unpublished poetry available only with the record.

Although many listeners first became acquainted with Rod McKuen on record through his collaboration with Anita Kerr on the San Sebastian Strings series of spoken word albums, his career as a solo artist has even eclipsed his success with Miss Kerr. McKuen is not only America's best selling poet—but with over 3½ million copies of his books sold in the past three years, he is considered the fastest selling poet in all history.

The universal demand for his poetry has helped his record sales and vice versa. When McKuen's poetry was read by Glenn Yarbrough on an album several years ago, the liner listed the source of the poems as a book, "Stanyan Street and Other Sorrows." In truth, McKuen had not yet even finished writing the book; but when orders for it came pouring in he sat down and wrote it, published it himself, and sold 65,000 copies from his basement before turning the publishing rights over to Random House. His career as a poet was launched by a record, and the sales of his books and records have promoted each other since.

Hardcover 'Pastorale' Via Stanyan, Random House

Therefore, next month Stanyan Books and Random House will publish a hardcover book version of "Pastorale" consisting of material from the album.

This giftbook will be racked—as are all Stanyan/Random House gift books—in specially designed bookracks placed not just in book stores but also in record shops, supermarkets, airport and train terminals, drugstores, stationery shops, florists, beauty parlors—in short, not only where one expects to buy books but also in new markets not yet tapped by conventional booksellers.

Last year a similar marketing plan was used with McKuen's album, "New Ballads." Using lyrics from the record and the same cover as the record jacket, Random House sold over 125,000 copies of a "New Ballads" book within six months. The book became one of the top dozen non-fiction sellers of the year 1970 as reported by Publisher's Weekly. Some of the poetry in the "Pastorale" album will also be contained in another new book, McKuen's "Fields of Wonder," published by Random House this week. The efforts of two powerful sales forces—Random House for books and Warner Brothers for records—will combine to gain maximum exposure for the "Pastorale" concept.

Because so many of the selections on the "Pastorale" album are over four minutes in length, McKuen has produced a special promotional "Shortcuts from Pastorale" record for radio station use. With shortened versions of 18 of the 26 songs from the original album, the single-record "Shortcuts" is being mailed by Stanyan Records to every radio station in the United States as a follow-up to regular servicing of the complete "Pastorale" by Warner Brothers.

96% of Responses Have Registered Approval

Enclosed within the sleeve of "Shortcuts" is a postcard for return by the station's music librarian to designate approval or disapproval of the "Shortcuts" idea. Thus far 96% of the responses have registered enthusiastic approval. In addition, the liner of "Shortcuts" offers to stations copies of other McKuen Stanyan/Warner Brothers releases that may not be in their libraries. This has renewed interest in airplay for both old as well as new McKuen product, and many stations report scheduling hour-specials devoted exclusively to the work of the poet.

McKuen to Hit The College Trail

Warner Brothers is backing up the airplay with double-page trade ads for "Pastorale." Advertising in major consumer magazines and leading newspapers will follow. Radio spots have already started and McKuen hits the college concert trail the middle of April to perform and promote the new release in twenty cities during his annual spring tour. A mailer heralding the tour and the new album has gone out to the 40,000 people on McKuen's personal mailing list.

After completing this tour in the middle of May, McKuen heads to England again for an extended British concert tour highlighted by a concert in London at Royal Albert Hall. In June, he is scheduled to begin another series of specials for the BBC from which may eventually come a follow-up to "Pastorale"—a new record and a new book.

A&M Holds Promo Meets

■ HOLLYWOOD — A&M Records recently held its annual promotion meetings for regional sales managers in Los Angeles, New York and Chicago, reports Harold Childs, National Promotion Director for A&M.

"The purpose of these meetings," reports Childs, "was to informally discuss with my men A&M's entire promotion operation, with special emphasis on new duties and responsibilities of the local promotion man."

Childs stressed that he is currently working on a "non-hype" image for A&M's promo-

The Road To Muscle Shoals Is Paved With Fame

A Continuing Story...

Rick Hall, Candi Staton, and Clarence Carter have picked MR. AND MRS. UNTRUE as a new single from Candi's album STAND BY YOUR MAN. Written by Toni Wine and Irwin Levine (CANDIDA, ANGEL BABY), MR. AND MRS. UNTRUE has heavy appeal to both R&B and Pop markets. It's Fame single #1478.

On the other side...Candi sings TOO HURT TO CRY by George Jackson (ONE BAD APPLE). Both sides are produced by Rick Hall, who is known as the million-seller producer for Clarence Carter's PATCHES and the Osmonds' ONE BAD APPLE.

MR. AND MRS. UNTRUE and TOO HURT TO CRY were recorded at Fame Recording Studios, where the original Muscle Shoals sound can still be found at 603 East Avalon Avenue.

Call Rick Hall at (205) 381-0801. He'll give you a single with TWO sides.

JOHNNY WINTER—Columbia 4-45368
JUMPIN' JACK FLASH (Abkco, BMI)
GOOD MORNING LITTLE SCHOOL GIRL (Arc, BMI)
 Rave-up cut from Texan's new live album adds extra energy to the Rolling Stone smash. Undergrounders already onto this one. Pop next?

KENTUCKY EXPRESS—Cream 1006

COME AND GET IT (Maclen, BMI)
 From the respective pens of Jagger, Richard, and McCartney, a medley of sorts based on the theme of acquisition. Could be.

 Columbia 4-45335
I WANT TO BE HAPPY (Warner Bros., ASCAP)

DAVID & JIMMY RUFFIN—Soul S 35082
WHEN MY LOVE HAND COMES DOWN (Jobete, BMI)
STEPPIN' ON A DREAM (Jobete, BMI)

 Premier release from Swamp Dogg's own label is a mellow soul side that marks artist as a future star. Concerns eternal triangle.

CHILLIWACK—Parrot 45-357 (London)
EVERYDAY (Felsted, BMI)

PAT BOONE AND THE MIKE CURB CONGREGATION—MGM K14242
 M.I.A./P.O.W. (Hastings, BMI)
 Inevitable combination will prove a winner with Middle America. Shades of S/Sgt. Barry Sadler? Say it ain't so, Pat.

PLAYHOUSE—Capitol P-3088
LOVE MEANS NEVER HAVING TO SAY YOU'RE SORRY (Engagement, BMI)
THE MAN WHO LAUGHED IN CHURCH (Engagement, BMI)
 Song built around title phrase was inevitable but this one stands on its own merits. New group has appeal comparable to the Carpenters. A pop natural.

CHER—Kapp K-2134
CLASSIFIED 1A (Chrismarc, BMI)
DON'T PUT IT ON ME (Chrismarc, BMI)

THE END PRODUCT—Paramount PAA-0084

 Label bows with this Maurice Gibb-penned platter. Nice arrangement plus good production equals MOR possibility.

EDWARD NELSON—Specialty 720
FREE, FREE, FREE (Greenwich, ASCAP)
PALE BLUES (Greenwich, ASCAP)
 Legendary label of Little Richard et al comes up with its likeliest pop sound in over a decade. Flip a hunk of funk.

SHOTGUN—Bell 985
YOU TOOK A SHOT AT MY HEART (BANG-BANG) (Pocket Full Of Tunes/Creative Power, BMI)
WOMAN LOVE (Pocket Full Of Tunes/Creative Power, BMI)
 Very together rock & roll by a new group which seems to own, highly commercial sounding, groove. Flip not the Gene Vincent classic.

WALDO DE LOS RIOS—United Artists 7468
MOZART SYMPHONY NO. 40 IN G MINOR K.550, 1ST MOVEMENT (Morro, BMI)
 Delightful, melodic classic will please the ear of many an easy listener. The original pop version from Spain. Nice.

THE BATTLE HYMN OF LT. CALLEY

BY: JULIAN WILSON AND JAMES M. SMITH

ONCE UPON A TIME THERE WAS A LITTLE BOY WHO WANTED TO GROW UP AND BE A SOLDIER AND SERVE HIS COUNTRY IN WHATEVER WAY HE COULD.
HE WOULD PARADE AROUND THE HOUSE WITH A SAUCE PAN ON HIS HEAD FOR A HELMET, A WOODEN SWORD IN ONE HAND, AND THE AMERICAN FLAG IN THE OTHER. AS HE GREW UP, HE PUT AWAY THE THINGS OF A CHILD BUT HE NEVER LET GO OF THE FLAG

MY NAME IS WILLIAM CALLEY. I'M A SOLDIER OF THIS LAND.
I'VE TRIED TO DO MY DUTY AND TO GAIN THE UPPER HAND . . BUT THEY'VE MADE ME OUT A VILLAIN . . THEY HAVE STAMPED ME WITH A BRAND . . . AS WE GO MARCHING ON

I'M JUST ANOTHER SOLDIER FROM THE SHORES OF U. S. A.
FORGOTTEN ON A BATTLEFIELD TEN THOUSAND MILES AWAY
WHILE LIFE GOES ON AS USUAL FROM NEW YORK TO SANTA FE . .

. . . AS WE GO MARCHING ON

I'VE SEEN MY BUDDIES AMBUSHED ON THE LEFT AND ON THE RIGHT . . AND THEIR YOUTHFUL BODIES RIDDLED BY THE BULLETS OF THE NIGHT
WHERE ALL THE RULES ARE BROKEN AND THE ONLY LAW IS MIGHT

. . . AS WE GO MARCHING ON

WHILE WE'RE FIGHTING IN THE JUNGLES, THEY WERE MARCHING IN THE STREET
WHILE WE'RE DYING IN THE RICEFIELDS, THEY WERE HELPING OUR DEFEAT
WHILE WE'RE FACING VC BULLETS, THEY WERE SOUNDING A RETREAT . . .

. . . AS WE GO MARCHING ON

WITH OUR SWEAT WE TOOK THE BUNKERS, WITH OUR TEARS WE TOOK THE PLAIN
WITH OUR BLOOD WE TOOK THE MOUNTAINS AND THEY GAVE IT BACK AGAIN
STILL, ALL OF US ARE SOLDIERS, WE'RE TOO BUSY TO COMPLAIN

. . . AS WE GO MARCHING ON

WHEN I REACH MY FINAL CAMPGROUND IN THAT LAND BEYOND THE SUN
AND THE GREAT COMMANDER ASKS ME, "DID YOU FIGHT OR DID YOU RUN?"
I'LL STAND BOTH STRAIGHT AND TALL, STRIPPED OF MEDALS, RANK AND GUN . . . AND THIS IS WHAT I'LL SAY

SIR, I FOLLOWED ALL MY ORDERS AND I DID THE BEST I COULD
IT'S HARD TO JUDGE THE ENEMY AND HARD TO TELL THE GOOD
YET THERE'S NOT A MAN AMONG US WOULD NOT HAVE UNDERSTOOD

WE TOOK THE JUNGLE VILLAGE EXACTLY LIKE THEY SAID
WE RESPONDED TO THEIR RIFLE FIRE WITH EVERYTHING WE HAD
AND WHEN THE SMOKE HAD CLEARED AWAY A HUNDRED SOULS LAY DEAD
SIR, THE SOLDIER THAT'S ALIVE IS THE ONLY ONE CAN FIGHT

THERE'S NO OTHER WAY TO WAGE A WAR WHEN THE ONLY ONE IS SIGHT
THAT YOU'RE SURE IS NOT A VC IS YOUR BUDDY ON YOUR RIGHT
WHEN ALL THE WARS ARE OVER AND THE BATTLE'S FINALLY WON

COUNT ME ONLY AS A SOLDIER WHO NEVER LEFT HIS GUN

WITH THE RIGHT TO SERVE MY COUNTRY AS THE ONLY PRIZE I'VE WON

. . . AS WE GO MARCHING ON

WHERE HAVE YOU BEEN (Wally Roker, BMI)

PEOPLE IN A HURRY (Wally Roker, BMI)

WINDOW OF MY MIND (Hill & Range, BMI)

IT'S YOU (Hill & Range, BMI)

Good-looker has been busy making movies of late. First effort for Texas-based label is a smooth MOR production. Good work.

PATTI PAGE—Mercury 73199

MAKE ME YOUR KIND OF WOMAN (Al Gallico, BMI)

MARIE FRANKLIN—Tangerine TRC-1016 (ABC)

KEEP ON KEEPING ON (Jalew/Tangerine, BMI)

THERE'S ALWAYS ROOM (Jalew/Tangerine, BMI)

Presumably Marie is no relation to the Franklin sisters (Aretha et al), but off the promise of this disc she may travel in their class someday soon.

COLD WATER FLAT—Outburst HW-104 (Mercury)

PRESTIGE SYMBOL (Outburst, BMI)

PUSH ME BABY (Outburst, BMI)

Quiet group sound packs plenty of appeal across the board. New ensemble brings fresh approach to old-style group ballad.

ANDWELLA—Dunhill D-4275

I GOT A WOMAN (Church Lane, ASCAP)

Though not to be confused with the Ray Charles standard, this one's good nonetheless. Group solidly entrenched with progressives. Top 40 next? Yes.

ARLENE HARDEN—Columbia 4-45365

JAKE JONES

Kapp KS 3648.

New Jones boys in town. This group wavers between country-rock and pop-rock on their debut package. "Breathe Deep," which sound very Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young, could make an attractive single. The guys are far from being a great departure, but they keep the spirit up.

SO THE SEEDS ARE GROWING

JOE SOUTH—Capitol ST 637.

Joe South introduces some new tunes that he or somebody will turn into big hits. He also sings a few songs by others like "United We Stand," "Drown in My Own Tears." "So the Seeds Are Growing" is a hit.

SUPER STAR

GENE PITNEY—Musicor MS 3193.

Although he doesn't make singles charts like he used to, Gene Pitney retains his success by keeping those p. a.'s coming. Here he has a collection of slick top 40 singles songs and any one of them could break him very big again. "She Lets Her Hair Down" is the only familiar one.

ROCK ON

HUMBLE PIE—A&M SP 4301.

The title tells the story. Humble Pie rocks on and on through a series of ebullient new songs. Humble Pie have been waiting to break through big, and this album could turn out to be the sesame. For those who like their rock and roll right on, this is it. Good luck here.

A LITTLE TASTE OF SOUTHERN FRIED

SOUTHERN FRIED—Mercury SR 61338.

These people don't hold back when they find a note to wail. They instill each of their numbers with a vibrancy, and in the case of "Thirty Pieces of Gold," they may have found a hot single. It's nice to hear a group give so colorfully and so unstintingly of themselves.

ENCORE!

JOSE FELICIANO—RCA LSPX 1005.

"Hi-Heel Sneakers," "Rain," "Pegao," "Susie-Q," "Wichita Lineman," "California Dreamin'," "Hitchcock Railway," "Destiny," "Nature Boy," "Malaguena," "Life is That Way," "Light My Fire." Beautifully packaged album should do well.

GOLDEN MOMENTS FROM THE SILVER SCREEN

VARIOUS ARTISTS—Harmony H 30549.

Columbia, the bees' knees getting out handsome, listenable packages by "Golden Age" silver screen folk, has up and done it again. Latest, produced by Shaun Considine for Harmony and featuring Alice, Judy, Fred, Marlene, Mae, etc., is especially comprehensive, with an added find: the rarely-heard-on-disc Betty Grable in a crystalline "I Can't Begin to Tell You." Can the trumpet soloist be . . . ?

MAMA, MAMA, LET YOUR SWEET BIRD SING
CHELSEA BEIGE—Epic E 30413.

These guys keep the beat going, but that may not be sufficient to overcome the competition these days. A couple of the sides are sparked into some sort of new melodic life, however, and the fans may find their way to them. Their playing is certainly acceptable.

MOONSET

JOE BAUER—Raccoon 3 (Warner Bros.)

Here's an album fronted by Joe Bauer, the drummer of the Youngbloods. Assisting him in the line-up of instrumentals are fellow Youngblood Banana and a few other friends. Some will find this music tasty and subtle; others will find it dull. All selections are new.

JUST AS I AM

BILL WITHERS—Sussex SXBS 7006.

Bill Withers sounds a little like José Feliciano, but not that much that it's detrimental. He writes in his own style, and that's what counts. The songs, especially "Do It Good" and "Harlem," have much to recommend them. Here's a fellow with a completely fresh package to sell.

A BRAND NEW DAY

FRANKIE LAINE—Amos AAS 7013.

Mr. Original Gritty Singer turns to some of the gritty songs of the day and does them right. This package of "Proud Mary," "Put Your Hand in the Hand," "Talk About the Good Times" ranks with the best of Frankie Laine over the years. There's a touch of Fillmore here.

FULL TIME WOMAN

ALICE STEWART—Fantasy 8403.

Unlike Alice Cooper, this is the real thing—all woman, that is. Alice Stewart writes her own songs and sings them with sweetness and determination. There are a couple of bands that could step out as singles. Alice is backed by a fair-sized group of talented rocksters, too. Should go.

IVAN THE ICE CREAM MAN

IVAN ULZ—Stanyan SR 10012.

Ivan Ulz is a new guy with a low-key way of presenting some different ideas, a couple of them revolutionary. Not all of the songs click, for one reason or another, but enough of them do to recommend this fellow. His songs are something to watch closely. On Rod McKuen's label.

THE SENSUOUS PIANO OF "D"

DICK HYMAN—Project 3 PR 5054SD.

Dick Hyman, who's been tickling the recording studio keys for many years, has arranged some recent hits for freshness and dazzle on this return to strictly the '88s after forays into organ and Moog. Good programming. "Your Song," "Bridge Over Troubled Water."

Johnson Polydor Promo Dir.

Charles Johnson

■ NEW YORK—Charles Johnson has been appointed Director, National Promotion, Polydor Records, and its affiliate labels, Sire, Blue Horizon, Spring and Event Records, announces Jerry Schoenbaum, President.

Johnson is responsible to Chuck Gregory, Director of

Yaryan Fantasy Creative Services Head

■ BERKELEY, CALIF.—Bill Yaryan has joined Fantasy Records as Creative Services Director.

Yaryan will work in the areas of publicity, print and radio advertising, as well as promotion in counter-culture media and merchandising. For the past year and a half Yaryan has been Director of West Coast Publicity for Atlantic Records. Prior to that he wrote for such publications as the Pasadena (Calif.) Star News, San Francisco Chronicle, UPI, Radio-TV Daily in New York, TV World in London and the Los Angeles Free Press.

Sahm Re-ups At Mercury

■ CHICAGO—Doug Sahm has been re-signed to an exclusive contract with Mercury Records.

Mercury President Irwin H. Steinberg said of Sahm, leader of the Sir Douglas Quintet: "Doug Sahm is an original, one of the genuine talents in music today. His abilities as a songwriter and performer are unparalleled."

Sahm recently moved from the West Coast back to San Antonio, Texas, his home town, after an absence of six years. Before leaving California, the Quintet appeared in the soon-to-be-released film, "Dealer," starring Kris Kristofferson. Besides the Quintet's performance in the film, Sahm was cast in an important acting role.

Marketing, for the planning and coordination of all promotion activities relating to both singles and album product. The national field promotion force reports to Johnson, and he is in constant contact with the national sales staff as well.

Charles came to Polydor as National Director of Album Promotion. He has worked in various aspects of the music industry for the past 28 years. For 20 of those years, he was a radio announcer on major stations in Canada and the United States, the most recent being KMPC in Hollywood. He has also been involved in personal management; and directly prior to his joining the Polydor staff, he was West Coast Promotion Manager for Certron Records.

Singleton Corp. Already Sends Lyrics

■ Enclosing lyrics with releases will be nothing new for the Shelby Singleton Corp. even though many radio stations are now making such a requirement as a result of recent FCC action.

The practice was initiated some five months ago by Buddy Blake, Vice President of the Singleton Promotion Department. Along with other unique methods of providing pertinent information about the tune and the artist, the lyrics were also included on the promotional flyer mailed with single releases.

Feeling this to be one method of augmenting and bettering quality of product, the concept will now be additionally useful in the event any lyrics might be considered in any way questionable.

Palisades Treats

■ Budget-minded visitors to Palisades Amusement Park, N. J., will have a special treat during the opening week, Saturday, April 3, through Friday, April 9.

Every day during this period, the first 1,000 persons purchasing a money-saving two-dollar discount ride book will receive as an added bonus a Pathmark-WMCA plastic shopping bag with an assortment of six name brand products. As an additional benefit, free admission will be given visitors to Palisades Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays (except holidays) with various proofs of purchases of the various products.

I CAN'T STOP LOVING YOU

EXOTIC GUITARS—Ramwood R 8085.

In the continuing series of Exotic Guitars, the accent seems to be slipping off the exotic and onto the fairly conventional. There are many out in the market who will go for these straightforward arrangements for "El Condor Pasa," "Candida," "Honey," "I Can't Stop Loving You."

MATINEE IDOL

REDD FOXX—King KS 1135.

For those who like Redd Foxx, this is the kind of album they're going to like. He tells all sorts of color and off-color jokes that keep his live audience yoking it up. His pianist never stops tickling the key and underscoring the punch lines neatly. No airplay.

BODY AND SOUL

National General NG 2002.

A couple of the cuts here really have pizzazz. The first cut, for instance, kicks things off with verve. There may be enough for the public and the programmers to find a single that'll skyrocket the package. "Easy to Be Hard" and "Stone Soul Picnic" are the familiars.

WORDS OF LOVE

JACKIE GLEASON—Capitol ST 693.

Jackie Gleason indulges in unabashed romance here. He talks-sings a marvelous collection of standards—"September Song," "For Once in My Life," "A Cottage for Sale," "I See Your Face Before Me," "Didn't We." If Jackie can get this package exposure, it could become a real sensation.

POPPER STOPPER

ISRAEL TOLBERT—

Warren STS 2038 (Stax).

This package, including "Big Leg Woman" and "Shake Your Big Hips" ought to have enough power to reach the R/B market, but may not have the steam to go much further. Most of the selections have a beat that hits the R/B par, at the very least. All new.

HEADING SOUTH... OF THE BORDER

EDMUNDO ROS—London SP 44153.

Edmundo Ros has taken tunes from the top 10 of the past few years and given them south-of-the-border arrangements of the sort that still gets airplay and some buyer interest. Smack in the middle of the contemporary sound, it isn't. "Light My Fire," "Up, Up and Away."

THE LADY LIVES

BILLIE HOLIDAY—ESP 3002.

ESP, to drum up some business, is including a sampler with this package of cuts from Lady Day, taken from radio and club gigs between 1949 and 1952. The assets are the Lady's unflagging buoyant voice and some asides she gives to radio's Art Ford and others. No new material, however.

MCA Records, Inc., Formed

■ To coincide with the mid-April start of his second year as President and the completion of the major aspects of his initial reorganization program, J. K. (Mike) Maitland announces the formation of a new legal entity—MCA Records, Inc., a subsidiary of the parent firm, MCA, Inc.

Thus, the incorporation of MCA Records formalizes the major realignments that have occurred within the company during the past 12 months. MCA Records, Inc., now oversees the production and service functions of its three totally distinct labels—Uni, Decca and Kapp Records.

"All three of our labels are completely separate record companies," Maitland said. "The fact is, they are even competing with each other—and other labels—for new artists.

"But certain functions of running a large record company can be more economically done in the mass and that is the main reason for having an umbrella unit for the labels," he said.

Product for the separate labels is produced in Los Angeles, New York, Nashville and London. Uni Records is headed by General Manager Russ Regan; Kapp by General Manager Johnny Musso; and Maitland holds the title of General Manager of Decca Records. A&R pop music head for Decca is Don Shain. Heading Decca's country music operation in Nashville is Owen Bradley.

In addition to the reorganization and streamlining program during the past year, MCA Records, Inc., has formed a new division—MCA Distribution Corp., which headquarters in New York and directs the total marketing, manufacturing and international functions for the three labels. Executive Vice President Jack Loetz heads that operation and is assisted by Tony Martell, Vice President of Marketing, and Bill Grady, Vice-President, Manufacturing.

In keeping with the reorganization and growth of the company, Maitland recently created the new post of Vice-President of Artists Acquisition and Development and named—Joe Sutton to the post as "One more step in our continuing emphasis of making our company dominantly artist oriented," Maitland said at the time.

Reorganization program also saw the formation of a new record company in Great Britain, MCA Records, Ltd., U.K. The British company, headed by Derek Everett, focuses on two main functions:

50% of the duties are devoted to overseeing the marketing and promotion of its American product through its licensee, British Decca, which has no connection with the U. S. label of the same name. Because of that name, Decca product in the U. K. is released on the MCA label. MCA's UK operation devotes the other 50% of its time toward the searching out of English talent for world release.

Columbia and 'Company' Take Major Tony Awards

Harold Prince and ASCAPer Stephen Sondheim are shown at the recent theater Tony Awards, where both were multi-honored. See story below and review at right.

■ NEW YORK—It was Columbia Records and "Company" night at the theater's annual Tony Awards last week (28).

Columbia's "Company" was cited as the best musical of the year and also won awards for its music (Stephen Sondheim), lyrics (Sondheim), book (George Furth), direction (Hal Prince, who also produced) and sets (Boris Aronson).

Helen Gallagher was awarded the best actress in a musical award and Patsy Kelly the supporting Tony, both for their performances in "No, No, Nanette." Donald Saddler also was honored for his choreography for the same show. Columbia has the cast album.

Hal Linden was awarded the best actor in a musical award and Keene Curtis the best supporting Tony, both for their performances in "The Rothschilds," which is also on Columbia. As is "Story Theater," for which Paul Sand won the best supporting actor award.

The Tony show, the 25th, was telecast over ABC network and featured songs from the 24 award-winning musicals from 1947 to the present. It included appearances by David Wayne, Nanette Fabray, Ray Walston, Florence Henderson, Alfred Drake, John Raitt, Yul Brynner, Patricia Morison, Gwen Verdon, Richard Kiley, Zero Mostel, Carol Channing, William Daniels, Robert Preston, Virginia Vestoff, Paul Lynde, Stanley Holloway, Vivian Blaine, Angela Lansbury and Lauren Bacall—the latter two having served as co-hostesses for the affair.

UA Gets 'Venetian' Soundtrack

■ United Artists Records has acquired the rights in the United States and Canada to the soundtrack from the motion picture "Anonymous Venetian," to be released in the United States in June by Allied Artists. The picture, filmed on location in Vienna and starring Florinda Bolkan and Tony Musante, will open at New York's Cinema II Theater on June 15.

The soundtrack for the love tragedy which has met with success throughout Europe, has sold over 60,000 copies in Italy alone. The main theme has been compared to the theme of the popular American film, "Love Story." The release of the soundtrack album will be timed by United Artists to coincide with the North American release of the film.

Farrell Names Crowther Director of Film, Theater & Television Production

■ NEW YORK—Wes Farrell, President of the Wes Farrell Organization, announces the appointment of Frank Crowther as Director of Film, Theater and TV Production.

A former member (1965-1969) of the White House staff, Crowther was involved in the creation of the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities. Prior to joining the Farrell Organization, Crowther was VP of Sienna Productions and Associate Producer of the NBC network TV special "Super Plastic Elastic Goggles."

Hamilton to ASCAP

■ Arthur Hamilton, Oscar nominee for Best Song, "Till

Love Touches Your Life," has been elected to a two year-term to the board of ASCAP.

STAGE REVIEW

Sondheim 'Follies' Brings On Those Talented Girls

■ NEW YORK—I hope "Follies," the lush new Stephen Sondheim musical at the Winter Garden, has a good run, because there are a number of delightful things in it that deserve to be seen, and heard. But the book by James Goldman is so banal and cumbersome that I have my doubts.

Set at the on-stage reunion party for a group of old follies girls and boys, Sondheim, Goldman and directors Harold Prince and Michael Bennett allow practically their entire cast a romp or two in the fashion of their early numbers, as well as the opportunity to express their contemporary problems in song and dance. This, in turn, allows composer-lyricist Sondheim a particular tour de force, songs written in the idioms of more than half a century. Few composers could have done as well with such an ambitious chore as Sondheim, who hits more often than he misses in "Follies."

Focusing on the dreary, clichéd marital squabbles interweaving a traveling salesman (Gene Nelson) and his flighty wife (Dorothy Collins) with an ambitious foundation head (John McMartin) and his stately, neglected spouse (Alexis Smith), the story lets Sondheim—and the audience—down. Outside of the versatile score and what the generally expert company does with it, it is hard to think of a single decent laugh in the solemn proceedings. Sometimes, though, the complicated but pretentious, old-hat alter ego staging comes precariously close to the wrong kind of laughs: the cast throughout has to sidestep other actors wandering about on stage who simultaneously represent them in their youthful follies days. At the end, some pent-up audience hoots are released when they all converge upon themselves at last like a disaster that finally has found a place to happen.

Some Wonderful Performers

But there are some wonderful performers in "Follies," notably Alexis Smith, Mary McCarty and Ethel Shutta.

Miss Smith, a glacial, non-musical staple at the talent-glutted Warner Brothers Studios in Hollywood during the '40s, rarely, if ever, has had the chance to kick the gong as she does here.

Tall, graceful, beautiful and intelligent, she is likened by one intimidated player to a queen, and the comparison is just, maybe even insufficient. As with the other three major performers, her character is basically rather unsympathetic (we know from his more totally successful "Company" how Sondheim feels about marriage), even a bit shrewish in the writing; but Miss Smith's charm and humor—like some new wonder pellet—turn bile into salt water, making her self-made-over wife ("Why did I do it? I was terrific!") an agreeably wry, sensible presence. And in the finale, when the sedate lady who once inspired both Cole Porter and George Gershwin in film biographies merely by standing alongside the same Warners piano comes on in red spangles and legs up to there to whoop it up with "The Story of Lucy and Jessie" (Lucy was juicy but wanted to be dressy; Jessie was dressy but wanted to be juicy), she is a singing-dancing-clowning revelation.

Whatever the fate of "Follies," Miss Smith in her Broadway debut seems assured at long last of an important career, if she's still interested.

Mary McCarty returns to Broadway with a triumphantly showy turn called "Who's That Woman?", leading a chorus of the principal dames in one of their old routines while their young, blindingly beaded and mirrored selves perform in unison directly behind. After the hefty Miss McCarty has rolled herself from one end of the stage to the other with remarkable ease and energy, and to great audience applause (all the world loves a fat lady, especially a dancing one), the two lines finally blend into one—the aging follies girls regaining, as it were, their youth for this one number. It is really the only time in "Follies" that the hoary device of stage alter egos works.

Ethel Shutta, as they say (but not too often lately), is alone worth the price of admission— theater prices being what they are today, conscience dictates an "almost" be added. In real life an ex-Ziegfeld Follies performer (here they are called Weismann Follies), the forthright little grey-haired

Havens Rapping Rapped

■ NEW YORK—Throw out the old saying "You get what you pay for." The overflow audience on March 26 at the Fillmore East paid to hear Richie Havens sing. For the most part they heard Richie Havens doing an endless rap.

The Stormy Forest recording artist walked out on stage and literally talked for a good 15 minutes before strumming one chord, except for an occasional tuning. The rhetoric bordered on the tedious, and the man definitely talks in circles. Even the radically pro-Havens audience grew restless.

Where was the old Havens? The Havens that grew into maturity in New York's West Village. He still retains that certain shyness, and when he's stumped on a particular word, he simply slaps himself on the head. Nervous condition, I guess.

He did sing, of course, and the raspy voice is the same as it has always been. Although he went from "High Flying Bird" to "Fire and Rain" to

"Just Like a Woman," the crowd was there to hear him sing "Freedom." After many pleas, their wishes were granted. It seemed as if I was witnessing the last fading gasps of a Woodstock Nation. I question whether they were old enough to remember Richie Havens when he was truly Richie Havens.

Bright Spot

A bright spot on the bill was the duo, Mark-Almond. Jon Mark and Johnny Almond, former back-up artists for John Mayall, are making it on their own. "The City," a cut from their latest Blue Thumb LP, featuring Almond's weepy sax, was memorable.

The high point of the evening was Jon Mark's introduction of drummer Danny Richmond. The regular percussionist for Charlie Mingus was nothing short of fantastic. The audience gave an enthusiastic standing ovation.

Reprise Gets 30 Days

■ Thirty Days Out, a four-man rock band from Massachusetts, has just been signed to the Reprise label by Mo Ostin, President of Warner/Reprise.

The group is currently in Los Angeles with manager Desmond Haughney cutting its first album, which Larry Marks is producing.

Lobo to Glickman

■ NEW YORK — Lobo, the group whose new Big Three single, "Me and You and a Dog Named Boo" is climbing the charts, has signed with Zack Glickman for personal management. Lobo is currently working on an album produced by Phil Gernhard.

Faces Re-signed at Warners

The Faces, on the charts with "Long Player," their second Warner album, have just been re-signed to the label by Exec VP Joe Smith, center. Attending the recent contractual formalities were, from left: Faces Ron Wood, Ken Jones, Rod Stewart, Joe Smith, and Faces Ronnie Lane and Ian Maclen. Group is winding a highly successful two-month tour and will return to England shortly.

Karshner Firm Adds Four

■ LOS ANGELES—Four music specialists have joined the staff of JaldiKaro Enterprises, national record promotion firm established in March by Roger Karshner upon his resignation as a Capitol Records Vice President.

Set to head operations in key locations are Frank Jaffe, Los Angeles; David Nichols, Atlanta; Don Sundeen, Dallas; and Dic Toops, Chicago. A New York position remains to be filled. Jaffe, Nichols and Sundeen are former Capitol promotion men who worked with Karshner, who spent 18 years with the label. Toops has long been active in independent promotion in the Midwest.

The JaldiKaro offices: Nichols—2049 Cedar Creek Parkway, Decatur, Ga. 30033, (404) 939-4204; Toops—65 East Oak St., Chicago, Ill. 60611, (312) 751-0354; Sundeen—8719 Woodbrook Drive, Dallas, Tex. 75231, (214) 341-6549. Jaffe, with Karshner, is at JaldiKaro here, 9229 Sunset Blvd., Suite 710, Hollywood, Calif. 90069, (213) 652-9073.

Trio in U.S. Tour

■ Emerson, Lake and Palmer, Cotillion British trio currently enjoying success with their debut album and single, "Lucky Man," have been set to tour America.

Concentrating on the East and Midwest only, the group will open their U. S. tour at the Eastown Theater, Detroit, on April 23-24.

LaRosa to Vegas

■ NEW YORK — Ken Greengrass, President of Greengrass Enterprises, Inc., announced that Julius La Rosa will take a two-week hiatus from his duties as radio personality on WNEW to appear with Don Rickles at the Sahara hotel in Las Vegas, May 11-24. La Rosa is presently recording his second album for Metromedia Records.

'Follies' Follies Score

woman who looks like she might have a delicatessen in the Bronx is an inspired contrast to her gaudier compatriots. When she comes down the inevitable staircase with the other "girls" in the introductory number, Miss Shutta might be descending IRT steps and proud of it. And she stops the show hot with her singing and strutting of the Ruby Keelerish "Broadway Baby," a stunningly endearing demonstration of pro-manship. Unfortunately, though the clamor for an encore went on for several minutes at the preview performance caught, she was chintzily permitted no further truck with her piece. The producers would be wise to permit her to protract this lovely moment—they are not that abundant in "Follies."

Miss Shutta—with her marvelously confident, flat-footed walk, legs widespread on the hoof as well as hoofing—is a trouper to the trunk born. What experience and expertise enable her to do with her single number is both a lesson to the young and an inspiration to all. She is a Broadway baby doll who deserves her own Tony to play with.

Collins Has Best Voice

Dorothy Collins probably has the best voice among the leads; but, girlishly predatory in her multiple petticoats, she often seems a cruel "inside" parody of June Allyson—serving mainly to remind me how well the one-time June Allyson could have done the role. Nelson has a nostalgic moment or two when he does his song-and-danceman stint; but McMartin is colorless in an ill-defined, disagreeable part. The plump, "also starred" Yvonne De Carlo as a sexy TV star is inadequate, too, and her pneumatic drill singing voice conveys little of the sardonic meaning in the potentially effective "I'm Still Here." The veteran Fifi D'Orsay misses with her "Ah, Paris!" solo because of unintelligibility. Sometimes the players seem to have been chosen for their roles because they are similar to those they play in life, but this has not always worked.

The dull plot and somewhat heavy-handed, over-awed, let's-be-careful-not-to-camp-it approach to bygone times and theatricals notwithstanding, there is still enough life in the "Follies" to rate a visit. Capitol Records has the original cast rights. Regardless of the fate of the production itself, the evening's cavalcade of popular musical styles as skillfully re-created by Stephen Sondheim makes it a show that should be recorded.

DIALOGUE

Record World: Is selection of material all-important in your view? Do you think a great record would usually get through, even if there is sloppy promotion by the record company, music company and agents?

Mickie Most: Every year there are one or two records issued that, if you hid them under the Empire State Building, would still become hits. Those records are freak records, and you could never run a record company or music publishing company on the one that you might get every year. The real basis with record sales comes with co-operation between the promotion and the agents and managers of the artists concerned. Most records are tough to break. On Rak in nine months we have fortunately had every release in the charts. Not one of them was easy.

Record World: You spent some time at MIDEM this year. Do these get-togethers have much value to somebody like yourself?

Mickie Most: Yes, MIDEM provides a good opportunity to gather together the people whom you never see, who are working on behalf of your product in the four corners of the world, and I am sure that gathering in Cannes in the dullest part of the English winter will always remain popular and will always have its use. No business is being done there—it's ridiculous, but nearly everybody has world deals. The most you can do is say, "This is a new song. You must listen to it."

A & M Holds Promo Meets

tion department — "unfortunately this is the role we all too frequently associate with rec- ately this is the role we all too are now doing at A&M is making the promotion man into a press relations man, a coordinator of advertising for each market he represents, and a man who has stronger interaction with retail accounts."

"The role of the A&M promotion man will now encompass all of the preceding, and will be of more benefit to the home office in this manner," he stresses.

Childs hopes to create a new perspective within the industry wherein the local promotion man will no longer be looked upon as one who simply takes records to stations. "Our men will be responsible and indis- pensible representatives of A&M, in the field," he adds.

At the meetings Childs also concentrated on promotion plans for A&M's spring releases, including the Carpen- ters, the Tijuana Brass, Burt Bacharach, Baja Marimba Band, Procol Harum, Humble Pie, Michel Colombier's "Wings," Rita Coolidge, A&M/Ode's Carole King, the Strawbs, Priscilla Coolidge Jones and a forthcoming double-album pre- miere recording.

Also participating for the first time in the regional meets were A&M's college representa- tives who work under the direc- tion of Lance Freed, Director of College Promotion.

Concludes Childs, "There is still a great deal of negative psychology associated with the words 'promotion man.' I want to eliminate this negativity, and even eventually strike that image from the books. These regional meetings with A&M personnel were the first steps in initiating these long-range plans."

Mandrill Find of Year?

■ NEW YORK—It will be a long time before I forget the evening of March 25, for it was that night that I had the extreme pleasure of seeing Mandrill.

The scene was a jam-packed Village Gate. People were literally sitting on top of one another, but I seriously doubt anyone gave thought to their inconveniences.

Mandrill is made up of seven extremely versatile musicians. First, there are the three Wilson brothers: Louis, trumpet and conga; Ric, saxophone and assorted sticks; Carlos, trombone, flute, guitar and percussion. Then we have Claude Cave, keyboards and vibes; Omar Mesa, lead guitar; Bunde Cenac, bass, and Charlie Padro, drums. They all sing and quite well, I might add.

Mandrill's music combines the percussion flavor of Santana and the horn flavor of Chicago. How's that for a parlay? Now, combine that, if you will, with honest soul and the result is nothing less than pure excitement.

They began with the LP cut "Mandrill," a strong Latin piece that featured young Carlos Wilson and his flute. The audience applauded madly. Some even found room to dance. The tempo was eased with "Symphonic Revolution," a song that preaches the theory that music is the answer and not violence. Good theory!

The set was concluded with a 15-minute version of "Rollin' On." We all clapped hands and sang along. All three cuts are included on Mandrill's first Polydor LP, simply entitled "Mandrill." If you don't have it, get it. But, to really appreciate Mandrill they must be seen live.

Congratulations are in order to all of the people at Polydor and to their managers, Sid (bring back the Beatles!) Bernstein and his partner, Billy Fields. I guess I've jumped on the Mandrill bandwagon. Why not! They might just be the find of the year.

Sylvia Syms Back Better Than Ever At Living Room

NEW YORK — The most striking local performance of the past few weeks has been Sylvia Syms' return to singing at the Living Room after an illness of several months.

Singing with supreme mastery of technique, notable insight and remarkable taste, Miss Syms showed that bookers who aren't racing to get her to Vegas and other significant niteries around the country are missing a very important trick.

Definitive Readings

The best lyricists and composers are represented in Miss Syms' repertoire, and they'd all flip out if they could hear her succession of definitive readings.

(Ring-siding the night Record World caught her act was Tony Bennett.)

By the way, the songstress who is also an actress has two unreleased films due — "The Bar" and "Scraping Bottom."

Shelley 'Coolest Hot Pants' Satire, And That's the Rub

Gladys Shelley

NEW YORK — Songwriter Gladys Shelley has come up with another hit record. This time it's "The Coolest Hot Pants," recorded on the Spiral label by Jimmy Clanton, of "Go Jimmy, Go" renown. The song, while highly topical in appeal, has an old-fashioned sound and therein lies the rub.

It seems that some radio programmers have resisted airing the record because they feel its sound is outdated. Gladys, in a conversation with Record World, admitted that her tune was old-fashioned and explained that it was intentionally so. She originally wrote the song for a Hot Pants contest at Palisades Amusement Park, N. J. Hot Pants are nothing new, she reasoned, having been all the rage in the 1920s and 1930s. Their reappearance on the fashion scene is really the result of the current nostalgia fad.

Rinky-Tink Reminiscent

Therefore, she determined to make her "Hot Pants" song highly reminiscent of the days in which the style first appeared. She wrote a "rinky-tink" type of melody to complement her lyric, in which she went for plays on words. Even in the title of the tune she juxtaposed the word "coolest" with "hot" to achieve her desired effect. The final result is one of satire, which Gladys, of course, understands is very hard to make understood, "especially today when music is very elementary and perhaps without the sense of humor it once had."

Still, "The Coolest Hot Pants" has been very well received. The song was featured on a CBS News report on the Hot Pants fashion craze. Radio stations everywhere are playing it. And soon Jimmy Clanton will open at Barney Googles here in New York to give the recorded that all-important personal push. Yet, it looks like Gladys Shelley has another hit on her hands.

Editor Calls for FM Action

CHICAGO — James Goode, Editor of Earth Magazine, delivered a speech on aggressive news reporting to the National Association of FM Broadcasters here last week.

"To achieve a real dialogue," he said, "to communicate, we must all begin to deliver what the audience is interested in. About the only criterion or description of news for a young audience is integrity. That, I suppose, is why a standard White House press release is not very interesting. To older journalists perhaps, who are involved in a game of analyzing what the words really mean, but such games have no attraction for the young. Their heroes are those persons in our society who have spoken out without fear of consequence—Jesse Jackson, Nicholas Johnson, Justice Douglas, Ralph Nader, Fulbright, Proxmire, Bobby Kennedy, Fanny Lou Hamer, Senator Ribicoff at the Chicago Convention, Dick Gregory, Jane Fonda, and all the nameless persons of good works, in the peace movement, poverty groups and programs, ACLU, conservation and the defense of the consumer.

"The only interesting words of the moment are the words of change, those words spoken or sung that describe a better, more peaceful, more creative life and what we must do to bring it about. Words in defense of the status quo which generally turn out to be poverty or a machine gun are again a bummer.

"I would like to suggest that FM radio, which has a vested interest in its audience rather than the increased power and wealth of large corporations, can act in its own behalf and in behalf of the intelligent audience by regularly bringing that audience the real news of the war, defense spending programs, the SST, honest political candidates where they exist, reports of injustice, and generally acting as the watchdogs of power and influence. The medium of radio, which began

CONCERT REVIEW

Getting the Kinks Out

NEW YORK—Reprise's the Kinks performed Tuesday (30) to a packed Philharmonic Hall, a concert filled with moments of both enjoyment and frustration.

The pleasantries included the tunes, in particular, "Lola," "Aueman," "You Really Got Me" and "All Day and All of the Night"; Ray Davies' showmanship; and the sing-alongs (i.e., "You Are My Sunshine"). The not-so-pleasantries were: the front half of the audience, who rudely stood throughout the entire set (not dancing, just standing), thereby blocking the view; the sound system; the exclusion of "Well Respected Man" and "Tired of Waiting"—two all-time Kink favorites. The combination of good and bad elements made for a manic-depressive evening.

Not adding to the happiness of the patrons was Threshold

Records' Trapeze, a three-man group from England and protégés of the Moody Blues. These fellows certainly have not let the Moodys' fine musical taste rub off on them. The instruments were extremely loud, sending the vocals to oblivion. As a result, Trapeze did not get off the ground.

Fred Goodman

Maury Feld Dead

DENVER—Drummer Maury Feld died last week at the age of 55.

He was for many years with ABC Orchestra and was associated with the Benny Goodman, Bobby Hackett and Ben Pollack bands as well. He participated in the original World's Greatest Jazz Band recording. Feld lived in Denver where he operated his own club.

Denver Tour Sparks Sales

■ RCA Records' John Denver has just returned from a multi-city cross-country promotion-personal appearance tour coincidental to the release by RCA of his newest album, "Poems, Prayers and Promises," and single, "Take Me Home, Country Roads" b/w "Poems, Prayers and Promises." Promotion for RCA Records,

Frank Mancini, Director of said the immediate benefit of the tour has been a sharp increase in sales of both album and single as well as building excitement and airplay for both.

The tour ran from March 1 through March 15, and included appearances in Cincinnati, Detroit, Houston, Denver, Salt Lake City, Los Angeles, Seattle and New York. On the West Coast, he taped a Merv Griffin Show and in New York taped a David Frost Show. In other cities, he appeared on local TV shows and met with disc jockeys and the press. In Los Angeles, he was guest speaker-performer at the monthly RCA college seminar of students involved with college radio stations.

Oliver 'Prisms' LP

■ "Prisms," Oliver's third album, will be released by United Artists Records on April 15. The album contains six new, original songs.

Oliver has this to say about his new album: "For years I have wanted to record an album that is clearly representative of the material that I do in live performance. I try to choose a wide range of songs with different feelings so that a person in the audience will leave having felt a tinge of nostalgic pain or a sense of having been reminded of his political being. Hopefully he's laughed out loud, maybe he's reached out to touch someone, maybe he's forgiven someone—perhaps himself."

Isaac Hayes Foundation Set

The Hayes Foundation, a non-profit, tax-exempt organization which will engage in philanthropic pursuits, has been established by Stax Records' Isaac Hayes.

Created to "alleviate suffering wherever and whenever possible," according to Hayes, the Foundation plans to initiate programs itself and will aid existing projects it deems worthy of support.

The Hayes Foundation Board of Directors are: Georgia State Representative Julian Bond; National Director of SCLC's Operation Breadbasket Rev. Jesse Jackson; Ron Altman, Certified Public Accountant; Odell Horton, President of Le-Moyne College, and Hayes.

The organization's activities will be financed partially by portions of proceeds of concerts performed by Hayes and other entertainers. Funds will also be sought through grants from Federal, state and local governments.

The Foundation has selected as its initial project the construction of a home for senior citizens in Memphis, where the organization has its headquarters, to replace a building destroyed by fire several months ago.

A fund-raising drive to finance the structure will be launched with Hayes' appearance as guest soloist with the Memphis Symphony Orchestra on April 3 at the Mid-South Coliseum in Memphis. Hayes

MEMPHIS—First things first. And this week that's a special thank you to BMI for bringing its R&B Writers Awards Dinner to Memphis. Although the writers who took home the certificates this year were heavily Motown people, our Memphis writers were out in force: Isaac Hayes and Dave Porter, George Jackson and Raymond Moore, Dan Penn, Stan Kesler and B. B. Cunningham, Jr., were all applauding loudly and feeling confident that they will be taking the honors next time.

It was good to see Ivory Joe Hunter, Joe South and Stevie Wonder among the celebrities and great to listen to the King Curtis group. Special citations of appreciation were given to Sam Phillips, Jim Stewart and Gus Cannon. All in all, it was a well coordinated and elegant affair. We hope BMI will come our way again soon.

Poco, Columbia recording artists, are in town to do their third album. Steve Cropper is producing the sessions at Trans-Maximus Studio. The LP will be completely made up of original material, some of which is said to be Pocatively great . . . Beautiful Sounds is just about sold to a Nashville organization that will use Memphis talent in all creative phases. It's rumored that the studio will offer original sound track as well as the normal recording industry work . . . Wonder who will be first in Memphis to come up with video cassette recording equipment? We vote for Ardent, first with Dobry, first with 16 track, first with Moog. Why should they stop now? Universal is already set up to record quadra-sonic, and many other studios are checking into making the switch before it becomes a necessity.

Les Anderson, WDIA Program Director, has been working long hours to make sure his station keeps its most-listened-to soul rating. He's an innovative, talented man . . . George Klein has just been promoted to Program Director at WHBQ, but keeps his regular radio gig and his Saturday afternoon "Talent Party" TV thing as well. Hope the title is worth all the extra work, George . . . Is Glenn Spreen alive and well? We haven't seen Spreen since he left Chips to become the roving arranger of the South. Heard he's been up to N.Y., too. The amount of musical talent coming out of the South never ceases to amaze me. Stars in every phase of musical endeavor—country, pop, rock, jazz, R&B, operatic and classical performers. There are numerous Southerners in every group . . . Back home for a while are jazz artists Phinious Newborn, Jr., and drummer Joe Dukes. Now if Charles Lloyd were here the place would be smokin'.

Just found out that the biggest tourist attraction in Memphis is Elvis Presley's gate. The thing has wrought iron guitar pickers on it, but really folks, we've got more places to go than that! Oh, well, think I'll go to Nashville next week and take a picture of Marty Robbins' chimney.

The old Onyx studio has been purchased by American and from now on is to be known as American East. We suspect they bought it to give Chips a place to go when he wants to be alone.

Warren Inks Production Pact with Stax

MEMPHIS—Al Bell, Executive VP of Stax Records, announces that Dale Warren has signed a long-term, exclusive production contract with Stax. Warren is proprietor of Warren Music.

Warren, who can play virtually all musical instruments, has arranged for Isaac Hayes, David Porter, Mavis Staples, Billy Eckstine, Smokey Robinson, Barbra Streisand, Frank Sinatra, Harry Belafonte and many others. A music major with a B.A. degree from the Boston Conservatory, where he concentrated on violin, Warren has played with the New York Philharmonic and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and has given violin recitals in Europe.

Warren, who is 27 years old, has been in the music business for 16 years, the first eight of which were spent as an arranger at Motown Records.

Hayes Foundation

said that all of his proceeds from the concert will be donated to the building fund.

According to Hayes, the Foundation, which is chartered by the State of New York, is at present seeking a suitable site on which to build the home.

Personaje de La Semana (VIP of Week)

Eduardo Baptista

■ Baptista, un apellido ligado intimamente con el disco en dos generaciones.

Eduardo Baptista Van der Elst, se inició en el "mundo" del disco en el año 1944 en la compañía Peerless. Por ese entonces, uno de los dueños era precisamente su Sr. padre Don Eduardo C. Baptista.

Su primer contacto, lo tuvo como encargado de grabación, contaba con 20 años de edad. Esta función, la recuerda con mucha nostalgia, ya que como él lo declara, en aquella época se tenía que grabar en ceras.

Su paso por Peerless, se puede decir que es fugaz, ya que en el año 1948 se comienza la construcción del edificio Musart y pasó a formar parte del nuevo equipo que organizaba su Sr. Padre, ya desligado de una sociedad que lo unía con la anteriormente citada compañía.

A partir de 1949, ocupa el cargo de Gerente de Producción hasta 1951, año que agrega un cargo más, el de Director Artístico hasta 1953. Su habilidad y capacidad profesional lo llevan a ocupar rápidamente

■ Siempre me ha resultado interesante charlar con Pedro Fuentes de Fuentes, Colombia. De nuevo se nos fueron las horas recordando a Toño y las peripecias de Fuentes y de como se lanzó este sello al plano internacional. Mucho debe internacionalmente Colombia a esta empresa grabadora, que lanzó sus ritmos a los cuatro vientos. Ahora, nos comunican que Los Hispanos viajarán próximamente a Estados Unidos para presentaciones en Nueva York, Los Angeles, Chicago y muy posiblemente Miami. Han incorporado a su elenco a Gustavo Velásquez, cantante de 22 años, natural de Ecuador, quien es un excelente intérprete tanto de la músicaailable como de la de género romántico. Por otra parte, Rodolfo sigue "bateando de hit." Luego de haber sido señalado como la máxima figura del disco en Colombia, durante el pasado año, ahora acaba de ser elegido como el cantante extranjero de mayor éxito en el Ecuador. Cumplió presentaciones en dicha República con llenos a reventar. Fuentes pudiera dar en el clavo fuertemente con Rodolfo en el mercado internacional. También editará esta etiqueta próximamente, "33 Exitos con Peter Delis" con un repertorio conformado con lo mejor de la música costeña colombiana.

Serán presentados próximamente, Los Angeles Negros en todo Estados Unidos por Roger López. Presentaciones en Nueva York, Miami, Puerto Rico, Los Angeles, Nevada y Chicago van siendo aumentadas a medida que la noticia se va conociendo. Los Angeles Negros han sido un exitazo en todas las áreas con su "Y Volveré." . . . South Eastern Record (Kubaney)

y Mateo San Martín están de plácemes ante la colocación de la "Primera Piedra" de lo que será la más moderna planta de prensaje de la Florida. El acto está señalado para fines de Marzo y esperamos que las nuevas instalaciones estén abiertas al público para finales de Agosto. ¡Felicitaciones! . . . Editarán en Estados Unidos las grabaciones de Las Cuatro Monedas, los amigos de West Side Records de Nueva York. Las Cuatro Monedas han regresado temporalmente a Venezuela, después de éxitos impresionantes en España con "Lo Consigues," "Cosas," "Te Quiero Ver Bailar" y "Busca la Felicidad." Por otra parte, acaban de lanzar un "sencillo" de Raquel Castañón con "Enamorada" (luce como éxito) y "Soy Una Niña Feliz." Arturito Saíz, hijo de Arturo Saíz de Gema, dirige esta nueva y pujante empresa distribuidora en Nueva York y recién estrenado sello discográfico.

Leo Dan y Luisito Rey colocaron sus palmas en el cemento del Boulevard Artístico de Radio Mil en Ciudad México . . . Un éxito el estreno de la película "En Una Playa Junto al Mar" en Buenos Aires, protagonizada por Donald, Evangelina Salazar y Jorge Barreiro. En esta película interpreta Donald "Tiritando," "En una Playa Junto al Mar," "Cosquillas," "Siempre Fuimos Compañeros," "Yo en mi Casa y Ella en el Bar" y "Zapatos Rotos." Gran promoción internacional se ha planeado para esta película producida por Carlos García Nacson. Donald aumentará 20 veces su potencial de venta, que ya es actualmente interesantísimo . . . Debuta este al año siguiente la Vice-presidencia de la CIA hasta 1964. Cargo de mucha responsabilidad, que es cubierto con eficiencia por Eduardo Baptista.

Sus máximas aspiraciones, se ven cristalizadas en 1964, cuando es nombrado Presidente de la Compañía Musart, distinción que mantiene hasta la actualidad.

Eduardo Baptista, es un hombre que ha recorrido mucho mundo, y se puede decir que no hay lugar en todo el orbe, que no haya pisado el inquieto ejecutivo. Hombre de una singular personalidad, tiene en su haber el de dominar varios idiomas como son Ingles, Francés, Alemán, y por consiguiente el Castellano.

Al enfocar el tema de los Festivales en el mundo, nos manifiesta que cuando estos son bien programados, son de mucho beneficio para el artista, mas no para la compañía, que no vé redimidas sus inversiones en la venta de sus discos.

Para las compañías, en casi todas las situaciones, estos Festivales son negativos, ya que por lo general las canciones de Festivales, no son canciones de venta.

Eduardo Baptista, actual Presidente de la Compañía Musart, manifiesta estar muy a gusto con su equipo de ejecutivos, y piensa que es menester del Presidente buscar precisamente el equipo adecuado que funcione, y tratar de mantenerlo intacto a través del tiempo. Claro está, y con mucho orgullo lo declara, es Musart la CIA que mantiene la supremacía de estabilidad, en cuanto a ejecutivos se refiere.

Entre las múltiples distinciones, que guarda con mucho celo, es la de haber ocupado en varias oportunidades la Presidencia de la Amprodis—hoy Amprofon—habiendo sido los años 1967-68 consecutivamente.

Considera, Eduardo Baptista, y razón no le falta, que la compañía Musart está situada entre las tres grandes de México, siendo su principal objetivo, el de vender cada día un mayor volumen de discos.

Reconociendo además, el apoyo y respaldo que en todo momento han tenido y tienen del gobierno y que la competencia entre las grabadoras es algo bueno, ya que los obliga a mejorar el producto en beneficio exclusivamente del público.

y afortunadamente estamos atravesando, cuando menos por estas latitudes, por una de esas rachas buenas . . . El buen amigo Oswaldo Venzor (Orfeon) estuvo en San Antonio promoviendo su línea, y contando maravillas de la firma que dirige el tocayo Memo Infante. ¡Enhorabuena . . .! Un saludo a los amigos neoyorquinos por donde anduve dando guerra hace ya algunos años . . . Por allá dejé muy buenos amigos cuando militamos en las filas de WWRL, cuando allí se hablaba español, y llevaba la batuta don José de la Vega, de quién guardo gratísimos recuerdos, y de muchos y muy buenos compañeros, entre ellos Miguel Angel Negrón, locutor de gran personalidad. A propósito de Nueva York, no han notado un cambio en la programación de WHOM . . . ? Esta popular emisora tiene nueva dirección . . . Es la misma rienda que gobierna a KCOR en San Antonio Texas . . . Y KCOR está a punto de cumplir 25 años en el aire, y con ese motivo ya se prepara una fiesta en grande, con la presencia en esta ciudad tejana de las máximas figuras de las principales grabadores de discos . . . Ya diremos nombres oportunamente . . . Por acá nos encontramos a Jorge Valente (CBS) que anda en plan de paseo. Nos platicó Jorge que hizo un viaje relámpago a Dallas en donde se formó un club con su nombre . . . ¡Felicidades . . . ! Marsal Production cuenta ahora con un valioso elemento en su departamento de Relaciones Públicas y promoción, pues hace unos días encabezó a colaborar con ellos el caballeroso amigo Oscar Narvaes, empresario de muchos vuelos, que tiene en su haber el haber viajado con el millonario espectáculo ecuestre de Antonio Aguilar por todos los Estados Unidos y México . . . Por cierto que para cuando aparezca esta columna es muy posible que la cigüeña haya llegado a la casa de Oscar Narvaes . . . Esperamos el tabaco . . .

Cornelio Reyna el compositor e intérprete del momento es el único que se da el lujo de grabar para varias firmas, y tiene en este momento hits en Musart, en RCA, y en Marsol, y todas las principales figuras de la canción ranchera están grabando sus canciones . . . Uno de los mas activos representantes de discos es Carlos Balido que en esta ciudad distribuye Musart y Peerless, El amigo Balido siempre está pendiente de su producto . . . Y amigos de Record World ¡hasta la próxima, desde este bello rincón de Texas!

Personal Opinion: Johnny Beerling

■ LONDON—Johnny Beerling is one of BBC's most experienced radio executive producers, and in this week's personal opinion he expresses his views on the difficulties involved in selecting the most suitable records required for his show Radio 1.

It does seem to me extraordinary that in 1971 with all the limitations imposed on the broadcasting of commercial records the gramophone companies continue to issue more and more singles each year and then complain loudly and frequently to us that the public is not given the opportunity to hear enough of them on the radio.

As a BBC Radio 1 producer I listen to between 60 and 70 rec-

Bee Gees Certified

The Bee Gees' recording of "Lonely Days" was certified by the RIAA as a million seller last week, the first gold single for the group.

Commercial Radio for Britain

LONDON—The long-awaited government "white paper" concerning radio broadcasting was issued last week. The result is that after nearly 50 years Britain is to have commercial radio.

This is the first loosening of the grip held by the BBC on radio broadcasting since it first began here back in 1922.

However, changes are to be made gradually and stations will be controlled by what was the Independent Television Authority which will now become the Independent Broadcasting Authority handling both media. The government has decided upon a local station system. The stations will be financed by means of "spot" advertising.

PARIS—RTL (Radio Luxemburg, broadcasting from Paris) is starting a new daily program from 7:30 p.m. to 10 p.m., aimed at younger listeners and consisting mainly of pop music (50% French and 50% foreign artists), music news and interviews. Show is organized by deejay Jean Bernard Hebey with the assistance of André Djento, formerly head of the international department of Vogue Records. . . . The broadcast was launched with guest djs Kid Jensen and Ed Stewart (Great Britain) and Rosko and Tom Gamache (U.S.).

Bryan Hyland flew into town for promotion. . . . Patti Bravo's first release in France on Polydor will be sung in French and will feature a version of "Love Story." Polydor is totaling massive sales with an album called "Symphonies" by Spanish artist Waldo DeLos Rios. Lp consists of modern arrangements on classical themes. . . . Mireille Mathieu's records will henceforth be distributed by Philips instead of Barclay. . . . Julien Clerc's latest single is "Le Coeur Volcan". . . . The group Tac Poux Systeme founded its own independent company and label, TPS.

A Maturing Arlo at Carnegie

■ NEW YORK—For a while it had appeared that Arlo Guthrie might be consumed by the popularity of his "Alice's Restaurant." He was Woody's kid and he'd written a brilliant talking blues in the tradition of his father. Then there was the film, a soundtrack and a couple of books, all based on Arlo's original inspiration. Fortunately, we were spared the mass merchandising gimmickry that generally follows in such success stories.

Instead, with the assistance of Lenny Waronker and Van Dyke Parks, Arlo turned to music about two albums ago. He started writing beautiful songs and his vocals began to do them justice. Which brings us to his Carnegie Hall concert last Wednesday (31) night.

Arlo opened with "Okie from Muskogee." The country smash of last year seems to have become a staple of the "longhair" concert circuit (both the youngbloods and the Beach Boys have offered versions of late). With Arlo, however, the song takes on an added ironic significance, considering his familial ties to the Sooner state. Its writer, Merle Haggard, is also a one generation removed Okie, and Arlo demonstrated his kinship by singing another of Haggard's tunes, the haunting "Sing Me Back Home."

Also in the country prison song tradition was Jimmie Davis' lovely (a lovely prison song? Yes!) "Shackles and Chains." Digging even deeper back into country traditionals, Arlo offered A. P. Carter's "Will the Circle Be Unbroken" and the original Jimmie Rodgers' "Waiting For A Train (All Around The Watertank)."

Travel Theme

The central theme of Arlo's material on this occasion was travel. Another train song was the quintessential "City of New Orleans." Kris Kristofferson's "Me and Bobby McGee" is a song of the American road if ever there was one. And Arlo's own "Coming into Los Angeles" updates the tradition somewhat. In this context, it was surprising that he didn't do his "Running Down the Road."

Arlo generally includes one of his father's songs in every concert. This time it was a rollicking "Do-Re-Mi," with the son contributing some nifty boogie-woogie style piano. There were two numbers written by that other "son" of Woody Guthrie, Bob Dylan—"You Ain't Goin' Nowhere" and the best "Don't Think Twice, It's Alright" since the original.

So, Arlo Guthrie continues to mature as an artist. He would seem to have adopted the role of consolidator of the American folk song tradition. His repertoire embraces material from a broad spectrum of that genre and his own songs will take their place in its history. The prayer-like "Gabriel's Mother's Highway" was the best of these on this evening. Unfortunately, he didn't perform "I Could Be Singing," an ideal encore and probably his best composition to date.

Contributing Ingredient

A contributing ingredient in the high quality of this concert was the nature of Arlo's accompaniment, a group called Swampwater. When last seen in these parts, they were doing an equally fine job for Linda Ronstadt. Since then they have released an excellent album on the King label. Wednesday night, they opened the concert with a tasteful, relevant set.

Swampwater plays country-rock, with traces of Cajun music added for good measure. Doug Kershaw's "Louisiana Man" complements their first single, "Louisiana Woman," very well. Their next single will be "Heading for the Country," in which they sound very reminiscent of the early Byrds (a much-missed sound, I might add).

The group did its part for the Jimmie Rodgers revival with a reverent "T.B. Blues." Also nice was a solo by lead guitarist and dobro player John Beland entitled "Kathleen." Other members of Swampwater are lead vocalist and fiddler Gib Guilbeau, drummer Stan Pratt and bassist Thad Maxwell. They are a group to watch. Gregg Geller

Lomax WB LP Due

■ "Home is in My Head" is the title of the first Warner Brothers album by Britain's Jackie Lomax. Lomax, who is now visiting this country, recorded the album in New York, reports manager Bob Schwaid, who is now working out a tour with CMA VP Jack Green for Lomax.

England

ords every week, and it always seems to me that at least half of them stand no chance of becoming hits or entertaining many people, and as such they should never have got as far as the pressing plant. In 1970, according to my calculations, approximately one record in 15 actually reached a place in the top 30. When it comes to planning and choosing discs to be included in one's program, it is difficult enough to find room for those records which are good enough. But the crunch comes one week later when there is yet another bunch which deserves to be played. What is one to do? Play the first batch again, or throw these out and include only the latest ones? The answer is, of course, that only a few of those "safe bets" actually get heard more than once. If the choice is difficult for me, imagine what it must be like for the unfortunate dealer who is trying to make up his mind which ones to stock. The resulting situation is one where program producers play it safe. There is a decline in the overall sales and a stagnant chart with few new entries each week.

Surely the remedy is to make fewer records of a better quality, using that word in the artistic/commercial sense rather than a technical one, and to promote them more selectively.

I know an argument will be put forward by some companies that they have contractual obligations to release a certain number of records by artists in each year. However, if the newer independents who are coming on the scene can get around this by negotiating special terms, then surely the larger companies could follow suit? If their repertoire managers become more selective, we could see an overall rise in standards and consequent improvements in profits for the trade.

Singer/songwriter Guy Fletcher who with partner Doug Flett composed hits for, among others, the Hollies and Cliff Richard as well as several songs recorded by Elvis, has been signed by Philips Records. Fletcher, signed to Anita Kerr Productions with whom Philips already has a worldwide deal, has his first single released on April 8 titled "Mary in the Morning," and an album follows in May to coincide with his appearance in BBC's popular TV series, "In Concert." The program devotes the entire show every week to one particular vocalist/composer and has in the past featured such talents as Elton John, James Taylor and Neil Young.

Former Sales Manager of Major Minor Records, Ian Brown, has purchased the shares previously belonging to Andrew Cameron Miller in Reflection Records. He becomes the third partner in the company alongside America's Bobby Scott and Philip Gilin. Cameron Miller still acts as head of A & R for the company and Brown will handle their European affairs. Artists signed to the label include Stuart Damon, former jazz singer Joe Stahl, David Baxter and Catherine Howe . . . Larry Page launches his Nepentha label in May with four albums by Zire, Earth and Fire, Dulcimer and Robin Lent. Page has agreed to a three-year distribution deal with Fred Marks for Philips Records . . . Congratulations to Elton John's lyricist Bernie Taupin, married last week to America's Maxine Feibleman. Their composition "Friends" will be issued by DJM as Elton John's follow-up to his first British hit, "Your Song," on April 23 together with his new album (see Picks of the Week).

According to the new rules of SIAE (Italian Performing Rights Society), all records manufactured in Italy will have progressive numerated labels, indicating the number of copies of each records manufactured by each factory. According to these new rules, six record companies—namely CBS Italiana, EMI Italiana, Fonit-Cetra, Phonogram, RCA and Ricordi—have been equipped with a special machine to print SIAE's seal on the labels. All-Star Turnout for Hawkins Memorial Benefit

■ NEW YORK—Roberta Flack, Dizzy Gillespie, Diana Sands and other leading entertainers will perform at a special midnight concert Friday, April 16, at the Apollo Theatre to support the day care program of Manhattanville Community Centers, Inc. (MCC). The concert will be a memorial to jazz musician Coleman Hawkins.

Dr. Edward S. Lefis, President of MCC, stated that, due to economic conditions, the agency is facing an immediate and disastrous budget cutback from $800,000 to $660,000. He said, "The benefit will be of vital importance in reducing this $140,000 slash in funds. By holding it at the Apollo, we are showing our faith that we can get substantial support from our community, Harlem. We welcome help from everywhere, but we want to do this concert where our roots are."

Miss Sands, who has starred in films, the theater and on TV in such diverse vehicles as "A Raisin in the Sun," "The Owl and the Pussycat" and "St. Joan," said, "I feel really fired up about this benefit. We black artists are in a unique position to generate support for programs in our community. And the need is so great. These programs should be expanded, not cut back."

Roberta Flack, one of the nation's leading young singers and a former school teacher, expressed a strong commitment to Harlem's children. She said, "These kids are our finest generation. We must give them everything they need to grow strong and beautiful."

Jazz Group Organized

Dizzy Gillespie has organized an all-star jazz group for the concert featuring Max Roach and James Moody. He expressed his admiration for Coleman Hawkins. "Hawkins was not only a true giant of our music," said Dizzy, "He always encouraged new talent, new ideas. When we were young, he helped musicians like me and Max when others scorned our new way of playing."

Miss Sands will read a eulogy to Hawkins at the Benefit. Hawkins' widow and children will attend. Lloyd McNeill, a young black painter, has done a poster for the event which features a portrait of Hawkins.

The Odds and Ends, a rapidly rising pop trio, MCC's Afro-American dance group and Ron Anderson will also perform. Hal Jackson of radio station WLIB will MC.

It is strongly expected that, during the next two weeks, other major artists will make commitments to perform.

The owners of the Apollo have donated the use of the theater to MCC for the benefit.

MCC has served Harlem for 58 years. More than 250 children are enrolled in its day care centers and the waiting list is over two years long.

Tickets are available from the MCC offices at 530 West 133rd St. and from the Apollo at 253 West 125th St. Telephone requests for tickets will be handled at AU 1-5100 (the MCC number). Mail orders will also be handled at MCC. Ticket prices are $6 and $15; a limited number of Benefactor and Sponsor tickets are available at $25 and $50. Ticket purchases are tax deductible.

RECORD WORLD JAZZ LP PRODUCT

CHARLES MINGUS: TOWN HALL CONCERT

Jazz Workshop JWS 9.

Charlie Mingus can be stately or swinging, but on this package it almost constantly has a classical air about it. Eric Dolphy shares the spotlight just about equally with Charlie on the three pieces, "So Long Eric," and "Praying With Eric" and "Praying With Eric" again. A top package.

THE BLACK CAT

GENE AMMONS—Prestige PR 10006.

Gene Ammons wails on that sax as he has always done expertly. The little touch of something different here is the addition of strings for two of the numbers — "Long, Long Time" and "Something." Purists may not like this idea, but many may find it intriguing.

SOMETHING TO LISTEN TO

JIMMY MCGRIFF—Blue Note BST 84364.

Some lively new tunes from Jimmy McGriff here and some equally lively playing. McGriff fans know just what to expect from the package and they'll get it. "Back Home Again in Indiana" and "Satin Doll" are the familiar tunes. Low-key and friendly.

GARY BURTON & KEITH JARRETT

Atlantic SD 1577.

Teamed successfully here, Gary Burton and Keith Barrett fool around with tempoes and all but abandon them, it seems. They don't abandon interesting melodic lines, however. This album is pretty and experimental and vibrant—all that a jazz package can be asked to be. All cuts are new tunes.

Doc at RCA

■ Doc Severinsen, the flamboyantly dressed music director and conductor of the "Tonight" show starring Johnny Carson, has signed a contract to record exclusively for RCA Records, announces Manny Kellern, Director, Popular Music.

"Doc Severinsen, one of the most exciting trumpeters on the contemporary music scene, brings with him to RCA Records his own unique brand of jazz rock, a high gear sound of instrumental music for today's record market," Kellern said.

Severinsen, who goes back to the Big Band days, started in the business with Ted Fiorito and played with Tommy Dorsey, Charlie Barnet and Benny Goodman. In 1949, he became a staff musician at NBC and became assistant conductor of the band on the "Tonight" show under Skitch Henderson in 1962. He took over as its leader and music director in 1967.

Severinsen's debut RCA album will be "Brass Roots."

RECORD WORLD

By CARL LaFONG

■ Al Kooper completing production of (and playing on) the fourth Blood, Sweat and Tears album. Six dynamite songs were recorded in San Francisco by Roy Halee and drummer Bobby Columby. Three more, two of them Kooper songs, will be recorded live. It may be out in May . . .

Other significant reunions: Aretha and Ray Charles, whose only previous recorded collaborations have been spots for Coca Cola, sing "Spirit in the Dark" together on her new "Aretha Live at the Fillmore" LP, due out from Atlantic in about a week . . . the Mamas and Papas are definitely back together again, for at least one album and a tour.

PG & E is now just plain PG & E, having dropped the name association with a well-known Northern California utilities company. Their new album for Columbia is a stunning evolution for the one-time blues band and should bring them the success they have earned. It's called "Hardburn" and it was produced by Frank "Fuzzy" Cook, who left Canned Heat three years ago to become the group's drummer and manager. Fuzzy has also been mentioned as a possible producer of the next Sugarcane Harris album for Epic. He remembers playing on the same bill with Don and Dewey at the El Monte Legion Stadium back in the Art Laboe fifties, when chicks hid razor blades in their bouffants, and the sounds of hubcaps being pried loose punctuated the breaks.

Latest word is that the first Rolling Stones Records album will be out in three weeks, preceded by the single "Brown Sugar." All this according to a non-attributable source at Atlantic, the alleged distributor . . .

Those who have heard the finished "Mud Slide Slim" album, James Taylor's new one, say it is just great, and that the title track is an obvious single. It should be out very soon . . .

The new Emerson, Lake and Palmer album will include a 20-minute interpretation of Moussorgsky's "Pictures at an Exhibition" . . . In other news, the music department at USC in Los Angeles last week presented a staged version of the Who's "Tommy" rock opera, and producers on Broadway are aiming for a mid-winter opening of "Jesus Christ Superstar."

The fastest-selling album in San Francisco last month was Boz Scraggs' "Moments" album . . .

Henceforth, Sly will record the Family Stone, Little Sister and all Stone Flowers Productions records at home. He recently bought John Phillips' hillside mansion and is busy updating the studio there . . .

Poco is doing some experimental recording with Steve Cropper in Memphis . . .

Neil Young continues to record in Elliot Mazer's Quadrafonic Sound studio in Nashville, with friends old and new, the new ones including ex-615 members Briggs, Putnam and Buttrey . . .

Sold Out: The Cat Stevens-Carly Simon bill at the Troubador in L. A. this week. One of those rare, incredible double bills . . .

Capitol's The Sons (of Champlin) have completed an album titled "Follow Your Heart," their first work since reforming a few months back. It was entirely recorded in a church in San Anselmo near San Francisco. They are gigging in the city again . . .

The next Firesign Theatre album will probably be released in August . . .

Heads, Hands and Feet is the latest biggie from England. Capitol is releasing their first album, a two-record set, this month and accompanying it with an extensive promotion. Legendary Albert Lee is founder of the group . . .

Taj Mahal's new album, "The Real Thing," should be out by the end of April. It is two-records of live stuff from the Filmore East with his new band. Very informal and more laid back than ever . . .

He has been based at the Tower and served in various sales functions since 1961.

"Miller, too," Jossey continued, "will be in a position to contribute meaningfully to the combined sales and promotion operation by bringing to his post a background ranging from artist management to marketing."

To Label in 1967

Most recently a producer for Capitol's A&R Department, Miller came to the label in 1967 as Regional Promotion Manager based in Atlanta. He covered the entire South and boosted Capitol's regional hit sales by over 400 per cent in three years. He was brought to Hollywood in 1970 as Executive VP and General Manager of the Fame label.

In his new capacity Miller will serve as liaison on all promotional activities between the Tower and the field, including fifteen sales districts and Capitol's 35-man field promotion force.

Reporting to Goyak will be—Dick Miller, Manager, Administration, National Sales; Bill Wilkinson, Incentives and Sales Analysis Administrator, and John Grimes, Field Operating Budgets Administrator.

Both Goyak and Miller will, in turn, report to Jossey.

The first single to be released since Gamble and Huff signed an exclusive distribution deal with Columbia in February is "Going Up On the Mountain" by Hawaiian singer Dick Jensen.

Gamble and Huff have set up a heavy schedule and plan to follow up Jensen's release with the Ebonys' "You're the Reason Why." The Ebonys, a new group who signed with Philadelphia International Records in March, have already attracted a large following through their personal appearances in the United States and Canada.

Academy Award-winning screenwriter, William Goldman, whose last screen credit is "Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid," is doing the screenplay. Soundtrack LP will be released by Prophecy.

Dealer Re-emerges

ness has always been at its healthiest when we have had a large number of full line dealers effectively operating in the most important geographic centers. The question of the re-emergence of the dealer ultimately depends upon the dealers themselves. They've got to learn to reach out and get customers instead of waiting for them to fall into the store. The opportunity exists for dealers, but only if they become involved in the music.

"Obviously, the first thing they must do is to hire and train young people who are actively concerned with the music they sell. Clearly an involved salesman is the best salesman. Further, dealers must learn to make intelligent use of many sales tools at their disposal. Audio visual materials can become an important factor in creating point of purchase interest and sales."

Banks Midwest Columbia/Epic Rep

David Banks has been appointed Midwest Regional Promotion Manager for the Epic and Columbia Custom Labels, reveals Mike Kagen, National Promotion Manager, Epic/Columbia Custom Labels.

David Banks

Banks will be responsible for coordinating all promotional activities in Minneapolis, Cincinnati, Milwaukee and in Chicago, where he is based. Prior to joining Epic in 1969, Banks was a professional entertainer on television and in nightclubs. He served most recently as Branch Promotion Manager for Epic/Columbia Custom Labels in San Francisco.

Pattersons Join Atlantic Records

Atlantic Records Executive Vice President Nesuhi Ertegun and Vice President Henry Allen announce that the firm has signed the Patterson Singers to an exclusive recording contract.

The pop-gospel group, a hit at the International Blues Festival last year, were the recipients of the NATRA award for Best Achievement for Gospel Singers in 1969. The Patterson Singers' initial releases for the label are being produced now by Brad Shapiro and Dave Crawford.

Negotiations were made by Wexler, Allen and the group's manager, Sidney A. Seidenberg.

Collins LP Certified

The RIAA last week certified Judy Collins' 10th Elektra album, "Whales and Nightingales," as a gold record with sales of well over one million dollars. The certification marks Judy's fourth gold album on Elektra.

Brown WB Sheet, Folio Director

Ed Silvers, Irving Brown

Ed Silvers, President of Warner Bros. Music, has appointed Irving Brown Managing Director of the company's Sheet Music and Folio Division. Brown will direct the acquisition, production and distribution of the company's extensive print publications. Headquartered in New York, he will also act as Silver's liaison supervising the projects and activities of the East Coast staff.

One of the oldest and largest music publishers, the Warner Bros. current print release includes a list of works by Bob Dylan, John Lennon & Paul McCartney, Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young, Gordon Lightfoot, Livingston Taylor and the Bee Gees; as well as music from "Woodstock" and the score of the smash Broadway hit, "No, No, Nanette." Material scheduled for upcoming release includes Janis Joplin's "Pearl," Van Morrison, Neil Young, Seatrain, Tom Rush, Derek & the Dominoes, Mountain and "Woodstock II."

Kennely Joins RCA Ad Unit As Copywriter

RCA Records has appointed Patricia Kennely as a Copywriter in its new "in-house" advertising creative unit. Miss Kennely will report to Kurt Brokaw, Manager, Creative Advertising and Sales Promotion.

Patricia Kennely

Brokaw noted: "We are staffing this unit with professionals—with the most knowledgeable record people in the industry. With her three years as Editor of Jazz & Pop Magazine, and her wide experience in all facets of the contemporary music scene, Patricia is uniquely qualified to help the creative advertising unit contribute to the Division's growth."

Eby N'ville PR Firm Formed

The PR agency will operate as a subsidiary of Eby's Fire & Smoke Productions, Inc., which also owns Smoke Publishing, an ASCAP-licensed publishing house which he will reactivate.

Eby said the PR arm of the corporation will principally serve booking agencies, individual performers and record companies. The agency will specialize in news releases, record promotion mailers, biographies and promotion releases to towns in which artists are set to appear.

Paramount Signs Ralph McTell

NEW YORK — Paramount Records has made a major talent acquisition in England with the signing to an exclusive worldwide contract of Ralph McTell, one of the UK's major songwriter/performers.

Bill Gallagher, President of the Famous Music Corp., completed the deal for McTell to record for Paramount during his recent trip to London. The signing of McTell also involves the licensing of U.S., Canadian and other territorial rights from Transatlantic Records to much of the artist's recent material, including his composition, "Streets of London," which has become a folk standard in England.

McTell and his producer, Gus Dudgeon, are beginning immediately to record a new LP which Paramount will release in the fall in coordination with a major promotional tour and campaign being set by the company and McTell's manager, Joe Lustig.

Dudgeon is continuing with McTell in a three-year relationship as artist and producer. Dudgeon and Paramount have also been involved in a prior association, the production of Elton John's soundtrack album from Paramount Pictures' film, "Friends," an album now in its third week of release and approaching one-half million units in sales.

Ranwood/Welk Nanette on Way

Ranwood Records is releasing a new album by Lawrence Welk containing nine songs from "No, No, Nanette."

The album, named after the show, will be backed by an extensive promotion campaign, part of which will be conducted on Welk's ABC TVer.

Paul McCartney continues to work on his album somewhere in Los Angeles, between conferences in London with his attorneys reportedly with the production help of Jim Guercio . . .

Fox Agency Charges Large Phoenix Firm with Bootlegging

■ One of the nation's alleged largest manufacturers of bootleg tapes, National Manufacturing Company, has just been sued in Phoenix along with three radio stations, KCAK, KTKT and KWFM, which reportedly advertised the products, and numerous dealers and distributors said to have sold them.

The suit was brought by The Harry Fox Agency, Inc., on behalf of 59 music publishers in the country. The Fox Agency represents the publishers in connection with the mechanical reproduction of their copyrighted compositions and the collection of their royalties.

In addition, the U.S. District Court in Phoenix ruled for the first time in the United States that all the inventory, equipment and machinery used to manufacture the illegal tapes could be seized.

Albert Berman, Managing Director of the Fox Agency, noted that, "Bootleg recordings unbelievably now account for more than one-third of the sales of recordings in the United States and produce illegitimate revenue into the hundreds of millions of dollars. Scores of legitimate retailers are being forced out of business by corrupt operators who open up next to, or across the street from, the honest businessman."

The Phoenix operation, National Manufacturing Company, was located in a 17,200-sq.-ft. modern facility in an industrial park. Private investigation had revealed that the plant previously had been located in lower California, but had moved to Phoenix when its location was uncovered. The court agreed with the plaintiffs' contention that, "Now that the duplication plant has been pinpointed, it is essential that the means for making the infringing recordings be seized in order to preclude transfer thereof to another clandestine location."

The court then issued the writ of seizure, and five U. S. marshals confiscated the entire operation which included approximately 150,000 tape cartridges, 17 winding machines, duplicating equipment, wrapping and labeling machines, and numerous other equipment. It is estimated that the plant employed approximately 100 people in around-the-clock shifts.

Prior to the raid in Phoenix, investigators for the Fox Agency had uncovered stores in Wichita, Hartford, Tampa and Houston which were prime retail outlets for the illegal tapes. Suits have been filed against these businesses, closing them down until dispositions are made in court.

Berman called the bootleg operation "The most sophisticated we have ever discovered in our war on piracy. The perpetrators had a highly integrated system of national distribution which could supply an unlimited quantity of illegal tapes of over 400 songs, including albums. They even had their own catalogue printed detailing what was available."

Ringe Joins RCA

Ringe was offered his first recording contract when he was 15, singing at many concerts in and around New York.

He first entered the business side of the record industry in Washington, D. C., where he booked talent for colleges and local dances through a small agency.

After eight months in Washington, Ringe returned to New York where he joined Queen Booking. With Queen he was responsible for publicity and booking artists such as Aretha Franklin, the Sweet Inspirations and Jackie Wilson.

Ringe then joined CMA in their Concert Department. He was head of their East Coast underground circuit. Ringe starts at RCA immediately, will operate out of the RCA Records New York office, and will travel extensively in the quest for new talent.

Broderick Exits

In accepting Broderick's resignation, Mike Maitland, President of MCA Records, said, "I'm sorry to see Dick go, but pleased that we will still have an immediate close association through Orville Stoeber. In his three years with MCA, Dick has more than tripled the royalty income for the MCA record operations in the world markets. Thanks to the solid base he has formed, we will be able to continue our growth in the immediate future."

Broderick, Chairman of the Board of the Country Music Association, will leave for England and the Board Meetings scheduled in London April 11 and 12.

Knight Upped

Noonan stated, "It's a distinct pleasure for us to promote such a capable man from within the organization and, I might add, a mark of great pride in the fact that he's been beautifully groomed for the new post he now assumes. Knight has a thorough knowledge of sales, promotion, merchandising and, of course, our artists and total organization. We are naturally sad to lose Stan Monteiro who has done a remarkable job for us, but he goes to his new venture with all the best wishes and love of our people."

Knight will report to Mort Weiner, Metromedia's Director of Sales and Promotion. "With Weiner and Knight and the strong regional sales and pro-promoters.

One of Kendrick's first assignments will be to work with the talent involved in Capitol's new hit Broadway show, "Follies."

While at Warner Bros.-Seven Arts Kendrick handled the publishing, and was instrumental in developing the careers of a host of ranking artists, including Peter, Paul and Mary, Gordon Lightfoot, Dylan, and Rod McKuen, all of whom he numbers among his close personal friends. He was also in charge of the company's foreign licensees and served as its liaison with Time-Life Records, Reader's Digest, Longines-Symphonette and the Capitol Record Club.

motion force at our command," Noonan said, "we feel that this speaks well of the plans launched months ago of developing from within people who are flexible and capable of moving up to new posts as they become available.

"In line with this theory and practice, John Hager, who has been Mid-West Regional Promotion and Sales Manager, is being transferred to the West Coast to replace Dave Knight and Bill Scull will transfer to the Mid-west region relinquishing the Southern Region to a new man who will be announced shortly. These transfers are part of the master plan to constantly educate our men to new challenges and regions and the distributors, radio stations and retail outlets of all regions of the country, thereby making total marketing people of our staff."

Richard Atkinson, who joined Metromedia as East Coast Regional Sales and Promotion Manager in January of this year, will continue to be responsible for the Eastern Region. The regional sales and promotion managers will report to Knight, who, in turn, will report to Weiner.

Katz RCA VP

Katz will headquarter in New York, will report directly to Hoffman and will supervise the activities of Dick Moreland, RCA Records' Manager, Contemporary Music, West Coast, and Elliot Horne, Manager, Contemporary Music, East Coast.

Katz joins RCA Records after having been Director of Business Affairs for Columbia and Epic Records, in which capacity he negotiated new artist and producer contracts, guided in the business sense the careers of Columbia-Epic artists, and dealt with artists, managers and lawyers, with responsibility for structuring the deals made by that organization and its artists.

Prior to his two years at Columbia-Epic, Katz was associated with Fairlead Management Co. where he was co-manager of such musical organizations as Blood, Sweat and Tears, Procol Harum, Sea-Train, Dav Van Ronk, the Blues Project and Rhinoceros. During this time, he also was a practicing lawyer.

Katz, who has a law degree from Fordham University and a degree from New York University, is a native New Yorker.

■ LOS ANGELES — A repeat airing of "The History of Country Music," barely four months after its initial broadcast, has been scheduled by KLAC Radio for three days this month, April 23-24-25. Segments will run daily from noon to midnight.

The decision was based on heavy listener response to the presentation and continuing requests for replay, according to Bill Dalton, Vice President and General Manager of the Metro-media station.

He said it also will serve to salute Hugh Cherry, co-author of the "History," who was honored as "Man of the Year" by the Academy of Country &

Western Music during its 6th Annual Awards Presentation in March.

The station also was a Country Academy winner, singled out by some 1,500 members as Country music radio station of the year.

(The song is published by Fred Carter Jr.'s Lair Music Co.), Jim Malloy produced the record. "I don't care if it doesn't sell a single copy," Arnold says. "I'm glad I recorded it. It needed to be said." (A choir in the background sings "Old Rugged Cross" while Eddy recites).

COUNTRY PICKS OF THE WEEK

SINGLE ARLENE HARDEN, "MARRIED TO A MEMORY" (United Artists Music, ASCAP). Beautiful Alex Harvey song that's been in the can for over a year. Arlene is back in her bag with this one. She sings great and sounds comfortable with the song. Columbia 4-45635.

SLEEPER STATLER BROTHERS, "NEW YORK CITY" (House of Cash, BMI)/"THIS PART OF THE WORLD" (House of Cash, BMI). From the new "Bed of Rose's" album. The group introduced this cut on the Johnny Cash Show. Listen to the lyric closely. It tells an interesting story. Lead singer Don Reid wrote it. Mercury 73194.

ALBUM STONEY EDWARDS, "A COUNTRY SINGER." A great sound from West Coast artist Edwards. His first Capitol LP, produced by Earl Ball, features his new chart single "Poor Folks Stick Together," his previous "Two Dollar Toy" and a flock of newies, five of which were self-penned. Outstanding cuts include "Please Bring a Bottle," "Something New and Different," "A Few of the Reasons," "You Stayed Long Enough." Look for a lot of action from this potent hit talent. Capitol ST-741.

Lavender Agency Opens

■ NASHVILLE—Nashville talent agent Grover "Shorty" Lavender has officially opened his new booking office. The Shorty Lavender Talent Agency is located in the Fender Building at 722 17th Avenue South.

Lavender told Record World that he has signed exclusive representation contracts with George Jones, Claude King, Wayne Kemp, Harold Morrison and Patsy Sledd. Lavender was previously associated with the Hubert Long Agency as Executive Vice-President. Prior to his seven Long years, Shorty was featured fiddler with Ray Price and the Cherokee Cowboys.

In addition to his booking and management chores, Lavender will be Talent Co-ordinator for the new 21-acre 8,000 seat Old Plantation Music Park, Lakeland, Fla. The Old Plantation Park is owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. George Jones and is adjacent to their home in Central Florida.

Opry Materials for Church

■ NASHVILLE — Officials of WSM, Inc., announce that the the 79-year-old Grand Ole Opry House, formerly known as the Ryman Auditorium, will be taken down and materials from the historic structure used to build a little church in the Opryland, USA, complex.

The $25,000,000 entertainment and recreation development being constructed around the new home of the Grand Ole Opry is scheduled for opening in the spring of 1972. The new Opry House will be ready for occupancy some months later.

The lofty brick and wood structure in downtown Nashville, which has served as the home of the Grand Ole Opry since 1941, was built as a gospel tabernacle for Sam Jones by one of the famed evangelist's converts, a steamboat captain named Tom Ryman.

"The Opry House is a grand old lady, and we do not intend to let her come to an ignoble end," G. Daniel Brooks, Chairman of the Board, and Irving Waugh, President, said in a joint announcement.

"She began as a house of worship," they continued, "and we think she should have another life as a house of wor-

MONEY MUSIC

Giant requests at WRNO, New Orleans, on "I Was Born in Love with You," the theme from the movie "Wuthering Heights," Mike Curb Congregation. The requests are coming from people who have seen the film.

WRNO also reports that the cut in the Blood Rock album that is getting the requests is "Jessica." We feel the Brotherhood of Man single is a hit and so does KJR, Seattle.

The Tom Rush on Elektra was a smash on WEAM and is now breaking at KJR.

The Lily Tomlin album on Polydor is a request giant at KLIF.

The Classics IV is called "It's Time For Love." Play on the album cut "Freedom," Jimi Hendrix, has sold more than 100,000 on the single.

The new Chicago single should be out in a short time.

COUNTRY SINGLE PRODUCT

SARGE & SHIRLEY—Jack O'Diamonds 1030.

AIN'T IT A SHAME (Quazar/Jack O'Diamonds, BMI)

WE'RE GONNA HAVE A GOOD TIME TONIGHT (Jack O'Diamonds, BMI)

Writer Alex Zanetis has produced an interesting record here. This is another look at the shortcomings of us humans.

NAT STUCKEY—RCA 47-9977.

ONLY A WOMAN LIKE YOU (Forrest Hills Music, BMI)

HALF THE LOVE (Stuckey Pub., BMI)

Pretty melody written by Bill Eldridge and Gary Stewart. "New-boy" Jerry Bradley produced. Everything sounds great on this slow, easygoing ballad.

DAVE DUDLEY—Mercury 73193.

COMIN' DOWN (Addell, BMI)

SIX-O-ONE (Tree Publ., BMI)

Definitely a change of pace for the truck-driver's spokesman. A lot of listeners are going to be pleasantly surprised at how well ole Dave can handle the ballads.

MEL TILLIS—Kapp K-2121.

ONE MORE DRINK (Sawgrass, BMI)

I COULD NEVER BE ASHAMED OF YOU (Fred Rose, BMI)

Prolific writer Jim Owens scores again, this time with an uptempo drinking tune by "M-m-m-marvelous Mel." Country shuffle should be good for box interest.

JOHNNY CARVER—United Artists 50767.

THREE LITTLE WORDS (Riley Music, BMI)

OUR OLD LOVE SONG (Al Gallico, BMI)

Great country record and Johnny sings it like it ought to be sung. Scotty Turner produced the Robert Swinson song.

LYNN ANDERSON—Chart CH5125

JIM DANDY (Raleigh/Progressive, BMI)

Super-commercial rendition of the old Lincoln Chase R&B hit. Young produced Cliff Williamson has spiced up the rocking master. It's a hit!

BILLY EDD WHEELER—RCA 74-0463.

LOVE (United Artists Music, ASCAP)

COAL TATTOO (Quartet/Bexhill, ASCAP)

Very talented man and it's only a matter of time before he has another "Little Brown Shack Out Back." Try both sides, they're from his new RCA LP.

ANNE MURRAY—Capitol 3082.

PUT YOUR HAND IN THE HAND (Beechwood, BMI)

IT TAKES TIME (Beechwood, BMI)

This is a cut off of the "Snowbird" album and everybody who listened to the cuts knew it was a hit. Smash song from popular "Snowbird" writer Gene MacLellan.

VAN TREVOR—Royal American 31.

LONELY LOOKING WOMEN (Sawgrass, BMI)

JOHNNY AND ANNIE (Atlanta/Summerhouse, ASCAP)

Cute uptempo girl-chasing song rendered well by Trevor. Good country production by label head Dick Heard.

SUE THOMPSON—Hickory 1596.

WHAT YOU SEE IS WHAT YOU GET (Milene, ASCAP)

HERE'S TO FOREVER (Acuff-Rose, BMI)

Well, it had to come—writer James White has been watching "The Flip Wilson Show." Swinging Sue does a great job on the novelty tune.

HAG

MERLE HAGGARD—Capitol ST-735.

"Hag" does it again with another sure chart LP which features his current Top Five single, "Soldier's Last Letter," previous Haggard biggies "Jesus Take a Hold," "I Can't Be Myself" and "Side-walks of Chicago." Give some attention also to new cuts, "Shelly's Winter Love," "If You've Got Time (To Say Good-bye)," "I've Done It All" and "No Reason To Quit." Hollywood-produced by Ken Nelson.

THE BEST OF ROY CLARK

Dot DOS25986

A collection of top single cuts by the "Hee Haw" funnyman proves his dexterity with a serious song, such as the classic "Yesterday, When I Was Young," Bobby Russell's "Then She's a Lover" and the standard, "September Song." Try also previous hits "Thank God & Greyhound" and "I Never Picked Cotton" and current new single release, "A Simple Thing As Love." A winner produced by Joe Allison.

EMPTY ARMS

SONNY JAMES—Capitol ST-734.

The title song leads off this potent package by Hackleburg's hit artist. The smooth James style insures easy listening on the pop hit "Traces," the old Conway Twitty hit, "What Am I Living For," "Everything Begins and Ends with You," "One Day By and By," "Love Is You" and the well-known "Endlessly." A programming must.

JUST SINGIN'

BILLIE JO SPEARS—Capitol ST-688

Miss Spears, currently rocking up the charts with "It Could 'a Been Me," swings into standards "Snowbird," "Goin' Steady," "I Love You Because," "Help Me Make It Through the Night" and "For The Good Times." She also turns in a fine performance on new entries "When You Hurt Me More (Than I Love You)," "Trying To See," "I Can't Get Enough Of You." George Richey produced these listenable sounds.

ship. Therefore, we have decided to enshrine her materials in a chapel which will be open to the people who visit Opryland, USA."

"We believe this decision will please most of the thousands of Opry fans who have volunteered suggestions as to what should be done with the old Opry House," Brooks and Waugh said.

The chapel will be called the Little Church of Opryland.

WSM officials have commissioned Randall Duell and Associates of Los Angeles, the architectural firm doing the Opryland master plan, to design the church.

Mary Taylor Firsts in April

■ NASHVILLE — Dot Records' Mary Taylor is set for two firsts in April.

On Sunday, April 11, she becomes the bride of John Salisbury at Nashville's Second Presbyterian Church. Mary and John, a writer-performer formerly of Los Angeles, will make Nashville their home.

Mary's first album is also slated for release in April. It follows hot on the heels of her new Dot single entitled "Room for One More Heartache," a disc pulled from her forthcoming LP.

NASHVILLE REPORT

Glen Campbell sings one of the nominated songs on the NBC-TV Oscarcast Thursday, April 15 . . . Final session of the Merle Haggard-Bonnie Owens gospel album, "Land of Many Churches" (due for release this summer), was in Greystone Chapel at San Quentin (Calif.) Prison . . . Roy Clark celebrated his birthday by buying a twin-engine plane which he plans to name "Hee Haw" . . . Barnyard Tragedy: The prize-hunting hounds of Mooney Lynn (husband of singer Loretta Lynn) broke out of their kennel and killed Loretta's Siamese cat and more than 100 frying-size chickens. Mooney got rid of the dogs. "I knew if I didn't Loretta would kill them when she came in off tour and found out what happened."

RIAA has certified three Charley Pride LPs, "Just Plain Charley" "Charley Pride's 10th Album" and "Charley Pride in Person" for Gold Album awards. (Signifying that each has racked up a million bucks in total sales) . . . Johnny Cash expressed a sense of relief when informed that his ABC-TV series had not been renewed for 1971-72. "I was almost glad it's over," he said. "It will be a lot more satisfying to me personally to do a number of specials (five or six) for Screen Gems (production company with which he is under contract and producer of the TV series) rather than a weekly series. The specials will be taped on location in Israel, a Western movie set and at least two at the Grand Ole-Opry House in Nashville."

Sammi Home After Hospitalization

Singer Sammi Smith is back in Nashville after suffering exhaustion "and dehydration," which necessitated hospitalization in Fort Stockton and Fort Worth while on a tour of Texas. Sammi, who hit it big for Mega with her recording of "Help Me Make It Through the Night," may eventually have to undergo abdominal surgery . . . Decca artist Jan Howard joined the Grand Ole Opry to become the 58th regular on the WSM-sponsored Saturday night long-play . . . Birthdaying—June Sterns, Tommy Cash, Merle Haggard, Cal Smith, Wade Ray, Bobby Bare, Jimmy Osborne, Carl Perkins and Sheb Wooley . . . Don't tell any Polish jokes around Pee Wee King: His square name is Julius Francizek Antoni Kruszynski . . . Hank William Jr.'s marriage to Judy Yeargin of June, Mo., is scheduled for April 7 in Nashville. (Only a few days after divorce from Sharon Martin, his first wife, became final).

The country music spectacular (matinee and evening performances) co-headlined by Merle Haggard, Jerry Lee Lewis, Bill Anderson, Jan Howard, Tammy Wynette and George Jones, scheduled for Sunday, April 18, at Detroit's Cobo Hall racked up $50,000 at the box office the first week tickets were on sale. (It'll probably hit a $150,000 gross sellout.) Dick Blake of Nashville and Indianapolis is the promoter . . . Eddie Crandall, associated in a managerial capacity with Marty Robbins for many years, is seriously ill at Vanderbilt Hospital here. Eddie's wife is singer Jo Anne Steele, formerly on the Columbia label, and a frequent featured performer on Marty's personal appearances. . . . Tree writer Bobby Braddock has returned from a Florida vacation where he says he got a moon tan. "I only went out at night," says Bobby . . . Chet Atkins, Boots Randolph, Jerry Reed, Floyd Cramer, Charley Walker and Bobby Goldsboro were among locals competing in the Great Greensboro (N.C.) open golf tournament's pro-am division the past weekend.

Jerry Reed Mines 'Moses' Gold

RCA's Jerry Reed, currently riding both the country and pop charts with the hit album, "Georgia Sunshine," has just been awarded an RIAA gold record for sales in excess of one million copies for his single, "Amos Moses."

Reed, the hot singer/guitarist/writer from Nashville, recently won a Grammy (with Chet Atkins) for the album "Me and Jerry" and was chosen Instrumentalist of the Year by the Country Music Association.

His gold single, "Amos Moses," which he wrote and Chet Atkins produced, is included in the newest Jerry Reed album, "When You're Hot, You're Hot," the title of which is also the latest Reed single.

Reed, a regular guest on the Glen Campbell "Goodtime Hour" during the past TV season, will be spending the summer touring with Campbell and will continue sitting in occasionally as an "added attraction" on the elite three-star touring package known as the Masters Festival of Music (with Chet Atkins, Floyd Cramer and Boots Randolph).

CMA Awards Show Option Exercised

NASHVILLE—The Country Music Association's Annual Country Music Awards Show will again be viewed on nationwide television this October, according to an announcement by Wade Pepper, President of the CMA.

The Capitol Records Executive reported that J. Walter Thompson Company acting on behalf of Kraft Foods has exercised Kraft's option to televise the Association's country music awards presentations.

Pepper stated, "This pleases us very much for it will bring to the national audience the best in country music entertainment and our highest awards for the fourth consecutive year. Our awards show Committee Chairmen, Irving Waugh and Jack Stapp, have devoted considerable time and effort in completing arrangements with Kraft Foods representatives."

Anderson LP Certified

Grammy Award winner Lynn Anderson's Columbia "Rose Garden," produced by Glenn Sutton, has been certified gold by the R.I.A.A. This award signifies sales of over one million dollars.

ONE MAN'S STATEMENT OF FAITH.

Not just any man's. Charley Pride's. This is a religious album that's not stuffy, irrelevant, or ho-hum.

It's not a pseudo-pop album, either. It's genuine. There's a quality of joy, and, just as important, a quality of grace running through both sides. "Whispering Hope," "Let Me Live," "The Church in the Wildwood"...

Charley gives us an order of worship we can all be grateful for.

On Sunday. Any day.

Charley Pride sings it straight.
