Elton John

HITS OF THE WEEK

SINGLES

PABLO CRUISE, "I GO TO RIO" (prod. by B. Schnee) (writers: Allen-Anderson) (Irving/Woolrough/Jemava, BMI) (3:36). The group scored big with their debut album and this cover of the Peter Allen tune should have instant appeal to pop and adult programmers. A&M 2112.

LITTLE RIVER BAND, "LADY" (prod. by J. Ebylan-group) (writer: Goble) (Screen Gems-EMI, BMI) (3:31). The Australian group's "Reminiscing" was a recent top charter and this light " Sleeper Catcher" ballad with touching lyrics and an airy production could likely do as well. Harvest 4667 (Capitol).

10cc, "FOR YOU AND I" (prod. by Stewart-Gouldman) (writers: same) (Mackay, BMI) (3:39). This second single from the "Booey Tourists" lp (and included in "Moment to Moment") is a typically lush production with picturesque lyrics and a pop perfect hook. A fine execution. Polydisc 1452B.

O'JAYS, "CRY TOGETHER" (prod. by Gamble-Huff) (writers: same) (Mighty Three, BMI) (3:43). The veteran group here releases a strong BOS single with talk opening and characteristic lilting vocals. Pop programmers should also take note. Philadelphia International 3666 (CBS).

SLEEPERS

THE BABYS, "EVERY TIME I THINK OF YOU" (prod. by R. Nevison) (writers: Kennedy-Conrad) (X-Ray Jacob, BMI) (3:45). The group made an impact last year with "Isn't It Time" and this new stirring pop/rocker is already on the RW chart. It could go all the way. Chrysalis 2279.

POCO, "CRAZY LOVE" (prod. by R. Sanford Orshoff) (writer: R. Young) (Pirooting, ASCAP) (2:55). The somewhat changed group here releases its first single from the "Legal" album. It has a light acoustic flavor and a lovely harmony hook. A country-pop sure shot. ABC 12439.

JOHN WILLIAMS, "THEME FROM SUPERMAN" (prod. not listed) (writer: Williams) (Warner-Tamerlane, BMI) (2:58). The main theme from "Superman" conjures just the right amount of drama and heroism and sounds somewhat similar to Williams' "Star Wars." Warner Bros. 8729.

EMOTIONS, "WALKING THE LINE" (prod. by Maurice White) (writers: M. White-E. Scarborough) (Sagfire/Alexscar, BMI) (3:50). The third single from the group's "Sunbeam" album shows off the ladies' vocal cexterity with breathy harmonies creating a distinct melody. Columbia 3-10874.

ALBUMS

HOT CHOCOLATE, "EVERY 1's A WINNER." With the title track climbing steadily up the chart, the group is enjoying its biggest success since "You Sexy Thing." Songs like "So You Win Again" and "Sometimes It Hurts To Be A Friend" finds this lp poised to go a long way. Infinity 9002 (7.98).

LULU, "DON'T TAKE LOVE FOR GRANTED." The songstress who had the original hit with "To Sir With Love" is back with a sophisticated lp of material penned by people like Russ Ballard, Elton John and Alan Tarney. The title song in particular shows hit potential. Rocket BXL1-3073 (RCA) (7.98).

GIORGIO MORODER, "MUSIC FROM BATTLESTAR GALACTICA." The renowned electronic/disco composer uses the theme from the popular TV show as a base and takes off from there with his characteristic percolating music. The discs should be the first to pick up on it. Casablanca NBLP 7126 (7.98).

FABULOUS POODLES, "MIRROR STARS." The first release on Brian Lane's Park Lane label is by this British quartet whose tongue in cheek lyrical approach is bolstered by fine rock musicianship. Production by John Entwistle and Muff Wigwood holds it together. Epic JE 35666 (7.98).

UA Sues CBS Over ELO As Legal Fight Continues

By SAM SUTHERLAND

■ LOS ANGELES — The legal battle between CBS Records, the CBS-distributed Jet label and United Artists Records over disputed Electric Light Orchestra product has escalated with the latest volley fired by the UA label and its current owners, Artie Mogull and Jerry Rubinstein. They filed separate federal and state actions here December 21.

Singles Charts Frozen

■ Singles playlists at major pop, rock and BOS stations were virtually frozen across the board last week as station programmers spent the last week of the year on automatic pilot, at least in terms of station adds. According to the RW research department, there was a virtual handful of total adds on all of the above formats, coast-to-coast, with the resulting alteration in activity too insignificant to measure.

All Record World album charts, which are totally sales-based, have been compiled for this week as usual.

Also as a result of the lack of airplay activity around the country, there will be no Radio Marketplace, Hot Adds or Action Music this week.

Hits Dominate Holiday Sales Activity As Late Buying Brightens Xmas Season

By DAVID MCGEE and SOPHIA MIDAS

■ NEW YORK—More than two months of sluggish retail activity came to an abrupt halt last week as a late surge of consumer buying helped boost sales 10 to 15 percent over last year's Christmas season. And unlike the holiday periods of 1976 and 1977 when records of all types and categories sold equally well, the hits—the known quantities — dominated this year's sales picture.

In a Record World poll conducted last week, retailers and rack jobbers cited numerous factors for the decline in catalogue sales, including: the loss of valuable shopping time that comes with waiting until the last minute to buy (a practice that always favors the tried and true in recorded product); the laggard economy; and the escalating price of records.

As always, however, there are exceptions, this year's being the retail chains which have reputations as catalogue "houses." King Karol in New York City is a prime example of such an operation: Ben Karol reported sales 40 percent ahead of last year's, and pointed to catalogue activity as the most significant factor in that increase. "We're selling catalogue like crazy," said Karol. "So many customers come in here looking for catalogue and we cash in on it. The records are just flying out of here. From Thanksgiving until about the twentieth of December we figured that the recession had set in for real; from the twentieth of December until now we've not only forgot about the recession but we've rung up the biggest year in our history. We're very happy with the whole situation."

Record and Tape Collector in Baltimore also reported an increase in catalogue sales over last year. "We're known as a catalogue cabin," explained buyer Wayne Steinberg, "so we have the advantage of having people come to us when they're looking for older product because they know we'll have it." Bill Miller of Discount Records in St. Louis also attributed that store's strong catalogue showing to its reputation for having this product in stock through the year.

However, few retailers were as enthusiastic about catalogue sales as Karol, Steinberg and Miller. Skip Lawson, manager of the Chicago-based Rainbow chain, places the blame for the store's poor showing in older product squarely on the nation's economy and on the higher price of new records. "The new releases, with their higher prices, have drastically cut into our (Continued on page 43)

High Court To Hear Blanket License Case

By BILL HOLLAND

■ WASHINGTON — The U.S. Supreme Court has announced it will hear the controversial blanket license complaint case between CBS and ASCAP and BMI on January 15.

Final written replies are due by January 10.

The controversial case, possibly involving anti-trust activity, goes back to an initial 1969 complaint by CBS in which it refused to accept the blanket license method offered by ASCAP and BMI.

A U.S. District Court ruling

did not find either organization engaged in price-fixing by offering blanket licenses, but in 1977 a U.S. Court of Appeals ruling overturned that decision.

The current case has been up for possible review by the Supreme Court for more than a year. The court decided it would hear the case this past October, after both sides had filed a series

CPME Grant to Martell Foundation

The T. J. Martell Memorial Foundation for Leukemia Research was recently given a check for $5,000 by the Conference of Personal Managers East. The contribution was made on behalf of Bruce Lundvall, president, CBS Records Division, who was recently honored by the CPME as Man of The Year at a luncheon attended by industry artists and executives. Lundvall designated the T. J. Martell Memorial Foundation, of which he is a charter member and trustee, to be recipient of part of the proceeds from the luncheon. RECORD WORLD SALES INDEX

*The Record World Sales Index is based on a broad cross-section of quantitative sales data reported to Record World from retailers, rack jobbers and one-stops across the country. The base figure for both the singles and album indices is a smoothed average of these quantitative reports during periods in March, 1976, with each weekly figure being a percentage increase or decrease on the base. The base figure for both singles and albums is 100.0.

New Inhouse Computer System Centerpiece Of Independent Firm's Expanded Regional Service

By SAM SUTHERLAND

■ SAN FRANCISCO — Augie Blume & Associates, the independent regional promotion service based on San Rafael, is taking a page from the majors' marketing by adding an in-house computer system as the basis for an expanded marketing and promotion profile.

An industry veteran who opened the indie firm with wife Nancy after a series of label posts, Blume already services an estimated 350 stations in 11 western states. With the recent delivery of the computer, he's eyeing the young but growing field of independent marketing consultants, with his company's new data system viewed as the most crucial link in establishing an efficient regional point-of-purchase service for his clients.

"It's an $8,000 system with a variety of uses," Blume explains, adding that the system capacity underscores the greatest in-house control now available in data systems. "It's got a good printer and a disc storage system that's got a huge data capacity for a system of this size." Apart from providing such basic aids as computerized service lists and retail contacts, the primary goal will be to develop detailed station programming profiles, with the system's reference line providing up to 127 categories of data for each station profile. "We're working with a local computer programmer now," Blume adds, "but we hope to begin writing programs in-house during the coming year."

Behind the projected development of a new marketing clientele and the purchase of the computer is Blume's assertion that regional and local programming and sales now require an extended research base. Like many promotion men, both independent and salaried by labels, Blume sees the rise of his own company and other indies as reflective of that need, as well as indicative of the reduced role national listings play in local market behavior.

"Over the years, particularly during the last two or three, I've heard some very heavy people, recognized industry leaders, admit that they're still trying to figure out what's really going on out there in the marketplace. National charts aren't enough; regional and local concentration is really what needs attention." Even so, the tug-of-war between national trends and local sales and airplay remains central. "A lot of times, the big problem radio faces today is its unwillingness to take chances. Stations are all looking for those top 15 records; they're not as interested as taking a shot with something that moved from 28 to 22." Thus, Blume argues stronger local and regional research will provide added leverage in convincing stations to add a record.

By building a data base tracing both individual artists and records by market, as well as station preferences, Blume also hopes for a clearer understanding of programming needs. "The base will be used to study individual station programming trends, not only with respect to the types of music and artists, but frequency of plays and time of day. We also want to find out how the station views its audience."

Although he notes that the marketing service is comparatively new, and only in the building stages, Blume projects handling specialty product as well as hits. Since forming his company five years ago, he has worked records on a label-wide basis for such labels including RCA, CBS, Warner Bros., 20th Century-Fox, Epic and Tomato Music, along with direct artist clients like Willie Nelson and Waylon Jennings. Yet Blume remains an outspoken advocate of smaller labels specializing in jazz, blues and folk artists, and points to his promotions for labels like Rounder and Kaleidoscope with equal fervor.

"It's great to work for an A&M Records," he notes, "because they're a great company, one I feel privileged to represent. But they are now also a big company. It's working on a George Thorogood and The Destroyers or a David Grisman Quintet that brings a special psychic income."

That attitude can be traced partially to Blume's years as national promo chief for the RCA-distributed Grunt label, which he and Nancy, who was national sales chief, helped form after earlier posts with both RCA and Columbia. From the small staff of Grunt, the Blumes sought an equally compact format for their current company: with the arrival of Carole Lee Keller, who is in charge of the new marketing service, the total staff numbers five people, including Rosemary Lee DeDe Whiteside.

Right now, his first marketing client is Mushroom Records, which has utilized Blume's promotion service since opening their U. S. operation. While the company is soliciting other marketing clients, Blume characterizes the growth process as a careful one. "We're just trying to get better at what we do, and grow while holding down the number of accounts to a reasonable minimum. For an operation like ours, stability rests with performing efficiently, which means learning how to balance the number of accounts with the types of product we're handling and the amount of activity. We don't try to overload ourselves with too many projects at a given time at the risk of losing anything."

WB Plans Campaign For 'Superman' S'track

■ LOS ANGELES—A two record set of the soundtrack music to the Alexander and Ilya Salkind production of the Richard Donner film "Superman" will be the subject of a major national merchandising, advertising and promotional campaign by Warner Bros. Records. The musical score to "Superman" was composed by Academy Award winning composer John Williams and performed by The London Symphony Orchestra. The special two album set will include sixteen musical pieces, highlighted by "Theme From Superman" and "Love Theme From Superman."

Radio Blitz

As a part of the comprehensive sales push for the "Superman" package, Warner Bros. Records will be working in conjunction with Warner Communications' ongoing promotion effort on behalf of the film. While the film division's advertising campaign will focus primarily on television and print mediums, Warner Bros. Records will undertake a saturation radio advertising blitz on 583 stations nationwide, backed by color ads in trade publications.

Aids

Additionally, Warner Bros. Records has planned a wide-reaching merchandising effort to feature a variety of retail and promotional aids. They include Superman patches, buttons, T-shirts, life-size stand-ups and posters, both of "Superman" star Christopher Reeve and of the "Superman" logo. A special motorized retail display, involving a phone booth and a revolving Superman mobile is also being prepared. Special contests, on both consumer and display levels, are being planned for key accounts and radio stations.

Dr. John Birthday Bash

Horizon Records artist Dr. John recently celebrated his birthday and his return to his hometown of New Orleans at a standing-room only party/concert at Rosy's. Horizon artist Neil Larsen, whose recently released album is entitled "Jungle Fever," opened the set. Radio Replay

By NEIL McINTYRE

■ As the year begins, with the news of ratings in different markets, the prognosticators of change start to go about the business of guessing who's going where, and what stations will be switching formats. The one thing that will occur in most of the markets that have been surveyed by the ARB is that what works in some cities will bomb in others. The music stations are discovering that the public is becoming more interested in listening to album product, and in many markets disco and black music is on the increase. The audience that radio has been paying the least attention to in recent years are the teenagers. That audience, which was the foundation for the beginnings of rock music and the top 40 formats, has been abandoned by the advertisers, and in turn radio programmers have cutback on teen-oriented music. The results of the concentration on the 18-34 group of listeners has put the teenagers on the move and in the New York area they have stopped at one type of format, showing over a 30 percent share at WKTU-FM with disco. The music of the fancy clubs and fashion set, has become a favorite with the young, who can't get enough of what they want to hear on the 40s or AOR stations.

The question for the radio people throughout the country is: how long will the popularity of disco music last? The person with the answer could make a lot of money and friends. But who would believe him?

THE POWER PLAY BEGINS: Limiting the clear channel power stations across the country, to make room for 125 new local radio stations, will be debated for some time before approval is granted. Most of the emphasis in discussions will be on the side of the small market station. My opinion on the subject of which would be better for the public is mixed. This problem has existed for radio stations that are forced to be daytime broadcasters, because the frequency was the same as the power station. I believe the current 50,000 watt clear channel stations serve more of a purpose than just a reliable companion for truck drivers as they travel from state to state, but serve the sparsely populated areas of rural America. Small towns that can't financially support a local radio station because of the lack of business and population will be hurt by the cutting back of the voice from the large city.

The owners of 50,000 watt clear channel stations are trying to hold on to the prestige that the power brings, not the financial rewards, since their commercial rate card is based upon the radio stations' performance in the ratings for the market they're broadcasting from. The big signals that beam across the country provide entertainment that might not be matchable on the smaller budgets of small town radio. The best professionals find their way to the major markets and the power stations pay a high price for the talent and the services that are dispensed free of charge to small towns. It's easy and popular to attack the big station, but the service provided in entertainment and national and international news will be tough to duplicate for the new station on the power frequency.

On the side of the small stations is a very big function, one that the biggest can't match: being in touch with the people and the problems of the small radio station's community. This will be the point driven home the most by the supporters who are in favor of adding 125 more AM stations throughout the country.

The ability of the local station to know what's important to the people it serves is the reason the FCC grants licenses to broadcast to the owners of radio stations who only own the land and the equipment; the air waves belong to the public, and are leased by the qualified licensee.

I'm sure that the main concentration of programming people at power stations is providing entertainment and service to the area they reside in, since if they don't make it at home, they're out of business no matter how popular they might be hundreds of miles

FM Stations Make Inroads In L.A. and Chicago ARBs

By NEIL McINTYRE

■ NEW YORK—The results of the Oct./Nov. Arbitron radio survey for Los Angeles and Chicago are being looked over by programmers in both markets. The two radio markets have one thing in common with each other: the AM radio stations are having their shares picked apart by the variety of FM stations. The added competition of different types of FM radio formats is diluting and causing overall erosion in the metro 12 plus shares.

In Chicago, WGN remains on top, but is down from the summer book. WGN is 10.1 from 12.0, WLOO is up from 7.1 to 7.3, WBBM-AM is up from 6.7 to 7.1. One of the hardest hit in this latest ARB is WLS; the station experienced its lowest book in the last year. WLS dropped from a summer 12 plus metro share of 8.3 to 6.3 in the October/November. WMAQ was up from 5.6 to 6.5, WIND was down from 4.6 to 3.0, WVON was steady from 3.4 to 3.3. The FM stations that moved up were, WLUP from 2.0 to 2.8, WCOR-FM from 2.9 to 3.8, WBBM-FM from 2.0 to 2.6, WFYR up from 3.0 to 3.5, WGCI from 1.5 to 1.9, WXRT up from 1.7 to 2.0. WBMX-FM was off from a 5.6 to 4.9, and WMET was steady from 2.2 to 2.1, but off from a 3.9 a year ago. WDAI was down from 1.7 to 1.3 with its AOR format; they switched last week to all disco music.

The Los Angeles market still showed KABC on top with a 6.5 down, from the summer baseball book of 10.4. The FM leader with a beautiful music format is KBIG up from 5.6 to 6.0. KMET was steady from 4.8 to 4.9. Both KRLA and KHJ dropped from a 3.1 with KHJ at 2.7 and KRLA at 2.6. KUTE dropped over a full point from 3.7 to 2.6. KMPC was down from 4.0 to 3.1, KNX-FM remained at 3.1, KIQQ was up from 1.3 to 1.8, KIIS-FM was up from 1.7 to 2.1, KTNQ was steady from 2.0 to 2.1, KLOS from 2.3 to 2.4. KLAC, with country, was up over a point from 2.6 to 3.9, KFI was off from 3.1 to 2.6, KRTH from 3.2 to 3.0, KWST down from 1.6 to 1.3. KDAY was up from 2.2 to 2.5, while KKTT was down from 1.1 to 0.6. On the increase, doubling their ratings from the previous book, is KFAC-FM, from 0.8 to 1.6.

Disco Fashion Show

Capitol recording artists Freda Payne and Janice Johnson and Hazel Payne of A Taste Of Honey recently graced a benefit disco fashion show at Saks Fifth Avenue when they modeled creations by designer Fernando Sanchez. The gala event was hosted by Hal Jackson, vice president of New York station WBLS, and proceeds went to the National Conference of Christians and Jews and the Boy Scouts of Harlem. Pictured at the Saks affair are, from left: Peppe Sutton; Fernando Sanchez; Hal Jackson; Freda Payne; Hazel Payne; and Janice Johnson.

8. "Cruisin'" lp, Village People, "Last Dance," "Live and More" lp, Donna Summer (Casablanca). Media promotion and extensive touring helped push these records and artists to platinum status—but was the music ever worth it; Village People's carefully wrought character acting gained ever more irony as America took the group to their hearts, and the gay sensibility was impressed by the wit and sensitivity of lead singer/lyricist Victor Willis' writing. Special PSA honors for "Ups and Downs," a startling and disarming song to a pill habit. Donna Summer's development as a singer and writer has been dazzling, fulfilling the highest hopes sparked by the versatility and depth revealed on "I Remember Yesterday" and "Once Upon a Time . . ." Summer and producers Giorgio Moroder and Pete Belotte can only be expected to continue progressing from strength to strength, carrying disco along to new standards of imagination and excellence.

9. RECORD WORLD SINGLE PICKS

AEROSMITH—Columbia 3-10880

CHIP AWAY THE STONE
(prod. by J. Douglas-group) (writer: R. Supa) (Colgems-EMI/Glory, ASCAP) (3:59)

Taken from their "live Bootleg" album, Aerosmith rocks out with a vengeance on one of their biggest crowd pleasers. The bass line is, of course, thunderous and Steve Tyler's vocals are throaty and hard rock perfect. Sure to get AOR and pop attention.

THE STYLISTICS—H & L 4702

THE LION SLEEPS TONIGHT
(prod. by Hugo & Luigi) (writers: Hugo & Luigi-Weiss-Stanton) (Folkways, BMI) (3:24)

The veteran r&b group takes a decided step into the pop market with this crafty re-make of The Tokens/Robert John hit. The beat has but a touch of disco and their renowned vocal harmonies are stunning here. The record has something for everyone.

JOHN DAVIS & THE MONSTER ORCHESTRA—Sam 3-10886 (Col)

AIN'T THAT ENOUGH FOR YOU (prod. by Davis) (writer: same) (Midsong/Mideb/John Davis, ASCAP) (3:28)

The label recently signed a distribution deal with CBS and this is the first release. The Monster Orchestra has scored big in the past at the discos and this new disc is oft-heard there. It's a full production with powerful bass line and soaring female vocals.

SEA LEVEL—Capricorn 0312

LIVING IN A DREAM
(prod. by S. Levine) (writers: Bramlett-Causey-Pearson) (Stoned Individual/Sweet Glory, ASCAP) (3:22)

The group's roots are firmly planted in a kind of Southern jazz rock and this single is yet another lovely blend. Taken from the "On The Edge" lp it features light and tasty instrumentation and lead vocals and could be their biggest commercial single to date.

JOHNNY CASH—Columbia 3-10888

I WILL ROCK AND ROLL WITH YOU
(prod. by L. Butler) (writer: Cash) (House of Cash, BMI) (2:50)

Cash's classic style is spotlighted on this autobiographical tune with a giggle in the lyrics. It should pick up equal amounts of pop and country play.

DONNA FARGO—Warner Bros. 8722

SOMEbody SPECIAL (prod. by S. Silver) (writer: Fargo) (Prima-Donna, BMI) (2:58)

Fargo's first single in some time has lots of crossover potential with a lively hook and story-lyrics that gear it for pop/adult play.

C.W. McCALL—Polydor 14527

OUTLAWS AND LONE STAR BEER (prod. by Sears-Davis) (writer: Duncan-Durrill) (Rightsong/Shelmer-Poe, BMI) (1:52)

McCall's story-songs have made impact in both country and pop and this descriptive new tune should rouse adult interest first. Watch out Waylon and Willie!

MICHAEL CLARK—Capitol 4670

DANCIN' SHOES (prod. by Dain Eric) (writer: Storie) (Canal, BMI) (3:49)

The song is already out by two other artists but Clark's country-flavored version deserves attention as well. His easy-going delivery is just right.

CRACK THE SKY—Lifesong 1782 (CBS)

I AM THE WALRUS (prod. by Cashman-West-Stevens) (writers: Lennon-McCartney) (pub. not listed) (3:30)

The group picked the classic Beatles tune for a faithful reworking with a few instrumental changes. It's a curious new release worthy of pop attention.

BOBBY HOOD—Chute 103

I HURT ENOUGH (FOR BOTH OF US)
(prod. by G. Lamb) (writer: Hood) (Starcast, ASCAP) (2:32)

The record has an early rock feel with a tad of country overtones in the lyrics. Hood's vocals are backed by a sparse but compelling arrangement.

JEAN CARN—Phila. Intl. 3667 (CBS)

THERE'S A SHORTAGE OF GOOD MEN
(prod. by Gamble-Huff) (writers: same) (Mighty Three, BMI) (3:03)

Carn's semi-serious indictment of the male of the species is a disco offering with very sophisticated arrangements and Carn's gospel touch in the vocals.

STONY ISLAND BAND—Glades 1751 (TK)

STONY ISLAND BAND (prod. by Davis-Barge) (writers: Simon-Robinson) (Kid Brother, BMI) (3:57)

A punchy disco beat keys this new cut from the "Stony Island" soundtrack. It's funk at its finest with suitably placed hand claps and a stirring male-female vocal.

T-CONNECTION—Dash 5048 (TK)

AT MIDNIGHT (prod. by Wade) (writers: Coakley-Mackey) (Sherlyn/Decible, BMI) (3:37)

The group has already made solid BOS inroads and this Hialeah family production should pick up pop play as well. It's slick and right for crossover markets.

JIMMY "BO" HORNE—Sunshine Sound 1007 (TK)

SPANK (prod. by Smith-Casey-Finch) (writer: Smith) (Harrick, BMI) (3:24)

The "Spank" theme in disco grows with each new release and Jimmy "Bo" Horne's contribution has a pulsating beat ripe for the dance floor or the airwaves.

Manhattan 'Playoffs' Reach Final Stages

■ NEW YORK — Finalists in the Manhattan Music Playoffs, a borough-wide competition for contemporary amateur groups will perform before a panel of music industry representatives on January 6 for the final determination of the winners of several musical opportunities.

Eleven groups chosen in the preliminaries, held December 2 and 9 will compete for a singles contract with Infinity Records, a week's engagement at The Riverboat, with DIR taping a set for broadcast by the King Biscuit Flower Hour. The first runner-up will be offered a showcase at Trax, and the second runner-up a showcase at MCL Club.

Hal Jackson, VP and program director of WBLS, and Alison Steele, WNEW-FM's "Nightbird," will act as hosts for the finals, which will be held at Hunter College Auditorium. A panel of judges representing a cross-section of the music industry and consumers, will decide the winners, based on a graduating scale of points awarded for musicality, material and stage presence.

Manhattan Borough president Andrew Stein, whose office developed the concept of the Playoffs, and implemented the event through the creation of the Music Task Force, a group of industry volunteers, will make the presentation of the first prize.

Firefall's 'Toys For Tots'

RECORD WORLD ALBUM PICKS

MY OWN HOUSE

DAVID BROMBERG—Fantasy F-9572 (7.98)

This totally acoustic set of songs, Bromberg feels, lend themselves easily to a folk treatment and display the imagination and ingenuity that is his trademark. From the beginning to the end, this record deserves a serious listen.

LEGENDS

DAVE VALENTIN—GRP 5001 (Arista) (7.98)

The debut lp from this veteran flautist showcases his broad musical background as he fuses jazz, Latin and classical styles. An altogether appealing record, it has a wide appeal with many crossover possibilities.

GREATEST HITS OF THE NATIONAL LAMPOON

Visa 7008 (Jem) (7.98)

This greatest hits package contains some of the most memorable routines from the six Lampoon albums. From "Deteriorata" to "Kung-fu Christmas" to "Magical Misery Tour," this could become a very popular item with personalities like John Belushi involved.

HOW I SPENT MY VACATION

MITCH RYDER—Seeds & Stems SS 7801 (7.98)

After a long hiatus from recording Ryder is back with an lp that sounds as if he never left. His vocals retain their keen edge and he proves he can still rock and roll with "Dance Ourselves to Death" and "Nice 'n Easy" being standouts.

ONCE MOORE WITH FEELING

DOROTHY MOORE—Malaco 6356 (TK) (7.98)

Moore once again displays her soulful vocals on this consistent and well rounded set. Her powerful readings of "Special Occasion" and Jim Weatherly's "Being Alone" are only a sampling of what this lady can do.

MIND MAGIC

DAVID OLIVER—Mercury SRM-1-3747 (7.98)

Last year Oliver scored successfully with "Jamerican Man" and he seems poised for a repeat this time around. The single, "Housewives Are People Too" is picking up airplay, while "I Wanna Write You A Love Song" is also seeing action.

DUETS

JERRY LEE LEWIS AND FRIENDS—Sun 1011 (7.98)

The controversial recordings by Lewis and a very familiar sounding second vocalist stand as a classic example of the early Sun days. Regardless of that person's identity, the yellow vinyl and exquisite mono sound should help to make this a popular item.

MILESTONE JAZZSTARS IN CONCERT

VARIOUS ARTISTS—Milestone M-55006

These four sides feature performances by the label's four artists (McCoy Tyner, Ron Carter, Sonny Rollins and Al Foster) whose recent tour was a highly acclaimed event. These players show why they are some of the finest acoustic jazzmen around.

DOCTOR BOOGIE

DON DOWNING—RS International RSIL 100-A (7.98)

The debut record from this talented vocalist is a well rounded disc with a disco undercurrent.

The Bongiovi-Quinn produced set should find little trouble establishing a following. "Sugar & Spice" is one of the most immediate cuts.

SHOT OF LOVE

LAKESIDE—Solar BXL1 2937 (RCA) (7.98)

With the single already bulleting on the RW BOS chart, this funky set is beginning to gain strength throughout the nation. The finely crafted r&b rhythms that dominate make this an attractive record.

A Moving Certainty That Tomorrow Can Be Now

Salsoul Sets Campaign For Charo, Funk LPs

■ NEW YORK—Joe Cayre, president of the Salsoul Record Corporation, has announced the immediate release of Charo's second album, "Olé, Olé," and a debut lp from Instant Funk to be distributed by RCA Records. The announcement was confirmed at RCA's regional meetings held in Nashville and Dallas this January 2-6.

In an effort to launch the two new albums, a promotional, merchandising and publicity campaign has been put into effect. To coordinate with the Charo project, four-color posters and life-size, cut-out stand-ups are being shipped to key dealers across the country. Initial pressings of both the twelve-inch and the album are in a limited edition on pink vinyl. Four-color posters and mobiles are also available for Instant Funk. For both projects, radio and television time is being reserved across the country, as is national consumer print advertising. A trade ad campaign should break mid-January, with dealer co-op advertising beginning shortly thereafter. A personal appearance promotional tour is being planned for both artists, and Charo will be performing and talking up her record on national television for the next three months.

■ ADDENDUM TO 1978's NEAR HITS: It occurred to us last week that several notable examples of records that fell into this category were omitted from last week's story. Principal among them is "Approved By the Motors" by the Motors (Virgin/CBS). This album contains two former British top ten hits in "Airport" and "Forget About You" and what is quite simply some of the best pop music to be produced from the U.K. in years. Many reasons have been offered why neither song failed to make an impact with top 40 radio here despite their obvious strengths (Leif Garrett has already covered "Forget About You"), while the label is attempting to break the group again with a third offering, "Today." Meanwhile, market researchers in the U.K. have investigated the low sales of the lp there and have come up with these comments regarding its sleeve: "They (the Motors) look old, pasty, ugly, aggressive, convict and dumb." As a recourse, the cover has been redesigned without the facial close-ups.

Other notable omissions include Ian Dury's "New Boots and Panties" (Arista/Stiff), with its good songs including "Wake Up and Make Love" and considerable excitement about the artist during his tour here; Paul Brett's "Interlife" (RCA), an exquisite album of instrumental music with several strong melodic themes running through it; Tom Robinson's Band's "Rising Free" (Harvest), with songs like "2-4-6-8 Motorway" and the bargain of two lps for the price of one it is surprising that '78 wasn't the year for TRB; Boomtown Rats' "Tonic For the Troops" (Ensign import), the lp was on the Columbia release schedule and then off and is now on again for the end of January. Despite the work it will take to initiate them to an American audience, the lp was one of the most acclaimed albums of the year in the U.K. and it spawned three top ten singles including a recent

THE COAST

By SAMUEL GRAHAM and SAM SUTHERLAND

■ NORTHERN COMFORT—Stage door Johnnies and Janes wandering into The Roxy's dressing room were likely a bit baffled on a recent Wednesday night when confronted by musicians and management types sporting tour T-shirts for a hitherto unsung outfit known as Northside Neon and The Seattle Nukes. Was this the latest stroke in clone rock?

Hardly. As the marquee outside explained, the star in question was really Ian Matthews, displaying his traditionally askew sense of humor, and in town to finish the final dates of his recent U.S. tour. If most of the patrons had been drawn there by the current success of Matthews' single, "Shake It," and his first Mushroom album, "Stealin' Home," there was also a minority ripple of appreciative applause and fond requests for Matthews chestnuts as much as a decade old. Like many other "new" stars, Matthews is really a seasoned rock journeyman with a large body of previous work; unlike many of those peers, his success can't be attributed to a major shift in musical direction or an infusion of dollars and clout from a major. Less obvious, but at least as significant to the labels he's cut for in the past, Matthews' music has sustained a level of quality that seldom reflected his checkered commercial acceptance.

The fact is underscored by several ironies reflected in "Stealin' Home." In a sense, the project is a multiple reunion, for it marked Matthews' return to England for recording, a renewed instrumental partnership with Mark Griffiths, bassist in Matthews Southern Comfort, and, most crucially, a reunion with producer Sandy Robertson. Robertson had produced the underrated but exquisite Plainsong album, Matthews' second group effort after leaving Fairport Convention in the late '60s, as well as "Journeys From Gospel Oake," a subdued but likewise tasteful country-rock collection released overseas by Mooncrest in the mid-'70s. After moving from MCA (with Southern Comfort) to Vertigo (solo) to Elektra (Plainsong and solo) to Columbia, Matthews had yet to find a calling card as effective as "Woodstock," which had proven a huge single hit for Matthews Southern Comfort. By now, the majors underestimated Matthews' ability to deliver, but Robertson, in the process of setting up his own Rockburgh label, was willing to take another chance.

"When Sandy called me up to make this record, the thing that was in the back of my mind was that the Plainsong album had caught the best vocal sound I'd ever gotten," Matthews told us. "I think I tend to judge my albums a lot by how I perform, rather than the material or production, and there's a few of my records, like 'Valley Hi,' that people think are my best work, but that I'll say are dreadful. I mean, I didn't like my singing. But I really felt Plainsong had been a high point."

Where the majors saw a cult artist in decline, Robertson, who co-produced with Matthews, saw another chance at framing Matthews' delicate tenor and balancing his original songs with the singer's customary gourmet taste in covers. Often misinterpreted as a folk-rocker because of that first, short-lived tenure with Fairport, Matthews is really a cosmopolitan writer and interpreter whose work reflects a broad range of tastes. A manic record collector, his early solo lps now read like prophecies of the '70s' most important writers, from Randy Newman and Mickey Newbury to Tom Waits, Jackson Browne, Van Morrison and Jesse Winchester.

The difference now seems one of attitude. Finishing his Roxy set with Winchester's "Payday," Matthews looked happier onstage than at any point during his first few years as a U.S. resident—despite some problems within the set that would have triggered visible discomfort a few years earlier. Now living in Seattle, and fronting a strong live band which includes Griffiths, Mick Weaver, drummer Jim Russell, slide guitarist and mouth harp player Joel Tepp and guitarist Bob Metzger, Matthews is clearly happy with his new label, his new management (John Strawn of Beaux Arts Associates, also in Seattle) and his new popularity.

Better late than never is our prognosis.

NOTES AND COMMENT: Hollywood isn't the classiest place to celebrate the holidays. That is, unless cheesy plastic Santa Claus decorations hanging over Hollywood Boulevard's countless porn bookstores and sleazy lingerie shops are your idea of Christmas cheer. But if you think that's tasteless, you should check out the December issue of a sheet called "Between the Ears," written and published by Sire Records' Marc Nathan. Now this guy takes the subtle approach: the very first line of the ish modestly tells us that "this issue is funny!"

Elton John's Success Story Continues

■ The platinum certification of Elton John's latest album, "A Single Man," is only the latest chapter in a success story that spans the last decade. Elton John's ascension to superstardom since the release of his first album, "Empty Sky" in 1969 has already been well documented. Through his 15 albums he has firmly established himself as one of the world's premier songwriters and concert attractions.

The songwriting team of Elton John and Bernie Taupin, responsible for most of Elton's numerous hits got its first real break while the duo was working as professional songwriters for Dick James Music in 1968. After being encouraged to write the type of material that appealed to them most, they began to collaborate on a long string of hits beginning with "Your Song" and a debut lp produced by Gus Dudgeon that proved to be a worldwide success.

From that point onward, Elton and Bernie Taupin enjoyed successes in various musical idioms that at once demonstrated the depth of their talent and expanded their audience through hits in rock, MOR and r&b styles. By 1973 Elton formed his own label, Rocket Records, co-owned by his manager, John Reid and re-launched the careers of artists like Neil Sedaka, Kiki Dee and Cliff Richard. Two years later he

Velvet Records' 20th Anniversary

Velvet en Sus 20 Años de Exitos

■ 20 años de triunfos, 20 años impulsando los valores artísticos nacionales y nuestra música, es uno de los avales para decir que la Velvet en Venezuela se ha convertido en una de las industrias disqueras más poderosas del país y con más arraigo popular.

Fundada en el año de 1958 en La Habana, Cuba, por los hermanos José y Roberto Pagés con el aporte humano de Gumerindo Rodríguez, se inició en el mundo disquero grabando los temas interpretados por verdaderas luminarias de la canción, como son Blanca Rosa Gil, Nico Membiola, Lino Borges, Luis Bravo, Chepino y su Orquesta y otras tantas figuras.

Sin embargo la mira era Venezuela, especialmente por la cosecha de valores nacionales que sólo estaban en la espera de una firma disquera que los impulsara y los diera a conocer, no sólo en el mercado nacional, sino también en el exterior.

Así fué como la Velvet instaló sus oficinas en Caracas, en 1960, precisamente en el lugar donde ha permanecido durante estos primeros 20 años, próximo ahora a establecer nuevas y modernas dependencias en un amplio y vistoso edificio ubicado también en el centro de la ciudad.

A partir de esa fecha numerosos han sido los artistas nacionales que han dejado grabadas sus voces para la poderosa e importante industria disquera venezolana, que logró reunir a los mejores intérpretes de la canción, llevándolos de triunfo en triunfo.

José Pagés, motor principal de la industria, al hacer el recuento de los 20 años de actividades de la Velvet, señala con emoción las primeras grabaciones lanzadas al mercado nacional con artistas venezolanos, indicando que fueron Héctor Cabrera, Mario Suárez, Rafael Montaña, Juan Vicente Torrealba, Los Tucositos, Mirla Castellanos y Lila Morillo, los iniciadores de toda una época de oro del disco en nuestro país.

Posteriormente se fueron incorporando otras voces, todas de gran calidad, ahora consagradas como figuras de primer orden, algunas de prestigio internacional como el recordado Felipe Pirela, quien ha sido el mejor vendedor de discos de todos los tiempos, pese a tener varios años

De esta nueva etapa, se recuerda a Rudy Hernández, Trío Venezuela, Los Naipes, con Mirtha Pérez, Porfi Jiménez, Cherry Navarro, Chelique Sarabia, José Luis Rodríguez, Miguel Itriago, Rincón Morales, Mayra Martí, Henry Stephen, Los Impala, Los Danceros, Héctor Murga, Estelita del Llano, Luis D'Ubaldo, Nancy Ramos, Mirna Ríos, Los Imperiales, María Teresa Chacín, Oswaldo Oropeza, Aldemaro Romero, América Alonso, Tania, Los Pájaros, Gimeno, Gloria Martí, El Indio Figueredo, Pablo Canela, y otros tantos cuyos nombres han quedado escritos en el libro de oro de Velvet.

Pero no sólo el artista nacional ha tenido la oportunidad de formar parte de esa gran familia, también en el renglón extranjero la poderosa firma disquera ha tenido artistas de renombre internacional, como son Danny Rivera, quien junto con el venezolano Felipe Pirela ha sido el dúo de los grandes vendedores de discos de la industria venezolana; Sophy, Wilkins, Donna Summers, Eydie Gormé, el Gran Combo de Puerto Rico, Cortijo y su Combo, Eddy y Charlie Palmieri, Ismael Rivera, la Orquesta Broadway, José Fajardo y su Orquesta, Rolando Laserie, Roberto Ledesma, Bobby Valentín, Puerto Rico All Stars, Machito y su Orquesta, la Banda del Barrio, Alvarez Guedez, etc.

Entre las nuevas adquisiciones que ya están grandemente penetradas con la Velvet y José Pagés figuran Andy Montañez, Pellín Rodríguez, La Dimensión Latina, La Salsa Mayor, Pecos Kanvas, Oswaldo Rey y con gran relieve el grupo Punto Sur, ampliamente internacionalizado; Nelson Henríquez, Hernán Marín, Pancho Prim, Guillermo Carrasco, Grupo Standard, Los Blancos de Maracaibo, Luis Gerardo Tovar, el internacional Sandro, la Rondalla Larense, Los Guaros, el Grupo Bota, el conjunto Pasteles Verdes, La Combinación, Grupo Chiclos, Rafa y sus Diamantes, y otros de buena fama en el mundo del disco.

José Pagés, motor principal de la firma disquera, ha logrado reunir un conjunto de personas que él considera han sido sus principales colaboradores en estos primeros 20 años de actividades. Con estimación menciona a Raúl Roges, Antonio Vallenilla, quien se desempeña como Gerente de la firma; Tony Moreno, Luis Rivero Bruzual, el popular Tucuso, Director de Producción y Jefe de la División Número 1; Francisco Mendoza, Jefe de la División Número 2 y Carlos Raybans, Jefe de la División Número 3.

Estos a su vez también cuentan con sus amplios colaboradores como José Yamawaky, un veterano en el ambiente disquero nacional; Armando Rojas, también conocedor del mundo del disco, además de su eficiente secretaria, señora Isabel de Pulgar y el simpático grupo de secretarías de departamentos.

Pero la Velvet, no se ha mantenido sólo como la firma que se inciaza hace 20 años. Ha crecido y en forma vertiginosa y en los actuales momentos cuenta con disqueras filiales como Disqueras Unidas, cuyo Gerente y Productor es el dinámico Francisco Contreras, Corpodisco, a cuyo frente se encuentra uno de los grandes conocedores del disco, como es Manuel Pulido, y Sonoven, también bajo la dirección de otro de los buenos veteranos del ramo como Pedro J. González.

Además Velvet cuenta ahora con la fábrica de Discos Dark, cuyo Gerente es Julio González, la empresa Lider Multicassette C.A., cuya gerente es la señorita Ligia Díaz y su Departamento de Cortes "Audio Matrices de Venezuela C.A.", bajo la dirección de Carlos Eduardo Torres.

Como si fuera poco, Velvet tiene sus propias tiendas, que son: "Yarilys Musical C.A.," a cuyo frente se encuentra José Valenzuela; "Centro Musical Petare C.A." con Gonzalo Alvarez en la gerencia; "Musical Mirandisco C.A.," con Gumerindo Miranda, padre, y además "Sonodiscos C.A." y "Discoteca Ritmo C.A."

La Velvet cuenta ahora con oficinas en ciudades importantes como Los Angeles, Miami y Puerto Rico, desde donde maneja los contratos para la distribución, representación y contratos de sus artistas, tanto nacionales como internacionales. Por eso al celebrar los 20 años de éxitos de Velvet, sólo nos queda agregar: "siempre adelante."

La Organizacian Velvet en U.S. y Puerto Rico

■ Comenzó sus operaciones en Estados Unidos y Puerto Rico la empresa Velvet en Junio del 1965, bajo la presidencia y dirección de Roberto Pagés, quien dinámicamente sometió el producto a una enérgica promoción, convirtiendo en éxitos espectaculares a artistas que desde ese momento afianzaron su fama y popularidad a través de los años y bajo la tutela del sello de terciopelo.

Las ventas obtenidas por artistas del calibre de Felipe Pirela, de Venezuela, y Blanca Rosa Gil, de Cuba, en los primeros años de función de la empresa, aún han sido difíciles de igualar. Los medios de promoción cambiaron de hecho todos los sistemas previamente establecidos, catapulteando a la etiqueta a niveles espectaculares.

En poco tiempo se situó Velvet a la cabeza de la industria latina en Estados Unidos. Una vez alcanzada su meta, cambió su residencia, algunos años más tarde, Roberto Pagés a Puerto Rico, desde Miami, donde originalmente dirigía la operación Velvet.

La labor desplegada en Puerto Rico situó a la etiqueta también en posición privilegiada, donde se ha mantenido todo el tiempo.

El cuerpo ejecutivo de Velvet Records, Inc., y Velvet de Puerto Rico, Inc. está integrado de la siguiente manera: Roberto Pagés presidente; José Pagés, vice presidente; Marcelo Rey, asistente del gerente de Puerto Rico, Ramón Castellanos, manager de las oficinas y almacenes de Hialeah, Florida; Tony Fernández, gerente de la sucursal de Los Angeles; Stanley Steinhaus, gerente comercial con base en las oficinas Velvet de Los Angeles y Manolo González gerente de la sucursal de San Antonio, Texas.

Durante este año, Velvet obtuvo la distribución nacional en Estados Unidos y Puerto Rico, del producto latino Polydor y Philips, incluyendo República Dominicana. Las grabaciones están siendo lanzadas a través de las etiquetas Atlas y Mercurio. De acuerdo con estos nuevos compromisos, Velvet amplió sus facilidades promocionales y de distribución, abriendo oficinas y almacenes en las ciudades de Los Angeles, California y de San Antonio, Texas, con lo cual ha cubierto totalmente todo el territorio continental norteamericano.

Entre las producciones Velvet de Estados Unidos figuran las de los siguientes artistas: Sophy, Tony Croatto Odilio González, Johanna Rosaly, Nito Méndez, Antonio Domínguez, Danny Rivera, Wilkins, Sandra Zaiter, Conjunto Universal, Orlando Contreras y otros artistas que se están agregando al repertorio. Entre las producciones Velvet realizadas en Venezuela se cuentan: Dimensión Latina, Salsa Mayor, Pecos Kanvas Luis Gerardo Tovar, Felipe Pirela, Héctor Cabrera, Mirtha, Blanca Rosa Gil, Estelita Muñoz, Trio Venezuela, Juan Legido y otros.

Del elenco Atlas y Mercurio, actualmente en promoción y venta, se cuentan: Víctor Yturbe, Demis Roussos, Hermanos Banda, Sergio Denis, Conchita Colís, Conjunto Tropical Costa Mar, Carmen del Valle Grupo Yndio, Generación 2000, Juan Erasmo Mochi, Elio Roca, Luz Roja de San Marcos Area 8 y Trigo Limpio.

La política y característica de la empresa se reflejan en trabajo árduo y continuo a favor de sus artistas lo cual ha hecho de Velvet, una de las pioneras actualmente líder en la promoción y distribución de producto latino en Estados Unidos y Puerto Rico.

Velvet Records Inc. was established in the United States and Puerto Rico on June 1965, under the direction of Roberto Pagés, who dynamically exposed their product to a very energetic promotion which drove all their artists to fame and popularity.

Sales obtained by artists of the caliber of Felipe Pirela of Venezuela and Blanca Rosa Gil of Cuba since the beginning of the company are still difficult to surpass. Velvet's means of promoting artists changed all the previously established systems, lifting the label to spectacular levels.

In a short time Velvet became a leader of the Latin industry in the United States. Once they reached their goal, Roberto Pagés went to Puerto Rico from Miami, where he had originally directed Velvet.

Their accomplishment in Puerto Rico placed the label in a privileged situation which they have maintained through the years. The executive staff of Velvet Records Inc. and Velvet of Puerto Rico, Inc. is established as follows: Roberto Pagés, president, (Continued on page 14)

Velvet Records' 20th Anniversary

Luis Rivero Bruzual Carlos Raybans

■ La producción de artistas Venezolanos y la comercialización de este material con países de habla hispana han sido los distintivos de trabajo del también conocido por el remoquete de "El Tucuso."

Sus comienzos se remontan a unos 10 años atrás cuando bajo las labores de promoción y publicidad, prestó sus servicios a la EMI en Venezuela. En 1974 pasa a formar parte de la familia Velvet donde inicialmente es considerado el "one man band," ya que era fácil verlo desempeñando funciones de producción, promoción, mercadeo y supervisión en las ventas.

Pero la especificación ha sido la característica distintiva de Velvet en sus éxitos y es así como Bruzual se dedica a la producción, obteniendo éxitos como Punto Sur, grupo que ha logrado ventas superiores en toda Latinoamérica.

Luego le dió curso a una idea que pocos se atreven a desarrollar: "Un narrador en la industria del disco!" Así aparece Luis Gerardo Tovar, quien poco tiempo después alcanza niveles de venta equiparables a los de un artista de música contemporánea pero sólo con sus opemas narrados con un fondo melódico.

Los Blanco, un grupo ya conocido pero que conquista nuevas fronteras en las manos del "Tucuso." "En cuestión de mercado," afirma Bruzual, "naces en un país, creces en ese país y finalmente tienes la facilidad de trabajar en el negocio de la música. Aprendes técnicas y luego, tal vez por el destino mismo, apareces en el sitio correcto y en el momento correcto y todo comienza a salir bien."

Como compositor, "Juguete Caro" le ha dado todas las satisfacciones que se puedan desear (interpretado por el Grupo Punto Sur). Y todavía hoy en día, a veces, no resiste la tentación y sale a la calle a reforzar la promoción del producto.

The production of Venezuelan artists and their promotion in other Spanish-speaking countries have been the outstanding accomplishments of the well known Luis Rivero Bruzual, also known as "El Tucuso."

He began 10 years ago while working in the field of promotion and publicity for EMI of Venezuela. In the year 1974, he became part of the Velvet family where he was initially considered a "one man band," because he would work at production, promotion, marketing and sales supervision. But in Velvet he has been characterized specifically by his success, and this is how Bruzual works with production, obtaining success with artists like

■ Inicialmente su inclusión en la industria del disco es meramente circunstancial. Iniciado como hombre de radio, desarrolla estudios en los Estados Unidos en el campo del mercado y psicología. "Es el campo más cercano a la radio," comenta Carlos y continúa, "y cuando por circunstancias que prefiero no recordar tuve que salir del medio, la mano que salió en mi ayuda fué la del negocio discográfico."

Es así como Raybans se encarga de los asuntos internacionales de Velvet. Su conocimiento de la producción sajona y europea hacen que maneje con cierto tino los catálogos foráneos y que artistas ya conocidos en el exterior como Donna Summer rompan todos los records de ventas en el país.

Carlos Raybans

"El mantener relaciones con gente de otros países que también se desenvuelven en la industria del disco, conocer nuevas técnicas y desarrollar artistas que han logrado fama o no en el exterior. Aprender lo que sobre mercado y publicidad se sabe en otras fronteras."

Carlos Raybans' beginnings in the record industry are merely circumstantial. He began in radio, and he studied marketing and psychology in the United States. "It's the field closest to radio," Carlos comments and then adds, "and when circumstances which I'd rather not comment on made me reach out for a helping hand, the record business was there to help me."

Raybans is in charge of Velvet's international matters. His knowledge of the Anglo-Saxon and European way of being helps him to work the foreign catalogues with good judgment and makes him able to help inter-values and music, are reasons to say that Velvet in Venezuela has become one of the most powerful and popular record companies in the country.

Founded in the year 1958 in La Habana, Cuba, by José and Roberto Pagés with the human support of Gumersindo Rodríguez, it began in the record world, recording songs interpreted by such singers as Blanca Rosa Gil, Nico Membiela, Lino Borges, Luis Bravo, Chepino y su Orquesta, and other great performers.

Nevertheless, their goal was Venezuela, especially due to the national values that were only waiting for a record company that would promote and make them known, not only in the national market, but also in the international market.

That's how Velvet installed its offices in Caracas, in 1960, precisely at the same place where they've been for these first 20 years, and soon they are going to establish new and modern offices in a large and beautiful building also located in the center of the city.

Since that day, numerous national artists have recorded their voices for the powerful and important Venezuelan recording company which was able to bring together the best interpreters of songs, leading them from success to success.

José Pagés, head of the company, when speaking of the first 20 years of activity at Velvet, points out with emotion the first recordings released to the national market by Venezuelan artists, including Héctor Cabrera, Mario Suárez, Rafael Montaña, Juan Vicente Torrealba, Los Tucucitos, Mirla Castellanos, and Lila Morillo, the leaders of records' golden epoch in Venezuela.

Soon after that, other voices began to join in, all with great quality, devoted performers, some internationally recognized, such as Felipe Pirela, who has been the top record seller of all times in Venezuela, even though he passed away years ago.

From those times, we recall Rudy Hernández, Trío Venezuela, Los Naipes with Mirtha Pérez, Porfi Jiménez, Cherry Navarro, Chelique Sarabia, José Luis Rodríguez, Miguel Itriago, Rincón Morales, Mayra Marti, Henry Stephen, Los Impala, Los Dancers, Héctor Murga, Estelita del Llano, Luis D'Ubaldo, Nancy Ramos, Mirna Ríos, Los Imperiales, María Teresa Chacin, Oswaldo Oropeza, Aldemaro Romero, América Alonso, Tania, Los Pájaros, Gimeno, Gloria Marti, El Indio Figueredo, Pablo Canela, and many more whose names have been written on Velvet's gold book.

But not only national artists have had the opportunity of becoming part of this great family. This company has carried internationally acclaimed artists like Danny Rivera, who along with the Venezuelan Felipe Pirela has been the top duet of the great record sellers of the Venezuelan industry; also includ-

■ La fábrica de Discos Dark, recientemente inaugurada en Caracas, Venezuela, y ocupándose de la producción del conglomerado Velvet, es una de las más modernas del país, contando con las más sofisticadas maquinarias suministradas por SMT, fabricadas por Southern Machine & Tool Corporation de Nashville, Tennessee. Bill Westerman, Presidente de SMT concurreció como invitado a la inauguración de la planta y sus comentarios fueron: "He visitado plantas de prensaje en la mayoría de los centros de fabricación de discos del mundo, donde los equipos SMT están en operación y puedo constatar que la fábrica de Discos Dark, está a la altura de las más avanzadas.

Fábrica de Discos Dark, recientemente inaugurada en Caracas, Venezuela, which takes care of the manufacturing of all the product released by the Velvet group, is one of the most modern facilities established in Venezuela. Bill Westerman, president of SMT, attended the celebration of their inauguration in Caracas and his comments were: "I have visited record pressing plants in the major record production centers of the world where SMT equipment is in operation and have found Fábrica de Discos Dark on the same level as the most advanced ones."

Among the new artists that have signed with Velvet and are closely allied with José Pagés are Andy Montañez, Pellín Rodríguez, La Dimensión Latina, La Salsa Mayor, Pecos Kanvas, Oswaldo Rey and the outstanding group Punto Sur, well known internationally; Nelson Henríquez, Hernán Marín, Pancho Prim, Guillermo Carrasco, Grupo Standart, Los Blancos de Maracaibo, Luis Gerardo Tovar, the international Sandro, Rondalla Larence, Los Guaros, El Grupo Bota, the group Pasteles Verdes, La Combinación Grupo Chicles, Rafa y sus Diamantes, and other good performers.

José Pagés, head of the record company, has been able to gather a group of people whom he considers his main collaborators in these 20 years of activity. With affection he mentions: Raúl Rogés, Antonio Vallenilla, who's manager of the company, Tony Moreno, Luis Rivero Bruzual, the popular Tucuso, director of production and supervisor of division number 1; Francisco Mendoza, supervisor of division number 2, and Carlos Raybans, supervisor of division number 3.

Francisco Mendoza: La Calidad de el Producto

■ "Messy" Mendoza tiene a su cargo la producción de gente como Pecos Kanvas en el campo de los baladistas y a La Dimensión Latina y La Salsa Mayor en lo que a salsa se refiere. En todos los casos los dioses han estado con él y no es nada nuevo en su vida.

Cuando comenzó en la industria del disco en la Polydor de Venezuela, hace diez años, produjo al grupo Bota con similares resultados.

Mendoza pasó dos años en Nueva York estudiando administración y conociendo la industria disquera del país del norte. Hoy en día con herramientas novedosas, en nuestro país se hace ese trabajo de los dioses muchísimo más sencillo.

El negocio del disco es para Mendoza una eventualidad: Llegó a Venezuela como jugador de fútbol, desde Colombia. "Tuve un accidente de tránsito mientras jugaba aquí en Caracas y mientras convalecía, amigos que se desenvolvían en este campo me motivaron a cambiar de profesión." Más adelante comenta Francisco "Messy": "Hoy por hoy me vuelve loco la producción y dudo mucho que pueda desempeñarme en alguna otra cosa en lo que me resta de vida." Es evidente que con sólo 30 años de edad, tiene todo el tiempo del mundo por delante.

Respondiendo a una pregunta sobre su concepto de Velvet de Venezuela, Mendoza dice: "Es tal vez el sello que reúne las mejores condiciones para ascender a un artista en estos momentos. El concepto de equipo y la agresividad de éste, hacen que sea la gran compañía de los últimos cuatro años."

Y no es una casualidad el hecho de que Mendoza haya trabajado en Velvet en estos últimos cuatro años. Su participación ha sido completa y desinteresada, pensando sólo en la calidad de su producto y en el cuidado de sus artistas.

"Messy" Mendoza is the producer in charge of successful artists like Pecos Kanvas, who's a ballad singer, and La Dimensión Latina and La Salsa Mayor, in the salsa field. In any case, the gods have been on his side since the beginning.

He started in the record industry in Polydor of Venezuela 10 years ago as producer of a group known as Bota. Mendoza studied business administration in New York for two years where he gained knowledge of the record industry in the United States. The record business came to Mendoza by accident: He arrived in Venezuela as a soccer player from Colombia. "I had a car accident while playing in Caracas and during my recovery, friends that were in the business motivated me to change my profession." Later, Francisco "Messy" comments, "Today, I'm crazy about producing and I doubt if I could work at any other job for the rest of my life." Only 30 years of age, he has all the time in the world ahead of him.

His concept of Velvet of Venezuela is the following: "It's the label that I consider maintains the best conditions in order to bring forth the image of an artist at the present time. Its team work, effort and aggressiveness makes it become the greatest company for the last four years." It's not just coincidence that Mendoza has been working in Velvet for the last four years. His participation has been complete and impartial, thinking only of the quality of his products and of the devoted care of his artists.

National Distribution

During this year, Velvet has obtained national distribution by Polydor and Philips in the United States and Puerto Rico including the Dominican Republic. All these materials are being released through the labels Atlas and Mercury. In view of these new goals, Velvet has expanded their distribution and warehouse facilities opening new premises in the cities of Los Angeles and San Antonio, covering in this manner the North American territory.

Soon he began on an idea that few would dare develop, "a narrator in the record industry." And so Luis Gerardo Tovar appears and soon after that he reaches levels of sales equal to artists in contemporary music, with his poems and narrations backed by soft music.

Los Blancos are a group that is already known and conquering new frontiers in the hands of "Tucuso."

Marketing

"It's a matter of marketing," Bruzual states. "You're born in a country, raised in that country and finally you have the chance of working in the music business. You learn techniques and then maybe, you're in the right place, the right time and everything starts turning out good." As a composer, "Juguete Caro" has given him all the satisfaction that one can desire (sung by the group Punto Sur).

A native of Louisville, Ky., Krekel spent the last year as lead guitarist for Jimmy Buffett's band, the Coral Reefers. As a songwriter, Krekel has had tunes recorded by Buffett, Jerry Reed, B.J. Thomas, Rick Nelson and others. On hand in Macon for a preview listening party for his debut Capricorn album, "Crazy Me," are (from left) Bob Beckham, president of Combine Music; Phil Walden, president of Capricorn Records; Krekel; Don Light, Krekel's manager; Roger Sovine, assistant vice president of BMI; Tony Brown, Krekel's producer; Schmitzerle; and Frank Fenter, Capricorn executive vice president.

A native of Cincinnati, Tobias has worked primarily in the Canadian record industry. For three years she managed Target Records and Tapes, a Toronto store owned by Quality Records. She has also been a sales representative for A&M Records Limited of Canada.

'American Pop' Coming From Bakshi

■ LOS ANGELES—Ralph Bakshi, who directed "Lord of the Rings," has entered into an agreement with Martin Ransohoff Productions and Columbia Pictures to produce and direct "American Pop," a multi-million budgeted animated full-length feature.

The announcement was made by Frank Price, president of Columbia Pictures Productions, who pointed out that the new film will be one of many to be delivered to Columbia under the Ransohoff Productions banner. Richard St. Johns will be executive producer.

The screenplay for "American Pop" was written by Ronni Kern.

The production will feature a minimum of 17 musical numbers that will highlight the history of American music as told through the eyes and ears of a 10-year-old boy who arrives in this country in 1910 and lives through four generations of his family until 1980.

ABC Albums Set

■ LOS ANGELES—ABC Records' January releases will feature albums by major pop, r&b, jazz, and country artists as well as debut performances by several new label artists.

Artists with January releases include: Rufus, "Numbers;" Joe Sample, "Carmel;" Amazing Rhythm Aces;" John Wesley Ryles, "Love's Sweet Pain;" Barbara Mandrell, "The Best of Barbara Mandrell;" Narvel Felts, "One Run For The Roses;" The Dells, "Face To Face;" and Saskia and Serge, "I Believe in Love."

Debut albums in January will feature groups Pipedream, "Pipedream;" Moulin Rouge, "Moulin Rouge;" and the Keane Brothers, "Takin' Off," in their first releases on ABC Records.

Holiday Sales Activity

catalogue sales. People just don't have enough money anymore to buy both a new album and an old one. The new releases have kept the money in the register, so I have to say we've had a very successful Christmas. It's just that the success was in a different area."

"One thing that is unique to the record industry is the fact that old product is more expensive than new product," said Don Simpson, purchasing director of lps and tapes at the Father's and Suns chain. "You don't find the car industry making the price of last year's model more expensive than this year's model; but in the record industry the consumer frequently find that new product is on sale and is therefore more expensive than the old product, especially since the price of catalogue items has gone up."

For others the sales surge of the week before Christmas was an unexpected blessing, and one they found few faults in. Although

RCA Names McCassy Seattle Branch Manager

■ SEATTLE — RCA Records has announced the appointment of Bonnie McCassy to the position of manager, Seattle branch. The announcement was made by William Graham, director western region, field marketing, RCA Records who said:

Ms. McCassy began her career in the record business with National Tape and joined RCA Records in 1971 when the company first went into direct distribution. She has worked as advertising co-ordinator, field sales representative and, most recently, as manager, branch sales, Los Angeles.

at the Record Bar by press time, head buyer Fred Traub said the chain had an "exceptional" Friday and Saturday before Christmas—"the best two days in the history of the world" is how he put it—and wound up 35 to 40 percent ahead of last year. "The quantities on the hits were extraordinary," exclaimed Traub. "The Blues Brothers and Rod Stewart in particular. And the 'Grease' soundtrack is all of a sudden selling like a new release."

Martin Gary of Gary's in Richmond, Virginia, said his stores had a "very, very good" last week marked by a "super strong" weekend. "It looks like we'll end up a considerable percentage ahead of last year," said Gary. "In years past we've usually had two or three albums that we could count on selling 500 to 1000 copies of; this year we had ten or twelve albums in that category, including records such as the Blues Brothers, Toto and Molly Hatchett that broke in and held their own with the major releases."

A good weekend before Christmas—thanks to the hits—turned the trick for Rose Records in Chicago, too, according to Jim Rose. On December 22, each Rose store had its biggest sales day in history, with some chalking up 20 and 25 percent increases. "The hits were there," Rose remarked. "The tonnage was in the hits. But we also sold a great deal of classical and soundtrack recordings."

Although none equalled King Karol's 40 percent increase, New York City retailers found the pre-Christmas week to their liking. George Levy, president of Sam Goody, Inc., estimated the chain would wind up about 10 percent ahead of last year's figures for the Christmas season; and Eliot Mavora of Disc-O-Mat said that despite the late start the chain would wind up with a good increase over last year's business.

Blanket License Case Before Supreme Court

of scathing briefs accusing the other of price-fixing. (RW, Oct. 14).

CBS, in the suit, wanted a breakdown and a price level for each type of use of a composition in the BMI repertory, a so-called per-use license agreement. ASCAP and BMI have stated such a method would result in thousands of individual licenses, a marketplace impracticality, they say.

Branching Out

UA-CBS-Jet Legal Battle

District Court here, charges violations of anti-trust laws, invoking the Cartwright and Lanham Acts, and additionally asserts the complaint's defendants, CBS, Inc., CBS/Records Group president Walter Yetnikoff, Jet and its principals, Don Arden, David Arden and Sharon Arden, as well as ELO members Jeff Lynne and Bev Bevan, variously resorted to unfair competition, breach of contract, fraud, and libel, among other charges. The Mogull/Rubinstein complaint seeks a jury trial and damages between $100 million and $420 million, as well as injunctive relief.

Plaintiffs' separate state filing is a cross-complaint appended to Jet and ELO's earlier action against Mogull, Rubinstein and both UA Records and its former owners, Transamerica Corp. and United Artists Corp., a Transamerica division, as initiated by Jet in Superior Court here. Mogull and Rubinstein's cross-complaint likewise charges anti-trust violations, unfair competition, breach of contract, fraud and libel. Damages sought are listed as between $60 million and $280 million. The controversy centered on the disputed 1.2 million units of the ELO "Out of the Blue" package, sold by UA to the New Jersey-based Promo Records distributorship headed by Morris Levy. In the current filings, Mogull, Rubinstein and UA trace ownership of that product back to the early stages of their talks with several corporations regarding the purchase of the UA label Transamerica; they further assert that the disputed inventory had been awarded to the new UA management team as part of the final amended transfer negotiated between Transamerica, Mogull and Rubinstein's M & R Music Corp., and BMI, Inc., noting that Jet's buy-out agreement with Transamerica provided specifically for floor inventory, manufacturing parts, and jackets, but not returns of ELO product to UA credited after March 31 of this year.

The actions' alleged anti-trust violations center around Mogull and Rubinstein's charges that CBS, Yetnikoff, Jet, the Ardens and ELO attempted an unlawful restraint of trade evidenced by a conspiratorial course of "illegal and predatory conduct," and efforts to monopolize international sales on "Out of The Blue."

Breach of contract, conversion and fraud are separately charged against CBS and Yetnikoff, while Yetnikoff and some of the Jet Records defendants' subsequent efforts to exclude Jet from any sale to Mogull and Rubinstein are characterized as coercive, citing the Jet owner's statements at that time to the press, opposing any inclusion of Jet, as factors in the realignment of the sale, which reduced the proposed sale price as a result of Jet's exclusion.

Also cited is an alleged agreement by CBS to buy back the disputed returns, originally sold to distributors at $5.50 per unit, for $3.00 per unit, with any defective product to be rejected in the transfer. Mogull and Rubinstein's concurrent negotiations with other buyers vying for the product were, they further assert, known to CBS; CBS and Yetnikoff are characterized as having falsely represented the negotiations with UA in order to keep the disputed product off the market during the last two sales quarters, in order to move CBS' own ELO product, both newly-manufactured and received in the original inventory negotiation.

Regarding CBS' earlier claims that the disputed records and tapes were defective, the current UA record actions argue that CBS' rejection of the product was "spurious," in that the objections pertained to cosmetic appearance, not playback performance.

Other Charges

Other prominent charges include the claim that CBS and Yetnikoff breached United Artists Records' record club agreement with Columbia House division in order to withhold substantial funds claimed due to Mogull and Rubinstein's company, with Yetnikoff reportedly threatening to terminate not only Columbia House's licenses for CBS product, but also the firm's pressing contract with CBS's CRP plants, in order to obtain the breach.

Also cited are the defendant's full-page ad campaign in trade papers and news dailies encouraging a boycott of the disputed lps and tapes, as well as efforts to induce other artists still under contract to Mogull and Rubinstein to breach their contracts.

Gaither Gathering

Danny Gaither (Impact) recently completed a two-day promotional tour in Tennessee, involving several telephone interviews with radio stations and a live interview with WWGM in Nashville. Gaither also appeared at Lanham's bookstore in Chattanooga for an autograph party. WMOC, Chattanooga, held a remote broadcast from the bookstore. Pictured at the Lanham Bookstore autograph party for Danny Gaither in Chattanooga are, from left: (front row) Ruth Lanham, Marty Lowe and Dot Frappier of the bookstore staff; Jeff Hagewood, Impact Records; (second row) Mike Dixon, Benson sales rep; Gaither and his wife Toni; and Wayne Williams, WMOC radio.

found himself at the peak of his popularity with the "Captain Fantastic and the Brown Dirt Cowboy" album entering the RW Album Chart at #1 and a trio of single hits: "Philadelphia Freedom," "Someone Saved My Life Tonight" and "Island Girl."

In 1977 he announced his retirement from live performing, but with the success of "A Single Man," Elton's first album of new material in two years, it appears that he will return to the road in 1979 to pick up where he left off.

number one in the quirky but powerful "Rat Trap."

JOCKEY SHORTS: Bob Welch's new album is due later this month with the inevitable vocal assistance from Christine McVie and Stevie Nicks in addition to Carlene Carter. . . Vivian Stanshall, the missing member of the Bonzo Dog Band, has moved temporarily to Sausalito and will have a new album released here by Charisma in February. . . "Live At Hollywood High" is a three track Elvis Costello 12" record that has been generating much airplay in advance of his "Armed Forces," due for release later in the month. The record will be included in the first 200,000 copies of his album as a bonus. . . At Criteria in Miami, Roger McGuinn, Gene Clark and Chris Hillman are mixing their new Capitol lp, "Backstage Pass," for February release; Frannie Golde is recording her Portrait debut with Karl Richardson and Alby Galuten and the Cate Brothers are finishing their first for Atlantic with Tom Dowd. . . Pete Townshend has been signed by Atco as a solo artist, according to Doug Morris.

CAPRICORN NEWS: The new Dixie Dregs album, "The Night Of the Living Dregs," is half live at Montreux and half studio recorded with Ken Scott. It will be released later in the month. Also at that time, there should be a new Marshall Tucker Band lp, "Running Like the Wind," produced by Stewart Levine.

Aynsley Dunbar has replaced John Barbata as drummer for the Jefferson Starship. Dunbar was most recently with Journey and brings with him an impressive list of credentials including work with David Bowie, Frank Zappa, Herbie Mann, Jeff Beck and Nils Lofgren. . . Robert Kraft and the Ivory Coast, a group that several labels are apparently interested in, will return to Tramps later this month. The same goes for talented new singer/songwriter Lauren Shapiro, currently cutting a demo for a major music publisher in New York.

Watch for New York, N.Y.'s second annual year end awards next week.

Peters' New Discovery: Egorov

By SPEIGHT JENKINS

■ NEW YORK—On December 16 at Carnegie Hall I had one of those pleasant shocks that make life as a New York newspaper critic worthwhile. The name Youri Egorov had been bruited about because of what had happened in the fall of 1977 in Texas. The young Soviet emigre, who now lives in Brussels, had made it to the semifinals in the Cliburn Competition. When he was not announced as a finalist, the audience was enraged, and several really furious members walked out of the competition. The protestors rallied and raised $10,000 to send Egorov to New York for a recital debut at Alice Tully Hall last January. Though his reviews were good, there were no records or tapes available afterwards and somehow it all seemed a little far fetched.

On that Saturday night in December he played a fascinating program: four Fantasies including the Chromatic of Bach, and those of Mozart, Chopin and Schumann, ending with two Chopin Etudes and Liszt's "La Campanella." The young man, still 24, is slight, dark and handsome. When he sat down to play, it was clear almost instantly that his is a major talent. The Bach was straightforward with a slightly hard tone and lots of expression. The fugue was as clear as crystal and pedalling was properly almost non-existent.

When he came to Mozart, his tone immediately warmed up, and he showed what a marvelous phraser he is. The clarity of his playing, the passion and above all the musicianship made one gasp at his maturity and the understanding. Then he turned to Chopin and really came home. He has all the needed virtuosity and a compelling lyricism and sense of mood which makes everything he touches sing. His dynamics are most of the time the composers; when he varies what is written, it is for a clearly obvious, effective dramatic point. The Schumann Fantasy in C (Opus 17) is always tricky. It was obvious beforehand that Egorov could present both the lyrical, Eusebius side of the composer's nature and the fiery Florestan as well. But could he pull the whole piece together? He succeeded admirably, although he was a little slow in the slow passages and had to undergo an attack on his concentration when a moved member of the audience shouted out encouragement in the midst of the piece at a sectional break. The yell was so loud and the silence and concentration of both Egorov and the audience had been so striking that it had a negative effect.

The young pianist then returned and showed how much poetry he could create in the two short Chopin Etudes. His finale, Liszt's "La Campanella," had drama and fleet-fingered virtuosity coupled with a sure sense of

RECORD WORLD JAZZ

By ROBERT PALMER

■ The Milestone Jazzstars tour was one of the year's most important events both for the playing of jazz and for the selling of it. Musical sparks were bound to fly when Sonny Rollins, the music's greatest living tenor saxophonist, got together with McCoy Tyner, its most influential pianist, and Ron Carter, its most impeccable bassist, and fired by drummer Al Foster, fly they did. But Milestone Records turned the tour into an advertisement for great jazz by promoting heavily along the tour itinerary and proving that acoustic jazz improvised by masters can be as viable commercially as funk rhythms and decibels. A double album was recorded, mixed and mastered in September and October and is already available, and as expected, "Milestone Jazzstars in Concert" is one of the essential jazz albums of the year. The playing is superb, especially Rollins' magisterial tenor sorties, and most of an entire concert program is represented on the two discs in the package.

And speaking of heavies, New World Records' Anthology of American Music (231 East 51st Street, 5th Floor, New York, N.Y. 10022) has released "Cecil Taylor," a new album and the first by the pianist's current working group. This is a magnificent piece of work, one that shows off more of the range of Taylor's music than many of his previous recordings . . . Pianist Anthony Davis and flutist James Newton have new debut recordings on the India Navigation label (P.O. Box 559, Nyack, New York 10960). Davis' "Song for the Old World," with notes by the writer, features the exceptional new vibraphonist Jay Hoggard, bassist Mark Helias, and Ed Blackwell on drums. Davis is the pianist on Newton's impressive lp, which also features cellist Abdul Wadud and drummer Phillip Wilson.

"Delta Blues Heavy Hitters" is the name of a new blues reissue from Herwin Records, P.O. Box 306, Glen Cove, N.Y. 11542. It features some rare recordings from the 1920s by William Harris and Blind Joe Reynolds and a stupendous 1931 coupling by Skip James that was recently turned up and is the only copy known to exist. Herwin is also continuing its series "Piano Ragtime of The Teens, Twenties and Thirties" with two new issues. Volume Two collects jazz-oriented ragtime performances by the likes of Jelly Roll Morton, James P. Johnson, and Fats Waller, while Volume Three explores the folk tradition in ragtime, with performances from the 1920s and 1930s by black barrelhouse pianists . . . For something out of the ordinary, try "The Ornette Coleman Songbook" by vocalist Joque and vocalist/multi-instrumentalist le Scott, featuring several well-known Coleman compositions with original lyrics. The album is on the label of the Theatre for the Evolving Arts, 1776 F Street, Washington, D.C. 20006 . . . John Coates, Jr., the fine but reclusive pianist who is usually heard at the Deer Head Inn, Delaware Water Gap, Pa., has a new release on Omnisound, "After the Before." The label is also located in Delaware Water Gap, 18327.

Stu Goldberg, who is perhaps best-known for his keyboard work with several bands led by John McLaughlin, recently made an album called "Solos-Duos-Trio" for the German MPS label. Presently available here as an import, the record features Larry Coryell and the Indian violinist L. Subramanian and is a fascinating melding of eastern and western musics, and of acoustic instrumentation and synthesizer technology . . . RCA has released "Kogun," the first (1974) album by the Toshiko Akiyoshi-Lew Tabackin Big Band. It was previously available only in Japan, where it was perhaps the biggest selling jazz album of all time . . . Mosaic, a group that mixes jazz, ethnic, and other strains, has released an interesting first album on the LMI label. It's called "Mosaic" and can be ordered for $5 plus postage from Mosaic, Inc., P.O. Box 2935, Station A, Champaign, Illinois 61820 . . . Bassist Terry Plumeri's latest album, "Ongoing," features John Abercrombie and Ralph Towner and is available from Airborne Recording Company, 9093 Comprint Court, Gaithersburg, Maryland 20760. Also available is Plumeri's first album, "He Who Lives in Many Places," which features Abercrombie and Herbie Hancock . . . Halcyon Records (302 Clinton Street, Bellmore, N.Y. 11710) has released a new album, "Now's the Time," by a group that amounts to a Who's Who of jazzwomen: Mary Osborne on guitar, Marian McPartland on piano, Vi Redd on alto sax, Lynn Milano on bass, and Dottie Dodgion on drums.

Lehman, their former partner, now with his own Aria Productions; Cory Robbins and Eric Matthew; Tom Moulton and Thor Baldursson; Ian Levine; of course, Jacques Morali, Freddie Perren and Dino Fekaris, Norman Harris and Cory Wade can be expected to surprise and delight us in the coming year.

10. Remixes of the year: John Davis' "Ain't That Enough For You," remixed by Sam Weiss and Daniel Glass; Alicia Bridges' "I Love the Nightlife," by Jim Burgess; Musique's "In the Bush," by Francois K., "Kebekelektrik" lp, by Tom Moulton (who's been doing wonderful things since the days of B.T. Express); Love Committee's "Law and Order" and Bettye LaVette's "Doin' the Best that I Can," by Walter Gibbons and Candi Staton's "Victim," by Jimmy Simpson. All made major changes in the cuts' original formats, exercising imagination and sense that gave all of them the final push into wide acceptance and success in the clubs. Also: "Thank God It's Friday," the collection of disco disc extensions of cuts from the soundtrack. Especially the title track by Love and Kisses and Donna Summer's "With Your Love."

In this year of the disco, there has been much sobering writing about the one-hitters who may never again propel dancers into the state of euphoria and release achieved by that one magic cut. It might be put into perspective by remembering the profusion of product that has materialized in the wake of mass popularity. Quite simply, nothing less than top-notch will hold attention on the dance floor, and it's more than one can ask of anyone to expect compulsive, essential listening every time out. This disco partisan stands on the foregoing rundown, not meant at all to be exhaustive, as proof of the continuing progress and diversification of disc as a genre that's here to stay.

AUDIENCE PARTICIPATION: In what I hope, will become a DISCO FILE tradition, readers, especially disc jockeys, are invited to send in lists of their top 25 disco cuts for compilation in a list that will appear about a month or so from now. Please send your lists to the attention of Disco File, Record World Magazine, 1700 Broadway, New York, N.Y. 10019, within the next three weeks. If you are a disc jockey, you're especially welcome to include a bit about the clubs where you play. Looking forward to hearing from you; best wishes for the New Year to all.

■ MUNICH—"Muscovites had never seen anything like it," gushed Time magazine about Boney M.'s eight day, 10 concert tour of the Soviet Union. Scalpers were charging up to $300 for the few tickets sold to the public (VIPs reportedly got 90 percent of the seats). Russian promoters asked producer Frank Farian not to include the recent Boney hit "Rasputin" in the show. One line goes "he's Russia's greatest love machine." Meanwhile, back in Western Europe, the music industry hasn't seen anything like the Hansa group's seasonal single "Mary's Boy Child." In the U.K., WEA has sold a record 2.5 million copies, while Ariola here reports over one million units in three weeks. Ariola's Raimund Wagner expects sales to continue after Christmas because the flip side "Dancing In The Streets" (not the oldie) is so strong.

GIMMICKS, CONT.: Picture discs, colored vinyl and super singles seem to be doing a healthy business lately, though record companies aren't sure about the longevity of the trend. In some major cities (Frankfurt, Berlin), retailers are importing picture discs directly from the U.S. because industry suppliers either cannot or will not distribute in Germany.

Teldec's Manfred Peter has limited his use of gimmicks recently to the Stiff catalogue, imported from the U.S. though there have been Salsoul issues in the past and there will be new Lollipop super singles in '79. John F. Schubach of Teldec's Nortorf plant is investigating licensing U.S. pixdisc technology. Bellaphon pioneered the super single in Germany. That label's Ekkehard Ploetz has released several dozen 12" 45s with more planned in '79. In Munich, Albert Czapski of Ariola, with an exceptionally strong domestic roster, is not very interested in imported picture discs. Colored vinyl is occasionally imported. But maxi singles are moving very well. With over 40,000 12" singles of "Rasputin," Ariola has the biggest big single sale yet in Germany. Killy Kumberger plans a "SuperMaxiSound" promotion for WEA in January: six or eight super singles on colored vinyl. A Cars pixdisc is selling well, Rod Stewart pix lp due this week on strong advance orders. WEA is using gimmicks to push Supermax's "World Of Today" set to platinum: blue vinyl, golden sleeve. At CBS, Gerhard L. Maurer, lacking a European source, will import some picture discs in '79, but remains skeptical about the long range viability of these gimmicks. The first CBS/Epic/A&M maxi singles were just released; no colored vinyl is planned by CBS.

TEUTONIC TELEX: WEA's Klaus Ollmann has named Rainer Voigt, 34, as new distribution chief of the company, effective this week . . . CBS counting a major campaign for Supertramp in 1979; the new album, "Breakfast In America," due Jan. 17 with heavy promotion and

Summers in San Fran

Canada

By ROBERT CHARLES-DUNNE

■ TORONTO—WALK SOFTLY AND CARRY A BIG PEN: Capitol Records' Canadian a&r operation has a strange history. Prior to the adoption of the 30 percent Canadian content regulations, Capitol had scored quite nicely with Anne Murray's "Snowbird," so when the regulations went into effect, every label in Canada signed acts left, right and center. Capitol was in the vanguard, signing Aarons & Ackley, Truck, Edward Bear, Chris Kearney, Sylvia Tyson, Peter Foldy, Conspiracy, Coyote and several others with little sales success. As the years passed, it became obvious that Capitol's commitment to Cancon artists declined rapidly. When Paul White resigned his a&r position with the label earlier this year, some observers speculated that this was the end of Capitol's a&r office here. However, White's assistant, Deane Cameron, was given a mandate to give Cancon another whirl. Cameron's first move was to sign distribution deals with the major domestic independent labels Anthem (Rush, Max Webster, Aerial, Wireless), Aquarius (April Wine, Guess Who, Walter Rossi, Lewis Furey) and Daffodil (Klaatu). Using the income from these lucrative signings as a base, Cameron then began signing acts directly to the Capitol roster. Simultaneously, Capitol concluded a production deal with Daffodil label prexy Frank Davies, a deal which requires him to deliver two acts per year. The result of all this activity is that Capitol now has five acts in the studio at the same time, probably the strongest commitment of any Canadian label since Capitol's early '70s push. Davies has contracted Surrender and ex-Foot In Coldwater bassist Hughie Leggat's new band Thunder Road. Other artists signed and now recording are Long John Baldry, Red Ryder and Domenic Troiano. Product by all five is expected for world release early in the new year.

THEY'VE GOT EVERYTHING THEY NEED (ALMOST): Almost a decade ago, Don and Rick Walsh put together Downchild Blues Band. They recorded their first album in the basement studio of the then-hippie mecca Rochdale, an album which sold so well it was immediately picked up by RCA. The band then signed with GRT in Canada and delivered a couple of hit singles. Personnel changes happened with great regularity and the band finally ended up dropping its blues image and released a "Best Of" album on the Posterity label. A popular touring attraction in Canada, Downchild continued to pack houses coast to coast but found it almost impossible to attract attention from other labels for recording. Now that The Blues Brothers have recorded two Downchild tunes (and one which Downchild popularized here—"Flip, Flop & Fly"), suddenly the Canadian pressing of the Blues Brothers album bears a sticker "Featuring 3 Downchild hits" and U.S. labels are showing great interest. There is, however, no truth to the rumour that Downchild has purchased the state of New York as a tax shelter. Yet.

BALLS: For the past ten years everyone in the Canadian industry has enjoyed tearing a strip off Peter Goddard's back whenever they've disagreed with one of his Toronto Star reviews. Now they get the chance to do it in person. Goddard is planning, at press time, to perform with local new wavers The Deserters as guest synthesizer player. He has urged all musicians and record company minions to show up and heckle. We can't wait to see the reviews . . .

RUMORS REGARDLESS OF ACCURACY: Is it true that a Toronto concert promoter went visiting booking agents in New York and ended up throwing up in one of the more well known agent's office? Furthermore, is it true that the same promoter was asked if he'd like to become the opening act for The Ramones as a result? Is it true that the ever enigmatic Max Webster plans to call their new album "A Million Vacations"? Is it true that Ottawa's Treble Clef is planning to open the largest record/stereo store in the world in Toronto? Is it true that, in light of the Battered Wives vs. WAVAW fiasco, a single called "Let's Kill Santa Claus" has been recorded by Battered Elves? Furthermore, is it true this band is already prepared for trouble from Women Against Violence Against Santa? (They say they are.)

■ MEXICO—Al finalizar la temporada musical de 1978, el balance se inclinó claramente en favor de los intérpretes mexicanos. En contraste con años anteriores, los cantantes extranjeros del género moderno en español, tuvieron un notorio descenso en las listas de éxitos, habiendo sido Camilo Sesto, Diego Verdaguer, Palito Ortega y Rocío Durcal los únicos artistas que alternaron dignamente en el primer nivel de popularidad y ventas. En el caso de Camilo, indiscutiblemente se mantiene con gran fuerza en el gusto popular, contando con un excelente apoyo promocional del sello Ariola. Diego Verdaguer tuvo la fortuna de estar representado por Mélody. La compañía de Nacho Morales, desplegó agresivamente sus armas promocionales y llevó a Verdaguer con varios hits, a ser uno de los favoritos en toda la República. Palito Ortega revivió en base al trabajo de equipo que desarrolló Orfeón. Palito necesitó solamente dos hits ("Que vas a hacer esta noche" y "Por muchas razones te quiero") para cubrir el año; lo que dice claramente de la brillante labor del sello de Rogelio Azcárraga. Y por último Rocío Durcal, que tuvo el mejor año discográfico de toda su historia artística en México. Con los éxitos de Rocío, la compañía que dirige Fernando Hernández, demostró que sus alcances en el área de promoción, están a la altura de las mejores del medio.

El lado opuesto, resultó la desaparición total es el mercado, de intérpretes que en años anteriores llegaron a ser arrolladores ídolos. En este aspecto, Roberto Carlos y Julio Iglesias tuvieron un año negro. Su presencia discográficamente a quedado reducida a la mínima expresión. Son dos grandes figuras latinas, que lastimosamente en México han pasado al olvido.

En cuanto a los intérpretes nacionales, definitivamente han recuperado el control de popularidad. Juan Gabriel, Rigo Tovar, José José, Lupita D'Alessio, Napoleón, Los Baby's, Raúl Vale, Angélica María, Fernando Allende, Los Joao, José Barette y El Mirador.

■ Sigue fuerte la batida del FBI en contra de los duplicadores ilegales y piratas en el área neoyorkina. Según conversación mantenida por este redactor con personalidades del FBI, pude conocer que armados de la documentación necesaria para poder registrar diversos establecimientos en Nueva York, se logró la captura de poco más de 1800 cassettes y Cintas de 8 tracks de grabaciones en Español, pirateadas a sus legítimos propietarios. Según he podido conocer, los sellos más Coco perjudicados en este proceso han sido Fania, TH, Coco y Caytronics. Los establecimientos que se investigaron han sido Marrero Records y Variety Shop, Casa Borinquen, San Germán Record Shop y Mary Lou Records. Las investigaciones han tomado una fuerza extraordinaria en las últimas horas, encontrándose integrados en las gestiones más de 200 agentes del FBI. El "raid" de los establecimientos se realizó el 13 de Diciembre de este año. Seguiré informando y a medida que se van infiltrando nombres sujetos a investigaciones, a cualquiera "se le caen las quijadas." ¡Seguir informando!

The FBI continues its battle against counterfeit and bootlegged products and pirates in the New York area. According to a conversation which I had with some agents from the FBI, I was able to discover that they executed search warrants on various establishments in the New York area, obtaining in this manner over 1800 counterfeit cassettes and 8 track tapes in Spanish. I was able to find out that the labels most affected by this process are Fania, TH, Coco and Caytronics. The establishments that were investigated were Marrero Records and Variety Shop, Casa Borinquen, San Germán Record Shop and Mary Lou Records. With over 200 FBI agents involved on December 13, 1978 they began to raid the establishments mentioned above. I will continue to inform as the names of subjects being investigated continue to pop up.

mar, Estela Nuñez, Lucía Méndez, Chelo, Alvaro Dávila, Cepillín, Manolo Muñoz, y las gratas revelaciones como son Joan Sebastian, Verónica Castro, El Grupo Aria 8 y El Grupo La Amistad, acapararon el mercado.

También es justo destacar, que varios intérpretes y grupos extranjeros van alcanzando su consolidación, como el grupo Trigo Limpio que logró dos hits de enormes proporciones ("Rompeme, má-tame" y "Cinco canas más"), Pablo Abaira ("Pólvora mojada"), Daniel Magal ("Cara de gitana") y José Domingo ("Viste pantalón vaquero" y "Motivos"). En el género tropical, los más sobresalientes extranjeros son Héctor Lavoe del sello Fania que alcanzó un hitazo con su creación "Mentira" y Los Virtuoso de la Salsa de GAS con el tema "El Negro José." Esto es, lo que sucedió en la temporada de 1978 en México. Y ahora ¡Hasta la próxima! . . . Desseándoles un feliz fin de año, en especial a la pujante industria mexicana.

musicality that characterized the whole recital.

In thinking back on Egorov the important point is musical: there are other pianists with greater accuracy and more astonishing flashiness. But to be only 24 and to have the musical grasp that he manifested plus the ability to deliver accurate presentations of styles at the varied heart of the piano literature makes him a significant and imposing talent.

Fortunately the very concert discussed was recorded by Egorov's producer, Klaas Posthuma, for release on the Peters label. Egorov does not want to include the Schumann on the disc, as the performance did not meet his own standards, but all else will be there. It should be released by Peters in mid-January. It is not easy to sell yet another pianist, but the effect of this performance was extraordinary. At the moment there is an EMI-Holland import of Schumann's "Kreisleriana" and two novelettes which is available through Peter as an import. It will generally be distributed by Peters in U.S.A. in March and is a fine, sensitive recording, showing the width of emotional response of the pianist and his sure sense of romantic style.

For now though Peters should hurry with this Carnegie concert, and when it appears, dealers should order it and push it. Your customers will be thrilled to be in on the ground level of a great young performer. This is only his first step.

advertising . . . Barry Manilow used to sell about 5000 copies of each album in Germany. But after recent touring and TV, the "Best Of" album is past 100,000, with Helmut Fest of EMI preparing concentrated support for the new "Mandy" single . . . Ariola signs singer Michael Schanze to a long-term, first new product to be produced by Michael Kunze . . . "Sgt. Pepper" Europremiere in Munich attracted none of the film's principals and about that many good reviews; heavy broadcast ads trying to salvage and film and disc, which is off the lp chart here.

"You Can Bet On Larry Gatlin" was the theme when Phonogram/Mercury, Inc., in conjunction with Monument Records, had a Larry Gatlin weekend in Las Vegas at the Aladdin Hotel, where the singer/songwriter appeared for two weeks. RECORD WORLD

BLACK ORIENTED

MUSIC

Soul Truth

By BASIL NIAS

■ PERSONAL PICK: "The Rock" East Coast (Family). This first release by this fledgling label may start a national trend. The new dance on the block is called "The Rock" and this Philadelphia-based group really laid this in the pocket. The lead vocal is interesting and the rhythm tracks are sizzling. The new year is off and running and this group should be there in full stride.

1979 should be a banner year for Black Oriented Music. If '78 was any indication, this should be a year when this art form matures and flowers. In '78 there was a tendency for barriers to drop and general overall acceptance or crossover existed. This trend will blossom and expand in '79 because of the general overall quality of the material. Disco will continue to play a major role as a transient vehicle for across the board acceptance. There will be a profusion of new artists who are waiting to take their place in the gold and platinum sun. These artists will challenge the standard old guard to "funk or walk." Musically, the trend will be more towards the school of funk. This rise was very much in evidence in the fourth quarter as George Clinton raised his banner and declared us one nation under a groove. This trend is not limited to the Parlifunkadelic experience. However, imitation is the highest form of flattery and George should hold his head up high and be proud of the phenomena that he has created.

Our deepest condolences go out to John Smith, VP, special markets, ABC whose mother, Ms. Viola Pitwell, passed away on Christmas Day.

Donna Summer and Earth Wind and Fire join a cast of musical superstars appearing on "A Gift of Song," the music for UNICEF concert. The show will be airing as a 90 minute special on NBC-TV 1/10/79 at 8 p.m. The show will also include the Bee Gees, Andy Gibb, Elton John and others.

ARISTA REVAMP

There will be some extensive changes in Arista's organizational structure of the jazz and progressive music division, Soul Truth learned last week. According to a reliable source, Andre Perry will be assuming the post of director of artist development for jazz and progressive music. Andre is currently national marketing manager for Warners. Joining Andre at Arista will be Sandra Greene as his executive assistant. Andre comes to this position with excellent credentials as a former program director at WHUR and east coast marketing manager for CTI. Perry should be joining the team sometime in early January.

It was also learned that one of the first groups signed by Larkin

Arnold and his assistant Vernon Gibbs is a group from the Bronx, N.Y. who are called G.Q. (Good Quality). The group consists of four young men, Emmanuel Rahim Le Blanc (guitar & lead vocals), Paul Service (drums), Keith "Sabu" Crier (bass) and Herb Lane (keyboards). The group is managed by Tony Lopez for Tony Productions, and recorded the single and album at the Sound Palace and Sigma Sound Studio in N.Y. The group was produced by Jimmy Simpson and Bo Ray Flemming. G.Q.'s initial release should drop around the 10th of January.

SNEAK PREVIEW

"We Are Family"—Sister Sledge (Atlantic/Cotillion). This fine female vocal group from Philadelphia has finally reached full maturity. The whole concept and image has been changed and the results are very entertaining. This album was produced by Nile Rogers and Bernard Edwards (Chic) and promises to be one of the early stellar attractions of '79.

"Alton McClain and Destiny"—Alton McClain and Destiny (Polydor). Polydor enters the arena in '79 with all guns blazing. This new

PICKS OF THE WEEK

OVERSEAS CALL

PAUL MURIAT PLUS—Mercury SRM1-3746

This is a sleeper if there ever was one. The "plus" in the group includes some of the finest studio musicians that N.Y. has to offer. Will Lee, John Tropea, the Brecker Brothers and Jon Faddis comprise part of this amazing group that not only can rock you, but ease you down gently. There's a Euro-disco feel; this is hot.

FLY ME ON THE WINGS OF LOVE

CELI BEE—A.P.A./TK 77003

This talented artist has made a very interesting musical statement in this, her third album for TK. She is actively competing for a spot as one of the premier disco queens. The first side is a musical adventure that is bound to be one of the classics on the disco circuit in no time at all. Look out, Donna, here comes Celi.

CLEAN

EDWIN STARR—20th Century-Fox T-559

It's been more than a long time for this former Motown performer. Edwin has been in Europe for some time, where he has established himself as an international star. Time has not changed him because he has changed with time. This new album, with the hit single "Contact," should shoot him back to the top in America and also in Europe.

DON'T TAKE MY LOVE FOR GRANTED

LULU—Rocket/RCA BXL 1-3073

This is a very interesting album for several reasons: there hasn't been anything of significance from this young lady in quite a while, and there seems to be an air of maturity that was missing from her earlier recordings. This possesses tremendous crossover potential on several cuts, especially the ballads.

Lexicon/Light:

Seeking a Strong Corporate Identity

By MARGIE BARNETT

■ LOS ANGELES—In view of the tremendous growth Lexicon Music and Light Records have experienced in terms of company expansion and increased sales, the company is excitedly gearing up for an equally explosive year in 1979. Lexicon/Light's main objectives are to establish a strong corporate identity and put more emphasis on artist development.

In 1978 the company had a joint increase in sales of nearly 50 percent in the U.S.; Canadian sales rose 100 percent, and the United Kingdom was up 400 percent. The staff grew from 15 to 25 during the year with an additional increase of ten planned in the next two years.

"On a cumulative basis," says the executive vice president, finance, Larry Jordan, "our sales are equal to some of the other independent companies, especially in our recording division, but the Lexicon/Light name has been almost synonymous with Word, Inc., since the very beginning, because as our distributor all of our product is sold through them. We want to establish that Lexicon/Light as more than just an affiliate of Word, Inc., to develop an identity for our company apart from Word. We want people to know that we are a strong part of the gospel music industry."

Lexicon/Light has just recently signed a new distribution agreement with Word, but now plans to bring in-house the areas of advertising, promotion and artist development formerly covered by Word. The philosophy Lexicon/Light plans to develop is promoting an artist and not necessarily specific projects. "We have a lot of artists who deserve recognition for what they are doing in the gospel music field," asserts Jordan. "A lot of times when you only emphasize individual projects you lose sight of some of the real strong statements that can be made about ministries that are happening across the country because they come at a time when maybe there's not a new project out.

"So we feel that the emphasis should be on the artist, and we're going to gear our advertising in that direction and also begin an internal publicity/public relations department. We want our artists so well in front of the people that their ministries are expanded and they are able to get into areas where they heretofore couldn't both nationally and internationally."

Special plans for the publishing arm, Lexicon Music, look for a record breaking year in '79. "We are going to create a staff position this year specifically for copyright development," says Jordan, "to be actively involved in promoting Lexicon copyrights. Another of our efforts is to be as close as possible to the churches to know what choral music they need and supply them with it through our composers like Jimmy Owens, Dan Burgess, John Fischer and Ralph Carmichael (president of Lexicon/Light)."

Upcoming works for Lexicon include the musicals "Celebrate His Love" by Dan Burgess and "Share A Little Sunshine" by Clark Gassman, a choral book for Walter Hawkins' "Love Alive II" lp, a Jamie Owens-Collins solo song book, "Hallelujah" featuring 100 songs for soloists, "Scripture Praise" containing 101 scripture choruses, and "Inspirational Soul," a collection of 42 songs by today's leading black composers. Lexicon has also moved into the Spanish market with two projects "The New Church Hymnal" ("Una Nueva Alabanza") and "The Best of Andrae" ("Lo Mejor de Andrae").

The recent acquisitions of the Sweet Comfort Band, Jon Byron (both contemporary), and Tra-main Hawkins (soul) will boost Light Records already star-studded roster. First quarter product will include new releases by

The Rambos Re-Sign With HeartWarming

■ NASHVILLE—The Rambos recently re-signed with the Benson Company's HeartWarming label. At the same time, Dottie Rambo was signed to a writer's contract, and the album "A Dottie Rambo Choral Concert of Love" was released. This is the 50th Rambo album to come from Benson's 14th year association with the Rambo family.

Gospel Album Picks

WOOD BETWEEN THE WORLDS

BOB AYALA—Myrrh MSB 6608

Ayala's intricate yet easily understood lyric talent is surpassed only by his melodic feeling. A well-crafted album that should catch the attention of any contemporary listener. Top tunes include the title cut, "Red Letter Edition" and "Empty Cup."

THE NATIONAL BLACK COLLEGE GOSPEL WORKSHOP

Creed 23084

Various choirs from colleges throughout the country pool their talents for this two record set. These youthful choirs easily compete with any of the more established choirs in soul gospel whether singing popular songs of the day or standard hymns and spirituals from the past.

DOUG SINGS GAITHER

DOUG OLDHAM—Impact 2R 3529

One of gospel's most successful songwriters today is Bill Gaither. Put his tremendous writing ability together with the warm, inspiring vocal interpretations of Doug Oldham and you have the makings of a powerful gospel album.

NOBODY CAN TURN ME AROUND

THE BETHEL PENTECOSTAL CHOIR—Savay 14478

This lp contains many stirring selections each performed in a way to best present the message. Selected soloists share the spotlight and make the title cut, "Just Another Day" and "He Looked Beyond My Fault" just three of the album's top cuts.

Tomato To Release Daniels Gospel Series

NEW YORK—A John Daniels Gospel Series will be an upcoming addition to the Tomato Music Co., according to Kevin Eggers, president of the label. First scheduled release of the series, whose theme reads "Taking Gospel Higher Through Reaching Minds and Touching Hearts," selective signing and proper attention through extensive promotion, sales and publicity, is this February. It will be followed by a release of at least four records every three or four months.

Daniels, at one time the owner of Glori Records, spent the last five years as a&r director of Savoy Records, where amongst others, he produced James Cleveland.

The first release of the John Daniels Gospel Series is comprised of six separately packaged albums:

"The Reverend Lawrence Roberts and the Angelic Choir;" "The International Mass Choir of the Churches of God in Christ;"

Byron, Sweet Comfort, Jeremiah People, John Fischer, Tami Chere and Dan Burgess.

Several of Light's present releases are doing quite well as reflected on RW's gospel album charts. "Love Alive II" by Walter Hawkins is maintaining the number one position on the Soul & Spiritual gospel chart while Hawkins' "Love Alive" lp remains in the top ten. Jamie Owens-Collins "Love Eyes," Messenger's "Bringin' The Message" and The Archer's "Fresh Surrender" are on the Contemporary & Inspirational chart while Andrae Crouch's "Live In London" is showing strongly on both charts.

The talented artists and dedicated energy of the staff will enhance all company plans.

Light Signs Byron

LOS ANGELES—Light Records has just signed folk/rock singer Jon Byron. Byron's first album, "Portrait Of Love," is scheduled for release in March.

female trio has the possibility of becoming one of the pleasant surprises of the new year. Currently they are on tour with Millie Jackson's review, but with the release of this album, they might have a review of their own.

"Super Mann"—Herbie Mann (Atlantic). This is without a doubt Herbie's most profound album in quite some time. Patrick Adams and Ken Morris have collaborated to bring out the best in this artist in a very contemporary mold. This is the fusion of jazz and disco that should garner wide appeal for this avant-garde flautist.

"Carmel"—Joe Sample (ABC). This is Sample's second solo venture, and if the success of "Rainbow Seeker" is any indication of acceptance, then Joe is definitely in. The colors that are painted in this musical portrait are rich and lush. The material is a little more jazz-oriented but the overall concept is just good music.

WAX TO WATCH

SINGLES:

"Don't Look At Me That Way"—Alex Taylor (Bang). This record is one of the sleepers of the new year. This ballad should garner PD's ears across the country.

"Stargazer"—Ray Barretto (Atlantic). Probably one of the strongest cuts off Ray's new album, this has a fusion flair and some exciting breaks.

"Sarava"—Original Cast (Roadshow). This theme from a new Broadway play has a definite South American feel to it. The disco crossover possibilities here are enormous, but the major thrust will be in the area of FM good music formats.

"Freestyle Rhythm"—Mantus (SML). This record is already starting to take off in the disco crowd. The breaks are refreshing and this could be the "Hot Shot" of '79.

away. The local radio station can provide the personal approach, even if its funds are limited. Their knowledge of the local audience's likes and dislikes on a daily basis is superior to those in distant cities trying to guess at the community needs. The pros and cons on this issue of coverage will continue for some time; the end results will be determined in part by you. Who deserves the power?

YOUR MOVE: I wish I had the bag-packing and moving concession in the music and radio industry from the start of the year to mid-March. Many will ask to leave, and many will be asked to leave. It's turnover time, that time of the year when those employees re-evaluate promises—some kept, some not.

The employers question their earlier hiring decisions, and delayed firings. The seriousness of success and failure come to the forefront, as budgets are formed and plans are made for the year ahead. It's much like getting a physical—both for you and your company—finding out what kind of help or prescription you need. I will share with you a few thoughts that have worked for me; maybe they'll work for you: "If they don't want you, you don't want them" . . . "When you're not controlling your own destiny, to your own satisfaction, you're out of control" . . . "The toughest decisions have very simple solutions" . . . And finally from the old philosopher of Radio Replay is: "You're in big trouble if the people you work for need a seeing-eye dog to find their thoughts."

MOVES: George Taylor Morris leaves WPIX-FM as PD to join RCA promotion on the west coast. Joe (from Chicago) Piasek is the acting PD . . . Mike Collins returns to WMAL/Washington, D.C. as MD, and on-air weekends . . . Mike Sheridan joins WQAM/Miami from WGBS, doing weekends . . . NBC FM stations appoint general managers: Richard Penn at WKQX-FM/Chicago, John P. Hayes at KYUU-FM/San Francisco, Raymond A. Yorke at WKYS-FM/Washington, D.C. . . . John Bell has been named PD at WDEK/DeKalb from WXRT/Chicago; Shel Lustig is the new production director at WXRT-FM, replacing Bell . . . Ray Waldon leaves KUZN/Monroe as PD; station's new PD is Tommy Thompson . . . WBBF/Rochester is looking for a major market morning person, who's warm, friendly, and funny. Send tapes and resume to 95/BBF selection committee, 850 Midtown Tower, Rochester, N.Y. 14604 . . . Portia at RW west reports: KWST-FM/Los Angeles has made some on-air changes, hiring Phil Hendrie from WSHE/Miami, Steve Downes, former PD at WYDD/Pittsburgh, Frank Bennett from KNAC/Long Beach, Digby Welsh from KGB-FM/San Diego. Commenting on the changes, programming consultant Tom Yates said: "The changes in the air staff are the final major components in assembling a totally unique sound in Southern California radio" . . . Send your moves, changes and station's pictures to either Portia RW west or in the east to Neil (I'm saving Cleveland two at a time) McIntyre.

Then he gets into a series of Guyana jokes, for Chrissake ("Future gold in Guyana this week: 'Bungle in the Jungle' . . . immediate phones!!!"), Tammy Wynette ("her new single will be 'K-I-D-N-A-P'"), and even sexist jokes ("New format: GOR . . . Gynecology Oriented Rock. Records in power rotation: 'Soon Come' from the album 'Bush Doctor' by Peter Tosh . . ."). And that's not to mention some inane sports (like an "imaginary hockey team" with players like Remy Martin, Yves St. Laurent and "Potatoes" Au Gratin). Oh yeah, you might learn a thing or two about Sire artists, too (Keep it up, Marc, you're keepin' 'em in stitches) . . . Playboy Enterprises sent us an interesting little missive not long ago which lists some of the pop tunes that have mentioned Hugh Hefner, his bunnies and magazines in their lyrics. Bet you didn't know, or at least have forgotten, that Bob Dylan wrote a tune called "Playboys and Playgirls," or that Phil Ochs mentions the mag in his classic "Outside a Small Circle of Friends." But they can't top a song called "Playboy, Sex is Not a Toy," which is charitably described as "not a threat to sweep songwriting awards;" with a lyric like "Oh dear Playboy, Oh dear Playboy, you were meant for all the men folk to enjoy, but their wives will berate you, and the censors they will hate you, 'cause in this fair country Sex is Not a Toy," we can't imagine why.

MORE: Aynsley Dunbar will be replacing John Barbata in the Jefferson Starship, with Barbata apparently too banged up from his recent car crash to even consider playing for a while . . . Stix Hooper of the Crusaders was married to Marcy Dockery on December 2 in Chicago; ceremony performed by Rev. Jesse Jackson . . . Helen Reddy and Glen Campbell, Capitol artists both, will host Dick Clark's American Music Awards on January 12 (the TV show will be on NBC). Natalie Cole has been nominated for three awards in the soul category; best female artist, best soul single (for "Our Love") and best album (for "Thankful") . . . Recording: Evelyn "Champagne" King, Lemon, Robert Guillaume (from "Soap") and Bahama Mama at Secret Sound in N.Y.; Timmy Dulaine at the Record Plant in L.A., produced by ELO's Richard Tandy.

UA Music Names Gilmer N'ville VP

■ NASHVILLE — Jimmy Gilmer, United Artists Music publishing's professional staffer, has been named vice president/Nashville operations. Gilmer's promotion to vice president of the publishing organization was announced from the company's Los Angeles headquarters by Harold Seider, president of United Artists Music.

Jimmy Gilmer

Gilmer is a former musician who headed his own band. He originally joined the UA staff in Nashville in 1970, left briefly to serve with Tree International, and returned as the Nashville professional manager of UA Music in 1974. Under his direction, a regional songwriter development program has been implemented with a number of major successes. Richard Leigh, writer of the award winning country song, "Don't It Make My Brown Eyes Blue," is the most recent writer to emerge from the program. Among the other current UA staff writers out of Nashville are Allan Chapman, Milton Blackford, Jeff Tweel, Jonathan Lee, and Dee Moeller.

New Offices

Gilmer and the UA Nashville staff are now located at 1013 Sixth Avenue South, and these new premises were recently acquired on a long-term lease basis.

New Heads of Country Operations Plan Steady Growth, Continuity in '79

By WALTER CAMPBELL

■ NASHVILLE—If there is anything in common among the sights set for the new year by the three newly appointed Nashville operations label heads, it is an emphasis on continuity and steady progress, rather than any dramatic shifts in direction. Autonomy was a key word being discussed in Nashville going into 1978, but in many instances talk has shifted to working to build what is already set up and simply sell more records.

"There has been so much said about autonomy in Nashville, but not matter who is calling the shots, the main objective is to sell phonograph records," said Lynn Shults, newly appointed divisional vice president of Nashville operations for Capitol Records. "It makes sense that when a country record starts to cross over to pop listeners that the pop people run with it, whether they are in L. A., New York or wherever, because that is their area of expertise."

Shults said no immediate changes were in the offing at Capitol, but hinted that more of the label's country operations would be centered in Nashville. "There will also be pop people working out of here, and pop artists recording here, but that is really nothing new. They have been for some time. Nashville is doing better than ever right now as a music center, and it seems to me the best approach is not to make proclamations, but just to keep improving in all aspects," he noted. "We are operating as an office of Capitol Records, period. This year will be a year of adjustment here in Nashville. We intend to consolidate as many different ideas and philosophies as we can and really go after marketing, merchandising and selling records."

Not surprisingly, Jerry Seabolt, Shults' successor at United Artists in Nashville has similar views. UA's operations are centered in Los Angeles as much as any major label with a Nashville office, "but it's working better than ever," Seabolt said. "Just look at Kenny Rogers and Crystal Gayle, both of whom live and record in Nashville, and all our artists for that matter. Charlie Minor (UA vice president of promotion) is committed to country as are Artie Mogull and Jerry Rubinstein, so we have no problem."

As for the Nashville operations under his direction, the main emphasis of Seabolt's work is first quarter releases by nearly all of UA's country artists. "There will be no drastic changes here," he said. "The only difference is that I am in charge of this office, but I am also retaining my responsibilities as national country promotion director. My main priority is to keep the operation running smoothly and make progress. I am streamlining the operation somewhat in that I am delegating more responsibility to others in the office, especially Hyllon Hawkins, and I am fortunate that we already have high caliber people here."

Jimmy Bowen, who left MCA and joined Elektra/Asylum to head the Nashville operations in late 1978, also emphasized a more subdued approach. "We're adding a couple of regional promo-

In another NBC film feature, "Amateur Night," slated next Monday night, Tanya Tucker makes her acting debut. Tanya plays a singer named Sharon who is overcome by stagefright when it comes time for her to perform—an experience that has never happened to the 20-year-old Tanya in her more than 20 year professional career. RCA artist Dotsy was with her producer Roy Dea recently when Waylon Jennings dropped by. Waylon heard them discussing material for her upcoming session in the studio, and told them he had written a song that she might want to hear. The result is Dotsy's newest single,

PICKS OF THE WEEK

SINGLE MEL TILLIS, "SEND ME DOWN TO TUCSON" (prod.: Jimmy Bowen) (writers: C. Crofford/T. Garrett) (Peso/Malkyle, BMI) (3:35). Another release from the Clint Eastwood film "Every Which Way But Loose" comes from Tillis this time, and on MCA. The feel is relaxed and smooth, continuing his slightly MOR-flavored style. The flip side, "Charlie's Angel," is worth a listen. MCA 40983.

SLEEPER SCOTT SUMMER, "FLIP SIDE OF TODAY" (prod.: Bill Walker) (writer: S. Summer) (Con Brio, BMI) (2:52). Summer employs an "Outlaw" style tempo to provide momentum and punch to this self-penned story of independence. A steel guitar kicks in after the first verse, joined by a harp and some electric guitar picking for a strong, full sound. Con Brio 146.

ALBUM JERRY LEE LEWIS AND FRIENDS, "DUETS." It doesn't say who The Killer's "friends" are in this collection of duets, so the identity of that regal voice accompanying Jerry Lee on the Sun label remains a question. Whoever that is with him, these old tracks are quality versions of several genuine classics, including "Sweet Little Sixteen," "C. C. Rider," "What'd I Say" and "Good Golly Miss Molly." Sun 1011.

Music City Song Festival Set

■ NASHVILLE — Mick Lloyd, president of Mick Lloyd Music and Mick Lloyd Productions, has announced the formation of Music City Songs, Ltd., created to operate a country music song competition known as "Music City Song Festival" (MCSF). The MCSF will solicit amateur songwriters, lyricists and vocal performers to compete annually in their respective categories.

Based in Nashville, headquarters for the MCSF will be at 1014 16th Ave. S., with offices to officially open Jan. 15. A national advertising program utilizing leading country music publications and radio stations is scheduled to begin this week.

The Music City Song Festival will award competition winners in the categories of song competition, in which the grand prize winner will receive $10,000 and the opportunity of having the winning song recorded for a record release; lyric competition, in which the winner will receive $7,500; and vocal performance competition, in which the winner will receive $1,500.

Awards will also go to a second, third and 25 fourth prize winners in each category. And 100 "honorable mention" winners in each of the three categories will receive a certificate of merit.

Entries to the competition will be accepted no later than Aug. 15. Final judges will consist of ten FICAP disc jockeys, including Mike Burger, current FICAP president and WHOO Orlando program director, as well as Merlin Littlefield, deputy director of the Nashville office of ASCAP; Vincent Candilora, director of writer affiliation at SESAC, New York; Maggie Cavender, executive director of Nashville Songwriters Association International; and Georgia Twitty, executive director of FICAP. Preliminary judges, all from the Nashville music community, will include publishers, producers, writers, artists, session musicians and record company personnel, according to Lloyd.

The directors of MCSF are Lloyd, Scott Spinka and Roy Sinkovich. Alison Brockman will serve as administrative assistant.

PBS To B'cast Live Opry Show

■ NASHVILLE — The Grand Ole Opry will be offered to public broadcasting stations around the country via the Public Broadcasting Service (PBS) on March 3, it was announced by WDCN-TV/8, the public television station in Nashville, and WSM, Inc., producer of the 53-year-old Grand Ole Opry radio show.

The live broadcast, which will encompass two full Grand Ole Opry shows beginning at 7 p.m. that Saturday night, will kick off public television's Festival '79, 16 days of special programming.

The broadcast will be the second live coverage of the Opry. The first broadcast, in March '78, drew one of public television's largest single audiences and brought letters asking for more from music fans around the country.

"Live From The Grand Ole Opry" will be produced by WSM, Inc., and presented through the Public Broadcasting Service by WDCN-TV. The Nashville station will coordinate broadcast arrangements with PBS and public television stations around the country, and produce a series of background pieces on the Opry and its performers.

Country Single Picks

COUNTRY SONG OF THE WEEK

MARGO SMITH—Warner Bros. 8726

STILL A WOMAN (prod.: Norro Wilson) (writers: M. Smith/M. David/N. Wilson) (Galamar/Dusty Roads/Al Gallico, BMI/Easy Listening, ASCAP) (3:27)

Smith and producer Norro Wilson try a new approach with a modified disco beat, although the lyrics are very much in the country vein. Her vocal performance also remains consistent, sounding especially strong on the chorus.

DAVE & SUGAR—RCA PB-11427

GOLDEN TEARS (prod.: Jerry Bradley & Dave Rowland) (writer: J. Schweers) (Chess, ASCAP) (2:28)

Dave & Sugar continue their style of recent past releases utilizing harmonies and trading verses and lines. The sound is a little more polished, though, with precisely placed strings and a solid rhythm track.

JOHNNY CASH—Columbia 3-10888

I WILL ROCK AND ROLL WITH YOU (prod.: Larry Butler) (writer: J. R. Cash) (House of Cash, BMI) (2:50)

Cash's latest release delves into some of the earlier developments of rock and roll, specifically the days of Sun Records in Memphis. The progression is lively with some classic guitar licks illustrating the story.

TOM T. HALL—RCA PB-11453

SON OF CLAYTON DELANEY (prod.: Roy Dea & Tom T. Hall) (writer: T. T. Hall) (Hallnote, BMI) (2:52)

Hall weaves another story in his distinctive style, this time using a brisk style with a touch of rock and roll to go with the lyrics and singing with a more animated, slightly higher pitched sound.

RONNIE McDOWELL—Scorpion 0569

HE'S A COWBOY FROM TEXAS (prod.: Slim Williamson) (writer R. McDowell) (Brim, SESAC) (2:29)

McDowell takes on a new sound with this single, picking up the pace and changing the subject. Well-produced strings accentuate the melody as a steady bass maintains momentum.

TOM GRANT—Republic 036

IF YOU COULD SEE YOU THROUGH MY EYES (prod.: Dave Burgess) (writers: L. Henley/J. Hurt) (House of Gold, BMI) (3:45)

Grant's debut single on Republic is a mellow love ballad sung with plenty of feeling. Accompaniment is full but simple with background singers, strings and a piano lending support.

BARBARA WALKER—Silver Wheels 1002

THE LEAST YOU COULD HAVE DONE (prod.: Al Delory) (writers: F. Coffey/B. Walker) (Esenet, BMI) (2:54)

Walker sings this haunting tune with a clear, almost delicate sound to effectively convey the lyrics of lost love. Vocals are out front with a steel guitar adding a subtle touch.

DALE McBRIDE—Con Brio 145

IT'S HELL TO KNOW SHE'S HEAVEN (prod.: Bill Walker) (writers: M. Kossler/J. Hsieh) (Con Brio, BMI) (2:39)

McBride's laest single is a solid country cry-in-your-beer song the title of which is self-explanatory. All the elements are there, including a steel guitar and lonesome-sounding harmonica, to make this a success.

■ SALE TALK: There's lots of big station sale talk going around this week—or should it be phrased "station sale big talk!" Some details aren't available yet—but here's what we've got: one station has agreed to sell, one station goes up for bid this week, and one station has not been sold.

Bluegrass Broadcasting has agreed in principal to sell WINN, Louisville, according to Max Rein, station general manager, who will be leaving that post when the sale is approved. "An agreement in principal has been reached between Kentucky Central Broadcasting (which is WINN, a subsidiary of Bluegrass Broadcasting, a subsidiary of Kentucky Central Life Insurance), and Whatever's Fair, Inc. for the purchase of WINN. Whatever's Fair, Inc. is WQHI-FM, Louisville, an automated Q format. No format or personnel changes are in store except for me—I will remain with Bluegrass Broadcasting after the Whatever's approved by the FCC and is final."

Nothing new yet on the sale of WHN, New York, by Storer Broadcasting. According to Nick Verbitsky, station vice president and general manager, the station isn't technically up for sale until Jan. 5, so any reports on bids at this time would be premature.

Word was out that KAYO, Seattle, was possibly being sold, but no sale has been made, according to Jessica Longston, station manager and principal stockholder. Longston reports the station will continue to operate as is. Meanwhile, here's an update on the executive staff. Chris Carpenter moved up to PD in addition to the MD post, since Ben Peyton left to take over programming responsibilities at WJEZ-FM, as reported in this column last week. Production manager is Gary Mitchell.

MOVES: Jerry Coleman has left KLLL, Lubbock, after ten years with the station, according to MD Mike Corbin. Coleman was most recently KLLL's morning man. Reason for the departure is to pursue other business interests . . . KCKN, Kansas City, welcomes new sales manager Neil Maberry from WUBE, Cincinnati . . . Fred Sanders returns to the overnight trucker show (midnight-6 a.m.) at WMAQ, Chicago, after a six month absence.

ETC.: WDEN-FM air personality Danny Tallent was arrested on the air recently "for being a nuisance to the public airwaves"—as part of a publicity stunt to raise funds for charity. And here's the stunt part—the listening audience was not told of the joke for an hour after it happened. According to station PD/MD Aaron Bowers, a local sheriff came in during Danny's afternoon shift, arrested him, and escorted him out of the studio, leaving ten seconds of dead air. Then different announcers filled in for the rest of Danny's show, asking listeners to call in with "bail money." Later, listeners were told of the hoax and that the funds would go to charity. According to Bowers, the stunt was a success as a fund raiser—anyone care to do call outs for listener reaction to that one?

Jay Hoffer, PD at KERE, Denver, reports a successful turnout for the recent station "Record Reject Party." Among record industry folks attending were Don Peterson, MCA, and Jerry Grady, Mercury.

KVWO, Cheyenne, plans to start taping more phone interviews with recording artists, according to night-time DJ Paula Kelly. Paula recently did an interview with Freddy Weller, which received outstanding response and was aired twice in one week.

Here's a new line-up at WWOK: Mike Phillips, midnight-6 a.m.; George Means, 6-10 a.m.; Bob Abel, 10-3; PD/MD Jim Richards, 3-7; Randy Daniels, 7-midnight; and part-timers J. P. Slater, Steve Morgan, Tim Watts, Toni Crabtree (programming assistant).

Chris Taylor, PD, KYNN, Omaha, is beginning to put together a country airstaff for KYNN's FM station.

tion directors who will be reporting to this office, but we'll be going a lot slower than we were at MCA," he said. "It's a matter of building, not correcting or fixing. We have a fairly small operation here, and we're going to gradually build it. We're listening to all kinds of music here, but our main focus here is country."

"Tryin' To Satisfy You," in which Ol' Waylon plays guitar and sings along with Dotsy. Her very first single, by the way, was "Storm Never Last," written by Jessi Colter, Waylon's wife.

Delbert McClinton, main man for New York, N.Y. scribes as well as a number of other RW personnel, is scheduled for an appearance on NBC Saturday Night Live in 1979.

Nashville Report's nominee for "most eye-catching" Christmas card: The one from Louise Mandrell. Such legs! . . . Actor James Caan purchased motion picture rights to Bobby Goldsboro's "The Cowboy and the Dandy" song and plans to star in and produce a movie based on the song. (Bobby once rewrote the lyrics so that Dolly Parton could record it as "The Cowgirl and the Dandy" for RCA, and there has been some scuttlebutt that Dolly will play the Cowgirl in the Caan film. I doubt it.)

Kenny Rogers, who has worn a beard for 12 years, shaved it off at Christmas, so that his wife, "Hee Haw" regular Marianne Gordon, could see what he looked like without whiskers. The clean-shaven look isn't for long. Kenny already is letting the beard sprout again.

Larry Gatlin, whose recent two-weeker (with Anne Murray) at Las Vegas' Alladin Hotel drew rave reviews, sang the National Anthem Jan. 1 before the Cotton Bowl game between Notre Dame and Houston. (Gatlin is an alumnus of U. of Houston—and no doubt was sitting on the bench with the varsity?)

Meanwhile Larry, who enjoyed his best year ever in 1978, will appear on CBS-TV's "Entertainer of the Year" 2-hour special (promoted by AVGA) Wednesday, Jan. 10. (Dolly Parton won the award as entertainer in the country music category) . . . In listing country music's most well-adjusted married couples pencil in Ronnie and Joyce Milsap near the top. Joyce explains secret of their obvious happiness: "Ronnie and I both maintain our sense of humor about life and situations—and that can be a real lifesaver in any marriage." (Georgia-born Joyce has been wed to Ronnie since the lean days when she helped him haul his musical equipment to and from shows in their battered VW.)
