WEA Holland Names Bunders

AMSTERDAM—Ben Bunders, who has been managing director of WEA Spain for the past three years, will take over as president of PolyGram Holland on Aug. 15. He replaces Henk Hoksbergen, the company's head man here since 1981, who is taking a top management role with Philips in the Far East.

Initially a journalist, Bunders, 44, joined the record business in 1968 and was later an a&r executive for Philips Phonographic Industries, later Phonogram International, signing such international acts as Vicky Leandros, Demis Roussos and Barry White.

In 1975, he became managing director first of the then-new WEA Holland, then of the merged WEA Benelux operation. Until 1981, he was a director of Record Service Benelux (RSB), the distribution firm jointly set up by WEA and Ariola in Benelux. Since last July, RSB has handled PolyGram repertoire in Holland.

Bunders has also been on the board of the WEA record plant in Alsdorf, West Germany, and founded the Warner Bros. Holland music publishing arm, Warner Home Video (Holland) and the Benelux branch of Atari.

Talent Unions In U.K. Sign New Video Pact

LONDON—Commercial television companies here have secured a new talent union agreement which will allow them to market broadcast programs on videocassette. The deal follows a year of negotiation after the expiration of a previous pact, involving a committee of the Independent TV Companies' Assn. and representatives of the Musicians' Union and the actors' union Equity.

Under the new agreement, Equity members will receive an initial payment of 25% of their original fee when a video is released, to be repeated when net revenues exceed $40,000 and thereafter for every $27,000 of net revenue. Musicians' Union members will get 15% of their highest paid session, repeated with increasing revenue on the same lines as the Equity agreement.

Walk-on actors get a single non-repeatable payment of $7, and musical arrangers engaged on a different basis from Musicians' Union members will get $27 initially and a further $13.50 when revenues exceed $40,000.
