FORMER NBC SOURCE vice president/general manager Meredith "Meddy" Woodyard resurfaces at RKO Radio Networks as vice president and director of affiliate services. Woodyard left her Source post last June and fills the RKO spot vacated by Ken Harris, who stepped down last August. The network's new programming director is Gary Landis, a three-year RKO staffer recently upped from manager of programming.

THE RADIO INTERNATIONAL folks are polishing up their party shoes and preparing to go dancing on the air with the January debut of "Dance Music International," a program hosted and produced by radio veteran, rap master and song scribe Gary Byrd. The hour-long weekly program, a product of Byrd's newly formed WGBE Productions, will be syndicated by New York-based Radio International, home of "Rock Over London" and "PFM's Guest DJ."

The program is designed to keep listeners up to date on the dance music scene on a global scale and features artist interviews, remastered classics and special club mixes from DJs around the world.

Other news from Radio International includes a promotional arrangement with Sony Video 45s whereby 100 copies of David Bowie's "Jazzin' For Blue Jean" mini-movie/clip will be given away to winners of the ongoing "Rock Over London" Bowie trivia quiz, which ends next week.

The Associated Press Network rings in the new year with a series of four-and-a-half-minute programs devoted to middle-aged and elderly women. Entitled "To Life," the Monday through Friday show debuts Jan. 7 and will cover such topics as careers, parent care, age and sex discrimination, as well as a spotlight on contemporary role model women.

In addition, AP reports reaching the 400 figure on the number of subscribers for its AP Newspower 1200 service with the signing up of KBYR Anchorage, Alaska.

ABC Contemporary Network is now in the midst of an elaborate, three-part special on the currently touring Daryl Hall & John Oates. Part one is an hour-long music and interview special available for airing prior to concerts in each tour city. Part two passed Sunday (2) with a 45-minute phone-in program during which the RCA act fielded listener questions and announced new tour dates. Part three airs Dec. 18 with a satellite-delivered live broadcast of Hall & Oates' Forum show in Los Angeles.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING giving you the budgetary blues? Try spelling relief London Wavelength this season and tune into the syndicator's December series of concert broadcasts. The series started Sunday (2) with a Kinks show recorded in 1978 and will be followed with a Dec. 9 Jethro Tull concert. The next week, London Wavelength presents "Beatles' Christmas Special," a two-hour special featuring music, fan club messages and BBC interviews with the Fab Four. The series culminates with "Salute To The 80's," an hour's look at the best of the "BBC Rock Hour" during the first half of this decade.
